

CORBIN GARDENS NOT GARDENS THIS SPRING

Garbage Removal Inadequate; Tenants Petition Commission For Action

The Corbin Gardens apartments on Carpenter street apparently have very little of the garden and more of the bin about them, according to a protest voiced Tuesday night before the town commission.

The apartments are a private enterprise, operated by out-of-town owners. Launched by a local realtor, John F. Coogan Jr., they are now rented by the janitor in the absence of the usual apartment superintendent. The neighbors find many complaints to put forth, but principally they concern garbage disposal.

Following is the wording of their complaint: "During the two years that these apartments have been in operation, there have been many individual complaints to the Town Hall, resulting in new promises by the owners, and a series of experiments and half-measures in operating a sort of self-service-tenant-garbage collection. The resulting accumulation of garbage and refuse at the sidewalk line 365 days a year has been unsightly, a stench in warm weather, a menace to health due to flies, rats, cats and dogs, a shock to the person seeing this for the first time, an insult to every passer-by and a black eye to the town of Belleville."

No "Rose Arbors"

The remedy suggested by the persons who signed the petition is the depositing of garbage pails in each apartment's cellar, or the purchase of underground garbage receivers. They state that they emphatically do not want the "rose arbors" facetiously suggested by a town official. They want courageous action on the part of the proper authorities of the town to force the apartment owners to comply at least with elementary health regulations.

The spokesman for the protest was Aubrey I. Armstrong of 105 Carpenter street. Upon the conclusion of his petition, he presented to the commission literature on garbage receptacles, which was assigned to Raymond E. Mertz, director of Public Affairs. The matter will be resumed at the next meeting of the commission.

COMMUNITY CHEST PREPARES DRIVE

Special Meeting Stresses Publicity of Each Agency; To Name Chairman

Last night marked a special public relations meeting of the Community Chest and Council, under the direction of Elwood P. Russell, president of the board of directors. At the meeting were the executive and publicity directors of all the participating agencies. These comprise the Community Service Bureau, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Visiting Nurse Association, Silver Lake Community House and the Catholic Charities of the Newark Diocese.

Mr. Russell pointed out that the purpose of the meeting was to outline to the different departments their function. It is their duty to tell the citizens of Belleville how and where their money is spent in Community enterprises, he said. Each agency is to undertake its own publicity, and show how it operates and its usefulness in the community.

Mr. Russell also pointed out that this is the first time the preparations have begun so early, and he announced that the chairman of the drive would be named next week at the regular meeting which would be held Tuesday.

It is hoped that early preparations this year will facilitate all future labors in this field.

Change Thompson Materials Land to Industrial Zone

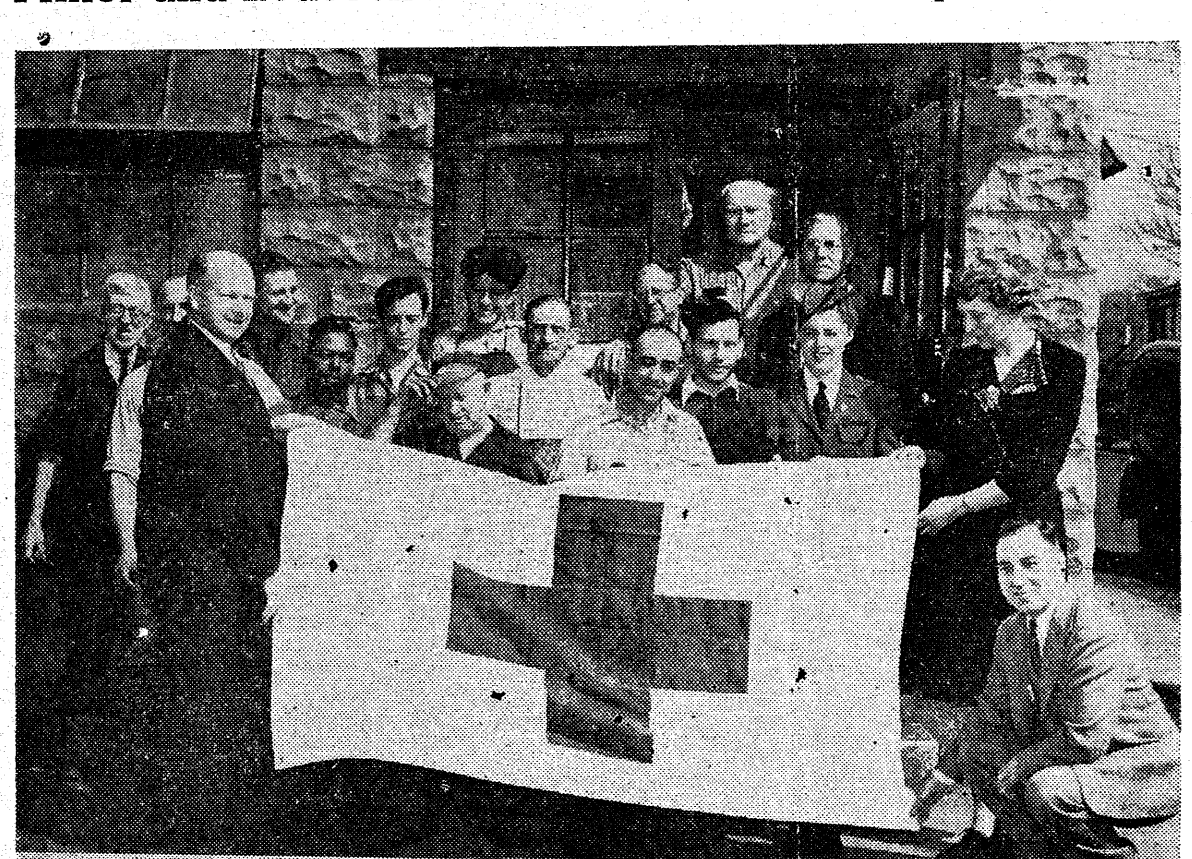

An amendment to the zoning ordinance was passed on first reading Tuesday night by the board of commissioners, transferring two parcels of land owned by the Thompson Materials corporation of 305 Cortlandt street from Residence B to industrial zone.

Located at 292 Cortlandt street and 195 Stephens street, work will be begun immediately on clearing and improving the sites, a company spokesman said yesterday. Plans for building on the sites are being considered, he said.

Deadline Tonight for Primaries

Mrs. Florence Morey, Town Clerk, announces that her office will be open tonight until 9 p.m. to receive petitions for County Committee men and women. The primaries will be held on June 12, and tonight is the deadline for all nomination papers.

Miller and Leacock Firms Over Red Cross Quota

Patrolman Donnelly's Busy Day

Many out-of-town drivers, coming to Belleville's quiet streets, seem to feel a sudden urge to step on the gas. One of these was Jerry Funicelli of Newark. Funicelli managed to highball several blocks on Main street Saturday before Patrolman Joseph Donnelly stopped him at Chester avenue and Herbert place, Newark. Before continuing on his way Funicelli deposited $50 bail and was informed that he will be arraigned Wednesday.

Another out-of-towner, Frances DeLion, of New York City, had no driver's license. This fact came to light when his car jumped the sidewalk at 267 Adelaide avenue, and Patrolman Donnelly requested the usual credentials. In this case the bail was $25 and the arraignment Wednesday.

The Moral?—Don't Argue

A friendly argument is one thing, but discussions with the police when one is possibly wrong are another thing, as Cyril Mello, 27, of 64 Belleville avenue found out to his cost last Wednesday. He pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct and was fined $25 in Police Court.

Mello had been a bystander when a car, driven by Charles Young of Kearny became involved in an accident at Rutgers and Cortlandt streets. Mello became involved in the argument that followed, and on his remonstrating with the police, he was taken into custody by Sgt. Slater and Patrolman Julianio Young, the driver, is to be given a hearing in court on the charge of driving a car with fictitious plates.

Reach 83% of Quota In Red Cross Campaign

Drive Chairman Requests Residents To Cooperate by Sending In Contributions

In the fourth week of Belleville's Red Cross War fund drive for $43,500, 83 percent of the goal or $36,355.48 has been reached, W. Douglas Clark, drive chairman, announced last night. Mr. Clark urged that all division captains turn in their full reports by the weekend. Drive headquarters now located at 338 Washington avenue, will be moved on Monday to 258 Washington avenue, it was also announced.

Two more firms this week brought to seven the number of local industries which have over-subscribed their quotas by at least twenty percent. They are Miller and Sons of 24 Belleville avenue and A. M. Leacock and company of 291 Cortlandt street. Others which have already received their Red Cross flags are Bart Laboratories, Lloyd Engineering, Westinghouse Lamp division, New Jersey Spray Products company and its affiliate, Belleville laboratories, and L. Sonneborn and Sons incorporated.

Clark yesterday expressed full confidence that the town's goal will be met. He urged those residents who have not yet been reached in the house-to-house canvass, to either call campaign headquarters or mail in their 1945 war fund donation.

"In many instances, solicitors have called at homes when residents were away," he said, in requesting the cooperation of these people so that their contributions may be credited to the district and captain in their territory.

18 Districts Top Records

As of today, eighteen districts in the house-to-house canvass and their captains have exceeded their collections of last year. These are, Arthur Bloemeke, 6; Samuel Vuono, 8; Mrs. W. H. Babbitt, 9; Mrs. Wayne R. Parmer, 10; Harold Ross, 12; Mrs. George Stickle, 13; Charles Natale, 14; Roy T. Dickinson, 15; John McCann, 16 and 17; Otto T. Breunlich, 19; Mrs. K. Speed, 22; Alex Thomas, 23; Patrick Greco, 24; Michael Cafone, 25; Harry Brumbach, 26; John McCann, 28; Mrs. L. Willette, 29.

"It must be remembered that included in these reports are the amounts collected by the special gifts committee canvass," Clark stated. "These this year have been assigned to the various districts where the donation was made. In the overall figures, the total of house-to-house and special gifts of last year's campaign exceed this year's by $823.13. In all likelihood, that figure should easily be passed before the drive ends."

Breakdown of the week's figures shows: town employees — $130.00; churches — $93.00; organizations — $737.34; commercial — $646.00; school — $724.35; out of town special gifts — $250.00; benefits — $1304.74; house to house — $10,431.67; industrial — $11,925.20; employee groups — $10,113.18.

OLD CLOTHES DRIVE GETS UNDERWAY MONDAY NIGHT

Club Representatives Meet at Town Hall For Organization

The cry of "Old Clothes" will be the theme song for the month of April. Belleville will be asked to contribute usable clothing to the collection being conducted under the auspices of UNRAA. The drive is being conducted by the United States clothing collection, and Henry Kaiser of shipbuilding fame is head of the organization.

The first public meeting was held Monday night, and members of most of the local clubs were present. The meeting was presided over by the Rev. Peter K. Deckenbach, pastor of the Christ Episcopal church, and he was named chairman of the drive. He told the meeting that preliminary work had been done by members of the Lions and Rotary clubs, and it was decided that three members from each club would form an executive committee to aid the chairman in the organization of the drive. The Lions members are Abram Atkins, Paul DeHagana and W. Brand Smith. The Rotary members are Ronald G. Brunner, Defense Co-ordinator Charles M. Nutt and Frank J. McEaden.

Also present at the meeting was William Ringheim, field representative of UNCC, who spoke of the aims of the collection committee, and asked that the central office be kept informed of the progress of the drive. He stated that the quota for the entire country was 150,000,000 pounds, which meant in the last analysis about five pounds per person in those communities where a drive would be conducted. The Treasury Department, he concluded by saying, would take charge of all dry cleaning and repairs.

School Children Aid

In the discussion that followed, Wayne Parmer, superintendent of schools, pledged the aid of the school children for the collection, but pointed out that because of sanitary measures the children should not be asked to assist in the sorting of clothes. Mr. Parmer also mentioned that the children enjoy a vacation from April 1 to 9, and consequently the collection could not go into full operation much before the last two weeks of the month.

No definite action was taken at the meeting, beyond a public discussion on methods and organization. The need for collecting points was stressed, and it was suggested that schools and firehouses could be advantageously used. A house to house canvass was proposed as being the best means of insuring success of the drive.

SUDDEN INCREASE IN SCARLET FEVER

Health Officer Warns Against Epidemic; Makes Suggestions To Parents

Health Officer Berry wishes to warn parents of the sudden increase in the number of scarlet fever cases reported. During the month of February five cases were listed. However so far this month an average of one case daily has occurred.

The present outbreak is widespread in most surrounding communities and no doubt Belleville will receive its allotted share, the Health Officer has stated. However, parents can do much to lessen the possibilities of an epidemic by cooperating and carrying out a few simple rules.

During the Easter vacation Berry suggests that children remain outdoors as much as possible and avoid crowds and gatherings such as parties, movies, etc.

"In the event your child complains of an upset stomach, sore throat, and develops a rash in a day or so, no matter how slight, immediately separate him from the rest of the household, keep him home from school, and summon your family doctor," he advises.

While the present situation in Town is not alarming, it is well to remember that most epidemics are caused by mild and unrecognized cases, and unless the health department receives the fullest cooperation of its citizens, it is helpless to cope with a situation of this kind, Berry stated.

Casualties Mount As Battle Grows

Lieut. Kunze and Pvt. Gibler Among Wounded On Western Front.—Privates Kelly, Aliberti And Gamarro Reported Prisoners

Casualties mounted throughout the nation as the American armies launched their mightiest offensive, and the list showed seven Belleville boys among the number of wounded or taken prisoner.

One of the wounded was 1st Lieut. Eldon Clarke Kunze, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Kunze of 125 Cedar avenue, who a short time ago had been promoted to his present rank. The family has as yet received no official notice, but a letter from Lieut. Kunze informed his parents that he was in an evacuation hospital on the continent waiting transport to a base hospital. He had received shrapnel in the left arm after a shell burst while serving with the Seventh Army in the Saar region.

A graduate of Belleville High, Lieut. Kunze graduated from the University of Alabama in the accelerated ROTC program. He attended the OTC school at Fort Benning, Ga., and was commissioned a second lieutenant last May. He had further training at Fort Dorn, Miss. before going overseas.

Gibler Wounded

Another Belleville casualty was Pvt. Richard H. Gibler, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gibler of 274 Ralph street. Pvt. Gibler was serving with the Third Army in Germany when he was wounded by shrapnel from mortar fire in the right arm. He is now in a hospital in England.

Pvt. Gibler's life in the army has been short but he has covered a good deal of ground. He entered the service in August, 1944, and went overseas in January of this year. The wound occurred on February 19, while he was serving as an infantryman in charge of heavy weapons. He had graduated from Belleville High in 1944.

Pvt. Richard Gibler

Word has been received by Mrs. Lavina Terry of 230 Stephen street, that her brother, Cpl. Walter E. Albro, USMC, was wounded in action on Iwo Jima. The casualty occurred on February 22. Cpl. Albro entered the service on February 3, 1943. He is a graduate of the Belleville High school, class of 1942, and before

Mayor Outlines Police Department Moves

Waters has Chief Clerk, Disabled Vet Ordinances Put Aside For Further Consideration

Put aside for further consideration were Mayor Williams' ordinances on the appointment of the chief clerk in the police department and one providing special school duty on the force for disabled veterans of World War II on Tuesday night. The Mayor reviewed the two measures briefly at the pre-commission conference saying he was not yet ready to introduce them and Public Works Director Waters suggested that they be laid over.

This action followed a petition by Frank Parsells, a life-long resident of town who claimed he spoke for 800

Auto License Agencies Open On Good Friday

For the convenience of the public, all motor vehicle license agencies in the state will remain open Good Friday for the renewal of car registrations and driver's licenses, Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arthur W. Magee announced today.

Business will be transacted on both Friday and Saturday until 6 p.m.

Saturday midnight is the deadline for displaying the 1944 license plate on New Jersey motor vehicles. Motorists who violate the law after that time face a heavy penalty, Commissioner Magee cautioned.

Disabled Vet Program

The program for the appointment of disabled veterans of World II to special school duty provides a daily wage of $5 or a basic wage of $1,000 annually with priority on police events and an opportunity for those physically fit, to compete for advancement as members of the regular police force.

Chief among the proposals two weeks ago were also, competitive examination based on civil service or the New Jersey State Police Chief Association examinations for both police and firemen with both appointments and promotions to be made only by the majority approval of the board; a probationary period of one year for chance-men and officers; decrease from eight to four years in the time it would take to reach maximum pay.

At that time the Mayor also said he would present to the Essex assembly amendments to the Walsh act which include the provision that appointment and promotion of members of the police and fire departments be made only on the majority approval of the board. Present interpretation of the Walsh act provides that each commissioner has complete authority within his own department.

Williams comment after Tuesday night's discussion was that ordinances be laid aside was that the head of each department should have a final voice in reaching a decision in any matter that clearly fell into the field of his department.

Dog Takes One Bite Too Many

A dog is legally entitled to one bite. When he exceeds his quota, however, and bites a second time, he becomes a vicious animal, and must be restrained. This was the decision handed down by Health Officer Eugene T. Berry concerning a year-old police dog, belonging to Miss Helen Barrett of 19 Van Rensselaer place. Miss Barrett was ordered to keep the dog muzzled or on a leash.

For permitting the dog to run at large, Miss Barrett, a Newark school teacher, pleaded guilty and was fined $25 in Belleville Police Court last Wednesday. The dog had previously been ordered confined by Health Officer Berry after its first bite and it was under observation.

It is too bad for this listing of honor students was a source of joy and encouragement to the student and a greater source of pride to the striving parent. The student works hard for a good grade and should have the distinction of seeing his name in print. This is in all sincerity.

Two Ordinances Become Law

Two ordinances became law Tuesday night with a second and third reading at the Town Commission meeting. The first concerns the removal of any form of debris from any land in the town, deemed a hazard for public health and safety. When such a condition is determined to exist, a notice will be sent to the owner, and should he neglect to clean his property, it will be done at public expense and billed to the owner of the land.

The second ordinance provides for the construction of conduits and manholes for fire alarm signal purposes along Belleville avenue and connecting streets. The sum of $625 was appropriated, and comes under the Capital Improvement fund provided in the town budget.

It means something to all these people when you buy a War Bond

WHEN YOU BUY a War Bond, it affects a great many people.

FIRST, it buys weapons for the American boys overseas.

SECOND, it encourages our fighting allies, by demonstrating that the American people are in this scrap to the finish.

THIRD, it brings cheer to the starving and oppressed in Nazi-occupied territories, because it means a quicker end of hunger and tyranny.

FOURTH, it discourages Hitler and Tojo—and is a punch at the morale of the German and Japanese home fronts.

FIFTH, it helps to guarantee peace and liberty to future generations of Americans.

AND THE BLANK SPACE? Put yourself in that picture. For when you buy a War Bond, it certainly means as much to you as to anyone else in the world.

It's a wonderfully advantageous way to invest your money. It pays $4 for every $3 you put in. It's safe. And it'll give you a financial nest egg—a nest egg you can use after the war for such things as buying a home, educating your children, and traveling.

So buy more War Bonds right now—TODAY!

Home is the Hero - Wounded . . .

And Neglected?

THIS IS the serious state of affairs that faces our wounded soldiers today . . .

Casualties, who are now being returned home from overseas at the rate of 1,000 a day, may not get the care they need.

The reason: there aren't enough people to help. Nowhere near enough to keep up with the growing number of casualties.

Each Army nurse in this country is handling more than twice as many hospital beds as any one human being can efficiently handle.

Everything is being done to secure more nurses . . .

But at the same time a vast effort must be made to stretch the professional efficiency of every single Army nurse on duty in this country.

The answer is—Wacs. Many thousands more WAC Medical and Surgical Technicians are needed at once for Army Hospitals in the United States.

Unless this critical need is immediately filled, our wounded may suffer needlessly, their chances of full recovery dwindle.

Surely, no woman who can possibly help is going to stand by and let this happen . . .

If you are aged 20 to 49 inclusive with two years of high school (or equivalent schooling), apply at your nearest U. S. Army Recruiting Station today. Previous hospital experience is not necessary.

If you meet enlistment requirements, you will be given basic military training. Then six weeks of technical training at an Army Medical Technician School, followed by four weeks of on-the-job training at an Army General Hospital in the United States.

Those who qualify will become Technicians Fifth Grade immediately after finishing training.

WAC Medical Technicians are needed to take temperatures, prepare dressings, keep records, help with blood transfusions, etc.

WAC Surgical Technicians are needed to prepare operating rooms, sterilize operating instruments, help care for operative cases, etc.

Hospital companies, made up of medical, surgical and other technicians, and clerical workers, are now being organized by the Women's Army Corps to provide this urgently needed help.

Join your local WAC Hospital Unit. One is being organized in this community now. Get your friends to enlist with you, serve together in the same Army Hospital.

The casualty lists are not getting any shorter. Men are lying in agony—waiting for you, praying that you will come.

Don't let them down—Join the WAC now!

GIRL SCOUTS IN CLOTHES DRIVE

Permission Granted To Begin Collection, Competition Will Aid Efforts

Following Monday night's clothes drive meeting at Town Hall Girl Scouts, in the person of Mrs. Richard Garraway of 134 Birchwood drive, clothing drive chairman, sought permission from Chairman Deckenbach to get their collection under way.

All troop leaders have been contacted to instruct scouts in the type of clothing desired; thermometers gauging individual troop collections will be maintained in Scout headquarters at 400 Washington avenue to stimulate troop competition and a display of suitable articles there is planned to acquaint scouts and the public with the requirements of the drive.

Mrs. Garraway is assistant leader of Brownie troop No. 26. She pointed out that Girl scouts, a participating agency in the Belleville Community chest, has seen an opportunity to be of community service in this war emergency and will be glad to serve townspeople who find it inconvenient to otherwise dispose of clothing to the drive.

Scouts will sort and pack clothing at the headquarters. Citing the instructions of UNRA Mrs. Garraway requested townspeople who expect to turn over their clothing to scouts to include only usable garments, not frivolous evening clothes or slippers, and to wash, but not iron, cotton garments. Suits, coats and non-washable clothes will be cleaned by UNRA; they may be donated just as they are.

the War Mobilization Director, Edward Reed, Exalted Ruler of Belleville Lodge No. 1123, announced today.

Reed quoted from a letter received from Dr. Robert South Barrett of Alexandria, Va., Grand Exalted Ruler of the nationwide fraternity, in which he said: "I am advising the 700,000 members of the 1,409 Elk Lodges throughout the country that the Grand Exalted Ruler and the Board of Grand Trustees have ordered the suspension of the 1945 Grand Lodge Session which we planned to hold in New York city in July. 'This is the first time in the 77 year history of the B.P.O. ### Belleville-Nutley Tuberculosis Association's Monthly Report

The executive committee of the Belleville-Nutley Tuberculosis Association met Thursday, March 22, at the Nutley Board of Health.

The report of the Field Nurse's activities for the months of January and February showed that the nurse made 117 visits in Belleville and 86 in Nutley. Announcement was made that the annual meeting for the election of officers will take place at the Belleville Town Hall on April 26, at 8:15 p.m.

Receipts for the fiscal year showed that Nutley contributed $4,582.55 while Belleville's share was $4,241.30. This marks the first time in the history of the association that Nutley's receipts have exceeded Belleville's.

Arrangements have been made with Dr. Smith of Soho Isolation hospital to hold clinics there instead of at Verona sanatorium. Thanks to Dr. Smith's cooperation, this will result in great savings in time and gasoline both for the nurse and the patients.

G. I. APPRECIATES LOCAL KIT BAGS

Writes From France to Thank Red Cross Chapter for Its Work

Belleville chapter of the American Red Cross has released a letter from an Army Lieut. P. M. Nesford somewhere in France, who wrote appreciatively of the kit bags his outfit received upon embarking for overseas. Those particular kit bags were labeled "Belleville, N. J." and thus inspired the V-Mail letter which says,

"When I boarded ship to take me to Europe, I was given a bag with a label that had the address of your organization typed on it. Since that day I have received so many benefits from the Red Cross that I had to write to thank you.

"I have used your bags continually and have dozens of times praised the thoughtfulness of those that made it possible. Red Cross mobile canteens have given me and my men coffee, doughnuts and music at critical times when we were tired and basted our morale with your help.

"So many times I have heard men and officers in my outfit say 'I wish I could thank those people personally,' that I decided to write myself and express the sentiments of all the men in my outfit who mean to write but haven't the time to — and say 'Thank you ladies, for your much appreciated gift. It makes us think of those at home who are waiting for us and reminds us of what we fight for.'

This is but one example of work by the Belleville Red Cross chapter — in this case just one branch of the Production Corps. During the past year, the American Red Cross made over three and one-half million kit bags, and the local chapter filled its quota. It is now working on other projects and has requirements to meet in other fields of production. As with all other volunteer services, Mrs. Harvey B. Thompson's committee is ready to enlist new workers. Women interested are urged to contact headquarters at 258 Washington avenue.

Churches Celebrate Easter With Special Services

Unite for Observances Tonight And Tomorrow; Two Plan Sunrise Gatherings

Following union services tonight, when Holy Communion will be given at Fawcett Presbyterian church, and tomorrow afternoon and evening when Good Friday services will be observed in Wesley Methodist church from 1:30 to 3 and Christ Episcopal church at 8, Belleville Protestant churches will have a full and varied Easter Sunday program.

Sunrise services will be held in Bethany Lutheran church at 6 when the selections, "Awake Up, My Glory" by Barnby and "The Easter Hallelujah" by Lorenz will be sung; and at 6:30 in Belleville Reformed church when Rudolph Kengetter of Newark, lay speaker, will address the congregation and Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Martin, vocalist and pianist, will furnish a musical program.

Early service will be held in Wesley Methodist church at 7 when Rev. Edgar M. Compton's address will be entitled "The Easter Quest." At 9:30 Mr. Compton will receive new members and perform baptisms and again preach "The Easter Quest." Miss Ruth Compton will direct the junior choir.

Easter Anthems

At 11 in that church the senior choir will be directed by Edgar E. Seymour of Newark, organist, in anthems, "As It Began To Dawn" by Vincent, "Hosannah" by Gounod, "Unfold Ye Portals" by Gounod. Mr. Compton's topic will be "The Easter Hope." All Sunday school classes will meet for a half hour Easter program at 8:45.

The senior choir of Christ Episcopal church will furnish a musical setting for the late morning service at 11 in which the rector's theme will be "The Joy of Easter." Mr. Deckenbach will also conduct services at 7 when Holy Communion will be distributed and at 9.

George Weston will direct and accompany the choir featuring Mrs. Ann VanSickle, soprano soloist; Mrs. Sydney Sheard, contralto; William Chapman, tenor and Carl Struble, baritone.

Selections include the processional, "Jesus Christ Is Risen Today," introit, "Christ Our Passover," offertory, "Awake, Up My Glory," and recessional, "Alleluia, Alleluia."

Rev. Paul F. Arndt of Redeemer Lutheran church, Newark, whose congregation includes Belleville residents, will preach on "The Cross and World Conscience." Good Friday evening at 8 and "The Easter Quest" Sunday morning at 10:45 service. Holy Communion will be celebrated at that time.

Identical Easter services have been arranged by Rev. O. W. Chapin at Montgomery Presbyterian church for 9:30 and 11. No Sunday school will be held and parents who wish to attend the early service will find provision made to care for their small children.

Children's Sermon

Rev. John A. Struyk of Belleville Reformed church will give a children's sermon entitled "Children's Christ" at 9:30 Sunday when Easter hymns by the junior choir and children's recitations will replace Sunday school sessions. Dr. Struyk's topic for the adult sermon at 10:45 will be "He Is Risen." The choir has chosen a program of victory hymns.

The senior choir of Bethany Lutheran church will render "Open the Gates of the Temple" by Knapp and "Easter Song of Praise" by Norman; the junior choir, "Hail, King Eternal!" by Hamblin at the eleven o'clock service in that church.

The musical setting for the Easter Sunday service at 11 in Grace Baptist church will include anthems by the choir under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Chesley, organist; "Unfold Ye Portals" by Gounod and "When the Dawn Was Breaking" by Dickinson.

Sunday evening the Adelphi Players will present "The Bearer of the Cross," a drama based on the story of Simon of Cyrene, in that church at 8.

The Church school of Fawcett Presbyterian church will participate in a special Easter program at 9:45 Sunday. Rev. O. Bell Close's topic at the 11 o'clock service will be "New Life"; Easter hymns will be sung by the choir.

The Way of the Cross will be made by priest and people in St. Anthony's church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 and in St. Peter's Roman Catholic church at 3. Evening services will include sermon, repetition of the Stations of the Cross and veneration of the Cross in St. Peter's at 7:45 and in St. Anthony's the Rosary and veneration of the Cross at 8.

Masses will be said in both churches at the usual hours on Easter Sunday with high mass at 10 in St. Anthony's and at 11 in St. Peter's. The church choirs will sing in both cases. A special program of Easter hymns has been prepared by the children of St. Peter's church for the nine o'clock mass.

SGT. GUIBILLO FREED BY RUSSIANS

Prisoner Since October, Local Man Is Liberated During Russian Offensive

Sgt. Michael Guibilo of 1 Sunset avenue reported a prisoner of war last fall in Germany, has been released by the Russians, according to a War department telegram received by his wife, Mrs. Marjorie Guibilo. Sgt. Guibilo was taken prisoner October 4, and had been confined in Stalag 3-C.

Sgt. Guibilo attended Belleville High, and entered the army in January, 1944. Before entering the service, he operated a barber shop at 500 Union avenue, and was also employed by the Wright Aeronautical corporation in Paterson. A brother, Cpl. Benjamin Guibilo, is with the army in Germany.

Trustees are Alfonso DeMaio, Sam Capaldo, John Zaccane and Joseph Christiano. Anthony Christiano will serve as recording secretary and Modestino Nigro, financial secretary and treasurer.

Temporary headquarters are at 50 Naples street. Expressing their desire to repay the sacrifice of life and health made by the fighting men of their neighborhood, Mr. Prezioso pointed out this week that friends and families of the men were anxious to deny themselves something in order to establish a suitable commemoration.

Subscriptions are being accepted with the ultimate aim of erecting a clubhouse. Discharged veterans in the meantime can avail themselves of the temporary headquarters at 50 Naples avenue as a meeting place.

Thirty-five families, some of whose sons have been killed in action, are voluntary contributors.

Dutch Baby Named Simone For Capt. Taffet, M. D.

Obstetrician as Master of Ceremonies, Has More Trouble Over Name Than Delivery

Somewhere in Holland there is a baby girl named Simone, who owes not only her name but also her arrival in this world to the efforts of Capt. Seymour Taffet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taffet of 379 Union avenue.

Army surgeons expect their routine to consist of nothing but the solacing and healing of wounded men, but in this war the civilian population is sometimes forced to make demands on the army doctors when there are no others available.

Capt. Taffet is the battalion surgeon of the 254th Field Artillery battalion, now stationed in Holland, and it is quite recently that he was called to aid the Dutch. Enemy fire, cold and darkness, lack of conveniences and medical assistance were old stories to the captain, and presented no problem. The big difficulty arose after the healthy eight pound girl cried her way into the world. The family wished to name the new baby in honor of the doctor, and this was proclaimed as he was offered three ears of popcorn as a gift for his efforts. But Capt. Taffet felt that even a little Dutch girl should not be burdened with a boy's name, and he said so.

Compromise On Name

For him to say so required considerable effort on his part, and a combination of his best French, English, German and Dutch to make his meaning clear. A final compromise was reached. The girl would be named Simone, which sounded enough like Seymour to preserve the doctor's honor and satisfy the parents. Capt. Taffet gracefully accepted this decision. He also accepted the popcorn.

Taffet is a native of Belleville. He attended Albion college at Ann Arbor, Mich., and studied medicine at the University of Michigan. After internship at the Memorial Institute, University of Michigan, and the Newark City hospital in Newark, he was commissioned a first lieutenant in the Medical Corps Reserve.

He began active duty December 31, 1943, and during November, 1944, he was promoted to the rank of captain. He is married to Helen Rothblatt Taffet, who is at present staying with her family in New York City. Monday was their first wedding anniversary.

Pfc. Frank Albanese Wounded, Hospitalized in England

Recovering from a fracture of the right arm caused by a bullet, Pfc. Frank Albanese, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albanese of 53 Frederick street, has written his parents that he is recovering in a hospital in England.

He was wounded on January 18 in Germany and word was received in a telegram from the War department on February 2, 1944 and trained at Camp Walters, Texas and Camp Van Dorn, Miss., going overseas in December, as a member of the 255th infantry division.

He attended Belleville schools and Boys Vocational school in Bloomfield for three and a half years, leaving to join the service. He has a brother, Christie, a technical sergeant stationed at Camp Crowder, Mo., in the signal corps and three sisters, Sally, Antoinette and Theresa, all of the Frederick street address.

entirely of combat returnees, who has rounded out an intensive four-week course at Brook's Field, Texas.

It is the AAF Training Command twin-engine Central Instructors school, with its members thoroughly equipped to train AAF cadets to take their place in America's air war against Germany and Japan.

Lieut. Dunn of 6 Smith street, is a veteran of nine months in the European theatre as an A-20 pilot. He has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal, Presidential Unit Citation and European theatre ribbon.

Designed to assist flying tutors in formulating their "lesson plans", the course not only stresses standardized flying procedures, but also presents suggestion whereby veteran may give full benefit of their battle-won pilot technique to aviation cadets at training stations throughout the country.

Virtually every theater of our global war is represented by members of this latest group of skilled flyers to complete the instructor's course at Brooks, many having seen service in two or more zones.

HAD PART IN B-29 RAIDS ON TOKYO

Three Local Soldiers in Combat Unit That is Praised for Its Teamwork

Three men from Belleville are among the hundreds of enlisted men at a huge Superfortress base in the Marianas whose diligent efforts have made it possible for the giant B-29 bombers of Maj. Gen. Curtis E. LeMay's 21st Bomber Command to strike regularly at the heart of Japan's war industry.

S/Sgt. Randall T. Holden, Cpl. James W. Hannon and Pfc. Edward F. Dunleavy are members of a combat unit commanded by Brig. Gen. Emmett O'Donnell jr., who led the first B-29 striking force from Saipan to bomb Tokyo's aviation industry on November 24.

"The work of these men and their fellow soldiers is directly responsible for the success of the B-29s in bombing Japan's war industries," Gen. O'Donnell said in congratulating them. "These men realize their responsibilities in the pre-mission tasks of insuring the maximum chance for safe return of the air crews."

"Without the spirit of teamwork which has been exhibited by every man, our pioneering job, which is only beginning, could not have been a success. They have given their service fully and in complete disregard for personal comforts and pleasures in lieu of hard work and long hours."

Constructed Bases

An additional tribute has been paid to members of the unit for their toil constructing their B-29 bases. They arrived last August and September and, since aviation engineers were busy with the high priority task of airstrip building, they constructed homes for themselves and for the aerial combat crews who arrived later.

S/Sgt. Holden, is the son of Mrs. M. T. Holden of 354 Washington avenue. His wife is the former Miss Jean Grover who lives at 33 Van Houten place with their son, Randall. He was graduated from Belleville High school in 1940. Prior to entering the Army in August, 1942, he was employed by Westinghouse of Newark.

Cpl. Hannon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Hannon of 242 Washington avenue. He was graduated from Belleville High school in 1942. Prior to entering the Army in January, 1943, he was employed by the Canteen company. A brother, Walter, is with the Marines in the South Pacific.

Pfc. Dunleavy, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Dunleavy of 164 Union avenue. He was graduated from Belleville High school in 1942. Prior to entering the Army in January, 1943, he was employed by George H. Mead, incorporated. A brother, James, is with the Navy in Europe.

BOY SCOUTS SIGN UP FOR MOHICAN
Several Local Troops Make Reservations Under New Camping Plans

For the first time in the history of Camp Mohican, the camp operated by the Robert Treat Council for Boy Scouts of Belleville, Irvington and Newark, reservations are being made at this early date. These are troop reservations for whole Troops planning to spend a period of two weeks under their own leadership. The Camping and Activities committee of the Council has established four plans under which Scouts can go to camp.

Plan number one is where a Troop comes to camp with its own equipment under its own leadership and does its own cooking and purchasing of supplies. The second plan is the same as the first except that Camp Mohican provides the equipment, the troop providing leadership and cooking its own food. Plan three is again a Troop under its own leadership, using Camp Mohican equipment, but eating at a central dining hall where meals are prepared by a professional chef. The fourth plan is where several Scouts come to camp as individuals and are assigned to a provisional troop with a provisional scoutmaster in charge, and eating at the central dining hall.

Several Signed Up
Already several troops have been signed up from various parts of the Council. A number of the troops in Belleville are making plans to go to camp under their own leadership. Last year Camp Mohican made a gain of 20 percent in attendance. Another 20 percent is indicated for this year.

Camp folders are now being printed and will be distributed to all Scouts soon. Applications for camping as a Troop are already in the hands of the Scoutmasters. Scouts and Scouters of Belleville will be happy to know that a new site has been selected for the annual Council Camporee to be held May 26-27. For the past three years the Camporee, involving over a thousand Scouts, has been held at May Apple Hill in South Mountain Reservation. This year it will be held at Summit Field, a fine twenty-acre tract off Crest drive, a quarter of a mile from South Orange avenue in the South Mountain reservation.

THE YEAR THE TIDE TURNED...

1944 was the year of greatest advance in invention, science and industrial production in world history. Here is a part of that record as written by Westinghouse.

In the new field of jet propulsion... for the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics, Westinghouse developed the first completely American jet propulsion engine, which promises to produce more power, for its weight, than any of the European-designed engines now being built in this country.

Aboard aircraft carriers... new Westinghouse-designed elevators for aircraft carriers are in action. We found a way to get carrier planes to and from the flight deck faster, keeping the deck clear for flying operations. A development that has proved very important in getting more planes into the air quicker.

Against enemies even more deadly than the Jap... a mighty weapon was developed by Westinghouse engineers, co-operating with the Army and the Department of Agriculture, against disease-carrying insects, scourge of fighting men through the ages. The weapon is the Bug Bomb, no bigger than a can of soup, which brings sudden death to insect pests.

We stayed on our jobs, 115,000 strong... no major strike or slowdown has occurred in any Westinghouse plant since war began. Nearly 15,000 employees earned cash Suggestion Awards for new ways to increase production, cut costs. More than 25,000 are serving in the armed forces, and we have re-employed 5,620 honorably-discharged veterans. In addition to the big job of operating our own plants, Westinghouse operated 3 of the 7 great Navy-owned ordnance plants.

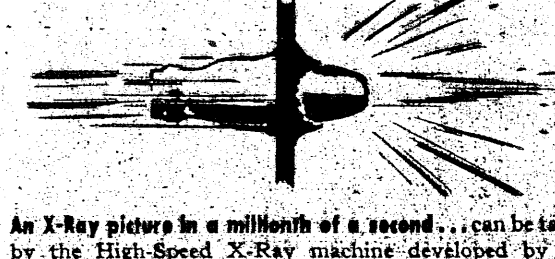

A promise for the future... There is a lot to be done yet... and you can count on Westinghouse men and women to do their share of the war job as long as American men still fight anywhere. And when war is won, you can look to us for the best in electric appliances, radios, lighting, electrical equipment for industry... and for continued leadership in new fields.

Electric power plants on wheels... we built and delivered 34 Westinghouse Power Trains, each a complete power plant on railway cars. By means of these remarkable trains, electric service can be "shipped" to liberated and devastated areas behind the fighting fronts.

So airplane gunners can sight into the sun... Westinghouse engineers devised a gunsight lamp which overcomes the blind spot of sun glare that formerly gave enemy pilots the advantage as they attacked. Now American gunners aim directly into the sun and blast planes that otherwise couldn't be sighted.

An X-Ray picture in a millionth of a second... can be taken by the High-Speed X-Ray machine developed by the Westinghouse Laboratories. Invaluable in research, it is being widely used in war work. With it, for example, engineers can see how a shell performs when it smashes through armor plate... or they can see just how a projectile looks as it zips through a gun barrel.

A billion dollars' worth of production and service... was delivered by Westinghouse in 1944. Nearly 40 per cent of the money we received went for wages. We paid the Government 102 million dollars in taxes. For each dollar's worth of goods and services delivered we kept only a little more than 25 cents as net profit.

GARDEN YOUR VICTORY GARDEN

Digging the Soil

By Dr. Charles H. Conners,
College of Agriculture, Rutgers University.

Last Summer's drouth tried the gardener's soul; but where the soil was properly prepared and where a mulch was used, better results were obtained because more moisture was retained and the plant roots were able to penetrate deeper.

New Jersey soils are generally too acid for the best growth of vegetable crops, and an annual application of lime is advisable. Use pulverized limestone at the rate of five pounds to 100 square feet of garden area or hydrated lime at the rate of three pounds to 100 square feet. Apply half or three-quarters of this amount at the bottom of the trench as you dig the garden, and this will help to sweeten the subsoil so that lime can penetrate. Lime not only helps to decrease acidity but it also adds calcium and magnesium which are necessary to produce healthy plants.

Annual Fertilization
An application of commercial fertilizer each year is necessary. Use the 5-10-5 Victory Garden fertilizer at the rate of three pounds to 100 square feet. If you are turning under heavy sod, use four pounds; if you have had a garden on the same spot for several years and have added commercial fertilizer each year, two pounds on each 100 square feet will be about right. Again, if about half the required amount is applied at the bottom of the trench as you dig, the plants will benefit.

Lime and fertilizer can be applied together and dug under, but must not be allowed to remain on the soil to cake. Apply only over as much ground as you can dig in one period of work.

Soils which were well supplied with organic matter came through the drouth with better crop yields. The organic matter is used in modern practice not as much for plant nutrients (although some are present) as for its effect upon the physical condition of the soil. It helps the soil hold moisture and it loosens up a heavy soil so it does not bake in hot weather. Use lots of it if it is bulky. Well-rotted stable manure is one of the best sources. Well-rotted leaves are good.

Compost Heap
Maybe you can find where your city or town has been piling its leaves in the fall. After they have been there two years, they are a fine source of organic matter. Perhaps you had a compost pile. Any of these can be used at the rate of at least 200 pounds to 100 square feet. If the manure is not well rotted, use only about 100 pounds. Poultry or dried stable sheep manure may be used at the rate of 50 pounds to 100 square feet.

Do not trample the grounds or dig or plow when it is still wet. Take a handful of the soil and squeeze it. If it forms a solid ball that will not break up readily after squeezing, it is too wet to dig. If digging is done while it is in that condition, the soil may be lumpy all summer.

For further information, write to your County Agricultural Agent or the College of Agriculture for a copy of the circular, Preparing Garden Soils.

Sowing Seeds

Digging and handling soil when it is wet and sticky is risky because you may leave it lumpy all the rest of the season. If you try to sow seeds when the soil is too wet, you can't make the furrows straight and of the correct depth and the seeds cannot be covered properly.

To have good germination, it is necessary first to sow seeds that will grow. If you have seeds left over from last year, they should be tested before planting. Place 25 seeds of each kind between blotters and keep the blotters moist at room temperature. In 10 days you will know whether the seeds are any good. Usually old seeds will be sown closer together than fresh seeds to allow for poorer germination. New seeds have the percentage of germination printed or stamped on the packaging.

Soil Temperature

The soil temperature must be right. Some seeds can be sown when the soil is cold, as soon as the soil can be worked. These include beet, carrot, onion (seeds or sets), pea, radish, turnip, kale, lettuce, spinach, Swiss chard. Broccoli and cabbage seed may be sown, but it is better to buy plants of these, as they can be set in the open ground as early as you can sow the seeds. Such crops as beans, sweet corn and squash should not be sown until danger of freezing is past.

Carrots and radishes may be sown together in the same row and quick maturing crops like onions from sets, turnips for greens and lettuce may be sown in the rows between cabbage or

Methodist Youth Fellowship Installs New Officers

Officers installed last Sunday evening by the Methodist Youth Fellowship of Wesley church were Arthur Poyner, president; Miss Jacqueline Bratton, first vice-president.

broccoli plants or between the places where tomato plants will later be set.

When the soil is dry enough to work, make straight furrows that are even in depth and deep enough so that the seeds will be covered with soil about three times the smallest diameter of the seed. Do not sow too deep. Sow the seeds thin. Keep in mind that the plants have to stand a certain distance apart to come to good development. Carrots need to stand 2 to 3 inches apart, so if you sow the seeds a half-inch apart and all germinate, you still must pull out three-fourths of the seedlings.

How To Plant

After sowing the seed, draw enough loose soil in to about half fill the furrow and tamp it down gently. This is so the soil grains will settle close to the seeds. Thus moisture needed for germination will be brought close. Next draw in enough soil to fill the furrow, so there will be loose soil on top. This lets in air. If a crust forms over the seed, the entrance of air is slowed up and it is more difficult for the seedlings to come through. One way to avoid a crust is to make the furrow about twice as deep and cover the seeds with hand.

At the same time the early seeds are sown, it is safe to set out plants of cabbage and broccoli if they have been hardened off, that is, gradually accustomed to cold. It is not safe to move them from a warm house to the outside directly unless they are carefully protected at night and on cold days.

Take good care of your garden tools, as there is still a shortage of good steel tools. Always wipe off all moist soil after finishing work and before putting the tools away.

NEXT WEEK: Setting Plants.

Here Is Your Newspaper

The standard price of a newspaper today is five cents. For that sum the reader expects news, entertainment, and adequate advertising. The newspaper should interest him and inform him. If it does not, it is failing in its purpose, and the reader has a right to protest.

A newspaper should reflect public opinion, the news and views of the locality. The readers should participate in its editing just as much as the staff assigned for that purpose. Editors and reporters are as prone to error as anyone else, and constructive criticism on the part of the readers is always helpful.

This may be construed as an appeal to the readers of The Times-News. For the past few weeks, this newspaper has been in a reorganization period. A circulation program was begun, the reportorial staff was changed, and general plans drawn up to make the Times-News a better newspaper. That is one half of the battle.

The other half lies with the readers. This newspaper staff welcomes the opinions of readers who make known their own ideas and desires. They may do this in a variety of ways, by letters to the editors, by word of mouth when visiting the office, by suggestions and by corrections. The public reaction is the only true yardstick by which the value of The Times-News can be measured. Therefore the public is asked to tell us what they think of the newspaper that is sent to them every week.

Too much may be put into a newspaper or too little. Only the readers can determine this, for the newspaper is designed for their taste.

Here is your newspaper!

Lend Me Your Ears

A recent announcement of Niles Trammel, head of the National Broadcasting company, informs us that no broadcast of news will be interrupted by a commercial from now on. This is a noteworthy beginning. For years the American radio listener has been bludgeoned with all manner of advertising, informing him that he is afflicted with everything from offensive odors to falling hair, and that the only cure for these ailments lies in the immediate purchase of the advertiser's product. One may now listen to the news without becoming confused by the sudden mention of Bloke's Bile Beans.

It is only a beginning, however. Some day we may be able to look forward to our favorite musical programs, sponsored by various businesses, but without the constant mention of their product. The BBC in England is a notable example of radio freed entirely of commercialism. Program follows program, and the only breaks are those necessary for the understanding of the entertainment. This is a far cry from our national programs, which usually call for a commercial at ten minute intervals.

Radio is a potent force in molding public opinion and it has great educational possibilities. It is more important, therefore, to give uninterrupted entertainment or enlightenment than to repeat ad nauseam the fact that Ecstair Elixir will restore your youth.

The Childrens' Hour

In Japan, public education will practically cease for a calendar year, beginning April 1. This may sound like an April Fool's story, but it is a grim fact that the Japanese intend to use all available hands to supply their war machine.

In the western world, we have moved further and further away from child labor, and war to us has always been a man's job. Even if we admit that Japan is desperate, this emergency measure gives us an idea of what we might have expected if Japan had been the conqueror. It is difficult to understand the mentality that can order innocent children into the manufacture of weapons of destruction. Yet it is this mentality which we are fighting, both in Germany and in Japan, and it is to be hoped that when the war is won, that all traces of it will have disappeared.

Danger Ahead

Although it has become a commonplace to remark on the military similarities between this war and our own Civil War, there is also an ideological resemblance which has not attracted so much attention.

This, of course, is not to say that Americans of the Confederacy bore any resemblance to Nazis. It is merely to point out the parallel that exists between, on the one hand, the causes and aftermath of the Civil War, and, on the other, the causes of this war and the possible dangers that may plague us after Germany's defeat.

Both wars were caused by ideas; and ideas are not conquered by arms alone.

The Civil War had for its causes the two ideas of disunity and slavery. We have entered this war because of two ideas: to prevent Germany's domination of the world and to destroy Fascism. Throughout the Civil War there were many in the North who thought we should not have tried to preserve the Union. "Let the erring sisters go," counselled Greeley. Before Pearl Harbor there were many in America who were willing to let Germany conquer Europe. Similarly, just as there were many in the North who thought the South should continue to have slavery if it wanted it, so there are many willing—nay, eager—to tolerate Fascism and Nazism. These will be among us long after the war is over.

The parallel of victory also holds. Northern bayonets pinned the Southern States to the Union forever; Allied armies are now destroying Germany's hope of world conquest forever.

Will the parallel also hold between the fate of Nazism and the fate of slavery? Possibly our experience with what happened in the South after chattel slavery was abolished gives us a clue to the danger which will linger on in Germany after her defeat.

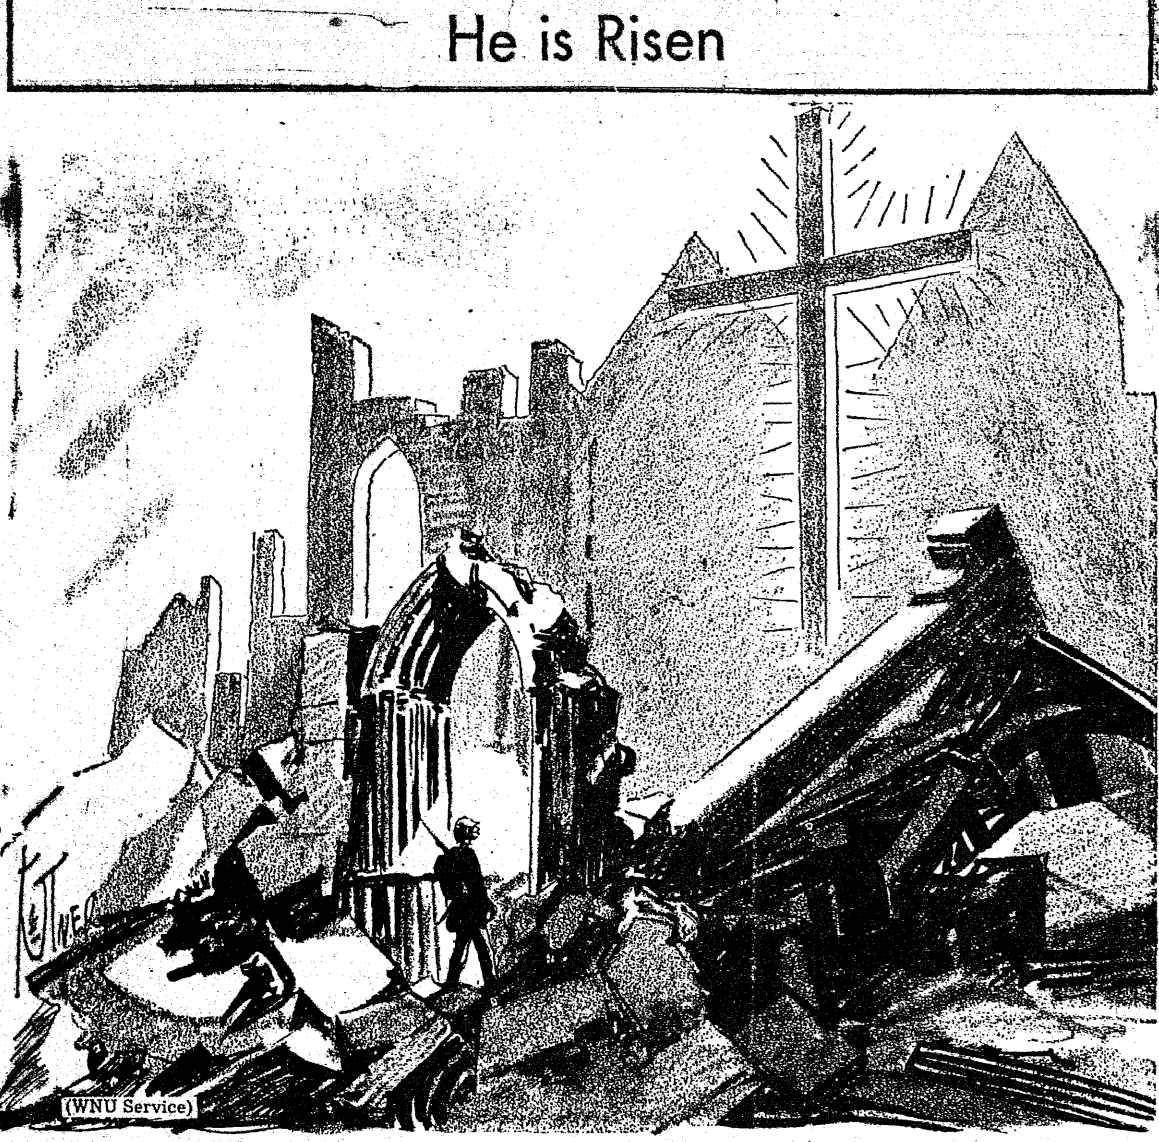

Like Nazism, slavery was the fallacy that one race is better than another. As a legal institution slavery was destroyed by Northern armies. But its fundamental idea of racial superiority persisted after defeat. Although militarily vanquished in the field, and ideologically conquered by amendments to the Constitution, the South has adamantly fought a rearguard action for decades to maintain its idea that culturally, economically and juridically the white man is superior to the black. And the measure of its success is the snail-like progress which the negro has made in the eighty years since Appomattox.

Similarly Fascism is an idea based on the delusion that the few should rule the many. Since Germany has been indoctrinated with the philosophy of Nazism does anyone believe the arrogant Nazis will abandon their idea just because the Allies have the military power to conquer them?

That the idea of Fascism must be expected to persist does not seem unreasonable. The recrudescence of the Nazi idea in any overt form will, of course, be stamped out by the Allies. But that it will crop out in some other cannot be doubted. And when it does it is not too much to suppose that those outside Germany who tolerated Fascism in its old form will urge us once more to be lenient toward the new. That will be the real danger. They will play on our war-weariness. They will tell us the Germans should be allowed to have whatever form of government they wish. They will once more ring all the old changes of isolationism and indifference.

That way lies disaster. Against these people we must be on our guard. Until we die we must remember that it was Fascism, in whatever form, that brought this holocaust to the world, that it was Fascism that threatened our enslavement, that it was Fascism that nearly put out the light of civilization. No matter what form it takes, what legal stratagem it employs as a cover-up, we must not let it raise its head. Never, so long as a white cross marks an American boy's grave in Europe or the Pacific, must we forget that it was Fascism—the idea that the strong should rule the weak—that brought him to his death.

We lost some of the fruits of our victory in 1865 through indifference, with the result that racial injustice still casts its black shadow over America to mock the dead of our Civil War. This time let's make our victory stick.

Troops 375 and 306 Hear Of DUMBARTON OAKS
Their Ambulances at Front

Both Being Used in Infantry Unit, They Learn In Letters From Combat Zone

A letter this week from a medical battalion of the American thirty-fourth infantry division in Italy revealed to members of Belleville's Boy Scout troop 375 the whereabouts of the ambulance which was purchased in their name as a result of war bond sales in excess of $1,950 in recent drives.

Sgt. Robert C. Hembd expressed the thanks of the battalion to the troop and said: "It indeed makes us happy to know that you boys are doing your part to help bring this war to a close as soon as possible."

He said that the ambulance has already been put to good use in evacuating wounded infantrymen from front lines to rear-line hospitals. He promised to send the local scouts a picture of the vehicle with its drivers and answer any questions they cared to write him.

John L. Sullivan is scoutmaster of troop 375 which meets at St. Peter's church.

Sgt. Hembd's letter was received by W. Douglas Clark, chairman of the Belleville district committee who turned it over to Mr. Sullivan.

Troop 306 at Montgomery church, of which Robert Myers is scoutmaster, also had the thrill this week of a letter from the driver of its ambulance, purchased in the same way.

Cpl. Gwazdosky, the driver, who identified the vehicle by a sticker on its windshield, wrote the troop, "I am going to leave the sticker on the windshield so that everyone who rides in this vehicle will know what a grand job you men are doing. You can rest assured that this ambulance will get the best of care and will do its share in winning the war."

"Your ambulance has the privilege of carrying the wounded and sick of the greatest American fighting men, the infantrymen."

Last week troop 389 at Congregation AAA disclosed that its ambulance was identified by one of the men who unpacked it, an uncle of a troop member.

did not prevent wars, and hence the old order must give way to the enlightened proposals of the Dumbarton Oaks plan.

In speaking of the Dumbarton Oaks plan, Mrs. Boothe stressed the need of the independence of the delegates toward the Senate before the plan could be feasible. She urged members to study closely all the ramifications of the plan, so that when public cooperation became essential, there would be a nucleus of enlightened citizens ready. In addition, all the members should enlist the support of the public insofar as it was possible for the Dumbarton Oaks plan represented the most enlightened thinking of the past 25 years.

Following Mrs. Boothe's talk, there was a general discussion in which most of those present participated. Speakers on the plan were recommended to individual organizations who were urged to hold conferences.

A meeting at the Woman's club last night for the organization of a committee on public information on the Dumbarton Oaks plan was indefinitely postponed according to announcement by Mrs. John F. O'Brien jr, chairman of the club's legislative department.

The club has sponsored two meetings of representatives of town organizations designed to acquaint them with the provisions of the plan and to equip them to inform the public.

Mrs. O'Brien will be a guest at the San Francisco Peace Conference and will shortly leave for the west coast.

His audiences were men relaxing just behind the front lines. He knows how they appreciate a friendly service from home.

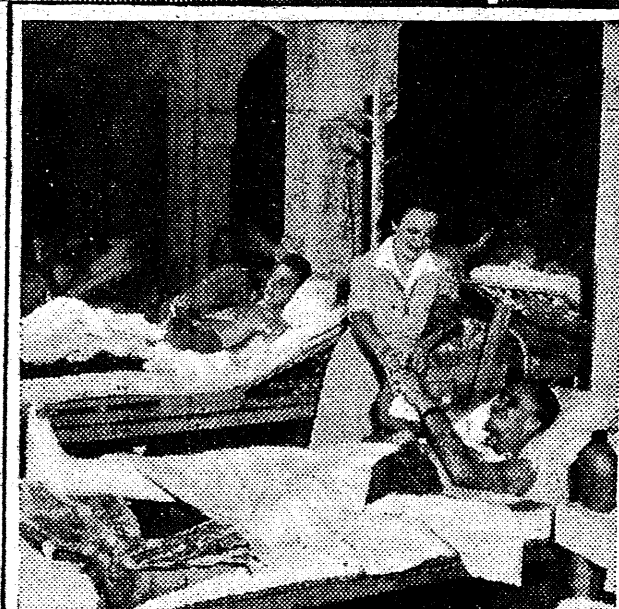

I SAW Red Cross blood plasma bring a man back to life! I watched a miracle. A miracle that could not have happened without you... and your Red Cross. In 1944 the Red Cross was asked to provide 5,000,000 pints of blood for the armed forces in addition to the 5,600,000 pints previously obtained. This project requiring 100,000 pints a week was carried on through fixed centers located in 35 major cities and by 60 mobile units attached to the centers which visited nearby towns.

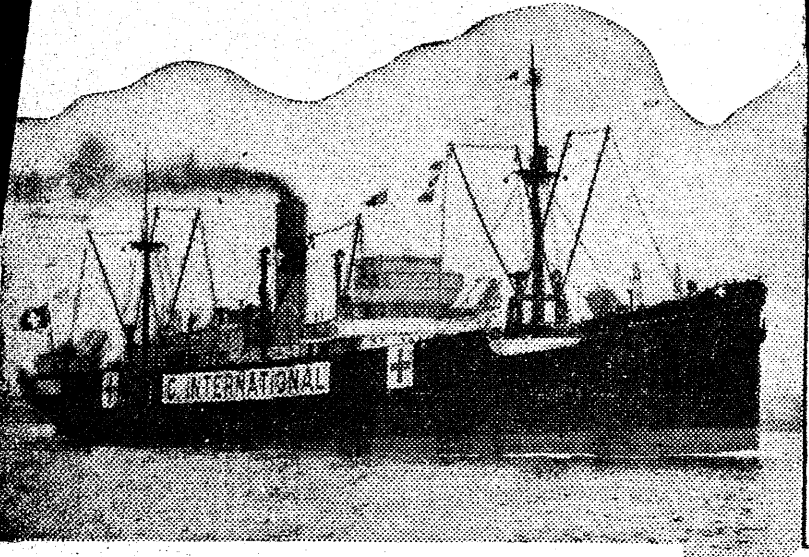

AW the Red Cross bring news from home to a worried son! Nor all worries are at home. A soldier in a distant Pacific Station was trying why a letter to his mother had been returned to him marked "unknown." Was she sick? Alive? What had happened? Through his Red Cross Field Director and National Headquarters he made a request to investigate and report. The mother was found to be all right and her address correct. But just after she had moved to her new location about 6 months previously, the mail man "thought he had returned a letter." A small matter perhaps, but terribly important to a dear one so far away.

I SAW the Red Cross playing mother to homesick, war-weary fighters! There are more than 700 Red Cross Clubs overseas. Some of them are like big hotels. They provide meals and snacks—beds with sheets! They arrange tours and dances. They're well-stocked with games, books, home newspapers. Their staffs are expert at sewing on buttons. They're good listeners, too!

I SAW the Red Cross handing out kits to the wounded in a field hospital. When a man has lost everything but the dirty, blood-stained uniform he wears into the hospital—these comfort kits are worth their weight in gold. They contain toilet articles, canvas slippers, cigarettes, cards and candy. They make a man feel like a man again!

I SAW a Red Cross ship taking food to our men in prison camps! Thousands of our men in enemy hands would be near starvation were it not for the food, clothing and medical supplies sent by and through the Red Cross. Your contribution helps make possible this work of mercy.

12th ANNIVERSARY OF QUALITY CONTROL

(Our Buyers Have A Word For It!)

It's a quick, unconditional "NO!" to any foods that fail to measure up to Food Fair's high standards of quality—a rigid policy from the very beginning ... and we've made it "stick" for twelve years.

Yes, we "know there's a war on" ... Food Fair has willingly made concessions in many things in the interest of our Nation's effort. It's been harder to say NO ... but it's still "NO!" to any compromise on quality—and that goes for every department in Food Fair.

That's why you can always depend on Food Fair for fine quality in everything for your table ... that's why Food Fair has grown 80 Super-Markets strong in twelve years—and will continue to grow!
