

Commissioners To Act On Refuse Condition

Tenants Of Gardens Apartments, Area Residents Charge Garbage Facilities Menace To Health

The question of garbage disposal at the Corbin Gardens apartments came up again before the town commissioners Tuesday night when they were urged by tenants and residents of the area to force the apartment owners to arrange a more healthful and less odorous method for the tenants to store their garbage awaiting collection.

Inadequate garbage disposal facilities was one of the principle complaints listed by the Gardens tenants association in their petition for rent reduction to the OPA last April. The complaint was also made to the town commissioners at that time in an effort to force the owners into making better facilities available. The apartment development comprises twelve buildings of eight apartments each. There are no rear entrances to the apartments, and tenants are forced to place their garbage in the streets, in three sided sheds. Appearing in behalf of residents of the area was Aubrey Armstrong, who was at the last meeting to complain against all night parking in the streets by tenants of the apartments. He stated that the condition had been alleviated to some extent, but that there were still inadequate parking facilities for the tenants, forcing them to park along the streets.

Kaye Absent
Louis Kaye, owner of the apartment was supposed to have appeared at the meeting in answer to a communication addressed to him by Town Attorney Keenan and report on the steps taken to better the parking conditions. Armstrong stated that the odor arising from the storing of garbage on the streets was unbearable. His statement was borne out by Thomas Foy, head of the tenants association, who also appeared. It was pointed out that the garbage was a great source of flies, which close by is situated the Essex County Isolation hospital, housing many sufferers of contagious diseases.

On Town Property
Commissioner Noll of the department of parks and public property was for ordering Kaye to remove the garbage from town owned property. The sheds are situated on town property. It was pointed out that Kaye has been given ample time to act on bettering the conditions. One plan suggested at the meeting was the installing of submerged, covered garbage containers, common in other apartment dwellings where conditions do not permit garbage being placed on the streets.

Town Attorney Keenan was instructed to communicate with Kaye and notify him to appear at the next commission meeting, when action on the matter will be taken. Meanwhile, Keenan is to confer with Public Affairs Director Mertz and Health Officer Eugene Berry to determine what steps can be taken against Kaye under existing town laws, in view of unsanitary conditions.

OWNERS TO PAY FOR TREE WORK

Amendment To Ordinance Governing Shade Trees Entered At Meeting

Only ordinance introduced at the meeting of the town commission Tuesday night was an amendment to the existing ordinance providing for the protection, regulation and control of the shade trees in the town. In introducing the amendment, Commissioner Mertz said it was designed to prevent property owners of the town from securing unnecessary work on their trees at the expense of the town.

In the ordinance introduced, an amendment calls for fines set forth in the original ordinance to be termed maximum fines, and stating that the official imposing the fines shall have the discretion of imposing any lesser fines.

Another section of the new ordinance provides that in the event any property owner requests that shade trees be removed, replaced, or requests any work to be done by the shade tree commission, the property owner shall request the work to be done in writing and agree to pay the cost of the work done. The amendment further provides that the cost of the work done be paid within 30 days, and if not the cost will become a lien on the property carried by the town.

The new ordinance comes up for final reading at the first meeting in August, and will become effective twenty days after its passage.

SIX ARE NAMED TB DIRECTORS FOR BELLEVILLE

Prominent Citizens Are Appointed To Board Of Two-Town Group

Belleville citizens announced this week as selectees for the board of directors of the Belleville-Nutley Tuberculosis association are Mrs. Lawrence Willette of 137 Stephens street, Miss Mae Watson of 336 Stephens street, Ronald G. Brunner of 549 Washington avenue, Elwood P. Russell of 253 Greylock, Milo Salters of 30 Prospect street and James Leonard of 26 Bridge street.

Russell and Brunner, associated in the Belleville Community Chest and Council of which the former is president and the latter, executive secretary and treasurer, are also known here for their affiliation with the Belleville Foundation in which Russell represents Wallace & Tiernan company and Brunner is assistant to Harry G. Specht, foundation president.

Russell, public relations director at Wallace & Tiernan, is also chairman of the recreation council in Belleville, active in Boy Scouts as chairman of the first industrial troop here, Troop 333, and executive secretary of the area council of a Labor-Management group which included manufacturers and workers of Hudson, Essex and Union counties in its membership.

Brunner, Defense Council co-ordinator and vice-chairman of the council, is also Belleville mileage administrator for town owned vehicles.

Mrs. Willette Active

Most significant in Mrs. Willette's public career has been her recent two year appointment to Governor's Edge's Migrant board. She has long been interested in the problems of New Jersey's migratory workers. As editor of the journal of the Northeastern Federation of Colon Women's clubs, corresponding secretary of the State federation of Colored Women's clubs and chairman of the job clinic of the Metropolitan council of Negro women, Mrs. Willette has entered into the social and educational problems of her race.

Lecturer and playwright, she produces dramatizations of social problems. Her dramatization of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt's "This Troubled World" in 1939 is a notable example.

Membership on the board of directors of the State league of women voters and the Nutley League indicates another cause to which Mrs. Willette is devoted. She has become acquainted with the work of the tuberculosis league through serving on the program committee of the Essex county association. The mother of six children, she is a member of the organization committee of the Belleville Girl Scout council.

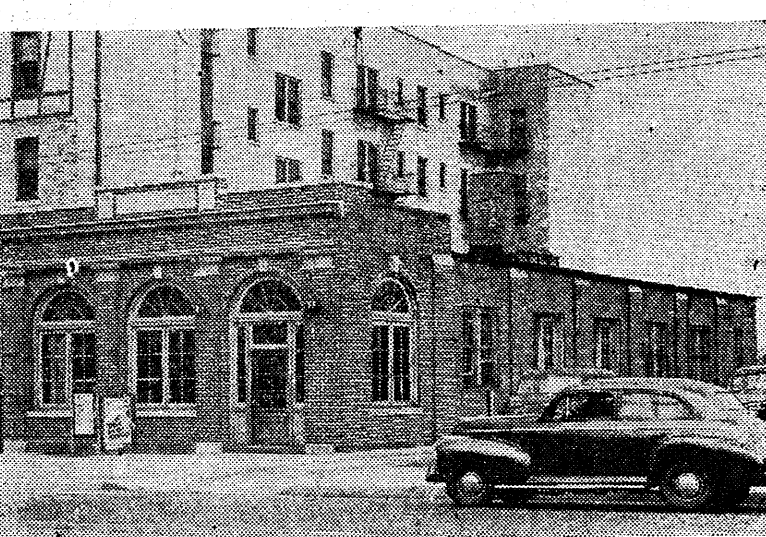

Milo Salters was recently honorably discharged from the Army, following overseas service in France. Familiar to Belleville audiences as a member of the Edwards Gospel Singers quartette and as a member of the Adelphi players, he is assistant pastor of Little Zion church on Stephen street.

Petrean President

Leonard and Miss Watson are prominent members of the Petrean club, six-year-old dramatic and cultural group at St. Peter's church. Leonard, a charter member, took office as president for the fourth time this year. He was the originator of the club's yearly award for outstanding performance, the Petrean Oscar.

Town Votes To Form Policy Before Granting Licenses

Granting of a license to Joseph Ferrara to conduct a retail package liquor store at Garden avenue and Dawson street was laid over Tuesday night by the Belleville Commissioners, until the town's excise board could meet and form a definite policy on the granting of further licenses to veterans or civilians.

Ferrara appeared at the pre-meeting conference of the commissioners, represented by Attorney Harold Cavanaugh, after a petition signed by more than forty residents of the area in which the store will be located was presented.

The petitioners were represented by Edward Abramson and four residents. They contended that granting of the license would devalue their property in that area, and that the present quota for stores in the town as set by an ordinance was now filled. Cavanaugh stated he thought the signers of the petition had mistakenly believed the license would be for a tavern, whereas it was to be a retail store.

Commissioner Waters went on record as not objecting to the issuing of a license to a veteran, but to issuing a license for a business in that section. He suggested laying the application over until a meeting of the Town Excise board could be held and a definite policy formed in regard to issuing future licenses.

STORE FUEL OIL URGES TARRANT

Filling Tanks Now Necessary To Keep Supplies In East

Pointing out that the Pacific war is drawing fuel oil supplies away from the East, District OPA Director Richard J. Tarrant said this week that "it is vital that every available storage space here be filled to capacity this summer."

He emphasized that a substantial part of the East's storage capacity consists of household tanks, and he urged consumers to order their tanks filled immediately upon receiving their ration coupons.

"We have made a special effort to distribute the fuel oil coupons for 1945-46 during this summer," he pointed out. "The fuel oil industry is anxious to fill household tanks as soon as possible, so that dealer storage tanks can be refilled now in preparation for the winter. I strongly urge every consumer to cooperate in this very necessary program. Our health and comfort next winter depends upon it."

CONFUSION CITED ON REEMPLOYMENT

Bloomer Lists Authority For Returning Veterans To Former Positions

Considerable confusion exists on the part of discharged veterans as to the basis for their reemployment rights, reported Col. E. N. Bloomer, New Jersey selective service director, this week. Many think that veterans may claim their old jobs under the G. I. Bill of Rights, he said, but actually Section eight of the Selective Training and Service Act is legal authority.

"It doesn't make much difference about the legal basis today when almost every veteran can get his old job back without difficulty," admitted Col. Bloomer. "But, as more veterans are released from active duty, it may become vitally necessary for them to know the law which assures them their former positions."

Section eight of the Selective Service Act provides that anyone

REPORT INDICATES POLIO CASES UP IN NEW JERSEY

No New Cases Here But Rise Seen In State For Period

Although there have been no new cases of infantile paralysis reported recently in Belleville, a report from Dr. J. Lynn Mahaffey, State health director this week indicated that cases in the state, as in the nation as a whole, are more prevalent than normal for this time of year.

Belleville's only case so far this year was reported in June. Last year the town had three cases, but the first case was not reported until August 23. The other cases were reported on September 5 and October 7.

Mahaffey's report, which includes several suggestions to local health boards to aid in preventing the disease, follows: "In New Jersey from January 1, 1945, to and including July 16, there have been received at the office of the State Health Department reports of 68 cases. In a comparable period last year, the number of cases reported was 13. In 1943, 11 cases were reported during a similar period.

"All the means by which this disease may be transmitted have probably not yet been established. It has been definitely established that the disease is caused by a specific virus and that this agent may be present in secretions from the throat and nose and from the intestines, both from persons seriously or mildly affected with the disease and also in some persons who show no symptom of illness.

Suggested Measures

"General measures which Boards of Health may adopt as an aid in preventing the spread of the disease include:

Informing the public of the known prevalence of the disease in order to prevent unfounded rumors and fear; eliminating fly breeding places; seeking to have protected from flies, food to be eaten without further cooking; seeing that privies and similar facilities are so constructed and maintained that flies cannot gain access to excremental matter.

"Insisting upon proper and thorough cleansing of eating and drinking utensils in soda fountains, lunchrooms and other public places; urging persons not to swim in waters which may be polluted by drainage from cesspools or other similar receptacles; urging persons not to drink water from streams or from springs or wells which may be open to pollution; urging parents to separate from others any child who appears ill until the true nature of the illness is determined, and urging prompt reporting of cases of infantile paralysis.

May Use General Hospitals

"It is the opinion of this Department cases may be safely treated in general hospitals. Therefore, if hospitalization of a case is indicated and isolation hospital facilities are not available admission of the case to a general hospital may be sought.

Director Mahaffey notified local boards of health that the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is prepared to extend financial assistance to victims, including payment of hospital, medical, nursing and physical therapy service. "If you do not know who heads the local chapter of the Foundation in your county," said Dr. Mahaffey, "call the State Department of Health at Trenton or the nearest State District Health Office."

Lieut. Colonel Reese Typed First Authorization For Family Allowances

Lieutenant-Colonel Fred J. Reese of 254 Joralemon street has been designated officer in charge of the field investigations branch of the War Department office of dependency benefits in Newark. This was announced last week by Brigadier General H. N. Gilbert, USA, director of the ODB, an activity of the office of the fiscal director, Headquarters, Army service forces.

Colonel Reese now heads the branch of the ODB which protects soldiers' dependents and the government from fraud or loss in connection with family allowances.

One of the first group of officers assigned to the ODB, he reported for duty with the embryo organization which was to administer soldiers' benefits a month before the Servicemen's Dependents Act was signed on June 23, 1942. He personally typed the first authorization for a family allowance, and helped organize the ODB "production line" procedure which now sends out more than eight million ODB checks each month to the dependents of Army men and women.

Colonel Reese is a native of Hendersonville, North Carolina. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter

Sewer Bids Too High To Award Contract

Meeting Necessary To Increase Funds After All Bidders Give Prices Above Engineer's

Award of a contract for the construction of sanitary sewers in streets of the Riviera park development was held up at Tuesday night's meeting of the town commission when all bids received were above the amount appropriated for the project. A special meeting of the commission will be called this week or early next week to introduce an ordinance calling for an additional appropriation to cover the cost of the project.

Representative Fred A. Hartley Jr., of the 10th Congressional District, announced this week that while Congress had taken a Recess until October 8, the longest it has had since before the war, that he will not be able to take advantage of the recess.

He is Ranking Minority Member of the Select Committee to Investigate Executive Agencies that go beyond their authority granted them by law. This Committee is continuing its hearings in Washington with some of its sessions being held in New York.

The Congressman said that most of his time would be spent in Washington, and asked that those whose desire to reach him should continue to address their communications to the House of Representatives, Washington 25, D. C.

'LEARN TO SWIM' CLASSES PLANNED

Two Red Cross Instructors To Give Lessons Four Consecutive Weeks

"Learn to Swim" classes for children of Belleville who desire instruction in swimming will start on Monday, August 6, in the Friendly House pool at 23 Frederick street, it was announced this week by Commissioner Noll of the Recreation department. The classes will continue for four consecutive Mondays thereafter, August 13, 20, and 27, and September 3.

Classes will be under direction of Paul Hauser and Joseph Talamo, Red Cross instructors, Noll said. Registration of those interested may be made at any one of the seven playgrounds under the Recreation department. They are located at schools one and nine, Bridge street, Mill street, Friendly House, Clearmar field, and the Recreation house. Due to the rain last week, attendance at the various playgrounds fell off about 70 per cent Noll reported.

Contest Winners

The Rope Jumping contest conducted at the Mill street playground proved most interesting to the children. Gloria Barnett came out the winner in the Single Rope contest and Maryann Sanok the winner in the Double Dutch contest. A large group of the children participated in both contests.

KING APPOINTS SECOND VETERAN

Carmen Della Terza Named Special Officer, Was MP Overseas For 33 Months

Another veteran of the war was placed in the town police this week and received a chance to put his army training to civilian use, when Commissioner King of the department named Joseph Della Terza as a temporary special officer on the town police force.

Della Terza served 33 months overseas as an MP before returning to this country and receiving an honorable discharge under the Army points system for separation. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Della Terza of 130 Heckel street.

A native of Belleville and student in local schools, Della Terza was employed by the Westinghouse Electric company in Newark before entering the Army in 1940. He received infantry training at Fort Bragg, N. C., before he went overseas.

Della Terza took part in the African, Sicilian, Normandy, Belgium, Ardennes and Germany campaigns during his 33 months overseas, and was wounded once. He was last stationed overseas at Ingolstadt, Germany.

He wears the European-African-Middle Eastern campaign ribbon, with eight battle participation stars, in addition to the Pearl Harbor ribbon. He was awarded the Purple Heart medal and the Good Conduct medal.

Returning to the United States, Della Terza was discharged with a total of 128 points. He is married to the former Ceil Parisi of Newark, and makes his home at 130 Heckel street.

Della Terza is the second veteran of this war to be placed in the local police department during the past two weeks. Last week, John Ulson was named a temporary special officer. A town ordinance restricts all appointments to temporary during the war.

BROTHERS MEET AFTER 3 YEARS

Two Ciallellas Reunited
In Salzburg, Austria,
After Long Separation

Two brothers from Belleville who hadn't seen each other for nearly three years finally met in Salzburg, Austria, following the end of the European conflict, according to word received this week.

The boys are Sgt. Joseph Ciallella, 30, and Pfc. John Ciallella, 23, both sons of Mrs. Ralph Ciallella of 67 Cedar Hill avenue. Letters received by the parents told of the visit. Joe, who is a cook with a 7th army unit, was dishing out the chow to a bunch of hungry G.I.s when his brother, a member of the Signal Corps, ran across him. Whether it was the busy session or the long separation that made Joe fail to recognize his brother was not revealed, but after identification was established a happy reunion was effected.

Joe has been in the service for the past forty months, thirty of which were spent in the European theater. He was employed at the A. J. Crowhurst and Sons plant before entering the Service.

John, who has been in service for 33 months, has been overseas for the past year and a half. A graduate of Belleville High school, he was employed at a Newark Beauty Parlor.

Lake House History

The Silver Lake house, incorporated in 1922 and a charter member of the Newark Welfare federation, is partially supported by the Belleville Community Chest and Council. A gymnasium, playgrounds, outdoor athletic equipment, rooms for social and handwork activities and a baby-keep-well station are housed there.

Mrs. Herkins, in previous interviews, has indicated that her goal there was to create in the patrons a pride of membership, not to force upon them the aspects of a social welfare or charitable institution. A pre-war peak of forty clubs covering the activities of everyone from grandmothers to infants indicates that this was achieved.

No successor to Mrs. Herkins has been named.

who left a position "other than temporary" will be given back his old job if he fulfills three qualifications—he must have a certificate of satisfactory completion of service, he must be qualified to perform the duties of his former position, and he must make application within 90 days after leaving the armed forces or hospital.

Only One Exception

New Jersey's veteran will get his old job back or one of "like seniority, status and pay" whether he was a government employee or worked for a private employer. Only exception with the private employer is "unless the employee's circumstances have so changed as to make it impossible or unreasonable to do so."

While the Selective Service Act declares "it is the sense of the Congress" that a veteran should get back his old position in any state or political subdivision, the state of New Jersey has gone further. In section 38:23-4 of the Revised Statutes, 1941-44, every resident of New Jersey who held an office, position or employment, other than for a fixed term, in the state, county or municipal government, shall be considered to have been on leave of absence while with the armed forces, and shall be entitled to his former position within three months after his discharge.

Gutch was represented by Attorney Robert Rubecky, who started to point out in his defense that Gutch was sincere in his efforts to keep the noise down. Town Attorney Keenan recommended that Gutch go along on the regulation on the license before he acquired it that the music be turned off at 12 on weekdays and 2 a.m. on Sundays.

Finally, with the patience of the commissioners ebbling fast, Mayor Williams stated he was tired of having the board's time taken up by the matter. At least twelve conferences have been held on the matter down through the years, he said, and there are many more important governmental problems to be taken up than to waste any more time on it.

That was the end of the argument. At the council meeting in the council chambers, a resolution was introduced, placing a restriction on the placery retail consumption license held by Nicholas and Anna Gutch, that all noise and all music, singing and other forms of entertainment whatsoever should cease at 12 midnight, except on Sunday morning, when it should cease at 2 a.m.

Local Litter Bearer Cited For Work In Philippines

Among the twenty-five litter bearers of the 106th Medical battalion who were commended by superior officers for exceptional performance of duty from May 15 to 30 on Mindanao in the Philippines was Pfc. Thomas J. McLaughlin of 15 Smith street, Caring for the wounded of the 167th Infantry these men were cited for "untiring energy and initiative in the evacuation of injured men over extremely precipitous terrain under the fire of enemy small arms and mortars."

Each man received a copy of the citation which further pointed out their "uncommon desire not only to perform their own assigned duties, but to give every possible assistance to other medical department personnel."

Pfc. McLaughlin has served in New Guinea and in the battle of Morotai and has been in the Pacific eighteen months. He entered the Army in March, 1943.

Also attached to a medical battalion is his brother, T/5 John T. McLaughlin of 2 Cedar Hill avenue. Cpl. McLaughlin is stationed with a hospital unit at Luzon. Although within several hundred miles of each other the men's attempt to get together has so far been unsuccessful.

Board Equally Staffed

The Tuberculosis association, whose board of directors is equally staffed by Belleville and Nutley residents, is headed by Rev. Henry J. Berkobin of Nutley.

Other Belleville members are Rev. Joseph M. Kelly, Rev. Peter R. Deckenbach, Commissioner Raymond E. Mertz, Health Officer Eugene T. Berry, Thomas D'Avella, John J. Hewitt, Mrs. Charles Bayless, Mrs. William V. Irvine, Mrs. J. H. Edwards, now treasurer of the association.

Wayne R. Farmer, superintendent of schools; Anthony A. Pascale, now chairman of the education committee of the league; Dr. Morris Rochlin, Capt. William Taffet in the Armed Forces; Mrs. Frank McFadden, publicity chairman, and Wilfred Yudin complete the Belleville roster.

Dual Project History

The dual community project was set up in 1925 when a committee of Belleville and Nutley residents approached the New Jersey Tuberculosis league and a nurse was employed by the league for this territory.

This responsibility passed to the Essex County league when that body was formed in 1928. In 1937 the county league was no longer able to shoulder the financial burden and the Belleville-Nutley group incorporated into the present association and undertook to defray its own expenses with proceeds from TB stamp sales.

Miss Elizabeth Smith was the nurse continuously employed during this period. After an illness which forced her retirement, she was succeeded in December 1942 by Mrs. Ernest Whynall of Nutley. Mrs. Whynall reports that the association, through her services, currently makes 450 contacts a year.

Aids Experiment

The association contributed its chest x-ray service last Wednesday to an experimental health clinic conducted for Walter Kidde employees in Ralph street school. One hundred and thirty one x-rays were furnished and interpreted under the association's auspices.

A general x-ray clinic will be held here in the fall, the third in a series which will alternate yearly between the municipalities.

WHAT IS YOUR FINANCIAL PROBLEM?

That, we have no way of knowing. But in the adjustments of war work, and from war work to normal production, questions will arise involving financing.

Feel free to talk them over with any of the Officers of the Peoples National Bank and Trust Company, and that goes, whether you want to discuss installing machinery for peace-time work or financing the straightening of Mary's teeth.

What is important to you... is important to us. Whatever your problem is, that becomes our problem too, and, if you will favor us with your confidence, we shall almost surely arrive at a satisfactory solution.

LOCAL CYO SCORES
4 INNING WIN

Hickman's Homer Brings
Only Runs Of Game
Halted By Rain

St. Peter's CYO scored a four inning victory over St. Mary's of Nutley Sunday, afternoon at Branch Brook Park Extension, after chalking up but one hit on Downey, St. Mary's moundman.
Rain halted the ball game at the end of the fourth inning with
St. Peter's in the lead, 3 to 0.

Hickman's home run in the third was the only St. Peter's hit of the game. After a scoreless two innings, Howell of St.
Peter's got on first through an error by DeBolt, St. Mary's shortstop. Joe Lister went down swinging for the second out, and then George Lister got on through an error by Claw. Hickman came to bat and walloped a long one deep into right-center field to clear the bases and chalk up the only runs of the game.

The board has a $700 option on the property, which comprises about three-fourths of an acre. The property is bordered by a resident, the Elks Club and a gas station on the outside of the "L". The board has already acquired the shaded property and the other rectangular property facing High street.

Composite Drawn From
First Year's Service
Of Veterans' Agency

A composite of the typical G.I. veteran who takes advantage of federal and state provisions for business loans is seen in the first year's figures of the division of veterans' services, one of the agencies in the New Jersey State Department of Economic Development.

Dr. Charles R. Erdman jr., commissioner of the department of economic development explains that while the department was established July 1, 1944, the first business loan to a veteran was approved in September last year. From then until July 1, 1945, 460 loans have been approved for a total of $937,050. Applications for 90 loans totaling $187,920, were denied.

New Jersey loans applied for to date have been in largest numbers by Army veterans. Of the 578 applicants, 461 were Army men, and one was an honorably discharged WAC. Remaining applications were made by 73 Navy, 24 Marines and 19 Coast Guard veterans.

Most Applicants Married

The average loan granted has been slightly in excess of $2,000. The greatest number of applicants are married and their wives are employed. Of the 578 applicants, 415 were married, but 303 listed no dependents, thus indicating that their wives had some separate source of income. An additional 165 veterans have only one dependent, 81 have two and 22 have three dependents. Only one applicant had six dependents — the greatest number given.

Nearly half, 260, of the 578 veterans seeking business loans in accordance with the State provisions, were 31 years of age or older, while 172 were 25 or under. Of the applicants, 248 were employed, 156 self-employed and 174 unemployed at the time the loan was sought.

Essex County Leads

As is natural, most applicants for loans come from heavily populated areas of the State and plan to locate their businesses in those same counties. Essex County is in the lead with 109 of the 460 new businesses for which loans have been approved. Middlesex, Passaic, Bergen and Union follow with 46, 41, 40 and 39 respectively. Twenty-six joint ventures are being undertaken, each involving two or more veterans. The other 434 businesses are individually operated.

The 460 approved loans for new businesses classified 238 as retail trade; 58 service establishments; 40 professional; 38 motor transportation; 27 trade crafts; 20 manufacturing; 16 agriculture; 9 sales agents; 8 wholesale trade; 4 construction and 2 recreation.

Gasoline stations are the most common with 35 of them indicated in the total of 238 new retail trades. Restaurants are second with 28 listed, followed by 19 produce markets, 17 stationery and confectionery stores and 16 taverns.

Among the service establishments opening for business with the help of the New Jersey Veterans' Loan Authority were those of caterer, masseur, rug shampooing, scavenger and well digging. Ten dentists, 9 lawyers and 8 physicians led the list of professional enterprises. Included in this group was one publisher, one veterinarian, one circus actor and one auctioneer.

NEIGHBORS MEET ON NAPLES LEAVE

Cedar Hill Avenue Men
Reunited In Furlough
PX Line Overseas

Another happy reunion of Belleville in service occurred on July 13 in Naples, Italy, when Pfc. Bart Ciallella met up with his neighbor from across the street on Cedar Hill avenue, Pfc. Tony Feirro. Both boys were on furlough from their respective units at the time, and met in a PX line while collecting their ration of cigarettes.

Ciallella, who lives at 69 Cedar Hill avenue, is a member of the Army Air forces and is stationed at Bengazo, Africa. Feirro, who lives at 74 Cedar Hill avenue also is in the Air Forces. He is stationed with the aviation engineers in Germany. Both had taken their furloughs in Naples in order to visit people there.

Feirro was graduated from Belleville High school in 1940 and was a beautician working in Elizabeth before entering the service three years ago. He has been overseas for the past two years.

Ciallella was employed at the local Walter Kidde plant before he entered the service in September, 1942. He went overseas in October, 1944.

Although Ciallella's furlough expired the day following the meeting, they were able to spend one day seeing the sights of Naples together and taking camera snapshots.

SAILOR ON CREW OF SHANGRI-LA

Local Man Serves On Carrier Built Through National Bond Drive

Robert Stanley Brown, boat-swain's mate, second class, whose sister Jean lives at 567 Washington avenue, is serving aboard the aircraft carrier Shangri-La, which today is a very real source of danger to the Japs and not just the mythical base popularized three years ago when the Doolittle raiders hit Tokyo.

Planes from the Shangri-La helped defeat the Japs in the recent Okinawa campaign, raining bombs, rockets and bullets on enemy pillboxes, caves, airfields and communications centers in support of ground troops.

The Shangri-La was built following the materialization of an idea that originated when the late President Roosevelt told the world that Lieut. General James Doolittle's planes made the first air raid of the war on Tokyo from "Shangri-La." Through a nationwide campaign, people bought war bonds specifically to build the carrier. Brown became a member of the crew when the ship was commissioned last year.

A graduate of Belleville High school in 1941, Brown was employed by the Western Electric company in Kearny before he enlisted in the Navy in May, 1942.

INTERESTING FACTS CONCERNING NEW JERSEY

Although 45th in Size it is 9th in Population

Ninth in population is indicative of concentrated wealth, production and manpower.

New Jersey is thriving today and will prosper further when peace settles on the world.

That is the reason for the great demand now for municipal bonds—those of your own state, county, city, town or village. They are being purchased not only because income from them is exempt from taxation, but because of their inherent safety and generous yield.

Whether or not you own bonds of your own community or neighboring communities, some very interesting facts can be obtained from an attractive booklet that may be had without obligation, by writing to J. B. Hanauer & Co., 1180 Raymond Boulevard, Newark 2, N. J. Just ask for a copy of "Investing Today to meet Tomorrow's Uncertainties."

Promoted

Thomas J. Cataldi, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Cataldi of 347 Union avenue, has been promoted to sergeant in the Headquarters of the Northern Combat Area Command of the China-Burma-India theater of operations, according to word received this week.

Overseas since April, 1944, Sgt. Cataldi had the honor of serving doughnuts to Gen. Stilwell and members of his staff last fall, shortly before the General was recalled to this country.

A graduate of Belleville High school in 1941, Cataldi completed a course in printing techniques prior to entering the service in May, 1943. A member of a cavalry unit, he trained at Fort Riley, Kansas, and Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, and participated in maneuvers in Louisiana before being sent overseas.

Assigned to the Mars Task Force in the CBI theater, Cataldi aided in the cutting of the Burma road. He contracted malaria and was hospitalized for several months. When he was released, he was assigned to the Northern Combat Area Command.

Cataldi has met two local boys since he went overseas. In Burma he met a former Belleville High classmate, A. E. Costello of Nolton street who was a member of the same unit. In India, he met Benjamin Lucas of Passaic avenue.

Severer of the Presidential Unit citation and the combat infantryman's badge, Cataldi has two battle stars for the Central Burma and Northern Burma campaigns.

ESSEX FUND HEAD REPORTS CHANGE

Russian Relief Withdrawal Due To Program Change Says County Chairman

Russian War Relief has withdrawn as a member of the National War Fund, effective June 30, it was announced this week by Robert M. Green, Essex county War Fund chairman.

"The withdrawal of Russian War Relief," Green said, "is due to the fact that this agency contemplates a change in program involving less 'war relief' as such, and more rehabilitation and reconstruction, and that the needs of the program of Russian War Relief are now predominantly in the field of gifts-in-kind, with cash needs restricted largely to administration, expenses of local committees, freight, warehousing and processing. In light of the change, and because Russia is not at war, the agency will change its name to 'The American Society for Russian Relief, Inc.'"

The National War Fund has advised Green that the withdrawal of Russian War Relief, following that of British War Relief and America Denmark Relief, now makes it possible for National War Fund to stay within its budget of $115,000,000 and still meet increased demands for the work of USO and USO-Camp Shows, as well as making possible greater appropriations for relief in the Pacific area, particularly into the Philippines. It will also release some additional funds for emergency needs arising in recently liberated European countries.

"The executive committee of the National War Fund," Green stated, "has already approved a budget of $81,650,000 for the USO in 1945-46, an increase of approximately $6,000,000 over the original USO budget for 1944-45. This increase has been made necessary by wide expansion of USO-Camp Shows overseas, by new demands for USO services in this country during the period of re-training and redeployment of armed forces returned from Europe and preparing for the Pacific, and for substantial expansion of USO services in the Pacific."

LOCAL MEN PASS INFANTRY COURSE

Expert's Badge Awarded To Tucker and Iannia Following Training

Two local men who entered the Army on March 5, have been awarded the Expert Infantryman's badge at Camp Blanding, Fla., after completing a course of training in the Infantry Replacement Training Center, it was announced this week.

The men are Pvt. Herbert B. Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Tucker of 39 Schuyler street, and Pvt. Leonard S. Iannia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore Iannia of 12 Magnolia street.

Award of the badge, which calls for additional compensation above base pay, means that the men are experts in the use of several of the infantry weapons and have completed training in many of the other military skills required of infantrymen in this war.

Both are graduates of Belleville High school. Before entering the service, Tucker was employed by H. W. Porter and company in Newark. Iannia was employed by the Andrew Jergens company.

Littig Captures Bicycle One Mile Championship

In the Belleville Bicycle club's one mile championship last Sunday, held at Brookdale Park, Ed. Littig tore away from the field on the straightaway to secure the number one spot and place a considerable strip of the Brookdale track between him and second placer, Herb Henderson.

Angelo Morrecci, Newarker and new Belleville rider, was caught unawares and ended up by crossing the tape third. Slug Bryan came out of hibernation to ride and took fourth position. Junior Guerin's challenge to the seniors was gallant, but futile.

Next Sunday at Brookdale Park, the local club will hold their five mile championship run, beginning at 8:30 a.m. Nine riders are expected, and spectators are welcome. A ride to Livingston will follow, in a let-down of speed from the first five miles of the day.

Post Office Still Coming

Announcement this week of the sale of the present post office building at 236 Washington avenue brings about speculation on when Belleville will get its new federal building. A check-up seems to show that plans for such a building are as uncertain as ever.

Talk of a new post office for the town first started back in 1940, when Representative Hartley indicated that a new federal building for Belleville was in the offing. It was generally conceded at that time that the present building was adequate.

The subject came into the news limelight again in January, 1944, when Hartley, in a communication to the Belleville Times, reported he had been successful in having a survey made of the local postal situation. The survey showed, he stated, that additional facilities were urgently needed. At the time, Hartley was a ranking member of the House Post Office and Post Roads committee, and as such he paved the way for authorization of a new federal building for Belleville. Hartley said in his communication, that projects of that type are frozen for the duration but he did state that he is certain that as soon as the war is over, or construction of that type is authorized, Belleville will have a new Federal Building.

The ten year lease on the present post office building expires in November, but as near as can be learned, the situation on the construction of a new federal building is the same as before. Postal authorities in Newark simply state that they are seeking proposals for a five or ten year lease on a building to house a post office for Belleville. They may renew the present lease on 36 Washington avenue, or they may take a new site. John F. Coogan, new owner of the building has indicated that he will fix up the building, either for the post office department or for someone else.

One thing is certain, the present post office is not a place for Belleville residents to be proud of. That it is in bad repair is visible to everyone who enters, and local postal officials maintain that the present available space is not nearly adequate for their needs.

What Do We Wish To Do?

Just as cheese calls for apple pie, so, it would seem, our victory in Europe demands another great effort. Although we have accomplished our object of defeating Germany, returning travelers tell us this can only be a negative result unless we make another herculean effort to feed and rehabilitate Europe.

All qualified observers agree that Europe is faced with starvation. For the United States this presents a problem with two aspects: One, the moral obligation to do our best to alleviate suffering, and, two, the necessity, from a strictly selfish viewpoint, of averting a chaos which can only be dangerous to ourselves.

In view of our colossal outpouring of lives and treasure, any moral obligation to do more for Europe, for many people, does not exist. With that point of view there must be sympathy. But that it is advantageous for us to keep Europe from chaos would seem to be indisputable.

Recent history shows that from chaos come extremes of right or left—fascism or communism. The processes of democracy are never swift enough for people who are starving. Democracy, moreover, is the last thing desired by unscrupulous leaders or minorities thirsting for power.

Because a recrudescence of fascism is barred, it would seem, therefore, that any extreme movement growing out of European chaos can only be toward communism. This, for Americans, would be as bad as fascism, since, like fascism, it would be a threat to our own institutions.

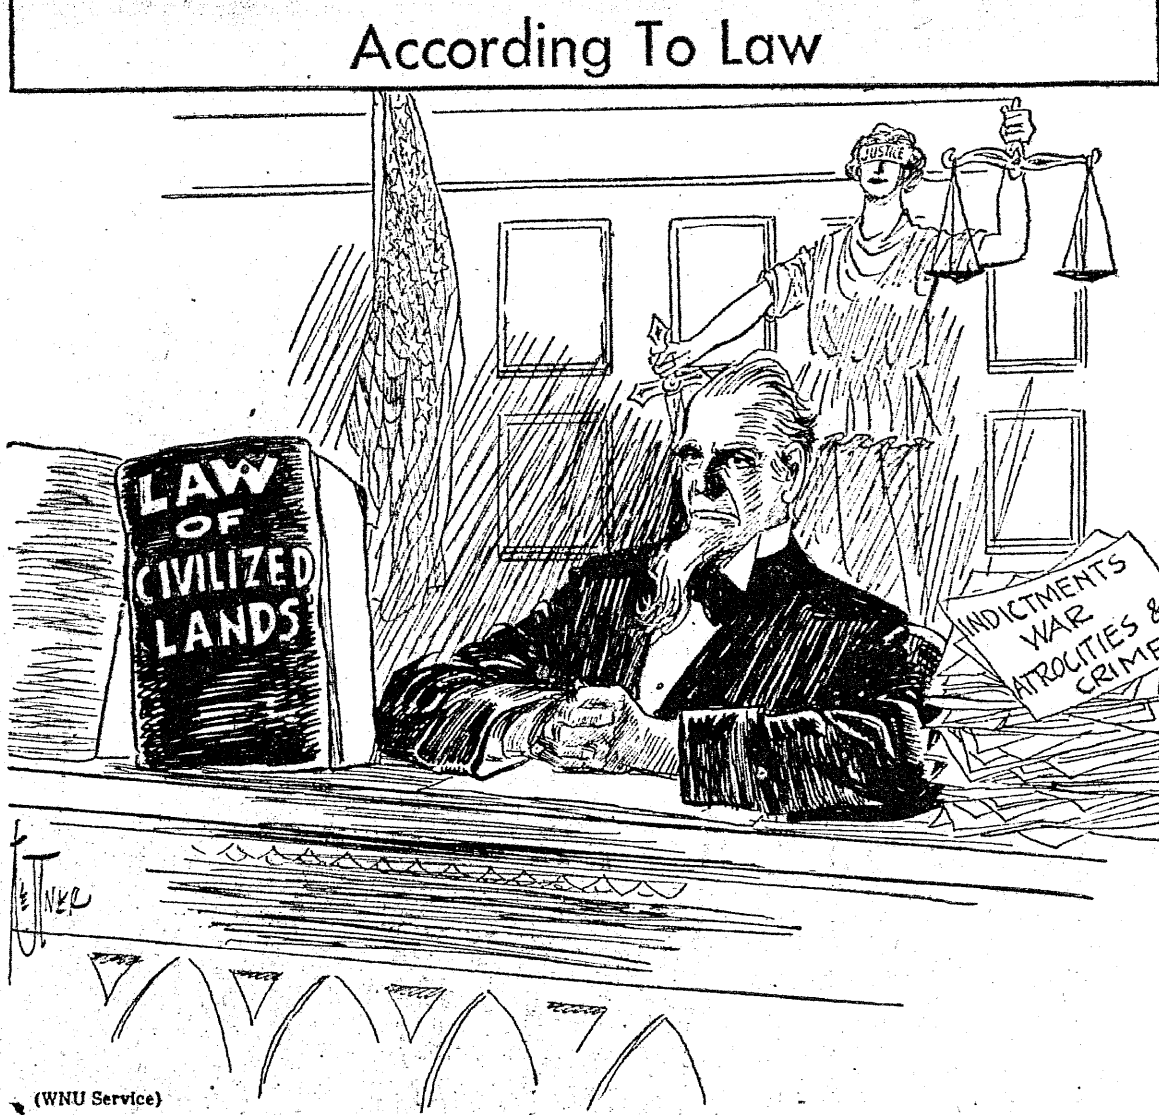

It is the middle way we want in Europe. But if we are to have it the evidence mounts daily that we must make further sacrifices. Secretary of Agriculture Anderson has made it plain that this country cannot feed the world, even if it wished to do so. We also are short of coal and other commodities. Despite our irritating shortages, however, the United States still affluent compared to Europe. Do we, therefore, wish to sacrifice some of this so-called affluence to rehabilitate Europe? That seems to be the question we shall have to answer in the next few months.

Two Little Items

It is always a temptation to oversimplify, and in discussing the causes of war it is easy to fall into the error of attributing a war to some individual act of aggression, or chain of acts. Unfortunately these are only the things the world sees. Underneath are many other causes, some of them buried so deep that their existence is not suspected even by the statesmen of the warring nations. Notwithstanding all this, however, we cannot escape the conviction that when the two little items of nationalism and economic inequality shall have been eliminated—if ever—most of the other causes of war will go with them. Until that day we hope you'll pardon us if we keep our fingers crossed.

Not Like Father Like Son

The corrupting influence of fascism was never better illustrated than in the lives of King Leopold of Belgium and his father, King Albert. In the last war Albert, as the leader of a tiny nation that fought to the end against the invading Germans, became one of history's most illustrious examples of courage and nobility of soul. In this war Leopold not only quit cold, but later truckled to Hitler and entered into negotiations with him voluntarily to promote Belgium Collaboration after a Hitler Victory. If the Belgians have any reverence for the memory of the great Albert they can do nothing less than keep Leopold in exile.

Quarter-Million EXTRA calls a Day!

... and what they mean to your own telephone service

Perhaps you've wondered why you sometimes have to wait before your operator says "Number, please..."

Perhaps you've wondered, too, why certain Long Distance calls have not sped through as fast as they once did...

It's because New Jersey's telephone wires are humming this summer as never before! Returning servicemen are pouring through this "nation's gateway" by the thousands... and they just can't wait to get to the telephones.

Many of New Jersey's industries, stores, offices and resorts are also operating at peak levels.

All this is reflected in the present tremendous volume of telephone calls. Every day, for example, there are approximately a quarter-million more calls than on the corresponding day last year. And there's no let-up in sight.

Many switchboards are swamped from morning far into the night. Others have rush hour peaks which are difficult to handle. We're doing everything we possibly can to meet the situation. But your help is important, too.

You can help by avoiding needless calls... by keeping conversations reasonably brief. Just one less call a day, and one minute less on longer conversations, will mean better service for everyone. Now, more than ever, your cooperation is a vital part of New Jersey's telephone service.

OPPORTUNITY FOR WOMEN: This is an urgent appeal to women to join our operating force. Call your Chief Operator now, and ask for details. (WMC rules observed).

NEW JERSEY BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

LOCAL FIRM GETS NEW DEALERSHIP

Victory Tire Company To Handle New Line Of G-E Appliances

Karl Schwartz of 111 Washington avenue announced this week the acquiring of the dealership here of the internationally known line of General Electric Appliances for victory tire. Schwartz, a newcomer in the electric appliances business, said he selected this field because of the business opportunities looming in home modernization.

"After the war," Schwartz declared, "a boom in better housing and labor-saving home comforts and conveniences is inevitable. It's

No. 1 on most families' lists. But the womenfolk, schooled in wartime economies, will not buy recklessly. They will insist on products of highest quality and technical performance.

"After several months of exhaustive investigation of leading electrical goods manufacturers, we selected General Electric's appliances as being most in keeping with out standards of quality. Surveys show that the G-E appliances have a greater popularity with housewives than many other brands."

During the war, General Electric has shelled all consumer goods. Its scientists, engineers, and plants have rushed into large-scale production new types of fighting equipment widely used by our forces at sea, on the ground, and in the air.

"When peace comes," Schwartz said, "this district will be supplied as quickly as General Electric can convert with full quotas of new appliances. They'll make home life delightfully easy."

Under the franchise agreement just concluded, Schwartz will sell all major G-E appliances. These include electric refrigerators, home freezers, washing machines, ironers, clothes dryers, and electric ranges. Also, electric water heaters, dish washers, garbage disposals, kitchen cabinets, and air conditioners.

"In addition," Schwartz said, "households here will be able to modernize with new electric toasters, percolators, roasters, waffle irons, clocks, fans, electric blankets, vacuum cleaners and stores of other time-saving electric equipment which virtually pays for itself in actual savings in power, fuel, and labor, while giving homes postwar comforts which folks once considered luxuries.

"Until the war is won, we ask householders to be patient. Buy more War Bonds — so you can cash in on that postwar boom in better living. With our boys home again, we'll pitch in and keep local business and employment humming."

SCOUTS PRAISED FOR BOND SALES

Local Troops Provided Funds For 7 Ambulances; Camporee Plans Listed

Boy scouts of Belleville are not resting on their oars these days, but are moving ahead to new and increased activity. While receiving a compliment for their work in the 7th War Loan, district leaders at the same time were making plans for a camporee to be held in September.

Expressing appreciation for the activities of the boy scouts Philip Dettelbach, general chairman of the Belleville War Finance committee, said "Again the boy scouts deserve a great deal of credit for the fine job they accomplished in the 7th War Loan drive. Please extend our sincerest thanks to all concerned."

Seven Belleville troops sold bonds amounting to $19,571 at issue price and thus were instrumental in providing the funds with which the Government will purchase seven Army field ambulances. The Council total for the 7th War Loan was $665,244.

Since the 4th War Loan, the combined and reported bond sale activities of Robert Treat Council has been responsible for the purchase of 543 field ambulances.

In Belleville, troop 389 secured three ambulances, troop 301 two ambulances and troops 350 and 388 — one each.

Camporee Plans

District and troop leaders are making plans for the camporee to be held September 29 and 30 at Belleville Park. The program committee, headed by James Bunting, is already developing the activities for the week end event which will bring together all the troops of the district. The camporee will be featured by inter-troop events and by a camp-fire program. Parents and friends are to be invited to attend both the day and evening activities.

Scouts of several of the district troops are now attending Camp Mohican, the summer training center of Robert Treat Council. Council and district leaders said that there is a possibility of a few vacancies during the next period which begins on Monday. These are to be made available to scouts of any of the troops in the Council territory who have not yet attended camp this season and who do not have reservations for a later period. The Council has also made arrangements to accommodate a few boys for one week beginning Monday, August 6. Reservations are to be made at the Council office.

Robert Treat Council, through its Belleville district, is one of the participating agencies in the coming War Fund and scout leaders and officials will be asked to assist in the campaign.
