

FIVE RESIGNATIONS BALANCED BY EIGHT APPOINTMENTS

More Teachers Leave School System; Principals' Salaries Raised Five Percent

Five teacher resignations and eight appointments highlighted the Monday meeting of the board of education at which eight school principals were also given five percent salary increases, the second such move within a year.

Outstanding resignation was that of L. Howard Fox, for six years instructor of public speaking at the high school. Fox, who has lived in Plainfield since his marriage last year, will go to Montclair State Teachers college.

This year Fox was advisor to the senior class and to the yearbook, on which he was in charge of photography.

Other resignations were received from Mrs. Ethelyn C. Murphy, special class teacher; Mrs. Ruth M. Ball, Miss Gloria E. Brazza and Miss Antoinette De Luca, all elementary school teachers. A leave of absence was granted to Mrs. Dorothy M. Huber for a year and the leave of Miss Harriet Becker was extended for another year.

The highest salary among the new teachers will be the $2,000 to Miss Eloise Elizabeth Best who comes here from High Point, N. C., and who will teach English and journalism in the high school.

Eight Hired

Hired were Miss Charlotte M. Craig of Clifton for kindergarten at Passaic avenue school; Miss Lois M. Dickson of Arlington and Miss Muriel R. Gershon for the same school.

Miss Rosemary O'Keefe of Jersey City will teach in Franklin avenue school, Miss Eleanor Ruth Walsh of Hoboken in Union avenue school, Mrs. Lillian M. Price of 270 Union avenue in Silver Lake school and Mrs. Margaret M. Ford of 272 Washington avenue in the special class. All, except Mrs. Price who will receive $1,300, have been employed at the base salary of $1,200.

The salary increases granted to principals stipulated that no principal would be increased to over $4,000 a year. Thus Miss Viola Broadbent and William F. Richards, who now receive $3,900, will be increased to that figure. Mrs. Catherine C. Hardwick, Miss Alice L. McDavitt, Thomas Gryczka, Henry Minasian and Robert N. Hayes will receive the full five percent. James G. Shawger, whose salary is now $5,100, was not included.

Second Raise

Raises of $125 to $150 were given each of the principals in December with the exception of Gryczka who was raised in April. A special resolution Monday raised acting high school principal Burt P. Johnson from $5,000 to $5,250.

EXTRA CURRICULAR PERIOD ADDED

High School Schedule Change Shifts Lunch-Time Waste To Early Morning

By re-arranging the high school lunch hours and making use of a half-hour daily hitherto wasted, a new period for extracurricular activities will be added to the school schedule next year.

The plan, explained by acting principal Burt P. Johnson to the board of education Monday night will provide 25 minutes early in the morning for meetings of class senates, committees, clubs, assemblies and for study period and furtherance of guidance work.

The proposal, which was explained to the faculty and students early in May, has resulted in only three complaints since that time, Johnson said, and each has been satisfied after a brief explanation.

At present, he explained, there are two 27-minute lunch periods, but students must "just sit and wait" through one of them while the other half of the school finishes eating.

A few students, those who live at a distance from the school and yet have permission to eat at home are given the benefit of being absent from the school for a few minutes. The remainder have only 27 minutes.

The new plan will increase the individual time of a student to 46 minutes but half the school will remain in regular class while the other half is having lunch.

Only a few who are not able to get home and back in 46 minutes will suffer in the future, he declared, while the great majority will benefit from the change.

Lieuts. Doell, Ostrowski Die In English Skies On D-Day

Michael G. Froelich, Missing A Year, Now Dead; Al Culkin, Patsy Barbone, B-24 Gunners, Missing; Russell Flynn, Philip Eibelsheuser Worried

"The Secretary of War desires me to express his deep regret that your son..." The words were received here Monday night for the twentieth time in this war when Mrs. Clara E. Doell of 169 Linden avenue learned that her son, 2d Lieut. Herman M. Doell, a B-24 Liberator pilot, was killed in action over England on D-Day.

The War department telegram, signed by Adjutant General Ullo, gave no further details of the local man's death but promised a letter in the near future. Lieut. Doell was 26.

A 1933 graduate of Belleville high school, he began work as a teller for the First National bank immediately after completing his studies. He entered the Army in April 1941 and rose to sergeant in the infantry.

Transferred to the air corps a year and a half later, he was commissioned at Ellington Field, Houston, Tex., last July. He subsequently took specialized B-24 training at Blythe, Cal.

He was a member of the Belleville Glee club as was his brother, Pfc. Louis Doell, who is now stationed at Second Army headquarters in Memphis, Tenn.

Second D-Day Victim

A second victim of D-Day's great invasion of France was 2d Lieut. Emil Ostrowski, 23, a B-26 Marauder co-pilot fighting with the Ninth Air Force in England.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph A. Ostrowski of 540 Union avenue, received their War department telegram last night.

Born in South River, Lieut. Ostrowski was a graduate of Plainfield high school and had lived in Belleville five years. He worked in his father's butcher shop at the Union avenue address.

He enlisted in the Army in July 1942 and was called as an air cadet the following February. After training at Maxwell Field, Ala., Bernettsville and Shaw Fields, S. C., he was commissioned at Turner Field, Albany, Ga., last November. He had been overseas three months.

Besides his parents he leaves three brothers, Cpl. Adolph Ostrowski Jr. with the Army engineers in Elkinsburg, Pa., 2/c Benjamin Ostrowski at the Naval air station, Memphis, Tenn., and Robert Ostrowski at home; and a sister, Miss Elizabeth Ostrowski, also at home.

Froelich Dead

A June 14 communication to his father from the War department confirmed the death of S/Sgt. Michael G. Froelich of 369 DeWitt avenue who was reported missing in action June 11, 1943.

Sgt. Froelich entered the Air forces in August 1942 and subsequently received his wings as a Flying Fortress tail gunner at Tindall Field, Fla. The following March he spent four days here and in April went to England.

Two months later on a mission over Wilhelmshafen, his plane was shot up and was last seen ten miles off the northwest coast of Germany. Two bodies were washed ashore and it was hoped that other members of the crew had survived.

Red Cross inquiries and War department searches in the interim failed to locate the men who have now been declared dead.

Sgt. Froelich was 30 when he entered service. He had been employed by the American Banknote company of New York before which he attended Belleville high school.

Besides his father, also Michael Froelich, Sgt. Froelich has two sisters here, Mrs. Joseph Carse of 14 Hornblower avenue and Mrs. Bernard Strain of the DeWitt avenue address.

Turret Gunner Missing

Mrs. Muriel Crowther Culkin of 27 Lincoln terrace received a War department telegram Monday informing her that her husband, S/Sgt. Albert G. Culkin, 28, has been missing in northern Italy since June 5.

Sgt. Culkin, the son of Mrs. Agnes Culkin of 62 High street, was married in Arizona three months ago, just before going overseas. He is a turret gunner on a B-24 Liberator.

He graduated from Belleville high school in 1934 and was well known in recreation circles as an outstanding basketball player. He was employed with Wright Aeronautical company of Hasbrouck Heights.

He entered the Army in March 1943 and won his gunner's wings at Tucson, Ariz., seven months later. His big concern on missions was "I hope we are not bombing innocent civilians; we are out to do the factories."

He has three brothers in service: 1st Lieut. Leo M. Culkin with the military police last heard from in England, S/Sgt. Eugene J. Culkin in an infantry unit at Fort Jackson, S. C., and Ambrose Culkin of Flushing, L. I., in the naval reserve.

been missing in action since June 2.

This was the information conveyed in a War department telegram received Wednesday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barbone of 61 Eugene place.

As "Patsy" Barbone, he gained many laurels as a Bellboy basketball star before he graduated from the high school in 1939.

He was inducted into the Army in August 1942, completed his radio studies at Chicago in March 1943, won his wings as an aerial gunner at Fort Myers, Fla., six weeks later and had been overseas two months.

His brother-in-law, married to the former Virginia Barbone, is Steamfitter 1/c Joseph Mazza of Washington avenue, stationed at Albany, Cal.

Flynn Wounded

During the first week in May, Sgt. Russell Flynn was wounded in ground action in Italy. This information was conveyed in a letter from him received Tuesday by his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edward A. Flynn of 94 Van Houten place.

He wanted to beat a War department telegram to his family, he wrote, and declared that he "expected to be all right."

He was shot in the back and the bullet came out his chest.

He was a star tackle on the football team before he left the high school in his senior year to enlist in the Army fourteen months ago. He is a member of Nereid Boat club.

Flynn took his basic training at Fort McClellan, Ala., and went overseas as an infantry replacement in November. He landed at the Anzio beachhead and was

NEWARK REJECTS WALACE-TIERNAN STORAGE REQUEST

Warehouse Building Here Is Rushed After Opposition To Garside Street Bid

Temporarily set back by refusal of Newark to permit a vacant public garage to be converted to storage of war materials, Wallace & Tiernan company this week was speeding construction of its new $58,500 warehouse at Bayard and Cortlandt streets in the rear of its plant.

Newark's city commissioners last week voted down (4-1) a request from the company for a war duration permit to use the garage at 277-283 Garside street to store water purification equipment made for the armed forces.

W&T spokesmen told the Newark commissioners that no other site within trucking distance of the company has been found and his arguments were backed up by an Army representative.

The later urged approval of the application on the grounds that storage space for the valuable equipment must be found while it is awaiting shipment overseas.

The request was turned down after residents in the neighborhood, protesting that patriotism was not an issue, declared approval of the measure would disturb a residential area, creating noise and imperiling children.

Storing, Packing Only

Gerald D. Peet, W&T's chief engineer, asserted yesterday that only "three or four trucks a day" would have used the garage, which would have been used for storing and some packaging.

Similar places are maintained in Montclair, Nutley and on Broadway in Newark, each also doing light manufacturing, and there have been no complaints from the neighbors, he declared.

The new warehouse, which will cover the entire block between Bayard, Cortlandt and Schuyler streets and the rear of the present plant, will be one story high and will connect with the main plant.

Since 1913 Wallace & Tiernan has been the world's largest manufacturers of water purification and chlorine control equipment and since 1921 has been located in Belleville.

During the last war the firm pioneered in the manufacture of water purification apparatus for armies in the field and has developed this equipment to meet modern warfare requirements.

GRAMKE IS OUT AS JERGENS MANAGER

New Official To Be Named By End Of June; Labor Trouble Believed Cause

A new plant manager for Andrew Jergens company here is expected to be named by the first of July, a company spokesman declared yesterday. He will succeed Edward T. Gramke who left the company by "mutual understanding."

The reasons for Gramke's resignation or dismissal have not been revealed but the plant on Franklin avenue has been beset with labor difficulties for several months.

It was Gramke who handled all the details on this end during the long drawn-out discussions and plans in late 1939 and early 1940 when the company was considering locating here and later which construction was proceeding.

When the Jergens plant began production three years ago, Gramke was named manager. He has been residing in Short Hills but was not available yesterday for comment.

He is still chairman of the tire and gas panel of the Belleville-Nutley ration board although he has not been present for several weeks.

Board chairman Herbert C. Schmutz said this week that Gramke had not resigned and that he was expected to attend future meetings.

Mutual Assault and Battery Charged by Apartment Dwellers

Recorder Smith reserved decision Friday morning after hearing an hour's testimony on mutual assault and battery charges brought by Mrs. Elizabeth Mariano, 31 and John Donaldson, 68, both of 580 Washington avenue.

The charges grew out of an alleged "pushing" incident in the apartment house at that address June 1. Donaldson is superintendent of the house, Mrs. Mariano a tenant.

The dispute arose over use of a driveway next to the apartment as a location for the Mariano baby's playpen. Donaldson had ordered its removal (he had bought the lot that day) and Mrs. Mariano refused.

He claimed the woman pushed him down; she testified he grabbed her arms and left welts. No blows were struck, but the court listened for over an hour to the recital of differences and charges.

Smith will notify the respective attorneys (Judge Hildebrand for Donaldson, Edward J. Abramson for Mrs. Mariano) when he has reached a solution.

REACH ONE-TENTH OF BOND QUOTA

House-To-House $27,000 Of $278,000 Total; Plan Young America Week

All issuing agents in the town have accounted for the sale of $278,382.52 worth of War bonds this month according to Defense coordinator Ronald G. Brunner. Of this amount approximately $27,000 worth have been sold by house to house canvassers.

The personnel of fire and police reserves, ambulance corps, first aid and the salvage committee have augmented the air raid wardens in the Fifth War Loan canvass.

Belleville's overall quota is $2,500,000 of which $750,000 is expected to be raised by individual purchases.

Young America bond week will be observed here when Boy scouts open their drive June 28. Each of ten troops will work toward the purchase of a military ambulance at a cost of $1,950.

Brunner also released a total of $19,185.85 which represents War stamp and bond purchases of the public elementary schools during June. St. Peter's school sales totaled $940.50.

The Progress club of Congregation AAA opened its campaign for purchases of $60,000 in bonds with appeal by Jack Steinhauer to "buy more than before and help end the war in '44."

More than $20,000 has already been pledged in the club, according to co-chairmen Edward J. Abramson and Steinhauer, who expect the club to maintain its record of beating every quota set.

Ex-Soldier Sues Crowhurst Co. To Recover Pre-Army Job

Crowhurst and Sons leather company of 35 Mill street will answer a "show cause" order before Federal Judge William F. Smith in Newark July 3 on complaint brought by a former employee discharged from the Army.

The company, it is alleged, refused to rehire Joseph Grasso of 589 North Eighth street, Newark, following his discharge last October. Before entering military service he was a tacker with the company.

Grasso is suing for back wages (over $1,600) at his former salary from the time of his discharge, and for reemployment in a position of similar status, seniority and pay.

It is believed that the Grasso-Crowhurst is the first New Jersey test of the national selective service act.

Pays For Still

John M. Pecoraro of New York City, formerly of 20 Hewitt avenue, Belleville, paid $115 in fines and costs last week when found guilty of maintaining a 100-gallon still in Garfield in 1941. Sentence was imposed by Judge Del Mar in special sessions court, Hackensack.

JANITOR SERVICE IS DEMANDED BY LAW

New Ordinance Would Require Them For Six-Family Dwellings; Other Bills Introduced

Any building in Belleville which houses more than five families will be required to maintain adequate janitor service at all times under the provisions of an ordinance introduced by Commissioner Mertz Tuesday night.

The ordinance, which amends the sanitary code of the town, also prohibits any individual in any multiple dwelling (more than one family) from shaking the dust out of any window in the house.

The proposed law leaves no loophole on the latter score: no one "shall use any window, dumb-waiter, shaft, fire escape or porch for the purpose of discharging dust by shaking or otherwise from any clothes, rug or other floor covering, broom, mop, rag or other cleaning implement or material."

The janitor service included in the first provision is "for the purpose of keeping the premises in a clean and sanitary condition" and the owner is responsible for daily removal of "all garbage and other household refuse from each flat or apartment."

Other ordinances introduced on first reading would vacate a portion of Arthur avenue, appropriate $1,500 for a storm sewer in Arthur street and through part of the mosquito-breeding grounds there, and establish a new grade in Stephens street between Belleville and Greylock avenues.

Lightning Hits Schaefer Home Second Time In One Month

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schaefer of 608 Belleville avenue do not believe that lightning never strikes twice in the same place. During Monday night's storm their house was hit for the second time in a month.

Mrs. Schaefer and her daughter, son-in-law and granddaughters were only a few feet from the house Monday when a bolt of lightning struck the eave of the house with a terrific clap of thunder which startled residents of many communities nearby about 7:30 p.m.

The eave was torn apart and the lightning travelled down the wall, ripping out shingles and denuding the dining room wall of plaster. The Schaefer radio was wrecked.

This was the climax of a stormy day which saw the sun completely blacked out at 10:30 a.m., when the sky turned black as night. Automobiles ran with full headlights and stores and homes turned on all lights.

Mass For Casualty

Mass was offered last Thursday in St. Francis Church, Newark, at the request of Tri-City post 299, American Legion, in honor of Pfc. Mario San Saverino of 472 North 6th street, Newark, who died in England May 26.

Bad Week For Stores, Two Receive Smashed Windows

Marbach Uninjured In Crash, Hurt In Fall Later; Cuzzo Garbage Truck Smashes Surasky Store; Two Youths Suffer Eye Cuts In Other Accidents

This was a bad week for store windows. Two were shattered within 24 hours when motor vehicles crashed through them. Sunday afternoon Hugh V. Donnelly of 154 Carpenter street told police that "something" flew into his eyes and he lost control of his car while trying to brush it out.

He was travelling east on Belleville avenue near Union avenue. His car careened across the intersection and plunged through the window of Gadale Marbach's delicatessen at 221 Belleville avenue.

No one was injured but Marbach, surveying the damage a short time later, fell through a hole in the floor, dropped ten feet into the cellar and was treated at St. Mary's hospital, Passaic, for a cut arm (thirteen stitches) and bruises about the face, chest and hands.

Monday afternoon Gilbert Swiney, 31, of 100 Morris avenue Newark, driving a garbage truck owned by Charles Cuzzo of 205 Hechel street, town scavenger, plunged through the windows of the drug store of Jack Surasky at Union avenue and Jerusalem street.

Swiney told police his brakes failed to hold. Before he crashed through the two plate glass windows, the truck also hit the automobile of Earl V. Enlow of 167 North Grove street, East Orange. Swiney was released on $25

North Belleville Savings-Loan To Buy $40,000 War Bonds

President H. Willard Sawyer announced yesterday that the board of directors of North Belleville Savings & Loan association voted last week to subscribe $40,000 in the Fifth War Loan, bringing the group's holdings to $97,000.

Sawyer also revealed that 720 new shares had been subscribed in the series just closed. It was one of the most successful held by the association in the past four years and resulted in 389 sales to new investors.

The winning team, captained by Clarence R. Lemmerin, will be guests of John R. Carlogh's losing team at dinner at the Forest Hill Field club June 27.

McDevitt Raised to Lieutenant In Prosecutor's Office

The promotion of Frank P. McDevitt of 109 Union avenue to a lieutenant in the prosecutor's office was announced Saturday by Prosecutor Wachenfeld. McDevitt fills the vacancy created by the death of William J. Callahan.

McDevitt has been a detective on the county force for nearly seventeen years. He was the third highest World War veteran on the civil service list, having served thirteen months as a sergeant overseas.

Prior to donning his Army uniform, he put in a brief hitch in the Navy. He was a Newark patrolman for five years before being appointed to the prosecutor's staff.

Wm. Mishkind Fails To Withdraw Assault Charge Against Baumann

Up to a late hour yesterday, William Mishkind of 49 Berkeley avenue had not withdrawn his assault complaint against George Baumann of Jersey City, a member of the gasoline panel of the ration board.

Mishkind signed the complaint before Recorder Smith last week, alleging that Baumann struck him in the mouth after he had requested additional gasoline for his Riviera Park Roller Skating rink business.

Baumann has signed no counter complaint, it is understood, and tomorrow has been set for the hearing.

Board chairman Schmutz denied last night a report in a Newark daily that he had given orders that Mishkind was to receive no gasoline ration until he and Schmutz had conferred on the case.

Under constant guard in St. Mary's hospital, Passaic, until her recovery of operation for appendicitis is Miss Grace Preston, 32, of 38 Camp street, Newark, admitted unwed mother of three children abandoned in a Belleville home a month ago.
Detectives McGinnis, Holly and Mariano and two Newark health inspectors picked up the woman in Newark last week after the inspectors recognized a photograph of the three tots, who are aged eighteen months, two and four years.
After complaining of feeling ill while being questioned in Belleville police headquarters, she was taken for observation to the hospital. When she recovers she will face arraignment on abandonment charges.
The children were left at the home of Mrs. James E. Owens of 8 Dow street but have been taken to a Newark foundling home. It is expected that they will be placed under the control of the state board of children's guardians.

Double Duty Brigades Here
Voluntary organization of "double-duty brigades" of war plant workers to help offset a serious local manpower shortage by taking spare-time employment in semi-essential industries was urged today by E. B. Wilcox, acting general manager of the A & P Tea company's laundry.
"If half the war workers now employed here were to devote only two hours a day to an extra chore in local industry, more than 25,000 man-hours would be added to Belleville's daily war effort," said Wilcox.
Identified with maintenance of public health and linked indirectly with the nation's largest food distribution system, the Belleville laundry has been classified among essential industries.

Five Resign From Schools
Board president Herbert C. Schmutz explained that the proviso was placed on the principals' increases so that leeway would be left to adjust their salaries in accordance with the report of Dr. Willard S. Ellsbree who is studying the salary schedule question throughout the school system.
Ellsbree's report is expected in December although neither the board of education nor the teachers' association has yet appointed the committees which will work with him on the problem.
Herman Wische, high school physical education instructor and basketball coach, will receive $200 for extra work performed during the year. Miss Gerardina Corona, special class teacher, was increased from $1,500 to $1,700.
After Commissioner Gilby announced that no bids have been received for furnishing coal to the schools for next year, the board voted permission to business manager Ruel E. Daniels to purchase fuel on the open market "within ceiling prices."
The board also approved purchase of $280 in window shades from J. M. Davis company of Nutley and $413 in window sashes from Bishop & Haug company of Newark.

The board will furnish a typewriter desk, secretary's chair, eight writing-arm chairs and a number of filing cabinets. Interior decorating on the room has already begun.
The recent rejection of priority for a public address system for the B-Hive, new youth center, has been appealed by the school board, Schmutz announced.

Set Up Gas Ration Bank For DPW, No Bids On Street Sweeper
A gasoline ration bank will be set up in the First National bank to regulate use of gas in the department of Public Works. The action was voted by resolution of the Commission Tuesday night.
A similar move was taken several months ago for the police and fire departments. Deputy director Hugh Welsh and clerk John Lanza will have authority to sign the gasoline checks.
The Commission also voted to dispense with the usual advertisement for bids on the new Austin-Western patrol street sweeper for the DPW and to accept the price of $4,445 quoted by Henry Lohse company.

Friday afternoon a mother reported that three girls, aged seven to nine and residing on Center and Joralemon streets, were molested by a man in Belleville Park. A description was furnished to police.

Where Is The Tri-Community Hospital?

With a great deal of fanfare, delegates from Belleville, Nutley and Bloomfield sat down to lunch one day last January to discuss the possibility of establishing a tri-town hospital to care for the medical needs of more than 97,000 people. Present at the luncheon were clergymen, doctors, industrialists and politicians from each of the towns; the press was barred. The meeting was instigated by the Belleville Foundation, an organization which, despite the oversize amount of publicity which has attended its every move since its birth two years ago, remains a mysterious thing to the majority of Bellevillites.

The principal result of the meeting was the decision to appoint a five-man subcommittee from each of the towns who would study the various facets of the project and iron out the wrinkles. The subcommittees were to report back to the luncheon guests within sixty days to tell the larger group what they had discovered about the feasibility of the establishment of such a hospital to serve the three communities.

Five months have passed since that optimistic luncheon, three months have passed since the subcommittees' deadline for reporting. Not only has the luncheon failed to reconvene, not only have the subcommittees failed to report — but the Foundation failed even to appoint a subcommittee in Belleville!

When organizations or individuals propose glorious ventures which gain for them quick headlines and nodding heads of approbation they assume a responsibility to carry out their proposals. If they fail, the amount of effort expended to reach their goal is the sole judge of the merit of their endeavors. When they permit a project to falter without raising a hand to speed it, the organization or individual must be judged as lacking either in good intention or in efficiency: either the publicity-getting was a goal in itself or the proposer had not the stamina to overcome obstacles and carry it through.

At any rate, an organization which is supposedly a public function, one which is avowedly formed for the benefit of the public at large and has made its appeal on that basis, may very well be expected to come forth from time to time to inform the public of its ambitions, its efforts, its obstacles, and to enlist the public in its cause. The public will much more appreciate something in which it has had a hand than it will projects which are conceived and carried out seemingly for its own good but behind a veil of secrecy and mystery.

Him Today — Me Tomorrow

A nation founded on democratic consent and now at war for democracy ought to have no difficulty in providing for "the full and equitable participation of all workers in defense industries, without discrimination because of race, creed, color or national origin." Nevertheless the President's Committee on Fair Employment Practice is having some trouble in persuading labor unions and employers to live up to this reasonable ideal. In theory the committee can force compliance under the war powers of the President. In practice it cannot.

There is discrimination in employment against Negroes, against Jews and other religious minorities, and against some foreign-born groups persists, in about that order. It is true that the shortage of labor in most war-industry communities has caused the upgrading of many members of these minorities. Specifically, the Negro, whose problem is of long standing, is being given better jobs. But at least twenty-four important unions still refuse to give him equal status.

No question of the social mingling of races is involved. The question is solely one of equal opportunity. We may hope that both employers and white workers will realize this simple truth, and that they will also realize that if opportunity can be denied to any group, for reasons of color, religion or national origin, no minority group's rights are safe. The principle of equal opportunity is not divisible. It ceases to exist if all do not have it.

There is here a shining chance to make our democracy sounder and safer. There is a corresponding danger that workers who have been discriminated against will be forced into strike-breaking after the war, destroying unions and, ending all prospect of industrial peace. Wisdom and justice both cry out against discrimination. Fair play helps every one and unfairness, in the long run, hurts every one.

Reaffirm No-Strike Pledge

From Greater Nwk. CIO Council

James McLeish, President Katherine Hoffman, Secy.-Treas. To the Editor of The Times: The full might of American and Allied troops has been launched against the forces of fascism. This is the final phase of the war in Europe marking the liberation of its people, and the beginning of the end of fascism.

The sacrifices being made by our fighting men require that we, on the home front, do everything in our power to assure final Victory in the shortest possible time. To the Commander-in-Chief, President Roosevelt, and to the Supreme Command of the Allied forces, Dwight Eisenhower, we pledge anew to produce the vital materials of war in speedy, uninterrupted flow.

We pledge to contribute our full share toward securing the unity of all the people for victory and for lasting peace.

Seek War Records

From War Records Commission Mrs. Gordon Buchanan, director To the Editor of The Times:

The War Records commission is preparing a history of the New Jersey civilian effort in World War II for early publication. The purpose is to preserve the story of Civilian defense both at the state level by documents which will show its inception, growth and maturity, and also at the municipal level by reports of the local historians.

The program of civilian defense has been so unified, so highly organized, that local reports are to a high degree similar. Yet in every community something has occurred which has happened in no other place.

The Federal government has acquired properties; heroes have returned; migrant workers arrived; alien workers been repudiated; citizens been appointed to national positions or overseas level; special recognition has been awarded the schools; distinguished visitors have made public addresses; servicemen and women have been entertained; new war industries have started; businesses have closed.

We are at total war and every phase of life feels its impact. We want to know how the war has affected your community and what the people did about it. The him. He's been out in the deep South Pacific for eighteen months; needless to say he yearns for Belleville!

We had quite a talk, and I invited him over to have dinner on my ship. I managed to dig out a Monard that Room 303 sent me and he really enjoyed looking at the pictures of the girls, etc.

A bit sadly he admitted that all his old sweethearts were getting married, and that he hoped to get back before all the Belleville fairer sex started working in double harness.

He's seen all the South Sea belles, tropical isles, coconuts and what have you — all he wants is to get back to his family, friends, the Bog, Clearman Field and the rest.

I'm out here in command of a Task Unit — just in here for repairs. Hope Spotts had a good season.

Do you expect to be alive by dinnertime?

A number of Americans will not be.

Many Americans will be dead before this day is ended. Many more tomorrow. Many every day in the weeks to come.

For this is the most critical stage of the toughest, bloodiest war America has ever faced. This is the time when America must make her supreme military effort. Nothing can be spared—in men or equipment.

For us at home, too, the greatest effort of the war is demanded—now.

The greatest sum of money ever raised must be raised in the next few weeks—by our purchases of War Bonds.

This doesn't mean simply buying a bond in the regular way. It doesn't even mean buying extra bonds as in other War Loan drives.

It means doubling—yes, doubling—what we've done before.

It means putting in $2 for every $1 we put in other drives. $20 for every $10! $200 for every $100!

To many this will mean real sacrifice!

Well, what if it does? The supreme effort of the war is at hand for every American—both here and overseas! Double your bond buying!

And here are 5 More reasons for buying Extra Bonds in the 5th!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds help keep prices down.
4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the War.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children; security for you; funds for retirement.
