The Burned-Out Stay Out

Greylock Ave. Home Guttied,
Family Forced To Remain
In Charred Embers

A once well-off colored family is living today in fire-gutted rooms on Greylock avenue because not even the best efforts of the Community Service Bureau can find quarters in crowded Belleville for the parents and four children.

The appalling situation was brought to light this week by Miss Marie Gunn, special investigator for the CSB. She declared that every approach to a landlord, white or colored, in town had met with rebuff.

Principal objection to renting of rooms to the family of misfortune has been the presence of children in the family. Belleville landlords, it seems, want only old or sterile couples or confirmed bachelors and spinsters.

The father was a cook in an Atlantic City hotel until recently when the Army air forces took over the hotels in that resort. Out of a job, the family moved to Belleville since the mother originally hailed from here.

The quarters into which they moved on the first floor on Greylock were far from what they had known. Cracks in the wall had to be stuffed with paper or cloth to keep the elements out. The rooms were so damp that the oil stove had to be moved from room to room to dry them out to make them habitable.

Stove Explodes

Three weeks ago the stove exploded and fire raced through all of the poor rooms before it could be brought under control. When the firemen had left, only one water-soaked bed remained of all that had been home to them for months.

The family upstairs took in the children, who range in age from two to nine (the eldest is a crippled girl). The parents used the remaining item of furniture. Then began the hunt for quarters for the now destitute family. When their own efforts failed, they appealed to the CSB, but that usually dependable agency was no more successful.

Today the parents are still trying to exist in the shambles that was once their home. They exist without even the consolation or satisfaction of being able to care for their children. And tonight Miss Gunn will finish another day of searching for a place for them to live.

Lt. William R. McIver

Lt. William R. McIver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross W. McIver of 135 White Oak terrace, will leave today to report at the headquarters of the Third Air Force at Tampa for active duty.

He graduated and received his wings as an aerial bombardier last fortnight at Kirtland Field, Albuquerque, and was given a two-week leave.

A 1940 graduate of St. Benedict's preparatory school, he held a peacetime position with the Westinghouse electric company in Newark. He entered the Army a year ago and received his gunner's wings at Kingman, Ariz., before going to Kirtland for his 18-week course.

ZINK URGES OKAY OF CONSTITUTION

Declares Old Code Outmoded
In Woman's Club Talk;
Courts Main Butt

The new constitution passed by the legislature but still having to meet the approval of the voters of New Jersey, was heartily endorsed by State Comptroller Zink Monday night when he spoke at the Woman's club.

His qualifications to speak on each of the branches of government he listed as: a lawyer for 30 years (judicial), an assemblyman and state senator for seven years (legislative) and comptroller for two years (executive).

He labelled the state's courts "cumbersome and outmoded." This made New Jersey notorious for slow justice, in Zink's opinion. He also pointed out the necessity of lengthening the terms of members of the legislative branch to eliminate "continuous campaigning."

Other recommendations which met Zink's approval were the elimination of many departments and agencies; salary raises for legislators and a four-year term for the governor.

"Do not make the mistake," Zink warned, "of believing that a new constitution alone will bring about the millennium. Do not fall into the error of thinking that, if we do get a new state constitution, you may all sit back and expect everything to be perfect thereafter."

"No government is any better than the people who administer it and that will be just as true under a new constitution as under the present one. 'I am convinced that we ought to have a new constitution soon, despite the wishes of the oldtime political bosses of both parties, and from South Jersey as well as North Jersey.'"

WAVE, SPAR Recruiting Drives Show First Results

Two recruits for the women's Naval reserves were reported this week by Mrs. Elmer Hyde of 43 Rossmore place, local director of a drive to line up candidates for WAVES and SPARS.

Mrs. Hyde stated that this compares very favorably with results in other, larger communities where the drive has been conducted for a longer period.

Mrs. Hyde, who can be reached at Be. 2-2178, again asked that the parents and friends of Belleville women already enlisted in the Armed forces telephone her their names. This information has been requested by military authorities and can be obtained in no other way.

Without benefit of bugles

YOU don't read much about the "paper workers" on the home front . . . but one big reason for the effectiveness of America's war effort is the skill and steadfastness of the workers at desks and telephones and business machines behind the fighting and production lines.

Their job is to keep the records straight—to do the paper work, and handle the negotiations and contacts so important to the organized effort of producing and delivering the munitions and supplies our fighting forces need.

There are 4,100 "paper workers" in New Jersey's telephone service alone, taking care of the details of the task of serving the users of over 940,000 telephones

Every month, for example, business office representatives handle over 460,000 contacts with the public . . . telephone accounting firms prepare over 1,200,000 separate statements for military, business and residential service directory clerks check 400,000 listings of telephone numbers to assure accuracy . . . installation, repair and supply service workers handle nearly a million orders and reports.

Without benefit of bugles, the legions of men and women in America's army of "paper workers" are carrying on their part in this great emergency, doing a job that is of vital aid to winning the war.

THE FOURTH WAR IS LAUNCHED

NOW -- AMERICA'S Fourth War Loan is on.

It is the largest of all war loans in terms of individual participation—in the amount you must dig down for.

And—it is, perhaps, the most important of all War Loans. For it comes at a time when the eyes of all the world are upon us; the eyes of our friends, the eyes of our enemies, the eyes of our own fighting men.

We have just entered the crucial year of the war, a year of destiny, a year that promises to decide how good or bad a world we'll have to live in all the rest of our lives. And the world is wondering how deeply we mean it when we promise our men we'll back their attack, and when we promise our Allies we'll stick with them not only through the winning of the war but through the winning of the peace as well.

The Fourth War Loan is the home front's first big test of this new and vital year. It will take unity and determination of will of all the people to make the Loan succeed.

The need for this and other War Loans should be clear to every American. This war is the costliest effort ever undertaken by any country. It costs 250 million dollars each day. This is just the cost of the war, in addition to the regular, inescapable cost of running a great and huge country. Taxes can't take care of all this outgo. Neither can government borrowing from insurance companies, savings banks, corporations, and other large investors. It is necessary to turn to the people, their weekly wages, their savings accounts, the money tucked away in pantry sugar bowls, in socks, under mattresses.

This is as it should be. In a democracy, war is the business of all the people. Some must fight, some must work, some must pay the money.

It's the only way to raise the money. It's also the right way to raise the money. It gives you a good place to invest the extra money you have today. It's a curb on inflation, on that dangerous bulk of pocket money that leads to black markets and disastrous spending. It's a mattress for tomorrow, a sort of individually planned Social Security that will bring in welcome money in the years ahead when income might not be the Mississippi flood it is today.

These last are not the reasons for the Loans.

They are extra reasons, however, over and above the $1 interest you get on every $3 you invest. The fundamental reason for the Fourth War Loan is that your beloved America, at war and in danger, needs your help!

Every one who has a job or savings, should invest at least $100—if possible, $200, $300, or $500 extra. Some 5,000,000 Americans, volunteers, will be working to sell these Bonds. One of these volunteers will ask you to buy, where you work, at your home, or some other place. If by some chance, you're missed, find out where to buy and buy on your own.

The place where you work will have a quota. That's where you should make your major investment. That's where your personal quota really counts.

But...

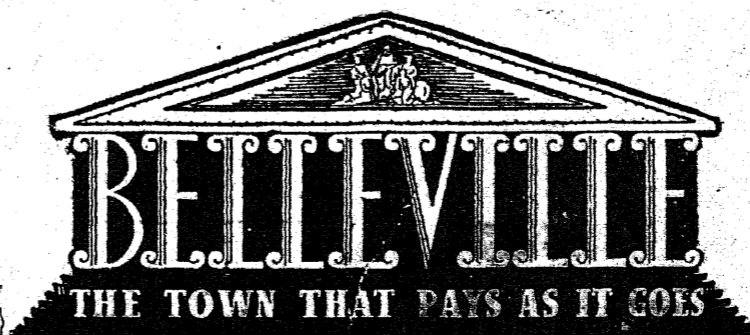

The place you live also has a quota. Try to invest there, too. Other people will ask you. Salespeople, in retail stores, have volunteered to help and have an individual quota. If they ask you to buy, try to buy from them, too. Movie theaters, restaurants, schools, banks, postoffices, and many other places also will be selling bonds.

The Fourth Loan is a test of us as a nation.

Pasquariello High Scorer, Leads Bellboys To Easy Win Over Bengals

Playing before a packed house at the Belleville gym a tricky speedy high combination made short work of the tall Bloomfield cagers Tuesday night, to the tune of 43-29 for their fifth win of the season against one loss.

To date the only team that has stopped the Bellboys has been Kearny. Bloomfield couldn't get wise to the Zebras' fast break which produced three-quarters of their points. The small Bellboys, compared to the six-footers from Bloomfield, put on one of their best games of the season by playing rings around the Bengal team.

The game started off with Frank Tripuka of the visitors putting in a lay-up. For three minutes the Bellboys were getting the range and then finally turned on the steam. Pasquariello sank a difficult pivot, Demunter put in a lay-up and Byrnes followed with another pivot. After Bloomfield's star football player, Jack Bruce, put in a foul shot, Pasquariello, Byrnes and Kennedy increased the score by two points each.

Increase Lead

In the second canto Pasquariello clicked for eight points, Byrnes Bloodworth, Bengal forward, two and "Legs" Kennedy for two. went on his scoring spree with seven points to keep Bloomfield's score up. At the intermission the Bellboys had a 26-14 lead.

With a 39-20 lead beginning the last period, Coach "Jitty" Wische substituted the entire Belleville squad with the sub-varsity, who played the last quarter. Mike Bell was high man in that canto with four points.

One feature of the game saw only four points out of a total of 72 scored on foul shots. Pasquariello sank the only Belleville one pointer out of the six penalty shots tried by his team. Bloomfield sank only one out of eleven.

A last minute spur by the jayvees fell short of its mark as Bloomfield scored a 24-22 decision. Bob Byrnes, Bellboy playmaker and pivot gatherer, tallied six markers in the opening session. Andy Byrnes was high man for the Bloomfield five with 12 points.

The Frosh clock work system was stopped by Bloomfield Junior high school 31-23. Mike Tortorello and Skip Clancy shared scoring honors for the Bellboys. Tortorello made three successive baskets to tie the game but Bloomfield's four tallies put the game on ice for the Bengals.

Frosh Beat East Side

On the same program as the Belleville-Orange game, the Belleville freshman racked up a 27-15 victory over the East Side frosh from Newark. High scorer was Mike Tortorello, who put twelve points through the rim.

Jayvees Lose to Orange

The local jayvees became the only losers of the evening when they dropped a 41-21 decision to the Orange Junior Varsity. The visitors' Mariani was the game's high scorer with 15 points, while Frank Takash scored nine for the defeated team.

Danold Rochlin Chosen Editor-In Chief of School Paper

Donald Rochlin, son of Dr. and Mrs. Morris Rochlin of 171 Cedar Hill avenue, was elected editor-in-chief of High-Lights, school paper, at a meeting of the journalism staff last Thursday.

Rochlin, a senior, was succeeded in his former post of news editor by William Ewald, also of the senior class. Other editors include Ruth Hodess, features; Ned Becker, sports; Emma Donofrio, editorial and Alan Rosenberg and Tony Flynn, make-up.

STUDY HALL CHATTER

Starting off the weekend right, was a bang-up party given by Mary Buono! Really terrific. Two birthdays this week were Jeanne Castaldi and Louise Vaccarella. Many happy returns to a certain football star wants his name in the paper why doesn't he get his facts straight?

Quite a few people heading for "Green Room" lately! Do you know where it is? Sorry to hear about Bob France and Jim Sherman. Both boys are ill in hospital. A group of girls staged themselves immensely at Count Basie show currently being at the Adams. Carole, Heather, Jane Lent and Ann on cut a rug at the "Pru" Friday night.

A talk was given to the senate by Don Rochlin on subject of war bonds and seems the seniors, of all lowest in totals. Come freshmen beat freshmen!

Plans for the Sophomore hop to be presented sometime in the spring were discussed at a recent Sophomore Senate meeting. It was stated that if one hundred per cent returns are not reached in sophomore class dues, the dance will not be carried out.

Juniors in sophomore home-rooms must pay Sophomore dues of ten cents. If there is any question about the sophomore-juniors paying these dues, they are to see Miss Emick in room 103.

Plans To Start Nurses' Aide Course For BHS Girls

Miss Alice McKenzie, school nurse, plans to start a course here in the school in home nursing for girl students who are interested in becoming nurses' aides.

A nurse's aide is one who can assist a nurse or doctor. Students learn to read the thermometer, bathe a patient, prepare a balanced diet and help dress wounds and cuts.

Miss McKenzie would like to start as soon as possible. Girls interested should see her or Lee Simpson, homeroom 208, to sign up for the course.
