

HOUSE TO HOUSE DRIVE BY CHEST STARTS NOV. 1

Charlton Seeks One More Team Captain; May Contribute By Mail

John S. Charlton, chairman of the house-to-house division of the Community Chest drive which will start its canvass a week from tomorrow, said yesterday that he is attempting to fill out his list of captains for the nineteen districts. Eighteen of the captains have already accepted their assignments. Charlton said that he would like to have 500 volunteers working on the canvass and for that reason was still seeking volunteers. The latter are requested to contact their district captains or Charlton at Belleville 2-2266-M. The captains who have already signified their intention of working in the campaign are:

1. Daniel Spillane, 12 Ralph street.
2. Nicholas Duen, 28 Greylock avenue.
3. Daniel Kelly, 16 Belmont street.
4. Mrs. May J. Holden, 836 Washington avenue.
5. Harold Cummings, 30 Lloyd place.
6. Harold F. Ross, 72 Perry street.
7. Halley F. Hickok, 200 Greylock parkway.
8. Earl W. Seibert, 364 Washington avenue.
9. Edward R. Reed, 42 Oak street.
10. Mrs. John Messarano, 359 Union avenue.
11. Fred Oeschner, 95 Tiona avenue.
12. Edward Kelly, 9 Adelaide street.
13. Mrs. Louis Lemper, 493 Joram street.
14. Mrs. Elmer Goody, 14 Perry street.
15. Fred Evans, 8 Celia terrace.
16. Mrs. Ruth Fredericks, 23 Montgomery place.
17. Mrs. Frank Ackerman, 60 Fairway avenue.
18. None yet.

Contribute By Mail

Contributions may be made by mail, Charlton said. All checks should be sent to the Belleville Welfare Federation at 338 Washington avenue. "Because of the $1,000 increase in the combined budgets of the participating agencies," Charlton said, "it is necessary to raise enough additional money from former contributors or to find 1,000 new subscribers at $1 or more each. Will you share your increased earnings with organizations that help Belleville?" "The heads of all churches are being contacted to secure help of members to share the responsibility of calling on 10,000 and more possible contributors to the fund." All team captains will meet Monday at 8 in the home of Chas. Chairman Frank Chambers of 60 Perry street to receive last-minute instructions and to share problems and responsibilities before the official opening of the drive.

Split Contributions

"Many people do not contribute because they are asked to give in another city where they work," Charlton declared. "Ask your employer for permission to split your contribution and give a small portion where you live." "The six participating agencies are not serving inanimate objects, building machines or constructing houses. They are working conscientiously with human beings who are to be our future American citizens."

Belleville is known all over the United States as the town that pays as it goes and has a right to be proud of the name. Therefore, should it not be true of our social welfare agencies as well as of our municipal government?"

MUCH WORK STILL TO BE DONE

Congressman Vreeland Tells Rotary Armament Manufacturers Important

The real work of national defense is yet to be done and will be accomplished by the armament manufacturers and the men who will train the youth of the nation, Representative Albert Vreeland told the luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club yesterday at the Forest Hill Field Club.

Vreeland spoke informally on defense. He holds a commission in the Reserve Officers Training Corps and gathered much information last summer when he observed the National Guard maneuvers at Ogdensburg, N. Y. The maneuvers were entirely too vague, he declared, and he went to the training with broomsticks and trucks for tanks will do little good. The big job today is getting the arms to put into the men's hands.

Congress is not in a position to understand exactly what are the demands for national defense, he said, and added that Congress feels that promises and agreements have been entered into by the government which must be backed up. For that reason it is willing to appropriate whatever money may be necessary to carry out the defense program.

Democrats Open Quarters With Speech-Making

Holmwood Attacks Hartley's Attendance Record In Congress; Christie Criticizes G.O.P. Control Of Election Machinery in This County

The local Democratic committee literally took the present campaign fight into the opposition's stronghold Monday night when it opened its campaign headquarters at 360 Washington avenue. The building is the same as that used to foster Harold G. Hoffman's fight for the Republican gubernatorial nomination last May. An overflow gathering of local Democratic district leaders heard talks by William R. Holmwood, candidate for Congress, and George Christie, town chairman.

Christie opened the meeting by charging once more that the Republicans, through their control of the county election machinery, were "using all efforts to prevent a large Democratic turnout on Election Day." He warned all workers to be on the alert to combat such efforts.

He also stated that, despite the fact that Franklin Roosevelt is far in the lead in the race for the presidency, all workers must "keep on the job to help carry in Edison, Cromwell, Holmwood and all county and state candidates."

Holmwood attacked incumbent Fred A. Hartley, Jr., principally on the latter's alleged "worst attendance record of any member in Congress." Holmwood said in part:

"You may have gotten the impression from the campaign that the only issues of this election are the anti-preparedness votes cast by my opponent and his peculiar opposition to the rendering of effective aid to England. A brief investigation of his conduct in Congress during the past ten years would convince any impartial observer that his entire record is one of ineffectuality. He has the worst attendance record of any member in Congress. During the five years from 1935 to 1939, five of the most important years in our history, he was absent over half the time. You pay your congressman $10,000 a year and he will at least make an effort to attend to his duties. Out of 801 roll calls during that period, he was marked absent, paired or not voting 430 times."

"Whenever there is legislation to be passed for the benefit of the great mass of the people, and such legislation is opposed by a few special interests," Holmwood said, "he can be counted upon to appear on that occasion and vote against the wishes of the people of his district. He opposed and voted against the Wages and Hours Bill, and he has voted to cut down on the WPA and against increases for the C.C.C. and the National Youth Administration, and against funds to increase aluminum production for airplanes."

"While the administration of welfare work in Belleville has received several favorable commendations, in the effort of the legislature to force every possible economy within municipalities the total relief cost in Belleville placed the town in the category of municipalities which will have to operate under state restrictions unless certain reductions are made in operating items."

Gary Vanderbilt Is No. 1 In Draft Registration

Board Reports 3,508 Local Men Signed; Stanley J. Goodford Is Last on The List, Receiving No. 3,508

A total of 3,508 Belleville young men have been registered for the draft, John P. Dailey, chairman of the draft board, announced this week. All told 3,622 names were taken, but 114 of these were out-of-town boys who happened to be in Belleville on that date. The local figure will undoubtedly rise when the cards of localites who were in other cities on October 16 begin to come in, Dailey said. Within twenty-four hours of the closing of the registration the local board, which also includes Herbert V. Hardman and John F. Gannon, had assigned numbers to the 3,508. The numbers were given at random as the cards were picked.

To Gary Vanderbilt of 58 Malone avenue went No. 1. This does not mean, Dailey pointed out, that Vanderbilt will be the first Bellevilleite to leave for camp. That will be determined when Secretary of War Stimson begins to draw numbers by lot, probably within the next week.

The last number drawn, No. 3,508, went to Stanley J. Goodford of 27 Ralph street. Other outstanding numbers: No. 1,000 went to Dr. William J. Fabris of 26 Essex street; 2,000 to Hugh A. Clark of 55 Bremond street; 3,000 to James P. Donachie of 168 Washington avenue.

Loan Stenographic Help Four public agencies and two industrial concerns loaned the stenographic help for the job of typing the list of names. The daughters of Hardman and Gannon also assisted. Twelve stenographers were loaned by Wallace & Tiernan Company, National Grain Yeast Corporation, town hall, the high school, the Motor Vehicle Department and the Welfare Department.

Many of the out-of-town boys who registered here were merely passing through, others visiting here. Among them were residents of Hollywood, Chicago and the Canal Zone.

MAYOR CONFERS WITH BOARD ON STADIUM

Numerous Questions Must Be Settled; May Not Use It This Fall

Hopes were revived this week that an early solution of the Turf Bog question might be reached but all parties involved remained mum on the possibility of the Bell-boys playing on the new field this year.

Mayor Williams sat down with the Board of Education in a closed conference Monday night to discuss the problem. Out of the meeting came simply the message that the discussion had taken place and that there were many angles to be considered before the thing could be settled.

"I submitted recommendations covering the management of the stadium and the enclosed grounds," Williams said after the meeting. "Several points very pertinent to the finances of the Board of Education and to municipal finances require further study and I expect to meet again with the board in a week or ten days."

It is believed that the "points pertinent to finances" involved the matter of which board would assume the bonds issued to cover the cost of the project — into which the town poured $54,000. A possible stumbling block to the school board taking over the field might be the assumption of $54,000 added school indebtedness.

No Decision Reached

Board president Schmutz said yesterday that the board was not asked by the Mayor to take over the stadium. He declared that the furthest the discussion went on that point was "if it were offered, would the board be interested in taking over the field?" He said no decision was reached on the question.

Several members of the Commission expressed themselves two weeks ago as favoring retention of jurisdiction in that body's hands. Commissioner Noll in particular favored this view, claiming that it would then be possible for each of the five town departments to cooperate in its operation.

PLAN CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL

Mary Elizabeth Compton Named Director; To Be Held December 16

Mary Elizabeth Compton of Wesley Methodist Church was selected Tuesday night as the director for the second annual Belleville Community Christmas Festival which will be held in the high school auditorium December 16. The accompanist has not yet been chosen.

Rehearsals will be held in Wesley Church every Tuesday evening at 8 beginning November 12. Mrs. Lloyd C. Nunn, chairman of the committee on arrangements, announced Tuesday. Rehearsals are also scheduled for November 26, December 3, 10 and 15.

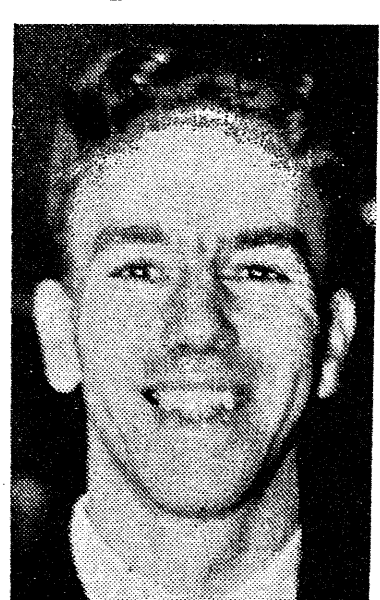

A chorus of at least 200 voices seems assured, Mrs. Nunn said. At least seven musical organizations of town have already signified their intention of participating: Woman's Club Choral, Belleville Men's Glee Club and the choirs of Wesley Methodist, Christ Episcopal, St. Peter's Catholic, Fewsmithe Presbyterian and Dutch Reformed Churches.

The proceeds will be donated to the Community Service Bureau to be used to purchase Christmas baskets for needy families of the town.

G. O. P. CAMPAIGN NEARING PEAK

Big Rally Monday Night At Vets' Hall; Planning Final Drive

A series of rallies in different parts of the town have been scheduled by the Republican campaign officials to climax the pre-election drive, George W. Haslam, secretary of the local Willie-Hendrickson Club, announced last night.

One of the biggest is slated for Monday night in Veterans Hall at Belleville avenue and Stephens street. The rally is designed primarily for residents of the valley. Walter P. Weiss is chairman of the committee on arrangements. Haslam expects to announce the speakers today. The GOP will invade Silver Lake for the second time when they hold a rally in Stefanelli Hall at 83 Franklin street next Wednesday night. Salvatore Russo and Charles Cuzzo are in charge of arrangements.

The local campaign will end with a huge rally at party headquarters, Washington avenue and Essex street, a week from tomorrow night. Haslam expects to complete arrangements for the affair within a few days.

More than 100 Willie supporters attended a meeting last night at the Tripoli Park Political and Social Club at 46 Naples avenue. They heard talks by Senator Homer C. Zink, Commissioner Joseph King, Superintendent of Elections Anthony Miele and Assemblyman Dominick Cavicchia.

Juvenile Keyboard Group Formally Organizes

Although they have been meeting all summer, the members of the Juvenile Keyboard Club held their first formal session last Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 at the studio of their counselor, Miss Hazel Ellsworth on Little street. Each student tried conducting the rhythm band. After an ear-training contest, games were played. A program of pieces for the pupils was followed by refreshments. The next meeting will be held on November 16.

HAVE SOLD TOWN BACK TO PUBLIC, WILLIAMS SAYS

Tells Chamber of Commerce Of Success Through Paid Advertising

The present administration of the town has succeeded in selling Belleville back to its citizens by rebuilding their confidence after the dark days of 1930-33 and in so doing has sold the community to the State, Mayor Williams told the Chamber of Commerce of the Oranges and Maplewood at a luncheon at the Palmer House, East Orange, on Tuesday.

The picture was black in 1930, he said, and he began immediately to make a detailed analysis of the financial structure. He believed that someone should know the town's assets and deficiencies.

It was difficult to achieve harmony in the early days. At a meeting of 800 to 900 citizens in 1933, Williams suggested an item of $5,000 in the budget for municipal advertising. He said that his purpose was to use the first year's appropriation to sell the town back to the citizens, to rebuild their confidence.

The second year he hoped to "sell Belleville to the county and the third year to industry." The hardest thing to overcome was the "cynical lethargy of the people." Advertising has paid dividends, he said. Many industries have located here in the past few years and last year magazines and newspapers gave the town fifteen times as much space in free publicity as the town paid for in advertising.

22% Of Ratables

His plan, he said, was to accept only selected industries, to keep them diversified and to keep dangerous manufacturing plants out of town. Industrial plants owned twenty-two per cent of the town's ratables, he declared.

He paid compliment to the "men who had helped him in the future." He said that his surveys had shown that there has been a twenty-three per cent reduction in population in the valley in recent years and that this point had led him to believe that the eastern part of town is the industrial area of the future. He said that he is happy when he sees a confidence reflected in the faces of townspeople which was not there ten years ago.

Superintendent Is Lukewarm To Manual Training

Parmer Gives Support To Creating New Classes But Declares That A Junior High School Is Still The Best Solution

Establishment of manual training classes in the elementary schools received a faint-hearted endorsement from School Superintendent Parmer in a report that was made public Monday night, but he expressed himself as still believing that a junior high school here would be the better solution. Parmer was commissioned several months ago to make a survey of the possibility of the courses after a report by the State Department of Education had criticized the Belleville school system for the lack of an industrial arts program for seventh and eighth grades. The superintendent submitted his report at the September meeting of the Board of Education but it was not made public "until the members of the board had had a chance to study it."

Board President Schmutz said that the program could be installed here at a cost of "about $7,000" even though Parmer's report showed figures totalling nearly $8,400.

Parmer spent several pages showing the space available in each of the eight schools affected and the costs involved and concluded the entire report with: "I must report that I regard the Junior High School set-up as the ideal approach to this problem because thereby there may be an enriched shop program and domestic science program carried out by both boys and girls. Just as important as these subjects are a sound physical education program and an arts and music program."

"However, if it is impossible to consider the needs for a junior high school, I should be glad to have our upper grades program enriched by whatever manual arts program could be carried out and I shall give every effort to carrying it out as effectively and efficiently as is possible should it be established."

Endorsed By State

The junior high school idea was also endorsed by the state report several months ago when it recommended that the district consider plans which will eventuate in a 7-3-3 organization. It gave as the reasons 1) relief of crowding in the high school, 2) crowding in the high school, 2) crowding in the high school.

Local Draft Officials Ready For Numbers Drawing Tuesday

Keenan's Advisory Committee Prepared To Help Men Answer Long Questionnaire; Recommend Clerk

The machinery of the local Selective Service Board fully oiled and primed in anticipation of the drawing of the numbers for compulsory military training. Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson will draw the first numbers by lot Tuesday at noon. Wednesday the first of the questionnaires will be sent out by the local board and the forms must be returned within five days of their mailing. Yesterday Town Attorney Lawrence E. Keenan, who is chairman of the Draft Advisory Committee, announced the names of twenty-eight associates on the committee. Last night the Service Board sent to Trenton the names of its recommendations for the posts of chief clerk and assistant. The board expects to release these names as soon as they are confirmed by Governor Moore.

DEMOCRATS PLAN THREE RALLIES

Groups From Four Wards To Meet During Week At Headquarters

George J. Christie, town Democratic chairman, announced last night that a series of rallies will be held next week at the headquarters at 360 Washington avenue, near the Capitol Theatre.

The First and Third Wards will hold a joint meeting Tuesday under the leadership of their respective leaders, Daniel Spillane and Patrick Byrnes. Wednesday has been selected by the Second Ward for its rally. John H. Baney, ward chairman, will be assisted by Albert Carragher, William J. Horgan, Franklin W. Edwards and Martin Higgins.

The Fourth Ward, under James Constantino and Angelo Domenick, Jr., will meet Thursday.

The Democratic nominee for Congress, William R. Holmwood, together with candidates for the Board of Freeholders and members of the Assembly, will speak. Christie said that all meetings are open to the public and that an elaborate program of entertainment has been arranged.

Draw Every Number

Drawing for positions in the draft list will continue all afternoon and evening in Washington. Every number in the nation will be placed in the order in which it will be called. The saying is that "if your number is not called until after supper don't worry — you will not get away for several years."

Those who will go in the first contingent will be notified immediately by the local board. The man will then be given slightly less than three weeks to wind up his affairs and will leave for camp on November 18. Before voluntary enlistments were taken into consideration it was estimated that Belleville would be called upon to send ninety-four in the first call. It is now believed that the number will be considerably less.

LABOR SHORTAGE DELAYS STREETS

Not Enough Relief Men To Do Work Town Tells Builder

The extremely low rate of unemployment in Belleville stood out strongly again Tuesday night when the Commission had to put off the request of the Confort Construction Company for repairs to Pleasant avenue because "there simply is not enough relief labor in town to tackle the job."

Confort appeared before the Commission to request that the work on the street, begun some time ago, be completed. He was ready to erect six new houses there, he said, but the condition of the street made it impossible. There is still a large hole in front of one house there, he declared, which remained from the work which was done previously.

Commissioner King declared that there is no relief labor available, that the six men now cutting wood in the Welfare Department's woodyard are the only men who might possibly be used. Town Engineer Sheehan said that the job would require six men for two weeks.

King declared that, if the work in the woodyard was stopped, it would be necessary to buy coal for heaters for the winter. He said that there are only twenty men available for such work in the town, that all are occupied elsewhere.

Work Only 20 Hours Mayor Williams pointed out that men are not permitted to work more than twenty hours a week, that they are not allowed to work their hours ahead. "Union rules are mild compared to these regulations," he said.

After Sheehan estimated that it would cost $400 to hire labor even though Confort said that he would supply the materials, the matter was temporarily shelved while Williams and Sheehan try to work out a solution.

WEST SIDE PROVES TOO POWERFUL FOR BELLBOYS

Scoring First Touchdown of Season Only Consolation In 19-6 Thumping

A game, scrappy band of Bell-boys were pulverized by sheer weight and constant line-hammering Saturday in dropping a 19-0 decision to Newark West Side at Clearman Field. It was Belleville's second defeat in three starts this year but marked one turning point — they crossed into paydirt for the first time.

To left guard Vito DeFranza went the honor of scoring Belle-

Tom Contaldi blocked a Green and White punt, DeFranza scooped up the ball and crossed the goal line. It was late in the final period when the score came. The tally was 19-0 against the Zebras at the time and the Bellboys had taken a terrific beating from a team that out-weighted them by ten pounds per man.

West Side had taken the ball over at mid-field when the Rough Riders fell on Johnny Walker's fumble. Three line thrusts gained them only four yards and Jim Drechsel dropped back to punt. The scrimmage line was on Belleville's 45.

Ran Thirty Yards DeFranza and Contaldi broke through fast and blocked the punt. The ball rolled back to West Side's thirty, where the former picked it up. Once he almost stumbled and fell, but manage to regain his balance and cross the line while the Blue and Gold stands went wild for the first time this year. Danny Del Tufo's placement for the extra point was wide.

West Side depended almost entirely on line-battering, and only occasionally tossed in an end sweep or a reverse. Just before the end of the first half came the first break. Tony Orsini, a fine plunger de luxe, went through on a line buck and rumbled thirty-six yards to Belle-ville's six. Ted Metz caught him from behind and knocked him out of bounds.

The score was averted only temporarily, however, as Sam Napolitano plunged over from the one-yard line three plays later. Drechsel's dropkick was wide.

A fumble set up the second score. Bob Rubino bobbled the ball and Len Mekens recovered it on Belleville's 15. Orsini once fumbled but once again McKens dropped on it — for a five-yard gain. A holding penalty set the Newarkers back for a time but a pass from Napolitano to Al Kistler put the ball on the two from where it was a simple matter for Napolitano to take it over. Patsy Collato added the point from placement.

Pass For Score

A few minutes later West Side marched forty-seven yards to its third score, climaxing the advance with a twenty-yard forward from Bernie Gones to Mekens for the touchdown. Again Drechsel's dropkick was wide.

Outstanding performances for the losers were turned in by Johnny Joher, Herkie Heinrich and DeFranza on the line, Bill Hunkle and Ted Metz in the backfield.

Money Stolen From Registers In King Arthur Market

One Case That Emphasizes Importance of Bureau

Community Service Organization Helps To Solve Many Family Problems; Is One Of Groups Benefitting From Drive By Chest

The Community Service Bureau, the town's leading welfare organization, receives the biggest share of the money which is collected through the annual Community Chest drive. It handles many family problems during the year. Printed below is a case which was submitted by the Bureau as a typical example of the troubles which they are asked to solve. Naturally, the names used are fictitious.

As a young girl Mrs. Betty Carlton was popular and vivacious. Her family was comfortably situated and she enjoyed a pleasant, carefree existence. Then she fell in love and was married. The lifetime of happiness which she had expected so confidently never materialized. Her husband was weak. He offered only physical abuse to her and their two children. He never adequately supported his family and finally, after ten years of married life, he disappeared and has not been heard from since.

The problem facing Mrs. Carlton was one that required more strength and experience than she possessed. Confronted with depression years and the necessity of providing for her two sons, she became desperate. Occupied as she was in trying to provide for herself and her children, it was inevitable that she must neglect her duties as a mother. School and town authorities soon had occasion to earmark the Carlton boys as lawless little troublemakers.

Talked To Bureau Finally, Mrs. Carlton talked with a case worker at the Community Service Bureau. There her problem was carefully considered and analyzed. A young mother, possessing the most earnest and admirable motives, her two boys, capable of developing into respected members of their community, surely there was valuable material to salvage.

The salvaging process was undertaken and it is continuing to yield returns after more than three years of continuous effort. Through the Community Service interest, Mrs. Carlton has been given occasional gifts of money. She has had more opportunities to earn money. Her children have been given increased attention in school because authorities have become familiar with their background.

Mrs. Carlton finds her path considerably smoother as a result of the social worker's helping hand, and she has lost much of her nervous tension. The future of the family has become something which can be regarded hopefully and cheerfully. Mrs. Carlton and her sons illustrate but one instance of the way in which contributions to the Community Service Bureau are used to restore hope and confidence to the lives of unfortunate people. The world can be a hard unfeeling place in which to exist or it can be a source of hope and a setting for achievement.

TWENTY-TWO WINS FOR PITT MINORS

Club Won One More Game Than They Did During 1939

The Pittsburgh Minor Leaguers finished their baseball season with a record of twenty-two victories against seventeen defeats. This year opposition was furnished by some of the best teams in the northern part of the state but their standing is one game better than last year's. Pitching honors go to A. J. Chalmers who, although worked in only two games, won them both. George Wiggins hurled the majority of the games but his record stands at seven wins and five defeats.

Bill Lynch, youngest member of the team, led the batting campaign with an average of .333. Gene Wetherill and Leo O'Reilly had higher batting averages but they competed in less than two-thirds of the games played.

Local Boys Leave Tuesday For The CCC Camp

The next contingent of Belleville boys to leave for CCC camps will depart next Tuesday. Welfare Director Hewitt and Miss Julie Chalmers, his assistant in charge of CCC work, announced this week. Applications will be received any time up to Tuesday morning. Miss Chalmers pointed out, however, that enrollment in the CCC does not exempt from conscription.

The Belleville boys who left last week for camps formed one of the smallest groups this town has ever sent. Only eight went away. Three more were rejected, two because of bad teeth and a third because he was underweight. The limit in the category is 107.

to pay the assessment for sidewalks which were laid in front of his home, even though Mrs. Breen appeared before the Town Commission Tuesday night to protest vehemently against it.

The pavement was laid two years ago over her objections, she declared. As a matter of fact, the Public Works men appeared one morning and started to rip up the bluestone flagging which was there. She declared that, after telling them to stop, she went in the house to call Town Hall and that while she was telephoning the men finished the job.

Town Engineer Sheehan said that he went to the Breen home that morning and told the woman that, if she wished it, he would have the stones replaced. He said that she then inquired as to price. Mrs. Breen and Sheehan both spoke to Mr. Breen at his office and then the Breens said to go ahead with the work, said the engineer. "That is not so," Mrs. Breen Welsh, Sheehan's assistant, corroborated the latter's story but Mrs. Breen countered with "You weren't even there."

Mayor Williams said that the Breens had registered no objection until they received a bill for the work. Commissioner Waters declared that Mrs. Breen had told him at the time that her husband wanted the work done.

Town Attorney Keanan said that it is now too late to make a legal objection to the work and that, in his opinion, the Breens must pay the bill, the amount of which was not disclosed.

Thompson is one of a group which will supervise life in the main college dormitories in cooperation with the Student Council, campus government group. He is a member of the Clara staff, the band and dance orchestra, and has participated in intra-mural sports.

Robert M. Wertz of 229 Overlook avenue is one of the 170 freshmen pledged to fraternities at Lehigh at the close of the annual rushing season. Wertz is signed up for Beta Theta Pi.

Robert Bangert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bangert, Jr., of 143 Cedar Hill avenue, portrayed the traditional "Bill Orange" Saturday for Syracuse University when the New Yorkers met Cornell on the gridiron. Bill Orange is the twelve-foot tall (with stilts) gentleman who parades at the football games between the halves.

Bangert had never been on stilts before last week but he got through the practice stage with a record of only two falls. They resulted in a charley-horse and a scraped knee. But the payoff came Saturday before 30,000 people when he came through without a fall or a scratch. He will fill the role at all Syracuse games this year.

Norman H. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. Thompson of 185 Hornblower avenue, has been elected secretary of his class for the first semester. The honor is the second campus position the local student has received this year. Several weeks ago he was named to the Dormitory Council, the group that supervises life in the college residence groups. Thompson is taking a bachelor of science course, majoring in business administration.

Robert English, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. English of 92 Tiona avenue, is a member of the golf squad at Blair Academy.

LEWELLYN BOOK NO. 1 FAVORITE

"How Green Was My Valley" Replaces "Kitty Foyle" At Library

"How Green Was My Valley" by Lewellyn has replaced Christopher Morley's "Kitty Foyle" as the favorite of the Public Library readers, according to Mrs. Elizabeth A. Shattuck, librarian. "Stars of the Sea" by Mason is in third place followed by "King's Row" by Bellerman. Two books which have stood well up among the leaders for several months are next, "Nazarene" by Asche is fifth followed by Oscar Levant's "Smattering of Ignorance."

Three new books have recently been added to the seven-day collection. They are:

To the Indies, by C. S. Forester is an exciting and unusual story of a middle-aged man who accompanied Columbus on his third voyage to the new world. This book of the fifteenth century is packed with thrills and adventure, kidnapping, hurricane, shipwreck, fights with Indians and exploration of the unknown jungles of South America.

Doctor Dogbody's Leg by James Norman Hall contains the ten salty tales of a surgeon of the British Navy, each story a different version of how he lost his left leg.

The Unquiet Field by Beatrice Seymour is the story of three generations of an English family. This book is a picture of change through a period of years from the American Revolution to the era of industrial invention.

Bureau Votes To Cooperate With Refugee Group

The trustees of the Community Service Bureau have voted to accede to a request to cooperate with the United States Committee for the Care of European Children. This involves investigation and supervision of homes caring for children placed in Belleville by the U. S. Committee. The Federal Children's Bureau, which is supervising the work of the committee, suggests that the staff member assigned to these duties shall be one who has training and experience in child welfare work.

No one is able to state when and in what volume the need for homes for children from England may become a pressing problem.

Town Settles Personal Tax Bill of Fruit Products

The defunct Fruit Products Company at Cortlandt and Little streets settled its tax difficulties with the town when its compromise was accepted by the Board of Commissioners Tuesday. The company's balance on the books showed $1,404 owed the town in personal taxes. The firm was assessed at $30,000 on this score. The company offered to settle the bill for $351, one-quarter of the full amount, and the Commission accepted.

Fruit Products pointed out that it had disposed of its personal property before the assessment date of October 1, 1939. The Commission recognized the fact that the company now has no known personal assets which could be attached and therefore accepted the quarter payment and wrote off the remaining three-quarters.

To Clean Up Debris

The debris surrounding the site of the old Fruit Products Company plant at Cortlandt and Little streets is expected to be cleaned up today. A protesting petition signed by eighteen neighbors was presented to the Board of Commissioners Tuesday night.

A letter from an official of the company was also read in which he stated that, just as the demolition of the plant was nearing completion, the truck strike paralyzed North Jersey. Now that the strike is over, he said, the condition will be remedied immediately.

"Take it away, mister - it's the best yet!"

OUT in the vast Buick plants you'll find men who were building motorcars when many of us were still looking forward to our first long pants.

So when these veterans talk to you about 1941 models, you're listening to Old Man Experience, seasoned by years-long, backstage in-the-know.

And straight from the shoulder, without any ifs, ands, butts or maybes, these old-timers will tell you that the Buicks now coming off the assembly lines top anything produced here since the first "one-lunger" chugged its way down the street.

It isn't only that they're handsomer carriages. Or that they're bigger, roomier, steadier with road-hugging weight and poise.

It isn't just that the new FIREBALL* engines, micropoise-balanced to vibrationless ease, carry Buick's exclusive Dynaflex principle to new heights of agile brilliance while actually getting 10% to 15% more miles per gallon.

It isn't simply that these great eager cars ride easier, handle more nimbly, surround you with travel-luxury that even surpasses the oft-praised comforts of home.

It's even more in the brawn and inbuilt-character and fine-drawn precision—in all the things you don't see about a Buick no less than in the things you can lay eye on.

For while designers were snaring inspiration on paper, while engineers were calculating new marvels, while test-crews were hammering experimental models over the roads—other men were busy arming skilled hands with new and finer tools, setting still higher levels for fine craftsmanship to reach.

Now this modelwise fellow sums it all up. He says simply, "the best yet" is waiting for you.

He means we have never before built automobiles so good as these we offer you now.

Never before so well and durably combined so many materials, so successfully contrived to give you maximum contentment with your automobile.

You'll find a lot of fine cars offered this coming year—the natural go-ahead of a progressive industry sees to that.

THE MOST IMPORTANT NEW CAR ANNOUNCEMENT DODGE HAS EVER MADE

DODGE presents to America a Great New Car with FLUID-DRIVE*

For 26 years, the public faith in the Dodge printed word has been a valued Dodge asset. Dodge has found it sound policy to make the performance of its cars exceed its promises in print.

The enthusiastic adjectives used in this advertisement represent no departure from this policy. They are used because the facts demand them.

This IS the most important new car announcement Dodge has ever made. This IS the story of the greatest car Dodge has ever built. To say less would be to slight the full and simple truth.

H. J. O'Neil President
DODGE BROTHERS CORPORATION

THE GREAT NEW DODGE for 1941 is longer, lower, roomier. It is completely re-designed; beautiful and distinguished in its sweeping new lines. It reflects what smart Americans call "good taste."

These things your eyes will tell you. But you'll need to "feel" as well as "see," to get the full thrill of the new Dodge Fluid-Drive.

Only by taking the wheel, on the road, can you experience the miracle of this new and wholly effortless way of driving.

Dodge Fluid-Drive frees you from the nuisance of gear-shifting and clutch-coddling. A touch of your toe on the accelerator or the brake becomes the complete driving operation. You use your hands merely to steer.

DODGE FLUID-DRIVE lets you start off in high and accelerate to top speed without shifting gears. It lets you slow down to one mile an hour... then move quickly through traffic without shifting. Halt at a stop light, then glide ahead without shifting or declutching.

You can climb hills at one to five miles an hour in high, come to a dead stop on the hill, then start up again... still in high. You can creep through heavy sand, dig out of rutted roads, plough through snow...all without declutching or shifting gears. And without stalling the engine!

Like many truly great things, Dodge Fluid-Drive is simplicity itself in design and operation. There's nothing new to learn. You simply cut out two old and irksome driving motions... gear-shifting and declutching.

And when you want extra-fast getaway, Dodge Fluid-Drive gives you an EXTRA surge of power at a flip of a finger, in "second"!

IT IS OFTEN SAID that Dodge is one of America's most economical cars, in its consumption of gas and oil.

Now comes Dodge Fluid-Drive teaming up with Floating Power (which banishes engine vibration) to give you a new standard of silken engine performance. An oil-like smoothness that makes you forget that old mooted argument about the number of cylinders.

Now for the first time, you get the remarkable economy for which Dodge has always been famous, plus a new velvet-smooth flow of power that puts to shame many an engine with more cylinders.

THE 1941 DODGE was conceived in the industry's newest and best-equipped engineering laboratories. It is the result of years of testing and re-testing. Even such a factor as the type of rubber used in Dodge was specified as a result of research by our engineers.

And there are no less than half a hundred other new improvements in Dodge for 1941 that came from the minds of these metallurgists, physicists and chemists.

We're tempted to tell you about all of these exciting innovations. But you'll get the thrill of them best if you go to see the car...and discover for yourself its vast wealth of new comforts, new conveniences, new luxury features.

A TRIP TO THE DODGE SHOW-ROOM will confirm every word of this message. A ride behind the wheel will supply an experience no words can convey.

No matter how much MORE, or how much LESS, you expect to pay for a car this year...by all means look at the big new...great new...dependable Dodge. Ride in it and experience the thrill of Fluid-Drive for yourself. Ask your dealer for a free book that gives you the inside story of the car.

Once you take the wheel of a 1941 Dodge with Fluid-Drive, we believe you won't be content until you own it!

Publishing Draft Numbers, Names

The News publishes today the numbers and names of those who are eligible for the draft as furnished by the local draft board. The publication of these names is a contribution on our part in this tremendous program which officially starts on Tuesday when Secretary of War Henry Stimson draws the first number from the goldfish bowl in Washington. Every one of the 3,508 local men who are registered will be interested to learn the order in which the numbers will be drawn. So will their families and their friends.

Publication of these names we felt would be the simplest way of all of the men learning their numbers so that they may be able to check them on Tuesday. It is only with the splendid cooperation of the draft board that we have been able to accomplish this and we are appreciative of the effort they made to aid us in carrying out the plan.

We urge all those who have been registered for the draft to keep the pages on which the draft numbers and names are listed. The numbers which have been allotted to each one of those printed there will be the number which the men will have as long as conscription is in effect. Keep your copy of the list close by so that when the numbers are given over the radio or published in the papers on Tuesday and Wednesday, you can quickly tell whether your number or that of any member in your family or of a friend has been drawn. We're just as much on edge and as curious about it as you are.

Study The Sample Ballot

Each voter will receive a sample ballot in the mail within the next few days. It will show the location of the various parties and candidates as they will appear on the voting machine on Tuesday, November 5. Be sure to study it and acquaint yourself with every detail of it so that when you go to vote on November 5 you will know just what to do. If there is any doubt in your mind after having looked at the sample ballot ask a member of the election board. Do not wait until after you are inside of the voting machine, for then it will be too late.

For the coming election Belleville will have its heaviest registration in the town's history. As strange as it may seem to regular voters, there will be a number of people coming out to vote who will be using the voting machines for the first time.

Support Comes From Within

That the State Department of Education experts were not entirely off the track in their recommendations for a junior high school for this community was evidenced this week when Superintendent of Schools Wayne R. Parmer told the members of the Board of Education that a junior high would be the best solution to the problems which are affecting the seventh and eighth grades of the elementary schools. At the time the State Department filed its report, most of the board members swallowed it like a sour pickle and did some talking about the survey men recommending that Belleville go on a spending spree.

While no comment was made publicly, some of those who have criticized the junior school plan must have felt a bit squeamish when their own superintendent of schools came forth with a "well, boys they were right" pronouncement. The superintendent should be complimented for having stood his ground and made his recommendation knowing that it would be unpopular. Some school supervisors in a similar situation would have turned in a report that would have met with the hearty approval of the school trustees but would not have been a true picture of the real facts.

The superintendent did not bluntly tell the board that it was a junior school or nothing. He told them that he would cooperate in doing what he could to carry on a manual arts program which they feel is within reach of their budget.

Once again, however, we wish to make the point that this community not too far in the future must face the facts concerning a junior school if the educational wisdom of the State Department and experts and of our own superintendent of schools is to be regarded.

While we often feel that the line can be drawn on some of the educational frills which educators frequently claim are so vital to the development of young people's talents, we believe that there should not be any shirking when it comes to establishing the basis for a sound progressive education program. The 7-3-3 program — which is the kindergarten through sixth grades in the elementary schools, seventh through ninth in the junior high and tenth through twelfth in the high school — was recommended by the State Department. It is in use in many of the communities in this section. It has proved to be an improvement over the system which is now in effect here.

It would require the expenditure of considerable money. This is probably something which can not be done at present but when there is talk of pouring additional money for additions and extensive repairs to some of the buildings now in use, then is when we suggest that serious consideration be given to the junior high plan.

The Observance of Navy Day

Navy Day will be observed next Sunday. It is fitting that it is also the anniversary of the birth of President Theodore Roosevelt in whom the Navy had one of its greatest champions. T. R. during his term as Assistant Secretary of the Navy and later as President endeavored to impress upon the American people the importance of having a strong and adequate Navy to protect the nation's shores. It was through his effort and zeal that the ground work was laid for the development of the Navy which this country maintained during the World War.

What Theodore Roosevelt told this country in the early 1900's is still good today. He once stated:

"The United States Navy is the best guaranty the Nation has that its honor and interest will not be neglected; and in addition, it offers by far the best insurance for peace that can by human integrity be devised."

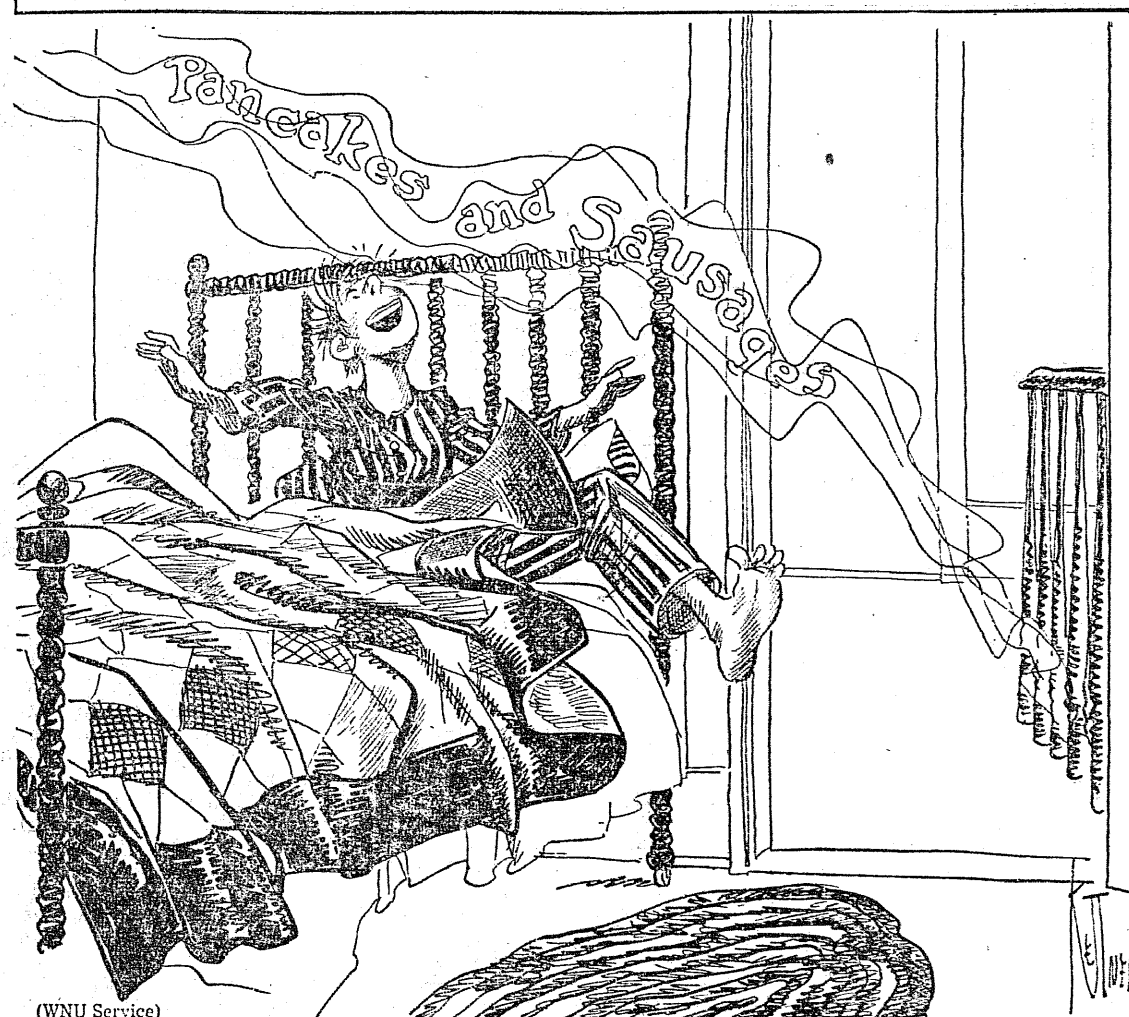

Many times it has been said that the Navy is the country's first line of defense and there is no period in our history when not only as a figure of speech but in practice as well this could be of greater importance to us than it is today. To the Navy is charged the responsibility of guarding not only this nation but its possessions as well. Its responsibility is farflung and its duties are innumerable.

During the coming years each of us will be called upon to pay our share of the tremendous defense program which is now under way. An increase in the size and strength of the Navy is an important part of this work. Since it is through the money which the public contributes that the creation of better defense is being realized, the people should understand the purposes which the Navy serves. The observance of Navy Day is a part of the service's program to educate the public to its work and each of us should during the next week get to know more about it.

The threat of invasion of this continent persistently hangs over us. Not at the moment perhaps, but the day may come when the dictator powers may turn toward this direction for new territories to conquer. That either the Atlantic or Pacific oceans are barriers to them is wishful thinking. They are only barriers if floating on the water is a strong and powerful Navy. This is the goal of this country through the two-ocean Navy program now under construction. The completion of it is our guarantee of national security.

No Second Call Necessary

LETTERS

Thanks The Town

From Mrs. Charles M. Keir,
130 Cedar Hill Avenue,
To the Editor of The News:
May I express, through The News to the Town of Belleville, my sincerest appreciation for the help given me in the use of the Town Ambulance for both my son and husband.

It is a privilege to live in a town that provides such consideration for its citizens and I want to make known my appreciation.

Says Youth Wants Willkie

From Vincent Hurley
86 Malone Avenue
To the Editor of The News:

We are now at the most critical point in our history. While other democratic nations are being battered by hostile powers, we are presented with the golden opportunity of stemming the tide of dictatorship by electing Wendell Willkie.

The youth of America, particularly those exercising their prerogative for the first time, have the power to release themselves from the gloom, despair and defeatist attitude which the New Deal has presented them by bungling with the nation's affairs for the last eight years.

Granting that Mr. Roosevelt has contributed some worthwhile reforms and achieved many "social gains" the fact persists that this country is in "midstream" and needs a man of Mr. Willkie's calibre to get us ashore. Mr. Willkie in his earnest, sincere manner has proven to the electorate that he can succeed where the New Deal has failed. In his speeches he has shown why Mr. Roosevelt is not indispensable but rather should be dispensed with.

He has listed the President's inability to get rid of unemployment (still our number one problem) by his spending of $60,000,000,000, his utter failure to bring about economic recovery, his enormous increase in the Federal bureaucracy, his preference of political over Civil Service status, his use of the W. P. A. for partisan ends, his manufacture of many new tools of power concentrated in his own hands, his gargantuan propaganda machine, his attempt to pack the Supreme Court, his "purging of Congress." Do these things make him indispensable? They do to Hague, Kelly, Boss Flynn and their corrupt political machines who thrive on Mr. Roosevelt's leadership. These are the men who want Roosevelt returned to office so they can bleed the American taxpayers of more graft.

Wants Cautious Man

I as a young patriotic American who, together with other young voters on the threshold of a new way of life do not want my future entrusted to a man who is more impetuous and inclined towards intervention, but to a more cautious man like Mr. Willkie. Franklin Roosevelt has proved that he cannot minister the affairs of the country in peace, so why give him the chance to be at the helm for another four years?

To sum up youth's indictment of the New Deal let me state that we endorse Mr. Willkie for these reasons: Because he is better equipped than Mr. Roosevelt to give this country an ample national defense. Because we know him to be a practical progressive who really understands the pressing need of increased production. Because the financial policies of the New Deal administration have failed miserably. Because we see that at a time when the traditional lifesavers of democracy are crumbling everywhere it is doubly important to respect and preserve the American tradition against placing the gigantic powers of the Presidency for three consecutive terms.

Young people do not be misled by the New Deal politicians.

They will tell you about the serious international situation confronting us. We know it is serious as does Mr. Willkie, but realize that there are domestic issues which are worthy of as much attention. Lets get down to brass tacks and realize that only through sacrifice, hard work, sweat and toil, will we gain a sound national defense program, not through the suave, soothing words of Mr. Roosevelt.

Criticizes Hospital

From Mrs. Katherine Kelly
425 Cortlandt street
To the Editor of The News:

As a taxpayer, I would like to know where a person is supposed to go when they need hospital care? He is not on relief but until the bill is paid.

Here is a man that the doctor ordered to the hospital for an operation last Friday night. I personally took him there. It took over one hour before they admitted him and the abuse that he and his brother had to take from the head supervisor was a shame.

After all that time, the interne admitted him without the supervisor's consent. He was operated on at 10:30 Saturday morning. Sunday when his family visited him they had already given him a bill stating that it had to be paid within forty-eight hours.

When his mother and brother went down to see the supervisor, they were given a lot of abuse. She told them that, if they could not pay in advance, they had a right to go on relief and not try to get care for nothing; that they and the doctor had a nerve to come there when they did not have the money to pay in advance.

She would not pay any attention when they told her that she would get the money as soon as he was discharged, that he would pay something every week. She said he had to have it in advance. When the brother asked her if she expected him to rob a bank, she said she did not care what he did but that he had to get it at once. She also said that Belleville people had a nerve and that even when the town paid for the patients the hospital was losing money.

What are the people of Belleville supposed to do if they are willing to pay but cannot pay in advance? Must they steal the money or just lay down and die? I think the town is getting enough taxes to give something to a hospital so the people of the town can feel that, if they need a hospital care, they can get it, when they are willing to pay as they have it without it taking one hour or more and a lot of abuse before and after.

Viking Tool Worker Rescues Aged Man From River

Jeremiah Harper, eighty-six, of 39 Schuyler street was foiled Saturday morning in what police called a suicide attempt. The elderly man was rescued from the Passaic River by Clarence Place Jr. of 146 Stephens street.

Place was working in the yard of Viking Tool Company at 2 Main street when he saw the man floundering in the water. He ran to the bank, dove in and towed Harper to shore.

Feeling the effect of the near-freezing weather, on the man, he was taken to St. Mary's Hospital, Passaic, detained throughout the day and released late Saturday afternoon. No reason was given for his death attempt.

Use Skeleton Key

Thieves used a skeleton key to open a side door of the home of James Monaghan of 91 Baldwin place between 8:30 and 10:10 Monday night. They carried off about $90 of loot, including a watch, gold pin, ring and pearl charm, according to police.

Mrs. John Ellsworth of Adelaide street was hostess at contract bridge last evening for Mrs. Leonard Roelaw, Mrs. Horace Miller and Mrs. William Konrad.

H. S. MAKES CHECK ON JUNE GRADS

Twenty-Two Percent Are Unemployed, Report By Seibert Shows

"Follow-up is an important phase of guidance, as a school needs to know how its product is functioning out in the world just as in industry does." Earl W. Seibert, guidance director of the school system said yesterday as he announced that there was an eighty-five percent check-up on the June graduates of the high school.

"There was no report on fifteen percent of the graduates. They failed to return the cards that were sent out or could not be reached by telephone. Any of them seeing this notice may still report to the guidance office on what they are doing this year," Seibert said.

Colleges, business and other schools claimed twenty-seven percent of the 1940 graduates while thirty-six percent are at work in private industry. This means that twenty-two percent are known to be unemployed. High school graduates or their parents are invited to get in touch with the guidance office (Belleville 2-4470) for help on any educational or vocational problems.

Following is a breakdown of Seibert's check on June graduates. The letters at the heads of the columns indicate the type of course taken in high school: C — college course, B — business course, G — general course, T — total.

Board Accepts Resignation Of School Clerk

The resignation of Frances Berkowitz, clerk of Schools 7 and 8, was accepted by the Board of Education at its meeting Monday night. Mrs. Aida R. Koll, a teacher in School No. 4, was given a leave of absence from October 1 of this year to June 30, 1941.

The Church Basketball League was granted permission to use the new gymnasium of the high school every Monday from November 4 to March 21 at a cost to the Recreation Department of $7 per night.

ESSEX COUNTY POLITICS

The views expressed in this column, are entirely those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Publishers or Editors of the Belleville News.

by Meador Wright

Republican leaders in New Jersey are more worried about Robert Hendrickson's chances of being elected than they are about those of Wendell Willkie. Hendrickson's opponent, Charles Edison, is making a brilliant campaign but he seems to be making one that is cumulatively effective. The secret of Edison's effectiveness is his ability to appeal equally well to diverse groups of voters. The low salaried sections who are the mainstay of the Democratic party have been charmed by Edison's complete lack of pomp and by his quiet friendliness. Business leaders and those in a higher social scale consider Edison one of them and also credit him with sincerity.

Even his opponents concede that he would make a good governor. Few men in the history of either state or nation have risen so high in politics with so few of the trappings a politician usually wears. Even Edison's inability to make an extemporaneous speech appears almost as an asset. Since most good politicians are also good speakers, the public is about ready to conclude that one who cannot speak is scarcely a politician.

But Edison's ability to "get away" with this simple technique of campaigning is largely the result of two factors: 1) the cloak of anonymity which the war and the larger Presidential campaign cast over the gubernatorial contest; 2) the inability of Hendrickson to dramatize his own campaign and to pierce the shield of his opponent. Had Dr. Lester H. Clee, for example, been Edison's opponent the job facing Edison would have been very much different. Clee could have exploited the election record buried in Hudson County far more effectively. He could have appealed to the electorate as one who had been cheated out of his lawful birthright three years earlier. Under Clee's bitter attack of Hague, Edison would have been compelled to take an offensive position necessarily much more dangerous.

Plans to erect a $210,000 addition to the high school were approved by the Board of Education. The project was to be voted upon at a special election November 4. The Federal government through WPA was to grant an outright $94,000, lend the rest to the town at four percent for forty years.

Mayor Williams suggested that the Board of Education take over the duties of the Recreation Commission "in order to provide a coordinated educational program for the youth of Belleville." Henry J. Mason, president of the commission, appeared the following night to protest abolishment of his board.

The Essex County Schoolmen's Club elected Hugh D. Kittle, principal of the high school, its president at a meeting in Caldwell.

Ten Years Ago

Mrs. Porter F. Sheldon named to succeed Mrs. Judson K. Stickle on the Board of Education. Mrs. Stickle resigned when she moved to Short Hills. Tax Collector Roy W. Brooks was reinstated by Commissioner Williams and exonerated of blame for not holding periodic tax sales and for failing to deliver 1,284 tax bills.

William Abramson appointed motor vehicle agent for Belleville by Motor Vehicle Commissioner Harold G. Hoffman.

Twenty Years Ago

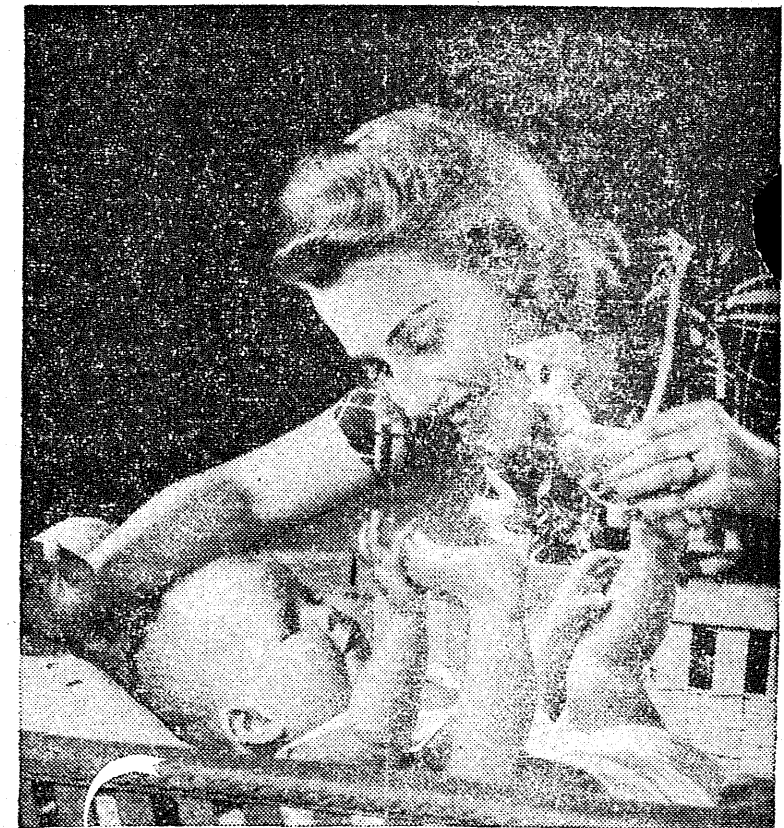

John J. Killen was elected president of the new Friends of Irish Freedom. Other officers were George Battay, Mary G. Monahan, Mrs. Nicholas Shelby, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Baney, Mr. and Mrs. James Neary, Patrick Enright, Jeremiah Lombard, Michael Dacey and Daniel J. Hurley.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

The North Belleville Taxpayers' Association passed a resolution condemning the recall action on the grounds of insufficient reason. The commissioners decided to pave the sidewalks of Greylock avenue despite the objections of ten taxpayers.

Barbour Will Gain

Aside from sentiment for Edison, that for W. Warren Barbour will cause voters to cross over. Thousands of Jewish voters in Newark intend to vote for Barbour, even though they are strong for Roosevelt. The Ellen Stein and Franklin machines in Newark are expected to vote solidly Democratic except for Barbour.

Local Youths Say CCCs Favor Military Training

About Sixty Percent Favor It As Addition To Program, Boys Claim; Say Camp Stay Is Benefit Mentally and Physically

About sixty per cent of the enrollees in Civilian Conservation Corps camps are in favor of military training for CCC boys, according to a letter received yesterday by The News from Louis Stefanelli of 19 Magnolia street and Anthony Guardabascio of 61 Magnolia street. The boys are in camp in Idaho. Stefanelli and Guardabascio declare that the majority of the boys belittle outsiders' beliefs that military training would make the camps militaristic. They feel that there has been a great swing in camp sentiment in recent months since the national preparedness program began.

In outlining the different industries in which boys in camp can engage, the writers state that "we can guarantee anyone that a six months' stay will be a benefit both physically and mentally."

"There are many different types of work, such as jack hammer operation, road construction, bridge construction, blister rust control, fire hazard reduction, camp construction, cooking, baking, clerical, hospital, mechanical, utilities and store room clerk."

"Also there is a good educational program equivalent to any high school. There are many recreational activities and athletic contests. Every Sunday we have a field day with another camp in the same vicinity in which we play baseball, volleyball, chess, horseshoes and track events."

"Though we can't even begin to relate our experiences while members of the CCC, it is recommended that all young men with or without dependents should enroll in the CCC. The practical experience will be of benefit in later life."

AMBULANCE FUND TREATED COOLLY

Superintendent Farmer Felt Newark Fund Might Jeopardize Community Chest

The whole idea of the current "ambulance for Britain" currently raging in the Newark schools was coldly received by School Superintendent Farmer, who told the Board of Education Monday that he felt that the "superimposition" of this collection would jeopardize the Community Chest drive which starts next week.

The ambulance fund was begun by the Newark Advertising Club and a Newark newspaper. It hit its peak at the Meadowbrook Bowl Saturday when Gene Autry, cowboy singer did his bit to work up enthusiasm among school children.

Farmer said that tickets were received locally only the day before the rally and that the entire affair was "poorly organized." On the suggestion of James M. Lynch, containers into which pennies may be dropped will be placed in every classroom, but Farmer said that he will do nothing to push the drive.

Halloween Dance

The senior class of the high school will hold its annual Halloween dance Saturday in the new gym. In order to bring out more people in costume, the Senior Senate decided on Monday to admit at a lower price all those wearing costumes. Prizes will be given for the funniest, prettiest and most original costumes. Dancing will start at 8:30. Music will be supplied by the Dailas Charles orchestra. The gym will be decorated in autumn colors.

Hope Ross, a member of the Senior Senate, will be in charge of refreshments. Miss Elsie Sandford and Paul Jones of the faculty will be in charge of the dance. John Weber is publicity chairman. H. W.

Music Club Dance

The first tea dance of the school year was held Friday by the combined Music Clubs. Besides dancing, which was to recordings, Bob Kimble entertained with novelty songs and dances.

The receipts were contributed to the fund to pay for the traveling expenses of several members of the clubs who will play at the State Teachers' Convention in Atlantic City. —H. W.

MR. Herman Mahsen, of Harwood's, West Orange, would like to apologize to the fellow who recently asked him the quickest way to Orange Memorial Hospital. . . Mahsen told him the route to take as correctly as he could figure it out, but it was not, as Mr. Mahsen has since learned, the QUICKEST way. . . The quickest way, Mr. Mahsen will now tell you, is to run your car into a tree! . . . Next thing you know you are in a cool, white bed with a pretty nurse standing beside you . . . but he doesn't advise you to try it. . .

George Hazzard, of Hazzard's Health Farm, Caldwell Township, is also Fire Chief there. . . You'll feel anything but blue at East Hanover's Blue Door on Route 10, for here is one of the coziest, homiest dineries hereabouts, and if you go in for seafood this is your spot for dinner next time out, and if seafood isn't down your alley you will rave about the individual steaks they serve there. . . Up the line farther at the Alderney Milk Barn we observed Belleville's alert, good-looking Mayor, Bill Williams enjoying an Alderney Maple Walnut Sundae, and, or all things, an elderly gentleman with a rooster button on his coat lapel, reading a Herald-Tribune.

Colonial Bob Wyder, proprietor of West Caldwell's "The Well," has his pilot's license now. . . Col. Bill Kelly is back in town after a 10,000-mile air jaunt which took him to Alaska. . . Man who probably knows more about the intricacies of a watch than any human this side of Switzerland is Harry VanLaar, president of the New Jersey watchmakers' Ass'n, and head of Busca & Sons watch department. . . Incidentally, this store at Broad and William streets, Newark, has one of the most complete repair departments in the East. . . Actually, miracles are performed by Mr. VanLaar's experts, with aged, tired timepieces coming out with new life and vigor, and with all the original charm and sentiment preserved!

Social organizations, business clubs, merchandise groups, etc., are discovering West Caldwell's "The Well" for their dinner gatherings. . . Away from the city, yet, within half an hour's motor trip they find themselves in a smart, warm atmosphere of the country-in-the-fall with all the attentive service of a fine hotel, and a wide selection of entrees you could expect only to find in the Park-Madison avenue zone. . . Next time around Park Place drop into the Robert Treat's cafe-lounge if you want to see our own cafe-society. . .

Did you know that on a clear night the huge Alderney milk bottle atop the Alderney Bridge street plant, Newark, can be seen from Eagle Rock? . . . It used to be a guiding mark for planes coming in, too. . . Caldwell's dapper Jack Dahl is back on the job following an accident that injured his knee. —Adv.

Milk Wagon Nag Elbows With 'Horsey' Elite

This is the story of a horse that was a social climber—and almost got away with his climb into the equine who's who.

Monday morning Andrew Maglio of 52 Watchung avenue reported to police that one of his dairy horses was lost, strayed or stolen. (The beast was through with being a common laborer.)

About eight hours later police of the Second Newark Precinct telephoned Belleville with the message that a "strange horse" had elbowed its way into the elite at the Forest Hill Riding Academy stables at 374 Verona avenue, Newark.

The pacifiers got busy and Tuesday morning Dobbin was back at his regular work—a sadder but wiser horse after eight hours of life among the idle rich.

Won't Have Columbia Survey Until November Meeting

Once more the Board of Education was disappointed Monday night. It had expected to receive the final report of the Columbia Survey which is making a study of present pupil loads in the local schools and possible population trends in the future. The survey was authorized at the July meeting of the board.

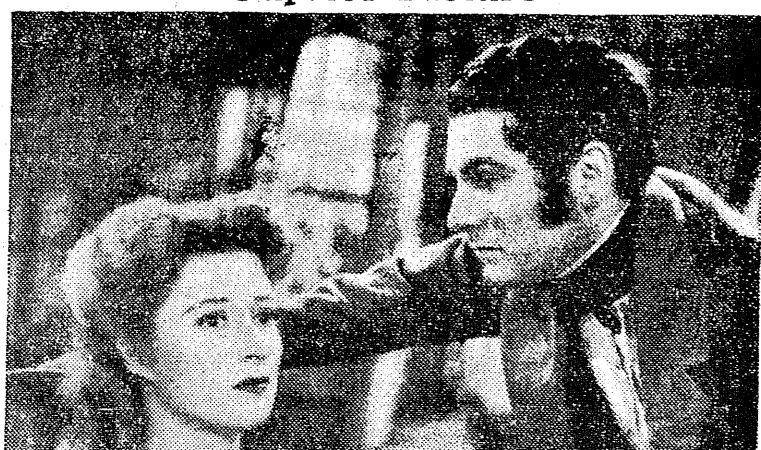

But instead of the report, Board President Schmutz read a letter from the men in charge of the survey in which it was stated that the work "will be finished within three weeks." The board is hoping to catch a glimpse of it at the November meeting — four months after it was started.

Family Off To Flying Start With Alderney Milk

Here you see Bob and Betty Wyder, with their two-and-a-half-year daughter, Melinda Wyder, getting ready for an air jaunt from Caldwell-Wright Airport, Caldwell. Both parents are pilots in their own right, and very often they take along Mr. Wyder's mother, too. In the photo they are drinking cool, fresh glasses of Alderney milk before the take-off. Mr. Wyder is proprietor of the popular West Caldwell dining and drinking spot, "The Well," not far from the airport.—Adv.

Juveniles Pull Job Four Days After Previous Release

Incorrigible juvenile thieves pulled another job in town Sunday afternoon, less than four days after they had confessed to wholesale automobile robberies. Detective Captain Leighton had arrested three youngsters, aged ten to thirteen, last Wednesday. They all readily admitted scores of robberies in which they stole flashlights, cameras and other articles from parked cars.

Shortly after noon Sunday the store of George Nixon at 198 Mill street was broken into and a carton of cigarettes and $20 in cash were stolen. Within an hour Leighton had rearrested the juveniles, who had previously been released in the custody of their parents.

Once again they boasted of their work and added several more automobile robberies to their list. This time another boy, aged fourteen, was with them on their crime foray, Leighton said.

BEFORE YOUR EYES

By Joe Duval

Don't judge this Irvington team that's coming to town Saturday entirely by its record to date. The score books show three defeats and a tie in four games — but don't let it fool you. The Camp-towners reputedly have a strong aggregation but have run into a streak of tough luck that would knock the pins from under better eleven. All of their opponents have been of near championship caliber and the Campers have been beaten by extremely narrow margins every time. The way the Bellboys are playing now one never knows what to expect. They are gradually wearing down the rough edges and gaining some of the experience necessary for a successful team. They are entirely unpredictable but we think they're going to knock the spots off some highly-favored outfits before they're through.

ARMISTICE DAY GRID BATTLE

Bellboy Jayvees Will Oppose Kearny Juniors; Part Of Observance

A football game between the Belleville and Kearny junior varsity teams has been arranged as part of the local Armistice Day observance here. Thomas W. Fleming, chairman of the committee on arrangements, announced yesterday. The game will be played at Clearman Field November 11. Proceeds will be devoted to the charity funds of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The committee is also completing plans for a memorial church service to be held at Congregation A.A.A. Sunday, November 10 at 8 A.M. It is expected that representatives of all faiths will participate.

Fleming said that many more organizations had signified their intention of participating in the Armistice Day parade which will be held in Washington avenue the evening of November 11. He said that he expects to release a complete list of the cooperating organizations within a week or ten days. Seventeen had signed up previous to last week.

Russell Flynn will be lost to the squad for the Irvington game. Russ, after playing a bang-up game at guard early in the class received a gash on the side of the nose which must mend before he goes into action again.

Some of the Bellboys are turning in all-state performances every game. Jocher and DeFranza particularly are standouts in the line. Vito deserved to score the touchdown Saturday. He earned his right to it by A-1 play in all three games.

The stands groaned sympathetically once when Johnny bounced on the turf Saturday after missing his man. The spectators though how nice it was for the West Side that he had not been on the end of that tackle. But the tough River, who played safety, had been on the receiving end of several of Jocher's tackles and it was not until Johnny's only miss of the afternoon that people realized how hard he had been hitting them.

Well, you ought to hear the pros and cons over the new outfit of the cheerleaders. Their appearance was the signal for an immediate split of opinion throughout the town. The cons, however, seem to be outnumbered.

Red Gorman, who pitched some nice passes for the Blue and Gold last year and who was on the town champion softball team, the Bellboys, is a member of the football squad at their academy.

The Essex County Park Commission is upset over its seemingly frustrated plans in South Mountain Reservation. The commission had quite a program mapped out for the CCC camp there when lo and behold orders came through from Washington and the camp buildings were demolished, most of the lumber going to Port Dix. The plan worked out for the reservation would have taken the boys five years to complete and had the approval by the National Park Service. Now all they can hope for are occasional details from some other camp.

Couldn't have been much of a program to keep the boys busy for only five years, if the local Passaic River Park is any criterion. Of course, the Park Commission will A down there and that makes a difference. Still it has taken them more than three years to complete the boon-cogging that has been going through so far. We can still hope that our grandchildren will be able to enjoy the park along the river.

BELLBOY SOPHS LOST TO E. O.

Panther Second Year Lads Pass Way To Victory Over Locals

The sophomore football team of Belleville High lost a hard-fought game to East Orange's second year men 14-7 at Clearman Field Monday. In the last few minutes of the tilt, East Orange uncorked a series of passes which resulted in the winning score. In the first period came the initial tally by East Orange, made on a twenty-yard pass into the end zone after a march up the field from their thirty-yard stripe.

Belleville took command in the second quarter and returned the ball to the opposing team's twenty-seven yard line. A couple of nice runs by John Frunzi put there it was fumbled.

East Orange kicked out of danger but Hickman, safety man for Belleville, returned the punt to the East Orange twenty. Fading far back of the line of scrimmage, Hickman threw into the end zone to Ferro for the locals' only touchdown.

West Side completed its rout of the Belleville forces Tuesday when the Rough Riding Jayvees topped the Bellboy underdogs 13-0 at Clearman Field. The locals threatened twice but were unable to push the ball across.

West Side's first tally was set up by a long pass which put the ball on the Belleville five-yard stripe, from where it was carried over on the next play. A series of passes was good for another score, which came on a forty-yard heave over the goal line.

The Belleville line-up: Ferro, le; Stansfield, R; Mueller, R; Smith, c; H. Valentino, re; Shaughnessy, re; Bechtolt, qb; Kria, lb; Thalhimer, rb; Frunzi, fb.

missing from the starting line-up. Russell Flynn, a heavy guard, will be out of action for a week or two. Irvington will invade Clearman Field Saturday afternoon at 2:30 with an outfit that will out-weigh the Bellboys by ten to thirteen pounds per man. It is an eleven with only four veterans from last year but with a host of experienced material.

Besides Flynn it is doubtful if either end Harry Leiss or quarter-back Bill Hunkele will be in condition to play. The former has a badly-wrenched shoulder and side, the latter has a knee about the size of a balloon. Flynn was injured in the West Side game, receiving a cut face and a broken tooth.

Even counting these out, Belleville will be in poor physical condition for the game. There are several assorted bad ankles and knees distributed throughout the squad. Flynn's place will be taken by Vito DeFranza but the substitutes for the other two spots are still unknown.

Mathews will start a forward wall that averages 184 and a backfield at 166. This will be the heaviest accumulation of football strength that the Bellboys have had to buck up against this year.

All of the Irvington vets are in the line: Ed Blahut at end, Milt Packin at tackle, Ellis Vieser at guard and Dick Perrotty in the center. Irvington has failed to win a decision in four starts this year.

Selection of All-Around Frocks Is Important

Consider the indispensable all-around frock which is going to be the backbone of your fall and winter wardrobe. Designers and buyers alike have evidently given it plenty of consideration for the shops are filled with many distinctive versions of this type of dress. Carefully selected, it will be your most flattering buy; and it should be because you will probably be seen in it by most of your acquaintances on any and every occasion. It must therefore be chosen to wear well, bring out the best lines in our figure and make such a perfect setting for your good points that you will be inspired to spare no effort on grooming in order to live up to it.

Among the better dresses, Forstmann woollens, tissue paper weight, of course, have been chosen for the perfect daytime dress. A rich golden beige, which really casts a lovely warm glow on your complexion, is one of the ideal colors. It is made up, for instance, in a simple one-piece dress with elegant skirt, new and softer shoulder lines, and shirtwaist bodice closing with large round topaz buttons. The belt is ornamented with half a dozen of these buttons, well spaced, and each surrounded with tiny gold nailheads to make it medallion-like.

In the same bewitching color is a dress whose lines are so subtle that the new slowness is achieved at the same time that it has a softly swinging skirt. It is also front closing and the buttons are covered with the material so that the dress depends for its only dramatic note on pouch pockets, one on either side of the skirt. A generous bow of self material adorns each. This is the ideal dress to be accompanied by costume jewelry either of two-toned gold or topaz. The latter is increasingly shown and we prefer it. Imagine a necklace lying close to the throat made of daisies whose petals are topazes and whose centers are pearls (simulated, naturally). A matching bracelet may well be worn with the elbow length sleeves.

Third in this group is a featherweight woolen dress in silvery gray studded all over with small metal dots of chromium (not protruding nailheads). This frock is fitted smoothly to the upper figure and the skirt flares in a frankly cosmopolitan fashion. Sleeves are bell shaped and graceful. A triangle design of the metallic studs radiates from the severely plain round neckline. This dress was made to be worn with a gray woolen lined kidskin jacket and a cosmopolitan turban made to match the dress. For early football games it is a happy choice, quite nice enough to take you dining and dancing after the game.

Fur is the new note in accessories. Any of the simple woolen dresses is admirably stepped up with the smart new bags, hats, lapel ornaments, and jewelry made of fur. The flatterer of the fur is the one most used. Quilted hats with large balls of leopard skin are as often used for lapel ornaments as hat trimming. A strip of leopard across the top of a pouch bag of black or brown suede carries out the motif. Downy little earrings made of petals of leopard are still another furry touch.

There are large, square clips of curly caracul in glistening black punctuated with pearls at the four corners. Caracul is also used for trimming or entirely making the flat muff-like bags which are again popular. Both furs are used in the oblong muff bag which has a broad ruffle of black suede at either end. Handbags by the way, are certainly following the long and narrow path. Some in heavy faillie are large enough to have one's entire name written boldly across the flap in inch-high golden letters. Lustrous extra-black suede is still the favorite. Balls of topaz marching across the frame of a soft pouch in this luxurious fabric make it our favorite.

It's time to give thought to the charming hostess gowns which you can so easily wear to make events out of simple home dinners or afternoon parties. Silk jersey and heavy crepe are widely chosen to best carry out the flowing Grecian lines of these garments. Almost all of them appear to be pencil-slim and yet reveal much graceful fullness with every movement. The fullness is drawn to the front and shirred or tucked sections at both sides of the waistline are usual.

A contrasting front panel is smart as in the dark brown hostess gown whose front is creamy beige. Three bows of the brown mark the waistline and afford the necessary smart contrast. Navy blue is combined with cherry red in the same way and black with aquamarine. As lavishly as the fur itself is used, designers have also found it advisable to simulate the mottled pattern in rayon velvet. Some of these gowns are made of this material and the contrast is provided in front panels and cowl hood linings of such lovely colors as flame, teal, beige or Kelly green. Rich brown is another good accent and in one case occurs in the form of satin bands running up either side from the neckline to hem.

One selection for a Christmas gift, for which your list has at least one willing candidate, is the

Dessert Treat For Family

Recipe Column

If you have not planned a party for Halloween, let your dinner on that witching evening at least be picturesque for the benefit of the young people in the family. The following two recipes are wholesome and at the same time have the colorful qualities and formation of the holiday.

Individual Meat Pies

- 2 cups cooked, diced beef, veal or lamb
- 1 onion, sliced
- 3 tablespoons fat
- 1 can vegetable soup
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 cup water

Brown the diced meat and the sliced onion in the hot fat. Add soup, seasonings and water. Cover and simmer for ten minutes. Fill small casserole with the mixture. Cover each with a round of pastry cut to fit the container. Cut jack-o-lantern faces in the pastry making sure to cut the eyes, nose and mouth large enough to allow for expansion during baking. Bake in a moderately hot oven for fifteen minutes.

The attractive dessert pictured is in complete accord with the Halloween color scheme. The perfect mandarin orange sections and rich brown dates shine gaily through a tempting glaze of brown sugar.

Mandarin Orange Upside-Down Cake

- 2 eleven ounce cans mandarin oranges
- a few dates
- 1 1/2 cups brown sugar
- 1/2 cup butter
- Drain mandarin orange sections and arrange as pictured in the bottom of any round pan which is at least three inches deep. Melt butter, add brown sugar and stir until well blended, spread evenly over the orange sections.
- Batter: 1/2 cup shortening
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1 teaspoon orange flavoring
- 2 cups cake flour
- 2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
