

SCHOOL BOARD VOTES JOHNSON NEW CONTRACT

Only Three Members Vote;
Disagree Over Title of Supervisor of Education

Burt Johnson was voted a one year contract as general supervisor of education at a salary of $5,250 plus a five percent bonus by the board of education at a special meeting last night. Three members of the board of education voted in favor of the contract. The contract was written by two members not voting. In a previous, oral ballot on the same motion, Mrs. Homer Zink and Walter Gilby declined to vote. Johnson who is not eligible for tenure until 1946, came here in September, 1943 at an annual salary of $5,000, to replace Hugh D. Kittle, high school principal who left to join the Navy. Johnson's contract was renewed last year, with a five percent increase. The contract renewal was proposed by Wayne R. Parmer, superintendent of schools, who also requested that two additional administrators be appointed. No action was taken on the later request. Parmer who pointed out that Kittle is under tenure and that Johnson has been assigned as acting principal, outlined the need of additional supervisory service for the improvement of instruction, the discussion of methods of presentation of various subjects and teacher adaptation of subjects to varying student capacities for study and achievement.

No Reflection

Mrs. Zink who with Gilby, did not vote on Johnson's original appointment, stated that her reason for not voting then as well as in the oral ballot last night, had no reflection on Mr. Johnson but rather on the fact that the board as a whole had been under the impression that they would vote on an acting principal, not a general supervisor of education.

Mrs. Zink stated that in her opinion the school system does not need both a superintendent of schools and general supervisor of education. Herbert Schmutz, in replying to her assertion that the change in title was made five minutes before the board took action, in voting for Johnson in 1943, stated that they were advised to create a new position as a protection to the board and to the superintendent. He stated that the board members are not educators and therefore place confidence in the recommendations of the superintendent of schools.

Miele Refused Permit On New Application

A new application by John Miele for a permit to rebuild the factory building at 143 Heckel street has been refused by the building inspector and his action was ratified by the board of commissioners on Tuesday night.

The applicant also technically requests a certificate of occupancy along with his request for a building permit, according to Town Attorney Lawrence Keenan. The permit was denied on the grounds that the application for the permit was not specific and did not state the intended use of the building. The application states that it is "for a laundry or any other industry permissible" complying with the zoning requirements of the town.

The permit has been objected to by Silver Lake residents who claim that the tenant, the Quality Products company, a rag cleaning firm, constitutes a fire hazard.

INDUSTRIES SET WAR LOAN QUOTAS

Goals Allocated for Ten Firms
Show Increases of 25
To 50 Percent

The industrial division of the Seventh War Loan drive got under way this week. W. Douglas Clark, industrial chairman, has announced, with quotas for ten local firms already set. The town's E bond quota has been set at $1,400,000 with the over-all quota $4,000,000, an increase of 75 percent over that for the Sixth War loan. Philip Dettelbach is chairman of the campaign which will run for three months. The House-to-house canvass, with schools and organizations, will be the main drive which will begin May 12 and continue until June 30.

Calculated in accordance with the new formula set up by the Treasury department, local treasury representatives have worked with labor and management in ten industries so far and have allocated quotas from 25 to 50 percent higher than those in the Sixth War Loan drive.

The plants are American Dye Wood company, American Tag company, Bart laboratories, Federal Leather company, Heyer Products company, Inc., Resistoflex corporation, National Grain Yeast corporation, Hanlon and Goodman company and L. Sonneborn and sons, Inc.

These firms are already organizing team captains and compiling payroll deduction cards in the plant, preparatory to the three month deduction which will be applied against the plant quota.

ELSBREE EXPLAINS SALARY GUIDE

Teachers Will Hear It Monday
Afternoon If Committee
Can Attend

The salary guide for teachers in the Belleville school system, compiled by Dr. Willard S. Elsbree, professor of education at Columbia university, will be explained by him to the teachers on Monday afternoon, at 4 o'clock provided members of the committee who worked with Dr. Elsbree are able to attend.

This was decided at a special meeting of the board of education held last night to discuss the guide. Its provisions will not be made public until after it has been explained and discussed with the teachers, a board member said last night.

The teachers have requested for some time that a new guide be adopted. Dr. Elsbree was retained a year ago by the board after recommendation by the Teachers association salary schedule committee.

Nineteen boys entered 35 gliders in the meet. Hermann's time was 17.9 seconds. Runners-up were Bob Kiss of 222 New street, 15.4 and Edmund Ray, 74 Livers avenue, 10 seconds. Clothes Drive Quota Set At 5 lbs. Per Person

75 Tons of Used But Serviceable
Apparel Belleville's Share
For European Peoples

A quota of 150,000 pounds or 75 tons has been announced as Belleville's goal in the drive for used and serviceable clothing to be sent to destitute people in war-torn Europe. The Rev. Peter R. Deckenbach is chairman of the campaign which fixes a minimum of five pounds required per person. The urgency of the need for this apparel cannot be over-emphasized, he said yesterday, in stating statistics reveal that 125 million people of whom there are 30 million children, have no way of securing necessary apparel in countries that have been under Nazi oppression.

Boy and Girl Scouts are aiding in the drive, with 1,700 pounds already credited to the later organization. Troop 2 was the first to contribute, bringing in 200 pounds during Easter week. Fourteen thermometers are on display in the window at Girl Scout headquarters, to stimulate troop activity. Boy Scouts will notify all families in their service area, in house-to-house calls.

All types of clean, wearable clothing are needed. Cottons must be washed but need not be ironed, while other apparel though it should be clean, is not required to be dry cleaned. Children's and men's and women's inner and outer apparel for both summer and winter is needed, as well as woolen stockings caps, all types of sweaters, jackets, coats, suits, work clothes and low heeled shoes which should be paired and tied. In addition, bedding such as pillows, sheets, blankets and quilts is also requested.

Don't Call Firehouses

Collection depots have been established in all the churches and schools, the three firehouses, Recreation House and the town garage, according to Charles Nutt, collection chairman. Mr. Nutt asks that people requiring additional information, telephone the Defense Council office in town hall, Be. 2-2100 and states that the firehouses should not be called under any circumstances. Members of the Red Cross motor corps will pick up bundles if word is left at the Defense Council office. James Lampman is chairman of the processing committee, which will work at municipal stadium.

Collection depots in all public elementary schools, the high school and St. Peter's parochial school will be opened from 9 to 3 each school day; fire department headquarters at Washington and Division avenues and firehouses on William street and Franklin street will accept clothing every day, including Sunday, from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. The Town garage depot at 46 William street will be opened from 8 to 4:30 except Saturday and Sunday; collections will also be taken at the Recreation House, 407 Joramelon street every day from 9 to 4 and even- ings from 7 to 10.

Churches will all maintain depots. Clothing will be accepted at St. Peter's church daily including Sunday from 8 a.m. until 9 p.m. Christ Episcopal church and Wesley Methodist church, both on Washington avenue, will be opened at 9 daily. Christ Episcopal will receive garments until 5; Wesley church until noon.

Fewsmith Memorial church will maintain a depot from 9 to 11 mornings and 8 to 10 evenings; Belleville Reformed church on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings from 7 until 8; Congregation AAA daily from 4 to 6 in the afternoon and 8 to 10 in the evening.

The Sunday school building on Remond street will house Grace Baptist church collection and will be opened to receive clothing Saturdays from 10 to 3. Bethany church at Joramelon and New streets will accept bundles all day Friday and Montgomery Presbyterian church on Mill street will be opened every evening after 7 with the exception of Sunday and Monday.

Italian Christian church at 70 William street will receive bundles Monday and Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

Little Zion Methodist church on Stephens street and Second Baptist church on Academy street will make collections on Wednesday and Friday evenings from 6 to 9.

Silver Lake churches where deliveries of garments may be made are First Italian Baptist church daily from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.; St. Anthony's church, where contributions should be taken to the auditorium, from 10 to 12 each morning and 3 to 5 each afternoon; Christian Apostolic church at 77 Wallace street on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

RED CROSS AIDS WMC IN NURSE RECRUITMENT

Harvey B. Thompson Heads Group to Interview Those Listed as Available

B. Thomas Aitken, chairman of the Belleville Red Cross, today announced the appointment of Harvey B. Thompson as chairman of the Nurse Procurement committee. This committee will cooperate with the War Manpower Commission Procurement and Assignment committee as available for military service.

The Army must have 14,000 more nurses assigned to duty by June 1. As each front opens up, more and more Army nurses are needed for work in evacuation hospitals overseas, for station and general hospitals in this country, and for hospital ships and planes in all theaters of war.

Between now and April 21, committee members will call upon Belleville nurses to provide complete information concerning the Army Nurse Corps and to assist them in completing the Army application form.

American military nurses band the globe wherever American troops are fighting — performing heroic jobs to help save the lives of the fighting men. Their devoted care to the sick and wounded has helped the Medical Department to keep down the percentage of deaths among casualties to less than 3 percent. The Nurse Procurement drive will guarantee holding that percentage, if not decreasing it.

Advantages of Service

The advantages of Army service are many, as brought out in the following questions and answers:

Q.—Is the Nurse Corps an integral part of the Army, with the same pay rate, privileges and regulations?

A.—Yes, it is part of the Army of the United States. As a second lieutenant, the grade in which she is commissioned, a nurse receives higher pay and occupational advantages than the average civilian nurse. Pay starts at $150 per month for second lieutenants plus allowances for maintenance, bringing to the total of $217. There are extra allowances for dependents, plus opportunity for travel and special duty and for the purchase of government insurance, the privileges of the G. I. Bill of Rights, and a $250 initial uniform allowance.

Q.—What are the requirements for commission in the Army Nurse Corps?

A.—If you are a graduate of an approved school and if you are a registered nurse, you are professionally acceptable to the A. N. C. (a) Age maximum is 45 years, and you must have no dependents under 14 years of age. (b) You must pass an Army physical fitness examination. (c) You must have a high school education or its equivalent. (d) You must be personally suited for the service.

Q.—What kind of Army assignment might I expect?

A.—When you don the olive drab of the U. S. Army Nurse Corps you are assigned as a nurse. You must be able to function in various nursing capacities. See Continued on Page Two

DENY ZONE CHANGE FOR THOMPSON

Board Unanimous in Refusal
After Residents Protest
Storage Building

An application for a change to industrial zone of two pieces of property to be used for a storage building by the Thompson Materials corporation of 303 Cortlandt street was unanimously refused by the board of zoning on Tuesday night after residents in the area registered protests.

The company which is engaged in highway construction, made an unsuccessful attempt about a year ago, to purchase the same lots at 292 Cortlandt street and 195 Stephens street, from the town, for storage purposes.

Public Works Director Waters led the board in opposing the change on Tuesday night, after hearing the reading of a petition from thirteen interested property owners living within a radius of 200 feet, and the individual opinions of the property owners present.

Stating that he has known some of the residents since childhood, Waters said, "I wouldn't want a storage building next to my home and they (Thompson officials) wouldn't want one next to their home either." Counsel for the property owners observed that their combined investment represented $45,000 in ratables which would be adversely affected by the change, and also listed other alleged disadvantages.

Harold H. Thompson explained that of the 41 pieces of property located within the 200 foot radius of the land in question, four are town-owned, six owners live out of town, and 23 of the remaining 37 owners had signed a statement consenting to the change of zone.

BRAKE-CHECKING BEGINS SUNDAY

Police Force Will Employ Simple, Quick Test During Six Week Program.

A brake-check program designed to reduce accidents and conserve the dwindling supply of passenger cars, will be begun on Sunday by the Belleville police, in cooperation with the nationwide program, according to Police Chief George R. Spatz.

By means of a new and simple check, the police hope to locate the most dangerous brakes in use and to warn motorists of the urgency of getting their brakes adjusted or repaired. The check will be applied only to passenger cars involved in traffic violations, where the car is moving, and in accidents. Brakes will also be checked on cars which are operated in a manner indicating that the brakes are unsafe. It will be in effect for six weeks, until June 1.

"The brake check takes only a minute to make," according to Chief Spatz. "In making the check the officer will place a wood block one inch thick on the floor board under the foot pedal. He then depresses the pedal. If it strikes the block before the brakes begin to grip, the brakes will be considered inadequate and in need of immediate attention," he said. If the brakes grip while the pedal is slightly more than one inch from the floor board they are not to be considered safe and the driver will be urged to have corrective measures taken.

The Safety Factor

"The brake check was determined after careful research, and it is based on the pedal pressure needed to stop cars safely," he Chief explained. The average car requires about 130 pounds of pedal pressure to permit brakes to do the best job of stopping the car. With only one inch of effective distance left in applying the brakes, it is possible to build up only about fifty pounds of pedal pressure, which is far less than is needed for proper stopping.

The brake check will not affect all motorists. It applies only to the conditions cited above. However, motorists in general, for their own protection and safety and to conserve their own cars are urged to cooperate. If motorists have any doubt as to the safety of their brakes, they should have them tested immediately at the repair shop and have them adjusted or repaired as soon as possible, the Chief urged.

The nationwide brake-check is being applied in every State with 5,000 or more police chiefs and sheriffs cooperating. This program has the support of the Office of Defense Transportation and of the U. S. Army Service Forces. In addition, it is supported by nearly 10 national organizations interested in safety.

RED CROSS DRIVE $9,000 OVER GOAL

Clean-Up Squads Will Be Busy

Clean-up squads will spend the next two weeks in getting contributions for final returns in all categories, after which a complete report will be made, the chairman stated yesterday. District 27 in the house-to-house canvass has been added to the list of 18 districts that have exceeded last year's returns.

Drive groups and their returns this week are: industrial firms - $15,920.20; employees - $12,293.11; industrial pledges - $5,400; town employees - $139; churches - Continued on Page Two

Noll Asks Delay; Mayor Threatens To Be "Explicit" On Conditions In The Department

A move Tuesday night, to take the police department from Mayor Williams and restore it to Public Safety Director King, though laid over for two weeks, brought a promise from the Mayor that he will be "very explicit" when the resolution is introduced about the conditions in the department that have jeopardized his personal character.

Referring to the Grand Jury probe of his alleged association with proposed gambling elements in town, the Mayor declared that it concerned statements that the members of the force "couldn't substantiate."

He stated that King tried to spread scandal about him and said that after the Grand Jury presentation (which was against the entire board), if he were King, he would resign.

The Mayor also declared that the move is intended to block his "improvements" in the department which are said to include the replacement of Recorder Clerk Fred Handlon with a member of the uniformed force, and open, competitive examinations for promotions in both the police and fire departments.

It was indicated that the resolution has a majority support of Public Works Director Waters, Public Affairs Director Mertz and King.

After Mertz stated at the conference that he was introducing the resolution at the official meeting, the Mayor asked for the attitude of the board.

Lay It Over

Noll: "I'd like to lay it over for two weeks. This is rather sudden." Williams: "Take it up as far as I'm concerned."

Waters: "We can vote on it as far as I'm concerned."

Noll: "No, I'd like a little time to give it consideration."

Mayor: "I have had plans to improve the department and I have measures to introduce. On the other hand, I have the duties of my department and personal affairs that demand my time. Take it over if you want to. I do intend to express my opinion however. You all know the situation in the department."

Noll: "I seconded the resolution in taking the department from Commissioner King. I'd like to see something done. I'd like to see you do it. You have amendments coming up. I'd like to see that out of the way first. I want to be consistent."

Mayor: "You (to King) had an opportunity previously. If the department is going back to where the personal character of the Mayor is jeopardized, I intend to be very explicit. You know the situation even better than I did. It had to be picked up piecemeal and it is scandalous."

King: "You had the department for a year before I took it."

Mayor: "If the board wishes to return the department after you as head of that department tried to scandalize the Mayor..."

King: "I didn't."

Mayor: "The Grand Jury thought you were."

Secret Information

King: "How did you find out what the Grand Jury said? It's secret information."

Mayor: "You told other members of things your men couldn't substantiate."

King: "How do you know they couldn't?"

Mayor: "The Grand Jury offered a presentation against the board and the police department."

King: "Not against me."

Mayor: "If it was me I'd resign from the board. I want to do things that would be beneficial to the town for years to come. If you want to stop it, You're getting the full salary for the department. It's okay with me."

King: "I'm for the best interests of this town. If you want to do that too, I'll go along with it."

Mayor: "You saw fit to talk to Noll and Waters."

King: "You may be trying to kid the public but you're not kidding me. I've been fair and above board in the whole thing."

Mayor: "I'd resign, after circulating rumors up and down the avenue."

King: "I didn't carry information to anyone except members of this board."

Mayor: "Wasn't I entitled to know it?"

King: "Maybe you were."

Mayor: "Well, I'm glad to get that admission at last."

Control of the police department has changed three times since the death of Commissioner Clark in October, 1942. The Mayor took over the Public Safety department and kept it until the vacancy on the board was filled by the appointment of Commissioner Mertz in July, 1943.

At that time, the board was re-organized with Mertz taking King's Public Affairs department and King moving into Public Safety. He continued in this capacity until the Grand Jury presentation last October when the Mayor took over control of the police.

In taking the department over, the Mayor stated, "pursuant to Continued on page two the presentment of the Grand Jury regarding the investigation of the alleged report to Public Safety Director King that Mayor Williams was linked with proposed gambling interests in town, it is the duty of the board to institute measures which will give the initial step in correcting the situations which have been existent and which should not exist in the police department."

WOMAN'S CLUB IN ART CONTEST

Revived Art Department Puts Entries in Eighth District Competition

Revival of the Art department of the Belleville Woman's club was accomplished Monday when the board of trustees gave its approval at a morning meeting and Mrs. Allan Crisp, until now nominating chairman, was named art chairman at the club's general business meeting and installation of officers in the afternoon.
Mrs. Crisp announced yesterday that entries from the new department will be made in the art contest of the eighth district woman's clubs at a conference to be held in Vincent Methodist church, Nutley today.

Mrs. Crisp has been assisted in plans to restore an art group to the club by Mrs. Lorena Clark who will be her chairman. Both women paint with oils and water colors and Mrs. Crisp is a sculptor.

Plans, however, aim to include all members of the club who are interested in creative handwork of any kind including needlework. Eleven members have been signed up. First meeting of the group and first field trip to a New York art museum will occur in May. The women hope to be able to sponsor exhibitions of the work of Belleville school children.

Local Exhibitors

Also an exhibitor today will be Mrs. William D. Cornish, chairman of the American Home department, long time club member and water colorist. She will enter a landscape. Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Crisp will enter water color and oil paintings and Mrs. Crisp two pieces of sculpture, heads of her five-year old son and of Mrs. Frank J. McFadden, club member.

cial preparation and capabilities are utilized to the fullest extent. Nurses with surgical experience, anaesthetists and those with supervisory backgrounds are placed as frequently as possible in corps assignments which demand such specialization.

Q.—What are the hours of duty of an Army nurse?
A.—They depend upon the needs of the hospital to which you are assigned. Where possible, hours do not exceed eight hours per day.

Q.—What are my chances of promotion in the Corps?
A.—Promotions of members in the Army Nurse Corps are governed by regulations which provide for temporary promotion of all commissioned officers in the Army of the United States. It is possible to be promoted to the grade of first lieutenant after six months. Promotions of Army nurses may be made from second lieutenant up to and including lieutenant colonel. There is but one colonel, the Superintendent of the Corps. While promotions are not based solely on length of service, a recent change in Army regulations provides for the promotion of any second lieutenant who has completed 18 months of satisfactory service in that grade, to the grade of first lieutenant without regard to Table of Organization of allotment vacancies; provided he or she is qualified for and worthy of promotion. In determining time in grade for this purpose, service outside the continental limits of the United States or Alaska will be counted as time and a half.

Q.—Is it true that the Army nurse is frequently in danger, and that there are nurses coming back maimed and wounded from overseas?
A.—This is untrue. Seven nurses have been killed to date by enemy action. Approximately 100 have given their lives in line of duty from accidents or natural causes. Some 30 have received the Purple Heart for various degrees of wounds resulting from enemy action. There have been no amputees of any description reported. The Army does not regard its nurses as expendable, and every possible precaution is taken to protect their welfare.

WHEREAS, it has been determined by authoritative investigators that faulty brakes are a contributing factor in most automobile traffic accidents; and

WHEREAS, the Police officers of the nation, under the aegis of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, have instituted a Nation-Wide Brake Emphasis Program; and

Your War Loan Money Where It Goes

- This last year, 48% to the army ---- 29% to the navy ---- 13% to other war agencies ---- 10% to non-war purposes.
- Not simply for big, important weapons of war --- battleships, B-29s, tanks, artillery, landing craft and block busters and the like, but little things too, such as barracks bags, pup tents ($3.05), toothpaste, baked beans and first aid kits.
- Not just to pay the soldier, the sailor and marine, and his generals and admirals ---- but also wages for the workers of the home front, who have helped to put our forces in Germany and on the shores of Japan.
- Not just to save lives by sending our victorious forces well-equipped into war, but to rehabilitate them when they stop fighting, and to care for their dependents.
- And remember that the cost of war in money is far, far less than its cost in blood and pain. THINK ABOUT IT!

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Broo of 132 Fairway avenue, his parents received notification last week of the awards for participation in the invasions of Normandy and France and the German offensive. He is a member of the 19th Corps artillery a 155-mm outfit commanded by Lt. Col. James E. Wood.
Pfc. Broo is assembling a good collection of German souvenirs which he is sending to his parents. They consist of various insignia, field caps and armaments. But perhaps the most valued souvenir received so far, is the corps map which shows the progress of his outfit from the time they crossed the English channel to their encirclement of Aachen.
Twenty-one years old next month, he attended School No. 10, St. Benedict's preparatory, and Good Counsel High school in Newark. He was freshman at Bluefield college, Va., when he enlisted in December, 1943. He was called the following May and trained at Camp Hood, Texas, in the Mohave desert, Calif., and went overseas in February, 1944. He has a brother Frank W. Broo Jr., 22 years old who is also a private first class, stationed in the South Pacific.

S/Sgt. Pompey Molinaro Jr.
S/Sgt. Pompey F. Molinaro Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Pompey Molinaro of 462 Belleville avenue, was recently promoted to the rank of Second Lieutenant, in the Army Signal Corp. Lieut. Molinaro, 21, Personnel Officer, is the youngest in his company to receive a direct commission.
He enlisted in the Signal Corps December 13, 1942 and has been overseas sixteen months. He is now located somewhere in France.
Previous to his enlistment, he was employed by the Firestone Tire and Rubber company of Newark, and is a 1940 graduate of Belleville High school.

Henry R. Kuntz, Resident Here 64 Years, Succumbs
A resident of Belleville for over half a century, Henry R. Kuntz, of 27 Essex street, died March 30 at his home, after a long illness.
Services were held in the Irvine Funeral home on Washington Avenue on Sunday evening, April 1, by the Admiral George Dewey, Camp No. 45 of Newark, followed by services on Monday evening conducted by the Rev. John Struyk of Belleville Reformed church of which Mr. Kuntz was a member. Burial followed on Tuesday in East Ridgeland cemetery, Delaware.

Gets Air Medal
S/Sgt. Harold Williamson Jr.
The Air Medal for "meritorious achievement while participating in sustained bomber combat operations over Germany and German occupied countries" was awarded recently to S/Sgt. Harold L. Williamson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Williamson of 304 Union avenue.
The staff sergeant is twenty years old and graduated from Belleville High school in 1942. He was studying Aviation Mechanics at Bloomfield Vocational school when he enlisted in the Air Corp during June, 1943.
After receiving his diploma as a mechanic at Amerilla, Texas, he was assigned to an Aerial Gunners school at Kingman, Ariz., where he received his wings as a gunner. At Sioux City, Iowa, he was made a Flight Engineer and went overseas in December, 1944. Since that time he has been stationed in England as an Engineer on a B-17 Flying Fortress.

42nd Honored For Work In Alaska

THE 42ND ENGINEER construction battalion receives its own battle streamer from the war department, presented by Brig. Gen. Edgar King (with star on cap) at Fort Lewis Army Service Forces training center in Washington. The presentation honored the outfit's excellent work in Alaska at the outbreak of the war.

Husband of Local Girl Member of Famed Outfit

T-5 George Lockhart Spent 29 Months in Alaska With Construction Battalion

Amid colorful regimental ceremonies attended by a large group of civilians from nearby cities, the 42nd Engineer Construction Battalion, a veteran outfit that "built and rebuilt Alaska," received a long-due honor from the War department this week when it was presented its own hard-won battle streamer at Fort Lewis, Army Service Forces training center in Washington.

T-5 George J. Lockhart of 64 Ligham street, husband of the former Miss Bernice Huyler of that address, served with the famed engineer group in the far North, and is now entitled to wear the unit citation ribbon. For 29 months, T-5 Lockhart was a member of the organization (then the 42nd Engineer General Service Regiment) scattered from Juneau to the Aleutian fingertip, that performed near-miracles in railroads, bridges, fortifications, military highways, and countless other vital structures — all under the most difficult conditions imaginable. The engineers were on the islands of Adak, Attu, Kiska and Amchitka.

Tough Assignments

The work of the GIs who fought together, worked together, and lived through Jap bombings together, is exemplified in Lockhart's Company "F." That company's history tells of one project at Camp Prominence which was situated at the bottom of a small valley in an area surrounded on three sides by steep ridges soaring to 2,000 feet. An open beach of about 400 yards spread out to the east.

It was necessary to construct a tramway 2,700 feet long rising from an elevation of 20 to 1,280 feet. The project called for a 130-trestle on a grade of 65 percent. Twenty-pound rails had to be laid on which a small car could be pulled up by a cable attached to a winch.

All grading of the Tramway was done by hand, and an 800-foot stretch was carved out of the steepest, rockiest portion of the right-of-way. Construction of this part was handicapped by continuous bad weather, icy conditions on the slope which often made it necessary for men to rope themselves together like mountain-climbers. Falling rocks loosened by blasting and frost action also endangered the engineers.

Lockhart entered service in April 24, 1941 and trained at Camp Selby, Miss. where the 42nd was activated. He had further training at Camp Murray, Seattle, Wash., before going to Alaska in April, 1942.

After 29 months there, he returned last August when he was married to Miss Huyler, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward V. Huyler of the Ligham street address. After a 21-day furlough, he reported to Fort Lewis, Wash. He was home again for nine days during the Christmas holidays, and is now awaiting reassignment.

The son of Mrs. Joseph Miller of Newark, he was born there and attended Newark Schools. He was a salesman for the Campbell Soup company in Newark before entering the service.

MC FADDEN IN MAP PRINTING UNIT

Assault Troops Carry Terrain Layouts Made by His Engineer Battalion

Wherever American assault troops hit the beaches of the Mediterranean Sea, they carried with them maps produced by the 649th Engineer Battalion, of which Pfc. Edward P. McFadden Jr. of 124 Division avenue, was a member. A topographic unit, it is now supporting the Seventh Army in Lieut. Gen. Jacob L. Devers' 7th Army Group.

Draftsmen, photomaps, reproduction experts and pressmen of the 649th have turned out, approximately 10,500,000 maps in less than two years overseas, serving immediate battle areas and anticipating forthcoming operations in new territories. These included large-scale and small scale reproductions in monochroms, aerial-photo mosaics, and fortification overlays. Supplementing this they produced terrain models and town plans.

Pfc. McFadden who is a printer in the specialized unit, is not new to the work since he was employed by the Sweeney Lithographing company in town, before entering service. Thirty-one years old, he joined the outfit in Africa in April, 1943, after training at Fort Belvoir, Vt., for five months. He was recently billeted in a Belgium castle that was still intact, even to the wine cellar, but it wasn't long, he reports, until they set up shop in the woods, again.

"The 649th is capable of printing 30,000 four-color maps in a day," explained Maj. Robert G. Waitt of Atlanta, Ga., battalion commander who recently joined the unit after service with a Third Army topographic battalion. "One task that requires the skill and tedious work of my draftsmen is the revision of maps—the relocating of woodlands, roads, streams and buildings after reference to current aerial photographs."

Surveyors operate in forward areas with field artillery observations units, effecting fire control for Seventh Army artillery. Activated on December 15, 1941, the 649th began printing maps of North Africa invasion. It landed in North Africa on April 13, 1943 and came into Southern France in September, 1944. Its surveymen served with the Fifth Army in Italy.

Pfc. McFadden has a brother, Joseph, 27 a sergeant, t/4 now stationed with the 12th Army group at engineers headquarters in Germany. A member of the combat engineers, he is also pursuing his chosen trade for he too, was employed at Sweeney's before entering service. He has been abroad since December, 1942, and has been in Africa, Sicily, England, France and now Germany. They are the sons of Edward McFadden of the Division avenue address.

Cub Pack Den Visits Museum

Den 2 of Cub Pack 307 at the Passaic avenue school visited the Museum of Natural History in New York city on Monday. Organized last October, the boys meet Thursday afternoons at the home of their den mother, Mrs. Joseph Bizub of 148 Garden avenue.

Mrs. Bizub explained that the boys, who range in age from nine to twelve, save five cents a week toward such expeditions. Their first choice was the history museum.

Robert Schwier, Robert Vimenti, den chief; Ernest Ferrara, Ned Chesley, Joseph and John Bizub, and Leonard Gianetti are den members. Mrs. Schwier accompanied them with Mrs. Bizub Monday.

Adelphi Players Plan Benefit For Service Men's Fund

Two one-act plays for the benefit of the Grace Baptist church service boys fund are planned by the Adelphi Players, in addition to their annual spring production which is still to be selected. Meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Drena Clark on Clearman place, the group decided on "On the Air," by Howard Reed and "Ladies Alone" by Ryerson and Clements for the benefit performance. Mrs. Clark will direct and a silver offering will be taken.

The Rev. Marshall J. Whitehead, pastor of Grace church, will direct the three-act play to be chosen as the regular spring production.

The service committee of which

Miss Helen Colehammer is chairman, write regularly to boys in service, in addition to remembering them on holidays.

St. Peter's Girl Bowlers Win CYO County League Title

The girls bowling team of St. Peter's Catholic Youth Organization have won the championship in the Essex County CYO Bowling League.

They defeated Blessed Sacrament girls team two games out of three last Sunday. This win over last year's Essex County champs automatically gave the title to the local girls. There was no need for a play-off match because St. Peter's had won the first half of the league. The game Sunday was to decide the winner of the second half.

In the first game, St. Peter's won 547 pins to 527 for Blessed Sacrament. Kathleen Owens came through in this game with a high score of 161 to put the team ahead. The second game was won by Blessed Sacrament, the score being 581 to 566. The third and deciding game was won by a margin of five pins. Agnes Griffin bowling last for the local team brought the score up to 581, which was just enough to nose out the 576 score by Blessed Sacrament.

There will be a game between the boys and girls bowling teams of the parish on Sunday in the St. Peter's alleys. This will be the first local appearance of the newly crowned boys and girls Essex County CYO bowling champions.

The girls team will receive a handicap and the winner of this match will be determined by total number of pins. The first game is scheduled to start at 2:30 p.m. Parents and those interested are invited to witness the games.

BHS Baseball Squad Ready For Full Schedule

The pitching staff has been raised to six with augmentation from the J.V. team. The staff includes Vitelli, Herman Lubertazzi, Al Porcella, Adolf Marshall, Roy Hunt and Jerry Raccioppi. Two or possibly three of these boys will pitch for the J.V.'s also. Vitelli, Lubertazzi and Marshall were the pitchers slated to go against Glen Ridge. The only left handed hitter in camp is Marshall.

his best. Last year he led off and played third base for the re-born baseball team. He expects to play in only a few games before leaving.

BELLBOY BITS: The team is minus a shortstop because of Pasquariello's exit. . . Pat Raccioppi was turned from a pitcher to an outfield because of arm ailments. . . Don Smith had his uniform taken away. . . Tony Greco is the sure first string catcher and will probably be the clean-up hitter. . . Three players have been spiked so far. . . Frank Takash had a sore leg muscle. . . Pat Passannanti is the only first baseman in camp. . . The starting line-up will have an array of veterans.

Leaving For Navy

The infield will suffer somewhat by Vic Pasquariello's scheduled Navy assignment. The Bellboy ace was playing at shortstop and was leading off in hitting. Pasquariello, as everyone knows, was the immortal of Belleville athletics. In his four years at BHS he only played on two J.V. teams, one for football and one for basketball. In his three years on the football varsity he showed plenty for a boy weighing in at only 142.

Being fleet-footed on the courts, he also played three years of varsity there, his second year being

Capt. George Brown Emphasizes Need for More Plasma

Capt. George F. Brown, A. C., son of Mrs. Grace Brown of 140 Bremond street, has reported for assignment at Detroit, Mich., after spending a 21 day furlough at his home.

As a member of the Air Transport Command, Capt. Brown stated during his recent visit home that "Within the past fourteen months the Pacific Division, Air Transport Command has evacuated thousands of patients from the far-flung battle fronts of the Pacific to the rear base hospitals."

"From personal observation of the tremendous task involved in returning the most seriously wounded little patients I can't impress too strongly upon the people at home the urgent and vital need for blood plasma."

Brown enlisted in the Army in February, 1942, and attended A. F. T. S. at Fort Logan, Colo., where he was then transferred to the North Atlantic Wing of the Air Transport Command at Houton, Me. He was commissioned as a second lieutenant and assigned to the Pacific Wing of the Air Transport Command and left for overseas in March, 1943. He spent ten months at Christmas Island and was returned to this country in August, 1943 for further training in priorities and traffic.

After being stationed at Hickam field, Hawaii, for three months, Capt. Brown was then transferred to the Fiji Islands where he was stationed for nine months.

Quadruple Threat For Reich

This quartet at an Eighth Air Force Bomber Station, in England is up to no good as far the Germans are concerned. In normal times these four young men might be huddled together on a football field in a pre-game conference, but in this case they're clearing up last minute details before taking off on a bombing mission over the Reich. They are, left to right, 1st Lieut. Joseph D. Zink, 22, of 26 Rossmore place, pilot; 1st Lieut. Eugene E. Burcham, 22, of Millville, bombardier; 1st Lieut. Aldo J. Rovero, 21, Torrington, Conn., navigator; and Major Alexander C. Strickland, 24, Slaton, Texas, who commanded the formation of B-17 Flying Fortresses that were taking off a few minutes after this picture was taken. These men are members of the veteran 384th Bomb Group.

Lieut. Zink was promoted to first lieutenant in January. Last December he was awarded the air medal for "exceptionally meritorious achievement while participating in sustained bomber operations over enemy occupied Europe." The son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer C. Zink, he entered service in February, 1943. He was a student in Princeton university at that time previous to which he was graduated from Belleville High school.

Army Reserve Test Slated This Morning At BHS

Seventeen Year Old Students And Graduates Eligible For Qualifying Exam In Specialized Training Program

Young men of 17, who have graduated from high school, or who can do so in the next few months, are offered an opportunity not only better to serve their country through special training essential to the Army, but also to start their own college education and to lay a firm foundation for future college training, through the Army Specialized Training Reserve program. Qualifying tests are being held this morning in the high school cafeteria, Bart Johnson, principal, has announced.

Thirty high school students have already applied. Mr. Johnson said yesterday. Students are asked to report to their homerooms before going to the High school cafeteria for the two and one-half hour test which will begin at 9 o'clock. Graduates may go directly to the cafeteria.

Up to 48 weeks of intensive academic training in accredited universities and colleges will be available. The program will give an excellent standard for future college training under the G. I. Bill of Rights. The academic credits to be allotted towards completion of work for a degree will be determined by each individual institution to which the future student applies.

The Army will pay tuition and will provide textbooks. Students will receive uniforms, living quarters and meals without charge. They will not be subject to military law, but must comply with the rules and regulations of the institutions they attend. Not being on active duty, they will not receive pay or other benefits provided by law for soldiers on active duty.

To be eligible, an applicant must have been born after September 30, 1927, and before September 1, 1928. This means that boys from 16 years, eight months to 17 years, six months of age as of April 12 will be permitted to try the test. The applicant must be a citizen of the United States, and have written consent of a parent or guardian to enlist in the Enlisted Reserve Corps and for assignment to the program. Successful participation in the test will not obligate the applicant to enlist.

Elks Give Aid to Liberated Brother Internees in Manila

Headed by Thomas J. Wolff, Past Grand Officer of Manila Lodge of Elks, a special committee has been set up in the Philippines capital to bring relief and assistance to recently liberated Elks internees, according to word received today by Sidney Birks, Exalted Ruler of Belleville Lodge No. 1123 from James R. Nicholson, chairman of the Elks War commission, New York city.

An appropriation of $100,000, made available from the fraternal order's war chest, has been set aside for the purpose. The money will be used to purchase medicine, food and clothing, and provide loans for members of Manila Lodge and other Elks who were held prisoners by the Japs until their liberation by American forces recently.

Prior to Japanese occupation, Manila Lodge of Elks had 489 members. A large number of these men, together with other Elks in the islands at the time of the invasion were interned.

In addition to the relief work being conducted in the Philippines under Mr. Wolff's direction, an Elks War Relief committee has been established in San Francisco, to meet and give assistance to Elks returning to this country after their liberation from Jap internment camps.

Three Aviation Engineers Air Field Specialists

T/Sgt. Edwin Young, T/4 James Cancelosi And T/4 Frank Georgiana Complete Two Years In Mediterranean Theater

Three localites who as Army aviation engineers have become specialists in building bomber fields have recently completed two years of active duty building bases for Allied air power in the Mediterranean Theatre of Operations.

They are T/Sgt. Edwin C. Young of 651 Belleville avenue; T/4 James Cancelosi of 350 Belleville avenue and T/4 Frank Georgiana of 90 Greylock parkway.

These veterans became by chance and by early assignment specialists in building bomber fields. The battalion made the entire 1200-mile trip across North Africa from Casablanca to Tunis by rail in two jumps. Airfield-building in the Medjez-el-Bab and Pont-du-Fahs area was the most hazardous of any location.

Studded With Mines

The area had been fought over and held by each side at least twice and both sides had planted land and personnel mines. Although another aviation engineer battalion had already picked up 3,500 mines out of a virgin grain field before it could be converted into an airfield, 800 additional German Teller mines were disarmed or blown up.

The following fall and winter was spent in Italy. As the first, and for some time the only aviation engineer battalion in the area, these bomber field specialists were busy 24 hours a day every day. The Air Forces were in a hurry and the heat was on.

Played Large Part

These veterans are proud in feeling that they had a part in the establishment of the Allied air power in Italy which subsequently resulted in the liquidation of the Ploesti oil refineries and of Austrian aircraft industries.

After getting the area started, the battalion went to Corsica where they constructed fields in the rocky terrain. Then to Southern France they went, landing a bare three days after D-day, and followed the front until their unit was relieved and returned to Italy.

Celebrating their second anniversary, they are still engaged in the specialty they have made a science—the construction of Allied airfields to help finish off the Axis.

Anything You Can Spare

Millions of destitute people—125 million of them—in Europe alone, are helpless to do much for themselves. Living in the ruins of their homes, some working in cratered fields with few of the implements they once had, short of food and possessing little clothing—their plight would be hopeless if they could not rely on two things—the prospect of peace and of material aid from friendly nations.

Our opportunity to participate directly in relieving some of their misery is here and now. By contributing to the Clothes Drive this month, each family in Belleville can feel that they have had a direct part in providing some of the relief that is so sorely needed.

Anything you can spare that they can wear will be welcomed at any of the clothing depots designated for the collection. Production of new clothing has been impossible, so their need will continue long after the end of hostilities. Remember too, that 30 million of this destitute population are children.

Look over your family's wardrobe now. Pick out every garment you can possibly spare, serviceable used summer as well as winter clothing and shoes, men's, women's, children's, and infants. Every Belleville home must give its share of at least five pounds of apparel if the town's quota of 75 tons, the minimum needed, is to be met.

A Good Job

The Red Cross War fund which continued to soar over its quota this week, as final returns came in had the largest goal every specified for Belleville. By overshooting it the town has manifested its confidence and belief in the work this humanitarian organization is doing for our service men and women, clear around the world.

No little credit goes to the volunteers for the campaign, who through their conscientious work and cooperation, contributed largely toward making the drive a success. The over-subscription means not only more services for the armed forces, but provides for the enlargement of the services of the local chapter for Belleville service men and women and their families. And equally important will be the satisfaction and gratitude Bellevillites in the armed forces will feel for their home town that hasn't let them down.

A G.I. Creed

"What are we fighting for?" Most of us, war-weary here at home, as well as the battle-weary in the fighting zones occasionally ask ourselves that rhetorical question. We know well enough in our hearts, but the complexities of framing a universal peace, the welter of a war-ratoned world and the diverse every-day conflicts between idealism and realism sometimes befuddle our vision.

A local GI, busy keeping the enemy on the run in Europe has, however, defined his own private battle. It is a simplification of the coming San Francisco conference and of all the world conferences on the preservation of peace. It has its roots in personal living and magnified a couple of million times, it's the GI creed—the GI reason for courage in facing death in a conflict not of their own choosing.

"What am I fighting for? This thought has entered my mind many times since I have been in combat. Just what am I fighting for? Are the things I am fighting for worthwhile?"

"I am fighting because God has blessed me with two very fine parents. Parents who have given me everything within their power: who have never been selfish toward themselves. They have clothed and fed me, giving me the best of care until I entered the Army. Parents who now are praying for my return home, safely."

"I'm fighting to end this war sooner, so that millions of fellows can go home to their loved ones. Fighting for a brother for whom I'd gladly give my life if he could be spared of this awful war. He's fighting for the same things I am. May God speed him home safely and soon."

"There's a certain girl back home that I'm fighting for, to protect her from any harm which might happen under a corrupt government such as a dictatorship."

"Then there are the children back home who play in the streets, running over people's lawns, tearing down hedges, enjoying a life where there is no military dictatorship. These same children in years to come will be part of our great country."

"I am fighting because I am an American wanting a better democratic world. I'm fighting to uphold the traditions of our Country: Freedom of Speech, Freedom of Press and Freedom to Practice My Religion."

"Oh God! Please watch over these things I am fighting for. Let no harm come upon them. Protect me so that I may go home to them, for they are worth fighting for."

Love Conquers All

Why nobody ever thought of it before is hard to understand, but scientists have just discovered that mosquitoes have love calls, in response to which the males pursue the females with all the ardor and very much of the technique of our smoothest wolves.

Using a microphone, an amplifier and a phonograph, three doctors in Cornell University Medical School have recorded the sounds made by mosquitoes in a cage. They discovered that mosquitoes sing when they are looking for a mate. The females, of course, sing loudest.

"The most astonishing and important observation of this experiment," says the scientists' report—rather naively, it seems to us—"is that the note of a single female will cause the males of the same species to burst into an answering chorus." The scientists, still surprised, noted that when the voice of one female was recorded and played back to a cageful of males the young bucks got all in a dither.

This, it seems to us, is the most useful scientific discovery since the invention of the wheel. Now we're getting somewhere. Just as we've always suspected, all this state mosquito extermination hocus-pocus has been the bunk. Our mosquito authorities—a misnomer, if we ever saw one—have been overlooking the simplest fact in behavior—sex. Lacking all romance themselves, they never suspected that the mosquito was a romantic fellow, with his eye peeled for a pretty gal. Love! Why, of course! Anopheles quadrimaculatus is a wolf, and show him a pretty face and he croons like Sinatra.

The rest should be easy. The state mosquito people should revise their whole program. They should drop everything and go out and catch a few of the prettiest numbers among the female mosquitoes that they can find. They might stage a beauty contest—at Atlantic City. Pick out the best lookers, put them in cages, and let them sing. Handled with showmanship and energy, the whole mosquito problem could be solved in a summer or two.

And to think that we've been feeding the mosquitoes precious oil, when all they wanted was a little love.

Soldier Enjoys Keeping Up With Friends, in The Times

From Pfc. James J. Yingling, Liberal Army Air Field, Kan.
 I am enjoying my subscription to the paper and you will never know how much I enjoy reading it. I like to keep up with my buddies through the paper.

You never really appreciate Belleville until you are away from it for a while. I've been here in Kansas for 21 months and Jersey is really beautiful compared to the wind swept deserts here.

You will probably notice that I've just been promoted to private first class. I'm in the bombsight maintenance department on the field. We repair the bombsights and automatic pilots on the ships which incidentally, are B-24 Liberators. The purpose of the field is to train officers on that type plane.

Before I came in the Army I worked at Carson-Newton company. My home address is 50 Cleveland street and I have a wife and year-old daughter.

Again, I want to thank you for sending the paper and give my regards to all my friends in Belleville.

Suggests News Summary

From Mrs. C. F. Inderwies, 134 Linden avenue
 To the Editor of The Times-News:
 Enclosed you will find a check for three dollars in payment for my subscription for the Belleville Times-News.

We have been constant readers of your paper and have always found it very interesting and newsy. It would be a very interesting and thoughtful addition to have a column summarizing the local, suitable for clipping and mailing to our boys in service. If, for one, could find very good use for it, to send to my husband overseas.

Patton Calls U.S. Tanks Best in War
 General Says German Machines Are Far Below American in Mobility.

"Since August 1, 1944, when the Third Army became operational, our total tank casualties have amounted to 1,138 tanks. During the same period we have accounted for 2,287 German tanks, of which 808 were of the Tiger or Panther variety, and 851 on our side were Mark IV.

Refutes Inferiority Charge.
 "These figures of ourselves refute any inferiority of our tanks, but let me add that the Third Army has always attacked, and therefore better than 70 per cent of our tank casualties have occurred from dug-in anti-tank guns and not enemy tanks, whereas a majority of the enemy tanks put out have been put out by our tanks.

"It is patent that if a Tiger tank with an enormous thickness of armor were put at one end of a village street and engaged in a fire fight with a Mark IV tank at the other end, the Mark IV would not last. However, the great mobility of the Mark IV tank usually enables it to circumvent the slow and unwieldy Tigers and not to engage in a slugfests match but to attack them from the rear.

"With the advent of the heavy cumbersome Tiger tank, the German, in my opinion, lost much of his ability in armored combat. These tanks are so heavy and their road life is so short that the German uses them as a tank not as tanks—that is, it uses them on the defense.

Enemy Losses Heavy.
 "Had the armored divisions which accompanied the Third Army across France been equipped with Tiger tanks, the road losses would have been 100 per cent by the time we reached the Moselle River. As it was, the road losses on our long-lived tanks were negligible.

"In the current operation, had the Fourth Armored Division been equipped with Tiger and Panther tanks and been required to make the move from Saargue to Arlon, then through to Bastogne, from Bastogne to the Rhine, and now to Mainz, it would have been necessary to re-arm it twice; and furthermore, it would have had serious difficulty in crossing rivers.

"Finally, we must remember that all our tanks have to be transported on steamers, and the difference between forty tons and seventy tons is very marked. A seventy-ton tank could never have been brought ashore in landing boats, as many of our medium tanks were. Nor could they have been marched from the Rhine to the Peninsula to the Rhine as practically all of our tanks have been required to do.

"In mechanical endurance and in infinitely superior to any tank in the theater of war. The outstanding advantage which our tanks possess over the German tanks is the mechanical traverse and stabilizer, through the use of which we get most of our kills."

LEADERS' COURSES IN GIRL SCOUTS

Training Program Also Available For Council Members And Troop Committees

Mrs. George R. Gerard of 35 Rosemore place, who took office as Girl Scout commissioner last month, conducted the regular meeting of the scout council in Washington avenue headquarters last Thursday evening which dealt with plans for training courses for leaders, council members and troop committee members. The organization committee will give the first training session for troop committee members today.

Mrs. Gerard entered scouting in 1937 and has served in secretarial and public relations work as well being council member. Last year she was treasurer of the camp committee. Formerly a teacher in the Greylock school she has lived here ten years. She is the widow of George R. Gerard, well-known educator and supervisor of schools here.

Tomorrow eleven council members will take inventory at Belleville's cabin in South Mountain reservation where eight weeks of camping have been planned under Miss Bardaghy's direction. Mrs. Victor Hart is camping chairman.

Establishment of such a program three years ago justified an increase in Girl Scouts quota in the Belleville Community Chest of which the organization is a member agency.

Five hundred scouts were reported registered last Thursday, an increase of more than fifty percent since last October. Miss Mary Staniar was named Juliette Lowe membership chairman and a senior scout project to gather material for a history of girl scouts here was formulated at the meeting.

Seventeen council members were named to attend the Girl Scout regional institute for northern New Jersey at the YMCA in Newark next Thursday.
