War Chest Goal $67,000; Paid Director Sought

Lester McCorkle Named Chairman Of Campaign With Aim Well Under Last Year's Goal

Organization got under way this week, to raise a quota of $67,000 for the Belleville War Chest under the general chairmanship of Lester McCorkle of Stephens street, Paul de Hagara has announced. The goal which is $16,525 under last year's quota was finally approved by the budget committee at a meeting of the trustees of the Belleville Community Chest and National War fund, on Monday evening.

In addition to announcing special committee chairmen, the trustees also discussed possible candidates for the post of paid director which Ronald Brunner has been unable to fill because of illness. A paid secretary is also being sought since Mrs. Francis Reilly who was engaged for last year's drive has found it impossible to continue. The services of a full time coordinator to assist the general chairman are essential, de Hagara said yesterday, and it is hoped that one will soon be named.

The War Chest which is composed of five local agencies, the Associated Catholic Charities and the National War fund which in itself includes sixteen relief agencies, is made up of individual quotas as follows:

Community Service Bur.	$10,700
Girl Scouts	3,400
Boy Scouts	3,400
Visiting Nurse Ass'n	1,000
Silver Lake Com. House	750
Adm. expenses	3,650
Campaign expense	2,000
Reserve for unpaid pledges	2,000
Associated Cath. Charities	17,500
Res. for unpaid pledges	2,500
Natl. War Fund	17,500
Reserve for unpaid pledges	2,500
Total	$67,000

Adopted by the budget committee with Elwood Russell chairman and composed of Andrew Salkeld, Harry Winfield, Harry Sullivan, Gilbert Howley and Miss Carolyn Pohl, the budgets of the local agencies which are almost identical with those of previous years, were approved as presented de Hagara said. This is because, after careful scrutiny, no real reduction was found possible, he stated.

AID TO TAXPAYER IN CONSTITUTION

Coogan Sees More Equitable Taxation in Revision of "True Value" Clause

Declaring that revision of the "true value" tax clause in the new constitution will reduce real estate tax rates because it will provide an equitable and uniform basis for taxing other than real estate property, John F. Coogan Jr., Washington avenue realtor and Essex County tax commissioner, this week urged the adoption of the revised state constitution by popular vote in the November election.

Waging his own campaign for adoption Coogan, who was tax assessor and deputy director of revenue and finance in Belleville for twelve years from 1930 to 1942, said that the old "true value" clause has been the basic reason for our present unsound and inequitable tax system.

It provides that "property shall be assessed for taxes under general laws and by uniform rules according to its true value." It has been revised to read "not in excess of its true value." The use of the "true value" clause as it now stands when applied to property other than real estate, is impractical, confiscatory and economically unsound, he states, thus making real estate owners carry the burden of taxation.

"Lost Wealth" Would Be Found Under the revised clause, this lost wealth of taxable ratables would take its fair share of the burden, Coogan maintains. An equitable and reasonable tax on property other than real estate would provide a lower rate or value to be applied to real estate, by enlarging the volume of taxable properties.

In addition, "standards of value schedules for all types of ratables to be assessed under the same respective standard in all municipalities" will tend to make difficult, political favor or punishment through taxation and will eliminate competition of municipalities on the basis of lower tax rates, he declares.

With proper standards of value established, Coogan stated, taxpayer will know at what value the assessor is required to assess his property and the assessor's obligation and limitations can be clearly defined, all of which should lead toward a more wholesome condition.

Volunteers Needed

An urgent call for immediate volunteers to work in the house to house division of the War Chest campaign is made by Miss Katherine Conklin, chairman. Only a fraction over 200 of the 700 to 800 workers needed in the solicitation has been obtained.

Those interested may register with any of the five captains—Miss Theresa Salmon, Be. 2-3353; Mr. & Mrs. Luther Van Pelt, Be. 2-2650; Edward Vogel, Be. 2-1944; Miss Rose Marmo, Be. 2-3827-M; Michael Capanear, Be. 2-5063-M; Miss Conklin, Be. 2-1237-J, or the War Chest headquarters, 338 Washington avenue, Be. 2-4750.

However, in an attempt to seek a "realistic amount", the budget committee has scaled down the proposed budgets of the Associated Catholic Charities and the National War fund to their present figures since last year's drive fell far short of its goal.

The Community Chest amount raised, receiving their total budget from the contributions received. After the administration and campaign expenses are deducted, the balance will be divided equally between the Catholic Charities and the War Chest fund up to the amount of the budgets approved, de Hagara said.

Frank McFadden, president of the First National Bank, has been appointed War Chest treasurer and will be assisted by William Goodisr, First National cashier. The captain in each of the five zones based on the Defense council division of the town, will turn nightly deposit bags and slips over to McFadden and Goodisr which will be checked in the presence of a representative of the War Chest campaign.

Expect Increase

All of the fund raising committees are expected to increase the money obtained last year, with special emphasis on the house to house drive, special gifts and chain stores and purveyors. Although some committee chairmen are still to be announced, McCorkle, general campaign chairman is a representative

KING WILL PREFER CHARGE AGAINST OFFICER IN BREAK

Town Attorney to Prepare Case Against Unnamed Cop Responsible for Negligence

It was learned last night that Public Safety Director King has informed the board of commissioners by letter, that he has instructed Town Attorney Keenan to prepare charges against the officer who had the custody of the five men held in the detention room at police headquarters last Friday, when two of them made an escape through a heavily screened window that was unbarred.

King was unavailable for comment last night and it is not known what officers were on duty at the time. It is understood that Mayor Williams is expected to make another request for the information he sought in his letter to King on October 16, and it is also understood that he may take other action.

King has requested a complete report from Police Chief Spatz. The men who escaped are James Borriello, 24, of 43 Florence avenue and his brother, Ralph, 20, of 529 North Fifth street, Newark. They and three other men were held at police headquarters, for questioning in an alleged stolen automobile ring in Essex, Union and Bergen counties. No trace has yet been found of those who escaped and the others have been sent to headquarters in other towns where they were sought for questioning.

Turned over to Belleville police by the sheriff's office for default of bail on theft of liquor from a local store in September, Ralph Borriello was also sought in Irvington. His brother has a previous record. County Sheriff Becker said today he had no comment to make on the jail break which is the first one experienced in the sheriff's office for over 30 years.

Wants Prompt Report

Williams in his letter to King stated, "It is my duty as Mayor to order you to prepare a report forthwith and present all data received from you to the entire board of commissioners. Every member of this board of commissioners must assume responsibility for the proper conduct of every department of this town, just as the Mayor is responsible for the

ANNOUNCE DEPOTS FOR YULE GIFTS

Legion Campaign Under Way To Remember Hospitalized Service Folks

Depots for the collection of Christmas packages for convalescent service men and women in the hospitals of New Jersey have been announced by William D. Maser, chairman of the project which has been undertaken by the local American Legion post in cooperation with the suggestion of Eddie Cantor on his weekly radio program.

Many of the depots have special displays in connection with the campaign. Those at which the packages may be left are the Sub-Post Office station, Harrison street; Rivola's Drug store, Union avenue; and the Emporium street and on Washington avenue; LaTerra's Drug store, Union avenue; Feldmann's Department store, Washington avenue and the Empire laundry, 514 Washington avenue.

Committee members will also be glad to pick up packages upon request. They may be reached as follows: Maser, 14 Ogden road, Be. 2-2386; William Kenep, 8 Dawson street, Be. 2-2236; Edwin Ackerman, 191 Linden avenue, Be. 2-3071-M; L. A. Wagner, 148 Brighton avenue, Be. 2-1437-J; and William Rivola, Be. 2-1081 or Be. 2-1956.

Since the Legion is acting only as a collection and distribution agency and wishes all gifts to be credited to individual donors, the committee asks that a greeting card bearing the full name and address of the donor be enclosed with each gift, so that it will be possible for acknowledgement to be made by the service man or woman receiving it.

Maser said this week that response to the appeal has been very encouraging at this early date, and declared that it is the Legion's hope that every wounded or convalescent service man and woman in the hospitals of the state will be remembered in this way at Christmas time.

WOMAN'S CLUB BRINGS NOTED WRITER HERE

Literature Department Sponsors Public Lecture by Author Of Herald-Tribune Feature

May Lamberton Becker, conductor of the Reader's Guide department in the New York Herald Tribune Sunday book review section will lecture as guest of the literature department of the Women's club at a meeting open to the public to be held at 8:30 at the clubhouse on Rossmore place on Monday evening.

In announcing the program, Mrs. Francis J. McFadden, literature department chairman states that Mrs. Becker, a versatile author, editor and literary authority will speak on the obligation to use "Books as Weapons in the War of Ideas."

This is the motto adopted by the Council on Books in Wartime which cooperates with the book division of the OWI. Also adopted for its current program by the literature departments of the State Federation of Women's clubs and the local club, it is believed that books are "indispensable in influencing the thinking of the American people with regard to the major problems of the United Nations, in clarifying our own weaknesses and improving the people's understanding of our enemies as well as our friends in the maintenance of morale."

Well qualified as a lecturer on this subject, Mrs. Becker who has lectured extensively since 1907, began her "Reader's Guide" in the New York Evening Post in 1915, transferred it to the Saturday Review of Literature when that publication was founded in 1924, and in 1933 to the Sunday Book Review supplement of the Herald Tribune, when she also became juvenile department editor the previous year.

On Leading Magazines

Mrs. Becker has at various times served in editorial positions on many of the leading magazines of the country, including the editorship of St. Nicholas. She still lectures occasionally, is a frequent magazine contributor and edits a weekly department in the Scholastic magazine. Her "Books for Young People" department also appears weekly in the Herald Tribune. In addition to all this, she has found time to write a small shelf full of books.

Mrs. Claude J. Powers, president, will greet the group and introduce the speakers. Mrs. F. C. James, vice-chairman in charge of program assistants in the state Federation's literature department will also speak on "Aims of Literature Work."

In addition to launching this part of its program with the introduction of Mrs. Becker to the Belleville public, the literature department, in accordance with the further aims of the literature department of the State Federation of Women's clubs, will find inspiration this year through philosophy, poetry, humor and the best of the current fiction. But of equal importance will be its first efforts in creative writing. The department will enter the Federation's creative writing contest which closes on February 1, by submitting at least two book reviews, one fiction and one non-fiction, in the contest conducted by the eighth district of which Mrs. McFadden is also chairman.

Mrs. Maser will be supplied on Mrs. Becker's program by Mrs. George Kaden who will give piano selections, Andante Finale from Lucia di Lammermoor for the left hand alone, and Military Polonaise by Chopin.

Mrs. H. Lester Hamilton is co-chairman of the literature department with Mrs. McFadden. Members

SCNEIDER'S SOHO PLAN IS RECEIVED WITH DISFAVOR

Dr. Bluestone Declares Chronics Need "Integrated" Treatment In New, General Hospital

The move to convert a portion of the Isolation hospital at Belleville and Franklin avenue for use in the treatment of the chronically ill and psychoneurotic, urged by several officers of the Essex County Medical society and headed by Dr. Louis Schneider, the society's president, met with little approval at a meeting last Thursday night at the society's monthly meeting in the Academy of Medicine, Newark.

Dr. E. M. Bluestone, director of the Montefiore hospital in New York, the principal speaker, declared that while Dr. Schneider's plan has its merits as a temporary measure, a preferable plan would be the construction of a large general hospital where chronic, acute and other patients could obtain "integrated" treatment.

Although he stated that he has not seen Soho and that his comments did not apply specifically to Dr. Schneider's plan, in his opinion, such a hospital should be located at a site easily accessible to the best doctors of the community. It is his impression he said, that Belleville is not the ideal site for such an institution.

"The needs of the chronically ill will increase with the return of wounded and ill servicemen," he declared, "so it's a problem, whether regarded from the civilian or military point of view."

Dr. Schneider who spoke, giving his reasons for the recommendation, pointed out that often, while the county's 17 general and four special hospitals are overcrowded, Soho with a capacity of 510 beds, rarely has more than 84 occupied at one time.

However, Newark Public Affairs Director John A. Brady declared himself in fullest accord with the Schneider plan. He recently introduced a resolution of approval which received the support of the full Newark board of commissioners.

Grand Jury Dismisses Charges of Mayor's Link With Gambling

Presentment Scores Contradictory Testimony, Advises Mutual Confidence, Cooperation

End of the upheaval in town commission which has continued since last April when Mayor Williams called for a prosecutor's investigation of an alleged report to Public Safety Director King that the Mayor was linked with proposed gambling interests in town, came with a presentment yesterday from the Grand Jury which has completed its hearing of the case.

The Grand Jury waived indictment on the "indirect accusations" on the grounds that "much of the testimony is contradictory and many statements are in direct conflict with one another."

The complete presentment states: "The Grand Jury for the first half, September term 1944 has thoroughly investigated the indirect accusations that Mayor Williams of Belleville was receptive and friendly to certain members of the gambling element.

"Much of the testimony is contradictory and many statements are in direct conflict with one another.

"The Grand Jury however is unanimously satisfied that the charges are baseless and not founded upon truth or fact. More prompt and effective action by the police and greater cooperation and mutual confidence between the commissioners would have eliminated the embarrassment and unwarranted gossip that subsequently followed." It was signed by James F. McTague of East Orange foreman of the jury.

Williams, Statement

King could not be reached for comment last night. Williams however, made the following statement: "Commissioner King and Leighton must have read 'Mein Kampf' wherein Hitler ad-

PREPARE FOR POST-WAR AID

School Board Plans For State, Federal Aid on Long Range Projects

Furthering its plan of becoming eligible for possible federal and state aid in a post-war works program, the board of education on Monday night, passed a resolution requesting the State Committee on Economic Development for its share of $1,232 in the $500,000 fund provided to help in setting up plans and specifications for such work, throughout the state.

The money which is to be matched by the school board will be used to defray expenses in the preparation of a playgrounds improvement program amounting to $77,000. With the specifications completed, the board will be prepared to apply for state aid when and if it is available.

Extensive plans and specifications for the conversion of School No. 8 into a junior high school and major alterations for School No. 3 were filed by the board of education with the federal government two years ago and were incorporated last year in the town's list of post-war projects also filed in Washington, in anticipation of federal aid when it is forthcoming.

The playground improvements list plans for the construction of a play area in the plot on Washington avenue south of the high school, which has been used for some time by gym classes. The property purchased by the board early this year is 126 feet on Washington, and runs 142 feet deep. The board of education also received an additional area from the town, with 200 feet fronting on High street and running 100 feet deep, giving a block-long area between Washington and High, which is slated for improvement, at a cost of $32,000. Other items composing the $77,000 total are the resurfacing of the playgrounds at Schools 1, 3, 4, 5, 9 and 10 at a cost of $30,000 and construction of complete recreation grounds at School No. 7 for $25,000.

NOTED VIOLINIST NSS SOLOIST

Diez Weismann Guest Artist At Opening Concert of Nutley Symphony

Diez Weismann violinist and teacher of New York City, will be the soloist in the Bruch, "G minor Concerto," next Tuesday evening when the Nutley Symphony orchestra opens its season at Nutley High school at 8:30.

Other compositions which Nicos Cambourakis, conductor, has programmed for Symphony enthusiasts are the Overture to "Mignon," Theme, "Symphony No. 5 in B flat major," Schubert, "Three Pieces for Strings," Lubin, Prelude from "Die Meister singer" and Prelude from Act III, "Lohengrin," both by Wagner.

Mrs. Weismann was first introduced to the violin at the age of five by the renowned European teacher, Willy Hesse. Like Josef Hoffman, Mr. Weismann had an engineering streak in his makeup which caused him to attend and graduate from the Breslau University of Engineering, meanwhile retaining his technique for the violin.

A talk with Fritz Kreisler convinced him that music should be his career. After working with Carl Flesch for three years he was successful in concertizing throughout Europe with the leading symphony orchestra. Later he returned to Berlin to become assistant to Mr. Flesch.

At Guatemala Conservatory

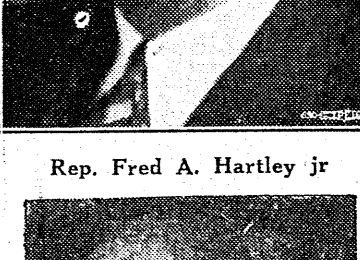

In 1935 the president of Guatemala invited Mr. Weismann to institute master classes in the violin department of the National Conservatory of Music in Guatemala. Arriving in South America, he was soon placed in charge of the music history classes as well as chamber music groups. Followed the formation of a quartet which played frequently over the radio station, "Voice of Guatemala," where he became musical director.

The desire to mingle and work with the great musicians of the United States led him to give up his work in Guatemala to come to New York City in 1939. Now a citizen of this country, Mr. Weismann is well known for his performance with the "New Friends of Music" concerts in Town Hall as well as his affiliation with station WQXR as staff violinist. Early in the spring, he is booked for an extensive tour of the states.

J. R. Weaver, NSS membership chairman, will have a few subscriptions available for purchase at the door. Among Belleville subscribers are Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clawson, The Musicians' Club of Belleville, Eleanor Bacon-Peck, Adell Sutherland, Mrs. De Witte Gruman, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Ness, Milton Swenson, and the Misses Hazel and Virginia Ellisworth.

GUIDANCE STAFF HEARS STOLL

State Associate Director Tells Jr. Achievement Aims To BHS Group

Marshall K. Stoll, associate director of Junior Achievement for the State of New Jersey, addressed the staff of the guidance laboratory in the High school, Wednesday afternoon, October 11 in the laboratory, presenting the history of Junior Achievement, outlining its program and activities, and expressing his hope that the movement will progress actively during the ensuing academic year.

Junior Achievement is an enterprise initiated, operated and managed by groups of boys and girls between the ages of 14 and 21. Each group produces a product or service and sells that product or service through its own efforts. Each group has a sponsor obtained by a local committee of business leaders. The sponsor may be a local business concern or other civic, professional, or service groups.

Junior Achievement is designed to meet the needs of youth for the practical training and experience which will help them to take their places in the economic life of America. It is "learning by doing."

Prior to the address through the cooperation of the Home Economics department under the direction of Miss Read, tea was served. James Keen of the laboratory staff was host and Mrs. Anne Snedeker and Miss Gregoria Condon were hostesses. After tea, the speaker was introduced by Coordinator Dr. Thomas J. Bresnahan.

They sowed unpleasantness and poor publicity for Belleville. They reaped a Grand Jury presentment which stands against their record for all time."

At a commission meeting on April 11 Williams delivered a severe cross-examination of King, Deputy Police Chief Leighton who was alleged to have made the report, and other town officials.

According to the story, Leighton, King, and Commissioner Mertz were present in Leighton's office when two unidentified Newark gamblers allegedly indicated that Williams would not deter them from opening up a gambling house in town. It was after this meeting that Leighton was said to have made a written report to King of what transpired.

It was also stated that King, Mertz, Commissioners Waters and Noll also meet later at Waters' apartment to discuss the news, but did not advise the Mayor of the events.

King refused, under questioning by the Mayor to deliver the original copy of the statement to the board "unless compelled to do so" by the county prosecutor. King defended his action, because he said, he believed the statement to be just "supposition" and without proof. Locking up the document for a period of weeks or months while word of it spread around town, Williams declared, was "Trial by scandal" and declared that King was "scandal-hungry."

Police Chief Spatz declared that he knew nothing of the existence of the report nor that he had any knowledge of the events leading up to it.

Williams submitted a 67 page stenographic transcript of this cross-examination to Prosecutor Wachenfeld for inquiry. The case was investigated by Assistant Prosecutor James L. McKenna who submitted a detailed report to Wachenfeld.

The Grand Jury heard the case on Monday and Tuesday of this week, hearing testimony from all five commissioners, Leighton, Spatz, Town Clerk Florence Morey and Captain Cocozza of the prosecutor's staff.

In this letter he said, "This report should state names of prisoners, police records in detail, into whose custody prisoners were given by the Sheriff's Office, why regular police cells were not used to confine these prisoners, why the prisoners were put in rooms under reconstruction as Womens detention quarters, why police guard was not kept over such prisoners, and the names of all officers and supervisors who were charged with the safe keeping of the prisoners.

In just 10 minutes they'll need your help

Back home, the headlines read—60 U.S. Planes Lost.

The full news account may mention that 600 airmen were shot down with them. But nowhere will you find mention about how many of those men landed alive and are now in enemy prison camps. There is no way of knowing.

Actually, about 60 per cent of all American airmen shot down over enemy territory survive—as prisoners of war.

Some prison camps are devoted exclusively to airmen. But these camps are little different from the others. In all, the men behind the barbed wire live the same empty life. There is nothing to do but wait—wait—and try to hold on to your sanity while you wait.

That's why War Prisoners' Aid was formed. It provides the wherewithal to buy for prisoners of war the things that will help them hold on to their sanity during those empty days of waiting. Books. Games. Athletic equipment. Make-up kits for amateur theatricals. Musical instruments.

It takes money to buy these things. More and more money as more and more of our men wind up in prison camps. The only way War Prisoners' Aid can get that money is through your contribution to your local community drive. JOYCE EVERETT WEDS NAVY MAN

Marriage To P.O. 3-c Jones Took Place Sunday In Home Ceremony

The wedding of Miss Joyce Barbara Everett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Everett of Union avenue, and Petty Officer 3/c Philip Gordon Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones of Marston Mills, Mass., took place in a 5 o'clock ceremony Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents.

The marriage was solemnized by the Rev. John A. Struyke, rector of Belleville Reformed church, before the fireplace banked with white pompon chrysanthemums and fall leaves. A reception for 40 people composed of the immediate relatives and friends of the bridal couple followed, at the home.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in an afternoon dress of aqua with a matching hat. She wore an orchid corsage. Her bridesmaid, Miss Regina Leone of town, wore a fuchsia dress, a matching hat and a corsage of talisman roses.

Best man was Petty Officer 3/c Terrence A. Rehmann of Union. After a wedding trip of eleven days spent in New York City and at Cape Cod, Mass., the bridegroom will return to his temporary station at the Brooklyn Navy yard, to which he has been assigned after returning from six months spent overseas. He attended schools in Marston Mill and has been in the service for two years.

The bride is a graduate of Belleville High school and is employed at Wallace and Tiernan. She will make her home with her parents.

TELLS EXPERIENCE IN "BUSINESS"

Irma Iannelli Describes Benefits of Junior Achievement Companies

Irma Iannelli sales manager of the Belle Chemical company, a Junior Achievement company, gave a fine presentation of her experiences in officiating as an officer and director of her company, at the School No. 3 P.T.A. meeting on Tuesday.

She told of the inauguration of Junior Achievement in Belleville in October 1943, when she was elected treasurer of her company. At this stage she knew little of what makes business tick because she is taking a college preparatory course. Being company treasurer gave her an opportunity to learn business banking methods and acquainted her with business organization and functioning.

Her company makes "blue glue" a product used in the fabrication of toy airplanes. However, after a term of successful operation they decided to make toy train tunnels and wood novelties which brought added experiences.

Gives Aims of Movement

Marshall K. Stoll, associate state director of New Jersey, gave an overall picture of Junior Achievement — its development nationally and locally. He also displayed many projects which the various companies are manufacturing throughout the state. Stoll explained that Junior Achievement is non-sectarian and non-political. It is purely an American organization founded with the intent of developing American thought and action. Junior Achievement is an educational youth movement for the purpose of learning by participation.

Schools For Night Meetings

Permission was granted to the P.T.A.'s to use the school building for regular meetings this winter by the board of education at a meeting on Monday evening.

The board last year requested
P.T.A.'s to hold their meetings in the afternoons in order to conserve fuel and also because of the danger of blackouts.

Although the fuel shortage is more acute this year, the board feels that inasmuch as blackouts are no longer probable the P.T.A.
A's may use the schools in the evenings and that there will probably be enough heat retained in the buildings so that it won't be necessary to use any fuel.

Local Boy and Girl Scout troops and the Belleville Recreation committee were also given permission to use the old gymnasium in the High school on designated evenings.

The local chapter of the American Red Cross has been granted the use of the new gymnasium on October 28th, from 10:00 A.M.
until 6:00 P.M. to be used by the Mobile Blood Plasma Unit which is coming from New York on that date.

Gets $286 Fine For Driving
After Revocation of License

The heaviest fine in more than 10 years was levied in police court last week when Edward Krakowiak, 27 of 171 Van Buren street, Newark paid a total of $286 on three counts.

Arraigned for speeding at 70 miles an hour on Main street, he was fined $223 for driving after revocation of his license; $53 for the speeding charge and $5 for driving without his registration.

Alfonse LeRosa of 95 Tremont avenue, Newark, owner of the car driven by Krakowiak was fined $50 and $3 costs for allowing him to use it.

Krakowiak's license was revoked in November, 1943 and since that time he has been arraigned in Passaic police court twice for fines for revocation of his license, according to police.

Board of Education Awards
$800 Contract For Oil Pump

The Stewart company of Newark was awarded an $800 contract by the board of education on Monday evening, to install a pump on the oil burner in the High school.

The board declared the situation an emergency and dispensed with the usual formality of accepting bids.

The new pump is expected to relieve the condition of cold oil in the tanks, which results in an objectionable black smoke from the chimney and also the difficulty in getting heat up in the building.
The new pump will pump a constant supply of heated oil back into the tanks, removing the necessity of using an elbow to heat the oil.

Although the fellows have been riding rollers at many other functions in this section, they will give their first Belleville performance at the Wesley Methodist church on Monday evening, sponsored by the Wesley Men's club.

Besides racing, there will be specialty numbers. Ed Littig will do a strip tease while riding his bicycle which will be the main event of the evening. The riders also have another spectacular stunt which no other club has attempted to duplicate. By means of a special attachment to one of the rollers they race a tandem bicycle against a single bicycle. This is usually one of the most exciting races on the program.

Members of the Olympic Roller club are Ed Littig, Herb Henderson, and Charles Logan of Belleville, Chuck Wille of Bloomfield, Eddie Heer of Irvington, Jimmie Mintz of Plainfield, Bob and Joe Arnot, father and son, of West Orange, Peter Puterbaugh and Henry Krumweide of Newark.

BELLBOYS MEET PASSAIC ELEVEN

Expect Tussle With Victors Over Garfield After Week's Rest Period

Belleville High's 1944 footballers, after a weeks layoff will play host to Passaic's once victorious eleven, at Clearman Field, Saturday at 2:30. Having an open date the past Saturday, and being fresh from a week's rest, the Bellboys will attempt to get back to winning form and chalk up their third win in four starts.

Unlike previous years Passaic will be playing with a team not up to usual standards. However the Bellboys are not regarding the visitors as any pushover, as they proved their metal in defeating Garfield last week. Coach Bill Chapman expects to have his hands full in this week's tussle.

Back with this year's Passaic squad is Bob Topchick who played a stellar role in last year's 25-0 win over the Bellboys. The aforementioned is one of the leading backs in New Jersey, and this year's offensive has again been built around him.

Just think how a wonderful it would be to go through the whole winter without a single heavy cold! Think of the money you spent on cold medicines last winter, and the misery you suffered, and the time you lost from work... and figure out that a penny a day invested in CO-VAX cold vaccine tablets acts to immunize you against colds just the way vaccination immunizes against smallpox.

It used to cost as much as $200 to get "cold shots" by injection... but now Science has found the way to get these cold shots into tiny inexpensive tablets. You Simply swallow CO-VAX tablets (no more hypodermics)... and you don't have to be a millionaire, any more, to afford them.

Package of 20 $1.39
7 weeks supply

Package of 60 $3.69
all winter supply

CO-VAX tablets kept thousands from catching cold last winter... if you're like 90% of the rest of us, they'll help you, too. Just follow the simple directions on the label, and you should go through the whole winter without a single heavy cold. Because each CO-VAX tablet contains 60 billion killed cold germs... when you introduce them into your system they cause the production of anti-bodies that destroy the germs associated with colds before those germs have a chance to knock you out and bring on heavy colds and their complications.

Tells Need of Girl Scout Leaders And Brownies

Miss Elizabeth Bardagly spoke before the Montgomery street P.T.A. Tuesday evening on Girl Scouting. Miss Bardagly explained the need for forming a Brownie pack in the area and also the necessity for more leaders. She presented a plan whereby the members might form their Girl Scout committee from their P.T.A.

Miss Bardagly made a similar speech before the Joralemon street P.T.A. meeting Tuesday afternoon. The response was enthusiastic and plans have been taken toward starting a Brownie pack at that school. There was a definite interest on the part of the members and they promised to do all they could to secure leadership.

Invents Preserving Process

COPPER BANDS DESTINED for vital war instruments are shown being withdrawn from a plating bath by George W. Jernstedt of New street, research engineer in the Westinghouse Meter division, Newark. Jernstedt is the inventor of the new plating process called bright alloy which will have many post war uses in combating corrosion in such everyday appliances as refrigerator trays, clocks and draftsman's tools.

Research Engineer Evolves Enemy for Corrosion

George Jernstedt Invents Plating Process That Took Two Years Experimentation To Perfect for Commercial Use

A young research engineer who feels he still has a long way to go in his field, is responsible for perfecting a new plating process which will be widely used in combating corrosion not only in highly sensitive electrical instruments, but in many common household gadgets as well.

He is George W. Jernstedt of 246 New street, employed at Westinghouse, meter division, Newark where he conducted the research that has made the new process possible. Designed to step up resistance to corrosion, it took more than two years of patient experimentation, involving 3,000 separate plating solution tests using copper, tin and zinc.

Jernstedt has spent eight years at Westinghouse. A graduate of Bloomfield High school, he received his M.A. at Michigan state and is now working for his doctor's degree at the Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute. Married to the former Miss Lee Hamer of town, he is also a well-known lecturer in his field.

His invention called a bright alloy plate, in addition to its resistance to corrosion, also improves the electrical performance of instruments on which the calculations of a fighter pilot or beachhead radio operator often depend.

"Lady Aladdin" of the Airwaves

Mary Margaret McBride

Popular Radio Personality Appears Here on Monday

Mary Margaret McBride Will "Burnish Lamp" For Red Cross Benefit At Fewsmith Church

That "Lady Aladdin" of the airwaves who rebelled at her "mike" impersonation of a doting grandmother early in her Martha Deane days, to extemporize instead, on her colorful and amazing stories about the great and the near great — Mary Margaret McBride — will speak from her wealth of information and knowledge, in Fewsmith church proper at 2:30 Monday afternoon on the benefit program sponsored by the local chapter of the Red Cross.

On that unforgettable day when Mary Margaret debunked her staid Martha Deane character on the air, without warning to the frenzied studio personnel to whom such actions are anathema, she inaugurated a scintillating, original and newsy pace which has gathered millions of listeners to her program in the years that have followed.

Background for her stories and interviews with celebrities, has been a wide and varied experience in newspaper work and authorship, in which she was in early discovered to have an unusual flair for getting personages to talk about themselves. Soon big assignments came her way and she was meeting all the celebrities visiting this country. Her magazine writing reaped her large rewards, as well as her books which followed, in the same, individual and sprightly style which has endeared her to her radio followers.

Program Awards

Her extemporaneous radio programs — without script and without rehearsals — has brought her many awards. Among them is the citation for distinguished service to journalism for preserving newspaper traditions in radio, from the University of Missouri; a statuette from the Movie-Radio Guide, outstanding publication in its field, for "Lady No. 1 of the Air," as well as a flower voted the All-American Winner of 1943 by the All-American Rose Council, to be named "Mary Margaret McBride."

For her personal appearance here on Monday afternoon, Miss McBride will speak in the character of her radio broadcasts on "Women in War." The program open to the public, is sponsored by the Fewsmith Mother's club.

The program will be opened by a greeting from Mrs. Howard Shea, Mother's club president, the singing of the Star Spangled Banner and another greeting by B. Thomas Aiken, president of the local Red Cross chapter.

Miss Alma Woelper, contralto of Irvington who has appeared frequently in the Metropolitan area in recent years in concert, oratorio and church work, will give two groups of songs. Known for her appearances with the Nutley Symphony Society, the Nutley branch of AAUW, the Newark and Elizabeth fifteen and New York hospitals, she will sing Deep River, Burleigh, The Star, Rogers; Morning, Sneaks; Amour! reins Aider, Saint — Saens; in her first group.

After a greeting by Dr. O. Bell Close, Fewsmith pastor, and the taking of an offering, Miss Woelper will appear in her second group of selections which will include Think on Me, Scott; Spirit Flower, Campbell-Tilton; Thine Alone, Herbert and My Hero, Oscar Strauss. Miss McBride's talk will follow. Mrs. Paul J. Van Ness is program chairman.

OPA WARNS ON ANTI-FREEZE COST

Gives Ceiling Prices For All Types of Auto Radiator Mixtures

As motorists begin to think about winterizing their cars, Newark District OPA issued a reminder today that anti-freeze radiator mixtures are under price ceilings, and listed the dollars-and-cents tops legal prices for the various types of mixtures.

According to price officials the most common type which will be available for the motorist is one composed of natural ethyl alcohol, which is known as Type N — the N standing for "natural." In quantities of one gallon or more, this type should sell for not more than $1.40 a gallon; and in quantities under a gallon, for not more than 35 cents a quart.

Another type of anti-freeze is Type S, of which the principal component is synthetic alcohol. This kind should sell for not more than a dollar a gallon in gallon or more lots, and for 25 cents a quart in quantities under a gallon.

Other Types
A third type is Type C, containing an inorganic salt base. A Type C mixture containing calcium chloride, sodium chloride, or a mixed salt base should sell for not more than 75 cents a gallon in gallon or more lots; and for not more than 21 cents a quart in less than gallon lots.

A magnesium chloride base anti-freeze should sell for not more than 85 cents a gallon in gallon or more lots, and not more than 23 cents a quart.

The price of permanent type anti-freeze, such as Prestone and Zerex, is established at March 1942 maximums, and should never exceed $2.65 a gallon.

The prices listed above include installation by the seller in the cooling system of the car when the buyer requests it, and where anti-freeze was customarily installed without charge during the six-month period ending March 31, 1942. No charge may be added for the container.

Retailers who sell in bulk from drums are required to display their prices and the type of anti-freeze being sold. The maximum prices for such sales are the same as those listed above.

No ASTRP Applications Accepted After January 1st

Training of Men Already in College Under The Program Prior to that Date Will Not Be Affected

Young men of 17 desiring free college training under the Army Specialized Training Reserve Program must apply before January 1, 1945, it was announced today. As of that date, no more applications will be accepted. The college training of men already in college under the program to that date will not be affected, however.

Under the ASTRP program, men of 17 who obtain a diploma (war diploma accepted) and be available for attendance at a designated college on or before March 1, 1945, may receive from 3 to 9 months — or more — of free college training at Army expense. Training is given in semesters of 3 months each. The amount they received depends on their age when they apply and the needs of the Army.

In order to be eligible, a 17 year old must apply before he is 17 and 8 months, as approximately a month is required for processing and he will start college before he reaches the maximum age of 17 and 9 months. He may apply for ASTRAP at any time until he reaches 17 and 8 months, but before January 1, 1945, and must bring a written statement from his high school principal that he will graduate or receive a war diploma prior to his becoming 17 years 9 months old, and prior to March 1, 1945.

Will Be Examined

Each 17 year old will receive a mental and physical examination, and if found qualified for ASTRP, will be sworn into the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve (if otherwise qualified and so desires), or the Enlisted Reserve Corps (unassigned). He will then attend an accredited college or university on an inactive status, receiving as part of his scholarship, tuition, clothing, quarters and meals at college, medical care and necessary transportation. He will wear a special shoulder patch on his uniform designating as an ASTRP student. Some time after he reaches 18, he will be called to active duty with the Army. If his 18th birthday falls during a semester, he will in most cases be permitted to complete it before being called.

The courses he may receive include mathematics, physics, English, history, geography and in some instances chemistry, engineering, drawing and biology. He will also receive military and physical training as part of his curriculum. Total hours per week put in by ASTRP students vary from 51 to 54. Amount of college credit given will be determined by the college or university he attends.

Applicants should contact the Army Air Forces Examining board, Room B-37, Post Office building, Newark, or their nearest recruiting station.

ARTICLE VI—Sections I (concluded), II, III, IV and ARTICLE VII

Revised Constitution FOR THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY

To Be Voted Upon as a Whole by the Voters of New Jersey at the General Election, Nov. 7, 1944

ARTICLE VI PUBLIC OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES SECTION I (concluded)

Official Bonds 4. Any person before entering upon the duties of, or while holding, any public office, position or employment in this State may be required to give bond, as may be provided by law.

Terms of Office; Commissions 5. The term of office of all officers elected or appointed pursuant to the provisions of this Constitution, except when herein otherwise directed, shall commence on the day of the date of their respective commissions; but no commission for any office shall bear date prior to the expiration of the term of the incumbent of said office.

SECTION II Officers Elected by the Legislature

1. The State Comptroller, the State Treasurer and the State Auditor shall be elected by the Senate and General Assembly in joint meeting for terms of four years and until their successors shall be qualified into office. The Governor may, whenever in his opinion it would be in the public interest, require from them written statements, under oath, of information on any matter relating to the conduct of their respective offices.

Prosecutors of the Pleas 2. Prosecutors of the pleas shall be nominated by the Governor and appointed by him with the advice and consent of the Senate. They shall hold their offices for terms of five years.

Elective County Officers 3. County clerks, surrogates, sheriffs and coroners shall be elected by the people of their respective counties at general elections. County clerks and surrogates shall hold office for terms of five years. Sheriffs and coroners shall hold office for terms of three years. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of county clerk, surrogate, sheriff or coroner in any county, it shall be filled in such manner as may be provided by law.

SECTION III Legislative Investigations; Duties of Officers and Employees.

1. The Legislature may by concurrent resolution and either house thereof may by resolution constitute and empower a committee thereof or any public officer or agency to investigate any and all phases of State and local government, or any part thereof, the fidelity of any public officer or employee, or the performance of any public office, employment or trust. No person shall be privileged from testifying in relation to any such matters, and upon so testifying he shall be immune from criminal prosecution with respect to any matter to which such testimony may relate unless he has waived such immunity. Any person holding public office, position or employment who shall refuse or willfully fail to obey any subpoena lawfully issued by such investigating committee, officer or agency, or who shall refuse to testify or to answer any questions relating to any matter under investigation, or who shall refuse to waive immunity from prosecution with respect to any matter upon which he may testify, shall thereby become disqualified to continue in his office, position or employment, which shall forthwith be deemed vacant and he shall be ineligible to hold any public office, position or employment.

SECTION IV Impeachments (1, 2, 3)

1. The Governor and all other civil officers of the State Government, except judicial officers, shall be liable to impeachment for misdemeanor in office during their continuance in office and for two years thereafter.

2. The General Assembly shall have the sole power of impeaching in such cases by a vote of a majority of all the members. All such impeachments shall be tried by the Senate, and members, when sitting for that purpose, shall be on oath or affirmation "truly and impartially to try and determine the charge in question according to evidence;" and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of all the members of the Senate.

3. Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office, and to disqualification to hold and enjoy any public office of honor, profit or trust in this State; but the person convicted shall nevertheless be liable to indictment, trial and punishment according to law.

ARTICLE VII FINANCE

State Credit 1. The credit of the State shall not be directly or indirectly loaned in any case.

State Revenues 2. All revenues of the State Government from whatever source derived, including revenues of all departments, agencies and offices, shall be paid into a single fund to be known as the General State Fund and shall be subject to appropriations for any public purpose, but this paragraph shall not apply to moneys which may be received or held in trust, or under grant or contract for restricted use, or which must be received or held in a particular manner in order to receive a grant, or which may be payable to any county, municipality or school district, of the State. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent or interfere with any payment of State revenues to, or any direct or indirect collection or retention of State revenues by, any county, municipality or school district which payment, collection, or retention may be provided by law. Nothing in this paragraph shall abridge the right of the State to enter into contracts.

State Budget 3. No money shall be drawn for appropriations made by law. So far as known or can be reasonably foreseen, all needs for the support of the State Government and for all other State purposes shall be provided for in one general appropriation law covering one and the same fiscal year, except that, when change in fiscal year is made, necessary provision may be made to effect the transition. No general appropriation law or other law appropriating money for any State purpose shall be enacted if the appropriation contained therein together with all prior appropriations made for the same fiscal period shall exceed the total amount of revenue on hand and anticipated which will be available to meet such appropriations during such fiscal period, as certified by the State Comptroller.

Property Taxes 4. Property shall be assessed for taxes under general laws, and by uniform rules, according to standards of value as may be provided by law but not in excess of true value; but exemption from taxation may be granted by law to persons who have been, are, shall be or shall have been in active service in any branch of the military or naval forces of the United States in time of war.

State Debts 5. The Legislature shall not, in any manner, create any debt or debts, liability or liabilities, of the State, which shall singly or in the aggregate with any previous debts or liabilities at any time exceed one hundred thousand dollars, except for purposes of war, or to repel invasions, or to suppress insurrection, or to meet an emergency caused by act of God or disaster, unless the same shall be authorized by a law for some single object or work to be distinctly specified therein; which law shall provide the ways and means, exclusive of loans, to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability as it falls due. No such laws shall take effect until it shall, at a general election, have been submitted to the people, and have received the sanction of a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election. Any such debt or liability thereby authorized shall be paid in annual installments, the first of which shall be payable not more than one year and the last of which shall be payable not more than thirty-five years, after such debt or liability shall have been contracted; but the privilege of paying all or any part thereof prior to maturity may be reserved to the State as may be provided in the law authorizing such debt or liability. All money to be raised by the authority of any such law shall be applied only to the specific object or work stated therein and to the payment of the debt or liability thereby created. No such law shall be repealable until such debt or liability, and the interest thereon, are fully paid and discharged.

NEW JERSEY BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

Field Marshal Montgomery Reads "Pilgrim's Progress"

It has been frequently related in dispatches from the front that Field Marshal Montgomery — Monty of Alamein — reads "Pilgrim's Progress." This book, it seems, is one of the scant furnishings in the great soldiers' Spartan life; each night before going to sleep he seeks refreshment from the dim of war in the story of Christian and his journey toward the Gate.

There was a time when the reading of "Pilgrim's Progress" would not have been news, worth cable tolls or radio time. John Bunyan's classic shared with the Bible the place of honor in every home in the English-speaking world. When Sarah Lincoln arrived in Thomas Lincoln's miserable Illinois hut to be young Abe's stepmother, "Pilgrim's Progress" was one of the five books she brought with her to light up the young giant's eyes.

Today it is Superman, a synthetic prig without kin in this world or the next. Or possibly it is Joe Blow's account, in basic pidgin, of yesterday's football game. Or maybe it's the nauseous syrup of Mom's soap opera. This is the pap stuffed down the intellectual gullets of today's youth.

But the exploits of Mr. Greatheart and Valiant-for-the-Truth spark more excitement than a regiment of Supermen. The Interpreter's House is infinitely more interesting than Duffy's Tavern, and the Slough of Despond is still a No-Man's Land of gooseflesh terror.

Over all, of course, is the luminous glory of great English prose. From Bunyan's earthy English, read in the fading twilight of the Illinois prairie, sprang the beauty and majesty of the Gettysburg Address and the Second Inaugural.

Who knows but that Monty's devotion to Christian and his journey will bring a chronicle of this war that will take its place beside Caesar's Commentaries and Homer's Iliad in the world's great literature of conflict?

Apathy or Good Campaign Manners?

Editorial commentators and professional politicians have been loud in their lamentation of the apathy which they say people are showing this year toward the Presidential election. Isn't it possible, however, that this "apathy" is nothing more than an unaccustomed manifestation of good manners?

While the professional politicians persist in those tactics of muckraking which have disgraced our national elections since the founding of the Republic, the people themselves seem to realize that this year restraint, good taste and a respect for the feelings of one's fellows are more in harmony with the needs of the times.

You may think your neighbor, in his espousal of the cause of So-and-So, exhibits the mental processes of a cretin, but you hold your tongue. His son is on some distant battlefield, and tomorrow may bring that telegram which will make your most brilliant argument, your most scorching sarcasm, a mockery and an insult to a family's grief.

Campaign speeches we probably can't escape; it only seems a pity that this year the speakers haven't had the grace to abstain from those obscenities which can only exacerbate the feelings of Americans in the opposing party who have just lost a son or brother in battle. To one whose youngster has just given his life for the protection of all Americans it must be particularly galling to have some loud-mouthed blatherskite impugn one's political principles as un-American and revile one's favorite candidate as everything from a traitor to a thief.

That there is a real interest in the election, however, is more accurately revealed by the heavy registration. It is to this, not to public displays of bad taste, that the soothsayers should look for the true attitude toward November 7.

The people are interested in the election all right, but they seem to be showing better manners than their leaders.

Laurel for the Civilian Defense Workers

Announcement that there will be no further blackouts in New Jersey, unless called by the army, seems to be as good an occasion as any for a word of appreciation to the men and women who have taken part in the various activities of civilian defense.

Called into being immediately after Pearl Harbor, the Belleville Defense Council immediately organized the civilian defense units to protect the town against attack by the enemy. Today, with Germany at bay within her own borders, it is easy to scoff at the fears that assailed the country in the black days immediately following "the day that will live in infamy." But when the full truth of America's plight in those days becomes known, it probably will be seen that Washington was fully justified in its attempt to organize civilians for their own protection.

In any event, Belleville responded magnificently. Air raid wardens, headquarters staff, sector leaders, police and fire reserves, demolition squads, decontamination units — these and all the other divisions which made up civilian defense gave generously of their time, skill and energy. The town can justifiably take pride in their record.

Not the least of the results was a renaissance of community spirit. Not in years had citizens been thrown into such close contact with one another. A new spirit of neighborliness was born. Commuters who theretofore had shunned even their fellow travelers on the station platforms came to know men and women of whom they had been in complete ignorance. A more closely-knit community is the result.

Director Wachenfeld makes it plain that civilian defense in this state will stay mobilized until the end of the war. This is wise. Already it has been demonstrated that the organization is capable of performing many constructive things for the community, an asset which should be conserved as long as possible.

To the men and women in civilian defense the town owes a debt of thanks. Since that is the only reward they may expect, it is hoped they will accept it in grateful payment for the hours they have spent, day and night, in the service of their town and neighbors.

Library Board Endorses Plan For Employee Pension System

From Harvey B. Thompson
Sec'y, Board of Trustees
Belleville Public Library

To the Editor of The Times:
We have read with interest recent newspaper announcements that the voters of our community will decide at the November election if municipal employees, including those in the library, may become members of the State Employee's Retirement System and thereby become eligible for pensions.

The board of trustees of the Belleville Public Library feel that the gravest responsibility of trustees to librarians is to make adequate provision for their security upon retirement. We are, therefore, very glad to see that the Town of Belleville has taken steps to eliminate the manifest unfairness that has long existed under the lopsided social justice which protects only certain classes of public employees.

Up To Voters

The board of trustees of the Belleville Public Library most heartily endorse the project and sincerely hope that in the interest of fair play and community service efficiency, the voters will approve the referendum and that the employees of our library will receive the retirement benefits they so justly deserve.

The board of trustees of the Belleville Public Library at their regular monthly meeting passed the following resolution: "Inasmuch as the board of trustees of the Belleville Public Library have repeatedly resolved to participate actively in any plans for a referendum on pensions for municipal employees it is therefore resolved that the board of trustees fully support the referendum placed on the November election ballot to provide pensions for the municipal employees including those in the public library of Belleville, New Jersey, also that this information be given to the press."

From Mrs. Clarence Harvey
699 Belleville avenue

To the Editor of The Times:
Having just learned of the discharge of Mrs. Noll from the Home service board of the Belleville Red Cross, I wish to say it is most unjust.

I have been obliged to contact Mrs. Noll on a number of occasions this past year and have found her to be very fair, courteous and efficient. With the many demands on her time, she was never too busy to hear my problem and give me advice. I am confident she has been a credit to the Belleville Red Cross and think her discharge should be thoroughly investigated.

FUEL OIL USED
SHOULD BE 3%

First of OPA Weekly Indexes
On Consumption of Heating Fuel

Fuel oil consumers should not have used more than three percent of their total year's ration as of the beginning of this week, it was announced by District OPA, in the first of a weekly series of such index announcements.

This percentage, it was pointed out, shows the maximum amount of the heating ration which should have been burned—actual consumption should be a good deal less in order to keep a reserve for unusually cold spells.

Householders are urged to keep a close check on their fuel oil consumption by means of the index, and the consumption record supplied them by OPA with the fuel oil ration coupons. For example, if the total year's ration is 1,600 gallons, not more than 48 gallons, 3 percent, should have been consumed by the first of this week. If usage exceeded this figure, the household should take steps to curtail consumption— heating equipment adjustment, insulation, more careful use of hot water, weatherstripping, etc.

District OPA fuel oil rationing officials pointed out that the index applies to kerosene for heating as well as to fuel oil.

GOP Women's Speakers Declares
Women Have Deciding Vote

Mrs. Abbie W. Magee, member of the Essex county board of elections and vice-chairman of the Essex county Republican committee, delivered an address at a meeting of the Belleville Women's Republican club last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Arthur E. Mayer presided and Mrs. Ruth Fredericks introduced the speaker.

Mrs. Magee stressed the fact that women voters are now in the majority and therefore their votes will constitute the deciding factor in this political campaign. She spoke of Thomas E. Dewey, presidential candidate, as a man of integrity and courage, whose experience in government proves his far-sightedness and economic organizing ability.

She said a new, vigorous and alert president is required to cope with the strenuous work ahead in promoting a postwar peace and prosperity in our country.

Advising the adoption of the new state constitution she said that the very fact of Mayor Hague's opposition to it makes it significant that the new charter will establish a Hague machine-proof government.

In approving the candidacy of H. Alexander Smith for U. S. Senator, she spoke of his worldwide experience, his American foreign policy, and his desire for international co-operation for the prevention of future wars.

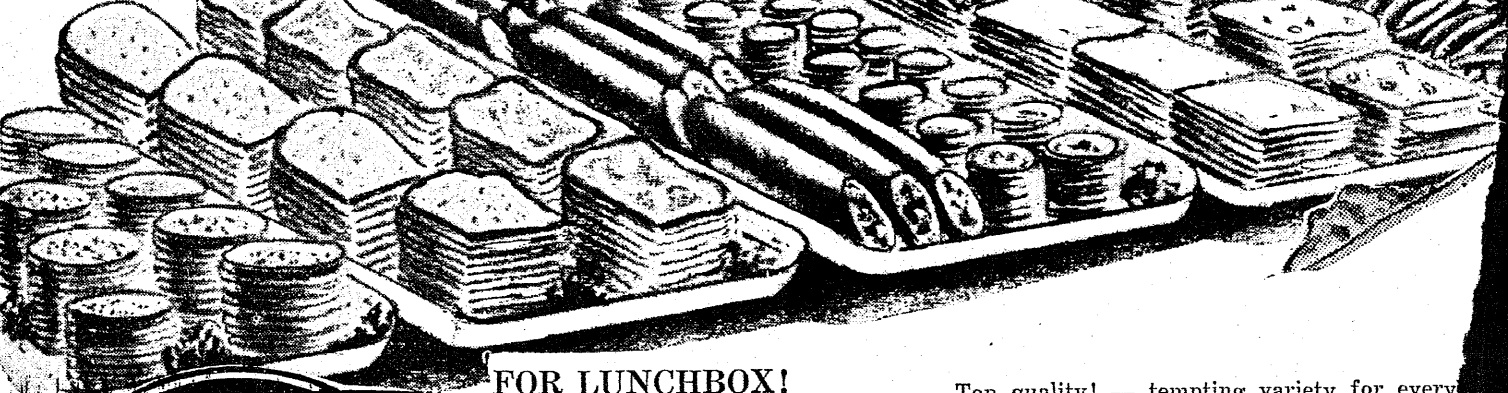

Catholic Women's College Club
Marks Tenth Anniversary

The Catholic Women's College club will celebrate its tenth anniversary tonight in the Helen McHugh studio, 37 Washington street, Newark. Miss Mary Elizabeth Jackson will preside at the business session.

Following the meeting, the charter members and the past presidents will be guests of honor at the club's birthday party.

Mrs. Raymond A. Peck of 76 Floyd street is a member of the program committee. Miss Jackson has asked Miss Marie Trost of 62 DeWitt avenue to make arrangements for the formation of a study group. A number of the members have expressed the wish that such an activity be formed within the organization. Miss Trost attended the executive committee meeting Tuesday evening, at the home of the president.
