SURVEY UNDER WAY TO EASE HOUSING SHORTAGE

Questionnaire To Property Owners On Providing Veterans Homes

Mayor Williams and Veterans Guidance Director Joseph F. McGreevy announced last night that a survey will get under way this week to determine the number of home-owners who might have accommodation available for veterans. The survey will also endeavor to establish those home-owners who might be willing to remodel their property to create housing for returning servicemen.

Elsewhere in this paper will be found a copy of the questionnaire sent to home-owners. McGreevy urged everyone to return the form as soon as possible, as the situation is becoming more acute every day.

This proposal was suggested Friday by Mayor Williams in an attempt to provide emergency housing for the returning servicemen.

At Friday's meeting, a proposal was made by Mayor Williams to sell to veterans town-owned property for the sum of one dollar.

In response to a query made by Commander Edward Dunn of the newly organized John J. Daly Post of the American Veterans of World War II, as to whether any action on the legality of the proposal for the lots had been taken, Williams stated that he hoped to have an opinion from Town Attorney Lawrence Keenan within a week. The subject will come up for further discussion at a special meeting of the commissioners on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Mayor's proposal to sell the lots came at Friday's meeting after various suggestions to alleviate the situation had been offered by those in attendance.

Prefabricated houses and temporary barracks were among the proposals, but after one of the veterans present, Glenroy Stroud, stated that the servicemen "did not want to be treated like beggars, but were tired of living in fox-holes and barracks and wanted clean, permanent homes," these suggestions went by the board.

Another step in the formative stage will be taken up at the Tenement House Commission meeting in Atlantic City today, when the Mayor, several of the commissioners and McGreevy will ask the Commission to ease some of the restrictions on two and a half family houses. If this were granted, it would probably provide some additional housing.

In respect to the remodeling of present homes, Frank J. McFadden, vice president of the First National Bank, stated that loans on a long term basis were available for this type of construction, and that income in most cases exceeded the monthly payments required.

McFadden had previously stated that the high rate of rejections on the veterans applications for financial aid in constructing a new home, was due to the high prices in the present real estate market. The FHA has the power to grant or reject the loans, which the veteran may apply for under the G.I. Bill of Rights, and when the FHA rejects an application, they are trying to protect the serviceman.

BALK ZONE CHANGE IN VALLEY

Grant Citizens Protest; Ordinance On Berton Street Zoning Passes

On the strength of a petition from the residents in the neighborhood, a proposed zoning change from Residential to Industrial on property located on Cortlandt street opposite Hoyer Products was rejected by the commissioners at the meeting Tuesday night.

A representative group appeared to protest the change, requested by the Plasto Craft company which would construct a factory for the manufacture of plastic products.

On the petition and the group present, Public Affairs Director Waters suggested that private homes be erected there instead of a factory. The residents contended there are enough factories in the area at the present time, with the many cars providing a safety hazard for the children.

A change of zone was granted for property located at Berton street near the Public Service line, passing the second and third reading by unanimous vote. Formerly a Residential B zone, the property now becomes an Industrial zone.

The building there has been purchased by the Hammill Wood-working company, formerly of Stephens street, to conduct manufacturing operations. In the past, the building was used as a garage and for storage purposes.

UNION VOTES "BACK TO WORK" MONDAY AT KIDDE

Opinion Divided With Those Favoring Return Winning, 210 To 165

The second of the local industrial strikes came to an end Tuesday noon, when the striking workers of Walter Kidde company voted to return to work. Thomas Edison workers returned over the past week-end, and Tuesday at the Elks club, by a 210 to 165 vote, the Kidde union members decided to end their four week-old strike.

In a statement from Harry Kellner, business agent of Local 420 of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers, CIO, another meeting is scheduled to be held at the Elks tomorrow morning. According to Kellner, this meeting will be a continuation of the Tuesday session to wind up various contract affairs.

Kellner stated that erroneous reports have appeared in some newspapers on when the union will return to work. They are scheduled to return on Monday, he said, and will arrange this week for maintenance men to enter the plant and get everything in readiness for production to commence at that time.

In a wild session at the Elks Tuesday in which some of the union officials were greeted with boos and others with applause, the majority of the workers accepted the company terms. The recommendation to return to work was made by James McLeish, president of UEW District 4, Samuel Rothbard, union counsel, Kellner and Allan J. Weisenfeld, secretary of the State Mediation Board. They have conferred for several hours on Monday with John Kidde and other company officials, in which the company reiterated its position that it felt the maximum offer had been made.

The terms as accepted by the union provide for a general 10-cent-an-hour automatic raise. Any increase over that will be in accordance with the merit system. The company also retains the right to reassign existing jobs every four months. The union will receive from the company each week a list of those workers who had been refused or granted raises under the merit system.

In reporting their meeting with the company, Kellner said the committee felt that the company's proposals were the maximum the union could get out of them at this time. However, the union would have the right to reopen the question of renegotiation of wages at any time.

At the meeting, many of the strikers and the union's executive committee, headed by Nick Pitucio, local president, opposed the acceptance of terms and urged the members to continue the strike.

DUNN COMMANDER OF AMVETS GROUP

Air Corps Vet Elected To Lead New Group; WAC Voted To Office

With 45 in attendance at the meeting, 35 of which are active members, Edward J. Dunn of 6 Smith street was elected commander of the newly organized veterans group known as the Amvets at the Recreation House Monday night.

Other officers named to posts were Albert G. Culkin, 62 High street, first vice-commander; James P. McCann, 242 Washington avenue, second vice-commander; Miss Gladys M. Hallie, 80 Belleville avenue, Bloomfield, third vice-commander; John E. McDonald, 26 New street, adjutant and Glenroy G. Stroud, 26 Hornblower, finance of the new organization.

All members of the new organization are veterans of World War II. It was voted to conduct meetings on the second and fourth Monday of each month at the Recreation House.

Commander Dunn is a veteran of four years service with the Army Air Corps. A lieutenant and pilot of a medium bomber, Dunn was credited with 65 missions while attached to the 12th Air Force in the M-20.

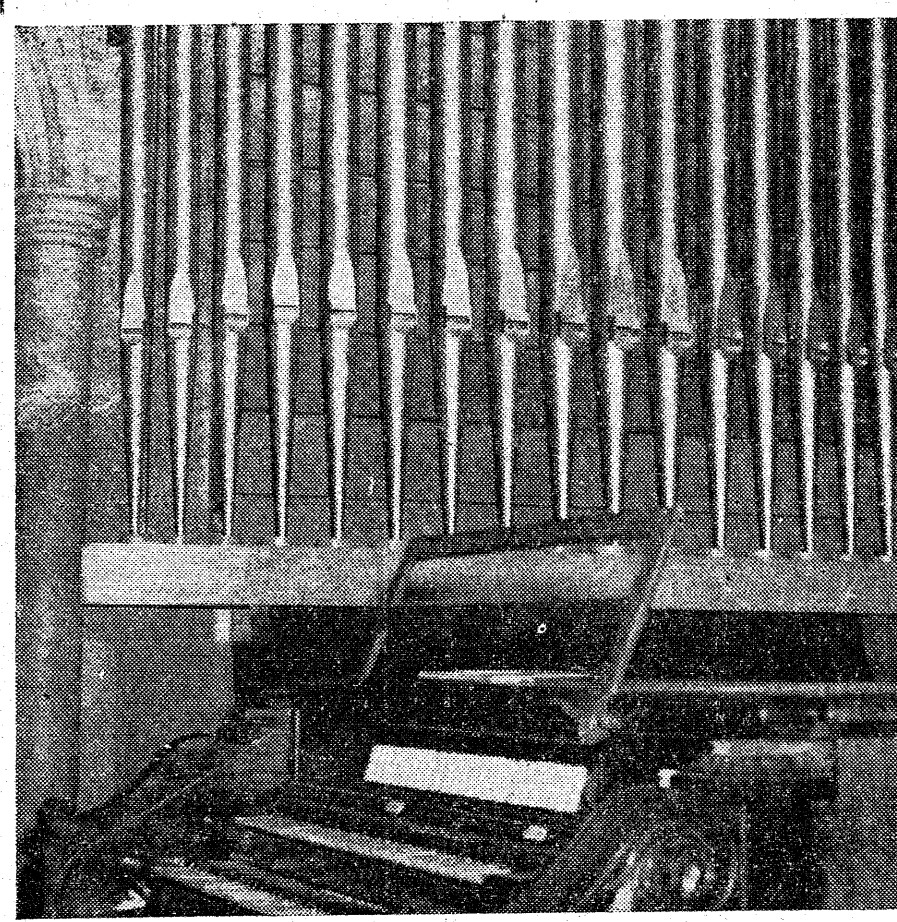

A gunner on a B-24, vice-commander Culkin was a prisoner-of-war for a year in Germany, completing 24 missions before being shot down. He was in service for three years.

Attached to the 8th Air Force, second vice-commander McCann was a bombardier with 18 missions to his credit. He was forced to land in Switzerland and was interned there for 14 months.

Third vice-commander, Miss Hallie served two and a half years with the Wacs, and her election to this post is in keeping with the group's plan to invite women veterans to join as well as men.

New Pipe Organ To Be Dedicated Sunday

NEW PIPE ORGAN at the First Italian Baptist Church which will be dedicated on Sunday to the 53 members of the Church serving in the armed forces, and in memory of the late Sgt. Dedicate New Pipe Organ At Italian Baptist Sunday

In honor of the 53 members of the church who are serving in the armed forces, and in memory of Sgt. Edward Di Carlo, who was killed in action, the First Italian Baptist Church will dedicate their new pipe organ Sunday. The dedication is the final program of the church's 31st anniversary celebration, and will be conducted by the Rev. Benedetto Pascale, pastor of the church.

The late Sgt. Di Carlo was a member of the church, and was graduate of Fork Union Military Academy in Virginia. Artistically inclined, Di Carlo was especially adept at sculpturing, and Rev. Pascale has several samples of the Sgt.'s work in his home. Entering service in 1942, Di Carlo saw action in the South Pacific, and on June 26, 1945, was killed on the island of Guam.

The Sergeant had been home on an emergency furlough in January 1945, when his father passed away. His mother died in 1937. Surviving are three brothers, two of whom are still in service. Joseph, a pharmacist mate in the Navy, is now in Trinidad, while Thomas is a sergeant in the Army and is stationed in Italy. The youngest brother, William, is now attending Fork Union Military Academy.

Prior to his death, Sgt. Di Carlo wrote to Rev. Pascale and expressed his desire to dedicate a stained glass window to the church in memory of his deceased parents. According to the Rev. Pascale, the stained glass window will now be dedicated to the late Mr. and Mrs. Di Carlo and Sgt. Edward, pending the approval of Sgt. Thomas Di Carlo.

The church was originally dedicated on November 21, 1914, with Rev. Benedetto at the head, and has won wide recognition for its work and accomplishments under his guidance.

Still Going Strong At 86, Takes Screens Down

Old Time Resident, John F. Coogan, Sr. Celebrates Birthday Sunday; Well-Known Baseball Figure

If you happened to be passing 118 Adelaide street last week, you could not help but spot a "young man" industriously taking down the porch screens.

The "young man" was John F. Coogan sr., father of the local real estate man, and John F. sr. will be 86 years of age on Sunday.

Mr. Coogan has probably been taking down screens and putting them back up again longer than any other Belleville resident, and he plans to repeat the job again next year. Throughout the years he has maintained his own property, refusing any assistance. Until recently, he painted his house whenever the occasion demanded it, but the wear and tear on his neighbor's nerves as they used to watch the elderly gentleman gallivant around the roof proved to be too much for them. At last reports, Mr. Coogan is said to have turned the job over to the painters, but with reluctance.

Celebrated as the "Babe Ruth" of the baseball era when the "Little Giants" of Newark were supt. front page news in the baseball world, Mr. Coogan was the directive genius in establishing in New-

STRIKE STILL ON AT RESISTOFLEX

The Company Issues Lengthy Statement; No Comment By Union Officials

Striking workers continue to picket the Resistoflex corporation as the strike went into its second week. There is no indication of settlement, both the company and the union remaining adamant in their positions.

Edgar Peierls, president of the company, released a statement yesterday stating the company's position, while union officials were not available for comment.

The company statement said: "On Monday, November 5, the union withdrew all members of the bargaining unit (except the fireman who was later withdrawn in the afternoon) from the company's plants. This action was a direct violation of the contract now in force between the company and the union. Although the company met with union representatives twice on Monday afternoon to discuss maintenance of good order and protection of the plant and equipment, no reason was given by union officials for the work stoppage, in fact, all discussion of such reasons was bluntly refused. It was not until late Tuesday afternoon, at a meeting held at the invitation of the company, that the company's executives and the union executive committee, that any reasons were given. At this meeting, the union's International representative accused the company of making a mockery of the grievance procedure and this was given is the only reason for the walk-out."

Terms accepted by the workers included a general six-cent an hour increase and double time for Sunday work. One of the major points of dispute in the strike was the company's insistence on the merit system, but the union won out in this point and it was abolished for the duration of the present union contract, which is scheduled to run until March.

Arthur Walsh, executive vice president, issued a statement on behalf of the company welcoming back the workers, and said that labor-management difficulties can be settled more expeditiously if picket lines are replaced with production lines.

Emergency Appropriation For Town Hall Repairs

An emergency appropriation was presented and passed at the commission meeting Tuesday, to meet the cost of some necessary repair work on the Town Hall.

The contract to perform the work was awarded to the Water-proofing Caulking company of Church street, New York. Their bid of $4,750 was low, and was accompanied by a certified check for $475.

PUSH ZONE CHANGE BY ON AMENDED ORDINANCE

Objections Filed After Waters Recommends Granting Change

On the recommendation of Public Works Director Waters, an amended ordinance changing the zoning on Florence avenue in Silver Lake from business to residential was passed and adopted on second and third reading at the commission meeting Tuesday night.

Official objection was written into the record by Robert Guhin, attorney for Rocco Raimo, applicant for a mercantile license to conduct an auto repair service at 19 Florence avenue. Guhin contended that such change violated the purposes of zoning, and charged the board of commissioners with showing discrimination. Guhin said that the original ordinance for the zone change called for six streets to be rezoned, but the commissioners changed only the street where Raimo wished to conduct his business.

A large group of citizens who had petitioned for the change of zone and claiming to reside on Florence avenue attended the meeting. It was this attendance that prompted Commissioner Waters to state, "If everyone of these people in the neighborhood want the zone changed, why don't we grant the zone change and then let the interested parties go to court to establish their legal rights."

Waters then recommended that the proposed ordinance changing the zone be amended to take in only Florence avenue. The amended ordinance was passed by unanimous vote.

During the discussion, Town Attorney Lawrence Keenan disclosed that Guhin had submitted two affidavits which stated that an auto repair service had previously been in operation on Raimo's property. According to Keenan, if these affidavits are recognized and accepted by a court, a non-conforming use would be established and as long as no more than five cars were stored there, the repair service would have to be allowed.

Counter Petition After the initial petition for the change of zone was passed at the first reading on September 25, Raimo filed a counter petition signed by neighborhood residents that the zone change not be granted. The matter was postponed several times in order to obtain legal opinion from town counsel. Those in favor of the

BACK TO WORK AT EDISON PLANT

Six-Week Strike Ends As Company And Union Agree To Terms

A six-week-old strike of the Thomas A. Edison Inc. plants ended this week with the workers returning to the production lines Monday morning. The three plants located at Silver Lake, Kearny and West Orange, went out on strike October 2, with about 350 affected at the local plant.

The 2,500 members of Local 407, UEW, voted unanimously to accept proposals agreed upon by union and company leaders before the State Mediation Board.

The settlement was announced by Allan Weisenfeld, secretary of the mediation board, and he stated that the workers would return to work on a schedule mutually agreed upon by the company and the union, without discrimination by either party by virtue of their participation in the strike.

Terms accepted by the workers included a general six-cent an hour increase and double time for Sunday work. One of the major points of dispute in the strike was the company's insistence on the merit system, but the union won out in this point and it was abolished for the duration of the present union contract, which is scheduled to run until March.

Arthur Walsh, executive vice president, issued a statement on behalf of the company welcoming back the workers, and said that labor-management difficulties can be settled more expeditiously if picket lines are replaced with production lines.

Foundation Reports Four Projects Begun

Net Resources $164,420.36; Expect $200,000 Mark This Year, Says President Harry G. Specht

In a report on the Belleville Foundation issued this week by Harry G. Specht, president and one of the founders, four projects of the original 8 point program are described in various stages of progress and resources are listed at $164,420.36. Although the Foundation was organized without funds three years ago, Mr. Specht states that capital resources are expected to reach an even $200,000 by the end of the year.

THIEF STEALS LIFE SAVINGS

Paul Hollberg, Localite, Reports $2,959 Loss From Home

Paul Hollberg, local news-dealer residing at 141 Floyd street, reported to police early Tuesday morning that his home had been broken into sometime during the night and his life savings stolen.

The money is reported to have been kept in a box by Hollberg, and he stated that in the box was $1,499 in currency, $60 in silver and $1,400 worth of war bonds.

According to police, Hollberg stated that the money was taken when he retired at 10 p.m. but was gone when he arose at 4:30 to go on his paper route. Deputy Chief Leighton and other plain-clothesmen are investigating. Entrance to the house is believed through a window, which they found unlocked.

Hollberg formerly operated a confectionery and paper store, but for the past few years has conducted a home delivery paper route. In addition to the route he has sold papers to passing motorists and bus commuters on the corner of Greylock parkway and Washington avenue, carrying his papers in an express wagon.

CHRISTMAS CLUB PAYS $215,849

Belleville Average $100 For 2,105 Members As Savings Show Increase

Santa Claus will come to visit Belleville households next week, when the local banks forward to contributors the 1945 Christmas Club checks. A grand total paid out by the two banks amounting to $215,849 will be distributed among 2,105 Christmas clubbers.

The average check will be in the neighborhood of $100, according to bank officials, and Christmas club payments showed about 40 percent increase over last year. What disposition will be made of the local banks was not known, but according to Herbert F. Rawlin, president of Christmas Clubs, Inc., of New York, for the first time since the war, the great percentage of spending will go toward Christmas purchases.

According to Rawlin's and based on a nation wide survey, the average Christmas payment will be $72.

With an approximate nation wide total of $550,000,000 going into the hands of Americans in the form of Christmas checks, the percentage of spending or saving is as follows, according to Rawlin's figures: permanent savings, 25 percent; victory bonds, 18 percent; insurance premiums, 11 percent; debt retirement, 10 percent; taxes, 8 percent; Christmas purchases, 27 percent, and unclassified, 1 percent.

One of the rigid rules established by the Foundation is that all monies spent must serve the community as a whole, and not serve any section, group or purpose which does not represent the general interest of the whole town.

All monies collected represents contributions made to the Foundation by local industries in the past four years. The funds of the organization have been invested in government bonds and legal securities as established by the trust laws of New Jersey. As future projects are developed, plans of the Foundation call for the citizens of town to join in and assist these projects as they are provided.

Zone Change

zone change contended that Raimo's was the only business being conducted on Florence avenue in their neighborhood, and that it is detrimental to their neighborhood. Raimo, who had invested money remodeling and conforming to town regulations respecting fire and health hazards, contended he was operating in a business zone and should be allowed to continue his business.

The amended ordinance also affected the Picadilly Ice Cream company, located on Florence avenue. According to Jerome Litvak, attorney for the company, he will file a general objection to the change of zone.

Litvak further stated that the company has a non-conforming use established, that the building was operated as an ice cream business in the past. He stated that in 1923 and 1927, the board of commissioners issued permits for remodeling the building as an ice cream establishment. The company has expended money for improvements in the building, he alleged, and feel they are within their legal rights in operating.

Town Attorney Keenan stated the procedure in the ice cream case will be different than Raimo's. The town will bring charges against the company because they are already occupying the premises. In Raimo's case, he will bring charges against the town for the right to occupy and conduct his business.

Acquisition of Camp Roli
The latest development in this youth training project is the acquisition of Camp Roli, formerly known as Camp Hicamast, located on Glen Wild Lake. Sponsored by the local Rotary and Lions clubs, the Foundation hopes to have the camp ready for operation next year, and will underwrite the operation for two years, assisting in the camp program whenever necessary to do so.

No program has been developed as yet on adult education and social development, through forums, dramatic entertainment and discussions. Due to the restrictions on heating of public buildings during the war, nothing has been accomplished in this project, but plans should be under way by next year to realize this program.

Under the musical education project, the Foundation has been instrumental in arranging two concerts at the high school and various concerts in the churches. When a proper organization is prepared to carry out this program, more music of a high order will be made available to the people.

The Foundation is well aware of the needs of the town for a hospital of its own. In 1944, before a group of representatives from Nutley, Bloomfield and Belleville, a program was submitted by the Foundation to consider hospitalization and the need of a hospital to care for its citizens. This program was widely hailed and quoted by various medical associations for its excellent composition, but from various restrictions attributed to the war prevented the Foundation from carrying out this fine program.

Dental and Medical Clinic
At the present time, and for some time in the past, a committee has been working to gather data pertaining to the operation of a dental and medical clinic. Undoubtedly, a program of this size and scope is one that will take a great deal of planning and study, involving a large sum of money for a hospital, but the Foundation feels planning is necessary at this time.

Cooperation with religious organizations was listed on the original program of the Foundation in the belief that the church plays an integral part in the town's welfare. With the clergy represented on the board of trustees and various committees, a better understanding has developed from this cooperation.

Another project that will require further study is the provision for homes and care for the aged and infirm. Many of these people must be taken care of through nursing services, proper home facilities and recreation.

The recreation project, considered by the Foundation to be a vital cog in their eight point program, was instrumental in bringing to Belleville a long range recreation program that will benefit the town greatly in the years to come. Setting up a committee of 12 representatives of industry, schools, churches and the town, this committee prevailed upon the Board of Commissioners to employ the National Recreation Association to make a survey of Belleville. This survey was made and a voluminous report issued on Belleville's requirements. This committee is still active, is endeavoring to carry out the suggestions of the survey, and will continue to report to the citizens from time to time.

Foundation Aids Veterans
The Foundation was instrumental in creating the post of a veteran's guidance director for returning veterans to consult on problems they may have upon returning to civilian life with the resultant appointment of Joseph F. McGreevy to the position.

Looking forward to the continued growth and future success of the Foundation, a committee was recently appointed to study the proper basis for the future membership in the organization. In the past, membership was originally limited by the Foundation to its contributors and incorporators. A report was submitted to the trustees by this committee at the last meeting and the report is now in the hands of the by-laws committee.

The 8 projects of the Foundation are indicative of the organization's interest in the welfare of the town, and from time to time as new projects develop, officers and trustees will consider them.

MERTZ-GRAHAM NUPTIALS HELD

Ceremony Performed By Dr. Close In Fewsmith Church Saturday Afternoon

An afternoon ceremony, performed by Dr. O. Bell Close in Fewsmith Memorial church, was the occasion of the marriage Saturday of Miss May Dorothy Graham of Barrington and Raymond Emil Mertz, USN, son of Public Affairs Commissioner and Mrs. Raymond E. Mertz of 10 VanRensselaer place. Miss Graham has made her home with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hansen of Barrington.

Arthur Ackerman, organist, and Miss Edith Frey, vocal soloist, furnished a musical setting. The wedding reception was held at the Belleville Woman's club.

Mr. Hansen gave his sister-in-law in marriage; her sisters, Mrs. Hansen and Miss Betty Hansen, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. John Graham of Camden were attendants as well as Miss Ethyl Hoover of Camden.

Kenneth A. Mertz was his brother's best man; ushers were Marvin J. Winship of Bloomfield, cousin of the bridegroom, and Edward H. Stumpe of this town.

The bride's gown of white satin was made with marquisette yoke, edged with chantilly lace; the full skirt formed a train. Seed pearls formed the headpiece from which Miss Graham's illusion veil was draped and she carried white roses and bouvardia. Identical gowns of pink silk net with brocaded satin bodices were worn by the attendants. Mrs. Hansen, matron of honor, wore a blue net and flower headpiece; the others, pink. All carried pink roses.

At the conclusion of a short trip Mr. Mertz will report to the USS Wisconsin in San Francisco. He has served on the battleship for the past fourteen months in the Pacific. He was previously on duty with the Atlantic fleet and has been in the Navy three years. He attended Newark academy and Admiral Farragut Naval preparatory school.

Old fashioned lace trimmed the bride's satin gown and illusion veil. She carried chrysanthemums. The maid of honor and her junior counterpart were attired in pink lace with floral wreaths in their hair and bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids wore blue chiffon gowns and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

At its peak the ODB administered 8½ million accounts. This month, the agency disbursed the 12 billionth dollar to a soldier's family.

His last assignment at the ODB was as head of the branch which protects soldiers, their dependents and the Government from fraud in connection with these benefits.

Sheridan who was discharged from the Navy Sunday at Lido Beach, N.Y. after three years duty on the heavy cruiser USS Chester.

Shortly before he left Japan, Coxswain Sheridan met his brother, Seaman 1/c George Sheridan, who is aboard the destroyer USS McClelland. When he arrived here he was reunited with Arthur, another brother who was released from the Army four months ago. Pfc. Arthur Sheridan served four years including a period of 34 months in the Aleutians with a port battalion.

The men, who are all sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Sheridan, have another brother, Cpl. John Sheridan of the Army field artillery, hospitalized at Cambridge, O. after Pacific engagement including the battle of Saipan. Cpl. Sheridan is now convalescing at home on a 30 day furlough.

Sgt. Thomas Lepre of 55 Cedar Hill avenue is back in football garb as a member of the 90th before coming to the Philippines. He has been in the Army since September 11, 1942. He wears the Meritorious Service Award Wreath, which his unit was awarded for outstanding devotion to duty and excellent performance on a particularly difficult assignment. The award was given for the Battalion's record-breaking work in assembling amphibious landing craft in New Guinea. He also wears two battle stars on his Asiatic-Pacific Campaign ribbon, plus the Philippine Liberation ribbon, as well as the Good Conduct ribbon.

Prior to his entry into the Armed Forces, Cpl. Bonagura was employed as steel worker for Heller Brothers, located at Mt. Prospect and Verona avenue in Newark. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bonagura, reside at 79 Mt. Prospect avenue.

T/Sgt. James J. McNally, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. McNally of 11 Howard street, has been promoted from S/Sgt. to his present rank at the AAF Convalescent Hospital at Plattsburg Barracks, Plattsburg, N. Y.

The promotion to Staff Sergeant of Robert A. Reid, son of Robert A. Reid, 90 Van Houten place, Belleville, is announced at Sixth Air Force headquarters, Albrook Field, Canal Zone.

S/Sgt. Reid is a radio mechanic with the 153rd Army Airway Communications System Squadron with headquarters at Albrook Field. He entered the army in August, 1942, and has been in this area since last March.

A graduate of Belleville High school, he also attended Philco Training school in Philadelphia and formerly was an electrician and switchboard installer for Western Electric company of Newark before entering the service. His wife, Dorothy, lives at 201 North Willow street, Coffeyville, Kansas.

Sgt. Thomas Lepre of 55 Cedar Hill avenue is back in football garb as a member of the 90th

Sgt. Thomas Lepre

Armored Field Artillery Division eleven stationed at Amberg, Germany. A season of eight inter-military division games has been planned and the men expect to travel all over Europe. Games in Berlin and Paris are expected.

Apparently anticipating a revival of his mother's fear of the game, established when he played with Belleville High school team, Sgt. Lepre writes her that he just couldn't resist the temptation to get in the game again. He is looking forward to the gold footballs with division insignia. He has been overseas fourteen months.

Sgt. Lepre was in business with his father, a builder, before entering service. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lepre.

Shown above also is his brother, 1st Lieut. Jerry Lepre Jr., who is undergoing treatment in Boston Naval hospital after wounds received in Iwo Jima. A Marine, he has been service three and a half years.

Shortly after his return to this country seven months ago he was married to the former Miss Rita Orlando of Arlington, South Orange teacher.

Lieut. Lepre was physical training instructor in Belleville High school and in Barringer High school in civilian life.

Pvt. Herbert B. Tucker, husband of Mrs. Winifred Tucker, 39 Schuyler street, is now stationed in the Philippine Islands, near Tacloban, Leyte.

Formerly with the infantry at Camp Blanding, Florida, Pvt. Tucker was transferred to duty with the Adjutant General's department in September, shortly after his arrival overseas.

Serving as a squad leader at the 28th Replacement Depot (Disposition Center, APO 318) near Tacloban, the Belleville soldier aids in processing ex-combat troops for return to the United States.

A member of the Elks and Eagles lodges, Tucker was inducted in March, 1945.

Mrs. William Tucker, the soldier's mother, also resides at the Schuyler street address.

Second Lieutenant Fred H. Mason of 12 Jerome avenue has been assigned to the AAF Convalescent hospital at Pawling, N. Y. for treatment and rest. The Lieutenant recently returned from 13 months duty in the ETO.

While at the hospital, which is one of several operated by the AAF Personnel Distribution command, he will participate in the physical training and vocational activities conducted by the convalescent service division.

Lieut. Mason flew 15 missions as the pilot of a B-17 and was awarded the Purple Heart, Air Medal with 2 clusters and the ETO ribbon with 3 battle stars. His wife, Mildred, and son, age 8, live at the Jerome avenue address. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Mason of 72 Campbell avenue.

Benjamin F. Ostrowski, aviation ordnanceman, third class, USNR, 540 Union avenue, can claim a share in one of the most outstanding records of the war while serving with Fleet Air Wing One, whose record in the final phases of the conflict now is being released by the Navy.

The newly announced details of the wing's record show that it sent more than 175,000 tons of Jap shipping to the bottom with its Mariner, Coronado and Privateer planes, damaged at least that more more tonnage, and shot down more than 40 enemy planes.

Units of the wing still were harassing the Japanese from their base at Okinawa when news of the surrender was received. It was at Okinawa that the Japs made their most frantic effort to disrupt the operations of the air wing, turning loose an almost continuous stream of suicide fliers at its base there.

The Navy's records have disclosed that, from Korea to China and Formosa - even to Japan, itself, the air wing helped keep the Japs in confusion, while other Fleet units pounded the enemy from Okinawa to Tokyo. Her planes teamed up with Army airplanes to rain destruction on the Jap Homeland.

Hughie J. O'Toole has been advanced to boatswain's mate, first class, USNR. O'Toole is now serving aboard the USS McCook, a minesweeper. He was stationed at Palermo, Sicily, with the amphibious force, and was aboard the USS Steady. O'Toole received a commendation for action at Anzio, and wears the American, European-African-Middle Eastern, and the Asiatic-Pacific Theater ribbons.

BM 1/c O'Toole is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh O'Toole of 608 Washington avenue.

Coogan

Coogan indulged in local politics during the time of Doc Waters, Doc Cyphers, Ed Hicks, Samuel Cathcart, Roy Vermeule, Henry Mason and Henry Wilson.

One of his worthy accomplishments during the days gone by was his advocacy of a particular type of paving for Greylock parkway, called Bithulithic. Against strong opposition, Coogan won out and had Greylock paved with this particular type, while Overlook avenue chose a tar treated wooden block. The paving on Overlook has since been repaired and replaced, while Greylock and the others that had the Bithulithic pavement are still as good as new.

Another of Coogan's interests was one organization of the North Belleville Savings and Loan Association, along with such associates as the late William D. Clark, John De' Graw, Thomas Reilly, Tom Loughlin and James Casey, who now resides on Greylock parkway.

Mr. Coogan retired a number of years ago after a long period of service as manager of the Newark branch of the Postal Telegraph company.

Many prominent men gained their start working for Coogan as messengers for the Telegraph company, and he recently enjoyed a pleasant reunion with one of his old messenger boys. The man was William Hildebrand sr, a vice president of Thomas A. Edison, Inc. and a member of the New Jersey State Racing Commission.

Mr. Coogan is a widower, having lost his wife, Mrs. Bridget Coogan, some twenty years ago. Father of six children, five of whom are still living, he is living with two of his daughters, Mary and Margaret, at the Adelaide street address. Another daughter, Sister Claire, of the Sisters of Charity, is located at the St. Antonius Convent in Newark.

The other members of the family are Mrs. Eugene Wilson of 126 Bremond street and John F. jr, residing at 337 Little street.

could have, in themselves, been made the subject of a grievance. Neither of these orderly solutions were sought by the union officials and the grievance committee meeting closed with a statement by the International representative that the company was improperly blocking the grievance procedure. That was 5 minutes before the walk-out began.

"It is obvious, from the foregoing, that this strike, walk-out, work stoppage or whatever else it may be called, is entirely illegal, unwarranted, a violation of the contract and a breach of faith, on the part of the union, with its own membership as well as with the company."

"It is obvious, also, from the events at the grievance committee meeting, that it was the union and not the company who had refused to follow the procedure established in the contract."

from paying too high a price for property.

It was this statement by McFadden that prompted the Mayor to make his one dollar a lot proposal, stating high building costs would be offset by the nominal cost of the land.

The cost to the town in selling these lots at the reduced price, said the Mayor, could be absorbed by the town as a charge against general town improvements.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America

(And I'll back up that pledge with Victory Bonds — plenty of them!)

And to the Republic for which it stands

(My country — the land that yields my crops, that gives a living to me and mine. I'll put my dollars to work for her.)

One nation indivisible

(I'll keep it one nation — prosperous and happy.)

With liberty and justice for all

(And a good living for all — the living that my backlog of Bonds will make secure in the years to come . . . for me, for my community, for the boys who will be coming back from fighting in their country's service.)

Truck Skids On Wet Road, Collides With Two Cars

Skidding on the rain soaked street, a trailer truck crashed into two cars going in the opposite direction on Washington avenue Monday morning at 8:10 a. m. The occupants of the truck cars, Edward Spencer, 36, of 17 Spencer street, Newark, and Mrs. Anna Auckland, 51, wife of Chris Auckland of 133 Teaneck road, Teaneck, were treated at the office of Dr. Thomas Meehan. Mrs. Auckland suffered shock, while Spencer was treated for cuts about the face.

According to a report by Officers Harry Winfield, the truck was proceeding north on Washington, and the passenger cars were going south. North of Van Houten place, the truck skidded across to the opposite side of the street, knocking the car driven by Spencer up on the sidewalk and pinning the Auckland vehicle beneath the cab of the truck.

The driver of the truck, Eddie Rogers, 27, of Auburn road, R. D. No. 1, Penns Grove, N. J., was uninjured.

NAMED PRESIDENT OF N. A. M. A.

Rowe Manufacturing Company
Executive Honored By National Group

Robert Z. Greene, president of the Rowe Manufacturing Company, Inc., was elected president of the National Automatic Merchandising Association at a meeting of the Board of Directors last week.

The new N.A.M.A. president was one of the original founders of the Association in 1936, and has served as its Vice President since that time. Established to promote the interests of manufacturers, distributors, and operators of vending and service machines, the Association has contributed toward the growth of automatic merchandising into one of the nation's major industries.

For several years, Mr. Greene acted as N.A.M.A.'s national coordinator to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. He also assisted the War Production Board as a member of its Merchandise Vending Machine Industry Advisory Committee.

Entering the vending machine business in its pioneer phase in 1927, Mr. Greene became associated with William H. Rowe, inventor of the cigarette vending machine. Together they organized the Rowe Manufacturing Company and the Rowe Cigarette Service Company which today are the world's leading producers and operators of cigarette vending machines.

Although automatic merchandising was still in the formative stage when Mr. Greene began his career in that industry he foresaw tremendous possibilities for its expansion on a nationwide scale. His active influence has been largely responsible for the rapid progress of automatic merchandising in the cigarette field.

Burglar Takes Jewels, Leaves Large Ring!

MARY MARGARET MCBRIDE

Mary Margaret McBride, famous radio columnist, tells of the burglar who took time out for a bath before making off with the family silver. "No one would have known," said Mary Margaret, "if he had used Dif to remove the give-away ring he left around the bathtub." Dif—the wonder cleaner—cuts housework in half. Your bathtub will sparkle, your kitchen stove will shine. Dif makes the difference in washing dishes, clothes and woodwork too! Look for the blue box!

Bellevillites In Uniform

Pfc. Alexander Melchiorne, son of Mrs. J. Melchiorne, 33 Little street, has just arrived at this station for redeployment. Ting Hoo, the name being the Chinese equivalent for "OK", is an efficiently laid out tent city in the foothills of the Himalayas with athletic fields, out-look movies and other Post-Victory recreational facilities, recently established by Maj. Gen. H. S. Auran, Commanding General of the Services of Supply in the China Theater, the speediest means of processing troops about to return to the states.

To the QM Truck Company, of which Pfc. A. Melchiorne is a member, fell one of the toughest assignments in the field of military transportation. Its primary duty was the transportation of supplies and ammunition for American forces along with replacements and equipment for the Chinese Army on a block system of convoy operation. Also, it performed maintenance work on its vehicles. Notable among the many unsung accomplishments of the Truck Companies was the epic journey of 6,000 miles from Persia to China by sea, rail and over the Stilwell road made by the men who had conveyed supplies to the Russian front. Pfc. A. Melchiorne received his basic military training at Hanrahan Camp, New Orleans. Prior to entering the Armed Forces he was employed as a barrels maker.

S/Sgt. Albert A. Redden was honorably discharged from the Army Air Forces recently at the separation center at MacDill Field, Tampa, Fla. He entered the service January 11, 1943, and since that time has served at various military installations including MacDill Field, Tampa, Fla. and Barksdale Field, Shreveport, La.

Before entering the service he was employed as a lead spotter for the Tuxley Metal Co. of Newark. Redden's home is at 296 Belleville avenue.

Gerard Rhoades, who hadn't had leave in Belleville for 26 months, was discharged from the Navy at Lido Beach October 30. He served as Storekeeper 2/c with the Seabees, spent seventeen months in Pearl Harbor and most recently on the island of Samoa.

Mr. Rhoades was formerly stock clerk for the board of education. He and Mrs. Rhoades and their ten year old daughter, Jane, lived at 171 Holmes street, the house which was partially demolished in July when a Garden State bus crashed into the living room.

The family is living temporarily with Mr. Rhoades mother, Mrs. Helen Rhoades.

Sgt. George Luhrs, son of H. Luhrs, 72 Little street, has been honorably discharged from the AAF at the separation center here.

"Education of Johnny Jones"

Looking back from the uplands of the twentieth century upon his efforts to receive a useful education, Henry Adams wrote that the intellectual training offered him in 1850 was more applicable to the year 1 than to 1900. He lamented that for the purpose of conducting the good life in the twentieth century he had been brought up in the mental climate of the eighteenth.

If Henry Adams in the evening of a life that stretched over the last half of a comparatively peaceful nineteenth century could feel that way about his educational equipment, what is likely to be the future feeling of youngsters who are being educated at the beginning of the atomic age? In the year 2,000 what judgment will they pass on the education given them in 1945?

The fission of the atom, therefore, poses for the educator an enigma not a whit less troublesome than the problem it has given statesmen. Even the smugness that is the occupational disease of teaching must have cracked under the impact of the explosion in Hiroshima; the clouds that rose from Japan's plains must have also raised other clouds of doubt before the eyes of many a schoolman.

What price utilitarianism now, when mechanically proficient imbeciles may bring on the world's destruction? What price the gentler humanities in the impending race for mechanistic power? Does Conant know the answer? Does Harshman? Do any of us? Yet here are children pressing against the school door, and they must be taught something.

Awaiting the answer, the teachers doubtless will continue to instill into them the same ideals and methods that were taught their fathers and their fathers' fathers since schools began. Indeed, the teachers themselves are prisoners within the iron framework of pre-atomic thinking. How can they be expected to break through into a newer day to lead their charges toward newer concepts?

The prospect is hardly cheering, and for the reflective and conscientious schoolman these indeed must be days of deep and anxious doubt.

Unusual Solution

With a proposal that town owned lots be made available to veterans for the sum of one dollar, Belleville is considering the first concrete if unusual measure to enable the veteran to look forward to some solution to the housing problem.

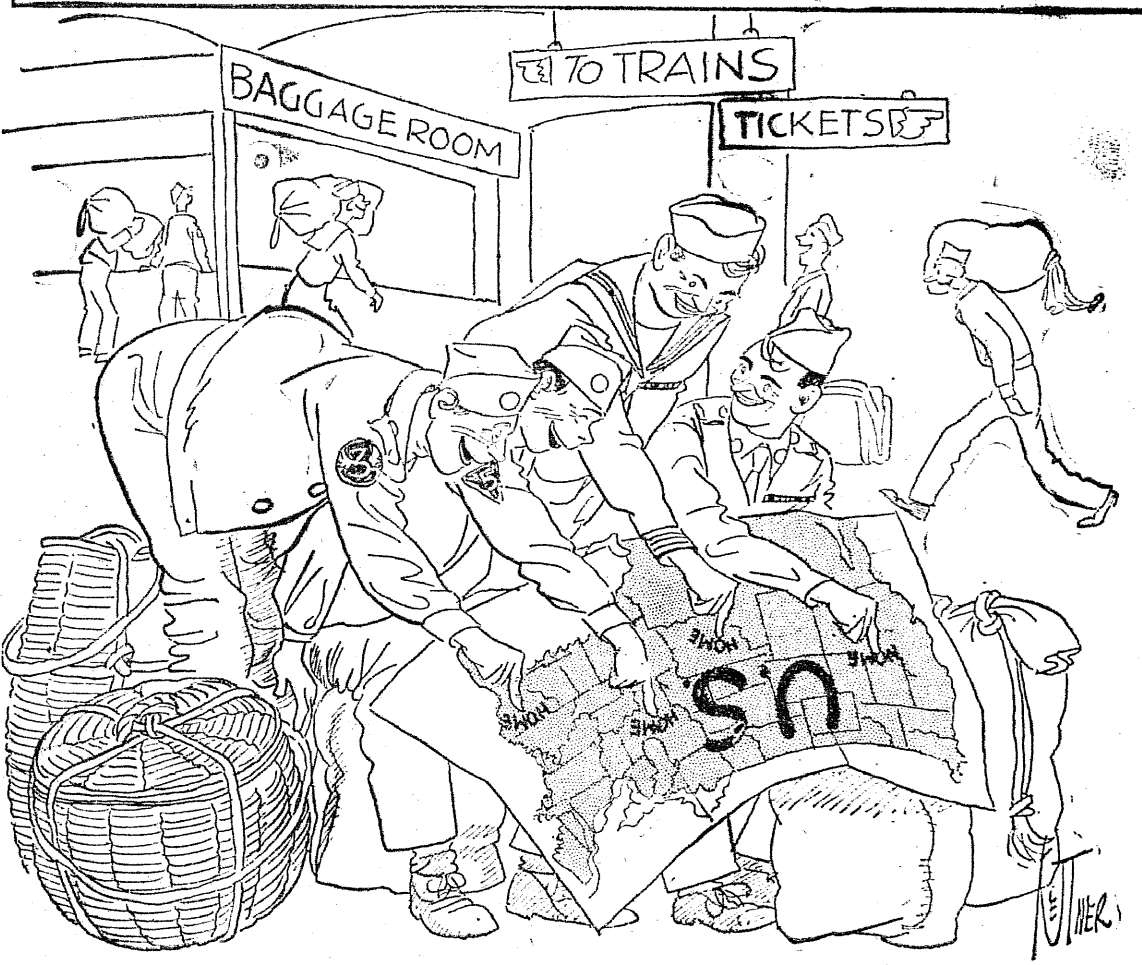

The proposal was made by Mayor Williams, who should be commended for an original idea although its legal merits have not yet been probed. Our neighboring town of Nutley has yet to take any steps in this acute situation. The proposed low price of lots for permanent construction for the veteran would eliminate one of the principal drawbacks in his receiving financial aid from the FHA.

Under the G.I. Bill of Rights, veterans may apply for loans to build a home, but with real estate values at their present high level, the FHA government agency that passes on the vets applications, is forced to turn many of them down.

The FHA will do all in its power to help the veteran, and is really protecting by refusing his mortgage application at inflated levels instead of granting loans on a price far in excess of its actual value.

Under Mayor Williams proposal, the nominal cost of the lot would enable a veteran to build a substantial home and eliminate the chief objection of the FHA in granting him a loan.

Those Were The Days—

By M. C. Albee
This is another in a series of articles by M. C. Albee of Malone Avenue on interesting phases of Belleville life before the turn of the century. Ed. Note.

When we were kids, back in the 90's, with kid's appetites, we were lucky if we got a taste of ice cream more than once or twice during the whole summer. Ice cream cost 18 cents per pint, and that was a lot of money in those days.

One big event of the summer, next to Fourth of July, was the annual Sunday school excursion. We would save up our pennies for a big blow out on the excursion. There would be ice cream, bottled soda, pop corn, candy, etc. and what a glorious time it was for everyone. Hot dogs, hamburgers and ice cream cones had not been invented yet, but we managed to get along without these delicacies.

The excursion was usually the only outing that we kids would have throughout the summer. I remember going to Glen Island in 1891; in 1892, up the Hudson on the Blackbird to Rockside Park; in 1893, to Glen Island; 1894, to Bird's Woods; 1895, to Glen Island again; then in 1896, we went to Idle Wild, out on Long Island Sound.

Sometimes we would be lucky enough to get a trip to Coney Island, via boat to Bay Ridge, where we would take a train to the Island, but that was all we dared hope for in any one summer.

Small towns like Belleville had little in the way of entertainment back in the 90's. Sometimes a street "fakery" would appear with a horse and wagon and a flaming torch, set up on Main street below the bridge, ostensibly to entertain the crowd, and incidentally sell to the attendance whatever they might fall for.

One night a "fakery" after entertaining the crowd, offered to sell watches for 50 cents. He displayed one to the crowd that appeared to be genuine and when he sold one it would be all wrapped up in a nice looking box tied with ribbons. Most buyers would display the box, and not open it. If they did open the package, they would not examine the watch very carefully until they reached home. By that time, the "fakery" was well on his way to the next town.

This same night, Bill Hill, the village blacksmith, bought one of the watches. Being a practical man, he opened the box at once to examine the watch, and found that it would not tick. He then opened the back of the ticker and found there were no works at all. By this time, the "fakery" was ready to drive off.

"Hold on a minute", said Bill, "this watch has no works in it and I want my 50 cents back."

The "fakery" refused to refund the money, whereupon Bill said, "all right, you have had your fun, now we will have ours." With that, Bill and several of his pals pulled their pocket knives out and proceeded to cut the harness to ribbons, so that the horse walked right out of the shaft.

Another source of entertainment that occasionally appeared around town was the "mud gutter" bands. These bands consisted of five or six players with the standard wind instruments, including a large bass horn, and they sometimes provided really good music.

It seems these bands usually picked a corner where a saloon was located to hold their concerts, mail was carried from the train to the local Post Office by Henry Reeves or his son Gashervie. Some times there would be nearly a bag full of incoming mail. The Postmaster, William Holmes, would close the delivery window while sorting the mail, which would take ten minutes or more, depending upon the volume. When the window was opened, we would line up to receive our letters, if any.

The letters were arranged alphabetically in pigeon holes, and the Postmaster would look through the entire file of letters under the initial of your name.

LETTERS

The opinions expressed in this column are those of the authors of the individual letters and do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the publishers or editors of The Times.

From Taxpayer
To the Editor of the Belleville Times:

As a taxpayer and resident of the valley for over thirty years, I should like to offer our protest in the columns of your paper to the question of erecting another factory in this vicinity. The land in question is the playground at the end of Stephen street.

If the children in this neighborhood must give up said playground, instead of erecting another factory, why not build some small homes for our returning servicemen and their families? There is a good school, a bus line, and a community of small home owners already established in that section of town.

Consider the number of factories that are in this vicinity. Consider the smoke, noise, and the car-parking nuisance we already have to contend with.

We are certainly falling down on our good promises if something is not done to give our ex-servicemen a chance to live in proper homes. We promised so much to our boys who went overseas to fight to make this great country of ours a safe place to live in. These boys were the best blood that we could offer, from some of the best, old families who helped to make Belleville the home town it is today.

Many of these men have come back broken in body and spirit, and what do we offer them in the way of a decent place to live? I am shocked when I read of the places that must be used as living quarters by returned veterans and their families—unheated attics, leaky roofs, bad sanitary conditions and of course, fire hazards as well. Some men have been denied living quarters because they have one or two children.

There are quite a number of unused plots in the valley that could be turned into small home sites. After all, the small home owner is the best community builder.

Commissioners, citizens and folks who want to show that we meant what we said when we promised we would help our boys back to normal living after the

In "The Open Door to Belleville"—the handbook prepared for the returning servicemen and women by the Belleville Foundation—the following description of the Foundation was outlined:

"In November of 1942, twenty-five representatives of Belleville people from its industries, its schools, churches and its citizens, founded THE BELLEVILLE FOUNDATION. Its charter states that it was incorporated to serve the social welfare needs of Belleville. Its objective is to make Belleville a better place in which to work and live. Its aim is to raise a Foundation Trust Fund whose income can be used to sponsor projects voted by the Foundation Trustees. Trustees of the Foundation are representative Belleville citizens and contributors to the Fund.

"The primary purpose of the Foundation is to meet the social needs of the post-war years and among the first of these is assistance to the returning servicemen and women in assuming their responsibilities in the community of Belleville, its schools, churches and industries."

This outline from the Handbook speaks for itself. The organization of the committees to help the returning veteran was accomplished with the cooperation of some two hundred citizens of Belleville. The appointment of a Veterans' Guidance Director, the functioning of our Educational Committee and of all other Committees, has placed Belleville well out in front of most communities in rendering service to the returning veteran. This was a Foundation project.

MEMBERSHIP in the Foundation was originally limited to its contributors and its incorporators. These members elected the Board of Trustees. A committee has been appointed to amend the by-laws, to provide for adding members to the organization. This committee has been at work for some time in making a study of the proper basis for membership in the Foundation. A report was submitted to the Trustees at its last meeting and such report is now in the hands of the by-laws committee. We feel certain that the program established for membership in the Foundation will make for its continued growth and future success.

Listed at the top of this page are the Officers and Trustees of the Foundation. You can readily appreciate that they represent men who know Belleville and that Belleville's interests and welfare are their first consideration. As contributors to the Trust Fund and as Trustees in the administration of such fund, their desire is to see that the principles outlined in the charter and in the by-laws are adhered to. They are for Belleville's best interest.

Any monies spent by the Foundation must serve the community as a whole, and not serve any section, group or purpose which does not represent the general interests of the whole town of Belleville. The Belleville Foundation will not concern itself with political parties, groups or individuals.

Contributions have been made to the Foundation by the industries of Belleville in the past four years. The following brief report represents monies collected and monies spent.

The trust funds are invested in government bonds and in legal securities as established by the trust laws of the State of New Jersey. As outlined in the fourth paragraph, the aim of the Foundation Trustees is to raise a fund whose income can be used for Belleville's needs and welfare in the years to come. As projects are developed, the plans of the Foundation are to have the citizens of the town join in carrying out the plans as they are approved.

PROJECTS

1. CHILD WELFARE, through the establishment of day nurseries.
2. YOUTH TRAINING, through Boy and Girl Scout organizations and the maintenance of summer camps.
3. ADULT EDUCATION AND SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT, through forums for discussions, dramatic entertainments, hobby clubs, dances and card parties.
4. MUSICAL EDUCATION, by means of an orchestra and choruses.
5. HEALTH AND MEDICAL CARE, through the establishment of health clinics and a community nursing service, and the building of a hospital in Belleville.
6. HOMES AND CARE FOR THE AGED AND INFIRM.
7. COOPERATION WITH RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS, by developing church leadership and furnishing financial assistance to help the churches to improve the morale of the community.
8. PHYSICAL RECREATION, through the establishment of a recreation center.

The above eight projects are listed as indicative of the interest of the Foundation in Belleville's welfare. From time to time, new projects will develop and the trustees and officers will consider them for development. There are many other projects that can be worked on in the near future such as the rehabilitation of the Old Church on Main Street.

In the raising of a substantial fund, in setting up committees for the study of projects, in enlarging our membership and our Board of Trustees, the Belleville Foundation should continue to grow and should play its part in the welfare of Belleville.

This report has been issued to outline to you the aim of the Foundation and principles for which it stands. The majority who have played a part in the work that has been done so far, understand and they have contributed to the welfare of the town.

On behalf of the Trustees and Officers, we extend our appreciation for the cooperation received from the leaders and workers of our various committees. The

As the returning servicemen and women take their places in our community, they with others, must assume leadership. The Belleville Foundation is looking forward to their playing their part with us in the work that must be done to help win and maintain the peace years on a happy and constructive basis.

ville in accordance with its charter and its broad concept of a community program that started with a hope and a vision of a community experiment. It is now a reality and it will continue to be so.

The cooperation of the citizens and organizations of Belleville will help us to carry out our ideas and programs. They are worth working for. They can be realized and as the years roll by, Belleville will become that kind of town we hope for, the ideal town in which to live and work.

Foundation does not desire to run or operate the programs after they are established. Our work is to study, organize and sponsor the projects as they are developed in order that they may be carried out by the citizens. Our work has only started and there is still a great deal to be accomplished.

Respectfully Submitted,

Harry G. Specht

Commemorate the Victory that started in Defeat!

Remember Pearl Harbor!

VICTORY BOND DIGEST...

Why should I buy Bonds now that the War is over? A good question with many answers. Buy them for the sake of our boys... the millions still in uniform... the hundreds of thousands on the way home. To help them start life anew.

The shooting has stopped, but it's not all over yet... not till the last man is back can we on the home front consider our obligations met. Obligations we owe to every man who served in the cause of Liberty. It's a costly undertaking, a responsibility we must not neglect. That's why our Government needs Eleven Billion Dollars invested in Victory Bonds. Could there be a better reason!

Remember? How can we ever forget! Disaster and death came out of the clear blue sky to strike like a thunderbolt! Never again will America be so totally unprepared... never again will America let her guard down. We're going to make sure it won't happen again by backing our words with action. Action that will make Post-war America strong. That means a solid economy... without inflation. That means giving the boys who did the fighting a break... backing up the G.I. Bill of Rights. The best way to do it... Buy Victory Bonds. The best time... right now... December 7th... a DARK day in America's past, a great day to reaffirm your faith in America's future.
