

COUNCIL SETS APRIL 29 FOR INCIDENT TESTS

Asks For Volunteer Victims
During Tests To Be Held
Every Thursday

The local Defense Council on Monday night set Thursday, April 29 as the starting date for a series of incident tests which will be held on subsequent Thursday nights throughout the summer.

Zone 2 has been selected as the first zone to be tested and defense personnel in that zone, as well as the Ambulance and First Aid workers in School 3, First Aid Aid workers from the Recreation house, School 8 and the High school, are to be on duty at 7:15 next Thursday evening.

In order that First Aid workers might receive training in transportation of victims, the First Aid posts in the Recreation house, School 8 and the High school are not to be manned, but the personnel from these stations are to report to school 3 where they will be given an opportunity to work out of the Casualty Station. In the event of a blackout, of course, all First Aid posts would be manned by their proper personnel.

"No School"

The tests will close at 8:30 p. m. each evening and wardens are permitted to leave their posts at that time if not engaged in an incident. In the event of rain at 7 p. m. which might necessitate calling off the incident test, Continued on Page 4

PASS HORSE MEAT, CHICKEN RULES

Regulations Restrict Sale Of The Meat And Number Of Chicks In Limited Areas

Dumb animals were the subject at the town commission last Tuesday night when two ordinances, one referring to the sale of horse meat and one referring to keepers of chickens, were passed at first reading.

The horse meat ordinance permits no sale unless a written permission is granted by Director of Public Affairs, King or Health Officer, Berry, and a sign be displayed stating that horse meat is sold on the premises. The ordinance also designated that all preparation and storage of horse meat should be separate from that of other kinds of meat.

Violators of any of these regulations are subject to a penalty of not more than $50 for each offense, and permits may be revoked or suspended at the command of the Director of Public Affairs.

Chicken Permits

Defense workers were assured of their sleep and neighbors of their peace with the ordinance regulating keeping of chickens. This ruling provides that anyone desiring to keep chickens must pay $1 for a permit; that the number of chickens kept not exceed one per 100 square feet of rear yard space.

A motion was also passed upon the recommendation of Commissioner Waters that this ordinance be in effect for only two months after the duration of the war. Feeling that there would be little need for the raising of chickens then, Waters stated that those who felt impelled to raise chickens during this time should be allowed to do so without complaints from the neighbors.

An ordinance preventing malicious damage to victory gardens was also passed assuring violators of gardens of a $100 fine or 90 days imprisonment. This ruling referred to any person who plants and grows vegetables in accordance with the war time food plan and was suggested by Mayor Williams at the last meeting of the town commissioners, and will be in effect for six months after the war.

SALVAGE MEETING SET FOR TONIGHT

Plans Will Be Discussed For Spring Salvage Drive
Starting Soon

A meeting of the Salvage committee will be held tonight at 7:30 p. m. in the Girl Scout headquarters for the purpose of discussing the Spring Scrap drive scheduled to begin within a week or two.

Scrap which is such an important part of our defense set-up is being consumed at such a terrific rate that it is feared not even enough scrap will be obtained from salvage drives to feed the steel mills the 1,000,000 tons of scrap they need per week in order to operate at capacity. The rumor that there is plenty of scrap is not true and if we are to keep our factories producing armaments at the rate they are needed we must utilize every bit of available scrap.

Scrap dealers, who played an important part in processing and moving scrap collected during 1942 are worried about the availability of scrap due to the number of previous scrap collections. The scrap program in industry may not yield so much due to the fact that new machines are not available to replace old ones and consequently old ones are not discarded. Auto graveyards which were instead so much scrap are receiving far less scrap than previously so that they cannot afford to junk as much.

Special projects such as buildings, bridges, rails etc., are non-recurring in the salvage drive since they are being repaired and made to do for the duration rather than being torn down. The current war time manufacture of ships, guns and tanks, unlike the peacetime manufacture of automobiles, refrigerators etc., becomes scrap for other nations rather than being returned to us, hence we lose this wide market altogether.

The national total for scrap is 3,000,000 tons, urgently needed. It is hoped that this goal will have been reached by June 30. Household scrap is of a light variety and harder to process than heavy scrap so it is requested that everyone start looking now for heavier scrap from which armament and ammunition to protect our fighting men is made.

PROTEST RECENT POULTRY RULING

Livestock Association Organizes
Against Amended Chicken
Ordinance

At a meeting of the Belleville Livestock association last night at the firehouse, organized protest was made against all phases of the amended poultry ordinance now before the board of commissioners.

All 35 association members present went on record as opposing it in its entirety. The group feels that the amended ordinance is against the wishes of the WPB which has urged chicken raising to alleviate the meat shortage and to help stave off the rising cost of eggs. They feel that any curb would discourage potential raisers.

According to Paul de Hagara, council for the group, hostility from some townspeople towards poultry raising is unfounded. The group includes mainly private

Tribute To Servicemen

THE NAMES OF TWO local boys who have already died in service were among the 160 names on the honor roll unveiled Sunday at Parkside drive and Belleville avenue, with appropriate ceremonies. Guido Burlazzi, brother of Joseph, who was killed in action in North Africa, raised the service flag, and Mrs. Louise Lundegren, mother of Arthur, who died at Fort Dix unveiled the honor roll.

New Honor Roll Unveiled Sunday With 160 Names

Two World War II Casualties
In List At Parkside And Belleville Avenue

A service flag and an honor roll bearing the names of 160 men from the vicinity of Parkside drive and Belleville avenue were dedicated there on Sunday afternoon. Included among the list of names were Cpl. Arthur H. Lundgren, who died in service at Fort Dix, and Pvt. Joseph Burlazzi, who was killed in action in North Africa.

Guido Burlazzi, brother of Joseph, opened the ceremony by raising an American flag and a service flag as the National Anthem was sung by Miss Mildred Punto. The Rev. Willard H. Borches of Bethany Lutheran church gave the invocation and the Rev. Joseph M. Kelly of St. Peter's the benediction.

The honor roll was unveiled by Mrs. Louise M. Lundegren. As the roll was uncovered a flock of pigeons was released and they were circling the plot, and sped off. Speakers at the ceremonies included Thomas C. D'Avella, attorney; Finance Director, Ovid C. Bianchi of East Orange and Mayor Williams. George Buchanan representing the Veterans of Foreign Wars offered a prayer for men in the service. Harry J. Sullivan, defense coordinator, was master of ceremonies.

The committee in charge of honor roll was headed by Leonard D'Onofrio, chairman, and included Frank Zinna, Vito DeFeo, John Steffanelli, Peter Torri, and John Lanza.

The parade preceding the ceremonies included veterans of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars, nurses from the Isolation hospital, under the direction of Miss Ella Hasenjaeger, Police Reserves, Fire Reserves, Ambulance Drivers, first aid workers, a large group of air raid wardens from zone 4, and Boy and Girl Scouts.

British Sailor In Parade

Under the auspices of the Newark USO several soldiers and sailors who were in the neighborhood, also paraded in the group. Included among them, was a British sailor, Oswald Lupton, whose presence drew applause. Mayor Williams directed a portion of his speech to Lupton.

This group of servicemen were guests of Miss Elaine Gandiosa of 124 Mt. Prospect avenue after the ceremonies. Among Miss Gandiosa's friends was Patrick Sutton, a veteran of 15 years service who had been wounded at Pearl Habor and whose brother had been killed there.

Sutton's home was in the state of Washington as was that of Michael Greece, a sailor. Other guests at the reception included Thomas Kamanic of Ohio, Charles La Vigne and Otto Wagner of New Jersey, all with the army, and Munroe Simmons of the Navy.

The Misses Irene and Elvina D'Onofrio, daughters of the honor roll chairman, also assisted Miss Gandiosa as hostesses.

INSTITUTIONS ASK FOR ALLOTMENTS

Soldiers Given Ration Books
When Eat At Home Or When
On Furloughs

The Belleville war price and ration board has announced that all institutional users which include every type of eating establishment in groups two and three may now apply to the local board by mail or in person, to receive their May and June allotments. These allotments are based on the figures presented on the original form R1307.

The board is also requesting all registered tire inspection stations to mail the tire applications to the board for consideration rather than having individuals come to the board in person.

The entire building in which the ration board is housed is known as 444 Washington avenue but the ration board occupies only the show room on the lower level and applicants are asked to remember this, since complaints have been received by the board from other tenants in the building who are constantly bothered by ration seekers.

The OPA has announced that any member of the armed forces who eats some of his meals in an organized mess but takes half or more of them at home is eligible to receive both Ration Books One and Two.

Any man home on furlough for seven days or more is entitled to apply at his local board for certificates which entitle him to the purchase of half a pound of sugar a week, a pound of coffee for five weeks and 16 points per week for processed foods, meats, fats and cheese.

Merchant Marines Eligible

A member of the merchant marine is not classified as a member of the armed forces therefore he is eligible to receive both Books One and Two which must be surrendered if he leaves the country for more than 30 days.

The OPA also announce that the butcher's operating inventory of meat beginning in May will be determined by purchases made by all his customers during the week of April 25 to May 1. The point value of his sales of meats fats butter and cheese for those seven days will be multiplied by three to establish his allowance operating inventory.

The butcher then places on his registration form the point value of all the butter fats, etc. he had on hand at the close of business on May 1. This together with the points he collected from consumers will be subtracted from his allowable inventory and the board will give him a point certificate for the difference, permitting him to purchase up to three times his point sales during the specified week.

All holders of a gasoline ration book who because of the cut in coupon value have need of more gas, may make applications for B books to the local board after to-

DRAFT BOARD WANTS ALL MEN

Hard To Fill Quota Even With Recent Reclassification
Ruling

The draft board is beginning to feel a pinch as it tries to adhere to all selective service rulings and still fill the May quota as admirably as it has filled others.

The board reports that it is increasingly difficult to fill the quotas with younger boys and reclassification of 3 A's only makes approximately 200 more available. The board so far has sent very few married men and would like to adhere to that policy. However, when other boards take married men the local board will do likewise. It was found necessary to take married men in the May quota since there were just not enough in other classifications. Although the May quota has been reduced, and is a small one in comparison with previous months, nevertheless the board is strained in an attempt to fill that call.

The new regulations require that supplemental classification be set up for the newly made 1 A's. Different kinds of dependencies will automatically be placed in separate classes. All (Continued on Page Six)

Red Cross Home Service Link Between Home And Front

The primary responsibility of the Home Service Division of the Red Cross, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Louis Noll is to assist service men and ex-service men and their families in meeting the needs which arise from a man's service in the Armed Forces.

Confidence, courage, energy to be a good soldier, sailor, marine or coast guardsman are possible only if the man in uniform can be relieved of anxiety for the welfare of his family. Because problems on the home front so vitally affect the progress of the war effort, Home Service is organized in every Red Cross Chapter to assist families of service men in meeting the social and economic problems which arise while the men are serving the armed forces.

Such a program has been developed in the last twenty-five years by the American Red Cross, authorized by congressional charter "to act in matters of voluntary relief and in accord with the military and naval authorities as a medium of communication between the people of the United States of America and their Army and Navy."

In carrying out the responsibilities imposed by its Charter, every Chapter shares in the American Red Cross program of Services to the Armed Forces by providing Home Service for men in the military and naval forces and their families and their dependents.

Its Function
Home Service in Belleville carries out this responsibility through the following functions: INFORMATION SERVICE covers assistance with communications between service men and their families and with inquiries in regard to their welfare; information concerning regulations and legislation affecting service and ex-service men and their dependents.

REPORTING SERVICE: Cooperation with the military and naval authorities by obtaining social history material required for medical treatment, and by making reports on home conditions needed by Commanding Officers in deciding questions of discharge, furlough, or clemency.

NEW SUPERVISOR IS APPOINTED FOR HIGH SCHOOL

Board Of Education Names Port
Jervis Man To Replace
Hugh Kittle

At its monthly meeting Friday night the Board of Education, by a 3-0 vote, passed a resolution granting a one year contract as general supervisor to Bert Powers Johnson, principal of the Port Jervis, N. Y. Junior-Senior High school. Two board members, Mrs. Homer C. Zink and Walter R. Gilby, did not vote on the resolution and gave no statement for their stand. Herbert C. Schmutz, president of the board, James C. Lynch and Charles Gehardt voted for it.

Johnson's duties will encompass anything to which he is assigned but his main job will be to serve as acting principal of the high school. This post has been vacant since a leave of absence was granted to Hugh D. Kittle. Kittle's salary was $4500 per year. Johnson will receive $5000 for his job as supervisor, when he takes the post in September.

Coordinate Program

Harold C. Dufford, commercial teacher, has been acting principal of the High school since Kittle left. Mr. Dufford will take on his commercial duties again in the fall. Wayne R. Parmer superintendent of schools, said Johnson's experience in his present position would be invaluable in coordinating the school program. According to Schmutz, the position was created because a need was shown for it, and if it is found that the position compensated for the expense, it would be continued whereas it can be easily dissolved if there is no longer a need for it.

M. A. From Columbia

Johnson is 34 years of age, married, and has one child. He is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, received his principal's certificate from Wake Forest College and his superintendent's certificate and master's degree from the Teachers College of Columbia University. He is a member of Phi Delta Kappa, Port Jervis Rotary club and is a steward in the Methodist church there.

Before going to Port Jervis in 1939, Johnson served as principal in Spring Hope and Goldsboro, N. C. schools. He was editor of the Washington County News, Springhope, N. C. for three years starting in 1932.

High School Faculty Members Appointed To History Committee

Miss Olga Nelson, Miss Elsie Sandford, and Mrs. Harriet Becker members of the faculty at Belleville High School will be members of a Regional Committee on American History formed last Monday afternoon at a conference at Fairleigh Dickinson Jr. College in Rutherford.

The conference included faculty members from 19 high schools in North Jersey and discussed the findings of a recently published New York Times survey which indicated college freshmen knew little or nothing about history of the United States.

Dr. Benjamin Fine, Education Editor of the New York Times was present. Dr. Fine conducted the survey and published its results which he said proved American History should be a required subject in all American Colleges.

COMMUNITY CHEST FUND EXPLAINED

Meetings, Discussions Held For Combined Local And National Drive In Fall

Paul deHagara of 120 Rutgers street, Newark lawyer and president of the board of trustees of the Belleville Community Chest and Council, attended the organization meeting Saturday in Trenton of the New Jersey War Fund. deHagara was also present in March at a preliminary meeting of the community chest executives presided over by Julius Rimpel, head of the 1942 Chest campaign in Newark, when it was decided to form the state fund for the purpose of simplifying the operation of the annual combined Community Chest and War Relief drives. The New Jersey municipalities, Col. Franklin D'Olier of the Prudential Insurance company has been named chairman of the fund.

deHagara made known the purposes of the New Jersey War Fund at a meeting of the board of trustees of the local Community Chest and Council early this month. Participation in it, and the inclusion in the budget of funds for the associated Catholic charities which Union counties, was approved in principle by the board.

Although in 1941 separate drives were conducted here for the USO and the Navy Relief Society, it will be remembered that the 1942 drive was called the Community and War Chest drive and that a certain percentage of the collection was set aside for these groups as well as the needs of the local participating agencies such as the Community Service Bureau, Visiting Nurse association, Girl and Boy Scouts and others.

Other Causes

Local Community chests reported this year with the knowledge that funds must be raised for the USO, the war and navy departments and various agencies for the benefit of Allied nations. Since separate drives are ineffectual and too great a tax on the public, the establishment of the "rate fund" which will allot a combined war relief quota to each municipality, has been welcomed.

The motive was motivated and will be further expedited by the National War Fund, a voluntary agency with a national board of trustees, which has investigated and passed on the members participating in the war relief section of the nation's community chest drives. The approved agencies are USO, The British War Relief Society, Inc.; United States Relief Association, Inc.; Polish American Council; Russian War Relief, Inc.; United Yugoslav War Relief Fund; American Social Hygiene Association, Inc.; War Prisoners Aid Committee of Y. M. C. A.; World Emergency and War Victims Fund of Y. W. C. A.; United States Committee for Care of European Children; United Seamen's Service, Inc.; Coordinating Council of French Relief Societies; Fighting French Relief Committee; Norwegian Relief The Belgian War Relief Society; The National C.I.O. Committee for American and Allied Relief and United Nations Relief of the A. F. of L.

Belleville Will Get Quota

New Jersey's share in the war fund is expected to be $5,000,000 about 3.9 per cent of the figure set for the nation. Belleville will be allotted its share and it will be added to the budget drawn to cover the needs of the usual local participating agencies.

Contributors can be assured, it was pointed out Saturday in Trenton by Prescott S. Busch, national campaign chairman, that their national individuality will be preserved in the matter of war relief now and postwar maintenance later if gifts, such as these war fund donations will be, presented from nation to nation and not from government to government. The morale of donor and recipient is bound to be higher, in other words, if monies filter from individuals through their hometown community chests and through the distributing agencies rather than to be collected on a national scale and proffered to the government. We have also to remember, he added, that our own (Continued on Page 4)

STUDENTS STILL BUY MOST BONDS IN WAR DRIVE

High School Pupils Raise
Jeep Total; Will See One
Next Wednesday

The totals for this week of the "Buy an Extra War Bond Month" still find the school children doing a great percentage of the investing. The total to date for the month of April in all the schools is $47,500 with $14,676 donated in the past week. The sales for the month of April are expected to reach $60,000.

The High school alone has raised $10,800 in excess of the March total of $2,157. This sum represents 12 jeeps. The sophomores, leading all other classes are responsible for five jeeps, the juniors for three, the freshmen for two and a half and the seniors for slightly over one.

The names of all contributing classes are being painted in, on the eight foot jeep facsimile which stands on the stage of the auditorium. Today's assembly in the High school will feature a melodrama by Miss Eleanor Rush's dramatic class; a report on the jeep drive, and a speech on the necessity of purchase of bonds and stamps by Mary Grace Hammond.

Next Wednesday afternoon the freshman class will sponsor an after-school dance, for upping the sale of war stamps. Admission to the dance is solely by war stamps. The High school orchestra will play for the dance. Acting Principal Harold Dufford and Howard Fox of the High School faculty have arranged with the Public Relations department of the Army command in Newark to have a jeep brought to Belleville Wednesday at 12:30. After a brief pause at the High school the jeep will visit several of the grade schools. Wayne R. Parmer, superintendent of schools will accompany it.

The jeep, which will be staffed by an officer and soldiers, will return to the High school at 2:30. For the next half a demonstration of its capabilities will take place in the vacant lot next to the building. The parade is invited and urged to attend. High school students will be dismissed to inspect the jeep. The police department will furnish a loud speaker system so that explanations of the jeep's maneuvers may be clearly heard by the crowd.

Phillip Dettelbach, chairman of the War Bond Drive has announced that the Rotary club is sponsoring a sale of its own and has already netted $18,000 to date.

The People's National Bank reports that total bond sales are 35,700 up until the 19th while the First National reports a total of $547,000 to date.

War bonds are not just another charity, they are a vital necessity or helping all our fighting forces to win the war.

BOARD AGAINST ZONE CHANGE

Alexander Seidler Appeals
Case To Combined Zone
Commission Boards

At a conference of Commissioners of Board Tuesday afternoon to conversion of defense zone to a defense zone, the case of Alexander Seidler, 29 Rossmore place, was before three commissioners and King.

The conference was held in the hope that some action could be reached before the case was taken to court by H. Thayer Martin, Seidler's attorney. The zoning board had previously rejected Seidler's application for conversion and matter was then brought before the board of commissioners.

Martin contended at the conference that Seidler was losing money on his property and wanted to lease it to the government for a period of seven years, in case of re-zoning. He also asked that the board consider rezoning on a plea of need to house defense workers. Seidler said he had inherited the house and that the property was worth $19,000 plus the money that had been put into it over a period of years. Maintaining that he was willing to sell it at a loss for $15,000, he asked for some solution to the problem.

Commissioner Waters stated that he was "absolutely against the conversion" since a promise had been made to home owners in that zone that the surrounding property would remain residential and he "intended to stick by that promise."

Would Maintain Values

Stating that the town and Seidler's neighbors were only interested in maintaining the property values of a residential section, Waters said that if a vote were taken, he would vote the change. Noll, and several voiced similar views, and Commissioner Noll requested Mayor Williams to take a stand and make a decision that and there for the benefit of the (Continued on Page 4)

STILL HOPE FOR REFERENDUM ON CONSTITUTION

"Senate Will Come Around" Advocate Declares, If People "Keep Pressing"

Assemblyman Milton A. Feller, of the Senate, still has hopes of the Senate enacting his bill calling for a referendum on constitutional revision this fall though the upper house failed to move it from committee this week. He said so in a radio broadcast over three New Jersey stations, from Newark.

Feller, with Freeholder Walter J. Ferund of Bergen county and John E. Behout, executive vice-president of the New Jersey Constitutional Foundation, took part in the sixth consecutive Wednesday broadcast of the Foundation over Station WAAT, Newark. The subject was "Your Constitution and You." Ferund, member of the New Jersey Commission which proposed a substitute for the present constitution, framed in 1844, agreed with the sponsor of Assembly Bill 180, that "the Senate will come around if the people keep pressing."

Asked by John Behout if he thought the Senate would be a morgue for his bill, Feller said: "I certainly hope not. And it doesn't have to be. If the people will let their senators continue to hear from them during the next two or three weeks the way they have since my bill passed the Assembly, I believe the Senate will see the political wisdom in coming around." Reminded that the Legislature had adjourned until after the November election, Feller said: "Yes it did, ostensibly. But actually, our leaders can call us back any time, and the governor does have the constitutional right to call us in special session. Of course, the governor can't make the Senators act, but the people certainly can and probably will."

New Womens' Club President Appoints Future Chairman

Parner; Mrs. Bernard J. Dehan, card party.

The American home department chairman will be Mrs. William D. Cornish, assisted by Mrs. Las Clark, Jr. who will head the drama department; Mrs. Norman H. Cooper, garden; Mrs. H. L. Niles, music; Mrs. John E. O'Brien, Jr., international relations; Mrs. Francis J. McFadden, literature; and Mrs. Norman D. Lauretette, hospitality.

to determine whether they want their constitution changed is to deprive them of the right to democratic process. "Yes, that is the point which needs to be driven home to the senators," Ferund joined in. He said the constitution is the people's business and the Legislature has only the duty to obey the will of the people when they ask for a change in the fundamental law.

Feller said the Bill of Rights in the constitution provides that "all political power is inherent in the people and they have the right at all times to alter or reform the constitution whenever the public good may require it." The assemblyman said that provision and other fundamental principles of liberty and justice written into the bill of rights nobody wants to change. Ferund said the present constitution "can and will defeat the best efforts of the most able men." He declared the Revision Commission wrote a constitution "which would encourage able men to assume the burdens of office and permit those men to serve in public interest."

Mr. Feller said Revision Commission, under the leadership of State Treasurer Robert C. Hendrickson "did just that," adding, "If the people tell the senators that they think so too, I believe the State Senate can be induced to pass my Assembly Bill 180."

The assemblyman said he agreed with many people of the state who desire to see the constitution revised as soon as possible "to make this a better state for our fighting men to return to."

He said the solution would be to let the people decide by referendum on election day of this year. He said that was all the bill calls for.

NUTRITION GROUP MEETS TONIGHT

Housewives Urged To Can 100 Qts. A Piece To Alleviate Food Shortage

John J. Hewitt, Nutrition committee chairman, announces that a meeting of the committee and all personnel will be held tonight at the Woman's club 34 Rossmore place. The speaker will be Jim Lampman of Malone avenue who will talk on rationing and prices. Lampman is an employee of the Heinz company, and anyone interested in nutrition or Lampman's subject, is invited to attend.

Mrs. Margaret Allaire, new head of the Consumers Information committee, has stressed the need for home canning, in order to allay the growing food shortage. In a series of demonstrations sponsored by Public Service, in cooperation with the Food for Fitness program, one demonstration will be devoted to home canning. Arrangements have not been made as to where and when the demonstrations will be held but it is expected that one of the schools will serve as the medium so that all who are interested may be accommodated.

New Jersey's wartime essential home canning quota is set at 416,016,500 quarts as estimated by food distributors. This amount represents an average of 100 quarts of home packed food per person, according to Mrs. Allaire.

Urgent Need for Canning

The urgent need for housewives to meet this goal is emphasized by the fact that only 13,000,000 cases of commercially canned fruits and vegetables will be available this year as compared to 30,000,000 cases a month last year. This is a 57 percent reduction and means that the armed services and our allies will receive all we do not use, to help them fight.

Breaching this gap will be done if housewives purchase more fresh fruits and vegetables for immediate use and for home canning, since these foods require no ration points. The W.P.B. has promised adequate supplies of covers and rubber rings for canning. Housewives are warned not to transfer food from commercial cans to glass jars since fatal food poisoning may result.

Beginning in May most stores will furnish data on fresh foods so that housewives may know when certain fresh fruits and vegetables are available in sufficient quantity to warrant canning. It is the duty of every housewife to can food in a peak production period so that waste may be avoided.

President Of Lloyd Engineering Entertains Entire Personnel

Morris Lloyd, president of Lloyd Engineering plant at Stephens street, was host Tuesday evening to the entire personnel of his company at a dinner in the plant which marked the 25th anniversary of the founding of the business. Estimated 100% in war work the company today turns out a number of essential products in its buildings. 25 men are employed.

Mr. Lloyd, who was born in Pennsylvania and later moved to Montclair, originally sold blower apparatus for a large manufacturing company. He went into business on the traditional "shoestring" with tiny office space in a plumber's shop in Montclair. Checks which he made out for his original investments, $2.50 for half a month's rent and $3.00 for stationery, are framed on his office wall today. Since then, he says, the business has paid its way although he and Mrs. Lloyd practiced some stringent budgeting during the early months.

As a salesman of ventilating and blowing equipment Mr. Lloyd had made an extensive study of its design and installation. His first years in business were spent mainly in installation work; but when business caused him to exchange his second-hand desk for a larger one and his minute office space forced him to interview customers through a doorway into the shop, he moved to Belleville. In a long, low building on Cortlandt street with one employee Mr. Lloyd started the manufacture of blowing apparatus. His present site at 55 Stephens street, includes two buildings, one of which was constructed three years ago. Joseph Rossi, foreman, has been with Mr. Lloyd for 15 years.

The Lloyds reside at 4 Vera place, Montclair. Their daughter is the wife of William W. Bush, vice-president of the Lloyd Engineering company. The Bushes, who are the parents of an infant daughter, make their home in Essex Fells.

COUNCIL SETS

Signal 14 would be sounded on the fire alarm. This, appropriately enough, is the signal for "no school".

It was suggested that all watches were to be synchronized with WOR's 7 p. m. time signal in order that there be no discrepancies among the various services.

The incident committee is also working on a method of giving individual wardens an opportunity to use the tank pump extinguishers in fighting minor "incendiaries." It has been long realized that it is impossible to give an incident to every warden in the course of an evening, and while the wardens have been most patient about this, it is hoped that something can be worked out which will give everyone an opportunity to participate.

Need Victims

A group of adults are needed to serve as victims each week. During last year's tests, the Boy Scouts made up most of the group acting as victims. But since the Government's recently inaugurated Civilian War Benefits plan excluded the use of persons under 16 years of age, it was felt that the boys should not be expected to work without the coverage of insurance benefits given to adults. It has been suggested that First Aiders or Ambulance personnel who are not working in incident tests, that is those whose zones are not being tested on any particular evening, could volunteer and the First Aiders who worked on them, would in turn, volunteer to act as victims at a later date. All those desiring to offer their services are requested to contact Defense Coordinator Harry J. Sullivan at Belleville 2-2100. A joint meeting of the Ambulance Corps and First Aiders will be held tonight from casualty station 1 at School 1. All personnel connected with this station are asked to attend.

Among varied other activities, helpful to the military, to the men themselves, and to their families, the Field Director is the channel through which Chapter officers request Chapter verification of illness at home and reports on home conditions needed in deciding questions of furlough discharge, or clemency.

Recreational Work
At all Naval and Army general hospitals and at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Washington, the American Red Cross maintains a program of social service and recreation work under the direction of Red Cross Field Directors, who are professionally trained medical and psychiatric social workers. In the present emergency resident social workers and recreational assistants have also been provided in the larger station hospitals.

These Red Cross Field Directors, by writing to the home Chapters, secure information for the family and other sources to aid physicians in diagnoses and treatment. They also send to the home Chapter information necessary for interpreting to the family the hospital reports and recommendations regarding a patient and his medical, employment, and recreational needs after discharge.

Field Directors are assigned by the American Red Cross to offices of the Veterans Administration to assist Chapters in their claims work.

The staff of the local Home Service workers including Mrs. Noll are all volunteers and include, Mrs. Christian Gabrielsen, Mrs. George Paul, Mrs. Kel Bamford, and Mrs. Harry Nees. The group will begin a course of instruction under the direction of Miss Naomi Colemery, Home Service Field director, North Atlantic area at the Recreation House on Friday morning from 10:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. The staff has been devoting a great deal of time and effort to this Chapter's service and stands ready and willing to go beyond the immediate request by making available the Services needed. This staff of Home Service workers will be hosts to several members of the Hoboken Chapter at luncheon on Friday who are also undertaking the course of instruction.

COMMUNITY CHEST

men are among the fighting men of these stricken nations. Another safeguard of the state fund plan was pointed out by Chester Barnard, USO chief, who drew attention to that organization's ability to date to make use of all possible volunteer labor, economize in every way and not duplicate efforts, in the matter of providing relief or entertainment, with other agencies like the Red Cross. One-half to three-quarters of the war fund allotment will go to the USO. Since this organization contributes in the most direct possible manner to the social wellbeing of our troops at home and abroad, Mr. Barnard pointed out, contributors can well feel that they have the opportunity for intense cooperation with their own men; not just the turnover of funds.

Louis Horowitz, New Jersey regional director of the C.I.O., also addressed the community chest representatives Saturday and assured them that each union will receive explicit directions regarding their contributions to the United Drive. Through the medium of their international associations labor makes a direct contribution to labor in the suffering countries. Their efforts have included the establishment of hospitals and other direct relief agencies for fellow laborers in foreign countries.

The drive in Belleville will be conducted during the October to November period and will be so timed that it will not conflict with a national bond drive or other campaign. This is the first of a series of yearly drives which will undoubtedly be conducted for the duration of the war and as the first may make the heaviest demand for funds, according to de Hagara. The board of trustees will meet on May 4.

Workers in a Michigan refinery fixed up a very low, false door leading to the pay office. On it is inscribed, "You will learn to duck lower if you don't buy a Bond."

PROTEST RECENT

The point in the ordinance with which the group took most issue was that stating that only one chicken would be permitted for every hundred square feet of rear yard space. According to deHagars, the Department of Agriculture feels that 4 and one half square feet is adequate for the larger breed of chickens while even less is required for smaller breeds. deHagars feels that only those who know how to raise chickens will undertake to do so, and he said that many people even raise chickens without letting them out of their coops at all. He pointed out Ray Williamson as an example of a man who had raised confined leghorns for twelve years with few mishaps.

The Association is seeking the support of all those interested in raising livestock and anyone interested in joining the association and uniting with them on protest is urged to attend the next meeting to be held Monday at the Recreation House at 8:30 p.m.

Ten petitions were also presented at the meeting and more are being circulated. Officers were elected at the meeting and anyone wishing to manifest protest along with the Association may get in touch with Frank L. Albert, chairman, at 7 Wallace street, Albert Foreza, secretary, at 35 Adelaide street, or with deHagars at 124 Rutgers street. Daniel Miloi was elected treasurer of the Association.

Agitation for an amended ordinance was started by the Health department two years ago when an ordinance was introduced but failed of adoption.

H. S. ORCHESTRA PLANS CONCERT

To Take Part In Fourteenth Annual Music Club Concert On May 13

The fourteenth annual concert of the Music Clubs of Belleville High school will be presented on May 13 in the High School auditorium under the direction of Mrs. Alice W. Wagner.

One of the highlights of the program will be the orchestra playing a variety of selections of both South American and patriotic music. A Tarango, "El Choclo" and "Malagueña," from which comes the popular "At the Crossroads" have been chosen. Also on the program will be "The March of the Peers," and "Recessional" which the orchestra will be joined by the Glee Club. "Over There," a medley of songs from World War I will also be included.

The orchestra this year is considered unique as a high school organization. It has a talented girl drummer, Irene Keddie and a girl tympani player Peggy Mills, who, along with two pianists, Ann Corie and Doris Kessel, compose a well-rounded rhythm section. The string section is outstanding with its violinists Phyllis Di Sturco, Sue Dorris, Alfred Reddy, Phyllis Sooy, Constance Reddy, Elsie Alsterok and Jean Moreland; its five cellists, Joyce Shannon, Alice Daniels, Joan Carmie, Dagmar Carlson and Nan Chesley, and its five brass viol players, Helen Koshe, Lillas Munro, Betty Poehl, Dorothy Webber, and Nancy Gardiner.

Woodwind Section

A competent woodwind section is made up of six clarinetists, Richard Albaugh, Fred Ekanen, Ralph Roselle, Joseph Minor, Herbert Pugliese; Thomas Sciarillo, an oboe player; Doris Heath, and six saxophonists, Mary Haberle, Harold Atkins and Mary Doherty. E flat sax; Eric Willett, C sax; Thomas Sciarillo, B flat tenor sax and Ralph Roselle, and E flat baritone saxophone.

Its brass section consists of eight trumpeters, Peter Kostas, Alfred Cherin, Allan Bonhoff, Herbert Hauffer, Bernard Lindbaum, Robert Sneider, James Devaney and Shirley Kistner; three mellotone players, Pat Wilson, Phyllis Conklin, and Lois Swenson, Herbert Hahn and Earl Burrington; five trombonists, Warren Robst, Fred Kirms, Lyn Pederson; and a bass horn player, Roy Wager.

Although Belleville High School Orchestra does receive each year from four to six members from the grade schools who can already play an instrument, more than half have started studying their instruments after entering high school. Lessons here to be given before school in the mornings, noons, or after school.

Parents of grade school boys and girls are urged to encourage the choice of an instrument and lessons before students enter high school. Instrumental classes are not scheduled in the Belleville school system.

As it seemed impossible to arrange a complete orchestra rehearsal during the school periods, the entire orchestra has been rehearsing every Thursday after school. These extra rehearsals have proved helpful and the cooperation shown has led Mrs. Wagner to say that this year's group is one of the best with which she has worked.

BOARD AGAINST

neighbors who had attended the conference.

Martin stated that there was nothing to do with the property but lease it to the government since tearing it down would result in a gap being made on the property and leaving it to stand would mean deterioration. It said that neighbors of Seidler's who were present at the conference expressed the idea that they had bought, or were living, in homes guaranteed as residential homes and that they were absolutely against the proposed conversion.

Mayor Williams took no stand on the question merely stating that an exception in one case would necessarily have to be followed in another. Suggestion was made by Martin that the conversion be made, but only temporarily. Williams opposed this suggestion on the grounds that conversion when once made was seldom reverted to the original zone type. Stating that the double board meeting was solely for the purpose of conference, Williams refused vote taking, and arranged for another conference to be held when similar applications would be considered and Seidler's case would be decided upon.

"This advance seat sale," Harry Friedgut, general manager of the Symphony Society, says, "suggests, to those who have not already done so, immediate purchases of seats for any or all of the seven performances in which seventeen stars of the Metropolitan Opera and other distinguished artists of the world of music are to appear."

According to Mrs. Parker O. Griffith, president of the Symphony Society, rehearsals are also moving along at a fast pace.

In the Adult department is displayed a collection of miniature vases, the property of Mrs. Freda Yudin Tilkin, 114 Washington avenue. Interesting Dishes May Be Made of Variety Meats

THE tempting flavor of variety meats make them an important topic of conversation wherever good cooks gather. While liver and chicken giblets are old favorites, there is cookery magic to be made with kidney, tongue, sweetbreads, heart, ox-tail, brains and tripe.

Here are recipes for variety meats.

Brains with Scrambled Eggs

Prepare by soaking brains in cold water. Remove the membrane. Simmer for 15 minutes in water to which 1 tsp. salt and 1 tbsp. lemon juice or vinegar has been added for each quart of water. Drain and drop into cold water. The acid helps to keep them white. Break into small pieces and scramble with eggs.

Virginia Beef Tongue

1 fresh beef tongue 1 lb. whole
1 cup brown sugar or 1/2 cup 1/2 lemon sliced molasses 1 cup stewed molasses

Scrub tongue and simmer in water to cover until tender, 3 to 4 hours. Remove skin and trim root end. To 1 cup of liquid in which tongue was cooked, add remaining ingredients. Simmer tongue in mixture 15 minutes. Serves 6.

Baked Calf or Lamb Tongue with Vegetables

1 calf tongue or 1 lb. sliced raw veal tongue 1/2 cup sliced raw vegetables (onion, celery, carrots, potatoes, green pepper)

1 cup fat

Cover with water, bring to the boiling point, and simmer for about

Kidney DeLuxe

4 kidneys per person 2 medium sized onions, cubed
2 tsp. butter Salt
1 bouillon cube 2 tsp. flour
2 or 2 1/2 tsp. cooking sherry

Brown sliced onions in butter, not crisp. Add kidneys quartered 4 to a portion. Simmer until brown, then cover. Total cooking time 20 minutes. Last 10 minutes add 1 bouillon cube to liquor, and 2 tsp. flour to thicken gravy, and 2 or 3 tsp. Sherry added just before serving adds to flavor. Sprinkle generously with chopped parsley.

Broiled Lamb or Veal Kidneys

4 kidneys per person 4 tsp. French dressing
1/2 lb. melted butter 1/2 lb. sliced bacon

Wash kidneys and remove outer membrane. Split through center and remove fat and heavy veins. Marinate 1 hour in French dressing or brush with melted butter. Put the split kidney onto skewer to hold flat. Broil about 5 minutes on each side. Each half of kidney may be wrapped in bacon for broiling, or may be arranged alternately with bacon and tomato quarters on the skewers for broiling.

Hillside Park Nine Beats Valley A.C. in Opening Game

The Hillside Park ball club pounded the Valley A. C. team 10 to 1, on Sunday, at Kidde Field. It was the opening game for both nines.

Service Bureau Gives Graphic Picture of Rehabilitation

This is a series of three case stories in which the work of a family agency in a war emergency is illustrated.

Year in and year out, in prosperous times and during depressions, the Community Service Bureau helps people to make more satisfactory adjustments to life. In so doing it is serving the community and the nation because the strength of a democracy depends upon the well-being of the individual and the family.

THE CASE OF HARRY TRINGLE

Because of the importance of production now, the Community Service Bureau has chosen for the first of a series of articles on the agency's work, a case work story which shows how an embittered, defiant man was helped to become a skillful, interested worker in a great war plant.

The close connection which the work of the Community Service Bureau has with the war emergency is shown by the fact that of 65 cases handled during a recent month, 11—or one sixth—involved family problems which directly or indirectly affected the work efficiency of 13 defense workers.

On the basis of a 48 hour week, this group represents 2683 man hours a month. These figures give strong proof of how important is the job of your Community Chest agencies in meeting the needs of the Harry Tringles.

A fascinating example has just come to light from the files of the Community Service Bureau. The story is told here now because as said in the foreword it has an important bearing on one of our most pressing national problems. Waste manpower is bad enough at any time, but now when the fate of mankind hangs in the balance, waste manpower is little short of a crime.

Harry Tringle was no angel by any standards. Whether you examine his police record of burglaries and petty thievery, or whether you listen to his neighbors discuss his morals, you can leap easily to the same conclusion. The young man would certainly come to grief, and probably cause a lot of trouble before he was through.

Harry lived with a drunkard of an uncle and a harridan of an aunt in a squalid tenement in a poverty-stricken neighborhood. His companions were hoodlums. His schooling was a record of trips to the principal for punishments which ended inevitably in expulsion.

Molly Moehler's parents knew all about Harry. Naturally, they hit the ceiling when they learned that their daughter was "going steady" with him. They had a pretty good case, too. They cited everything they knew about him, and much that they imagined. They expressed their stark unbelief that any good girl would be seen with such an individual. And they ended on a clearcut ultimatum: "If you see that Harry Tringle once more, we're through with you."

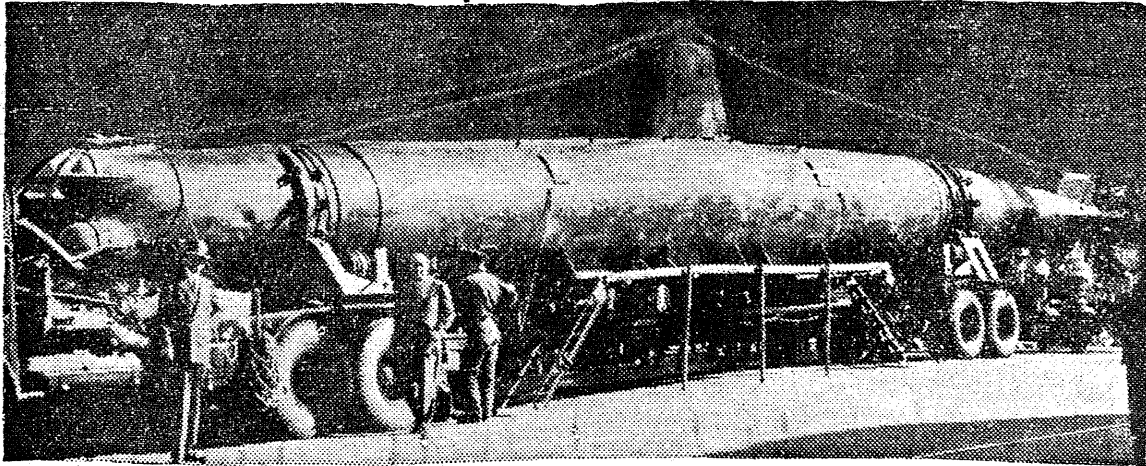

So Molly and Harry were married.

All Right For a While

For a little while matters weren't too serious. Molly had a job of sorts. Harry did his best, getting part-time work when he could, and doing odd jobs occasionally. But his court record kept cropping up, as court records do, and he'd be out of a job again. When Molly could no longer cope with the fact that she was going to have a baby, their shaky economy crashed.

That was when the Community Service Bureau met them. Harry and his wife marched into the agency office one day and demanded help. Harry did all the talking, except when the interviewing worker asked Molly a direct question. And Harry's tone was blustering. He wanted this and he wanted that, and the impression he gave was that assistance was coming to him as a sort of divine right.

Capture More With War Bonds

America's first trophy captured after the attack on Pearl Harbor—the Japanese two-man suicide submarine will pass through Belleville and Nutley at 8:30 Wednesday morning on its nationwide War Bond tour for the U. S. Treasury Department.

The submarine is mounted on a tractor-trailer, 94 feet long and will be exhibited in Newark at Military Park on Tuesday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

The nation wide tour of the submarine started Navy Day, October 27, from San Francisco and has been as effective in its stimulation of War Bond and Stamp sales as the submarine was supposed to have been in its attack on Pearl Harbor.

The submarine, after its capture was taken apart at Pearl Harbor by the U. S. Navy for study and photographs were taken and blueprints made of its many parts. The submarine was then shipped to the Mare Island Navy Yard at San Francisco and put back together. Portholes were cut in both sides of the hull and folding steps and catwalks put on so that the public might view the interior. The only means of entrance is through a 15½ inch opening atop the conning tower.

The only requirement for the viewing of this submarine at close range is the purchase of War Savings Bonds or Stamps.

Bank before coming to Belleville. Plans for his future occupation are undecided.

Mr. Miller is a member of St. Peter's church. He and Mrs. Miller are the parents of five children. He served with the Merchant Marine during the last world war and was overseas three months.

Daughters Of America Will Nominate Officers At Meeting

Good American Council, Daughters of America, will meet Tuesday evening in V. F. W. hall on Belleville avenue. Mrs. Mamie Kimble, councillor, will preside and introduce committee heads for reports. Balloting for candidates for the spring election will also be held. Arrangements will also be made for the initiation of new members and committees will

Come to ~ Church for Easter Services

To our Easter prayer this April, will be added a very special prayer for America's legions of men and women in uniform. For those at their parents' sides in the Church of their faith—for those far from home, in flying ships, on ammunition-spouting decks and on battlefields around the world! May Victory quickly be theirs, and may they soon return to enjoy to the full that democratic way of life for which they fight! For their sakes—and for our own spiritual security, let us all go to Church this Easter!

End Of An Official Honor Roll

This week a fourth honor roll was unveiled in town, to do honor to those who in the service of their country. This is a fitting tribute to our servicemen and women who have subscribed to the projects of patriotic gesture.

However, it seems that the town could have concerted the efforts which have gone into these four separate enterprises by having one official town honor roll in their place. Most communities in the surrounding area have chosen a well-located site for the display of these boards which can be added to as the draft quotas and volunteers increase.

Added Respect For The Flag

While on patriotic subjects, we are passing along the observation which has been repeated to us now several times, that respect for the American flag is not only demonstrated as well as it could be, in public gatherings.

With the freedom of Americans, we don't run the danger of being arrested or shot, if we fail to snap to attention and doff our hats when the flag is paraded in review. We don't have to yell "Heil Hitler!" nor are we even obliged to be in attendance at these public affairs, if we don't feel so inclined.

The very lack of coercion and our freedom of choice are some of the things for which we are fighting. Yet many of us

Remember Why We Fight

The increasing number of men returning with tales of their experiences on battlefronts around the world is continually bringing the war and its full meaning more strongly home to all of us. Approximately 10 percent of Belleville's population is already serving in the armed forces. This is equal to the number called in World War I. From now on, the draft calls which will be increased, will generally more seriously disrupt established home lives and businesses.

Before summer ends, the local board will be filling quotas with "dads."

This war is a grim business in which we are still taking just these things too much for granted. Far from any intentional slight, we nevertheless do not present a very patriotic picture when fedoras and derbys can still be seen resting comfortably on their accustomed place even when a third and fourth flag passes in review.

Outward demonstration of patriotism on occasions of this kind are just as important in their own way as weekly purchases of war bonds and stamps. When patriotism is wholeheartedly displayed in public gatherings it gives a cohesion to the groups participating. It sharpens a feeling that there is a collective purpose and active awareness of the fight for all the things of which the flag is a symbol.

will all have sacrificed much before we again enjoy peace-time living. We should not, in our preoccupation with the complexities of new conditions, lose sight of the reason for the fight. The four freedoms — from want and fear, of religion and speech include the right of free men to have a voice in their government. It is incongruous that we in New Jersey who are fighting the battle on so many fronts, should here at home tolerate the action of the state senate in refusing us a referendum on the advisability of revising the state constitution.

The 16 points a week made available in this way can be used to purchase any or all the rationed meats, fats and cheeses. Dealers are permitted to make change with one-point red stamps.

The price of live poultry at retail is approximately five cents a pound less than the prices above.

Print butter, 99-cent score: (four one-quarter pound prints) 57 cents a pound (Quarter-pound print: 15 cents). f delivered by route man, 58 cents a pound.

Grade A, extra large: 55 cents a dozen; Grade A, large: 53 cents a dozen; Grade B, 51 cents a dozen.

THE 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

Winner Take All!

There is one stark and simple fact about war which you had better get straight . . . and quickly, too
THERE IS NO SECOND PLACE IN A WAR—IT'S EITHER WIN OR LOSE!

This war is being fought for tremendous stakes . . .

...for your life and your liberty.

...for your church and your children.

...for your freedom and your future.

And it's WINNER TAKE ALL. Don't forget that for a minute.

The winner will dictate whether tomorrow you shall be a free citizen of a free world, or a helpless serf to a "master race."

The winner will dictate whether you shall live and prosper under the Four Freedoms, or toil hopelessly in the darkness of a "New Order."

The winner will dictate . . . because the winner takes all.

The winner takes all. All you own, all you hold dear.

The winner is being decided right now . . . today . . . this very minute . . . on battlefields all over the world. Will you stand idly by . . . or throw all your weight on our side?

The weight of mighty tanks and planes. The weight of thousands of guns and millions of shells. The weight of billions of dollars . . . 13 billions which your country asks you to lend during this Drive.

Your country wants to borrow every idle dollar you have—every dollar except what you need for the barest necessities of life.

You'll have to give up some luxury or comfort which was dear to your heart. You'll have to postpone some pleasure which you had been eagerly anticipating.

But what of it?

Your sons and brothers and husbands are dying out there . . . fighting your fight. Surely it is no sacrifice to lend your dollars while they are giving their lives.

They need your help. They need the weapons your money can buy. If one of the War Loan volunteers calls on you . . . greet him with open pocket-book. Remember, Uncle Sam's goal is 13 billion dollars in April.

Don't wait to be asked. Go to your nearest bank, investment dealer, broker, Post Office or issuing agency and lay your money on the line. Remember, it's an investment you're making—an investment that pays a good return and insures a happier future for you and your loved ones.

So lend up to the limit.

You'll sleep better for it.

"Probation After Death" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday. The Christian Science Churches and Societies.

The Golden Text is: "God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave; for he shall receive me."

Among the Lesson-Sermon citations is the following from the Bible: "The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance; and of my cup, thou maintainest my lot."
The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "In the illusion of death, mortal wake to the knowledge of two facts: 1) that they are not dead; 2) that they have passed the portals of a new belief. Truth works out the nothingness of error in just these ways."
