

PLAN TO START ADULT SCHOOL OCTOBER 3
May Register For Numerous Courses September 26-27; Kittle In Charge

The Belleville Adult School for the fall term will start Thursday, October 3, according to a statement made yesterday by Hugh D. Kittle, school director. This will be the earliest opening date in the school's history, three months ahead of last year's January 13. The school is sponsored jointly by the Board of Education and a citizens' committee.

Registration for all classes, which will run for ten successive Thursday evenings from October 3 to December 12, will take place in the high school next Thursday and Friday evenings, September 26 and 27.

At this time students will register, pay their fees for all courses now listed in the prospectus and state their desires for additional courses not listed. "Efforts will be made to schedule and employ instructors for unlisted courses for which there is a sufficient number of requests," Kittle said.

He pointed out that the selection of courses offered in this school was determined by surveys conducted among the students of the previous years and many other adult schools in Essex County. Courses which are now listed at $3 for each are: Elementary bookkeeping, contract bridge, English, elementary golf, advanced golf, advanced interior decorating, mathematics, advanced photography, physical education for men, public speaking, sewing, general shop, stenography, typewriting, blue print reading and mechanical drawing, home nursing, Americanization, Spanish, "just fishing," world affairs, handicraft, the changing world in plays and theatre, practical and effective English, cooking for men and music appreciation.

SERVICE BUREAU HEARS REPORTS
Mrs. Reiner Discusses Work Of Organization During Past Four Months

The Board of Trustees of the Community Service Bureau held its first regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening. Walter Warrick presided and gave an account of the proceedings of the National Conference of Social Work, which he attended in Grand Rapids in June.

Mrs. Julia Reiner, executive secretary, reported on the work of the agency during the past four months. The bureau received eighty new applications for service, of which two-thirds were accepted. She said that this is a rather high percentage but that the present staff is carrying maximum responsibility. $594 was spent for financial assistance and 145 interviews were held during this period. Gifts totaling $103 were received.

The budget committee, of which Walter Price is chairman, met in July and worked out the proposed budget for 1941, which will be presented to the Welfare Federation tomorrow night. Warrick expressed the hope of the trustees that a case worker, forced out due to lack of funds this year, may be reinstated next year.

An analysis of the last fifty applications indicates that half of the applicants come personally to the bureau. Twenty per cent are referred by the schools, ten per cent by other social agencies and the balance by physicians, interested individuals and the police. The problem which people brought most frequently to the bureau had to do with the need for health, medical and dental care in the low income group. The next largest problem proportionately is the need for child guidance, which was found in nineteen per cent of the applications.

Congressional Candidates Making Town Center For Their Political Battling

Both Stumping Here

William E. Holmwood

Fred A. Hartley

Holmwood In Initial Bow While Hartley Makes Second Visit

This town has been the principal battleground to date for the candidates for the Congressional post of the Tenth Congressional District. Of the few speeches that Congressman Fred A. Hartley, the G.O.P. incumbent, has made, two of them in recent weeks have been in Belleville. His Democratic opponent, William E. Holmwood, made his bow before the local voters on Friday night. He blasted Hartley before the Democratic committee members at Town Hall. On the following night, Hartley appeared at the Joseph King Association meeting to defend his position and indirectly attack Holmwood.

Hartley Says

Hartley said that his principal purpose in rushing back from Washington, where he had voted on the Burke-Wadsworth conscription bill Saturday afternoon, was to "answer some of the malicious stories" which have been circulated about him and to explain his reasons for voting against certain congressional measures in recent weeks.

"There may be some who may disagree with my logic and reasoning but they must respect my sincerity," he said. "I have had but one thought during all the recent debates in Congress and particularly during the voting on certain defense measures; and that thought has been to keep the United States out of war."

He said he wished first to answer "the most scurrilous point which has been raised in the entire campaign, namely, that I am sympathetic to the German-American Bund. That is a damned lie and is absolutely untrue and I will give $1,000 to any man who can prove it. The meeting I attended was a German-American family picnic. I have been going for twelve or fourteen years and I would accept the invitation all over again, regardless of the lying inferences that my opponent and

War Provides Problems For School Board

Care of Refugee Children, Physical Condition of Pupils and Replacement of Teachers Called for Conscription Being Studied by School Board

The war has brought three problems for the Board of Education to study and it took steps this week to solve two of them. On the third, according to Board President Schmutz, "We will cross that bridge when we come to it." The problems: 1) care of refugee children in the schools; 2) physical strength of the town's children looking forward to the time when they may be needed for national defense; and 3) replacement of teachers who may be called in the conscription.

Problem No. 1 was solved by passing a resolution granting to School Superintendent Parmer the right to admit to the schools victims of Europe's war who may come here to live.

A conference among Parmer, members of the school board, school nurses and physicians and members of the physical education staffs will iron out an intensified program for the second problem. It is hoped that the physical defects which handicapped American youth in 1917 may be solved before the emergency arises, according to Schmutz.

Teachers and Conscription
The board was at a total loss as to the procedure to be followed in Problem No. 3. It was generally agreed that a teacher under tenure would have his position held for him on his return. But that posed another question: should a substitute teacher be hired; should war then break out and the draftee was absent for three years, the substitute teacher would then be under tenure.

Belleville may face a time when too many teachers will be in the privileged class. Laurence Chase, county superintendent of schools, confessed that it is a problem which has never had to be faced, that there is no precedent since World War I lasted less than three years.

It is estimated that twenty-two teachers in the school system are within the age limits of the conscription law. Of these, twenty are in the high school but only six are unmarried and eligible to be called in the first draft.

Details of Community Chest Will Be Discussed

First plans for the 1940 Community Chest drive will be made Tuesday evening when the Welfare Federation meets in its headquarters at 338 Washington avenue. Frank Chambers, president, will announce the names of the persons in charge of the fund-raising in the nine divisions of the town.

Also due for consideration is the amount of the goal for the Chest drive. The amount, which was $16,000 last year, will be determined after a study of the budget requests. The budget committee of chairman Herbert C. Schmutz, Frank J. McFadden, John Ray, Alva A. Buckley and Lester McCormick, will meet tomorrow night to prepare its recommendations.

Local Artist Completing Work

Mural by Local Artist Hung at College

Work by William Kliebe of Bremond Street Adorns Hall at Marymont College; Is Memorial to Late Rev. Mother at School; Teaching Art There

Bill Kliebe is just an ordinary, unassuming sort of person but he has magic in his fingers. Formally, he is William F. Kliebe of 131 Bremond street but "Bill" is more apt. Quietly in his Bremond street home Kliebe has been putting the finishing touches on a portrait masterpiece which will hang in the library of Marymont College at Tarrytown, N. Y., and this week he started his first year as independent art instructor at that institution of more than 500 girls. Kliebe's skill is now beginning to catch on among those who know art and the products of years of training are starting to gain recognition.

The greatest monument to the Belleville artist is the great four-panel mural in the dome of Butler Hall at Marymont—a mural which will be completed today, slightly more than three months since the first brush was applied to it.

Kliebe was born in Germany but came to this country when he was six. His earliest art training came from his father, Adolph Kliebe, who was a sculptor. Forty-one years ago he came to Belleville on his honeymoon, stayed at his sister's house at Holmes street and Hornblower avenue on the old Murray estate which took in all the land where the high school is now situated.

After studying at several New York art schools he was connected in the publishing business with American Fashion Company, John J. Mitchell and Buttrick Publishing Company. He did a great deal of fashion designing in these days and taught for a while around 1925.

Teaches Art Fundamentals

Some time ago he was sent by a New York company to Marymont to give a few art lessons. The mutual attachment between himself and the beautiful college grew and from it came his present position teaching the fundamentals of art to friends and students. His great friend there, Rev. Mother Butler, died in April shortly before her sixtieth anniversary as a Religious of the Sacred Heart of Mary. The portrait which Kliebe is now finishing at home is of her with her successor, Mother Gerard.

Shortly after Mother Butler's death the college authorities decided to decorate the interior of the dome of Butler Hall with four murals depicting scenes from her life. Kliebe threw his full strength into the work. Correct paint colors were mixed, layouts made and the work started June 10.

Day after day the local man spent hours at his work. His day began at 7 in the morning and he continued through to dark. He enlisted the aid of five nuns who are pupils of his and the work was rushed to completion. He is putting the finishing touches on the masterpiece this week.

Each of the panels is twenty feet long at the base and nine feet high. They depict Mother Butler at the laying of the Marymont cornerstone by the late Patrick Cardinal Hayes, her visit to the Pope, a sojourn in France and Mother Butler with the founders of the religious order in Ireland.

The panel showing the laying of the cornerstone is particularly impressive in that it contains thirty-three authentic portraits besides many more figures. In the background are the buildings of the college.

Kliebe has specialized in portrait work in recent years. He has a studio in the attic of his home and there he does most of his work and gives all his lessons. His pupils come from Belleville and surrounding towns.

He lives with his wife, their daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Dondor, and two grandchildren, Dorothy and George Dondor, the former a senior in the high school, the latter in the sixth grade in School No. 5. A son, Henry Kliebe, who graduated from Belleville High in 1920, now lives in the Bronx. The sister who was largely instrumental in persuading the Kliebes to move to Belleville when she entertained them on their honeymoon is Mrs. Frank Malsch, now of Buffalo.

Men for Local Draft Board Recommended By 'Foreign' Group

Orange-Maplewood Chamber of Commerce Submitted Names of 18 Local Men For Service

Some of the mystery which enshrouds the selection of the men who will make up the local draft board for conscription was cleared up yesterday afternoon when The News learned that the Chamber of Commerce of the Oranges had been requested and did make the recommendations of Belleville men who might be available for service. Edgar Williamson, executive secretary of the organization, admitted that the names of eighteen local men had been submitted to Adjutant General William A. Higgins in Trenton. Three men will be selected from this list to be named by Governor A. Harry Moore. The announcement of their appointment will be made prior to October 1. The C. of C. executive would not release the names.

HEWITT OPPOSES STATE PLAN

Relief Director Says Health Proposal Would Cost More Money

Welfare Director John J. Hewitt yesterday recommended that the proposed state administration of medical attention for reliefers be rejected by the town. In a letter to Mayor Williams, Hewitt said that the state plan would cost a third more than the plan now in operation here and would not be any more effective.

Hewitt explained that the state is seeking to have municipal boards set up health commissions and provide for permitting all local doctors to give medical attention at a cost of $1 and $2 a visit to be paid by the Welfare Department. Belleville now has two town physicians, Dr. Martin McMan and Dr. Anthony Caputo, who do all the necessary medical work for the department for $166.64 a month.

Hewitt declared that it would have cost the town $5,145 under the state plan in the past twenty months compared to the actual cost of $3,332.80, a saving of $1,812.80.

ZINK LEADS MOVE AGAINST HAGUE

Senator Introduces Two Bills In Legislature; Moore's Veto Anticipated

State Senator Homer C. Zink of 26 Rossmore place is leading the Republican forces in the State Legislature bent on curtailing the powerful Hague machine in Jersey City. The local man introduced three new bills in the Legislature Monday night and, if they are carried through to final passage over the expected veto of the Governor, the new enactments may go a long way toward changing election practices in Hudson County.

The bills provide for installation of voting machines in Hudson County by deducting ten per cent from all state funds due or to become due to Hudson with school and relief funds excluded; for stripping municipal police court judges three of most of their powers and vesting jurisdiction in criminal judicial district judges appointed by the Legislature.

It is expected that Governor Moore, a Democrat, will veto the bills and for that reason the Republicans are lawless their forces to override the veto Monday night. Hague's lawyers found a loophole in the previous voting machine law and declared that Hudson is not forced to install them.

Zink openly declared war on Hague last week and forecast Monday's action in a statement in which he stated that "Boss Hague's number seems to be up at last. There will certainly be election reform in Hudson."

Today, tomorrow and the first four days next week the office will be open from 9 to 4 and on Saturday from 9 to 12. Those who intend to move between September 26 and November 5 should make their transfers now. No registrations will be accepted after Thursday.

Mrs. Moore said that approximately 400 have registered since the primaries last May. At that time the number of voters in Belleville was listed as 13,125. Some district leaders have told voters that they would take care of the transfers for them. Mrs. Moore pointed out that it is necessary for each voter to sign his own transfer card. Voters who move from one part of the town to another after Thursday may vote in their old district by signing an affidavit.

She also said that many people have called her asking what district they live in. She said that that question would be answered when the sample ballots are sent out the last week in October, when the ward, district and polling place would be listed.

There are ninety-seven days before Christmas but the plans for the second annual Christmas Festival will be made at a meeting Wednesday at 8:30 in the Woman's Club at 51 Rossmore place, Mrs. Lloyd C. Nunn of 17 Garden avenue, head of the Woman's Club, said yesterday.

Representatives of the different musical organizations in the town are expected to attend. Invited are the choirmasters of the churches, the Belleville Glee Club and the High School Glee Club. The date of the concert may be decided upon at Wednesday's meeting and a committee on arrangements will be formed. Any musical organizations which have not been invited are also asked to send representatives.

Buick SPECIAL 6-passenger 4-door Sedan, $1052 delivered at Flint, Mich. Wheel shields and white sidewall tires, extra.*

As surely as the new Buick FIREBALL® straight-eight engine sets the performance pace for the coming season, the graceful silhouette of the new Buick SPECIAL and CENTURY cuts the automotive style pattern for another half decade.

The reason is not alone the grace of its Buick-created lines, nor the appearance of solid substance in action that gives this honey the look of a speedster straining at its leash.

It is the practical quality of great room enclosed in sleek and flowing lines—more room for legs, for elbows, for heads, more room for entrance and more room for carrying luggage—that makes this the silhouette the cars of the future will seek to achieve.

Why wait for that—when in this Buick you travel in a car that, like time and tide, obviously isn't waiting for any man?

About That Traffic Again

The traffic and parking problem in the vicinity of the Town Hall along Washington avenue is quite the topic of conversation among merchants and those who shop there. After glancing at the muddle that cars were in on Friday night, several suggested that the town might go in for parking meters. The problem isn't that bad yet. Traffic congestion is heavy only on Fridays and Saturdays when shopping is at its peak.

We've been harping on the traffic and parking trouble off and on for several months. Some time ago we commented that when the new Sears, Roebuck store opened it would become increasingly worse. Anyone who was in that section Friday night or some time Saturday could see that the prediction was not wrong.

Motorists, pedestrians and merchants are suffering. Those trying to get across Washington avenue with an armful of bundles have a risky job trying to dodge their way in and out of automobiles attempting to work their way out of some of the traffic

Liquor Business Must Be Good

We don't think that the folks here have suddenly increased their imbibing in alcoholic concoctions but for some reason there has been a sudden upswing here in the opening of liquor stores. Within the past month the Board of Commissioners has issued permits for two package stores. Next Tuesday they will be asked to consider two more applications. It seems strange after Belleville had gotten along with four or five stores for several years that there should be a sudden stampede to get into the liquor business.

It Won't Get Very Far

The chances of the Republican legislative majority putting into action the "ripper" legislation affecting elections in Mayor Hague's Hudson County are exceedingly remote. Even if the legislators are successful in over-riding Governor Moore's anticipated veto, there is little doubt that they will face a court test. Two of the most important of the six measures were sponsored by State Senator Homer C. Zink. He introduced the bill which would provide that the State House Commission be authorized to install voting machines in Hudson County and also the measure which would create four new Criminal District Courts in Hudson County and a like number in Essex County. The legislators have indicated that they have no intention of establishing additional courts at this time in Essex, claiming to have placed it in the legislation so that Hudson County politicians could not go into court and cry that they were being discriminated against.

The prominent role played by the local senator in the effort of the G.O.P. to put Hague "in the bag" may help to remove some of the feeling against Zink which has

Getting Rather Monotonous

The Democratic Congressional candidate, William E. Holmwood made his first personal appearance here Friday night. He didn't say any more than he has been reported as saying in his press releases for the past five or six weeks. He is still telling the story about Congressman Hartley attending the German-American picnic, which Mr. Holmwood claims was a gathering of some of the best Nazis in these parts. The Congressman appeared in town the following night to deny that it was any gathering of Nazis or that he had pro-Hitler leanings as Holmwood would have the voters in this district believe.

We've said before that it looked as though the Congressional fight would be a warm one — in fact, the warmest that Congressman Hartley has had in some time. However, if Holmwood doesn't dig up another story besides the one about Fred at pile-ups. The storekeepers, as has been said before, will feel it because after a few times the folks who drive to shop are going to get tired of the struggle.

The parking problem is a difficult one to solve. About the only thing the police can do is to attempt to enforce the one-hour parking limit. Washington avenue, Belleville avenue and Rutgers street are thoroughfares which are constantly used by transient traffic. A lot of the trouble seems to be caused at certain times on Fridays and Saturdays by traffic which is turning left into Washington avenue.

We offer to the police as a possible solution that no left turns should be permitted into Washington avenue from either Rutgers street or Belleville avenue. Parking on Belleville avenue east of Union avenue and in Rutgers street between Washington and Hornblower avenues would be prohibited. The use of Belleville avenue east to Washington avenue as a one-way street should be definitely enforced.

This might help partially to ease the bad condition as we have observed it.

G.O.P. CAN WIN, WOMEN TOLD

Strength In Numbers Will Tell, State Leader Says At Club Rally

The "fraudulent election condition in Hudson County" was roundly condemned and Republican voters were called upon to "defeat the Hague machine by the strength of the numbers they possess" by Mrs. William F. Plume, Essex County chairman of the Women's State Republican Club, as she spoke before the local Women's Republican Club at its first meeting of the season Thursday.

Mrs. Plume claimed that Republicans all over the country are in the majority but "many of them are lax in their political duties." She said that "it is necessary to vote the entire Republican ticket in order to control both branches of the legislature and to insure the election of Hendrickson for Governor."

Mrs. Emily A. Sundheimer, president of the local GOP women, announced that invitations were being sent to all Republican candidates for the coming election to attend a public meeting of the club at the Woman's Club at 51 Rossmore place on October 10.

In their move this week, the Republicans changed from their name calling tactics in speaking of Hague and have resorted to some of the old high-handed methods employed in politics when a move is "to get" somebody. It is apparently the only way in which the G.O.P. can ever hope to loosen the grip of the Hudson County machine.

Outside of focussing public attention on their actions and giving them something new to talk about, the only thing the Republicans can hope to accomplish by the legislative move between now and Election Day is that it will throw the fear of God into some of the Democratic machine's Hudson workers. Some of them may fear that the day of the political "purge" in Hudson County is not too far off and that they do not want to be hemmed in by it.

The Champion

dent was not the original form of the deal which he opposed.

He explained that he voted against the Burke-Wadsworth bill because, in its original form, it called for registration of all men between eighteen and sixty-five at $5 a month. He and some of his colleagues got the pay raised to $21. He claimed the original draft said nothing about a moratorium on "instalment-buying" debts but that was later taken care of.

His greatest objection to conscription was based on the fact that voluntary enlistment has not been thoroughly tried. He pointed out that the army pays seventy cents a day for a twenty-four hour day, seven days a week, 365 days a year. The CCC, on the other hand, pays $30 a month for an eight-hour day and a five-day week.

"You don't expect a man to go into industry for $21 a month; why expect him to go into the army for that pay?"

His opposition to immediate conscription was also based on the fact that man-power will be mobilized far faster than any other phase of defense can be readied. He read army statistics to show that there are far from enough guns for the men and said that there will not even be adequate shelters for the hundreds of thousands of men who will be called out November 15.

"I voted against conscription because I did not want to see us make the same mistake that we did in 1917 when 190,000 men were ill in camps of the flu, dysentery and other diseases simply because there were not adequate facilities for them."

He ended with a warning that "we are coming to dictatorship in this country a lot faster than anybody realizes. Let's not chase across the water to save democracy and come back to find that we have lost it at home."

Swastika Always Flown

"Mr. Hartley two weeks ago ago right here in Belleville attempted to justify his attendance at a pro-Nazi meeting in Springfield by claiming that it was just a harmless little picnic . . . If he always attended those meetings, he knew that the swastika was always flying at them. He should know that Herr Otto Stiefel, the director of the meeting, was an agent for the Kaiser during the war."

Stiefel, he said, led the prayer for the "long life and continued military success of Adolf Hitler." Hartley suggested that they hide behind the American flag when he told them to take down the swastika. That is contemptible campaign strategy and he is going to be the most mistaken man in Essex County if he thinks that the Italian vote is going to jump into his pocket merely because of an unfortunate remark of the President.

District leaders from every section of town heard Democratic Town Chairman George Christie flay Anthony P. Miele, superintendent of elections, for alleged discrimination against Democrats in the voting canvass.

Christie stressed the necessity of having the district leaders make a thorough canvass of the voters in their district to inform them of the changes in the registration and transfer laws for the coming election.

He charged that the workers of Superintendent Miele are making a canvass of all who have not exercised the voting privilege in the four-year limit. They have the records of just how each man has voted and, if his vote has been Democratic and he is not at home when the canvasser calls at the house, he is stricken from the registration records, Christie declared.

Commissioner Patrick A. Waters will head the local Democratic campaign, according to the vote of the leaders. Waters will choose his own committee of prominent Democrats to assist him in the work and in publicity.

Holmwood Says

Holmwood charged Hartley with "contemptible campaign strategy" in "making a play for the foreign-born voters." Holmwood was introduced by his campaign manager, Freeholder F. Joseph O'Hare of Hudson County.

Holmwood led into his attack on Hartley gradually, first explaining that "nobody denies the right of foreign-born persons to organize themselves into music clubs, athletic clubs, drama clubs, social and other kinds of clubs." The purpose of these clubs, he said, is to further the culture of their homelands.

"Unfortunately many deter from this course and try to become political," he continued. "The next step is the pledging of allegiance to the foreign country. 'Communism, Nazism and Racism have nothing in their principles even remotely resembling democracy.'"

ESSEX COUNTY POLITICS

The views expressed in this column, are entirely those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Publishers or Editors of the Belleville News.

by Meador Wright

I have talked to several hard-boiled political realists and not one of them believes that voting machines will actually be used in Hudson County this November. They all think that the legislation authorizing them will be tested in the courts and that no decision can be reached prior to election time. All think, however, that the Republican legislation was a clever political move in that it placed the Democrats on the defensive. It was the answer to the statement of Charles Edison advocating election reform. It also serves to keep the matter of alleged Hudson corruption before the public. Mayor Hague and the election methods of Hudson County form the main campaign issue. Republican strategists want this issue kept before the public continually. This will automatically be accomplished by Hague if he seeks judicial delay of the legislative mandate.

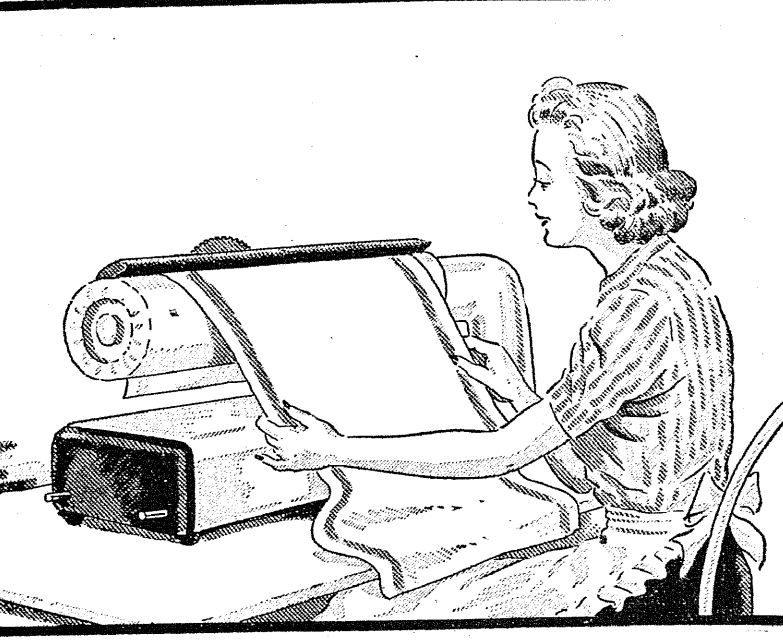

The legislation demonstrated one thing, namely that the so-called Hague Fifth Column in the Legislature has gone temporarily into retirement. Not since 1933 had there been Republican unanimity in the New Jersey Legislature. No one believes the Hague bloc of Republicans has disbanded. It will pop up again. But right now Republican members are more interested in getting elected than in collecting their pay for serving the Hague interests. After election the Hague rewards will look more alluring.

The Woman's Desk

by PEGGY PATTERSON

The subject of the new school of American design can hardly be overlooked by any woman after all the publicity given to the fall fashion shows just completed. Interest has been aroused even among the opposite sex for everyone realizes that this is the first time that American designers have had the opportunity to show their wares unencumbered by Paris dictates. Americans in general are watching with as much unconscious pride as though they were viewing the launching of a new fleet of American protective forces.

Not that there has ever been strong resentment against foreign influence in design. On the contrary, Paris inspirations have always been admired and looked forward to. They have seemed remote, however, to a large group of women who either have felt many of them too daring to wear or who have worn clothes in which they have been so modified that they hardly realized the source of the design. It would appear that the result of having clothes for Americans designed in America by those whose tastes have been formed by surroundings and activities familiar to all of us will have a decided effect on the future appearance of the American woman.

Dramatic Element Missing

It has been noted that the dramatic element is largely missing from the previews just concluded. The temperamental outbursts of the dressmakers which is customary abroad and the more highly-strung manners of the models and the few utterly fantastic designs which except to each Paris opening to prognosticate styles which were still in embryo are absent. The American models with their healthy good looks and nonchalant manners can give the American woman a far clearer picture of how she will look in the clothes which are being made for her. Consequently, her interest in the originator will mount. She will, we hope, begin to think of clothes designed particularly to meet her requirements and will submit her problems to those in authority.

The result of this reduction of the gap between the designer and the wearer should be a great improvement in the quality and beauty of the garments. In the meantime the fashion world is being treated to unexpectedly fine results from our native creators, who, needless to say, have hardly begun to unleash their talents.

Recipe Column

With large, crisp green peppers at their best in the markets and an abundance of firm tomatoes of all sizes this seems the logical season to use these vegetables as the basis of main dishes for fast autumn meals. The following recipes are taken from an excellent new cookbook published by the Home Economics Department of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Stuffed Green Peppers

6 green peppers
2 cups flaky cooked rice
2 tablespoons butter
2 cups ground cooked meat
1 small onion, chopped fine
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup chili sauce, catsup, or meat gravy
1 cup buttered bread crumbs
Cut off stem ends of the peppers, remove the seeds, boil the pepper shells for five minutes in lightly salted water, and drain. Stuff the peppers with the mixture made from the other ingredients, cover with the buttered crumbs and bake in a moderate oven for about thirty minutes or until the peppers are tender and the crumbs brown.

Baked Stuffed Tomatoes

6 large firm tomatoes
6 strips bacon
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1 cup dry bread crumbs
1/2 teaspoon celery seed
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 cup buttered bread crumbs
Wash the tomatoes, remove a thin slice from the stem end and carefully scoop out pulp so that the shells will not be broken. Fry bacon until crisp, remove from pan and break in small pieces. Add parsley and onion to the fat, cook for a few minutes, add the cup of dry crumbs, celery seed, salt, pepper, crisped bacon and tomato pulp. Stir until well mixed and add more salt if necessary. Fill tomato cups with this mixture, cover the top with buttered crumbs and bake in a moderate oven for 45 to 60 minutes, or until tomatoes are tender and crumbs brown.

Something Nice at The Capitol

Streamline glamour is deftly combined with ancient Greek backgrounds in the musical farce "The Boys From Syracuse," as indicated by two of the lovely ladies shown herewith, Rosemary Lane (left) and Irene Hervey. Included in the cast are Allan Jones, Martha Raye, Joe Penner, Charles Butterworth, Alan Mowbray, Eric Flore and Samuel S. Hinds. The film opens Sunday at the Capitol for a three-day run, teamed with "When the Daltons Rode" starring Randolph Scott, Brian Donlevy and Kay Francis.

"McGinty" at the Franklin

Brian Donlevy and Akim Tamiroff are starred in "The Great McGinty" which starts a three-day run at the Franklin Theatre, Nutley, on Sunday. "Tom Brown's School Days" is the co-feature.

Exclusively YOURS by Bill Myers
THOUGHTS While Strolling:
We'd like to bet Hotel Robert Treat manager Lloyd G. Robinson's face was red when he received that piece of sheet music the other day. It was less than a week after hotel men presented him with an easy chair on his birthday anniversary, and the music was a copy of "Old Rocking Chair's Got Me!" ... That Bob Wyder, proprietor of West Caldwell's popular dining, dancing and refreshment spot "The Well," is a go-getter. The other week he was in Southampton, liked an orchestra there and brought the whole aggregation back with him for a one-night stand at "The Well." ... Musicians were the Dead End Kids of Rhythm, featuring "Wally" as M.C., with their manager Herb McCarthy as a ringsider.
That was Monday night; on Tuesday Wyder had Cyril Smith, the Rudy Vallee protege there as a guest. ... That was a cute letter from Miss Dorthy E. Hinkle of 8 Bradley terrace, West Orange. ... Speaking of Alderney milk, she said: "Tell your girl readers that the milky way's the only way to keep slim and healthy. (Being a professional actress I should know.) I drink almost a quart a day, and never have weighed more than 100 pounds soaking wet. The last bill I played in summer stock was 'The Milky Way.' I go into rehearsal in November - it's a college play and I'm to be - of all things - a milk-healthy freshman!"
It must be fun to run a store like Busch & Sons, Newark jewelers. ... Once there was a speck of dust on a counter near the main entrance at Board and William streets, and seven salespeople and an assistant manager went into conference to analyze the problem of how it got there. ... We'd like to bet the Busch store is secretly employing the famous Old Dutch Cleanser gal by night, and that all the clerks have manicures before breakfast.

BEFORE YOUR EYES

By Joe Duval

Football futures at the high school got a big lift this week with the formation of a freshman squad. The kids may be young and they may be small but they're able to learn. And that's what is needed. If the coaches didn't have to spend so much time teaching the fundamentals to the varsity squad they might be able to do something with them. The teams which have been born of the Blue and Gold of recent years could well have stood a little previous knowledge. Nothing definite but we'll bet that Larry Gates was behind the move. He told us last May that would be one of his first steps if he could swing it.

There is another purpose to be served, too. There is no doubt that the younger you start a boy's physical training in sports the bigger and healthier he will grow. That's why we have been campaigning for more than two years for a more intensive program for the elementary schools. Not only with the high school varsity in mind but also for the general health of Belleville's future populace.

Of course, that doesn't solve Larry's problem for this year by any means. He's got trouble on his hands that he won't be able to wash off very easily. It's nice to know the 1942 team is already started, but it's also nice to know that the 1940 squad is not starting off behind the eight-ball.

Experienced gridlers are handy things to have around — but the Bellboys would not know. Bellboys are so used to waiting until they are seniors to come out for the team that they just get the experience in time to graduate. With the Big Blue of Barringer staring them in the face as the menu for next week, it's going to take a lot of scrimmaging to make them veterans.

Hear that at least four ex-Bellboys are in line for spots with the Nutley Iron Dukes this fall. George Tietze is slated for the end of the line with Vin Sorrentino next to him and Charlie Hollweg and Ed Slavin in the backfield. Idea behind the whole thing, we hear, is to get the nucleus for some kind of a Belleville independent team next year.

Any truth to the rumor that the Hilltops have folded? They formed the only local footballers outside the high school in '39 but we hear they've busted.

Red Gorman will be tossing the pigskin for Blair Academy this year. He has put on five or six pounds — which he can easily stand — and should be right in there.

The two old trappers, Cliff Smith and Ed Yerg, will push off tomorrow for the wilds of Canada looking for moose and bear. They bagged a few last year, and knowing them as we do, they won't see Belleville again until there's meat on the table.

The Nereid club championships Sunday ought to be interesting. Sid Salomon and Homer Zink have never matched blades before and the water between the bridge and the clubhouse should be churned to a merry lather. Sid is defending, Homer won it in '37 and '38. It will be the final event of the year on the river.

Kite-Flying Contest For Cubs On Saturday Morning

Cub Pack 350 will hold a kite-flying contest on the Turf Bog Saturday morning at 10. Forty cubs are expected to enter the contest. Cubmaster Harold P. Ross will be in charge, assisted by assistant cubmaster Alfred Adler, Den Dads Charles Steward, Wilbur Riker and Joseph Cardoza, and committeeman Harold Snook. Prizes will be awarded for the three best-flying and three best-made kites.

At the meeting last week at Fewsmith Church, Hughie Murphy received his wolf pin with gold and silver arrow. Joseph Preau received a wolf pin, Richard Carr a bear badge with gold and silver arrowhead, and Marty Bucco a bear badge. Cubs in Mrs. Samuel Sheldon's Den 5 and Mrs. Arthur Sholtz's Den 8 put on an Indian war dance in costume.

New den mothers are Mrs. Henry G. Meyer of 305 Greylock parkway, Mrs. Alfred J. Dutton of 114 Floyd street, Mrs. Charles Maize of 18 Forest street and Mrs. Sholtz of 40 Crescent place.

State Quarantine On Dogs Extended To December 31

The quarantine on dogs has been extended an extra three months, Health Officer Berry said yesterday. Originally scheduled to be lifted October 1, the ban will remain in effect until December 31. Berry said that there have been no rabid dogs discovered here since June and that most of the dog bites reported have occurred on the owners' property. The quarantine is placed by the State Department of Health.

BOWLERS READY FOR SEASON

Thirty-Two Teams Open Manufacturers' League Tonight, Tomorrow

Fall breezes are whipping around corners and that means bowling is in the air. As the end of September approaches alleys are being polished and keggers in all parts of town are practicing their rolling form. At least four leagues with definite Belleville interest are in the first stages of a new campaign at the North Newark Bowling Academy at 90 Verona avenue.

For the second year in a row the Belleville Manufacturers' League has increased its roster. There are thirty-two teams in the circuit, compared to twenty-four last season. The league is split into "A" and "B" divisions. Such strong combines as RCA, Wallace & Tiernan, Pittsburgh Plate Glass and Tiffany are ready to tee off tomorrow night in the "A" section.

American Colortype is set to defend its laurels in the "B" branch, which has gained the eight new entrants. L. Sonneborn Sons has dropped from "A" to "B". The circuit will mark up its first frames tonight. Six teams in each division of the North Newark Recreation League, which opened Monday, either have Belleville men on them or are sponsored by a Belleville group.

In the National section are Baldwin Brush, Griggs & Mead, Lloyd Engineering, Belleville Nutley Buick, Garry's Tavern and Chippay's Tavern. The American division is well supplied with local interest in two teams from Heyer Products, Belmont Tavern, Little Five, Scaroni Service and Micone Hardware.

W. & T. Loop Ready

Other leagues opening in the near future are the Wallace & Tiernan Shop loop which makes its debut Tuesday and the Suburban Schoolmen's circuit opening October 9. Belleville High seldom does much in the latter league outside of the individual tie going annually to Paul Jones of the local faculty.

TRIANGLES CLOSE WITH VICTORY

Knock Off Passaic Cardinals 12-2; Long Hurls Eighth Triumph

The Belleville Triangles closed the season Sunday by trouncing the Passaic Cardinals 12-2 at First Ward Park, Passaic. Louis Long, on the hill all the way for the Belleville nine, pitched eight-hit ball and registered his eighth victory. Tony Piccolina drove in four of the Triangles' runs. The winners' big inning was the ninth when they drove across seven of their twelve runs on seven hits to run their total of hits to fifteen for the day. John Zoppa led the Triangle attack with three hits.

SALOMON, ZINK RACE SUNDAY FOR HONORS

Nereid Oarsmen Vie For Club Championship After Series of Elimination Contests

Sid Salomon of Newark and Homer Zink of 26 Rossmore place will meet Sunday afternoon for the rowing championship of Nereid Boat Club. Several quad and double gig races are also scheduled for the regatta which will start at 2. There will be a handicap race between a quad and a four-oared gig.

The race between Salomon and Zink should be one of the hottest of the year. The Newarker is the defending champion. Zink, who is a senior at Rutgers, won the title in 1937 and 1938. The winner will go to C. Leverich Brett trophy and medal.

Both waded through strong fields to reach the finals. Salomon defeated Howard McMaster; Gerry Rhoades and Al Walker; Zink put out Elmer Gibbs, Warren Everson who was finalist last year, and his brother Darrell Zink on the way to the last round.

Twenty oarsmen began the eliminations two weeks ago.

Summaries

Preliminary round—Gunter Meier defeated Frank Siegler; Bill Juels defeated Roger Ingels; Elmer Gibbs defeated Jack Juels; Ted Miller and Harry Leiss defeated.

First round—Al Walker defeated Meier; Bill Fehon defeated Walt Nicols; Salomon defeated McMaster; Rhoades defeated Bill Juels; Darrell Zink defeated Vic Cooke; Les Burnley defeated Bill Jones; Homer Zink defeated Gibbs; Everson drew a bye.

'REC.' LOOP GETS BOARD OKAY

Permission Given For Use Of Gyms; Transfer $500 For Football

The Recreation Department received approval Monday for at least three of its basketball loops for this winter. The Board of Education granted permission to the department to use the old gymnasium of the high school Monday, Tuesday and Friday nights for the Industrial, Senior and Intermediate leagues respectively.

The league seasons will open November 4 and are expected to end March 21. The board will get $5 a night rental. Request for the use of the new gym on Monday nights for the Church circuit was tabled until the schedule of the high school varsity courtmen is obtained.

The original application of the Recreation Department was for Thursday night for the Intermediate and Friday for the elementary school loop. The request for the latter circuit was laid over until the "board can ascertain if there will be a conflict with its own Saturday morning league for the grammar schools."

The board also transferred $500 from the current expense account to the general athletic fund. The move was necessitated, explained Finance Chairman James M. Lynch as he made the motion, by the fact that the athletic season is opening with a "depleted treasury." Other reasons given were the purchase of new uniforms and the plan to inaugurate freshman football at the high school.

Gates Picks Tentative Line-up for Opener Against Barringer

Team Shows Up Pretty Well Against Weequahic Eleven In Practice Tilt; Backs Are Green

Larry Gates, the high school's new grid coach, sent his light but efficient squad against Weequahic High Saturday morning in the first practice scrimmage of the year and found some "not too bad" results. A tentative line-up has been picked but he could not foretell whether it would follow through to the beginning of the season, which is only a week away when Barringer is met. At the ends of the line he has placed Harry Leiss and Bob Cataldi. Leiss, who seemed a possible center when practice first started, has been shifted to the end so that he can do some punting. In the tackle positions Johnny Jocher and Mike Bonagura have made strong bids. These two boys have added considerable weight to the light Blue and Gold line.

The two guard berths are filled, at least for the present, by Herkie Heimrich and Johnny DeFranza. Herkie and Johnny are very light but have a lot of the all-important punch. The middle position on the line has not been filled yet, but at this stage of the game it seems to rest between Danny Del Tufo and Red Smith.

Backfield Is Weak

Gates will have many a headache trying to pick a backfield out of the six or seven green recruits that he has: Bob Rubino, Red Wille and Gus Bechtoldt are coming along well but they need experience and plenty of it. Wille, who seems to have a little control over the aggregate in passing, is also a fair kicker.

The Bellboys outshined the Weequahic Indians and gained considerable yardage on them. Wille-to-Leiss surprised as a passing combination which should help when the season opens against Barringer a week from Saturday.

The only outstanding play pulled by the Indians was a blocked kick. This happened when Weequahic shifted from a six to a seven-man line. The Bellboys were taken unawares since they had not gotten up to seven-man lines in their football ABC's. Joe Caruso, a heavy guard, held his part of the line well in the tussle and may be watched.

Flash!! — Pitt Minor Leaguers Finally Win One

The Pittsburgh Minor Leaguers found their batting eyes over the weekend and defeated the Vailsburg Shamrocks 15-8. Ace Chalmers, making his first starting assignment for the Minors, allowed eleven hits but scattered them well to give only three earned runs, the rest being made through errors. Leading batters for the Minors were Leo O'Reilly and Jack Hardell knocking out three and two hits respectively. A home run hit by Hardell sent three runs across the plate. Farrington of the Shamrocks led his team with three hits, one a homer.
