

Parmer Reveals Plans For Opening Of Schools

Teachers To Meet Next Wednesday; Classes Start On Thursday; High School Room Assignments Given

Belleville's Public Schools will officially open for the 1945-46 school year next Wednesday, when a general teachers' meeting for all teachers in the system will be held in the auditorium of School No. 8, 183 Union avenue. Pupils from kindergarten through the high school will go to classrooms to register for the new school year next Thursday, September 6. This was announced this week by Supervising Principal Wayne R. Parmer, who released the new school schedules.

The teachers' meeting will begin at 11 a.m., and will be preceded at 10 a.m. by a meeting of all principals in Parmer's office. The text of Parmer's announcement containing school plans and the home room assignments in the high school follows:

Grade Schools

"Grade school pupils (kindergarten through 8th grade) will report at 8:40 a.m. to 8:55 a.m. Pupils should be in their respective rooms not later than 8:55 a.m. Grade school pupils will be dismissed for lunch hour at 11:45 a.m. and will need to return to their rooms for the afternoon session at 12:55 p.m. The afternoon session ends for pupils at 3:15 p.m."

"Any child who is five years old or shall be five years old on or before December 31 may be admitted to the kindergarten in September of the same year. It should not any longer be necessary to impress those responsible for children of the importance of kindergarten. Each year, however, we have a few children come in to the first grade who have been for some reason unfortunate enough not to have had the advantage of kindergarten. Anyone acquainted with the advantages of kindergarten must realize how great a misfortune these children must suffer. Kindergarten training is fundamental to the child's future work and to have missed it a child must experience disadvantage during its entire school life. Register children for kindergarten on the very first day, Thursday, September 6, if at all possible, so that they may make their new adjustments when all other children are having similar experiences."

"Children who shall have never attended any public or private school should be given special attention."

Commissioners Hear Plans For Ice Skating Rink

Plans to construct an ice skating rink on the Municipal stadium property were outlined at the commission meeting Tuesday night by Commissioner Louis A. Noll, director of public property, and Town Engineer Sheehan. Commissioner Noll told the commissioners he intends to ask appropriation of $11,250 for construction of the rink, which will be used also for roller skating, basketball and other games.

According to the plans, the property, at the rear of school 7, would be surfaced with a six-inch layer of penetration macadam, covered by a two-inch layer of asphalt. The area would be graded for proper drainage.

Local Septuagenarian Gets High Civilian Service Award

Wilbur C. Weyant Receives Recognition For Work In ODB Office

Wilbur C. Weyant, of 103 Belleville avenue, though in his 75th year, Friday, received one of the highest awards that the War Department can bestow upon a civilian employee. Brigadier General Leonard H. Sims, USA, acting director of the office of dependency benefits which administers family allowances and Class E allotments-of-pay for the entire Army, presented Weyant with the Award for Meritorious Service. The presentation was made before the assembled officers and civilian employees of the collection and adjustment branch in which he is employed.

The citation read: "For meritorious civilian service in the exemplary performance of clerical tasks and for loyalty and devotion to duty which has proven an inspiration to his associates."

In making this award, General Sims said, "Not only has Mr. Weyant performed his duties in an outstanding manner, but he has never been late to work. He has never been absent on sick leave. His keen interest in his work and his spirit of willingness and cooperation have been an inspiration to the personnel of his entire section."

TWO ORDINANCES PASSED BY TOWN

Garbage Storing Bill Amended; Setback Lines Established

Two ordinances were passed on final reading at the board of commissioners meeting Tuesday night and incorporated into the laws of the town. Both were introduced at the meeting of the board on August 14.

An ordinance dealing with the town sanitary code on the disposal of garbage while awaiting collection by the town was amended to make the new ordinance apply to apartment houses of four or more families. When introduced, the ordinance applied to buildings housing three or more families.

The ordinance, drawn up as a result of conferences between the health department and the town attorney in an effort to force the owner of the Corbin gardens apartments to arrange for better garbage storing facilities, states, as amended, that in all buildings intended for the occupancy of four or more families, all refuse, ash cans and boxes shall, except at the time appointed for collection by the town collectors, be kept and stored within the interior of buildings, or the owner place cans outside, provided they are placed below ground level in water-proof containers approved by the health officer.

The second ordinance adopted on final reading at the meeting establishes setback lines on Belleville avenue between Washington and Union avenues. The ordinance was adopted preparatory to widening that portion of Belleville avenue.

USES Offices To Be Closed Labor Day Says Costello

Officials and employees of all offices of the War Manpower Commission and the United States Employment Service in New Jersey are to have a holiday on next Monday, Labor Day.

Thomas P. Costello, State Manpower Director, announced this week that all WMC-USES offices in the state will be closed on the first legal holiday to be observed by the agency, with the exception of Christmas, since the beginning of their war-time service.

Persons due to report to USES offices on Monday concerning continued claims for unemployment compensation, job placement or other service, should make their appearance on Tuesday instead, Costello said.

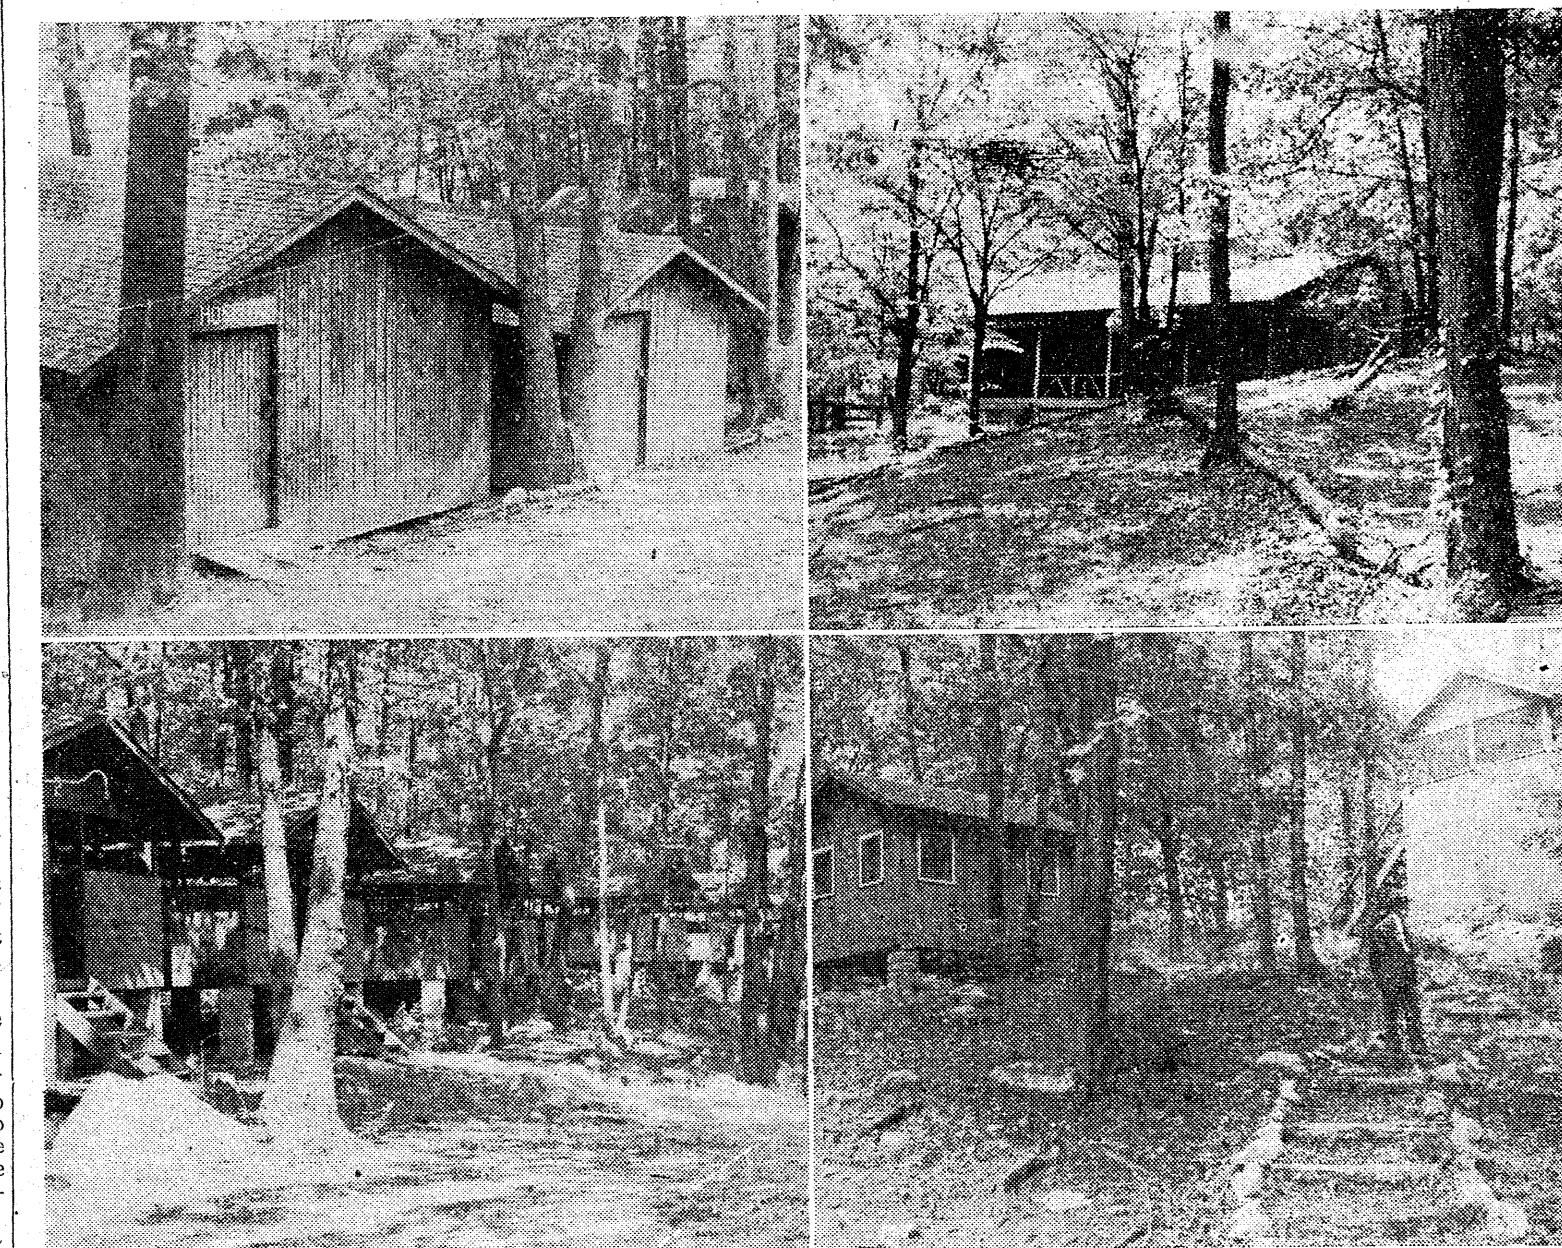

No service of any kind will be available at any USES office on Monday.

Wilbur C. Weyant

Weyant is the third employee of the entire 9000 at the huge activity of the office of the fiscal director, headquarters, Army Service Forces, to receive this award. He is the first to be recommended on the basis of an outstanding achievement in improving the morale of workers through an exemplary record of attendance and performance, according to General Sims.

FIELD DAY CLOSING PLAYGROUNDS

Commissioner Noll Reports Attendance At Sessions Reaches New Peak

Official closing of the Belleville summer playground sessions was marked last Thursday by the annual field day at Clearman field featuring games and entertainment in which all the registrants of the town's playgrounds participated. The program was under the supervision of Edward J. Lister, superintendent of recreation.

Commissioner Louis A. Noll, director of town recreation, announced this week that registration at the playgrounds set a new record this year, topping last year's registration by nearly 15,000. Total attendance for the season was 57,101. Last year's total attendance was 42,120.

The greatest increase in established playgrounds, Noll reported, was in the attendance at Clearman field, where a total of 12,222 registered this year, compared with 10,035 last year.

Last year a play lot was located at Stephens street, the total attendance of which was 1,121. This year, in place of the lot, a playground was established at School 9. The attendance was 4,060, or about four times that of the play lot.

Prize Winners

At the play day those walking away with prizes and medals were James McConnell, winner of the slow bicycle race, Philip Smith, who came out No. 1 man in the baseball fungo hitting, James Kelly in the baseball throw, Donald Smith first in the seniors football punt, James McGuire winner of the intermediate football punt. The seniors football throw was won by Gene Clancy, and the intermediate football throw by James Kelly.

In the baseball throw Fred Waliser was the winner of the seniors and James Kelly the winner of the intermediates.

In the sack race in which the girls participated, Lynn Dickinson won the first prize and Marge Murphy the second. In the sack race for the junior boys, Donald Scully was first and William Waters second.

Dom Scutti, was first prize winner in the boys potato race and Anthony Dambolia second.

In the boys three legged race, the team of Fred Benne and J. Fredericks was first and that of Donald Scully and M. McSweeney second.

Chest Drive Will Include Catholic Charities Group

Result Of Negotiations Places Agency's Budget At $15,000

Conclusion of negotiations with Msgr. Ralph Glover, director of Associated Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Newark, this week resulted in the inclusion of that agency in Belleville's Community Chest drive, scheduled for early October.

The Catholic agency's budget of $15,000 was announced by drive chairman, Frank J. McFadden after its approval by the budget committee of the local chest and council. An overall budget of $26,000 was previously established for five other agencies. They are the Boy and Girl scouts, Community Service bureau, Visiting Nurse association of Newark and Silver Lake Community House.

The Catholic agency has accepted the qualification that the other five agencies will be guaranteed 95 per cent of their budgets, in the event that the drive does not realize its full quota, before Association of Catholic Charities is awarded its share. Msgr. Glover accepted these terms "in the interests of harmony."

Last year the Catholic group realized $12,000 of the $17,500 requested from the drive. Its actual expenditure in Belleville in the fields of family and general welfare, child welfare, hospital and health service and youth activities was $20,000, according to records in the diocese office at 31 Mulberry street, Newark.

Since the overall Catholic social service and charitable effort involves the maintenance of hospitals, institutions for the destitute and aged, protection in institutions of children and actual application of funds for rent, food and clothing, the requested budget is thus substantiated. Catholics, who constitute nearly half the population here, have been specially urged by the drive chairman to bear this fact in mind when called upon to work for and contribute to the drive.

A large proportion of them responded to the call for house to house campaigners last year and an equally large group is expected to volunteer this year.

Work of Associated Catholic Charities in Newark house a staff of professionally trained social workers who cooperate with State authorities, individual pastors and non-sectarian agencies in the solution of family problems of Catholics. Should a Belleville individual, for instance, need hospitalization which he could not afford the office would investigate his case and make arrangements in a Catholic hospital for bed or clinic care.

In the case of anyone under parole from a State institution the Catholic agency is notified if the individual is of that religious be-

A graduate of Belleville High school in 1938, Lieut. Engelmann enlisted in the Army Air Forces in January, 1943. Qualifying for pilot training, he received his pre-flight training at Maxwell Field, Ala. He was commissioned and received his wings at Spence Field,

Foundation Takes Over Summer Camp Property

Former Bloomfield Project Will Be Operated By Corporation For Belleville Children

The Belleville Foundation this week formally acquired title to Camp Demarest on Glen Wild lake formerly owned by the town of Bloomfield. Under plans for the project outlined by the foundation, the title will be taken over by Ro-Li Camps incorporated, a corporation formed with trustees named from the Foundation and the local Rotary and Lions clubs. The camp will be operated as a summer camp for Belleville boys and girls.

SEVEN SEEK JOB AS DIRECTOR

Commissioners To Make Appointment At Special Meeting Next Week

Seven applications for the position of Belleville's veterans guidance director were on file at the town clerk's office yesterday, town clerk Florence R. Morey reported. Today is the final day for filing applications for the $3,000 a year job of guiding Belleville veterans back into civilian life and assisting them to secure benefits offered.

Main qualifications advertised by the commissioners in seeking applications were that those applying must be World War I veterans and residents of the town. One of the applications on file is from a World War I veteran.

The commissioners announced at their meeting Tuesday evening that a special meeting will be held next week when applications will be considered and guidance director appointed.

At the meeting Tuesday, Joseph Spitz, voluntary rehabilitation consultant in the office of Veterans Affairs in Newark, appeared in behalf of Joseph McGreevy, former first lieutenant in the Army Air Forces who is one of the applicants. Spitz said McGreevy has been attending the office in Newark during the past several weeks learning the procedure of handling veterans' affairs.

State Rail Bird Season Also Begins, Reports Fish And Game Council

New Jersey's popular thirty day trout season will open on September 1 to permit fishermen to again participate in their favorite sport, the Fish and Game Council of the State Department of Conservation announced this week.

claim to jobs available in this reconversion period. Certainly the best personal interests of all young people who cannot be ab-best served by their completing their high school work. We shall find that in adjusting to peacetime living society will place a greater than ever premium upon a high school education. Having passed through a period in which organized training and education have been put to a practical test and found not wanting, industry will undoubtedly seek first the services of those with good school

In Show At Newark
Stage Door Canteen

Answering a familiar request for appearance Sunday at the Newark Stage Door Canteen, members of the Olympic Bicycle Roller club performed the dual role of entertainer and athlete. The rigid program of races was abandoned as Ed Littig's disrobing on rollers naughtily brought forth a pair of lace panties.

A howl was still in the air when the races began and it grew to a roar of approval and enthusiasm at the events. Henry Krumweide, Bob and Joe Arnot begged for rosters of the khaki or blue while the naturally suave Belleville lads, Littig, Charlie Logan and Henderson, reaped fans from the inspiring hostesses.

In contrast to the raucous racing fans were the voices of songbirds Terry Arnot and Mrs. Eleanor Bulgren to add to the versatility of the evening's entertainment. Al Bulgren, Peter Putzbaugh, Ed Heer and Dons Seufert and Sheldon were no mean subordinates in the comic 'slow race' and novelty tandem match. Olympic members hope that their two hours was worthy of the history of the Canteen and feel confident that it was appreciated.

Two days prior to Sunday's performance the boys set themselves up for 200 Army lads at Halloran Hospital. After the exhibit the recuperating G.I.s gave their limbs a going over when a few asked to try their skill at balancing in those 16 narrow inches. This interest, the cyclists say, is just the compensation that amply makes up for the time, effort and costs of an exhibition.

Septuagenarian

Sims who further said: "Mr. Weyant travels to work from Belleville—quite a trip even for a hardy soul like him to take twice all holidays except Christmas!" a day, six days a week—and the dapper little septuagenarian, it was learned, has a record for promptness extending back through the years to his school days. Never in his life has he been tardy for school or for work. In that long life, too, he has held but three jobs. From 1894 until 1931 he was secretary for the Home Building and Loan Association here. When that firm merged with others he came to the ODB in March, 1944.

When questioned about the idea of retirement, Weyant laughs. Having always worked, he intends, as he says, "To wear away, not rust away." Further, he is keenly aware of the tremendous job still facing the ODB. The work of discharging accounts, as soldiers are discharged, will equal the task of setting up the 8,000,000 accounts which have benefited some 16,000,000 dependents of Army men and women. In addition, the ODB must continue to disburse to monthly payments to dependents of those soldiers remaining on active duty either here in the United States or abroad.

fares. McGreevy has made a very favorable impression on those working in the office, Spitz said. Spitz, who has been working with veterans for the past 28 years, offered his own services to the commissioners for a half-day a week in assisting Belleville veterans. A petition with more than 800 signatures backing McGreevy for the job was presented. McGreevy, who served as a bombardier overseas, holds the distinguished flying cross, the air medal with three oak leaf clusters, the purple heart and seven battle participation stars.

JERSEY WORKERS FOR JERSEY JOBS

Manpower Head Announces State Citizens To Take Place Of Foreigners

As a means of insuring maximum job opportunities for New Jersey's own citizens Thomas F. Costello, state manpower director, has moved to end all employment of foreign workers and prisoners of war in the state as rapidly as local workers are available and willing to take over the jobs.

Costello disclosed this week that he had instructed all local offices of the United States Employment Service, a week ago, to investigate carefully all current non-agricultural employment of workers imported from Puerto Rico, Jamaica, the Bahamas and the Barbadoes, as well as prisoners of war, to determine whether they could be supplanted by New Jersey citizens displaced in employment through recent war production cut-backs and cancellations.

The manpower director, praising the splendid contribution to the war effort made by the several thousand foreign workers imported to New Jersey, said the termination of their work contracts would be strictly in conformity with the international agreements under which they came into the state to aid in overcoming manpower shortages during the period of the most critical labor stringencies.

Already the movement of the foreign workers back to their native islands is well under way. A force of 556 at one time employed at Picatinny Arsenal has been reduced to 37 and similar cuts have been made in employment of foreigners in Paterson, Newark, and other places. Approximately 20 per cent of the remaining force is employed presently at the Raritan Arsenal.

The prisoners of war have been employed almost exclusively by the state's processing plants in jobs involving the heaviest labor and low pay, Costello said. Approximately 1,900 prisoners have been on the state's industrial payrolls.

CAMPOREE PLANS NEAR COMPLETION

Local Troops To Take Part On September 29-30 In Belleville Park

Headquarters of the Robert Treat Council, Boy Scouts of America, announced this week that plans for this district's camporee at the Belleville Park on September 29 and 30 are practically completed. The camporee is one of the number of activities prepared each year by the district and Council officials as a service to volunteer leaders and the institutions using the boy scout program.

At the park, each troop will provide its own equipment and under their leaders will carry out participation in the district and troop program of events. Each troop will be responsible for its own cooking and housing. A wide variety of tents is expected to be found at the camporee grounds, made available by the Essex County Park Commission.

Arrangements have also been made for participation of scouts in religious services. All troops of the district are expected to attend under their own adult leadership. Plans are being made for special meetings in the district for troop leaders and commitment to gather to set up a year's program of troop meetings, service events and outdoor activities.

William G. Schumacher, chairman of troop 386 has enrolled for the training courses being conducted by the leadership training committee of the Robert Treat council during the coming months.

78TH DIVISION PLANS MEETING

V-J Celebration, Annual Election To Take Place At Newark Reunion

Veterans of the 78th (Lightning) Division will gather at the home of the 312th Infantry Association at 620 High street, Newark, from Friday to Sunday, September 14 through 16, for a three day business meeting, for the annual election of officers and reunions. This was announced this week by Edward W. Ogle, chairman of the contact committee.

Co-chairman of the Belleville reservation committee are Alfred National President Jerry Kamen of the 303rd Engineers, who lives at 166 Division street, and Joseph O'Brien of the 303rd Medical, who lives at 481 Franklin avenue. The dates will mark the 27th anniversary of the Division's participation in the St. Mihiel offensive in World War I.

The 78th will also celebrate the ending of World War II. Special services will be held honoring the memory of the Lightning Division Veterans and their sons who made "The Supreme Sacrifice" in both conflicts. Capt. Edward Scheiberling of the 312th Infantry and National Commander of The American Legion will submit to the organization a report of his visit to the divisional headquarters of the present 78th Division now stationed in Germany.

The program arranged includes, in addition, plans for the mailing of Christmas packages to men in service, the organization of employment bureaus, the inclusion into membership of veterans of The Lightning Division of this war, professional entertainment and regimental reunions.

Advance reservations should be mailed to the General Secretary, Albert Harpell, 120 N. 18th street, East Orange.

RESERVE OPEN TO VETERANS

Discharged Soldiers May Continue In Corps At Former Army Grade

Every soldier honorably discharged in New York, New Jersey, and Delaware is offered an opportunity to join the Enlisted Reserve Corps, it was announced this week by Headquarters, Second Service Command.

The Army offers such enlistments not only as a reward to veterans for their war service but also to build a strong reserve of trained men to meet any emergency the future might bring. The plan is nationwide.

Veterans who join the ERC continue to hold the Army grade or rating held at time of discharge. Also they maintain their service longevity, and at some future date they will be given opportunities to continue the study of their Army specialty.

Enlistments are open to men who qualify for limited or general service (except members of the National Guard) and will be for a period of three years or for the duration of the war and six months thereafter, whichever is longer. Enlisted reservists released from the Army under the demobilization plan will not be called to active duty except by order of the Secretary of War, but those desiring active duty may apply.

Soldiers may join the ERC right at their separation center, receiving their enlistment papers along with their discharge certificate. Veterans who do not take advantage of the offer at the separation center may, within 15 days of discharge, apply for enlistment as a reservist at any United States Army Recruiting Station.

Applicants are permitted to select any arm or service in which they served while in the Army.

School Or Work?

Too much cannot be said or written in favor of the youth of the town returning to school to complete their high school education now that the war is over. It is a point that must be emphasized strongly both for the students themselves, and for the students' parents, on whose shoulders in most cases rests the decision of whether or not their children are to complete their schooling through high school, or continue in their somewhat shaky position as workers in industry.

During the war industry in the area, both war plants and those engaged in civilian production, were starved for workers. With all the able-bodied men of working age either in the Armed Forces or in key war work positions, it was necessary for industry to seek all the help it could from whom-ever could assist.

In this the schools co-operated. Both boys and girls in the upper classes were given freedom unheard of in times past in order that they might assist in the war effort and ease the critical labor shortage. As long as their marks remained at a set standard and their health was not impaired, students were allowed to take part time jobs in industry. Some of them worked as much as a full eight-hour shift in addition to their school-work.

Classes were rearranged to accommodate those working. Some attended school only in the mornings, with extra periods arranged during the morning session in order that they could get the full day's studies. Others were excused at various hours during the afternoon so that they could go to work.

Now these students have had a taste of working as men and women. They've made more money than they ever made before, in most cases, more than their parents made at that age. Perhaps they don't want to settle down to school again. Maybe they don't want to lose access to the "big" money they've received.

It must be impressed upon these working students that the situation is changing fast. The end of the war has put an end to a great many of the jobs the students were holding. There are still plenty of jobs available, and the pay is still on a high scale, but there are men coming home from the Services to take up these jobs. The returned soldiers are the ones who are going to get the jobs.

More important than the question of pay of jobs is the necessity for students to complete their high school education for their own future welfare. Without that education they will have little effect competing with older men, many of whom have received highly technical training in the Service schools, and the others who have and will take advantage of the educational provisions of the G.I. Bill of Rights.

Are We The Same?

The postwar world is upon us, and there is a feverish scramble to get back to the "normal" way of living. Everything is being done to stimulate industry, to create jobs, to continue, but without restrictions, the prosperity of wartime. Government leaders, industrial giants, labor chieftains, all have their plans for the future. But somehow, as we read their bright prospectuses, we can't help thinking something vitally important is lacking.

There doesn't seem to be any plan for mental and moral reconversion. True, we must build new machines, open new stores, resume trade. But is all this activity to be conducted by the same mentality that existed before the war? Are the problems of the postwar world to be met by the same morality that governed the world's affairs before 1939? Nobody seems to be worrying about it.

It's a disturbing oversight. The postwar icebox no doubt will be gemlike in its beauty, but if the housewife who coos over it turns out to be the same person who watched the old icebox through the rise of Hitler and Mussolini, then the new beauty loses some of its lustre. The new cars will be like teardrops skimming swiftly over ribbon-like highways to distant horizons, but if the drivers think the thoughts of the 30's they'll arrive at the same dead end.

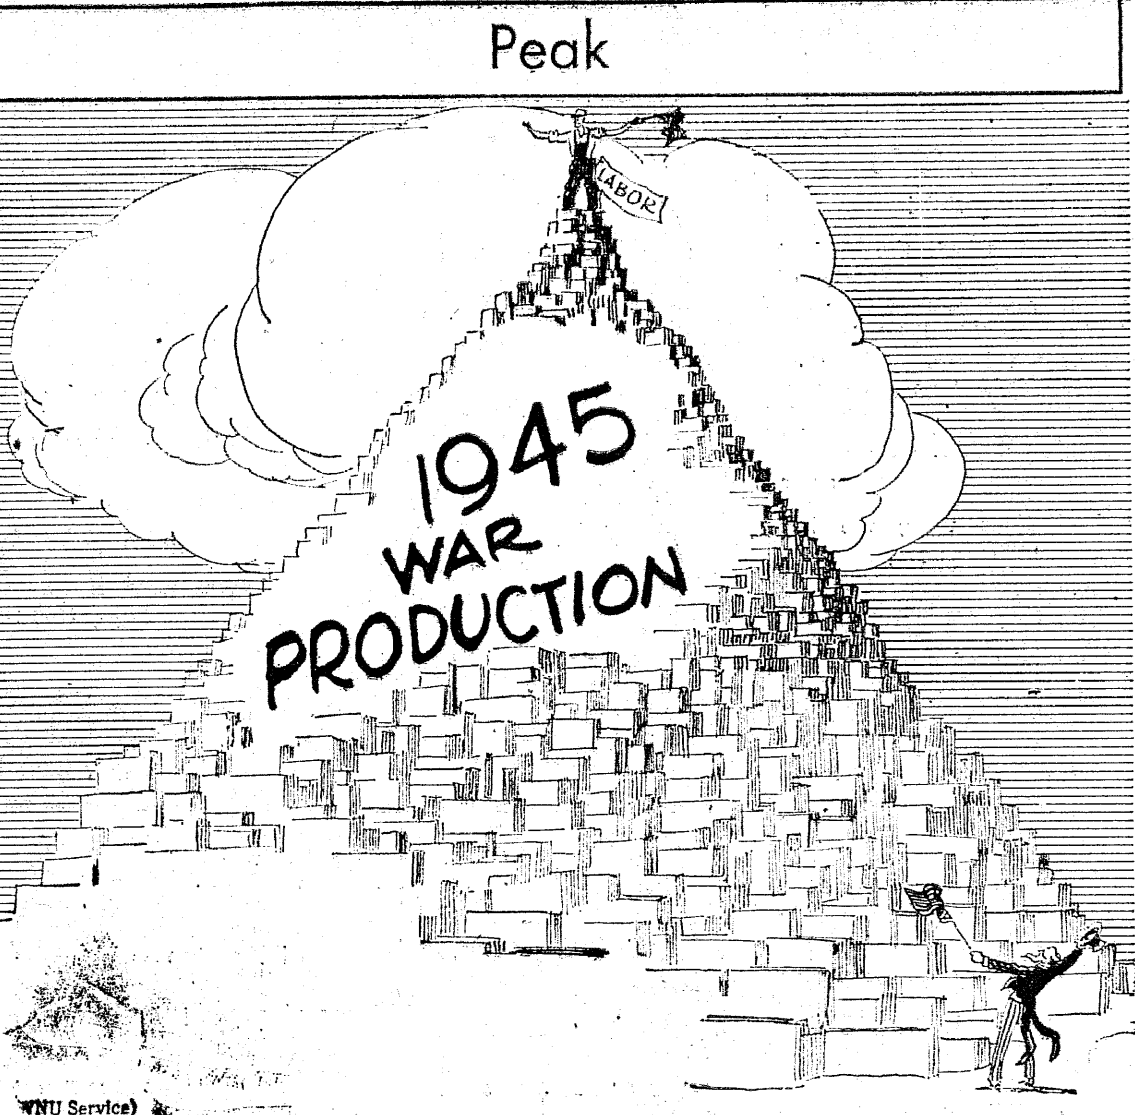

To be sure we have our United Nations, but it begins to look as if the United Nations were the committee that the club turns over its problem to while the members go on with the dance. The dance is the thing, but in those laughing little corners that are already gathering in the corners of the room we seem to hear the first murmurings of the whoopee of the 20's.

It probably is no function of government to pull us up. Industry is busy with its own problems, and labor leaders have theirs, too. Indeed, it is symptomatic of something that in thinking of national problems one first thinks of government, industry and labor. There seems to be nobody responsible for mental or moral leadership. There was a time of course when it was the church, but modern man seems to have turned his back on religion. There, too, have been editors who spoke with the voice of Sinai, but now it is a Babel of columnists. Educators, working quietly among their charges, have held aloft the banner of the humanities. But none of these seems competent today to cope with the vast tides of selfishness, indifference and vulgar frivolity that threaten to engulf us.

It's a pity, because right in the middle of the dance floor, even more shining than the iceboxes, the teardrop cars, the push-button television theatres and the New York-to-London plane trips, is a new gadget. This one is the atom, but unlike the icebox, its shelves are filled with Doom.

Anthologies

There may be no good new books, but that this is the golden age of the anthology is becoming more and more apparent. This is a curious development of war time necessity. Although their supply of paper was sharply curtailed, the publishers found that writers were so immersed in the war that they were not producing even enough to use up the little paper on hand. The publishers then turned to anthologies and in these collections have found a rich, if limited, streak of ore. Incidentally, they are rescuing for today's readers some of the best literature of the past and giving a second chance to modern works of excellence that were overlooked on their appearance.

We must reiterate our belief that America should take its place in the world family as a reflection of the opinions of the many, rather than the opinions of a few selected groups. We feel that our president, well-intentioned members of congress and others who guide our destinies also would welcome a strong, opinionated public behind them.

Women cannot expect too much security in the future if they do not take steps to bring this about. The steps are the same old ones that have always been our guardians against the loss of freedom in this nation and could well be our guarantee of freedom in the congregation of nations.

They are the steps by which we educate ourselves, guide our officials by our expressed wishes and conduct our lives in tolerance for other nations.

Mental laxity, the same old foe of these constructive efforts is, without doubt, rapidly rising to the fore even as the tides of bloodshed abate. Every recognized voice throughout the world which has spoken since the war ceased, no matter on what subject, has included in his remarks the caution that many of the old laxities of life must be firmly discarded if we are to live in peace in a world which contains the atomic bomb and a court of nations.

Even while those who are most qualified to speak are using all their powers of persuasion to convince the normal man in the street that his thought and action must now be geared to a "world" way to life, there will rise among us national strifes that are the surest weapons of destruction against our security among nations.

The "New Deal" Label

One major party now refers in the press to the shortcomings of the other associates the term, "New Deal" with our chief executive, a man whom in one of the keenest tests under fire that the world has ever witnessed, has proven himself a strong minded individual obviously guided more than anything else by his own intuition and reasoning.

The Republican party can ascribe many present day flaws to the New Deal and be perfectly justified in so doing. What they will neglect to point out is that the New Deal in large measure served its national, family purpose when it was called into the emergency twelve years ago. What they also seem to overlook is that normal Americans had practically forgotten the existence of the term during the war emergency.

This, however, is no treatise against the Republican party. It is simply an attempt to point out how far any group can go, if permitted by lack of public opinion to check it, in distracting our attention from the important job at hand, the effort to present ourselves welded, not divided, on issues which will be the guideposts by which other nations will judge that his thought and action must

Party Competition Vital

Heaven forbid that there should come a day when the major parties in America are not contending for supremacy. That would mean, an end to democracy. But there is often a difference between public opinion and the expressed views of either party. It is time that we stopped assuming that nothing can be done about that. We must realize that the rest of the world is passing judgment on us as a whole.

We do not suggest even the slightest restriction of published political opinion from party leaders; we do suggest that they sometimes be corrected or retaliated by those who disagree with them. Why should this not be the job of women's organizations? And why should we not make a little more use of our engraved stationery or penny postcards to express our views directly to our leaders?

Our men have given lives for "freedom of expression." Cannot we women at least contribute to the "expression."

EXCERPTS FROM COMMENTS

The operations of the Town for the year 1944 produced a surplus of $222,856.19. A four year comparison of the results of operations is set forth below:

Year	Surplus from Budget Operations
1941	$323,117.96
1942	187,257.50
1943	184,621.16
1944	222,856.19

A comparison of the amount of current or general surplus available at the end of each of the last four years, together with the amount thereof taken as revenue in the budget of the next succeeding year, is set forth below:

Year	Balance December 31	Anticipated in Budget of the Succeeding Year
1941	$411,888.21	$ 77,593.55
1942	554,652.16	234,359.17
1943	492,849.83	206,661.99
1944	509,044.03	201,368.93

The total municipal indebtedness which was issued and outstanding as of December 31, 1944, was $3,112,735.66. The net debt was $2,712,735.66 or 9.14% of the average assessed valuation of real estate for three years. The statutory debt limit is 7%, however, the Local Bond Law contains exceptions to this limitation under which debt could be authorized if need arose. Water debt was fully deductible by reason of a surplus from operations. Gross Debt, including School Debt, was $4,004,735.66, or 11.748% of the total assessed valuation for 1944.

RECOMMENDATIONS: (A) Repeated from Previous Audit: That all saleable liens be included in each tax sale. That review of prior year personal property taxes be made and action taken thereon until elimination of delinquents is effected. That overpayments of taxes and assessments be cleared by appropriate means. That all real estate taxes be examined and any found unenforceable be cancelled. That the lists of tax title liens and assessments receivable contained in the 1942 Audit Report Comments under "Condition of Records and Conduct of Offices — Tax Office, etc." be investigated and any found unenforceable be cancelled.

A comparison of the amount of Water Utility Surplus available at the close of each of the last four years, together with the amount anticipated in the general budget of the next succeeding year, is shown below:

Year	Balance December 31	Anticipated in Budget of the Succeeding Year
1941	$34,613.72	$30,000.00
1942	35,083.03	28,000.00
1943	43,363.53	40,000.00
1944	42,262.55	42,360.54

A tabulation of current tax collections follows:

1938	1,354,929.04	1,040,784.06	76.81%
1941	1,371,271.12	1,214,020.40	88.53%
1942	1,434,142.57	1,314,819.89	91.67%
1943	1,468,088.74	1,376,851.35	93.78%
1944	1,555,748.30	1,467,542.31	94.35%

(B) 1944 Recommendations: That the differences between lists and controls as developed on 1941, 1942, 1943 and 1944 taxes and tax title liens and water consumers' accounts receivable be resolved.

ST. PETER'S WIN OVER ST. THOMAS

Victory Ends League Games
With Local Team Standing
At 3 Wins, 3 Losses

In their final CYO baseball league game played Sunday, St. Peter's downed the St. Thomas of Bloomfield team, 8 to 4. The victory brought the league record for the local team to 3 wins and 3 losses.

Marvin Cook was the starting pitcher for St. Peter's. He was relieved by William Hickman in the fifth. Carlos pitched for St. Thomas.

St. Thomas scored in the first half of the first inning when Cook walked five men after striking out the first two batters. In their half, St. Peter's grabbed the lead when they batted around the line-up scoring four runs. St. Peter's scored four more in their half of the second inning to chalk up the total. In the fourth, St. Thomas scored two more to end the scoring for the game.

St. Peter's CYO will play their final game of the season next Monday at Clearman field when they will tackle the "oldtimers" who trounced them in a game on the Fourth of July. The CYO boys are hoping to avenge their earlier defeat through the experience gained during the season. The "Oldtimers" have not played since the July 4 game. Thomas Dunn is gathering the "Oldtimers" together. The game will start at 2:30.

Bellevillites In Uniform

VE- Day has brought with it a liberal furlough policy for soldiers in the European Theater of Operations, and many are spending their leaves in England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland, staying at either private homes or American Red Cross service clubs.

Among recent arrivals in London from the Continent is Private First Class Israel Rosen, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Rosen of 196 Washington avenue, a member of the 872nd Gas supply company, who says he expects to spend his allotted time visiting London.

Pfc. Clarence Place, of 146 Stephen street is a member of the 66th (Black Panther) Infantry division, which, at the war's end was processing Tokyo-bound troops at St. Victor, one of three staging areas in the Mar-sille, France, district which house, equip and feed these soldiers during their brief stay.

Pfc. Place was a rifleman in the seige of St. Nazaire last winter. After the Nazi pocket was wiped out, he transferred to Germany with an occupation unit and later returned when the 66th took over operation of the staging areas.

The Belleville soldier entered the Army in April, 1943, and received basic training at Camp Wheeler, Ga. He has been overseas since November, 1944. Place wears the combat infantryman's badge, European theater ribbon and Good Conduct medal.

Pfc. Place is a graduate of Belleville High school, class of 1936. His wife, Mrs. Mary Place, lives at 596 Riverside drive, New York.

Second Lieutenant James J. Travers of 109 Ralph street, was officer in charge and temporary skipper of the excursion boat "Rebel" of hospital patients on a recent pleasure trip down the Meuse river to the Ile Robinson, a former Belgian vacation resort island. Following a lunch and several hours relaxation on the island, the boat heads back upstream to Liege.

Sergeant William J. Cowan of 10 Manie avenue is headed for an eight-week college course in England, according to word received this week from headquarters of the Army Communications Zone of the European Theater of Operations.

Cowan has left the 89th infantry division stationed near Rouen, France, to enroll at the Army University Center No. 1 at Shrinham, England. Chosen among the first 89th soldiers for the course, Cowan will be under regular college routine. Taught by civilian instructors, he attends school five days a week and has two days for his own. There are no army formations or regulations of any kind. Cowan has chosen a course in agriculture.

Sergeant Robert E. Bossett of 46 Washington avenue, at the war's end was being processed at Camp Detroit, near Leon, France, as a member of the largest unit of its kind in the Army Air Forces, according to a report this week from the Assembly Area Command in France.

The unit is a newly activated fighter control squadron, composed largely of men who formerly were members of a squadron which controlled the first American night fighters on the European continent in July, 1944, and pioneered the ground control interception for American night fighters the following September.

Ernest F. Adams, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Adams of 18 Stevens road, was among those graduating recently from a course of Electricians Mate training at the service school of the Ninth Naval district at Great Lakes, Ill.

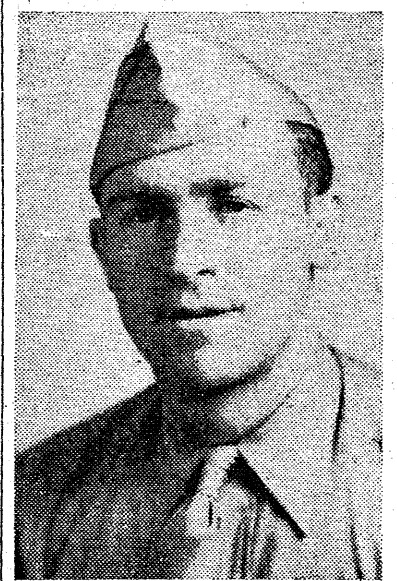

The training has been designed to fit him for a specialized Navy job or for skilled work in industry as a civilian. Graduates of the courses are sent to sea, to shore stations or to advanced schools for further training.

Technical Sergeant Robert B. Hogan of 29 Bremond street left Westover Field Tuesday for the Fort Dix, N. J., separation center to be discharged from the army under the point system, according to the Army Air Base public relations office at Westover.

An overseas veteran, Hogan has a point total in excess of the critical score of 85.

First Lieutenant Gerard A. Sharrock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Sharrock of 16 Overlook avenue, has recently been assigned to the Roswell Army Air Field, Roswell, N. M., a B-29 transition school in the Western Flying Training command, where he will receive training as an airplane commander.

An overseas veteran of the European Theater of Operations, Lieutenant Sharrock has been awarded the Air Medal in recognition of his service there.

S/Sgt. Victor Marrone

Staff Sergeant Victor Marrone of 162 Franklin street, expected to arrive in this country last weekend after nearly a year overseas with a tank destroyer battalion, was recently commended by the chief surgeon of his battalion for his contribution to the health of the men.

Sgt. Marrone, mess sergeant of Company B, was praised for "un-tiring work and highest application of every sanitary principle in mess management" which resulted, during four and a half months of active duty, in a very low "incidence of disease" among the men of his company.

Outside his kitchen duties Sgt. Marrone managed personal inspection of mess kits to which his superiors attribute the lack of disease.

He entered the Army three and a half years ago and, while overseas, served in three major battles on Belgian and German soil.

Daniel H. Herb, electrician's mate, second class, of 337 DeWitt avenue, served aboard the destroyer escort U.S.S. Wintle which is now undergoing repairs in Naval drydock on the West Coast after 22 months and 125,000 miles of intensive battle duty in the Pacific.

The Wintle escorted oil tankers in the invasion of the Gilberts, and accompanied LST's (landing ship, tanks) into the invasion beaches at the Marshalls, Northern Solomons and the Bismarck Archipelago.

Raymond E. Inman, son of Mrs. Tessie M. Gerber of 233 Greylock parkway, has been promoted to Sergeant at a 13th AAF air-base in the Philippines.

Sergeant Inman is an engineer-gunner with the Crusaders, famed B-25 Mitchell group of the "Jungle Air Force." He flew on missions over Jap-held territory in Borneo and in support of ground operations in the Philippines.

Sergeant Inman has been overseas 10 months. A graduate of Belleville High school, he entered service in April, 1942.

EXCERPTS FROM COMMENTS

The operations of the Town for the year 1944 produced a surplus of $222,856.19. A four year comparison of the results of operations is set forth below:

Year	Surplus from Budget Operations
1941	$323,117.96
1942	187,257.50
1943	184,621.16
1944	222,856.19

A comparison of the amount of current or general surplus available at the end of each of the last four years, together with the amount thereof taken as revenue in the budget of the next succeeding year, is set forth below:

Year	Balance December 31	Anticipated in Budget of the Succeeding Year
1941	$411,888.21	$ 77,593.55
1942	554,652.16	234,359.17
1943	492,849.83	206,661.99
1944	509,044.03	201,368.93

The total municipal indebtedness which was issued and outstanding as of December 31, 1944, was $3,112,735.66. The net debt was $2,712,735.66 or 9.14% of the average assessed valuation of real estate for three years. The statutory debt limit is 7%, however, the Local Bond Law contains exceptions to this limitation under which debt could be authorized if need arose. Water debt was fully deductible by reason of a surplus from operations. Gross Debt, including School Debt, was $4,004,735.66, or 11.748% of the total assessed valuation for 1944.

RECOMMENDATIONS: (A) Repeated from Previous Audit: That all saleable liens be included in each tax sale. That review of prior year personal property taxes be made and action taken thereon until elimination of delinquents is effected. That overpayments of taxes and assessments be cleared by appropriate means. That all real estate taxes be examined and any found unenforceable be cancelled. That the lists of tax title liens and assessments receivable contained in the 1942 Audit Report Comments under "Condition of Records and Conduct of Offices — Tax Office, etc." be investigated and any found unenforceable be cancelled.

A comparison of the amount of Water Utility Surplus available at the close of each of the last four years, together with the amount anticipated in the general budget of the next succeeding year, is shown below:

Year	Balance December 31	Anticipated in Budget of the Succeeding Year
1941	$34,613.72	$30,000.00
1942	35,083.03	28,000.00
1943	43,363.53	40,000.00
1944	42,262.55	42,360.54

A tabulation of current tax collections follows:

Year	Levy	Cash Collections	Current Collection Percentage
1933	$1,289,741.24	$ 607,972.73	47.14%
1938	1,354,929.04	1,040,784.06	76.81%
1941	1,371,271.12	1,214,020.40	88.53%
1942	1,434,142.57	1,314,819.89	91.67%
1943	1,468,088.74	1,376,851.35	93.78%
1944	1,555,748.30	1,467,542.31	94.33%

(B) 1944 Recommendations: That the differences between lists and controls as developed on 1941, 1942, 1943 and 1944 taxes and tax title liens and water consumers' accounts receivable be resolved.

Bellevillites In Uniform

VE-Day has brought with it a liberal furlough policy for soldiers in the European Theater of Operations, and many are spending their leaves in England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland, staying at either private homes or American Red Cross service clubs.

Among recent arrivals in London from the Continent is Private First Class Israel Rosen, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Rosen of 196 Washington avenue, a member of the 872nd Gas supply company, who says he expects to spend his allotted time visiting London.

Pfc. Clarence Place, of 146 Stephen street is a member of the 66th (Black Panther) Infantry division, which, at the war's end was processing Tokyo-bound troops at St. Victor, one of three staging areas in the Marais, France, district which House, equip and feed these soldiers during their brief stay.

Pfc. Place was a rifleman in the siege of St. Nazaire last winter. After the Nazi pocket was wiped out, he transferred to Germany with an occupation unit and later returned when the 66th took over operation of the staging areas.

The Belleville soldier entered the Army in April, 1943, and received basic training at Camp Wheeler, Ga. He has been overseas since November, 1944. Place wears the combat infantryman's badge, European theater ribbon and Good Conduct medal.

Pfc. Place is a graduate of Belleville High school, class of 1936. His wife, Mrs. Mary Place, Second Lieutenant James J. Travers of 109 Ralph street, was officer in charge and temporary skipper of the excursion boat "Rebel" of hospital patients on a recent pleasure trip down the Meuse river according to word received this week from the 818th Hospital Center at Liege, Belgium.

Some 125 Army patients from the 25th General Hospital made the trip. Daily one of the hospitals under the administrative control of the center takes its turn aboard the Rebel. The schedule mapped out for the excursion includes a two-hour trip down the Meuse river to the Ile Robinson, a former Belgian vacation resort island. Following a lunch and several hours relaxation on the island, the boat heads back upstream to Liege.

Sergeant William J. Cowan of 10 Manie avenue is headed for an eight-weeks college course in England, according to word received this week from headquarters of the Army Communications Zone of the European Theater of Operations.

Cowan has left the 89th infantry division stationed near Rouen, France, to enroll at the Army University Center No. 1 at Shrivenham, England. Chosen among the first 89th soldiers for the course, Cowan will be under regular college routine. Taught by civilian instructors, he attends school five days a week and has two days for his own. There are no army formations or regulations of any kind. Cowan has chosen a course in agriculture.

Sergeant Robert E. Bossett of 46 Washington avenue, at the war's end was being processed at Camp Detroit, near Laon, France, as a member of the largest unit of its kind in the Army Air Forces, according to a report this week from the Assembly Area Command in France.

The unit is a newly activated fighter control squadron, composed largely of men who formerly were members of a squadron which controlled the first American night fighters on the European continent in July, 1944, and pioneered the ground control interception for American night fighters the following September.

Ernest F. Adams, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Adams of 18 Stevens road, was among those graduating recently from a course of Electricians Mate training at the service school of the Ninth Naval district at Great Lakes, Ill.

The training has been designed to fit him for a specialized Navy job or for skilled work in industry as a civilian. Graduates of the courses are sent to sea, to shore stations or to advanced schools for further training.

Technical Sergeant Robert B. Hogan of 29 Bremond street left Westover Field Tuesday for the Fort Dix, N. J., separation center to be discharged from the army under the point system, according to the Army Air Base public relations office at Westover.

An overseas veteran, Hogan has a point total in excess of the critical score of 85.

First Lieutenant Gerard A. Sharrock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Sharrock of 16 Overlook avenue, has recently been assigned to the Roswell Army Air Field, Roswell, N. M., a B-29 transition school in the Western Flying Training command, where he will receive training as an airplane commander.

An overseas veteran of the European Theater of Operations, Lieutenant Sharrock has been awarded the Air Medal in recognition of his service there.

S/Sgt. Victor Marrone

Staff Sergeant Victor Marrone of 162 Franklin street, expected to arrive in this country last weekend after nearly a year overseas with a tank destroyer battalion, was recently commended by the chief surgeon of his battalion for his contribution to the health of the men.

Sgt. Marrone, mess sergeant of Company B, was praised for "outstanding work and highest application of every sanitary principle in mess management" which resulted, during four and a half months of active duty, in a very low "incidence of disease" among the men of his company.

Outside his kitchen duties Sgt. Marrone managed personal inspection of mess kits to which his superiors attribute the lack of disease.

He entered the Army three and a half years ago and, while overseas, served in three major battles on Belgian and German soil.

Daniel H. Herb, electrician's mate, second class, of 337 DeWitt avenue, served aboard the destroyer escort U.S.S. Wintle which is now undergoing repairs in Naval drydock on the West Coast after 22 months and 125,000 miles of intensive battle duty in the Pacific.

The Wintle escorted oil tankers in the invasion of the Gilberts, and accompanied LST's (landing ship, tanks) into the invasion beaches at the Marshalls, Northern Solomons and the Bismarck Archipelago.

Raymond E. Inman, son of Mrs. Tessie M. Gerber of 233 Greylock parkway, has been promoted to Sergeant at a 13th AAF air base in the Philippines.

Sergeant Inman is an engineer-gunner with the Crusaders, famed B-25 Mitchell group of the "Jungle Air Force." He flew on missions over Jap-held territory in Borneo and in support of ground operations in the Philippines.

Sergeant Inman has been overseas 19 months. A graduate of Belleville High school, he entered service in April, 1942.
