

WAR FUND DRIVE SET FOR START OF CAMPAIGN

Industrial Organization
Nearing Completion;
Goal $83,525

Organization of the industrial section of the War Fund will be completed in the near future and canvass of Belleville plants will begin, headquarters of the fund announced yesterday. It is expected that the house-to-house campaign will get under way shortly after the first of the year.

The industrial drive had originally been announced to begin on November 24 but organizational matters have delayed its opening. The campaign is divided into five parts: advance gifts, industrial, businessmen, national corporations and women's sections.

The fund, whose headquarters are at 4006 Washington avenue, is asking $83,525 from the townspeople. Of this $41,517 is to go to five local agencies: Visiting Nurses association, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Silver Lake Community House and the Community Service Bureau, and to the Catholic charities which operates widely in Belleville.

The complete listing of goals is:

Boy Scouts	$5,128.40
Girl Scouts	3,800.00
Visiting Nurses	700.00
Community Service	10,340.00
Associated Catholic Charities	22,469.48
Services to Armed Forces	15,500.00
National War Fund	13,000.00
Administration & Contingent	12,007.62

Harry G. Specht of Eastwood-Neally corporation has been appointed coordinator of the industrial committee. Assisting him are Philip Dettelbach, Crosby Ellis, Col. Robert Gray, Clarence Lommerlin, Willard Sawyer, Sebastian C. Lutz and John Young.

Paul DeHagena, president of the board of directors of the fund, yesterday echoed the appeal of Col. Franklin D'Olier, chairman of the state fund.

D'Olier declared the success of the campaign depends on the rank and file worker. "The never give up spirit of the American boys in the front must be introduced in this campaign."

It was pointed out that contributions to the war fund can be deducted from income taxes and that a corporation subject to the excess profits tax can contribute up to five percent of its income.

YULETIDE MAILING DEADLINE NEAR

Delivery Can't Be Expected
If Packages And Cards
Are Shipped Late

There are only 24 hours until Christmas as far as the post-office is concerned and Postmaster William B. Price has issued a warning to Bellevillites that, unless their gifts and greeting cards are mailed before tomorrow evening, there can be no guarantee that they will reach their destination by December 25.

The December 10 deadline has been set throughout the country and delivery by Christmas will be impossible this year if a flood of parcels and cards comes in after that date, he said.

"The wartime burden on transportation and postal facilities in addition to the 31,000 experienced employees who have entered the service are factors that will make it impossible to deliver a late rush of gifts on time," the postmaster said yesterday.

He also emphasized that the use of zone numbers on both gifts and cards will facilitate handling by the many employees new to the job. Belleville's zone 9 (Silver Lake zone 7) should be clearly affixed to all return addresses, he added.

With the first indication of an increase in mailing activity evident this week although greeting cards are still noticeably absent, the postmaster said that he is unable to predict yet when he will have to put on extra help or for how long a period.

"It will probably be different from previous years when we hired nearly 30 men the week before Christmas," he observed yesterday.

"We must get under this year by hiring fewer over a long period—that is, if folks are complying with the postal authorities' request."

Diving Plane Still Unknown

Identification of the Army plane which alarmed residents of the Belleville Park section Sunday afternoon by its low-flying tactics and power dives was still unknown last night, according to Police Chief Spatz.

Numerous calls were received at police headquarters complaining about the plane, which was also observed over Bloomfield, East Orange and other towns. All complaints were referred to the Newark Airport which promises a check-up.

Foundation To Discuss Plans For Projected Hospital

Nutley, Bloomfield Officials
Invited To Yountakah Lunch
Early In January

Biggest project yet attempted by the Belleville Foundation, the possible construction of a hospital to serve Belleville, Nutley and Bloomfield, will be discussed January 8 at the Yountakah country club, Nutley, by representatives of the three towns.

This was announced yesterday afternoon by Foundation President Harry G. Specht, who also revealed that invitations to the luncheon had been sent to Senator Hawkes and Congressman Hartley to attend but that no reply had yet been received.

Principals in the drama will be the mayors, finance officials and health officials of each of the three towns, together with clergy, doctors and a number of businessmen from each community. It is also expected that representatives of the state medical association and hospital experts will be present.

Specht said yesterday that acceptance and promises of cooperation had been received from Mayor Williams of Belleville, Mayor Sherwood of Nutley and Mayor Reed of Bloomfield.

Will Explore Needs

The purpose of the luncheon is to explore and discuss the necessity of a hospital to serve the needs of the residents of the three towns. At the present time they must go to Newark, Passaic or Glen Ridge for hospitalization and, Specht said, those institutions are already overcrowded.

He estimates, on the basis of five beds for each 1,000 population, that the projected hospital should be nearly 500 beds in size.

He declined to enlarge on details until a fuller report of the committee studying the situation at the present time is received.

Speculation as to be the location of the hospital was said to be premature at this time but it is believed that it would be placed somewhere near the point at which all three municipalities meet.

Many quarters have felt that Belleville should have the inside track inasmuch as the impetus for the entire project arose in the Belleville Foundation and that the northwest section of town would be the most centrally located.

The plan, it is said, calls for an expenditure of about $2 million on the hospital and grounds. It is expected that Dr. James R. Irwin of 330 Washington avenue will figure large in the discussions. He is a Foundation vice-president.

The place and time of the proposed conference has not yet been announced but responsible quarters doubted yesterday that it would be held until after the Christmas holidays.

The association decided to retain a legal advisor after members of the group declared that most teachers did not have the time to devote sufficient study to all the problems of teachers and their relations with citizens and other organizations.

The governors will confer with the citizens in response to an invitation issued at the meeting of the latter group two weeks ago, a meeting addressed by Herbert C. Schmutz, president of the board of education.

TEACHERS GROUP NAMED TO MEET WITH CITIZENS

Voices To Engage Services
Of Legal Advisor;
Date Not Set

The board of governors of the Belleville Teachers association was appointed Monday afternoon to meet with members of the Citizens committee. The school organization will also obtain the services of a legal advisor to whom it can look for counsel in making decisions and pursuing policies.

These were the principal decisions that came out of the meeting of the association at School No. 3 at which nearly 100 of the teachers from the school system were present.

The governors will confer with the citizens in response to an invitation issued at the meeting of the latter group two weeks ago, a meeting addressed by Herbert C. Schmutz, president of the board of education.

So Busy These Days He Needs Parking Meter By Desk

With a puzzled look and a thought of how busy these executives must be these days, The Times reporter started to dig into his jeans for a nickel yesterday when he stepped into the office of Town Treasurer Russell Sargent.

For beside Sargent's desk were two parking meters, duplicates of those on Washington avenue. The reporter wondered if Sargent were receiving so many visitors that he had to ration his time by means of the meters.

He was stopped just in time by Arthur S. Ackerman, Sargent's assistant, who explained that the meters were there merely awaiting repair.

FREE X-RAY CLINIC ATTRACTS 237

Tuberculosis Association May
Repeat Chest Examination;
Seal Sales Near Goal

A steady stream of Belleville and Nutley residents flowed into School No. 8 Saturday and by the time the free chest X-ray clinic was closed in the evening 238 had been examined.

The picture-taking was part of the program of the Belleville-Nutley Tuberculosis association to control and stamp out the disease in the two towns.

Any examinations whose X-rays show up positive will be notified and precautions can begin at once to stamp out whatever symptoms are present. Of the total, 123 were from Belleville.

Association officials expressed themselves as pleased with the showing at the first attempt at such a project and said that examinations in future years will prove even more gratifying.

It was understood unofficially that many members of the association, encouraged by the success of Saturday's examinations, will advocate a repeat performance in the near future.

The announced goal of $5,000 sales of Christmas seals is now in view, officials of the association revealed yesterday. A total of $3,568.41 has been raised in two towns, of which $1,826.05 has been returned from Belleville.

The organization has also announced that Dr. Martin Castellano of Newark, formerly a member of the staff at Essex Mountain Sanatorium, has been retained to conduct its free clinics at the Essex County isolation hospital on the first and third Wednesdays of each month.

The clinic, which is for patients and contacts, was formerly under the direction of Dr. William Taffet of 379 Union avenue, who has been commissioned in the Army.

REFUTE POLITICAL AFFILIATION IN COMMITTEE

Citizens Group In Statement
Denies Rumors Of Front
For Political Purpose

The Citizens Committee denied flatly Tuesday night that it has any political affiliations or tie-up with any political faction in the town.

The statement, which was issued immediately after the regular meeting of the committee, was evoked when certain rumors regarding its purpose were brought to its attention by members and by teachers who were present.

"This committee is not engaged in any political activity and is not contemplating endorsement of any candidate for public office. The committee is forbidden in its charter to take a position on the candidacy of any person in municipal, county, state or federal elections," the statement declared.

The rumors and charges are based on an unfortunate misunderstanding of the purpose for which the committee was formed. We intend to carry on a constructive program that will be our answer to the people of Belleville."

The committee also characterized as unfounded a recent charge that there is racial or religious prejudice in the organization. "Our membership is open to any citizen and any citizen may appear before our meetings, regardless of race, creed or political beliefs."

One member spoke of the Citizens Committee as a jury "which listens to both sides of the question, weighs the evidence and presents its verdict to the public."

The statement continued that there are no secret or closed meetings and that members or citizens speak as individuals at the meetings. "Only after both sides have been heard does the Committee vote to go on record as approving or opposing a project."

Priorities Issued For 22 Units
In Belleville, Lockwood Says

Priorities have been issued for the building of 22 housing units in Belleville, according to an announcement made yesterday by W. J. Lockwood, state director of the Federal Housing Administration.

All of the units are now under construction and will be completed during the present month, he said. "No further priorities are available for new housing," he stated but indicated that additional housing can be accomplished through the conversion of present housing.

He stated that the greatest number of applications for conversion into additional apartments are being received from the home occupants. In a number of instances the children have married and have gone away from the large house, leaving a house too large for the parents to operate.

Citizens To Observe Commission, School Board Meetings

Committees Named To Attend
Meetings; To Meet With Teachers
Association Governors In Near Future

Sub-committees were appointed Tuesday night by the Citizens Committee to attend all meetings of the board of commissioners and board of education. They will be present at the conclaves of the town solons and will report to the committee on all matters in which it might be interested in the furtherance of its work.

Named to the group to visit town hall fortnightly were Max Schwartz, Frank Palmieri and Roy Voss. Attending the school board conclaves will be Lindley Graves, Arthur Kunze and Howard Sutphen.

Harry F. Brumbach, president of the citizens' organization, pointed out that the purpose of the appointments was not to "play watchdog" or to spy on the boards, but to be prepared to report on the workings of the boards on any matters in which the committee is interested.

When the discussion at the meeting, which took place at the Recreation House, turned to the current investigation of the educational system of the town, Brumbach emphasized the fact that the Committee has not gone on record as yet regarding changes which it might recommend in the school set-up.

"The Citizens Committee has not voted on any criticism of the board of education or on anything it has or has not done," he stated. "We have listened to citizens who have appeared here because our charter calls for open meetings where the citizens may talk. But we have not gone on record as having condemned any action of the board of education."

No Personal Grievances

He also emphasized that the committee is not considering personal grievances or complaints of individuals. "That is for the board and the teachers association to iron out," he said.

A teacher present at the meeting stated that the teachers were not interested solely in their salary problem but also in the improvement of the educational system. Among the items so far discussed were the schools and parent-teacher organizations, the physical condition of school buildings, "grays" in school curricula and the recreation situation in the schools and in the town generally.

It was averred that two schools in town have been definitely opposed to the establishment of a PTA in their localities, but it was also pointed out that the opposition of a principal cannot stop such an organization if the parents insist on its formation.

A survey of the schools yesterday indicated that Schools 4 and 8 are the institutions in town where PTAs are not now active. James G. Shawyer of 14 Division avenue, principal of No. 4, had no comment to make yesterday other than that there had been "no demand from the parents" for the formation of an association and that he "would not be particularly in favor" of one.

Miss Viola Broadbent of 128 High street, Nutley, principal of School No. 8, thought that the policy of the "open door" was best for her school. She pointed out that parents are free to come to her office at any time with trouble or problems.

Attempts have been made in the past to begin a PTA there, she said, but that the present policy had proved more effective. If an organization were proposed, she stated, she would study it from all angles before coming to an agreement.

The Citizens Committee instructed its secretary to write letters to the two principals to seek information and opinions.

Hope To Inspect

As a result of the discussion of the physical condition of the buildings, the Committee voted to request permission of the school board to send a group of members on an inspection tour.

Among the items which it was claimed, demand attention are "the condemnation and reconstruction of School No. 3" over a period of years and the alleged unsanitary conditions in School No. 9.

Manual training was the principal "gap" in the curriculum mentioned at the meeting. It was indicated that there is no program outside the high school and the establishment of manual training in the lower grades would probably be advocated.

Recreation Criticized

Lutz Surrenders In Stabbing

George Lutz, 38, of 165 Hornblower avenue was held without bail Tuesday by Recorder Heller of Kearny after Lutz had surrendered. He will be held for action of the Hudson County grand jury.

Lutz allegedly stabbed his estranged wife Sophie in Kearny on Thanksgiving night. He then disappeared and was sought for eleven days before his surrender.

Marta Wankowicz To Address Grace Baptist Men

By arrangement with Polish governmental authorities, the Men's club of Grace Baptist church will be addressed by Miss Marta Wankowicz, a representative of the Polish "younger generation" who is studying and lecturing in this country.

The meeting is scheduled for Monday evening at 8:30 in the church social hall. It will be a ladies' night and all of the women's organizations of the church have been invited to attend.

Miss Wankowicz came to this country three years ago. She was in Poland at the beginning of the present war and during the fighting there she served as a Red Cross nurse in a Polish military hospital. After the conclusion of hostilities in Poland she spent seven months in Warsaw under German occupation.

Daughter of a prominent Polish author, Miss Wankowicz is a writer herself. At present she is completing her work for a Master's Degree at the University of Pennsylvania, studying for all those in Poland who have been denied any opportunity for education, among others her own sister.

Miss Wankowicz plans to return to Poland bringing with her the wealth of Americanism she has learned to know and love. All men and women of the community are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

The local group inspected facilities for recreation, church, and library as well as the soldiers' lounge and theatre. While there they sought and received viewpoints of several Army officials on the procedure for caring for the veteran and returning him to normal civilian life.

Preliminary steps of the Foundation's committee for this purpose were interrupted in the midst of the meeting Thursday evening when the air raid alert sounded but it is understood that the meeting will reconvene in the near future.

Cited For Bravery

Sgt. Patrick J. Hoey

Sergeant Patrick J. Hoey, 24, recently forwarded a certificate of commendation which he received last March for bravery in the Tunisian campaign to his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hoey with whom he made his home here at 18 Prospect street before entering the Army. Cited for "exceptional coolness and leadership under battle conditions" the commendation asserts that after sustaining a "ragged wound" which needed medical attention "he would not leave until his gun was properly manned and in position to resist any enemy attack."

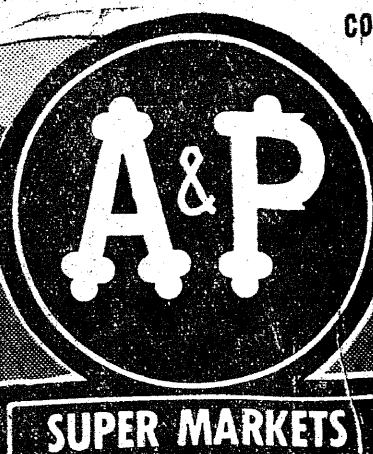

Sgt. Hoey was promoted to his present rank last May after he was awarded the Purple Heart medal for wounds received in the African theatre. He is now stationed in Sicily.

The soldier volunteered under selective service in 1941 and was inducted into the Army when war was declared. He has been overseas for the past year. In civilian life he was employed by Yearm's department store. He was educated in Flushing, L.I., schools before coming here to reside with the Hoeyes at the death of his parents.

Technical Sergeant Daniel Hoey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hoey, is stationed at Camp Forrest, Tenn., with a tank destroyer division. Before entering the Army more than a year and a half ago he was with the French Steamship Line in New York. He was educated in New York schools and is a graduate of Xavier High school there. He attended St. Mary's college for three years.

Radio Operator Douglas Sharp Jr. of 228 Cortlandt street is enjoying a brief furlough before rejoining his ship for his fourth trip into foreign waters. He was one of the many radio "hams" in peacetime and joined the merchant marine in the summer of 1942. He made one trip that year and has gone out twice since graduating from the high school last June.

Ted Close Survives Horrors Of African Desert War

Newly Made AFS Corporal
Leader In Ambulance Corps
With British Eighth Army

Cpl. Theodore Close

Theodore R. Close, who left his post here as assistant recreation director in April to join the American Field Service, was advanced to the rank of corporal in that service last month. He is the son of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. O. Bell Close of 19 Tiona avenue. Dr. Close is pastor of Fewsmith Memorial church.

Cpl. Close prefaced his work in the recreation department here with a school and college career in which he excelled in sports. He was graduated from Belleville High school, attended Seton Hall college and finished at Montclair State Teacher's college where he won letters in tennis, football and basketball.

He introduced basketball leagues for grammar school children to the program of the Belleville recreation department. During 1940 he was a member of the sports staff of The Times.

An accomplished swimmer and certified Red Cross life saver, Cpl. Close also had extensive life saving and first aid instruction during his college career. He was put in charge of the physical fitness program of his contingent when the Field Service men sailed from New York for the Mediterranean theater in April. A seven weeks voyage took them around the African continent and they entered the Mediterranean through the Suez canal.

Attached To 8th Army

The company was attached to the British Eighth Army and assigned to duty in Tripoli. During the invasion of Italy the men were transferred there and it was there last month that Cpl. Close received his promotion and was placed in charge of an ambulance section.

The American Field Service, which was formed in 1918 and underwritten by many prominent Americans, operates under the regulations of the State Department. The service had its baptism under fire in France during the close of the last war and went into operation again in France in 1940. It served with General Giraud's mobilizing forces in Syria in 1941, is still serving there and has since been an established part of operations in North Africa, India, Italy and the Middle East.

It is an exclusively voluntary organization and serves Allied forces wherever assigned. Recent statistics show that Field Services suffer the maximum amount of casualties in proportion to their enlistments.

Parents Get Bulletins

Parents of men in the American Field Service are the recipients of a monthly mimeographed bulletin containing excerpts from their son's descriptive letters from battle areas. No dates, locale or other material which might inform the enemy are given. Parents are informed, however, when their son is referred to, usually by the initial of his first name.

One such letter mentions Cpl. Close in an incident during the African campaign which is typical of American Field Service action. The writer said:

"Several of us were sitting in my ambulance which was our only shelter from the face-cutting sandstorm outside. It was about five o'clock in the afternoon when our lieutenant came to the ambulance and said to me, 'I want to see you immediately.' 'I went over to his tent to find T. and 12 other fellows. He read us a letter sent by signal from the front. The writer wanted six ambulances as soon as possible. ... I was a man of action—the 14 of us would leave at 4:30 next morning.

"After hustling to make ready for our departure, we caught a little sleep and at 4 our six ambulances, led by T. in the staff car, rolled up of camp into the pitch blackness of the night. We made the 1,500 miles to the front in four days.

Burning Truck

"When we passed through Tousse and went 10 or 15 miles further north, we ran up against a burning truck which was directly across the road. We dispersed ambulances and investigated; and then a few shells landed pretty near to us. We had gone right past our own camouflaged lines, and were on the edge of no-man's land. I hate to think where we'd be now if that burning truck hadn't been in our path.

"By the next day we were all stationed with different units of General LeClerc's division and, believe me, we dug slit trenches for ourselves mighty quickly. We were all under plenty of enemy fire.

"The French field hospital was about three miles further back. We traveled back and forth with our wounded at all hours of the day and night and saw some sights that none of us will ever want to mention again. We were in the foremost lines for five weeks.

"We had many close calls. ... out of about 20 of those that went into the campaign three were killed and one seriously injured. ... We had little thought of food or sleep. ... we had seen terrible sights of the dying and the dead. ... we carried many brave ones for whom we knew there was no hope.

"When peace finally came it was like Heaven. The green grass was beautiful, trees waved in the breeze, birds sang merrily. Mountains, from which death had rained, were now majestic. All these things were there before the peace—but we didn't know then how beautiful they really were.

Cpl. Close's brother Carlyle is training with the Army Air Forces.

Thanks From North Africa

Pvt. Carmen Del Russo Writes
His Family Here To Be Happy
For What They Have

Pvt. Carmen Del Russo, who is with a field artillery detachment in North Africa, gave some serious thought to the celebration of Thanksgiving.

The expressions voiced in a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Del Russo of 373 Lake street, are probably those of many a uniformed American overseas:

"I'm in very good health," said Del Russo, "and am sitting in the kitchen listening to the radio and writing this letter which I hope reaches you before Thanksgiving. I know just what's going to happen at home on that day.

Mom will get everything fixed up nicely and cook a swell dinner and when it comes time to eat, she'll just sit and cry ... because we're not home. That hurts me and I've got a lump in my throat just picturing it. I won't be happy again until I hear that everything went smoothly and I want definite proof."

Listing the things which seem most important from his present point of view, Del Russo asked his family to give thanks for "a country with a swell bunch of fighting men to defend it ... that we are united and have lots of friendly allies ... that we can be the saviour of many mistreated countries.

"Be thankful," he addresses his parents, "that you have what you now possess and that you have sons in the service who will always defend you. That is why we were born."

The soldier concluded his letter with a plea which seems particularly suited to all who correspond with servicemen, especially during traditional American holiday

Mrs. Edward M. Rizzolo will be hostess next Wednesday afternoon to members of the Morgani club at her home, 523 Union avenue. A Christmas party will be held at 1:30 and members will exchange gifts. A business meeting will be held after the social hour.

seasons. "I'm lonesome without you, but you can make me happy just by letting me know definitely that you are happy."

Del Russo has been overseas six months. He entered the Army a year ago, previous to which time he worked as a roofer. He was graduated from Belleville high school.

A younger brother, Michael, is stationed in Portland, Me., in the Navy. He entered four months ago and holds the rating Seaman 2/c.

A POST-WAR PLAN!

"Pete, when you come home, what do you want to do?"

"Sally, with the war's end and me at home, I want to have a little house of our very own. I want to have a little business place—a filling station or a corner grocery maybe—something I'd feel free to run the way I see fit, something I can operate myself without being told what to do.

"You see, Sally, I've been told what to do for a long time. Well, that's war. But when this war is over I want to be reasonably free to do what I think's best for us. As I see it, that's what I'm fighting for—that's democracy at work."

Clothes Salvage Will Clean Town's Attics, Basements

Volunteer Workers, Trucks To Stage One-Day Blitz Collection Sunday

Sunday afternoon is the time to get rid of all the old clothes and rags which have cluttered the town's attics and basements for years and at the same time contribute to the help of the war-stricken nations which the drive will support.

The clothes section of the salvage committee of the Defense Council expects a complete arrangement by tonight for the one-day blitz which is expected to supply tons of garments to cover the naked in countries conquered by Allied armies.

Last night the committee made another urgent appeal to all public-spirited citizens to report to town hall Sunday at 1 to assist in the collection.

Chairman Harold Peterson announced that several organizations have already pledged their cooperation. Police Reserve Inspector Richard D. Shannon reported at least fifteen of his group will be present, and William Patton stated that twenty Reserve Firemen will assist.

Lawrence B. McCloskey of the Ambulance Corps reported ten ambulances and drivers available while St. Peter's church has offered the use of its truck. Additional vehicles and men are expected from the Public Works Department and the State Tree Commission. Organization of the trucking is under the direction of Joseph Raaser.

Churches Cooperate

In addition to these sources, various churches will make announcements at Sunday services, clubs and organizations will make appeals to their members. Under the supervision of Mrs. Willard Y. Strange, ladies from the churches will assist in the sorting of clothing.

It is believed the drive can be completed in three hours. Trucks will call at the homes and pick up clothing and rags placed on the curbs. It will be taken to the Municipal Stadium and there sorted.

Leo Bichakjian will make arrangements to have clothing cleaned and then turned over to the Defense Supplies Corporation. Men in turn will hand it to the army. The army will take the clothing to various combat areas that are being invaded and distribute it to the people to help meet their desperate need for clothing.

Boy Scouts under John Charlton and Girl Scouts under Mrs. Edmer S. Hyde will help residents get clothing out of their homes and placed on the curb. People are asked to tie up the clothes in a bundle and to keep the rags separated. School children will distribute leaflets to

Dougherty-Hannan

Miss Mary Agnes Hannan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hannan of 52 Union avenue, and George Patrick Dougherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dougherty of Newark, were married Thanksgiving day in St. Peter's Church where Rev. Joseph M. Kelly performed the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass which followed. Mr. Dougherty is a member of the merchant marine.

Mrs. Dougherty, who was attended by her sister, Miss Eleanor Hannan, was gowned in egg-shell satin and wore a fingertip veil wreathed in orange blossoms over her wedding gown. She carried white roses and chrysanthemums. Miss Hannan's costume of peacock blue was accented with a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

After a reception at the Essex House, Newark, the couple left for an extended honeymoon. Mrs. Dougherty will reside with her parents upon her husband's return to merchant marine service.

Sullivan-Wentzel

Miss Ruth Emily Wentzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wentzel of Reading, Pa., became the bride of Corporal John J. Sullivan, son of Mrs. Mary Sullivan of Newark, formerly of 266 William street. Cpl. Sullivan was born here and moved to Newark with his mother two years ago. He is the brother of James F. Sullivan of 246 New street.

The wedding ceremony was performed at the Wentzel residence and a reception there followed. Miss Dolores Delmon of Reading attended Miss Wentzel and Cpl. Glen Battford of Camden was Cpl. Sullivan's best man.

A princess gown of white tulle was chosen by the bride of whose fingertip veil was draped from a coronet of seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white roses and chrysanthemums. Miss Delmon's old-fashioned bouquet of pink roses and chrysanthemums matched her chiffon gown.

The couple will reside in Reading where Cpl. Sullivan is stationed with the Army army forces. He entered the Army two years ago.

Choir Sings At PTA Meeting

At the monthly meeting of the Parent Teacher association of School No. 9 on Tuesday the school choir, made up of boy and girl students of the seventh and eighth grades, will sing Christmas carols and mothers of third grade pupils will be hostesses during the social hour.

The program will be held in the school auditorium at 2:30. A final collection of funds for pupil identification tags will be made at this meeting.

An executive meeting of the association will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 at the home of Mrs. Peter Melchione on 41 1/2 Little street, president of the association.

Boy Scout Assignments

Assignments for the Boy Scouts for assisting householders in preparing their clothes for collection Sunday were disclosed last night by District Commissioner John Charlton:

Troop 301 See Mr. Charlton for assignment.
Troop 302 Zone 4, sectors 1, 2, 4.
Troop 313 See Mr. Charlton for assignment.

their home giving full instructions.

In case of bad weather which would seriously interfere with the drive, it will be postponed for one week. Residents are urged not to let clothes stay out in the rain to avoid mildew.

The army has designated that ten percent of the local collection of clothing can be set aside for local relief purposes. Any individual or organization who knows of a need for clothing should contact Welfare Director John Hewitt who will take charge of such distribution. All of the other clothing will go to the army after cleaning, and rags will be sold to a rag dealer. Rags are critically needed for industrial workers in war plants.

Is It Tojo, Togo Or Toga?

Silver Lake Residents Feel Someone Is Playing Games With Street Names

The sudden agitation last week over the "discovery" of a "Tojo place" on the Belleville-Newark line left many residents of that section of Silver Lake completely non-plussed.

For they had known it and called it Toga place. They felt that someone in Newark was playing word-ladders, changing Toga to Togo and from there to Tojo.

Meanwhile the street that doesn't exist (except on paper) went about the even tenor of its way, completely undisturbed over the furor. You see, no one lives on it and there are no houses on it. As a matter of fact, there is not even an entrance to it from North Eleventh street, where it is supposed to originate.

It is a little weed-covered open space between two houses which face on Eleventh and looks like it might be somebody's driveway—if someone had only made a driveway out of it.

According to the map it is 15 feet wide and 185 feet long and all but a hundred feet on the south side is in Belleville.

Not Listed Here

The Belleville directory does not even list the street, although the discovery is said to have been made in the Newark directory when Assistant Identical Officer Thomas Moore got around to reading that tome the other day.

However, some maps of this town show it as an unopened street and list it under either

Special Class Realizes $48

The Red Cross will receive $48.82 which it had not anticipated when the special class of School No. 8 turns over to it the whole of the take on the sale of articles made by the children of the class.

The sale was held in the classroom Friday afternoon and Miss Gertrude Corona, teacher of the class, reported every item sold within ten minutes after the bazaar opened.

Heaviest demand was for hand-made rugs and dolls' bassinets, the demand for which made the pupils wish for the machine age in the classroom.

Midshipman Nicholas Burde Jr. of 570 Union avenue has been elected leader of the Naval Academy orchestra. He will graduate from Annapolis in June.

NAVY UPS GATES TO DIVISION C.O.

Former Bellboy Grid Coach Is Placed In Command Of Six LCIs

The promotion of Lt. G. Lawrence Gates of 61 Prospect street to division commander in the Navy was reported in a letter from Gates received this week by Frank Spotts of 155 Holmes street, a teacher at the high school.

"The fickle finger of fate sure came down and pointed me out," wrote Gates, who is on leave of absence from his duties as Bellboy football coach.

"I was to shove for good this week when a dispatch came that I was to be relieved of my command. The next day a lieutenant came on board with orders to take over as commanding officer but, as my orders hadn't come, I remained captain for four more days."

"Then my orders came: I'm being taken off to become a Division Commander and will finally have six ships under my command."

"Yesterday we went through the ceremony of transfer of command. After all was over a Motorcraft Second (motor mechanic 2/c) stepped forward and on behalf of the crew presented me with a large gold ring with navy design and a set of sterling silver bars. On the ring box was written: 'To the best skipper that we could ever have—congratulations and good luck.' Gates has been in command of an LCI (landing craft for infantry) at Norfolk, Va.

Emma Wilson On Gripsholm

Sister Of Essex St. Man
Was Teacher In China,
Prisoner Of Japs

Miss Emma Wilson of Winfield, Kansas, was not very talkative when it came to subjects regarding Japanese treatment of American and British prisoners but on one thing she was definite: she is so glad to be back in the United States that sometimes "it seems hard to believe."

Miss Wilson arrived last fortnight aboard the exchange liner Gripsholm and is spending several weeks with her brother, Norman R. Wilson of 25 Essex street. She expects to remain in Belleville until after Christmas.

With the exception of two brief vacations in the States, Miss Wilson has spent the past seventeen years in China, teaching at the Methodist school in Tientsin. The even tenor of school life was virtually uninterrupted by the war until the day after Pearl Harbor when all Allied nationals were rounded up and imprisoned in the former British compound in the city.

She remained a war prisoner there until early this year when she and 1800 others were incarcerated at Wehsien in a climate much like her own native Kansas, although it did get quite cold there.

Treatment Not Bad

She indicated that Japanese treatment of civilians was not too bad. Food was scarce according to the American standards of living and eating, but not by Oriental ideas. Clothing was as worn until it was threadbare and there was no opportunity to replace it. In September she received notice that she was in the group to be repatriated. She sailed from Shanghai on the Teia Maru, a former French Mediterranean pleasure liner, and disembarked at Goa a month later. At Goa, a Portuguese colony at that time speculating on the chances of Portugal entering the war after having conceded the Allied and Japanese repatriates were exchanged and the Gripsholm sailed a few days later.

Brief stops were made at South Africa and at Rio de Janeiro on the way home but nothing was as satisfactory as the sight of the statue of liberty when the ship plowed into New York harbor. However, Miss Wilson earnestly hopes to return to a free China as soon as possible to continue her educational program.

Injuries Slight In Two Crashes

Miss Pearl Redner, 36, of North Arlington, escaped with minor cuts and bruises about the face when a car in which she was a passenger was involved in an accident early Saturday morning.

According to police records, the car, which was driven by Nicholas DeConicco, 39, of Newark, crashed into the rear of a parked car in Washington south of Cleveland street. The second auto is owned by Albina LeScaia of Newark.

No one was injured early Sunday morning in an accident at the western end of the Belleville bridge. Police listed the drivers of the two cars as William King of Garfield and George Seibert of Jersey City.

CITIZENS OBSERVE

(Continued from Page 1) it was pointed out that the high school now sponsors only football and basketball. Baseball was eliminated, it was charged, because "it did not pay for itself" and track was dropped after Coach Wilho Winika entered the armed forces.

Inauguration of a full-scale athletic program in the grade schools was advocated by one speaker from the floor. He pointed out that all the fields on which children used to play in the town are now built upon and "we must move fast on the recreation situation if we are to get playgrounds for the children."

It was decided to hold in abeyance a complete discussion of teachers' salaries, an increment schedule and early contracts until the projected meeting between the Citizens Committee and the board of governors of the Belleville Teachers Association.

Aid to Enemy

"Any American who willfully neglects to pay his taxes on time or to invest every cent he can in War Bonds is surely giving aid and comfort to the enemy. . . . We have a job to do and we are all called for service to our country. Our dollars are called to service too. Let us all ask ourselves, 'shall we be more tender with our dollars than with the lives of our sons?' — Secretary Morgenthau.

Every War Bond You Buy
Brings Victory That Much CloserNATIONAL PRESS BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D. C.

By Anne Goode

You'll be smart if you heard leaves for next year's Victory Garden. They make an excellent soil dressing.

Christmas cigars will be scarce. Many lower-priced brands have been discontinued. The armed forces are getting most of the others.

Post-war homes will have such rubber-constructed innovations as bendable and "expandable" water pipes, coated wall paper, permanent window screens that will roll up like shades.

Did you know that margarine is the only food carrying a Federal tax? You can aid in eliminating this tax on such a good and nutritious food by writing your congressman, asking him to vote for its repeal when it comes up before Congress.

U. S. civilians will get about three-quarters as much meat in 1944 as they did in 1943, says the Department of Agriculture.

Chicory may reappear on your pantry shelves as a flavor sharper for dishes ranging from soups to ice cream. European chefs have long used it in soups, sauces and gravies.

Remember, it's more blessed to give than receive. So give your children's old toys to your nearest charity in time for it to fix them up for those kiddies who are less fortunate.

NOTED ARTISTS
IN "MESSIAH"Four Engaged For Event That Needs 300 Sponsors As Underwriters

Four well known professional artists, one trained by Chaliapin will be heard with the Oratorio Society in its presentation of Handel's "Messiah" to be given in Grace Episcopal Church, Nutley, Sunday evening at 8:30.

The Society, anxious to have this event an annual affair at the approach of the Christmas season, needs sponsors, however to make material that 300 are needed to underwrite the present effort. Any additional proceeds will be turned over to the United War Fund drive.

Soloists for the well-known oratorio on the nativity are Lawrence Singer, tenor; Charles Yearsley, baritone; Lura Stover, soprano and Janet Bush, contralto.

Singer, pupil of Feodor Chaliapin, was hailed by that internationally famous singer as "bringing a glorious voice to the world," and is now launching his American operatic and concert career. Singer was also trained by Hermann Jadowaker, internationally known tenor, and has been heard on the air and in recitals in Pennsylvania.

Charles Yearsley, who will sing the baritone role, was given the New York debut award, a much coveted recognition, by the New York Madrigal society which considered him the year's most promising artist. He is now preparing for an operatic repertoire with Carlo Edwards, the famous coach and conductor of the Metropolitan Opera association.

During the past summer, Yearsley was leading man in the operetta "The Prince of Pilsen" and Victor Herbert's "The Only Girl." He has appeared in recitals throughout the East and has taken leading roles in light opera productions. Critics have praised him not only for his brilliant singing, but also his equally fine dramatic talent.

A. Calcium is needed for the formation of bones and teeth, for the normal action of the heart and nerves, and for the clotting of the blood.

Q. Are children's requirements for calcium higher than adults?
A. Yes. Because children are growing rapidly and need the calcium to form strong bones and teeth.

Q. What happens if there is a deficiency of calcium in the diet?
A. In adults the teeth start to decay and the bones become soft and porous. In children the disease known as rickets will develop.

A. Ninety-nine percent of the calcium in the body may be found in the bones and teeth. The remainder is in the body fluid and tissues.

Q. What foods are rich in calcium?
A. Milk, cheese, and vegetables (especially greens).

Q. How can calcium losses in food preparation be prevented?
A. Cook fruits and vegetables in small amounts of water, and use the remaining liquid. Cook dried products in the liquid in which they are soaked.

Q. How can the calcium content of meat be increased?
A. If meat is cooked with the bones in the presence of a small amount of acid, the amount of calcium from the dish may be increased as much as 25 to 34 percent and an individual serving may furnish from 15 to 25 percent of the daily calcium requirement.

LT. JOHN P. RYDER AWAITS ORDER

Former High School Athlete
Commissioned Last Week
At Camp Barkeley

Orders assigning him to a permanent station will be awaiting 2nd Lt. John Patrick Ryder, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Ryder of 153 Union avenue, when he returns to Camp Barkeley, Texas, next week.

Lt. Ryder was graduated last week from the medical administrative OCS at Barkeley and was granted a 10 day leave before reporting for duty and assignment.

Ryder, a prominent athlete at the high school from which he was graduated in 1933, won varsity letters in football and baseball. For two years he worked as a clerk on the New York stock exchange before taking a sales promotion position with the Coca-Cola company.

He entered the Army in February, 1942, took his basic training at Barkeley and spent sixteen months in Denver, where he was first sergeant of the medical department enlisted technicians school.

Intensive Training

Graduation ceremonies completed four months of training. As a candidate he received training in medical administration, supply, sanitation, first aid, chemical warfare, tactics, training, and logistics. Week long bivouacs gave him experience in solving theoretical problems, many of which he may face during combat operations.

As the weeks progress during training, each man is given the opportunity to show his mettle in commanding and handling his platoon. Each week acting company commanders, first sergeants, platoon leaders, platoon sergeants, and squad leaders are chosen from the ranks and hold these jobs throughout the week. The commissioned officers can then judge the candidates on the basis of the showing they make.

Madlinger-Schanfuss

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schaufuss of 43 DeWitt avenue have announced the engagement of their daughter, Edna R. Jacqueline, to Raymond Philip Madlinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Madlinger of South Clinton street, East Orange.

Miss Schaufuss, who is a '36 graduate of the high school, is employed with the Liberty Mutual Life Insurance company of Newark. Her fiancé is an alumnus of West Side High school and is connected with the Union Carbon and Carbide company of Newark. No date for the wedding has been set.

Mark Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Fallows

Fifty years after they were married in the Old Christ Episcopal Church on Main street, Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Fallows of 75 Rossmore place were feted on their golden wedding anniversary. The party was held a week ago Tuesday at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. F. Kenneth Mase of 311 Washington avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Fallows were both born in England but have lived in Belleville for more than 50 years with the exception of a brief period in Philadelphia shortly after their marriage, which was performed by the Rev. Cornelius Abbott. Mr. Fallows has been active in civic affairs, serving one term as member and two terms as chairman of the township council in the days before Belleville went under the commission form of government. Mrs. Fallows is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Ashworth, early settlers in town.

The Fallows also have a son, Harry W. Fallows, and three grandsons, two of whom are in the Army: Cpl. Robert K. Mase with a medical detachment in Hawaii and Pfc. Frederic K. Mase at Tufts college.

School Nine Pupils To Present Christmas Program

School No. 9 will present a group of children's activities on December 16 at 8:30 in the school auditorium.

The first in the series of activities is the revived rhythm band from Miss Alice Kennedy's first grade. The group will be dressed in gay cotton regimentals and enormous hats made of the lowly oak tag. Angelina Fusaro, 6, will direct.

The intermediate grades, under the direction of Mrs. Doris Kirshner and Miss Violet McGlathery, will present "Bill's Christmas Fright" a play in three acts.

The feminine lead will be played by Phyllis Friscia, grade 4. The male lead will be taken by Donald McCloskey from the fifth grade. They will be supported by a cast of twenty-five. Jerry Jewell, Carmel Russo and James Thompson did the scenery.

The combined boys' and girls' glee clubs, by this time a hardy perennial, will sing a group of Christmas carols. These two groups consist of forty voices. Miss Gloria Apicella and Miss Indra Bryant have charge of the glee clubs.

To give the entire school building a proper Christmas atmosphere, the Parent-Teacher association gave Principal Thomas Gyzoska $25. to be used in decorating the school. Mrs. Margaret Norman is in charge of decorating the building.

Piano Forum Convenes

The Piano Forum of the Music Educators association of New Jersey will meet Monday morning at 10 at the MacHugh Studios, 37 Washington street, Newark.

Douglas Clark, 85 Academy street. A nominating committee headed by Wayne R. Parmer will present the slate. Serving on the committee have been Alvah Buckley and Frank Chambers. The meeting will be held at 8:30.

At eight o'clock, a scout leaders round table will be conducted in the auditorium of Congregation A. A. A. Boy scouts will assemble on Sunday afternoon to share with Girl scouts the job of collecting clothing for the salvage committee of the local defense council. All troops will participate.

Boy Scouts will continue to enjoy a weekly swim period in the Silver Lake Community House pool on Wednesday evenings from seven to eight.

All adults interested in scouting have been invited by the boy scout council to attend a training program in Christ Episcopal Church January 4 when scouters and cubbers will hear the fundamentals of scouting as applied to the 1944 program outlined.

A weekly instruction period for scoutmasters will be inaugurated on Tuesday evening, February 15, in Montgomery Presbyterian Church and will be continued weekly throughout February and March.

Dam The Inflation Flood

efforts of the federal government in the steady inroads of inflation consequent wrecking of the structure of the nation are in one thing while at the same time to be catastrophic if they fail. If financiers, we are just ordinary people, like you and you, are not to be the arithmetic of finance for three or four figures. But the same savings hither and yon to way out of the trap are (hold that thought!) like locking the door after the horse is gone. And it was the government that let the horse out in the first place. The way we figure it is that a blotter be found to sop up all the millions of dollars lining the public pocketbooks because of the war spending and that, if the blotter is not found in time, the dollars will be plentiful that they will have little value. The old law of supply and demand states that the more apples there are around the smaller will be the value of the apple which you have. People do not want to buy what they already have in sufficiency. The same applies to dollars: the more there are around the less will be the value of the one you have.

So now we have the picture of the government trying to stop the flood which the government itself started. For there is little doubt that the wage scales, which the administration is trying so hard today to keep in check, were all started on their soaring flight by the government itself. If Washington had ordered a certain number of planes for four-hundred thousand dollars instead of a half-million, and had done this from the beginning all over the country, wages might have been kept within bounds in that and in every other industry, whether doing actual war work or not. But if the government pays a half-million instead of four-hundred thousand which it could have gotten by with, then the plane workers get higher salaries; then the restaurant across the street which feeds the workers has to pay more to keep its cooks from going across the street to work; then the restaurant has to charge a dollar for a meal that used to cost a dollar and already in that locality the dollar has lost ten percent of its buying value. Small-scale inflation has begun there.

The government could have controlled wages strictly from the beginning of the war but did not. We think it is not yet too late to inaugurate a nation-wide wage-rationalization to halt drastically something which everyone knows can prove the ruin of the country as it was to Germany in the early 20s. A roll-back of all prices and wages may be the answer. Or perhaps a national sales tax is the solution. Call such a program socialism, if you will, but no one can truthfully say that—during a war such as we are now experiencing—all of the liberties and privileges of democracy are allowed to go uncurbed, that we do not convert temporarily to a sort of a socialistic system anyway. The only precaution which we must take is that the abrogation of our liberties is not continued after the peace is signed.

The Cloak Of Anonymity

For a very good reason—several reasons, in fact—The Times, in company with every reputable newspaper in the country, has had a long-standing rule against printing anonymous letters. For one thing, we cannot see why a man should be ashamed of an opinion, if he has one. Secondly, it is not cricket to allow men to remain in the darkness of anonymity and snipe at persons in public office—for most of the letters take them for a target. In the interests of fair play, then, it is necessary that an epistle be signed if any further action on it is expected other than filing it in the nearest wastebasket. The particular instance at hand is a letter received in Saturday's mail, a letter which we would have liked very much to print because it makes points which could be of careful study and rectification. But the letter is signed simply "A citizen interested in the welfare of Belleville." Several weeks ago another worthy letter was received, one which pointed out several important matters, signed "High school students." Not only could The Times print none of either, but the proper authorities naturally would have nothing to do with them. Therefore, these letters, and many like them, never received the slightest attention despite the fact that they were quite worth-while.

The Times insists that communications, in order to merit more than passing notice and a slight grimace, be signed with the full name and address of the author. This is principally a sign of good faith. Many times the writer does not wish his name published; he has merely to so state and it will be withheld when the letter appears in the paper. Indeed the signature will be sacred, for the source of information need never be revealed by a newspaper.

Douglas Wordsworth, Mortician, Becomes Member Of Lions

F. Douglas Wordsworth, funeral director of 74 Rossmore place, was initiated Thursday as the newest member of the Lions club at the weekly luncheon of the club at the Forest Hill Field club. Wordsworth, who is with the Sayre Funeral home of Newark, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wordsworth of the Rossmore place address. A graduate of the high school, he was married to the former Miss Helen Healy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Healy of 75 Walnut street. At the meeting of the club it was also announced that the familiar milk bottles of the Lions will not be distributed for the first time in over ten years. The response to the recent Lions dinner-dance was so gratifying, it was said, that the milk fund is sufficiently large to care for all the requests that are anticipated. Program director John Carlucci is completing plans for joint meeting luncheons with the Belleville Rotary, Nutley Lions and Montclair Lions. These are annual social affairs.

Declare Shekels Wednesday

Treasury Department Answers Commonly Asked Queries About Tax Returns

With the deadline for final declaration of income tax estimates for 1943 rapidly nearing to harass the already jittery John Q. Public, the Treasury Department yesterday tried to be helpful by releasing the answers to many commonly asked questions.

Estimates for the current year must be filed by certain classes of wage-earners before midnight Wednesday. If you are in doubt about filing, see the sixth question below.

What kind of tax filing is to be made December 15? Declarations of estimated income and victory tax, estimating how much certain persons will owe on their 1943 income in excess of income tax payments already made or of income tax withheld from wages or salary during the year.

Wasn't that done September 15? Yes. The only persons who have to file now are those who did not file then but are required to do so by December 15 either because they had an automatic postponement, or because they did not then expect enough income to require filing but now anticipate higher incomes which do require filing of declarations. Also, any persons who filed in September who underestimated the tax should file amended declarations by December 15 to avoid penalties.

What is an amended declaration? It is, in reality, a substitute declaration. It is filed on a similar form and is distinguished only by writing the word "amended" at the top of the front page of the form.

What is the purpose of these declarations? To put all taxpayers, as nearly as possible, on the pay-as-you-go system of tax payment, so that they will be able to pay their taxes in the same year that they get their income.

What information is required? You estimate your 1943 income and victory tax, based on your estimate of 1943 income and then deduct any payments made this year on 1942 tax (probably in installments in March and June) and also any taxes withheld and estimated to be withheld from wages. The remainder is the amount you owe and must be paid on or before December 15.

How do I know if I have to file a declaration by December 15? If you filed in September you don't need to file now unless you believe you underestimated the tax by more than 20 percent. If you did not file in September you should file a declaration if you had in 1942 or expect to have in 1943 income of any of the following amounts or types:

More than $100 gross income other than wages which are subject to withholding and also expect sufficient gross income from all sources to require filing an annual income tax return ($500 for a single person, $1,200 for a married couple, or $624 for an individual married person.)

Wages subject to withholding exceeding $2,700 if single or exceeding $3,500 if married ($3,500 either individually or together in the case of husbands and wives both receiving wages.)

In addition, a declaration must be filed by any person who was required to file an income tax return for 1942 and who expects his wages subject to withholding in 1943 to be less than the wages received in 1942.

How accurate must my estimate be? It should be as accurate as you can reasonably make it, especially since by December 15 there will be only two weeks of the year left. However, no penalty will be assessed if the tax is not underestimating; generally six percent.

How much is the penalty for underestimating? Generally six percent of the deficiency, but in some cases it may be less.

When will the penalties, if any, be determined? After the taxpayer files his March 15 annual income tax return showing the correct tax for the year.

Suppose I overestimate; what happens? If an overestimate results in overpayment of the correct tax shown in the March return, the collector will then give you a refund or credit.

Suppose I made a big mistake and overestimated in September, what can I do? You too may file an amended declaration by December 15. In this case if you receive a bill from the collector for an installment resulting from your September declaration, you should send this bill with your amended declaration to the collector, along with any revised payment shown to be due for December on your amended declaration.

Can a husband and wife make a joint declaration, and if they do can they file separately next March? Yes.

What if I don't file a declaration? There is a penalty of 10 percent of the tax for failure to file a declaration on time.

What if I don't pay an estimated tax installment on time? If the payment is late, there is a penalty of $2.50 or 2-1/2 percent of the tax, whichever is greater, for each installment which is late.

Where can I get copies of the forms or assistance in filling them in? From your local Collector of Internal Revenue. If you have forms left over from September, however, they are still good.

Will I still have to file an annual tax return by next March?

Yes. Nothing in the pay-as-you-go system changes the requirements for filing an annual tax return. The only difference is that when you do file your annual return you will have paid all or a substantial part of the tax, so there will be no need to pay the balance when you file.

In fact, many persons may be eligible for refunds or credits because their annual returns may show that they paid somewhat more than the correct tax.

15? Yes. Nothing in the pay-as-you-go system changes the requirements for filing an annual tax return. The only difference is that when you do file your annual return you will have paid all or a substantial part of the tax, so there will be no need to pay the balance when you file.

Chapman, Dunleavy Are Guests At Bloomfield Dinner

Coach Bill Chapman and Capt. Jim Dunleavy of the Bellboy gridders were guests Tuesday of the Fifth Quarter club of Bloomfield at its Win, Lose or Draw dinner for the Bloomfield high school football team.

Other acts include Jimmy Costello, a youthful singing comedian and Sally Joy in "Anchors Aweigh," Buddy Page conducts the overture—"Musical Moments," "Paris After Dark," the new 20th Century-Fox picture is scheduled to open on the same program.

We Have With Us Today—

James Dunleavy

A friendly young man with clear blue eyes and the ability to play exceptional football. Yes, it's none other than James Dunleavy, captain of this year's gridirers.

This has been Jim's third year on the varsity football team, and during this time he had ably filled the positions of end, center and halfback. We'll never forget the spirit and vivacity which he fostered throughout all of our games. As captain he was tops, and commanded the respect of all his teammates.

Jim is leaving us today to accept a more important position with Uncle Sam. He was sworn into the United States Navy last Wednesday, and by now he's really on his way. If the war had not intervened, Jim would have graduated next June.

When asked about the team with which he had been associated this season, Dunleavy replied, "I've never played with a better bunch of fellows—and we had a great coach."

Belleville High will certainly miss his easy smile, his bashful modesty—and some of those long runs on the field. On the other hand, Jim said that among lots of things, he would miss talking to Mr. Wische about "the little white bungalow."

Well, Jim, we're sorry to see you go, 'cause it's been swell having you with us. Don't forget to think of us once in a while. Goodbye now—and good luck!

BELLEVILLE FIVE OPENS DEC 21

Only One Letterman Back, Freshmen And J. V.'s Will Play At Home Games

With the football season coming to a successful end the Bellboys will play their first game on December 21 against East Side at Belleville. With only one letterman returning, Coach Jerry Wische is expected to mold a team from last year's junior varsity, which has seen very little action.

The '42 basketball team entered the state tournament last year when they won sixteen games while dropping two. That team was made up of Jim Shanahan, Neil Finn, George Perro, Bernie McManis, Nick Calicchio, and this year's captain, Vic Pasquariello. The first five have all graduated from the high school into the armed forces.

The Zebra's first practice game with Thomas Jefferson proved the greenness of the Bellboy Quintet, but with another practice game coming up with Sacred Heart of Elizabeth they should improve rapidly. Among those competing for first team berths are John Demunter, Michael Bell, Jim Burns, Russell Stout, Tom Lewis, and Pasquariello. Demunter, who is six feet three, and Bell, six feet one, should provide the badly needed height and the speedy Pasquariello and Burns hope to click as the point makers. Lewis and Stout are in the running as guards.

Two new coaches will help out this season. Bill Chapman, football coach, will now head the basketball team, and Nova Bab will coach the freshmen. Instead of two games being played at the home events, the freshmen will make it three. They will start at 6:45 p. m. The Jayvees will follow them and then the varsity will play.

On this year's schedule are two teams that Belleville has not met on the courts, Central and East Side. The schedule is tough, but as bad as last year's when they faced such teams as Panzer college freshmen, Montclair Teachers' freshmen and St. Benedict's who are left out this year.

Taking the place of Jimmy Cole as senior manager this year is Harry Austin.

STUDENTS' BAND OPENS SEASON AT ASSEMBLY

"Bandettes" To Offer Seven Numbers; Will Play For Noon Dancing In Gym

Belleville High school's swing band, the "Bandettes," will make its debut in an assembly program tomorrow. Starting off with the theme song, "Moments in the Moonlight," the band will present seven popular numbers. Masters of ceremonies for the occasion will be Henry Miller and Ludwig Kovalski.

Organized by Robert Parker of the faculty from members of the High school band, four years ago, the Bandettes have been able to reorganize each year except in '42-'43 when a shortage of tenor saxes, trombones, basses and drummers prevented this popular group from making their appearance. It is hoped that in subsequent years there will be enough of these instruments to keep the organization going.

This year the Bandettes are Bill Mackey, Pete Caruso, Mary Haberle and Tom Sciarillo on saxes; Ed Epling, James Debaney and Alan Bonhoff, trumpet; John Gilbert and Warren Robst, trombones; Ann Carnie, piano; Mike Pellegrino, guitar; Helen Koehne, bass; George Hancock and Walter Heinrich at the drums and Anna Santiglia, vocalist. Sound man is Ken Maryott and Lynn Swenson and Paul Mische are librarians and property men.

The Bandettes had a private debut December 3 at a tea dance in honor of the football team in the girls' gym. The students will have an opportunity to dance to the band's music in the near future.

Two Belleville Students At YMCA Conlat At Haddonfield

Belleville High school was represented at the recent Older Boys Conference held at Haddonfield, by Herbert Hahn of 162 Tappan avenue and Ernest Richie of 29 Baldwin place.

The gathering was held under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. and with the cooperation of the churches of Haddonfield in the homes of whose members the boys were quartered.

Elections and discussions of education, racial and religious problems, voting and other important topics were held.

Entertainment was provided by boys from all over the state. About 500 delegates were present.

Improving Our Corridors

Ring-g-g! There goes the bell and here comes that crowd again. No, folks, it isn't a Frank Sinatra fan crowd, it's only our students changing classes. This goes on seven times a day. They jab, push, laugh, shout, talk, sing, dance, and pitch "woo." A stampede of cattle could be no worse.

And the people who have to stand there and take it are the teachers. You may not love them, but you can surely cooperate with them.

First, stairs are taken three at a time and no thought is given to the traffic from the other direction. Results—a collision or mass confusion.

Have you ever watched a Freshman on the first day of school? They stand and stare in amazement at the mad rush between classes. And they wonder what makes everyone hurry so. Well, you can be assured that it isn't the class they're going to.

No, it's other things. That hurried reminder to a friend for an after-school affair, that run back to your locker, that borrowing of money from Joe, that walk with your best girl, and that daily bit of gossip. This, dear Freshmen, is what gets 'em between classes.

I'm sure you're all dismayed at the condition of our halls. But only we can better it. Maybe we should have students policing halls. Maybe we should have one stairway marked "UP" and stairways marked "DOWN". Whatever it is, let's decide now! Belleville High can do it if we try.

The Manshortage Problem In School

One of the assets of a good high school is school spirit. The seniors have tried to bolster school spirit by noon dancing. In more ways than one it is a grand success.

We have music supplied by the school phonograph, and later the Bandettes will take over. Quite a number of students attend. These sessions are held Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays in the latter fifteen minutes of each lunch period.

We lack only one thing—boys! What's the matter, fellows? Is it because you can't dance or is it just shyness? You can overcome both by coming and dancing.

Won't you all come in and join our dancing party?

Football Team Honored By Town And School Groups

Cheerleaders Fete Gridmen At Dance; Farmer, Johnson And Coaches Are Guests

A football-teen dance, given by the school cheerleaders in honor of the Belleville High school football team, was held in the girls' gym on Friday afternoon. Guests, besides all the members of the gridiron squad, included Superintendent and Mrs. Farmer, Principal and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spotts, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wische, and the faculty. Chapman, Spotts and Wische are head and assistant coaches respectively.

Music for the dancing was furnished by the High School "Bandettes" and by records. Miss Albertina Horstmann, former student and drum-major, now attending professional school, entertained with an acrobatic dance and Miss Anna Santiglia, sang "Say a Prayer for the Boys Over There." Bill Moffitt offered "You'll Never Know."

Some impromptu entertainment was provided by the playing of one of Chapman's college glee club records with the coach as soloist, and by Paul Brennan of the faculty, who, after persuasion, performed in a "jam session" on the drums.

Cocoa, sandwiches and cake, made by the domestic science department under the direction of Mrs. Mary Sheldon, were served by the girls of the classes.

Girls' Choir In Xmas Program

The Belleville High school girls' choir will sing December 14 at the Palleville Music Foundation Christmas program. They will offer "Twas the Night Before Christmas" by Peter Christian Lutkin.

Each year twelve girls, with superior singing voices, are selected members of the choir. This small group meets regularly during the second lunch period every Monday. As members are new, absent, they have been commended on their faithfulness to the group. The choir strives for ease of production through breath control, blend and balance of tone quality.

Officers this year are Laurel Milne, president; Joyce Shannon, vice-president; Sue Dorris, secretary and Lois Burrington, treasurer.

Belleville Lions Welcome Team And Coaches; Praise Teamwork And Play

Club Evergreen was the scene of a dinner given by the Belleville Lions' club for the Belleville High school football team last Thursday.

The team, its coaches, managers, and doctor, were welcomed by Lions' club President Henry De Phillips. De Phillips praised the squad for its teamwork, sportsmanship and fine play in winning five out of eight games this season. He also expressed a desire that the dinner become an annual affair to be looked forward to by both the team and the members of the Lions club.

John Carluog introduced coaches Bill Chapman, Jerry Wische and Frank Spotts and Dr. Donal Brown. Each spoke and highly praised the team, especially for its clean play.

The members of the club provided transportation in their own cars for the boys. They were driven down Washington avenue, led by the police car, siren screaming.

New Librarian At High School

Belleville High school teachers and students joined this week in welcoming their new librarian, Miss Audrey Hargreaves, as she assumed the duties of her new position.

Miss Hargreaves is a native of Dalton, Mass., and before coming to Belleville did all of her work in that state. She holds a B.A. degree from Middlebury college in Massachusetts and did graduate work at Columbia university in New York City.

Teaching English at Dover, and taking care of library at Lexington enabled Miss Hargreaves to understand people and the books they read. This is the first time she has held a position in New Jersey and she says that her work here will be an interesting challenge.

STUDY HALL CHATTER

Everybody had a wonderful time at the football-teen dance last Friday afternoon. The entertainment was unique and somewhat surprising. With Bill Moffitt singing, Mr. Chapman's voice, the results were amazing! Another B.H.S. fellow, now in service, is home on leave this week. All the way home from Texas comes Ed "Blackie" Norton. If May Millward and Laurel Milne ever bake another cake—Beware! Congratulations to Dot Carpenter, who had a birthday this week, on the fine work she is doing as chairlady of the committee for nontime dancing.

...she deserves a big hand for her work. Why are all the girls being so nice to Lou Johnson this week!

Those popular "Bandettes" certainly made a successful debut at the football-teen. Many happy returns to "El" Bowden—it's her birthday. Blondes seem to appeal to Gloria R. of home room 309, don't they? The draft is catching up with "Epps" Apicella. It won't be long before we'll all be saying our "goodbyes" to Orchid to Mr. Keen and Mr. Robinson for the hard work they did on the Senior Football programs. In fact they did most of the work! Former football star Richard Matus is now in the U.S. Navy. Have you noticed that B.H.S. is well represented in all the Newark department stores.

Although we haven't reached the goal set for December 7th in the "Cashmaster" drive, we can still reach it by Christmas if we hurry—so get busy. Those "diaries" written by the seniors of Mr. Gordon's English class were quite the thing. Hard at work are the future prospects of our basketball team. They ought to provide an exciting game on December 21. B. F. insists that she is no longer interested. Wonder why? A speedy recovery to Marie O'Brien, who is quite sick. No more "scoops" till next week. Be sure and watch for them!

Florists Prepare Yule Orders

With an unprecedented volume of orders to "Say It with Flowers" from members of the armed forces expected in the next three weeks before Christmas, Belleville florists are clearing the decks for action to insure prompt delivery for the holidays.

Four local florists yesterday reported that orders began coming in from military posts in the States and overseas as much as three weeks ago and the present trickle is expected to swell considerably in the last week before Christmas.

Harter's of 368 Washington avenue, received its first yuletide orders shortly after the first of November. The Belleville Roseery at 304 Washington avenue, began to take Christmas orders three weeks ago.

George H. Cox of 418 Union avenue, and Belleville Florist of 750 Belleville avenue, also have reported the beginnings of telegraphed orders from home and abroad.

The florists pointed out that, since the soldier and sailor orders will receive special consideration, civilian orders should be placed in the near future in order to insure delivery before Christmas.

Canteen Popular With Military

Many Belleville servicemen, home on leave or furlough, are reported to be taking advantage of the grade-A entertainment offered every night free to the military at the Stage Door Canteen of Newark at Washington and Linden streets.

The committee, which is the same (except for the local managers) as those which sponsor similar canteens in New York, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and other cities, is composed of many top names in show business and is thus able to bring numerous celebrities to the canteen stage.

To win quicker our soldiers must have munitions and material, more and more. To provide them all of us must buy more and more War Bonds.

Three Attend Anniversary Lunch Of County Extension Service

Three Belleville women attended the 25th anniversary luncheon of the county Extension Service Tuesday at the Old First Church, Newark. They are Mrs. Henry Squier of 338 Little street, Mrs. Frederick Jackrell of 12 Campbell avenue and Mrs. John Denike of 345 Union avenue.

The service is designed to present demonstrations in the home of clothing and food problems. In the latter category, instruction is given in canning and in the preservation and preparation of food. A demonstration is given in the home of any person requesting it, but it is desired that at least a half-dozen neighbors be present also.

It is estimated that more than a dozen demonstrations have been given in Belleville in recent months and that since the first of the year more than 800 bits of advice have been given over the telephone regarding clothing alone.

Mrs. Denike is in charge of the clothing program while Mrs. Jackrell handles the food angle.

Nationals Continue Unbeaten Way In Intermediate Court Circuit

The Nationals continued their unbeaten ways in the intermediate recreation basketball league at the high school Thursday night and then sat around watching their erstwhile lead-sharing foes, the Eagles, drop their first decision of the season.

The National five had little trouble with the Orioles, winning by a 23-12 count. In the following game the Eagles showed little of their previous class and were trounced 27-13 by the once-beaten Demons.

In the other games of the evening, the Starling for the first time this year round up in front at the final whistle, winning handily 19-13 from Fewsmith; and the Imperials were handled their third straight loss, this time 23-21 by the Shamrocks.
