

FREDERICK SLAYING IS ADMITTED BY TWO YOUTHS

Members of Gang Which Had Terrorized Merchants; Murder
Weapon Is Found

The murder of Frank A. Frederick of 134 Hornblower avenue was cleared up four weeks after it occurred when the alleged killers were picked up in a gun chase in Irvington Saturday. The two youths who are said to have confessed to the shooting are August Buhrig, twenty-two, of 50 1st street, Newark, and Earl Rost, nineteen, of 42 East Dickerson street, Dover. They were members of a gang which has admitted at least twenty-five robberies thus far, police said.

Buhrig, Rost and two other youths were captured after a wild ride through the main streets of Irvington after they had allegedly held up Ermeste Capone in a drug store there. They got away in a car but Capone called police and, in the ensuing chase, the boys were halted by a bullet fired by an Irvington cop into the tire of their car.

The captured youths at first accused each other of firing the fatal shot but, police said, Buhrig finally broke down and said he did it. Frederick was shot May 5 while he was playing shuffleboard in Ye Olde Valley Tavern in Holmes street. He died two days later, leaving his wife and eight children. Five other members of the gang, which is supposed to have taken part in what police characterized as one of the most audacious stories of youthful crime in this area in years, were taken into custody.

Robbed Old Woman

It had been expected that the youths would be brought to Belleville Monday afternoon for arraignment but "something else entered the picture" and they did not appear. Next day it appeared that the "something else" was the confession of John Buhrig, seventeen, brother of August, that he was the boy who snatched the purse of an elderly lady in Montclair last January. He knocked her down and she suffered a heart attack. She died eleven days later.

Captain Elmer Leighton of the local police, who was one of the chief investigators of the Frederick murder, said the gang also admitted holding up Salvatore Leto of 282 North Belmont avenue the day before the local slaying. Leto was working at Radio Diner at 63 Main street when the bandits robbed it of $38.

Gun Found By Spatz

Belleville police led the search of a field in Livingston Spnday looking for the murder gun. Chief Spatz found it, rusty and mutilated. The youths had attempted to destroy it with a hacksaw, gave that up and tried to melt it. The only part remaining when it was found was the bent barrel and part of the stock.

NEW EQUIPMENT FOR POLICE

$5,000 Emergency Appropriation
Okayed By Board; To Organize Home Guard

A resolution calling for the issuance of a $5,000 emergency note for the Police Department was passed by the Board of Commissioners Tuesday night. The money will be used for police equipment and training and will be included in the 1941 budget.

The resolution stated that "an emergency has arisen in respect to the following: there are not sufficient funds to provide equipment and supplies in the Police Department and in the Department of Public Safety. This is essential in view of the conditions which have arisen since the making of the 1940 budget."

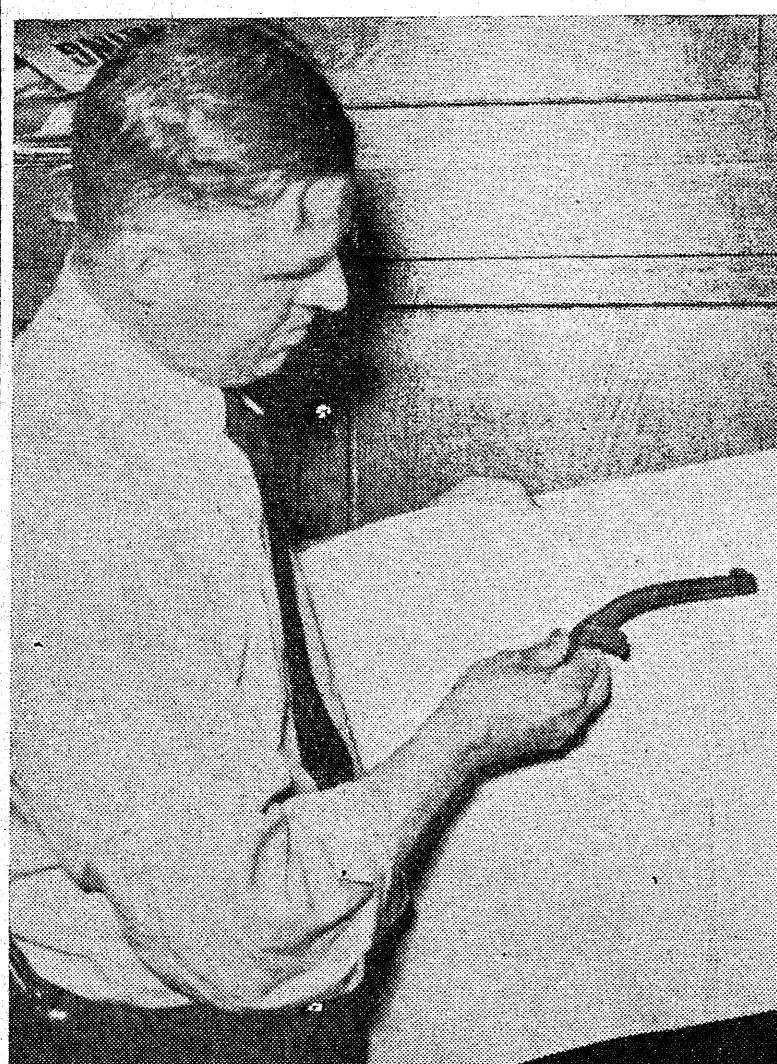

While there is considerable thought of foreign elements and the situation in Europe behind the move, the prime purpose is to arm the Police Department with the latest and most modern equipment. Included in the items which will be purchased are forty of the latest type revolvers, forty-four of the new iron-claw handcuffs, a new police car with searchlight, and other modern equipment, a photostatic-copying machine, tear gas, guns and rifles. It will also buy ammunition for target practice.

Auxiliary Police Force

An "auxiliary police force" of 150 to 200 members of the local posts of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars is being organized. They will be under the jurisdiction of Police Chief Spatz and will be used "in case of emergency."

This home guard will number as many men as possible who work as well as live in Belleville. They will be men "accustomed to the use of guns" because of their World War I experience and ammunition for their target practice will be bought by part of the $5,000 bond.

Gun That Killed Frederick

Patrolman John Monaghan is shown at police headquarters with the mutilated revolver with which youthful August Buhrig has admitted to police he fatally wounded Frank Frederick, lunchwagon proprietor, during the holdup of a local tavern early in May. The gun was found in a woods near Livingston on Sunday by local police. The youth admitted throwing it there after having failed in an attempt to destroy it.

Italy Was Outwardly Calm About Two Weeks Ago

Aloysius Welsh, Who Was Studying There For Priesthood, Says Rome Was No Different From
What It Had Been For Three Years

Rome two weeks ago was outwardly as calm as any large American city and showed no bustle which might presage Italy's declaration of war upon the Allies. That was the picture there May 30 when Aloysius Welsh of 156 Washington avenue left to return to his native Belleville after three years in the Eternal City. Mr. Welsh had been studying in the North American College and the Gregorian University there preparatory to his ordination to the priesthood. The college was closed when the outbreak of hostilities seemed evident and he returned on the liner Manhattan which docked in New York on Monday with 1,907 Americans fleeing the war zone.

"Rome was no different than it has been for the three years I was there," he said Tuesday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Welsh, who is custodian of the Town Hall. "There were a few marching troops and many uniforms in evidence, but the Fascists always wear their uniforms and we were quite accustomed to the sight."

Rome has been assured by the Allies that it would not be bombed because of the sacredness of the Vatican and other holy places there. Some influx there "For a reason," Mr. Welsh said, "there was some influx of persons from other parts of Italy but not in great numbers as yet. The Italians are enthusiastic about their form of government for themselves and about Il Duce, but they say nothing of its external manifestations, of its relationships to other nations." The latter comment was in response to a question about the feelings of the people about the alliance with Germany.

The Manhattan was stopped for only thirteen minutes at Gibraltar and was not searched by the British contraband control. No other ship was sighted until the boat reached Ambrose Light. It was at this gateway to America that the refugees first heard of Il Duce's declaration of war.

Mr. Welsh was due for ordination in December but it is expected that this may be delayed because of the interruption of his studies. He will remain in Belleville until he receives further orders from the bishop. Before going to Rome he had studied at St. Benedict's Prep, Seton Hall College and the Immaculate Conception Seminary at Darlington.

Dailey Reads Paper Discussing Government At Rotary

At the weekly meeting of the Rotary Club at the Forest Hill Country Club yesterday John P. Dailey read a paper provided by Martin F. Tiernan on "The Free Enterprise System of America." It compared the totalitarian government and the democracy. The paper also compared the standards of living between the two types of government. "Democracy," it said, "has become a beacon of light for other nations; but when, however, the nation steps into individual enterprise there's likely to be the opposite of progress."

In addition, a sound film was shown entitled "The Fight for Freedom." Lowell Thomas was the narrator.

JERGENS AND P.S. DIFFER ON POLES TO BE USED

Public Service For Wooden
Ones, But Company Demands
They Be of Steel

The question of lighting on North Sixth street near the new Jergens Company plant popped up again at the commission meeting Tuesday night. Public Service has notified the board that it will not erect steel poles there. Jergens has already said that it will not permit wooden poles. How the problem will be solved the commission did not say.

The bid of $5,500 of South Orange Gardens Inc. for the purchase of town-owned property at 64-64 Continental avenue was withdrawn on the agreement of the company and the town. The commissioners have said they wished that the site be used for garden-type apartments. When the company abandoned that idea in favor of single-family dwellings, the sale was rejected.

Recorder Given Latitude
Recorder Smith was given "the widest latitude" in dealing with violators of the town garbage collecting contracts. It is understood that collections have been made by other persons than those actually under contract to the town.

James J. Dunn was appointed acting tax searcher to replace Edward King from June 24 to July 13 while the latter is away on National Guard field training duty.

The police report for the month of May submitted to the commission showed a total of 170 motor vehicle violations of which 114 were for speeding, seventeen arrests for crime and town violations and five for other causes.

FLAG DESTROYERS HELD FOR JURY

Bergen Youths Are Charged
With Damaging G.A.R.'s
Memorial To Sailors

Lawrence Burns, twenty-two, of North Arlington and Albert Stuhler, twenty-three, of Lyndhurst were given a hearing before Recorder Smith Friday morning on charges brought by Police Chief Spatz of mutilating a United States Flag. They were paroled in the custody of their lawyer, Judge James Murphy of Irvington, to await Grand Jury action.

According to witnesses, the action of the youths which caused their arrest occurred Memorial Day morning during services at the Rutgers Street Bridge. Members of the Henry Vreeland Relief Corps, G. A. R., had placed a floral raft supporting an American flag on the waters of the Passaic River in memory of sailors who had fallen in action.

It is charged that Burns and Stuhler, riding in a motorboat, picked up the raft with a boat-hook, broke the flag from it and overturned the raft. They were arrested later by Spatz.

Writes Hartley, Dies
Mrs. Ruth Fredericks of 33 Montgomery place, past department president of the state G. A. R. auxiliary and present patriotic instructor of the Vreeland Corps, said Tuesday that she had also referred the matter to Congressman Hartley and to the Dies Committee. Hartley wrote her:

"I was indeed shocked to learn of the incident referred to (in your letter). Anyone guilty of such a deed is entitled to the fullest prosecution of the law. Rest assured I shall have the matter investigated."

Veterans Urge Formation Of Protection Units

Private Geo. A. Younginger Post Adopts Resolution
Urging Big Defensive Program And Preparation
Against Warfare And The Fifth Column

Private George A. Younginger Post No. 275, Veterans of Foreign Wars, came out strongly this week for a highly intensified program of national defense "in this time of emergency." In a resolution released by the post, the United States is called upon "to prepare to defend itself against recent methods of warfare" and against the Fifth Column within its borders. Copies of the resolution were sent to New Jersey's Senators and Congressmen at Washington, to Governor Moore, to Mayor Williams, to Belleville Post No. 105 of the American Legion and to the state and national organizations as follows:

"Be it resolved that, inasmuch as recent developments in Europe prove that the American ways of living are definitely threatened unless the United States of America is prepared to defend itself against recent methods of warfare including enemies within its borders, the members of Younginger Post, urge that our government use every lawful means at their disposal, in its effort to provide unquestioned security and we pledge ourselves to aid in every possible way to that end."

"We believe that the one thought that should now dominate the minds and lives of all our loyal citizens, either male or female, is to build a defense system that is as nearly impregnable as is practical and to proceed to do so at the highest speed possible. The Units of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Units of other National Recognized Veterans' Organizations are well organized and exist in every State and County in the United States, we believe they can be of great service and would respond to any call for services in this emergency excepting labor disputes."

"Establish Protection Units. Inasmuch as it has been found necessary elsewhere to establish Local Protection Units, with military training throughout the world."

GROWTH OF 4TH WARD GREATEST

Census Bureau Figures Put Its Population At 9,478; D'Avella
Raps Criticisms

The Fourth Ward has shown the greatest increase in population during the past ten years, according to figures released yesterday by Malcolm H. Laws and Thomas C. D'Avella of the U. S. Census Bureau. The population for the town was announced last week as 28,059.

According to Laws and D'Avella, the Fourth Ward has 9,478 inhabitants, the largest in Belleville. The ward includes Silver Lake, Belwood Park, Soho and the Third River sections—all of the town west of Garden avenue, Jerusalem street and Passaic avenue.

The figures for the other wards are: First, 4,436; Second, 7,039; Third, 7,106. No actual figures by ward in the 1930 census were available.

Raps Scarehead Yarns

"The final announcement should put to rest the scarehead criticisms which greeted previous newspaper stories of a drop to 24,000 in Belleville's population," D'Avella said yesterday. "Those stories were premature and based on somebody's guess, not on any figures of ours because we had not yet completed the Belleville count. The newspapers which guessed 24,000 guessed wrong and the persons who hotly attacked the census bureau for something they knew nothing about went off half-cocked."

PETREANS URGE BILL'S PASSAGE

Measure Provides For Transportation Of Parochial Pupils
Without Charge

Passage of the legislative bill providing free bus transportation for parochial school children was urged in a resolution Tuesday night by the Petrean Club of Belleville and sent to the Judiciary Committee of the Legislature in Trenton.

The club will attend mass at St. Peter's Church and receive communion June 23 for the cause of world peace. The following Sunday, June 30, the club will hold its first annual picnic.

William J. Brady, Petrean president, announced the following appointments Tuesday: Grace Kiser, chairman of entertainment; Greta M. Kinnealy, dramas; James A. Leonard, publicity; William Liebau, ushers; Ann Boylan, sick committee.

The resolution urged the committee to bring the bill out for a vote on the grounds that "parochial school children are entitled to the same privileges as public school children," that Catholics pay their share of taxes of the public school buses, that the bill appoints no particular religious denomination "but is a direct benefit to the child only," that the parochial schools relieve the state of a tax burden, that "our system is comparable to that afforded by public institutions" and that in addition "we give our children a religious teaching which we believe to be essential, particularly during such times as we are now going through with Godless rampant throughout the world."

Big Parade Precedes Flag Day Services Tomorrow Night

Hyde, an invitation to give the principal address tomorrow night.

MAYOR AND NOLL HAVE IT OUT AT CAUCUS

The News Is In The Middle
On Allegations; Noll Asks
Williams For Proof

Mayor Williams and Commissioner Noll blazed away at each other Tuesday night at the Commission conference in one of the fiercest verbal tiffs of the year to date. Williams accused Noll and The Belleville News of attempting to plot the course of the 1942 commission election two years ahead of time. Noll hotly denied the Mayor's allegations and demanded proof.

The battle began when Noll asked the Mayor: "Where were you today, Bill, I was looking for you." "It's nobody's business where I was," Williams replied. "I put in ten and more hours a day working for this municipality and the only thanks I get is to have people talk about me behind my back."

When Noll asked for an explanation of the remark, the Mayor charged that the '42 campaign had been started last Friday night when Noll "and Mr. Duval of The Belleville News met in the Elks Club and agreed on who is to make up the personnel of this board in 1942."

"You cannot prove that statement," Mr. Mayor," the Commissioner replied. "You are not going to make me the target of your accusations without proof. Let us hear exactly what was said."

Williams countered with the statement that he had given up hours of his time "to help you make contacts, to help you with recreation and to help you get business."

"And I helped you get elected," Noll countered.

"You have gone around town saying unpleasant things about me," Williams charged. "You have said many unpleasant things about me also. I do not care what people say about me if I am doing my job," Noll answered.

To Williams' accusation that Noll was disturbing the harmony of the board, Noll replied: "You can't accuse me of that. I have gone along with everything that I thought was right."

"I won't stand for people talking about me all over town," said Williams.

"I don't worry about that," Noll replied.

Noll counter-attacked with the charge that he had not been invited to sit in on the caucus of the commissioners which split up the town jobs after the last election, that when the organization meeting took place he was stripped of all powers in the Department of Parks and Public Property.

"I was placed on six months' probation after I entered the board," he declared.

"I know you were, Louie," Williams replied; "that was done because you threatened to blow the lid off Town Hall if you didn't get Public Safety."

Noll denied the charge emphatically: "You can't pin that on me."

"That's all I have to say," Williams finished.

"I don't give a d--- how long you talk," Noll said. "I'm big enough to talk to you any time."

WINIKA SEEKS TRACK DATA

High School Cinder Coach Requests Information On Records

Wilho Winika, high school track mentor, this week issued an appeal to track stars of the past to aid him in compiling school records. No accurate history of the marks set up in different events has been kept during the five-year career of the sport at the Blue and Gold institution.

Winika has studied the records and newspaper files which are available but he has reason to believe that they are not complete. The best standards set up by Bellboy runners and field men, as far as Winika has found so far, are as follows:

100-yard dash—Time: 10.1 sec., set by Harry White against East Side May 7, 1937. Tied by Edward Shavin against Bloomfield May 6, 1938.

220-yard dash—Time: 22.5 sec., set by Edward Holweg against Clifton May 7, 1940.

440-yard dash—Time: 53.3 sec., set by Robert Cooke against South Side May 24, 1938. Indoor record—Time: 52.7 sec., set by Cooke in National Championships, 1938.

Half-mile run—Time: 2 min. 1 sec., set by Ellis Robinson in State Championships of 1921.

1 mile run—Time: 4 min. 57 sec., set by Robert Banger against Bloomfield May 6, 1938.

1 mile relay—Time: 3 min. 36 sec., set by Richard Wood, Charles Holweg, Norman Cortese and Robert Cooke against Bloomfield May 6, 1938.

110-yard low hurdles—Time: 18 sec., set by Daniel Wascoe against Bloomfield May 6, 1938.

220-yard low hurdles—Time: 27.5 sec., set by William Engelman against South Side May 23, 1938. Tied by Wallace Elliott against South Side and Arts High April 26, 1940.

Pole vault—Height: 9 ft. 3 in., set by John Higgins against East Side May 13, 1940.

Broad jump—Distance: 20 ft. 4 1/2 in., set by George McKay against Clifton May 16, 1939.

12-pound shot put—Distance: 49 ft. 1 1/4 in., set by James Hardaway against Irvington June 9, 1937.

Sally Sheridan Says:

(This is one of a series of articles of interest to women. They will include tips on gardening, interior decorating and other household suggestions.)

With June comes showers for the bride-to-be and the question, "What can I give that is distinctive and yet inexpensive?" One answer is set of four hand-made, ashtrays or coasters of heavy aluminum with embossed figures at a dollar. At about this price, there is a one-quart tureen of white French ware that would be handy for buffet suppers. For a dollar and a half you may give a crystal leaf holder with removable glass tubes for fresh flowers for her dinner table. Or, if you prefer to give a very practical gift at this price, what could be more useful than a flash-light damping egg with handle?

Any bride would like an oval toilet tray twenty inches long which comes in several colors with flower print decoration. The price is two dollars. Also at two dollars, there is a dozen of the new glasses with square top and square pedestal base with a crown crest. They will make bread pudding a company dessert. Today the shops are so stocked with attractive but inexpensive articles that it is fun to select a gift for a bride's shower.

You'll have a "picnic" with RYTEX R. F. D. Printed Stationery! It's crafty . . . with paper in a soft tan shade and a "hand-made" appearance. It's clever . . . with amusing little designs in a rich "earthy" brown color and your Name and Address on Sheets and Envelopes. Special for June Only . . . 50 Sheets and 50 Envelopes . . . only $1 cash and carry at The Sun Office, 386 Franklin avenue. —Adv.

Re-Statting Our Position

Some time ago — when we first took over the ownership of this newspaper — we were asked what would be our editorial policy. Perhaps we shocked some people by frankly replying that we had no such thing. But, it's true. Our only pledge at that time was that we would serve the interests of the people of Belleville as we best knew how. That is still our opinion of the job that we have to do and we think that we have gone a long way along the road in accomplishing it.

This newspaper has no axe to grind with any political individual or group. We are under no obligations to abide by the bidding of any faction or "pressure" element. We started with an open mind on all problems and we still are determined that that standard shall be maintained.

This does not mean that we will be trampled upon or bounced around like a rubber ball. We have always felt that it was one of the primary duties of a newspaper to call the shots as seen and interpret the news for the public in the manner it best

Advice To The Graduates

The high school in this community and hundreds of others will send out into life during the next week or so thousands of young boys and girls who have completed their public school training. Many of them will go on to colleges in search of more knowledge about what makes this old world spin around. Some will get jobs and there will be many who will join the ranks of the unemployed.

It is a topsy-turvy, mixed up world that they now face—one violating all of the principles of mankind and humanity which have been such an important part of the instruction of these youngsters. Much of that which they have learned they have seen go a-glimmering before the machines of war during the past few months. History teachers have drilled into them the benefits of democracy and independence. Now they begin to wonder. The hours they crammed to learn the geography of Europe have apparently been wasted.

And, in this country, in a short while they have seen the peaceful atmosphere in which they have grown up swallowed up by a nation-wide spread of preparedness for national defense. There is no more talk of peace, but of whether or not war can be kept from the borders of this nation.

There will be many graduation messages given to these young people. We would not care to be the speaker who must confront them and inspire them to go out and lead the world. That once was good enough to get any speaker through a commencement program. But, young people have changed today. They are well aware of the problems that face their parents and the people in this nation. What to tell them to expect in the future and the part they may play is difficult.

Do They Deserve Mercy

The killers of Frank Frederick have been caught. As was expected, they were fool-hardy youths whose bravado turned to snivelling when faced with the prospect of paying the penalty for their crime. There can be nothing but praise for the alertness of the Irvington police in capturing them. It would be unfair not to say a word for the members of the local department who since the moment that Frederick was shot have devoted countless hours to tracking down many clues in their search for the killers. Upon them will fall a great part of the preparation of the evidence which will convince a jury that the youths are guilty of the crime.

What should the penalty be? We are not the jury but we have our personal opinions and we know that there are hundreds of others in Belleville who do, too. Frank knew how without pulling any punches. We do not intend to be coaxed away from that principle. It may get us in hot water and it may put us in disfavor in some quarters, but in the final analysis we believe that it will be the policy that will achieve for us and our readers the greatest good and satisfaction.

From this editorial nook during the past few months we have commended, condemned, criticized and passed along some idle comment. It has been based on personal opinion, but above all we think that we have maintained an attitude which no one can say is fronting for any individual or group.

This is the personal thought corner. The news columns are for the reporting of the events and activities of the people and organizations in this community as seen and heard by the members of our staff. We believe that in our first six months we have made an earnest effort to do a good job. We will strive to do even better in the same unbiased manner.

Perhaps it is best for commencement orators to deal straight from the shoulder as did President Roosevelt in speaking to the members of the graduating class at the University of Virginia Monday evening. The speech will go down in history and as one of the strongest and most outspoken ever made by the head of a supposedly neutral nation. No commencement address or word of advice to young men about to step out into the world probably can be found which would compare with it. It was the most lively that a traditional but notoriously dull part of collegiate life ever heard.

We could not help, while listening to the President's radio broadcast, comparing the sound effects in the Virginia gymnasium with those heard from Rome six hours before when Mussolini told the world that he was declaring war. Those arising from the crowd listening to Il Duce were only slightly more frenzied than those from the throats of the collegians.

Had the President dared to make that speech several months ago, there would have been cries of treason in Congress and demands for impeachment. But, he fully well knew that he was only following the apparent trend in public opinion when he referred to Mussolini as a "back stabber" and pledged the industrial aid of this nation to the Allies. America's days of absolute neutrality, of a "hands off" policy have ended. We have taken a position from which there is no return.

Somehow, there seems to be something more real to a speech like that to a group of young men about to go out and be bounced around in the world than the erudite hokum which often fills a commencement address.

Frederick was brutally murdered. A widow and eight children were left to fight a hard battle for an existence. Through the humane attitude of many local people they have been temporarily aided, but all of the kindness in the world cannot replace the loss which they have suffered. There is no penalty too serious for this crime.

These young men have now joined the list of others who have learned that crime does not pay. As long as they are free to roam unmolested as they please, robbing and stealing, they are swaggering, bullying braggarts. But, once in the hands of the law, they quickly change. They didn't mean it. They wouldn't do it again, etc. Then it is too late for regrets and when a murder has come as close as this one has to those in Belleville, little sympathy can be expected.

Sight Conservation Class Unusual School Feature

Special Studies For Those Blind Or Suffering From Eye Weakness Prove Valuable; Educational Project Is Now Two Years Old

A week from tomorrow when Belleville's grade schools officially close, the Sight Conservation Class of the school system will complete its second year and will mark the date by sending another pupil back to regular classes. She will be the second whose eyesight has improved sufficiently to warrant leaving the conservation class.

The unique institution has been one of the pet hobbies of Superintendent of Schools Parmer since its foundation. It is taught by Miss Evelyn Pleister and is conducted in School No. 8 of which Miss Viola S. Broadbent is principal.

Coming to the conclusion that money could be saved by holding classes here for pupils either blind or with poor eyesight and that the children would receive just as good an education, the project was begun in the fall of 1938. The blind and those whose sight is extremely weak are taught by use of books with over-size print. The basic principle of the class is to save and preserve sight whenever possible, to teach the children to use their other faculties when it is not.

Some Recover Vision

After spending a year or two in the class, some of the children, because they have stopped putting severe strain on their eyes, have recovered normal vision to such an extent that they are able to leave the class and return to regular classes. The nine pupils in the class at the present time range in age from seven to sixteen and are in the second, fourth, fifth, sixth and eighth grades of school. Each is given individual instruction by Miss Pleister, who is an expert braille reader herself. Two members of the class will graduate from grade school this month.

Besides the regular studies which all pupils go through in the grade schools, the children in this class are also taught art, typing, map drawing, weaving and other allied subjects. Every member of the class takes music lessons. The music teacher is blind and was secured through the New Jersey Commission for the Blind under a WPA project.

The conduct of the class is entirely informal in order to put the children as much at ease as possible. The youngsters love it. "I'm going to go over to regular classes next year but I hate to leave here," the girl whose eyesight was approved by the physicians last weekend said this week.

Pride of the Class

Pride of the class is Mary Gerino of Liberty avenue who is totally blind but who has learned to read and write braille with remarkable accuracy and speed for her age. She gave a demonstration before the Rotary Club recently and surprised the members with her ability.

"Some people believe there is a sort of stigma attached to sending their children to such a class," Parmer said, "but there is none. The pupils advance on a par with other children in regular classes and their eyesight is conserved while they are doing it." He estimated that the class has saved more than $2,000 a year to the taxpayers, since the cost of the class is less than that amount and the cost of sending the children to Newark or Montclair would be about $400 per pupil per year.

George W. Gaydam, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Riepe Jr. and daughters, Edna Ann and Betty Florence, of Wilber street and a party of Bloomfield friends were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Van Zuilan of Brooklyn, N. Y. Sunday.

ESSEX COUNTY POLITICS

The views expressed in this column, are entirely those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Publishers or Editors of the Belleville News.

by Meador Wright

Nothing since the Dwight Morrow campaign can compare to the enthusiasm being shown in Suburban Essex for Wendell Willkie. A Clean Government leader in Montclair told me that he believed that if the voters of that city had the chance they would go for Willkie over Thomas E. Dewey by more than three to one. This is a striking phenomenon when one considers Dewey had no opposition in the primary and was considered exceedingly popular throughout Jersey. More interest is being centered in the visit of Dewey to Newark this week because of this Willkie sentiment than were it not evident. The public is anxious to see if Dewey's visit can dampen the roaring Willkie boom.

It now looks as though Dewey's managers made a bad mistake in not having him come to New Jersey earlier. Many a leader, had he had an opportunity to see the District Attorney, would have pledged his personal allegiance and then stood by it. But Dewey was kept so far away that he remained little more than a legend. The Willkie boom started and potential Dewey backers began to climb on the bandwagon. No one knows just what sentiment will be when the National Convention assembles in Philadelphia on June 24, but some very effective work must be done by Dewey and his managers or New Jersey will be a Willkie rather than a Dewey state.

There are rumblings that a tremendous lobby for Willkie is being marshalled. I have heard of half a dozen suburban men whose business connections give them national import engaging large suites of rooms for the convention. These men appear to be going down to put Willkie over if it is humanly possible. Inertia favors Dewey and Taft who have the biggest bulk of pledged delegates. But in the dynamic upheaval of the world today, inertia is a frail reed upon which to rest.

Arguments of a Lawyer

'Bankrupt' Mexican's Yarn Doesn't Snare Haffner

Confectioner Turns Letter Over To F.B.I.; Promised One-third Of $285,000 "Cached In U. S." If He Would Pay Expenses Of Process

A circular letter promising one-third of a supposed cached treasure was referred to the Federal Bureau of Investigation this week after it was received by Henry S. Haffner at his confectionery store at 448 Washington avenue. Haffner said he had no idea where the sender who is supposedly in jail in Mexico, got his address, but FBI men told him that many of the letters have been received in different parts of the United States. The G-Men are investigating. The letter is typed with no signature, the address was obviously from a different typewriter than that used in the body of the missive. It was mailed from Mexico City on May 18. It says:

"A person who knows you and who has highly spoken about you has made me trust you a very delicate matter of which depends the entire future of my daughter as well as my existence. "I am in prison sentenced for bankruptcy and I wish to know if you are willing to help me save a sum of $285,000.00 U. S. dollars which I have in cash (bank bills) inside of a secret place in a trunk that is deposited in a customhouse in the States.

Will Send Evidence

"As soon as I send you some undeniable evidence it is necessary for you to come here and pay the expense incurred in connection with my process in order to lift the embargo on my suit—cases one of which contains the necessary documents (a baggage check) that we need to take out the trunk that contains the cash and which is deposited in a customhouse in North America. "To compensate you for all your troubles I will give you THE THIRD PART OF THE SAID SUM. Fearing that this letter may not come directly to your hands I will not sign my own name until I hear from you and then I will entrust you all my secret. For serious reasons that you will know later, please reply via air mail. I beg you to treat this matter with the most absolute reserve and discretion. Due to the fact that I am in charge of the Prison's School I can write you freely and in this way. For the time being I am only signing 'L'."

Federal officials said that several persons in the nation had already been duped into sending money, that one man sent $3,000 to the "jailed bankrupt."

TOWN LEASES EDISON FIELD

Noll Takes Over Plot In Silver Lake For Recreation

The municipal recreation program came to Silver Lake this week for the first time. This was learned when Director of Parks and Public Property Noll announced that he had leased Edison Field for one year and would begin improvements on it immediately. It is expected that the four-acre plot will house one baseball and two softball fields.

"We promised that we would expand the Belleville recreation program sufficiently to include the Lake," Noll said this week, "and we are doing our best to fulfill that promise." He pointed out that he had previously made arrangements for leasing the Friendly House for two days a week beginning next fall.

Noll negotiated the arrangement with officials of the Edison Company whereby the town will pay the company $10 a year for the use of the field. Besides the ballfields he plans to put in bocci alleys, swings and sandboxes. A section of it will also be prepared for flooding for ice skating in the winter.

Noll said also that he expects to start work in the near future on Capitol Field in the valley. The field, which is privately owned, will be used for part of the recreation program. The weeds will be cleared and bumps in the field will be leveled out.

New Administrator Is Named At St. Anthony's Church

Rev. Titian Menegus last week assumed his new duties as administrator of St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Silver Lake. He was appointed May 29 by Archbishop Thomas Walsh to succeed the late Rev. Cataldo Alessi who died in December. Rev. Thomas Gillick will remain as curate of the church.

Father Menegus was born in Clifton and attended elementary school there. He is a graduate of Seton Hall Prep and College, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree from the latter in 1928 and his master's degree in 1930. In 1932 he was ordained in the Immaculate Conception Seminary, Darlington, by Archbishop Walsh.

Dr. Martin Meehan and Dr. Anthony Caputo testified that their tests showed that he was under the influence of liquor May 25 when he allegedly collided with the car of Louis Sirois of Newark. ## RED CROSS HAS RAISED HALF OF QUOTA

$2,000 Mark Passed; Police And Firemen To Solicit The Merchants

The Red Cross Chapter announced last night that this town had reached the halfway mark in its campaign for $4,000 as its quota for the National Red Cross $200,000 War Emergency Relief Fund. Contributions have been forwarded to Washington as quickly as they have been received because of the plea of headquarters in the Capitol for funds as soon as possible.

Further indication of the co-operation of the local people and organizations was given yesterday when Public Safety Director William D. Clark informed William J. Horgan, publicity chairman for the Red Cross, that both the members of the police and fire departments would be willing to solicit the store merchants for donations. This would eliminate, Horgan said, the possibility that imposters might impose on the merchants.

The receiving of contributions to the fund is in charge of Russell K. Rose, Red Cross treasurer; Helen Fleming, secretary, and B. Thomas Aitkens, of the Peoples' National Bank.

Drive Has Cost $50

The total amount expended by the Chapter to raise the money, officials said, has been $50. The expenses have been mostly for newspaper advertising, stationery and postage. All of the work has been performed by volunteers.

The Chapter organizers said they were particularly appreciative of the time that had been given by the stenographers at Town Hall. Contributions continued to pour in this week from the school children and the members of their faculties. The public school children have donated $195.42 and the teachers $154.08. The pupils at St. Peter's Parochial School have given $20 to date. The contributions by schools is given below. The figures have been released by the Red Cross office.

School No. 1	$29.95
School No. 2	5.00
School No. 3	9.50
School No. 4	57.76
School No. 5	36.07
School No. 6	31.54

School No. 8	7.11
School No. 9	17.27

Last Call For Entries

The sudden realization that Saturday is the last date for entries for the softball championships has spurred frantic action on the part of the dawklers who were still figuring on plenty of time. A member of the committee on arrangements spoke up yesterday to remind the teams of town that all entries will close at 5 Saturday. That will leave about a month before action along the front begins.

This will be the first time that an effort has been made to determine the actual champion of Belleville. Heretofore the individual champs of the various leagues have contented themselves with arguing the point. This year there will be no question about it. Everything will be settled by Labor Day.

The periodic glance around Belleville's softball races in the four leagues have found developments piling in thick and fast. Chief eye-opener of the past fortnight was furnished by the Pirates when they showed that the mighty Valley Chowns were entirely invulnerable. The Pirates lost their undefeated record but remained at the head of the league. Whether the triumph will mean more defeats or a repeat recurrence will be one of the interesting points in the future senior games. That the latter may be the result was the tip-off when the Chowns went out the next night and whaled the Cardinals of Hadden's.

St. Peter's has suddenly blitzed the Church League but the crown as any head in that circuit is much too precarious not to be in imminent danger of being knocked off. Even a Maginot Line could hardly stop Federal Leather in the Industrial League now. It's getting so the other teams in the loop pray for rain every time Federal pops up on their schedules.

The Franklin Pleasure Club ramaged through the West Belleville circuit last week, lambasted two teams by terrific scores and clambered up on the top rung with West End.

What's In A Name?

Captain Joe Sullivan, peppery leader of the Bellboy nine, started hitting All-Excess teams last week but no one could get his first name straight. One story mentioned "Bill Sullivan of Belleville" and, in the listing of the teams themselves, he was Ben. What's in a name? He was picked on the first team, anyway. Jack Avazier was named second-string pitcher.

Home R. Zink was one of the seventy-one who were awarded sports letters at Rutgers Friday. Young Zink, who is usually called Randy to distinguish him from his father, the senator, received a jayvee crew letter.

They take their softball mightily seriously up around the Isolation Hospital. Doctors to porters, it is to them one of the only forms of exercise. Competition is secondary, but they do like to win once in a while.

They take their softball seriously across the street where the gang frequents the Twins Inn. There the Bachelors hold forth and have a pretty classy outfit. Last year the season's series went to the Bachelors by a unanimous score. Now, the hospital boys have found a savior. Walter Lavley is the new team manager there and Thursday he led his team to an 11-9 win over the Bachelors, the first time in history the result came out that way. The boys figured he sounded enough like Walter Raleigh to be the real leader.

Midgets Not So Hot

Understand the midget auto races at Tri-City are somewhat of a flop — not that they aren't fine things for them what likes 'em, but Tri-City is not particularly adaptable to the cars. We have not been down ourselves; twice up at Hinchliffe in Paterson was enough for us. We had been spoiled by the flash and color of the Nutley Velodrome. We got absolutely no kick out of the flat-track races.

It seems to us that Jack Kochman has been fooling around with halfway measures long enough now. Nutley was his best bet but the tragic events there proved the track was not suited for what he wanted to use it for. Hinchliffe was only a makeshift as Jack Tri-City. One of these days Jack will catch wise and invest his money in a real banked track for midgets. If his location is right the take will look like the Bank of England (pre-war).

Now Jack has gotten the national midget championships for the half-mile Union Speedway and he may have something there, although the times will look nothing like those that used to be turned in at Nutley. But there will be a hundred miles of racing on June 30 and you can go at noon and take your supper.

IMPERIALS SPLIT DOUBLE BILL

Bellboys Beaten 9-8 Then Reverse Order and Win 4-3

In two hotly contested games at Field No. 7 Friday the Imperials and the Bellboys split a double header when the Imperials eked out a 9-8 victory in the first game and then were nosed out in the second, 4-3. With the score seeing-sawing back and forth, Nick Scarola's big bat proved to be the deciding factor as he drove in four runs with the aid of a home run in the first inning with one on, Bill Hanley of the Bellboys hit the only other round tripper, that coming in the seventh inning of the first game.

Ed Gorman turned in the best pitching job of the day when he pitched the heavy-hitting Imperials to only four hits, the longest of which was a double.

The Woman's Desk

by PEGGY PATTERSON

Out of the the startling unexpectedness of the present European war comes a natural trend among those who write to talk of the interests and destiny of the children of America. Perhaps at no other time do adults unite so thoroughly in applying their forces to preserve for the youth of the nation the heritage of freedom as when that freedom is menaced, no matter how remotely.

Articles range from enthusiastic treatises on the essential equality of the American born child, his unusual advantages of development regardless of social rank and his utter lack of fear due to unreasonable coercion, to the more emotional type of exposure of the barbaric treatment being meted out today to the child refugees of Europe. This contrasting process must have struck you as you have followed the trend of discussion in the various magazines of recent months.

It brings home sharply the necessity which lies in the hands of adults, and particularly mothers, to make sure that the sobering influence of the world situation today is not wasted on our young people. If the cataclysmic events now occurring do not leave an imprint on the minds of our children, much precious time is being wasted. For the course of their lives, regardless of any attempt on your part to assuage it, is being definitely molded by the present re-organization. Their futures will not be exact counterparts of your own lives at comparative ages. There is to a certain extent an uncharted course.

What definitely can you do to aid them? The children of Europe have, no doubt, progressed in the past decade or two with much the same inherent confidence in a planned method of living as the children of America. And now without warning they are plunged, aside from their physical plight, into a complete re-adjustment to living. Many will perish; and many will not. Rehabilitation follows inevitably in the wake of war. And that is the time of the greatest test of character.

Already children and young people are adjusting themselves to lives of wandering, to lives of regimentation after the warm security of their homes has been shattered beyond recall. And out of these ranks will rise the flower of the civilization of the future. Courage is being forced upon them as it has repeatedly been throughout the history of the world.

This is the lesson that you can draw for your own young people: that they, too, need courage to face the future, but that they will not have it cruelly wrenched from their consciousness by virtue of circumstances. They will have the precious opportunity to build up courage out of knowledge. They may have to fight for their rights but they will be able to direct their actions in the light of reason and without the bewilderment which is now the saddest characteristic of the youth of Europe.

Even the desires of parents to shield their young children from discussion of the war has come in for consideration. And most people who have expressed their views, all of them parents, feel that this is the time to let them get the feel of the need for self defense.

Do not let your young children be exposed unnecessarily to graphic descriptions and horrifying pictures. Do not mislead them with a false bragadocio that "it can never happen here." Let them know that intelligence and fortitude will prevent such disaster to our nation and that even they can contribute to the quiet determination with which America arms herself today. Above all, do not preface every approach you have to administer to your offspring with the remark "Suppose you were a refugee child in Europe today." Such a reference will soon rankle. It will be much wiser not to make a gruesome byword out of a phrase which should inspire the highest courage in your children.

Americans in general will certainly turn with a new delight to the exploration of this great nation in their vacation periods this summer. Never before has it seemed so desirable and never perhaps have people desired more to get closer to it by really exploring for themselves. You may not be able to cover a large area, you may have to travel on a very limited budget; but more and more Americans are finding out each summer that bicycling, hiking and canoeing offer thrilling opportunities and much more intimate views of the country than the more luxurious methods of travel. The main thing to be considered, regardless of your mode of transportation, and this is where mother can be the greatest help, is the motivation of the vacation period away from home. Historic sites abound and others which stand on the merits of sheer beauty. Select a few and bring the family conversation around to them. Augment your ideas with travel books from the library or magazines which have carried comments and photographs of them.

There are very few families who will not become involved in long and profitable discussions on the subject of travel and these will serve a good purpose even if the proposed trip never materializes. Should you be able to arrange it, observe carefully the common-sense rules of maintaining a budget to save financial embarrassment, carrying only a minimum of light, durable luggage and setting a goal. Covering so many miles a day is not a trip, it's only a bore.

Contest Recipes

Send your favorite and reliable recipes to our contest. Two prizes will be awarded weekly. Each winner will receive two guest passes to the Kent Theatre. The features starting Sunday are: "Broadway Melody" and "Blondie on a Budget."

The first taste of warm weather has no doubt made most of us realize that our families will appreciate finding some of our best homemade ice cream in the refrigerator from now on. A standard recipe which can be easily remembered, put together quickly while other kitchen duties are going on and varied with flavorings and fresh fruits is the one submitted for our contest by Mrs. Albert Debler of Division avenue.

Vanilla Ice Cream

2 teaspoons unflavored gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
1 pint scalded milk
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup sugar
1 tablespoon vanilla
1 pint cream, whipped

Soak gelatin in cold water five minutes while milk is scalding. Dissolve in hot milk, add sugar and salt. Stir thoroughly. When cool add vanilla and freeze to a mush. Remove from the refrigerator, fold in whipped cream and return to freeze to the desired firmness. Serve with sauce made of crushed fresh fruit for a pleasant variation.

For an extra treat serve Brownies with plain vanilla ice cream. The following recipe submitted by Mrs. Frank Cadiz of Floyd street is easy to make. They may, of course, be iced; but are perhaps better served plain in the warm weather.

Brownies

3 tablespoons melted butter
1 cup sugar
1 egg
2 squares melted chocolate
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup milk
1 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup chopped nuts

Melt butter, add sugar and unbeaten egg. After mixing thoroughly add chocolate, vanilla and milk. Add sifted dry ingredients. Pour into a shallow, greased pan. Bake in a moderate oven for twenty-five minutes. Cut into squares before removing from pan.

CHURCH SCHOOL CLOSSES SUNDAY

Congregation Pupils Will Have Examinations and Receive Their Awards

The closing exercises of the Religious School of the Congregation A.A.A will be held Sunday morning in the social hall in Washington avenue. The annual public examination will be held.

The school, which has been meeting regularly for the past ten months, has created for itself a reputation all over the state. It has had a regular increase of attendance in children from adjoining communities. The pupils have studied the Hebrew language and literature, Bible and commentaries and contemporary Jewish problems.

Certificates of merit and pins of membership in the Chayil Honor Society, sponsored by the Jewish Education Association of Essex County, will be given to the pupils excelling in their work. The school is sponsored by the Congregation. Members of the school board are Philip Lempert, chairman; Louis Haft, acting chairman; Abram Atkins, Morris Berkowitz, Michael Smith, Saul Abramson, Dr. Morris Rochlin and Mrs. Rochlin, Mrs. Ida Lempert and Mrs. Anna Goldstein.

Clifford Keating Heads Bible Study Series

Clifford Keating, president of Everyman's Bible Class, is a member of the committee on arrangements for the series of twelve weekly Union Bible Classes which began Sunday in the Montclair Y.M.C.A. The Belleville class led Sunday's meeting and will hold the same position next Sunday.

The series is conducted by the men's classes of Belleville, Montclair, Caldwell, West Caldwell, Verona and Bloomfield. Its purpose is to afford a place of Bible study for those men who wish to continue through the summer months when their own classes are closed.

Grace Baptist Young People Choose New Officers

The officers for the coming year were elected recently by the Young People's Union of Grace Baptist Church. Marion Witt was chosen president, replacing Jack Alpaugh who was elected membership vice-president. Ruth Topping was elected program vice-president, while Edythe Fern and Marcus Mager became secretary and treasurer respectively.

Plans were announced for a picnic which will be held on Saturday at Lake Hopatcong, and a strawberry festival which will take place in the near future.

Evening Gown For Summer Wear

White organdy is favored this season as never before for the bouffant evening gown. This dress shows the tendency toward the longer waistline. The wide ruffled band breaks the monotony of the skirt without spoiling its graceful lines. Note the little shawl which has found favor again in fashionable wardrobes.

TRIANGLES LOSE TO LYNDBURST

Dunham Hurts Well But Fielding Miscue In Seventh Proves Costly

Les Dunham pitched steady ball but the Triangles were unable to break their losing streak and dropped their fourth in a row Sunday to the Ludas Club 2-0 at the Lyndhurst Legion Field. Dunham, on the hill all the way for the Belleville Club, allowed but six singles and walked two.

The uprising that decided the contest came in the seventh when a pair of singles and a walk filled the sacks with two away. Rosa hit to deep short. Tony Fantano threw wild to home to try to cut off the winning run. The throw missed its mark and another run came in from second. Because of Dunham's showing in Lyndhurst, the Triangles are planning on using him in at least one of the games of the grudge doubleheader with the Cardinals a week from Sunday. The three-cornered boys are seeking a game for this Sunday, their contest with the Park A. A. having been suddenly cancelled Monday morning. The line-up: birthday, graduation and other designated cakes are having quite a vogue. Instead of standing in a kitchen whipping up a birthday cake with the temperature at 83 degrees, people are finding it more convenient to order an Alderney ice-cream cake, made in any size desired, any color effect, and for any occasion. And on hot days whether your birthday or graduation ice-cream tastes mighty good, and it comes packed in dry ice, of course. We saw one of them made at the Alderney Bridge Street plant the other day; that's why we know you can't go wrong.

INCIDENTALLY, ice-cream

—o0o—

DISCOVERED Myersville, N. J.

the other day, and we must agree a more compact town there couldn't be. One store and a tavern! . . . Mrs. John Atkinson, wife of the proprietor of the general store gave the Myers' delegation a really warm greeting; there are no local Myers in the town just now. . . . We skipped the tavern, it having been closed for some reason or another.

—o0o—

SHORT, shorts: Girls at the Alderney Newark plant are congratulating Bloomfield's Margaret Fitzpatrick on her engagement! Trommer's Tom Fitzpatrick does not have a yacht — or a canoe! . . . ## Featured At Capitol Sunday

Clark Gable and Joan Crawford in "Strange Cargo" opening a three-day engagement at the Capitol starting Sunday, on the same program with "Two Girls on Broadway" starring Lana Turner, Joan Blondell and George Murphy.

WE were alone in the anteroom of the Governor's office in the State House the other day, and while awaiting appointment time with the gracious Chief Executive our eyes followed the paintings about the room of some of New Jersey's former Governors. We remembered Gov. Beadle's fine features; we recalled his widow, Althea Randolph Beadle, who so resembled Queen Elizabeth; and then we found ourselves staring with mingled thoughts of another war as the splendid portrait of Woodrow Wilson looked down upon us from a favored position. The portrait was painted when the War President was New Jersey's Governor. His physique was a great deal more robust than when he went abroad for the international peace conference. Under our arm was a copy of the Newark Evening News we had carried down on the train, and the headlines told of the complete evacuation of the English at Dunkirk, the fears of immediate attack on Great Britain, and the imminency of Italy's war declaration. Woodrow Wilson looked resolute in the portrait before us; the eyes sparkled with fine understanding; there was the hint of a smile on his lips, but throughout the features was determination. Somehow or other we felt that he knew what was going on now, and that he felt confident of the result; that everything never so black as it seems or is painted; that truth and right can forever conquer bestiality and wanton crime. We thought he might like to say something like: "Have, faith; time will tell!"

estranged May and Will Oakland will open separate nightclubs at the shore. . . . The first half of National Dairy Month here went over the top with hotels, restaurants, fountains, etc., using heavier supplies. . . . Hotels Robert Treat and Douglas had table cards in their restaurants that read "Have you had your glass of milk today?" adding that "this is National Dairy Month," and nearly every tray from the kitchen carried a half pint of Alderney.

—o0o—

INCIDENTALLY, ice-cream birthday, graduation and other designated cakes are having quite a vogue. Instead of standing in a kitchen whipping up a birthday cake with the temperature at 83 degrees, people are finding it more convenient to order an Alderney ice-cream cake, made in any size desired, any color effect, and for any occasion. And on hot days whether your birthday or graduation ice-cream tastes mighty good, and it comes packed in dry ice, of course. We saw one of them made at the Alderney Bridge Street plant the other day; that's why we know you can't go wrong.

—o0o—

DISCOVERED Myersville, N. J., the other day, and we must agree a more compact town there couldn't be. One store and a tavern! . . . Mrs. John Atkinson, wife of the proprietor of the general store gave the Myers' delegation a really warm greeting; there are no local Myers in the town just now. . . . We skipped the tavern, it having been closed for some reason or another.
