LOCAL STUDENTS IN MUSIC SCHOOL

Grade School Pupils Urged To Attend Five-Week Summer Session

A number of Belleville students will be among the 500 or more who will be in class when the Essex County Band and Orchestra School opens its five-week session at the Theodore Roosevelt Junior High School in West Orange on Monday.

Mrs. Alice Wagner director of music in the high school, urges grade school pupils interested in instrument playing to consider seriously attending the classes. The high school has two band instruments which will be loaned free to any pupil who seriously desires to learn to play.

Any person desiring additional information about the school may call at the high school, between 10 and 12 tomorrow morning.

Those who have registered from town include: Phyllis DeStureo, violin; Barbara Stures and William Akers, cello; Lillian Munro, Betty Doell and Nancy Gardner, double bass; Ann Kelsall, French horn; Mary Habeele, saxophone and clarinet; Irene Keddle, drums; Paul Holland and Dudley Hack, trombone; Shirley Neilson, drum major.

Two students who have attended the music summer school in the past are Carole Carswell and William Prophet. They are now associated with Julliard School of Music, New York City.

Each pupil receives a daily class lesson, one orchestra or band rehearsal, additional ensemble activities, elementary theory and beginning keyboard harmony.

Four different levels of band, orchestra and group instruction are to be organized to accommodate all students from beginners to the most advanced students. Classes are offered in all instruments, harp, conducting, and drum majoring.

Instruments can be rented at the school.

ship. "The boys have an urge to get away from camp when the day's work is done," he said, "because the camp represents duty. Unfortunately in the majority of cases there is no place for them to go."

More than 7,500 pamphlets tell in gabout the U.S.O. and the need for it have been distributed about town. Elsewhere in this issue there is a question and answer explanation of what purpose the U.S.O. hopes to serve and how it proposes to do it. Members of the police department under Chief Spatz have distributed several hundred show cards urging people to support the U.S.O. These have been placed in stores and other business places in various parts of town.

Appeals have already been made by the spiritual leaders of each of the town's churches to their congregations. They are expected to renew this plea over the coming weekend.

Each person who contributes to the U.S.O. will receive a receipt, a button and a sticker to be placed in a house window or an automobile.

Selection of a number of the division leaders for the house-to-house canvass was announced by Charlton last night. A number of them were drawn from the ranks of the local post of the American Legion, which has promised to give the drive full support through members volunteering to serve as workers.

Charlton said he was making an effort last night to contact the heads of the Veterans of Foreign Wars to learn if their men would join in the campaign to act as leaders and workers.

Among those who will serve as captains for the house-to-house campaign are:

A. S. Ackerman, R. P. Smith, W. H. Kenep, L. E. Keenan, William Konrad, Frank Bangert, H. L. Denison, E. P. Cantwell, J. J. Reilly, Joseph Delaport, C. J. Smith, William I. MINORS CHANGE THEIR LINE-UP

Pittsburghs Win 4-3 At Hasbrouck Heights; Lister Does Hurling

The draft — baseball and the army — forced the Pittsburgh Minor Leaguers to lay off their weekend ball playing for two weeks and take stock of themselves. After Manager Henry Lubben had combed the territory for some new talent, the boys took up their bats again on Sunday and celebrated by trimming the Hasbrouck Heights B. B. C. 4-3 at the Hasbrouck Heights Athletic Stadium.

The shuffling of the players was caused by the departure of Leo O'Reilly, Charley Hoskey and Hank Borkowski. O'Reilly was lured to the Belleville nine in the Essex County League and Hoskey was called to action for another season by the Rome, N. Y., club in the Canadian-American League. Borkowski, one of the Minors' best pitchers, was claimed by Uncle Sam.

Sunday's tussle was featured by the twirling of Bill Lister who found the blistering sun quite to his liking and struck out seven of the opposition. He kept his seven hits well scattered. Ed Gutman with four hits for a perfect day at the plate, and Frank Lynch with three, led the Pitts' ten-hit batting attack. Ed Fiske sent home Gutman with the winning run on an eighth inning single.

AYCEES GAINING ON LEADERS

Essex County Leaguers Trail By Half Game; Trim Caldwell 9-2

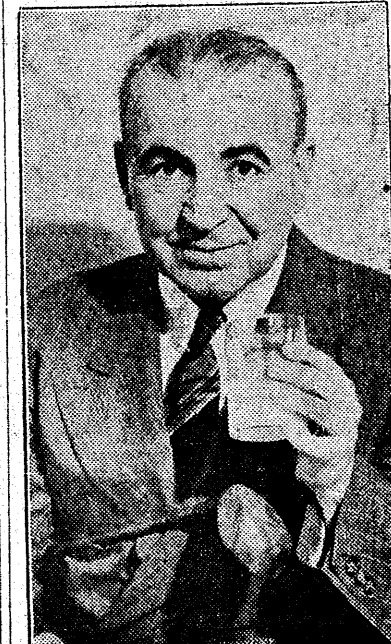

The Belleville A. C. nine in the Essex County League moved to within one-half game of the league leading East Orange club on Sunday when Carmen Lilore's five hit pitching subdued the Caldwell A. C. while his team mates battled the losers for a total of fourteen hits. The final score was 9-2.

Starting his second game for the locals after having scored an initial win two weeks ago, Lilore was never in trouble. His brother, Ralph, played bang-up ball at second base, robbing several Caldwell batters of sure hits. Jack Konowitz with four hits in five trips to the plate led the winners batting attack.

The Bellboys will be at home on Fourth of July when they will meet the Nutley A. C. and again on Sunday, July 6 when they will play hosts to the currently league-leading East Orange nine. No Objections Made On Liquor Licenses

Not a single objection was made Tuesday night to the renewal of any tavern, club or retail distribution liquor license when the Board of Commissioners, sitting as an excise board, acted on the licenses for the 1941-42 year. Commissioner Clark, head of the police department, said no reports of disturbances had been brought to his attention during the past year.

Commercial Geography

Commercial geography treats of the distribution of the world's products, of existing demands for these commodities, and means of transportation and exchange.

RIVAL NINES

had plenty of experience with tricky characters and they don't look for any serious trouble from either the Elks or the burros.

Latest quotations on the outcome of the game from Washington and Belleville avenue betting commissioners was even money, with the winning side ends up the night without at least one member being tossed.

Mayor Williams will have a formidable line-up of the purple and white members. Included will be Dr. Donald Brown, Elmer Hyde, Red Taylor, Hank Waters, Jack Deeny, Harold Gahr, William Friel, Edmund Sadlock, Jay Delaney, Theodore Sedlock, Vic Hart, Harry Gehardt, Herb Schmutz, Emil Kastner and Frank Bangert.

Commissioner Louis Noll will be the trainer and is reported to be stocking up on sugar and apples for the burros and first aid supplies and rubbing alcohol for the Elks. Tom McNair will be the team manager and Russell Sanford the coach. Andrew Kennedy and Jim Ferguson will be the B.P.O.E. pinch hitters if any of the Mayor's stars should turn out to be duds.

Some of the Rules

The rules of the game state that after the batter has hit the ball, he shall then mount the burro and ride toward first base. The fliers must catch fly balls mounted on their burros. If not in position for the catch, they must ride to within one step of the ball before they dismount to pick it up. They must remount before making a throw or any play. The game is played by ten. There are twenty-minute innings with each team at bat for ten minutes, regardless of the number of outs.

Builders

property be re-advertised for sale with Kirby agreeing to make a ten per cent down payment and be permitted twelve months in which to pay.

Mayor Williams interrupted to state that he had another offer for the same property which had been received Tuesday afternoon. Padula appeared quite surprised.

Joseph Gibbs of Ridgewood, the Mayor said, was offering a $9,000 net price for the land with ten per cent down payment and would complete his payments within ten months.

Wider Price Range

Gibbs was represented by his son, who is associated with him in the business. He stated that his father planned to build houses ranging from $4,990 to $6,500. He emphasized that the type of home his concern planned to erect would bring a better return for the town and under cross-quizzing by both Commissioners King and Waters stated that the exteriors of the houses would be varied and that all of them would not be in the $4,990 price class.

The Gibbs concern has opened developments in both Clifton and Hackensack. Some years ago the Gibbs erected the Philmore Apartments and also the apartment and store building on the northwest corner of Union avenue and Joralemon street.

Although he did not comment on it at the meeting, Mayor Williams said in regard to the Kirby deal that the pivotal point in discussing it two weeks ago had been Kirby's decision to reduce his down payment from ten to five per cent. He said that after stating when negotiations were first started that he would make a ten per cent payment, the builder had changed his mind at the time of the public sale at which he was the only bidder. The board decided, Williams said, that five per cent was too small a payment.

The question of six or twelve months in which to pay did not enter into the argument at that time, the Mayor claimed. The deal was completely called off two weeks ago, he said, when the board passed a resolution returning Kirby's down payment of $500 after he had indicated that he would not make the ten per cent payment.

In the first known automobile race in 1894 (from Paris to Rouen, France) 102 cars attempted to exceed the minimum qualifying speed of 7 1/2 miles an hour.

Cleopatra's Relatives

Cleopatra, known in history as Cleopatra VII, was the daughter of Ptolemy XIII. The distinguished Egyptologist, E. A. W. Budge, says that the second wife of Ptolemy XIII, who was the mother of Cleopatra, was a lady of unknown name and antecedents.

Virgin Births Claimed

There have been many claims of virgin or supernatural births. Among those about whom there is more or less tradition of virgin birth are Zoroaster, Genghis Khan, Alexander the Great, Buddha, Perseus, Plato and Hercules.

Introduced Kindergarten

The German educator Froebel, who introduced the kindergarten system which bears his name, was born in 1782 and died in 1852.

Te-nite Menace

Entomologists have listed termites, "white ants," as among the foremost of man's insect enemies. Fifty-six species of them occur in the United States, where, with the destruction of forests, they encroached upon man's abode to cause incalculable loss by honey-combing wood structures by devouring the cellulose which is their principal food. These so-called "white ants" are not true ants, although they look like ants and live in colonies made up of different forms of castles. In these nests or colonies both wingless and winged mature individuals are produced.

Jud Tunkins says he'd like to run for office, but it looks too much like deliberately putting yourself on the spot for a gang to shoot at.

THE PROBLEM of getting sufficient customer traffic into a store is recognized by every merchant. But after a merchant stocks the right merchandise and recognizes the need for customer traffic, what shall he do then?

He can follow the lead of successful merchants still further! He can advertise! He can tell the families living in Nutley about his business and his merchandise. He can make them special attractive offers to increase his store traffic.

ESSEX COUNTY POLITICS

The views expressed in this column are entirely those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Publishers or Editors of the Belleville News.

The railroad tax compromise issue — driven home to New Jersey's millions by Mayor Hague's newspaper advertisements — rests squarely in the lap of Arthur T. Vanderbilt and the Essex legislative bloc. If Vanderbilt gives the compromise program his approval it will pass. If he decides against it, the plan will fail. A number of Essex leaders, Dr. Lester H. Cleve among them, favor the settlement in principle. But Vanderbilt will be guided to a considerable extent by political considerations. He is credited with blocking the compromise when it was before the legislature in 1938. He did this not because he thought the settlement wrong in principle, but because he considered its constitutionality dubious.

A new factor — the defense boom and its vast financial help to the railroads — has now entered the situation. Obviously, the railroads are not in as desperate financial condition as they were immediately following the sharp 1937 slump. The public is made increasingly aware of this fact through the Hague advertisements.

Vanderbilt must take this public reaction into account along with the constitutional aspect of the proposed settlement.

My own guess is that he will direct the Essex bloc — or that part which still follows his direction — to oppose the compromise. He will do this because of the probably public reaction that would follow supporting it. It is obvious that if settlement was lukewarm to the compromise three years ago when the railroads needed help badly, it will be less favorable today when railroad revenues are far greater.

Home Owners Unconcerned

Furthermore, general real estate taxes are higher today than they were then. The home owner, taxed nearly to the point of confiscation in half of the municipalities of the state, is not likely to become too excited over a similar injustice to railroad corporations, the more especially so since he is inclined to believe that the railroads have turned the corner while he hasn't.

The only new factor in the situation favorable to the railroads is Governor Edison's espousal of their cause — or to be more correct, his espousal of the cause of a prompt settlement. There is some evidence that Edison is not too eager to take up the gauntlet that Hague has thrown at the railroads. Probably he is not sure that public opinion will be with him.

Vanderbilt is in a better position, in that he has made no endorsement so far. My prediction is that the railroads will pay all the taxes and interest that have been assessed against them so far, getting perhaps a modest compromise on penalties.

Hague doesn't want to give up any part of the proposed revenue because he has already spent it, the compromise plan would throw Jersey City into bankruptcy. Citizens in other parts of the state believe that bankruptcy would be simple justice to Hague, but there is enough truth in his arguments against the compromise to prevent general support for it. The "infamous" job deal that Vanderbilt had a part in because of his wish to get a comfortable berth for W. Stanley Naughton has fallen through for good. Naughton will get nothing, and if Vanderbilt mixes in another such deal he is courting defeat either in September or November.

The Secret of Hollandaise Sauce

Serve This Golden Yellow Dressing on Asparagus, Brussels Sprouts, Broccoli

THE often-repeated supposition that Hollandaise Sauce is difficult to prepare is not true. This delicious dressing is easy to make but needs careful supervision while cooking. The simmer burner of your gas range is fine for the slow-cooking process.

Directions for a curdle-remedy are given with the recipe.

Asparagus

Wash asparagus, remove scales and tie in a bunch. Stand the bunch in an asparagus cooker or in the lower part of a double boiler. Add 2 cups boiling water. Invert upper part of double boiler over asparagus tips and cook for 13 to 20 minutes.

Hollandaise Sauce

1/2 cup butter 1/4 tsp. salt
2 egg yolks 1/4 tsp. cayenne
1 tbsp. lemon juice 1/4 cup boiling water

Divide butter into thirds. Put 1 piece of butter in top of double boiler with egg yolks. Heat over gently boiling water, stirring constantly with a wire whisk until butter is melted. Add second piece of butter and as mixture thickens, add the third piece. Add water, cook 1 minute and season. If mixture curdles, add two tablespoons heavy cream or 2 tablespoons boiling water drop by drop. Water in lower part of boiler must not boil hard.

Grilled Dinner

2 large tomatoes 1 1/2 lbs. steak
2 tbsp. melted butter cut 1 1/2 inches thick
4 strips bacon 4 tbsp. grated paprika cheese

Refrigerator desserts are good on hot days.

Royal Theatre Cooperates In Flying Cadet Week

The Royal Theatre in Bloomfield is cooperating with that town's proclamation of Flying Cadet Week which Mayor Harry E. Newell has designated to run from next Monday through Saturday, July 5.

The program was arranged with the assistance of the Army Recruiting Office in Newark. The theatre now has on display in its lobby airplane equipment valued at about $15,000. It consists of a $5,000 Cyclone Wright Whirlwind motor such as is now in use in English aircraft, a display of propellers and a Wasp motor and an array of delicate and precision instruments used in piloting planes.

There is also a miniature target in the display consisting of a machine gun with a traveling electric eye airplane such as the Army uses for testing eye sharpness. Theatersgoers are invited to try their skill.

In further cooperation the Royal has booked for showing during the Flying Cadet Week the picture "I Wanted Wings" showing American Flying Cadets in action. The U. S. Army Air Corps has a part in the picture which will be shown July 2, 3, 4, 5.

Hypnotism

Hypnotism was probably used by priests of ancient cults to perform seeming miracles, but the state was not recognized by medical men until the middle of the Eighteenth century, when Franz Mesmer tried to cure patients by putting them into a hypnotic trance. The state is a form of dissociation whereby the brain is no longer able to control the body except at the suggestion of the hypnotist. It is induced by stroking or gazing fixedly at an object at close range. Once experienced, it is entered into at the command of the hypnotizer. By a similar sharp command the subject is aroused and resumes the normal state.

Cotton And Shantung Suits Favored For Travelling

Those Vacation-Bound Will Find Both Solid Colors And Pastels Being Used; Neatly Tailored Halter And Overall Shorts Newest In Playsuits

by Peggy Patterson

If you are so busy that vacation time has sneaked up on you without a moment for constructive thinking you may appreciate a few hints about wardrobes and other necessities. Thumbing through the various fashion notices we have received this month we would say that all indications point to high popularity for the shantung or cotton suit for travel.

If you are a business woman, remember that suits like these will also be nice for office wear with a simple cotton blouse after you return from your vacation. Solid colors in fetching shades of brown and natural are our favorites. There are also pastels and, for the utmost in practicality, there is black. The less dressy suits are rayons in plaids and checks or frankly unironed seersucker.

Choose one to suit your own requirements and simply remember to buy one whose skirt is pleated back and front or nicely gored; whose sleeves are coolly loose and fairly long; whose jacket buttons snugly to take the place of a blouse when you do not choose to wear one.

Going under the names of halter shorts and overall shorts are the season's newest and most becoming playsuits. They are so neatly tailored that they more definitely flatter the figure than some of the soft, loose fitting materials.

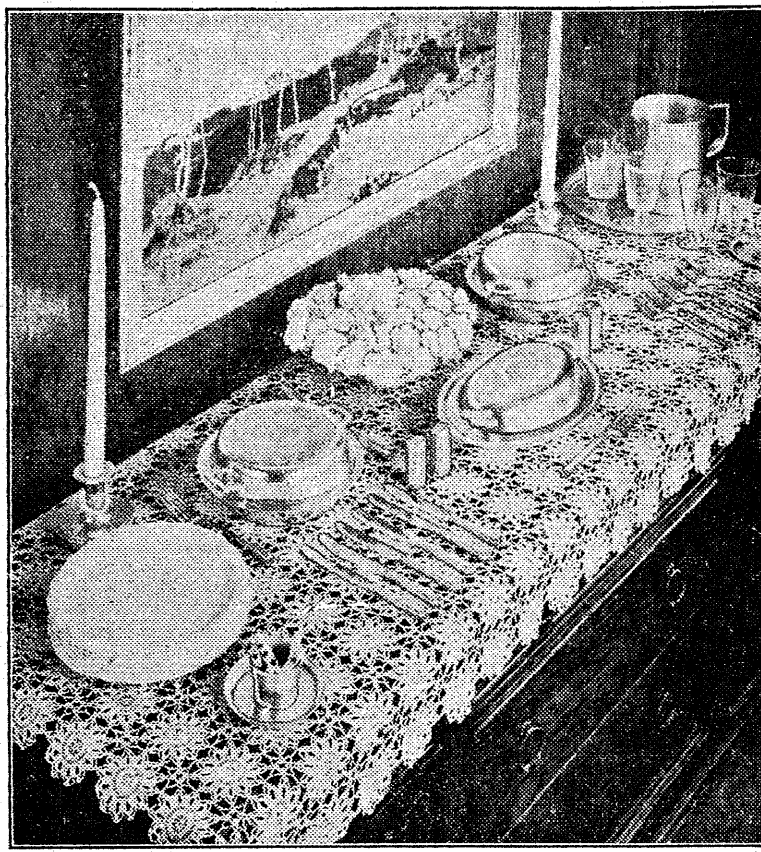

Excellent Choices

Linen and denim are excellent choices in these models. A long sleeved or short sleeved blouse should be worn with them which offers protection for the upper arms and the delicate skin of the shoulders if that is your desire. For more exposure to the sun a sleeveless shirt is available; and when this outfit is covered with a wrap-around skirt it is suitable for street wear. In fact, you should be careful to choose one of the three-way or four-way play costumes if you are buying at the last minute as you will be agreeably surprised to find how much of your wardrobe is supplied by it.

There are versatile bathing costumes too in which shorts and bodice make a good swim suit and a wrap-around skirt also doubles as a cape. If you prefer to stick to the one piece bathing suit, either slim or dressmaker type, there are comfy terry cloth shorts and jackets to cover you. Another happy solution for the bather is the dirndl skirt and short bolero. Chosen with care as to color combinations these two can be worn over a bathing suit and from the beach. The dirndl skirt is fascinating with a sheer white blouse top, and again you can use the little bolero. We have been completely captivated by this peasant type of costume which is very becoming to many girls and women.

With these basic requirements attended to you will want a dress

School Students and Summer Work

We have a private theory that high school students, except in extreme cases of necessity, should be allowed to devote their vacation periods to matters which concern neither classroom studies nor flurries into the adult method of making a living.

There are only three precious two-month periods between the time a student enters high school and leaves to take his place in the working world, or in the equally serious world of higher education. These are all too short, if you stop to think of it, for the very valuable and necessary service which they should perform.

The fact that many parents do not recognize in these vacation hours the supreme chance to do, adroitly, and without pressure, ground their children in the art of correctly using pastime is becoming more noticeable and more disastrous in its results. Much stress has been put on the art of part-time work which is supposed to develop in the child almost magically the traits of self-reliance and a knowledge of how to earn and apportion money.

Forgetful that the lesson will never be truly grasped while the child knows his livelihood is secure they rant about the expenses incurred by students today and hang the heavy cloud of embarrassment over Johnnie's or Mary's head that he or she cannot expect to participate in such expenses next term if they do not earn and put by some money during vacation.

Not Common Sense

The sole object of any high school pupil, and again we repeat with certain necessary exceptions, should be to conform to discipline, accumulate as much knowledge as he can and learn how to live with other people. Beyond this he should not be required to go. It is not common sense to divide the child's attention between a scheme of life which is designed by adults for him and at the same time expect him to assume responsibilities which belong to those adults.

We have heard parents practically ask business men to create jobs for their teen-age boys and girls (so that they will be kept out of mischief) during the summer. We have discovered through actual experience that many young people, fired with an enthusiasm which most of them really do not feel, are challenged with such remarks as "look what Bob Smith did!" or "how would you like to have earned the money you want for that purpose?" They apply for work and find it, as any job which is worth compensation is bound to be, too strenuous.

Their own parents are the first ones to point this out and hold in utter scorn Mrs. Smith, who asked their daughter to scrub a tiled floor when she was only supposed

Recipe Column

National Iced Coffee Week is being celebrated this week in the realm of food. If it is not a custom in your family everyone will enjoy the innovation.

Extra-strength coffee poured immediately after it has finished percolating, over ice gives the finest flavor. But coffee, contrary to tea, may also be cooled in a glass or china container before serving. This means it can be made in advance and also will not require so much ice in serving. For afternoon or evening refreshments serve it with cream and sugar, with the following tasty accompaniments.

Banana Whipped Cream Tarts

¾ cup whipping cream
2 tablespoons sugar
¼ teaspoon vanilla
2 ripe bananas
6 baked tart shells
6 tablespoons shredded coconut

Whip cream and fold in sugar and vanilla. Peel and slice bananas into tart shells when ready to serve. Cover immediately with cream and garnish with shredded coconut.

Nut Cup Cakes

2 eggs
½ cup cream (about)
1 cup sugar
1½ cups sifted flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ cup chopped Brazil nuts

Break eggs into measuring cup and add cream to fill cup. Sift dry ingredients into mixing bowl, add egg mixture (gradually) add flavoring and beat two minutes. Add chopped nuts, stir and fill greased muffin pans two-thirds full. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) twenty to twenty-five minutes until lightly browned.

There are little tricks to perform with iced coffee which will make it the center of attraction on your terrace or porch on a hot afternoon. When you are "dressing it up" we would suggest that you serve fairly simple cookies with it. A spoonful of ice cream added to a glass of iced coffee is the simplest variation. The flavors which blend the best are coffee, chocolate, eggnog or butterscotch.

Try honey and brown sugar as a sweetener instead of plain granulated sugar. And when you top the coffee with whipped cream you may add any of these: piquant flavorings to the cream: a touch of ground cinnamon, nutmeg, ginger, mace or cloves; a few drops of maple flavoring; oil of cloves or wintergreen; or mix in some grated orange rind.

Baby-Keep-Well Station Schedule Changed

Motor Corps Session Monday Open To The Public

The final session of the Motor Defense Corps training course sponsored by The Red Cross, which has been conducted each Monday evening in June at Davidson & Robertson's Service Station, will be open to the public.

More than twenty women, among them school teachers, office workers and housewives, have completed the mechanical instruction and practice work. Those who have not already done so will take a first aid course in September and at its conclusion will be awarded emblems to be used on their cars indicating their ability to perform emergency work.

Two films will be shown Monday evening by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. The first, a descriptive picture of the recent Lawrence Copley Thaw Expedition from Paris to Bombay, India; the second, a safety film titled "Your Friend The Trooper." Sergeant John V. Conover of the New Jersey State Police will give a short talk.

The course will be repeated in September in conjunction with the First Aid series and will be particularly available to women who have cars and leisure hours during the daytime.

I'M PAYING FOR HOT WATER . . . BUT IT'S COLD!

Why Not Have HOT Water Automatically?

THIS MAN has an old-fashioned water heater in the cellar. Sometimes he gets hot water, but often it is cold. He wants HOT water—always. He needs a modern Automatic Gas Water Heater in his home!

It costs only a few cents a day for completely automatic hot water service by gas . . . hot water day and night for every household need. A small amount down and a small amount monthly pays for a modern Automatic Gas Water Heater. Trade in allowance on an old water heater. Ask Public Service or your plumber for information.

PUBLIC SERVICE

Why You Should Back The U.S.O.

For the first time since this nation inaugurated its preparedness movement the people of the country are being asked to contribute individually. We here in Belleville have now joined this national effort to bring about the full realization of the program contemplated by the United Service Organizations.

It is for the betterment and the welfare of more than a million men who have made a sacrifice so that their country—and this means every one of us—might be prepared in any eventuality to defend its honor of being one of the world's great powers.

Whether these men be in the Army, Navy or Marines, they are still human. They are still like the rest of us. They must have something to do with their leisure time. Their minds must be occupied, led in the right direction.

Is it right that we should send these men into camps and then forget about them? The million and more are ready to give for this country something for which we can never hope to compensate them. It is not too much for all of us to do our part as citizens to see that the lives of these men in the service are made as pleasant and worth while as possible.

We want a great Army, a powerful Navy and Marine Corps. Manpower counts, but an armed force of men without morale is as ineffective as one without ammunition.

To be away from home ties, friends and the locale in which you may have spent the better part of your life is one thing, but to be in a place where there is nothing to do, nowhere to go but the overcrowded streets is another. It is a condition which breeds discontent, breaks down the individual and frequently leads him astray into activities from which nothing but evil and harm can come.

We cannot turn a million men into hastily erected army centres without expecting that something must be done to keep them occupied when they are not learning to become good soldiers. Those who have members of their families or friends in the service realize it. They want those boys to be looked after. There are few of us who do not have someone close by who has not already joined the ranks. We want to know that they are being well cared for. Not only that they have a good place to sleep, good food and enough clothing, but we want to be sure that when retreat is sounded at the day's end, they have something to do, somewhere to go. Think of all of these young men in the terms of the relative or friend you know. You have the picture.

The USO is a combination of organizations interested in seeing that those in service are well looked after and guided when not doing their daily work. They need nearly $11,000,000 to run the program planned for a year. They have asked the people of Belleville to contribute $4,500—about fifteen cents for every man, woman and child in the community.

We hope it will be greater than that amount. There is a real need for this program. It cannot be fully appreciated unless you have visited one of the camps or asked those stationed in the service what they do when not at work.

Give as much as you can. Give because it is for your country. Give because these are the men who are ready to protect this nation and you and your home and freedom.

Pinning Down Home Builders

Since the Federal Housing Administration has let down the bars of insuring low-cost homes, claiming that it has been necessitated by the demand for homes for defense workers, many a municipal official has shuddered. The trend toward the lower priced homes has been more noticeable in recent years but there is an even greater encouragement today.

As has been said again and again in these columns, a quickly mushroomed development of small, stereotyped houses is no community asset. They are not worth their salt in taxes and based on the speculation building boom of the 20's they are the first to become a tax liability on the town.

Both Commissioners King and Waters were on the right road Tuesday night in emphasizing that there should be no place in Belleville for such houses erected by over-night developers. No house—even when it's new—can be assessed for its full value. Therefore, there is a certain economical low

Governor Edison Meant What He Said

Governor Edison is at the moment in an unusual position for a state's chief executive — one that must by reason endear him to the people who favor more administering and less politics. Not only are the job-hungry Republican political bosses bickering with him, but his supposed party ally Mayor Hague is battling him.

This is unusual, but it indicates that what Edison stated last November was no pre-election political boast. In effect, he declared that if elected he would be the governor of the state and Frank Hague would be the Mayor of Jersey City. Even the definiteness with which Edison stated his position was not convincing to some. They had that wait-and-see look in their eyes.

Hague does not want any revision of the railroad tax legislation which would cut the amount that the lines would pay. Jersey City with the bulk of the railroad terminals in the state would be the loser. Hague's already taxpayer-killing rate would go higher.

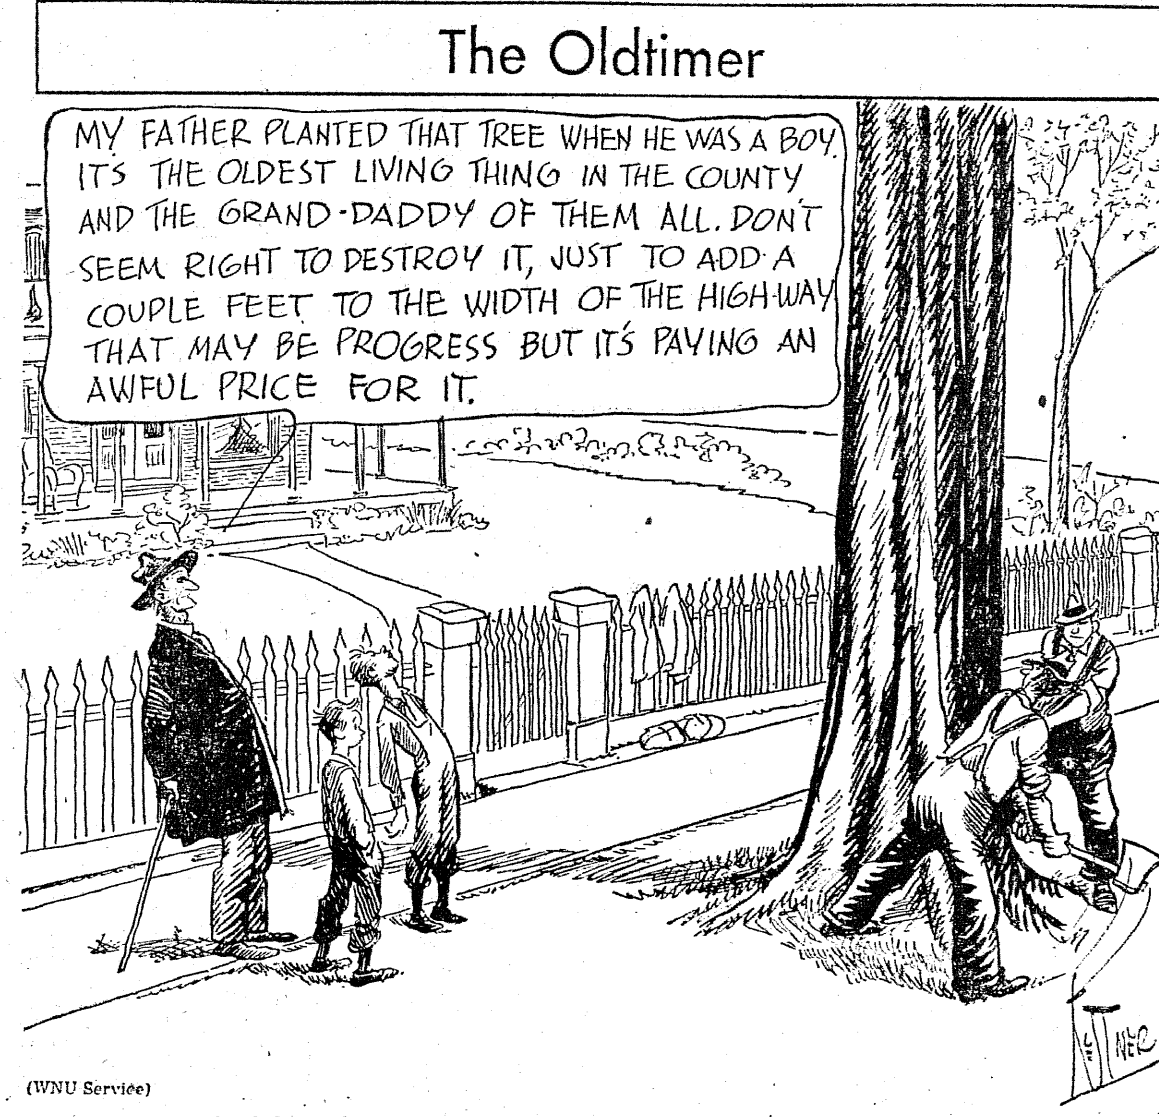

Consequently, he has broken with Edison on this all-important question which has been in and out of the legislative halls in recent years. Just as strongly set against some of Edison's other policies are the G.O.P. legislators.

Unable to agree on candidates for posts over which they still do exercise some control by virtue of the votes which they can muster in the Assembly and the Senate, they have refused to confirm some of Edison's choices for key positions.

Through the winter and spring, the public heard about selecting a man for the all-important State Alcoholic Beverage post. Then, there was the choice of numerous other ABC executives, a state treasurer and a comptroller. To date it has produced nothing but fights and false dealing, which makes the public think that politics is pretty rotten after all.

While the G.O.P. leaders may be hog-tieing Edison, they are cutting off their noses to spite their faces. It is our opinion that with the average man Edison is gaining in popularity. First, he has kicked the props out from under that old Republican war cry, "Hague controlled" by telling the supposed big chief of the tribe where he gets off. Then, he has refused to play the game as some Republicans think he should. Meanwhile not trusting Hague and not thinking likewise of some Republican politicians, Edison finds himself today more popular with the public than he was at the outset of his term in office. Whether a man succeeds or not in what he is attempting, we have usually found that the public is willing to give him an even "break" if his actions seem honest and sincere for the public good.

Tribute Paid To Pupil Who Overcame Handicap

In the passing of twelve-year-old Kalman Taylor last week, the school system lost a youngster who presented a problem seldom found among school children. Yet through his persistence, his natural intellectual ability and the capable assistance of the teachers, he was able to overcome the handicap.

Below is a tribute written to the young boy by one of the teachers who had worked with him.

"There is a small group of pupils in any given school system which causes grave concern. These pupils are of superior mental ability due, it is believed, to a neurological disturbance, difficult if not impossible to trace, they have not learned to read.

"All usual methods of teaching reading having failed, these pupils face confusions difficult to imagine, as they struggle on with this misunderstood handicap.

"Some time ago, a highly recommended method of teaching reading to these pupils came to the attention of W. R. Farmer, superintendent of schools. After further inquiry, a teacher already in the school system was trained in the use of this method, adapted for the needs of this group of pupils. It remained to be proved that the miracle could happen; that after consistent failure to read over a period of years, a pupil could be taught to read.

Selection Was Important

"Selection of the pupil to try the experiment with was a most important one. It was known that much depended upon the pupil. A long tedious road lay ahead, possible of accomplishment only to one of optimism, determination and perseverance.

"Knowing these qualities to be necessary, the late Kalman Taylor was selected as the subject, and work was begun. Previous to his fatal illness Kalman had worked with his teacher less than eight months. In that time he had progressed far beyond the anticipations of those following the experiment. His joy and enthusiasm knew no bounds as stories of science, of adventure, and of his Boy Scout interests unfolded for him from books, by his own efforts, for the first time.

"As we were able to give these experiences to Kalman, he was proving to us, and to others who need the help, that it was entirely possible to overcome this unfortunate handicap.

"We give tribute primarily to Kalman. With his persistence and boundless optimism, his keen inquiring mind and broad interests he has proved to us that this particular reading handicap can be overcome. We appreciate the cooperation of the parents, who met the necessary expenses incurred in the experiment; of Mrs. Taylor, who gave a part of each school day to a necessary phase of the work; of Mrs. Grinnel, Kalman's grandmother, whose anxious inquiry in his behalf was a final determining factor in selecting Kalman as the subject.

"As we go forward with confidence, we shall remember Kalman's service to Belleville with humble gratitude."

Marie Core, Former Resident, Weds Washington Man

Miss Marie Stella Core, daughter of Enrico Core and the late Mrs. Core of Watessing avenue, Bloomfield, formerly of this town, was married to John Brooks Stock, son of Dr. and Mrs. Leo F. Stock of Washington, D. C., on Sunday at the Sacred Heart Church, Bloomfield, at 4 Rev. T. M. Donovan performed the ceremony.

Miss Anne Core was her sister's maid of honor and Harold V. Coughlin acted as best man. The bride was attired in a powder blue silk afternoon dress and wore a corsage of orchids. Her sister wore a lighter shade of blue dress with a corsage of roses.

LETTERS

Didn't Like Headline

From Mrs. Margaret Caruso
218 Passaic avenue
To the Editor of The News:

This letter is in answer to the heading of my letter to you published in your paper of June 19. I greatly resent the fact that you gave my letter the following headline "Criticizes Defense Training School and Buses."

I had not intended to criticize the school. If there is any criticism at all, it is in the lack of cooperation on the part of our town officials in helping the trainees to obtain jobs. We have the same lack of cooperation in regard to the bus service.

I want to emphasize that I am 100 per cent for the defense training schools and if I had any complaint to make in regards to their inefficiency, I would have sent it to the proper authorities and not to The Belleville News.

I hope you will publish this letter so as to avoid any misunderstanding and in justice to the defense training schools.

MAYOR

"May I respectfully ask you to extend consideration to the following data and recommendations:

"To complete the Stadium and grounds, to have proper care extended to same and to have area and property completely supervised, additional work is essential and a man is required for supervision of male quarters during activities and a lady is required for supervision of female quarters.

"Over $100,000 of Federal funds of the original appropriation are still unexpended and available for construction of field house, road and quarters for caretaker.

"To obtain use of this available Federal $100,000, certain local funds are necessary. To obtain the local funds I will appreciate your consideration of the question of obtaining the best price for the town-owned property at the corner of Joramelon street and Garden avenue, which property is being used as meeting headquarters for many groups, and if reasonable sales price appeared available, comparable sum to be applied as local contribution to enable Belleville to obtain use of available Federal funds.

Modern Quarters for All

"The total Federal and local funds will provide modern headquarters for all groups now using present Garden avenue headquarters and additional space for other groups — will provide sufficient parking area for any demand — will provide required man and woman to supervise entire stadium, grounds and meeting headquarters by using the present supervisors of the Garden avenue headquarters and will eliminate need for expending monies as requested to eliminate dust complaints from property owners of Garden avenue, and further if Joramelon street and Garden avenue property is returned to rateables, land taxes and taxes of any buildings erected thereon, will enable town to pay interest and entire cost of the new building in a very brief period of time.

Advocated Playgrounds

"For over ten years I have been an advocate of neighborhood playgrounds which should be developed for the younger children, as traffic hazards and inconveniences to parents cannot permit young children to go any long distance without bodily risk to children, or deep concern to parents. Our schools were erected in centers of population, and while our centers of population have been changed to some degree, the program of development of neighborhood recreation centers can be greatly enhanced by joint study of my oft-repeated recommendations to the members of the Board of Education and Board of Commissioners.

"New investments and interest costs can be avoided for land and rooms by the greatest possible use of our present investments in school grounds and school buildings, and increased dividends made available to the children and also to the adults of each section of our town.

"The members of Boards of Education and Commission realize it costs dollars to have school grounds, rooms and sanitary facilities made available, but necessity demands study be given to the best use of non-school and non-employment hours of the youth of the town to enhance physical opportunities and moral environments which I have believed will compensate our taxpayers for actual expended dollars and will definitely tend to avoid youth delinquencies which are serious problems in every community.

"I will be glad to ask our educational officials to plan a joint study with us in this program if you concur with my general outline.

"In the use of local dollars to enable the town to obtain the use of already appropriated Federal funds, we do not need to make expenditure of local monies to obtain the use of all the available Federal dollars, but only such local dollars as will obtain sufficient portion of the Federal funds as will assure us of field house facilities to care for all groups now meeting at the Garden avenue building and sufficient additional space to care for apparent demand beyond present facilities.

"I appreciate the cooperation of all departments extended to me in my efforts to operate Stadium and grounds, and sincerely believe your study of problems as outlined above will permit us to economically and effectively develop a program to merit the approval of our citizens."

What You Should Know About USO

With What Money?

Where Will The U.S.O. Get Its Funds? The U.S.O. believes that private citizens ought to provide facilities that will protect the morale of the youth defending us. The U.S.O. seeks funds through private subscription, thus giving citizens strengthened morale through active participation. Moreover, it is held that citizens have responsibility for standing behind the defense forces. What Effect Will Private Support Have On The Defense Forces?

It should give them the encouragement of knowing that the citizenry is interested in them and is supporting them.

The Program

What Is The Basis Of The U.S.O. Program?

To serve the religious, spiritual, welfare, educational and social needs in the armed forces and defense industries of the United States, and in general to contribute to the morale of our defense forces and the communities in which they are based.

But How Will It Attain These Ends?

Each club will have its own program designed to meet its peculiar local needs. They may include such projects as: Religious service for those of varying faiths, in cooperation with chaplains of the forces and churches in the community; Counsel and guidance for personal problems; Social events, and entertainments; Hospitality in homes and the creation of opportunity for normal friendships; Facilities for service within the clubs, such as recreation rooms, lounges, meeting rooms and all of the services one might expect from a club; Group activities; Cooperation with educational and cultural programs in camp; Hospital visiting in cooperation with chaplains and the American Red Cross; General information service; Aid to transient service men; Contacts between soldiers and their homes when necessary; In addition the U.S.O. plans to provide $500,000 for arranging entertainment within the camps and naval stations through the Citizens Committee for the Army and Navy.

And The Finances

How Will All of This Work Be Financed?

By public subscription, raised through a nation-wide appeal for support from private individuals.

How Much Will Be Required?

The present goal is $10,765,000 for the first year's operations, to be raised in a national campaign.

Will These Funds Be Used To Meet Normal Budgets Of The Participating Agencies?

No. These funds will be used solely for the U.S.O. defense emergency program.

How Was The Goal Fixed?

Through study by a responsible budget committee consisting of members of the participating agencies who have had long experience in this direction, working in close cooperation with the government.

Will Any Profits Accrue From The Operation Of These Clubs?

No. The U.S.O. and its member agencies are all non-profit organizations.

For Those Who Ask "Why?"

Most people will readily understand the urgency of the appeal in behalf of the United Service Organizations, but there are some who must be convinced.

These will ask "Why?"

Here are some reasons why everyone should do his utmost to support the United Service Organizations:

1. The U.S.O. is an integral part of our national defense program.
2. The morale of our defense forces cannot be adequately protected except through the provision of such services as those offered by the U.S.O.
3. The need is an emergency need — our defense needs cannot wait and one of the most fundamental of our defense needs is a strong morale.
4. Every gift to the U.S.O. is a vote of confidence in the men and women who are making sacrifices to make our defense program a success.
5. Government cannot do this work, for in our democratic way of life individual needs must be met by the individual services which can only be rendered through privately operated agencies.
6. Tax money cannot be used for this purpose, for tax money works only on the government reservations. The defense forces in their leisure time seek the same sort of recreation, counsel and spiritual facilities that civilians enjoy, and they are entitled to them.
7. A gift to the U.S.O. will go further than gifts to single agencies, for this combined effort is based on the economy of common effort without duplication.
8. Finally — we know that we are a people who will do everything in our power to stand behind and show our appreciation of the young people whom we have called to our defense.

Home-Stretch Spurt Any Time You Say

PAYS YOUR GAS TAX FOR YOU

At present Federal tax rates, the savings on gasoline effected by Compound Carburetion are usually more than enough to pay Federal taxes on the gas you buy.

PLENTY of men can run a mile around a cinder track.

But those who win races—and championships—are the ones who can turn on the plus when it's needed.

Probably that's why you hear so much these days about Buick's exclusive Compound Carburetion.

It gives you an engine that will cruise right along with the distance runners and pile up plenty of miles for your gasoline money.

No fooling—owners write in to tell us of mileage as much as 10% to 15% greater than previous Buicks gave.

But any time you want plus-performance—a home-stretch spurt—just step down on the gas treadle.

Instantly, you send an extra carburetor into action. You step up the supply of both gasoline and air—and virtually give yourself a bigger engine to get you places in a hurry.

That means thrills—and plenty of them.

It means sure-fire lift in the pinches, zooming power whenever you say.

It means, also, efficiency—proper use of every drop of fuel without useless waste.

It bears out the Big Point about this 1941 Buick—that on size, style, comfort, room and ability, it's far and away the top value of the year.

To see how true that is, just go size one up against the low delivered prices your nearest Buick dealer is asking.

†Available on Buick SPECIAL models at slight extra cost, standard on all other Series.

$930 for the Business Coupe (illustrated above) including Compound Carburetion.

Town Board Like Fellow Without Bus Fare

Unexpected Popularity of The Learn-to-Swim Series Sends Transportation Bill Over $500; Now Trying to Find Money to Pay It

The Town Commission finds itself in the same embarrassing predicament as the fellow who gets to the end of a bus ride and discovers that he does not have the money to pay the fare.

When the Learn-to-Swim campaign was first proposed, it was agreed that the town would pay the cost of transporting the youngsters to and from Montclair Pool. After all there couldn't be more than a couple of hundred, could there?

This week there are more than 700 boys and girls between the ages of ten and sixteen from Belleville splashing around the Montclair Pool. They are being transported there in Public Service buses each day.

Mayor Williams told the other town board members at the conference Tuesday night that the response of the youngsters to the free lesson offer had not only bowled him over, but the Junior Red Cross and Montclair "Y" officials who are sponsoring the event.

Over $500 For Buses

Anyway, it costs about sixteen cents per day for each youngster, including transportation to the swim campaign. Belleville gave $75. This leaves over $500 in transportation bills, the Mayor said.

He asked the other commissioners to give the mayor some estimates to give the other commission a good once-over to see if they could not find about $100 each to help pay the P.S. bill.

The children who are registered for the swim campaign are as follows:

Marie Melchione, Louise Fusaro, Janet Jakes, Beatrice Zemanek, Dorothy Williams, Anna Hingher, Claire Goldrick, Margaret Brown, Edith Connolly, Joan Min, Maurine Bell, Mary Cherry, Marion Barnett, Marie Geier, Patricia Dempsey, May Dannenberg, Louise Luciola, Theresa Seaman, Laura Bruce, Joyce Brown, Joyce Connolly, Dorothy Vancari, Margaret Brown, Mary Ward, Anna Wastor, Marion Duncan.

Petreaans Have Committee To Make New Members Feel At Home

To be sure that new members are made to feel at home and that they will quickly get to know every other member by their first names, the Petrean Club of St. Peter's Church has named a reception committee.

It was the idea of James Monahan and he was named the chairman of the new committee at last week's meeting.

Rev. Joseph M. Kelly, St. Peter's pastor and moderator for the club, spoke briefly, thanking the members for the fine support they gave the Flag Day parade on June 14. A group of more than fifty Petreaans headed by President Thomas Dowd and other officers marched.

The house committee headed by Gene Barnett received approval for the appropriation of funds to re-decorate the club rooms. The painting will be done by the boys. Jannarone Co. Gets Bid
