EVERYBODY SAVING IN WAR BONDS

$100,000 War Bond Rally At 5 Today At Clearman Field

The town's biggest war bond rally will be staged at Clearman field this afternoon when the country's No. 1 trumpet tooter, Harry James, and his band come to town to try and blow more than $100,000 out of the pockets of local residents to purchase war bonds and stamps.

Sponsored by the Belleville Manufacturers' association, the rally, featuring the war bond wagon, will be held between 5 and 6 p.m. at Clearman field. It is hoped that the quota of $100,000 in bonds will be topped. An appeal to all manufacturers and their employees to co-operate has been made by Martin F. Tiernan, president of the Manufacturers' association and also the head of Wallace & Tiernan company. John P. Dailey, personnel manager at W. & T., is the chairman of this afternoon's affair.

Others May Appear

James and his band are currently appearing at the Meadowbrook and were secured for their appearance here through Frank Dailey, Meadowbrook proprietor and brother of the local man. Hope is also held that Glenn Miller, who is making an appearance in Passaic before entering the army, will also appear along with several other stars from his musical troupe.

The James' band will be brought here and returned to the Meadowbrook in privately owned station wagons which have been secured from local residents by Defense Coordinator Harry J. Sullivan.

In staging the rally, the manufacturers are working in co-operation with the local war bond committee, which is headed by Philip Dettelbach, superintendent of L. Sonneborn company. Tiernan is the chairman of the industrial division of the Essex county war bond committee.

Featured will be the war bond wagon, which is a special feature sponsored by Radio Station WPAT. The hour long program will also be heard over WPAT. In addition to music by the James band, Tiernan and Mayor Williams will be heard as speakers.

The bond wagon is a big platform vehicle on which the band plays and which also contains the music control and other equipment used in staging the broadcast.

Special arrangements have been made to handle a large crowd. Chief George Spatz has secured a number of police reserves who will supplement the regular department.

Local Leaders To Attend Boy Scout Conference

Local Boy Scout leaders will participate in the afternoon and evening conference to be held on Saturday at the Newark academy to plan future activities.

The principal speakers will be Alan R. Cullimore, president of Robert Treat council of which Belleville is a member. Scout Commissioner Harry Brumbach and A. G. Sorenson, council scout executive. The messenger service program and other details of the program and other details of the program will also be outlined.

Aiding in the arrangements from town are John Charlton, Joseph O'Farrell, Douglas Clark, and Frank Parachini.

Report Tickets Going Rapidly For Clark Testimonial

Tickets are going rapidly for the dinner to be tendered Public Safety Director Clark on October 22 at the Robert Treat hotel, Newark, according to the committee in charge.

All of those who hold tickets and who have not placed them are requested to turn them in, Lieut. Kenneth Smith, committee chairman, who is the dinner chairman, said. He explained that the reservations are limited and that many requests have been received for reservations which cannot be accommodated.

LEGION PRESENTS TOWN INHALATOR

Purchased With Funds Raised In Benefit Concert; Mayor Accepts It

A combination inhalator and resuscitator was presented to the town Tuesday night by the American Legion post to be used by the police and fire department and other agencies in preventing the loss of life.

Proceeds for the purchase of it were obtained by the veterans through a benefit concert and dance which they staged in the high school last spring. The presentation, in the presence of a group of Legionnaires, was made by Commander Edward P. Cantwell. Mayor Williams accepted the equipment, which is packed in a small trunk so that it can be easily carried, on behalf of the town.

Commander Cantwell declared that if it saves only one life, the veterans will feel that the effort they made for its purchase will have been worthwhile.

Cantwell said that another inhalator is on order which the Legion plans to give to the town but priorities have delayed its delivery.

Williams in accepting it turned the equipment over to Public Safety Director Clark who has charge of the police and fire departments.

CLOSE FOUNTAIN FOR 35 DAYS

Heaviest Penalty In History Given By Board For Selling To Minors

The heaviest penalty meted out to a local tavern since the repeal of Prohibition was handed down by the town commissioners on Tuesday night following a two-hour hearing when they found the proprietor of The Fountain, Silver Lake dancing and dining spot, guilty of selling and serving liquor to minors and imposed a 35-day license suspension.

The action of the board was testimony presented by the state department of alcoholic beverage control and the defense presented by the Creston Holding corporation, owners of the tavern.

The town commission's ruling that The Fountain should shut down at the close of business on Saturday night and should not reopen its doors until 1 p.m. on Sunday, November 1. The board's ruling also provided that the interior lighting in the place should be increased 100 percent before business is resumed and that it should be examined by the police before opening will be allowed.

The case is an outgrowth of an accident early on the morning of May 3 in Nutley in which two young people were killed and another was seriously injured. Two others escaped injury. Miss Florence Bickell, 22, of Nutley and

INCREASE FIRE, POLICE BUREAUS CLARK'S AIM

Ordinance Amendments Would Also Add To Number Of Superiors

Amendments to the present laws governing the organization of the police and fire departments were proposed by Public Safety Director Clark this week which would permit an increase in membership in both branches and which would also allow for promotions.

Both measures were introduced at Tuesday night's meeting of the town commission and will have a hearing on Tuesday night, October 7. The measure to amend the fire department organization provides that one man may be appointed to the department for each 925 citizens. The present ordinance, which was adopted in March, 1935, provides that one shall be appointed for each 1,000. There are 28,059 in town.

The proposed amendment also states that the fire department shall consist of a chief, deputy chief, two battalion chiefs, four lieutenants and the proper number of men and any call man who has served three years as a call man and has been or shall be designated as a member of the department by the director in charge of the department.

Raise Dept. To 30

Passage of the amendment would permit the appointment of another battalion chief and a fourth lieutenant in the fire department. Based on the census figures, Clark would be able to raise the number in the department from 24 to 30.

In the amendment covering the police department, the way would be paved for the appointment of a second captain and also another lieutenant and a sergeant. The amended ordinance states that the membership in the department shall consist of a chief, deputy chief, two captains, two lieutenants, five sergeants and one patrolman for every 600 citizens.

The present captain of the department is Robert Anderson while Kenneth Smith is the lieutenant. In introducing his proposed changes in the police and fire ordinances at the commission conference, Clark referred to a story appearing in last week's issue of The Times in which it was stated that the existing law provides that there should be one fireman for every 1,200 citizens.

"The paper didn't know what it was talking about," Clark said. "The law is that one can be added for every 1,000." He termed the story "a lot of rot."

The basis for the story was obtained by The Times from the town clerk's office where a request was made for a copy of the ordinance covering the membership in the department and the basis for appointment. One was obtained but no information was given to the effect that there was also a subsequent amendment on the books.

Mayor Williams commented that he questioned whether the use of population figures as a basis for appointment was a sound foundation.

"If there's a demand for the men," Commissioner Noll said, "the men should be appointed. If not, they shouldn't."

Commissioner King objected to the section of the ordinance which provided that call men should acquire tenure of office after three years' service in the department ranks and be eligible for appointment as firemen by the director in charge.

Claiming that the language was "ambiguous," King said that some method should be decided upon which would permit the men who come back from war to have a chance to get into the department.

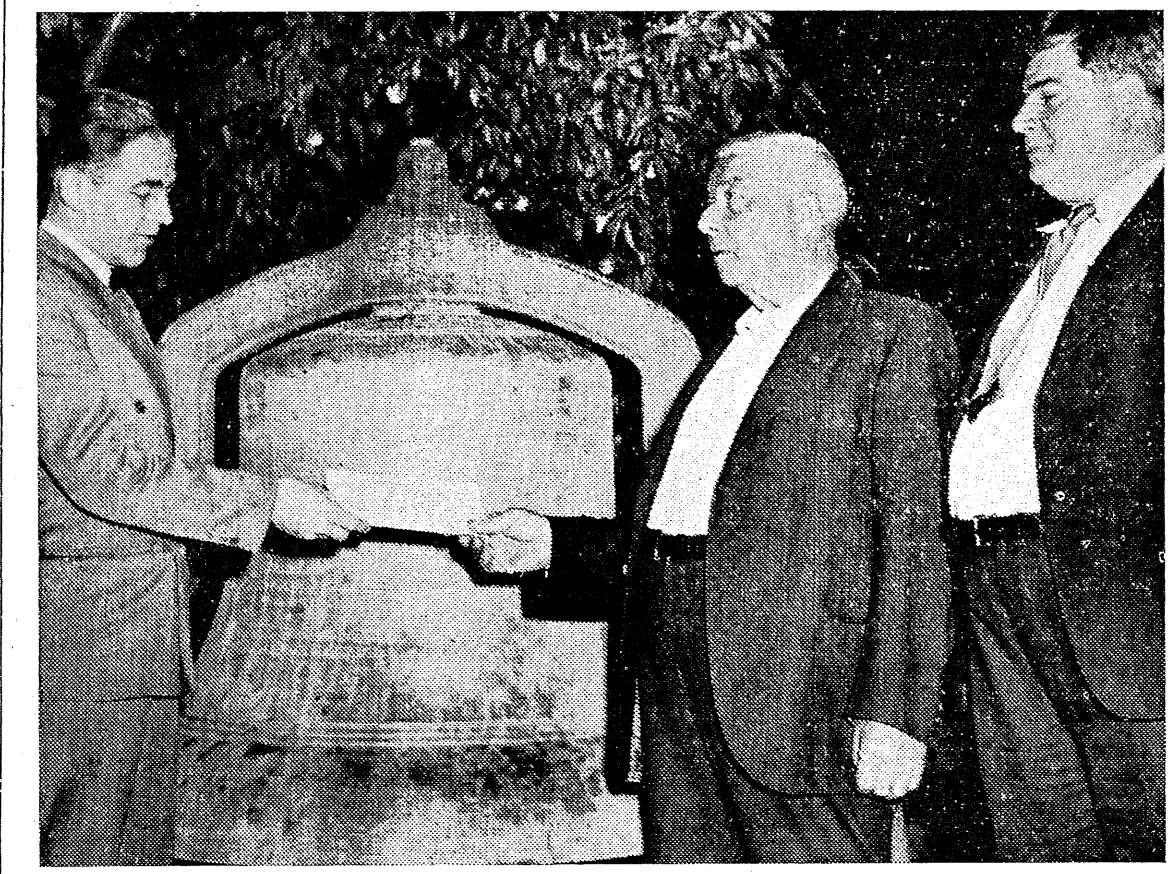

"Are our boys coming back to get the dirty end of the stick as they did last time?" King asked.

Both Clark and Commissioner Waters said they believed that call men should be given some protection after long service. King originally, it was planned to have the bell placed at some prominent spot in town, the front of town hall was suggested, so that it could be rung on special occasions. However, the funds were never obtained to convert this idea into a project. The last time it was rung was on the death of Fireman Robert Andrews, who died on October 18, 1939.

Scrap Patriots Battle Forward To Double Quota; Silver Lake And Belwood Park Sections Lag

It's Ring Won't Be Heard, But--

RING DRAFT FOR AXIS is what the Exempt Firemen's association hopes will happen when their 45-year-old, 2,500-pound fire bell is turned into war materials. A treasured memento of the earlier days of Belleville's fire department, the exemptis this week turned the old pealer over to the salvage drive. Salvage Chairman Robert G. Sutherin (left) is shown accepting the bell from the oldest living member of the exemptis, Patrick J. Finn, 75-year-old former policeman. Looking on is Edward Hollweg (right), recording secretary of the exemptis.

Town's First Fire Bell Joins Victory Battle

2,500-Pound Bronze Bell Given To Scrap Drive By Exempt Firemen; Pealed Out News Of Armistice In The First World War

When the armistice was signed on November 11, 1918, the pealings of the big bronze bell at the William street firehouse rang out the joyous news to the residents in all corners of the town.

The bell won't be here when this war ends, but it will have done its part for it will have been in the fight somewhere along the battle fronts, leaving the victory pealings to newer and younger bells.

A treasured relic of Belleville's past—one the mention of which brings fond memories to many an oldtimer—it this week joined the parade of tons of scrap metal to help beat the Axis.

The town's first fire bell, made of bronze, weighing 2,500 pounds and measuring three feet, one inch high, and four feet one inch in diameter, it was on Tuesday night turned over to Robert G. Sutherin, salvage chairman, by representatives of the Exempt Firemen's association who have been the bell's custodians.

Went To Bed By It

Many will remember the bell for from early 1898 until 1935, it hung in a 50-foot tower at the William street firehouse. Tired to the key of D, the ring of the bell could be heard in all sections of town. In the early years, many of those who are among the town's older residents, were shooed off to bed by the ring of the bell at 9 p.m. every night. Used as a fire signal, it also summoned the firemen to a blaze.

Since it was taken down in 1935, the bell has stood on cement blocks in the rear of the William street firehouse. Public Safety Director Clark presented the bell to the Exempt Firemen's association, members of which made up the town's first fire-fighting force.

Bought In 1898

The bell was purchased in 1898 by the town's fire commissioners. It was cut and cast by the McKeeney company at Troy, N. Y. The day of its arrival and presentation was an occasion for a parade in town with the members of the fire department dressed in their finest.

It was hung at the William street firehouse.

JUNK PILE GETS MANY VALUABLES

Check Shows Many Worthwhile Things Turned In; 2 Cars On The Heap

One of the amazing things in examining any one of the 22 salvage depots about town is that many people are not giving just old junk—they are giving valuable materials which still have a usefulness for them. Lawn mowers, tools such as rakes, shovels and hoes, stoves, car parts and a score of other articles.

Even the youngster, who probably can be credited with having hauled most of the scrap on the piles, have turned in toys that still could give them many hours of joy, but even down to the four and five-year-olds they seem to know that helping Uncle Sam is more important.

During the week more than a hundred telephone calls have come into The Times' office from residents.

Ten-Year Cub Scout Hauls Ton Of Scrap

Ten-year-old Donald Weber of 100 Adelaide street, a Cub Scout, set an example this week for other youngsters to follow. A member of Cub Pack 350 at Fawcett church, Donald outshone all of the other Cubs who took part in collecting scrap for the salvage drive on Saturday.

According to his cubmaster, Harold Ross, Donald started out at 7:30 a.m. in the morning with his wagon and hauled scrap to the nearest salvage depot until 6:30 p.m. at night. By count, he had brought in 18 loads. Ross estimated that the youngster had collected more than a ton of scrap. Part of the time, he was helped by 12-year-old Jackie Sargeant of 134 Adelaide street.

Sears' Staff Entertained On Company Anniversary

On the occasion of the 56th anniversary of Sears, Roebuck & company which is being observed this week in the firm's various stores throughout the country, John A. Squair, local manager entertained his staff at dinner Tuesday evening at Parrillo's. Squair became manager of the Washington avenue store in January.

His guests were Charles V. Roche, assistant manager; Mrs. Elizabeth Edwards, of the catalog order desk; Miss Leona DeMarko who is in charge of home furnishings; Mrs. Jeanette Lewis, office manager; Frank Stanley of the auto supplies department; Ernest Forbes in charge of sports goods; W. A. MacDonald, hardware department; Eldon Shawger, paint department; Herbert Simpson, who is in charge of the service department, and William Ryan. All-State insurance inspector. Entertainment was furnished by Miss DeMarko and Shawger.

Mountainous heaps of Axis beating scrap metal that defy description rose on vacant lots throughout town this week as Belleville's citizens responded to the salvage committee's challenge to put the campaign over the top. Based on roughly calculated estimates, the drive was well over the quota figure of 50 tons and the salvage leaders are now driving to top the 100-ton mark with optimistic hopes of doing it.

With Saturday as the red letter day, the piles in the 22 lots scattered in every section of town doubled and tripled their size over night. Credit for the lead in the campaign must go to the youngsters for boys and girls of all ages were out bright and early Saturday morning ransacking cellars and back yards to make the scrap pile in their neighborhood the biggest in town.

The drive did not let up throughout the week as the public works department trucks under the supervision of James Waters and his road division crew covered each section of town picking up the scrap pieces which patriotic householders placed at the curb. In addition, they had on special trucks and crews which answered hundreds of special calls to pick up heavy articles which the householder was unable to carry to the curb.

Dump In Each Zone

Acting on the request of Salvage Chairman Robert Sutherin, the trucks dumped the loads of scrap on piles in the one of the five zones in which they were working on a certain day. Scheduled to be covered today are Zone 4, embracing the Belwood Park area, and Zone 3, which takes in the Silver Lake and Sola sections. Zone 3, which covers the West Belleville area, was covered yesterday.

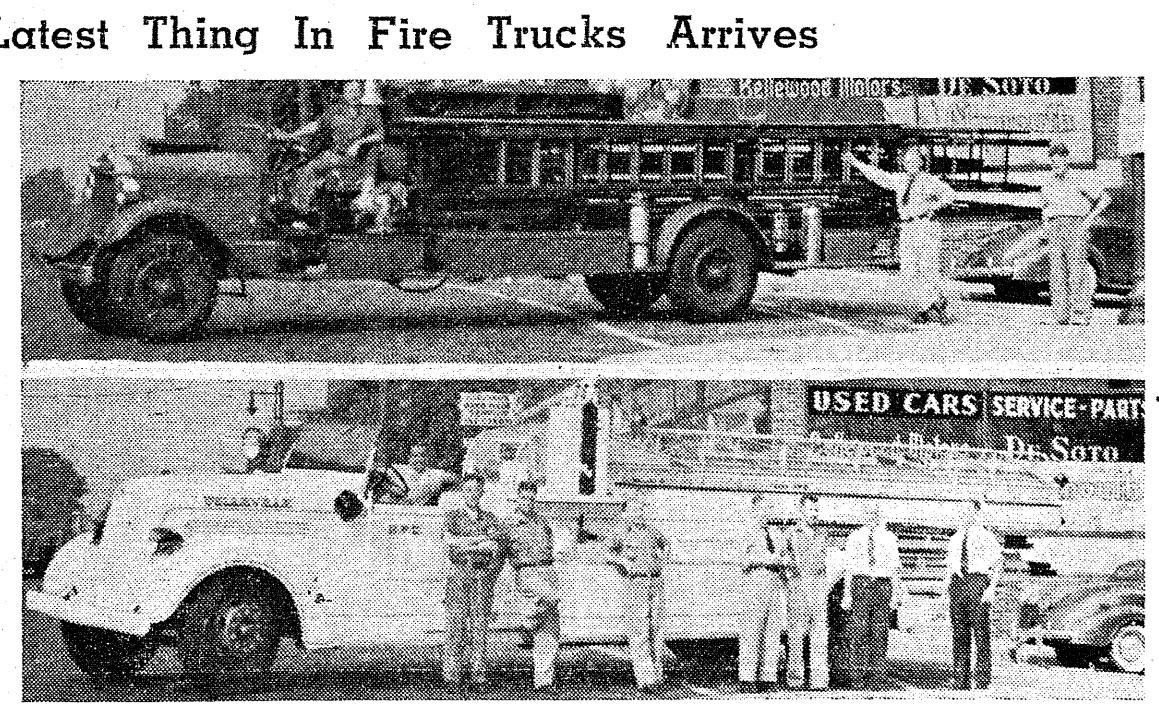

The figures given out are unofficial and were based on a cursory check by the salvage chieftains on Tuesday night. Conceding that the trucks had not yet picked up scrap in the house-to-house campaign, those in charge still insisted that the Belwood Park and Silver Lake sections were well behind the other areas in their contributions and even the West Belleville residents are lagging.

In Silver Lake, where there had previously been reports of an abundance of scrap metal, a total of 3,400 pounds, slightly more than one-half ton, had been turned in by Tuesday night. Zone 4, which covers Belwood Park, had only a bit over two tons while Zone 3 sported about the same figure. This was in sharp contrast to Zone 2 where well over 25 tons had been collected by Tuesday and Zone 1 where the junk pile at the depots showed that nearly 20 tons had been turned in.

Here is how the town, divided into the five zones, which are used for air raid purposes, compared in the scrap drive, based on reports compiled on Tuesday following a rough check of all of the salvage lots. In the figures given below, the locations designated are the sites of the salvage depots and the weight is given in pounds.

OLD AND THE NEW. A $14,000 new boarder was welcomed with open arms at fire headquarters this week when the town's new 65-foot aerial hook and ladder arrived from the Sea-graves company. The new apparatus, painted white as is the department's other recently purchased equipment, is the latest word in fire engines. Its aerial ladder, operated mechanically, can be operated by one man. The 18-year-old hook and ladder (top photo) which has been squeezed out of the fire house by the new arrival is shown at top. Stated originally for service at a navy project, it will be stored here until its disposition is decided.

To Direct Industrial Appeal

Division leaders for the 11 groups which will campaign for funds in the $35,000 Community-War Chest drive which will open on October 19 were announced last night by Hugh Kittle, the drive's manager. In addition to Harold Dufford, high school teacher, who was named house-to-house leader last week, they are Elwood Russell, industrial; Charles Schultz and office practice classes at the high school, out-of-town; Mrs. William P. Adams, churches and organizations; George Weston, clubs and veterans; Frank Bangert, lodges; Dr. George Kaden, professional; Luther Van Pelt, commercial; Arthur Ackerman and Charles Watson, municipal employees; and Wayne R. Farmer, schools. A special effort will be made by Russell, who is in charge of the solicitation among the industries and their employees. A sales manager at Wallace & Tiernan company, Russell promised Kittle yesterday that his division would do its share and trusted that many more residents would contribute.

FOUNTAIN CASE

Pvt. Stanley Reynolds, 24, of 207 Malone avenue was killed in the crash. The car was driven by Carmen Majoran of Union avenue, who is now in the army. Charles Zeitzler, 19, of Division avenue was seriously injured and spent a month in the hospital. Subsequently, ABC agents investigated and took sworn statements from Zeitzler and two 17-year-old Nutley high school girls, Ann Hatch and Janice Reynolds, to the effect that they had been to The Fountain and had been served intoxicating beverages. At the Tuesday night hearing, the ABC was represented by Town Attorney Lawrence E. Keenan and The Fountain by Max Schwartz, local attorney.

Both the girls and Zeitzler testified that they had been at The Fountain, had been served drinks and that the waiter did not question their age. Each said that they had had three drinks during their stay there from about 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. They all admitted that they could not identify the waiter whom they claimed had served them.

Appearing for the defense were Eugene D'Agostino, president of the Creston Holding corporation; Joseph W. Elliott of 767 Broadway, Newark, a waiter at The Fountain; and Fred B. Handlon, court clerk in the local police department.

D'Agostino testified that he had instructed waiters not to serve minors, to ask ages if in doubt that they were 21 and have them sign a card stating that they were 21 years old. He said that he did not recall seeing any of the young people named in the charge against the establishment. He said it was difficult to remember all when 500 people are in the place. Elliott said that he had never served minors and corroborated D'Agostino's testimony that the waiters had been instructed not to serve minors. Handlon stated that to his knowledge there had never been any complaints registered against The Fountain.

One of the main points raised before the board went into its conference was that the tavern owner was subject to a heavy penalty while the minors would not suffer at all. Commissioner Waters was the most forceful of board members in his denunciation of this point.

"How can you expect me," Waters said, "to willfully convict him (meaning D'Agostino)? There should be more punishment put on the one who goes in and breaks the law. I'm telling you how I'm going to vote because I think it's the only right thing to do. The minors should get slapped equally well."

Schwartz pleaded for the Fountain that there may have been a technical but not a willful violation of the law. He claimed that if there had not been an auto crash in which two were killed, the case would have never come to light. The girls look and act like grownup women, he added, pointing out that they had testified that they had smoked and worn dressy clothes on the night of May 2.

In its decision the board also recommended to the ABC that the law be amended to fix some penalty on minors for ordering or buying intoxicating beverages.

Schwartz, following the announcement of the decision, declared that the penalty was too severe. He said it might hurt his client out of business. He said that he intended to file an appeal with the ABC.

Will Be No Let Up
Chairman Sutherland and the members of his committee insisted that there would be no let up in their relentless drive to unearth every bit of scrap that Belleville residents can part with to help the national and war production effort.

"We've started out to put this thing over the top," Sutherland said, "and we intend to do it. Quotas don't mean anything to us. We want as many tons as we can get and then we intend to look for more. If anybody has any ideas or they have something which they want to give to the drive but they are unable to haul it to a salvage depot or they are unable to break it up, they should let us know and we will see that it is done."

Calls pour into the town hall every hour of the day to the switchboard or to Defense Coordinator Harry J. Sullivan offering a wide assortment of articles.

Publicity has been an important part of the drive and Sutherland and his group have covered many angles in driving home their story to the public. Most original of their ideas was a sign which was erected on the lot in Washington avenue near the Acme super market. Topping the sign which is erected on a pole is a V-shaped sword with facsimiles of Hitler, Mussolini and Tojo across the front. The sign, which is in colors, is the work of Bill Patten, a sign painter. He made another sign, erected at the lot at Washington avenue and Rutgers street. It is a signpost with arrows pointing west toward Tokyo 00000 miles and east toward Berlin 00000 miles.

In addition, there are scattered about town six billboards, 44 WPB paper signs urging people to contribute, and 75 arrow signs directing people to the nearest scrap depot. These were erected by Pierison Crisp.

A number of volunteer trucks has been offered to supplement the four of the department of public works which has been on the road every day. In the Soho section, the National Grain Yeast corporation put out one of its trucks on Saturday. In Silver-Lake section, a special truck was obtained by John Richardella which was used in that area on Saturday.

At the Capitol theatre, a trailer on scrap collection is being shown nightly.

Want A Safe Place To Ride Your Bike?

If you want to bicycle where the cars aren't likely to go, the Essex County Park commission suggests that you try what was formerly Mill street, but is now a dead-end drive, in the Branch Brook park extension. It's especially suited for beginning children, or even for the older folks who are taking to bicycles once more but are still a little wobbly when it comes to steering. The Passaic River parkway tennis courts in Main street are still open for use, and if there are tennis which want to play football, they should make application to the park commission offices at 115 Clifton avenue, Newark, for Belleville park.

DR. ROSSI LEAVES FOR ARMY DUTY

Lloyd Place Physician Reports To Camp Edwards; Is 1st Lieutenant

Dr. Bartolomeo Rossi of 64 Lloyd place received his commission as 1st lieutenant in the army and went Tuesday to Camp Edwards, Mass., where he will be stationed. He served as medical examiner for the local draft board for one year and for the past nine months has been civilian physician on the New Jersey and Delaware army physical examination team working at the induction center at the Newark armory.

Dr. Rossi, who was born in Belleville and attended schools here, is 36. His pre-medical work was done at George Washington university in Washington, D. C. from the Royal University Medical center, Hudson County Tuberculosis hospital and Margaret Hague Maternity hospital. Dr. Rossi received his license to practice medicine in this state in 1935. He has been a junior associate on ear, nose and throat service in Columbus hospital and a junior surgeon at that hospital for five years. He has also worked on the staff of St. Vincent's hospital in Montclair and American Legion hospital, Newark. He is a member of the Essex County Medical society of New Jersey and a member and fellow of the American Medical Association.

Gable, Turner At Loew's

Clark Gable and Lana Turner co-star in "Somewhere I'll Find You", drama of war, correspondence in the Far East, which is now playing at Loew's State theatre, Newark. In this one Gable and Robert Sterling, as brothers and newspapermen, are both in love with Miss Turner, also a correspondent on duty in Indo-China. The rivalry is rudely interrupted by the bombing of Pearl Harbor, which throws them into maelstrom as something more than neutral observers.

Graduates

Miss Betty Cronshey

Miss Betty Cronshey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cronshey of Greylock parkway was graduated Monday night from the school of nursing of the Hospital of St. Barnabas and for Women and Children. She was one of four of the class of 27 to receive an award for best utilizing her opportunities. Miss Cronshey was graduated from Belleville high school in 1938. She will remain at the hospital while awaiting call for military duty for which she has enlisted.

Personals

Forty-five guests from this town, Newark, Bloomfield, Springfield and New York City attended a miscellaneous dinner shower last night at Parrillo's for Miss Rena Corrieri of Harrison street who will be married next month to Louis Golia, also of Harrison street. Miss Marie Golia and Mrs. Alfred Solimine, sisters of the engaged couple, were hostesses. Mr. Golia and Miss Corrieri will be married in St. Anthony's church Sunday afternoon, October 11.

Miss Antoinette Pascheria, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Pascheria of Eugene place, has returned to Our Lady of Good Counsel school in Newark where she is a senior.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Everett T. Denning of Greylock parkway announce the birth of a son, Everett Thomas Denning Jr., born September 16 at St. Barnabas hospital, Newark. Mr. Denning is a petty officer in the navy stationed in Newfoundland. Mrs. Denning is the former Miss Doris Kleinknecht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Kleinknecht, formerly of Ligham street.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harvey of 695 Belleville avenue are the parents of a baby daughter. The baby was born at Presbyterian hospital, Newark.

The Friendly club will be guests next Tuesday afternoon of Mrs. William Koehler of Charles street. Scheduled to be present are Mrs. William S. Kitchell, Mrs. Harry Mueller, Mrs. Fred Singer, Mrs. James Mazeroli, Mrs. Joseph P. O'Brien, Mrs. Henry Riepe and Mrs. Maurice Mott.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Chambers of Perry street left Saturday for a week's stay with Mrs. Chambers' parents Mr. and Mrs. George Slater of Norwich, N. Y.

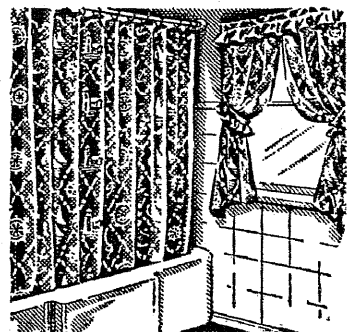

Mrs. Arthur Botsford and daughters, Kathleen and Patricia, of Newark spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Rochau of Fairview place.

Guests next Thursday of Mrs. W. I. Suydam of Wilber street, at cards will be Mrs. John Dury and Sr., of West Orange, Mrs. Mary Stevens of Bloomfield and Mrs. Louis P. Baurhenn, Mrs. Anton Till, Mrs. William E. Thetford, Mrs. William F. Risky, Mrs. John W. Lead and Mrs. Frank Witt of Belleville.

Miss Margaret McLaughlin of Rossmore place with friends from out-of-town spent a few days in Asbury Park last week.

Luhrs-Yani Betrothal

The engagement has been announced of Miss Hilda Yani of 72 Little street, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Yani of this town, to Frank Luhrs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Luhrs of the Little street address. Sports Whirl

War Hasn't Blacked Out Sports—Changed Some Big Colleges' Attendance Will Suffer Most
Many Faces Missing In School Team Ranks
No Picnic For Gates At High School
Dukes' Season Looks Bright

Last year when they hauled down the goal posts, stored the footballs and grid gladiators' togs away in mothballs, the Japs were busy plotting their sneak creep-up on Pearl Harbor which came on Sunday, December 7, and tossed this country into war.

While this unexpected bolt out of the blue was never expected, there had been plenty of talking done about what would happen to sports if this country went to war. Some even went so far as to predict that major sports would be banned, while others more hopefully held that keeping baseball, basketball, football and other sports moving would be a public morale builder.

If there's any spot in the world where there'd be cause for closing down the stadiums and indoor sports palaces it would be bomb-shattered England. But, in spit of a year of hell from the air, the British still have their soccer games, an occasional big fight and, of course, their beloved cricket. In this country, rather than silencing the emphasis on sports, the services have encouraged it.

Stellar army and navy baseball and football teams have been playing about the country — and there's scarcely a camp that doesn't have its share of sports activity. In Australia, our boys are winning the Aussies over to our style of football and baseball. Though it's been tried in England, the British still don't warm up to football the way they do soccer and rugby, and baseball's still something that they can't fathom.

But, war has not hit us without making many changes. This fall finds new faces in football with many of last year's favorites — collegiate and pro — now shouldering a gun or bobbing around on a destroyer.

It's big-time college football which will suffer the most. Uncle Sam doesn't consider burning up gasoline and rubber to go to Cambridge, New Haven, Ithaca, Princeton or West Point, an essential part of the nation's war effort. Special trains and buses, which in the past have hauled thousands of Saturday morning crowds of the alumni of good old Siwash and Winsocki to the big stadiums miles from town are out. Games in the bigger cities will still draw the crowds, but the fans will have to be content with football and perhaps less of the color staged by bands and drill teams.

If anybody should benefit from this change, it should be the high schools. The American sports fans' love for the gridiron game is such that he enjoys it whether the kids on the block or Army and Notre Dame are tangling. This year he hasn't got enough gas to get him to Princeton or up to New Haven so on Saturday afternoon, he'll take in one of the school games.

All of the changes on the football scene haven't been in the college or pro ranks. The high school's have plenty of them. Some of last year's stars — as young as they are — have gotten the itch and joined the navy or coast guard. Coaches — veterans of the last war or reservemen — are back in the service. Bob Reilly of West Side's in the air corps, Eddie Berlinski, Bill Foley's Bloomfield assistant, is in Ireland with the army; Nutley's veteran George Stanford is a first lieutenant with the motor transport division of the army and Clary Anderson, who did wonders with Montclair last year, has been commissioned in the navy — just to name a few from this area.

Here at home, the majority of the BHS coaching staff is still intact with Head Coach Larry Gates being assisted by Jitty Wische and Bill Chapman. But, in the service, is one of his former assistants, Wihlo Winika.

Changes in coaches often means changes in the system used — and a squad of youngsters who have been drilled in one style of play for a year or two are bound to slow up if there's a switch. The brand of football that's been played in the past by some school elevens may be below par this year for that very reason.

Gates is starting his third year as the Blue and Gold grid boss and the local fans will have their first gander at the boys on Saturday when they will mix it with the Barringer Blues of Newark in the Clearman Field inaugural. Gates has not had any four-leaf clover during his reign. He took over a team that had been broken down in spirit and trampled on pretty badly by most of the Essex county gridiron greats.

He's had to deal with the light and inexperienced boys for the most part, and when he did shape some of them into good prospects, they up and left school to go to work or got their diploma and passed on to play better football for somebody else.

They did not blaze any fiery trail last season, but by the end of the campaign had developed the scoring punch that they lacked at the start of the season. Two victories, a tie and seven defeats is not a record to do any shirt button-busting about, but the 13-0 upset win over a heavier Kearny eleven and the 12-6 trimming of favored Clifford Scot of East Orange were definite bright spots. But best of all was holding the vaunted Irvington club to a 7-6 score.

Put this down as Saturday's sure shot. Barringer won't trample over the Blue and Gold 20-0 as they did last year.

The war has not halted the Belleville Iron Dukes — although there's been quite a few changes in the setup of the North Jersey Pro League where they gained a tie for the championship last year. With the Camptowners, Plainfield Saracens and the Boonton Panthers in the circuit, the followers are bound to see some good football.

The draft and volunteer patriotism has not taken too heavy a toll on the Dukemen. Back for action will be Frankie Cardinale and George Tietze. That should be enough remembering what this pair did last year, but local fans will probably get a big kick out of seeing bear-cat George Zoppa in a home town uniform once more belaying at center. When he was with the Camptowners last season, George did plenty of damage to the Dukes' offensive drives.

Incidentally, the Dukes were offered the chance to play the Brooklyn Dodgers in a charity game at New Brunswick, but the boys turned it down. Were they smart!

Dukes Open Grid Season Sunday

Barringer Hi 1st Grid For Bellboys

Newarkers Here Saturday For Opener; Have Vet, Heavy Eleven

The high school gridgers will open a nine-game schedule on Saturday afternoon at Clearman field when they will tangle with a veteran Barringer high eleven. Handicapped by the same trouble which plagued them last year, lack of weight, the Bellboys will enter the clash against the Big Blue the underdogs.

Minus only one of the vets from last year's eleven, Coach Charley Allen of Barringer will bring to town a heavy team which is rated by many as the probable winners of the Newark city football championship. Missing from the Blue's lineup will be flat-footed Vic Kee who played havoc with Bell-boy ends last year, skirting wide on broken field dashes which accounted for most of the Newarkers' scoring.

If anything will stop Barringer, it will be the lack of a good passer. The Newarkers have a heavy, fast charging forward wall which will outweigh the locals plenty.

From the local angle comes the opinion of Coach Larry Gates, now starting his third year at the Washington avenue institution, that his club looks better than last year's in practice but they lack one of the essentials of a good eleven—blocking ability. Gates and his two assistants, "Jitty" Wische and Bill Chapman, had their first chance to size up the hometown lads against outside opposition on Saturday when they held scrimmage with Gold got the better of the mix-Newark Central. The Blue and ing against the equally light Newarkers.

Line To Be Light

The Bellboy line will average between 150 and 155 pounds with the starting backfield running about the same. Forward wall starters will include Ferro, a definite choice for one of the end posts, Flynn and Matus at the tackle positions, Caruso and Contaldi at the guard posts and Dunleavy at center.

Three of last season's vet performers are returning to the backfield. Bill Hunkele will be in at one of the halfback positions with Findlay and Wille as teammates and a newcomer, Petro, at quarterback.

While Findlay, at 160 pounds, will be the backfield heavyweight, Caruso at 220 and Flynn tipping the scales at 195 will be the big men on the line.

Others who are likely to see action against Barringer include Brune, Wheeler, DePhillips, Claus, Pasquariello, Stanfield, Murphy comes to Belleville from Kearny where he played varsity ball and is looked upon as a likely backfield prospect.

Several boys who played with the team because of trouble they had during last winter's basketball season which expelled them from further sports competition. Wille will probably do most of the passing for the locals with Hunkele and Findlay sharing the kicking honors.

Out of its nine-game schedule, the Blue and Gold will play all but two of its games at its home gridiron, Clearman field. Following Saturday's tussle with Bar-

Ironmen Count On Him

GALLOPING GOALWARD AGAIN for the Belleville Iron Dukes when they open on Sunday at the municipal stadium will be George Tietze, one of last year's backfield aces. Sweeping the ends is George's specialty, a touchdown-producing trick which he learned in his younger days at Belleville high.

ringers, here are the teams that Belleville will face:

Minors Weathered Tough Season In Baseball

Weathering the draft and other troubles which confronted all baseball clubs this season, the Pittsburgh Minor Leaguers won 12 of their 21 games played. The club will close its 13th season on Sunday.

During the season, the boys played at Millburn, Scotch Plains, Elizabeth, Roselle Park, Dunellen, Linden, Bloomfield, Irvington, East Orange, Rutherford, Hillside and Roseland.

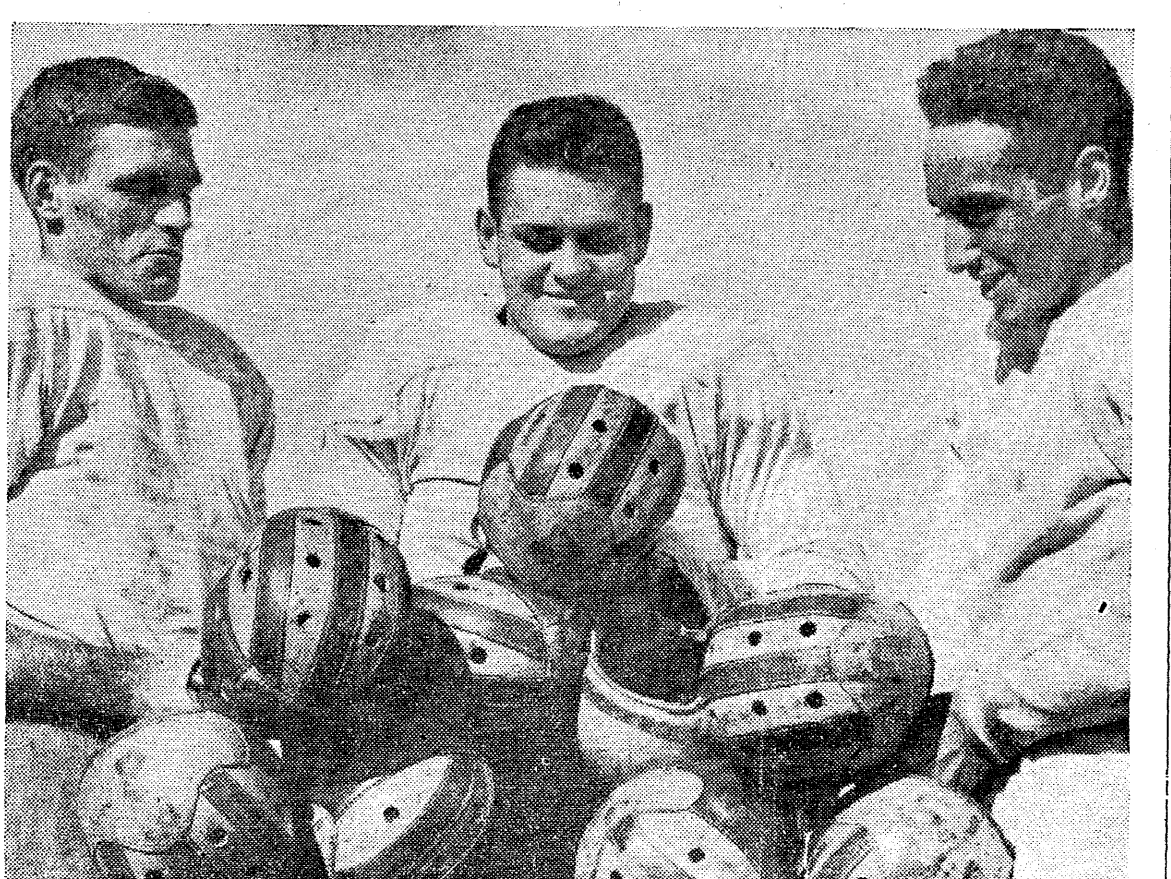

In their 21 games, the Minors used a total of 37 players. Only 12 of them have played in more than five games. During the season the Minors lost to the service Ed Fiske, Hank Civeka, Frank Lynch, Joe Brady, Elmer Doremus and Jerry Zuzzio. Bill Lynch topped the batting averages with .371, followed by Lister, with .368.

Two Bus Lines Pass Near The Stadium

Those football fans who are bent on saving gasoline and tires can reach the municipal stadium without walking. Two Public Service bus lines, No. 28 and No. 37, run close to the stadium.

The No. 28 bus, which runs over Union avenue and Joralemon street, stops near the stadium at Passaic avenue School No. 7, while the cross-town No. 37 line passes the stadium entrance on Passaic avenue.

Vets Counting Up To Victory

THREE TIMES THREE spells nine and victory is the way this trio of high school grid huskies figure it out. Each of them from the left, Bob Contaldi, guard; Russ Flynn, tackle; and Will Hunkele, right half; are starting their third year with the Blue and Gold. This year's club has a nine-game schedule. What're the three helmets each is holding supposed to represent? Well, three times three is nine—oh, well, it helps to remember. A fourth three-year man, Red Wille was not present when the picture was snapped.

Bowling Back In Limelight; Leagues Open

Two Divisions In Factory Loop Start Playing At North Newark

Bowling crowded back into the sports picture this week with most of the well-known leagues returning to the alleys after a summer's layoff and the headpin Harries getting the range on the pine-boarded drives and the stiffness out of their joints.

At North Newark Recreation, favored spot of the local leggers, the two divisions of the Manufacturer's league and the North Newark American and National circuits swung into action.

Looking over the scores for the first night, there were many of the former favorites among the missing. Working schedules at defense plants plus the number which have entered the service has riddled the lineups of some of the fives which have stood up among the top runners each year. Plugging most alleys proprietors is the shortage of pin boys. Bigger pay in defense plants or a job shouldering a gun with Uncle Sam has taken plenty of the maple setup lads.

With 16 teams in the "A" division and 12 in the "B" loop, the Manufacturers' will hold forth at the North Newark center on Thursday and Friday nights. Johnnie Walker of Wallace & Tiernan is the president with Bill Cullen of Federal Leather again holding down the secretary's job.

W. & T. Plant Loop

The North Newark American and National pin crashers will roll on Wednesday nights. A 12-team league from Wallace & Tiernan will take over the alleys on Tuesday nights. Tom Grant and George Hagerty are in charge of the formation of this circuit.

For the bowlers who haven't rounded into top form, and the first week's scores showed that there is plenty of room for improvement, there will be open bowling on Tuesday nights after 9 p.m. and after the leagues have completed their games on other nights.

Although there will be no women's league this year, there will be open bowling for women. A number of girls from the Walter Kidde plant are rolling on Friday nights from 5 to 7 p.m. and are attempting to form a league among the company's bowling belles.

So What?

Hawkesby—"Why did you send your son to the air force?" Mims—"Because he was no earthly good."

Heavy Saracen Tema Will Be Opposition In League Inaugural

The Belleville Iron Dukes, co-champions in the North Jersey Football league last year, will open the defense of their title on Sunday afternoon at the municipal stadium when they will meet the Plainfield Saracens, newcomers to the circuit.

While some of last year's favorites will be missing from the line-up which Coach Joe Vollmer will trot out on the field, there will be a number of the veterans back in grid wear headed by the Dukes' two leading touchdown makers, line plunging Frankie Cardinale from Nutley, and George Tietze, broken field specialist, who played for Belleville high several years ago.

The Saracens may be making their first start in the North Jersey loop but they are no newcomers to the pro football ranks, opening their 13th straight year as an organized club. In Central Jersey, they are rated as one of the strongest teams and in past engagements with the Camptowners, Dukes and other clubs from this area, have held their own.

The Plainfielders will come here with an aggregation of heavyweights for their line will average 190 pounds and the backfield about the same.

Have Slippery Back

The individual star of the visiting eleven is John O'Sullivan, 185-pound backfield ace, who several years ago romped over the gridiron for Georgetown university. A slippery broken field runner, O'Sullivan kicks, passes and calls the plays in addition to doing most of the end running. Working with him in the rear flank are Rumm Porreca of Plainfield high school, Bernie Livingston of Scranton university and Joe Shubrick, who hails from the Pennsylvania coal mining region where he played with several pro grid clubs.

Standouts on the line are Butch Cheswick, formerly of Villanova, and Tony Maszone, who played at Muhlenburg. These two will start at the tackle posts. The Saracens are coached by Pat Ferretta of Plainfield and Sonny Church, a Notre Dame star some years back. Last season the team won 10 games and lost two.

The Ironmen worked out twice this week under Coach Joe Vollmer, who is also grid mentor at Upsala college this season. Vollmer had his squad out Sunday morning and again on Tuesday night. Another drill is scheduled for tonight.

Three new players were acquired this week and it is expected that all will see action Sunday afternoon. From last year's Bloomfield White Horse, which dropped from the league this season, the Dukes have snared a blocking back, Charlie Burgi, and Kipp West, an end. Burgi played at Montclair high several years ago. Another end prospect who looked good in the Tuesday workout was Ken Cosgrove, a 165-pound end from Orange. Cosgrove played the last three years at the wing position with the Middlebury college eleven and before that with Montclair academy.

Already picked by Vollmer as one of the end starters is Frank Rusignuolo, under-sized, husky from Nutley, who played for the high school there and last year with Upsala. Weak on ends because of the loss of Bob Shade,

H.S. Cheerleaders To Hold First Pep Rally Tomorrow

High school cheerleaders were chosen after elimination contests last Thursday and Friday. Capt. Roy Wager, co-captain Jeanne Salmon and Miss Rita Ferguson are veterans. Others selected are the Misses Dorothy Rhodes, Betty Rae Brown and Patricia Wilson.

Two boys complete the roster, Walter Spore and Edward King. The group is under way with daily after-school practice periods. The first football rally assemblies will be conducted Friday when cheer leaders will work out the students for the Saturday game with Barringer high school.

Cub Pack Wins 6-2

The Pack No. 350 Cub Scouts won a softball game last Saturday when they topped the Irvington Cubs at the Recreation house playground 6-2. Fred Hagen, Buss Cardoza, Jim Charlton and James Lampan were the standouts for Belleville. Joe Cardoza did the pitching for the winners.

'Yankee Doodle' Premiere Monday in Patriotic Atmosphere

Stars of stage, screen and radio fame will be present at the $3,000,000 commando performance of "Yankee Doodle Dandy" at the Mosque theatre, Monday evening. John E. Manning of the treasury department announced that all tickets for the performance are being sold at a fast pace. All bonds purchased for the engagement must be purchased through the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. A Yankee Doodle headquarters was opened at Room 405 in the Federal building, Newark, where a subscriber wishing to attend may send his or her check, made payable to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, accompanied by the proper application blank for a bond. Others may acquire tickets for the performance by purchasing their bonds through their local bank or post office.

Well and Happy Writes Sgt. In New Caledonia

One of the first young men to go into the army from Belleville was Alfred T. Boulard Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Boulard of 83 DeWitt avenue. He has now reached the rank of technical sergeant and is on duty with American forces in New Caledonia.

Writing home to his parents, he comments that the boys are well and happy and "none the worse for wear."

Sgt. Boulard was graduated from the tank mechanic school at Fort Knox, Ky. and went overseas in January. He attended Belleville high and was with the White Laboratories in Newark before he entered the army.

Pvt. John J. Briody of town is now stationed at Camp Gruber, Okla. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Briody of Montclair avenue, Newark.

No win training at the Medical Replacement center at Camp Pickett, Va., is Pvt. Albert Festa of 172 Huxel street. His training will consist of actual maneuvers illustrating medical and evacuation problems encountered on the battlefield as well as basic military work.

WANT VOLUNTEERS FOR MOTOR CORPS

Women Between 21 And 50
Sought; Must Have Their Own Car

Volunteers are sought for the motor corps which is a part of the local Red Cross organization. Women who are interested are asked to communicate with Mrs. Frederick Ford, the captain of the group, at her home, 580 Washington avenue. The telephone number is Be. 2-4478-W.

Organized in May, 1941, there is now a great demand on the corps members from the various branches of the Red Cross and from various civilian defense groups. The chapter will fully train those applicants who are American citizens between the ages of 21 and 50, in good health, have a car at their disposal and are willing to volunteer one day each week to the work of the corps.

Members of the corps must hold both standard and advanced first aid certificates and must complete a 10-hour course in motor mechanics.

Since gasoline rationing went into effect, many members have found it difficult to use their own automobile. For much of its work, the group has been able to use the defense council's emergency truck, but the chapter hopes to be able to purchase its own truck shortly. The corps is uniformed and most members have found they were able to purchase the uniform which costs about $25. However, for those members who are unable to buy one conveniently, a fund has been raised among the public to help defray the expense. However, some have not purchased uniforms and it is not necessary that they do so.

The corps' work includes driving for the many branches of the chapter, such as the distribution of materials and supplies, transportation of workers and of patients to hospitals.

Open St. Peter's Centre
The workroom for surgical dressings and bandages in St. Peter's old school building on William street will be opened Tuesday morning. Mrs. Harvey Thompson, production chairman, announced yesterday that this workroom and the one conducted at the Recreation House will be open weekly on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 9 to 4. Competent instructors will staff both places and volunteer workers are not expected to work both in the morning and the afternoon unless they so desire.

Many volunteers are still needed and they should register by calling at Red Cross headquarters in the Woman's club or telephoning Miss Esther Adams there at Belleville 2-2111. Those who wish to do this work evenings should also register with Miss Adams so that if the demand is sufficient a workroom may be organized for them. Mr. F. H. Brown is chairman of the surgical work.

TOWN FIRE BELL

street firehouse where volunteer company No. 2, then known as the Eastwood company, had its headquarters. Fire company No. 1 was in a building where the Veterans' hall is located in V. F. W. while a third company, which was sponsored by a group of wealthy residents, had headquarters on Main street at the foot of William street.

On the bell are inscribed the words: "Belleville Fire Department, A.D., 1898. Board of Fire Commissioners, John W. Murray, President; James A. Moore, Treasurer; William V. Young, Secretary; Andrew Schartenberg, Paul A. Black, P. W. McCoy, chief; C. M. Broadbent, asst. chief.

For the past 27 years, James A. Murray, Sr. of 153 Belleville avenue has been the president of the Exempt Firemen's association. Other officers are Edward Evers, Greylock parkway, vice-president; Charles Hollweg, Newark, financial secretary; Edward Hollweg, 181 Hornblower avenue, recording secretary; and Louis Van Houten, 428 Washington avenue, treasurer. The present trustees are Charles Burnley, Charles Hauck, E. Payson Taylor and Hollweg and Evers.

The oldest living member of the exempters is Patrick J. Finn, 75, of 117 Union avenue. He joined the fire department in 1890 when he was 23 years old.

Finn is a retired police officer, having served on the force from 1914 to 1937.

The exempt firemen's organization was the outgrowth of an idea to form an honorary organization for volunteer firemen who had served at least seven years. Any fireman who joined the exempters still remain an active fireman. The organization today is state-wide in scope and is an active group.

JUNK PILE GROWS

Gimble brought in several thousand pounds of scrap on Saturday. Tavera Owner Sam Vuono did his bit by adding an old car to the lot at Emmett street and Passaic avenue. In one house the salvage men picked up four gas ranges.

The F. & P. market in Union avenue contributed a large ice refrigerator, containing much metal, which the public works men were dismantling yesterday. The Zig's Delicatessen yesterday gave a large safe which weighed more than a half ton.

May Get Crane

Salvage Chairman Robert G. Sutherland said many inquiries have been received from people about the old crane which stands at the corner of Franklin avenue and Mill street. There are also a number of old railroad ties there. It is owned by the Andrew Jergens company. A request has been made to Edward Gramke, vice-president and general manager of the plant, to turn it over to the drive. Sutherland said that he understood that Gramke was taking the matter up with the company's main office in Cincinnati.

conference Mayor Williams told Hugh Welsh, deputy public works director, to see that the old iron fence surrounding one of the town-owned properties in Main street is torn down.

Even the building and grounds committee of the board of education has gone on the hunt. At Monday night's meeting School Board President Herbert C. Schmutz asked that there be a thorough search made of all school properties to see what could be given the campaign. Walter Gilby, chairman of the building and grounds committee, promised that this would be done.

Superintendent of Schools Wayne R. Palmer said that the youngsters are enthusiastic about the drive and are cooperating in the campaign to turn in old keys.

SUCCOS HOLIDAY TO BE MARKED

Jews To Commemorate Tabernacle Feast This Weekend

Special religious services commemorating the holiday Succos, the Feast of Tabernacles, will be held by the Congregation Ahavas Achim tomorrow night at 6:30 p.m. and on Saturday and Tuesday mornings at 9:30. Rabbi Rubin R. Dobin will officiate at all services.

Succos, which falls on the 15th and 16th days of the Jewish month, Tishrei, lasts for nine days. The final days of the holiday will be observed on Saturday and Sunday, October 3 and 4. The holiday is of agricultural as well as of historical importance to the Jew.

While the Jews dwelled in their own land, Palestine, the adults made the tri-annual pilgrimage to the temple in Jerusalem during the time of the fruit harvest. The festival is observed as a thanksgiving for the completion of the entire harvest.

Succos also commemorates the Thursday, prayer meetings at 7:45 p.m. B. Y. P. U. executive meeting every first Thursday of the month.

Friday, senior choir and male quartet, 7:30 p.m. Children's Bible hour every Friday, 4 p.m. "Gil-Gal" Girls every Friday at 5 p.m. wanderings of the children of Israel in the wilderness after their deliverance from Egypt. During their trip to Palestine, the Jews lived in booths or succos. This is remembered by erecting booths in which appropriate prayers are said during the days of this festival.

One of the Customs

One of the customs of the holiday is the use of the "Arbosh Minnim," the four kinds of plants, the lulav or the festive palm branch; the esrog, a Palestinian lime; the hadassim, myrtle twigs; and the aravos, or the willow branches.

All these serve to remind the Jew of the agricultural significance of the holiday and of the eternal bond that exists between the Jew and Palestine.

A Succah, or booth is built on the side of the synagogue and will be decorated by the Sisterhood of the congregation. After the services, appropriate prayers will be recited in the Succah. All are welcome to attend these services.

The Feast of Tabernacles will be held by the congregation tomorrow evening and Saturday and Sunday morning and evening. All evening services will start at 6:30 p.m. and morning services at 9:30.

On Saturday morning the special children's service at 10:30 will be devoted to the holiday absence. Rabbi Dobin will preach on the topic "The Jew's Service." On Sunday morning he will speak on "Shelters of Today and Tomorrow."

Catholic College Club Resumes Activities At Tonight's Meeting

The Catholic Women's College club will hold its first meeting of the club year tonight at the Helen MacHugh studio, 37 Washington street, Newark.

Miss Phyllis Calichio of Joralemon street is the treasurer and member of the recently formed budget committee.

Miss Marian McLaughlin, vice-president and program chairman, has announced that Miss E. Irene McCullough of Newark will give an informal talk on her summer experiences. Miss McCullough flew to Quito in June and spent six weeks in Ecuador and Peru.

Belleville members planning to attend the opening meeting include Mrs. Raymond A. Peck, the Misses Calichio, Mae G. Livingstone, Eileen Lynch and Patricia Murray.

Marine Writes To Parents From Solomon Islands

A letter was received Monday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Quimby of 9 Hill street, from Merle Quimby in the Solomon Islands where he is in active service with the marine corps.

Pvt. Quimby, who moved here from Nutley with his family a year ago, enlisted in the marines in January. He was called in February at Parris island, S. C. and New River, N. C. until May when he was sent to the Pacific area.

He is 27, a graduate of Nutley high school, and was formerly employed in the production department of the General Electric company in Bloomfield.

Pvt. Quimby, whose letter was written in August, told his parents of his good health and described the heat and tropical rains of the island where he is stationed. Formerly a coconut plantation, the men have had their fill of that fruit, according to Quimby; but the swimming is good and "it's not such a bad war" he says.

Lawrence G. Robbins Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence G.

Robbins of Greylock parkway entered Casey Jones aeronautical school in Newark Monday. He will commence a two-year course in engineering. Young Robbins was graduated from Belleville high school in June.

May Add Contract Bridge At Newark Adult School

A contract bridge instruction period will probably be added to the schedule of classes of the North Newark Adult evening school which will commence its sessions Monday, October 5. The demand for a bridge course, which was not scheduled, has been considerable.

First registrations were accepted Monday and Tuesday evenings and other periods for signing up will be held next Monday and Thursday evenings. The classes are conducted in the Elliott Street School, Summer and Grafton avenues Newark.

The school has had concrete proof of the practical value of its Radio Code and Theory course in the person of one student who has found himself far enough advanced as a result of this instruction to be chosen for special training after entering the army.

Special attention will be given to poster design in the course entitled Art For Everybody, which will be given this year. A nationwide search is being made by the government for an outstanding war poster. Members of this class will have an excellent opportunity to express their ideas on the subject.

SAFeway Homemakers' Guide

★ Special menus for war workers ★ Lists of foods that save you money for five big days ★ Sue tells Lou something new about shopping

If there is a war worker in your home you should read this

Split shifts, box lunches and dinners eaten at breakfast time, make care in menu planning doubly important. To keep your war worker healthy and strong, alert and efficient on the job, with steady nerves that help him maintain the wartime pace yet relax away from the job, you need to know and practice the rules of menu planning and nutrition.

In planning, see that your worker gets a balance of "protective foods"—liberal amounts of milk and cheese, fruit and vegetables, meats, fish, and poultry, eggs and whole grain and enriched breads and cereals. Then make sure that you give him enough energy-building foods, desserts and other treats which will give him pleasure in eating as well as renewed vitality.

Here are three balanced, easy-to-prepare, and easy-to-eat meals to serve the worker who may be eating dinner at breakfast time, lunch at midnight, or brunch in mid-morning.

DINNER AT BREAKFAST TIME

Hot or Chilled Tomato Juice (According to taste and weather)
Creamed Ham and Hard-cooked Eggs on Enriched White Toast
Baked Potato Buttered String Beans
Additional-Buttered Toast
With Jam or Jelly
Chilled Melon or Fruit Cup.
Oatmeal Cooked
Coffee or Milk

LUNCH AT MIDNIGHT

Piping-hot Vegetable Beef Soup
Toasted Bacon and Tomato Sandwiches on Whole Wheat Toast
Applesauce Relish
Cup Custard or Ice Cream
Milk

MID-MORNING BRUNCH

Orange or Grapefruit Juice
2 Eggs Scrambled
Country Sausage Patties
Broiled Tomato Halves
Hot Rolls
Butter and Jelly
Canned Peach Halves or Baked Apple
With Cream if desired
Coffee or Milk

Minors Should Also Pay Penalty

Greater effort has been made of late by the state department of alcoholic beverage control in the prosecution of establishments which sell and serve liquors to minors. The case which was decided locally this week is incidental to what seems one glaring weakness in stamping out the sale of liquor to young boys and girls who are under 21.

No judgment is expressed here on the guilt or innocence of the Belleville tavern owner who was prosecuted this week—that was judged and decided by the town commissioners. Under the present law all of the responsibility and all of the risk for selling or serving to minors rests on the owner of the tavern or liquor store. There is no penalty imposed upon the minors who know that they are violating the law.

There are many instances in which it is exceptionally difficult to determine if a young person is under or over 21. Any number of boys and girls, who are under 21, could be judged to be over that age without any question of doubt in the minds of any person.

Many young people go to places where liquor is served and buy drinks if they can get away with it because they think that it is the "smart" thing to do. They do not realize the risk of the possible loss of business or money to which they may be exposing the proprietor.

The local tavern owner paid heavily for the violation of the law which he was charged with by the ABC. His loss in business will run into thousands of dollars and the possible suffering of his business reputation is inestimable. But, what about the young people who were directly responsible for his guilt? They walked out free and unpunished. To the two 17-year-old high school girls who admitted drinking alcoholic beverages, the hearing at times was a great joke—even gave them something to laugh about.

If there is to be an effective halt to the selling and serving of liquor to minors, both sides should suffer the penalty. Minors—and many of them are smart enough to know that now nothing can happen to them if caught—might not be so anxious to take the chance if they knew there existed the possibility that they would pay a stiff fine—say, $200 or $300.

In the retail liquor business, there are to be found many fine men who make a sincere effort to conduct their business properly and would not knowingly serve customers under 21. There hangs over their heads a law in which they are the sole victims of an act which there was no intent on their part to commit. The perpetrator of the violation should suffer, too.

Difference Between Appeal And Control

The election of Albert M. Hawkes as the Republican nominee for United States senator was a distinct slap in the face to the power of Arthur T. Vanderbilt and the Clean Government organization in Essex county. For nearly 10 years, Clean Government has had things pretty much its own way in this county and has even been successful in spreading its movement among political organizations in other parts of the state.

Although the organization was able to carry Essex for its candidate, Gill Robb Wilson, it was too small a margin to offset the gains which leaders knew that Hawkes would make in other counties. A victory for Wilson hinged on the majority that could be polled in Essex county and Clean Government failed to deliver.

Through the years of its reign in Essex, Clean Government's principal vote-getting power has been in the suburban communities. The landslide of votes it has received in communities such as Belleville, Nutley, Bloomfield, Montclair and the Oranges was always sufficient to snow under the organization vote in Newark—whether it was Democratic or Republican. However, Clean Government held the winning cards by appeal rather than control, whereas the organization machines depend on the control to deliver the votes for their power.

Clean Government could never tell suburban voters how to vote—they aren't those kind of people, but they could appeal to them. We are at war now and it has had a tremendous effect on elections. The public is not as moved by political appeals as it once was. There are more important things. The position of the organization vote controllers is different. They will suffer but not as much as a political movement that does not hold that power. The Hawkes election was a blow to Clean Government prestige and it may indirectly be a windfall to the various elements which for some years have been ineffectively attempting to upset the group's domination of the party in Essex.

Have You Done Your Part?

No greater cooperation or willingness to help has ever been seen in any campaign here than that demonstrated by the public in answer to the salvage committee's plea for all kinds of scrap metal to help win the war. Based on off-hand estimates made by those in charge, the quota set for Belleville has already been exceeded, but as was said in this column two weeks ago, because the government asked for 50 tons, Belleville should give them at least 100.

Now is not the time to stop. Every extra pound of old iron or other metal that is turned in means just that many more weapons for the war, that many more factories that will be kept humming and that much sooner that the battle will be won.

Hundreds of patriotic residents—ranging from small four-year-old youngsters who have parted with their treasured toy trains to old-timers such as the members of the Exempt Firemen's association, have done their part, but there are many other hundreds of you reading this article who have still done nothing.

You have thought about giving something to the drive. You know that there is junk in the attic, cellar or garage, but you just have not got around to doing anything about it. What a fine state of affairs it would be if those at the head of the nation put off the winning of the war because they just had not had time to get around to it.

Get in the fight. Stop grumbling about the mistakes that are being made in the war and be sure that you do one right thing—give every ounce of scrap material to the salvage drive.

Two weeks ago we said that if Belleville turned in 100 tons of scrap, it would make 20 three-inch anti-aircraft guns or 400 2,000-pound bombs. How about making it even greater than that—say, 800 2,000-pound bombs? We'd all feel better if 800, instead of 400, were used to flatten Tokyo and Berlin.

Adhere To Mailing Instructions

Many heartaches, here and elsewhere, can be prevented if those intending to send Christmas packages to men in the service will follow the instructions which have been issued by the post office department. Mail early—a P. O. appeal for years which some seldom heeded—is a "must" if the boys on the far-flung fronts are to get by Christmas the cards and the packages to which they will certainly look forward.

Don't try to send something which the army and navy departments request not to be sent. They know best and if an attempt should be made to send a serviceman an article which there has been a warning not to mail, and it should be seized, both the sender and the intended receiver will be unhappy.

Be sure that the instructions issued by the postal authorities are carefully followed, and mail cards and packages as near to October 1 as possible, and not later than November 1.

We Still Have That Something

There's something good about a country where it can be at war and the people can still get excited about whether the Brooklyn Dodgers will catch the St. Louis Cardinals and if the Yankees will again win the Series, or whether Minnesota's football team will have an undefeated season.

It somehow is a means of letting off the pressure for many in the work which they are now doing. There are plenty of places where you could not worry about Brooklyn or St. Louis. It's a great thing that we still have that freedom.

Right in our town this week, there will be something new for many to talk about with the high school eleven and the professional team making their first starts of the season. We don't see how a nation which has people gifted with the spirit to be able to give their best and still forget their cares and worries for a while can lose a war.

Thumbing Files Of The Past

One Year Ago

Mayor Williams, following the demands of the police and firemen for a $300 annual pay increase, and their petitions to have the question placed on the ballot in the November general election, urged the public to defeat the referendum. Claiming that the town was not out of the financial woods, Williams charged political activity on the part of the employees.

In its report on summer activities, the recreation department showed that more than 37,000 had attended or participated in activities at the playgrounds.

Employees at the Isolantite plant, holding more than a half million dollars' worth of war contracts, went on a C.I.O. sponsored strike, demanding higher wages and recognition of the C.I.O. as bargaining agent.

The town became the first municipality in the state, and probably in the nation, to purchase $50,000 worth of defense bonds.

The high school eleven lost to Lyndhurst in its first game, 6-0, and the town's new pro eleven, the Dukes, bowed to the Irvington Campdowners 7-0 at the municipal stadium.

Five Years Ago

Superintendent of Schools Wayne R. Farmer, reporting to the board of education on the school enrollment, said, that it had dropped 132 pupils from the previous year to 3,602.

John A. Breen retired from the undertaking business after being in business here for 36 years.

Miss Carole E. Conklin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry H. Conklin of Washington avenue, was married to Eugene Racke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Racke Sr. of Kearny, at St. Mary's church, Nutley.

The annual Community Chest campaign was announced with Thomas R. McHale as its manager.

The Joseph King association held its yearly outing in Caldwell.

A new sound system was put into operation at the Capitol theatre.

Ten Years Ago

Mayor Samuel S. Kenworthy introduced, and the commissioners unanimously adopted, a resolution favoring the establishment of an independent post office. Copies were sent to U. S. Senators Barbour and Kean and Congressman Hartley.

Protests were heard before the town commission about odors emanating from the A. J. Crowhurst tannery in Mill street. The health department said the only recourse the complainants had was to go to the chancery court.

The marriage of Miss Elsie May Martling, daughter of Mrs. William A. Kant of Cortlandt street, to Howard S. Sutphen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sutphen of Main street, took place at the Belleville Reformed street.

The dance marathon at Riviera park was in its 1,700th hour with eight couples still going.

In their first game under a new coach, "Red" Buchanan, the high school team defeated Ramsey 25-0.

Fifteen Years Ago

James Murray Sr. was elected grand knight of the Belleville council, Knights of Columbus. Other new officers were James E. Specht, deputy grand knight; Gilbert Howley, chancellor; John A. Hood, recorder; and Matthew J. Bride, treasurer.

LETTERS

Assures Neighbors Guns Don't Mean Any Trouble

From H. S. Young, 97 Liberty Avenue, To the Editor of The Times:

I should like to take this means to assure the patriotic and well-meaning citizens that my home is not an arsenal which is secretly being built up to support an invasion or arm a fifth column. The federal, state, county, and local authorities are fully aware of my activities, and the fact that I am still at liberty and still adding armament to my personal collection continuously for fifteen years should assure certain jittery persons that there is no dirty work at the cross roads of Liberty avenue and Melvex street.

In order that my good but somewhat timid neighbors may be able to sleep nights, I assure them that I do not have anything of a dangerous nature about the premises, positively no explosives of any kind, not even a .22 calibre bullet. At no time have I ever taken any precautions to hide my activities when I bring home a load of guns, the car is unloaded in broad daylight and the guns are carried to the house without any attempt at concealment. I have a great number of guns of all types in my home, most of them in my private collection, such few that I dispose of all go to responsible persons, museums, both private and public, all transactions of this kind are done legally with all laws governing the sale of arms being strictly observed.

If at any time, any resident of this town feels that my home should be investigated, he or she is at liberty to ring my door bell and request that they be shown any and all arms that may be about the premises. You can gain further assurance by calling the local police on the telephone, not necessary to give your name, and ask them of my activities.

I hope that this letter will relieve the Newark office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation from a lot of unnecessary investigation, instigated by local persons.

Interesting Facts

A lacquer that peels off has been provided for protection of highly polished surfaces during handling or shipping. It can be applied by spraying, brushing or dipping, and dries in a few minutes.

An electrical manufacturing company has devised an instrument, which, installed in a ship's stacks, warns firemen when clouds of smoke are being sent into the sky for submarines to see.

Civilians from plants producing Army equipment are attending current Army maneuvers, to study operation of equipment under conditions closely approaching those of actual combat.

ESSEX COUNTY POLITICS

The views expressed in this column, are entirely those of the writer and not necessarily those of the Publishers or Editors of the Belleville Times.

by Meador Wright

A few things happened at the Republican State Convention in Trenton Tuesday that weren't on the schedule, but the Democratic convention went exactly according to form. The main Republican upset was the forthright endorsement by Albert W. Hawkes of a referendum on November on constitutional reform. The South Jersey boys didn't expect this endorsement and for a few minutes they were considerably upset. When they took further stock of the situation, however, they were not so disturbed. They gave Hawkes credit for some clever politics, realizing at the same time that the Montclair man's bark was worse than any bite that might come their way. Hawkes was sincere in his advocacy. The boys didn't doubt that. But they realized that he didn't have any big stick to back up his words.

What happened was this: Hawkes had been advised by some of his closest friends to let "Arthur T. Vanderbilt write the party platform". He was told that Vanderbilt would write a good platform and that this would be a gesture that the Short Hills man would undoubtedly appreciate. Hawkes was impressed by this argument, and Vanderbilt's views on the constitutional referendum no doubt were carefully considered. But it was George E. Stringfellow, so the story goes, that finally made him speak as he did. Stringfellow told him to go ahead and endorse the referendum this November without consulting the South Jersey leaders. Others in the Hawkes camp were alarmed at this. They told Hawkes that he could lose the election if he tried to put over a referendum at the same time. But they agreed that Stringfellow had a point in presenting the opponents of constitutional reform with a fait accompli, and events proved that the move was psychologically sound. The South Jersey boys don't object to having their friends support constitutional reform provided such support doesn't look too dangerous. They don't mind the support, what they object to is the reform itself. When Hawkes was through speaking they had already mentally counted noses and found that there could be no referendum this November. So they shrugged off the Hawkes speech with a cynical smile, crediting it to the influence of Vanderbilt, Stringfellow, Governor Edison and Mrs. Charles F. Robbins, where in fact it largely belonged.

Plans for the Hawkes campaign have been formulated and it looks now as though the Republican party in New Jersey would have more than normal harmony this year. Dr. Lester H. Clew and Gill Robb Wilson have agreed to carry the brunt of campaigning and each will speak several times for Hawkes. The latter will spend one day in each county, with some extra time for the more populous centers. Hawkes left Wednesday for a ten days' vacation at an unannounced place and will plunge into the campaign when he gets back.

So far the Hartley-Williams recount has not disturbed the meager victory of the former. But a lead of less than 100 votes is so narrow that conceivably the last district could upset the verdict. Aside from this danger, I do not expect Hartley to have much trouble in November. He now has the powerful Republican party behind him, whereas last week he was running practically alone. Senator Smathers' speech at the Democratic convention was bizarre even for that unorthodox campaigner. Calling his Republican opponent a bully and a few other names, Smathers jumped from topic to topic and from insult to insult with an agility that amused those it did not disgust. Conceivably, the Democratic party may sweep everything this fall, New Jersey included. But if Hawkes and Smathers are to be judged on equal terms, the man from North Carolina should finish even for that unorthodox party as he did six years ago, only this time the Democratic majority is not likely to be 300,000 as it was in that year of the lamented Alfred Mossman Land.

It Takes 12,000 Calls to Build a Bomber

THE nation's telephone lines are loaded with war calls. Routes to many centers of war activity are carrying the greatest flood of calls in history. As many as 12,000 calls go into the building of a single bomber—such vital calls must go through quickly.

Normally we would put in more long distance lines and central office equipment so that we could handle all calls without delay. But the materials now go into the fighting side of the war—"for the duration."

To meet military and civilian war needs with present telephone facilities requires the cooperation of all telephone users.

Please make fewer calls—both local and long distance—and keep them as brief as possible.

Don't call Washington, D. C., and other centers of war activity unless it is urgent.

When you must use long distance, call before 10 a.m.; between noon and 2 p.m.; 5 and 7 p.m.; after 9 p.m., when the lines are less busy.

NOTICE

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that the following ordinance was passed on second and third reading at a meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Belleville, in the County of Essex, Sept. 22, 1942, having been read in its final form at least one week prior thereto and is therefore now a law and hereby published according to law.
FLORENCE R. MOREY, Town Clerk.

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF 34" CONCRETE PIPE STORM SEWER FROM CENTRAL AVENUE TERRACE FROM CENTRAL AVENUE NORTH 750 FEET AND FOR CATCH BASINS AT THE CORNER OF CENTRAL AVENUE AND CENTRAL AVENUE AND CENTRAL AVENUE AND CENTRAL AVENUE. THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF THE TOWN OF BELLEVILLE, IN THE COUNTY OF ESSEX, DO ORDAIN:

Section 1. That 34" concrete pipe storm sewer be constructed in Belleville, New Jersey, from Central Avenue North 750 feet, and catch basins at the corner of Central Avenue and Central Avenue and Central Avenue and Central Avenue.

Section 2. It is hereby determined and stated that it is necessary that the Town of Belleville, in the County of Essex, shall raise money for the purpose of constructing 34" concrete pipe storm sewer.

Section 3. To finance said purpose there is appropriated the sum of $200.00 which sum has been made available for said purpose in the budgets of said town, and is hereby levied on the property of said town.

Section 4. To finance said purpose there is appropriated the sum of $200.00 to be raised by the issuance of said notes, which shall not exceed the sum of $200.00.

Section 5. Not more than One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00) of the sum to be raised by the issuance of said notes may be used to finance interest on obligations issued to finance said purpose.

Section 6. It is hereby determined and declared that the period of usefulness of the purpose for the financing of which said notes are to be issued is the period of forty years from the date of said bonds.

Section 7. No part of the cost of making said improvement has been or is to be specially assessed against property specially benefited thereby.

Section 8. It is hereby determined and declared that the Supplemental Debt Statement required by said Act has been duly made and filed in the County of Essex, New Jersey, and that such statement so filed shows that the gross amount of said debt is not in excess of the amount of $200.00.

Section 9. This ordinance shall take effect thirty days after the first publication thereof after final passage.

Section 10. This ordinance shall be published in the Nutley News, a newspaper published in the County of Essex, New Jersey, on or before the date of its final passage.

Section 11. "Food for Fitness" Game

How to play it — Answer "yes" or "no" to the following questions. Allow 5 points for each question to which you can truthfully answer "yes."

	YES	NO
1. When you eat in a restaurant do you try to choose a well-balanced meal instead of just anything that "looks good?"
2. Do you get at least two fruits every day, making sure that one is a citrus fruit or tomato juice?
3. Are you careful not to "nibble" too many sweets between meals?
4. Do you drink four to six glasses of water a day?
5. Do you really consider vitamins when planning your meals?
6. Are you careful not to put soda in green vegetables?
7. Do you use as little water as possible when cooking vegetables?
8. Do you eat an egg at least three or four times a week?
9. Do you relax a few minutes before and after meals?
10. Do you try to make meal time in your home a pleasant, cheerful event without bickering or family quarrels?
11. Are you careful to buy only whole-wheat or enriched bread and flour?
12. Do you have your meals at regular hours every day instead of "when you have time?"
13. Do you insist that each adult in the family drink a pint of milk every day and each child a full quart?
14. Do you save the juices from canned foods and find appetizing ways to use them?
15. Do you take stimulants such as tea, coffee, etc., in moderation?
16. Do you get one raw, one yellow or leafy green, and one other vegetable every day?
17. Do you get one serving of meat or other protein rich food every day?
18. Do you chew your food thoroughly instead of bolting it?
19. Do you plan your meals at least one day in advance?
20. Do you realize the importance to your health of preparing well balanced, properly cooked meals?

Cook Vegetables to Retain Their Vitamins

Use 1/2 to 1 cup of water. Cook in a pot with a cover. Bring water and vegetables to boiling point; then turn heat to "simmer." Remove as soon as vegetables are done. Season with butter. Use juice for making sauces, soups and gravy.

School No. 10 P.T.A. Executive Group Meets This Afternoon

An executive committee meeting of the School No. 10 Parent and Teacher association will be held at the school this afternoon at 3 P.M. The 10 group was represented at a meeting of the New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers and the Home Economics Extension which met in the Newark Y.W.C.A. by Mrs. George Stickle, Mrs. John Tupper, Mrs. George Lynch and Mrs. William Rich. Home Mortgage Refinancing Boast Report By FHA

The continuing trend to amortized mortgages in the purchase of older homes is indicated by the increased business in home mortgage refinancing during the first eight months of 1942, according to Warren J. Lockwood, New Jersey FHA director.

"During that period," Lockwood declared, "the New Jersey office has insured 2,093 existing construction mortgages in the amount of $9,086,720, a higher amount than in the entire year of 1941, when yearly totals were 2,085 mortgages for $8,801,270 on existing construction. The corresponding eight months total for 1941 was only 1,229 mortgages refinanced for $5,250,400."

"In the month just past the New Jersey office insured 258 'existing property' mortgages for $1,144,000 as against only 93 existing construction mortgages for $432,000 in August, 1941."

"The improved market for existing structures in the residential field is considerably bolstered by the opportunity presented to home buyers to finance their mortgages under the benefits of the FHA insured mortgage system. Acceptance for insurance by FHA indicates a high quality of architectural workmanship, neighborhood location and credit standing on the part of the purchaser."

Says Christianity Won't Die Under Japs' Rule

Rev. Thomas Carey, Korean Missionary, Interned By Japs, Tells Petrean Club Communion Breakfast Audience Of Experiences; Attended By 100

The inroads which Catholic priests have made during the past century in their struggle to bring Christianity to the natives of the Far East, Far Eastern country now under Japanese domination, will be told, Rev. Thomas Carey, missionary priest who returned from Korea, told the Petrean club at its victory communion breakfast Sunday morning.

About 100 attended the breakfast, held in the St. Peter's school assembly, following the 8 a.m. mass. The affair was dedicated to the young men and women of St. Peter's parish serving in the nation's armed forces.

Father Carey, who spent five years in the Orient as a missionary, returned to this country aboard the S. S. Gripsholm, re-education ship which has been sent to bring home Americans evacuated from European and Far Eastern war zones. His appearance here as a speaker was the first since he returned to this country.

Chosen, formerly and generally known as Korea, is a peninsula-shaped country, jutting out into the Yellow sea from the Japanese controlled state of Manchukuo. Since for years of a struggle among the Japs, Russia and China to seize it, Korea was finally grabbed by the Japs in 1910. Of its estimated population of more than 20,000,000, Father Carey told his audience that about 10,000 of them are today members of the Catholic church. The country's first contact with Christianity dates back to 1777 when a Jesuit priest brought the faith into the hands of a Korean. It became the country's first religion and gradually influenced many of its people. After a few years, Father Carey related, the Koreans asked that a priest be sent to teach them. For years, he said, priests were smuggled into the country by friendly Koreans. At the time that this nation declared war on the Japs, there were 24 mission stations in Korea. With all American priests interned by the Japs and then turned home, Father Carey said a task of keeping the Catholic religion and education alive now falls on the native priests. Eighteen of the 24 mission stations are being covered by them in that they are almost impossible to reach. But, he predicted, their faith for this work plus the loyalty of the Koreans will keep the spirit of Christianity alive.

Word of the attack on Pearl Harbor reached the country as Korean Catholic followers were celebrating the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. "The Koreans were tickled to death," was the way in which Father Carey expressed their feelings when news was flashed that the United States had declared war on the Japs. The Koreans do not like the Japs, the priest explained. Taking his own experience in Korea, Father Carey told of the events which followed the war announcement. Late that night, the Jap police arrested the American priests and held them for two days. They were returned to one of the rectories where they were confined under the eyes of the Japs.

Risked Their Lives
Throughout the Koreans demonstrated their loyalty to the Japs, "going so far," Father Carey said, "as to expose themselves to the risk of their lives." During the first month of their internment, the Japs refused to permit the priests to say mass, which meant that each of them had the opportunity to say mass about every five days.

The priests left Korea on June 19 and were taken to Japan. When the Japs asked them if they wished to return to America, Father Carey said the priests as a body replied that they wanted to return to their missions. Finally, they agreed on the advice of their bishop that it would be best for them to go home.

All Foreigners Are Spies
"The Japs," Father Carey explained, "don't trust any foreigner—even a priest. A foreigner is potentially a spy in their eyes."

The refugee ship with 850 Americans aboard, including 60 priests, left Japan on June 17.
