

Joseph M. La Penta Killed, Three Others Missing

Casualties Of Italian War
Fall In Battle; Other
Offerings To Mars

Parents of more than a half-dozen Belleville servicemen received telegrams from the War department this week carrying the word that their sons are casualties of war. All were reported in the Italian fighting around the end of January and beginning of February. It was one of the severest weeks in the town since the war began.

Hending Belleville's war casualty list this week was the name of Pvt. Joseph M. La Penta who was reported killed in action in Italy just two days after his nineteenth birthday.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael La Penta of 68 Eugene place, received a War department telegram announcing his death "in defense of his country" and a letter followed from the adjutant general two days later.

The youthful infantryman was born in Newark and was educated in schools there. His family moved to Belleville nearly two years ago, at which time he was employed with Baker and company of Newark.

He entered the Army last June and spent five months at Camp Croft, S. C., before going overseas in November. He was in Africa only a month when he was moved up to the front in Italy where he was a machine gunner.

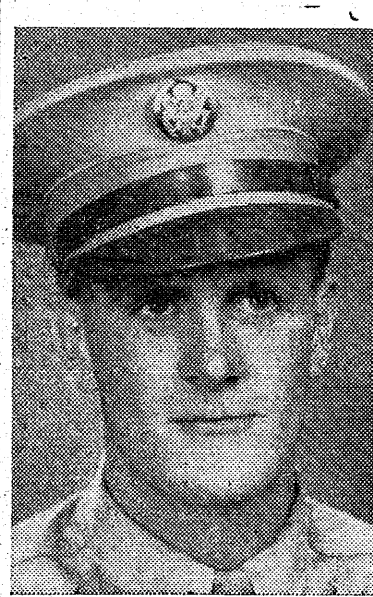

Early in January he was hospitalized for a brief period but on his birthday, January 19, he wrote that he was out of the hospital and "waiting to be moved out. I guess you will not be hearing from me for a while," he added.

Later in the day, however, he penned another letter, his last, in view of the fact that he had just received a letter from home. The V-mail note hastily scribbled, ended: "Must close now, I am leaving." He was killed two days later.

His father also trained in Camp Croft in the last war and saw 11 months of action in France. Joseph also leaves a brother Robert and a sister, Miss Florence La Penta, both at home.

Place Missing
A war department wire Monday morning announced that Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Place of 146 Stephens street, the news that their son, Cpl. Kenneth Place, is missing in action in Italy since some time in January 30.

Nineteen-year-old Place was a member of the Rangers, for which service he volunteered three months ago and training for which he took overseas.

Born in Belleville, he lived all his life here. He played football at the high school and was a noted basketball player with independent teams. Prior to entering the Army last April he was working with his father in the trucking business.

Stationed at Camp Croft, he trained in the infantry until he went overseas in October. He was stationed in North Africa before going into the fighting in Italy two months ago.

He has two brothers in uniform: Cpl. George Place with the signal corps in England and Pvt. Clarence E. Place who is with a military police unit at Fort George Meade, Md.

Cpl. Dobbins Missing
Mrs. Edna Dobbins of 98 Belmore street received word Tuesday night that her son, Cpl. Robert A. Dobbins, 26, has been missing in action on the Italian front since February 13.

Born in Newark, Dobbins attended Union avenue school and Belleville high school. He is a member of the Royal Arcanum and in peace time was employed with the Westinghouse company in Newark.

He entered the Army a year ago and received his infantry training at Fort Jackson, S. C. Six months ago he went overseas as a rifleman and had been in the thick of fighting in Italy since some time in December.

He is the only son of Mrs. Dobbins and the late Arthur Dobbins. He has a sister, Mrs. Mortimer Jonas who resides at the Belmore street address.

Second Brother Missing
Pvt. Joseph Bocchino, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Bocchino of 15 Frederick street, was reported missing in Italy January 21, only five months after his brother, Anthony Jr., was carried on a similar list.

The Bocchinos received their war department telegram Saturday night, renewing the fears they lived through between the time Anthony was reported missing and the time he was listed as a German prisoner of war. He is still in a Nazi prison camp.

Born in Belleville, Joseph attended the high school and entered the Army infantry a year and a half ago. After training in Fort Bragg and Fort George Meade, he was shipped to Africa in December.

Shortly after he moved up to the fighting front in Italy and was assigned to the same battalion that his brother had belonged to.

LEGION TO INDUCT THIRTEEN MEN, FIRST WOMAN

At Auxiliary Party
Monday Night

The induction of 14 new members will highlight the 25th anniversary party of Belleville Post 105, American Legion, Monday evening at the Recreation House. The auxiliary is in charge of arrangements for the party while Commander William Konrad will officiate at the initiation.

Heading the list of inductees will be Mrs. Lee P. Havell of 1 Essex street, the first woman ever to become a member of the legion here. The other new members are: Emerson L. Albaugh of 365 Union avenue, John P. Bangeman of 55 Tiona avenue, Raymond P. Blanchette of 44 Stephens street, Daniel F. Dunn of 6 Smith street, Joseph C. Duval of 30 Rossmore place, George K. Fyfe of Newark; Serge Essayan of 221 Little street, William J. Gilchrist of 123 Rutgers street, H. E. Glass of 57 Division avenue, W. H. Hoffman of Nutley, William Jacobs of 484 Washington avenue, Ralph M. Sage of 179 Fairway avenue and George H. Weston of 184 Tappan avenue.

Mrs. Charles Hoffman will be chairman of the hostesses at the party and all auxiliary members have been asked to assist. There are 44 members enrolled in the auxiliary.

Collect Pocketbooks
The latter group has begun collection of discarded leather and imitation leather pocketbooks, salvage from which will be used to make certain equipment for the therapy department of the soldiers' hospital at Atlantic City.

Pocketbooks may be left at the Recreation house, at the residence of Mrs. William Kane of 333 Cortlandt street, at the stamp booth in the lobby of the Capitol theater or at the office of The Belleville Times at 328 Washington avenue.

Since September the auxiliary has given up its social meeting nights, formerly the fourth Monday of each month, in favor of sessions to make bandages and surgical dressings for the Red Cross.

Mrs. George Barnett, who is chairman of this work, declared yesterday that as many as 1,000 dressings have been turned out at a single session.

The auxiliary sold $4,860 worth of war bonds during the Fourth War Loan and reported sales of $444 in savings stamps during February at the Capitol theater booth.

Working Mothers To Register
Child Care Opinions

Today, tomorrow and Saturday will be registration days in Town hall for mothers, now working or contemplating employment, who would enroll their children in a day nursery should the child care committee of the local defense council succeed in establishing one here.

The defense council office will be open for this purpose today and Friday until 5 and again from 7 to 9 o'clock Saturday hours will be from 8:30 to 5.

Since this registration will be the decisive factor in a matter which has been under discussion for more than two years authorities have urged that all those concerned make known their intention to use a nursery. There is no indication of a further opportunity to express a desire for such child care.

Defense coordinator Ronald G. Brunner, Superintendent of schools, Wayne R. Farmer, Mrs. Julia O. Reiner, executive secretary of the Community Service bureau and Mrs. Morris Rochlin, chairman of the child care committee will divide registration duties.

Two House Robberies Net
Burglars Very Little

Two house breaks last weekend netted the burglars a pittance in loot. Police have not indicated whether or not they connect the two robberies which occurred 24 hours and a couple of miles apart.

Miss Sylvia Winkelman of 33 Smallwood avenue reported the theft of $50 worth of jewelry, a tin box of pennies and $4 in cash stolen Thursday.

The next day Mrs. George Haring of 257 Union avenue reported that clothes closets in her home had been ransacked and $20 in cash taken.

Police said entry to the Haring home was made when two rear windows were jimmied but that entrance to the Winkelman residence was not forced.

Lloyd Engineering Gets Red Cross Flag

Bloodstain Piques Police;
Two Other Accidents
In Two Days

An automobile neatly telescoped against a tree near Montgomery school early Thursday morning sent police scurrying for the owner, particularly when they found blood on the running board and a bloody handkerchief nearby.

The car was traced to Christopher Lawlor of 328 Washington avenue who laid the blame for the accident on a cigarette. He was attempting to toss the butt out of the window when he lost control of the car and crashed into the tree, he told police.

His wife, a passenger in the car, suffered slight cuts about the face. Later William Fabian of the shade tree commission reported no damage to the tree.

Earlier the same morning William H. McBrien, 30, of Brighton, S. I., crashed into a parker car in Mill street near Cortlandt street, according to police.

The other auto was owned by Frank Baczewski of North Arlington. The McBrien car was wrecked and was towed to the Blue and White garage.

Another freak accident wrecked the car of James Broughton of Jersey City Saturday evening. The car, parked in front of 157 Tappan avenue, slipped its moorings and rolled down the hill to crash into a tree a few hundred feet away, police said.

Faints at Wheel
Mrs. Lottie B. Kyle of 183 Joramole street suffered contusions of the head, chest and leg Tuesday afternoon when she lost control of her car as a result of a sudden fainting spell.

Driving north on Hornblower avenue, she fainted. The car swung into Van Houten place, climbed the curb and smashed against the lawn of Mrs. Ceil Connolly at No. 64.

Mrs. Violet Kvivik of Hancox avenue was slightly injured Monday afternoon when her car was in a collision at Valley and Holmes street with the automobile operated by Vincent Kitty Jr. of 51 Mt. Prospect avenue.

Setback Ordinance For Main St.
And Belleville Ave. Delayed

Final passage of an ordinance setting a 15 to 19-foot setback on Belleville avenue between Union and Washington avenues was delayed Tuesday by the board of commissioners to permit advertising of a public hearing to be held on the subject April 11.

Included in the hearing will be another proposed ordinance which would require a 15-foot setback on the west side of Main street from Rutgers street to the Nutley line.

The tabling of the measures was done to comply with a state law which requires at least three weeks' notice of the public hearing.

Police Seek Escaped Soldier

Police were searching this week for Pvt. Anthony T. Marone, 22, of 15 Van Rensselaer street who was reported escaped from the guardhouse at Fort Hancock. With him was Pvt. Michael Mills, 29, of Newark.

Marone was arrested January 21 on a burglary and a statutory charge in Newark. At that time he was said to have been AWOL from the Army for six months.

Spring Will Burst Forth Monday Afternoon

Ah, spring!
Do you want to see wifing
I told, how absurd,
I thought do wifing wuz on de boil!

Next Monday, as it must to all men, death will come to Ol' Man Winter — and nary a tear will be shed. His death knell will be sounded at 12:49 Monday afternoon.

Queried this week, oldsters could not remember a milder winter, a winter marked by few really cold spells and by only three snowstorms worthy of the name. (For which the DPW was thankful.)

Although the vernal equinox (when day and night are the same length the world over) is only four days away, no robins have been officially reported in town. They probably couldn't get gas to come home from Florida.

Town Cannot Refuse License For Temporary Merchandising

Under existing ordinances the town commission cannot refuse to grant a temporary sales license to a merchant that body decided Tuesday night while discussing the application of Wadie M. Fahmie of the Community Market of 199 Washington avenue to sell Easter flowers.

It was pointed out that established florists throughout the town "kiss every year because their business is not protected" but that the town has no right to refuse the permit.

Town Attorney Keenan declared that he has previously answered objections by telling the florists an ordinance could be suggested by their attorney but that "they never get around to it."

The license was granted.

Three Town-Owned Lots Offered Five Sales Approved

Offered for sale this week by the town were three parcels of town-owned property with a total asking price of $700. All are in the Silver Lake section.

Listed to go on the auction block are properties at 19-21 North Seventh street ($175), 14 North Eighth street ($125) and 36-38 Franklin street ($400).

Approved Tuesday night by the commission were sales amounting to $3,640. Largest item included the parcels, bought by Ace Homes incorporated for $4,850, at 59-59 and 65-67 Mt. Prospect avenue, 415-419 and 453-455 Franklin avenue, 62-66 Fairview place, 69-71, 81, 78-84 Melvex street.

Also confirmed were sales of 53 Lake street to Philip Masas for $125, of 68-70 Roosevelt avenue to Anthony J. Giampietro for $200, of 5-11 Lake street to Josephine Cozzella for $50 and of 76 Mt. Prospect avenue to James Ottaviani for $85.

Urges Traffic Accident Control To Speed Day Of Victory

Earlier victory by curtailment of traffic injuries and fatalities was urged yesterday by Lincoln H. Lippincott, secretary of the Not-Over-50 club in a talk to the Rotary luncheon-meeting at Forest Hill field club.

He pointed out the loss of manpower, materials and morale suffered by defense industries as a result of accidents and remarked that the war effort suffered because fatalities have cut down production.

He declared that victory will bring a considerable increase in traffic deaths because of "the pent-up desire to travel." People must be educated now in self-discipline.

Harry T. French, scout executive for Belleville in the Robert Treat Boy Scout council, was inducted into membership in Rotary earlier in the meeting.

RED CROSS DRIVE $8,800 AT MIDWAY

Initial Figures Encouraging
Says Hyde; Plans Party
At Skating Rink

Returns, still scattered and incomplete, in the 1944 Red Cross War Fund totalled $8,768 at the drive's midway point last night, chairman Elmer S. Hyde announced, pointing out that the next week is expected to see the major action on the house-to-house canvass.

"The picture at this time," he declared, "is encouraging and we are confident that the people of Belleville will continue to throw their support behind the drive so that we can realize our goal by March 31."

At the same time he announced that the annual roller skating party for the benefit of the Red Cross will be held at the Riviera Park rink at 701 Washington avenue next Thursday. The use of the rink has been donated by William Mishkind and William Lubin, owners.

Besides the general skating for the public, several exhibitions of fancy skating will be presented. Tickets are being sold at the Capitol theater by the members of the motor corps and at the Red Cross headquarters.

An army of nearly 300 volunteer workers is covering the town and returns from the personal solicitation are constantly increasing, according to chairman Robert P. Smith.

Gilbert Wright, chairman of the industrial committee, said yesterday that cooperation among the town's plants is also encouraging, with about a half-dozen firms already having reached their goal of 100 percent employee and management participation.

Six Boy Scouts Will Receive Awards At Court Of Honor

Six Belleville Boy Scouts will be honored Wednesday evening at the first court of honor to be held here in five years. One has achieved the rank of life scout, the others are star scouts.

All scouts and their parents and friends in this district have been invited to attend the affair, which will be held in Union avenue school beginning at 7:45.

After the opening exercises, chairman W. Douglas Clark will give the welcoming remarks and Treasury department certificates of merit will be awarded by Philip Dettelbach to troops 306, 375, 386, 388, 389 and 392 for their participation in the Fourth War Loan.

Ribbon awards for the anniversary week window displays will be presented to troops 286, 388 and 389 while the individual star and life awards will be made by district commissioner John S. Charlton and council commissioner Harry F. Brunbach.

Civilian Defense Catastrophe Unit Termed Efficient

The Belleville catastrophe organization of the civilian defense council was termed efficient yesterday by defense coordinator Brunner after he had reviewed the first practice alert of the streamlined group held last Sunday.

The streamlined organization is composed of selected members of the defense set-up and they were selected primarily on the basis of their availability and training.

He said that 185 persons answered the call Sunday and "assumed their positions quickly and efficiently without confusion."

Commission Plans Measure To Curb Black Market

RAY DEMGARD WINS SUIT FROM TOWN

Awarded $850 For Injury
During August Arrest;
Lives At Keansburg

Raymond Demgard, former policeman who resigned in January in face of charges of misconduct in pursuit of duties, was awarded a judgment of $850 against the town Thursday morning by deputy commissioner Harry Medinetz in workmen's compensation court.

Represented by attorney Edward J. Abramson, Demgard pleaded he had injured his hand in a scuffle while making an arrest at the Walter Kidde company last August.

He is understood to have been treated by town physician Martin M. Meehan until October and to have been confined in November to the American Legion Memorial hospital, Newark, for a nervous breakdown as a result of the injury.

The town's case was pleaded by A. Lionel Reid, Newark lawyer, who represented the Globe indemnity company which granted the policy covering Demgard's case.

Charges were brought against the former patrolman in December when it was alleged he had permitted a prisoner in a drunken driving case to stop at a tavern for a drink before the latter had been examined.

Public Safety Director King heard part of the case against Demgard but announced a report second hearing that the patrolman had resigned from the force. He is understood to be currently recuperating from an attack of pneumonia at Keansburg.

BLOOD IS DONATED BY KIDDE COMPANY

Give 180 Pints, Total 726
In Four Banks; Other
Red Cross Reports

Employees of Walter Kidde company donated 180 pints of blood to the Red Cross blood bank Saturday, according to a report read by executive secretary Elmer Adams at the Red Cross executive meeting at the Woman's club Monday night.

The bank was exceptionally well-organized, she said as she complimented the company. "Valuable assistance was rendered by members of the Red Cross motor corps, canteen unit, staff assistants and nurses' aides."

Eight workers in the canteen department contributed 56 hours of work, according to Miss Dorothy Shiner, chairman of the unit. Yesterday Donald Hirsch of the Kidde firm reported that four blood banks there have secured a total of 726 pints of blood.

Valley & Tiernan company will conduct the next bank April 1 while the next scheduled bank for the residents of the town will be June 17. Miss Adams has requested a new monthly schedule from area headquarters.

Harold Purney, chairman of the disaster preparedness committee, reported that his group is prepared to cooperate with the civilian defense organization in the event of any "natural disaster" here.

The 21 volunteer workers of the motor corps performed 185 hours for the Red Cross during February according to retiring captain Mrs. Harold J. Scully while Mrs. Rudolph Deetjen reported that 14 volunteer staff assistants had given 87 hours of work.

Included in the work of the latter department were the typing of 12,000 cards for the Red Cross drive, acting as volunteers at the banks and at the Capitol theater.

Heavy Contributions To Scrap

Since the first of the year Belleville householders have contributed more than 21 tons of waste paper and nearly 17 tons of scrap metal and tin cans, defense coordinator Brunner announced yesterday.

He appealed once again for continued support in both departments and reminded householders of defense zone 4 that paper collection in their area will be made next Wednesday.

Ordinance Would Make Price Violations Local Offense, Empower Police

Black markets (if any) will be flushed out of Belleville in the near future when police will be given authority to act under a local ordinance which will make OPA price violations a municipal offense.

The legislation, introduced by Mayor Williams, was passed on first reading Tuesday night and no serious opposition to final passage is anticipated when the next roll call is made, March 28.

Williams called the measure valuable for its "moral effect" in deterring individuals and stores in Belleville from dabbling in violations of existing or possible future price ceilings established by the OPA.

He declared that similar ordinances have been adopted in Trenton, Bayonne, Paterson and other cities and that "they have been eminently successful."

Principal objections to the proposed law was voiced Tuesday night by Public Safety Director King who declared that it will be successful only if individual citizens who learn of violations will be willing to sign the complaint which leads to prosecution.

He indicated that he did not expect the police to sign the complaints based on stories carried by individuals. Commissioner Mertz, however, pointed out that, if there is no complaint, there is no charge or prosecution.

Commissioner Noll suggested that the ordinance might be abused by "some people who have grievances against others." He declared that it would be "just another law on the backs of the merchants."

Manager Guilty

King also raised the question of the guilt of the manager or the owner in the case of a violation by a chain store and the consensus of opinion was that the manager would be liable.

He declared that he was convinced that the task of signing the complaints would fall on the police, to which Commissioner Waters retorted that "it is the duty of the police to protect the people."

After learning that violations of rent regulations fall in the province of the ordinance, Town Clerk Florence Morey declared that tenants often take advantage of their landlords and "are protected by the OPA."

She cited a case where tenants are "running down the neighborhood" by a chain store and the owner has attempted to get them to move but cannot force action under OPA restrictions.

Mertz wanted a clause inserted protecting the retailer from being forced by a wholesaler to purchase commodities which were not wanted but rereading of the ordinance brought the opinion that its provisions were sufficiently broad to cover such a case.

The ordinance specifically forbids ceiling prices, sales of rationed goods without receiving ration stamps in return, transfer of disposition of personal ration stamps; excessive rents.

Conviction of violation of the provisions of the ordinance will subject an individual to a maximum fine of $200, imprisonment for ninety days or both for each offense.

Production Workers Strike At Jergens Lotion Plant

More than 100 production employees at the Andrew Jergens company plant at Franklin avenue and Mill street walked out on strike yesterday morning in protest against "the company's refusal to abide by an NLRB directive and a cut in incentive pay."

The statement was issued by William Reed, president of an AFL union representing the workers. Edward T. Gramer, the firm's general manager, was "out," and there was "no idea" when he would return.

The union's counsel, Thomas L. Parsonnet, declared the Regional War Labor Board ordered the company in June 1942 to bargain with the union. Another directive told the company to grant maintenance of union membership in any contract between the two parties.

Parsonnet averred the company has ignored these and all subsequent directives even after NLRB upheld the regional order.

Will Answer Complaints
Draft board chairman John Dailey yesterday called upon writers of anonymous letters to visit the board any Tuesday or Friday when their "questions and complaints will be answered gladly." He said a number of such missives have been received.

Clark Wounded

Word that Cpl. Edward J. Clark, 26, was wounded in action in Italy February 3 was received last week by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Clark of 95 Union avenue.

Clark, who played football at the high school, was employed with the Pittsburgh plate glass company before enlisting in the Army a month after Pearl Harbor.

He went overseas with a medium tank division fourteen months ago, participated in the fighting in North Africa and Sicily before going to Italy, where he is now recuperating in an Army hospital.

He has two brothers in service: Pfc. James Clark at the Marine base at Weymouth, Mass., and Francis Clark, seaman 1/c now somewhere in the Pacific.

Oil Users Now On Last Lap

With Period 5 fuel oil coupons now valid for use, District OPA rationing officials reminded consumers that this is the last series of coupons for this heating season and must last through September 30 for heat and hot water.

At the same time, fuel oil users were advised that they should not have burned more than 78 percent of their year's ration thus far.

Reporting upon the results of the drive to have all motorists endorse their gasoline ration coupons, Acting District OPA Director Jerome A. Collins said his investigators had found "a gratifying degree of compliance and spirit of cooperation." The few instances where motorists had failed to endorse their coupons, he added, were due largely to misunderstanding, "and they were glad to have their mistakes pointed out and explained." Those who had unendorsed coupons were given notices requiring them to show their ration books properly endorsed to their ration boards within 10 days.

MANNING LECTURE PROCEEDS TO GO TO CHARITIES

Hope To Give $150 Each To War Fund, Red Cross, Says Mrs. Lunger

In their report early this week on proceeds of the Paul Manning lecture Friday evening in the Elk's club auditorium program committee members of the Belleville Teacher association expressed the hope that donations of $150 each would be made to the war fund and Red Cross drives after program costs have been defrayed.

Mrs. Kathryn Lunger of School No. 10 faculty was general chairman of the presentation. A representative group of teachers in all elementary schools and the high school worked with her.

The CBS correspondent lectured and showed motion pictures of American air forces in England and bomber raids over Germany to a well filled auditorium. He was presented by superintendent of schools Wayne R. Parmer.

Also on the platform were Dr. O. Bell Close of Fawcett Smith church who made the opening invocation; Rev. Joseph M. Kelly who pronounced the closing benediction; Herbert C. Schmutz, board of education president; Paul de Hagara, president of the board of trustees of the Community Chest and council and John F. Coogan, chairman of the Combined Chest and War Fund drive; B. Thomas Aitken, chairman of the local Red Cross chapter and Elmer S. Hyde who heads the Red Cross war fund drive now being carried on here.

PRECIOUS FATS

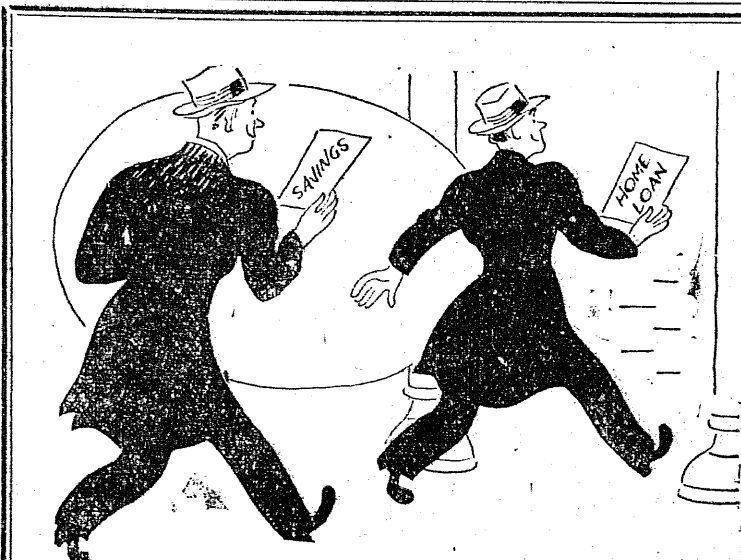

"Diamonds are precious, so are used fats," demonstrates Frances Greer, young Metropolitan Opera star, as she poses with the "Faust" jewels backstage during a rehearsal. Used household fat, our chief source of glycerine for munitions and medicals, is so precious that the OPA now offers extra ration points as well as cash for every pound turned over to the meat dealer.

A TWO-FOLD PLAN FOR HOME OWNERSHIP

The first step is arranging a savings fund for the down payment; we outline an individual savings plan to fit exactly your desires and needs. For example, by putting aside $5.00 a week for 4 years, you save $1,040.00 exclusive of earnings or the approximate down payment for a $5,000.00 home. We work out with you a plan to save the amount you want in the time you want it.

Then, when the day comes to build or buy that home — we arrange a Home Loan for financing it. This loan will be tailored to your income. Stop in today and talk it over with us.

Other attendants will be gowned in aquamarine chiffon with similar matching hats. Their colonial bouquets will be fashioned of yellow roses and blue sweet peas.

The couple are graduates of Belleville high school and Miss Goldacker is with Sweeney Lithograph company. Cpl. Gilroy was employed by Columbia Laundry in Newark previous to his entrance into the army 17 months ago. The Gilroys moved from Belleville two years ago.

Cpl. Gilroy was first with an army tank division and later transferred to an infantry unit with which he is now stationed at Fort George Meade, Md. He and his bride will have a short honeymoon in Maryland after their marriage here. Miss Goldacker will return to her position and will make her home with her parents.

A. Dalzell, civic chairman and Mrs. Elizabeth Kebbie, printing chairman. Nominations were made at last Thursday's meeting at 51 Rossmore place.

Municipal Bonds To Be Renewed On Public Improvements

Municipal bonds covering $111,000 worth of public improvements between May 1942 and February 1944 will be renewed Sunday and will be payable June 19, if they are not funded by that time.

By resolution Tuesday night the commission approved Mayor Williams' plan after he told them that the bonds would be sold at par and would carry one-half of one percent interest.

Yesterday the mayor revealed that he expected that the bonds would be funded at an early date and that he hoped for a very favorable rate of interest on them.

Principal items covered in the long list of improvements are the storm sewers and curbs installed in Main street last year and the recently approved construction of flood control walls in the Second River.

WAR BONDS assure the things you want after victory!

Shower For Muriel Krayl

Miss Muriel Krayl, who will be married April 15 to Paul Wex of Newark, was surprised Friday evening at her home with a miscellaneous bridal shower arranged by Miss Betty Perry of Nutley and Mrs. Wallace Sampson of Irvington.

Miss Krayl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Somers of 103 Little street. Mr. Wex is the son of Mrs. Mac Wex.

The thirty guests Friday evening included Mrs. Alfred Gilby, Mrs. Charles Haight and the Misses Mary Douglas and Janet Mariano of this town and others from East Orange, Newark, Clifton, Rutherford, Irvington, Nutley, Springfield and Keansburg.

SUBVERSIVE FAT

Undercover work is going on these days, in some household garbage pails. Skillet scrapings, meat drippings, meat scraps and other fat bearing items are mingling unashamedly with coffee grounds and orange peels. In ordinary times this is common practice, but today when every ounce of used kitchen fat is needed for the war effort, it is deplorably wasteful. The products and by-products of used fat are so important that OPA actually allows ration points, and the meat dealer pays cash to get every ounce of used fat, and put it to work to shorten the war!

Saves War Job Earnings to Build "Dream House"

Margaret Sidlowski and her husband, of Kearny, are going to stop dreaming about their "dream house" after the war, and start to build it. And they'll do it with funds that they have put aside during the war as a result of Mrs. Sidlowski's working at the RCA radio tube plant in Harrison.

Mrs. Margaret Sidlowski
Every penny into bonds!

"It's such fun to plan every detail of our house," Mrs. Sidlowski enthuses, "and to know that we'll be able to have it just like we want it as a result of our putting our money where it will do the most good now—in War Bonds. I'm putting my entire pay check into bonds every week."

More women and girls are needed (full or part-time) at the RCA Harrison plant to make vital radio tubes. You can apply at the RCA employment office, Sussex and Fifth Streets, Harrison, weekdays between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Carlton Kings Go On USO Tour

Mr. and Mrs. William H. (Carlton King) Davison

Blessed with a tricky, talkative tongue and prestidigitatorial hands that move too fast for a layman's eye, Carlton King will leave within a fortnight for a six-month tour of service camps throughout the Atlantic and Mediterranean theatres of war.

King, an entertainer since childhood in England, has been signed for the tour by Camp Shows incorporated, a by-product of the USO. He expects that many of his forthcoming visits will be made by plane.

Carlton King is a non-de-mag'ic for William H. Davison who likes to live quietly with his wife at his home at 227 Little street. Mrs. Davison is an integral part of his act and the petite brunette will be an undoubted favorite with the servicemen.

Born in England, the Davisons perfected their act there and played before the royal family as well as before other famous personalities on both sides of the Atlantic.

In 1930 they took up permanent residence in the United States and four years ago moved to Belleville. They continued their entertainment all the while except for a five-year hiatus in the hotel business.

The Davisons much prefer the home life of Belleville to the usual hotel life of professional entertainers. They have a machine shop in the basement of their home and there they make all the props used in the act. Their facility in the magical arts has brought applause in night clubs all over the country.

Doesn't Fear Draft
Davison says he is not afraid of draft boards: all he has to do is take off his hat and display his thinning hair. His appearance, however, belies the fact that he served in the Royal Engineers in France in the last war.

He is working on a scheme to steal the business of Davidson & King, realtors (James Davidson and Joseph King). "You know Davidson & King?" he asks. "I'm both of them."

MILK Cuts Food Costs

"Milk does more for the body than any other food and does it more cheaply." That statement by the Bureau of Home Economics of the U. S. Department of Agriculture is forcefully illustrated in this National Dairy Council chart showing the high percentage of each of the daily food elements which are provided by a quart of milk and the other foods necessary to complete daily dietary requirements.

The average cost of a quart of milk delivered to the home in the United States is 15.1 cents. The average cost of other foods needed to complete an economical diet and provide the balance of the nutrients needed daily is about 44 cents. Rising food costs together with the necessity of maintaining the best possible wartime diets are now giving added emphasis to the economy of milk.

The foods making up the meals used as a basis for this chart are as follows: Breakfast: fruit, whole-grain cereal with milk and sugar, whole-wheat toast with butter, milk, and coffee with cream and sugar. Lunch: macaroni with tomato sauce, whole-wheat bread with butter, fresh apple, oatmeal cookies and milk. Dinner: meat stew with vegetables, cole slaw, whole-wheat bread with butter and jam, coffee with cream and sugar, junket and milk.

Leo J. Kehoe Jr. of 133 William street has been promoted to sergeant, according to word received by his parents. He is a supervisor in the Army medical corps at Thayer general hospital, Nashville, Tenn.

After leaving his brother, Charles J. Kehoe, machinist's mate 2/c, somewhere in the Pacific, tells of meeting a Belleville friend, George E. Richards who lived at the William street address before joining the Navy three years ago.

A/C Edward H. Stumpe, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Stumpe of 20 Forest street, this week graduated to the advanced Army flying school at Ellington Field, Houston, Tex., after completing the course at Majors Field, Greenville, Tex.

OUR MERCHANT MARINE

Passenger Liners

Two years later, our fabulous Collins Line became the Atlantic's "Blue Ribbon" passenger fleet, leading the world.

Soon, however, America's passenger trade languished. In World War I, despite our seizure of 60 enemy liners, we carried only 41% of our own troops to France.

But Pearl Harbor found our passenger fleet again growing, and today, it is transporting Americans to all battle-fronts and bases.

BELLEVILLE, N. J., THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 1944

A School Paper Is Coming

The results of a recent questionnaire filled out by students of the high school showed that one of the activities most desired was a school newspaper. Even now plans are being made for such a paper, to be published and supported by Belleville High School students.

A school paper is an important asset to the life of any school. With the free expression of its news, views, and ideas, any school becomes a better school.

But a school paper isn't an easy and simple undertaking. It takes a lot of ambition, hard work and faith on the part of the students; and needs boys and girls with talent and ambition.

"How many students are really interested?" "How many students will subscribe to our paper?" These are questions which must be answered before we begin work on the paper.

Students will be given the opportunity to show their response to these questions, and the response must show that the necessary support exists.

Work for our paper next year will begin almost immediately. We must have all details and subscriptions taken care of so that the first paper will "go to press" without delay or trouble.

Interested students should start now their work for next year's paper. Juniors, especially, should work with the journalism staff and get the experience that will prove so worthwhile. If we students want the paper — we must work for the paper!

BASEBALL TEAM BEGINS PRACTICE

Frank Spotts Appointed To Coach In Sport Restored At BHS This Season

Under the experienced eye of newly-appointed Coach Frank Spotts, baseball came back to Belleville high school Monday as practice sessions started indoors. Over 100 boys turned out, thus showing that students are vitally interested in the game, only recently restored to the athletic program after a two-year lapse.

Spotts has had plenty of experience in the diamond game. Besides playing eight years in high school and college ball, he turned in two seasons of professional play. He was a star pitcher at Muhlenberg college where he played on an undefeated team rated one of the best in the nation.

The local coach also has seven years of coaching under his belt, some of his experience coming here in Belleville before the sport was abandoned. He coached many of our local stars, the list of which includes such players as Mack Lamb, Eddie O'Neill, Fred Riccio, John Daley, Charley Christell, Frank Ryder and Jerry and Nick Bononita.

Plans are now being made and carried out under the direction of Harold Dufford, faculty manager of athletics, for the playing of a complete schedule. Already games have been arranged with Bloomfield and North Arlington with other teams expected to be listed very soon.

It is expected that the local team will play its home games on the Municipal Stadium, in back of Passaic avenue school.

PIANIST SOUGHT FOR MUSIC WORK

Mrs. Wagner of Music Dept. Calls For Accompanists With Five Years' Study

Mrs. Alice Wagner, music director of the high school, has said that there has been a need for good accompanists at BHS for some time and this need has been steadily increasing. Several of the school's accompanists are graduating in June, leaving vacant spots which will provide an excellent opportunity for some of the underclassmen.

Mrs. Wagner has always developed her own accompanists instead of following the practice of hiring them outside the school. Many excellent accompanists have graduated from this school through her efforts.

The first qualification demanded of an accompanist is five years of piano study. A student must be willing to give up extra time for outside accompanying.

Accompanists are in great demand now and the training given at the high school is much to the student's advantage. Student accompanists all agree that the training is very strict and exacting, requiring more precision and mental alertness than if the pianist were playing a solo.

Few high schools attempt to prepare advanced accompanists. Juilliard school of music, Eastman school of music and other music conservatories offer a course in "The Art of Accompanying."

Students of Belleville high school who have had at least five years of piano are now being urged to sign up for glee club, orchestra or solo accompanying. Both classic and popular pianists are needed.

The music department points with pride to past Glee Club accompanists. Some of them are Miss Ann Kelsall, Miss Hazel Kelsall, William Akers, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth C. Jenkins, Miss Mildred Drenthlaw.

Present accompanists are Bertha Hermann, Ruth Hodes, Anna Marie, Laurel Milne and Doris Sel.

We Have With Us Today—

Captain Vic Pasquariello, the high-scoring Bellboy basketball ace, chalked up an average of 14.5 points per game to lead his team on to a successful season.

The diminutive, fast player who first started playing ball in his grammar school days began his successful basketball playing in high school. Vic went out for the freshman team, which he was on for one day, and then was promoted to the Junior Varsity.

The next week he played sub-varsity and then became the famous sixth man of last year's squad. This year he reached the peak in playing as the captain of the team and main scorer.

Pasquariello intends to go to Holy Cross after graduating and from there, it is his ambition to become a gym instructor. After that he wishes (ouch!) to follow in his coach's footsteps and become a gym instructor and coach himself.

Basketball isn't the only thing that Pasquariello excels in. An all around athlete, he was made co-captain of the 1943 football season where he was one of the main stand-outs. Calling the plays Vic often set the stage for the touchdowns which won five out of eight games last year. At the present time, now that the basketball season is over he intends to go out for the baseball team, where it is expected he will be one of the mainstays of the squad.

Frosh Girls Lose At Bloomfield

The girls' freshman basketball team took part in play day, along with other local schools, Thursday at Bloomfield high school.

The schools were divided into two combatant groups, the "Home Front," and the "Battlefield." Among the many athletic activities, basketball was the outstanding. In this sport the Belleville girls were defeated by Bloomfield 8-4.

At the end of the day, refreshments were served. Representatives of Belleville high school were Dorothy Ellen, Grace Irian, Rita Jacobson, Barbara Monahan, Jacqueline Nelson and Gertrude Thompson.

BHS Students To Present French Program In Assembly Tomorrow

Students of the French classes, under the faculty direction of Edward A. Stuff, will bring a bit of pre-war France to BHS in an assembly program tomorrow. It is the first of its type to be given at Belleville High.

At the request of School Superintendent Parmer and Principal Johnson, the French department will give an assembly program at the high school tomorrow.

Included in the program will be two dramatized songs: "Les Trois Tambours" and "Marion's Donkey," which resemble operettas.

Also, there will be five folk dances in peasant costumes. They are: "La Marchoise," "La Bourree," "Jean Petit," "L'Entrailade" and "La Faraandol." The program will terminate with a talk on French regions and their customs.

Bertha Hermann, president of the French Club, will furnish the entire piano accompaniment, and Edward Gurdak will provide accordion music.

Chess Club Starts Meetings

Monday afternoon a call went out for all chess players to report to room 9 to form a chess club in the school. Nova Bab, faculty director of the club, in spite of the small number of players at the meeting, said that the members would play each Wednesday afternoon in the cafeteria.

Among those who appeared at the meeting were Melvin Gouss, a member of the club last year, Bill Donnelly and several others.

It is still not too late to join the club, Bab said yesterday. Those who wish to join need only come down to the cafeteria Wednesday after school and express their desire to join. It is hoped that there will be many more students who will show interest in this club.

Faculty-Students Bowl Today

Today after school hours are over, five members of the faculty will pit their bowling skill against the high school's bowling team. The faculty bowlers who comprise this team are Erwin Tschobull, George Lees, Robert Parker, John Charlton, and Paul Brennan.

Against this formidable combination the school's team will include Ernie Ritchie, Bill Jewell, Dan Meccia, Bill Yanz and Bill Ewald, with Len Hicken and Carl Sokoll as alternates.

The bowling club league bowled last Friday. Team 4 rolled itself into first place by splitting two games with team 5, which found itself in fourth place. Team 6 dropped into second place when it lost two games to team 1, which raised itself into fifth spot. Team 3 remained in third position while team 2 dropped into last.

In the heat of the competition Jewell rolled a 202 game which was high for the season for about ten minutes until Ewald topped him with 205, which remains the season high. The league will meet as usual tomorrow.

BELLBOYS LOSE TO CENTRAL IN TOURNAMENT GAME

Lose To Newarkers By 36-32 Count, Vic Pasquariello Leads Scorers With 16

An amazing Central high basketball quintet scored an upset once again for its second major victory in the State tournament as it tripped a strong power-laden Belleville team in a thrill packed 36-32 decision.

Over 1,200 fans crowded the neutral Bloomfield court to see the teams swing into action. Taking up every available place to see the game even if it meant standing, the huge crowd wasn't disappointed because it saw one of the finest games played in scholastic basketball this year.

Now that Belleville is eliminated from the tourney, Central and Thomas Jefferson high of Elizabeth are left to battle it out for sectional leadership. These teams meet to-night in a promising game at Seton Hall.

Coach Jitty Wische's boys started things rolling as they took a 14-10 lead in a fast first quarter. Then in the second period things started popping. After an exchange of shots, Ed Stickle and Dave Nelson connected on successive set shots to swish the net for eight points, giving Central a 26-19 half-time lead. This last minute second quarter rampage by Central gave them a substantial margin for the rest of the game.

The Bellboys weren't out of the play yet although they were outscored 7-4 in the third quarter, a quarter in which both teams shifted their defense.

The fourth canto saw the rejuvenated Belleville squad take the floor and gradually chew down the 33-23 Central lead until the score was at 33-30. Then Fred Stickle increased the Central scoring to 35 but again Belleville kept up the fight as Mike Bell put in a one hand shot for a 35-32 count. The Bellboys as a result of pressing the Central team gave them a charity toss which Ed Stickle sank.

With only one minute left to play Belleville never "gave up the ship" but, led on by the magnificent Belleville cheering, fought down to the last second. Although they were unable to throw the game into a tie or win, Belleville went down into defeat playing one of their best games of the season. They looked great on the court even though they lost.

Vic Pasquariello, Bellboy ace, was high scorer for both teams, with 16 points and he played one of his best games in his basketball career. Central's Ed Stickle was the mainstay for his team as he scored 15 points, most of them coming on long set-shots in the second-period spurge which won the game for the Newarkers.

Thus the Bellboys closed their season with a record of 13 wins and five losses, four of which came at the hand of powerful Central and Kearny fives. The outstanding victory scored by the locals came in a 24-22 win over Weequahic in one of the paralysis fund games played last month at the Seton Hall college gymnasium.

Referee: Molloy; Umpire: Sheps.

Catholic Women's College Club Meets Tonight In Newark

The Catholic Women's College club will hold its regular meeting tonight in the Helen McHugh Studio at 37 Washington street, Newark. Miss Mary Elizabeth Jackson will preside at the business session.

Miss Elizabeth C. Teeling will report on the plans for the ninth annual communion breakfast to be held April 2. Mrs. John A. Conner will report on the work of her committee planning the ninth annual bridge for the benefit of the scholarship fund.

The following group chairmen will report on the activities of their units: Mrs. Harold Haas, Literature Group; Miss Margaret O'Hara, Red Cross; Miss Anne Eagan, Salmagundi; and Miss Genevieve Burke, Modern Language.

Tripoli Club Raises Dues

At a special meeting of the Tripoli Club political and social club last week the members voted to raise the initiation fee and dues. This is believed to be the first step in preparation for the proposed post-war expansion of the organization.

The club has undertaken to carry the 1944 Red Cross War Fund into the Silver Lake area and, under the chairmanship of Michael Capanear and Frank Palmeri, has promised to canvass every home in the area.

Children Can Give

Contributions to the Red Cross War Fund by Junior Red Cross members are "plus" contributions and are not required. Mrs. William H. Williams said yesterday answering a widely-asked question. Gifts are made individually and not from the JRC service fund.

FATS ON UP-BEAT

Fat Salvage has now been glamorized by Fred Waring and his orchestra, in a catchy tune written by Joe Sanders.

Housewives have been urged to save fat by pictures, graphs, cartoons, comic strips, slogans and television, but now it's being said with music!

"Save the Grease," dedicated to the Pennsylvaniaans to the American housewife, had its preview on Fred Waring's "Pleasure Time" broadcast, and urges in part:

"Keep that fat from the skillet for a rat.
Don't you spill it.
Uncle Sam will then distill it
for the Guns, Tanks, Ships
In the haste of your toll, don't make waste of the oil,
Let it sizzle, let it boil for the foe

Fourth War Loan Went over

From John E. Manning
War Finance Committee
State Administrator.

To the Editor of The Times:
Thank you for the cooperation you and your newspaper gave the United States Treasury Department and your local War Finance Committee during the Fourth War Loan campaign.

Without the wholehearted cooperation of the newspaper, New Jersey would not have been able to compile the enviable record it did during the drive.

Our State finished among the leaders in overall sales and led all other States in the percentage of improvement in "E" Bond sales during the drive. We know you share with us our satisfaction over these achievements.

Corrects Draft Figure

From George C. Ziegler
19 Sunset avenue

To the Editor of The Times:
In the March 2nd issue of the "Belleville Times," you published a statement under the caption heading "Initial Draft of Pre-War Dads" wherein you stated that under the new Selective Service System the Pre-Induction Physical Examination will be good for a period of 60 days.

Will you please mention to me whether this statement is entirely accurate and who your authority on this point is, as my Draft Board tells me you are in error, and the examination is good for 90 days.

Chalk one up for a careful reader. Ninety days is correct and we hope you like khaki.—Editor.

Thanks War Fund Workers

From Miss Marie A. Serritella
46 Magnolia Street

To the Editor of The Times:
As captain of District Four for the National War Fund Committee of Belleville, I wish to express through this paper my hearty appreciation to all the workers who assisted me in this worthy drive.

They were Mrs. Virginia Pascheria, Mrs. Beulah Salvatore, Mrs. Marie DeFalco, Mrs. Grace Grosso, Mrs. John Viola, Mrs. John Zaccane, Mrs. Frank Orlando Jr., the Misses Geraldine Bocchino and Frances Albertine. While the amount collected was $338.00, there were many homes contacted three or four times and were never in. Therefore, if there is anyone in this district who wants to make a contribution, he may either see me or send it directly to the office, 338 Washington avenue.

Relax, It's All Right

Town Clerk Florence Morey reported Tuesday many calls from anxious citizens about strange men coming to their houses asking strange questions. She ascertained that they were canvassers for Price and Lee company of Newark preparing the 1944 town directory but added that they should show credentials.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

Each year the Book-of-the-Month Club conducts a poll of literary critics to discover what in their opinion were the ten outstanding novels and non-fiction books of the past twelve months. With 212 critics voting, "So Little Time" by John P. Marquand, was picked as first in fiction for 1943; and "One World" by Wendell L. Willkie, first in non-fiction, it was announced by Dr. Henry Seidel Canby, Chairman of the Club's editorial committee.

The ten leading novels chosen by the critics were "So Little Time"; "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn"; "The Human Comedy"; "The Apostle"; "Taps For Private Tussie"; "Citizen Tom Paine"; "None But The Lonely Heart"; "Indigo"; "Journey in the Dark"; "The Big Rock Candy Mountain."

The ten leading non-fiction books were "One World"; "Here Is Your War"; "U. S. Foreign Policy"; "Under Cover"; "Guadalcanal Diary"; "George Washington Carver"; "Journey Among Warriors"; "The Battle Is the Pay-Off"; "The Year of Decision: 1846"; and "Burma Surgeon."

Of the total of twenty books picked by the critics, seven were Book-of-the-Month Club selections. These were, in fiction: "So Little Time"; "The Human Comedy"; "Taps For Private Tussie"; non-fiction: "U. S. Foreign Policy"; "Guadalcanal Diary"; "The Battle Is the Pay-Off"; and "The Year of Decision: 1846."

Louella Parsons, in "The Gay Illiterate" relates this story of a motion picture producer who has since become famous for his faux pas. The producer asked her if she had attended a certain ball. She replied that she had, that she had worn a new dress, and that "Solomon in all his glory had nothing on me." "Solomon," the movie producer turned to his wife. "The Solomon, dear," he puzzled. "Do we know any movie people named Solomon?"

This story from "Belgium in Bondage" by Jean-Albert Goris, dates back to the last war, but it is still significant today. In August, 1914, General von Kluck called on Princess Marie de Groy in her castle in Belgium. The princess asked him: "General, tell me, please, how do you justify the invasion of our neutral country and the horrors you perpetrate here?" The General said: "But Madame, be assured that we will repair, we will settle everything." The princess replied: "Undoubtedly, sir, you will bring to life our soldiers and civilians assassinated; Germans are so efficient. But one thing you will restore: the honor of Germany."

Kidde Management, Labor Solve Absenteeism Problem

Study Absence Question, Propose Three Steps For Correction

Three steps in maintaining good attendance in war plants were outlined last week by the labor-management of the Walter Kidde company in an exhibit at a convention in Washington.

Cooperating on the establishment of the program which has had "consistently good, though not spectacular" results, were officials of the firm and of CIO Local 420 of the United Electrical Radio and Machine Workers of America. Their estimate of the problem:

1) the problem will remain and probably increase for the duration, 2) it is confined to 15-20 percent of workers who account for 80 percent of absent days, 3) illness accounts for from 5 to 70 percent of all absences, 4) an effective attendance program must carry recognition for good performance as well as penalties for chronic absenteeism and 5) a good program will help reduce turnover.

"In an area in which 10 or 12 percent industrial absenteeism is not uncommon," the plan states, "we have been able, except in one month, to keep our rate during 1943 between five and six percent."

The three steps in the Kidde program are 1) recognition of faithful workers, 2) recognition of the best departments and 3) finding absence causes and applying remedies:

Postmaster And Wife Attend Niece's West Point Wedding

Postmaster and Mrs. William D. Price of 1 Essex street attended the wedding Saturday in West Point military reservation of their niece, Miss Mary M. Schlitt of Middletown, N. Y.

Miss Schlitt and Cpl. Robert D. Vosburg of Johnstown, N. Y. were married in an afternoon ceremony in West Point chapel. Mr. Price gave his niece in marriage.

The daughter of Mrs. Anna Schlitt, the bride is well known in Belleville where she has spent many long vacations with the Prices. Cpl. Vosburg is the son of Judge and Mrs. Herbert Vosburg of Johnstown.

The couple were attended Saturday by Miss Betty Pegall and Charles Hann of Cornwall-on-the-Hudson. A reception followed at the Hann residence in that place. The bride's gown in traditional white satin was made with a sweetheart neckline and finished with a train. Her veil was draped from a tiara and her prayer-book was marked with orchids.

Miss Pegall's daffodil costume was matched by her veiled head-dress. She carried a frilled bouquet of yellow roses.

Miss Schlitt was graduated from Middletown high school where she was subsequently secretary to the principal. More recently she has been secretary to an official of the West Point quartermaster corps. Cpl. Vosburg has been a member of the regular army for five years.

The couple will honeymoon in New York. The bride served as maid of honor last week at the wedding of Miss Justine Boylan of Belleville and Joseph Wells of Newark.

Ballet Russe At Mosque Theater To Present "Snow Maiden"

Newark is one of the more than eighty cities in the United States and Canada which will be visited by the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, when it appears at the Mosque theater under Griffith music foundation auspices for two performances Saturday afternoon and evening, March 25.

Heading the company, which travels with its own symphony orchestra, are Alexandra Danilova, Jane Stachel, Frederic Franklin and Nathalie Kravoska, and the newly added Ruthanna Boris, who came to the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo after several seasons as prima ballerina of the Metropolitan Opera Company. The program follows:

Afternoon: The Snow Maiden—Ballet in one act, two scenes, based on a Russian folk legend, music by Glouzonov; Ancient Russia—Ballet in one act and three scenes by Bronislava Nijinska, music Piano Concerto in B flat minor, Tchaikovsky; Rodeo Ballet in one act, two scenes by Agnes de Mille, music by Aaron Copland.

Evening: Serenade—Ballet in two parts by George Balanchine, music The Serenade for String Orchestra, Tchaikovsky; The Red Poppy—Ballet in a prologue and three scenes by Igor Schwezoff, music by Gliere. The Cuckoos' Fair—Ballet in one act, music by Gustavo Pittaluga.

Eight Hurt, Including Bystander, In Auto-Bus Collision

Eight persons were injured, none critically, last week in a collision between a Public Service bus and a car load of war workers at Union avenue and Mill street.

Innocent bystander, Miss Mae Salzer of 257 William street, was waiting on the corner for another bus and was struck by the rear end of the car when it was hurled across the intersection. She was taken to St. Mary's hospital, Passaic, with reported fractured ribs.

According to police, the Clifton-bound route 112 bus was going north on Union avenue and the car, driven by Albert Higbie of East Orange, was going east on Mill street.

The bus hit the side of the sedan and tossed it diagonally across the intersection and onto the sidewalk where it crashed against a telephone pole, where the wreck-age was completely destroyed.

Homes Should Be Part Of Spring Freshening

By this time next week spring will have a firm grip on us. Some daffodils have already poked exploratory noses through the soil and new buds are in evidence on many bushes. All the birds will be back from their winter vacation in the south, heralding the end of winter and the ice and snow. New life will come into the world again and everything will be bright again. Well, nearly everything. Unfortunately there will still be hundreds of homes in Belleville which will not be bright and clean-looking; for they will be wearing the same coats of paint that they have worn for ten, fifteen and twenty years. The coat may be much tattered and threadbare from long age and neglect, but it will still be there marking that house as one in which the owner is no longer interested in appearances. This year should be one in which practically every house, and building in Belleville should buy a new coat.

Owners of homes should realize that they are losing money for themselves, that repainting is an economic necessity. Unpainted wood deteriorates and rots so fast that the money which was poured into the construction of the home or store only a few years before has been allowed to drop away with each chip of paint. Tenants should offer their cooperation with the landlords in the repainting of the building, although the final responsibility rests with the owner. Cooperation, however, will prove much more effective than demands. Absentee landlords, homeowners who live out of town, should realize that they have not only an economic stake in the repainting of the property they own but they also have a responsibility toward the appearance of the community which they, as property owners, must help maintain.

Every householder in Belleville should be making arrangements right now to have his home painted — or, a not uncommon practice, to paint it himself. Soon the line will be so long that a man will not want to get at the end of it. Some homeowners have complained that their economic situation would not warrant the expenditure. Most of them have not even taken the pains to inquire as to the cost which will surprise many. But even those who still kick at the bill should ask themselves whether they prefer to spend the money on constructive repair or in depreciation of their property. They will undoubtedly lose more the second way in the long run.

In the old days the owner of a run-down house would probably be visited by a representative of his neighborhood civic association and the advantages of building up the section pointed out to him. What has happened to all the various improvement associations which were active in Belleville up to two or three years ago? Bellwood Park, Soho, Greyluck, the Valley, South Belleville, Silver Lake — all had organizations of the residents of that neighborhood who banded together for mutual benefit. Has the need for them ended? We think not. They are more important today than they ever were: they are important if Belleville, as many industrialists and civic leaders have predicted, stands on the threshold of great expansion and growth; they are important if we are to maintain a modicum of community spirit and civic pride.

All the civic bodies in the world will not persuade a man to paint his house if he no longer cares about it, if he no longer has enough interest to keep it looking nice and attractive. For a house definitely reflects the occupant and a slovenly home can mean but one thing. This year should see the end of the gray pall which has hung over too many Belleville homes, stores and other buildings for more than a decade.

Victory Gardens Help War Effort

One of the most potent weapons of this war is food. To nations which have starved for years because their supplies were cut the thought of American food coming into their harbors is a powerful influence toward cooperation with the United Nations. To lands lying under the cruel boot of Axis conquerors who have looted them of all they had, the promise of square meals again is a strong incentive to exert their own powers to throw off the yoke in the time comes. To recently freed territories the actuality of real bread and eggs and potatoes is the most convincing proof of Allied goodness. The bringing of food to the destitute nations and the promise of it to spunged peoples will win many battles that mere bullets might lose. Conversely the withholding of needed food is a big stick which can be held over the heads of recalcitrant nations who will face starvation without the assistance of Uncle Sam and his friends.

We have heard these arguments for a long time so that our mind has become somewhat dulled on that score. We have heard the facts but they are not realistic to us. That is because we in America, with all our grumbling over shortages, have never had to rummage in garbage cans to find our next meal, have never descended to the level where an old crust of bread laying in a gutter looked like manna from heaven. Europe knows that sensation; its people have lived and are living literally from scrap to scrap. We in America owe it to the war effort, we owe it to humanity, to do what we can to alleviate the awful pangs of hunger that are gnawing at the stomachs of our fellowmen.

That is the principal reason why we have been urged to plant victory gardens; so that we might raise in our own soil a little bit of the food which we eat, thus making our demands on the national granary much less and thereby releasing millions of pounds of foodstuffs for shipment to foreign ports to be used as a weapon of war. Besides being to our own advantage, it is one more patriotic duty which we have been called upon to accept. Millions of victory gardens will form America's answer to the Axis this summer; this town should not be lacking.

Every War Bond You Buy Brings Victory That Much Closer

YOUR VICTORY GARDEN

Getting Tools and Garden Ready

By Dr. Charles H. Connors
College of Agriculture Rutgers University

Inexperienced gardeners are apt to buy too many tools. There are a lot of gadgets made for gardens that may be all right but are not necessary for successful garden management. In fact, only five tools are needed, a spade or spading fork, iron rake, hoe, trowel and garden line. For the average garden, the tool needed first is that used for digging. The spade is an old favorite and is especially useful in turning over sod. The spading fork is perhaps the easiest tool to handle in soil that has once been dug, as it takes less effort to thrust four times or prongs into the soil than the full blade of a spade. For a tall person, if the spade or spading fork can be secured with a long handle, digging may be a little easier.

Some persons favor a round pointed shovel, either with a short (D) handle or with a long handle. However, this type of shovel is made with the blade hung at an angle with the handle, and unless care is exercised in digging to thrust the blade vertically into the soil, too shallow digging will result. In the hands of a careful, experienced person, the round pointed shovel is a good tool.

Rake A Useful Tool

The second tool needed is an implement to break up the soil and level it. For this work, an iron rake is good. The best type of rake for all around gardening is the level head steel rake, with 10 teeth for women and men not so strong, and 14 teeth for strong men.

While the steel bow rake is good for raking and cultivating, the level head rake is a little more useful for leveling down a seed bed and tamping seed rows after they are sown.

The rake is an excellent tool for cultivating and keeping the crust of the soil broken, especially if used with a circular motion.

A hoe is needed for opening up furrows to sow seeds and for covering them. Another of its uses is for cultivating, especially if weeds are present.

A desirable type of hoe, light and easy to handle, is that known as an onion hoe, with a blade seven or eight inches wide and about three inches deep. If this type of hoe cannot be obtained, a regular garden hoe will serve the purpose. The kind of hoe used by masons for mixing mortar is too heavy and clumsy for garden work.

If you will cut little notches in the handle of the hoe, six inches apart, it will serve as a measuring rod and save effort in hunting for and using a yardstick.

Trowel For Transplanting

Another tool is essential for gardening. This is a trowel for transplanting. A straight shank trowel with a solid steel socket costs a little more than the standard form, but it will be more durable and well worth the little additional expense.

These four tools are the only ones a home gardener needs to buy. If possible to obtain them, tools made of good steel will give more satisfactory service and outlast cheap tools.

In good garden management, a garden line is necessary equipment, as it enables the gardener to make straight rows. Any strong string and two stakes will be adequate for this purpose.

Cultivator Good Tool

While these are all the tools that will be required, some persons purchase a cultivator, but the hoe and rake may be made to do this work. There is a type of cultivator known as the Norcross which contains five curved teeth that are removable so that three may be used, which is a very efficient tool.

In a large garden, a wheel hoe is favored by some persons. However, the Norcross is the cultivator preferred by the writer, who

Master Plumbers Auxiliary Names March Sanitation Month

March has been proclaimed sanitation month at a meeting of the Women's auxiliary of the national Master Plumbers association in its Newark headquarters. Mrs. Albert F. Ruhl of the Newark auxiliary is national chairman of sanitation and Mrs. Albert F. Borman of 45 Metz avenue is local chairman. Mrs. Borman is also second vice-president of the New Jersey association.

Members of the auxiliary have a two-fold purpose this month; to educate all women to recognize and report unsanitary conditions in public buildings or vehicles and to cooperate in keeping public sanitation facilities as clean as possible. Mrs. Borman pointed out that good health on the home front was never more important than now, however, workers are scarce and the efforts of the public to keep rest rooms as neat as they find them are much needed.
