WAR FUND DRIVE REACHES 40% OF TOWN QUOTA

Second Week Shows Total of $19,299 in Campaign For $43,500

Inching forward to 40 percent of its goal, the Belleville War fund drive tabulated $19,299.79 this week, as Drive Chairman W. Douglas Clark declared that the vital program of service to returning veterans depends on the town reaching its quota of $43,500. "The need for local Red Cross services continues to grow," Clark declared yesterday. "In many respects, the chapter's responsibilities will increase as more veterans return. Funds to continue the important programs for post-war armies of occupation are essential," he said, and also pointed out that the regular peace time program of the local Red Cross is continuing to expand.

Home nursing, nutrition, accident prevention, water safety and other Red Cross classes are being increased to meet the greater demand for these "self-improvement courses," the chairman said.

Need Will Continue

"Our responsibility to our fighting men will not end with their return home," he asserted. "The need for Red Cross assistance in filling claims for government benefits, for providing temporary financial aid, for guidance in settling back into civilian life and for information concerning community opportunities and resources has intensified to a great extent. These are prime obligations of Belleville to its returning heroes."

Breakdown of this week's total shows: industries—$8,878.70; employees groups—$3,323.69; churches—$70; organizations—$125.34; commercial—$100; schools—$510.50; out-of-town special gifts—$147; benefits—$1,024.68; house to house, including special gifts from town residents—$5,219.88.

The Capitol theatre began its week-long drive for the war fund last night, with a special trailer and appropriate feature, "Thirty Seconds over Tokyo."

Zone Board May Set Date for Public Hearing on Miele Permit

A date for a public hearing on John Miele's request for a building permit and certificate of occupancy may be set by the zone board when it meets tonight to hear an appeal from the building inspector's denial. Miele will be represented by Thomas Doyle of Jersey City.

Miele is seeking to rebuild his factory on Heckel street which housed the Quality Products company, a rag cleaning firm, and which has been razed by fire. The tenant's business is declared a fire hazard by the town and Miele has been denied a permit to rebuild.

Jr. Achievement Headquarters Move to Larger Building

New quarters at 210 Belleville avenue will be occupied next week by Junior Achievement of Belleville whose five youthful concerns have had their headquarters at 552 Washington avenue for the past eighteen months.

The new location will afford an opportunity for more than one company to operate simultaneously and will permit the formation of more companies. Present plan is for one concern to occupy the building and use the equipment each evening.

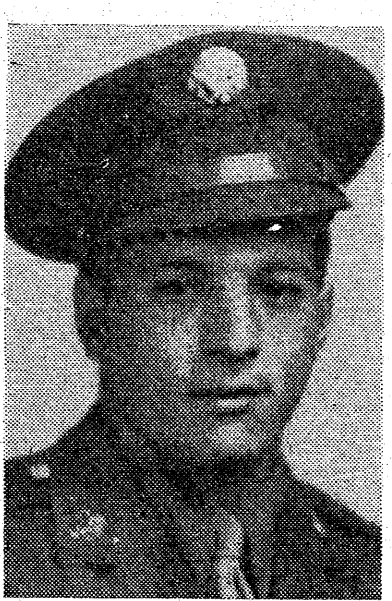

Adult advisers and members of the Central committee met with chairman Edgar S. Peierls, president of Restoflex corporation, Thursday evening at Forest Hill field club where a dinner meeting was held.

W&T RECEIVES FOURTH STAR TO "E" PENNANT

First Known in Area to be Five Time Winner; One of Few Dual Awards

Recognition for outstanding achievement came to the men and women of Wallace and Tiernan Co., Inc., and Wallace and Tiernan Products, Inc., for the fifth time on March 10 when they were awarded by Under Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson that they had each been awarded a fourth White Star for their "E" Pennants.

It is estimated that only three percent of the firms engaged in war work in the country have received the Army-Navy E award. Wallace and Tiernan is the first known concern in this area to receive a fifth award for 100 percent war production. It is also one of the few instances where two associated companies, in widely separated fields of endeavor, have each been five-time winners. The original award was made to both companies in a dual ceremony in December, 1942.

Wallace and Tiernan Co., with over thirty years' experience in the field of public health, first came into war production in 1940 with the manufacture of field water purification equipment originally developed by them in 1917. The company is now engaged almost entirely in the production of a variety of war goods including all types of water purification equipment in use by Allied forces.

The award was made to Wallace and Tiernan Products, Inc., for its outstanding production of war goods ranging from vital pharmaceuticals, used in all military hospitals and dressing stations, to delicate control instruments, aids to navigation and a variety of confidential and secret items.

The letter from the Under Secretary of War states:

"You have maintained the fine record which brought you distinction more than six months ago, and your standard of practical patriotism is one of which you may well be proud."

"This fourth renewal is a symbol of high achievement over a long period, and you may now fly the Army-Navy Production Award Flag, with its four White Stars, for a full year before being considered again by the Army and Navy Boards for Production Awards."

New B-29 Super Fort Named for Town to Replace One Lost

Picture of the new B-29 Super Fortress which will bear the name of Belleville and replaces the B-17 Fortress now demolished, which was "purchased" by Belleville in the third war loan drive, was presented to the board of commissioners Monday night.

Philip Dettelbach, war finance committee chairman, W. Douglas Clark and Ronald G. Brunner, co-chairman, made the presentation. Dettelbach stated that Belleville through payroll deductions and individual purchases, has bought $2,000,000 worth of war bonds in the fifth and sixth war loan drives. The town has purchased $30,000,000 in bonds since the beginning of the drives, he added.

A second bomber, a B-29, has also been named for Belleville as a result of the sixth war loan drive.

An ordinance providing for the purchase of a $9,000 pumper fire engine was passed on second and third reading at the meeting of the board of commissioners on Tuesday night.

Three More Gold Stars Added to Growing Casualty List

Services This Week for Pfc. Sanok; Pvt. Zecca and Sgt. Barbone Killed Overseas

Three more gold stars were added to Belleville's growing list of war casualties this week with the accidental death of Pfc. Theodore P. Sanok at Camp Blanding, Fla., and reports that Pvt. Joseph Zecca and Sgt. Patrick Barbone, previously missing, had been killed in action.

First Belleville in the armed forces a month before Pearl Harbor in November, 1940, news of the accident, which happened on Friday came as a shock to the parents of Pfc. Sanok, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sanok of 16 Montgomery street, and to his wife, the former Miss Alice Sylloski at her home in Bloomfield.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning from his parents' home, in St. Valentine's church, Bloomfield, where a high mass of requiem was offered, and burial was in Mt. Olivet cemetery there.

Pfc. Sanok, 29, was last home in December when a daughter, Diane, was born to the couple. In a medical detachment, he had been assigned to the General Hospital at Camp Blanding since January and was slated to go overseas in the near future.

During his four years in service, he was stationed at Fort Monmouth, Halloran hospital, Staten Island, England General Hospital in Atlantic city and Fort Lewis, Wash., before being assigned to Camp Blanding. He was employed in the receiving department at General Electric, Bloomfield in civilian life.

Pfc. Sanok also leaves a brother, Pfc. Chester Sanok now in Italy, and five sisters, Helen, Miss Martha, Josephine, Helen, Maryann of town and Mrs. Walter Jarmusz of Bloomfield.

Reported missing on October 29 in Italy, word that Pvt. Joseph Zecca was killed in action was received on January 23 by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. M. Zecca of 197 Fairway avenue.

Nineteen years old, he went overseas in March of last year and was in North Africa before going into Italy in June. He was a member of the 133rd infantry division.

Pvt. Zecca left Belleville High school in his senior year, to enlist and he entered the Army in August, 1943. He received his training at Fort McClellan, Ala.

Canning Chairman Requests Indication of Interest in Demonstrations

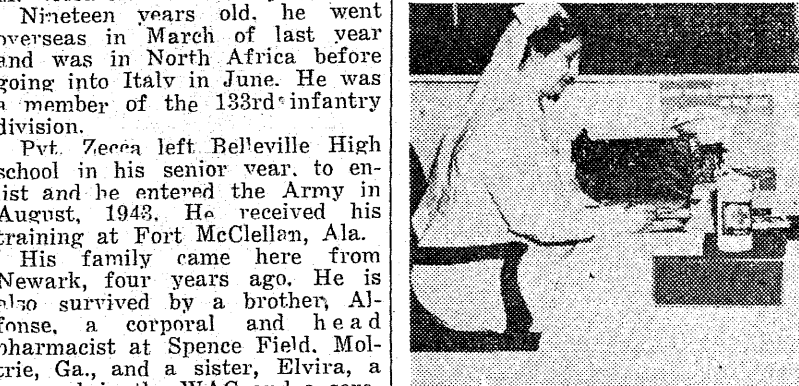

Victory gardeners have been asked to do their part in food production again in 1945, and this means that home makers will again be asked to can.

In planning for its program, the Essex County Extension service, of which Margaret C. Shepard is demonstration agent, would like to know what help home makers will want with food conservation.

Mrs. Thomas Jackrell, local canning chairman and extension service council member, will be glad to help arrange meetings for demonstrations in canning, use of equipment, free testing of pressure canner gauges, (gauges must be tested yearly as a safety measure) and other timely subjects.

PLAN CAMPAIGN FOR CLOTHING AS OVERSEAS RELIEF

Drive Here for Old But Usable Wearing Apparel Part of Nation-Wide Move

A campaign for usable old clothing to be held in April as part of serviceable wearing apparel for 150,000,000 pounds or 75,000 tons of serviceable wearing apparel for overseas war relief, is being planned here, it was learned yesterday.

A special meeting of representatives of all town organizations will be called to appoint a chairman and various committees, within the next two weeks. The Belleville Rotary and Lions clubs have been asked by the drive's national headquarters to organize the campaign.

The temporary committee which will arrange the town-wide meeting is composed of the Rev. Peter R. Dechenbach, W. Brand Smith, Paul deHagura, Ab Atkins, Charles M. Nutt and Ronald G. Brunner.

Henry J. Kaiser, the shipbuilder, is national chairman of the drive and he has called upon every community in America to organize to collect every bit of clean, usable old clothing that can possibly be found.

Former Governor Herbert H. Lehman, of New York state, director general of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt recently expressed to a group of national leaders their confidence in the response of the public and stressed the desperate need of persons in the liberated countries for decent garments, shoes and bedding.

ROWE FIRM HAD PART IN RAIDS OVER TOKYO

Makes Bomb Cluster For M-69's Used Exclusively in Weekend Burnings

Some of the credit for direct participation in the great incendiary raids on Tokyo and Nagoya over the weekend goes to the Rowe Manufacturing company of 2 Main street, makers of the large cluster that holds 500 pounds of the M-69 or incendiary bombs. The M-69's were used exclusively over Tokyo and it is believed over Nagoya as well.

Col. S. B. Whitesides jr., commanding officer of the New York Chemical Warfare Procurement district with offices in New York City, said yesterday that the large cluster containing 38 of the six pound M-69's is "aimable" and the newest type of incendiary packaging.

It is designed for incendiary raids from high altitudes. Since Super Fortresses can fly as high as 35,000 feet, it was necessary to devise a way to control the cluster so that they would land in the target area.

The aimable cluster is equipped with a nose and tail and its fall is similar to one large bomb until it reaches an altitude of about 1,000 feet where it is broken up by a time fuse and explosive charge. Because of this characteristic it permits a tight pattern of bombing.

The smaller cluster carries a 100 pound load of 14 M-49's which are scattered by gravity and broken up by a trip wire controlled by the bombardier.

Started in 1941

The New York Chemical Warfare Procurement district has played an important role in the development of the M-69 bomb. Col. Whitesides said yesterday. Its development started in 1941 when it was necessary to find a substitute for magnesium which was then unavailable in large quantities.

The chemical warfare service and Office of Scientific Research conducted thousands of tests before a method was found to use petroleum as the basis of the incendiary compound. The M-69 is a six pound jellied oil bomb, the first successful incendiary on the tail ejection principle.

Nineteen inches long and with the thickness of a baseball bat, its cheesecloth sock contains three pounds of gas mixture thickened by a secret formula. The jell burns at a temperature of 3,000 degrees Fahrenheit and sticks persistently to any target.

In flight, the M-69 sprouts four tail streams of cotton gauze which act as tiny parachutes to regulate the speed of descent so the bomb won't smash when it lands, and yet will retain sufficient striking force to penetrate tile, slate, wood, composite single or galvanized iron roofing.

Upon impact, a delayed fuse starts the mechanism of the bomb which detonates after five seconds and coughs the oil-filled cheesecloth into a radius of 25 yards. The jell burns very intensely for from eight to ten minutes.

Deed Land to Town for Main Street Improvement

Progress in the proposed widening of the sidewalk area along Main street between Jorammon street and the Nutley town line has been made with deeds by Federal Leather company and the Essex and Bergen Realty and Holding company of portions of their frontage on the thoroughfare, to the town.

It is expected that other large property owners on Main street will deed over sufficient land to provide for a uniform fifteen foot sidewalk area on the west side of the street. It now varies between five and a half and seven and a half feet.

A fifteen foot setback from the curbline has already been established from Rutgers street to the Nutley town line. Essex County Park commission is expected to lay the sidewalk at a future date.

Speculation Spreads Over Rumor Mayor Would Oust Handlon

PBA Annual Dance Saturday At Elks Club House

The 34th annual Policemen's Benevolent association dance will be held Saturday evening at the Elks clubhouse.

Because of curfew regulations, dancing will begin promptly at 8 o'clock and will be followed by a floor show at 9:30. Howard Oliver of Kearny is providing the floor show and Anthony Gross is chairman of the dance committee.

Williams Says He Didn't Stipulate Clerk to be Chosen from Uniformed Ranks; Makes Other Proposals

Speculation was spreading about town yesterday over the proposed conference between Mayor Williams, Recorder Everett B. Smith and Recorder Clerk Fred Handlon on the rumored intention of Williams to introduce an ordinance which would replace Handlon with a member of the uniformed force, as reported in another newspaper. He pointed out that in his list of proposals for the coordination and improvement of the police and fire departments he had proposed only that the chief clerk would be in charge of the centralization of all records and that his duties would be assigned by the department director and police chief.

Handlon who has held the chief clerk's job for twelve years, was deputy director of public safety under the late Commissioner Clark. He is also president of the New Jersey Court Clerks association, and is active in town affairs as a member of the Lion-club and annual chairman of the Infantile Paralysis fund drive. Williams also refused to comment whether another town job would be offered to Handlon in the event that the rumored ordinance is introduced and passed.

Eliminate Politics

His proposals which he would "relieve the commission of pressure and any implications in appointments, in points that conform to the law and can become a part of town laws through ordinance. Others which conflict with Walsh act as it is now interpreted will be introduced in a series of policy, which however, binding for the board.

In the later category, he proposes to present amendments to the Walsh act to the assembly which would reduce full board of commission hear charges brought against members of the police and fire departments. The board would not vote on charges presented, except in a tie.

Another amendment would be the appointment and promotion of members of the police and fire departments only on the major approval of the full board. Present interpretation of the Walsh act provides that each commissioner has complete authority within his own department.

It is expected that a new ordinance will be drawn up, embodying his other proposals and incorporating the two ordinances now in existence. It is to be introduced at the next commission meeting on March 27.

The proposals include:

Appointment of police and firemen by competitive examination based on civil service or the New Jersey State Police. This would provide the benefits of civil service, without its attendant weaknesses, the Mayor said. Appointment would be made from the three highest competitors. Examinations would be open to all residents.

Promotions would be made only by the majority approval of the board upon written recommendation by the department director and fire chief, with certification of the officer's examination marks, character, training and ability.

Probationary Period

The appointee whether chance-man or officer, would serve a probationary period of one year, with a chance at a second probationary year if his record is not fully satisfactory with his record.

Permanent appointment only on the majority approval of the board.

Annual review of the rules for the police and fire departments. Particular attention to be paid to appointments to the detective squad on the recommendation of the department director and chief. Appointees would be eligible for promotion in the same manner as regular force.

Revamping of regulations for pay of those on sick and injured list.

All vacancies to be filled within 60 days or the position abolished.

Decrease from eight to four years the time it would take to reach maximum pay, beginning at $2,000 and progressing in jumps to $2,400, $2,600 and $2,800, for both departments.

The Mayor pointed out that the police and fire departments represent an annual expenditure of $300,000 and that these proposals should bring about a more business-like operation.

SHIFTED ITEMS, BONUS IN BUDGET

Darby Orders Shift of Police Budget From Public Safety; Tax Rate Unchanged

Transfer of the police department, recorder's court clerk and traffic control budget items to Mayor Williams' Revenue and Finance budget and approval of amendments which will give town employees an additional $100 bonus marked the final adoption of Belleville's 1945 town budget at the commission meeting on Monday night.

The transfer of police budget items from the Department of Public Safety of which Commissioner King is director, was effected by a resolution introduced by the Mayor at the request of Commissioner of Local Government Darby. Robert Gruhin, local attorney, wrote to the commissioners a month ago, pointing out the irregularity of retaining budget items in a department which no longer has jurisdiction over them. Control of the police department was transferred from Public Safety to Revenue and Finance by a vote of the commissioners last October.

Gruhin suggested that the irregularity be cured by returning the department to Public Safety. When the commissioners took no action, Gruhin wrote to Darby, advising him of the situation which he declared was illegal.

Darby who had already certified the budget, wrote to Williams last week, requesting the transfer of the police budget items to Revenue and Finance.

Neither this move nor the bonus amounting to $11,900 had any effect on the tax rate of $4.64. The bonus will be met with funds in the surplus cash account.

DISABLED VETS FOR SCHOOL DUTY

Williams Proposes Program That Would Provide Security; Relieve Regulars

A program providing for the appointment of disabled veterans of World War II to special school duty was proposed by Mayor Williams on Monday night.

Besides relieving the members of the regular force, it would give permanent jobs to the 10 or 12 men eventually selected, he said. He will present his recommendations in an ordinance at the next commission meeting. The move is designed as an alternative to employing 12 additional men on the regular force.

The Mayor proposed that the men receive a wage of $3 a day for the ten month school year, plus a basic wage of $1,000. He also suggested that special officers has given first opportunity to police special affairs such as dances, benefits, etc. to provide additional income. This with two free months in the summer for other work, plus eligibility for pensions or state retirement fund benefits and their own Federal allotment should provide a definite security, he said.

Williams pointed out that a program such as this throughout the country would provide security for many disabled servicemen.

He suggested that they be appointed on the basis of a competitive examination which could be outlined by the New Jersey Rehabilitation commission or the Veterans' Administration bureau. Eventually, he said, those physically fit could take the civil service exams for promotion to the regular force.

The Mayor also proposed that the special officers have a different type of uniform of symbol to distinguish them from the regular force and that a brief course of instruction at the Newark or New York City traffic school be required at little or no cost to them, before they begin their duties.

NUTLEY SYMPHONY
MUSICALE

Second of Series Will Feature
Tenor and Trio Sunday Afternoon

The second Nutley Symphony Society musicale will be held Sunday afternoon from 5 to 8 o'clock at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. Warren Young Jr., 259 Vesland avenue, Nutley. The program will be given by Donald Speer, tenor, and a trio comprised of Carleton Sperati and Bayard Olmsted, flautists, and Spencer Johnson, clarinetist.

Speer first received wide notice for his singing on the General Motors weekly radio program originating in Carnegie Hall. In 1939 he reached the semi-finals of the Metropolitan Auditions of the Air. For five years, Speer was director of music at the Broadway Baptist church in Paterson where he planned all the music for the various choirs and directed them.

He is conductor of the Paterson Oratorio society. Among recent engagements was his appearance in costume in scenes from "Carmen" and "Lohengrin" at the Hotel Commodore in New York City, before the Women's Centenary Theater group. Speer will sing "Sigmund's Love Song" from the Walkure and the "Prize Song" from the Meistersinger, as well as the tenor aria, from Faust, "The Star" by Rogers and "In the Garden of My Heart," Ball. Laura E. Rogers will be his accompanist.

Toured Europe

The members of the woodwind trio are all chemists who use music as an avocation and for relaxation. Mr. Sperati, leader of the group, attended Luther College where he was a member of the band which toured Europe one summer, playing in the Scandinavian countries as well as in England.

Later Sperati took his Ph.D. at the University of Illinois. While there, he played in the University band, an experimental group given to reading new music before publication and trying out new instruments and unusual combinations of instruments. Johnston is a Dartmouth graduate who has played for several years with a non-professional symphony orchestra in New York City.

Iowa State is Bayard Olmsted's alma mater where he took part in virtually all of the musical activities. The three men met at the West Hudson Symphony and soon became fast friends, gathering weekly to play together.

Their program will open with a "Rhapsody" of Rameau and Max Reger's Trio for violin and viola, op. 141, which has been transcribed for the woodwinds. A second group will consist of one movement from a Beethoven Trio, op. 87 and a trio of Haydn, written when that composer was in London.

Eleanor Bacon-Peck is chairman and Mrs. Gaylord Schumann and Mrs. Howard Reed Jr. are in charge of the supper.

W&T EMPLOYEES
DONATE BLOOD

Many Relatives of Servicemen
Respond to Company's Fourth Bank

Belleville High school was the scene of the town's latest blood bank, when 11 employees of Wallace and Tiernan, gave their blood last Thursday. The fourth blood bank sponsored by the company, it was arranged by Elwood Russell of management and E. J. Walker, representative of labor.

"Because every available inch of space in the main street plant is given to war work, it is impossible to run a blood bank there," The Red Cross Motor corps co-operated in transporting employees from the plant to the high school. The entire procedure took one hour and ten minutes, enabling every employee to return quickly to his job of turning out the war materials so badly needed by fighting men at the front.

"The response of employees to the request for donors was outstanding," said Mr. Russell. Don-Haley, in town from the Wallace and Tiernan Washington office, contributed his eleventh pint of blood. Also among the consistent donors were E. C. Marshall and George Saxe, who gave for the ninth time and Leonard Foote, five times.

Veteran Donates
A veteran of the last war, William King, donated his blood for the fourth time. He has a daughter in the WACS and a brother in the Navy, a half-brother in the Army and a niece in the WAVES. Mrs. Helen Packard, a member of Products Inspection, has a son who has been in the Pacific for over two years. Mary Duerr, a first timer, whose husband is now fighting in Germany, feels proud that in giving she can do her part in the fight.

Eckard Arnold, a veteran of this war also donated. George Hewitt Jr., who has given so many times that he has lost count, lost one son in this war and has another son and son-in-law in the armed forces. A member of the chemical department, Mae Durkee, is a sixth timer, while Janet Murphy gave for the fifth time as did Hjalmar Elde.

Plan Campaign

The third period—from April 16 to 25—is suggested as the period of the house-to-house canvass. This period, Mr. Kaiser said, "is most likely to be the most productive week of the campaign." The fourth, and final, period—from April 26 to 30 will be devoted to follow-up collections and shipping.

ROBERT WERTZ ON MISSING LIST

B-17 Pilot Lost in Three-Day Raid Over German Rail Centers

Pilot of a B-17 bomber, 1st Lt. Robert Wertz of 229 Overlook avenue, has been reported missing on February 16 when as a member of the AAF, he participated in the third consecutive day of blasting rail centers at Frankfurt and Geissen in Germany during the attacks that took in the wide area north of Frankfurt as far south as Munich and Ulm. British based bombers of the Eighth Army Air force, escorted by Mustang fighters, plowed through the heavy fog to rain tons of bombs on their objectives that included trains loaded with military vehicles. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Wertz who received word from the war department last Friday, are confident however, that they will soon hear from the pilot or receive information of his whereabouts. They heard from him last in a letter written two days before he was reported missing, in which he observed that he had a "dam good crew" and that they would "get through" all right. The pilot has sent the Air Medal to his parents, but has not disclosed the circumstances under which he received it.

Twenty-five years old, the lieutenant was graduated from Belleville High school and then was employed by the Firemen's Insurance company in Newark for four years, before spending one year at Lehigh university. He enlisted and entered the service January 19, 1942. He was an instructor on B-17's for a year and a half at Alexandria, La., before going overseas last November.

He has a brother, Mark, 27, a lieutenant in the Naval Reserve and executive officer of the Motor Torpedo Boat Repair Training unit at Melville, R. I. He also has a sister, Margaret, at home.

Giglio Brothers Recovering From Wounds; One Interned

William, B-17 Pilot, Recuperates in Nazi Camp; John in English Hospital

The Giglio brothers, William and John, are both recovering from wounds received in the European war theatre and latest news received by their family.

1st Lieut. William Giglio

Mr. and Mrs. Angelo J. Giglio of 205 Forest avenue, states that William, previously reported missing, is now recuperating in a German prison camp. John is hospitalized in England.

William, a B-17 bomber pilot, was reported missing in a raid over Stuttgart, Germany, on December 9. His family has since been visited by the bombardier of his crew who has returned to the states. Grounded on the day of the Stuttgart raid because of injuries, the bombardier said the Giglio's plane was one of two out of 400 that did not return from the mission.

The second plane crash-landed in France. Other pilots saw Lieut. Giglio's plane headed for Germany but they were unable to contact him as his radio had been knocked out. His co-pilot has not been heard from, but the rest of the crew are prisoners.

Several Awards

The pilot, who was on his 35th mission, holds the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal with five oak leaf clusters and a Presidential Unit citation. His family has no information of the feats for which he received the awards. Married to the former Rita Rocca of Union City, he entered the service March 6, 1943, having listed the previous August. He was at Nashville, Tenn., had flight at Montgomery, Ala.; and at Milledgeville, Ga.; and advanced training at Stuttgart, Ark., where he received his wings. His wife was with him until he left for overseas last June from McMill Field, Fla. He was sent to England where he was assigned to the Eighth Air Force.

His brother, Cpl. John Giglio, was one of the first men to be inducted from Belleville, in April, 1941. He was stationed for a time in Northern Ireland, and was with Gen. Patton in North Africa and Sicily where he was wounded for the first time. Transferred to the Army anti-aircraft, he entered France on D-Day, and received a second wound January 17, while fighting in Belgium. He

GETS AIR MEDAL IN FRANCE

Flight Officer Edward Daniels Receives Award for Missions Over Germany

For skillful and courageous performance of duties as pilot on bombing missions over Germany, Flight Officer Edward R. Daniels has been awarded the Air Medal at a Ninth Air Force Bomber Base in France.

Since his arrival overseas in December, 1944, Flight Officer Daniels has been flying with the "Tiger Stripe" Marauder group to targets of tactical significance and in close cooperation with the ground forces. Railroad bridges, fuel storage tanks and troop concentrations at Rheinbach, Sinzig and other German cities have all felt the impact of the bombs from the medium bombers of the Ninth Air Force.

Flight Officer Daniels, 24-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Daniels of 83 DeWitt avenue recently took part in the bombing mission in which the B-26 Marauders bombed the one remaining escape route for encircled Nazis at Dusseldorf, Germany, resulting in the loss of 1,500 vehicles, leaving them easy prey for the American bombers.

Upped in Rank

1st Lieut. Herbert Wilson

Word has been received that Herbert Wilson of 55 Bremond street has been promoted from second to first lieutenant in England where he is stationed with a harbor craft company. Thirty-eight years old, he enlisted and was commissioned in February of last year and trained at Camp Gordon Johnson, Fla.

Meet in Pacific

Cpl. Bisignano & Ph.M. 3/c DeVito

Marine Cpl. Domenick Bisignano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bisignano of 464 Cortlandt street, and Pharmacist's Mate 3/c Lee DeVito, son of Ralph DeVito of 342 Stephens street, met "somewhere in the South Pacific" February 24.

The men who were co-workers in a North Newark rubber manufacturing company before their simultaneous entrance into service two years ago are now attached to different companies of the same Marine division. DeVito was stationed at Muhlberg college for eight months after his marriage last April to the former Miss Nikki Muscarelli of Kearny. He was then transferred to Camp Pendleton, Calif. and went to a Pacific base in January. He has been in the Saipan and Tinian engagements.

before going overseas last July. The lieutenant is married to the former Miss Mae Vance of town, and has three children, Lois, a junior at the high school, Herbert, 12 and David, one year old. He was in charge of the men's recreation room at the Prudential Insurance company, Newark, before entering the service.

Bellevillites In Uniform

High praise from his commanding general opened 1945 overseas for Sgt. Peter J. Iacullo son of Mr. and Mrs. Carmine Iacullo of 126 Brighton avenue, at an Air Service Command Depot in England.

Serving in the flight test section at this Air Service Command depot in England he and his fellow soldiers set a record in 1944 testing more than 7,500 front-line aircraft for delivery to combat units for action over Germany.

A soldier since April 11, 1942, he has been overseas for twelve months. He was formerly employed by Crocker-Wheeler Electric company in Ampere and attended Belleville High school.

The promotion to first lieutenant of Donald L. Brown of 114 Montclair avenue, Newark occurred in January on the western front according to word received by his wife. Lieut. Brown formerly lived in Belleville; his grandmother is Mrs. Mary Higgins of 128 William street.

Commissioned a signal corps officer at Fort Monmouth he was made a transportation officer when he was assigned to an aviation battalion in England. He and Mrs. Brown are the parents of a three and a half month old daughter.

A graduate of Belleville High school, he was formerly with Wallace and Tiernan company.

Motor Machinist's Mate 2/c Harry E. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown of 567 Washington avenue, is on thirty day leave after 21 months in the South Pacific. He participated in the occupation of the Marianas. He has been in service two years.

His brother, Boatwain's Mate 2/c Robert S. Brown, is on aircraft carrier duty in the Pacific.

Pfc. Vincent Papisidero of 41 Heckel street has written to Rod Fuller, in charge of publications at Thomas A. Edison, Inc. of West Orange, where he was employed in the assembly and test department of the Storage Battery division, from Belgium.

Trouble with the mail due to fast troop movements and a busy Christmas day were the chief topics in his letter. He says in part: "I was in Holland for a while made good contact and I was going to have my mail brought up to me there. But, before I knew it I was on the move again to Belgium. I arrived at my new destination still without mail. I made another contact and where do you think by mail was at now? Yes, in Holland. Well it finally came in this week. The package of books also arrived, thanks ever so much for thinking of me and the boys. "Except for the mail, this Christmas and New Year was the worst I've ever had or seen. It seems like those — were celebrating their fourth of July. But in spite of all this our flak looked beautiful. I doubt very much if they will ever celebrate again. Please excuse the profanity, I couldn't think of a better name to call them. The weather hasn't been much help here. We have plenty of snow and the temperature is still below zero."

All Missing in 106th Division Are Now Accounted For

News of Sgt. Candura And S-Sgt. Pfister Shows Six Are Nazi Prisoners

After weeks of suspense, the families of Sgt. Henry R. Candura and S/Sgt. Howard Pfister Jr. of the famed 106th division reported missing after the Battle of the Belgium bulge in December, have heard this week that they are prisoners of war in Germany.

This accounts for all six local soldiers missing after the Nazi breakthrough. First hope for them came three weeks ago when Pfc. James Wilkinson was heard from. Others heard from last week were Pfc. Arthur Schultz, Pfc. Edmond Kelly and Pfc. William J. Davis.

It is understood that all six soldiers wrote cards to their families on the same day, informing them that they are held by the Nazis, but either official censorship or the mails are blamed for the delay.

A telegram has been received through the International Red Cross by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Candura of 16 Washington Avenue saying their son is a prisoner. Dated March 8, it marks exactly two years from the date that Sgt. Candura entered the service.

A postcard from him followed on Saturday, telling his parents that he is well, and that he hopes to receive packages, as none of his Christmas parcels have yet arrived.

Sgt. Candura attended Belleville High school and was employed with Wallace and Tiernan company prior to his induction. He trained with the 106th at Fort Jackson, S. C., and Camp Atterbury, Ind., and went overseas with the unit last October.

Mrs. Marjorie Pfister of 2 Carpenter terrace has received two cards from her husband. The sergeant's messages were concerned with his two-month old son, whom he has never seen, and his daughter, Barbara, eighteen months old. To date, Mrs. Pfister has had no official notice from the War department.

Sgt. Pfister, 21, entered the army in March, 1943, and went overseas last October when he was assigned to the 106th Division. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Pfister of Newark, he attended Newark schools and was employed by James A. Coe and company there before entering the service.

Paul Ehrlich Formerly of Town Now Prisoner of Germans

Friends of the Jacob Ehrlichs who moved from their home on Overlook Avenue to Beverly Hills, Calif., six years ago, heard this week that their son, Paul, a copilot on a B-24 Liberator bomber was taken prisoner by the Germans on Christmas day.

Paul, who is 23 years old, was born here and graduated from the High school. He enlisted in the service in July, 1942, and went overseas last April. He was awarded the Oak Leaf cluster while stationed in England. He is married to a California girl and has one sister, Bernice.

CHESLEY SCOUT COMMISSIONER

Assists in Forming New Scout Troop; District Plans New Packs, Troops

Edward L. Chesley of 57 Fairview place has been appointed to serve as a Neighborhood Commissioner. He will give service to the following units in his area: Pack 302, Bethany Lutheran church; Pack 307, P.T.A. School No. 7 and Troop 392 Recreation House.

Chesley was of invaluable service to the P.T.A. of School No. 7 during the organization of the Cub Pack sponsored by the P.T.A., and is now assisting the District Organization and Extension committee in the organization of a Scout troop under the same auspices. The Parents' meeting in connection with this new organization will take place at the Recreation House at 8 p.m. tomorrow evening.

The Little Zion A.M.E. church and the Second Baptist church are cooperating together in the organization of a Boy Scout troop for the boys of these two churches.

A "Get acquainted with Scouting Meeting" will be held at 8 p.m. on Friday, March 23 at the Little Zion A.M.E. church, when the sound movie "Scout Trail To Citizenship" will be shown.

Mohican Staff Training

The first training session for young men 16 and over who desire to qualify for positions on the Mohican camp staff, will be held in the trustees room, Newark Public Library, at 9:30 a.m. Saturday. To qualify for these meetings, of which there will be three, a Scout must be recommended by his Scoutmaster.

The Belleville District Organization and committee has set a goal of three new Cub Packs and four new Troops in 1945. Already, according to a report of Burt Johnson, committee chairman, two of the three new Cub Packs are well under way, and the third will be started soon.

In Scout troops definite work has been started on two of the anticipated troops, and some progress has been made on a third. At present there are 296 registered Scouts and 157 Cubs—a total of 453 boys, an all-time high for Belleville.

It is estimated that by the end of the year there will be 325 Scouts and 175 Cubs, or a total of 500 boys enrolled. In 1944 the

Imagine the added horror of this war without the Red Cross!

Suppose the Red Cross had never been created

THERE would now be no Army of Mercy to save and comfort the millions of lives wrecked or dislocated—all over the world—by earth's most destructive war.

No millions of pints of blood would have been collected for life-saving plasma.

No millions of heartening, sustaining food packages would be packed and delivered to despondent Allied war prisoners.

No emergency messages from loved ones would reach our worried fighters at the front.

No giant hand of compassion would be forever outstretched to help the victims of pestilence, flood, famine and hurricane.

Only unthinkable chaos would be left in the wake of battle and catastrophe—if the RED CROSS' hand of helpful mercy were withdrawn!

It is up to you to give—in gratitude that your RED CROSS was created—and grew to keep pace with the world's anguished need.

The need is stupendous—no matter what turn the War may take. So the job the RED CROSS can do depends on your giving now—giving more than ever before.

Thousands of War Prisoners would be forgotten. That they have not been abandoned to their fate in this war is the achievement of your Red Cross, which has constantly reached them, even in Japan, with morale-building parcels of food, extra clothes, medicines, cigarettes and other comforts. More and more of your dollars are urgently needed to keep our men in life, health and hope until they can be brought safely home!

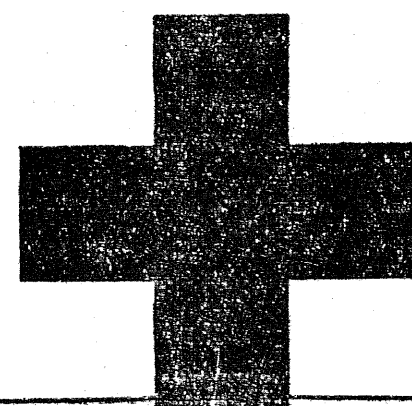

Thousands at the Front would be tormented by Home Worries. In this war millions of fighters bless the Red Cross Home Service for relief from anxiety about their loved one's welfare. Every week thousands of two-way messages are exchanged between Red Cross Field Directors with the troops and Home Service workers in American home towns—emergency questions about wives, children, sweethearts or parents. Your dollars will speed victory by bolstering fighting spirit.

Thousands would die from loss of blood where they fell. This is the first war in which the folks at home actually saved lives at the front. Surgeons General of the Army and Navy say blood plasma has been the foremost lifesaver in this war. The Red Cross, through your blood donations and money, has collected and distributed millions of pints to the medical services.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

For outstanding achievement by Civilian Defense Forces through alertness before and emergency measures taken during and after the disastrous hurricane of September 14, 1944.

This contribution marks vigilant readiness for service to community and country and stands as a mark of distinction in the Nation's war effort.

Awarded this fifteenth day of Decem. 1944.

CITATION FOR ALERTNESS of the civilian defense personnel during the hurricane last September, has been presented by Governor Edison to representatives of the town and the Defense council on behalf of the National Office of Civilian Defense. About 186 members of civilian defense stood guard over fallen trees and live wires and directed traffic during the night of the hurricane on September 14.

Defense Council Cited For Work in Fall Hurricane

Town Receives Recognition From Gov. Edison Behalf of National OCD

A citation for protective services by the civilian defense personnel during the hurricane that raged along the Eastern seaboard last September was presented to the Town of Belleville by Governor Edison on March 1, in behalf of the National Office of Civilian Defense.

Mayor Williams, Ronald G. Munner, defense coordinator representing the Defense Council, J. Vogel, ambulance corps, received the citation in the assembly chambers of the State house in Trenton. It was given for "alertness before, and emergency measures taken during and after the disastrous hurricane of September 14."

The path of the hurricane had been charted by meteorologists up the coast for several days but nevertheless, few expected that inland Belleville would be hit quite as hard as it was. Trees crashed everywhere in town, blocking many streets and dragging down telephone and electric wires. Virtually the entire town was plunged into darkness.

Eighty-five communities of 563 in the state had civilian defense personnel out to guard against catastrophes. Tally here, showed that 57 wires had fallen and 42 trees felled on the streets of the town. There was no estimate of the number on private property.

About 186 members of the local civilian defense council were alerted by telephone when it was found that the town air raid signals could not be heard above the tumult of the storm. They manned the casualty stations, guarded fallen wires and directed traffic.

There were 130 air raid wardens on duty, 30 police reserves, 18 fire reserves and eight members of the ambulance corps, according to Brunner. It is understood that the commander and chairman of the Defense council will receive buttons for their activity, and that buttons may be obtained for those who participated in the protection of the town.

Red Cross Plea

An urgent plea to the people of Belleville to contribute to the Red Cross war fund has been made by Pfc. Anthony Bocchino, one of the first prisoners of war to return to the town on the Gripsholm, after a year and a half in a German prison camp.

"I speak from personal experience," said Bocchino, "when I say it if it were not for the packages of food, clothing, games, and records supplied by the Red Cross, the morale of the men at my prison camp would have been very low. I can not urge the townsfolk strongly enough to contribute, especially those who have not done so as yet."

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Bocchino of 15 Frederick street, he attended the Belleville schools and Bloomfield Vocational school. He entered service February 13, 1942 and received his basic training at Camp Blanding, Fla. He was in active service with the 36th Infantry and was wounded when taken prisoner.

We Like To Talk

Studying the friendly, intelligently-written annual report of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company one can only conclude that Americans are a talkative people. Last year the total income of the New Jersey telephone company was $74,379,930—nearly all derived from talk.

Telephone officials have boasted—as much as the telephone hierarchy ever boasts—that the American telephone system is the most efficient in the world. This, of course, is true, and the management and men and women who give us our telephone service are entitled to full credit for a job well done. But we fear that efficiency has been imposed on them, whether they like it or not, by the urgent demands of Americans as they struggle to express themselves.

The invention of Alexander Graham Bell came to Americans as a gift from on high. Up to that time they had been restricted in their talk to the cracker barrel in the country store, or to the back fence. Under these conditions Americans felt "cribbed, cabined and confined"—inhibited, if that word had been commonly known at the time. But once Mr. Bell (not Don Ameche) had invented his device for projecting the human voice the American came into his own. And those early investors in telephone stock had on their side not only the genius of the great Bell, but the tongue-wagging ability of the American people to make their investments soar.

During the war the Bell Telephone System has poured enormous sums trying to persuade the American people not to talk so much—least over the telephone. Probably for the first time in the history of American business a huge corporation has used virtually its entire advertising appropriation trying to convince the public not to use its goods. But in according to the request of the telephone company, the American people doubtless heightened the strain of war. Not even rationing involved this hardship.

Even under these restrictions telephone conversation has grown. To read the New Jersey telephone company's report one would think that all of us spent all our time on the telephone. And when the bars are down, after the war, it is altogether probable that this nation will enter upon the greatest gabfest in history—all by telephone.

Where Are The Cheers?

Throughout this whole war the American people have acted as if they had their fingers crossed. One reads in history of the outbursts of enthusiasm that greeted American victories in wars of long ago—Dewey at Manila, for instance. But, save for optimistic planning for post-war activity and a little larger type in the headlines, our victories in this war have occasioned no wild surge of enthusiasm or public demonstrations. The Rhine might have been the Passaic.

Moscow, master of propaganda, has taken a different view of victories. The ears of Moscow's citizens must be pierced by the roar of the victory salutes. Stalin thinks good news should be celebrated. He knows it's a tonic for the people. We, on the contrary, look at the headlines, note that the American army has crossed the Rhine, and say nothing. And of course there is no organized demonstration.

Certainly we are no less effervescent than the Russians. On the contrary, the American in many respects is rather an excitable individual, given to making the welkin ring when he receives good news. But so deep-seated is the American's aversion to war, probably, that his thoughts are centered principally on the day when the signal will flash that it's all over. Victories until that final triumph must be taken quietly.

American Generals

Except for the hapless Kimmel and Short, American generals have come through the most grueling of wars with an unusually high reputation. It was not always so. The Civil War saw one Union commander after another busted for his failures. Even the one-round affair in Cuba was sufficiently long to reveal the ineptitude of General Shafter. We got through the war of 1917-18 with no scandals, and in this war our leaders, more than those of any of the other combatant nations, have come through so far unscathed in martial reputation. Let's hope it continues this way, because all of them have done so well thus far that it would be a pity if some late disaster tarnished their fame.

Mother Nature Knows Best

Man has survived through the ages because he is adaptable. But this survival has not been achieved without change in man himself. For better or for worse, we're not the man our first father was.

Until now, however, one organ of the body has remained pretty much the same. That is the human ear. Big or little, flat or flap, it has registered every noise that disturbed the sound waves.

Now, however, it seems scientists have discovered that the ear is changing. It no longer receives all sounds. It has become selective. Once hospitable to every sound, it now rejects those noises offensive to the brain.

The cause of this change, most revolutionary since man abandoned his tail, has been found to reside in that newest of nuisances, the commercial radio announcer. The human race has suffered bores without cease since Jeremiah, but this is the first time anything has been done about it, and in this instance, it seems, only Nature herself could bring relief. Mechanized, given the backing of modern industrial genius, and thrown at Man in mass production, the commercial announcer brought boredom to such a pitch of intensity that Nature recoiled, then changed Man himself to insure his survival.

When we first learned of this we thought the scientists at last had been caught in an error, because it's years since we've heard a commercial announcer. A scientific friend, however, points out that our failure to hear the commercial is proof in itself of the ear's new ability to reject unwanted noise. Had we heard the commercials, it appears, we would still be using an old-fashioned ear, and the neighbors probably would have remarked about it, and we'd have become very self-conscious.

The new ear is a gem. It can turn itself on or off like a kitchen tap. When the first syllable of the commercial comes drooling out of the radio, the new ear closes automatically, not to open again until the commercial has ended. You don't see it close, of course; folding ears probably will come later. The morning-glory ears of the future should be honeys.

Thus the commercial announcer, at first ranked with the Ice Age as one of the great menaces to the survival of the human race, has been surmounted. Commercial announcers will go on, of course, probably until television brings them in all their hideous offensiveness right into our living room; but, for awhile at least, Nature, warden of man's salvation, has outsmarted them. Man triumphantly goes his way, happy in his new-found automatic deafness.

Scientists say that if you're afflicted with a pre-radio ear, the best way to acquire one of the new modern ones is to spend every evening for a week or two listening to the radio. At first the ear will suffer acute pain. Pay no attention to this. It will soon become numb. Then, almost imperceptibly, one will observe the first shoots of the new automatic, turn-off ear. This is the big moment in the life of everyone with a pair of ears. From then on the change is swift.

Try it. More fun than a Victory Garden.

Good News

Governor Edge has announced that he will support a fair employment practices bill for New Jersey similar to that recently passed by the New York Legislature. This is a most constructive move in the fight against those evils of race prejudice which have disgraced our American civilization too long. Every far-minded person will hope that the New Jersey Legislature will give prompt indorsement to Governor Edge's plan. Regardless of race, color or creed, the least that everyone is entitled to is a fair break in earning one's living.

Vernal

Pussywillows are here. A local woman reported the other day that she saw a robin. Then will come the crocuses, a little later the daffodils. Although it usually snows on St. Patrick's Day, we know that at last has come the day "when the hounds of spring are on winter's traces."

Plan Red Cross Home Service Course to Aid Returning Vets

Opportunities for Volunteer Service Grow With Demands On Local Chapter

The increasing number of returning servicemen means new responsibilities for the Belleville Red Cross chapter and increased opportunities for volunteer service, Mrs. Muriel J. Taggart, home service secretary of the Belleville Red Cross Chapter, said today.

To meet this demand, a 50 hour home service course has been prepared, authorized by National headquarters in Washington. The course will consist of 26 class hours, six hours observation and eighteen of field work. Meetings will be arranged in Belleville, at the convenience of the group. Those completing the course will be qualified to wear the corps pin and uniform.

Filing claims for government benefits, giving counsel regarding personal adjustments, assisting servicemen's dependents, are among the Red Cross services for servicemen and veterans which require additional volunteers, Mrs. Taggart explained. In addition, Red Cross home service ranges from answering questions for servicemen's wives regarding allotments and family allowances to forwarding emergency messages to be delivered to fighting men on the Pacific atolls, she said.

"Through the home service program, the Red Cross acts as a 'mind easer' for our fighting men and their families," Mrs. Taggart asserted. "Its functions are as varied as the individual problems, and our home service workers operate 24 hours a day in helping to ease the hardships of war for our servicemen and their folks back home."

Major Functions

The four major functions of home service were described by Mrs. Taggart as:

Communication and information service to fighting men and their families in time of emergency.

Helping facilitate emergency furloughs by reporting on home conditions at the request of commanding officers.

Assistance to servicemen, veterans and their dependents in

Sailor Appreciates Reading Of Home In The Times

From Joseph Fornaiotto, U.S.N.
To the Editor of The Times:

I am writing to let you know that I have been receiving The Belleville Times and appreciate it very much. I guess you don't know how it feels to read about the town you left and to know what's going on.

I met a few fellows from Belleville and I would always save the paper for them and they always enjoyed reading it. I met a fellow here from Greylock avenue who left on a transport and I guess its on its way to the South Pacific.

I'm from 90 Franklin street in Silver Lake. I've been in the Navy for about seventeen months but my only sea duty has been in the Gulf of Mexico and the Atlantic for a few months on a mine layer.

I was stationed in New Orleans for about seven months on the repair base that is where I took my courses for machinist mate. I was later transferred to the commissioning detail in Pascagoula, Miss. I expect to go out to sea anytime now.

I'm getting a leave to come home the ninth of this month. It will be good to be home before shipping out, and to see if Belleville is still the same.

Peck Composes Alma Mater Hymn for BHS, Adopts Another

Belleville High school is well on the way to becoming equipped with suitable songs, due to the recent activity of the music department of the High school of which Samuel A. W. Peck is director.

Mr. Peck, a versatile musician who has studied both here and abroad, has written the words and music for the Alma Mater hymn which was introduced at last Friday's assembly.

He has also adapted the lyrics of a march written by Heywood S. Jones of Bangor, Me., for use by the school and a contest to select a title is now in progress. At the moment, "Spirit of Belleville High" seems to have the edge in title popularity, he said. The band orchestration is complete and it will be part of the band's repertoire in the fall.

The town is also going to have its own song, with original lyrics for the melody of "Beautiful Dreamer," which will probably be called "Pride of Belleville", Mr. Peck stated.

Adelphi Director Honor Guest At Party After Performance

Mrs. W.-D. Clark of Clearman place, director of the Adelphi Players, was given a surprise party following the production of two one-act plays on Friday evening.

The party was in honor of Mrs. Clark's birthday. There was a large birthday cake and about 35 members and friends attended.

The performance under student direction was well attended. Miss Dorothy Carpenter, director of "Our American Girls," was presented with a gift from the cast with which she worked. "We'll Always Remember" was directed by Harry Hageman and his cast gave him a token of appreciation.

Further activities of the group will include an Easter play entitled "The Bearer of the Cross" to be given at the Grace Baptist church on Palm Sunday evening.

Pvt. Lucille M. Constantino, daughter of Mrs. J. J. Constantino of 136 Heckel street, completed the eight weeks' motor transport course at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. This is one of several army specialist training courses that are open to WACs to prepare them better for service as women soldiers.

WAC students in the Motor Transport course learn to drive trucks, "jeeps," staff cars, and other "G.I." vehicles. The mystery of a motor is explored, and changing a tire becomes a five-minute job.

"Black out" driving and convoy driving are part of the course. Motor transport graduates are assigned to work as chauffeurs, bus and truck drivers, and "motor pool" managers at army camps, posts, or stations where WACs are supplementing the forces of the army.

Miss Ethel Maire Rohnstock, 29, of Orange, has been sworn into the Women's Reserve, U. S. Naval Reserve, as an Apprentice Seaman in the enlisted quota of the WAVES.

Daughter of Frederick Rohnstock of 116 Washington avenue, she attended School No. 10 and the High school. She was assistant to the sales manager of the Sherwin-Williams company in Newark before entering the service.

Irving C. Holly, Seaman Second Class, USNR, a resident of Belleville, is now stationed at the Amphibious Training base in Little Creek, Va., where he is preparing for duty aboard an LSM (Landing Ship, Medium).

LSMs are powerful, 208-foot tank carriers which can speed through the vast stretches of the Pacific and roll their way machines directly onto the enemy's shores.

Known as 'the speed carriers of attack,' the LSMs made their invasion debut at Leyte and are now disgorging their tanks and supplies on the Philippine beachheads to support General MacArthur's offensive drive.

Experts in the science of invasion, LSM crews are leaving the Little Creek base in a steady flow to swell the might of the amphibious forces. Holly and his mates will soon take over one of the new landing ships and sail to join the Pacific onslaught.

Holly was employed at a local business concern before he joined the Navy last April. He is a graduate of Belleville High school, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving H. Holly who reside at 56 Holmes street.

William H. Austin, 20, has been promoted from sergeant to staff sergeant at an Eighth Air Force Bomber Station in England. Sgt. Austin is radio operator and waist gunner on a B-17 flying Fortress participating in Eighth Air Force bombing attacks on targets in Nazi Germany.

He is a member of the 34th Bomb. Group, a unit of the Third Air division, the division cited by the President for its now historic England-Africa shuttle bombing of Messerschmitt aircraft plants at Regensburg, Germany.

Sgt. Austin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Austin of 426 Cortlandt street. A 1941 graduate of Belleville High school, the sergeant was employed as a clerk by the Prudential Insurance company in Newark before entering the Army Air Forces in March, 1943.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sinnott of Bloomfield, he was employed by Isolantite corporation in civilian life. He writes that he is well and in the best of spirits and went through the entire battle of Rome without a scratch. He now is enjoying playing baseball, his favorite sport.

1st Lieut. Vincent R. Cortese, son of Mrs. Viola Cortese of Newark, formerly of town, recently arrived at the Big Spring Bombardier school Big Spring, Texas, and has been assigned to duty, Col. Ralph C. Rockwood, commanding officer, has announced.

Commissioned a bombardier at Victorville, Calif., in September 1943, the lieutenant is a veteran of 35 missions in the European theatre.

S 2/c Doris Eleanor Huemer of 179 Cedar Hill avenue will be home tomorrow to spend the weekend. She is stationed at Arlington, Va., with the Bureau of Navy Personnel.

T/Sgt. Louis Evangelista and T/Sgt. Andre Poirier of town have reported to the AAF Redistribution Station No. 1 at Atlantic City.

Sgt. Evangelista served as a crew chief during his thirty months overseas in the African and European theatres. He wears the Legion of Merit award and the Good Conduct ribbon.

Sgt. Evangelista is the son of Salvatore Evangelista of 141 Little street. Entering the service on January 5, 1942, he went overseas on August 6, 1945.

Sgt. Poirier served as an engineer-gunner on a B-25 and engaged in 65 combat missions during his ten months in the European theatre. He wears the Air Medal, and the Presidential Citation. Also the European theatre ribbon for his exploits overseas. Entering the service on January 15, 1943, he underwent training at St. Peterburg, Fla. prior to his shipment overseas on April 8, 1944.

Before they leave the Redistribution Station for their next Air Force assignments, the sergeants will be examined by doctors and interviewed by personnel specialists to determine where they can best fit in the AAF set-up and aid the war effort. While there, they will have an opportunity to go fishing, golfing, horseback riding, bicycling on the boardwalk and indulge in many other sports and recreation activities.

Cpl. Thomas R. Hart, brother of Mrs. J. Kinder of 32 Fairview place, recently arrived at a U. S. Strategic Air Force Station in England, and received a brief orientation course designed to help him adjust himself to life in a combat zone.

GARDEN YOUR VICTORY GARDEN

Varieties and Planning

By Dr. Charles H. Connors, College of Agriculture, Rutgers University.

A good site for your garden is just as important to success in growing vegetables as the sight in a gun is to hitting the target. Ideally, a garden should be on land where water does not stand after a rain, and not too close to trees or buildings.

Tree roots may rob the soil of moisture and plant food even beyond the circumference of the tree's foliage, and the shade from trees and buildings will affect the growth of plants. Leafy crops, such as lettuce and Swiss chard, will develop in partial shade; but vegetables such as tomatoes, beans, peas and peppers will suffer if they do not have exposure to sun practically all day.

A garden plan is essential. First make a list of the vegetables your family likes. Next figure out how much you will need for table use and for canning. With this information, refer to your Victory Garden manual to determine how many feet of row will be needed of each crop to produce enough for your family.

Short Season Crops

Many of the crops you will want to grow are short season crops and may be planted in a narrower row spacing. For example, beets, carrots, spinach, onions and lettuce may be sown in rows fifteen to eighteen inches apart, if the soil is good and if moisture is available. So these may be sown or planted in the rows between longer season crops or a row of any of these may be put between the rows set aside for tomatoes, peppers, eggplant, cabbage and so on.

Locate the tallest crops at the side of the garden where they will not shade their neighbors. Plan for succession plantings. A row of snap beans 25 feet long will produce enough for four people. By planning such a row every 10 days, a continuous supply is assured.

Selection of good varieties is important. Use the list given in the New Jersey Victory Garden manual for 1944. (There will be no issue in 1945, but some of the 1944 are available from the local Victory Garden chairman or from the County Agricultural Extension service.) Some of these varieties are old, but they are dependable.

For example, the tomato varieties recommended are Rutgers and Marglobe, because they are adapted to our conditions and are relatively free from wilt disease. Golden Acre cabbage for early and Danish Ballhead for late are resistant to yellows. If you have room and want to experiment on a small scale with other varieties, well and good; but pin your faith on the recommended sorts.

Lettuce Types

You might try Oak Leaf lettuce for a looseleaf or semi-heading type for the novelty of the leaf form and for its good quality. For head lettuces, try Imperial 347 or 456. Many people who like spinach think Tampala just as good or better, and it yields all summer.

The carrot variety Oxheart, while not so easy to eat out of hand, forms a nice root of good quality in heavy soil. Of the lima beans, Fordhook or Improved Bush are favored, but a good newer variety is Fordhook 242. In Sweet Corn, Golden Cross Bantam, Marcoross 613, Camelcross are all good and resistant to wilt.

If you are planning to have a permanent vegetable garden, you should include asparagus and rhubarb. Mary or Martha Washington asparagus roots one year old, set this spring, may be cut for a few weeks the following spring; but the second year and after, the yield will be around a half pound to the plant.

Good Supply

One hundred feet of row will give a good supply for a small family. The plants are set eighteen inches apart. Special directions for planting should be obtained. Rhubarb is a good spring vegetable for many reasons and three or four plants set four feet apart will usually yield enough for a small family. The recommended variety is MacDonald.

If you have room enough you might also include some strawberries and perhaps raspberries, and a few bushes of currants and gooseberries. Strawberries set two feet apart and allowed to develop a matted row will yield up to a quart to a foot of row one year after setting. A new lot of plants should be set each year. Three or four plants each of currants or gooseberries will yield enough for a small family. These require about four years to come into full bearing.

Next Week: Digging the Soil.

Rejuvenate That Outmoded Dress In The Closet!

Home Extension Agent Will Give Demonstration Monday At Woman's Club

What to do with that "perfectly good" but dated dress in the corner of the closet will be revealed to members of the American Home and Garden departments of the Woman's club on Monday at 2 o'clock when a restyling demonstration will be given by Miss Anna A. Cole, associate Home Demonstration agent of the Essex County Home Economics Extension service.

Mrs. L. G. Cornish, American Home chairman who has arranged the demonstration is also planning a fashion show of Early American costumes from her own collection.

Perhaps "that old look" will disappear with the recutting of sleeves plus the addition of properly placed shoulder pads. Or, a re-fitting session may be the solution. Often a perfectly good dress is discarded because it doesn't feel comfortable or look smart due to poor fitting.

Restyling is not expensive but takes time, careful workmanship, and imagination, Miss Cole points out. She will have an interesting exhibit of restyled garments which are most wearable although they are at least five years old.

In view of the continued need for conservation of clothing as well as the high cost of the ready made article, it is good economy to make the most of the clothes already gracing existing wardrobes.

Lieut. Snyder's Battalion Gets Meritorious Service Plaque

1st Lieut. Richard E. Snyder of 558 Washington Avenue, with the 100th Division of Seventh Army in France, is a member of the 325th Medical Battalion which has been awarded the Meritorious Service unit plaque for its superior performance of duty during its service in France.

The battalion provided medical care and supplies in the division's fighting in the Vosges mountains region of the western front, and the bitter struggle for the hinge of the German-held Maginot Line fortress system at Bitch.

In the 100th Division order commending the battalion and its men, the citation read: "By direction of the President the Meritorious Service Unit Plaque is awarded to the 325th Medical Battalion for superior performance of duty and achievement of a high standard of discipline."

The 100th (Century) division, of which the 325th Medical Battalion is a part, was one of the four divisions praised by Lieut. Gen. Jacob L. Devers, Sixth Army Group commander, for stopping the German counteroffensive on the Seventh Army front in January.

"The battalion's great accomplishments," Gen. Devers' commendation read, "forced the enemy to give up the offensive action on your front. Inflicting great losses to strong elements of three divisions, you have successfully protected an important sector in the Harde Mountains."
