

Community Chest Quota Is $59,000

Figure For October 1 Drive Reached This Week As National War Fund Accepts Reduced Budget

Frank J. McFadden, general chairman of the Belleville Community Chest Victory drive has announced an over-all quota of $59,000 for the drive which will start October 1. The final figure which is a reduction of $8,000 from last year's quota, was reached this week when the National War Fund accepted a quota of $18,000 offered by the chest budget committee. The agreement which was reached after months of negotiation, provides also that the five local participating agencies will receive 95 percent of their quotas before the War Fund receives its share.

The original War Fund proposal was for a local quota of $25,000 without provision to protect local agencies. The budget committee felt that this figure was too high and also declared that since the chest drive is the only source of funds for the operation of local agencies, protection should be provided.

Of the over-all quota, $26,000 is allocated to the five local participating agencies for $5,000 to the War Fund and $15,000 to the Associated Catholic Charities which have also agreed to the protective clause.

Need Still Great

In some instances there has been an erroneous impression that since the war is over, the need for the National War Fund has ended. This opinion is contradicted by Capt. Gill Robb Wilson, state campaign chairman, who said recently, "With the 'shooting war' in Europe and the Pacific won, National War Fund agencies, particularly U.S.O., United Seamen's Service, United China Relief, and Philippines Relief, will face increasing calls for service in the months immediately ahead.

"U.S.O. through its extensive hospital circuit, its camp-shows, and its clubs, will continue to serve our men and women in uniform as they fight the 'battle of boredom'. Cessation of hostilities must in no way mean impairment or curtailment of U.S.O."

"Likewise, the vital work carried on by United Seamen's Service which has been termed the U.S.O. of the Merchant Marine must continue. For months to come the members of our vast merchant fleet will be busily engaged in bringing back millions of our fighting men. It is most essential that these seamen be afforded opportunities for rest and relaxation so that their important job may be completed as rapidly as possible," Capt. Wilson said.

Emergency Relief

"With the surrender of Japan comes a crying need for immediate emergency relief assistance in the Philippines and in those areas of China which are once again open to us. For that reason, the work of United China and Philippines Relief must go on unabated.

"In Europe, the job of supplying emergency medical, clothing, and food supplies for those millions so recently liberated, is a 'staggering one', requiring vast amounts of money. So here too, as well as in the Pacific area, the work of United Seamen's Service and National War Fund must continue to perform their services of mercy."

"All of the above adds up to the inescapable fact that the work of the National War Fund must go on. Surrender of Japan has in no way changed the picture, has in no way lessened the need for public support of local community war funds. The men and women of our Armed Forces have brought us the victory. It now rests with us to be 'generous in victory,' Capt. Wilson concluded.

Members of the drive committee pointed out this week that Capt. Wilson's comments have the weight of authority. A veteran of World War I, he has been in every theater of World War I and has seen evidence on the side of the work accomplished by the agencies supported by the War Fund. Chest spokesmen pointed out that many Belleville men and women will remain in the services for some time and that they will be the beneficiaries of a successful drive.

Elwood P. Russell, chest president, said "The National War Fund has demonstrated commendable cooperation in amending its original request to meet our local conditions. Their action entitles them to the full support of our Belleville people to the end that our drive quota will be over-subscribed and the full budget of the National War Fund will be realized. Belleville has been generous in the 7th War Loan and the Red Cross drives. Let's make it three in a row!"

New Varsity Club May Run Football Clinic Here

Would Hold Demonstration In Technique By Nationally Known Players

Establishment of a football clinic by the Varsity Club of Belleville was among the activities considered by the board of trustees of that newly organized group Thursday evening in a meeting at the Elk's club. Now being incorporated, the body elected officers a month ago. President is Anthony Pascal of 96 Heckel street, director of a Newark Community Center and instructor in physical education and health at Bloomfield Senior high school.

Already a sizable group, these men are anxious to include in their membership all former varsity men associated with Belleville high school. Present nucleus includes men who have won varsity letters in BHS, sports such as the other officers; Henry Waters, vice-president; Arthur B. Bloemke, secretary and John Denike, treasurer.

The list of board members will also bring a panorama of Belleville athletic activities to the minds of sports fans, including as it does present and past "greats" who are now representative of a healthy cross section of community life. Doctors, dentists, lawyers, teachers, business men and civic leaders are among the club members.

Mr. Waters, Roy T. Dickinson, Mr. Bloemke, Harry Kintzing, Harold Bade, William Chapman, now high school football coach, and Arthur Campbell were the trustees present Thursday night when a major item under discussion was the establishment of a

Refuse Tavern License Next To Riviera Roller Rink

Application of a veteran, Sheldon Mishkind, for a license to operate a tavern in the building adjacent to the Riviera Roller Skating rink on Washington avenue, was unanimously denied by the board of commissioners on Tuesday night. They gave as their reason the belief that "a tavern and roller rink are incompatible."

The veteran, whose father, William Mishkind, operates the rink, stated that the entrance would be 150 feet away from the rink entrance and that the two buildings do not connect in any way.

Mayor Williams and Public Works Director Waters declared that since minors are the principal attendants at the rink, it is the policy of the board to keep taverns as far away from it as possible.

A tavern license was granted to Walter Rajca of 35 William street, another veteran. Passed on first reading was an amendment to the liquor ordinance lifting restriction on the number of taverns in town. Its intent is to give returning veterans an opportunity to go into business, under proper conditions, the commissioners stated.

CAMP RO-LI IS INCORPORATED

Officers and Camp Committee Are Named; Plans Begin for Use Next Summer

The incorporation of Camp Ro-Li on Glen Wild Lake has been completed, Harry Specht, Belleville Foundation president announced this week, and officers and the camp committee chosen.

John Carough of the Lions club is president; Dr. George Kaden, Rotary, vice-president; Edward Lister, Lions, secretary and Frank J. McFadden, Rotary, treasurer. The camp committee is composed of Rotarians W. Douglas Clark, Harry French and Julius Fass; Lions Lister, George Meade and Harry Ziegler; church representatives Rev. Francis Ignacius, Rabbi Harry Schwartz and Rev. O. W. Chapin.

Plans are now being made for the opening of the camp which has a capacity for 90 children next summer to Belleville boys and girls. Formerly owned by the town of Bloomfield and known until its recent incorporation as Camp Demarest, the site and buildings valued at $40,000 were given to the Foundation by Charles Demarest, former mayor of Bloomfield. Mr. Specht, Foundation president has since made arrangements with the Belleville Rotary and Lions clubs to assume operation of the camp through a camp committee.

Trustees of Camp Ro-Li previously announced are Rotarians Everett B. Smith and Clark; Lions Henry DePhillips and Arthur Mayer; Foundation representatives G. Crosby Hiss and Specht.

Members from each service club will spend this weekend at the camp for an inspection of the facilities and will make recommendations for improvements.

PT Boat Commander To Get Navy Cross Award

Long Record of Successful Strategy Against Enemy Brings Other Citations

Lieut. Comdr. Richard J. Roberts, husband of the former Miss Margaret Ellen O'Neil of New street, who has been recommended for the Navy Cross, one of the highest Naval awards, has a long record of successful strategy against the enemy that called not only for skill and daring but also of luck, to get out alive.

He was engaged in North Atlantic convoy work in the early days of the war and roamed from the Caribbean to England. His knowledge of small boat operation came to the fore when he was transferred to the Pacific on amphibious operations and later to P.T. boats.

Lieut. Comdr. Roberts has been in six major engagements. His PT unit of which he was executive officer has accounted for over 10,000 tons of Jap shipping and three large troop-filled barges during the Philippines campaign.

He holds two Presidential Unit citation awards, the Legion of Merit, the Philippines Liberation award and the Good Conduct Medal. The recommendation for his citations reads, "The conduct leadership, initiative and fine judgment displayed by Lieut. Comdr. Roberts in the execution of his tasks in the face of overwhelming odds are worthy of special commendation. His gallantry

New Atom-Powered Turbine May Be Manufactured Here

WOULD RELINQUISH TOWN PROPERTY

Mayor Offers Jurisdiction To Other Commissioners In Tilt Over Policeman's Bid

As a result of an altercation with Parks and Public Property Director Noll over a bid on town owned property made by Police Lieut. Kenneth Smith, Mayor Williams on Tuesday night declared he would be willing to introduce a resolution giving jurisdiction of town-owned property to any commissioner who wants it.

The tilt occurred when Williams suggested that a police lieutenant's bid of $850 for a lot at 10 Ogden road be held over for two weeks although there were no competitive bids. Commissioners King and Waters agreed with Noll that it should be sold to Smith in the absence of other bids. It was pointed out that four lots on Fairway avenue had recently been sold by the town for $750 each.

The Mayor explained that the property adjacent to the lot in question fronting on Belleville avenue between Ogden road and Stephens street is held by the Humboldt Building and Loan association of Newark and is near foreclosure proceedings. It is in Residence A zone and is being considered for the erection of apartments. The lot bid on by Smith could be used in the plans, it is understood.

Zone Change

Williams stated that an application for duplex apartments made a few years ago was denied by the board after they received petitions from residents in the area. However, the board of adjustment had approved an application for a change of zone at that time, he stated. He requested that the bid be laid over so that Judge Frederick G. Stickle representing the building and loan, could present the whole case.

King declared that if Stickle is interested in the property he could have had a representative present at the meeting. It is a public sale, Noll observed, and as such should go to Smith in the absence of other bids.

"I won't have a police lieutenant start handling the sale of property," Williams emphasized and Noll retorted "I'm not getting into personalities, but he is entitled to it if the price is fair."

It is understood that Stickle and DeNoia are owners of the property adjacent to the lot in question, and the building and loan association holds the mortgage. The two are said to be interested in redeeming the property for an apartment site if the building and loan succeeds in obtaining a change of zone.

Board Reviews Applications For Vet Administrative Head Today

A special conference will be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon by the board of commissioners to review the applications of the seven veterans who are seeking the post of veterans administrator. It will pay $3,000 a year.

Mayor Williams suggested that arrangements might subsequently be made to interview the applicants before a choice is made.

Experiment With Locomotive If Successful, Would Change All Transportation

The possibility that a Belleville industry will manufacture turbine engines designed to use atomic energy was revealed yesterday by Ralph Lucas, inventor and engineer of Elmar, N.Y. His announcement early this week of his patent to be tried here in a New York Central locomotive, set Bellevillites speculating on their fate should disintegrated atoms get out of control.

The firm in question is presumably the Wharton Construction company of 83 Valley road. James Wharton, president, had little to say yesterday, except that negotiations are far from complete and the success of the turbine, still in the experimental stage, is not yet assured.

Belleville Can Relax Knowing Atom Won't Be Unleashed Here

Bellevillites can sleep comfortably in their beds once more, assured that while their town may someday become the source of a revolution in existing transportation speeds and methods it will never be famous as the place where the disintegration of the atom was unleashed.

"The word 'atom' means nothing but 'atomic bomb' to the public these days," Ralph Lucas, inventor of the atom-powered turbine that has been making headlines across the country, said yesterday. "and with it they associate the obliteration and destruction which the Japs faced when that powerful weapon heralded the end of the war."

"There is a difference between the explosion of the atom which is the process used in the bomb, and the displacement of electrons from the nucleus of the atom, which creates high pressure but leaves the core of the atom intact." He explained that the latter is his process and that there is a remote possibility of explosion with his method.

Since we seem to be entering upon an atomic era, the inventor suggests that people interested in the possibilities involved, read the book, Atoms in Action by Harrison, an author associated with Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Alarmed at the possibility of town liability, should the mercury atom become unleashed, the board of commissioners at the suggestion in Mayor Williams will Tuesday night instructed Town Attorney Lawrence Keenan to meet with Lucas and James Wharton, president of the Wharton Construction company at 83 Valley street and report back to them on his findings.

AWAIT DIRECTIVES ON OCD EQUIPMENT

Defense Council Will Be Dissolved When Supplies Can Be Disposed of

Dissolution of the Belleville Defense Council will await directives from Washington on the disposition of OCD equipment, it was decided at a meeting of the council called Monday night by Chairman Everett B. Smith.

A meeting will be held on October 2 to consider dissolution at that time if disposition of equipment loaned by OCD and supplies purchased by the council has been effected. However, it is understood that the salvage committee will continue to function and the personnel used in the War bond drive retained for the Victory bond drive to be held this fall.

Inventories have already been made of the OCD equipment, which is available to the town and local industries for purchase. Directives are also awaited on the disposition of equipment such as air raid warden helmets which have not yet been collected.

While awaiting this information, supplies purchased by the council will be assembled and inventoried by Defense Coordinator Ronald G. Brunner. A committee of Dr. James Irwin, Dr. George Kaden, W. Douglas Clark and Brunner will subsequently make a recommendation to the board of commissioners for disposition.

Mach On Canberra When Ship Was Hit At Formosa

Battered Cruiser Repulsed Jap Attacks, Survived to Limp Back Home

Now back in civilian life, Raymond Mach of 151 Stephens street won't soon forget his experiences in the Navy as a member of the crew of the USS Canberra. The ship, torpedoed by Jap planes off Formosa last October, became part of the streamlined bait group of the battered remnants of the blue fleet before limping over 10,000 miles on its homeward journey.

The husband of the former Miss Grace Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Davis of the Stephens street address, Mach was a machinist, mate first class at the time of his honorable discharge under the point system on September 3. He served on the USS Arkansas and Capella before becoming part of the Canberra crew last July.

It was shortly before sunset on October 13, Mach recalled yesterday aboard the aircraft carriers which were recovering their planes after a raid on Formosa, that seven Jap torpedo bombers attacked the task force. Three of the planes were shot down and the other four began a run on the ship which was making an emergency turn to cope with them.

The big cruiser had held fire up to this point to avoid hitting other vessels but now her anti-aircraft gunners went into action and quickly downed three of the attackers. The fourth succeeded in launching its torpedo before joining the others in a flaming crash into the water.

Kills Enlisted Men

The sailor said a huge ball of flame shot more than 100 feet skyward when the missile exploded on the starboard side, killing one officer and 22 enlisted men. It injured about 40 others as boiler rooms were destroyed and engine rooms temporarily flooded.

During the 14-day tow from Formosa to the first repair base at Ulithi in the Caroline Islands chain, the "Streamlined Bait Group" was formed when the USS Houston, a light cruiser which was hit by an aerial torpedo one day after the Canberra, joined the slow-moving task group. Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr., USN, Commander of the Third Fleet, heard the Tokyo radio announce the "annihilation" of his fleet, although only the Canberra and Houston had been damaged. Then the Japs discovered that the "bait group" of the Third Fleet were retreating at slow pace, and Admiral Halsey directed his "bait" group to proceed in such a manner as to try to draw out the Imperial Fleet.

The Japs did venture forth to kill the sitting ducks, but when they were about equidistant from the "bait group" and Halsey's main fleet, they discovered the latter and turned back before they themselves were "killed." For this daring move during their retirement the Canberra and Houston and escorting ships received a "Well Done" from Admiral Halsey, who declared that their "skill and guts" will become a Navy tradition.

Sustain Mass Attack

Three days later a mass attack by enemy planes began. Approximately 50 were downed by carrier planes, and the Canberra shot down one of the two that broke through—making six Rising Sun flags for the cruiser's bridge. It was the other plane which man-tee under the chairmanship of Harold Robert of 406 DeWitt avenue, is striving to make contact with all former high school varsity members. Since no listing is available and veterans of the war especially are difficult to locate, the Varsity club has asked that all such men contact Mr. Robert at 563 Washington avenue or telephone him at Be. 2-4997 to make inquiries or apply for membership.

Although the football clinic easily commands attention the club has many more collective plans for carrying out their objectives. Some of these are an annual football dinner for the high school team, "win, lose or draw," and the creation of an "injury fund" to supplement funds required to care for boys injured while participating in athletics.

To supplement and cooperate with existing agencies in the town which foster sports is the overall aim of the Varsity club. This will include cooperation with the Belleville Board of Education in stimulating and encouraging a varied program of sports in the schools and the rendering of any service which will contribute to the enrichment of community life.

aged to score a second hit on the crippled Houston.

After a brief stay at Ulithi, the Canberra was towed to the advanced base at Manus in the Admiralty Islands. Her wounds temporarily healed there, the 13,000-ton Baltimore-class cruiser was able, with her three remaining damaged engines, to limp back over the 10,000-odd miles to Boston Navy Yard in 35 days, escorted by a single destroyer on only part of the journey. It reached port in February 16.

Mr. Mach also participated in the invasion of Africa and the Asiatic campaigns. He wears the American Defense bar, the American theater, European, African Asiatic campaign bars. In the Navy for seven years, he enlisted after graduating from high school in Highland, New York. He has been doing repair work aboard the Canberra since it was put into the yards until his discharge last week.

City Transit Busman to Answer Reckless Driving Charge

A City Service Transit company bus out of control going north on Cortlandt street Sunday night, jumped a curb, ran 190 feet on the sidewalk, tore up a tree, side-swiped a parked car and then crashed into the front porch of 38 Cortlandt street.

Only injury sustained was by the driver, Melvin Smith, 38, of Newark, treated at St. Mary's hospital, Passaic, for cuts about the neck who will be arraigned on a charge of reckless driving in police court. The bus was carrying two fourteen-year old passengers from Lyndhurst, Aubrey Corino and Marie Suideo. The bus which was severely damaged was removed by a wrecking crew.

The driver could not explain the accident, according to police. Cortlandt street was declared too narrow for bus traffic by members of the town commission early in the summer when the transit company made an unsuccessful bid for increased service from Lyndhurst through Newark.

enemy sea borne troop reinforcements, sinking two troop filled barges before his boat and crew were blown out of the water from a nearby exploding mine.

His personal direction and leadership in the rescue of eight American airmen who crashed on a beach of Luzon, also brought him a citation. While he and his crew drew enemy fire the other PT in the operation went in close to the beach and took off the stranded airmen. He then moved into position and destroyed the plane by gunfire, preventing its falling into enemy hands.

The officer's last encounter with the enemy was at Okinawa when his PT Tender was seriously damaged by a Jap plane. He took over command of the ship when his skipper was wounded and successfully supervised the putting out of a serious fire and navigating the ship to a safe harbor.

Based in New Orleans, La., prior to his recent return to the Pacific, the officer was one of the honored guests of Gen. A. V. Gonzales of Brazil who led the only Brazilian contingent to land on the Normandy beach on D day. Other guests on this occasion were movie stars Lieut. LORD CATTO HAS COUSIN HERE

Miss Catherine Catto Tells of Baron Who was Named Governor of Bank of England

A sprightly little woman who speaks with a thick Scotch burr that originated in Aberdeen, revealed this week that she is a cousin of Thomas Sivewright Catto, first Baron of Carincatto. It will be remembered that he was named to succeed Montagu Norman as governor of the Bank of England before the elections that ousted Churchill for the Labor party which has nationalization of the bank as one of its first reforms.

Miss Catherine Catto of 271 Main street said this week that Lord Catto who was made a baron in 1936, was also born in Aberdeen and began his career as a shipping clerk at sixteen. He knows the export business from the broadest kind of experience, she said, since he worked in Russia, spent ten years here as vice-president of MacAndrews and Forbes, Ltd., ship owners, and later went to India.

In 1940 he became director of a leading firm of merchant bankers in England and a director in various other banks and business firms, including the Bank of England. Her brother, Alec, is president of the London Chamber of Commerce, she said, and head of a firm of chemists there.

While these resplendent members of the family are busy in their respective fields, she and her two sisters who live in nearby communities lead everyday existences. Miss Catto first came to this country thirty years ago and although she and her sisters as well, have made frequent trips home, they feel that there is "no place like the states." She hopes to make one more trip to England in the Spring, she said, since her last trip was made just prior to the outbreak of the war.

torian, Mrs. Charles G. Maize heads the radio and movie committee and Mrs. Joseph Kaden, character and spiritual aspects of PTA program. All chairmen are assisted by active committees.

It's Not What It Used To Be— When Woodside Played In '99

End of Diamond Season Starts Oldtimers Reminiscing On Former Records

The ringing down of the curtain of the 1945 baseball season this month is the usual signal for the old timers of the diamond to start reminiscing, and the Belleville fans are no exception. One of the objects of the oldsters' affections in the well remembered Woodside A.A. that compiled an outstanding record in semi-pro baseball circles for many years.

Back in 1899, the representatives of the Woodside turned in an enviable record of seventeen triumphs against five losses, included among which were eleven tournament games, in which the local team merged victors eight times. Irvington was the only team to win two games from the Woodies, and the latter gained sweet revenge later in the season by knocking off the Irvingtonites twice.

Another interesting fact gleaned from the Woodside record is that every defeat against them was by a one run margin which is a rather astounding feat to the Woodside credit.

Many familiar names dotted the Woodside lineup, and leading the parade of sluggers at the plate was Westlake, who led the team with a batting average of .423 on thirty-five hits for eighty-three times at bat. Next in the averages was Comsky, who made the most hits, forty-two, and with 102 at bats, had an average of .408. The latter also led the club in fielding, having a mark of .945, and scored the most runs, 47.

The teams that the Woodies handed sound drubbings to were among the most formidable around, and included the Prudential A.A. the Riverdies, who were neighborhood rivals, New York Y.M.C.A., Vailshburgh A.C., and several others. Plenty of runs was the order of the day back in the nineties, and the highlight in run producing efforts came in the game which saw the locals defeat the Springfield team by the lopsided margin of 30 to 8.

Ask Bloomfield Installation Of Sewer, Water Lives

The board of commissioners on Tuesday night passed a resolution requesting the Bloomfield town council to install sanitary sewer and water connections to the Glaspay Manufacturing company plant now being constructed on the corner of Willett and Montgomery streets at the Belleville-Bloomfield town line.

The town will pay the town of Bloomfield for the work and place a special assessment against the company for the cost. The company engaged in manufacturing heating apparatus, is building a one story building 60 by 130 feet. It purchased the land which was part of the Stickle property from the town which acquired it on a tax title lien.

Liquor License Transfer

Transfer of the liquor license held by the Belleville Liquor store at 163 Washington avenue to Willner's Liquors was approved by the board of commissioners on Tuesday night.

PAUL BOHRER GETS BRONZE STAR

Veteran of Three Pacific Engagements, He Is Cited For Heroism on Iwo Jima

Marine Sgt. Paul C. Bohrer, 25, of 160 Stenhen street, veteran of three Pacific campaigns, recently was awarded a Bronze Star Medal for heroism on Iwo Jima.

Bohrer received his decoration from Marine Col. James D. Waller, commanding officer of a Fifth Marine Division field artillery regiment.

In civilian life an electric plater, Bohrer, was cited for directing the emplacement of his pack howitzer on a front line post and neutralizing a series of strong Japanese positions. His mother, Mrs. Fannie Bohrer, lives in Belleville. He saw combat on Guadalcanal and Cape Gloucester.

Following is his citation: "For heroic achievement in connection with operations against the enemy while serving as chief of a howitzer section in a Marine artillery battalion on Iwo Jima. Bohrer's professional skill, devotion to duty and personal courage contributed materially to the speedy and accurate delivery of fire of his section."

"When his howitzer was ordered into direct fire positions in the front lines on March 8, he skillfully maneuvered his weapon into position under heavy fire and over terrain so rough that he was forced to break down his weapon and carry it in by hand for the last 200 yards."

"Although under continuous small arms fire, he directed the movement of ammunition forward over the fire-swept route of approach, and, acting as gunner, effectively neutralized a series of hostile strong points which had been impeding the infantry's advance."

"He gained his battle experience at Guadalcanal and Cape Gloucester. His conduct throughout was in keeping with the highest traditions of the U. S. Naval Service."

Odors From William Street Plant To Be Corrected

Residents who live in the neighborhood of Town Hall may have some relief from odors coming from the plant of the Van Dyk company of 11 William street, if Ernest Ohlson, plant representative, is successful in getting the company to curtail some of its experiments until their remedy is put into operation. This was the opinion gained at this week's meeting of the Town Commission, when Public Works Director Waters requested prompt action.

Waters explained that the company has been cautioned repeatedly for a year and a half, and during that time plant officials have pointed out they are working on a plan, to relieve the odors.

When Mr. Ohlson said that when the plant was in Jersey City, the odors were disposed of with the aid of the sewer system, Waters asked if the extension of the plant's holdings in Jersey City was blocked because of the odors, the plant representative answered in the negative.

The local condition has been exceptionally bad when the humidity is high, it was explained.

Prepare Zone Map

Town Engineer Mathew Sheehan and Town Attorney Lawrence Keenan have been requested by Mayor Williams to prepare a zone map of the town. It is to indicate amendments to the zoning ordinance and to illustrate non-conforming industries.

Navy Man Receives Honor For Daring Rescue Work

Lieut. (j.g.) Rudy Aided in Saving 109 on Flaming Escort Carrier in Pacific Action

Standing on the deck of the ship, he had fought upon in the Pacific, Lieut. (j.g.) Emanuel T. Rudy, USNR, of town was presented two decorations—the Navy and Marine Corps and the Commendation ribbon—following the return of his destroyer, the USS McCall, to the United States, the Eleventh Naval District reported yesterday.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rudy of 33 Continental avenue, the 23-year-old Naval officer saw action aboard "the Mighty Mac" in virtually every Pacific Naval engagement.

His was the warship which, among other accomplishments, slipped into Guam when the Japs were there and took off Navy Radioman George Roger Tweed—the Ghost—who for three years had eluded the harassed enemy.

Lieut. Rudy won the Navy and Marine Corps Medal for heroism in the rescue of 109 survivors of service. He is a graduate of U. S. Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, Long Island, N. Y.

Florence Street Residents Want Lake Zone Change

Objection to noise, fumes and the general operation of the Rocco Auto Body service at 19 Florence street by Florence street residents resulted in a petition to the board of commissioners on Tuesday night for the rezoning of industrial zones in the Lake to Residence B.

The thirty petitioners were represented by James Guillian, Newark attorney, who stated that the concern is operating without a permit. Public Safety Director

King said that a permit had been denied pending the erection of a fire proof partition within the building.

Propose To Improve Rinks At Stadium For Skating

An ordinance appropriating $11,500 in bond anticipation notes for the preparation of the skating rink in Municipal stadium was passed on first reading by the board of commissioners on Tuesday night.

Used for the last two years, it has presented a drainage problem. The proposed work of grading, paving and replacing the curb is expected to correct the condition, Commissioner Noll said yesterday. The rink which when flooded, will hold about six inches of water, will be graded and drained toward the center so that pressure on the retaining walls will be relieved.

Corbin Gardens Owner To Confer On Garbage, Parking

Now that garbage receptacles permanently stationed on sidewalks are outlawed by town ordinance, the board of commissioners wants to know what Louis Kaye, owner of the Corbin Garden apartments on Carpenter street is going to do to conform.

He was requested to appear before the board on Tuesday night, but wrote instead, stating that he would confer with Public Affairs Director Mertz within the next ten days. Mertz said that he has already ordered the garbage cans removed. Public Safety Director King will also confer with Kaye on the over-night parking

T/5 George S. Zoppa, 25, whose wife Mrs. Frances Zoppa lives at 9 Witherspoon street, Nutley, has been awarded the Bronze Star for heroic achievement in action on March 16 in the Siegfried Line, Germany.

A graduate of Belleville High school in 1937, he entered service in July 1944 and went overseas in December of that year. He was formerly employed by the Eastwood-Neely corporation and was active in North Jersey professional football with the Irvington Camptown Pros and the Belleville Iron Dukes.

THREE IN 100TH GET BRONZE STAR

Soldiers In Century Division Earn Award For Campaigns In European Theatre

Three Belleville men with the 397th Infantry in the 100th division of the Seventh Army in Germany, received the Bronze Star medal during ceremonies held during the past month, for their action during the division's tough campaigns in France, Alsace and Germany prior to V-E Day. They are S/Sgt. Ermenegildo Pomponio of 42 Belmont avenue; Pfc. William J. Ackers of 254 Little street and T/5 Albert Stefanelli of 174 Hecker street.

As members of the Century division they received their first rest in seven months of continuous front line fighting when the unconditional surrender of Germany was announced.

The 100th is the famous American division which during its campaigns across France, Alsace, and deep into southern Germany, captured, among other places, the important German bastions at Bitche, France; and Heilbronn and Stuttgart, Germany. Bitche, strongest point on the entire Maginot Line fell to the Century Division for the first time in its 200-year history after a three month siege last winter. Heilbronn, Nazi rail and communication center of 100,000 at the gateway to the German National Redoubt area, was the scene of what correspondents called the "Toughest resistance the Germans offered east of the Rhine."

During its battles the 100th captured a total of 13,000 prisoners—equivalent to a full infantry division—and added to the lustre of that total by taking Lieut. Gen. Bernard von Claer, reporter of all German defenses on the southern end of the front.

Units of the Century Division earned four Presidential Citations for their outstanding fights and the Division as a whole received three commendations from higher commanders, the most important being from Gen. Jacob L. Deyers for the 100th's part in fending off the full scale German counter-offensive on the Seventh Army front in January. In that action the division held off the attack of three German divisions.

Air Force Grants Discharge to Sgt. Frank Georgianna

Sgt. Frank Georgianna, son of Mrs. Catherine Georgianna of 90 Greylock avenue, has been transferred from Seymour Johnson Field, N. C., a First Air Force base to the Separation Center at Fort Dix, to receive an honorable discharge from the Army Air Forces.

Sgt. Georgianna entered the service on August 11, 1942. He went overseas as a cook with an Aviation Engineering Battalion on February 8, 1943, and returned to this country June 18, 1945. He wears six bronze battle stars on the European-African-Middle Eastern theater ribbon.

Social Security Board Returns To Five Day Week

John R. Shields, manager of the Newark field office of the Social Security Board, located at 45 Bradford Place, Newark, announced today that his office is now operating on a five-day week, Monday through Friday.

Hours will be from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. The new work week has been adopted by the Federal Security Agency of which the Social Security Board is a part. This schedule is in line with the general policy of government departments and agencies to return to the normal number of working hours during a week which prevailed before the war. Return to the pre-war policy was requested by President Truman following the surrender of Japan.

"The field office will continue to provide its regular service to the public," Mr. Shields stated. The office accepts claims for monthly retirement and survivors insurance benefits under the Social Security act, issues social security account numbers and furnishes information to the public.

St. Peter's CYO Again Enters Archdiocesan Radio Contest

First entrants in this year's Archdiocesan radio competition will be St. Peter's CYO who will be on the air over Station WAAT Sunday afternoon, October 7 from 5:05 to 5:30 p.m.

The program will consist of several selection from St. Peter's choral group under the direction of Thomas Haney, director, and a dramatic playlet to be directed by the Rev. Francis Janotowski, curate at St. Peter's church.

Individual Responsibility

Belleville's five service agencies will again make their annual appeal to residents for financial support in the Community Chest Victory drive which begins its house canvas on October 1. The quota which includes the Associated Catholic Charities and the National War fund, has been reduced to $59,000 this year from $67,000 which was last year's goal.

For the first time in several years the drive, which has as its primary purpose, the financial support of the Belleville Boy and Girl Scouts, the Community Service Bureau, The Silver Lake Community House and the Visiting Nurse association, will be run entirely by volunteers without the services of a paid director.

For the first time too, an efficient corps of volunteer workers has been assembled well in advance, to assure a fast moving campaign with complete town coverage. When the house canvas begins on October 1, the special gifts and industrial divisions will be ready for their solicitations. This business-like approach should, in the opinion of drive officials, be a stimulus to residents to assume their fair share of the financial support of town service groups.

Although Belleville has an excellent record in its War Loan drives that is hard to surpass, residents have failed in the past, to assume their just responsibility in the Community Chest which has usually fallen short of its goal. This public disinterest in local service work that has far reaching benefits within town boundaries may possibly be explained by the lack of sufficient drive organization in the past, or in a general misconception that industry should foot the bill.

This year it's different. Industry can no longer make its accustomed large contributions because of reconversion which has necessitated a drop in personnel. This year Bellevillites will be faced with the necessity of financing the town's service groups if they wish them to continue to function.

And this is as it should be. Town-wide financial support should engender greater public interest in the goals for which these groups are working and make easier, the efforts of the public-spirited citizens who volunteer their services in the interests of town welfare. Bellevilleites have responded generously during the years just past, in financing a speedy termination of the war. Citizens who gladly assumed that responsibility will not be found wanting in maintaining local services that are part of the pattern of life for which such a costly war was waged.

Just An Idea

Usually carefree and disposed to let each day take care of itself, we can't seem to get the atomic bomb out of our mind. Just now we're worrying about its effect on democracy. If the Atomic Age is going to change everything, and make it necessary for all of us to be much more intelligent and civilized, can we afford to let our affairs be run by Bilbos and Tafts? And can we afford to give voting rights to people who elect the Bilbos and Tafts?

Of course such thoughts are nonsense. We know that. If the people of Mississippi want Bilbo they can have him. And if Ohio voters like Taft they have every right to send him to the Senate. Fundamental, of course. Nevertheless; we can't help feeling that the fission of the atom has made the Tafts and Bilbos too dangerous for us to stand on any preconceived notions of democratic rights.

Possibly our whole system of government should be changed. Our system of voting, too. Now anybody reaching the age of twenty-one who can answer correctly a few questions totally irrelevant to the issues of the day is entitled to vote. He votes to send a representative to Congress and expects that Representative, in turn, to vote intelligently on every question that arises. Obviously, in a complicated world such as ours, the poor man can do no such thing. It also is obvious that the voters who sent him there have no idea, on most questions, whether he is voting right or wrong.

That rule of thumb business may have worked fairly well in the past, but we can't see it in the world that's coming.

Sometimes we toy with an adaptation of an idea of Bernard Shaw? Roughly, it goes this: Voters should be graded in their franchises and Senators and Representatives should be classified according to the grades of the voters who elected them. Thus the lower grades of voters would be limited to voting for low-grade Congressmen, who in turn would be restricted to deciding the less momentous questions before Congress. Higher class voters of course would be permitted to vote for Congressmen who rated higher in intelligence. These Congressmen would have authority to decide more important issues. Voters and candidates would be rated by their scores in intelligence tests conducted yearly. Thus the people who don't know any better than to want Taft and Bilbo could have them, but Bilbo and Taft would automatically fall into their proper place when they got to Washington, and wouldn't have anything to say about questions of importance.

All very complicated, of course, and it probably will never be adopted. But it's better than entering the Atomic Age only to find Bilbo and Taft in there already with the atom in their hands, like idiot children in a powder factory.

The Battle Is On Again

The Truman honeymoon is over. With the submission of his message last week the President left the foreign field and entered domestic affairs. From now on it looks like a resumption of the tumult that began in 1932.

Republican leadership in Congress says it intends to fight the Truman program on every front. Maybe this is right; we make no pretense to having studied the long Presidential message. But remembering the results of Republican Congressional leadership in the past, loyal Republicans may well shudder. For if there is one thing that has embarrassed Republicans more than anything else in recent years it is the antics of their Congressional leaders. Pursuing a policy of barren negation they repeatedly have found themselves opposing measures and policies which the more enlightened members of their party indorsed. This political ineptitude cost both Willkie and Dewey many embarrassing moments, and if the Taft-Martin mentality is to be the Republican Congressional guide during reconstruction, Republicans might just as well reconcile themselves now to a rough time in 1948.

Brownies Anxiously Await Leader For Their Program

Anyone Interested in Troop 24 Would Receive Guidance Throughout Year

An anxious group of little girls will be late in starting Girl Scout activities this fall if a leader cannot immediately be found for Brownie Troop 24 which meets weekly on Thursday afternoons at Union Avenue school.

Although the recruitment campaign of women leaders for all types of troops here will begin formally after Girl Scout council meets on September 13, anyone interested in shepherding the little girls through their simple, interesting Scout routine should contact the Scout director, Miss Elizabeth Bardaghy at 400 Washington Avenue headquarters.

Among the major early winter projects will be a Country Fair in November at which all Scouts and Brownies will have booths. Preparations for this activity will be the first concern of Brownie Troop 24 although their fall program may include some outdoor walks and nature study.

These little girls, who are under ten years of age, ordinarily have an interesting program of dramatics, homemaking, games and songs.

Program and training committees, organized last year and during the summer by the Girl Scout Council, are ready to go into action and will leave nothing to the imagination of the woman who volunteers as leader of this troop, or any other.

She will have the benefit of training as she goes along to fit the particular needs of her girls and of consultant service for any emergencies that arise. Previous Scout work or specialized training of any kind are not necessary, according to the council.

Training Committee

Overlooking the organization of the complete training program which will be given all volunteers in scouting this year is the training committee headed by Miss Mildred Lee of Hornblower Avenue.

Miss Lee is instructor in physical education and health at Paterson State Teachers' college and has had wide administrative experience in scouting including camp work in the Cleveland and Boston areas and councilship at Camp Andre, national Girl Scout camp in New York state. Her familiarity with the adult phase of the work as well as knowledge of the needs of juveniles especially adapts her to head this program.

Workers on her committee will be Mrs. Percy Karrer, Miss Florence Kelly, Miss Kathryn Conklin and Mrs. Charles Yocum. These women will administer training of every sort to Girl Scout leaders, members of troop committees and even to council members and workers of their committees.

Girl Scout training is highly flexible and is meant to bring the laws and ideals of scouting down to the level of every girl in terms of her particular attitudes. Troops vary according to their geographical location and the home and school life of the section of the community in which they are located.

The programs which scout leaders will administer to their groups will be outlined for them and adapted to their troops by the program committee of which Mrs. Charles Speed of Beech street is chairman. Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Ward Denison, Mrs. Oliver Chapin and the Misses Helen Kanouse and Helen McNair are members.

This committee is prepared to disseminate information through a monthly mimeographed bulletin showing leaders how scouting may be advanced locally and helping the girls to take part in city wide projects where they can be of service.

In line with their cardinal principle of making the scouting program available to all scouts, especially in that phase in which each girl is most interested, this committee will concentrate its attention on senior troops of which Belleville now has only one.

appreciation to the Belleville Fire department for their prompt service and extreme care in saving our home from destruction by fire. There was no one home when the fire occurred and a bus driver noticed the smoke and asked our neighbor to summon the fire department. We therefore wish to thank our neighbors and also the bus driver who reported the fire for their kind assistance in this emergency. We are deeply grateful and wish to express thanks to all who took part.

GIRL SCOUTS PLAN SHARE FOOD DAY

Will Try to Put Families on Sample Diet From War Stricken Country for Full Day

"Share The Food Day" will be observed Tuesday by Belleville's 500 Girl Scouts if plans of the Council can be successfully carried out to acquaint Scouts with the Menu representing the current diet of war torn countries will be furnished the girls so that each scout may select the nation with whom she would like to share the restricted diet.
If she succeeds in inducing her family to join in the plan, the Girl Scout is asked to keep track of the saving in food costs in the home that day. The normal American family of four is estimated to spend $3.38 on each day's food consumption.
The scout is asked, if possible, to contribute the difference between this amount and the cost of the restricted diet to the Girl Scout fund which alleviates some of the suffering in other countries.
A Russian child, for instance, starts his day with one slice of bread, three tablespoons of cereal, a glass of hot water with a few leaves of, or if available, three teaspoons milk with added water.
At lunch time one bowl of soup made from potato peelings, two slices of bread and a hard candy or one-third teaspoon of sugar is allowed. The evening meal consists of 1 small potato, one-half carrot, two tablespoons fish or one "tablespoon meat and the same allotment of sugar or candy.
Children in a Chinese orphanage have only two meals a day:
a boiled egg or egg flakes in oats in mid-morning and a lunch of rice, tomato, green vegetable, orange or apple. Soy bean milk constitutes the evening meal.
Liberated Italy has one of the slimmest diets with breakfast, which consists solely of coffee made from roasted barley. Spaghetti is available only once a week and on the other six days lunch and dinner have as their main dish vegetable soup. Fruit, salad and bread are the only other items on the menu.
Those looking for a closer approach to American food will find it in the English menu where a kitchen of fish and rice, bread with margarine and tea are served for breakfast; a cheese and lentil pie, fried potatoes and rice puding with prunes for dinner; soup, bread and cheese and lettuce for supper.
Menu will also be furnished for Poland, Holland, France, the Philippines and Czechoslovakia.
During Girl Scout week, which opens on October 28, funds collected as a result of "Share The Food Day" will be presented in a Juliette Lowe day ceremony. This fund, established to honor the founder of Girl Scouts, is a perpetual one which is used to aid scouting in all countries. It embodies the international aspects of the movement.
"Share The Food Day" has also been sponsored by Camp Fire Girls, National Federation of Settlements, Girls Reserves of the YWCA and National Jewish Welfare Board.

Reformed Church Receives
Two Bequests

Rev. John A. Struyk this week announced that Belleville Reformed church has received a legacy of $3,346.75 from Mrs. Catherine Hardman, lifelong member, who died in October 1942. A cemetery bequest, made 42 years ago by a member of the Benson family, has also been announced as the result of probate of the individual's will. The Bensons moved to New York some years ago.
As a result of an insurance settlement the steeple of the Revolutionary church will undergo repairs resulting from a lightning bolt which struck in April.
The 163 foot steeple has been damaged by lightning four times during the present pastor's stay here. Repairs will cost nearly $500.
The church will be 250 years old in 1947. Dr. Struyk has been pastor 18 years.

A. A. A. SERVICES FOR YOM KIPPUR

End Ten Days of Penitence Which Began with Rosh Hash-onah Sunday and Monday

The tenth day of the Hebrew month of Tishri which occurs on Monday, is set aside by those of the Jewish Faith for repentance and atonement. It is a day of prayer and fasting—a day devoted to the soul and not to the body.
Yom Kippur marks the termination of the Ten Days of Penitence which began with Rosh Hashonah—the Hebrew New Year.
On Yom Kippur the decree of Heaven on man's deeds and actions is made final. The souls of all beings pass before their Creator and their fate is definitely decided. Yet even, though judgment is passed, three things can avert an evil decree: penitence, prayer and charity.
At the end of the day, the conclusion of 24 hours of fasting and prayer, one loud blast of the Shofar or Ram's horn is sounded to remind every man and woman of the significance of Yom Kippur and of the necessity of abiding by the worthy resolutions made by this solemn and awe inspiring day.
Kol Nidre services will be held at Congregation A.A.A. Sunday, at 6:15 p.m. and Monday at 8 a.m. Rabbi Schwartz will preach at both services and Dr. B. A.
Jacobson, trustee, will address the Congregation on Yom Kippur Day. Samuel J. Kogan, president of the Congregation, invites all of the Jewish faith to attend the services.

Bellevillites In Uniform

Robert Stanley Brown, boat-swain's mate, second class of 567 Washington avenue, is serving on the USS Shangri-La in Tokyo Bay, an aircraft carrier, which is part of the powerful Pacific Fleet completing the first stages of the occupation of Japan.

Under the operational control of Admiral William F. Halsey, USN, the Shangri-La, with 16 other carriers, six escort carriers, 12 battleships, 20 cruisers and more than 200 other U. S. ships, is helping take over control of the Japs' big naval bases. The Shangri-La had a prominent role in the air strikes against the Japanese homeland just prior to the surrender.

James E. Stivers, 32, water-tender, second class, USNR, whose wife, Mrs. Clara M. Stivers, lives at 68 Campbell avenue, is serving aboard the USS Ticonderoga in Tokyo Bay, a carrier, which is part of the powerful Pacific Fleet engaged in occupying Japan.

Under the operational control of Admiral William F. Halsey, USN, the Ticonderoga, with sixteen other aircraft carriers, twelve battleships, six escort carriers, 29 cruisers and more than 200 other U. S. ships, is helping take over control of the Japs' big naval bases.

The Ticonderoga participated in the gigantic carrier raid against the Jap naval base at Kure and other installations on the Japanese home island of Honshu during a two day raid prior to the Japanese surrender.

The flattop's fighters and bombers swooped in on their targets, which included one of Japan's few remaining battleships, the Hyuga. Severely damaged and left burning after several explosions, the vessel later was found to have sunk.

Several times during the two day raid enemy planes approached the formation but were driven off by the fighter cover overhead which succeeded in knocking down nine of the attacking enemy planes.

Ens. N. Burde, Jr., USN, son of Mrs. Mary Burde of 570 Union avenue, is a crew member on board a destroyer in the Pacific, a war-bond flagship which lists no casualty or damage after taking part in nine sea strikes in the Pacific, from the Central Kuriles to the Aleutian Islands.

His ship was constructed through war-bond purchases of the people of a southern community and saw her first action at Matsuwa Island, November 21, 1944.

It was a grim initiation to combat, crew members recall, and after a heavy engagement with enemy shore installations, the ship fought back to base in one of the worst storms of the Pacific.

Eight other forays followed this strike at the Kuriles, and, later, in the Sea of Okhotsk, his ship was credited with sinking two Jap vessels and damaging a third.

Gerard J. Kennedy of 162 Malone avenue has recently been promoted to yeoman third class. He is stationed at the San Diego, Calif. Naval Base with a bomb squadron. In service nearly two years, his wife, Mrs. Regina L. Kennedy, is a member of the faculty of Belleville High school. The couple have a three year old son.

Pfc. Louis Fusaro, 25, 42 Mitchell street, son of Mrs. Julia Fusaro has recently returned to the States and is now temporarily stationed at the Army Ground and Service Forces Redistribution station at Atlantic City. While at this installation he will be given a series of tests to determine his fitness for future assignments.

Pfc. Fusaro served eighteen months as mortician in the European theater of operations. He is a recipient of the European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign ribbon.

Before entering the service Pfc. Fusaro was employed by Sam D. Wasserman, Inc., of town.

"Company clerk" is official title given to Cpl. Richard J. O'Brien 46 Cleveland street, with the 86th Mosquito Control Detachment, 13th Air Force in the Southern Philippines.

He has been with the outfit for fourteen months overseas and wears three battle stars representing the battles of New Guinea, Bismark Archipelago and the Southern Philippines.

His outfit has been attacking disease-carrying insects with the deadly 'miracle' insecticide DDT, deisel oil and dusting powders along the air strips and military establishments of the 'Jungle Air Force.'

Before joining the Army the 37-year-old veteran was employed as a clerk by the Driver-Harris Wire Co., Harrison. O'Brien is single and lives with his mother, Mrs. Frances O'Brien 46 Cleveland street.

Sees Action

Pfc. James R. Reynolds

Holder of three battle stars, the Presidential citation for action at Colmar Pocket, and a decoration for action on the Seigfried Line, is Pfc. James R. Reynolds Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds of 12 Overlook avenue.

Nineteen years old, he is a graduate of Belleville High school. He entered service in September of last year and went overseas in January. Now stationed with the infantry in the Army of Occupation in Germany, the soldier expects to be furloughed home next month.

Pvt. Roy H. Mieler of 130 Liberty avenue, was recently promoted to the grade of corporal at Harlingen Army Air Field, Flexible Gunnery School, Harlingen, Texas.

Pvt. Raymond J. Kinsley of 28 Belleville avenue was recently promoted to the grade of corporal at Harlingen Army Air Field, Flexible Gunnery School, Harlingen, Texas.

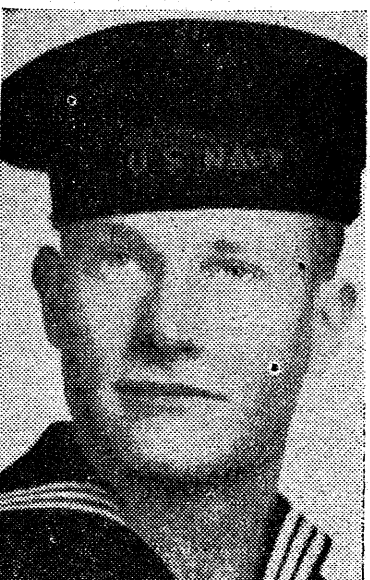

Pvt. Joseph Fischer of 86 Mt. Prospect avenue, who has been in Italy for a year with the Red Bull division of the 135th Infantry, is expected to be at home in December.

A former town employee with the Public Works department, Pvt. Fischer is the husband of the former Miss Mary Flynn of this town. The couple have three sons, Joseph, Robert and John.

Citing the Red Bull division this spring, General Mark Clark said "The gallantry displayed in taking Bologna was typical of the 34th. I have followed with great interest your drive north of that city culminating in the surrender to you of the 75th Army corps, comprising 40,000 Germans. Our victory in Italy belongs, above all, to the combat divisions; and in that victory the 34th was outstanding."

Pvt. Fischer is a truck and tank driver.

S 1/c William B. DeWar

S 1/c William B. DeWar, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Seaman DeWar enlisted with his friends, Jack Dempsey and Robert Rame in December, 1944 after attending a term at the Newark College of Engineering.

S/Sgt. Robert Lowenberg, B-29 radio operator, will be on furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lowenberg of 121 Smallwood avenue, until September 29. He was based on Saipan before returning to this country late in August.

Sgt. Lowenberg completed his 35th mission over Japan the day before VJ Day. He holds the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with five Oak Leaf clusters.

Now 21, he was graduated from Belleville high school in 1942 and was with the Westinghouse corporation before entering service two and a half years ago. He will report to Greensboro, N. C. at the end of his furlough.

Flying a total of 66 combat missions, the crew first operated out of Eniwetok, carrying out anti-submarine patrols, air-sea rescue missions and reconnaissance hops to Wake and the Ponape Islands. Then they moved up to Two Jima.
