

PRE-WAR FATHERS ARE STILL WAITING FOR "DER TAG"

Yanked From Today's Group; Still Chance For Transfer To Essential Work

No pre-Pearl Harbor fathers, except volunteers, those in non-deferable industry and those not living in family relations with their children, are included in the contingent of selectees who left Belleville this morning for physical examinations prior to induction.

This was learned yesterday when John P. Dailey, chairman of the local draft board, announced that Belleville will be 15 short of its quota today.

He indicated that the board members are extremely reluctant to put pre-Pearl Harbor fathers into khaki except as a last resort and only after every other effort to meet the quota has failed.

All men who were fathers before December 7, 1941, have had and still have an opportunity to transfer into essential war industry and those who fail to make the change will receive first consideration for call when other sources have been exhausted.

He also pointed out that the failure of a father to "give in family relationship with his children" precludes his consideration as deferable in this category.

Today's contingent includes three volunteers, all pre-war fathers. All other peacetime fathers were pulled out of the group before it left the town.

Dailey said he had been hoping that the induction of the present group of selectees might be deferred until after Christmas. The state selective service headquarters decided that only those slated for call December 24, 25 and 26 will be allowed to spend Christmas with their families.

Belleville's contingent must report for final induction December 23. The November selectees had to leave only two days before Thanksgiving.

While Dailey announced no figure for the January call, it is expected that it will be considerably higher than recent quotas. Many boards have already been notified that their quota will be doubled in January.

It was observed Tuesday, the third anniversary of the first little band of draftees to leave Belleville, that the local board is one of the very few in the country still operating with the original three members.

Besides Dailey, the others on the board are Herbert Hardman and John Gannon.

Director King To Seek Raises For Police And Firemen

Firemen and police will be in for a raise if the commission approves an ordinance which Public Safety Director King is ready for introduction, probably at the next meeting of the board December 14.

King announced yesterday that he was acting in response to representations made by delegations from the two services who were following up promises made to them by the commissioners in 1941 in order to conciliate them when they threatened a referendum to gain $300 increases.

In 1942 they were given $100 raises and this year five percent "cost of living" bonuses. King's plans call for abandonment of the bonus and a supplemental increase of a straight $200.

The actual increase over the amounts received in 1943 will be small, King pointed out, since the bonuses amounted to nearly that total. The actual raise will be $50 to $80.

Cipperly, Wounded In Action, Returns To Duty

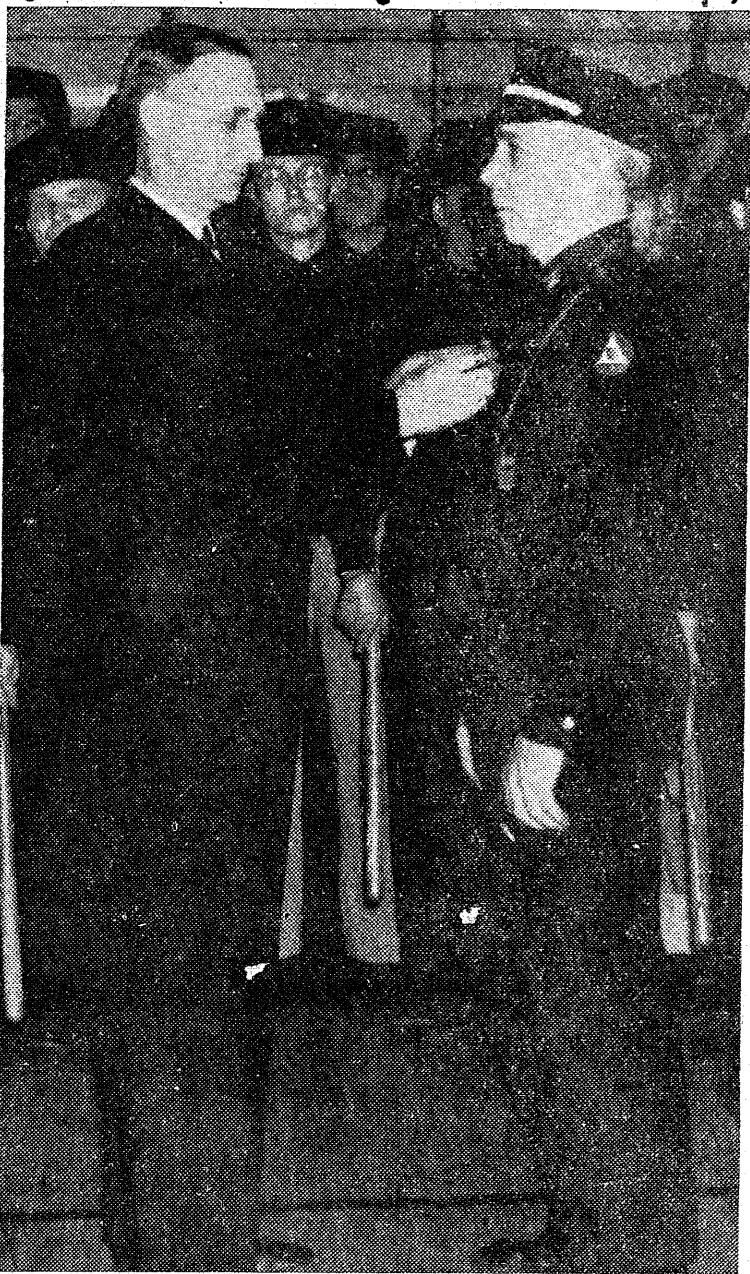

Technician 5th grade (equivalent to corporal) Arthur R. Cipperly, 35, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Cipperly of 178 Jorammon street, was listed in this week's War Department casualty roster as having been wounded in action in the Mediterranean area.

His mother said yesterday that Cipperly was injured September 21 and was released from the hospital 10 days later. He has returned to duty.

He entered the Army a year and a half ago and went overseas last June with an anti-aircraft unit. He was formerly employed with Wallace & Tiernan company.

At Feldman's Dept. Store, at 115 Washington Ave., Belleville. If the holder of Sales Check No. 641 dated Nov. 12, 1943, will phone or call — they will receive valuable information.

King Presents Police Reserve Badges

POLICE RESERVES RECEIVE BADGES

Commissioner King Distributes Insignia; Praises, Exhorts Auxiliary Officers

Distinctive badges of authority were issued to about 70 officers and men of the Belleville Police Reserves at the high school last Wednesday evening by Public Safety Director King.

In presenting these badges of office Commissioner King complimented the volunteer personnel of the auxiliary police for their fine display of civic duty and thanked them for the police work they are performing.

The Commissioner stated he was very much impressed with the fine appearance of the reservists and expressed the opinion that, with such a force to augment and assist the regular police, Belleville would continue to be "quite a safe place."

Commissioner King also pointed out that the new emblem, on which there is superimposed in colors the civilian defense auxiliary police insignia, should be worn with dignity, and he especially requested that all reserve officers be careful to uphold the honor and reputation of the department by being courteous at all times in their dealings with the public.

Schmutz Reply To Queries Fails To Appear Teachers

Citizens Hear School Head Discuss Charges Of Arrogance, Salaries And Recreation

"No" was the response to the question of whether or not many of their queries and complaints were answered satisfactorily last week when Herbert C. Schmutz, president of the board of education, appeared before the Citizens' Committee at the recreation house to reply to criticisms of the board.

That "vote" came after two hours of explaining and questioning in the stuffy, smoke-filled room at the meeting attended by many school teachers and other residents of Belleville.

During those two hours, Schmutz had gone over the board's closed conferences, the use of school buildings for recreation, the town's cost of education, teachers' salaries, Parent-Teacher associations, teaching contracts and the alleged "arrogance" of the board.

The two prime controversies of the meeting centered around the salary question, and the late mailing of contracts for the following year.

Before the meeting began, Harry F. Brumbach of 100 Little street, president of the association, promised the teachers present that they would be protected "by the full weight of the committee against any vindictive action either within or outside the school system" should they choose to make any statement or ask any question.

Schmutz began by discussing the closed conferences which the board of education holds before each regular meeting. He stated that no public business was transacted in the conferences, that their purpose was for the discussion of individual problems of students and teachers.

He indicated that the board must frequently consider problems of discipline and morality and the efficiency of certain teachers, things which, if publicized, would prove embarrassing to the subject. He denied flatly that the hiring or discharging of teachers was discussed in the conferences; and he offered to allow a small committee of the citizens group to attend one of the conferences.

Then, "I believe a statement was made that the board discourages the use of school buildings for recreation purposes and permits it only when paid for. Yes, that is so in some cases." Each department of the town government, he said, must "stand on its own financial feet." He indicated that only the town recreation department is charged for the use of the high school, "and that does not meet the cost."

LESLIE CHEDISTER RELEASED IN BAIL IN FRAUD CASE

Accused Of Cashing Checks Stolen From Mailboxes; Spatz Issues Warning

The arraignment of a Belleville youth for fraud presented Police Chief Spatz with the opportunity to warn citizens again yesterday to take care in receiving and cashing checks. He cautioned particularly about knowing the endorser of the checks.

Leslie Chedister, 22, of 27 Parkview avenue, charged with stealing checks from mail boxes and cashing them on his reputation around town, was released in $1,000 bail Saturday by Newark police. The previous Saturday Recorder Smith had held him here in the same amount of bail for action in the Newark officials. At that time Chedister pleaded guilty.

According to Detective Chief Elmer Leighton, who directed the action against the local man, Chedister had admitted stealing mail from boxes here and in Bloomfield, Newark and East Orange. He appropriated the checks which he found and discarded the other mail.

He is said to have signed his own name as indorser and then to have cashed at least 16 checks and five money orders totalling $500.

A former employee of the Atlantic & Pacific store here, he depended on his friendships to pass off the checks at the A&P, Reed's and Dryer's drug stores and the First National Bank. Money orders were cashed in Belleville and Newark.

The case was handled by Leighton and Detectives Holly, Mallack and McGinnis.

Spatz Warning
Warning that Christmas shopping helps check thieves to pass worthless checks on rushed shoppers, Spatz joined with Frank J. Wilson, chief of the U.S. Secret Service, Treasury department, and listed a few precautions to cut down check losses suffered by the public as a result of check forgeries.

More government checks will be issued this year than at any other time in history. The latest Treasury department figures indicate that more than 307 million individual checks will be issued by the government during the fiscal year.

Millions of these checks are issued to cover dependency payments to the families of men in the armed forces. With the continuing draft of fathers, most of the new inductees will have checks sent to their families to cover their support while the breadwinner is fighting his country's battles.

It is especially to protect these checks that the Secret Service is waging its "Know Your Endorser" drive against the forger who steals a soldier's pay.

Christmas Good Hunting
Chief Spatz warned that the Christmas season is always a busy one for the forger who takes advantage of busy stores to cash his stolen checks.

He pointed out that the Belleville Police department and the Secret Service urge those who receive checks to follow these four simple rules:

1. Be sure some member of the family is at home when checks are due to be delivered.
2. Print your name clearly on your mail box. Equip your mail box with a lock.

3. Cash your checks in the same place each month. This will make identification easier.
4. Do not endorse your check until you are in the presence of the person you will ask to cash it.

Message to Merchants
Upon the storekeepers and all others who cash checks, the police and the Secret Service wish to impress the following:

1. Before cashing any check, demand proper identification. Remember that lodge cards, social security cards, auto licenses, letters and the like also can be forged and stolen. A forger's credentials are often forgeries themselves. Proper identification can best be determined by asking yourself this question: "If this check is returned, can I find the person who gave it to me?"

2. Always demand that the person cashing the check endorse it in your presence. Even though the check has been endorsed in ink that he endorse it again.

3. Do not cash checks that show any alteration of their face. Altered checks are usually forged checks.

4. If you are an employer and more than one employee of yours is empowered to cash checks, be sure that accepted checks are initialed so that you can identify the person who accepts them.

5. You can safeguard your merchandise, your cash, and your profits from check forgers by following these simple rules every time you cash a check. Make these practices routine. Remember you lose if you cash a forged check.

Belleville, Nutley Patch Up Differences Meet On Gridiron After Fourteen Years

Dimout Over, Blackout Still Here, Brunner Warns Citizens

The dimout may be finished but air raid precautions are still in effect, Defense Coordinator Ronald G. Brunner warned Bellevillians yesterday.

He referred to the fact that, since dimout restrictions have been lifted, many persons are leaving their homes and places of business with lights burning.

"Air raid regulations stipulate that no one shall leave a light unattended," Brunner declared. "If lights are burning, there must be a resident, friend or business associate present to turn them out in case of an air raid alert."

"Blackouts, unlike dimouts, are not a thing of the past. They have passed into the hands of the Army, which may call a blackout at any time and without warning."

POLICE SEEK LUTZ IN WIFE STABBING

Wife Of Hornblower Ave. Man Reported Out Of Danger; Description Broadcast

Police departments of virtually the entire nation were still on the search last night for George Lutz of 165 Hornblower avenue who is wanted by the Kearny police for atrocious assault and battery with intent to kill.

The attack was made on Lutz's estranged wife, whose condition yesterday was reported as still serious even though she is now out of danger. According to police, Lutz met his wife late Thanksgiving night while she was returning from a movie in Kearny. He pleaded with her, attempting to effect a reconciliation.

When she spurned his advances, Lutz is said to have drawn a knife or other sharp instrument and stabbed her severely all over the body. He then fled in his car, a description of which has been broadcast all over neighboring states and several mid-western states.

Mrs. Lutz was treated in the West Hudson Hospital by Dr. William H. Goldstein of Arlington, who reported at least 12 wounds, the worst of which was in the left chest. Mrs. Lutz has been living with her sister, Mrs. Helen Robinson of 279 Schuyler avenue, Kearny, since the strangement, which is believed to have started two years ago, during which time Lutz has been living at the Hornblower avenue address. He is employed as a carpenter at the Federal Shipyards, Kearny.

In charge of the case are Detectives Hook and Perry of Kearny. Detective Chief Leighton of this town is directing the search here.

MUST ANSWER FOR FUNERAL FUNDS

Widow Sues Joseph Granese To Recover Contributions From Brother's Friends

The final local chapter in the Case of the Missing Funeral Funds is scheduled to take place in the police court Wednesday night when Recorder Everett B. Smith will announce his decision in the suit of Mrs. Tina Granese of Madison against her brother-in-law, Joseph Granese of 109 Newark avenue, this town.

The case, which appeared in the local court last Wednesday for the second time, is an outgrowth of the collection of funds from friends of the late Anthony Granese, who died August 30.

Because most of his life had been spent in Belleville and most of his friends live here, the funeral was held from the Newark avenue address. In keeping with the Italian custom, friends contributed a total of $1,432 to the family, which fund was placed in the hands of Joseph Granese for safekeeping.

Mrs. Granese's complaint is that the sum should be immediately turned over to her while the custodian claims that he intends to put it in an account for his brother's child.

The widow's official complaint, signed in court before Wednesday's hearing, alleges that Granese has fraudulently converted the money to his own use.

Judge Smith reserved decision, requesting both sides to file briefs. Meantime, the money has been placed in escrow, that is, neutral hands, pending the outcome of the dispute.

NEWTON STREETER PASSES AT 81

Civic Leader And Clubman Had Lived Here 60 Years; Headed Library Board

A lifetime of civic endeavor, more than a half-century of which was spent in the interest of community affairs of Belleville, ended Saturday morning with the sudden death of A. Newton Streeter of 151 Jorammon street.

Mr. Streeter not only watched but took an active part in the development of Belleville during the last 60 years. He moved here in 1883 at the age of 21.

Born in Clinton, he was employed with the freight forwarding department of the Erie Railroad at the time of his settlement here and for the next six decades became the Erie's most faithful competitor between here and New York.

He was also one of the oldest members of the New York Produce Exchange which he joined in 1885. Most of his life he was connected with Lunham and More, New York freight forwarders and brokers, until 12 years ago when he formed the firm of Hayes and Streeter from which he retired only a year ago.

Shortly after his arrival in Belleville he became an active member of Nereid Boat club, eventually becoming its secretary. He resigned due to the pressure of business in 1905 and was elected an honorary life member.

Helped Found B & L
In 1907 he was one of the organizers of the Central Building & Loan and was a member of the board of directors for the rest of his life. He had been vice president or the past ten years.

Mr. Streeter was also active in cycling circles as a young man. He was a member of the Belleville Wheelmen and was treasurer of the Belleville club when that organization purchased its clubhouse on the southeast corner of Washington avenue and Academy street about 40 years ago. The club burned down several years ago and the site is now occupied by Cliff's Diner.

Bur Mr. Streeter's principal contribution to the town was his service with the Public Library board. He was appointed a member in 1911 and served as president of the board of trustees from 1922 to 1933. He was also a member of the Belleville Lodge of the Royal Arcanum and of the Washington Irving Literary society of Newark.

He is survived by his son, Dwight N. Streeter of the Jorammon street address, a daughter, Mrs. A. Wilson Fullerton of Lawrence, Ky., and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Monday evening in the Irvine Funeral Home with Rev. Peter Deekenbach officiating and interment in the Bloomfield cemetery Tuesday morning.

Reassures Residents
Mayor Williams was the first to placate the citizens and he was greeted with cheers when he announced that the matter was in his department and that he would vote to keep the district restricted to single-family homes. Commissioners Noll, King and Mertz, in that order, also went on record as opposed. Commissioner Waters, ill at home, was not present.

At the meeting, the firm of A. M. Hart was reappointed to audit the town's books for 1943. Mayor Williams also announced that $100,000 in government bonds recently purchased by the town had been stored in the vault of the First National Bank.

Paper Salvage To Be Zoned And Collected Wednesdays

Brunner Outlines New Plan For Easing Labor Strain; Nutt Asks Support

Paper salvage collection in Belleville has been put on a zone basis, Defense Coordinator Ronald G. Brunner announced yesterday. The first collection under the new plan will take place next Wednesday when defense zone 2 will be visited.

The move was necessitated by the shortage of labor available to work on the collection, which is under the direction of Joseph Rosciniti of 36 Clinton street.

The calendar of collections calls for zones 1 and 5 to be canvassed on the first Wednesday of each month, zone 2 on the second Wednesday, zone 3 on the third and zone 4 on the fourth.

Charles Nutt, chairman of the paper drive, expressed a hope that Belleville householders will continue to support the effort and will surpass the monthly total of 30 tons for November.

He requested the citizens to bundle magazines and newspapers separately and to fold up cardboard cartons. Within the next week, Boy Scouts under the supervision of town District Commissioner John Charlton, will distribute to every Belleville home "hang-up" cards outlining the collection dates in each district.

The collection zones are the same as those outlined on the civilian defense map:

Zone Boundaries
Zone 1 is the southeast section of town, bordered by the Newark line, the Passaic river, Jorammon street and Union avenue.

Zone 2 is northwest and is bounded by the river, the Nutley line, Union avenue and Jorammon street.

Zone 3 is northwest running along Union avenue to Nutley and back along Jorammon street.

Zone 4 takes in the entire west-central part of town and is bounded by Union avenue, Jorammon street, the Bloomfield line, the old Morris canal and the Newark border.

Zone 5 takes in all of Silver Lake with the canal to the north, Bloomfield to the west and Newark to the southeast.

Deputy Director of Public Works Hugh Welsh, representing Commissioner Waters who was ill and did not attend the meeting, estimated that the names of the Belleville servicemen in three-fourths-inch letters would require a board 10 feet high and 50 feet long.

Two-Year Contract Signed Last Week For Games In '44 and '45; Maroons Hold Decided Edge In Series

After a lapse of fourteen years, during which agitation for resumption of relations has bubbled and sizzled from time to time, the high schools of Belleville and Nutley will meet again on the gridiron. The startling and unexpected announcement was made yesterday at high noon simultaneously by Herbert C. Schmutz, president of the board of education, and Edward Assmus, faculty director of athletics in Nutley. The statement revealed that a contract was signed last week pledging the schools to meet in 1944 and 1945. The first contest will be in the Park Oval, home field of the Nutley Maroons.

Schmutz was quick to disclaim credit for bringing about the reconciliation. It was due, he said, primarily to the work of the high school athletic council and other here and of similar officials in Nutley.

"It was in the air and had been for years," he said. He declared that the immediate conferences which brought about the games were the result of many informal conversations. Ruel Daniels met Coim Linn at a banquet and talked; Wayne R. Farmer chatted with someone else during a golf game.

Finally Daniels, Farmer, Harold Dufford, faculty manager here, visited Nutley officials and started to talk. The local athletic council authorized November 18 for Dufford to sign the contracts and Nutley placed its John Hancock on the paper a few days later.

Commission Bans Parking Lot
Invasion By Fairway Avenue Residents Evokes Promise; Hart Renamed Auditor

There will be no public parking lot on Fairway avenue.

To ensure that end, about two score Fairway residents, mighty upset over the prospect of myriads of cars and their attendant fumes, swarmed into town hall last week and extracted the promise from the board of commissioners.

Stirred by the rumor that five town-owned lots were to be let out to Corbun Garden apartments for parking for residents, the Fairway home-owners banded together, signed a petition, hired a lawyer and trekked to the board with their complaints.

The builders of the apartment house utilized their entire property with the building, lawyer Harry Dreskin of Newark claimed, and they made no proper provision for parking the cars of the apartment inhabitants.

He called on the commissioners to "protect the property owners in the vicinity." He explained that the area zoning prohibits any such project, that the constant passage of cars would endanger the safety of children, that the noise at night would keep neighbors awake, that car fumes would prove annoying.

The 1944 edition of the river will be played in Nutley November 25, the Saturday before Thanksgiving. The date for the Belleville game the following year has not been revealed. The Bell boys replace South Side on the Maroon schedule.

The roots of the football rivalry are hidden in the mists of time and the minds of the old timers. The schools kept but sketchy records in the old days and therefore the results are unknown.

The last meeting was a post-season charity game in 1930 won 2-0 by Nutley, which also captured the two previous meetings: 12-7 in 1928 and 7-6 in 1924. It is believed that two or three games were played prior to that time but the scores have become lost.

Disagreements over incidents subsequently judged petty by both sides managed to create a rupture of relations each time. As far as is known, this is the first time the teams have ever agreed in advance to a two-game series.

Officials in both towns last night sang loud the hopes for constantly improving relations between the two communities. It is understood that the municipalities may be called on more frequently in the future to cooperate on projects of mutual benefit.

Draft Board Not Quite Sure If He Is Serious Or Joking
The draft board is smiling—but not too heartily—at a Christmas card received at its town hall headquarters this week. They are not quite sure whether it is a cheery greeting or a case of "misery loves company."

The card is from Sgt. S. B. Gorlesky who lived at 434 Union avenue before being sent off in a selectee contingent some time ago. He sent the V-Mail greeting from the Middle East.

The card conveys the wish: "Having a fine time, wish you were here."

The board appreciates the rest of the message, however: "You think this is a fine card, wait until you see the one next year. My sincerest wishes to everyone in Belleville."

Board members were puzzled over the type of card Gorlesky intends to send them next year but expressed a hope that it might be mailed in Berlin.

Foundation Group Meets Tonight To Map Servicemen's Return
Further plans for the care and guidance of returning servicemen will be discussed tonight when a sub-committee of the Belleville Foundation meets at 8 in the Recreation House.

Attending the conference will be representatives of the churches of industry, of the air raid wardens, and of the Red Cross, American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

A project of some magnitude will be surveyed, a spokesman for the Foundation said last night but no announcement will be made until plans are complete.

Home For Turkey

Cpl. Almerico Resciniti

Gloom dissipated suddenly at 26 Clinton street the night before Thanksgiving when Cpl. Almerico Resciniti telephoned from Halloran general hospital on Staten Island that he would be home to enjoy the turkey with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Resciniti.

Only two weeks before, a War Department telegram had informed his family that he had been wounded in action in Italy with the Fifth Army. His unannounced arrival at Halloran was a complete surprise.

BLACK MARKET GASOLINE OUT, COLLINS SAYS

Coupon Robberies, Confidence Men And Dealers Now Under Control, Is Claim

Declaring "we have the gasoline black market on the run now," Jerome A. Collins, acting district OPA director in Newark cited three attempted robberies of ration boards during November in which thieves got no negotiable ration currency.

Rahway, Dover and Hoboken boards were entered at night and in all three cases, Collins pointed out, the boards had stored their valuable ration stamps in bank and municipal building vaults, and the thieves got nothing.

He compared this with the September figures which show four robberies in which only one board—Union City—yielded nothing to thieves. From the Rutherford, Irvington and Eonton boards, however, the loot totaled 1,796, 220 gallons in gasoline coupons; 2,700,900 gallons in fuel oil coupons; 4,400 shoe stamps; and 200 food ration books.

Following this the Board Operations Division of the District OPA, headed by William A. Martin, instituted an intensive program to have boards store coupons in vaults, and to keep on hand during business hours only enough coupons for one day's business.

"Confidence" Tactics

Apparently, Collins said, this drove black market crooks to use "confidence" tactics. During November two boards—East Orange and Madison—were victimized by suave "gentlemen" during daylight working hours. They came into the boards and under pretext of waiting to meet fictitious OPA officials walked off with gasoline coupons totaling 26,000 gallons.

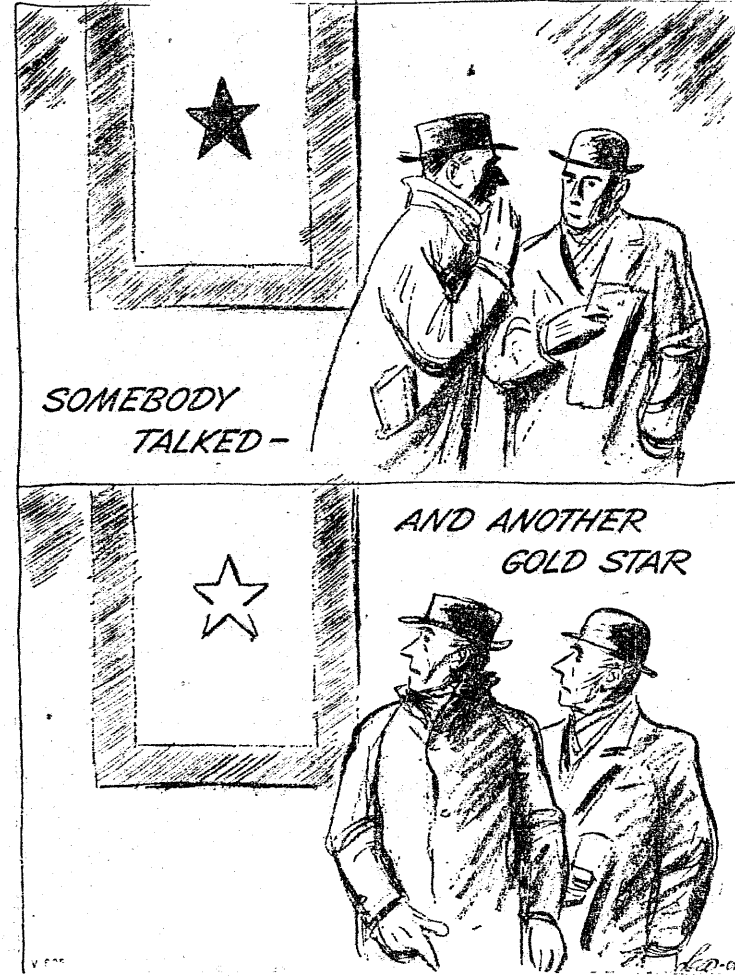

To overcome the lack of coupons stolen from boards, he pointed out, the underworld has now resorted to counterfeiting. Thousands of counterfeit coupons flooded this area, sold by peddlers and bought by irresponsible and unpatriotic gasoline dealers and others.

But this, Collins declared, has put the gasoline black market in a blind alley. Through the OPA ration banking system every counterfeit stamp can be easily traced back to the gasoline dealer who transferred it. He said: "Our Enforcement division right now has the names of more than 200 gasoline retailers throughout North Jersey who handled counterfeiters. Already 49 criminal complaints have been filed and more than a score of arrests and arraignments have been made. These will go on until all are brought to justice."

Special Class Bazaar Tomorrow

Articles for sale will include such items as doll bassinets, pot holders, rugs, tie racks, napkin holders, book ends, hot stands, checker boards and checkers.

Those who pass their cadet training successfully will be commissioned Ensigns in the U.S. Naval Reserve or Second Lieutenants in the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve and receive their cherished "wings of gold." The pay as a commissioned officer starts at $246 a month.

Applicants in the downstate area may enroll at 33 Pine street, New York, N. Y. Those living in western New York should apply to the branch office of the Office of Naval Officer Procurement, Genesee Valley Trust building, Rochester, N.Y.

Transferred

C. P. O. Howard Gorman

Chief Petty Officer Howard Gorman, former football and basketball star at the High school and Panzer college, has been transferred from Farragut, Idaho, to the position of instructor in the physical education program with the Navy V-12 unit at Tulane university.

The 23-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Gorman of 69 Belmont street is a 1936 graduate of the High School. Before entering the Navy in April 1942, he was a physical instructor with the county vocational schools.

In June 1942 he married the former Miss Margaret Paas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius J. Paas of 60 Belmont street. He also has a brother Edwin, 22, who is in the V-12 Marine reserves at Franklin and Marshall college at Lancaster, Pa.

Receives Medal

Sgt. Joseph Sagarese

Sgt. Joseph Sagarese has been decorated with the Purple Heart in the Mediterranean theater, according to a letter from him received this week by his wife who lives at 71 Harrison street.

He entered the Army two years ago and has been overseas in England, North Africa and Sicily for the past 14 months. He is a graduate of Barringer high school and was formerly employed with Dugan's Bakery.

His brother, Pvt. Alphonso Sagarese, is with the Army engineers in Italy. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Sagarese of Newark. Joseph's wife is the former Madeline Codomo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Codomo of the Harrison street address.

Promoted

Offers Gift Bond Covers

A gift cover designed to hold a war bond has been offered to residents of Belleville by the First National Bank, Frank J. McFadden, vice-president of the institution, announced yesterday.

Covers will be available during the holidays as long as the supply lasts. It contains a winter scene and a suitable Christmas greeting.

INDOOR GARDENS FOR WINTER CHEER

After watching Victory gardens develop from freshly plowed ground to lush bloom and fruit, the winter may seem dreary after all of the color and fragrance of summer, but enthusiastic gardeners are turning to potted plants to prolong the pleasures of their new found hobby.

Indoor gardeners will find it more satisfactory to purchase plants already developed in pots rather than attempting to grow them indoors from seeds. Throughout the Fall and Winter season there is a succession of available plants and flowers starting with potted chrysanthemums, azaleas, hydrangeas and even rose bushes that will continue to bloom for weeks. For the gardener who likes to start with a pot of earth and watch the plants break through and eventually bloom there are many bulb varieties which can be had already potted in properly fertilized material to assure their proper growth and flowering.

Tulips, hyacinths, amaryllis, narcissus and calla lilies are often seen in this category and are ideal winter-garden material.

Groups of florists, like the Florists Telegraph Delivery Association are again coming to the assistance of garden enthusiasts, offering to one and all their experience and knowledge in the little tricks of plant care which are necessary to assure success. With their help the most naive amateur can enjoy garden beauty all winter.

The growing of greenery such as ferns, cactus and other leafy plants is being revived from grandmother's day when Victorian houses were alive with growing plants. It is not likely that modern women will go for the elaborate plant stands holding dozens of pots which were in vogue 50 years ago because we today are growing things for more precise decorative effect, placing our flowering plants where they will brighten a corner that lacks interest or on a table to throw a lovely pattern against a blank wall space.

What with gasoline rationing and the saving of tires on the old family car we will continue this winter to spend more and more evenings at home to enjoy the plants flowering in the living room just as in Victorian days when growing plants and flowers were seen in every home because they made it more alive, a more livable place to be in of a winter's evening.

Red Cross Clarifies Hours Of Surgical Dressing Work

To clarify misunderstandings which have arisen, Mrs. Frank Brown, chairman of surgical dressing production of the Red Cross, has again announced the hours of operation at Belleville's two Red Cross workrooms.

The workroom in St. Peter's school will be open on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 1:30 to 4:30. The Recreation house workroom will be open on Tuesday and Thursday at the same hours.

Recruits for nurse's aid training who can train and serve during the day are urgently needed.

Miss Frances Williamson, chairman of this project, issued a call for volunteers yesterday. Young women over the age of 18 may register.

Although many registrants for evening instruction are now on the waiting list at headquarters there are not enough young women to fill daytime classes and to serve in hospitals then.

The 80 hours of instruction is divided into classroom and hospital work and may be taken morning or afternoon. Those who complete the training are asked to give 150 hours a year of service at their convenience in the hospital to which they are assigned. These 150 hours will be scheduled at the convenience of the worker.

Belleville Artist's Mural Viewed In Kentucky

Robert Valentino's Painting Depicts Three Stages Of Army Training

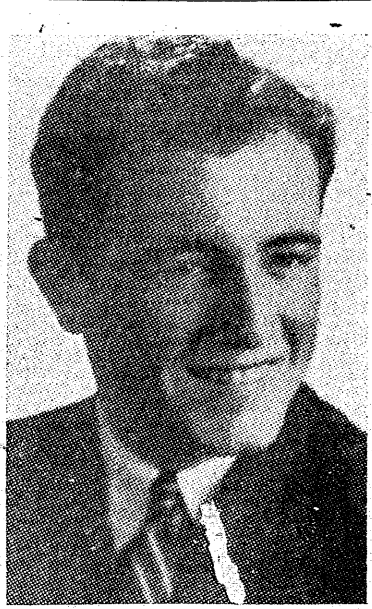

For the past month soldiers and visitors at service club No. 1 at Camp Campbell, Ky., have watched the east wall come to life with the twice human-size figures being sketched by Pvt. Robert Valentino.

The mural, entitled "Let Us Be Trained," depicts the transformation from civilian to trained soldier, picturing the three major steps: induction, orientation and basic training, and actual combat.

Valentino loves painting above everything else and is thankful for this opportunity to "speak" in his favorite medium of expression. The son of Mrs. Clementine Valentino of 37 Hill street, he virtually grew up with the pencil and brush, practicing and developing his technique. After a four-year art major in Belleville high school, he won first prize in the national scholastic art contest in 1941 and a scholarship to the Central Park art school in New York City where he was studying prior to enlisting in the Army last February.

Valentino, who is 20, has finished blocking in his figures and has nearly completed applying brush and color. The painting is being done in tempera.

Robert has a twin brother,

Pvt. Robert Valentino

Harold, who is with the Army Signal corps at Camp Crowther, Mo.

Morrell C. Albey Is Retired After 50 Years With Pru

Morrell C. Albey of 44 Malone avenue was retired Tuesday, two weeks after he completed a half-century of service with the Prudential Insurance company of Newark.

He was born in this town and has lived here all his life. His mother, the late Mrs. Sara Albey, taught in Belleville schools for twenty years. His son, Clark Albey of Lincoln Park, who is a structural steel fabricator and welder, was a well-known bicycle racer and ice skater a few years ago. His wife is the former Elizabeth Meeker of Forest Hill. He also has a daughter, Mrs. Harold K. Fawcett of Nutley.

Fabian Named Fireman By King To Succeed Retired Veteran

William Fabian Jr., of 333 De Witt avenue, son of an employee of the shade tree commission, was named Friday to the fire department to succeed James B. Carlson of 5 Union terrace, who resigned recently because of ill health.

Public Safety Director King made the announcement Monday and added that he understood Fabian had been a callman for about a year. Carlson, one of the first marines to land on Guadalcanal and also one of the first Bellevillites to receive an honorable discharge, was appointed to the fire department only last June by Mayor Williams, who was then acting public safety director. Rumors of protests on the part of a service organization in town spread immediately after the announcement. One spokesman for a group said that King had passed over another newly returned veteran who had been a callman for six years. No official action is planned until after the next meeting of the organization.

Petean Club Starts Meetings With Prayer For Servicemen

EDITH WEINBERG ESCAPES INJURY

Hit By Car On Union Avenue; Other Crashes Involve More Bellevillites

Miss Edith Weinberg, 20, of 253 Joralemon street escaped with only minor injuries Sunday evening when she was struck by a car while crossing Union avenue at Joralemon.

According to the story which the driver, Otto Bofinger, 33, of Hempstead, L. I., told police, he attempted to pass a bus which had stopped to discharge passengers. He said the traffic light was green. Miss Weinberg, he stated, stepped into the street from in front of the bus and was hit by the fender of the car. She was treated by Dr. Samuel M. Goldberg of 345 Washington avenue for slight abrasions on the forehead.

No one was injured when a car somersaulted in Main street after striking another automobile about 2 o'clock Saturday morning. The driver of the runaway car, police said, was James Carolan of 5 Union terrace who hit the fender of the auto of Arthur Guld of Lyndhurst while attempting to pass.

Carolan lost control of his car, which careened 180 feet before overturning near the parking lot of the Walter Kidde company it is said.

Mrs. Joseph P. L. LaBeilo, 40, of 41 Grove street, Bloomfield, was treated in the American Legion hospital Tuesday evening after the car driven by her husband was in collision with that of William Draghi, 30, of 486 Franklin avenue, according to police.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Union avenue and Mill street. Mrs. LaBeilo suffered abrasions of both hands and knees.

The bonds were donated by Commissioner Patrick A. Waters and by two Legion members. Refreshments were served and dancing was to the music of Mike Corio's orchestra.

Five new members were admitted to the Legion. They are Arthur H. Knab, George K. Fyfe, Ralph M. Sage, John R. Bangerman and Frank R. Parsells.

It was announced that the drive for old victrola records to be donated to service camps has reached a total of more than 1,000 pounds. Every effort is being made to collect more and more records for the enjoyment of servicemen in all parts of the world.

Belleville Habit

The Christmas shopping season opened, Bellevillites should give thought to patronizing home town when they are seeking gifts. A thorough Belleville shops will contain the skeptic that most of the goods are surprisingly well stocked with sorts of appropriate things for the season. And the shops feature articles of the whole length of the price scale. While the accent is on the practical, there are still many gadgets for those who want them.

It is another reason for "Buying Belleville": call it the old school spirit, if you will, but to us it is good common sense to go first to our neighbors and local stores. The more business the local merchants does, the finer the stock he will be able to provide. For that reason localites should Get The Belleville Habit.

On the other hand, the merchants can do a great deal toward attracting customers to their stores. All they need is a little smart merchandizing. A little care in the arrangement of the display windows will entice many buyers who have never previously been inside the shop. Merchants too should Get The Belleville Habit.

Many have merely themselves to blame if their turnover is not all they desire it to be. They have hindered themselves for many years by exhibiting an attitude of here it is if you want it and if you don't it is all right with us. No successful business was ever built on that principal. Therefore, the smart Belleville business man will start immediately by making his display so attractive that regular customers and passers-by alike will want to Get The Belleville Habit.

Get The Brew Bubble, Not Boil Over

It is patent to everyone who has interested himself in the problem at all that some sort of a decisive outbreak is bound to come out of the tempest over the school system and the board of education. The comparatively few members of the Citizens' Committee are sufficiently zealous in their proposed investigation of teacher-board relations that they are not going to drop the matter until some decision is reached. Whether they will be successful in their attempts to arouse the entire town remains to be seen.

Meantime, eagerness to get the job done should not be so intense that a mud-slinging campaign will follow. Situations like the one which is bubbling in Belleville at the moment can easily develop into charges and counter-charges which will work to the detriment of the town and the individuals involved. Patience, forbearance, arbitration are virtues which must be considered. More is caught with sugar than with vinegar and too many squabbles have been waged into full-scale wars by hasty and vicious statements.

One conclusion seems to have been reached by all parties and that is that Belleville teachers are operating on a low wage scale in comparison to other neighboring communities. The teachers have what appears to be a legitimate complaint while the board has to have put a great deal of stress on the issue of keeping the tax rate down.

How much better it will be for all parties concerned to go at the problem calmly than to begin hurling challenges and charges in the press and from the platform. The teachers have more backing now than they have ever had in their efforts for increases and salary schedules, and the knowledge of sudden power should not go to their heads. The board has protected the tax rate zealously but does not know whether or not an increase in the budget would be rejected by the citizens in a regular school budget vote. Only a handful of taxpayers ever votes on the school budget anyway and there is no way of feeling out public sentiment except by putting it to a test.

We suggest that the Citizens' Committee sit down with the teachers, seek out their grievances, tabulate them; then go to the entire board of education and discuss the complaints with that body. If there is a difference of opinion the committee can then bring the board and the teachers together. Should differences still present themselves, the committee may then adopt a policy and take the fight to the public.

But moderation and the will to understand should pervade all parties. Without it, the program will surely fail. And it will surely collapse also if politics or politicians are allowed to creep into the discussions. Whatever is decided, whatever is revealed, let it be the unbiased truth or let the whole effort be publicly discredited.

Renaissance In Girl Scouts Opens Promising Future

Cabin At South Mountain Reservation Redecorated; New Troop Formed

Concluding a series of brief articles to substantiate the claims of Belleville's local agencies for participation in the Community Chest drive is this one submitted by the Girl Scout Council, which is asking for $3,880, chiefly to enable it to meet the demand for a more extensive scouting program and to supply a paid director.

The Council wishes to be prepared to handle at least 500 girls and to extend the summer camping program which was inaugurated during July and August with great success.

A complete financial breakdown of that program was presented to the Community Chest and to the Council board of trustees in September by Mrs. Leroy Long, Girl Scout Council finance chairman.

The reasons which are advanced to support the need of an accelerated Girl Scout program are the interest shown by the girls in war activities and the new summer camping program.

With the entrance of the United States into the present war and the mobilization of defense activities here, Girl Scouts served as collectors of many salvage materials, including tin cans and silk stockings.

They were among the first workers in the preparation of tin for salvage and were commended by authorities on their work. Girls also delivered many of the initial bulletins of OPA and civilian defense offices.

Nearly one hundred girls camped at South Mountain reservation where the refurbished Belleville Girl Scout cabin was again put in operation during the summer. That this has been an impetus toward increased Girl Scout activity here is the opinion of the council.

There are eight Girl Scout troops and two Brownie troops here, with a third Brownie group for girls between the ages of seven and ten now being formed. Leaders are needed and a fully coordinated program will be instituted as soon as the leadership can be established.

In the meantime several courses of instruction have been inaugurated and were expected to get under way yesterday.

Mrs. Porter Sheldon will furnish cooking instruction in the high school food laboratory on six successive Wednesdays. John Charlton will guide a course in book-binding and printing at the high school print shop every Tuesday.

Help him get a line to home

About the only time he can get to the telephone is a few short hours in the evening. That's when thousands of other boys in the camps want to use Long Distance, too.

Any time you are not on the lines, there's a better chance for a soldier's call to get through.

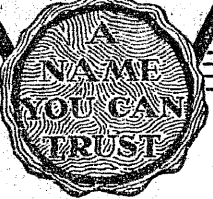

So unless it's urgent, we hope you won't be using Long Distance from 7 to 10 o'clock at night. Save those hours for the service men.

Free Chest X-Ray Clinic Shifted To School No. 8 Saturday

The free clinic, during which chest X-rays of all Belleville and Nutley residents who request them will be taken, has been transferred from the high school to School No. 8 on Union Avenue next to Clearman Field.

The clinic will be held Saturday morning at 10 and is sponsored by the Belleville-Nutley Tuberculosis Association. Every Belleville has been urged to attend regardless of age, sex or race and regardless of whether or not suspicion of tuberculosis exists.

The cost of the clinic will be met entirely out of association funds raised through the sale of Christmas seals, returns for which have already started pouring in. The organization hopes to raise $5,000 in the two towns.

Health Officers Eugene T. Berry of Belleville and Richard V. Bellers of Nutley revealed, in announcing the free clinic, that the association cared for 270 persons in this town and 250 in Nutley during the past year.

Yesterday's report on returns from Christmas seal sales after the first ten day showed the two towns nearing the half-way mark. Belleville has bought $1,117 worth while $1,077.81 has been received from Nutley.

Our Bond Drive ... Victory Or Failure?

The students of B. H. S. are now on the last lap of their drive for Grasshopper Planes which ends Tuesday. We have one more week to reach our quota of $30,000. The fact is this: We have one of the finest opportunities now to bring our boys back sooner. Please! Don't let that opportunity go by without buying at least one $18.75 bond.

We all want our boys back sooner, but, what are we doing about it? We realize that you've done your duty. We have had a great deal of co-operation from the students in this drive, but we need just a little more. That difference may mean success or defeat for the drive. We can reach our quota by giving up a few of the luxuries we had planned on. Maybe it was that new suit or handbag, but what good would they do you if America lost this war?

The students who are working have an opportunity of saving their money. Our government isn't taking our money, it is borrowing it. These grasshopper planes are sometimes called puddle-jumpers. Their rate of speed is 85 miles an hour. They are used for delivering messages and officers use them for traveling. They are also used for reconnaissance and for photography. You can see that they are vital in winning this war. Let's back up our boys 100%. We need 1,500 more students buying one $18.75 bond to reach our quota. Remember, the drive depends on you. Can't we make it a success?

We Have With Us Today—

Helen Hollberg

A lively young woman who has charge of the activities of the Junior class. She is Helen Hollberg, graduate of Belleville High school, and now a very valuable member of the faculty.

Chairman of the Junior Advisory committee, Miss Hollberg has a hand in all important features of the Junior class. The candy that will be sold at the basketball games, the Junior dance which will be given sometime in January, and those jaunty wooden pennants which have been floating around the school, have all had their origin in her home room—204.

Miss Hollberg has had most of her education right here in Belleville. She graduated from No. 3 school, and then attended Belleville High. After going to N.J.C. she took her master's degree at New York university.

Always an active member in extra curricular work, Miss Hollberg, when she attended Belleville High, was on the girls' basketball squad, was interested in horseback riding, and was the sports editor of the Monday back in the days when it was a monthly newspaper.

When questioned about the future projects of the Junior class, Miss Hollberg said that the new Junior class rings—victory rings as they're now called—will be here in the early part of December.

Because of the lack of essential metals, the rings will have silver bands and gold crest. Miss Hollberg expressed her regret that there has been no German club for the past few years, since the enrollment was too small to warrant such activities.

She said that in the days when more people were interested in the language, the German club was a very prominent organization, and even had a band of its own.

Seniors Net $400 From Grid Program Sales

One of the many activities entered into by the senior class is the sale of football programs at the games in Clearman Field. This year the committee in charge of the venture was made up of volunteers for the class, as the seniors had not been chosen.

The eighteen seniors who volunteered to do the work were: Bertie Mueller, committee chairman; Dorothy Webber, Phyllis DiSturco, Ada Goldstein, Mildred Alberine, Frank Larkin, Eleanor Bowden, Pauline Adamiak, Angelina Misuraca, Violet Rizzolo, Elizabeth Porgione, Marion Bonnell, Betty Cooke, Betty Strange, Margaret Travers, Gloria Rosamita, Catherine Anderson and Emma Donofrio.

There was much work for the committee to do in connection with selling the programs. They planned, organized the sales, and financing of the programs. They solicited advertisements for them and sold them to spectators at the games. The type of job the committee did can be seen in the receipts. Up to and including the Clifford Scott game the programs had brought in over $400.

Dramatic Class Presents Skit

The feature of a pre-Thanksgiving football rally held in the school auditorium recently was a gridiron skit presented by members of Miss Eleanor Rush's dramatics class.

The playlet, which dealt with the adventures of three unformed young girls at a football game was directed by Gerry McKenna, a member of the class. Students in the cast were Bill Gross, Alan Vandemark, Marjorie Burke, Dorothy Carpenter, and Alan Rosenberg.

The duties of master of ceremonies for the program were ably performed by Albert Apicella, varsity lineman on the football team.

Bellboys Defeat Lyndhurst With Late Scoring

PRINCIPAL SEEKS ALL-OUT EFFORT TO BOOST B. H. S.

Hopes To Make It "One Of The Finest," Calls For Student Initiative

Scholastic academic achievement, social and extra-curricular participation. These are the aims of Burt Johnson, principal of Belleville High School.

Striving to make this a better school, he believes, depends on the teachers and students putting every ounce of effort into their work.

Since the beginning of the fall term, Mr. Johnson has stressed student initiative and participation in everything the school has to offer.

He has left Mrs. Wagner in charge of a committee for the planning of all future assembly programs and Miss Rush in charge of the Schools at War Program here at Belleville High.

Keen interest is shown in the school paper and Mr. Johnson would like to see it become a part of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

Seeing the school centralized is another thing the principal would like to see and when it can be properly organized.

To sum it up, Mr. Johnson hopes for a better school through the interest of the students in all the school offers and an all out effort on the part of all to make this school one of the finest.

POPULAR TEACHER LEAVES SCHOOL

Mrs. Becker, P.A.D. Instructor, Takes Leave Of Absence From B.H.S. Duties

Belleville High School seniors will have to do without one more essential wartime commodity—at least until next fall. As valuable as any rationed goods is Mrs. Harriet Becker, one of Belleville High's most popular teachers, who has taken a leave of absence until next September.

Mrs. Becker, who teaches problems of American democracy to upperclassmen, expressed in an interview her regret in having to desert her classes until the coming autumn.

Upperclassmen who have had the pleasure of participating in her classroom discussions will miss her cheerfulness, humor, and ability to understand.

Mrs. Becker's former home room, 303, will miss her just as much as her four P. A. D. classes and the group of girls who shared the first half of first lunch period with her.

Mrs. B. has been teaching in the grade schools of Belleville for several years. When she came to the high school (this year for the first time as a regular teacher), she met many of her former pupils and acquaintances. She had also been a substitute teacher at the high school for quite a while.

What is happening to the masculine contingent of dancers during our noon-hour rendezvous? What's the matter, boys? Bashful? A "long" star background man, who is entering the Navy soon.

Say, have you heard strains of lilting music floating through the halls? It's our own Bandettes—and we just can't wait 'till their first public appearance.

A hearty "hello" is offered to Bubs McMannus, ex-star of basketball, now home on furlough. Our cheer leaders certainly did a swell job at the Lyndhurst game—even though the spectators didn't keep up with them sometimes.

Welcome home to Terry Russell, a top notch singer, now featured at the Adams with Mal Hallett and his band. Terry was a student at Belleville High not so very long ago. Fellow sufferers had better start doing their own report cards while they are sneaking up on you before you know it.

Say! Wasn't that a nifty conga line presented at the Thanksgiving Day game by the Lyndhurst band and cheerleaders? Pretty smooth, eh? Will never forget how lovely Anna Santiglia sounded when she sang "The Lord's Prayer" at assembly.

Some of the students scored low in this test and same scored high, but the average of the seniors of B.H.S.
