

COMMUNITY CHEST HEADQUARTERS ON AVENUE

Drive Beginning September 30 Will Be Conducted From Store Next to Capitol

Headquarters for the Belleville Community Chest Victory drive which opens its campaign on September 30 to raise $59,000, will be located at 360 Washington avenue, next to the Capitol theatre, the drive committee announced this week.

Use of the store has been donated by the owners who are officers of the Realty Purchase corporation of Paterson. The telephone will be Be. 2-4750.

The headquarters will be manned by drive officials day and evening during the campaign to receive and tabulate returns and answer inquiries. James Powers, chairman of the house to house canvass and members of his committee are currently using it to complete sorting and distribution of subscription cards to the large number of volunteers who will do the canvassing.

Last minute preparations for the opening of the drive in full swing. Frank J. MacFadden, general chairman, has announced the appointment of Mrs. William P. Adams as chairman of the church division, a post which she has occupied in the past, and W. Douglas Jr. as chairman of the clubs division.

Distribute Pamphlets

Pamphlets posters are now being printed. The pamphlets will be distributed to every home in Belleville by the Boy and Girl Scouts who have volunteered their services, while posters will be distributed to industrial plants and stores this week.

A moving picture trailer, "Meet a Girl Who's Been There" will be shown at the Capitol theatre for two weeks beginning Sunday, September 30, open day of the drive. The picture which portrays the combined work of the National War fund and local Community Chests, will be shown through the courtesy of Warner brothers who have donated the use of the theatre facilities.

Drive officials were pleased this week with the organization which has been built during the summer months for an efficient and speedy campaign. All positions have been filled, they report, by volunteers who will serve without pay. "We are trying to conduct the drive with a minimum of expense," a spokesman said yesterday, "so that the greatest possible part of each dollar donated will find its way to the participating agencies."

Elsewhere in this issue appears an advertisement listing the agencies and their respective quotas, which has been prepared by the drive committee for the information of contributors.

There are five local participating agencies, the Boy and Girl Scouts, Community Chest Service Bureau, Silver Lake Community house and Visiting Nurse association. In addition, the chest includes the National War fund and Associated Catholic Charities local quotas.

ST. ANTHONY'S FORMS CYO

First official meeting of the CYO council was held on September 11 with the director, Rev. John K. Berguer when the nature, plan and objectives of the council were discussed, and a program presented by the Youth group, approved.

A full weekly schedule includes boxing and wrestling on Monday nights from 7 to 9 o'clock under the direction of Ernest Ratner and Joseph Ferrara. Await Details on Merger of Ration Board With Newark

Belleville War Price and Ration board chairman Herbert Schmutz said yesterday that he has received a directive from the Newark OPA stating that the Belleville board serving this town and Nutley will be amalgamated with the Newark board.

ORCHARD IS CITED BY PAUL MC NUTT

Receives Medal From WMC Director For Outstanding Job With Labor and Management

William J. Orchard, general manager of Wallace and Tiernan and regional chairman of the War Manpower Commission received a medal for his outstanding accomplishments with labor and management from Paul V. McNutt, WMC director, at a national meeting for WMC directors held Tuesday night in the Essex House, Newark.

Due to Orchard's leadership he said, there have been no major strikes in the Newark area during the three years that industry has operated under WMC jurisdiction. The area which was declared critical, has also produced more war equipment and more diversified equipment in ratio to its population, than any other area in the country.

The medal which is the first of 103 to be awarded, was cast a few days after President Roosevelt's death. It bears an imprint of the late president on one side and carries on the other an inscription "For outstanding service to his country in time of war."

The Tuesday night meeting was part of a two-day conference of WMC officials aimed at ironing out controversial problems throughout the nation. McNutt made his last personal appearance at the conference before leaving for the Philippines to take up his new duties as high commissioner there.

COMMUNITY HOUSE ACTIVITY GOES ON

Board Will Continue Program Until New Director Is Found

Patrons of Silver Lake community house, participating agent in the Community Chest campaign, have been assured of continuing activities in the house in spite of the departure next Wednesday of Mrs. Martha Herkins, for thirteen years director of the center.

At a special meeting of the board of managers last Tuesday morning Mrs. J. W. Greenbowe of East Orange, president, said that regular meetings of boy and girl groups as well as the Mothers club and Sons of Italy will take place as usual under the guidance of members of the board until a new director is found.

The board will be aided in its search for a new director by the Newark Welfare federation which will secure and give the first interview to applicants. Mrs. Greenbowe will conduct the final interview. A couple, either the man or woman, to be a trained social worker, is being sought. Preference will be given any veteran who is experienced in such work. If a couple cannot be secured, a woman director will be selected.

After October 1 the intermediate Girl Scout troop at Silver Lake house will be reopened. Miss Carmela Fabio is leader. Girl Scout expansion at the community center is planned by the local council.

Last Wednesday afternoon and evening the board witnessed a demonstration of "affection and gratitude" when 250 Silver Lake residents and members of Lake house clubs gathered at a reception for Mrs. Herkins. Mrs. Frank J. MacFadden, a board member, and John J. Hewitt were localities present.

Mrs. Herkins has spent thirteen years in Silver Lake. She and Mr. Herkins will retire to Youngstown, O., her mother's home.

Nine Year Old Boy Second Polio Case Reported Here

Belleville's second case of poliomyelitis was reported this week by Health Officer Eugene Berry when John Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hughes of 14 Bridge street was taken to Essex County Isolation hospital on Friday. A nine-year old pupil in School No. 8, the youngest developed symptoms last Wednesday. Three other children in his class found to be running a temperature were sent home for observation but returned to school this week. Precautions are being taken in all the schools.

Berry said, and children showing first signs of a temperature or "respiratory infection are being put under observation."

One other child recently under observation was found not to have the disease. The first case of polio here, occurred early in May.

Tuberculosis X-Ray Clinic Will Be Held Saturday

Veterans Are Urged To Use Free Service As Basis For Later Compensation Claims

Belleville has been bombarded this week with announcements of the Belleville-Nutley Tuberculosis association's free chest x-ray clinic which will be held in the high school gymnasium Saturday from 10 to 7 o'clock.

All churches announced the clinic last Sunday and it was brought to the attention of local Jewish residents in the synagogue Monday when Yom Kippur was observed. School children received circulars to take to their families and posters were distributed freely in shop windows throughout town.

Announcements were made last week at Rotary and Lions club meetings and posters were placed in local industries to call the clinic to the attention of employees who are eligible even though they may live elsewhere.

The association offers the free service to check tuberculosis in the early or preventive stage. The group has pointed out the unusually low death rate from the disease in 1944, in spite of wartime stresses, as a result of previous clinics and other voluntary efforts on the part of people to detect the disease early when cure is simple and positive.

Opportunity For Veterans

Health Officer Eugene Berry also urges discharged veterans to take advantage of the clinic even though their discharge x-rays show no sign of the disease. With experience as a disabled veteran officer in the last war, he warns that tuberculosis may show up from two to five years after a service discharge. Eligibility for compensation based on established proof is limited to eighteen months after discharge he points out, and suggests that the clinic can provide an invaluable record.

Record attendance was 875 in the clinic which was held last year in Nutley; this year the goal is 1,000. Belleville residents and workers are expected to swell the total since their percentage increased last year when they had to make the trip to Nutley to avail themselves of the clinic. The first clinic in 1943 was held here.

Requirements of the clinic are simply that each individual furnish his name, age and address and

Those Were The Days—When The Nineties Were Gay

by M. C. Albey

For all the Bellevilles who can't remember back before the turn of the century and for those who do, M. C. Albey of Malone avenue, to whom The Times-News is indebted for its recent series of old-time pictures, has set down his reminiscences of the town as he knew it fifty years ago. For some this series will recall bygone activities and colorful "characters" of Belleville's past. For all it is an interesting commentary filled with anecdotes by an "old-timer" who can spin a tale.—Ed. Note.

Belleville, like all other towns, has changed greatly during the last half century, but changes here have not only been through expansion but through an entire shift of the business center. Anyone who lived in town fifty or sixty years ago and returned to it today would be more than apt to lose his bearings.

About the only things that have remained the same are the river and the Erie railroad, although even these have altered some. The river banks are quite different from what they were and the railroad has changed some — for the worse. Today there are only two or three trains each day, as compared to one-time full schedules.

Before the railroad was built around 1856 nearly all business was via the river. It was not until the Gay '90s that the town began to climb the hill. Long before trolleys made their appearance there were horse-cars running from Newark to North Newark and a little "jigger car" carried on from there down Mill street and up Main to the old car barns a little north of Holmes street.

This was a single track line, and the down cars ran up William to Cortland street, thence to Mill street which did away with the necessity of switches. These jigger cars were small, seating not more than ten or a dozen people, and being one truck cars, they bounced considerably.

SPECIAL ELECTION FOR PROPOSED BHS PLAY AREA

Public May Vote on $70,000 Appropriation For Work On October 2

Convinced that federal aid will not be available for at least two years, for public works, the board of education on Monday night unanimously determined to seek public approval of an expenditure of $69,192 for construction of a play area south of the High school. A special school election will be held in the High school from 7 to 9 p.m. on October 2 for a proposed appropriation of $70,000 for the work.

Board president Joseph Arnold stated at the meeting that he is guided in his conviction that federal aid will not be forthcoming by a resolution passed on July 3 by a special committee in the House of Representatives on post-war policy and planning. Board member Herbert Schmutz also stated that he has facts in his possession upholding Arnold's view.

Election officials appointed by the board are Rev. Edgar M. Compton, chairman, Mrs. Frank Bangert jr., secretary and Frank J. McFadden and James Lampman, tellers.

Specifications for the construction drawn by Arthur Starin, Basking Ridge architect, have been approved by State Commissioner of Education John Bossard and State Inspector of School Buildings Seymour Williams.

The playarea which will extend from the High school south to the Elks club and from Washington avenue to High street, is to be enclosed by a retaining wall of approximately three feet. On the Washington avenue side, specifications indicate that it will set back eleven feet from the sidewalk on a graded and planted slope.

Two Levels

The land will be divided into two levels connected by a ramp, and is planned to provide year-round facilities. By the inclusion of drains and a catch basin in the ramp, the upper level on the High street side may be flooded for ice-skating.

Two softball courts and a handball court are designated for summer use of the upper level. The lower level will include courts for badminton, volleyball and tennis. The north end of the playarea is to be equipped with drinking fountains, and adjoins the High school gymnasium and shower and locker rooms.

Bulk of the land was acquired by the board of education last February at a cost of $6,500 from the Pearl Realty company of Glen Ridge after public approval in a special school election. A remaining L-shaped strip adjoining the gasoline station was acquired this summer from the same company at a cost of $700 after seventeen votes were cast in a special election held on the purchase.

Amend Teachers' Salary Guide

A section of the salary guide adopted by the board of education for teachers in the Belleville school system was amended on Monday night by a resolution introduced by Mrs. Homer Zink.

She stated that the amendment has the approval of Dr. Willard Elsbree, Columbia University authority who aided in the formulation of the guide.

The section bases "eligibility for promotion to a higher classification on approved study only, or activities deemed by the board of education and supervising principal to be sufficiently beneficial to the teacher's qualifications." The word "only" was deleted with unanimous consent of the board.

began to climb the hill. Long before trolleys made their appearance there were horse-cars running from Newark to North Newark and a little "jigger car" carried on from there down Mill street and up Main to the old car barns a little north of Holmes street.

The Fat Woman

At one time there was a fat woman on exhibition in the old Passaic hall. They said she weighed 750 pounds, stripped. I recall seeing her get on the rear platform of a jigger car with the result that the front end tipped up. If the driver had not grabbed hold of the brake handle he would have been catapulted through the front door.

A discussion arose several years ago about the color of these little cars. If I remember rightly they were painted blue, although some people claim they were red. At my rate I distinctly remember that the passengers were frequently blue with the cold in winter time, for the cars were not heated. The only precaution against the cold was the covering of straw on the floor.

There were three car drivers that some old-timers may remember, Jimmie Noonan who caught for the Woodsies, his brother Jack, and Ike Little. The passengers handed their fare to the driver through a slot in the door and if change was necessary, the driver put it in a small envelope, sealed it, and handed it back through the slot. Jimmie Noonan was easy going and if a passenger stayed on the rear platform, Jimmie would let him ride free. But we betide anyone who tried that with his brother.

The business center in those days was on Main street below the bridge and gravitated around Passaic Row. In fact, Passaic Row was the Times Square of Belleville. Here was the drug store run by Howard Osborne, the first store to install a soda fountain. Next door was the post office then the grocery store run by Townsend and Leary, then Ed Snow's candy and ice cream store.

The second floor of this building had a room known as Passaic hall where all kinds of entertainments were held, from Kickapoo Indian shows to temperance lectures. Ed Snow, in addition to running his ice cream and candy business, also rented out row boats on the river for twelve cents an hour and catered to the many boating parties that came up the river from Newark.

Vet Guidance Director Takes Up Duties In Town Hall

Appointee Will Administer Vet Program in Conjunction With Foundation's Plan

At his desk in the draft board office in Town Hall yesterday, newly appointed Veterans Guidance Director Joseph F. McGreevy had assumed the full duties of the post to which he was unanimously appointed last week by the board of commissioners.

One of seven applicants for the position which pays an annual salary of $3,000, McGreevy had received popular support from the town residents who a month ago, filed two petitions in his behalf. The position will co-ordinate the Veterans Assistance program and the Belleville plan which has been set up by the Belleville Foundation and which has received wide acclaim as a comprehensive aid to returning servicemen.

The new guidance director said yesterday that he has interviewed an average of ten discharged veterans a day. "Only a small percentage have problems to be solved at the present time," he said. "Most of the boys have jobs waiting for them," he added, and said that aid is expected to be more in demand as the number of discharged veterans increases.

The function of veterans guidance director will be to interview discharged veterans, arrive at an understanding of their problems and then direct them to special committees of volunteers who have been organized to aid in a variety of fields.

This includes the Veterans Assistance program under the chairmanship of John Dailey, also chairman of the local draft board, which will assist honorably discharged veterans to obtain services under the G. I. Bill of Rights. Dailey is assisted in this work by a committee composed of Elwood F. Ferguson, John F. Gannon, Dr. Benjamin A. Jacobson, Anthony C. Lanza, John J. Reh and Harry Ziegler.

Advisory Committees

Under the Foundation's Belleville plan, and working in conjunction with the Veterans Assistance program are other committees established to care for a variety of needs. These include the education

Those Were The Days—When The Nineties Were Gay

by M. C. Albey

Ed was quite a character, standing nearly seven feet tall, lanky and wearing a full beard, he resembled an old Kentucky mountaineer. Ed was so tall he had difficulty getting a pair of trousers to fit him. It is related that one day he was trying to purchase a pair in a large Newark store when there was a commotion. "What's the matter?" said Ed. "Oh," said the salesman, "A man has a fit." "It's the first time, Ed said, "That anyone ever got a fit in this store."

Perhaps some old timers will remember Bill King's oyster house near the bridge. Anyone having enjoyed one of his oyster stews will never forget it. Does anyone remember old "Pop" Mulligan, the bridge tender? Pop was decidedly irascible when things went wrong, or even if they went right. For pure, unadulterated, 100 percent American profanity, Pop had no equal. It is a well-known fact that river men are profane but that river amateurs out of the best of them.

We kids would hang around the bridge to help Pop open the draw for boats to pass through. Pop would select two or three of us and constrain the rest to the nether regions. Then he would get the apparatus for opening the draw and after the pole was installed in the crank handle, the "lucky" boys would tramp round and round with the pole, like a

Proposed Before

Closing School No. 2 was proposed by Parmer several years ago, parents objected then, since children would have to cross railroad tracks to reach No. 10. Now however, Franklin avenue has been cut through and eliminates the hazard.

The board also adopted a resolution empowering the building and grounds committee to obtain the services of a competent architect or engineer to prepare a survey and report his findings on the improvement of the auditorium in School No. 3. Gilby stated that in 1938 Seymour Williams, state inspector of school buildings, advised the board either to fireproof the auditorium or condemn it. It has not been used since that time and Gilby pointed out that the pupils there are being deprived of lectures and a general visual education program.

Several sets of specifications were drawn that year and an $89,000 expenditure under WPA and building a gymnasium, were approved by the public, but the plans were abandoned when the architectural firm engaged in the

BHS WELCOMES KITTLE BACK AS PRINCIPAL

He Resumes Duties Officially Today at Assembly After Navy Retirement

A welcoming assembly is being held in Belleville High school auditorium at 9:30 this morning for Hugh D. Kittle, recently retired from active duty in the Navy, who will officially resume his post as principal of the High school today.

Kittle said yesterday that he is glad to return to the education field and to be back at his desk where he will take a while to "pick up the threads" to become familiar with the high school activities and program.

He left for active duty on November 19, 1942 and was a lieutenant commander attached to the Third Naval District Civilian Personnel office in New York City when his retirement became effective last Thursday. First serviceman to return to the faculty which he joined in 1928, he has been high school principal since 1935.

First inkling that he would return came to the board of education on Monday when they received a letter from him stating that he was ready to resume his duties. At the board meeting on Monday night, a resolution introduced by Mrs. Homer Zink, chairman of the teacher's committee, was passed unanimously, rehiring him at an annual salary of $5,200. This is the same salary received by Burt Powers Johnson last year.

Kittle's salary when he entered service was $4,650. The increase, board president Joseph Arnold said yesterday, represents an approximate yearly increase of five percent which has been granted to other principals in the school system.

Kittle was also named treasurer of the high school activities account on a resolution introduced Monday night by Charles Gebhardt and passed unanimously.

No Difference On Increase

It was learned from authoritative sources yesterday that there were no differences between the board members and Superintendent of Schools Wayne R. Parmer over the increase at a pre-meeting conference, as stated in a Newark newspaper.

Kittle's return releases Evan Hughes Thomas assigned as acting principal, to aid Parmer as general supervisor of secondary education, the title under which he was hired. Thomas assumed his duties September 1 to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Burt Powers Johnson who had been acting principal for the past two years, during Kittle's absence.

BELLBOYS JOCKEY FOR BERTHS

Battle For Positions in Opener With Barringer Slated For September 29

Scrimmage practice slightly daunted this week by hurricane weather, is pointing toward the opening game of the football season for the Bellboys who take on their first opponents a week from Saturday when Barringer hits Clearman field.

Coach Bill Chapman with a small nucleus of varsity men, is, however, over the prospects of his new material. While last year's record stood at four wins, four losses and a tie, and this year's schedule looks a little tougher, the coach can see potentialities in the squad that is battling in nearly all positions, to start in the opening lineup.

Don Smith and Tony Greco will probably start at the ends, although Bob Skylar and another Heinrick are pushing them closely. Bob Padua and Glen Gilmore, new arrivals from Passaic Valley High, John Nott, Frank Leichter, Merwin Cook and Charles Macaluso are making it a hot contest for tackle.

At guard it is the same story, with Ted Del Grosso, Ed Nelson, Frank Valone, Art Gilmore, John Gabriel and Lou Vitelli all fighting for the vital spot. And it's a three way tussle at center with Charles Kline, Bill France and Angelo Tibaldo the main contestants.

In the backfield, Pete Del Vichio will probably start at fullback although Dick Wahl and Vic Natulare are making him step. Ferrara is doing a good job in his blocking back position. Rocco Sarno will start at wingback with Fred Walsler, a promising youngster and Bill Natulare as replacements.

Lou Van Pelt is close on the heels of John Distasio who will start if his brother Joe, does. The rest of the squad is rounded out by Bob Cassin, Dick Gross, Felix Apicella, Bill Nutter, Lloyd Irving, George Stickle, Andy Mongello, Ted Godleski and Bob Jones.

HOLY FAMILY HAS DRIVE FOR FUND

Nutley Church Begins Campaign for $40,000 to Reduce Building Debt

The Holy Family Roman Catholic church on Brookline avenue in Nutley has opened a campaign to raise $40,000 this year to reduce the debt still outstanding on the church buildings. The drive was announced at all masses the last two Sundays by the priests of the parish.

The Church of the Holy Family was established in 1909, when a small frame building was erected in Harrison street. The hector at that time was the Rev. Alphonsus de Santola, who was also pastor of the Church of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel in Lyndhurst. A newspaper account, published in The Nutley Sun at that time, reads in part as follows:

"The new edifice will be known as the Church of the Holy Family. It stands on a plot 30x100 feet and will have a frontage of twenty feet by fifty feet deep. The basement or cellar of the building is of cement and is nine feet high, and the total cost of the Church will be $2,000. The lot was purchased about a year ago and work was begun upon the foundation shortly before Easter. The rectory, Rev. Alphonsus de Santola expects it will be completed by July 1, and it will be dedicated the church the first Sunday in July."

The present church buildings, a large brick church and rectory, in Brookline avenue, were completed in 1938, under the leadership of the present pastor, Rev. Anthony Di Luca. The church was solemnly blessed on July 4 of that year by Archbishop Thomas J. Walsh. Several improvements to the buildings and grounds have been made since that time.

At the opening of the present campaign, it was announced that the sum of $43,000 has been paid on the parish debt since the new buildings were opened in 1938. Paying tribute to the generosity and co-operation of the people during the last seven years, the priests asked for further co-operation during the intensive drive. Letters outlining the campaign's purpose have been sent to the parish's more than 1,500 families living in Nutley and Belleville.

Co-chairmen of the new undertaking are Father Di Luca, pastor, and Rev. Francis J. Blake, assistant pastor. A committee of campaign workers to accept payment of pledges is to be formed.

4% MORTGAGES

A new, modernized Plan for financing and refinancing mortgage loans, requiring less expense, less interest and more security for the home owner, is now available.

The Equitable New Assured Home Ownership Plan has been developed for the Home owner who thinks ahead—who wants to pay off his mortgage economically, safely and conveniently.

Among other things the Equitable Life Assurance Society Plan provides:

1. 4% interest rate.
2. Liberal allowance towards closing costs. For example on mortgages of $4000 or more there are no closing costs.
3. No brokerage commissions.
4. No appraisal fees or renewal charges.
5. Mortgage cancelled at death of the insured.
6. Liberal advance payment option.
7. Up to 20 years to pay.
8. Mortgage financing with an understanding and humane organization.

TRAINLOAD . . . OF LONG DISTANCE CALLS

Our returning servicemen are pouring in to Kilmer and Dix by the thousands these days, and 85 out of every 100 want to call home right away. Unless these men have your wholehearted cooperation, their calls must be held up—sometimes for hours.

WHY NEW JERSEY LONG DISTANCE LINES ARE BUSIER THAN EVER!

New Jersey is the nation's main "Gateway State" for returning soldiers. From Camp Kilmer, Fort Dix and New Jersey's great military hospitals, thousands of calls daily are going out to homes all over America. We are handling more than twice as many Long Distance calls this year as in 1940!

HEY, FELLAS . . . I'M A POPPA!

We're sure you wouldn't want to keep such good news from any of our servicemen.

X-Ray Film Used At TB Clinic

ENLARGED X-RAY FILM as seen by Dr. Martin Castellano of Newark, the Belleville-Nutley TB association's analyst, who processes the film in a search for abnormalities. When one is found, the individual is requested to have a larger x-ray taken, free of charge, for study. The association will hold a free x-ray clinic open to town residents and employees in local plants on Saturday, at the High school.

card. When an abnormality is registered, he requests Mrs. Why-nall, the TB nurse to have the individual apply at the Essex County Isolation hospital's clinic for a larger x-ray plate which he will use for study. The cost of this larger x-ray is also borne by the association.

Several Belleville members of the association will be on hand to assist with the clinic including John J. Hewitt, clinic chairman, Mrs. Frank McFadden, Mrs. Leonora Willette, Milo Salter, Health Officer Berry and members of the staff of Town nurses.

Through the clinic the association offers to Belleville people one of the simplest and most effective roads to health. No respecter of race, creed, social or financial status, the association opens its door to all persons of any age. Members are simply trying to share with the public the great discovery that this is one disease that does not have to be suffered if taken in time, a spokesman said yesterday. Only the chest x-ray, however, will give positive proof of its existence.

War Fund Speaker

Miss Sally McPherson

Just back from four years in Brazil, Miss Sally McPherson, one of USO's original staff members, outlined the activities and services of the National War Fund to members of Rotary at their regular luncheon meeting yesterday.

Stressing the need for a continuance of these activities, Miss McPherson said "At the time I left Brazil, USO was just turning the corner on a new job—'re-pepping' the servicemen who after overseas combat of 26 to 36 months, were assigned to ground or flight crew duty at the bases we have in South America and the Caribbean. If you wonder what went over, it was being able to come into a USO and relax, finding the same snacks they'd never forgotten about having back in the States."

Miss McPherson is a graduate of the Sargent School of Physical Education and has earned her B.A. and M.A. degrees at Columbia University. She has been with the USO since 1941 and her activities with that organization have ranged from running a snack bar and beach club to programming and building superintendent duties.

PVT. NATALE IN
LION DIVISIONRegiment Made Heroic Stand
In Ardennes Against
Panzer Assault

Pvt. Onofrio Natale of 701 Main street, a member of the 423rd Infantry Regiment of the 106th "Lion" Division, was recently awarded a bronze star for participation in the Northern France campaign. As a member of the regiment he had previously won a battle star for Rhineland campaign.

In Northern France the 423rd was among the units which held a ring of steel around the German forces in Lorient and St. Nazaire. In the Rhineland, the 106th Division drove through and over the German 26th Division's positions in the Siegfried Line.

The full story of the 423rd Infantry Regiment's heroic stand in the Ardennes in December has only recently been released. In the center of the Lion Division's sector of the Germany-Belgium border, the regiment's first taste of combat came with the massive panzer assault which heralded the breakthrough into the Bulge. The full force of the Nazi panzer and SS attack smashed into the 422nd and 423rd regiments.

For the two days and two nights the divisions bore the brunt of the attack charged with the mission of holding — holding until reserves could be brought up, holding the approaches to key road centers, to supply dumps — nearly surrounded the first day, completely encircled by the second, roads for food and ammunition cut off — and yet, they held out. And yet, they held out enough to save the Bulge from exploding into a decisive Nazi victory.

The defense of the Ardennes cost the 422nd and 423rd combat teams nearly 7,000 men missing in action. Most of the missing soldiers were liberated from German prisoner of war camps in later campaigns.

Madalyn White, a native of town, is with the "Yours Sincerely" Camp Show company which recently arrived in an occupation zone, said the National War Fund report.

Miss White, singer, got started in show business when a friend of hers was putting on a vaudeville act. She left school to join and has been trouping ever since. The "Yours Sincerely" company is but one unit of USO-Camp Shows whose activities are financed by the National War Fund through contributions to community war funds.

The Foundation's Gains

Belleville has recently been the recipient of two major benefits as a result of the efforts and plans of a group of far-sighted men who made a vision of service concrete, with the formation of the Belleville Foundation in November of 1942.

The bequest of Bloomfield's Camp Demarest, a $40,000 property, could, it is safe to say, not have come to Belleville if the Foundation did not exist. When Charles Demarest, former mayor of Bloomfield, was searching for a safe custodian for the property, he determined that its full facilities could be best maintained by the Foundation. As a result, Belleville boys and girls will henceforth have the opportunity of enjoying a part of their summers at one of the best equipped camps in the region under the sponsorship of the Rotary and Lions clubs.

Mr. Demarest's confidence in the Foundation and its aims was probably aroused by the organization's carefully thought out and well-laid plan for aiding returning service men which this week has been completed with the appointment of a veterans guidance director.

Everyone knows by this time, of the wide acclaim its booklet, "The Open Door to Belleville" has received throughout the country and the number of municipalities that are copying its Plan. The Plan has been approved by Selective Service and will now function in close cooperation with the Veterans Administration program to provide any service or advice a returning veteran may need.

The Plan was the primary purpose of the Foundation which, when it was organized, stated it wished to meet the social needs of the post war years, and that among the first of these, was assistance to returning service men and women in assuming their responsibilities in the community — its schools, churches and industries.

The founders state in "The Open Door to Belleville" that the Foundation's charter "was incorporated to serve the social welfare needs of Belleville. Its objective is to make Belleville a better place in which to work and live. Its aim is to raise a Foundation Fund which can be used to sponsor the projects voted by the Foundation trustees."

If the Foundation were responsible for nothing more than these recent accomplishments it would still have amply justified its existence in terms of social welfare.

Preparation For Junior High

With the return of Mr. Kittle as principal of the high school, Evans Hughes Thomas appointed in July by the board of education as general supervisor of secondary education will be released from his temporary duties there to begin the ground work for a junior high.

It is understood that this work under the guidance of Superintendent of Schools Wayne R. Parmer, will include study of the facilities in new junior high buildings in this area with the intention of listing requirements for an addition to the present School No. 8. It will include the preparation of junior high courses and curricula and selection of members of the elementary school faculty for preparation as junior high teachers.

Other factors such as the planning of special courses for these teachers and a redistribution of the elementary school pupils, are involved. It is a large undertaking and will require time for its completion. However, the benefits of less congested elementary schools and a coordinated program for pupils from the seventh to twelfth grades are benefits which should be realized as soon as the board of education can give the green light on the building program which must accompany it.

A junior high school was recommended as long ago as 1938 by the State Department of Education and last year by the evaluating committee representing the Mid-Atlantic Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges.

Prevent By Action Now

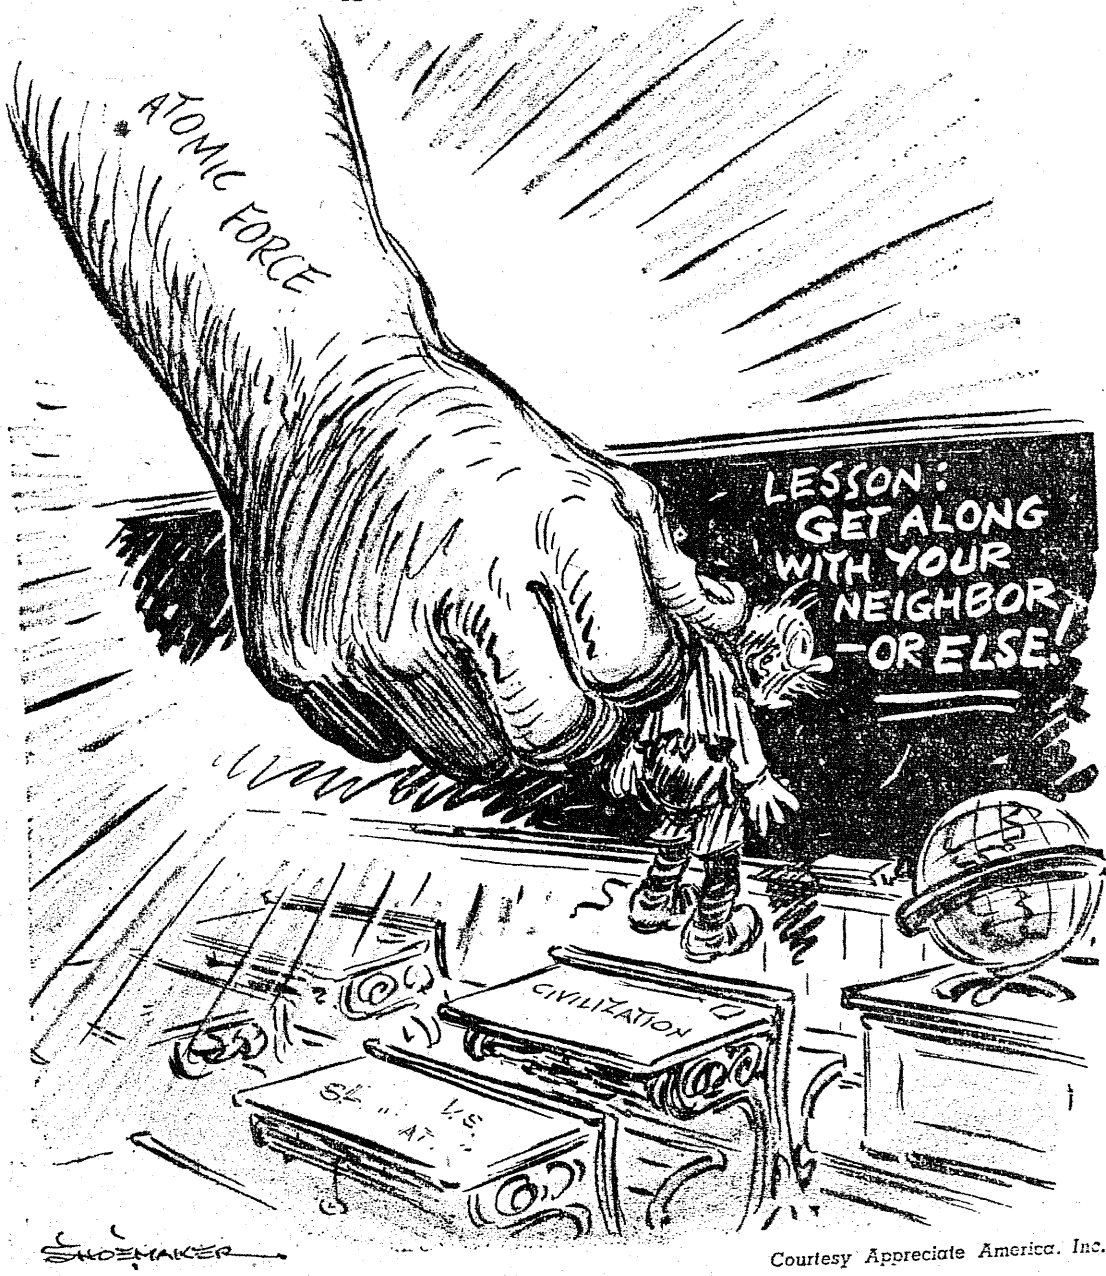

For the third consecutive year, the Belleville-Nutley Tuberculosis Association is providing a free chest x-ray clinic to residents and those employed in local industries through the proceeds realized from the annual sale of Christmas seals.

The educational program and clinic made available through the efforts of an almost anonymous group of citizens of both towns should receive the attention of all health-minded folks. A constructive step in the prevention of disease, attendance at the clinic for a check-up is no reflection on the state of the individual or family health.

Public education long ago dissipated the medieval belief that tuberculosis, cancer and heart ailments were hush-hush maladies unfit for public discussion. A realistic and practical attitude in the prevention or early arresting of such diseases has done much to cut down the old records of mortality.

The clinic is a service supplied freely in the interest of public welfare, supported by public contributions at Christmas time. As such, it should enjoy a popularity befitting its intent.

MANY NEW IDEAS FOR SCOUT YEAR

Girl Scout Council To Learn New Approaches, Have Training Session Wednesday

Members of the Girl Scout council were given promise at their first fall meeting Thursday evening of replenished ideas for troop conduct throughout Belleville this year when Mrs. Morris Bennett and Mrs. Richard Garway dramatized their report of a training course which they attended this summer.

With action songs, dramatics and demonstration of leaf mounting in new and novel ways, they showed council members what they had learned. They wound up the meeting by serving "made on the spot" refreshments of ice cream sodas and chocolate covered crackers, a short cut which will also be passed along to troops by them.

The women were trained at Montclair Teachers' college where Girl Scout instructors taught them. They will transmit their findings to the Girl Scout leaders' club.

More serious items on the council's program were arrangements for an all day training session for themselves on September 26, the determination to arrange a staggered schedule which will permit the presence of a council member at all leaders' club meetings and many troop meetings, and plans for the scouts' Country Fair and Scouts Own program, highlights of Girl Scout week which will be observed October 28 to November 3.

Resignation

The council also accepted the resignation of Miss Mildred Lee, promising head of the training committee whose new assignment at Paterson State Teachers' college has forced her to give up the post. The training committee will function without a chairman for the present.

Present Thursday evening at 400 Washington avenue headquarters were Mrs. George R. Gerard, council president; Mrs. Victor Hart, camping chairman; Mrs. Edward Ackerman, treasurer; Mrs. Fay Niles, recording secretary; Mrs. J. W. Todd, registrar; Mrs. Allan Crisp, chairman of membership; Mrs. Frank McFadden, second deputy and chairman of publicity.

Beneficiaries of the Community Chest campaign of which they are participating agents, the council will undertake the year with the determination to "make scouting available to every Belleville girl who wants it."

Last year scout membership in Belleville doubled. This year the council will strive for highest quality programs, recruitment of best fitted leaders and development of senior troops for girls over 14.

Cpl. R. J. O'Brien DDT Expert In Malaria Control Unit

Fighting disease-bearing insects with DDT, oil and constant dusting, has been the job of the 86th Malaria Control Unit of the 13th Air Force from New Guinea up through the Bismarck Archipelago to the Southern Philippines. Vectors of malaria, dengue fever, filariasis and other tropical diseases have been the targets of the unit's insecticides. The ten-man unit, which earned three battle stars in 14 months of operation, includes Cpl. Richard J. O'Brien of 46 Cleveland street.

After extensive training at Camp Ellis, Ill., and Camp Flauche, La., the unit headed overseas. At Finshaven, New Guinea, the group went to work on a coconut plantation where they oiled swamps, dug ditches for drainage and burned brush and local vegetation in an effort to control breeding places of insects.

In August, 1944, they were assigned to the "Jungle Air Force," and at Sansapor, northernmost Allied base in New Guinea, they began control measures against scrub typhus and malaria.

Working in conjunction with the 13th Fighter Command in the Southern Philippines, the unit guards air strips against the possibility of transport planes bringing in insects from other areas. It also supervises spraying of vast areas from the air with the deadly-to-insects DDT.

Bloomfield Resident Praises Local Police Work

From Edward P. Harrington, Mgr. Lodge of Elks Bloomfield, N. J.

To the Editor of The Times-News: An old American custom is to slam a copy any time you get a chance whether he is right or wrong, so I am going to try something different.

I want the people of Belleville to know their police department is on the beam. I am not a resident of Belleville so this little note is not for personal gain. I live in Bloomfield, an adjoining town.

We had a robbery here about three weeks ago at the Elks club. A considerable amount of money was taken and damage done. Your police department made it possible to clear it up. I want to give Deputy Chief Leighton credit for some fine police work. He is a 100 percent cop and a credit to the police department. I hope citizens of your town know the value of this man's work and his men under him.

War Won't Be Over For This Youngster Till Uncle Returns

Seven year old Abraham Korn commented to his grandfather, Morris H. He further commented that he did not feel secure "because the Japs may have hidden their guns."

Mr. Rosen is proprietor of a meat market at 196 Washington avenue. The little boy's uncle is Pfc. Israel Rosen who has spent the past year in Europe with the quartermaster corps.

The officers and men of this famed Warship celebrated the victory in the Pacific and the observance of the ship's second year in service.

The day of celebration began with thanksgiving services and closed with a spectacular fun show. The noon meal was turkey with all of the trimmings. The Intrepid has a proud record as a fighting ship. Four times she suffered battle damage. Her history records 80 enemy ships sunk and 650 enemy aircraft destroyed by the carrier's planes and guns.
