

POST WAR PLANS CONFERENCE MAY BE HELD SOON

Foundation and CED Both Ask for Confabs to Discuss Problems with Commission

A large-scale conference of government and industrial leaders of the town may be in the offing. The Commission is expected to consider Tuesday night two separate requests for such confabs. The letters were received and read by the Commission sitting last Thursday in a special session but action was deferred to await the return of Mayor Williams from the Republican convention in Chicago.

Robert T. Browning of Wallace and Tiernan company and chairman of the Belleville Committee for Economic Development outlined the aims and efforts of his group.

The committee is part of a nation-wide organization to plan now for industry's reconversion to peacetime operations. Toward that end it is attempting a town-wide survey of industrial statistics here.

Browning declared CED wants to confer with the Commission in order that it might coordinate its plans with those of the town.

Public Handbook
Harry G. Specht, general manager of Eastwood-Nealey corporation and president of the Belleville Foundation, announced to the Commission plans to publish a guidebook for returning Belleville servicemen.

His conference with the Commission will discuss general problems confronting veterans and the part that the municipal government will probably play in their reintroduction to civilian life.

The handbook has been in preparation more than six months and is expected to make its appearance in early fall.

The Foundation organized a committee comprising a dozen sub-committees, each preparing data on any of the major problems which might be met by the returning serviceman.

When the work of the sub-committees is completed and the information compiled, it will be published in a handbook which will be presented by the Foundation to each veteran.

Telephone Wires, Trees Downed In Sudden Fierce Storm

Public Service and the municipal shade tree commission were the chief sufferers from Thursday night's sudden intense storm, which spread havoc through North Jersey.

After one of the most humid and sultry days in many years, the early evening sky was streaked by occasional lightning flashes which seemed more angry than usual.

Shortly before 8:30 the storm broke in full fury. Streets were flooded in short order and police headquarters began to receive calls of telephone wires and trees downed.

Most of the damage was concentrated in a path which included two or three blocks on either side of the length of Franklin avenue.

CLUBWOMEN BEGIN DEWEY CAMPAIGN

Women's Republican Club To Start Immediately For Fall Election

In a brief discussion Thursday afternoon at the home of their president, Mrs. Arthur E. Mayer of 240 Greylock parkway, officers and committee chairmen of the Belleville Women's Republican club unanimously decided to make arrangements for a rally to stimulate public interest in the election of Thomas E. Dewey.

Mrs. Harry Fredericks, the club's legislative chairman, was designated to enlist the aid of the Republican Essex county committee of which she is vice-chairman.

A social gathering in the Mayer residence followed the meeting in place of the anticipated garden party which was prevented by the excessive heat. The women extended a welcome to Mrs. John J. O'Brien, founder and honorary president of the club, who recently returned from a visit in Hollywood, Calif. with her daughter, Miss Joan O'Brien, studio research worker.

Present Thursday were Mrs. A. A. Dalzell, Mrs. Hannah Ellenberger, Mrs. Thomas B. Ferguson, Mrs. George D. Hagerter, Mrs. Chester Kraft, Mrs. Elizabeth Kibbee, Mrs. E. J. Moniot.

Also attending were Mrs. Edward Rochau, Mrs. Stalter, Mrs. David Sundheimer, Mrs. Fred Van Duyn, Mrs. Stella Voulaire, Mrs. Harry White and Mrs. Julie L. Zabriskie.

LIONS RESPONSIBLE FOR NEW FLAG POLE

Commissioner Noll Disclaims Obligation for Replacing Serving Flag Staff

The responsibility for obtaining a new flagpole to support the recently-donated town service flag rests with the Lions club, Commissioner Noll declared last week.

He made the statement during the course of a conversation in which he "took exception" to an editorial in The Times last week suggesting that there might be a personal reason for his failure to hang the flag although it had been presented by the Lions several months before.

"The Lions bought the first flag and pole. They laundered the flag when it was necessary and replaced it when it was worn out. Why shouldn't they supply a new pole?" Noll asked.

The size and weight of the new banner is too great for the old pole, he explained, adding that he is "willing to have the caretaker take the new flag out and bring it in."

While he did not explain the reasons for his resignation from the Lions club after having served as its president, he "took exception" to that remark. "I have no reason to get personal with the Lions."

"They have taken care of this thing all the way through," he concluded, "so let them carry through. They assign a detail to me that I haven't time to carry out."

FORMER RESIDENT NAVY CASUALTY

R. F. McCormack Missing Since D-day; W. R. Rodgers Wounded in Invasion

Seaman 2/c Ronald Frederick McCormack jr., 18, is missing in action in the European theater of operations, possibly in the invasion of France. He was a member of the crew of an LST.

McCormack's parents now reside at 123 Church street, Nutley, having moved there from Overlook avenue, Belleville, last December. They received the telegram of notification Sunday evening.

The seaman attended Belleville high school until he left in his senior year last February to enlist in the Navy. He took his boat training at Sampson and shipped out in April.

Rodgers Wounded

S/Sgt. William Rich Rodgers of Arlington, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Francen of 51 Prospect place, is hospitalized in England as a result of wounds received in the invasion. He is a member of an infantry division.

The son of Mrs. John Avento, Rodgers was born in Brooklyn after his father had been killed in World War I. He was raised by Mr. and Mrs. Francen in their Providence, R. I. home until he was seven.

He came to North Arlington when his mother remarried and was graduated from schools there. Often a visitor of his uncle and aunt, he is well known here.

Rodgers trained at Fort Meade, Md. and went to England 21 months ago. Before entering the Army he was with John Willis of 66 Wilbur street, owner of a Kearny service station.

His cousin, Lieut. Charles E. Francen, of the Prospect place address, is in the Pacific battle area. Now with the Army Engineers, he first entered the Signal corps in June 1942. He was commissioned at Fort Monmouth.

Francen was graduated from Belleville high school and was employed in the Western Electric company in Kearny.

ZINK TAKES HOLD OF N. J. FINANCES WITHOUT DELAY

Tax-Finance Commissioner Announces Cash Surplus, Coordinated Payrolls

A coordinated payroll system for eight merged state financial offices and a state cash balance of more than $10,000,000 were among the first public announcements to be made this week by Homer C. Zink of 26 Rossmore place, new commissioner of Taxation and Finance.

Zink's newly-created post will head a staff of 825 employees with an annual payroll of $1,800,000. At least one employee in each of the departments will be released for other duties because of the centralization.

The new set-up has absorbed the old departments of taxation, finance commissioner, budget director, purchases, local government, comptroller, tax appeals and state house custodian.

Before the streamlining of the state finance offices, each of the eight bureaus made up its own payroll and all checks emanated from Zink's old comptroller's office.

Now all payrolls will be made out in a central office and the first payments under the new system will be made on the fifteenth.

Encouraging Sign

"This centralized payroll is an encouraging sign of what is going to happen here," Zink declared. "This arrangement makes for increased efficiency, does away with duplication of effort and promotes centralized control."

Zink also pointed out that the $10,094,972 surplus is nearly 100 percent increase in cash balance over the same time last year and that Governor Edge has set $25,000,000 as the surplus goal by the end of fiscal 1945.

This sum will be dedicated for postwar projects. Now all state finances are on a July 1-June 30 fiscal year. Previously the highway department had been out of step by using the calendar year.

MISHKIND DROPS ASSAULT SUIT

Fails to Prosecute Charge Against Rationer Baumann; Had Been Postponed

Without a hearing, the assault case brought by William Mishkind of 49 Berkeley avenue against George Baumann of Jersey City was dropped Friday morning when Mishkind failed to appear to press the charge.

The charge arose after an alleged sock in the jaw handed out by Baumann, a member of the gasoline panel of the war price and rationing board, when Mishkind asked for more gas than he had been allotted.

Baumann, who formerly lived in Nutley, had been expected to enter a counter-complaint of abusive language against Mishkind, who sought gas for his tool company at 126 William street.

Questioned by a Times reporter less than a half hour after the reported incident two weeks ago, both Baumann and another gas panel member denied that anything had happened.

Originally scheduled to be heard in recorder's court June 23, it was postponed because Baumann was at a convention at that shore.

Friday morning neither of the principals appeared in court and acting Recorder Gebhardt dismissed the complaint. Mishkind yesterday declined to comment on his failure to press the charge.

Contribute Five Tons of Clothes For People of Liberated Italy

The drive was fostered by St. Anthony's and St. Peter's Catholic churches and they were assisted in the collection by the Belleville Political and Social club.

"If this in any criterion of what the rest of the United States are going to accomplish, the people of liberated Italy are going to be well-clothed this winter," said Capanear in his thanks to the cooperating organizations.

War Bond Sales Will Reach 200 Percent This Week

Overall Purchases Reported $4,966,880 Last Night, Only $33,000 Short of Double Quota; Series E Bond Sales Total $536,197 to Give Town Lead in New Jersey

Some time today or tomorrow some Bellevillite is expected to buy the bond which will bring the town's total to $5,000,000 and thus exactly double the quota set for the community in the Fifth War Loan. Up to last night sales of $4,966,880 had been reported, only $33,120 short of the double-the-figure goal.

Belleville was reported far out in the lead in sales of Series E bonds among the larger municipalities of the state. Sales in this category last night totalled $536,197.50 or 71 percent of the three-quarter million quota set June 12 when the campaign began.

Meanwhile, numerous civic and fraternal organizations throughout the town were laying plans for bond rallies and bond parties in an effort to boost the Series E sales over the top.

Last night the Craftsmen's club held a special bond rally and an auction of "personal" services at the Rotary luncheon yesterday netted $4,575. Rotary is reported oversubscribed in its effort to purchase a B-29 Superfortress to replace its B-17 recently lost in action.

Three gifts auctioned at the Rotary affair yesterday were bought when Judge Everett B. Smith bid $1,000 for a Benson desk set, Samuel Wasserman bought a bottle of pre-war Hennessy for $500 and Signe Bart paid $75 for an agriculture book.

Boat Trip
W. Douglas Clark's proffered boat trip brought $600 from Ray V. Poyer while seats on it were sold to Philip Dettelbach, Dr. George Kaden, Dr. Donald Brown, Harry G. Specht, B. Thomas Aitken and Smith for $100 each. Frank McFadden cost Aitken $500 who will employ his banking neighbor as messenger boy for an afternoon. For $225 Edgar S. Peierls will shine the shoes of Russell K. Rose and nine friends on the steps of the library or town hall.

Other services auctioned under the gavel of Julius Faas included John P. Dailey (caddie), Dettelbach (nursemaid), Commissioner Joseph King (chauffeur), Laurence E. Keenan (gigolo), stay away) Edward P. O'well (wishwasher) and W. W. (plumber).

Also bought were the services of Faas (charterer), Kaden (colored pictures), Ronald G. Brunner (baby minder), Raymond Yerg (golf lesson) and Joseph C. Duval (car washer). The Lions club has again revised its original goal of $35,000 in E bond sales since it has sold $100,606 to date. The club expects to purchase a dive or medium bomber.

Scouts Buy Ambulances
Boy Scout troops 301, 375 and 389 have each realized their goals of buying a field ambulance. Total sales reported yesterday amounted to $7,740.

The civilian defense personnel has disposed of $70,013 in its house-to-house canvass while the Craftsmen's club has surpassed $30,000.

"Even though we have reached our town quota," Brunner said yesterday, "we must continue the drive on E bonds. July must be devoted to efforts to be the first large community in the state to reach its quota in this category."

SALES more than doubled during the week, largely because of several large corporation purchases. The names and amounts of the firms who made the purchases were not revealed.

CUOZZO GIVEN TIME TO FIND DRIVER
Missing Official Driver Said To Be in Washington; Others Jailed for Violations

The charges against Charles Cuozzo of 205 Heckel street of permitting an unlicensed man to operate one of his garbage trucks were deferred by acting Recorder Gebhardt Monday morning to give the town scavenger time to locate the official driver of the truck.

Cuozzo listed Emmet Turner, 39, as the rightful operator of the truck the day it ran out of control and crashed into the windows of Jack Surasky's drugstore at 313 Union avenue.

Gilbert Swiney, 31, of Newark was found guilty last week of having been at the wheel at the time and was jailed for 25 days in default of $25 fine and $3 costs. He had no driving license.

Cuozzo told Gebhardt that Turner had been driving the truck the morning of the accident but that he had left the vehicle in Joralemon street and wandered off. He was last reported in Washington.

Wilbert B. Richardson Gets Soldier's Medal

Division Avenue Man Risked Life to Enter Blazing Crashed Liberator Bomber to Rescue Two Officers; Enlisted Although Past Age for Drafting

For voluntarily entering a crashed and blazing heavy bomber and risking his life to attempt the rescue of two officers, M/Sgt. Wilbert B. Richardson of 70 Division avenue last week was awarded the soldier's medal in special ceremonies at March Field, Cal., where he is now stationed. The award was made by Col. LeRoy A. Walhall, March Field's commanding officer.

On February 1 a B-24 Liberator with nine officers and an enlisted man aboard crashed near the field. Richardson dashed to the scene in a borrowed jeep.

He arrived ten minutes after the crash and found the wreckage of the huge ship burning furiously and learned two men were still trapped in the forward part of the ship "which was enveloped in fire."

"Richardson voluntarily and at the risk of his life twice entered the burning craft" and cut the parachute harness and clothing of the men. Only after he had carried the men out did he realize that they were dead.

Burned By Explosion
He had just been ordered out of the ship by the commanding officer when the rest of the plane was rent apart by an explosion in which Richardson was burned, but not seriously. Seven crewmen were killed.

Richardson moved to Belleville four years ago from Mt. Vernon, N. Y., and was platform manager for Consolidated Motor Transport of Newark.

He enlisted in the Army two years ago when he was already past draft age. His wife took a job with duPont in Arlington so that she might release him for military duty. They have been married six years.

M/Sgt. Wilbert B. Richardson

He received his training and has been stationed at Keesley. Continued on page two.

JACKSON CHARGED IN SON'S MURDER

Kean Street Man Is Held In Shooting after Argument; Woman Held as Witness

Eugene Jackson, 50, colored, of 2 Kean street was held without bail Monday morning by acting Recorder Gebhardt to await grand jury action for the murder of his son, Velton Jackson, 29.

Sgt. Ernest Slater and a Patrolman Joseph Nyzard were detailed to investigate the telephoned report of a disturbance at the home Saturday evening.

They reported that an argument had taken place between father and son and that the older man took his 12 gauge shotgun from "the closet and fired at the son at almost point-blank range."

Velton Jackson was found on the floor with most of his abdomen and groin shot away. He was pronounced dead by Dr. Robert J. Citrino of Nutley and the body was removed to Mullin's morgue, Newark.

Later Patrolman Thomas Gallagher and Chanceman Joseph Doran arrested the father at Magnolia street and Newark avenue and took him to police headquarters, where he was arraigned Monday morning.

Miss Etta Love, 29, of the same address was held in $5,000 bail by Gebhardt as a material witness to the shooting. Unable to raise the bail, she was sent to the Newark jail to await the hearing by the grand jury.

Velton Jackson received a medical discharge from the Army last September after having served thirteen months.

TO THE HOUSEWIFE...

If you will check up you will probably find that you pay about a half dozen bills per month for monthly or occasional expenses such as rent, insurance premiums, income taxes, or mortgage payments.

These you want to pay as easily and inexpensively as possible. You want receipts and a record, particularly when income tax time rolls around. Perhaps you don't want to have to keep a lot of money in your checking account.

The Special Checking Account of the Peoples National Bank and Trust Company is trumps for you. For no minimum balance is required ever, no monthly service charge, no charge for deposits. You buy a book of 25 checks for $2.00, your only cost.

So if you write 6 checks a month your Special Checking Account costs you less than 50 cents a month.

SILVER LAKE COPS BASEBALL CROWN

Completes Unbeaten Season
By Tripping Joralemon 7-2
In Grammar School Loop

In the Grammar School Baseball League's final game Monday at Clearman Field of the season, the undefeated Silver Lake nine turned back Joralemon Street school 7-2, to cap the loop's first championship.

Lou Vitelli, who had been credited with all of No. 4's other wins pitched fine two-hit ball and set down fourteen Joralemon batters via strikeouts.

No. 3 drew first blood by sending over a run in the second, only to have No. 4 come back and tie it up in their half of that same inning, and then ice the game in the third with four more scores.

On the offensive side, Dom D'ambola led his mates with two hits, one a double.

THE BONDS YOU BOUGHT HAVE GONE TO WAR—
BUT The Battle is Bigger than Ever!

You Can't Fail them NOW!

BACK THE 5TH WAR LOAN TO THE LIMIT

REMEMBER the Sicilian invasion? Each mechanized division required 18,000 gallons of gasoline for every hour it was on the move.

Remember the invasion of Italy? The cost to reach the mainland from the time we began the attack in North Africa was 1,800 aircraft lost.

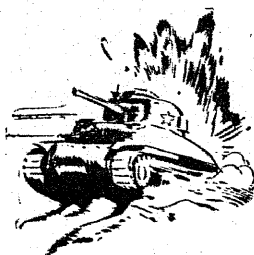

Even when we win, we lose vast stores of guns, planes, tanks and other equipment. For that is the price of victory. The Bonds you bought in the first four War Loan Drives are today's exploding bombs and shells! They can never be used again.

But today the battle is bigger than ever! And that is why you must do MORE than ever in the 5th War Loan.

Our fighting men are ready. They will go anywhere, any time, anyhow—and bar nothing! For that is the American spirit. Back that spirit NOW... and back the 5th War Loan to the limit! It's for Invasion! It's for Victory!

Now is the time! The job is big—and every moment counts. Go to your regular War Bond sales outlet. Buy all you can—and then more! More than you've ever bought before. Invest not only out of current income but out of idle and accumulated funds. This is the biggest job America has ever had to do! Let's show our fighting men we can do it!

OPEN YOUR DOOR AND YOUR HEART TO THE

Victory Volunteers

DURING this drive you may be visited by a volunteer War Bond worker. Open your door and your heart to him (or her). Let him explain the various U. S. Government Bonds available. They are the safest investments in the world. Buy them and keep them... and you can face the future with confidence. You will be able to build that home you have dreamed about... send your children to college... buy the things you've always wanted—create personal security.

Four Freedoms on the Home Front

Last winter a peoples' movement began at Washington Crossing, N. J., which was pooh-poohed for some time by political, industrial, labor, social and civic leaders alike. But the movement has not died from their sarcasm; it has grown by leaps and bounds from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Newspapers have caught it up and swirled it on through the industrial east, into the wheatfields and prairies of the midwest and down into the cotton belt of the south. Some politicians are beginning to be quite afraid of it for it threatens to have an important bearing on the November election.

The movement has incorporated itself under the name of Four Freedoms on the Home Front and naturally it has a four-plank platform: freedom from racketeering labor leaders; freedom from bureaucracy, red tape and wasteful spending; freedom of enterprise and individual opportunity; and freedom of state and local rights from federal domination. The movement has sponsored crowded meetings and many plain citizens have seized on the opportunity to speak their minds.

Naturally the politicians have labelled the whole thing a trick of the Republican party to discredit President Roosevelt and bring about his defeat in November. Maybe it is; but it cannot be denied that the four proposals have much foundation in fact, so much possibly that they prove a bit embarrassing to the President's supporters. By their very opposition to the Four Freedoms they prove that the points strike mighty close to home and are therefore unwelcome.

Racketeering labor leaders, long coddled by the Roosevelt administration, are beginning to disgust honest Americans, particularly now that they have seen so much evidence of lack of Americanism among the labor leaders themselves. Strikes called merely to settle jurisdictional disputes or to show the power of a union were morally wrong in peacetime; now when the future of the nation is at stake they are criminal and treasonous. The federal government has definitely failed in its duty to curb the torrential outpouring of union power, organized to a high peak to further the domination of the labor bosses just as it failed to regulate management.

As the second point is concerned, the government cannot explain away the national debt and the huge federal payroll by saying it all on the war. The debt rose from $22 billion in 1933 to $48 billion in 1941 (it is now over $150 billion). That, broken down to you and me, meant $179.32 for every man, woman and child in the U. S. when Roosevelt started, and $367.55 before the war started. At the end of fiscal 1943 each of us owed $1,008.34. The United States have not seen a balanced budget since 1930.

Congress Seeks to Eliminate Wasteful Spending

The Byrd joint Congressional committee on reduction of non-essential expenditures hopes to kill off some of the government's lending agencies. The job may be difficult, however; even when ordered liquidated, government lending agencies die hard. HOLC has been liquidating for eight years but still has more than $1,200,000,000 loans outstanding. The lending authority of PWA expired more than six years ago yet that depression-born agency still has more than $70,000,000 in loans on its books.

Most of the lending agencies are federal corporations operating with a high degree of autonomy. Neither Congress nor the budget bureau has any control over the administrative expenses of some and the government's general accounting office has no authority to audit them.

Immune from taxation, many of them show a profit which is added to their working capital, perpetuating their existence. Some, like the Rural Electrification Administration, seem independent at times even of the White House. Aides of the President have tried unsuccessfully to re-

1941 (it is now over $150 billion). That, broken down to you and me, meant $179.32 for every man, woman and child in the U. S. when Roosevelt started, and $367.55 before the war started. At the end of fiscal 1943 each of us owed $1,008.34. The United States have not seen a balanced budget since 1930.

The same figuring will show that when Roosevelt came to power there were 572,091 on the federal payroll, their salaries being paid out of taxes. By Pearl Harbor the figure had risen to 1,670,922 and it was 3,188,625 a year ago. In other words it now takes five times as many people to manage our national affairs as it did when Mr. Roosevelt appeared as the shining knight in armor eleven years ago.

There are many who feel that government control over certain aspects of our national life is already too great and is growing more and more grasping all the time. Thus, the third point: freedom of enterprise and individual opportunity. America was based on that principal. It became the greatest nation in the world because of the striving of individuals to better their lot and incidentally to provide better things for their fellow-men. When the government steps in, not to regulate but to control, we are robbed of that integral part of American life.

The fourth plank, freedom from federal domination, is simply a call for return to the old theory of states' rights. The FFHF people believe that local problems should be solved locally and that the federalists have had too many noses in local affairs. Exaggeration of central dominance is a totalitarian state, where the state is paramount and the individual counts for little. It could happen here.

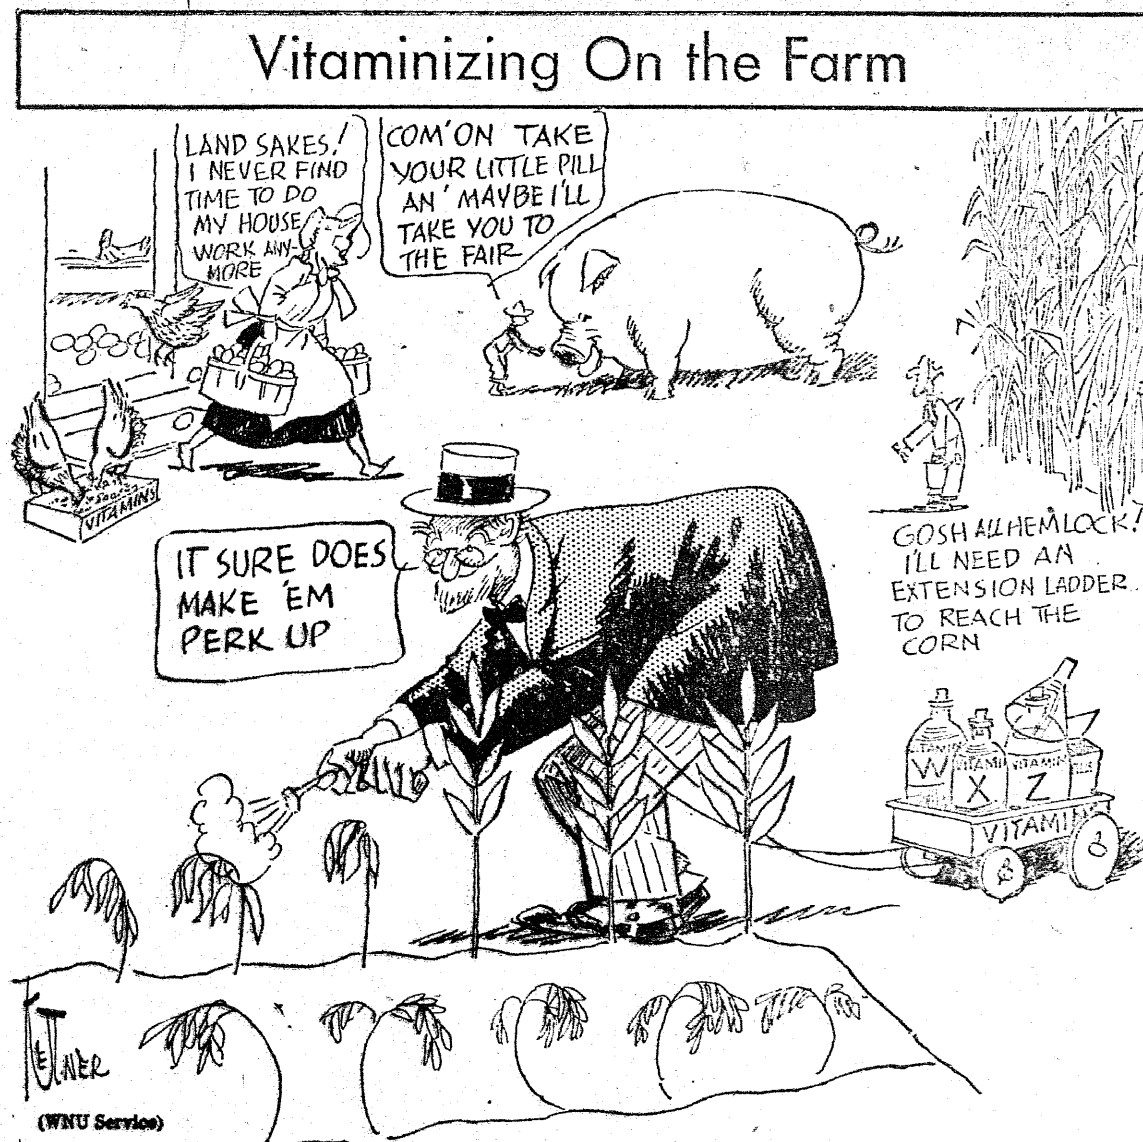

These are some of the facts and figures which caused a handful of men at Washington Crossing to declare anew their independence. They know that FDR was a sort of savior when he came along in the depth of the depression and his initial moves to remedy the situation were widely heralded and approved. They know that Mr. Roosevelt chose, like a worn-out opera star, to remain on the stage after he had reached his best voice and that the subsequent disillusion has done much to remove him from the niche he might have otherwise held in American history. There is nothing sadder than a singer who does not know when he is through. He may yet sing a few good roles; but the sour notes which he hits all too often will leave a bitter memory in the minds of his audience.

move Harry Slattery as RE Administrator. Of course, those lending agencies which are geared to take losses are subject to Congressional control because they must periodically seek more funds.

Despite the coming Byrd committee campaign, Uncle Sam may get even deeper into the banking business during the reconversion period. Federal loans now outstanding total about seven billion dollars. This aggregate may grow rapidly if Congress follows the policy laid down in the Baruch postwar report, which urges expanding the lending authority of the Smaller War Plants corporation to permit short-term loans to help small business convert for peace.

A bill now before Congress would permit SWPC to lend $250,000,000 and guarantee privately-extended credit without limit to facilitate reconversion, to reestablish in its previous or a similar business any enterprise which suspended because of war, and to provide working capital for preservation of small concerns.

Three Forfeits in Four Games
Mark Grammar School Ball

Most of the Grammar School Baseball folded during the past fortnight. Last week three of the scheduled games ended in forfeits, leaving Passaic and Union playing the only contest.

Cordasco and Supphen with four and three runs respectively led the Passaic 10-5 triumph. Passaic garnered only four hits but made the most of the sloppy Union fielding.

In the other scheduled frays, Ralph forfeited to Franklin, St. Peter's to Silver Lake and Cortlandt to Joralemon.

Braves, Starlings Wallop Foes
In Intermediate Softball

The Braves and the Starlings walloped their respective foes last week to demonstrate the conclusion that both are factors to be reckoned with in the final outcome of the Intermediate Softball league.

Playing at Clearman Field, the Braves pounded out a 16-6 score over the Cardinals, who recently incorporated the remnants of the Rams.

The next day the Starlings fashioned an 18-10 triumph over the Hilltops, who had previously run off with the championship of the first round.

Blue Jays Rout Buccaneers,
Iaria Allows Three Hits

Behind the three-hit pitching of Jerry Iaria, the Silver Lake Blue Jays romped to their third win in three starts Sunday at Belleville Park. They have won five to date while dropping two.

The Buccs - Blue Jays game was a see-saw battle up until the fifth inning when the Jays' batting strength came to life. They mustered together four hits and two Buc miscues for a total of five runs.

The inning was highlighted by Nick Yannuzzi's lusty triple. After this outburst the Jays were never headed and Iaria coasted to his fourth victory of the season.

Tommy Ricci, Frank Marra, and Iaria each slammed out two hits to help the winning cause. Joe Ippolito and Yannuzzi banged out the only extra base blows of the game, a double and triple respectively. The Navy's gain was the Jays' loss as Nick Nesta, star shortstop, was called into service last week.

The battle for the World is on!

NOW THAT the chips are down... now that our men are writing decisive history with their blood... There can be no halfway measures for us.

The greatest battle in the history of the world must be matched by the greatest war loan in the history of the world.

That's what Uncle Sam says... the same Uncle Sam for whom your brothers and sweethearts and husbands are fighting and dying this very minute.

They, in the front lines, are throwing in everything they have. We, behind the lines, must do the same.

Remember, this is the battle for the WORLD. Our world. And we've got to win it. That's why Uncle Sam expects every dollar, like every soldier, to do its duty.

Planning Needed Here, NRA Report Shows

Like other towns, Belleville has reached a point, as it looks to the future, when it should put into effect a systematic control of the use of its land. Hitherto zoning has not meant plan of action but rather a record of uses to which land has been and is being put. The trends in the Valley indicate that the entire area will be industrial and hold forth slight expectation of a future for this part of town for residential purposes. The fact of the railroad and the river in this part of the town indicate continuance or expansion of industries.

On the other hand in Silver Lake, much of which is zoned for industry and business, there is prospect of a residential future. This suggests that this section be rezoned.

The distribution of infant mortality and of two other indicative conditions in the town are shown in this study as indices of the relative quality of life among the neighborhoods.

The distribution of infant mortality and tuberculosis are significant for the light they may throw on the relative needs among neighborhoods and as a partial guide in deciding on priority in providing recreational services and facilities.

SYNOPSIS

The first installment of the National Recreation Association's report appeared in the Times last week. It pictured Belleville as a town of industries but few of whose residents work in industry. It has depended on Newark and New York for its culture and amusement.

Population showed a 72 percent increase during the Twenties, only 4.4 percent during the Thirties. Population trend toward the northwest, the future of the Valley is industrial; there is considerable housing in the Valley and Silver Lake.

Sixty-five percent of the population is over 21; few Bellevilles continue school after eighth; Greylock, Jorammon and Union are the most popular school districts; Greylock, Passaic school district enrollments are on the increase, all others on decline.

Distribution by residence of 55 instances of infant mortality between 1938 and June 1943 shows that school districts one, two, four and eight have forty percent of

The greatest number of the more serious cases of juvenile delinquency are in school districts Two, Four and Nine, according to county authorities. Informally handled behavior cases are more generally distributed in the town.

Traffic, Transportation

Washington and Union avenues are the principal thoroughfares running north and south through the town. There is frequent bus service on both.

The principal cross-town thoroughfares are Belleville avenue and Jorammon street. Until recently cross-town transportation was insufficient.

In general, there is adequate transportation to the Recreation House, neighborhood houses in Silver Lake, and other centers of recreation.

However, there is no service going directly to the entrance of the Stadium. There is access to the Stadium for private cars and within the stadium grounds there is a good road and adequate parking space.

Fully satisfactory access to the Stadium for cars as well as pedestrians depends upon a number of factors, one of which is the extension of Division avenue and its subsequent paving.

Most traffic accidents have taken place at the corner of Rutgers and Main streets. However, these do not involve many children.

The use of the recreation facilities in the Passaic River parkway by Belleville residents requires crossing Main street with its heavy traffic. This constitutes a safety hazard. There is also considerable hazard for children in approaching the grounds at Franklin avenue school.

Financial Condition

A detailed review of the present financial condition and prospects of the town was prepared by the Mayor and published in the February 10, 1944, issue of The Belleville Times.

From 1936 to 1944, total Belleville's taxables increased some $3,538,000 or twenty percent. This was principally due to industrial expansion. Tax collections in 1943 rose to 93.86 percent.

Revenues from franchise taxes and bus receipts were up in 1943 and 1944. Relief cost were down. A surplus of $300,000 has been accumulated. The bonded debt has been reduced.

However, the mayor advised conservation of the surplus so that "Belleville can share in any public works projects developed by the state or federal government in postwar days, if necessity arises."

This statement assumes that wartime revenues from industries, bus companies and water service and tax collections will be less after the war with probably increases of relief costs and the general expense of municipal operations.

A decreasing possibility of obtaining sizable taxables is forecast.

While these probable future trends and the large town debt do suggest a conservative policy, the town cannot, on the other hand, declare a moratorium on public improvements or needed services.

Especially is this true of adequate recreational property which the town has failed to acquire, even though it has conducted an activities program for many years.

Social Forces

It is not the function of this study to appraise the relative power and influence of the various social forces in the town.

However, from the point of view of their influence on recreation we should note here the opportunity before industry, the churches, schools, government and civic and social agencies in relation to molding public opinion and bringing about constructive community action.

A basic institution, of course, is the home. Communities progress in proportion to the alertness and interest of parents and citizens. Parent-teacher associations have great potential influence since they link the schools with the homes.

Neighborhood civic improvement associations are not very active in the community at the present time. The service clubs such as Rotary and Lions are important civic and social assets. The free press is a power.

The recreational life of the town is much affected by types of commercialized amusement in the metropolitan area that are not beneficial.

Continuously such amusements create social problems and their unceasing advertisements give them an influence far beyond the essential attractiveness of what they offer.

Belleville Foundation

A new and unique force in the community which brings together many of the basic institutions in united effort is the Belleville Foundation Inc., now gathering financial resources and making studies.

The Foundation has embarked on eight projects, four of which are outlined in its publication "Belleville Tomorrow," are directly related to recreation.

These are youth training through Boy and Girl Scout organizations and the maintenance of summer camps, adult education, and social development through forums for discussions, dramatic entertainments, hobby clubs, dances and card parties, musical education by means of orchestras and choruses, and physical recreation through the establishment of a recreation center.

The Foundation already has substantial accomplishments to its credit. Not only through its financial contributions but also through its influence on public opinion, the Foundation is creating great promise of deeply influencing the future of the community.

The third installment of this series will appear next week.
