Rally For War Fund Expected To Attract Full House Tonight

Drake College President, Marine and Army Heroes To Supplement Movies

An SRO sign has been readied for possible use tonight when the War Fund-Community Chest rally will be held at the Elks club. The program will start at 8:05 with the presentation of a new movie, "War Department Report."

Principal speakers will be Dr. William Cope, president of Drake business college, and Lt. John G. Hoagland, Army pilot from Bloomfield. Also expected is a Marine veteran from the southwest Pacific.

Hoagland returned recently from Africa where he flew with an American unit known as the Skull Squadron. It was attached to the British Eighth army and during the pursuit of Rommel across North Africa Hoagland participated in more than 80 missions and shot down three German planes.

His assaults from the air were directed against targets in Africa, Malta, Sicily, Pantelleria and Italy. He wears the Distinguished Flying Cross and is a member of the Late Arrivals club.

The Marine representative will be either S/Sgt. Thomas Dawson or Sgt. Robert Kirby. Both are highly decorated veterans of the air war in the southwest Pacific.

John F. Coogan Jr. of 337 Little street, general chairman of the campaign, yesterday made a last-minute appeal for support of the drive and asked critics of the affair to hold their criticisms until after it is completed, February 21.

Many Criticisms

"Reports of War Fund drive workers, made to me as general chairman, set forth various criticisms," Coogan said. "It is most interesting to note that analysis of all criticisms produces the fact that there is not a local charity included that has not been the subject of criticism or objection."

"May I say with assurance to our War Fund workers and to the folks from whom they solicit contributions that this is a normal development? There never was a progressive movement of any size that did not meet with criticism."

"Previous annual Community Chest drives have met with criticism. Many critics are sincere and many criticisms warranted—but some critics are not sincere, but grasp the opportunity to offer a criticism instead of a contribution."

"A citizen who refuses to contribute because he does not approve of this or that benefiting agency must realize that he hurts the charities that he does approve of as well as those with which he is not in sympathy."

"There is a parallel on the subject of criticism and contribution, and that is our own National effort. It is a fact that many of our right-thinking people have criticisms of our national administration, and of our war effort. But they do not permit their particular criticism to deter them in the purchase of war bonds or their individual efforts to win this war."

All Amalgamated

"Now the funds necessary to support the local civic and charitable agencies which include Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Visiting Nurses, Associated Catholic Charities, Community Service Bureau and Silver Lake Community House, in addition to the seventeen National War Fund agencies, have all been united into one War Fund."

"It's part of the home war front effort. The one all entitled to our individual criticisms of this or our participants, but totally it is our obligation to support our total war effort."

"There is a time and place for everything. I subscribe to the thought that criticisms and constructive suggestions should be sought and welcomed—at the end of this campaign."

"Now they will hurt; later they will be very helpful, helpful in establishing for Belleville a coordinated and clearly understood program for the administration and execution of the annual necessity of providing funds for Belleville's civic and charitable agencies."

"Our contributions are small in comparison to sacrifices made by others. Remember we are asked only to back the attack—others are required to make it."

To the business division, headed by Lester E. McCorkle, have been added the names of Henry S. Haffner and Max Kube; to the list of house-to-house canvassers of zone 7, captured by Mrs. Frederick Singer, Mrs. Henry Denker and Mrs. Albert Hollahan; Henry C. Lambert, James Bunting and Joseph D'Andrea.

To zone 3 under Mrs. William Armstrong; Mrs. Pierson Crisp, Mrs. George M. Adams, Mrs. Horace Atwood Jr., Mrs. Francis J. Mcadden, Mrs. Maurine McElligott, the Misses Catherine and Elizabeth Walsh, Frank Spotts and Robert Bramhall. Mrs. Elmer Hyle of zone 1 has recruited Mrs. Douglas Sharp as an extra canvasser.

Endorse War Fund

The Board further urges all the citizens of Belleville to cooperate with the volunteer solicitors and other workers in this campaign in their attempt to reach the goal of $83,525.00.

The attention of the citizens of the Town of Belleville is called to the need this year, namely 1% of income or one hour's pay a month for twelve months.

Brunner On Part-Time; Council Begins Paring Defense Expenses

Defense coordinator Ronald G. Brunner was commended Monday night after the defense council had voted to put his position on a part-time basis and halve his salary.

Council chairman Everett B. Smith praised Brunner as "a fine type of public servant" inasmuch as the coordinator, who has held that position since September, volunteered for the cut "at any time the council might wish to pare expenses."

The gradual retrenchment of civilian defense here as the danger of foreign invasion becomes more and more remote was seen as the council also voted to curtail telephone service and expenses to a minimum.

Services Outline Procedure For Mustering Out Pay

Honorably Discharged Locals Eligible For $100-300 For Military Duty

Procedure for Belleville men and women discharged from military service who are eligible for mustering out pay was outlined this week by Army and Navy headquarters in Washington.

All honorably discharged servicemen are entitled to payment under the provisions of the bill signed last week by President Roosevelt. Next of kin of veterans who have died since leaving the service may apply for the pay.

Veterans of less than sixty days' service will receive $100; those with longer service but who did not leave the country will get $200; while those who put in more than two months and who served overseas will be eligible for the maximum of $300.

All payments will be made in monthly installments of $100 each. An informal certified application should be made to the proper authority (listed below) and should include name, address, serial number and a statement regarding date and nature of discharge or release.

Also included should be the state from which the applicant was enlisted or inducted and should give details as to foreign service. The following paragraphs should also be included:

"I was not discharged or released from active service on my own request to accept employment; or if I was discharged or released to accept employment I served outside the United States since December 6, 1941."

"I am not now serving on active duty in the armed forces of the United States and have not made and will not make any other application for mustering out payment."

Officer's Longevity

Commissioned officers from all branches will be required to give evidence of their longevity record and termination of service.

Former enlisted personnel in the Navy, Coast Guard and Marine Corps will be required to give evidence of their longevity record and termination of service.

Jennings will be available at the First National each evening, Mondays through Fridays, up to and including February 29. Mr. Jennings is engaged by the bank in its desire to assist all Belleville residents with their tax returns. There is no charge for this service.

Second River Control Is Voted, Master Plan To Be Followed

The ordinance authorizing the town to begin construction on flood control walls in the Second River was passed unanimously by the commission Tuesday night. There was no objection from any citizen.

Prior to the vote, Mayor Williams recommended that the board "go on record as adopting the master plan (for control of the river) but it should be understood that we cannot be obligated to make expenditures which we cannot afford."

He was referring to the master plan for walling the entire length of the river through Bloomfield and Belleville to the Passaic River. It was drawn up by County Engineer Stickle and has been advocated by National Grain Yeast corporation as a price for its cooperation.

School Budget Approved

As expected, the school budget for 1944-5 was passed by the board of voters Tuesday night by a overwhelming margin. Only two of the 115 ballots cast voted to reject every section of the budget.

are to send their applications to the Field Branch, Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, Cleveland, O. Navy officers will apply to the Bureau of Naval Personnel, Navy Department, Washington; Marine officers to the Commandant, Marine Corps, Washington; and Coast Guard officers to Coast Guard Headquarters, also in Washington.

Commissioned and enlisted Army men and women from Belleville will file their applications with the Army Finance Officer, Public Ledger building, Independence Square, Philadelphia.

Mrs. Louise A. Noll, chairman of the Red Cross home service committee, announced last night that the Red Cross headquarters at 258 Washington avenue will be open every Friday evening from 7:30 to 9 to assist veterans in filling out their applications. She pointed out that discharge certificates (or suitable proof for officers) must accompany the applications.

Draft officials here estimated yesterday that there are approximately 250 discharged veterans in Belleville, although there is no indication as to how many are eligible for mustering out pay.

The following week the Army will put uniforms on Walter Podgorski of 28 William street, Salvatore Taibi of 94 Magnolia street, Peter A. Brady of West Caldwell and Joseph Torchia of Bloomfield.

Of the 187 potential draftees examined by military doctors last Thursday, 126 qualified for military service, draft officials announced yesterday. Twelve cases were held over.

The Army accepted 51, the Navy took 43 while 20 were placed in 1-A limited service. None can be called for military duty until after February 24 but it is expected that the first contingent will not leave until some time in March.

SELECTEES CALM BEFORE STORM

Fourteen Leave Within Two Weeks But March Quota Expected To Be Big

Something similar to the calm before the storm seemed to hang over the Belleville military picture this week as the draft board announced yesterday that only 14 men are scheduled to be inducted into service this month.

All 14 were examined and qualified for military duty last month. Meanwhile the board is still awaiting results of the examinations of the whopping big contingent of 195 which was put through pre-induction tests last Thursday.

It is felt that the March quota, which will be made up of those examined last week, will be one of the largest yet to leave Belleville. Most of the prospective March selectees and practically all of the subsequent quotas will be composed of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers and youths newly-arrived at the age of 18.

No fathers are included in the last round-up of "free" manpower scheduled to leave within the next fortnight. The Navy will take 10 of these next Thursday and the remaining four will report to the Army February 23.

Navy Candidates

The naval candidates are Michael Spasato of 23 Belmont avenue, Patsy DeFano of 472 Franklin avenue, Emmet J. Ryder of 153 Union avenue, Edward W. Mallinson of 94 Overlook avenue and Joseph V. Brogna of 88 Mt. Prospect avenue.

The five other future sailors have moved out of town since they registered: John Intindola of Lyndhurst, John Lanza, Jr. of Port Monmouth, James Quigley Smithson of Kearny, Joseph H. Jefferson Jr. and George A. Martin, both of Newark.

The following week the Army will put uniforms on Walter Podgorski of 28 William street, Salvatore Taibi of 94 Magnolia street, Peter A. Brady of West Caldwell and Joseph Torchia of Bloomfield.

Of the 187 potential draftees examined by military doctors last Thursday, 126 qualified for military service, draft officials announced yesterday. Twelve cases were held over.

The Army accepted 51, the Navy took 43 while 20 were placed in 1-A limited service. None can be called for military duty until after February 24 but it is expected that the first contingent will not leave until some time in March.

JEWS OPPOSE LAW WHICH BARS THEM FROM PALESTINE

Local Solons And Ministers Attack "White Paper" On Schwartz's Plea

In answer to a plea by Rabbi Herman Schwartz of Congregation Ahavah Achim Anshe, both the Belleville Ministers' association and the town board of commissioners this week passed resolutions condemning the so-called "British White Paper."

The document, nearly five years old, would bar Jewish immigration into Palestine after April of this year. Rabbi Schwartz charged that the "white paper" is a direct violation of the Balfour declaration which guaranteed Jews freedom of action in their ancient homeland.

Rabbi Schwartz implored Belleville citizens to take immediate steps expressing opposition to the carrying out of the provisions of the paper. In a statement to The Times yesterday, he declared:

"Twenty-six years ago the British government issued the Balfour declaration pledging itself to facilitate the establishment of a national home for the Jewish people in Palestine."

"The declaration was published to the world with the approval of the other powers allied with Great Britain in the World War, and with the encouragement and support of the government of the United States."

"It was written into the peace treaty with the aid and the approval of President Wilson, who publicly expressed his confidence that the purpose of the declaration would be fulfilled."

"A few years later, the House of Representatives and the Senate of the United States, by unanimous vote, adopted a joint resolution favoring the establishing of the Jewish national home, and on September 21, 1922 the Resolution was duly signed by President Harding."

"Since then this policy has been reaffirmed by every succeeding administration including the present. It has thus become the declared and traditional policy of the United States to favor the restoration of the Jewish national home."

Declaration Hailed

"The Balfour Declaration was justly hailed throughout the world as an act of historic reparation and as a charter of freedom for the Jewish people. It was designed to open the gates of Palestine to homeless and harassed multitudes and to pave the way for the establishment of a Jewish commonwealth."

"The reasons which twenty-six years ago led the American people and the government of the United States to favor the cause of Jewish national resolution in Palestine are still valid today. In fact, the case for a Jewish homeland is overwhelmingly stronger and the need more urgent than ever before."

"Millions of uprooted and homeless Jews will strive to reconstruct their lives anew in their ancestral home when the hour of deliverance will come."

"Flagrant Violation" of May 1939 is a flagrant violation of the Balfour declaration. It was condemned at the time of its issuance by the permanent mandate commission of the League of Nations, and was denounced as a branch of trust to the Jewish people by many who now lead Britain in her hour of great trial.

"Under the terms of the White Paper, Palestine, in April 1944, would become the only Non-Axis country in the world which would by legislation, bar Jews from immigration and land ownership, and threatens the very existence of the Jewish national home in Palestine."

"It does so at a time when millions of Europe's Jews have perished in the hand of the Nazi oppressor, and when it becomes clear, as never before, that the solution to the problem of homeless Jewry is in their reestablishment as a nation in Palestine."

"The British White Paper is legally, morally and humanly indefensible."

"All citizens of Belleville are urged to follow the noble example of the Belleville Ministers' association. Write to Congressman Hartley, Senators Walsh and Hawkes asking them to support House Resolutions 418 and 419."

"Mail your letters to Rabbi Schwartz at Congregation AAA, 317 Washington avenue, who will forward them to our representatives in Congress."

Underhill Wounded In Pacific

Word that Pvt. Fred P. Underhill of 17 Magnolia street has been wounded in action in the southwest Pacific was received this week by his sister, Mrs. Nicholas Ucci with whom he lived.

The 27-year-old Army cavalryman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Underhill of Long Island, entered military service three years ago and has been in New Caledonia and New Guinea since a year later.

Budget Is Hiked 28 Points, Set At $1,800,000; Will Hear Objections Feb. 28

LEGION ACCEPTS FIRST WOMAN

Mrs. Lea P. Havell Served As Yeomanette And Naval Inspector In Last War

A yeomanette in the Navy during World War I and a naval inspector during its present-day sequel, Mrs. Lea P. Havell of 1 Essex street is an example for local women in service.

Monday night slim sparkling-eyed Mrs. Havell became the first woman member of the Belleville Post of the American Legion. And even supposedly hard-boiled top-kicks made no protest at this initial female invasion of their heretofore totally masculine organization.

Mrs. Havell, who hails originally from Ogdensburg, N. Y., was employed as a naval inspector in a Bloomfield defense industry when the last war erupted and it was not many months later before she enlisted in New York and continued her inspection work for the Navy.

In her Navy blue uniform with Norfolk jacket, gored skirt, stiff knot sailor hat and cape she was stationed in a Harrison plant before being transferred to the Fleet Supply Base in Brooklyn where she worked for the duration.

After the war she settled down to being a housewife with her husband, Louis V. Havell, and they maintained their home at Lake Nelson near New Brunswick. Eighteen months ago they moved to Belleville in order to be nearer Mr. Havell's Newark place of business, but he died of a heart attack ten days after they arrived here.

Again Navy Inspector

Mrs. Havell subsequently resumed her business and is again a naval inspector, this time at the Oiljak manufacturing company in Montclair.

But she is quick to explain that she is "working for Uncle Sam" and not for the corporation. She has been back in harness for nine months. Now she thinks that every woman available for military duty should join one of the services (she is, naturally, partial to the WAVES).

"I think it is wonderful for women to put on the uniform of their country," she remarked. "They will never be sorry. I know my military service definitely helped me to get a position."

She has a sister and a niece living at 91 Smallwood avenue here. They are Mrs. Harry Ryno and Mrs. Raymond Brown.

Two other veterans were voted membership in the Legion Monday night. They are Raymond F. Blanchette of 44 Stephens street and Emerson L. Allbaugh of 365 Union avenue.

Initial plans were laid for past commanders' night which will be held February 21 at the Recreation House. The program, which will be under the direction of Ernest Brown, will include movies and refreshments.

Try To Sell Town-Owned Land Before Victory Gardens Start

Mayor Williams will shortly advertise every plot of town-owned property within the municipal confines in an effort to dispose of all or part of the choice parcels before requests start pouring in for permission to use sections for victory gardens.

He made this announcement and received the concurrence of the other commissioners Tuesday night. At the same time the commission confirmed three sales and rejected two others.

John Dinello bought 6 Lake street for $65. Amelia Russert got 25 feet of 496 Courtland street for $275 and John Resciniti purchased 28-33 Clinton street for $350.

Rejected by the commissioners were the bids of Dolores Granese ($200) and Fred Bruno ($225) for 113-115 Newark avenue and 10-12 Delhi terrace respectively. The property at 202 Forest street will be put on the block with $100 as the minimum bid.

Planning Commission Ordinance Delayed For Further Study

Hopes of town planning advocates of early passage of the ordinance which would set up such a board were dampened slightly Tuesday night when the commission decided to hold up action for three weeks.

Commissioner Waters prepared to introduce the measure as he had previously announced but deferred to Commissioner Mertz who requested more time to study the proposal.

Mertz claimed he knew nothing about the proposed bill "except that I have read in the newspaper." He said he was to Waters' suggestion that it be passed on first reading and full study be given it during the three weeks before the next meeting.

Employees' Bonuses Nearly Doubled In Four Departments; Public Works Alone Shows Decrease In Expense

Belleville taxpayers local cost will be $96,000 above last year's levy, a boost of approximately 28 points in the rate. The figure for 1944 is expected to be $4.63 as compared to $4.40 last year. This was the nub of the town budget as served up Tuesday night by the board of commissioners, who set February 29 as the date for the public hearing on their recommendations.

The rise in the rate is due mainly to the increased school budget which took a 16 point leap; the school levies for the county and state which went up two more points, while the remainder is to meet added costs of the operation of the town business.

Reappointed

B. Thomas Aitker

The Red Cross board of directors at its meeting Monday night again selected B. Thomas Aitker, president of the Peoples National bank as its chairman, a position to which he succeeded a year ago following the resignation of Frank Chambers.

Philip Dettelbach was named to a vice chairmanship. All other officers were re-elected: Rudolph H. Deetjen and Harvey B. Inomson, vice chairmen; Albert P. Luscombe, treasurer; Miss Esther H. Adams and Mrs. Paul P. Baxter, secretaries.

Mrs. Harvey B. Thompson relinquished her chairmanship of the production committee to take over the new special services coordinator spot. Her old position is temporarily open.

Dr. James R. Irwin was appointed chairman of the motor corps to round out the committee heads. All other changes in personnel have been previously announced.

BOND QUOTA UPPED TO THREE MILLION

Town Purchases Over Top By Half Million; Air Raid Wardens Lead Series E

Purchases of war bonds here during the Fourth War Loan had reached the unprecedented total of $2,602,422 by last night, according to chairman Philip Dettelbach who confidently predicted sales of more than $3,000,000 in the town.

The purchases took a leap of nearly $2,000,000 from the $719,000 announced last week. The biggest sales were listed in 7-8 percent Treasury notes which totaled $1,060,000.

Series E bonds have been bought up to a total of $479,506 which Dettelbach claimed put Belleville in the top group of New Jersey municipalities.

Principal agencies in pushing Series E bonds have been the air raid wardens, who have topped $77,000, the Progress club with $33,000, the Craftsmen's club with $15,000 and the Lions club with $12,225.

With the school children and the Boy Scouts beginning their sections of the war loan campaign, receipts are expected to reach the three million dollar mark without much difficulty. Dettelbach also pointed out that several large industrial investments are expected before the end of the drive.

He reminded Belleville citizens that less than a week of the Fourth War Loan remains and urged them to purchase their bonds before Tuesday (the last official day) in order that the town might receive credit for them.

If You Want To Help THE RED CROSS Or IF YOU NEED Red Cross INFORMATION Be. 2-2373, and Be. 2-2601 258 Washington Ave. Be. 2-2111, 51 Rossmore Place Adv.

The increased budget is recommended to the town on the premise, propounded by Mayor Williams, that the $300,000 surplus currently invested in war bonds should not be touched.

Good news for all town employees except members of the fire and police departments is the provision for nearly double bonuses to be granted this year.

The public safety departments are not included in the bonus picture since they were given general increments effective the first of the year. Every other department, however, has about doubled the figure appropriated in 1943 for bonuses.

Besides the tax levy of $1,368,000, the commission anticipates a total of $437,000 in miscellaneous revenues. Nearly half of this will come from the surplus cash of former years.

The remainder will be made up from such items as franchise

Round Numbers Used

For the sake of clarity and easy reading, all figures in this account of the 1944 town budget have been carried to the nearest thousand. Detailed figures will be found in the official advertisement on pages four and taxes, gross receipts tax, general licenses, water operating surplus, town-owned property and from delinquent taxes.

Public Works Down

The only department which expects to spend less this year is it did in 1943 is Director Van public works section which submitted a figure $11,000 less last year.

Principal savings in the department will be in the items for Passaic Valley sewer and a new sewer. The latter has been effected due to the place of engineer Matt J. Sheehan, now an Army captain.

Most constant of all was Mayor Williams' department of revenue and finance which has upped its request a mere $300. Forecasted salaries have been set at $6,000 for foreclosures "other expenses" has skyrocketed by the same amount.

The only other major saving is the $1,800 effected in civilian defense, due primarily to the ending of Defense Coordinator Irwin on part-time at half salary.

Commissioner Noll is asking $4,000 more than last year, partly due to a $3,000 boost in salaries of the recreation department, mainly for summer ground worker who will get a week's pay to $20 last year. An extra $800 was placed in the library toward a new roof on that building.

Noll said yesterday he is including funds in his budget for repainting the run-down at the town hall which has suffered for some time from a leaky new paint and an overabundance of posters.

Fire, Police Raises

Considering the qualms about a huge leap in the tax rate which the police and firemen were given their raises several months ago, Commissioner King's $9,000 increase seemed modest.

The salary increments will cost the town an additional $19,000 this year, although $8,000 of the amount is covered by the reduction in the bonus item. The other major saving is the $4,000 less the town will spend for a police equipment.

The services' pension fund cost taxpayers $3,000 more in 1944 principally because of a deficit of more than $8,000 must be met.

Biggest increase will be $16,000 in Director Mertz's department of public affairs. The figures for shelter ($1,000), welfare ($9,000), hospitalization ($8,000), burial ($1,000), and disposal ($250).

The town intends to pay $155,000 in bonds this year, compared to $149,000 in 1943, will reduce the total of town debt service by $4,000.

Revenues from the war department are expected to be 900 greater than last year, but no change in the budget as much as appropriation much greater.

HORNET SURVIVOR TO ADDRESS MEN MONDAY NIGHT

Lt. Richard C. Baggot Talks About Aircraft Carrier; Movies Scheduled

The Men's club of Grace Baptist church will have as its guest Monday evening at 8 former Lt. (i.g.) Richard C. Baggot, of East Orange, one of the survivors of the aircraft carrier Hornet, who received a medical discharge from the Navy last June.

The East Orange man enlisted in the Navy in October 1940, and received his commission in March of the following year. He was sent to Edgewood Arsenal, Md., for chemical warfare training, and in June 1941, reported for the outfitting of the Hornet at Newport News, Va. He participated in every action in the South Pacific in which the Hornet was involved.

He was on board when Major General "Jimmy" Doolittle, then Colonel, and his group of airmen took off to bomb Tokyo. He was in the Coral Sea and Midway battles and was one of the survivors when the ship met its end in the Battle of Santa Cruz.

After the sinking of the Hornet, Lt. Baggot served on the carrier Enterprise, participating in the action when 14 Japanese warships and transports were sunk in a furious engagement off the Solomons.

Tunnel Pictures

Motion pictures made available through the courtesy of Port of New York Authority will be shown at the meeting. These pictures tell the story of the Lincoln Tunnel and the George Washington bridge.

"Conquest of the Hudson" is a vivid and authentic picture of the planning, construction and operation of the Lincoln Tunnel. Many of the scenes were actually filmed under the river bed and show the interior of the tunnel shield, sandbags in the airlock, holing through and other major operations, the tunnel builders themselves being the cast of the story.

"Construction of the George Washington Bridge" is a pictorial demonstration in non-technical form of the principal operations involved in the construction of the George Washington bridge, which was twice the length of the longest suspension bridge ever before built.

"Millions for Safety" tells the story of the tremendous undertaking of keeping the Port Authority's facilities in repair, impressing the audience with the magnitude of the problem and with the elaborate methods developed for their protection.

These receipts are used as credits against total budget costs. Several former large reservoirs of such resources are drying up as indicated in following chart, therefore greater reliance must rest on maintaining current collections.

The above four sources of Revenue are subject to curtailment in normal business periods. Anticipated Revenues from Surplus Cash, Delinquent Taxes, Bus Receipts, Gross Receipts, Franchise Taxes, Water Operations, and Miscellaneous Accounts contribute 24% to the total of all public costs. The balance, 76%—is derived from current 1944 Taxes.

County Taxes

The constantly rising trend in County Taxes charged to Belleville is indicated as follows:

Year	County Tax	Increase on Previous Year
1936	144,558.00
1937	151,098.00	7,140.00
1938	181,422.00	30,324.00
1939	187,896.00	43,338.00
1940	189,600.00	45,042.00
1941	210,572.00	66,104.00
1942	222,559.00	78,091.00
1943	243,109.00	98,551.00
1944	247,000.00 (Est.)	102,442.00

Proper analysis of the County taxes charged to Belleville should include a study of the decreasing gross ratables of Essex County. The increased Belleville ratables during the same period give Belleville a higher percentage of the gross ratables of the County. In 1936, Belleville ratables were 1.84% of Total County ratables. In 1943, Belleville ratables were 2.45% of Total County ratables.

The following chart indicates a major reason for substantial County Tax increases for Belleville.

	County Ratables	Belleville Ratables
1936	1,612,328,805.00	29,637,076.00
1937	1,653,880,185.00	30,123,104.00
1938	1,590,433,284.00	30,263,551.00
1939	1,502,548,647.00	30,237,794.00
1940	1,438,510,536.00	29,635,593.00
1941	1,375,882,972.00	29,680,808.00
1942	1,348,825,329.00	31,131,000.00
1943	1,354,995,910.00	33,224,550.00
1944	Not Available	33,235,100.00

From 1937 to 1943, total County ratables decreased $208,324,750.00 or 13.4%.

From 1936 to 1944, total Belleville ratables increased $3,338,024.00 or 12%, mainly due to new industrial ratables. Without these new local ratables, with the present operating costs, and the decreasing County ratables, Belleville would today have a tax rate of approximately 1.84%.

State School Taxes

The trend in State School taxes is indicated as follows:

1936	$ 84,610.77
1937	79,620.80
1938	102,399.53
1939	96,025.18
1940	93,985.68
1941	89,462.88
1942	80,160.05
1943	98,591.43
1944	96,635.23

The State Board of Education returns 90% of the State School Tax that is raised in the Municipal Budget to the local Board of Education.

Local School Costs

The following chart indicates the decreasing contribution of State dollars and the increasing contribution of local tax dollars for local school costs:

School Year	State Contribution	Local School Budget
1933-4	188,496.00
1934-5	182,615.00
1935-6	163,891.00	430,706.00
1936-7	171,650.00	447,580.00
1937-8	163,452.00	484,551.00
1938-9	170,641.00	484,000.00
1939-40	152,025.00	481,000.00
1940-1	146,260.00	486,758.00
1941-2	139,257.00	514,860.00
1942-3	132,016.00	539,755.00
1943-4	132,016.00	582,126.00
1944-5	132,016.00 Est.

Dollars formerly dedicated as contributions to local school systems have been diverted to several other channels. The loss in State contributions for past eight years based on Belleville school system receiving the same amount as in 1933-1934, has cost Belleville taxpayers $340,000, an average annual loss of $42,582.00 for past eight years. Less dollars received from the State requires more local dollars to maintain the school system on present operating basis.

The local school system is educating 111 State wards placed in Belleville by the State Board of Guardians. This Board pays the Board of Education $45.00 per student, causing another loss to local taxpayers of $8,800.00 per year.

Water Department

Water Department operating profits in 1943 were $25,554.17. Newark demands an increase of 6 1/2% in prime water costs for 1944. Water Sales can be expected to decrease when present high demand subsidies, and a decrease in profits can be anticipated.

Pension Fund

As repeatedly reported, the Fire and Police Pension Fund throughout the State are not self sustaining. Legislation is to be introduced this year to aid in attaining a greater degree of solvency. The 1944 contribution of Police and Fire Members is $7,650.00. The taxpayers contribution is $16,132.04. The 1943 costs of the Pension Fund exceeded the income by $8,482.44. The present capital assets of the Fund total $59,848.22.

Sinking Fund

The final budget appropriation for the local Sinking Fund appears in the 1944 Budget. This Fund will be liquidated in 1945 by retiring approximately $437,000.00 of Term Bonds. The Town Debt will be reduced by the same total, and the surplus funds can be transferred to the General Town account.

Relief Costs

Relief Account Cash January 1, 1943	$35,148.04
Received as State Contribution	8,229.00
Total available Cash	$43,377.04
1943 Relief Expenses	26,013.50

January 1, 1944—Relief Cash Balance $17,363.54

The sum of $10,000.00 is placed in the 1944 Budget which is expected to cover needs. Operating on same basis as at present, $10,000.00 to $15,000.00 will be required in the 1945 Budget.

Town Operating Departments

(Public Affairs - Works - Safety - Property - Revenue & Finance)

Analysis of 1944 Budget indicates about 4% increase over actual 1943 Expenses for five operating departments.

1943 Budget	573,855.69
1943 Emergencies
Defense Council	5,000.00
Recreation Survey	1,000.00
1943 Total Available	579,855.69
1943 Actual Expenses	569,850.06
1943 Unexpended Balance	$ 10,005.63
1944 Operating
Department Budgets	592,057.36
Department Expenses	569,850.06
1944 Budget Increase over 1943 Expense	$ 22,207.30

The following items account for the main decreases on 1943 expenses—

Relief Account	$10,000.00
Hospitals	7,000.00
Police and Fire Salaries	18,975.00
Pension Fund	2,525.00
Library	600.00
Recreation	2,175.00
Shade Tree	700.00
Welfare	500.00
Fire Insurance	1,100.00
Bond Payments	9,000.00
Temporary Debt Interest	2,800.00
Local School Tax	42,371.00
State School Tax	2,700.00
County Tax	3,008.00
Delinquent Tax Reserve	6,818.00
Decreased Use of Cash	9,597.00
Decreased Delinquent Tax Anticipation	15,000.00

The following items account for the main decreases on 1943 expenses—

Interest on Funded Debt	13,097.00
Sinking Fund Payment	2,400.00
Defense Council	6,500.00
Passaic Valley Sewer Charges	11,000.00
Engineering Salaries	2,100.00
New Equipment	4,200.00

The above analysis of main increases and decreases indicates the determination of a tax rate estimated at $4.69. Actual tax rate is awaiting final tabulation of data by County Tax Board.

After mature considerations of the very indefinite future business conditions, decreasing sources of revenues, increasing costs as listed herein, and the necessity of using $50,000.00 of surplus cash during the past two years, the best interests of the Town demand that the present surplus of $300,000.00 be maintained.

I desire to officially place before the Board of Commissioners and the Taxpayers several matters of an adverse nature that warrant maintaining the present cash surplus, the utmost supervision of every expense factor, and the expenditure of new dollars for only the most urgently needed projects—

1. Difficulty of decreasing public expenses. The history of municipal operations shows that public costs are difficult to reduce because few people approve curtailing established public services until necessity forces economy. Municipalities are usually in the second or third year of a declining business era before economies are enacted.
2. Tax collections of 93.86% as received in 1943 cannot be expected to continued indefinitely.
3. Decreasing State contributions to local school system, and additional school costs must be considered when war activities cease.
4. Decreasing possibilities of obtaining sizeable ratables.
5. Decrease in present ratables due to average age of many buildings in Belleville. Only one sizeable home area has been developed in Belleville since the 1921 to 1928 era.
6. Relief and Welfare costs can be expected to increase with decline of business activities.
7. Veterans exemption on property now totals $253,000.00 in ratables or $12,000.00 in taxes. With 2,700 Belleville people in the Services, it is reasonable to expect a great many new veterans will become property owners, and the present exemption may easily double or quadruple. Veterans are entitled to these exemptions and our financial studies must anticipate their needs.
8. Trust and Capital Surplus, heretofore available, is now and will remain negligible for Anticipated Revenue purposes.
9. Water operating profits will undoubtedly decrease. Water costs are due to increase. Less profits can be expected for anticipated Revenue purposes.
10. Gross debt payments will decrease very little in the annual budgets for the next ten years.
11. Decrease in Current Tax collections will increase cash basis overlay. Tax sale and foreclosure costs will rise with increase in delinquent tax accounts, and in some cases, the Town will become the owner of property instead of receiving needed tax dollars.
12. County costs can be expected to remain at present figure or increase, due to two prime causes: Need of caring for greater numbers of persons arises after every war period, and decreasing county ratables are two potential items of added expense to local taxpayers.
13. Bus Receipts, Gross Receipts, Franchise Receipts as received today cannot be expected to continue as good a source of Anticipated Revenue.
14. Receipts from sales of Town owned property are decreasing due to major part of such property being of a secondary selection.
15. Every effort must be exercised to maintain a substantial surplus so Belleville can share in any public works projects developed by the State or Federal governments in post war days if necessity arises.

Respectfully submitted,

Wm. H. Williams

Resumption of High School Baseball Planned by School Athletic Council

Bellboys To Compete In Paralysis Fund Game

Pitted Against Weequahic, Kearny To Play E. Orange At Seton Hall Gym

The four leading basketball teams of this area will clash on February 26 in an event sponsored by the Newark Star Ledger, with all money taken in being donated to the Infantile Paralysis Fund. The scene will be the spacious Seton Hall college gymnasium, one of the largest in the east, capable of seating 4,000 spectators with ease.

The participating schools are Belleville, Kearny, East Orange and Weequahic of Newark. Possessor of the best records to be found in the vicinity, the teams will clash in two games, the first at 8 o'clock, the second at 9:15.

The pairings have pitted Belleville against Weequahic and Kearny against East Orange. The luck of the draw has placed teams in games not regularly scheduled in seasonal play.

Both games are expected to be close. Weequahic, coached by Harry Donn, is a hot-and-cold team which has brilliant possibilities, such as were shown when they toppled previously undefeated

East Orange, 51-49 several weeks ago.

The Bellboys, under the tutelage of Jimmy Wische, have only two defeats on their record, both close games, one to Kearny 30-24 and the other to Orange in a double overtime struggle 31-29.

Kearny-East Orange

To Kearny has been assigned the job of stopping East Orange, currently regarded as the Essex County leader. The Panthers, coached by Stan Griffin, have lost only two games, to Montclair and Weequahic.

The Kards have a brilliant star in Bob Kirk, who may be able to play although he recently enlisted in the Navy. With Kirk in the game rates as an even struggle.

It is expected that top-ranking officials will work the games, and it is a forgone conclusion that a capacity crowd will fill the gym to witness the games, which should go a long way toward determining local supremacy.

Principal Johnson Recommends Game Be Resumed After Two Year Lapse; Student Support To Be Polled

At its regular Monday meeting this week, the Belleville Athletic Council took up for consideration the question of the restoration of baseball as an integral part of the high school athletic program.

All of the members of the council, which is headed by Herbert C. Schmutz, president of the board of education, seemed to be in favor of the sport's resumption, which was recommended by Burt P. Johnson, high school principal.

According to the council's discussion, restoration of the sport depends directly upon the interest shown by students in the project. Boys in the high school are being polled this week to ascertain the number willing to play and support the game.

Baseball was played by Belleville High school teams until 1941, when the sport was abandoned. During its last season the team, coached by Larry Gates, now a Navy Lieutenant, had an unimpressive record. Since that time the question has been a hotly debated topic, with many students and townspeople clamoring for the return of the diamond game.

Will Secure Bids

Definite steps were taken at Monday's meeting to start the plans rolling. Ruel E. Daniels, council and board of education secretary, was instructed to secure bids for equipment, and Harold E. Dufford, faculty manager of athletics at the high school to open negotiations for a tentative schedule for this spring.

The council also voted to send the varsity and junior varsity basketball squads, the three coaches, and the student manager to New York to witness one of the basketball doubleheaders at Madison Square Garden.

Members of the council besides Schmutz, Johnson and Daniels are Wayne R. Parmer, superintendent of schools; Judge Everett B. Smith, August Plenge and Charles A. Gebhardt.

We Have With Us Today—

Nurse Alice McKenzie

The Florence Nightingale of Belleville High who gives consolation to the student with the smallest scratch attained maybe in a vigorous game of basketball, or the one who thinks he has the measles because of the red spots on his face. She is Alice Ann McKenzie, B. H. S. nurse.

Miss McKenzie was born in New York, but now lives in Lyndhurst. When asked about her years here at Belleville, Miss McKenzie remembered many humorous experiences which she has encountered here. Of these one appealed to your reporter most.

During one of the famous measles sieges, a boy from study hall came to see her on the complaint that he "definitely had the measles." As it happened, however, he had painted methiolate on his face, which in his mind should have been a good substitute for the real red spots.

Be that as it may, Miss McKenzie finds the students on the whole most co-operative, with the exception of the unavoidable few who take advantage of the nurse-room privilege and try to cut classes and studies. She goes on to say, however, that they don't get away with that trick, as she is usually the wiser.

Her hobbies are knitting, reading and cooking. When it comes to baking cakes, she has an added interest, that of the Home Nursing Course which she has for the senior girls. Here the girls learn the fundamentals of good housekeeping and first aid.

Miss McKenzie's ambition, since she was a small girl, has been to be a nurse, and you might call it a dream come true. Because we shall continue to have our little aches and pains, Miss McKenzie will continue her heartwarming devotion to us, and we in turn are grateful in many ways to her.

Baseball Up To Us

For several years, we students have been clamoring for the return of baseball. Well, due to the praiseworthy action of the Athletic Council Monday night, baseball is coming back if there is sufficient interest among the boys to play the game and support among the students to back the team, and if equipment can be purchased at this late date.

This is the chance we have been waiting for. If we lose it now, it will be a long time before we get another like it. LET'S GIVE BASEBALL OUR STRONGEST SUPPORT!

January Totals In School Bond Drive Released; 102 Leads

Totals released by Miss Eleanor Rush, faculty director of the Schools-at-War program, revealed that the Belleville High school students purchased a total of $3,791.75 in War bonds and stamps during the month of January.

The Future Challenges You!

When this war ends, as end it will, we will demobilize our war machines and turn to ways of peace. The hope of all is for continued employment and for lower taxes. This can be accomplished only if there is understanding cooperation between labor, industry, agriculture and government

Economists and prophets of the future talk of a $100,000,000,000 peace production. Others say we must have a 150 billion dollar production if we are to avoid unemployment and pay our tax bill too.

PROPERTY is the fruit of labor; property is desirable; it is a positive good in the world. That some should be rich shows that others may become rich, and hence is just encouragement to industry and enterprise. Let not him who is houseless pull down the house of another, but let him work diligently and build one for himself, thus by example assuring that his own shall be safe from violence when built.

—ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

March 21, 1864.

In our general economy, manufacturing employs but 30% of our people — agriculture 22%, trade and transportation 16%, Government employees (local, state & federal) — 10%, professional services 6%, miscellaneous 16%.

In the face of the above facts, let us look at what constitutes business. The 150 billion dollar production can only result if there is that much exchange of goods and services. This means $1100.00 must be spent each year for every man, woman and child of the 135,000,000 population of the United States.

That amount of business can only be created if people can and will buy automobiles, homes, clothes, food, furniture and refrigerators, and go to the movies, ball games, bowling and join in all forms of recreation. They, too, create industry and production.

All over these United States, leaders of industry are planning for the post-war world. They are trying to meet taxes of 80% on profits, set aside reserves for the change-over to peace time production and at the same time, invest in War Bonds to help pay the cost of the war. This is no easy task.

But there will be no post-war prosperity unless people will be ready to buy the articles that make industry turn the wheels of production. Production means jobs — jobs mean wages — and wages mean buying power. Unless we create savings now, we will not have buying power when the war ends.

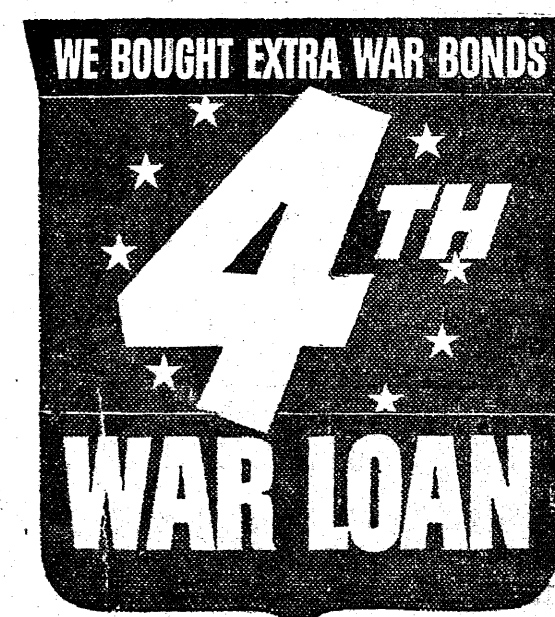

War Bonds do double duty. They buy tanks, planes, ships and guns and they are your savings for post-war buying. Post-war jobs and prosperity depend upon your purchase of War Bonds now. What you save today, will finance your needs tomorrow.

Bellevillites In Uniform

Wilbur Cipperry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cipperry of 178 Jerusalem street, was recently promoted to the grade of corporal in the Army air forces at Walker Field near Victoria, B.C.

Cipperry has been in the Army for the past year and is attached to the radio section at his field. He was formerly employed as an engineering clerk for Public Service.

His brother, Cpl. Arthur R. Cipperry was wounded in Italy in September but returned to following a brief hospitalization.

G. Pfennig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Pfennig of 1800 Madison street, is one of the cadets just graduated from Naval flight preparatory school at Colgate university. He begins the second phase of pilot training this week in the Colgate war training service, where he will receive his first flight instruction.

A 1941 graduate of Belleville high school, Pfennig attended Newark college of engineering before joining the Navy. He was in the V-12 program before becoming an aviation cadet.

Pfc. Elizabeth Martin of the Marine Corps Women's Reserve arrived in Belleville Saturday for a five-day leave with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Martin of 47 New street. She is stationed in Arlington, Va., after training at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

Pfc. Martin entered the service three months ago before which she was with the General Electric company in Newark. Previously she was graduated from Belleville high school and New Jersey State Teachers college.

Sub Veteran

Joseph J. Cifrodella, TM 2/c

Joseph J. Cifrodella, 22, corporal's mate 2/c, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cifrodella of 282 North Belmont avenue, has reported to school at New London after completing several patrols aboard Navy submarines in the Pacific.

Joining the Navy nearly four years ago, he served on a heavy cruiser before volunteering for submarine duty in 1941. He is in New London for assignment to a new submarine.

Subs to which he has been attached have destroyed an important amount of Japanese shipping and Cifrodella is authorized to wear the submarine combat pin.

Marine Cpl. William S. Beaumont Jr. recently felled three Japanese snipers who were preventing a company of Marines from entering a narrow hollow on Cape Gloucester, New Britain, according to reports of Marine Corps combat correspondents. The son of the William Beaumonts of 557 Washington avenue, he wrote his parents six weeks ago that they would not hear from him in some time.

The marine dropped his first Japanese foe to the ground, killed the second sniper who fired at Beaumont when he called on him to surrender and waited half an hour to sight the third Japanese who was strapped to the fork of a tree. He fired and the Japanese fell.

Cpl. Beaumont, who was born in Nutley, was 19 when he enlisted in the Marine corps two years ago. He trained in Parris Island, S.C., and went to the Pacific area the following May where he participated in the original invasion of Guadalcanal.

The Beaumonts have lived here five years. Previous to that they lived in Newark where Cpl. Beaumont and his brother, S/Sgt. John Beaumont, were graduated from Central high school. Cpl. Beaumont's engagement to Miss Marjorie Knobs of Elizabeth was announced previous to his departure for the Pacific area.

S/Sgt. Beaumont is stationed in England in an Army air corps headquarters company. In service eighteen months, he has spent five months there. Sgt. Beaumont was employed by the Borden milk company in Paterson before entering the Army. His wife is the former Miss Florence Kurznick of 36 Baldwin place. The couple were married last June.

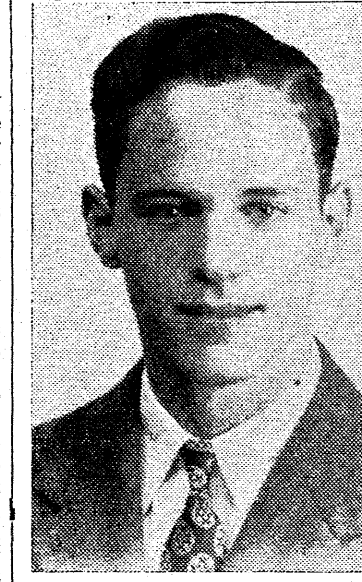

Pfc. Frank L. Ranklin Jr., of 13 Hornblower avenue is studying aerial gunnery at Las Vegas, N. A 1939 graduate of the high school, he is married to the former Miss Ann Apito of Bloomfield.

Anthony Piccolino, Seaman 2/c, today concluded a ten day leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Martello of 112

Greylock avenue. Eighteen, he enlisted in the Navy last September after being graduated from Belleville high school in June. He received boot training in Newport, R. I. and has just completed an overseas assignment.

He entered the Navy last May and was previously employed by the Crucible Steel corporation in Harrison. The Walkers are the parents of a daughter, Phyllis Jeanne, 15 months old.

Honor Graduate

Harold L. Atkins

Harold L. Atkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Atkins of 35 Essex street, was graduated with honors last week from Lawrenceville school.

Also an honor student in Belleville high school which he attended until June, he entered Lawrenceville in July for an accelerated course which would enable him to secure two semesters of college work before induction into military service.

He will enter Yale university March 1 where he will do his major work in biology. A brother, Harold Atkins, now serving in the Army medical corps, was graduated from Yale in 1942 where he obtained the degree of bachelor of science.

Next Commission Meeting Feb. 29th

A resolution passed by the commission Tuesday postpones the date of that body's next meeting to February 29. The step was taken inasmuch as the next convocation was slated for Washington's birthday. Principal items of business at the meeting will be the public hearing on the $1,800,000 budget and the introduction of the ordinance which would give Belleville a town planning board.

Foundation Seeks Addresses Of Seventeen Servicemen

Of the thousands of copies of Belleville Times mailed several months ago by the Belleville Foundation to servicemen all over the world, only 33 were returned for faulty addresses or because the soldier had been transferred and his new address was not known at his old post.

Of the 33 returned, only 17 still remain unknown since the families of the remainder have been contacted and the changes, made, according to Foundation president Harry G. Specht.

He appealed to families of the servicemen to furnish their correct mailing addresses so that future copies of Belleville Times may be delivered without delay.

The Belleville Times has agreed to act as intermediary and Specht has asked that all address corrections be telephoned or brought to The Times' office. The missing addresses are of:

Marine Hero Fighter Pilot Believed Missing In Pacific

Capt. J. F. Rogers Awarded Distinguished Flying Cross, Silver Star, Air Medal

Almost simultaneously with the announcement in Washington that Capt. John F. Rogers, Marine fighter pilot, had been awarded the Air Medal, his mother, Mrs. Frances V. Rogers of 150 Birchwood drive received a telegram from the same source announcing that he was missing in the Gilbert and Ellice island area of the south Pacific.

While details of the action in which Rogers was lost were not given, it is believed that he was a victim of a tropical hurricane which scattered the squadron of which he was leader.

Hope has not been abandoned for the 25-year-old airman since many pilots return to their bases after living for weeks or months on one of the hundreds of tiny islands and atolls of the south Pacific.

Born in Newark, Capt. Rogers attended St. Benedict's preparatory school and was graduated with a B. S. degree in commerce from Notre Dame university in 1940.

He was a member of the varsity track team. Upon graduation he served in the department of public affairs of Newark, but gave up MARINE—FRONT—MUST enter the University of Pennsylvania to study for a Masters degree in Marketing.

Saw Much Action

He enlisted in December of that year and was appointed an aviation cadet the following March. He saw action in New Hebrides and Guadalcanal before going to the Gilberts. He was a first lieutenant at the time of the action which won him the decorations.

His citations read: "For meritorious achievements while participating in aerial flight as member of a Marine fighting squadron during action against enemy Japanese forces in the vicinity of"

An Answer To The War Fund Defeatists

Those defeatists who have "scuttlebutted" the impossibility of the citizens of Belleville to meet the $83,500 quota of the Community Chest and War Fund drive have dealt solely with dollars and cents. They have failed to take into consideration the element of the natural fighting heart of an aroused American. They have resorted to arguments which have centered around the timing of the campaign and the relative state of the householder's budget after holiday bills and bond drive inroads; and they have usually wound up with an assault directed against one or two participating agencies, either local or international, which they propose to use as an excuse for omitting or substantially slicing their contributions. It is to be hoped that these critics will see their false reasoning resoundingly refuted next week by a strong response from the hearts of Belleville residents.

Normal Americans usually allow their hearts full sway over their pocketbooks when there arise such profound causes as those represented in this combined campaign. This is an excellent time to continue that practice and to refuse to be mocked by the few scoffers who would infer that we are psychologically being taken advantage of. Our hearts certainly can make only one answer to that unworthy attitude which has trickled through the community, here and there leaving ugly stains on the retaining wall of Belleville's humanitarianism.

Some critics maintain that the quota is too high. Even if we were being struck for a high loan to unfortunate humanity here and abroad, we have no call to resent any part of the request. Our sacrifice does not remotely compare with the disadvantage to which the unfortunate victims of this war have been put. In fact, our contributions do not have to be regarded at all as sacrifices unless we choose to do so. They are, rather, our personal individual passports to self-respect, our hand grenades to crack the tough armor of man's inhumanity to man, our greatest opportunity to buy directly into the peace for which we long.

Every contribution made by a Belleville resident, who has had first to swallow his objection to some phase of the drive, will be worth many times the dollars and cents he gives. Every contribution made in spite of such inner feelings will serve to strengthen the fine thread of concern which exists between men here at home and men across the seas, the bond on which peace has its real foundation. Even vast military assaults cannot achieve lasting peace if this bond is broken.

The lateness of the campaign has been decried by other critics in spite of the fact that some other communities in our own state have barely completed their drives. Are we so hidebound that November is the only month in which we can hear the call of the needy? Our enemies are no respecters of seasons and surely our defenders are not. The expulsion of shivering refugees is not always timed for May instead of December. The crews of our sea and airships are not retired in rigorous weather any more than are the strategies of our land armies planned for the specific comfort of the soldiers. Nor is any underfed Belleville baby any less hungry in February than he was in November.

One of the greatest needs, and one which can be met only if the drive is a success, is that Belleville establish a pattern by which future chest drives can be operated at a minimum of expense and delay. Only if the "great push" is made this year will this become a reality and it is a reality which we owe to ourselves to establish. Even more important, we owe it to future Belleville families, many of whom will be founded by returning servicemen during the next ten years.

All the agencies will suffer equally if the drive is not a complete success because it has been agreed that they will all accept an equal cut in their budgets. But the one thing which will be entirely eliminated will be the fund which should be established to cover the administration of Belleville's own all-year-round Community Chest. This expense would not have to be repeated in its entirety hereafter and such an office with efficient administration would pay large dividends in the confidence which it would establish between donors and recipients.

Richly Deserved Honor For An Active Man

Some men are possessed with such a sense of duty and "get-up-and-go" that they are either leading every civic endeavor or industrial endeavor or are found in the second rank. The number of ways into which their unbounding enthusiasms will carry them seems never-ending. They are the eternal committee men, the inevitable men who get things done in the long-run, usually, while somebody else stands out in front and takes the bows; they are the real pluggers who get the programs across through the sheer force of their own magnetism. Such men always have their critics and their enemies, but the latter are chiefly those motivated by jealousy, those who ordinarily would just as soon sit quietly while the busy man assumes more and more burdens. But were it not for the energy-expenders, few projects would be carried through to completion, few ideas would progress beyond the state of conception.

Just such a man is William J. Orchard, general manager of Wallace & Tiernan company here. For more than a quarter of a century he has been one of the outstanding leaders of the county, of his home community of Maplewood and of his adopted town of Belleville. His influence has been felt just as much here as it has in any of his many endeavors. Industrially he has been an outstanding figure in the field of water works engineering for thirty years. It was Mr. Orchard who guided Wallace & Tiernan through the early stages of development and led it to its present position as the world's largest manufacturer of chlorinators for water purification. When W & T settled in Belleville twenty years ago the firm was viewed with suspicion since it was the first large plant to locate here in many years. Townspeople did not like the thought of big business entering what had been a small community.

Mr. Orchard, however, developed an immediate program of civic interest in the town and the Bellevillites gradually forgot their fears and have since been thankful many times for the community work in which Mr. Orchard and his firm have been leaders. Wallace & Tiernan is probably better known among the rank and file of Belleville people than other concern in the town, and much of the thanks for this state of affairs is rightfully laid at the Orchard doorstep since he has ever recognized the responsibility of a large corporation toward the community in which it is located.

Last week Mr. Orchard's multiple services to his home town was recognized officially when the Chamber of Commerce of the Oranges and Maplewood named him their outstanding citizen of 1943. His list of accomplishments would put most Who's Who biographies to shame, for besides his company work he has been chairman of the Community Manpower Mobilization committee which skillfully prevented the Newark area from being classified as critical (a step which would have stopped the flow of war contracts here), founder of Maplewood's Citizen's committee and Citizen's Budget committee, treasurer of its Community Service Bureau, president of its Civic association and holds membership in numerous other organizations. He is known here principally as an honorary member of Belleville Rotary and for his work in the Belleville Manufacturers' association, but has been active in many other programs. He has also been commodore of the Bay Head Yacht club and of the Barnegat Bay Yacht Racing association. The list of his activities goes on and on. He has too much energy for one man and must use more and more of it for the betterment of individuals and organizations. The honor which has come to him is richly deserved and he would be a strong candidate for such an honor in Belleville.

CHINA RELIEF FUND NEARLY DOUBLES

Rev. Peter R. Deckenbach, Local Chairman, Lists Work Of Committee

United China Relief sent to China for its 1943 relief program $8,612,000, it is announced by Rev. Peter R. Deckenbach, chairman of the United China Relief committee in Belleville. UCR is a member of the National War Fund.

This is an increase of more than there and a half million over the sum sent in 1942, almost five million more than was sent in 1941. Administrative cost for 1943 was 5.92 per cent, including servicing the relief program in China, as compared with 8.73 per cent in 1942.

The 1943 relief program covered five fields of effort: education, medicine and public health, child care, direct relief and self-help projects.

Disastrous inflation, which has brought special hardships to the white collar class living on fixed incomes, made assistance to teachers and students of primary importance in 1943.

Through the Associated Boards for Christian Colleges in China, the Church Committee for China Relief and the National Student Relief Committee, United China Relief gave aid in the form of scholarships, "rice subsidies" and other grants to 3,000 faculty member and 20,000 students in middle schools and colleges.

In the field of medicine and public health, United China Relief continued its support of army and civilian hospitals and emergency medical service training schools; aided the transportation of medical supplies and gave assistance to the personnel training program and the anti-epidemic work of the Chinese Health Administration.

P. S. Purchases $14,000,000 In Fourth War Loan Drive

In the Fourth War Loan drive Public Service corporation and affiliated companies have purchased government securities to the amount of $14,000,000.

This brings to $39,410,000 the total amount of government securities now owned by Public Service. These securities were purchased during the various war loan campaigns.

Series D war bonds, are being subscribed for regularly by approximately 15,000 Public Service employees through a payroll savings plan which was started in June, 1941, six months before the attack on Pearl Harbor.

Girls Change Socials To Afghans And Now To Child Care

A group of high school girls, who organized last year for social gatherings and wound up by knitting afghans for acquaintances in the armed forces, have gone a step further this year in their desire to be of service. They propose to care for the children of defense workers after school hours and on Saturdays.

Miss Angela Gaccione of 31 Greylock avenue is president of the little club; the Misses Ronnie Trignano, vice-president; Eleanor Gavilhusgy, secretary and Dolores Cafone, treasurer.

The suggestion was made by the mother of one of the girls that many defense working mothers find it hard to work on the most desirable factory shifts because their children would be left alone for an interval.

The girls will make themselves available for such intermittent child care and a call to Be. 2-1461-J, the residence of Miss Cafone, will secure one of them.

Others of the group, which announced its plan this week, are the Misses Teresa Longo, Edith Frunzi, Mary Cerami, Betty Lupo and Mary Luzzi. Any financial proceeds will be used by the girls to finance club ventures.

WAR BONDS will buy security for you and for America!

BREEZE
MARK

Let's All BACK THE ATTACK!

BLOOD DONATIONS by the hundreds have been made by Breeze workers during the past year to the Red Cross Blood Bank.

SALVAGE CAMPAIGNS both at home and at their work are aided by the efforts of Breeze men and women.

WAR BONDS with a value of $111,000 bought by Breeze workers during the 3rd War Loan Drive over and above regular 10% payroll deduction plan.

RED CROSS ambulance, station wagon and special car donated by Breeze management to Motor Corps.

Our Third Front

VICTORY DEPENDS ON WHAT WE DO AT HOME AS WELL

THERE is a Third Front, here at home, on which men and women of Breeze are fighting. Putting 10% and more of their pay in War Bonds, giving blood regularly to the Red Cross Blood Bank, cooperating to the fullest extent in civilian defense activities and government war campaigns, Breeze workers are a part of the great team that is backing up the boys at the front. Without this teamwork, the efforts of our fighting men might well be wasted. And in addition to their outside work, the men and women of Breeze are on the job day and night, turning out in tremendous quantities the well-known Breeze products which are serving America today on fighting fronts the world over.

Breeze
CORPORATIONS, INC.
NEWARK, NEW JERSEY

PRODUCTION FOR VICTORY — PRODUCTS FOR PEACE

Excerpt from a letter received from one of the Breeze boys at the fighting front by J. T. Mascuch, President of Breeze Corps., Inc.

"I know of our products and of their very great importance to all on the war front, and I, like all, am mighty proud of the fine job the Breeze employees and management are doing not only in the production line but also in the buying of War Bonds and Stamps, and of their fine effort in their contribution to the Red Cross. It is grand to hear what all are doing at home for all of us fellows. I'll say a salute and a prayer of thanks to you all for your fine effort at such a crucial part of all our lives. How can we help but surely win—and the Victory will be ours and peace everlasting."

and has been in the army one and a half years. Pfc. James Corino has spent four months of his year's service with the Air corps in England. He is attached to a service squadron.

Of Trip Through Africa Soldier Paints Vivid Scene

Sgt. Milo Salters Writes
Of Horseback Journey
In Arab Country

Sgt. Milo Salters of 30 Prospect street, now stationed in Italy, has developed a literary talent according to members of his family and has written a good deal of poetry and descriptive narrative since he went abroad with an American Army engineer's battalion.

From North Africa he recently sent to Miss Irene F. Waldie of 15 High street the realistic scene, in the form of an imaginative journey, which is reprinted here. Sgt. Salters entered the Army in June, 1942 and went overseas the following November after a short leave at home. The son of Mr. and Mrs. William Salters, he was born here, was graduated from Belleville High school and was a member of the Edwards Gaspel singers and the Adelphi Players.

He was active in the attempt to form a Negro Boy scout troop here just before he left Belleville. Sgt. Salters trained at Fort George Fratella, who received a medical discharge from the Army three months ago after a half a year's service, expects to be accepted tomorrow into the merchant marine. He "couldn't stay out of the fight."

His brother, Pvt. Fiore Fratella, will leave Belleville tomorrow to return to his station at Sioux Falls, S. D. He was married Sunday while on furlough in Sardinia.

Sgt. Patrick J. Hoey, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hoey of 18 Prospect street, a veteran of the African invasion, and a veteran of many subsequent battles, was a member of a group of infantrymen who have arrived in England to help train troops preparing for the invasion of occupied Europe, according to a dispatch from headquarters of the ETO.

Hoey has been in the Army three years and overseas nearly half that time. He has a brother, T/Sgt. Daniel Hoey Jr., stationed with a tank destroyer unit in Louisiana.

Lt. Andrew J. McMaster, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McMaster of 242 Washington avenue, was transferred last week-end from Camp Stewart, Ga., to a post in West Enderbury, N.I. A former president of Nereid boat club, the anti-aircraft officer returned recently from service in Trinidad. His brother, Pvt. Howard McMaster, is stationed at Camp Croft, S. C.

Cpl. R. Lorraine Michel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Michel of 126 Birchwood drive, has been appointed section chief of the WAC portion of the motor pool at Fort Hamilton, N. Y. She joined the WAC last April.

When Pvt. Robert E. Kingsland completed a brief furlough here Sunday he reported to his new station, Camp Roberts, Cal. He has been in service ten months and recently completed two months' maneuvers in Louisiana. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Kingsland of 17 New street.

Pvt. Charles Tedesco, former Belleville attorney and assistant to Commissioner Noll, spent two day last weekend visiting friends here. The remainder of his furlough he devoted to his wife in Stamford, Conn.

Tedesco recently completed his basic infantry training at Camp Wheeler, Ga., and is now being transferred to Fort George Meade, Md.

Pvt. Richard Babbitt, who has been stationed at Camp Polk, La., with a medical unit, has been transferred to Camp Roberts, Cal., to await assignment to an Army flying school. He recently passed his aviation cadet's examination.

His brother, Walter H. Babbitt Jr., is with the Army transportation corps somewhere in the southwest Pacific. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Babbitt of 250 Greylock Knox, Ky. In civilian life he was with the Essex Lumber company.

Sgt. Salters wrote: "Time: 6 A.M.

"Scene: Army camp near a native village.

"Good morning, Irene. I've promised you for quite a while that I'd drop by and take you on a sight-seeing trip. Well, I'm here to keep my promise.

"Now, don't get me wrong. We're not going to walk, for we've never get far before we'd be overcome by this heat, which is so terrific. I've brought along two horses which my commander let me have, you don't have to worry for they are tame.

Take Trail by Stream

"Here let me help you. Wait a minute, always mount from the left side. There, first we'll take the trail to our right which runs down by the big stream and there we can see the different tropical fish and also many beautiful birds.

"There's nothing to be frightened about, the natives won't harm us. I've brought along some candy and a little salt which they crave.

"As we get a little further down the trail you'll be able to see small openings in the brush which the natives use for going from village to village.

"There you can see one now, it's just about the size of a man, for they usually travel alone. Look above your head, no it's not a serpent, just a bird. He's about the size of our American eagle, but much more beautiful.

"See, he has all the colors of the rainbow, and he builds his nest high on the mountain, which I'll show you when we turn the bend.

"I see you looking at the pack I have, well, that is our lunch. One of the native women fixed it. Nothing much, just a little fruit and nuts. You really can't eat much of anything while here, for the heat is too much. I also have some tea which our mess sergeant made. That'll keep us from drinking too much water.

"Now look, right before us is the big stream. See how the fish flitter in the morning sun, and listen to the birds. To me this is a wonderful spot, for Mother Nature has built it herself.

Natives Fear Fish

"There's a fish that the natives are afraid of. They claim he is evil. He does look that way, doesn't he? He has a face almost like a snake and his teeth project. Well, we'll ride along for I'd like to show you how all this looks from the top of the mountain.

"We're coming into the native village. Here, take some of this candy and when the children come near give it to them, but be careful not to give it all to just one, for they'll start a fight.

"Here they come now. That little fellow with the smile on his face is the chief's son. They all like him. No, no, we won't stop, just throw it. That's it. See how they run off to themselves? They're happy now and they will always like you for being so good to them.

"The large straw hut to your left is their temple and also the home of the priest. Perhaps we'll get a chance to see him before we return to the area. He looks to be about 75 years old, has long, gray hair and also a beard which extends to his chest. There he is now. Why, they're getting ready for a marriage ceremony. You must see this by all means. If we hurry we can view it from the mountain.

"They first bring the bride who wears a long robe of different colors and also a veil and for about 15 minutes they play weird music as if charmed by the devil. "Then the bridegroom appears clad only in a bandana about his waist and with three golden rings upon his right arm, which are finally put on the left arm of the bride. They are joined together by the priest, who anoints them both with a liquid prepared by his wife.

"After this a crown is placed upon their heads and the veil is removed from the face of the bride, who then for the first time sees the man she must live with for life.

After the ceremony there is a feast with roast pig and food of every kind. This lasts until nearly sundown then the bridegroom takes his bride up a trail to a beautiful spot on top of the mountain. After the sun disappears in the sky they return to the village man and wife.

Tomb of Forgotten Men

"But now we must hurry. We'll go this way so we can reach the top much quicker. The cove which you'll see as we round the bend is called the 'Tomb of Forgotten Men' by the natives.

"It's said that no one has ever entered it and returned, and it's also supposed to have been the home of a wicked witch doctor who killed many of his tribe because he wanted to be chief.

"Well, here we are at the top. See over there? That's the bridal trail. It's really beautiful. Just look at the palm trees and the flowers. It doesn't seem possible that they could grow way up here so many miles. "We'll stop over there by that cluster of grass and eat our lunch and then we must hurry back before it's too late. Here let me help you, there.

"From over here to your left you can see the camp. It doesn't look seven miles off, but it really is. Now look a'most below you and you can see the native village and also the ceremony being performed.

"I'll open the lunch and you can keep looking through the glasses. Here, have some tea and a few bananas. I don't care for anything but a little tea. No, I'm not sick, only I just don't eat much in hot weather like this. "Wait, I'll show you something interesting. Here, take the glasses and look directly in front of you. See the monkeys and apes. Keep looking, you'll see nearly every kind of animal you've ever heard of and then some.

"Sure, they're wild, but we won't go back that way, so there's nothing to worry about. For safety first I always carry my service revolver with me.

Start Back

"Well, I guess we'll be starting back. Do you care for any more tea? If not, we'll start back. Let me help you again onto your horse. Be careful as we go down the trail, for it's not as easy for the horse as it is climbing up the mountain. I guess by the time we reach the village the ceremony will be over. "You know, Irene, since I've been away from home I've often wondered how the natives would be in our country? They are human just as we, but know hardly anything about civilization.

"Why here we are at the village already. I was right, the ceremony is over, but look at the food. We'll go around them because I don't want to stop unless we have to. "Now we'll be back at the camp soon and our sightseeing will be over. Well, here we are, wait, I'll help you down. I do hope you enjoyed yourself. No don't thank me. I'm glad I could take you around to see this part of the country. When you get back home tell everybody I said hello and I'll meet them just as soon as my job is finished. "Good night."
