

Two More Firms Over-Subscribe Red Cross Quota

TWO MORE LOCAL INDUSTRIES, New Jersey Sprayed Products company and its affiliate, Belleville laboratories of 250 Mill street and L. Sonneborn and Sons incorporated of Hancox avenue, brought to five this week, the list of those firms which have over-subscribed their quota for the Red Cross War fund by at least twenty percent. At the top above, shown at ceremonies in which representatives of the first concern received the Red Cross flag, are B. Thomas Aitken, local Red Cross chairman, Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald, James Dempster, company president, Miss Helen Dillon and Miss Marjorie Owen, all of town. Below, at the L. Sonneborn presentation are, in the usual order, back row, W. Douglas Clark, drive chairman, Miss Helen Yoni, Miss Elizabeth Yochim and Patsy Colone. In the front row are Philip Dettelbach, Sonneborn general manager, Miss Julia Schapner, Miss Jennie Giardina and Gilbert Wright, the drive's industrial division chairman.

Red Cross War Fund At Two-thirds of Quota

$28,436.68 Subscribed With Two More Local Industries Surpassing Goals

The Red Cross War fund drive enters its last week with two-thirds of its goal of $28,436.68 subscribed on a quota of $43,500.

Two more Belleville industries, the L. Sonneborn Sons company and the New Jersey Spraying Products company with its affiliate the Belleville Laboratories, oversubscribed their quotas by more than twenty percent, and were awarded flags and appropriate testimonials.

This brings to five the number of Belleville industries that over subscribed their quotas, the others being the Bart Laboratories, Llyod Engineering and the Westinghouse Lamp division.

"Through Belleville's War Fund campaign is going well," W. Douglas Clark, drive chairman, said yesterday, "I urge that there be no let-up on the part of the volunteer canvassers or the townspeople." He pointed out that Belleville had always met its quota, but he added that he was anxious to have it topped as quickly as possible.

He said that most Americans are aware of the mighty effort exerted by the Red Cross to make every dollar count in usefulness and humanitarianism. It has been estimated that the Red Cross spends $6 per minute on its overseas activities, but a life saved by the miracle of blood plasma cannot be measured in dollars and cents.

Clark further stated that here in Belleville all of the local chapter committees are planning a full comprehensive program for the current year. A successful War fund campaign will insure the opportunity for the many hundreds of workers to fulfill their several tasks. Since the chapter is the main link of communication between the men in the service and the people at home, this tie must not be broken.

Breakdown of the week's figures shows: industrial — $11,314.70; employee groups — $6,240.48; churches — $80.00; organizations — $630.34; commercial — $321.50; schools — $679.00; benefits — $1187.43; town employees — $130.00; house to house — $7621.23; out of town gifts — $232.00.

All reports are not complete, and all chairmen and house to house canvassers are urged to complete their assignments and bring in their reports this week.

MIELE APPEALS TO ADJUSTMENT BODY AT PUBLIC HEARING

Will Ask Board to Overrule Building Inspector and Grant Permit

John Miele, owner of the fire-razed building on Heckel street which housed the Quality Products company, will appeal to the board of adjustment at a public hearing next Thursday night, to overrule the building inspector in his refusal to issue a building permit and a certificate of occupancy.

Upon request of his attorney, Thomas F. Doyle of Jersey City, the board of adjustment met last Thursday night to set the date of the hearing. Notice of the hearing will be sent this week to all residents living within 200 feet of the property.

Since the board of adjustment has full jurisdiction over the building inspector, it can, if it wishes, overrule him and grant the permit to rebuild. However, a certificate of occupancy cannot be issued until the building has been completed for ten days, and approved by the building inspector.

May Appeal to Supreme Court In the event that the board of adjustment refuses the permit, Miele will apply to Supreme Court Justice Parker for a writ of certiorari. After a review of the action, the Chief Justice can either direct the board of adjustment to issue the permit or uphold their position in refusing it.

Town Attorney Lawrence Keenan has replied to the Chief Justice's writ of mandamus after the first round in court, stating that the building inspector has denied the permit to build and had denied it previous to receipt of the writ from the Supreme Court.

The board of commissioners has also amended the zoning ordinance to prohibit various types of industries including rag cleaning, the business engaged in by Miele's tenant, the Quality Products company. This followed petitions by residents of Silver Lake against the permit and certificate of occupancy since they declared the tenant's business is a fire hazard.

BELLEVILLE MAN KILLED ON LUZON

Edmund Sadlock Was Promoted to Rank of First Lieutenant Posthumously

Word has been received that 1st Lieut Edmund M. Sadlock, 28, of 25 Adelaide street, was killed in action on Luzon on February 19th. His wife, the former Miss Marion Clarkson, received the official War Department notice on Monday.

Lieut. Sadlock enlisted in the army in January, 1941, and was commissioned a second lieutenant at Fort Benning, Ga., in January, 1942. He went overseas in September, 1943, three months before his son Edmund was born. At the time of his death, he was serving with the 38th Infantry Division. He was the holder of the Combat Infantryman's Badge, and had seen action in Hawaii and New Guinea before seeing the Philippines. He was promoted to first lieutenant posthumously.

Lieut. Sadlock lived in Belleville since 1931, attended Belleville High school, where he was a four letter man in sports, and then went to Ryder College. Prior to entering the service, he was a teacher and H-Y adviser at Bloomfield High school, and also assisted in the Guidance department.

He is the son of John Sadlock and the late Mrs. Sadlock of Garfield. He leaves four brothers, Emil of Garfield, Peter of New Orleans, Theodore with the Navy in the Pacific, and George of 209 Overlook avenue, Belleville; and three sisters, Mrs. Anna Klorus, Mrs. Mary Malenda and Mrs. Olga Hudak, all of Garfield.

PRINCIPALS GET 5 PERCENT BONUS

School Board Votes to Avoid 'Discrimination'; Teachers Now Receiving It

A five percent bonus as provided under state law, was voted to principals in the Belleville school system at the board of education meeting on Monday night.

The bonus is based on a maximum of $3,000 and is allowable to principals receiving up to $5,000 annually. It will be retroactive to the beginning of the school year and was granted because the teachers were voted a bonus in December. At that time both teachers and principals received an increment and the latest action has been taken to eliminate possible "discrimination."

The bonus system was begun during 1943-44 to compensate for the higher cost of living which had not been met by a proportionate increase in salary.

PLAN COLLECTION OF USED CLOTHES FOR APRIL DRIVE

Organizations Will Send Delegates to Monday's Meeting To Chart Campaign

In an effort to unearth Belleville's share of the 86,000,000 pounds of usable clothing which OPA authorities have estimated hang unworn in the closets of the nation, a committee will form Monday evening in Town Hall council chambers.

A meeting of representatives of all organizations with acting chairman Rev. Peter R. Deckenbach will be held at 8 o'clock. The mechanics of collecting Belleville's usable clothing for the United National clothing collection under the auspices of UNRA will be then set up.

Henry J. Kaiser of shipbuilding fame heads the collection in this country for the United Nations Rehabilitation and Relief administration.

Defense Coordinator Ronald G. Brunner said yesterday that all churches, labor organizations, schools, women's clubs, PTA associations, veterans' clubs and business men will be contacted by letter to insure a well rounded attendance Monday evening. Merchants have already been asked to reserve clean cartons for packing assignments of 100 pounds of clothing although the method of delivery to UNRA has not yet been decided upon.

Manufacturers Can't Do It

Mr. Brunner pointed out that United States manufacturers of clothing, hampered as they are by war contracts for military uniforms and limited in supplies for the manufacture of civilian garments, are in no position to supply UNRA with wearing apparel for the people of war torn countries. The clothing not being used in American homes will form the backbone of a supply for the unfortunate victims of war.

Although all kinds of outer and under garments for men, women and children will be needed there are certain items which should not be contributed, such as hats, neckties or frail bedroom slippers.

Yard goods will gladly be accepted as will bed clothes, blankets and shoes. These should be low heeled, however.

Means of collection and distribution centers will be announced promptly by the committee.

Elks-Craftsmen Bowling Match Scheduled for Saturday at 8

The benefit Red Cross bowling match previously announced for 8:30 Saturday evening in the Elks' alleys will be played at 8 o'clock. Elks and Belleville Craftsmen will compete in games arranged by Thomas McNair and Roy Dickinson.

Tickets may be obtained from members of either club or at Red Cross headquarters, 358 Washington avenue.

High School Football In Stadium At Last

Board Passes Emergency Measure For Immediate Work On Field To Be Ready In Fall

After four years of little use and spasmodic disputes over its control, work is to be started immediately on the Municipal Stadium which will finally become the permanent field for high school football games beginning this fall.

The board of commissioners meeting in special session Tuesday noon, passed a resolution for an emergency appropriation of $3,500 for the work, after Mayor and Revenue and Finance Director Williams received permission from Local Government Commissioner Darby for the move.

Agreement between the athletic council and the board of commissioners was reached a month ago when the Mayor, Parks and Public Property Director Nell Recreation Director Lister and Matthew Sheehan, town engineer, estimated that the work could be done at town expense for about $8,000. At that time, Paul Brennan, manager of athletics, Frank Spotts, baseball coach and William Chapman, football coach, were named as a committee to work with Sheehan on the project.

However, with excavation work currently being done by the Naples Excavating company of Passaic, on the outskirts of town, it was discovered that the fill needed at the stadium could be obtained for the price of cartage, thus halving the originally estimated cost. For this reason, the emergency appropriation was put through, to avoid the delays of advertising for bids which also could be expected to be near the original figure.

The contractor will remove the top soil, fill in with 2,000 cubic yards of dirt, replace six inches of top soil, seed, roll, grade and maintain the grounds until the first mowing. This will cost $2,184 and the remainder of the appropriation will be spent for fencing the grounds and painting.

Levels Ground The fill will raise the field six or eight inches in some places, Commissioner Noll said yesterday. An additional 1,800 cubic yards will also be used to fill in the northwest side of the field which will be fenced in to allow a good, heavy turf to take hold. The High school football team will continue to use Clearman field for practice sessions, Noll said, but will move over to the stadium for regular games.

School Board Supports New Program Pledge

Yep, Spring is in the Air

Spring is an insidious season, and had a baleful effect on three of Belleville's nine-year olds Monday.

They were reported missing at the Police station at 3:45 in the afternoon by frantic parents, and it was only at 8:19 that evening that they were discovered in Montclair by the Montclair police, having already roamed far from their native haunts.

Still somewhat impenitent, they were returned by local officers Smith and Donnelly to their homes. Two of them resided on Academy street, and the third on Cedar Hill avenue.

HANDLON'S JOB STILL A BIG ?

"Nobody" Knows If Mayor Will Attempt to Oust Him; Other Proposals Pending

No verification could be established this week on whether Mayor Williams will introduce a measure at Tuesday night's meeting to oust Recorder Clerk Fred Handlon from the position he has held for the past twelve years. The Mayor was non-committal yesterday and Judge Everett B. Smith had no comment to make when reached last night. A conference between the three on the proposed ousting was expected last week.

Although the Mayor's proposals for the improvement of the police department are scheduled for introduction in an ordinance Tuesday, it was not known yesterday whether the necessary work in preparation would be finished in time for the meeting. In the event that it is not, it is expected that the ordinance and possible other resolutions will be introduced at the next regular meeting which will follow in two weeks.

Chief among the proposals which will be voted on, are competitive examinations, based on civil service or the New Jersey State Police Chief Association examinations for both police and firemen, with both appointments and promotions to be made only by the majority approval of the board of commissioners; a probationary period of one year for chancemen and officers; decrease from eight to four years in the time it would take to reach maximum pay.

A program for the appointment of disabled veterans of World War II to special school duty at a daily wage of $5 is also included in the proposals. It would provide a basic wage of $1,000 annually, with priority on policing special events and an opportunity for those physically fit, to compete for advancement as members of the regular police force.

Complete Board On All Committees For Maximum Cooperation In Larger Program

Action taken at the first board of education meeting under its new president, Joseph Arnold, shows steps toward the "progressive and forward looking" program he promised when he took office last month. A new policy of using the full board as members of all committees, was introduced in a resolution by Mrs. Homer Zink, along with a new alignment of committee heads appointed by Arnold; appropriations of nearly $3,000 were approved for the music department for band instruments and music; a 5% bonus was voted for school principals, and major improvements for School No. 10 were filed.

Mrs. Zink's resolution has as its stated objective, "the development of the maximum cooperation and the creation of the greatest mutual understanding of all committee problems and the further development of mutual confidence in the action and motives of all board members, the result of which will be the most efficient management of the educational program of our town." It also included the provision that copies of all communications, letters or recommendations mailed or sent to the board be mailed to all members.

New Line-up

Arnold's appointment of committee heads indicates a new line-up giving Mrs. Zink, Walter Gilby and himself chairmanship of some of the more important committees. Mrs. Zink replaces Charles Gebhardt as head of the teachers committee; Gilby remains chairman of building and grounds; Herbert Schmutz, former board president, replaces Arnold on finance; Arnold replaces Schmutz on textbook and supplies; Mrs. Zink remains health; Gebhardt remains legislation and replaces Arnold on transportation. Arnold replaces Gebhardt on the General Council.

It will be remembered that the organization meeting last month, Mrs. Zink was elected for president, a position held by Gilby, for a number of years.

Gebhardt nominated Schmutz did not receive a second round of votes. Gebhardt had been board president for seven years.

Provision for the reorganization of the High school band made after requests from Samuel A. W. Peck, new director of music in the school system. The sum of $2,500 was voted for the purchase of additional band instruments. $475 was earmarked for music for the Glee clubs and band and $359 for the reconditioning of the band instruments now owned by the school.

BHS Music Room

In addition, a music room will be provided in the High school with alterations and sound-proofing in Room 202 and the request for a teacher of instruments in the grade schools was tabled for further consideration with the recommendation that action be taken before the next school year.

Peck and Burt Johnson, High school principal, appeared before the board to outline the proposed enlarged music program. Peck pointed out that the band was dropped last year because of lack of interested students. He proposed that instrumental music be started in the grammar schools so that a continuation of players will be available as they reach the High school. All of his requests were granted immediately with the exception of the grade school teacher.

Twenty-four treasury representatives from Belleville and Nutley will meet with Charles Roh, county chairman of the war "home committee" on April 3 at the Forest Hill Field club to discuss the proposed change in the method of estimating bond quotas for industries. It is expected that Belleville's quota will be announced at this meeting which will also be attended by Harry Murphy, deputy administrator of the state war finance committee.

It is understood that the month of April will be used to set up increased payroll deductions for E bonds and extra bonds for industries, with the regular household canvass beginning in May.

Miss Helen Stanley, Red Cross Automobile worker who completed eighteen months of overseas service last November and has lectured extensively since, will appear Sunday morning at 9:30 in Masonic Temple before Everyman's Bible class.

All Belleville men are invited to join the audience. George Newman is in charge of the program.

Miss Stanley's clubmobile was first stationed with troops in North Africa and afterward followed them through the shattered villages of Italy under almost constant shell fire. She was attached to Army supply headquarters, special service groups and an armored regiment.

Frank D. Haight, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Haight of 226 Hornblower avenue, has left for Pensacola N. A. S. in Florida after a two weeks leave. He was recently promoted to Aviation Machinist's Mate 3rd class. He is 19 and has been in the Navy 18 months.

Pvt. Irwin L. Watt, son of Mrs. Sallie Watt of 156 Stephen street, is a member of the 387th Engineer Battalion which recently has been operating in the Serchio valley near the Po plains of Italy. The outfit has been repairing military highways feeding the Fifth army front.

The 387th has found itself involved in many a sideline, such as operating a sawmill and a rock quarry, harvesting crops, building fields and docks, laying oil pipes and constructing camps.

The unit landed on D Day on the Anzio beachhead, and has never been far from the combat area since that time. Lieut. Col. John T. Ortino of Seneca Falls, N. Y. is the commanding officer of the battalion.

Two Belleville men, Pvt. Andrew T. Minton, son of Mrs. May Minton of 326 Franklin avenue, and Pfc. Robert E. Madden, whose wife, Joan, lives at 446 Washington avenue, are listed among the members of the 506th Parachute infantry regiment, a part of the 101st Airborne Division, which became famous at Bastogne. This infantry regiment also played a major role in the Normandy and Holland campaigns, liberating Carenton and Eindhoven.

Sgt. Frank H. McKee, 45, has arrived at Army Air Forces Redistribution station No. 2 in Miami Beach, Fla. for reassignment processing after completing a tour of duty outside the continental United States. He will remain at the redistribution station about two weeks, much of which will be devoted to rest and recreation.

Sgt. McKee was a fighter plane mechanic in the Asiatic Pacific theater. He is the husband of Jane McKee of New Castle, Pa., and formerly resided at 92 Tappan avenue.

Sgt. Frank Fankin Jr Receives Air Medal in France

For meritorious service in aerial combat against Germany, Sgt. Frank L. Rankin Jr has been awarded the Air Medal. He is an aerial gunner in a Ninth Air Force light bombardment group in France.

His unit, the 410th Light Bombardment group, played an important role in the tactical air operations which helped defeat the Germans in the "Battle of the Bulge."

Operating in direct cooperation with the Allied armies, the 410th has dealt crippling blows against Nazi supply lines and communication centers just behind the German lines — harassing the enemy and blocking his movement of supplies and reinforcements to the front.

Before entering the Army in March, 1943, Sgt. Rankin was employed by the Tube Reducing corporation at Wellington. His wife, Mrs. Anne A. Rankin resides at 18 Hornblower avenue.

Lieut. McGreevy Parachutes To Safety Over Italy

Lieut. Joseph F. McGreevy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. McGreevy of 15 Cleveland street, was forced to trust to his parachute when the plane in which he was a bombardier, a Liberator named "Ugly but Tough", was riddled by flak while on a mission against refineries in Austria.

The story appeared in the January 14 issue of Sortie, official publication of the 15th Air Force. It told how the rudderless plane, with pilot and waist-gunner dead, was maneuvered by the co-pilot toward Italy. McGreevy salvaged the bomb load, and when they reached Italy, the survivors jumped and landed safely.

Water Purifying Machines

CHLORINATORS PRODUCED by Wallace and Tiernan company of town shown ready for trip by air to Manila after passing Army inspection in test booth. Ordered on top priority rating by Army Engineers, the water purification machines are now being used for Manila's water supply partially destroyed by the fleeing Jap forces.

W & T Chlorinators Flown To Liberated Manila

Completed in Record time to Protect Crippled Water Supply, Prevent Epidemics

While U. S. Army troops under Gen. Douglas MacArthur were still fighting the Japs in the streets of Manila, special chlorination equipment for the battle-torn city's vital water supply was ordered on a top priority for shipment by plane and was rushed to completion in record time by workers at the Wallace and Tiernan company plant in town, William J. Orchard, general manager, announced yesterday.

Under the direction of Col. E. W. Garbisch, district engineer, Maj. O. H. Kolloch, contracting officer, and their staffs, the two automatic chlorinators were produced and turned over to the New York district of the U. S. Army Engineers for rush shipment to the Army Transport Command for delivery to Manila by air.

It is presumed that retreating Jap forces destroyed at least parts of Manila's municipal water system since it would have held a high place on their demolition schedule. Neither troops nor civilians can exist long without an adequate potable water supply. Water borne disease such as typhoid, dysentery and cholera from untreated water supply can quickly decimate an entire city. Because of the lag in time between the infection and outbreak of these diseases, every possible precaution must be taken to prevent the development of an epidemic.

There are cases on record where battles, and even campaigns, have been lost because of water borne disease rather than enemy action. Adequate chlorination, together with other treatment, as practiced by most cities in the United States, is recognized as the only practical method of assuring a safe water supply.

Military Equipment Not Suitable

The United States Army carries with it a great variety of water purification equipment designated to meet every possible emergency. Wallace and Tiernan manufacture a great part of this equipment and most of it is procured under the direction of the New York District Engineer office. This equipment, however, is designed for portability and use by troops in the field; therefore it is not suitable for a large municipal water supply such as that in Manila.

Before Japanese occupation the water supply at Manila, serving a population of over 625,000, included a modern filtration plant adequately protected by several Wallace and Tiernan chlorinators. In addition, Wallace and Tiernan chlorinating equipment protected the water supplies at the Cavite Naval base, Camp John Hay and Fort Staterberg as well as at many other points in the Philippines. It is probable that much of this equipment will be rehabilitated by Army engineers, and in addition to the two modern automatic chlorinators just rushed to Manila, will further aid in assuring freedom from water borne disease in liberated Manila.

Col. E. W. Garbisch, district engineer of the New York District, U. S. Army Engineers, is the man responsible for procurement on schedule of a large part of the Army water supply equipment which is used by our troops and our Allies on every fighting front.

Only Cheerful Letters to Men In Service, St. Peter's CYO Told

At the Communion breakfast held at the Hotel Sheraton last Sunday, the CYO group from St. Peter's church heard a talk on activities in the South Pacific when Lieut. Comm. John J. Feeley Navy chaplain, spoke on the morale of the men in the services. He urged all to avoid anything which would cause a man in service to be more homesick than he is and to write cheerful letters only. From his experience in base hospitals, he said that gloomy letters are quite hard to overcome.

Vincent Slavin gave a few accounts of experiences in newspaper work and Monsignor McNulty, Archdiocesan Director of the CYO also spoke briefly. Twenty-two parishes were represented at the breakfast.

March 11 was "Foster Field Day" by proclamation of Gov. Coke Stevenson. Foster Field graduated its 35th and last class to become the only installation in the AAF Central Flying Training Command to train more than 35 classes of fledgling pilots in the advanced single-engine airplane. Foster Field will now become an AAF fighter gunnery school and a P-40 transition and gunnery school.

Nine Veterans Form Nucleus of B. H. S. Baseball Squad

Jamboree With Bears Manager And Yank Players Starts Off 15-Game Season

Last year Belleville high had its first baseball team, and though it was not too successful, there are nine veterans returning this year, giving the Bellboys high hopes.

The entire team will be practicing within a week but so far only a few veterans and newcomers have been limbering up under direction of Frank Spotts, the baseball coach.

To encourage interest in baseball, the board of education organized a baseball jamboree on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 13 and 14. The audience, composed of over 400 boys from the elementary and high schools, saw a film each day on footwork and other fine points of the game. Wednesday, however, brought the feature attraction of the jamboree — the presentation to the audience of Al Mamaux, former manager of the Newark Bears, and ex-major leaguer with Pittsburgh, New York and Brooklyn, and Hank Borowy, former Fordham star now with the New York Yankees. Both men spoke of their experience in baseball, and gave demonstrations on playing different positions.

Forecasting the probable lineup, the pitching and catching positions will be held by veterans from last year, the pitchers Pat Raccioppa, mainstay of the squad; Herman Lubertazza, a freshman sensation last year, and Al Forcella. The catchers are Tony Greco, first stringer, and the team's best hitter, who caught most of the games, and Joe Costello.

Infield Strong
The infield should be strong enough to hold its own, with veterans Frank Takash, Vic Pasquariello, Frank Papisidero, Jim Di Ruggiero and Don Smith returning. The outfield can count on Harry Roessler as its mainstay.

There are four members from the junior varsity who show promise, Pat Passamanti, Vic Natale, infielder Owen MacMahon and outfielder Roy Hunt. A newcomer in town is freshman Lou Vitelli, a pitcher.

The club will have as guests for this meeting, the Men's club of Grace Baptist church. It is hoped that the men of both clubs and their friends will make a large attendance. There will be games and refreshments.

Junior Red Cross Receives Gift Boxes From Ecuador

On Display, They are Typical Of Exchange Among Juniors, International Aid

The gift articles now on display at Sears, Roebuck company from the Junior Red Cross of Ecuador point out a little-known but vital program of the Belleville Red Cross chapter.

The home-made articles sent to the Junior Red Cross are in return for many such things sent to Latin-American countries by children of this country. Since Belleville "Junior Red Crossers" helped fill many such gifts boxes, this particular consignment from Ecuador is in token of appreciation.

The articles are interesting and reflect the art and ingenuity of South American children. There are miniature vases, urns and other pottery ware. The coloring used is typical of that used by our hemisphere neighbors. After this window display has been ended, the articles will be sent to the Free Public Library, where they may be viewed again.

Mrs. William H. Williams, chairman of the Belleville chapter's Junior Red Cross committee, made an encouraging report at the annual meeting. She and her vice-chairmen, Mrs. Vera Eskholme, Miss Margaret Patton, Miss Stacy Yaskell, and Miss Evelyn Pozzo, report a 100 percent enrollment in all the schools in town.

This enables them to take part in the comprehensive national program, which is a counter-part of that of the chapter itself. However, some branches of its work are especially adapted to the needs of children.

Support National Fund
One of the most important is support of the National Children's fund, which is used to meet emergency needs of children throughout the world. With millions of children uprooted from their homes in devastated, war-torn areas, this gesture of help from America assures them of the desire of American children to be humane and considerate. Belleville's Junior Red Cross contributed over $500 during 1944.

Besides this, the Junior Red Cross made many contributions of articles for overseas shipment. It helps enliven the Christmas spirit at Veterans' hospitals in this area, and also donated toys,

Three Stationed in Aleutians Meet Weekly to Read The Times

F 1/c George A. Fitzsimmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fitzsimmons of 590 Washington avenue had a pleasant surprise recently when he met two Belleville men, the first he has encountered since his assignment to a Naval base in the Aleutians last August.

They were Ensign Nicholas Burde of 570 Union avenue and J. Sasso of 503 Joralemon street. The weekly arrival of The Belleville Times calls for a meeting of the three men.

Fitzsimmons entered the Navy December, 1943 and trained at Newport, R. I. He graduated from the Machinist's Mate school in Dearborn, Mich., in June, 1944, and from there was sent to San Francisco, Calif., to await transportation to his present post. Ensign Burde's wife, Mary, resides at 570 Union avenue, and Sasso is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sasso of 503 Joralemon street.

books and games for the isolation and Crippled Children's hospitals. The Juniors also assist in some of the projects of the Production Corps.

The Junior Red Cross has a council of teacher and lay members who assist in this program. Those in the teacher group are Miss Lillian Eicher, Miss Maude S. Miller, Mrs. Eskholme, Miss Pozzo, Mrs. Marion Hershey, Miss Linnea Andree, Mrs. Phyllis Cuppario, Miss Agnes B. Culklin, Miss Louise Bergman, Miss Patton and Sister Justina. The lay members are Charles Young, Mrs. Albert Peppie, Mrs. Angeline Stagliano, Mrs. Joseph Salmon, and Mrs. John T. Riley.

ADELPHI PLAYERS PRESENT DRAMA

"Bearer of the Cross" Will Be Given Easter Sunday Evening At Grace Baptist

"The Bearer of the Cross," a religious drama, will be presented by the Adelphi Players on Easter Sunday evening at the Grace Baptist church social hall at 8 o'clock. The action of the drama takes place in the home of Simon of Cyrenia and his wife Eunice. The characters will be depicted by Harry Hageman as Simon and Sonya Madlens as Eunice. The play centers on the first "Good Friday." Others in the cast are Helen Rath, Donald Clark, Charles Bumpus and Lois Howells.

Lorena Clark, Adelphi Players liester, will direct this performance. Harry Tice will be in charge of stage and lighting effects assisted by Rev. Marshall Whitehead.

At a recent meeting plans were made for an evening's entertainment for the benefit of the Service Boys' Fund and the annual spring production to take place some time in May. One of the most recent productions, "We'll Always Remember," directed by Harry Hageman, was repeated last Wednesday evening at the Baptist Home for the Aged in Newark.

Nursing On The Home Front

The desperate plea for more nurses to take care of the wounded will result in a serious curtailment of professional nursing service in the homes of our nation unless civilians are prepared to give intelligent care to the members of their own families at home.

Basil O'Conner, chairman of the American Red Cross has appealed to every home to prepare at least one person for emergency illness by enrollment in one of the Red Cross Home Nursing courses. In case of an epidemic even more people should be prepared to help out in their neighborhoods.

Total warfare has taught the American people to be self-reliant. Home nursing, valuable at any time, is vital today when doctors and nurses for civilians are rationed.

A new twenty-hour course taking ten weeks, is now being formed by the local chapter, Mrs. Charles Yocum, home nursing chairman, has announced. It teaches basic nursing procedures most used in caring for the sick. If you have not had the Red Cross Home Nursing course or its equivalent, see your local chapter today about enrolling. It is not only a patriotic duty. It is a valuable opportunity to learn simple nursing skills by practicing them under the supervision of a professional nurse.

Curfew Shall Not Ring

When Mayor La Guardia decided that New York City was a special case and that night clubs could remain open until one o'clock in the morning, he did not do the American nation a service. It has been difficult enough to rouse the people to full consciousness of the war, and to have a national emergency measure ignored at the first opportunity makes the whole curfew proceedings seem a little silly.

The original purpose of the curfew measure was to preserve fuel, and not to curtail entertainment. The howl that went up when it was passed would have made a wonderful secret weapon if it could have been recorded and then rebroadcast by a public address system at the front. The Germans would have thought that it was the crack of doom approaching. The reaction to the measure furnished a curious commentary on the American people. Apparently entertainment is more important than fuel. There was talk of unemployment because of the measure, and all the while Congress was debating on the "Work or Fight" bill. There is certainly something incongruous about the whole thing.

The curfew is the last of a whole series of measures designed to aid the country in the prosecution of the war. It should be borne in upon the people that this war is as much our war as it is Britain's and Russia's. To win a war, a nation must make sacrifices, not only in men and materials, but also by a readjustment of the whole way of life. If to win the war it is necessary that we stay home nights, that should not be too hard.

Wars generally bring to a nation a new consciousness of its own powers and qualities and defects. This war is bringing us none of these, but simply a new series of problems, simply because any sacrifice demanded receives only a lukewarm response. It is not a question of money, for we have always been a generous nation. It is a question of time. Civilian Defense organizations had trouble finding members, and air raid rehearsals would usually find a certain number of wardens elsewhere. Now, by a curious reverse twist, we are asked to remain away from places, or simply to restrict our time there, and the net result has been the usual crowding of night clubs, with the curious spectacle of people on the sidewalk at midnight, wondering what to do with themselves. The idea that they might go home does not always occur to them, and yet soldiers fight in the hope that they will soon be able to return home.

Soldier morale in our army is generally good, but the boys get homesick every now and then. In the light of what has been happening over here, there is some reason to believe that perhaps they haven't much to be homesick about.

Importance Of Price Control

The district offices of the OPA and the local war price and rationing board have been endeavoring to recruit members of the Office of Civilian Defense for Community Service panels. At a meeting of Belleville and Nutley members of the local panels Tuesday night, it was explained that the work of these panels consists in informing the public, by educational and promotional work in groups, schools and organizations, of the meaning of rationing and controlling of prices. The purpose is to rally the people behind OPA.

Rationing and price control have been endured by the American people, but not accepted fully as the American way of life in time of war. We find ourselves in the unique position of eating our cake and almost having it too. Rationing here has never reached the stringent levels of England or the occupied countries, and so we find it difficult to imagine what would happen if there were no control of essential items.

Let us imagine for a moment that there is no control in prices. Mrs. American Housewife goes to the market for a few choice items. Here is what she is offered. Butter is $6 a pound, bacon and pork $3.60 a pound, beef $3 a pound, tea $60 a pound, coffee $25 a pound, and a 20-pound ham would run around $125.

Naturally our prices will never reach this level, but even a pale shadow of these prices would raise hob with our national economy. People in France and Belgium paid such amounts because all rationing was in the hands of unscrupulous men who were not averse to organizing a black market and using it for their own enrichment. In studying the above figures, one must remember that essential items were not always scarce, but were often deliberately withheld from the public until a maximum price could be reached. If there were no price control in this country, the same thing would happen here.

The whole United States is a little bloated with money. Salaries have been high, and government propaganda and the lack of luxury items on the market have made people save their money. Yet there is a desire on the part of many to go on a spree of spending, and what is even worse, many have been tempting honest dealers by offering far in excess of what articles are worth, simply because they have gone beyond their ration, and feel deprived of the standard of living they had before the war.

If such an attitude becomes general, the OPA will be powerless to stop prices from rising. The breaking down of price controls will mean the organization of a general black market, and Mrs. Housewife can then be prepared to spend and spend and spend.

General Patton

Even if he hadn't done anything else to merit the country's gratitude, the wisdom of General Eisenhower in retaining General Patton after the soldier-slapping incident should place his countrymen forever in his debt. At the time of the unfortunate outburst, General Patton was the only general in this country who shouted for the doctory general's head. While Patton's action of course was deplorable, General Eisenhower kept his eye on the ball and refused to be deflected from his great objective—defeating Germany. He knew from experience that Patton would be a powerful instrument in achieving that objective, so he kept him on. Since then Patton has more than justified the confidence his chief placed in him: and he is rapidly carving for himself a niche in American military history alongside that other American general whom he closely resembles in his tactics, Stonewall Jackson.

Spring Fever, 1945

This is the third editorial we have written on spring. The others, for one reason or another, were crowded out. Meanwhile our lilies are up, the trees are beginning to bud, a robin has appeared on our lawn, and our mind is filled with longing for the days when the spring training news used to trickle north from the baseball training camps in the south. Those were the days when a hold-out, left fielder was important news. Today the news comes Germany, from Iwo Jima, from the Philippines, from the skies and the oceans. Holdouts, left fielders, baseball, even spring itself—all are unimportant beside the awful fact of war.

Plan Two-week Camping For Girl Scouts at Cabin

Season Begins July 2 for Twelve-Week Period; Enroll April 15

Preliminary announcement of the Girl Scout summer camping program at South Mountain reservation was made by Mrs. Victor Hart, camping chairman, after a meeting Tuesday afternoon with her committee in Washington avenue headquarters.

Kin-ls-spec, Belleville's Girl Scout cabin in the reservation, was used mainly for weekend or day trips for many years and was restored to a full camping site in 1943 when repairs and alterations were made to the cabin.

Seventy-five girls were in camp that summer. Last year a five day camping period was conducted each week under the direction of Mrs. Percy Karrer of 190 Overlook avenue. Weekends were not included.

July 2 is the date set for opening camp this summer. Scouts will be asked to sign up for two week periods since the council has decided that true benefits of camping experience cannot be gained in a shorter period.

Miss Elizabeth Dardargy, scout executive, will be resident camp director; assistants will be appointed. Twenty-two girls can be accommodated for each of the four periods which will continue until August 27.

Registration April 15

Registration through troop leaders or at Girl Scout headquarters, 400 Washington avenue will be conducted from April 15 to June 1. Headquarters will be opened for that purpose Saturdays from 9 until 1. Health cards and registration cards were planned by the committee this week.

In general, scouts must have their parents' consent and must be examined by a physician within a week before departure for camp. Two red ration stamps, four blue stamps and two pounds of sugar will be required of each camper.

Apparel and bed clothes must include three to five woolen blankets, four sheets, two pillow cases and a pillow, if desired; two bath and two face towels and two washcloths, tooth brush and powder and soap.

Girls will take playsuits and slacks for daily wear, heavy sweaters, bathing suit, two pairs of shoes (sandals not permitted), raincoat and boots or goshaws, warm pajamas. All scouts who have uniforms are required to include them.

Camping periods will extend from Monday morning to Monday morning. Bus transportation will be included in the registration fee of $5. Total cost of the two week period will be $20.

The first two weeks in July will be set aside for scouts of intermediate troops aged ten to twelve; second two weeks will be reserved for Brownies; third period for intermediate scouts between the ages of twelve and fourteen and final period for senior scouts.

Mrs. Sidney Birks, assistant leader of Troop 7 at Pewsmith church, has helped to organize cooking classes which got under way three weeks ago for 22 members of that troop. Instruction is given in their homes by four mothers of troop members, Mrs. Herbert Orth, Mrs. Arthur Wilson, Mrs. Ward Lay and Mrs. Irving Garson.

The girls will be hostesses to troop committee members at the conclusion of the ten week course.

A COMPARISON FROM THE 1944 ANNUAL REPORT OF

OPA APPOINTS VET ADVISOR

Inaugurates Program to Assist Returning Servicemen With Problems

Inaugurating a program to assist discharged veterans of the war who are reentering business, District OPA Director Richard J. Tarrant today announced appointment of Charles S. Pemburn, World War I veteran and member of the Area Rent Office staff here, as District OPA Veterans' Relations Adviser.

Pemburn will work with a committee composed of a World War veteran from the prior and rationing divisions to handle and expedite all applications and other matters relating to discharged veterans of this war.

Under the program devised by the National office, in line with the spirit of the GI Bill of Rights, Tarrant explained, "it will be our purpose to do everything possible to assist veterans in going into business, or to have problems and difficulties under any of our programs, because of his work with veterans organizations, I believe Mr. Pemburn will make our service to veterans an effective and useful program of assistance."

Similar volunteer Veterans Adviser, Tarrant said, will be appointed by the chairman in each of the 65 North Jersey War Price Rationing Boards. Meanwhile, the board chairman and chief clerk in each board will personally handle all business affecting veterans to assure prompt processing.

Provides For Appeals

The program also provides an appeal procedure for veterans who may be dissatisfied with the position of their cases. A Regional OPA committee will handle the appeals.

Pemburn, who has been a rent officer in the area rent office since October 1942, served the Eleventh Engineers in France from July 1917 until 1919. This regiment was sent to the Cambrai section on September 30, 1917, when the engineers dropped their tools and picked up weapons to hold back German advance. Pemburn was a Sergeant Major during the war. He was also editor of Foreign Service and correspondent for Stars and Stripes, a soldier publication of that time.

In 1934 he resigned his position as promotional man for the New York American, to become staff editor in the field division of F.H.A. Two years later he was appointed director of the New York division of that agency. He has also been very active in veteran organization affairs, serving as national chief of VFW from 1920 to 1922. Governor Alfred E. Smith appointed him as director of the N. Y. State Commission, Adjutant General's office, in 1923. He also served as field director of the American Flag association in Governor Smith's behalf.

At present he is a member of American Legion, Commander of the Post 1743, VFW, 1144, and deputy inspector General of the State VFW. He holds membership in the Eleventh Engineers association, and the Old Guard.

Fuel Oil Users Should Have 18% of Ration Remaining

Fuel oil consumers should have eighteen percent of their rations left to carry them through the balance of the heating season, and to supply hot water during the summer. This was announced today by District OPA Director Richard J. Tarrant.

Following recommendations made last week by the District OPA Fuel Oil Industry Advisory Committee Tarrant said he has transmitted to the regional OPA office a request that nation coupons for the 1945-46 heating season be distributed as early as possible this summer, and that consumers be urged to fill household tanks immediately thereafter.

The committee warned last week that it expects the end of the war in Europe will not alleviate, and may aggravate, the tight supply situation. Tankers, they pointed out, will undoubtedly be switched to the Pacific.

GOOD RESPONSE ON SERVICE BALLOTS

Town Clerk Pleased With Results so Far; Urges Early Returns by all

Town Clerk Florence Morey is pleased at the response to the ballot cards sent out recently to the home addresses of all men and women in the services. The cards have been pouring in, and though no count has yet been taken, it is estimated that Belleville's representation in the armed services will be around 3,000.

They were sent out to obtain the addresses of all those in the service, so that military ballots may be sent for the primary election which takes place in June. This information must be filed by her 65 days before the election.

Recipients are urged to fill out and return these cards at the earliest possible date. The full name of the military voter and his or her complete address, such as would be used on a letter addressed to them in their present service, should be given.

A new law provides that every one serving in the Army, Navy, Marines, Merchant Marine, U. S. O., Red Cross, Society of Friends, Vets, etc. away from home is eligible to receive a service ballot. This law also includes any discharged veterans who may have gone directly into a Veteran's hospital.

The town has a confidential list of all those who serve in the armed forces and comes from the Adjutant General's office, but this list does not include auxiliary services.

Stress Girl Scouts as Part of World Association

Latest International Program Was Given by Troop 2 on Friday Evening

Stress on their membership in the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts is leading to the preparation of many "international" programs among local troops. Latest of these was offered March 9 in the Recreation house for an audience of parents and friends of troop 2 of which Mrs. Morris Bennett is leader.

The scouts arranged the program around the months of the year providing a musical selection or tableau for each, and later served refreshments at twelve tables to which the guests were seated according to the month in which they were born.

Christine Wilkinson was master of ceremonies; soloists included Barbara Benz and Audrey Maise at the piano; Elaine Alden, Elaine Hahn and Evelyn Neiderer, vocalists, and Barbara Beck, accordion soloist. Evelyn's selection, "Little Swiss Girl" was sung in the Swiss language drawing attention to the fact that Girl Scout's international headquarters is a chalet in that country.

Evelyn Denner was responsible for a recitation during the December scene entitled White Christmas. Poems and scout songs, skits on important women of the world, a song of heroes, the story of Dr. Wu, a commemoration of the American flag and observations of two significant events in the life of Juliette Low, Girl Scout founder, rounded out the program.

Yearly each scout makes a contribution of one cent to the Juliette Low Memorial fund. It was pointed out this week by Miss Elizabeth Bardagjy scout executive director, that the results of these collections are disbursed throughout the world by scout headquarters in all nations.

International Benefits

Specific instances of the benefits extended from one nation to another in war time through this method are funds now going to Chinese orphanages, to French girl guides who served underground in France's period of subordination to Germany, material for uniforms to African guides and recreational materials to UNRA workers.

Additional American Girl Scouts funds obtained through the Juliette Low collection have recently been used to print British Girl Guide handbooks in this country, since it could not be done in England, and Spanish scout books have been made up at the request of Latin-American countries.

In each case Girl Scout authorities in the nation to be helped are consulted before their contribution is selected.

Valuable as these funds are, however, stress is not laid on the amount collected. It is not expected to exceed the aforementioned cent; but at the time of donation a program stressing good international relations is formulated within the troop.

Pins To Troop Committee

Last Wednesday afternoon Miss Bardagjy presented pins to Mrs. Leo Wysocki of 386 Stephens street new leader of troop 6 at the Ralph street school, and troop committee members, Mrs. Allan Mundy, Mrs. Walter Golonka, Mrs. Harry Raymond, Mrs. Peter Melchione, Mrs. Joseph Pecors and Mrs. August Russ on the occasion of troop investiture.

Mrs. Wysocki in turn presented scout pins to fifteen troop members. Ten candles, each representing a scout law, were burning in trefoil shaped candle holders designed and made by Mr. Wysocki. The trefoil resembling a three leaved clover, is the Girl Scout emblem. Mothers, friends of the troop attended and heard Miss Bardagjy speak on international friendship.

Following talks on sight-reading and absence from lessons, the bill to be presented to Congress concerning the Petrillo ban on the broadcasting of non-commercial radio programs by children of educational institutions was discussed.

Clarence Wells, the association's president, showed pictures of his music camp at Lake Placid. Belleville members of the group include Eleanor Bacon-Peck and Adell Sutherland.

Public Service Output Down Compared With Year Ago

Output of electricity by Public Service Electric and Gas company for the week ended March 15 was 101,050,088 kilowatt hours compared with 106,792,745 kilowatt hours in the corresponding week a year ago, a decrease of 5,742,657 or 5.38 per cent.

SAYS TELEPHONE USE UNIMPAIRED

Company's Annual Report Reveals Total Income of $74,379,930, Net Down

The telephone system in New Jersey held up well through a third year of war, Chester I. Barnard, president of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company states in the company's report for 1944 made public today. All war requirements were fully and promptly met and the civilian telephone service was maintained effectively, despite heavy demands, scarce facilities and reduced manpower.

The year's net increase in telephone was 9,525 compared with 69,840 in 1943 — and unfilled applications for service increased from 25,000 at the beginning of the year at 70,000. Even though telephone manufacturers could provide little equipment for other than war purposes, all requirements for essential telephone installations were met, and the company was able to release for connection 18,000 deferred applications from the waiting list.

The report credits telephone users, as well as the telephone organization, for the fact that the quality of service in 1944 was generally as good and in some respects better than in 1943. The margin between good and less satisfactory service is narrow when the system is carrying a large volume of war calls, Barnard pointed out, and the calls which New Jersey users refrained from making, or shortened, may well have made the difference.

The company's total revenue for the year was $74,379,930, compared with $71,531,951 in 1943. Total expense including taxes amounted to $67,285,382 compared with $64,109,214 in 1943. Operating taxes totaled $16,043,530 compared with $15,258,595 in 1943. Net income was $7,088,544 compared with $7,248,874 in 1943.

(Pvt. Jenks is just another G.I. Joe! He's your son, brother, sweetheart or husband! We've called him Jenks—but his name is legion!)

LET PVT. JOE JENKS TELL YOU WHERE YOUR Red Cross Money GOES

When pop got sick the Red Cross was asked to verify. And, thanks to their report, I got a special leave!

The second day out. We sure felt bucked up when we got those Red Cross ditty bags. We knew we weren't forgotten.

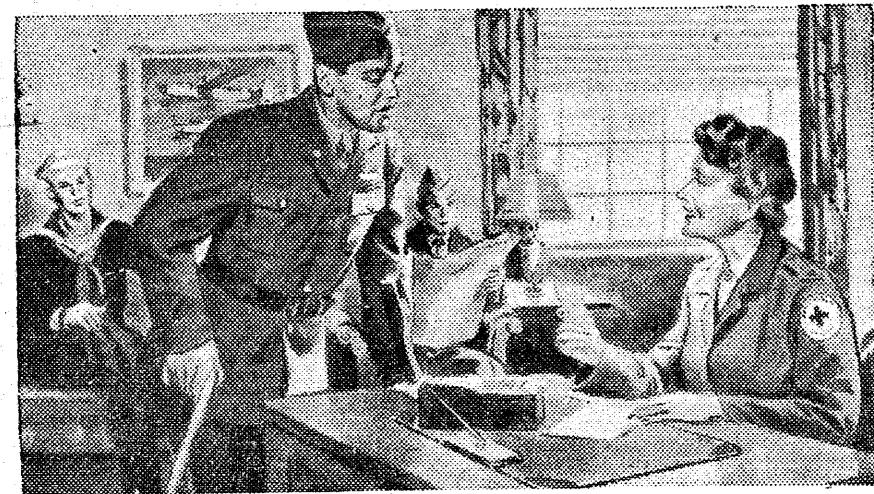

The wife's doing fine. She came through her operation in good shape. The Red Cross Field Director delivered the message to Joe in his foxhole.

A home overseas — Just stepping inside those Red Cross clubs does a guy good. Home doesn't seem so far away!

Thanks for my life, folks. What a team you, the medical corps, and the Red Cross make! You gave your blood! And it saved my life.

Back to civilian life. The wise veteran goes to the Red Cross! There they know the answers and are ready and anxious to help an ex-service man with his problems.

GIVE NOW — GIVE MORE

If you've got a man in service—if you know a man in service—give for his sake. Give so that the Red Cross can give to him!

Your money may help to get a message home to you. It may pay the cost of collecting blood plasma for him! It may pay the cost of delivering a Red Cross package to an American prisoner of war. It will help pay for the thousand and one services the Red Cross performs—to keep up the spirits of our fighting men—to help save their lives. The more you give—the more the Red Cross can give! Let your heart be your guide! And don't delay—give today!
