

Bond Drive Spurred By Eight-Year-Old

Third-Grader Sells Total Of $11,643 To "Customers"; No. 5 Doubles Goal

As Belleville this week went over half its quota of $1,400,000 in E bonds for the Seventh War Loan drive, the contribution of an eight-year-old supersalesman, Gordon Wiegmann, a third grade pupil at School No. 7, was revealed to be $11,643 as his sales efforts during the drive.

Gordon who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wiegmann of 22 Fairview place, has sold a total of $13,956 in bonds to his regular "customers" during the school year now closing, Principal Catherine H. Hardwick has stated.

Makes Record

Gordon Wiegmann

It is understood that Gordon as a second grader, became ambitious to have his class for the school in the sale of war bonds and stamps. With the help of his dad, he lined up prospects who have become his own steady customers. And as he behaves a good salesman, he reminded them of the current drive long before it officially opened, it is understood.

Gordon, also concerned in keeping his own weekly record of stamp purchases unbroken, in his aim to help carry his class over the top, had a close call one week, when a holiday came on Monday and caused his parents to forget that the first day of school that week was bond and stamp day. Gordon also forgot his stamp money but managed to maintain his record by borrowing fifty cents from a classmate for his weekly purchase.

However, the support of the general public in the current drive is another story. Philip Dettelbach, drive chairman, declared yesterday, E. bond purchases went to $807,506 this week and an over-all total of $1,536,945 is far short of the $4,000,000 goal.

Let-Down in Purchases

"The let-down in bond purchases by individuals is certainly unwarranted," he said yesterday. "People are far too optimistic. The war in the Pacific is still to be won and every bond purchased now, will shorten that conflict and help immeasurably in saving lives," he reminded.

The schools however, are maintaining their good showing with reports of purchases in May totaling $81,493.35 exclusive of St. Peter's parochial school which tallied $2,445.75 in bonds and stamps for the same period. Greylock School No. 5 held a bond celebration last Thursday. Principal Robert N. Haves reported, when the children with a Seventh War Loan quota of $27,000 went over the top for a total of $63,086.15.

The children's original objective was the equipping of 200 men on a destroyer escort. When the final tally was made on Tuesday, the last bond-selling day, the committee decided to equip a Coast Guard medium cutter in addition. The year's total of $103,200.35 was announced by the chairman, Jack Russell and Erv Patterson. Sub-chairmen were: Phyllis Lay and Norma Barone of the upper grades and Constance Calenda and Sara Sue Posta for the primary grades.

Boy Scout troops which have the purchase of an ambulance or $1,950 as each troop goal, have reported sales of $6,281.25 so far. Troop 350 leads with $3,243.75; Troop 388, $1,420; Troop 301, $1,312.59 and Troop 386, $262.50.

The Craftsman's club with a goal of $50,000, has a total so far, of $22,000 in bonds purchased, according to James R. Lampman, club president.

CITY SERVICE PERMIT DENIED

Board Votes Down Application For 13 Additional Buses, Four To One

An application of the City Service Transit company for a permit to run thirteen additional buses through the north end of town from the Passaic avenue bridge through Newark was denied Tuesday night by a four to one vote, with Mayor Williams dissenting.

Parks and Public Property Director Noll in charge of transportation introduced a resolution denying the permit. He said the increase from seven to twenty buses on the line which serves Rutherford, Lyndhurst and North Arlington would jeopardize the Public Service No. 100 line, Public Works Director Waters agreed that the P.S. line which runs on McCarter Highway into Newark is the only service available to the Valley section of town and should be protected. It serves the whole Valley area, he pointed out, whereas the City Service line is primarily an accommodation for other towns and would deprive Public Service of passengers in the northern section.

Public Safety Director King objected on the grounds that the City Service buses run through narrow Cortlandt street which he proposed along with others to make a one-way thoroughfare. The Mayor declared that he is for "wide open competition" and stated that more buses should mean more seats for riders.

PUBLIC APATHETIC TO CANCER APPEAL

Refuses to Recognize Disease Menace In Contrast To C. I. Reaction

Public response to the drive by the American Cancer Society to raise $7,500 locally is far from gratifying, Harry Specht, drive chairman, declared yesterday. "The public apparently refuses to recognize the seriousness of the disease and the fact that each individual who contributes may be a direct beneficiary," he stated.

So far, only twenty percent of the quota, or $1,500 has been contributed, it was learned, and this has been mainly the result of a direct appeal through letters, to 700 merchants, industries and a special list of individuals. "It is the public which will benefit by the clinics, which will be set up for the control and cure of cancer in New Jersey, from the research and educational program that the funds solicited will provide," Specht said. "Because of this, a contribution no matter how small, from each of the 8,500 families in town, is little enough to ask. I am sure that the residents of Belleville who have not yet given this drive serious consideration, will do so, when they realize the great benefits that may be derived even within their own families or among their friends," he said. Checks made payable to the American Cancer Society may be sent to William J. Goodson, drive treasurer, at the First National Bank.

Service Men Respond
Contrasted with public apathy here, is the response of thousands of men and women in all branches of the armed services in all parts of the world, who have contributed to the nationwide drive. Elmer Bobst, chairman of the New Jersey division of the American Cancer Society, said this week, "It is highly dramatic and moving that men who are risking their lives in the most terrible war the world has known, should be deeply interested as their letters show them to be, in the drive to control cancer."

Several letters from battle-fronts made public this week by Elmer Bobst evince this interest. A seaman on the USS Charger writes, "I'd certainly feel foolish coming home after this war to find that a country like America, big enough to fight a two-front war, wasn't great enough to fight an equally deadly enemy on the third front at the same time." "In forwarding a check for $170 from 167 men in the 409th Infantry, Capt. Joseph Terranova wrote, before Germany's surrender, 'Through at present engaged in the business of extermination, we are fundamentally peace-loving citizens interested in the preservation of mankind.'"

Fire Damage In April

Property damage by fire amounted to $2,805 during April, Fire Chief Reid reports. The department responded to 42 alarms of which 31 were telephone calls and eleven box alarms. Of the latter, four were false.

FEW VOTERS TURN OUT FOR PRIMARY

Absence Of Contests Makes Local Vote One Of Town's Lightest

Belleville breezed through one of the lightest primary election votes in its history this week when only 646 of a total registered 12,268 voters turned up at the polls. Absence of any contest in either of the parties was the attributed cause of the light vote.

Of the total, 431 Republican and 215 Democratic votes were cast. Last year 1,115 of a total register of 11,673 voted. At that time the Republicans drew a total vote of 839, while the Democratic vote was 276.

The only contest in the town occurred for male member of the county committee in the third district of the fourth ward through write-in votes. James Constantino of 138 E. 1st street won the berth. He received six write-in votes, but one was rejected. Joseph Risoli of 15 Naples avenue, another write-in contestant received a total of seven votes, but three of his were rejected. Mary Egidio is the female candidate for the committee.

Highest individual vote in the town was garnered by Joseph Solimine, Republican candidate for the County Board of Freeholders. He polled 393 votes. Leader in votes polled in the Democratic party was Kenneth A. Clark, candidate for the General Assembly. He registered 184 votes.

November Candidates

At the general election in November, Republican candidates for members of the general assembly will be Stephen J. Bator, Walter H. Conklin, Frank Cuzzoline, Minna P. Greenbaum, Mildred V. Hardester, Alfred P. Harris, James O. Hill, Gustave W. Huhn, Cyrus H. Loutrel, Emil G. Meyer, Godfrey K. Preiser and Frederic Stoddard.

Democratic candidates for the Assembly will be Kenneth A. Clark, Ellie M. Apter, Mary T. White, Stephen J. Moran, Frank J. Cavico, Joseph E. Cohen, John J. Rossinski, Robert C. Gruhin, James E. Abrams, Joseph C. J. McGovern, Alice L. Lawson and James P. McHugh.

For the office of County Clerk, Republican Russell C. Gates will oppose Democrat William F. Russell.

George Stickel, clean government candidate, for Registrar of Deeds and Mortgages. Walter S. Gray, Clean government Republican, will oppose County Supervisor.

Republican candidates for the County Board of Chosen Freeholders will be Clayton E. Freeman, Abbie W. Magee and Joseph Solimine. Democratic candidates are Simon J. Griffinger, Nicholas Castellano and James Pittin.

NO PARKING AREAS, ONEWAY STREETS

King Introduces Measure To Clear Narrow Streets For Emergencies

An amendment to the traffic and parking ordinance was introduced by Public Safety Director King and passed on first reading by the board of commissioners on Tuesday night. The public safety director introduced the measure to provide free access for fire apparatus, snow plows and street sweepers on the town's narrow streets.

It provides that Valley street from William to Joralemon streets and Stephens street from Belleville avenue to William street become one way streets for north bound traffic only and that no parking be permitted on the east side of Valley and Stephens streets in this area.

That Smith street from Belleville avenue to William street become a one-way street for south bound traffic only and that no parking be permitted on the east side of Smith street in this area; That Hornblower avenue from Rutgers street to Belleville avenue become a one-way street for south bound traffic only and that no parking be permitted on the west side of Hornblower in this area.

That no parking be permitted in the following areas:
On the west side of Harrison street from Mill street to the Bloomfield line; on the north side of Mill street from Washington avenue to Main street; on the south side of Rutgers street from Washington avenue to Hornblower avenue; on the north side of William street from Valley street to Dow street; on the south side of Joralemon street from Valley street to Main street; on the east side of Cortlandt street from Mill street to Rutgers street; on the north side of Brighton avenue from Bellevue avenue to the Bloomfield line; on the east side of Cortlandt street from Little street to Bellavista avenue; on the south side of Little street from the Erie railroad crossing to Cortlandt street.

French Award Ceremony

Croix De Guerre Presented To Belleville Serviceman

Lieut. Colonel Stevens Becomes First Local Serviceman to Receive Coveted French Award; Was Active Throughout European Campaign

Lieut. Col. Earle M. Stevens of 91 Tiona avenue became Belleville's first serviceman to receive the distinguished French award, the Croix de Guerre, according to word received this week. The award was recently presented to Col. Stevens by a French Army representative at Oschersleben, Germany.

Signal Officer of the 30th infantry division signal company, Col. Stevens has been overseas since February, 1944. In addition to the Croix de Guerre he holds the Bronze Star medal with three oak leaf clusters.

Col. Stevens entered the Signal Corps as a captain in May, 1942, having received ROTC training at the University of Maine. He was formerly a supervisor in the New-ark office of the Bell telephone company. The firm adopted a system of forming Signal companies from their branches throughout the country. Stevens was assigned to the 98th company.

For preliminary training he went to Camp Crowder, Mo. Later he was sent to Fort Monmouth for extensive study in Signal Corps work. Later he was assigned to Fort Benning, Ga., and following maneuvers in Tennessee he went to Camp Atterbury, Ind., as signal officer of the 30th division.

In Many Battles
Col. Stevens went overseas to England in February 1944. He landed at Normandy a week after D-Day. During the 30th division's advance across France into Germany he took part in several major engagements, including the Vire river crossing, the capture of St. Lo, the Roer river crossing, and the battle of Aachen. His unit also helped hold back the Germans at the Belgian bulge last December and helped pave the way for the annihilation of the city of Cologne. The Bronze star and three oak leaf clusters were awarded to him for several instances of heroic achievement in action.

Born in Maine, Col. Stevens first came to Belleville in 1920. Except for short interludes in other parts of New Jersey he has lived here ever since. His wife, Mrs. Leola Stevens is spending the summer with her parents in Maine.

Gold Star Mother Hears Second Son Is Missing

Brother Of Belleville's First War Casualty Is Listed As Missing After Bombing Raid On Guam

Belleville's first Gold Star mother, Mrs. Harry C. Fredericks of 33 Montgomery place has received word that a second son, Lieut. William H. Fredericks of the Army Air Forces is missing in action. A telegram from the war department Monday evening informed her that William, a B-29 co-pilot, had been listed as missing following a recent bombing mission.

Mrs. Fredericks became the town's first Gold Star mother in May, 1942, when the Navy announced that another son, Harry, jr., was killed in the Gulf of Mexico. William, 27, entered active service in 1940 as a member of the national guard and was assigned to the 44th division field artillery. He transferred to the Air Corps in 1941 and attended the Keesler Field, Miss., engineering school. He was sent to the South Pacific as a B-17 engineer-gunner.

On Second Tour Overseas
Following 14 months overseas service he was returned to the States for pilot training. He received his wings and second lieutenant's commission at Peconic, Texas, last June. He went overseas for a second tour of duty last March as a co-pilot assigned to a B-29 squadron based at Guam.

Born in Belleville, Lieut. Fredericks attended the Montgomery school. He was graduated from Bloomfield Vocational school in 1933. Before entering active service he was employed at the Picatinny Arsenal in Dover.

In June, 1943, when he returned from his first overseas tour, he married Kathleen Donahue of Bloomfield.

A third son of the Fredericks, Sgt. Clifford, is in the engineering school.

School Board Votes Increases To Parmer, Daniels, Others

The board of education voted five percent increase last week to Superintendent of Schools Wayne R. Parmer and Business Manager Ruel E. Daniels, $150 increases to elementary school principals, $100 increases to the school janitors and the two clerks in the office of the business manager.

Parmer's salary was raised from $7,980 to $8,400 and Daniels from $4,950 to $5,200. It is understood that the salary of the business manager is in the higher half of the salaries received by the sixteen full-time business managers in school systems in the county although the Belleville schools are in the lower half in size of school population.

TWO CASES OF RABIES REPORTED IN BELLEVILLE

Health Officer Warns Dog- owners To Keep Animals Leashed or Muzzled

Two cases of rabies, the first in Belleville since the Spring of 1942, were reported yesterday by Eugene T. Berry, municipal health officer. Ten persons are taking the Pasteur treatment for rabies as a result of contact with the dogs.

Berry has issued a warning to all dog-owners of the town to keep their dogs fully muzzled or on a leash at all times. Any stray dogs found in the town will be picked up and the owners fined, he said.

The first case reported to Berry was a cocker-spaniel owned by Mrs. Tollula Voorhees of 174 Smallwood avenue. The dog was at the Voorhees country home in Marksboro, when it became ill. Mrs. Voorhees took the dog to a Dr. Savage, veterinarian of Hackettstown, who diagnosed the condition as rabies.

Health officer of the district, William Greenham of Hackettstown was notified. He destroyed the dog and sent the head to the state laboratory in Trenton. The report was a definite positive rabies condition. Noone was reported bitten by the animal, but five persons who came in contact with the dog's saliva are taking the pasteur treatment.

Dogs, Men Bitten

The second case reported to Berry was a mixed Spitz and German Shepherd dog owned by Sherman Haggerty of 700 Joralemon street. Haggerty reported first noticing a strangeness in the dog when it attacked two other dogs in the home last Friday. The dog was isolated on Saturday and Sunday and on Monday was taken to Dr. Henry Rudman, Bloomfield veterinarian.

In the course of examination, the dog bit Rudman and Haggerty. The dog was confined Monday and died that night. The head was sent to Berry, who had it examined yesterday at Newark City laboratory. The results were positive. Rudman and Haggerty as well as Haggerty's wife, daughter and daughter-in-law are taking the Pasteur treatment. The two dogs bitten by the infected animal are being given treatment and will be confined for the next six months.

BHS GRADS HEAR CHALLENGE

Commencement Speaker Says High Degree of Intellectual Honesty, Integrity, Essential

Two hundred and seventy-nine High school graduates assembled in Clearman field in their blue caps and gowns for the traditional out-door commencement exercises were given a challenge last night to aspire to a high degree of intellectual honesty and moral integrity for their part in the making of a peaceful world. The challenge was given by the commencement speaker, Dr. D. L. Biemesderfer, president of State Teachers college in Millersville, Pa.

Fifteen students in the armed forces received their pilot wings in absentia during the ceremony in which Burt Johnson, acting high school principal, presented the class to Joseph Arnold, board of education president, who awarded the certificates.

Stating that their target must be a "better and finer world," Dr. Biemesderfer declared however, that this cannot be accomplished until "men make of themselves better men." "An honest examination of all the elements which contributed to the creation of the conditions which made this war inevitable brings us to the inescapable conclusion that war can be avoided, that war is not born in men, but that it is compounded from the follies and weaknesses, personal and national, of all of us," he stated.

This hour when victory is not yet won should teach us all, Dr. Biemesderfer said, that when people are no longer sincerely dedicated to living out the principles of honor and justice, they fall away from good government so that their political systems, however ingeniously contrived and administered, cannot endure.

Should Take Stock

This hour should be, he said, a time of humility and gratitude at the thought of the gifts of liberty preserved at such overwhelming cost. It should be a time of searching of mind and soul and conscience to avoid the error of arrogant preindice and bigotry and a dedication of self which should include a striving for a high degree of personal efficiency in our chosen vocations or professions. "My young friends, the target lies clearly outlined before you."

Vets' Traffic Squad Out For Duration

Commissioners Block Resolutions Backed By Mayor In Heated Session Tuesday Night

Belleville Commissioners continued in a solid block against Mayor Williams Tuesday night when the final two of six resolutions he had drawn up and introduced previously were voted down four to one. At the last Commission meeting four other resolutions sponsored by the mayor were turned down solidly by the commissioners.

In a stormy four-hour session, the commissioners voted to lay over for the duration of the war and six months an ordinance up for second reading creating a special school traffic squad which would be made up of disabled veterans. The other resolution turned down by the commissioners against the protest of the Mayor would provide for centralizing the purchasing of all town agencies.

At a pre-meeting conference Tuesday night a committee representing Legion post 105, the Tri-City post and the Veterans of Foreign Wars appeared under the leadership of Harry Ziegler of Post 105. Ziegler reported on a meeting of the veterans affairs committees of the three organizations held last Thursday night in Veterans' Hall, when the proposed ordinance was discussed.

Wants Vets To Choose

Ziegler said the committees decided to request that the ordinance be laid over until six months after the termination of the war, when veterans would be home to speak for themselves. He stated that the committee's objection to the ordinance was not in the wording, but that any legislation affecting veterans should be withheld until the veterans themselves have a chance to state their position.

He also pointed out that at present there is no need for providing for any particular disabled veterans and therefore such an ordinance could well be laid over. Members of Ziegler's committee appearing were John Reh, Ernest Alden, Arthur Ackerman and Robert Smith.

Mayor Williams scored a police Lieut. Kenneth Smith, head of police traffic department, speaking to a meeting of the police department to protect the youth of the town and not that of a part time force.

Gruhin termed the ordinance a "very backward step." He claimed it to be the psychology of the people of Belleville to get things as cheaply as possible, and that this is not the time to save money on the protection of the children of the town by hiring part time policemen.

Civil Service Cited

In a lengthy appeal to the commissioners, Robert Gruhin, local attorney, quoted the statutes governing the employment of veterans under civil service. He maintained it to be the duty of the police department to protect the youth of the town and not that of a part time force.

Gruhin termed the ordinance a "very backward step." He claimed it to be the psychology of the people of Belleville to get things as cheaply as possible, and that this is not the time to save money on the protection of the children of the town by hiring part time policemen.

TOWN APPROVES REST HOME

Municipal Corporation Would Run Livingston Home For Aged Persons

Approval of the town commissioners for the formation of a corporation among this and neighboring municipal governments to operate the Suburban Rest Home in Livingston was sought at Tuesday night's commission meeting by Raymond Mertz, director of public affairs. The commissioners voted unanimous approval of the plan.

The city of Orange, which now owns the home, has put forth a proposal whereby the home would be operated jointly by the municipal governments who now have patients enrolled there. Commissioner Mertz said the town now is paying for five aged persons enrolled in the home and several others are on the waiting list.

The plan as explained to the board by Commissioner Mertz calls for a per capita investment of one per cent by the town, or about three hundred dollars. Cost of maintaining persons at the home now runs from 2.75 to three dollars a day, the commissioner said.

The Local Assistance board is in favor of the plan, Commissioner Mertz said. The Orange government requested a reply to the proposal by July 6.

Liberated Prisoner Tells Of Life In German Camps

Pvt. Seely Home On Leave Following Eight Months As Prisoner Of War

Experiences of his life in a German prisoner of war camp its fears and uncertainty, were related this week by Pvt. Lester Seely, 21, of 91 Dow street, who is spending a sixty-day furlough at his home. Pvt. Seely was liberated by the 99th division on April 29 after spending eight months in prison camps throughout Germany. Conditions generally were very bad, he recalled, although shortly before their liberation the situation eased and the prisoners were allowed considerably more freedom. The food was terrible and without the bits of bread they could obtain by bartering cigarettes with German civilians and food in Red Cross parcels many more of them would have starved. Also, they were helped by the French Underground, he said.

Pvt. Seely entered the army in March, 1943. He was assigned to the infantry and received his basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C. He went overseas last June and landed on the Normandy beaches a few days after D-Day, where he joined the Ninth division as a replacement. He took part in the Normandy and Northern France campaigns.

In Several Camps

Captured in Belgium on September 5, he said he was first taken to Stalag 12-A in Limburg, Germany. He was moved several times and finally was placed in Stalag 7-A in Moosburg where there were a hundred thousand Allied prisoners, of which thirty thousand were Americans. He worked six days a week filling bomb craters and repairing railroads wrecked by bombing raids.

Later he caught pneumonia and spent two months in the camp hospital. He presided over the work of an American doctor who treated many of the patients there. He lost thirty pounds during the siege. A few weeks before their release they were guarded by home guard soldiers and members of the planeless Luftwaffe, he said. They were allowed much more freedom then.

Pvt. Seely said Red Cross parcels came through quite regularly, but they were rationed one package to six men. Cigarettes were very scarce and at times he had only tea leaves to smoke. Most of the cigarettes were used to buy food from the Germans in order to live. Following his furlough, he will report to the redistribution center at Atlantic City for reassignment.

Pvt. Lester Seely

COMMUNICABLE DISEASES UP

Health Officer Reports Increase In May; One Polio Case Recorded

The number of communicable diseases reported in Belleville during May increased considerably, according to the monthly report submitted at this week's meeting of the town commissioners by Health Officer Eugene T. Berry. A total of 121 cases were listed, compared to 108 cases for April. However, the number is down 79 cases from the number reported in May last year when 200 cases were recorded.

During the month, one case of infantile paralysis was recorded. This is the first case of the dreaded disease reported in Belleville this year and although one case could not be considered an epidemic Berry urged in the report that every precaution be taken to block any increase in the number.

Among the precautions he urged avoidance of overtiring and sudden chilling when overheated, careful attention to personal cleanliness, use of purest water and milk possible and avoidance of any contact with infected persons or those suspected of being infected. The one case reported was a girl seven years old.

The number of cases of chickenpox increased to 71 this month from 51 last month, while scarlet fever cases decreased from thirteen last month to nine this month. German measles cases decreased from 24 last month to fifteen month. Cases of whooping cough increased from three to seven this month.

One case of epidemic meningitis was reported, the same as last month, but the report stated that the victim, a man thirty years old, has fully recovered now.

City Service

A City Service representative explained that the line now terminates at North Newark but that the company's application for thirteen additional busses to run with restricted stops through Newark to Penn station has been granted by that city. The move to eliminate transfers at North Newark and additional service has been prompted by requests from Bergen county towns, he said. The representative pressed for the granting of the Belleville permit since final decision on the number of busses and prolonged route will be made at a hearing by the Public Utilities commission.

Veis' Traffic

Later during the regular business session of the Commission, argument over the ordinance again broke out. Mayor Williams heatedly expressed the wish that the commissioners settle more of the business of the town "in the town hall." Commissioner Mertz called on the Mayor to lower his voice, saying he had earlier called Grunin to task for talking too loudly. The ordinance was voted laid over by a four to one vote on motion of Commissioner Waters.

Centralizing Purchasing

Another argument sprung up when the sixth of the group of resolutions sponsored by the mayor came up for action. This was an ordinance that would provide a central purchasing agent who would handle all the town's buying.

The mayor urged adoption of the resolution on the grounds that a central purchasing agent could save money on the purchase of various town supplies. It would also relieve the commissioners of work, he claimed.

Opposition to the bill was led by Waters, who stated such a position as purchasing agent could become "the strongest political machine in the town." He pointed out that under a commission form of government, the town's spending is negligible since it is necessary to advertise for bids for all purchases over $1,000. The resolution was voted down by the commissioners, four to one.

VOLKENNING TRACT TO BE IMPROVED

Town Will Appropriate $18,300 For Sanitary And Storm Sewers, Water Main

Ordinances providing for the appropriation of $18,300 for general improvements in the Volkenning tract on Washington avenue at Greylock parkway, were passed on first reading by the board of commissioners on Tuesday night.

The tract was recently purchased by the Wilton Housing corporation of New York City of which Anthony Paterno is president, for the erection of 85 one-family homes. The homes which will be of Cape Cod construction with attached garages will be erected on lots of not less than 50x100 feet and will sell for $7,500, it is understood.

In an agreement with the builder, the town will require him to pay 70 percent of the $9,400 cost of the eight inch sanitary sewer which will connect with the Carmar avenue sewer. This money is to be paid to the town upon the receipt of bids for the work and before the awarding of the contract. The remaining thirty per cent of the cost will be a general assessment.

Other general improvement ordinances provide for the appropriation of $6,400 for the construction of a six inch water main and for $2,500 for the construction of curb and storm drains on Bell street from 329 feet north of Greylock parkway to White Oaks terrace.

BRONZE STAR TO CAPT. GLYNN

Obstetrician Who Delivered Baby In Alsace Cited for Work As Battle Surgeon

The Bronze Star medal has been awarded Capt. S. Robert Glynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Glynn of 12 Overlook avenue, "for meritorious service in direct support of combat operations" as a medical corps officer with the 157th Infantry in Italy and France from April, 1944 to February of this year.

The citation accompanying the award further states that Capt. Glynn "as battalion surgeon, during that period worked diligently under the most trying combat conditions; despite many difficulties he has continued to serve with sound judgement, skill and cooperation."

He is also credited with "conducting classes for medical personnel which have produced rapid and effective results." Capt. Glynn held classes for the men while in rear areas.

Now in Metz, France, he went overseas seventeen months ago and served first in North Africa. He was awarded the Purple Heart decoration for wounds received in Alsace last fall.

Capt. Glynn was an obstetrical intern in Beth Israel hospital when he entered the Army in July, 1942. His wife, the former Miss Ethel Nash, is the daughter of Dr. Herman Nash, chief obstetrician there. In that connection Capt. Glynn earned the undying gratitude of an Alsatian family for whom he delivered a baby girl last spring while stationed near them. She was named Simone in honor of the M.D.

All Workers Should Obtain Their Social Security Card

Workers in canning and preserving plants, summer resorts or hotels are included in the coverage of old-age and survivors insurance program, and therefore need social security account cards and their employers are required to report their wages to the Social Security Board, John R. Shields, Manager of the Newark office of the Social Security Board stated this week.

Housewives who have not worked previously outside of the home, men and women engaged in various occupations who have worked part-time and during vacation periods, high-school youths, members of the armed forces, imported laborers from outside the United States, and teachers are affected by this coverage. They need to know that they should have a card, where to get it, what to do with it, and where to keep it, Mr. Shields stated.

The nearest office of the Social Security Board will supply cards. The office which covers Essex County is located at 45 Branford place, Newark. Those who have lost their card, may ask the nearest office of the Social Security Board for a duplicate. Workers are warned not to ask for a new card but to get a duplicate with the same number on it. That number is the number of the individual's social security account in Baltimore. "If you ask for a new card, a second account will be set up for you and you may have trouble getting all your benefits when you claim them," Mr. Shields states.

"Show your card to your employer. See that he copies your name and number exactly as they appear on your card. Then when your employer makes his report to the Government showing your wages, there can be no mistake," he said.

Community Club Hears Talk On Fighting Black Market

Mrs. Floyd Bendurex, district representative of the OPA will speak tomorrow night, at 8 o'clock, at the Belleville Elks on "Fighting the Black Market." The meeting, which is open to the public, is being held under the auspices of the Belleville Community club as a part of "Fight Inflation Week." The greatest single factor that might lead to the catastrophe of inflation, is the indifference of the public to the black market, born out of a lack of understanding of the importance of price control, she has said. It would take only a few months of prices spiralling skyward to wipe out half the savings of the nation, and start us on the road to another depression, the OPA representative states.

Bestow Petrean Oscar

Photographed last Tuesday evening in St. Peter's hall James Leonard, three-time president of the Petrean club is shown receiving the Petrean Oscar, an award designed and presented by him to the club five years ago. It is intended to honor the individual who contributes most to the annual Petrean dramatic presentation.

Miss Kinnealy and Mr. Candura distinguished themselves in supervising the programs; Mr. Brickell, original designer of scenery, won the Oscar in that field.

Mr. Leonard was general chairman of the year's production, "To Be Sure" for which three performances on May 10, 11 and 12 did not suffice. A command performance was given on the evening of the 13th. Proceeds were presented to St. Peter's parish for the erection of a new convent building.

Organized in 1939 as a dramatic and social outlet to people over 18 years of age, the Petrean club has produced six musical shows. Of the nearly two hundred members 187 are in military service; eight of these are women.

Among them are two Oscar winners: T/Sgt. William J. Brady, now in Texas after two and a half years overseas, who won the award in 1940 when he wrote the script for the opening production, "Gay Nineties;" and Cpl. Edward T. Byron, hospitalized in England, who received the Oscar in 1942 for program handling.

Edward Dowling of Fairlawn has directed the performances.

Local Ex-POWs Expected To Arrive Home Soon

Infantryman and Two Air Force Men Liberated From German Prison Camps Write They Are Awaiting Shipment

Hopes of early reunions ran high in several Belleville homes this week as word from relatives who were prisoners of war in Europe and liberated indicated they would be home soon.

The first spark of hope for Mrs. Karl E. Karlson of 390 Stephens street was kindled several weeks ago when within a few days she received forty-six letters from all parts of the country. The letters were from foreign broadcast listeners who informed Mrs. Karlson they had heard her husband's name mentioned in a group of five over a German radio station.

Mrs. Karlson said she received a letter from her husband dated April twenty-first stating he had just been liberated from Stalag 11-B in Germany. A private in an infantry unit, he was captured in France in January. Pvt. Karlson stated he was in a hospital at that time of writing to regain some of the sixty pounds he lost while a prisoner. He said he expected to be released to come home soon. The Karlsons have two children, Mary Louise, nine, and Karl jr., four.

Sgt. James Marshall Freed Also expected home soon is T/Sgt. James H. Marshall, according to his wife at 131 Bremond street. A radio-gunner in the Air Forces, Sgt. Marshall was shot down over Germany eight and a half months ago. He was liberated about the middle of April.

In his most recent letter, Sgt. Marshall wrote he had roamed about the country in Germany for two weeks before being captured and placed in a prison camp. He said he lost thirty pounds during his internment and received only one letter from home. He wrote from a port of embarkation in France and said he expects to be home before the end of June.

Mastrantonio To Come Home

Sgt. Salvatore Mastrantonio, B-17 gunner reported missing in action over Germany in January has informed his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carlo Mastrantonio of 54 Mt. Prospect avenue that he expects to be home in a few weeks. Sgt. Mastrantonio had been based in England with the Eighth Air Force and had been in action two months when his plane was shot down.

Reserve Town Land For New Play Area

Reservation of about two acres of land in back of School No. 9 with a play area in accordance with the recommendations of the National Recreation association was made by the board of commissioners Tuesday night at the request of Parks and Public Property Director Noll.

This is the first of the proposed play areas to be reserved by the town, it is understood. Since it is town-owned property and already filled in, it will be graded, Noll said, and equipment from the Stephens street playground will be installed.

B-HIVE CONTINUES FOR SUMMER

Adult Advisors Make Progress Possible By Providing Chaperones

Continuation of the B-Hive, Belleville High school canteen, during the summer months has been guaranteed by the cooperation of an adult advisory group that has agreed to provide the necessary three couples of adults and one faculty member in the high school gymnasium as supervisors for the semi-weekly evening programs.

The B-Hive was organized by students in 1944 to provide a chaperoned night spot where dancing and a soft drink and ice cream bar could be maintained. In addition to parent-chaperones, the young people specified certain rules of dress and conduct which must be maintained by members.

A social success, the teen-age project has also provided a loud-speaker system in the gymnasium and purchased stage equipment for the dramatic efforts in the high school. Allan Van Demark of 75 Perry street is now business manager.

Under the chairmanship of Charles H. Kline of 33 Maier street, 42 adult couples have signed up as chaperones for the Tuesday and Thursday evening dances. Faculty members who will alternate in attendance are William Chapman, Frank Spotts and Paul Brennan. Mrs. Chapman is secretary of the advisory adult group; Mrs. William Armstrong, public relations chairman. Mrs. Robert France is Mr. Kline's assistant.

Mrs. Herbert Van Demark is chairman of the advisory board which has held three meetings since May 23 and will enlist the aid of parents all over Belleville. Pointing out this week that many parents are under the impression that school authorities and faculty are responsible for chaperonage of the B-Hive, Mrs. Armstrong said that the committee was anxious to put access to parents that this is a student project and that it can only be maintained along the high standards set if parents cooperate.

Mr. Kline may be reached by interested parents at Be. 2-3333 or Be. 2-Official 79; Mrs. France at Be. 2-1368J.

AWARDS GIVEN AT CYO REVIEW
Youth Of St. Peter's Feted At Church Affair; Speakers Praise Group

A review of activities of the Catholic Youth Organization of St. Peter's church during the year was held last Thursday in St. Peter's hall, when winners of several awards for various activities were announced. Several speakers were listed, including Mayor Williams, Rev. Francis Ignacino, moderator of the CYO activities, and Rev. Joseph M. Kelly, pastor.

Three special awards were made. Mary Tasselli won the prize donated by Rev. Kelly for the best entry from the parish in the CYO oratorical contest. Colin Little was designated as the outstanding boy member of the organization and Maureen Bell received the award for outstanding girl member. Both were praised for their interest and participation in CYO sponsored activities.

Trophies Presented

Mayor Williams spoke briefly and commented favorably on the group's activity in the parish. Rev. John J. Kiley, Essex county CYO director, presented the bowling trophies and awards. Edward J. Lister, town superintendent of recreation, presented basketball awards in behalf of the Belleville Recreation Department.

In his talk, Rev. Ignacino pointed out the aims and purposes of the organization, and stated that the CYO, embraced by Catholic Charities, is a participating agency in the Community Chest and War Fund drive. He thanked all those who are assisting in carrying out the program.

Among the guests of honor were Mayor and Mrs. Williams. Harry Specht, president of the Belleville Foundation and Mrs. Louis Noll, Frank McFadden, chairman of the coming Community Chest and War Fund drive and Mrs. McFadden and Recreation Director Lister.

A dance was held Sunday at which new members to the CYO, graduates to St. Peter's school, were welcomed. Tuesday the graduating class was present at a joint meeting of the boys' and girls' CYO. They were acquainted with the organization's procedure and introduced to other members. Summer activities were discussed.

Williams of Shelbyville, Ky., performed troop carrier operations in the areas of Northern France, Southern France, Normandy, Rome-Arno and Germany. The group was cited for its successful fulfillment of airborne drop operations on D-Day in Normandy, and has since carried out thousands of resupply and air evacuation missions between combat sorties.

Sgt. Strigari, son of Mrs. C. V. Strigari of the Franklin avenue address, is a graduate of Nutley High school, and prior to his entering the service, in February, 1943, he was employed by H. Bok-er at Maplewood.

Veteran of 32 Aerial Missions Speaks At Rotary Club

Mark, Pfc. Russell Schomp's War Dog Scout, Has a Nose For It

"A man and his dog" story comes from Marine headquarters somewhere in the Pacific describing Marine Pfc. Russell L. Schomp's landing at Iwo Jima with his War Dog scout, Mark. Pfc. Schomp's home is at 10 Greenwich street where his wife and mother reside.

Even as Schomp, his dog was scared and nervous amid the terrific shell fire on the beach. They sought cover as best they could with mortar, grenade and rifle fire spattering all about them.

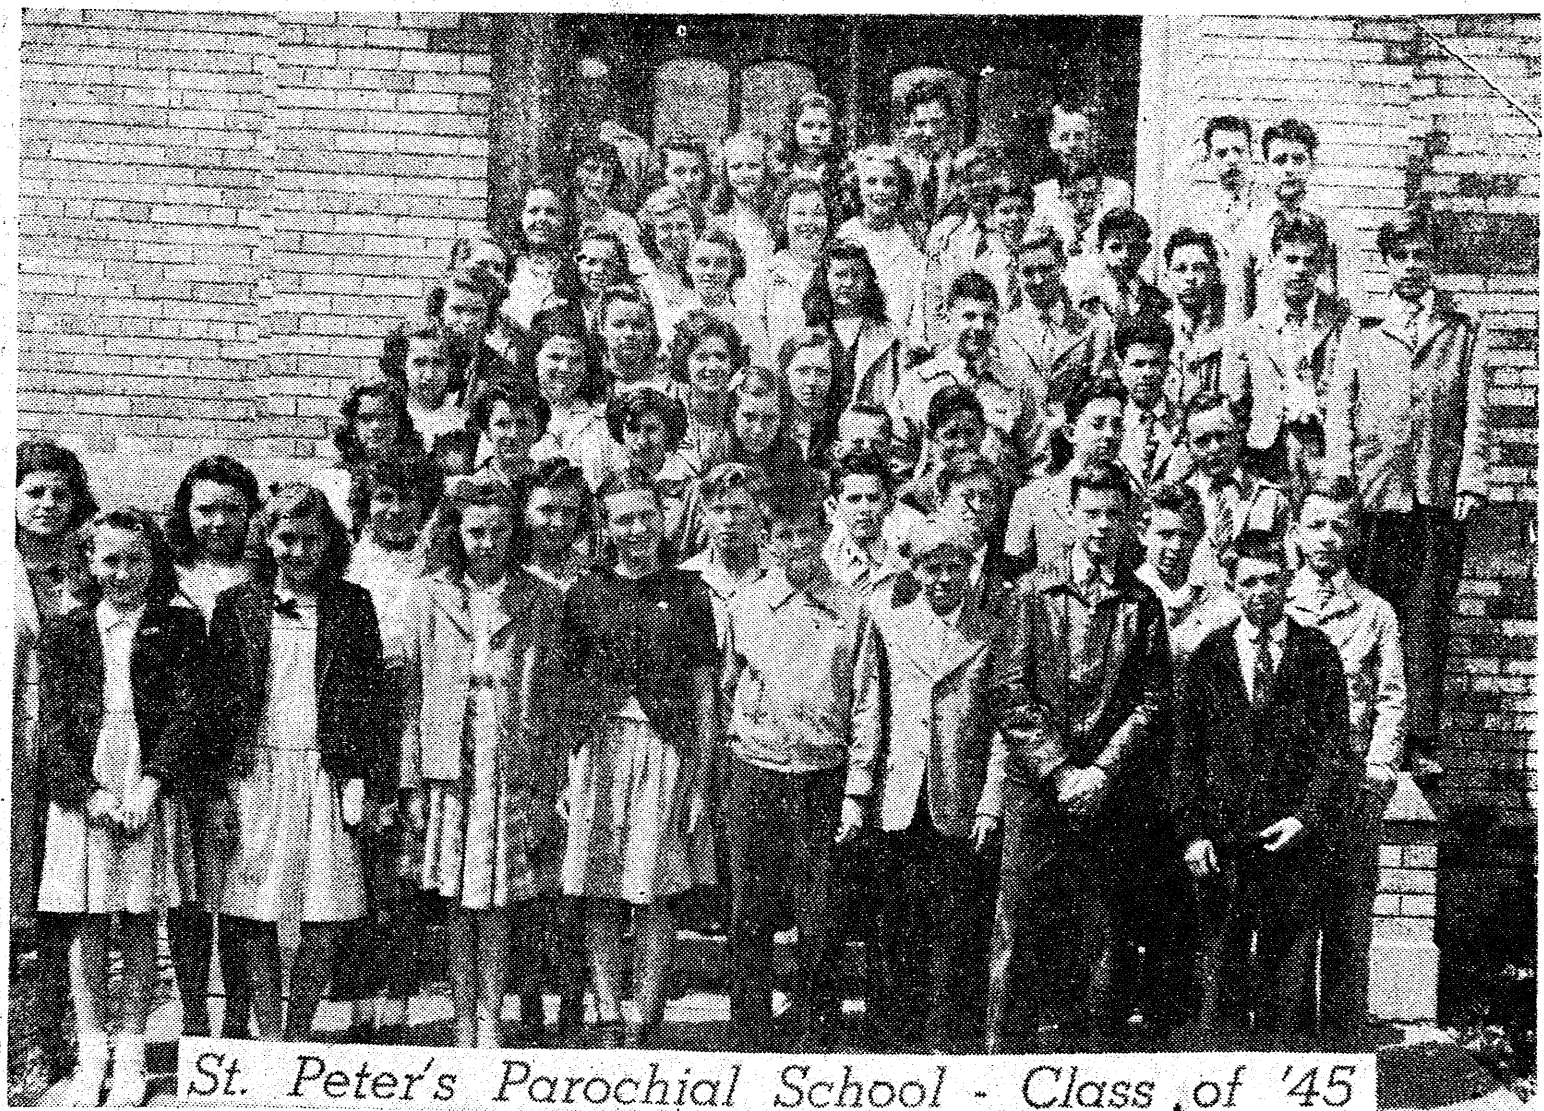

By nightfall both man and dog had become settled and used to the constant barrage of fire, explosions and scattered shrapnel. Mark stood security watch that first night and the men he guarded slept in full confidence that there would be no surprise enemy penetration of their lines as long as Mark was out there.

Schomp likes to recall a patrol mission which amused him. It was in the northwestern sector of the island. The Joberman Pinscher had alerted, and the patrol was ready. The dog disappeared momentarily into the brush where he had sensed movement. It was the area he had alerted and the patrol were searching for the object of the alert. Suddenly there was a stifled cry and the hidden Jap sprang out of the brush in front of the dog half frightened to death by the slow "under the breath" growl of the animal. He surrendered himself and kept his distance from Mark, who treated the situation as though it was just another duty fulfilled and continued on his way sniffing and scenting at the brush along the trail.

SGT. JOHN MOYER IN ORAN, ALGERIA

An Airplane Mechanic, He Maintains Transport And Transient Craft

Sgt. John H. Moyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Moyer of 29 Mertz avenue, is an airplane mechanic at La Senia Air Base, Oran, Algeria, in the North African division of the Air Transport Command.

La Senia Air Base, commanded by Lieut. Col. Edgar B. Franklin, is one of the fastest growing bases in the NAFF. Here, pilots, radio operators, aerial engineers and flight clerks are trained as crew members to operate the C-54 Skymaster on the 25 hour sky rocket run from Casablanca, French Morocco, to Karachi, India.

It is Sgt. Moyer's job as an airplane mechanic at this base to assist in the maintenance of the transport aircraft assigned to the base and to do minor on the spot repair work on the transient aircraft passing through on their way to other stations in the division.

He prepared for his present assignment by attending an aircraft mechanic's school at Lincoln Army Air Base, Lincoln, Nebraska, and an engineering school at T.W.A., Mo., and worked as an inspector at the Municipal Airport in Tennessee, before going overseas two months ago.

A graduate of the Belleville High school, he also graduated from the Casey Jones school of Aeronautics at Newark, and was employed as an airplane mechanic at the Caldwell Wright airport prior to entering the service in September, 1942.

Little Zion church, 156 Step street for the next of its informative meetings on Sunday afternoon, June 24, at 3:30.

"Prevention of Racial Discrimination" will be the subject of the address by Hon. Joseph H. B. Tard, assistant commissioner of education in the division against discrimination of the New Jersey State board of education.

Other speakers will be May Williams and Mrs. Lawrence Willette of 137 Stephens street, member of the New Jersey State migrant labor commission, Rev. E. Goldston, pastor of Second Baptist church here, will also make an address.

The choir and chorus of the church will present a musical program with Miss Pauline Goldborough, soloist. The public is invited.

BHS Play Area May Await Federal Aid After War

Preparation of the ground east south of the High school on Washington avenue for a play area is now being considered by the board of education as a war project which would be eligible for federal aid.

Plans for its preparation submitted at the meeting last week my Arthur Starin, Basking Ridge architect, at the request of the board which, at its meeting, determined to have ground prepared this summer.

The board passed a resolution for the purchase of the strip of land next to the gas station for $700. The additional land will large the play area and affect placement of the various courts and baseball diamond.

It May Be A Long Wait

Belleville's school system, with dual authority vested by the board of education in both the business manager and superintendent of schools, is one of about three in this region that has not progressed to the more efficient plan of placing full responsibility in the superintendent.

The locked fire escape at Montgomery school was an example of misplaced authority. Only the janitor of the school possessed the key and he is responsible not to the school principal but to the business manager.

In a survey of Newark schools made by members of Teacher's college at Columbia university in 1942, where a similar situation of custodial employees in secondary schools being responsible only to the business manager existed, the surveyors stated: "The effectiveness of the principalship and the maximum contribution of the school's program could best be secured by the organization of all maintenance services under the authority of the principal and the superintendent of schools."

In discussing administration efficiency, the surveyors also stated that it is in "considerable measure dependent upon a proper organization of the administrative and supervisory staffs. The only satisfactory organization of an administrative staff places the superintendent in the position of chief executive officer of the board. The type of organization which will make possible the most effective management of affairs has been the subject of study by political scientists and by those engaged in private enterprise.

"From these studies and from successful practice, a form of organization has been evolved which promises greatest efficiency. Simply stated, this form of organization requires the selection of a responsible and effective chief executive who is given general responsibility for the direction and the coordination of the activities carried on by qualified personnel."

The surveyors conclude by proposing that the board of education have enacted by the legislature, "a law providing that the superintendent of schools shall act as the chief executive officer of the board of education and that the offices of the secretary and of the business manager or the functions performed by them, be placed in the hands of executives who shall work under the general control and direction of the superintendent of schools."

Newark has profited by this and other recommendations given by recognized educational authorities. That city's school system now places the superintendent as chief executive officer with assistant superintendents to carry on the manifold duties of business, maintenance and other divisions of a large system.

Belleville's evaluation by a visiting committee appointed by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary schools also brought similar recommendations designed to best the superintendent with full executive powers subject to the approval of the board of education.

Residents interested in an efficient school system for Belleville are awaiting action by the board of education which will prove that its interest in the schools surpasses its concern in protecting the authority of individuals in key positions.

Grown-Up Juveniles

Unless some public controversy like the school traffic squad has stirred the citizenry's interest, few people attend meetings of the town commission. This unfortunate state of affairs probably is the reason for the rather childish game in which the board members participate at each meeting.

The game has no name and few, if any, rules. It might be called Talking for the Record, as the object seems to be for each commissioner to score as much as possible in the stenographer's notes. By such tactics each commissioner no doubt hopes that the stenographer's record will show that he is fighting tooth and nail for the town's interests, that he is the only watchdog of the taxpayers' affairs, the sole paladin of their rights and a statesman of shining honesty and competence in comparison with his fellows on the dais.

It's all very tiresome. To the bored spectator the grown men on the dais, instead of acting like adults with a serious job to do, give the impression of rather disagreeable children jockeying for some juvenile advantage in a backlot game. The commissioners should realize that the stenographer's record is not imperishable history, and that nobody is deceived by their silly little political maneuvering.

The people have no reason to believe that the commissioners are other than honest and fairly competent men. Therefore, the board members will serve their own political fortunes better if they worry less about the record and more about getting the town's business done promptly, efficiently and with some regard for the amenities of public behavior.

Blood Bank A Must

Example of the let-down since V-E Day is the report that registrations for the blood bank conducted by the Belleville Red Cross have dwindled. Since the next visit of the mobile blood bank unit is in July, when Belleville will be expected to meet its quota of 200 pints, this news is alarming.

Of all war activities none has such immediate and salutary results as the giving of one's blood. For most people the sacrifice is non-existent, since they suffer no ill effects. All they give up is a little time. And the gift of blood is so personal and meets such a pressing need that it is inconceivable that anybody who is able to make this gift would ignore an opportunity to do so.

All competent authorities agree that the war in the Pacific will be a hard one, and that we have still a long way to go before victory. Sensing the let-down, President Truman tried to enlighten the country by his message to Congress. General Stilwell, visiting in Guam, predicted the war against Japan would last another two years, at least, and would involve heavy casualties. In the face of such testimony neglect of a service which has performed such miracles as the blood bank is a dereliction which is hard to excuse.

Registrations are now being taken for the next visit of the mobile unit from New York. Not only should there be no falling off in registrations, but those given appointments should keep them without fail. At the last visit several who had been given appointments failed to appear, neglecting also to notify the blood bank personnel of their inability to be present. As a consequence it was impossible to notify several others who were ready to donate their blood.

The safest way for all, it seems to us, is to look on the blood bank as a must until the last wounded G.I. has been treated.

Inflation

One aspect of the profit system seems to be responsible for an inflation which has been going on for years, but only now is bearing its fruit in jittery nerves, doubt and fear. This inflation is the unwarranted expansion which has occurred in the English used by newspaper reporters, and the phase of the profit system it illustrates is that which makes it necessary for a reporter to enhance the drama and importance of the events he is describing in his dispatch.

We saw painful evidences of this use of overblown English in the dispatches from the European war fronts. Nearly every edition carried stories that the enemy line had been "smashed wide open," that such a city had been "obliterated" by last night's bombing, that So-and-so's army had "knifed" through the Nazis' positions, that whole German armies had been "trapped" and faced "annihilation." That the Germans always seemed able to escape these local "traps" did not discourage the correspondents. On the other hand, that the Nazis surrendered en masse at the end in no way proved that the earlier stories were correct.

It must not be thought that the reporter, in using this type of English, is interested in the sale of papers. It all comes from his quite understandable wish to make his story seem dramatic, readable and outstandingly desirable among the hundreds of other news stories that swamp his office and cry for publication. Doubtless this overblown English is harmless enough in describing a battle or a football game, but when the same terminology of struggle is carried over into the discussion of the sessions at San Francisco it gives the public a feeling of conflict and possible disaster which the actual events do not appear to have justified.

Nobody, we assume, thought the nations of the world could meet in one gathering without some disagreement; had there been no area of disagreement there would have been no need for a meeting. When such disagreements, however, are described as "crises", when a postponement of a discussion from one day to another is called an "impasse", and when the impression is given that the nations are locked in a titanic struggle to which there seems no solution, it seems obvious that either reporters should be instructed to use less feverish prose or American newspaper readers will have to adjust their values of English downward.

Words are symbols, carrying with them pictures, moods, feelings, and if the American people are to take a more adult view of world events they will have to have those events explained to them in language a little more accurate than the jargon of a sports writer.

Girl Scout Campfire Ceremonies

COLOR BEARERS at Girl Scout Campfire ceremonies held in Municipal stadium on Saturday evening were Beverly Grulich left above, and Jean Lundy, members of Intermediate Troop 6. Parents and friends viewed all the local troops in the event which brought out an estimated 300 of the 350 scouts in town. One hundred fifty Brownies who held a field day in Belleville Park several weeks ago, did not attend the campfire.

Girl Scout Council Cites Growth In Membership

Those Who Have Contributed To Progress of Organization Honored at Reception

The tremendous increase in Girl Scouting in Belleville during the past six months was indicated twice last week—in the number of girls assembled for the first local campfire, held Saturday evening in Municipal stadium when 300 scouts were present; and in the brief report with which Mrs. George R. Gerard, scout commissioner, opened her remarks at the Council reception Wednesday evening in the Woman's club.

Mrs. Gerard expressed the thanks of the council on Wednesday night not only to leaders, who have increased from twelve to 38 during that period, and troop committee members, who have soared in number from nine to 56 but to all members of standing committees, the many women in scouting who do not work directly with girls but who arrange for the establishment and sponsorship of troops and serve in executive and public relations capacities.

Elwood Russell, chairman, accepted the Girl Scout council's gratitude for Community Chest support, the council being a member agency. Harry G. the Belleville Foundation for support of the scout's enlarged camping program, and Frank McFadden, chairman of the coming Community Chest drive and finance officer of the scout organization, also acknowledged applause.

About 75 women attended and listened to Miss Mary Catherine Jennings, Scout national field worker who described in detail the inter-reliance of the various groups of women who must function in the operation of Girl Scouting in a community.

Still Need Volunteers
Typical of the need which still exists for women volunteers to act in all branches so that more troops may be formed was the instance Miss Jennings cited of a tiny girl in one community who defended herself against the accusation that she had slapped her little brother by saying, "On my honor as a waiting-list Brownie, I didn't do it." Troops are waiting to form all over Belleville.

At the conclusion of her address a film, "Volunteers for Victory," portrayed the current activities of Girl Scouts throughout the nation who have helped the war effort by minding children, selling bonds, collecting salvage and assisting farmers.

Girl Scout headquarters at 400 Washington avenue will be closed tomorrow and until September 15. Miss Elizabeth Benadegy, executive secretary, will conduct the camp at South Mountain reservation during that period. Mrs. Victor Hart, camping chairman has announced that seven two-week vacancies are open at camp between August 13 and August 27 for ten to fourteen year olds; and four vacancies between July 30 and August 13 for scouts from twelve to fourteen.

The Council, which will not meet until September 13, has arranged to send two leaders to summer training courses in Montclair. Mrs. Allan Crisp, whose membership committee provides personnel for various adult committees in scouting, has chosen a group to be in charge of Girl Scout programs. Mrs. Charles Speed will chairmen the group in which Mrs. Helen Kanouse, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Ward Dennison and Mrs. Oliver Chapin will work.

Major fall plans will include Girl Scout week in October, a Scout's Own program and a Country Fair in November. The latter, an innovation here, will display for sale various handcraft products made by the girls as well as the results of their Victory Gardening and canning projects this summer.

A closing party was held at Fewsmith church last week by Troop 7 when plans were made for sewing, interior decorating and home nursing courses in the fall. Mrs. Irving Carson will conduct fruit canning for troop members this summer.

SCOUTERS PLAN MOHICAN WEEKEND

Camp Open to Troops for Two Week Periods Beginning On June 30

Two outstanding events of interest to Scouts and Scouters of Belleville are now close at hand. The first is the Scouters' weekend at Camp Mohican, June 16-17, when the Scout Leaders from all over the Council will assemble at the camp for a weekend of fun, fellowship and real work in helping to get the camp ready for the summer. District Commissioner Lindley A. Graves will develop the attendance from Belleville, and all Scouters who plan to go should report to Mr. Graves at Be 2-2894W. It is expected that ten or more men will go from Belleville.

Camp Mohican, the long term camp of the Robert Treat Council, will open on June 30th. Troops 301, 375 and 388 have signed up for troop camping at Mohican under their own leadership. Other troops are making their plans. The camping and activities committee is particularly interested in informing the scouts that the first period of the camp, beginning on June 30th and running until July 16th, contains two more days than any other period during the season, although the cost to the Scout is the same for this period. Mr. Harold Stalte, Camp Ranger, assisted by a carpenter, has been at work for several weeks getting the camp ready for the opening. Everything will be in readiness when the camp opens June 30th. Since schools in Belleville begin their summer vacation earlier than any of the other communities in the Council, this opportunity for extra camping should appeal to scouts in Belleville.

The camp committee also wishes to point out that applications for camp are running 31% ahead of the same time a year ago, and therefore all who intend to come to camp should apply at once.

In fact, the camping and activities committee announced today that no further application can be considered for the second period, July 16 to July 30, because camp capacity has been reached. Belleville scouts are urged to consider the first period because of early closing here.

Camping is a major portion of the Scout program here which is made possible by the Belleville Community Chest and Council.

CANNING SUGAR AGAIN AVAILABLE

Ration Boards Resume Allotments After Adjusting Quotas To 70% of Last Year

North Jersey's War Price and Rationing boards this week resumed issuance of home canning sugar allotments, after a week's layoff during which careful stock of past issuances was taken, and quotas were adjusted to hold the rate of distribution within quota bands. This was announced by District OPA Director Richard J. Tarrant.

"The objective of the new, more carefully controlled issuance system," Tarrant emphasized, "is to protect the home canning sugar supply for home canners. In view of the tight food and sugar supplies, it is vitally important that the sugar available for home canning be given to those who need it and will use it to increase the nation's food supply. We intend to protect the supply for home canners by seeing that only applications based on bona fide home canning needs are honored. There is adequate sugar available for home canning — if none is diverted by false applications."

established, and they are adjusted for past issuance this season to hold total issuance for the year down to 70 percent of what was issued by each board last year. The boards will keep a careful monthly running record to keep allotments in line with quota. All applications will be scrutinized carefully, and allotments to individuals will be tailored to meet present canning needs as evidenced by the crops currently available for canning. Applicants will be permitted to apply a second time for additional sugar as later crops mature. This procedure, it was explained, is necessary to keep issuance geared to supplies available in stores, so that all canners will always be able to buy sugar to meet current canning needs. However, where need is demonstrated for the full allotment at one time, it will be granted.

The 15-pound per person and 120-pound per family maximums remain unchanged. Applications forms are available at all boards, and can be obtained by mail request. Applicants are urged to hold down requests to meet only present canning requirements, and to use sugar substitutes wherever possible in canning.

Sgt. Harold Williamson Receives Aid Medal

Sgt. Harold L. Williamson jr., 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Williamson of 304 Union avenue, has been awarded the Air Medal, it was recently announced by Col. James S. Sutton, of Findlay, Ohio, commanding officer of the veteran 306th Bomb Group in England.

Sgt. Williamson received the decoration for "meritorious achievement" while serving as top turret gunner of a B-17 Flying Fortress during sustained combat operations over enemy territory.

A veteran of many daylight bombing attacks against targets in Nazi Germany, Sgt. Williamson has participated in some of the Eighth Air Force's greatest assaults of recent months. Besides flying in the huge formations of heavy bombers that pounded vital synthetic oil refineries in the Hamburg-Harburg area, he has taken part in many attacks on tactical targets, railway marshalling yards and communications — in co-ordination with the Allied ground offensive.
