Receive Plaque For School Service

RECEIVING RECOGNITION for the twelfth consecutive year and ninth time winners are the safety patrol boys of school No. 7 who are being presented with a plaque by Officer Harry Scott of the local police department, for having tied with school one for first place during the current year. Members of the group include back row, Stuart White, Robert Seiler, Lt. Robert Cassin, Officer Scott, Eugene Dassing, and Edward Skribner; front row, Walter Bennett, Stanley Adamick, Charles Zimmer, Stephen Cordasco, Captain Harold Coppla, and Lawrence Landry.

School Seven Gets Safety Patrol Award Once More

The safety Patrol of school No. 7 was awarded a plaque at their final assembly on Tuesday morning by Officer Scott of the Belleville Police Department, in trying with school No. 1 for first place during the current school year.

This is the twelfth consecutive year that school No. 7 Safety patrol has received recognition for efficiency in the performance of duty.

The safety patrol is a group made up of boys who work around the schools, to decrease accidents under the supervision of the police force. The boys wear Sam Brown belts when on duty, although their job does not include traffic duty. They do not halt cars and they don't stand in the street. This is the work of the regular policeman on duty at the business intersection. The job of the patrol boys is to see that youngsters do not cross intersections while going to and from school, when cars are nearby. They also include among their duties, keeping pupils from darting across the street between blocks. Pupils in the schools respect safety patrol boys as much as they do the police officers.

When the safety patrol goes off duty in the mornings, they may be seen lined up in front of each school for inspection by the patrolman on duty and tips on safety.

WILLIAMS STILL SAYS GOOD IDEA

Will Present Suggestions
Of Motor Fines To
League In Fall

In a letter to Mayor Williams Monday, state Motor Vehicle commissioner Magee vetoed a previous suggestion of the Mayor's that all fines collected from motor vehicle violations be retained by the municipality instead of being turned over to the state.

Stating that "there might be a tendency to over-zealousness in law enforcement," if the Mayor's suggestion were carried out, Magee emphasized the fact that the state did not receive all the money for motor vehicle violations anyway. In all cases, stated Magee, except in those where complaints are made by state department enforcement officers, the money is forwarded to the county in which the municipality is located. "Money received by the county from such fines is used extensively for road repairs."

Magee's letter was in answer to a suggestion by the Mayor last week that a revision be made in the policy which turns all monies collected from motor vehicle cases over to the state. The Mayor contended that the municipality should receive a share of those fines.

Williams did not agree with Magee's view that there might be a tendency towards over-zealousness, and said instead that there is a laxness in motor vehicle enforcement because of the present system under which fines collected are now distributed.

Town Has All Risk
According to Williams, a municipality bears all the risk attendant to apprehending violators, and the cost charge of a violation is small in comparison to the actual

SCHOOL BOARD GRANTS RAISES

Teachers Are Given $50, $100
And $200 Increases;
Dufford Gets Bonus

Harold Dufford, acting principal of the High school was awarded a $1200 bonus by the board of education at its meeting Monday night. The board acting on a recommendation from the teacher's committee, voted Dufford the bonus for work which he has done since he took the place of Principal Hugh Kittle when he was commissioned in the Navy last fall. Dufford will remain at his present job until September 1, when John Bent Powers of Port Jervis, N. Y., will come to Belleville as general supervisor, and will include Dufford's work in his job.

The board also granted raises ranging from $50 to $100 to a majority of the local teachers. Fifty dollar increases went to staff members employed a year while $100 increases went to those employed more than a year. Several special class instructors received $200 increases. No increases for principals, members of the clerical staff or other school employees were voted upon although board president Herbert Schmutz said that raises for such personnel would be considered at a future meeting. Teachers who have not yet returned their contracts for the coming year were not considered in the raises although they may be, when they return signed contracts, according to Schmutz.

Similar $50 and $100 raises were voted by the board last year and became effective last September. This action was taken on recommendation of teachers by the teacher's committee. In November a five per cent cost of living bonus with a $100 minimum was also received by the teachers.

The board also announced appointment of Mrs. Mary W. Sheldon, former member of the board, to the position of domestic science teacher in the high school at $1800, along with the appointment of Jerome R. Bonavita of 90 Heckle street as physical education instructor at $1200 annually. Bonavita will fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of A. K. McBride. Herman Wische, has been the only physical education instructor in the High school since McBride left. Bonavita is a Belleville High school graduate and a graduate of the Panzer college of Physical Education in East Orange.

At the meeting the board also accepted the resignations of Miss Estelle K. Kestner, and Miss Ruth H. Buchanan, teachers.

Health Dept. Warns Against Swimming In The Passaic River

The Department of Health wishes to warn citizens of the dangers of swimming in polluted streams during the next few months. It has been proven that the Second, Third, and Passaic Rivers bordering Town, are polluted with raw sewage and are dangerous to the public health.

Anyone swimming or coming in contact with the water from these streams may develop typhoid, dysentery, and other infectious diseases.

A typhoid epidemic or severe outbreak of dysentery at this time would undoubtedly impede the war effort and would throw added and unnecessary burdens on depleted corps of overworked physicians who are available to care for the health of the civilian population.

Seeing Eye Dog At Last Gets Needed Ration Points

A meat ration to the extent of 144 points was issued yesterday by the food panel of the local board to Queen, seeing-eye dog and escort of Miss Mae Livingston of 22 Howard place. Miss Livingston travels daily to a defense job in a West New York industry which she has done since last fall.

Points from the family ration books have had to be shared with Queen since rationing began. The dog's quota of meat for good health is a pound a day according to original feeding instructions of the Seeing Eye Institute.

Appeals had to be made by the local board to state and federal authorities last spring when Miss Livingston first appealed for a ration for the dog. When ration was secured by a Newark man recently for his dog Miss Livingston again contacted the board with the foregoing result.

FIRST AIDERS ARE BIG HELP

Function With Ambulance Corps
On All Plans, Incidents,
And Joint Meetings

Lawrence B. McCloskey, chief of the Ambulance Corps, has announced the resignation of Captain Theodore Cherry of the corps due to the burden of other work. Cherry was a captain in the corps for casualty station one at school No. 1. Miss Anita Spenceley Hood of 120 Rutgers street has been appointed captain in his place.

The appointment of Kathleen Tague as a first lieutenant attached to casualty station one has also been announced. Ex-captain Cherry will continue with ambulance work as a member of the corps however, but resigned as captain because he felt that he would not do justice to the job since he is so busy otherwise.

Will Hold Picnic
On July 11, or on July 18 in case of rain, the corps will hold a picnic and rally at Kals Grove and Tavern at 116 Harrison street, Nutley. This location has been selected for the picnic because the No. 13 and 28 buses run close by and it will not be necessary to use gas to get there. Tickets will be on sale June 23. All ambulance corps members, first aiders, and civilian defense personnel are invited to attend the picnic at which food and refreshments will be served, and a program of baseball and other activities will be held.

Because of a misunderstanding on the part of some, the ambulance corps hastens to explain that they function entirely with the aid of, and as a group with, the first aiders. A great part of the work of the ambulance corps is done solely with the help of first aiders who are an integral part of the ambulance corps and help to keep it in a working condition.

The incident tests which the ambulance corps has announced will be strictly improvised tests and will be carried out through the cooperation of the first aiders. Many plans and suggestions are originated at joint meetings held with first aiders and the ambulance corps.

The idea for the incident tests to be held by the corps was originated from this type of joint meeting held at casualty station one in Zone 1, under the direction of zone superintendent Reock, first aid captain Hopkins, and Ambulance Captain Spenceley-Hood. The details of the plan now

Draft Board Wants New Typist

Due to the resignation of Mrs. Elizabeth McGrangahan from the Draft board staff, the services of an experienced typist are now needed. The position is full time and applicants are asked to call at the offices of the board on the second floor of the town hall to discuss hours and salary. Mrs. McGrangahan who lives at 19 M. street and a nurse resigned Tuesday after a year's service with the board. She is leaving her present position to take one as private secretary with a war industry here. The draft board staff gave a farewell party for her Thursday evening at Frank Dailey's Terrace 10 m. Several friends were also present at the party.

MAYOR URGES REGISTRATION FOR WAR JOBS

Local Industries Call For 527
Additional Workers Through Employment Center

Declaring women war workers are urgently needed to replace men who have been called into the armed forces and to fill the jobs of others who have been transferred to new fields in the war effort, Mayor Williams in a proclamation today urged "every Belleville resident, who is not already employed in war work but who is in a position to accept a war job, to do so at once."

Recruitment of war workers is proceeding at the Belleville Employment center, 156 Washington avenue, which is operating under the auspices of the War Manpower Commission and the United States Employment Service in cooperation with the Belleville Manufacturers Association.

Operations at the employment center are highlighting the town's "Get A War Job Campaign," with a goal of 527 new war workers. Free placement service in local war industries is being supplied by the USDS, and of the WMC. The local campaign is part of the general recruitment drive in Essex, Hudson and Union counties, under the supervision of Major Howard J. Lepper, WMC area director. Applicants are referred directly to war plants or to vocational schools or training centers for pre-employment courses.

Major Lepper, Mayor Williams, and representatives of the Belleville Manufacturers Association have conducted a series of conferences on means of speeding up recruitment of war workers.

The drive in Belleville and throughout the area is designed to meet the increasing demands of war plants here for more workers to keep war production at peak, and to prevent designation of the territory as a "critical area" by WMC. The latter would prohibit additional war contracts in the area and would compel nearly all firms whether in war work or not, to operate on a six day week.

Cpl. John F. Verian

RECEIVES PURPLE HEART AWARD

Cpl. Verian Gets Decoration
For Action In Africa; Says
"Wasn't Much"

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Verian of 128 Washington avenue that their son, Cpl. John F. Verian had received the "Order of the Purple Heart." Cpl. Verian has been in the army since June 5, 1942 and has been stationed in Africa since December.

Seven weeks ago the Verians received a letter from their son, saying that he had been decorated because "I couldn't keep my nose out of other people's business." This was the first indication the Verians received, that their son had been honored. Anxious to know the particulars, they asked him to explain why he had been decorated and in the last letter which they received from him, he stated that he had been wounded in action and had received the Purple Heart.

The Verians had received a letter late in January which told them that John had been hit in the leg by flying shrapnel and was in the hospital. But according to the family, it was only a slight wound, because he was out again and told them that he was doing M. P. duty in the city and had taken part in the "final affair" in Africa, "in which the Germans were cleaned up."

The Verians are not sure yet, why John was decorated, except that it was for some action of his. Cpl. Verian stated in his last letter that "What I did, wasn't much." The Verians are proud of their son, but more than that they are glad that he has recovered from his wound and is back on duty.

Cpl. Verian was graduated from St. Peter's and from St. Benedict's prep school. He was employed by the C. O. Two Company in Newark, prior to entering the army.

First Concert Town Talent Combining Well Done

"Artistic, Civic And Financial Success" According To
This Reviewer

From Second Row, Center

From the opening strains of the national anthem to the thrilling closing numbers sung by the combined choirs, the concert at the high school last Friday evening can well be termed an artistic, civic and financial success.

The financial success, under the able leadership of Miss Alice Wagner, did itself proud, for they played with vigor and excellent intonation. The Kid Quartet sang several of the old favorite songs as well as a parody for comic relief.

Trumpet soloist Peter Koustas, high school student, displayed much agility on his instrument, greatly to the delight of his fellow students in the orchestra pit.

The appeal which spirituals have for an audience was demonstrated when the Edwards Gospel Singers offered three of them. Harold Salters, one of their number, virtually carried the piano at times to get a soft, background effect.

An audible gasp went through the audience when the curtains opened to disclose 112 singers grouped upon the stage, all in choir robes. It is hard for a seasoned musician to believe that they had only three rehearsals together, for they knew their parts, watched the conductor and sang with beauty of tone and sincere enthusiasm. The bulk of credit must go, of course, to Thomas A. Haney who drilled and directed them, though individual choir leaders also deserve mention for the groundwork they laid in working with their separate choirs.

Explained Foundation

Following a brief intermission, Harry G. Specht, the guiding light of the Foundation and organizer of the concert, took the platform to explain the basic idea of the entire Foundation. Mr. Specht then introduced Mayor Williams who ascended the platform with

PRICE ASSISTANTS READY FOR WORK

Volunteers Will Distribute Placards, Bulletin Prior To Price Check

Mrs. Marjorie Windrow, of the OPA, speaking at a meeting of the price panel of the Belleville war price and ration board on Friday, announced that price assistants would begin distribution of circulars and notices to stores and would gather data on price ceilings this week.

Because price ceilings have been published and the price panel is ready to go ahead and check ceilings, according to Mrs. Windrow, who said that the Belleville war price and ration board had "the best set-up of any board in this area."

To price volunteers who were present at the meeting, Mrs. Windrow distributed Group I placards which are to be given out to most stores in this vicinity also soap bulletins and new butter and egg prices. The placards apply to the dollars and cents volume which the store does in a year. The chain stores are outside of this group out corresponding placards for stores in the Group II and Group III range have not yet been received. The price volunteers who distribute the material will carry letters of identification with them. The placards must be put up in all stores within a few days, and then the volunteers are asked to check the stores again. According to Mrs. Windrow, the "price assistants are to the stores what air raid wardens are to civilians."

Eventually these price assistants will handle complaints and when they do, they will report first to the panel chairman who will decide whether the complaint should be referred to the state OPA or not.

Volunteers From Both Towns

Ralph M. Allaire of Belleville is chairman of the price panel and his volunteers are block leaders from both Nutley and Belleville. Since there are approximately 75 stores to be checked in Belleville and a like amount in Nutley, there will be about 15 volunteers distributing bulletins and checkings on the prices.

A special meeting of the price panel will be held by Allaire prior to the compliance check taken by the volunteers. In the compliance check volunteers will be supplied with mimeographed price lists which they will use to check against prices. Since it is impossible to do all stores in one day, Mrs. Windrow suggested that different categories be checked every week, and a few stores checked every day.

Prior to the distribution of material, price assistants met with Allaire for an explanation of which category the stores they are to supervise are in.

The newly set-up price panel was organized in an effort to keep the black market from gaining ground and to make stores comply with fixed prices so that there will be little or no variance among stores in the same group.

Contract Goes To Gallo Sons For Construction Of Main Street

Thomas Gallo and sons were awarded a contract by the town Tuesday night for construction work on the second part of Main street, having submitted the lowest bid for the work. Other bids came from Joseph Nest for $53,154.45, Thomas Petrosello for $51,003, Gray Carniciale for $54,582.70, Dunester for $54,589.20 and Gallo's bid which was $46,941.45.

Walter Kidde turned over four tracts of which they had no need to the town of Belleville to aid in the straightening of Main street. The tracts were located on Greylock avenue. Public Service was also given permission to set two poles along the curb in front of the property at 221-225 Main street, which was owned by the town.

Work is now progressing on Main street so that the road, which it is a part may be open to traffic particularly trucks.

GARDEN APT. VOTE IS DELAYED FOR THREE WEEKS

Discussion By Board And Opposition Results In Proposed Ordinance Passage

Maintaining that it was solely to give everyone a chance to register the opposition at a public meeting, an ordinance was passed on first reading by the board of commissioners Tuesday night changing a B residence zone to a C zone, at the request of Greylock Gardens Incorporated, who are seeking approval to erect a 108-family garden type apartment on the west side of Washington avenue adjacent to Hillsdale park.

The action taken by the board was the result of a meeting held by the zone board and the board of commissioners last Thursday night, in which the zoning board stated that it would take no stand on the question since it did not have the jurisdiction to do so. Discussion on the part of the commissioners signified that they were all in favor of having the ordinance passed and advertised so that all those who were for or opposed to the erection of the apartment might have a chance to appear before the commissioners and voice their sentiments.

Wait For Discussion

It was suggested by Commissioner Noll that the vote for or against the project be taken at Tuesday night's meeting since the commissioners had been present at the Thursday meeting with the zone board, and had doubtless decided already how they would vote. Commissioner Water maintained that he was not ready to vote and wanted to give everyone a chance to speak and find out what the project was about. It was the opinion of Commissioner King that the project be discussed at Tuesday night's meeting since neighboring residents were present.

Commissioners Noll and Water in agreeing to pass the ordinance on first reading, stated that they would make it clear to the citizen who were present at the meeting that a first vote in favor of the project, did not mean that the would continue to vote that way when the ordinance comes up for second and third reading in three weeks.

Greylock Gardens Inc., is headed by A. A. LaFontaine of Hackensack, with S. M. Stelford as president. Stelford, representing the builders said he wanted a chance to place his case before the board with jurisdiction over the matter. Stating that "I want our day in court," Stelford said he did not see why he had been asked to air the case before the zoning board when it had jurisdiction over the matter, why he had appeared before the board of commissioners when the we're not ready to hear the case and vote on it.

TRUCK OPERATORS HEAR ODT RULES

Meet Tonight To Attempt
Combined Deliveries, Interpret
Regulations

Faced with ODT revocation of their certificates of war necessity if they do not comply with recent rulings on reduction and curtailment of deliveries, truck owners and operators will meet tonight for an interpretation of the ODT rules by James J. Johnston, district manager of the Newark area.

The meeting has been called for 8 o'clock in town hall by Norman Lauterette, local ODT administrator, who has arranged a forum or question and answer session, in which all uncertainties among truck owners and operators may be cleared up.

The certificate of war necessity which is a permit issued by ODT allowing operation of certain trucks for the duration, can be revoked for violation of ODT regulations. Letters have been sent to 277 owners and operators of retail businesses, contractors and industries, informing them of the meeting, at which a pooling of retail deliveries will be attempted under present conditions, fresh meats and vegetables may be delivered only three times weekly and non-perishable food deliveries are restricted to two deliveries. Elimination of all retail deliveries of alcoholic beverages, beer and wines, and ice cream and commodities not listed are restricted to a bi-weekly schedule.

ODT orders 17 and 23, and amendment 3 to order 17 will be discussed in an effort to help retailers and others continue as much service to their customers as possible, and still observe the regulations.

If Hitler wins, the issue for you will be living itself and not just the cost of living. Think that over and figure it out for yourself how much beyond 10 percent of your family income you should put into War Bonds every payday.

Figure It Out Yourself. How can you effectively join in saving all the little children of the world from human slavery, death and injury from the Nazis and Japanese? Put more and more of your pay into war bonds every payday. Your savings will go to war in the form of war equipment and other munitions. How much more should you put into war bonds? The only ones who can answer that are—you and your family. It's up to you to decide just how much more you'll do to win the war.

If you were fighting in the Solomons or in Africa or forcing a landing in Europe you'd like to feel that the folks at home were back of you—all the way—you'd be proud of your family and your friends if you knew they were buying war bonds not at 10 per cent or 15 per cent, but with every cent beyond that which they need for necessities.

being used, were worked out by Gotfried Johnson, co-chairman of the health and first aid committee in conjunction with McCloskey. The first in a series of improvised tests was held at casualty station two, last Thursday night. Although the first aiders and the ambulance corps were short-handed, they managed their incidents and victims, proficiently, and the plan of tests was voted a success. The second in the series will be held at casualty station one on June 24.

No vehicles are used doing the improvised tests because of the gas shortage. The tests may be discontinued when regular incident tests are resumed by the Defense Council.

expense borne by the town police and court. It was suggested by Williams that a portion of the money be placed in police and fire pension funds, which have great need of financial aid. "If police knew," stated Williams, "that they would benefit indirectly from penalties imposed, there might be less 'hickety' killing."

If the law were to be amended, eliminating the financing of county road repairs, other taxation would still be necessary, according to Magee's statement. He said that any change in the present set-up would have to come through the legislature.

Maintaining that the actual return to municipalities by road repair was small in comparison to the total receipts of motor vehicle fines, Williams stated that his suggestion for a readjustment of the present policy would be presented by him to the New Jersey State League of Municipalities when it convenes in the fall.

EXPLANATORY SUMMARY OF THE CURRENT TAX PAYMENT ACT OF 1943 AS IT EFFECTS YOUR PAY CHECK

The new "Pay As You Go" income tax law becomes effective July 1, 1943 and among other things it requires that income taxes be withheld from salaries and wages paid with respect to payroll periods beginning on or after July 1, 1943.

It is the joint responsibility of the Employer and the Employee to see that the "Employees Withholding Exemption Certificate" (Form W4) is made out by the Employee and filed with the Employer with sufficient information regarding your personal status, that is whether you are married or single, and the number of dependents receiving chief support from you who are either under 18 years of age or incapable of self support because mentally or physically defective. The Withholding Tax Form W4 is the declaration of your "status" made over your signature, and enables your Employer to classify you in one of the 5 classes set up in the table set forth below, and assures you of the correct amount to be withheld by your Employer. The money withheld is not kept by your Employer, but is turned over to the United States Treasury. It is your money, and stands to your credit as a prepayment of your Federal Income and Victory Tax. After the close of the year or if your employment is terminated your Employer will give you a receipt showing exactly how much of your money has gone to the United States Treasury toward the payment of your taxes. Keep that receipt. It is your evidence of tax paid.

Family Status Withholding Exemption
Payroll period	Single person	Married person claiming whole of personal exemption for withholding or head of family	Married person claiming half of personal exemption for withholding	Married person claiming none of personal exemption for withholding	Each dependent, other than the first dependent in the case of the head of a family
Weekly	$12	$24	$12	0	$6
Biweekly	$24	$52	$26	0	$13
Semi-monthly	$26	$52	$26	0	$13
Monthly	$52	$104	$52	0	$26

Where a husband and wife are both employed, each may claim one half of the withholding exemption allowed to married persons, or they may agree to allow one to claim all of the withholding exemption and the other claim none of it. The withholding exemption for dependents will be allowed only to the person who furnishes the chief support.

PAY ROLL WITHHOLDING TAX TABLE -- FOR A WEEKLY PAY PERIOD

Ray Smith was chief judge for the race, and John McIntyre was the referee. Competing teams entered in the race were the All American Wheelmen, the Belleville Bicycle club, the German Bicycle Sports club, the Hartford Cycle club, and the triangle club.

The Belleville Bicycle club is the only club in New Jersey and the largest club in the East. They have nine men in service and have been winning races left and right ever since the racing season began. Entries for the next race have not yet been decided upon.

Three Sergeants In Marines Miss Sight Of Their Newborn Infants

From somewhere in the South Pacific comes the tale of three marine sergeants in an air unit there who now have additional reasons for wanting to get the war over in hurry. Each has recently become a father but none of them has yet seen his child.

Voted luckiest of the group was First Sergeant Clinton E. Webb of Connecticut, whose daughter was born two weeks before he sailed from the United States. Webb was privileged to hear his daughter "squeal" over the telephone from Bridgeport, 3,000 miles away. He has also received wife.

The less fortunate of the group included Master Technical Sergeant, Glennon A. Johnston of Kansas City, Mo., and master technical sergeant, now second lieutenant, William L. Streeter of 59 Parkside drive, Belleville. Streeter was given a furlough to go home and pace the floor while his daughter was being born, but it expired before she arrived. Two days later he sailed and was then notified that he was a papa.

Master technical sergeant Johnston's daughter was born 18 days before he left the United States but he had to be content with his wife's descriptions by mail.

All the men want to get home as quickly as possible and get introduced to their children.

The other officers of the chapter include Moe Rubinfeld, of Berkeley S & L Ass'n, Newark, vice-president; Miss Roe V. Miller of City S & L Ass'n, Elizabeth, treasurer; Miss Marie Knuth of N. J. S. & L. League, Newark, secretary.

Newly elected members of the board of governors include Sidney A. Browne and Miss Ruth I. Dwyer of Belleville, Miss Ethel Quirk of Montclair, and Herbert C. Smith of Elizabeth.

Stelford was agreeable to the suggestion that the ordinance be passed on first reading and be heard in three weeks, but had no answer to give when Commissioner King reminded him that timeliness had been an important factor of the case when it was heard on Thursday.

Williams Favors Erection

The tract on which the apartment was to be developed was formerly a part of the Volkening Estate, which owned it for a number of years. Mayor Williams supported the apartment on Thursday night's meeting, stating that the development would be an economic asset to the community. Since only $2,000 is now received for the vacant land, Williams said that between $6,000 and $7,000 would be paid if apartments were erected with the possibility that additional units erected by the builders would total $12,000 in annual tax return.

Williams favored the project also as a relief from the housing shortage which is now predominant in Belleville.

Robert C. Gruhin, Jersey City attorney, who lives at 125 Bremond street, represented residents of the proposed apartment, 20 of whom had signed a petition opposing the erection of the building at Thursday's meeting. Gruhin said that it would be "too fast a growth for municipal facilities," stressing the fact that school facilities would be overburdened, and the class of people attracted to the building might not be satisfactory to neighbors.

Gruhin stated that the project as a wartime measure might prove detrimental to the community in the post war period.

Residents Object

At Tuesday's meeting Gruhin stated that he expected action by the board since the zoning board has refused to take any action at all, and in so doing, Gruhin construed that they had taken a negative attitude towards the project. He voiced objection to the proposed ordinance because it only gave those residents living within 100 feet a chance to protest, but Commissioner King maintained that he was willing to let anyone come and protest regardless of the distance they were from the proposed building.

The discussion meeting by both groups, those opposed to the project and those for it, is scheduled for July 13, and anyone interested in voicing an opinion may come to the meeting. The board of commissioners, representatives for Greylock Gardens incorporation, and Gruhin as counsel for the opposed will all be present, at which time, a vote by the board of commissioners will be taken.

Proclamation

Whereas, in furtherance of the war effort and for the purpose of achieving the most effective utilization of the services of labor, the Belleville Employment Center has been opened for the recruitment of war workers at 136 Washington Avenue, Belleville, New Jersey, under the auspices of the War Manpower Commission and the United States Employment Service in cooperation with the Belleville Manufacturers Association, and

Whereas, there is urgent need for war workers to replace men called into the armed services and to take the places of others who are needed in other fields of the war effort, and

Whereas, persons recruited at the Belleville Employment Center can be put to work in Belleville War Industries, and others, some perhaps in non-essential industries, can be trained at their convenience in schools that will fit them for war jobs, and

Whereas, our country is currently engaged in a war which we are going to win, but for which we must supply all the manpower and womanpower required to meet the needs of our industries so that our armed forces will be adequately equipped and supplied, and

Whereas, this is an excellent opportunity for the Town of Belleville to demonstrate further its loyalty and patriotism, now

Therefore, I, Wm. H. Williams, Mayor of the Town of Belleville, in the County of Essex, and the State of New Jersey, do hereby proclaim from this date to July 31st. as "Get A War Job" period, and I do hereby urge every resident of the Town of Belleville to cooperate wholeheartedly and patriotically in this important phase of the war effort.

Our Soldiers, Sailors, Marines and Coast Guardsmen are fighting for us. It is our duty to see that they have the guns, tanks, the planes and the ships they need.

I urge every Belleville resident, who is not already employed in war work but who is in a position to accept a war job, to do so at once.

Given under my hand
This 24th day of June A.D.

American Legion Auxiliary Will Hold Special Meeting

A special meeting of American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 105, will be held Monday night at 8 in the Recreation House. The balance of the officers for the 1943-44 season will be elected at that time. Elected two weeks ago were Mrs. Laura Congleton, president; Mrs. Frederick Fraass, second vice-president; Mrs. Joseph J. Huemer, treasurer; Mrs. William P. Adams, chaplain and Mrs. Arthur Christie, historian. Nominated for the remaining offices of first vice-president and sergeant-at-arms were Mrs. Peter Johnston and Mrs. Harry Fredericks who were not present at that meeting.

The retiring president, Mrs. William Labaugh, was elected Monday night to head Essex salon No. 8 of the Eight and Forty during the coming year. Mrs. Charles C. Hoffman, also a past president of the local auxiliary, was voted sergeant-at-arms in that organization. Yearly convention of the Eight and Forty units will be held in Newark on August 27.

Following the special session Monday night at the Recreation House surgical dressings will be made, a weekly assignment carried out by the auxiliary.

Pvt. Ernest Caruso, son of Pasquale Caruso of 672 Belleville avenue, has returned to his station at Ft. Dix after spending a furlough with his family. Pvt. Caruso has been in the army for two years. During this time he has been in many various camps. He completed his basic training at Camp Wheeler, Ga., and then joined the infantry at Ft. Benning, Ga., making his next stop at Camp Gordon, Ga. In April of this year Caruso was sent to Ft. Dix and is now stationed there. Pvt. Caruso has two brothers in service. Henry, one brother, is stationed at Chanute Field, Ill., and his other brother Louis, was just recently inducted.

One of our every two families have at least two workers. Figure it out yourself how much beyond 10 percent of your family income you can put into War Bonds every payday.

TAKE NOTICE that Anthony Roselle, trading as McGee's Tavern, has applied to the Excise Board of Belleville, N. J., for a Plenary Retail Consumption license for premises situated at 46 Harrison Street, Belleville, N. J. Objections, if any, should be made immediately in writing to: Florence R. Morry, Municipal Clerk of Belleville, N. J.

Closing For One Week

At the close of business on Saturday, July 3rd, we will cease operations for one week, opening our plant and operating our routes again on Monday, July 12th. The purpose is two-fold:

- 1—To give our employees a much needed vacation.
- 2—To place our equipment in good condition for the months ahead.

Most of our girls are working long and hard hours every week, and some men six days every week, plus two or three nights, to give you service. They NEED some rest and relaxation, and we feel it is best to close for one full week, rather than spread vacations over the summer and give you poor service as a result.

Our equipment needs attention so that we may continue to render the best possible service under present war conditions.

We ask your cooperation in this move—please plan ahead for your laundry needs. THANK YOU!

BOY SCOUTS HOLD MONTHLY MEETING

Discuss Camp Mohican, Fall Camporee And Camp Carragher Progress

A general discussion on attendance by Belleville troops at Scout camp Mohican this summer was held at a regular monthly meeting of scouts at Boy Scout headquarters, 338 Washington avenue, Tuesday night, when District commissioner John S. Charlton presided. Twenty-seven boys have enrolled for 58 weeks attendance and, although this number is almost as great as the total attendance of Belleville scouts at Mohican last year, Charlton pointed that more registrations would be sought. The goal set is 25 per cent of each troop. The greater number of boys present the better, even though each scout may be unable to spend more than a week at camp, according to Charlton.

Some camp scholarships are provided through the individual troops. Seventeen boys of Troop 388 of Christ Episcopal Church are enrolled and among these are several scholarships where part of the expense will be paid by the troop. This troop, which initiated fat collections by boy scouts here, raised some of the money for camping while carrying out that project. Robert Bartholomew is scoutmaster.

Bartholomew reported Tuesday evening on the meeting of Green Bar men held last week. A report on vital statistics in Belleville boy scouting was also given and shows the largest enrollment here in local scouting history. However, under Henry Minisian, advancement chairman, plans will soon be under way to set up the machinery for more rank advancement within the troops and to secure the enrollment from decreasing.

Pack 350 One of Largest

One hundred and twelve boys are members of Cub pack 350, which came in for its share of discussion Tuesday night, making it one of the largest and most outstanding packs in the country. This outsize troop presents problems of its own because of the large enrollment and institutions to sponsor at least one more pack will be sought. Harold Ross is cubmaster of the troop which has its headquarters at Fawcett Memorial church. Howard McEaster, chairman of organization, education and extension of cubs and scouts, will head plans to form another pack. The cub goal here is 150 and three packs will be needed for efficient organization. Neighborhood scout commissioners will work with McEaster to secure sponsorship and leadership.

Report on work at Camp Carragher was also made. A storm sewer and drains are being installed there with the cooperation of the department of public works. The camp, under the direction of Edward J. Lister of the town recreation department, is being restored and refurbished by scouts who will share it with other youngsters in the town. Permission to use the grounds must be obtained from Lister by scouts as well as others. Construction there is at present under Charlton's supervision but will be directed after July 1 by Robert Meyer, troop committeeman of Troop 306 at Montgomery Presbyterian church. Scouts wishing to aid the improvements there may contact Mr. Meyer for schedule and work hours.

Meyer was appointed chairman of the annual fall camporee of Belleville scouts which will be held on October 1, 2 and 3. If it can be secured for that purpose the Municipal stadium will be the site of the camporee. Robert Sutherland and Lindley Graves of the commissioner's staff and troop committeeman Bert Stanley of Troop 338 and Robert Lloyd of Troop 306 will make up the camporee committee. Charlton will be an ex-officio member.

Charlton will leave for Camp Mohican at Blairstown next week where he will be director of troop program and activities and scoutmaster of the mountaineer troop during July and August.

bidder at public sale as announced by Mayor Williams.

The town also voted to refund $400 to the Construction and Renting corporation, which had made that sum as a down payment for 42-51 Hornblower avenue, block 124, lot 1, and 58-60 Hornblower avenue. The refund was made because the corporation was not able to construct the houses it wished there due to a shortage of priorities.

Closing For One Week

At the close of business on Saturday, July 3rd, we will cease operations for one week, opening our plant and operating our routes again on Monday, July 12th. The purpose is two-fold:

- 1—To give our employees a much needed vacation.
- 2—To place our equipment in good condition for the months ahead.

Most of our girls are working long and hard hours every week, and some men six days every week, plus two or three nights, to give you service. They NEED some rest and relaxation, and we feel it is best to close for one full week, rather than spread vacations over the summer and give you poor service as a result.

Our equipment needs attention so that we may continue to render the best possible service under present war conditions.

We ask your cooperation in this move—please plan ahead for your laundry needs. THANK YOU!

OPA Is "Frankenstein" To Hartley Who Would Kill It

Congressman Introduced Bill Now Under Discussion On Floor Of Senate

The bill providing for the abolition of the OPA introduced by Congressman Fred A. Hartley, representative from the 10th Congressional district, was a result of his investigation of the activities of executive agencies, as a member of a special Congressional committee.

Now under discussion on the Senate floor, and labeled H.R. 2889, it would amend the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 by stripping the OPA of powers over food, oil and housing and providing for its liquidation.

Hartley, in introducing the amendment on June 7, called the OPA a "Frankenstein." He declared, "This fumbling, glowering monster is stumbling through our economy, charged with protecting it against inflation, but in actuality, creating conditions that will destroy it." The amendment also provides for the establishment of an Office of Civilian Supply.

"During the last few weeks, the Special Committee to Investigate Activities of Executive Agencies, of which I am a member, has been reviewing the manner in which the Office of Price Administration has exercised the powers granted to it by the Congress. I am sorry to report that we have found a deplorable situation. Most every one is in general familiar with the ineptitude of OPA. They are aware that it has failed to carry out the functions that the Congress intended. They are also aware that in its operation the Office of Price Administration has undertaken activities never intended by the Congress when it passed the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. But I doubt if they realize in detail how far OPA has departed from the purposes for which it was created.

"I speak today not as official spokesman of our Committee, but in my individual capacity as a member of this House. I have become so horrified by the administrative incompetence and misdirection of the OPA that I propose to do something definite and concrete about it.

"This is not a matter to be taken lightly. In my capacity as a member of the Special Committee, I have heard evidence which would convince even the most doubtful that in OPA we have created a Frankenstein. This fumbling, glowering monster is stumbling through our economy, charged with protecting it against inflation, but in actuality creating conditions that will destroy it.

Just Bungling

"In place of competent administration, we have bungling. In place of decisive action we have boondoggling. Where we need careful analysis, we find snap judgment. Where we need personal training in the field they administer, we find theorists. In the place of intelligent planning, we find lofty discussion. In place of cooperation, we find ineptitude. In place of performance, we get an administrative muscle dance.

"And yet in the hands of this stumbling, theorizing, blundering, wishful thinking machine, we have placed powerful controls which it has abused and perverted.

"In my opinion, it is time the Congress took some action to dismantle this Frankenstein before it has done further damage. The Congress, in writing the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, recognized the possibility that the agency would not function properly when it bestowed upon the President the power to transfer from the OPA authority over particular commodities to other agencies of the Government having functions related to such a commodity. Unfortunately, the President, who has many weighty problems requiring his attention, has not utilized this authority.

Time For Action

"I propose that the Congress itself take action along this line. I am therefore introducing a bill to amend the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, which would place the powers so woefully abused by OPA in other departments of the Government where they actually belong. Under this bill, the President is directed to solve the food mess by transferring the powers and functions exercised by OPA with respect to food and food products to the Office of War Food Administration. We thought we would assure the people of this country a balanced diet. Instead of that, they get OPA hash.

"The bill would direct the President to put oil and petroleum control where it belongs—in the Office of the Petroleum Administrator for War. Petroleum Administrator Ickes has done a magnificent job with the tremendously complicated matter of production of oil and its multitude of vital war products. He has within the limitations of the supply available, overcome formidable obstacles of transportation. But when it comes to the distribution of petroleum products to civilian consumers, we run into the same old mess of OPA-ism. Our trouble can be laid squarely on the doorstep of divided authority and it is time that this House ended this division.

"With respect to rents, this bill would transfer rent control to the National Housing Agency where it belongs. We can have a sound and just system of rent control, and we should have it, but we will never get it from the boondoggle department of OPA. OPA powers and functions other than those concerned with food and petroleum under the bill would go to the Office of Civilian Requirements of the War Production Board and the OPA Frankenstein would be liquidated at once.

"We can never win the war on the fighting front if we let incompetence in government administration defeat us on the home front. The people of this country are fed up with OPA-ism. They are willing to make war-time sacrifices, but they are not willing to continue to provide 130,000,000 guinea pigs for the Professors in the Office of Price Administration. I urge that price control be made a fact and not a fancy. This bill would go a long way toward winning the battle on the home front by placing the job where it belongs.

JR. RED CROSS REPORTS ON WORK

Took Part In Sewing, Victory Book, Scrap, And Bond Campaigns

Mrs. William H. Williams, chairman of the Junior Red Cross, has received a letter from Mrs. Armita Schaumburg, Junior Red Cross correspondent for the North Atlantic Area, reading in part as follows:

"According to report made by Mr. McDonald after his visit to your chapter, you have things well in hand and we congratulate you. We are very much interested in the progress in Belleville, and shall anticipate continued good results next school term."

At the regular monthly meeting held at the Headquarters on Monday evening, Mrs. Williams read a report of the Junior Red Cross activities in School No. 10, which is a representative report for all schools.

According to Mrs. Williams "Since January, our Junior Red Cross activity has been largely concentrated on sewing. Although we have only one sewing machine, we all work together on an assembly line procedure. Each girl specializes in cutting, folding, pinning, finishing, etc. The part we enjoy most is our turn at the sewing machine. In this way we have made twenty-four hot water bag covers and twenty-seven boy's nightshirts during our club period on Wednesday afternoon and after school hours.

"Because of the scarcity of wool, we conducted a scrap campaign, and collected enough to knit three afghans. With yarn supplied by the Red Cross, we have finished six army helmets.

"The Victory Book Campaign met with enthusiastic response from all of Number Ten. Excitement ran high to meet classroom goals. We still continue to turn in Readers' Digests and pocket editions.

"All our members took a very active part in the scrap metal drive and we have continued each week to boost defense stamp and bond sales. We feel we have completed a very successful year, not only in service rendered, work accomplished, skills mastered but also from a financial standpoint, for we are very proud at this time to turn over an excess of eight dollars from the club treasury." This report was made by Jacqueline Chiappari and Joan Buffardi, school representatives, under the direction of Miss Margaret Patton, Faculty Advisor.

Get A War Job Now

The "Get a War Job" campaign opened in Belleville last week by the War Manpower Commission in cooperation with the Belleville Manufacturers' association. It confronts every available and able-bodied man and woman in town. Local plants are in need of 527 additional workers to keep their war production at a pace which is vital to victory.

There are many residents not now in essential industries who could take advantage of the services offered by the War Manpower Commission and the United States Employment Service. They could help the war effort now, and at the same time gain valuable knowledge in a trade that would be a life-long asset.

For the U. S. E. S. with its trained personnel, seeks to place each individual in the kind of job for which he or she is best suited, both by temperament and skill. Although not all jobs require training courses, many of them do, and the hours of the courses are fixed for the convenience of those now working in non-essential positions. Some of the local plants give their own instruction in addition to that available, at nearby vocational schools—all of which is free of charge.

It is necessary that the quota be met to avoid placing Belleville in a critical area—one in which the Manpower Commission is forced to put most firms on a six day week, thus eliminating some employees in civilian work so that they will take recourse to defense jobs. This is a challenge to the community which we are sure will be met for the maintenance of Belleville's splendid war production record.

Belleville's Army Navy E Record

Belleville's record in the number of Army-Navy E awards granted to local industries for excellence in production shows up well in relation to the fact that less than four percent of the firms throughout the country holding government war contracts have received the coveted award.

Belleville has more than an average proportion of industries for a town its size and four or ten percent of them have already received the Army-Navy badge of merit. Willard and Tiernan, Thomson Machine and Eastern Tool with the parent plant in Bloomfield and Ferguson Motor Transportation company, subcontractor to Frederick Nare corporation of Newark are all on the favored list.

Not to be regarded lightly, the private investigation sometimes takes six months to complete. Exhaustive, it takes into consideration such factors as safety, state, governmental and social security records, credit, delivery of goods in relation to promises made, quality of work, and labor relations. In addition, all of the customers of the concern under investigation are also queried by district inspectors. Results are forwarded to the war and Navy departments in Washington which select those concerns best qualified.

Investigation for the award is usually instigated by the government branch under which the firm is working and reports are sometimes turned back more than once for more complete records on various phases of operation. A reinvestigation is made at the end of each succeeding six months to verify maintenance of standards for which the award was made. Then a new pennant bearing a star for each six month period is awarded the plant that lives up to the Army-Navy standards.

His war job is to see to it that tools, machines, parts and raw materials are kept flowing into the nation's war factories on time.

Next time you call Long Distance, and the operator reports all circuits busy, see if you can do without that particular call.

Every call that can be avoided or given up, especially if it is to a war-busy center in the South and Mid-west, helps to clear the lines for urgent calls.

GIRL SCOUTS HAVE CAMP PROGRAM

Registration For Summer Camping In South Mountain Must Be Made Before Sunday

The Belleville Girl Scout council has announced the plan for a six week camping season at the Girl Scout cabin in South Mountain Reservation, starting July 5. The camp will be open for a seven day period Monday to Monday, under the supervision of the camp director, Miss Virginia Charleston. Her two assistants will be Misses Betty and Jean Goode. All three are from West Virginia. All Girl Scout activities will be included in the camping program with the exception of swimming.

Since the accommodations are limited, girls may sign for a seven day period only. All scouts are asked to put in their applications as soon as possible so that if there is any room left, other girls may also take part in the program.

The camping dates will run from July 5 to 12, 12 to 19, 19 to 26, and July 26 to August 2. From August 2 to 9 and from August 9 to 16.

All camping periods are for the intermediate Scouts with the exception of the weeks July 19 to 26 and August 2 to 9, when the Brownies will take over. Subjects for each week comprise "Howdy do everybody" on Monday, "Sling-a-lin-a-lin" on Tuesday, "A Winding Road" on Wednesday, "A blazing Campfire" on Thursday, "Girl Scout Friends of You" on Friday, "Kamp Kapers" on Saturday, and "Scouts Own" on Sunday.

Free transportation will be provided to and from camp, leaving for camp at 9 a.m. on Monday morning and leaving from camp at 8 a.m. the next Monday. The rate is $3. For one week plus 10 red ration points and 12 blue points, and a cup of sugar for each person for seven days. The registration fee of $2 is payable when registering but will be applied on the week's board. All registration must be completed by June 20. After this date registration of non-scouts will be accepted. The coupons and balance of the board must be paid on Friday preceding the registered week. The Girl Scout headquarters will be open for this purpose Fridays from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

It has been suggested that Scouts who plan to camp bring three to five blankets, a sheet, pillow, warm pajamas, rubbers, raincoat, three towels, a face towel, dish towel, and bath towel; a wash cloth, a bathing suit, flashlight, play suits or slacks, (no halters), a dress for church, two pairs of shoes, (no sandals), a heavy sweater, a toothbrush, and a scout uniform, if one is available.

Every camper who plans to partake of this program must present a health certificate signed by a doctor, who she enters camp, the examination to have been made the preceding week.

All Scouts are eligible to join the camping program and should make registration before Sunday so that non-scouts have a chance to register.

YOUR VICTORY GARDEN

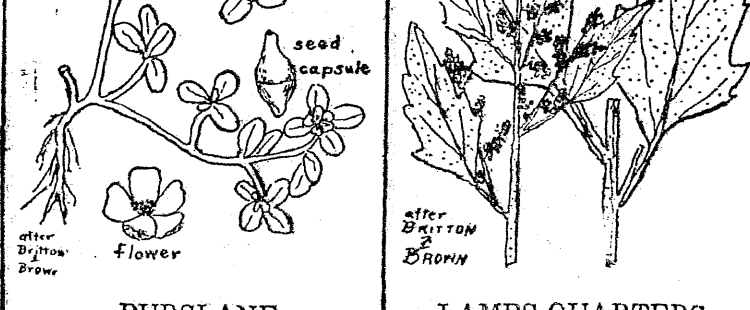

Mid-June In The Garden

By Dr. Charles H. Connors, N. J. College of Agriculture

Continuous Cropping: Some Common Weeds. By Dr. Charles H. Connors, N. J. College of Agriculture.

This is about the last date for succession plantings of sweet corn in the central part of New Jersey or in places where killing frosts are apt to occur by September 25. This refers to varieties requiring 90 days to mature. For those who desire continuous cropping, sowing seeds of beets, carrots, turnips, snap beans and looseleaf lettuce may still be made.

If seeds of cabbage, broccoli, cauliflower, celery and Brussels sprouts were sown in a seed-bed, these should now be transplanted.

SOME COMMON WEEDS YOU SHOULD KNOW

to flats or to a well prepared place in the garden, or thinned out in the seed-bed to stand two inches apart. Keep these young plants well cultivated and weeded so they will have the best opportunity to continue in growth, as a check at this stage may result in poor plants to go into their final positions. Use a little starter solution (one teaspoonful of Victory Garden fertilizer in 12 quarts of water, about one cupful of this mixture to a foot of row) to water the plants as they need it and give them a little stimulant.

Keep systematically after the insects Mexican bean beetles will ruin a row of beans in a few days unless they are sprayed or dusted regularly. Aphids or plant lice should be kept under control as they increase very rapidly. The larvae of the Colorado potato beetle may now be feeding voraciously upon potato, tomato and eggplant. Calcium arsenate is a good material for this type of chewing insect.

It is safe to use this material on the cabbage worm, but on broccoli, Brussels sprouts and cauliflower it is safer to use rotenone dust.

Weeds You Should Know
Since many persons are gardening for the first time, weeds, the competitors of the vegetables, may be unknown. To identify these weeds, a few of the more common ones are described and illustrated.

Purslane—You have heard the expression "meaner'n pusley." Purslane is indeed a pesky annual weed. It is smooth, has thick, fleshy stems and leaves, the stems with a reddish cast of color. The flowers are small and yellow, opening for a few hours in the morning. The plant radiates from a central root. It is pesky, because, if after you hoe them out there should come a rain, the plants will root again. Purslane, related to Portulaca of the garden, is edible and may be cooked like spinach as a "greens." This weed was introduced from Europe.

Lambs-quarters—This is a relative of beet and spinach, and is often cooked as a pot herb, especially in the late spring when young plants can be gathered. It is also called Pigweed and White Goosefoot. It is generally of a pale green color, growing to a height, finally, of 18 to 24 inches. The stems may be ridged almost to the appearance of a square in cross-section and may be purplish when mature. The leaves are pale green on the upper surface and whitely beneath. The leaves often have purple blisters, the result of insect injury. The whole plant has a silvery appearance. It is a native of Europe and Asia, and probably came to America as an impurity in seeds.

DEFENSE HEADS ASK FOR CHECKUP

Telephone, Dimout, Signal Violations Becoming More Apparent

Recent surveys conducted by the State Defense Council indicated that the public have forgotten that they are not to use their telephones during air raid alerts. The local defense council has received notice from the state that a rise in telephone traffic during recent tests was noted particularly in Belleville.

Defense officials immediately issued an appeal to the citizens to stop all calls during alert periods, stressing the fact that the efficiency of the defense force was imperiled when the public overloaded the local telephone exchange during a raid.

During the emergency period, phone lines are needed to direct the defense equipment and personnel used in protecting the public. Public misuse of the telephone is a direct menace to the safety of all citizens. The local control center through which all raid directions come and go, is dependent entirely upon free telephone wires.

Council officials also issued three reminders to the public, pertinent to the blue signal, the summer dim-out regulations and automobile headlights. It was noted that the blue signal was sounded in order to give people a chance to get to shelter before the red signal sounded. In many cases, teenagers children remain on the street loitering when the blue signal sounds. This is annoying to wardens, and it has been suggested that parents tell children to start for home when they hear the blue signal, in order that this condition may be cleared up.

Although council officials noted that much lassitude has been given householders for summer dim-out, they stressed the fact that the source of light in any dwelling must not be visible from any point, on the outside of the building. According to Harry Sullivan, many householders have not yet taken the advice of state director Dreyfuss, that they check on their own homes for violations before the wardens come around. Public cooperation is asked in clearing up this situation.

Officials also advised a general check-up of auto headlights. It was noted that many headlights had begun to crack and flake off so that their dim-out value was no longer in accordance with the army regulation. General repainting was stressed to keep headlight dimmed out to conform with the law.

Adelphi Players Plan Fall Program During Summer

At a recent meeting of the Adelphi Players of the Grace Baptist church the group decided to work throughout the summer months in preparation for their fall production which will take place during September.

Under the direction of Mrs. Lorena Clark and Rev. Marshall Whitehead, the dramatic organization plans an active season. The tentative program includes appropriate dramas for the religious holidays and two or more secular plays.

New officers were elected at this meeting. Mrs. Sonya Medlens, president, Miss Allene Schenck, vice-president, Mrs. Naomi Miller, secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Buckley, treasurer and Miss Ruth Hogan, chaplain. Mrs. Medlens succeeds Miss Edna Hogan.

BEETS AND CARROTS IN JARS

By Mrs. Margaret C. Shepard, Essex County Home Demonstration Agent.

Although it is considered more economical of jar space to store beets and carrots in a root cellar, any small carrots and beets thinned out at this time of the gardening season will furnish tender products for canning and freezing now.

Cut off the beet and carrot tops (and don't forget that beet tops cooked and served hot with a little butter are a treat for the family dinner table), leaving at least one inch of stem on each root. If you have a much as one bushel (60 pounds) of beets, you will be able to fill 22 quart jars.

Preparing the Vegetables

Scrub the vegetables thoroughly with a bush and then pre-cook the whole beets for 10 minutes in boiling water. Boil the carrots for five minutes to loosen the skins and heat them through. Pour off the cooking water, but save that from the carrots to cover them in the jars.

As you peel the carrots and beets, removing the roots and stems, grade them for size so that the contents of each jar will be uniform. Although the vegetables may be cut into slices, cubes, or strips, the greatest amount of food value will be retained if they are canned whole. Pack the vegetables firmly into the hot jars to within one-half inch of the top, add one teaspoon of salt to every quart, and cover with boiling liquid. One bushel of carrots weighs 50 pounds and will fill only 20 quarts. Some homemakers like to add two tablespoons of vinegar to each quart of beets to sharpen the flavor along with enough boiling water to cover.

Remove air bubbles by running a knife down the side of the jar. Seal the jars according to the manufacturer's directions. Those with two piece tops should be sealed tightly, but three piece tops and zinc tops are only partly tightened. The bail is left up on the lightning type jars.

It is preferable to process the jars in a pressure cooker at 10 pounds pressure for 30 minutes when pint jars are used, and 35 minutes for quart jars. However, it is possible to do the processing in a hot water bath for 90 minutes. Remember, though, that any non-acid vegetables processed in a hot water bath must be boiled 10 minutes before serving them.

At the end of the processing period, seal those jars requiring it, let them cool out of a draft, and store them in a cool, dry, dark place.

Freezing Beets

Young and tender beets of the Detroit Dark Red and Crosby varieties are considered suitable for freezing. Cut off all but one inch of the top and boil the small ones (up to 1 1/2 inches in diameter) for two and one-half minutes; larger beets should be boiled until tender. Cool the beets to room temperature in ice cold water, and then peel them. Slice into moisture-vapor-proof containers and seal. Freeze quickly at minus 10 degrees Fahrenheit.

Frozen Carrots

Nantes and Chantenay carrots are preferred varieties for freezing. Scrape small, young carrots and then cut them into 1/4-inch slices. Blanch the pieces in boiling water for three minutes. Cool quickly to room temperature in ice cold water and then pack into moisture-vapor-proof containers. Seal. Freeze at minus 10 degrees Fahrenheit immediately.

Stained Hands

Both of these vegetables leave brown stains on milady's hands. Do you remember that rubbing them with lemon rind or lemon juice will banish these stains?

“...and you’ll always have tobacco in your old tobacco box!”

When I was a kid my father used to sing a song that ended up with this refrain:

“Oh, save up your money and put it in your sox
And you’ll always have tobacco in your old tobacco box!”

Well, the words stuck with me, but I guess the moral didn’t.

No matter how hard I tried... no matter how many good resolutions I made... I always ended up even. If I made more money, I spent more money. Finally, I resigned myself to it—sold myself the idea that I was the kind of fellow who never could save up any money.

But it’s all different now!

About ten months ago, I started buying War Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan. Figured it was the least I could do for Uncle Sam... to be kicking in my 10% every month to help pay for the ways and means of licking the Axis.

That’s the only way I thought about it... until just recently!

Now, all of a sudden, I’ve discovered that—for the first time in the history of Yours Truly—I’m saving dough. Every month, rain-or-shine, hell-or-high-water, I’m sticking away a War Bond, a bond that’ll bring me back $4.00 for every $3.00 I put in.

Those Bonds are beginning to mount up now. And I’m going to keep them mounting up. For I’ve discovered what a swell feeling it is to be saving money... saving it on a plan that’s regular as clockwork and twice as sure.

About the time those Bonds start coming due, my kid’ll be ready for college. So you can guess what I’m going to do with the money.

And maybe I’ll sing my father’s song to myself... only changing it a little:

“Oh, save up your War Bonds and put them in your sox
And you’ll always have tobacco in your old tobacco box.”
