

DEFENSE COUNCIL ASKS KNOWLEDGE OF RAID SIGNALS

Confusion From Blackout Due To Civilian Ignorance Of Siren Meanings

On last Friday evening, Belleville was theoretically destroyed by enemy planes because of a general confusion during the practice air raid alarm.

Throughout the town, lights flashed on, contrary to regulations, and the wardens had difficulty in controlling the situation. At 9:25, 18 minutes before the first blue signal sounded in North Arlington, notes from the Belleville siren were wafted to North Arlington and caused the residents there to douse their lights, contributing to confusion at the very beginning of the test. Defense council heads regretted the incident but stated that the siren could not be fixed since it is thought that atmospheric conditions cause it to be louder at some times than at others.

The meaning of the various signals had been known for some time and yet there were many who professed ignorance in regard to them. Some, looking to their neighbors' homes and noting that they had lights on, decided the "all clear" had been sounded and put on their own lights. Other people, noting that the street lights came on with the blue signal, decided that they too could resume their lighting.

Confusion in Blue and Red

Defense officials, at a Council meeting Monday night, decided that a re-statement of the various public must first remember that a "blue" signal may not precede a "red" signal, because of the speed with which the enemy attack might occur, but that in all events, any signal which means either to extinguish light, or, if already extinguished, to keep them out.

Both the "blue" and the "red" signals are of two minute duration and which is not intended fusion between the "all clear", which is only of 1 second duration and there should be no confusion for the general public but as a signal to the wardens. The general public will be given the "all clear" by radio, as was done Friday evening when at 10:30, four minutes after the "all clear" was given. Station WOR announced the fact that the Second Service Command had issued an "All Clear".

It should be noted that on the "blue" signal the street lights are permitted to burn. This should have no effect on the householder as it is intended solely as a safety measure, permitting street traffic to be resumed for safety purposes. The question of using the "all clear" as a signal for practice, because the ease with which a saboteur might, by turning on the lights in any house, cause a great number of surrounding families to resume lighting. This condition could not be quickly corrected if raiders were overhead.

The blue, a two minute level blast, signaling the approach of hostile planes calls for extinguishing of all except street lights, motor vehicle lights (cars continue to move) and certain exempted war plant lights.

The red, a two minute interrupted or wailing blast, signaling that planes are close at hand, causes all lights to be extinguished and all but essential traffic to stop.

The blue following red, a two minute level blast as above, indicating raiding planes have left but might return. All lights, main extinguished except street, motor vehicle and exempted war plant lights. Motor and pedestrian traffic is resumed.

The "all clear" given by sounding one short blast for a period not exceeding ten seconds. The signal will also be transmitted by radio. The all clear, by siren and radio, removes all restrictions.

A blue signal may not precede a red signal, but a blue signal always follows a red. A second signal may herald the return of raiders.

Gets Purple Heart

Pvt. Joseph L. Burlazzi

The Purple Heart, a citation for bravery, has been awarded posthumously to Pvt. Joseph L. Burlazzi and presentation of the award will be made to his brother, Guido Burlazzi of 16 Mt. Pleasant avenue, the latter revealed yesterday when he was notified of this honor by the War Department.

Pvt. Burlazzi's most recent letter to his brother from a North African battlefield hinted at the reasons for the award when he described how he had fought "in ten successive battles" after landing there with the original invasion forces. He aided in the capture of German prisoners and remarked that he would close his letter to go sleep "in a fox hole—not a bed."

Killed in action late last month as Belleville's first war casualty, Pvt. Burlazzi, who was 25, enlisted in the army in 1940. He went overseas more than a year ago and was stationed in England until the invasion of North Africa last fall. He received his training here at Fort Devens, Mass. A former cook's assistant, Pvt. Burlazzi was born in Smith's Mills, Pa. but had spent sixteen years in the Newark area residing in Newark and with his brother and sister-in-law at the Mt. Pleasant avenue address. Other survivors are Mrs. Mary Spasato of 62 Belmont avenue, Mrs. Victoria Bellone of Bloomfield and Mrs. Fannie Dinilla of Montclair, sisters and Pvt. Domenick Burlazzi who is stationed in the Pacific area and Valentin D. Spasato of Newark, brothers. No details of Pvt. Burlazzi's death or burial were given in the war department's letter.

Police And Fire Chiefs Receive Salary Raises

Police and fire chiefs will receive additional raises in their salaries through an amendment to an ordinance which was unanimously agreed upon at first reading during commission meeting Tuesday night. The ordinance provided for Police Chief Spatz's salary to be raised $500 for a yearly $4000, while Fire Chief Reid would also receive $4000 yearly with a $700 raise. The $4000 status for both chiefs would take effect now, although future heads will start at $3,600 with an annual $100 uplift until the $4000 mark is reached. An amendment also introduced by Mayor Williams provided for the renaming of Battalion chief Cullen to deputy chief, putting him on equal footing with deputy chief Dunleavy.

Two Boards Meet
It was also suggested by the Mayor that the Board of Commissioners and the zoning board meet in a conference Tuesday night along with objectors to the zoning board policy in the case of conversion of a house at 29 Rossmore place. The zoning board refused to grant conversion of the house to a four family one on the application of Alexander Seidler who sent a letter to the board stating that case would be taken to court with his attorney, H. Thayer Martin, former state tax commissioner unless the zoning board agreed to conversion.

PETITION MYSTERY OF FIFTH MAN SOON SOLVED

Monahan Admits Origin Of Petitions; Says He's Firmly
Behind Flynn

In an interview with Timothy W. Monahan of the Monahan Lumber Company, yesterday, it was stated that he was the one who had instigated the circulation of petitions urging the Board of Commissioners to consider Michael J. Flynn for the vacancy which exists on the board. Monahan said that nearly 3,000 petitions were now in circulation for Flynn.

According to Monahan, "There is no mystery in this circulation of petitions, as was stated in a Newark newspaper. I am willing to come out and state that we are wholeheartedly for Flynn and that we feel he is definitely the man for the job. I am the one who started these petitions and I am willing to go all the way for Flynn because I know he can do the job."

When asked about Flynn's age, Monahan said "Today is not the day you can go out in the street and find a man for the job. Youth is not available nor will it be for the next few years." Monahan seemed to feel that experience was more important than age in taking the job of commissioner. Stating that there were few young men left who had the necessary experience, Monahan said, "I have known Flynn for a long time and he has a good record for his past years of service. It is our opinion that Chief Flynn is the most capable man for the job."

Flynn, when questioned, stated that he had no knowledge of Monahan's participation in circulating petitions and said that he only heard of the petitions from his daughter, Margaret, on Saturday.

Could Handle Job

Flynn stated that he felt he could handle the job if the commissioners wanted to offer it to him. If the people wanted him and the board of commissioners approved his name, he said he would accept the job. Flynn refused to state that anyone had approached him on the question and maintained that he had not been approached directly by either Waters or Williams.

Second Prisoner Of War Held By Japanese In Phillipines

An old saying has it that when a soldier and a sailor enters your house at the same time you will have good luck. This maximum proved true for Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Tortorelli who entertained a soldier and a sailor in their home Sunday, the day that they received a notice from the War Department that their only son Corp. Michael Tortorelli was a Japanese prisoner of war.

Mike who enlisted in the army and left four years ago, was on Corregidor when it fell and was still fighting in the Philippine islands when he was reported missing in action on May 27, 1942. His parents, who had given him up for good, had a message sent for him only last week. His mother said she was so thrilled when she got the telegram Sunday that "I didn't understand what they were saying and I kept asking them to repeat it to me, just so I could hear the words again."

Cpl. Tortorelli, whose name heads the Garden avenue honor roll, is 25 years old and is Belleville's second war prisoner. Cpl. Tortorelli was stationed in the Philippines with the Air Force as a member of the ground crew and an air observer. Before the outbreak of the war he was assistant fire chief and a member of the baseball team there.

Tortorelli was graduated from Bloomfield high school in 1937 where he was a baseball and basketball star and played with Coach Bill Foley's championship team as an end from 1945 to 1937. When he left for service he wrote a letter to his parents from every port in which he stopped. The last letter which they received stated that his next one would announce that he had been made a Sergeant but that letter was never received.

Mrs. Tortorelli stated that she never gave up hope for Mike and that she imagined him in many different places and situations when she thought about his being away or when she heard news broadcasts which mentioned places where he had been. She said "I used to think of him drowned on Bataan or being caught in barbed wire, but after awhile I would forget to think of him that way."

Keep Room Intact

The Tortorelli's have a special room fixed up for Mike so that he may have his own room when he returns. The room contains pictures of him which his parents have.

DIAMONDS, WATCHES, JEWELRY at prices always in line with the quality of the merchandise offered. Victor Hart, Jeweler, 457 Washington avenue, Belleville, N. J.

Cpl. Michael Tortorelli

Mike's whom he knew in the Philippines has ever slept in the bed which is reserved for Mike. At the time his friend came to see the Tortorelli's, he told them that he had just gotten back from the Philippines and that Mike would follow on the next boat.

One of things Mrs. Tortorelli remembers about Mike is the way in which he used to write about wanting Italian food. He said the most wonderful thing that could happen to him would be to have some ravioli or Italian spaghetti for a feast. The Tortorelli's have never celebrated a holiday all during the time Mike has been away and his mother says "when Mike returns, we are going to have the biggest feast you ever saw, with all the Italian food and trimmings anyone could want."

When Mike went away he left his mother souvenirs of games he had won. She has them all still and she keeps the pile of letters in a bookcase. She said that she read everyone of his letters the night the telegram came. When she told Mr. Tortorelli about the telegram he could only say "Thank God!"

Mike has two older sisters, one of whom, Mrs. Josephine LaPara, lives at home, and another, Mrs. Catherine Finelli, lives in Kearny. Mike said in his last letter that he had a lot of lingerie that he had bought for the girls.

Mrs. Tortorelli says that the only thing they are praying for

BOARD REVOKES CLUB LICENSE PERMANENTLY

Woodland Rod And Gun Club Loses Decision In Stabbing

A sentence of permanent revocation of license effective Wednesday noon was handed down by the board of commissioner to Lawrence Burde owner of the Woodland Rod and Gun club at 217 North Belmont avenue after the board sat on an excise group Tuesday night on a stabbing which occurred in the club January 30.

Lawrence Keenan, town attorney, acted as prosecutor. His first witness, Anthony Maglio of 52 Watchung avenue, admitted to the stabbing of Phillip Russo in the club on the night in question. Stating that he always carried a knife because of his helplessness and inability to protect himself, Maglio said that he walked out of the club and went home to sleep after the stabbing. Maglio, a club member, stated that he had just been joking with Russo and that they were both good friends.

Phillip Russo of 13 Florence avenue, the victim, stated that he had been "kidding" with Maglio and that when Maglio left the club he was smiling.

Russo, who was not a member of the club, but went there with Frank Corsi who was a member, said that he was sitting on a stool when Maglio came back. None said anything, according to Russo, until Maglio said "I'm going to kill you" and took out his knife and stabbed him. Russo maintained that he and Maglio were the best of friends and that he did not want to get Maglio in any trouble.

Frank Corsi, of 261 North Belmont avenue, who went with Russo to the club, and later went to Columbus hospital with him, stated that he told the Newark police the stabbing occurred at 6th and Bloomfield avenues in order to keep Maglio and Russo friends, and for no other reason, saying "I had no reason to protect Burde."

Owner Says "Only Kidding"

Nicholas Burde, owner of the club which listed 24 members was tending bar at the time of the stabbing and stated that he and Russo and Maglio were all kidding with each other. He said Corsi and Russo, had both offered to buy Maglio a drink but he refused saying "I'll buy my own." Burde stated that Maglio ordered Russo outside and when Russo wouldn't go the fellows laughed "in a friendly way."

Burde said Maglio went out and came back in 20 minutes, and stabbed Russo. Burde said he took off his coat and went around the bar to Russo and when he saw blood he then decided to take Russo to the hospital. Burde said he did not hear Corsi tell the police that the stabbing occurred at 6th and Bloomfield avenues but that he found out later from the police. He maintained that he did not see the stabbing.

Not a Brawl

Keenan, impeached all his witnesses with statements made to the police while Edward J. Abramson, attorney for the defense contended that no brawl had taken place in the club. In an attempt to prove that there was no loud noise at the club and that no one was drunk, Abramson maintained that all the witnesses were friends with each other and that there were no hard feelings between any of them. J. W. Carter of 220 North Belmont avenue, who had lived next to the club for 14 years, when asked by Abramson, whether he ever heard any commotion in the club stated that he didn't since "the club was conducted in a very clever manner."

The verdict, which came as a surprise after 20 minutes of deliberation by the commissioners, brought Abramson to his feet to state that he did not see how the evidence warranted the verdict, and that he thought the commissioners had not considered the evidence fairly. Mayor Williams stated after the verdict was given, that he recommended to the board that they refuse additional club licenses since "they have brought us nothing but trouble ever since we have allowed them."

now, is that Mike will be an exchange prisoner and they feel sure that he will be able to come home in a short while. Mrs. Tortorelli said she was grateful to Mrs. Louis Noll of their Home Service department, who had tried for so long to get news of Mike through the International Red Cross. Mrs. Noll said that packages might be sent to Mike on the average of one every 60 days, but vouchers must be obtained from the Prisoner of War Department in Washington before the packages are mailed. These vouchers go inside and outside of every package sent to prisoners of war. However, since the status of Japanese prisoners is not as yet clearly defined, it is uncertain that packages will reach them.

Mrs. Tortorelli however believes in fate and says "I just know Mike will be back someday."

Mumps And Measles Are Newest Thing In Diseases

Mumps and measles are the fashionable diseases this month and if one doesn't manage to catch them he is secretly charmed. Health Officer Eugene Berry reports that there are 116 cases of measles and 114 cases of mumps for the month of April so far. There are 21 cases of whooping cough and 28 cases of chickenpox.

This is a big jump over the same month of last year when there were only 10 cases of measles for the whole month with chickenpox running a close second and a few cases of scarlet fever. There have been no scarlet fever cases reported this month.

Berry warns those who wish to stay well, to keep away from crowded places such as the movies, and stated that schools were the biggest places of contagion. He asks that all those who are quarantined stick to it, so that they will not contaminate others. The biggest problem now is enforcing quarantine," he said.

Hitler Has Taken Care Of Future Of Nazism, Rotarians Hear

That Hitler and his crew may be "screwed" but not "nuts", is shown by the fact that Schickelgruber has entrusted the future leadership of the Nazi regime to people more popular than himself. This is the opinion of Leonard Guenther, a self-termed product of the Prussian educational system, who spoke yesterday at the Forest Hill Field club before a combined meeting of Belleville and Nutley Rotarians and the Belleville Lions club.

The teamwork exhibited by the school pupils, teachers, and principals in the Second War Bond drive has gone far beyond the bounds of expectations when the drive began. The sales for the month of April are above previous totals and the children are not only buying stamps and bonds for themselves but many are even canvassing friends and neighbors in order that they will exceed other classes and pupils in the race for dollar supremacy in this drive.

The sale of stamps and bonds in the schools had become so large that the system which had been used to date was beginning to be overburdened. Way R. Farmer in cooperation with the First National Bank arranged a program whereby the bank agreed to take over the job of servicing the schools' stamps and bond requirements.

Under the new arrangement the orders for each class are taken by the teachers and are consolidated by the principals of each school. Police officers and a representative of the town treasurer's office collect the orders from the various schools and deliver them to the bank, where they are tabulated. The bonds are then made up at the bank and the post office furnishes the bank with stamps that are required. Finally the stamps and bonds for each school are placed in locked bags and are delivered to the schools by police officer. This procedure is repeated each week and is one example of town cooperation in the drive.

Total High

The total and astounding results for April in all the schools and the high school amount to $32,726.25 so far. The total receipts for the month of March from the public schools show $8,492.15 or only one quarter of the totals for April with most not yet completed. Pickett contributed $245.45 in March but returns for April have not yet tabulated. The high school students along with many of the grade school have bought enough bonds and stamps for their purchase of three jeeps. The seniors bought one and a half jeeps and the freshmen and juniors bought enough for almost one jeep piece.

Special Program Held

Special programs and various competitive races are spurring the children to buy even more. A program was offered in the high school assembly yesterday to stimulate sales. A man and a woman recently returned from Pearl Harbor spoke to the pupils on the conditions if the fighting fronts and of the need for stamps and bonds to buy equipment for our fighting men.

The People's National Bank has reported that the sale of bonds during the second drive has reached $22,000 so far, while the First National Bank reported total sales of $130,000 with everything included up to this point.

Philip Dettelbach, War Bond Committee head, announced that the payroll committee composed of W. Douglas Clark, Jr., Clark and Hammer, and Gilbert Wright, of Handlon and Goodman, addressed the Manufacturers association at their meeting last night, for the purpose of enrolling them in the payroll plan.

The Independent Food Merchants along with the others who are buying bonds every day, have set $400,000 as their quota for April. Since approximately 9,000 men have entered the armed services from this group it is felt that everything possible must be done by the merchants. Included in their drive will be pledging one per cent of one month's sales to the bond drive, contributing to the National Bank report, men through the USO and the Red Cross, and by offering bonds in the name-bomber contest.

The nation-wide drive for 1 billion dollars is being sponsored jointly by the War Savings Staff and the Victory Loan Committee.

Red Cross Will Hold Four New First Aid Classes

Four new standard classes in first aid will begin the Monday after Easter, under the direction of Paul Baxter, first aid chairman of the local chapter. Seventy-five wardens are in need of this training and others who desire to enter the classes will be accommodated.

Classes are being arranged to suit the registrants and will be held in various sections of the town. These courses will be given every night in the week except Thursday. Anyone who wishes to take this course may register with Miss Esther Adams who will explain where and when the classes will be held. Instruction books and bandages will be available for registrants until the supply is exhausted. Others will be supplied when individual classes convene. The course is for the standard 20 hours leading to the Red Cross certificate. Those interested in advanced first aid instruction are also urged to register since a class will be arranged if there is enough need for one.

Sunday evening all first aid instructors and members of the executive council met at the Red Cross headquarters on 238 Washington avenue, to hear Dennis McLaughlin discuss accident prevention. This was the first step in inaugurating a series of lectures on home accident prevention which may be made available to the public either along with the first aid instruction courses or separately from them. The course is 9 hours in length and first aid instructors will be the first to take it.

Mr. McLaughlin who gave the initial lecture is acting director of first aid, water safety, and accident prevention for the city of Newark. He stressed the need for such a course and explained cases in which such information had been utilized.

to be the spirit of our brothwhat are your dollars, com-

If you could see way — suppose you had a magic nd take you to Africa and New Guinea. Suppose you could hear the groan of American boys wounded, and American boys dying . . . Say now, how many Bonds would you buy?

That kind of war

THEY . . . are dying. And they will keep on dying until we drown the enemy in an overwhelming torrent of bombs, bullets, guns, tanks, planes, ships, and shells.

That's why we're asking you, in this one month of April alone, to lend Uncle Sam 13 billions of dollars — by buying War Bonds.
13 billions of extra dollars — over and above any buying that you'd be doing anyway!

A lot of money

13 billion dollars is a lot of money. It'll take sweat and tears to raise it. It'll mean going without now. But also — it will mean saving now — to buy later. It'll mean giving up every- thing you can't square with your conscience, so that we, us, our children, can have a more decent place to live in when this war is won.

The drive is on

So, if someone calls on you to ask you to buy War Bonds in this 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE, will you buy to the limit — and then buy more?

Better yet, will you go to your Bank, Postoffice, or wherever you're used to buying your Bonds — and buy NOW? Will you lend extra money this month? Money that can hasten the day of Victory? Money that can help to save American lives?

Money buys money

Remember, what you're really buying with your money is still more money. For after all, these Bonds are money! Money plus! Every dollar you put into War Bonds will bring you a dollar plus interest.

So the more Bonds you buy the better for you. Americans — Get Tough — with yourselves — for your country.

A Planning Guide For Your Victory Garden

A suggestion of warmth in the atmosphere means seedlings can soon be planted in the plots that victory gardeners have been hard at work preparing. Whether home raised or purchased from the florist little plants must have the proper care or they will not survive and this is not a year to waste them should be wasted. In his present article R. E. Harman, county agricultural agent, gives brief and understandable advice on establishing the baby plants.

Transplanting of vegetable plants to the garden can be done without any setback to the plants or it can be done so as to permanently injure the plants. The holes to receive the plants should be spaced properly. They should be large enough to accommodate the roots without "jamming" them in. The plants should be set just a bit deeper than they were grown indoors. If set too shallow, the roots will have a chance to dry out quickly and if set too deep the roots will lack aeration and in cold weather may decay.

Fresh fertilizer and hydrated lime should not be applied just prior to setting out the plants unless it is well mixed with the top two or three inches of soil. Limestone is safer to use. Plants are best set out in the late afternoon so they will become established so the sun of the following day will not pull moisture out of the leaves faster than the roots can supply it. Or they may be set out in the heat of the day if a rain is due, if you shade the plants with baskets or flower pots and if you water them well "once".

It is good practice to make the hole, set the plant by firming soil about the roots until the hole is two-thirds full. Water with one cup per plant, allow the water to seep in while you set the next plant or two and then fill in the balance of the hole with soil. If no fertilizer had recently been mixed with the surface soil a mixture of a teaspoonful of Victory Garden fertilizer in 12 to 15 quarts of water may be used to water the newly set plants. This available to the public to prevent the plants setback from the shock of transplanting. The next article will tell about thinning.

Players Present Week Drama

On Sunday evening the Adelphi Players will present a Passion week drama in Grace Baptist Church at 8. The play, entitled "If a Seed Fall" was written by Rev. Marshall J. Whitehead, pastor of the church, and deals with the mother of the penitent thief who was crucified with Jesus. Through her own suffering this character is drawn to an understanding of the Master's message. Mr. Whitehead has directed the play in which Mrs. Whitehead, Miss Ruth Hogan, Mrs. George Warke, Miss Dorothy Carpenter, Jack Albaugh and Aram Bruijan, appear. Miss Ruth Topping assisted Mr. Whitehead in directing the drama for which Harry Tice constructed a special setting. A rehearsal was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Lorena Clark, director of the Adolphia players, when others of the group conducted try-outs for a spring production. Mrs. Clark interpreted a Lenten candlelight service, "Gates of Light" by Violet M. Hcmer, in the church last Sunday evening. Miss Grace Martling gave vocal selections.

Confusion In "All-Clear" Signal

The confusion attending the surprise blackout staged by the second service army command to test the new "all clear" signal in New Jersey on Friday night, found only the householders but also the warden's uncertain of the differentiation between the second blue and the final blue.

Contributing to the mix-up were siren calls not only here but in neighboring towns, that somehow were sounded between or after official instructions over the radio. With a volume of sirens going at the same time, it is practically impossible to synchronize them to official timing.

Additional tests and frequent ones will be needed if the present system is to prove

Buy An Extra War Bond

This is New Jersey's "Buy an Extra War Bond" month. With a total of $13,000,000 to be raised throughout the nation, the largest amount yet asked by the Treasury department, the challenge is a big one — one that none of us can ignore.

We may be tired already of feeling the pinch of war, as it turns our "necessities" into luxuries again. But, if America is to win the war, we must raise the money necessary to buy equipment, munitions, clothes, rations and all other supplies for our armed forces. This can be done either through taxes or through voluntary investment in government securities. The more we invest the less will have to be raised through taxes.

If we spend our excess income for the comparatively few civilian goods and services that will be available to us, instead of investing it in Government securities, the result might easily be runaway inflation. Our money would then be worth less and we would pay a great deal more for all

State Civilian Defense

Many people think casually of civilian defense in terms of air raid wardens, dimouts and blackouts, and more recently of block neighbors, nutrition and other phases of the community war services division of the defense council.

What the average person doesn't know is the vast amount of related planning that must be done by the state O.C.D. which in reality, takes under its jurisdiction the wartime welfare of its citizens on the home front. State O.C.D. Director Leonard Dreyfuss, in making his first annual report, calls attention to the related functions with which his office has been preoccupied.

"For instance," he says, "we have to plan for evacuation in the event of enemy bombing. We have had to plan for mutual aid between communities if fires, panic or hysteria should result from enemy attack. We must control food trucks on our roads in catastrophe. The question of child care, efficient. The purpose of the blackout—to play "possum" for the benefit of enemy planes—will be completely voided if even a small percentage of householders turn their lights on, with the second blue, which indicates that the planes are returning. Although the street lights are on, they can be doused by pulling a main switch, in much less time than it would take wardens to ring individual door-bells on their posts—provided the wardens realize it is a second alert and not an all-clear.

A simpler and more foolproof method seems to us either the maintenance of a complete blackout until the all-clear or the use of fire whistles as a more distinct signal that the "raid" is over.

commodities. On the other hand, if we spend the major part of our income above actual expenses in Government securities, the cost of living can be kept within bounds.

And of course, the more we save now, the more we'll have after the war — for emergencies, for education and travel, for a new automobile, refrigerator or radio, for retirement, sudden illness or old age.

The Second War Loan is an order to the home front to go on a new offensive. To win this war is going to cost more and more money — and more and more lives. The price of freedom is high. We can't let our fighting men down, and this is one case in which we can't slough off responsibility by saying "let others do it."

The banks are planning to invest in the securities in large figures. We owe it to ourselves to put as much as we can in bonds, particularly during April, as investment and security not only in winning the war but also in post-war America.

salvage collection, health and nutrition plans and milk shortage are some of the others.

The state has an unusual number of Army and Navy encampments representing many problems with which we must deal. These are just a very few of the things that present daily problems for our office.

This activity, according to the report, has pyramided conservatively 10 times its size since Pearl Harbor. Yet the task has been accomplished for several thousand dollars less per month than formerly. The cost per capita for defense administration is less than half of any state on the coast which is the target area, and compared with most neighboring states, New Jersey is spending a third of their costs in operating. All this contributes doubtless, to New Jersey's rating by the Federal office, as one of the most complete and efficient Offices of Civilian Defense in the country.

THE 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON

13 billion dollars must be raised!

THE GOVERNMENT of the United States is asking us to lend it 13 billion dollars in the next few weeks. We can do it. And we must do it. Every American must realize the truth:

In this, our toughest war, we've made a good start. We've trained a lot of men—made a lot of weapons—built a lot of ships.

But it's only a start. No man or woman among us would contend for a single instant that we're doing enough now to win this war!

We've Got to Build More!

We broke all records building 8 million tons of shipping last year. But grim-faced Army and Navy men will tell you that the 18 MILLION tons we're building this year still won't be enough!

We've Got to Fight More!

From now till this war is won, America must be on the offensive. In ever-increasing numbers, your sons, brothers, husbands must go into actual battle. Our losses have already begun to mount—and they will not grow less.

And We've Got to Buy More War Bonds!

Sure we're all buying War Bonds now. But we've got to help pay for our increased fighting and building . . . We've got to match, as best we can, the sacrifice of those Americans who are toiling and sweating on a dozen battlefronts—with the bloodiest yet to come. The blunt fact is this: to keep our war machine going, we've got to dig up 13 billion extra dollars this month. 13 billion dollars over and above our regular War Bond buying!

In the next few weeks you may be visited by one of the thousands of volunteers who are contributing their time and effort to this Drive. But don't wait for him. Make up your mind now that before this drive is over, you're going to march right down to your nearest bank, Post Office, or place where they sell War Bonds, and do your duty. And don't ever forget this: in doing your duty, you're doing yourself one of the biggest favors of your life!

For United States War Bonds are the greatest investment in the world—bar none. They're investments tailored to fit your particular situation. And they give you the chance of a lifetime to order and get the kind of world you want to live in after this war. Every cent you put in War Bonds now will help to guarantee plenty of peacetime jobs making peace-living for every one of us.

For your Country's sake—for your own sake—invest all you can!

Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father."

Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible: "As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father." The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Atonement is the exemplification of man's unity with God, whereby man reflects divine Truth, Life and Love. Jesus of Nazareth taught and demonstrated man's oneness with the Father, and for this we owe him endless homage."
