

APPLY TO STATE FOR IMPROVEMENT OF MAIN STREET

Town Seeks $60,000 For 40-Foot Concrete Road;
Local Share $6,666

Motorists who twist and turn to avoid bumps and jars of Main street extending from the Nutley line south to Joralemon street may soon find it at an end. The town commission voted Tuesday night to give Mayor Williams permission to apply to the state highway department for funds to construct a 40-foot concrete street from Joralemon street north to the town line.

It is estimated that the state's share of the cost would be $60,000 and the town's $6,666.66. The application will be filed with County Engineer Stickel, who has charge of the distribution of state highway funds for such roads in Essex and who recommends to the state department of applications made by municipalities in this area.

The town views Main street as an important artery not only for transient traffic moving through town but for serving industrial plants in the Main street area. The Walter Kidde, Federal Leather, Eastwood Neally, and New York Color & Chemical and Resistoflex plants use the street for transportation of equipment and materials in and out of their plants.

Route To S-3
With the construction of State Highway S-3, which would link this area with the Lincoln tunnel and New York, at the northern end of Nutley, it is felt that Main street would become an even more important artery because of the traffic from Newark which would use the road to reach the highway from New York.

Main street is now heavily used by trucks going to and from Newark in addition to a number of passenger car drivers who take the road to avoid the traffic lights and the heavy flow of local traffic which is in Washington avenue.

Main street has been repaired several times in the past with resurfacing in several spots, but it is believed that a completely new road is needed to do a proper job.

This section from Joralemon street south to Rutgers street, which is not in as bad condition as the northern part might possibly be taken care of next year, town officials believe.

Those who have been named inspectors are Alfred W. Treche, 104 Washington avenue; Jack Robertson of Davidson & Robertson, 414 Washington avenue; Jack Deeny, 520 Washington avenue; Frank J. Stanley, Sears, Roebuck company, 165 Washington avenue; Ernest Stefanelli, 110 Franklin street; and Walter W. Gresham, 320 Stephens street.

For this month, Belleville's quota is 17 passenger car tires and 15 tubes and 45 heavy truck tires and 37 tubes.

Even Skaters Have To Keep Warm

She Had A Good Time

Skating Rink's Most Popular Place In Town Now

The most popular spot in Belleville this past week has been the municipal skating rink at the southern end of the town stadium, off Passaic avenue. And, unquestionably the most popular fellow with hundreds of youngsters, and lots of adults, too, is Commissioner Patrick A. Waters, who has had his public works department men busy every day trying to keep the rink ice glass-smooth.

It has been estimated that over last weekend more than 5,000 whirled around the rink from 8 in the morning until 11 p.m. at night. The rink is open daily from 3 to 11 p.m. and on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m.

With the help of Saturday mornings' light snow and the scraping and scuffing of hundreds of skates over the weekend, the ice was pretty bumpy by Tuesday night so Commissioner Waters ordered the department to close the rink at 8 p.m. and flood it again with several inches of water so that it would be ready for skating again late yesterday afternoon.

Normally, it takes the 300 by 100-foot rink nearly two days to freeze, but the cold temperatures of the past week have made freezing an overnight job for the cold weather man. The ice has an average thickness of 10 inches. The skating area was put in A-1 condition by the public works department crew which maintains it and keeps a watchman on full-time duty.

No Rough Stuff
No rough stuff is permitted, the commissioner explained, and hockey is banned so that a greater number can skate. During the evening the police department has a cameraman on duty there. Skaters ranging from tiny tots on double runners to old-timers with fancy figure skates have flocked to the ice'd area during the past week. They have come from both in and out of town. For many youngsters the sign of the red ball going up at the stadium rink meant that they had the first chance to try out the new skates which they received for Christmas. The area is a riot of color with girls clad in warm, vari-colored coats, ski pants, and most of them trying to imitate Sonja Henie's ice-cutting maneuvers.

The local rink, Commissioner Waters said, is one of the first outdoor areas in this section to freeze, because unlike ponds, the freezing is not affected by the flow of the current and winds. It is expected that there will be skating there for the better part of the winter season. After snowfalls, the snow will be scraped off so that the young folks will not lose any opportunity to enjoy themselves.

RED CROSS KEEPS DRIVING TOWARD $10,000 GOAL

New First Aid Course Starts
At Fewsmit Church;
Blood Donors Wanted

With hundreds of workers making a house-to-house visit in the Red Cross campaign to raise $10,000 in the local war relief drive, every department of the chapter was active this week and with the help of additional volunteers increasing the scope of its work.

More than $1,700 has been raised in the campaign to date. Those interested in first aid may enroll in a new class which will start today, at Fewsmit church at 1 p.m. Dr. Joseph D'Angelo will be the instructor. Those who can not register today may sign up next Thursday at the same hour. Registrations are also still being accepted for the class at School 5 which Dr. Martin Meehan conducts on Wednesday nights.

At the Soho Isolation hospital 85 members of the nursing staff and other employees are taking the course which is being conducted weekly by Andrew Lukowiak. Arrangements are also being made to train 175 members of the police reserve and of the rescue and demolition squad in first aid. If possible, they will all be given instruction at one time.

In regular roll call drives, school children have been asked to contribute in school, but in the present campaign, this will not be done. Instead, the pupils are being asked to participate in the victory book campaign which is being conducted in cooperation with the library. Books collected will be turned over to a group which is distributing them among service men. Members of the Junior Red Cross will collect the books in the classrooms and take them to the library. Mrs. William H. Williams is in charge of the Junior group's part while Miss Regina Brenna is handling it in the high school.

Draft Board Wants Volunteer Typist

The increased demand which has been made upon the draft board office staff because of the re-classification of men and the enrollment shortly of more men has required the board to ask for volunteer assistance.

A typist is wanted who would be willing to volunteer her services for work at the board office for at least a half a day, five days a week. The funds made available for the board have been exhausted and the work is continuing to pile up. Those interested should call Edward Reid, draft board clerk, at Be. 2-1723.

BOARD ASSAILS DRAFT CRITICS

J. P. Dailey, Chairman, Points
To Unfair Attacks of Anonymous Persons

With new demands being made upon the draft board to call up more men to help swell the ranks of the nation's armed forces to 3,000,000, the local draft officials are finding that there are stories being spread by some outside critics which are being unfounded and untrue.

In an appeal to the public yesterday, John P. Dailey, chairman of the local board, stated that the action of some people is giving the board considerable trouble, and emphasized that any person having any information concerning draftees should convey it to the draft board as part of their duty as an American citizen.

The board chairman pointed out that the board frequently receives anonymous, unsigned complaints. While the board checks each one, it was pointed out that it has no way of informing the person who made the complaint whether or not the criticism was justified. Frequently critics have the opinion, the statement said, that the board ignores such complaints.

In his statement Dailey said: "Many citizens are criticizing the classification of some registrants for Selective Service. These citizens think they have (and may have) information concerning these draftees. We want to impress upon them that, as American citizens, it is their duty to convey this information to the draft board as soon as they possibly can, so that the man can be properly classified. We have received many letters with information from interested citizens, but in practically all cases they are unsigned, anonymous letters. While the board does check the information contained therein, many times it is not correct, and the board has no way of notifying the writers of these letters as to the situation and some of these interested parties are of the opinion that no attention is paid to their letters. This is a serious matter and we are seeking the cooperation of all citizens of Belleville."

EMERGENCY TRUCK IS GIVEN TOWN

National Grain Yeast Co.
Presents It For Defense
Council's Use

The National Grain Yeast corporation yesterday morning presented to the defense council an emergency truck which will be used during disaster work by the police department to augment the present town ambulance.

The presentation to Mayor Williams and Police Judge Everett B. Smith, chairman of the defense council, was made by Norman D. Lauterette, representing Frank J. Hale, president of the yeast concern, which has its plant in Mill street.

It is a 1940 Ford half-ton panel truck which has been repainted and marked with the official civilian defense insignia. The truck will be stationed at police headquarters and will be turned over for the use of the police department in event of an emergency. The town will provide the funds to equip it, and according to Judge Smith, this equipment is now being assembled and will be installed in the truck so that it will be ready for immediate service.

Lauterette is co-chairman of the transportation and evacuation committee of the defense council.

ALUMNI CHOICE IN TOWN RACE

James J. Tully Candidate
For Commission; Is H. S.
Grads Head

Youth intends to play a part in the town commission campaign. James J. Tully of Mt. Prospect avenue, backed by the High School Alumni association, announced last night that he would be a candidate.

Tully, who was graduate from the high school in 1936 and has been a resident of Belleville for the past 23 years, becomes the youngest candidate to formally enter the race to date.

The inclination to be a leader has been Tully's since he was in high school. He was president of his class during both his junior and senior years, and was one of the organizers of the alumni group of which he is president.

Tully said that he was asked to enter the commission race several weeks ago by a group of the alumni at the organization's annual dance held at Parillo's and that he had finally reached a decision this week.

He is employed in the purchasing department of the General Electric company in Bloomfield.

BANK DECLARES STOCK DIVIDEND

Peoples Bank Votes 75-Cent
Dividend On Common

The Peoples National Bank and Trust company yesterday declared a dividend of 75 cents on its common stock. The announcement was made by B. Thomas Aitken, president of the bank, who explained that it was the first time that a common stock dividend had been paid since August, 1932, although regular preferred stock dividends have been paid.

The action was voted recently at a meeting of the bank directors. Payments will be made on February 1 to stockholders of record as of January 19.

In its statement of condition as of December 31, the bank reported that its total assets were $3,061,931.96, a gain of 30 percent over the previous year. Total deposits were $2,752,589.89.

TO FINGERPRINT DEFENSE GROUPS

ARP, Police and Fire Reserves
Will Be Typed; Communications Group Meets

Fingerprinting of every member of the police reserve, fire auxiliary and the air raid warden patrol was ordered this week by the defense council. The work will be started on Monday by the police department with the assistance of police reserve members who are being instructed in the work.

The members of the communications division will meet this afternoon with Police Judge Everett B. Smith, defense council chairman, to consider plans for co-ordinating the work of the communications group with all other committees in the council.

The council is still delaying the purchase of badges and arm-and insignia for the various emergency groups. Judge Smith explained that there is a wide discrepancy in the prices which have been submitted to the town. He stated the state defense council has instructed local groups to make purchases from a Baltimore concern, which asks 23 cents for each armband. The town has received another offer of seven cents for each insignia. He said that the council did not intend to move fast in its buying because the difference between the two prices would amount to $400.

Collected 88.5% of 1941 Tax Levy, Mayor Reports

The year 1941 was a banner one for the town in tax collections, Mayor Williams told his board colleagues Tuesday night. He said that, according to figures given him by Town Treasurer Russell Sergeant, 88.5 percent of the 1941 tax levy had been collected. This is an improvement over the 1940 figure of 84.95 percent collected.

UTILITIES BOARD TO ACT TODAY ON BUS LINE

Public Service Application For
No. 100 Line Expected
To Be Approved

Action is expected today by the public utilities commission on the application of the Public Service Coordinated Transport company to extend its No. 100 line from the Newark line into Belleville and through the valley section to the Belleville-Nutley line. In holding the hearing tomorrow morning at 11 a.m. at its Newark offices at 1060 Broad street, the commission is acceding to the request of Commissioner Noll, who has charge of local transportation, that action be taken on the application as early as possible because the line would be a convenience for those working in plants in the valley area.

A hearing has also been scheduled on the application of the Public Service for the West Belleville-Silver Lake line. It will be held in the commission's Newark chambers on Thursday, January 29. Commissioner Noll announced yesterday.

Noll granted local consent for Public Service to operate the two lines early in December and Public Service immediately filed an application with the public utilities commission for a hearing.

Extending Present Line
The fare on both lines if approved would be five cents. The No. 100 line which will be acted upon tomorrow would be an extension of a line which now runs from the Pennsylvania railroad station along McCarter highway to the Newark-Belleville line. The proposed extension would start from the Newark line in Main street, continue north to Mill street, west to Washington avenue, north to Rutgers street, east to Stephens street, north to Little street, east to Ralph street, north to Greydock avenue, east to Main street and north to Belleville-Nutley line.

The West Belleville-Silver Lake line would link two sections of town with the business center, giving residents there direct service which does not exist at the present time.

Commissioner Noll, in his plea to the public utilities board, stated that he believed that the bus lines were needed to link outlying sections with the town center and also to provide better transportation for employees working in Belleville's many industrial plants.

TOWN RAISES ANTE FOR LAND DEED

Pay $400 For McCloskey
Deed; Had Offered
Only $250

The end was written at Tuesday night's town commission meeting to an incident which had provoked quite a discussion at a recent commission meeting during which Mayor Williams had threatened to resign as a member of the town commission within 60 minutes.

The board passed a resolution agreeing to pay to Maude Young, Jennie Young and Vaya VanNess $400 for 17 tax title pieces of property in Carpenter street. Handling over the deeds eliminates for the town the necessity of going through foreclosure proceedings.

On December 16, Attorney Harold Cavanaugh appeared before the town board stating that he represented the Robert McCloskey estate, which owned the property. He asked $65 for each of the 17 lots. Town Attorney Keenan had previously offered $250 for the lots, in contract to Cavanaugh's effort to obtain $1,100.

In the course of the discussion between Cavanaugh and members of the board, Mayor Williams indicated the comment that "cheap, ordinary pre-election politics have been inserted into this question. As your finance director, I'm not going to be brow-beaten."

Holding out for Keenan's figure of $250, the mayor told the board members that if they chose to set precedent in the case they could take the whole department and that they would have the job in 60 minutes.

Tuesday night Williams explained to the board that he had earned, after conferring with Keenan, that if the town was forced to defend itself in a suit, as Cavanaugh had threatened, the cost to the town would probably rise to the $400 figure and that is what he had felt should be offered to the property owners for their deeds.

NEW DRAMA GROUP IS ORGANIZED

Grace Church Group To Present Biblical, Religious and Other Type Plays

The cast of the recent play, "No Room in the Hotel," which was presented at the Grace Baptist church met on Friday evening to plan the formation of a new dramatic club in Belleville. The primary purpose is to further the study and production of Biblical and religious drama here and in neighboring communities.

However, the group has planned to present two or more comedies each year. The tentative schedule for the coming season includes a group of one-act plays and a pageant to be given in February. The regular Palm Sunday Biblical drama will be given at Grace church and a major production during Holy Week. Plans are also under way for a three-act comedy in May.

In addition to these productions, the club will present the evening message the last Sunday of each month in dramatic form at the Grace Baptist church.

The group will meet twice monthly when study or lecture classes will follow the regular business meeting.

The officers elected at the first meeting are as follows: Mrs. Lorena Clark, general director; Harry Hageman, president; Mrs. Naomi Miller, secretary; Miss Alice Hart, treasurer and Milo Salter, chaplain.

A committee was named to draw up constitutionally the aims and by-laws of the club. Those serving are: Rev. St. Joseph's church in Roselle was the scene Sunday afternoon of the marriage of Miss Ruby Biringer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Biringer of Roselle Park, and Wilbur Thalheimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thalheimer of 19 Fairway avenue. Vocal selections were given by Miss Maude Donnelly. A reception was held at VanCourt Inn, Roselle.

Miss Biringer's maid of honor was Miss Helen Thalheimer, sister of the groom, and she was also attended by Miss Adrienne Gorry of Lawrence Harbor, two junior bridesmaids, the Misses Carol Biringer and Dorothy Backhouse of Roselle; and a flower girl, Audrey Biringer. The bride's brother, Roger Biringer was Mr. Thalheimer's best man while Victor Biringer and Joseph and Franklin Thalheimer ushered.

Satin and lace made the bride's gown which was covered by a long veil draped from a lace bonnet. She carried cala lilies. Satin and net gowns were worn by the senior attendants with matching net bonnets and marigold muffs decorated with roses. Aqua was chosen for Miss Thalheimer and pink for Miss Gorry. Costumes for the junior bridesmaids were similarly arranged in aqua and pink. The flower girl was dressed entirely in white and carried a nosegay. Red roses formed the corsage which Mrs. Biringer wore with her pale blue costume. Mrs. Thalheimer was dressed in black and gold with a corsage of yellow and gold roses.

Art Classes Getting Ready For Annual State Contest

The high school art classes are again at work preparing entries for the New Jersey annual scholastic awards. P. Weber, Dichi, art teacher, is a member of the state award committee this year.

In the past Belleville high school distinguished itself in receiving many of the prizes distributed for outstanding work. In last year's national competition, Walter Garvey, now a senior at the high school, received the only first prize award in art for New Jersey. Six additional awards were made to students of the high school at the time.

The year before, Leonard Willette brought honor to Belleville high school, carrying off by himself seven prizes in national competition.

Entries from the high school will include examples of oil painting, water color, black and colored inks, pencil drawing, fabric and costume design, advertising art, industrial design and sculpture. The industrial arts department will also have several entries from the classes of H. Robley Saunders, mechanical drawing teacher at the high school.

Be Patriotic About It

There is published elsewhere in the paper this week a detailed list, released by the OPM, of those who are eligible to apply for new tires and tubes. If you do not come within one of these classifications do not apply, for you will only be wasting the time of the tire rationing board. It does not have the right to grant an exception in your case and it has too much detail work to do to be bothered with unnecessary work.

Every passenger car owner is being asked to make some sacrifice, and while it may seem a hardship to some that they must cut down on their motoring, they should stop and think what the saving which they are making may mean in this war. Every pound of rubber that is saved in the manufacture of tires for passenger cars and for trucks used for non-vital purposes will be used in this war. The knowledge that indirectly they are making a sacrifice which may provide tires for airplanes, for big guns or as parts of ships that will help defeat the Axis should be sufficient for patriotic automobile owners.

Loose Talking About Draft

The powers and the duties of the draft board are becoming more important as each day passes. Daily, it is changing the lives not only of young men but of whole families. Probably without personal intent, some people are being critical and resentful of the board's action. It should be remembered that what the board is doing is not its will, but that of the government offices in Washington which it represents.

The president has stated that this nation will need an army of 8,000,000 men, which means that many more than had ever been anticipated will be called into service.

LaGuardia and Civilian Defense

The criticism being directed at Mayor LaGuardia that he cannot serve well two masters (New York City and the office of civilian defense) has been made both in congress and elsewhere recently. The contention was first raised in the mayoralty campaign in New York in November when supporters of William O'Dwyer argued that LaGuardia should do one or the other—but not both.

At that time their argument did not bear too much weight for his country was not at war and the task of preparing the civilian population for an emergency was not pressing. But the declaration of war during the past month and the possibility that this country may be attacked or damage to property and lives done by fifth columnists from within has completely changed the picture.

The position of director of the office of civilian defense has become a full-time job, and even for one as energetic as Mayor LaGuardia it does not appear that the zest with which he is able to throw himself into any project can make up for the lack of his full-time direction. Reports from Washington indicate that when LaGuardia is on the scene, the wheels hum at a fast pace, but just as soon as he has hopped a plane to return to his mayoralty desk in New York City, the OCD assistants slow down to a walk. Although President Roosevelt has attempted to save face for LaGuardia by appointing an executive assistant, there will still be confusion.

Even hereabouts there is a reflection of the lack of coordination and understanding between the national and state offices of defense. Recently, we heard of a local defense board which made inquiries at the OCD office in New York for certain instructions. It was promptly told that the office had nothing to do with it. What was being done in New Jersey was not its problem, but that of the state council headquarters in Trenton. Inquiry at Trenton proved to be just as confusing.

Criticism has been made of local councils because they have not made rapid strides in community preparedness. It is only because these part-time volunteer directors have been confused by the numerous conflicting orders or the lack of them from national and state headquarters that this has occurred.

There must be a coordination of thought and of practices if the civilian protection program is to work successfully and without confusing the public. The inability of the various groups to agree on the signals to be sounded in event of an air raid is typical of the confusion which does exist and is a prime example of what should not be allowed to exist.

We do not doubt Mayor LaGuardia's sincerity in attempting to perform a good job, but one man can do just so much and no more and we think that he must do one or the other. This problem of preparing and protecting the population in event of an emergency or disaster is as important as any other that faces us in this war. At present, we are wandering around like a lot of lost sheep, trying to do the right thing, but not knowing definitely whether it is right or wrong.

Defense, Agriculture Subjects For H.S. P.T.A. Meeting

Civilian defense will be combined with agriculture in the presentation of a motion picture at the meeting of the Belleville High School Parent-Teacher association next Wednesday night at 8:15 p. m. in the school auditorium.

R. W. Sherman of the U. S. department of agriculture will deliver a lecture and show several short motion pictures entitled "Beware, the Japanese Beetle," "Block That Termite!" and "Grasshoppers."

The defense council's sound motion picture, "Fighting the Fire Bomb," will also be shown. The high school orchestra, under the baton of Mrs. Alice Wagner, school music supervisor, will offer several numbers.

Son In Honolulu Talks With Mother Here

A person to person telephone call was received Saturday night by Mrs. Michael McCann of 136 Belleville avenue from her son, James McCann, in Honolulu. He told his mother that he was fine and that the Americans were in wonderful order waiting for the Japs to return.

Interesting sideline is the caution expressed to Mrs. McCann by the long distance operator before her son was permitted to speak to her son that she must not mention certain things in the conversation such as weather and time of receiving letters.

Mr. Doll Helps For Red Cross

The earnest initiative of a six-year-old girl in Clearwater, Fla., has brought financial aid to the Red Cross and newspaper comment to herself. She is Gail Livingston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Livingston of Clearwater and granddaughter of Mrs. Mary G. Livingston of 22 Howard place. After seeing her mother make a contribution to the emergency Red Cross drive the little girl presented herself at one of the society's stations near her home and gave them her doll, a toy watering pot full of marbles and a paper lantern.

Officials, impressed by her sincerity, exhibited the objects together with a box for contributions. In a short time the doll had collected $4. The exhibit will be continued until the end of the drive at which time the things will be returned to the little girl with a letter of thanks and an explanation of the extent of the good she has done. The story was reported in a Clearwater newspaper, and a clipping mailed to the child's grandmother.

Where Thousands Have Been Skating

THIS HAS BEEN a skaters' mecca during the past week or so with more than 5,000 estimated to have been there over the weekend. It's the municipal rink, built and supervised by Commissioner Waters' public works department, at the south end of the municipal stadium property near Passaic avenue. Last night's thaw temporarily shut it down.

Woman's Club Members Will Do Servicemen's Laundry

A volunteer group of members of the Belleville Woman's club decided at Monday's meeting to assume care of the laundry and mending for men in the patrol duty service guarding the Jersey coast. Many of these men are too far from their homes to send the work there and some are unable to pay for laundry. Mrs. William V. Irvine has volunteered to transport the clothing to and from the camps. Anyone who wishes to help her by offering their cars or services will be welcomed.

In general charge of the project is Mrs. Willard Y. Strange and all who are willing to do the work should get in touch with her at 86 Division avenue or by calling BE. 2-1949. Those already enrolled for the work are Mrs. William Allen, Jr., Mrs. Frederick S. Bootay, Mrs. Matthew J. Atkinson, Mrs. John De-nike, Mrs. Frederick Grontoff, Mrs. J. Lester Hamilton, Mrs. Elmer S. Hyde, Mrs. F. Kenneth Mase, Mrs. Arthur Martin, Mrs. Andrew Kenneth, Mrs. John F. O'Brien, Jr., Mrs. Charles S. Smith and Mrs. Leslie Woodruff.

H. S. QUINTET WINS AND THEN LOSES

Gain Revenge on Cardinals 30-23; West Orange Nips 'Em 26-21

The high school basketball team had a 500 average for the week. They repaid the Kearny Cardinals for last week's defeat by turning them back 30-23 on their own court, but on Tuesday afternoon were nipped 26-21 by a highly rated West Orange quintet.

Against Kearny, Eddie Finn with six baskets and two foul shots proved to be the scoring gun. The Belboys stepped off to a one-point lead in the opening period, picked up 13 more in the second period and were never headed by the Hudsonites. For the home five, Kirk with four baskets was the high scorer.

It was nip and tuck between the locals and the West Orange team throughout the first three periods with the score at the start of the last quarter showing the Belleville five trailing 17-14. The home quintet put on steam in the last period to sink the locals 26-21. Shannon's six points was the best the Belboys could do while Jack Sexton chalked up four field goals and two foul shots for the winning five.

More Special Guards Added At Three Local Plants

More guards are being added to local plants. This week the town board gave special police powers for workers at the Isolantite, Wallace & Tiernan and Thomas A. Edison plants. Their jurisdiction is only on company property.

Edward McDermott and George Sharpe have been designated as special police at the Edison plant, while Joel P. Schorr and George Schmidt will work as guards at the Isolantite concern.

Additional guards named at Wallace & Tiernan were Robert J. Fitzpatrick, Anthony Wirth, George F. Huband, James Seeley, Charles G. Beresford, and Harold E. Bryant.
