PRESENT VETERANS HOUSING PLANS TO F. H. A. TODAY

Mayor Williams Leads Group Before State Director Lockwood

The plans for the veterans housing project tentatively scheduled to be constructed on Celia terrace will be presented to the Federal Housing Authority for approval this morning at 10 o'clock at the F. H. A. offices located in the Raymond Commerce building in Newark.

Appearing for the veterans will be Mayor Williams, Joseph McGreevy, Veterans Guidance Director, Frank J. McFadden, vice president of the First National Bank, Paul West, architect, Alex Maturri, attorney for the proposed veterans corporation that is sponsoring the project and State Adjutant for the Armies and Edward J. Dunn, commander of the John J. Daly Post of the Armies.

The F. H. A. will probably be represented by Warren J. Lockwood, state director of the Federal Housing Authority and Ralph Klein, chief underwriter for the F. H. A.

The plan for the proposed garden apartments was introduced by several members of the Armies, a newly-organized veterans group in town, in an attempt to create much needed housing.

The plan calls for the organization of one or two separate corporations, according to the number of projects decided upon, with the vets as members. They would elect officers and a board of directors to conduct all the affairs of the project. The down payment for the building would be contributed by the veterans, and they would pay rent to carry the interest and principal of an F. H. A. mortgage. It would be a non-profit concern.

Town-owned land would be offered to the veterans at a nominal cost, and all necessary improvements could be disposed of as a general charge and assessed against the town as a whole.

Present plans call for 2 units, consisting of 20 families in each, made up entirely of veterans. They will be built of available materials, which in this case will be waterproof stucco, with sheet rock insulation.

ROTARY Praised For Town Work

Speaker Also Compares Present Economic Trends With Those Of Last War

Belleville Rotary club was congratulated yesterday noon for outstanding contributions to community welfare, such as the Junior Achievement and Belleville Foundation camping projects, by Judge Harold Kissinger, editor of the magazine, Spokesman, and president of the Ridgewood chamber of commerce.

Judge Kissinger then delivered a challenging address on "The Economic Frankenstein," his conception of the conditions which will occur after the present war. He paralleled present times with affairs after the last war when peak production was encouraged until surplus stocks of commodities accumulated; when the housing situation which immediately followed the war was exaggerated even more a few years later.

He reminded listeners how in 1929 we had manufactured 8,000,000 automobiles when the entire world capacity was only 6,000,000; how shoe production had risen to 900,000,000 pairs yearly when our total possible home consumption and export was only 600,000,000.

He cited the exports we had to purchase from foreign lands in order to raise their consuming power for our products and the worklessness of many of these investments now.

In New Era

Stating that we had entered a new era, the atomic age, on August 6, 1945, Judge Kissinger inquired how we are preparing ourselves to enter the atomic age, and the dependent phases of national life. He pointed out how socialist tendencies in England and France and communist direction in Russia have tended to more powerful governments.

Not depressed, however, the speaker said that, if gates were opened, flood of immigrants would fill this country, so much more desirable are living conditions here than in other lands. He gave us an antidote for the economic monster we have built after other wars, and seem to be building now, the voluntary entrance into government of experienced business men such as those who piloted the tremendous wartime economy. He called for high type businessmen to become office holders and lend their skills to a much needed control of economics and a strengthening of government in the American way.

Sgt. Harry E. Brown of 82 Stephens street was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for participation in the Central Burma campaign.

The citations were presented at a ceremony held in the Separation Center chapel last week by Lieut. Col. Francis L. Jenkins, executive officer of the local service division.

Appointed to the executive committee of the Essex County Bankers association Thursday evening was Frank J. McFadden, executive vice-president of the First National Bank here. The committee is empowered to act for the association in matters of banking policy.

The appointment was made at an executive session in the Robert Treat hotel following afternoon forums and a dinner for the association. Simultaneously named to the committee was David Connolly, vice-president of the Federal Trust company of Newark.

Mr. McFadden has been affiliated with the local bank 18 years. He resides with his wife and daughter at 48 Floyd street.

THREE ACCIDENTS OVER WEEK-END

Several Cars Badly Damaged; No One Seriously Hurt

Three accidents were reported over the past week-end. The first took place on Main street, when Mrs. Nan Lupo of 178 Lincoln avenue, Newark, crashed into a Public Service pole near Planzon street. The fence around the property of the Sonenborn plant was also damaged. Mrs. Lupo was uninjured, while her car was badly damaged.

Sabastian DaValle, 21, of 192 Heckel street, was making a turn at Honiss and Heckel streets, when the door on the right-hand side of the car flew open. DaValle's sister, Mrs. Marion Alexander, 24, of 25 Bloomfield avenue, Bloomfield, Mrs. Alexander was treated at Columbus hospital for abrasions of the arms and legs, and dismissed. Her brother was unhurt.

A driver attempting to make a U turn on Washington avenue was the cause of an accident near Greylock parkway early Monday morning. Howard Mathes of 104 Little street was driving south on Washington avenue when a car facing north that had been parked made a U turn into the center of the road. Mathes, according to police, was forced to swerve to the right and in so doing, struck two parked cars. One was owned by Harry Lambert of 371 Chestnut street, Nutley, the other owned by Thomas Cavanaugh of 195 Ayerigge avenue, Passaic.

Riding in the car with Mathes was Miss Florence Killen of 24 Tichenor street, Newark, who received a cut lip and a sprained wrist. The car Mathes was driving is owned by Dr. C. L. Gates, proprietor of the Dog and Cat hospital at 10 Washington avenue.

NLRB ELECTION AT KIDDE PLANT IN SIXTY DAYS

Union States Salaried Workers Want UEW-CIO As Their Bargaining Agent

A National Labor Relations Board announcement this week stated that in response to a petition to the union from the salaried workers connected with production at the Walter Kidde plant, an election would be held within 60 days to determine if the employees want the union to represent them.

The union is the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers-CIO, Local 420, who have alleged that the majority of the salaried workers want the union as their bargaining agent.

Representing more than 1,000 production workers at the Kidde plant, who returned to work November 19 after being on strike for nearly six weeks, Harry Kellner, business agent for the union, stated there are about 225 employees involved. Included among these workers who would be eligible to vote in the election are timekeepers, checkers, control men and methods clerks and men.

A recent dispute between the 20 employees of the company cafeteria, owned by the Steiger Industrial Restaurant Service of Philadelphia, has been settled, stated Kellner. The union negotiated a contract that provides for a general 10 per cent wage increase, six paid holidays a year and provisions for overtime and vacation schedules. The increase will raise the wage scale from 60 to 66 cents an hour for starting workers and increases the maximum from $1.45 to $1.50.

NEW PROGRAM FOR GRADE SCHOOLS

Instrumental Music Will Be Taught To Students Free-of-Charge

Inaugurating a new instrumental program which commenced in the elementary grade schools recently, the high school orchestra, under the direction of Samuel W. Peck, gave a concert at School No. 4 on Monday. In addition to the concert, a demonstration of the various instruments was given by the members of the orchestra.

Present at Monday's concert was Lewis B. Hilton, who is in charge of the instrument classes in the elementary schools. Mr. Hilton briefly explained the new instrumental program. Under this plan, playing of the instruments will be taught to beginners in classes of 4 to 6 pupils, free of charge, the expense being borne by the school system.

The concert was enthusiastically received by parents and pupils. James Shawyer, the principal of School No. 4, stated he expects to have an orchestra functioning there within a short time.

Another of these concerts will be given by the high school orchestra at School No. 8 Monday morning at 9:15 for the pupils and parents of Schools No. 3 and 8.

The primary purpose in developing the free instrumental program in the elementary schools is to provide the opportunity for the parents to determine if their children have any musical ability that would be worthwhile in fostering. The plan will also benefit the high school band and orchestra by providing young, experienced players who will be able to take their place in the vanguard as soon as they enter high school.

For a long time, there has been the feeling that the Belleville band was not up to par. This is no reflection on the players or the instructors, but due to a lack of broad music instruction in the elementary schools. The new program will not only be beneficial to the pupils, but will create good material for a top-notch high school band, one that the town will take pride in watching perform. The potentialities of a grade A musical organization under a plan of this nature are unlimited.

Local Draft Board Feted By Lions Last Week

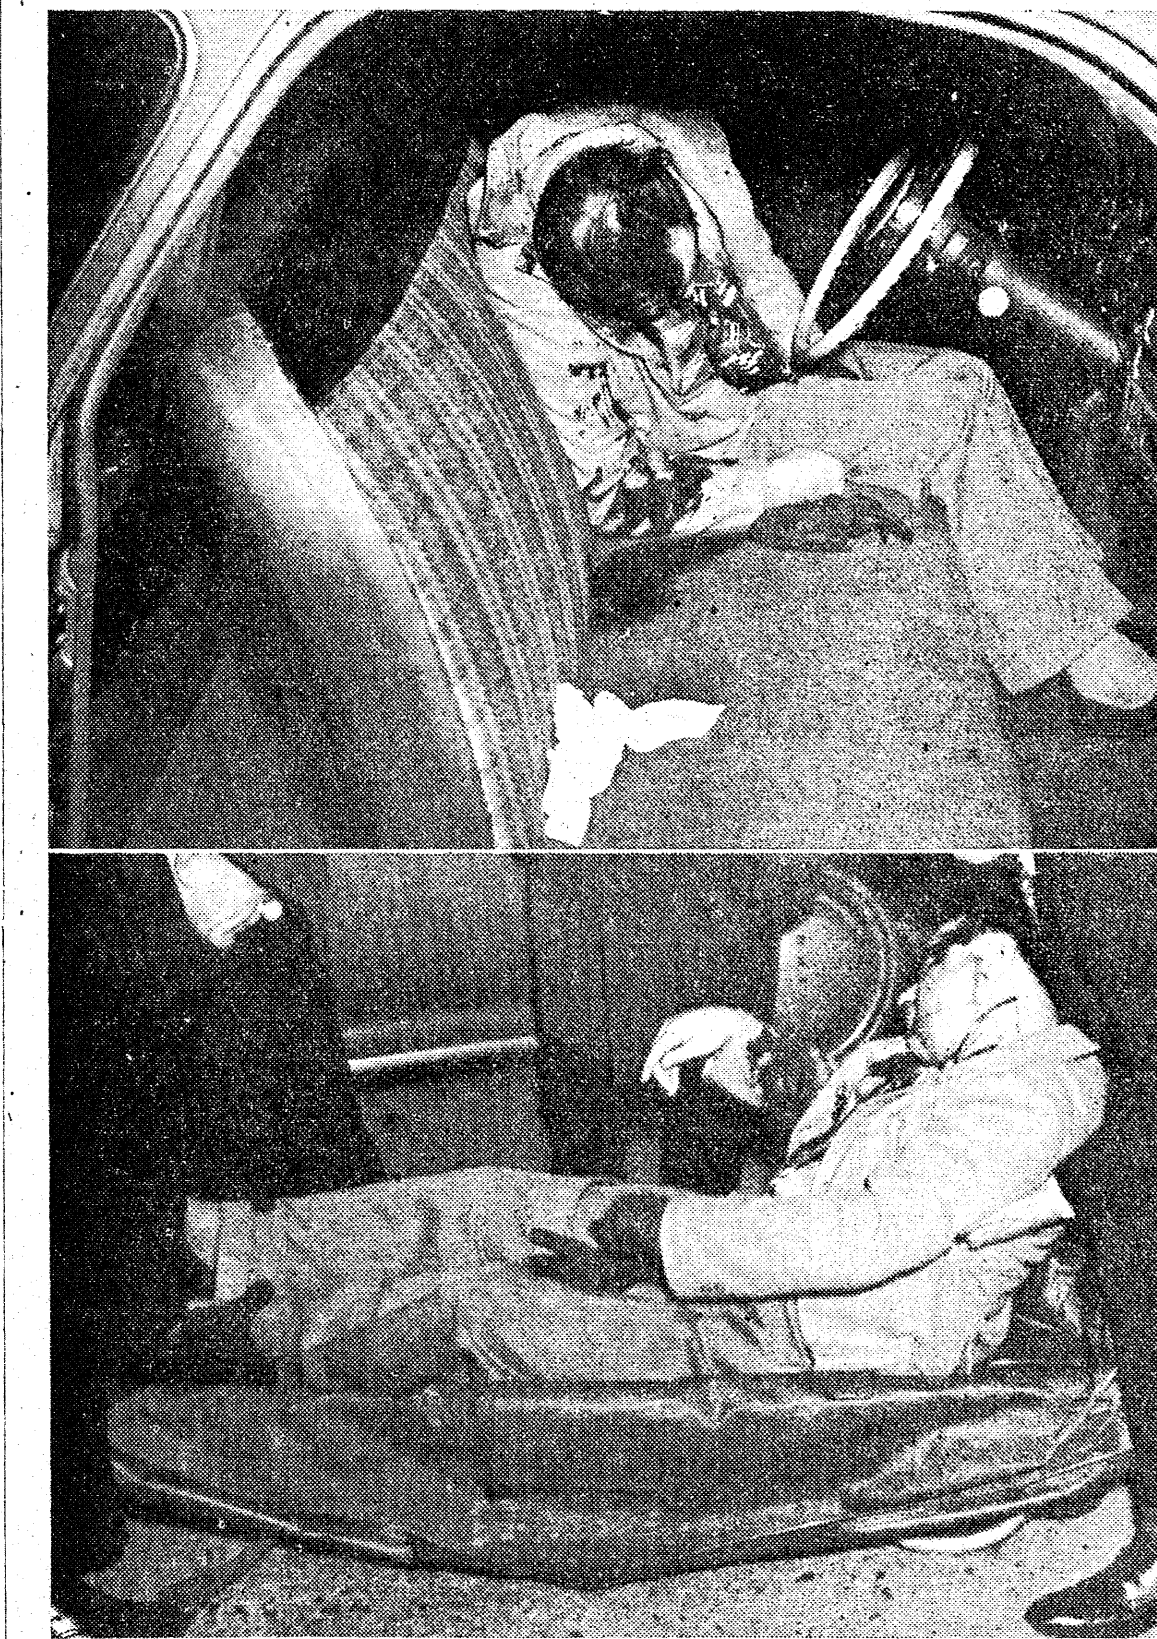

Belleville Lions were hosts Thursday noon in St. Paul's church, Newark, where their regular weekly luncheon meetings are held, to members of the Belleville Selective Service board, John P. Dailey, Herbert Hardman and John Gannon. Major Robert C. Hughes, member of the State Selective Service unit, highly praised the local board for "carrying out its difficult tasks with courage and fairness and without favoritism."

Major Hughes told the club that the Belleville board is the only one in this vicinity which has functioned from its inception without replacement in personnel. Lions president Fred Handon in welcoming the board expressed the club's appreciation for the community service rendered and presented each member with a fountain pen and pencil set.

Mr. Dailey responded on behalf of the Selective Service board.

Slain In Nutley On Eve Of Court Appearance

THE BODY OF THE SLAIN MAN shown above was found in a parked car in front of 21 Freeman place, Nutley, yesterday and identified as Joseph Giannetti, 32, of 235 Ridge street, Newark. One man has been arrested and is being held at the Court House, Newark in connection with the slaying. Giannetti, with four other men, had gone on trial in Newark Tuesday morning on an indictment charging them with robbery of $21,000 and $2,000 worth of jewelry from Mrs. Domenick Tufariello of 280 North Sixth street in her home recently. He was identified by Captain Cocozzo of the prosecutor's staff. The body was discovered at 7:50 a.m. yesterday morning by John Van Deen of 10 Freeman place as he was on his way to work. He notified Nutley police and Chief Rummel, Sgt. Rasp and Patrolmen Murren, Mileski and Wunsch found the driver's license in his pocket. The slugs were apparently delivered from close range, as there were powder burns on his face. Two bullets passed through his head and his hat, which had fallen to the seat beside the body. The car in which he was found was registered in the name of Marie Giannetti of 235 Ridge street, Newark, according to the Motor Vehicle records. Tuesday, at the Court House, Assistant Prosecutor Kapp and Detective Rivello passed Giannetti in a corridor. Kapp said Giannetti looked up from a conversation with his counsel, Michael Breitkopf, and called out: "I'm going to beat this case." He did.

FOOD CAMPAIGN AT HOLY FAMILY

Church Will Gather Foodstuffs To Send To Asia and Europe

A "Food for the War Stricken" campaign is to be conducted by the Holy Family church on Brookline avenue, Nutley, from December 9 to 16 to gather foodstuffs of a non-perishable character for shipment to the starving peoples of Europe and the Far East.

Evaporated milk, condensed milk, powdered milk, co co strained fruits and vegetables, are sought for children and infants, while all kinds of canned foods are to be gathered for adults.

The local drive is part of a nationwide campaign being conducted in all the Catholic churches in the United States under the leadership of the Catholic archbishops and bishops. It has the blessing and endorsement of His Holiness, Pope Pius XII.

Military leaders have given stress to the necessity of alleviating the distress of peoples in war-torn areas if order is to be maintained and it is hoped that, now that all rationing of food with the exception of sugar has been abolished in this country, local residents will cooperate in this charitable project.

Food may be taken to the Holy Family church or rectory, 28 Brookline avenue at any time during the period of the campaign. Food that cannot be taken there will be picked up if the donor will call Nutley 2-0026.

OFFER TO INCREASE WORK WEEK AT WESTINGHOUSE

Company Proposes 5 and a Half Day Week To Offset Take-Home Pay Loss

The United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, CIO, have demanded from the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company a $2-a-day wage increase. The company, in a letter from George H. Bucher, president, to all employees, proposed to increase wherever practical, the present work week of 5 days to 5 1/2. Overtime at the time and a half for all hours worked over 40 would be paid.

One of the Westinghouse that would be effected by any change in present conditions is located on Washington avenue. According to A. H. Sims of the public relations department, there are 300 employees now engaged at the plant. Of these, he said, there are about 50 now working on the 48-hour basis, with the remainder working on a 40-hour week.

The president, Mr. Bucher, revealed that the five-and-a-half day week and other company proposals have been made to the union. His statement read as follows: "In conformity with President Truman's talk on the eve of the Labor-Management Conference in Washington, we have been continuing discussions with Union officials on their demand for a $2-a-day wage increase. These negotiations were adjourned temporarily on November 13 but have not been broken off.

"We thought the facts had conclusively demonstrated to the union negotiators that Westinghouse wage and salary rates are now among the highest, not only in the electrical industry but in all industry. We gave them the facts to show that, if ways and means are not found to secure more productivity and effort for wages now paid, the company will be at a serious competitive disadvantage.

"To make up some of the loss of take-home pay involved in going from peak war production to a 40-hour week, and as a stop-gap pending the development of a national wage policy, Westinghouse has proposed to the union that the company's operations be increased from a five-day week to a five-and-a-half day week, wherever practicable, with time and a half to be paid for all hours worked in excess of 40 hours.

"The company has also offered to continue the negotiations from month to month.

"A company cannot pay out more in wages, salaries and operating costs than it takes in. This is fundamental. The union has not proposed to give more work for what it now asks. The present demand of the union cannot be justified on any basis other than the fact that the company has assets which the union would like to have distributed to its members now. It ignores the fact that these assets are needed for reconversion, plant expansion, development of new products, creating new jobs, and carrying our operations over lean years.

In reply, the union charged that the Westinghouse and General Electric companies were "abandoning" government-built war plants and are erecting new factories in small-town, low-wage areas. Company officials denied this to be true.

The Phantom Body

The telephone of the William Irvine undertaking parlors rang at 1:30 a.m. Sunday morning. The caller, who remained unidentified, told Mr. Irvine that he was reporting the death of Edward Dorch, of 28 Bayard street, and would they please pick up the body.

Wasting no time, Irvine and an assistant sped to the Bayard street address, backed their wagon up to the door, took out the "stiff" basket, and walked up the porch. They rang the doorbell, and saw lights go on in the house, which upon their arrival was in darkness.

The door opened and it proved to be Mrs. Dorch, who inquired what their mission was.

"We came to pick up the body," said Irvine.

"What body?" replied Mrs. Dorch.

It finally developed that Mr. Dorch was upstairs in bed, but sound asleep, and very much alive.

At last hearing, the practical joker who involved Dorch had better take to the tall timber, for he will discover that Dorch, who is president of the Condor Roofing company of town, is quite alive and kicking.

TOWN OVER TOP IN VICTORY LOAN BOND QUOTA

Also Paces State Purchases In E Bonds With 42 Percent Of Goal Subscribed

Belleville has not only gone over its over-all quota in the Victory Loan drive but has inched ahead of the state average in percentage of E bonds purchased, Ronald G. Brunner, assistant drive chairman announced this week.

Total purchases are $3,825,232.25 in all categories, $325,232 above the $3,500,000 over-all goal. E bond purchases total $255,554.75, or 42 1/2 percent of the local quota of $600,000 as compared with the state's 39.2 percent.

Because of bad weather last week, the visit of the Coast Guard trucks which were to tour the town with loudspeakers in solicitation of additional bond purchases, was postponed until December 14, 15 and 16, Brunner said.

Pointing out that the slogan of the Victory Loan drive is "They finished their job, let's finish ours," Brunner observed yesterday that the costs of bringing servicemen home and rehabilitating them before releasing them for civilian life are tremendous.

Purchases in various bond categories this week were Series F, $15,077.50; Series G, $10,900; Series C Tax Notes, $63,200; 2 1/2 percent Treasury Notes, $89,000; 2 1/2 percent Treasury Notes, $3,391,500. The total includes an additional $400,000 purchase by State Tax Commissioner Homer Zink of Rossmore place for the state roads and bridges sinking fund which he has credited to Belleville. It was reported last week that Zink had credited $1,500,000 in bond purchases from the same source, to the town.

LEGION DISCUSSES VETS MONUMENT

Favor Permanent Statue To Include Names Of All Local Veterans

American Legion Post 105 of Belleville discussed the construction of a permanent monument dedicated to all local servicemen at their regular business meeting Monday night. The predominance of opinion favored a granite monument combined with bronze, so that it would be of a permanent nature, with a minimum of maintenance cost.

Andrew Cooper, chairman of the Armistice Day program, reported on the activities of his committee. He also disclosed that he had attended the recent housing meeting conducted by the town to discuss the veteran's housing problems.

Another committee was appointed to accompany the Victory Bond truck that will tour the town tonight, Friday and Saturday, promoting the sales of War Bonds.

There were nine new members added at the meeting, which brings the total membership to nearly 375.

FOOTBALL BANQUET SATURDAY NIGHT

High School Team and Coaches Guests Of Varsity Club

The Varsity Club will hold their annual banquet Saturday night at the high school cafeteria in honor of the 1945 high school varsity football squad.

An interesting evening is on tap for those in attendance, the committee having arranged for two outstanding personalities as principal speakers.

Judson (Judd) Timm, backfield and head coach at Princeton University and Joseph Kasberger, former All-American football star at Oregon State and presently coach of football and baseball at St. Benedict's Prep, are guests and will deliver interesting addresses.

The dinner has taken on added significance in that it will celebrate the first football victory ever recorded over Nutley. The team had a good season under the leadership of Coach Bill Chapman, assisted by Frank Spotts and "Jitty" Wishe. Their record was 5 victories, 2 losses and 1 tie, and against top-notch competition.

The committee in charge of arrangements was headed by Lloyd Kintzing, and members of his committee included Harold Fober, Bill Bennett and Jack Hicks.

Bardagly, executive director of scouting, this week pointed out some decisive results of their talk.

A proposal had been made to occupy the time of girls now waiting for senior troops to form by table discussion. Miss Elizabeth allowing them to be assistant troop leaders. This was knocked down as the nature of scouting was analyzed and it became more clear to troop committee members that adult leaders must be secured to give the mature attitude toward recreation on which scouting is founded.

A plan to "sell scouting" to a larger group of adults and to the parents of Girl Scouts is under way; formation of parents clubs at which Girl Scouts will have an opportunity to demonstrate their skills to an adult group; greater participation of troop committee members as chaperones on scouting expeditions and use of their homes for scout events were some of the resolves adopted.

Mrs. Victor Hart, chairman of the training committee, and Mrs. Charles Yocum of that group were present to suggest additional phases of troop committee work. A specific instance of troop committee interest will occur on Sunday evening, December 23, when members will entertain scouts and Brownies after a Christmas caroling program throughout the town. Troops will sing independently and meet with other troops afterward for refreshments. Brownies will carol until 8:30; scouts until 9:30.

A meeting of the Girl Scout council, of which Mrs. George R. Gerard is chairman, will be held in the headquarters tonight.

summary of CYO activities within the parish. The title was selected because keys are the symbols associated with St. Peter.

The miniature four-page newspaper, which will be printed by the photo-offset process, sold monthly at the church and mailed to subscribers, is the result of a project begun two months ago when Belleville CYO members started attending weekly journalism classes at Blessed Sacrament school, Newark, under the direction of Rev. John Kiley.

Nine CYO members make up the staff of The Keys: Agnes and Kathleen Griffin, who serve as typists and give assignments; John Ryan and Joseph Lister, working as make-up editors; Mary Tassell and Eugene Ryan, feature writers; George Lister and Maureen Bell, editorial staff, and Kathleen Flynn, in charge of circulation. Paul Malague recently joined the staff to aid in make-up.

These young people were selected from a group of 26 which first volunteered for the journalism activity. The remainder of the group acts as reporters and circulation promoters.

After acquiring the necessary technique in assembling dummy copies various CYO groups studying at the Blessed Sacrament school made up sample copies. The Keys was selected for December publication. The adult council has given complete approval and cooperation to the journalism project and Mrs. Frank

J. McFadden of the council has accompanied the group which attended classes in the Newark school each week.

A subscription blank will be enclosed in each paper sold Sunday for the convenience of those who desire the paper mailed to them. It has been pointed out by the council that there is no more tangible evidence of the progress of Catholic Youth activities to the congregation of St. Peter's or the public at large than this publication offers.

CYO athletic, dramatic and debating activities have been under way in the church for more than a year. Dances are held in conjunction with weekly basketball sessions and radio competition in state-wide CYO programs has given St. Peter's youth two opportunities to appear in that medium.

Library Notes

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Shattuck, librarian of the Public Library, has received from The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company of Newark a copy of "The Great Stewardship: A Story of Life Insurance" by Albert W. Atwood and recently published by Harper and Brothers.

Mr. Atwood has long been known nationally as writer on finance and economics for the Saturday Evening Post and Banking, the official organ of the American Banking Association, and more recently as author of articles on a wide variety of subjects for the National Geographic Magazine.

His new book describes the development of life insurance in the United States over the last hundred years. Mr. Atwood says in his introduction: "It is doubtful if any American institution, public or private, directly affects the welfare of more people more beneficially than life insurance. This is not the result of hasty improvisation or sudden impulse. It is an achievement made possible only by one hundred years of sound, gradual and steady growth."

Infantile Paralysis The Ruthless Enemy of All Our Children

Our help is needed to protect our own and other children, in training more nurses in the technique of the Sister Kenny method to make available—when and where needed—the Kenny treatment in saving infantile paralysis victims, from lives of deformity by restoring them to normal healthy lives.

In British countries chief nurses are called "Sister." Sister Elizabeth Kenny's method, developed by her while a nurse in Australia, is accepted by many medical authorities as the most successful treatment for those struck by this dreaded affliction.

The Mayo Clinic sends students to her Institute for a course of study.

OUR CONTRIBUTIONS ARE NEEDED!

We, as parents will all share the sentiment expressed by Bing Crosby—National Chairman of the Sister Kenny Foundation.

"As the father of four children, I have a deep appreciation of the great work being done by the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation. With the generous support of the American people, the benefits of Sister Kenny's treatment can be made available to every boy and girl in the land."

THEY are the boys who fought and won the war. Many of them are waiting to be brought home—some must remain on duty—some have been wounded and some are permanently disabled. Correction

A story last week in the Times stated that the Ricca Brothers were the owners of the riding academy whose activities were protested by a group of Smallwood avenue citizens.

This is incorrect, the stable being called the Belwood Park Riding Academy, managed by Anthony Ricca. The spokesman for the Academy at the recent commission meeting was not John Ricca, but Mark K. Ricca.

"Don't Say Greasy" — Fan Protests!

Mary Margaret's vivid description of a sinkful of dirty dishes, on a recent broadcast, brought a letter of protest from a horrified housewife. "Greasy is such an unpleasant word," she wrote. "Sure," answered Mary Margaret, "But greasy, sticky dishes are unpleasant. That's one of the reasons why I enjoy talking about Dif on my program every day. Miss Szold's birthday is celebrated annually and will continue to be though she died last year.

A candlelight ceremony Tuesday evening will give recognition to the feast of Chanukah now being celebrated in Jewish homes and synagogues for eight days. It commemorates the occasion when a small quantity of oil, estimated to be sufficient for only one night, miraculously kept the temple lights burning for eight days and nights while the Jews fought an enemy who had completely surrounded them and cut off their supplies.

Mrs. Zvi Schreiner of Nutley and Mrs. Jack Orlinsky of this town are program chairmen of the Belleville-Nutley chapter. They will oversee the candlelight ceremony.

Two Local Men Enlist In U. S. Army

Paul L. Biri, 1st Lieut., Air Corps, assistant recruiting officer for the Newark recruiting office, reported today that Frank Chier, 67 Heckel street, and Victor J. Cook, 149 Main street, Belleville, have enlisted in the United States Army. Chier enlisted for 13 months, while Cook signed on for three years with the infantry (Ed. Note: Each man who enlists for three years may select his own branch of service). Both men will be ordered to duty at Fort Hancock, and upon completion of the processing period, will be further assigned.

Lieut. Biri further reported that many young men, as well as old-timers, are visiting the Newark recruiting office daily with the view of enlisting and the fact that the local office is leading all of the other sub-stations in the New Jersey-Delaware district is ample evidence that the army offers many opportunities for those men who are willing to "see the job through."

Carmen Prezioso of 50 Naples avenue will be in the cast of the drama "Dangerous Corner," that will be presented by the Players, undergraduate dramatic organization of the Montclair State Teachers college.

The play will be given Thursday, Friday and Saturday in the little theatre of the College High school, and is the group's first major production of the year. It will be directed by Harold C. These are no stunt performers, but born artists. Draper taps the classics as a master instrumentalist might do, shading his rhythmic beat with the finesse of a super-technician. He builds his tap-dancing on the firm foundation of the classic ballet. In fact some critics have styled him the "Nijinsky of taps." His leaps are just as spectacular.

When it comes to his own unique field, he can tap out a Toccata by Paradies, a Brahms Intermezzo, or a movement from a Beethoven Sonata that proves not only visually delightful, but expressive of infinite shades of meaning. Larry Adler, for his part is equally astonishing. His instrument is a super-Chromatic harmonica in the key of C. With this instrument he produces a wider range of color and dynamics than is possible in any other wind instrument. When Fritz Kreisler heard him play his Caprice Viennois, he was delighted and gave Adler permission to play it in public. Ravel was equally impressed by Adler's performance of his famous Bolero. These young artists have opened new vistas for a distinctly American method of expression.

Belleville Cops Thriller Over Nutley, 7-6

Don Smith Tallies Touchdown and Extra Point In Last Period To Bring First Grid Win For Bellboys Over Nutley

For the first time in the history of football relations between the two schools, Belleville broke the jinx that has dogged them and pinned a 7-6 upset defeat over the favored Nutley eleven.

The game was the finale for both teams this year. The Belleville record was 5 wins, 2 losses and 1 tie, against tough competition. Nutley had one of the poorest records in the history of that school, winning 3, losing 4 and playing 2 ties.

The Bellboys pushed across their score in the waning minutes of the contest and then staved off a last minute threat by the visiting Maroon-shirted team. Don Smith, who was the outstanding back on the field all afternoon, smashed over for the touchdown and then cracked the tough Nutley line for the winning extra point.

Nutley, scoring in the opening minutes of the game, had to fight off several Yellowjackets threats. The home team showed the most potent ground attack, outgaining Nutley in first downs, 9 to 4. A crowd of 5,000 watched the teams battle through four periods in a quagmire of mud at the Municipal stadium, with a stiff cold wind blowing straight down the gridiron.

George Gaugler kicked off for Nutley, and Nutley picked up the short kick on his own 30 and returned to the 43. Don Smith made 7 out of 10 tries at the line, but on third down, the locals got their signals mixed and no one was there to receive the pass from center. The ball rolled back to the 40, where Sal Sasso fell on the pill for Nutley.

On the second play from scrimmage, Tommy Luzzi, Nutley back, circled his own right end, and be-playing safety for the Bellboys, then turned in the nicest bit of running of the game. Picking up the ball, he was apparently trapped by four Nutley men down under the kick. But he eluded two, shook off two more who had their hands on him, and ran down the sidelines. Picking up some blockers at the 50, two more Nutley tacklers were eliminated by virtue of some nice blocking, and then Del Vecchio cut to his left at the Nutley 40 and outraced two Nutley backs to go across the goal line standing up.

But there was a hoin on the play, and the final outcome was a 15 yard penalty on Belleville for roughing Burger on his kick, and instead of a touchdown, it was the Maroon ball on the Bellboy 45.

The third quarter ended with neither team making a serious threat, and after a nice kick by John Distasio, Nutley had the ball on their own 19. They were forced to kick, and Del Vecchio returned the boot to the visitors 45 from the 50. Then Belleville banged the line for 9 yards in three tries. With last down coming up and a single yard needed for the first down, Belleville gambled and sent Smith into the line, and he made it with about 4 to spare.

Del Vecchio and Smith carried for another first down to the 19, and after two tries at the line, Smith faded to pass. He heaved a long one into the end zone, intended for Bill Naturale, crossing over from his left end position. The ball went over Naturale's head, but a Nutley back, defending his position, knocked down the intended receiver and Umpire Charley Gieske called interference.

The ball went to Belleville on the 12 yard line, and on the first try, Smith bucked into the left side of his line to tally the T.D. With the game resting on the next play, John Distasio, who calls his plays well for the local team, sent Smith into the line again, the big boy came through, and the Bellboys led 7-0.

Nutley, seeing an apparent victory slip from their grasp, staged a desperate rally. Kappeler returned the kick-off 30 yards, from his 15 to the 45. A line play netted two yards, and then Kappeler, who is one of the best passers around, connected with Junie San Giacomo on a toss that was good to the Belleville 2. An incomplete pass and a plunge netted two yards, and then interference was called on the Bellboy's defenders. Sasso, Nutley end, was pushed on the home eleven's 8.

But the rugged Bellboy line then rose up to throw back the threat, and three plunges gained only 2 yards, with Nutley suffering a 5 yards penalty for too many time outs. With the ball on 11, Tommy Luzzi tried a field goal, but it was not even close, and Belleville recovered on their 2.

Taking up as much time as possible, and with less than two minutes remaining to play, Belleville ran three line plays, consuming the precious time. They were forced to kick on last down, and it was partially blocked, going out of bounds on the Belleville 11. Luzzi made three for the Maroon and a jump pass from Novak to San Giacomo was good to the 5. Luzzi then started out around left end, but dropped the muddy ball with no one near him, and recovered back on the 12, just as the gun ending the contest went off.

Outstanding on the Belleville line, which consistently outplayed Nutley's vaunted forward wall, was Mert Cook, Joe Distasio and Bill Naturale. These lads stopped the Maroon running attack cold, time after time breaking through to smear the ball carrier behind the line of scrimmage. Don Smith did the yeoman work on the attack, receiving plenty of running support from Pete Del Vecchio, while furnishing the essential blocking were Rocco Cerami and John Distasio.

The triumph is a well deserved feather in Coach Bill Chapman's cap, for the genial Bellboy mentor is a hard and unassuming worker.

Nutley's two ends, Sasso and San Giacomo, turned in stellar performances, with Novak the only Nutley back able to dent the Belleville line.

Real Aid For Veterans

Plans for the housing project suggested by local veterans are now under way, and estimates along with detailed specifications are scheduled to be presented to the F.H.A. today. The veterans will then have some inkling of what their excellent brain-child to provide them with much-needed housing is going to set them back financially.

There is an example of what the returning serviceman is being confronted with today all over the country. A complete lack of government foresight, coupled with the unprepared-for sudden ending of the war, has left these boys, who contributed so much, on the outside looking in.

Therefore, we believe it is up to the governments, national and local, to finance a program that will provide as rapid a solution as possible to alleviate the shortage of housing.

Why should these veterans take what will be a good portion of money they might have saved while in service and put it into a garden apartment? They certainly do not intend to live there all their lives. One of the ultimate objectives of all young married couples is to own their home, a substantial place to live in, not a 4½ room apartment.

The government is awakening to the fact that action must be taken, and soon. Last week in Washington, Representative Adolph Sabath, venerable chairman of the House rules committee, called on President Truman to discuss the national housing shortage.

"More than 3,000,000 new homes are needed for our returning servicemen," Sabath told Truman. "This to my mind is the No. 1 job of the government—to provide homes for those boys and quickly. Before we start appropriating money for roads, rivers and harbors and other things, we should see to it that the men who fought this war have a place to live."

After a lengthy discussion, President Truman promised to go to bat for the legislation that is pending to appropriate funds for housing purposes.

Is it necessary for these boys to invest their own hard-earned money? It was that in a true sense of the word. Emergency appropriations in municipal and state funds are not entirely out of reach, as illustrated in the recent Newark situation.

Why not let the town make an emergency appropriation, with the necessary State approval, and conduct the proposed garden apartment project under its jurisdiction. It would be going into the real estate business, but with a 20 year bond program, there would be little difficulty handling the financial arrangements.

This would eliminate the necessity of these veterans putting their savings into the project. Give them priority—no, not only priority, but reserve the project for veterans only, at least for a few years, until the housing problem eases, as it eventually will.

The rent paid by the occupants would be of a sufficient amount not only to carry the project, but build up a reserve that could be applied to the mortgage as prepayments.

Another factor to be considered is the strong possibility of government housing appropriations becoming a reality within a reasonable time. Belleville could be entitled to a share of these funds, and one housing project is not going to ease the housing shortage. Next May, when the proposed project will probably be completed, there will be a lot more veterans home, and looking for housing. A long range program to meet this contingency should be decided upon now, not then.

Promises flowed like wine when these veterans left, many of whom made the supreme sacrifice. They are coming home now, and it is up to those who were safe on the home front to make the necessary sacrifices and give these boys a home.

Congratulations

Congratulations to the high school football team, the players and coaches for an excellent season which was climaxed by the hard-earned 7-6 victory over arch rival Nutley. According to the records, it marked the first time that Belleville has copped a decision over our neighbors on the gridiron.

The home team fought valiantly to pull the chestnuts out of the fire against the Nutley boys, coming from behind to batter their way to the goal and then withstood a last minute assault by the Maroon and Gray youngsters.

We watched Coach Bill Chapman's actions during the game, and none of the players worked any harder than he did. It was a tribute to his excellent coaching, and the high spirit his boys exhibited to fight back and down the favored visitors is a good barometer of the affection the players hold for him.

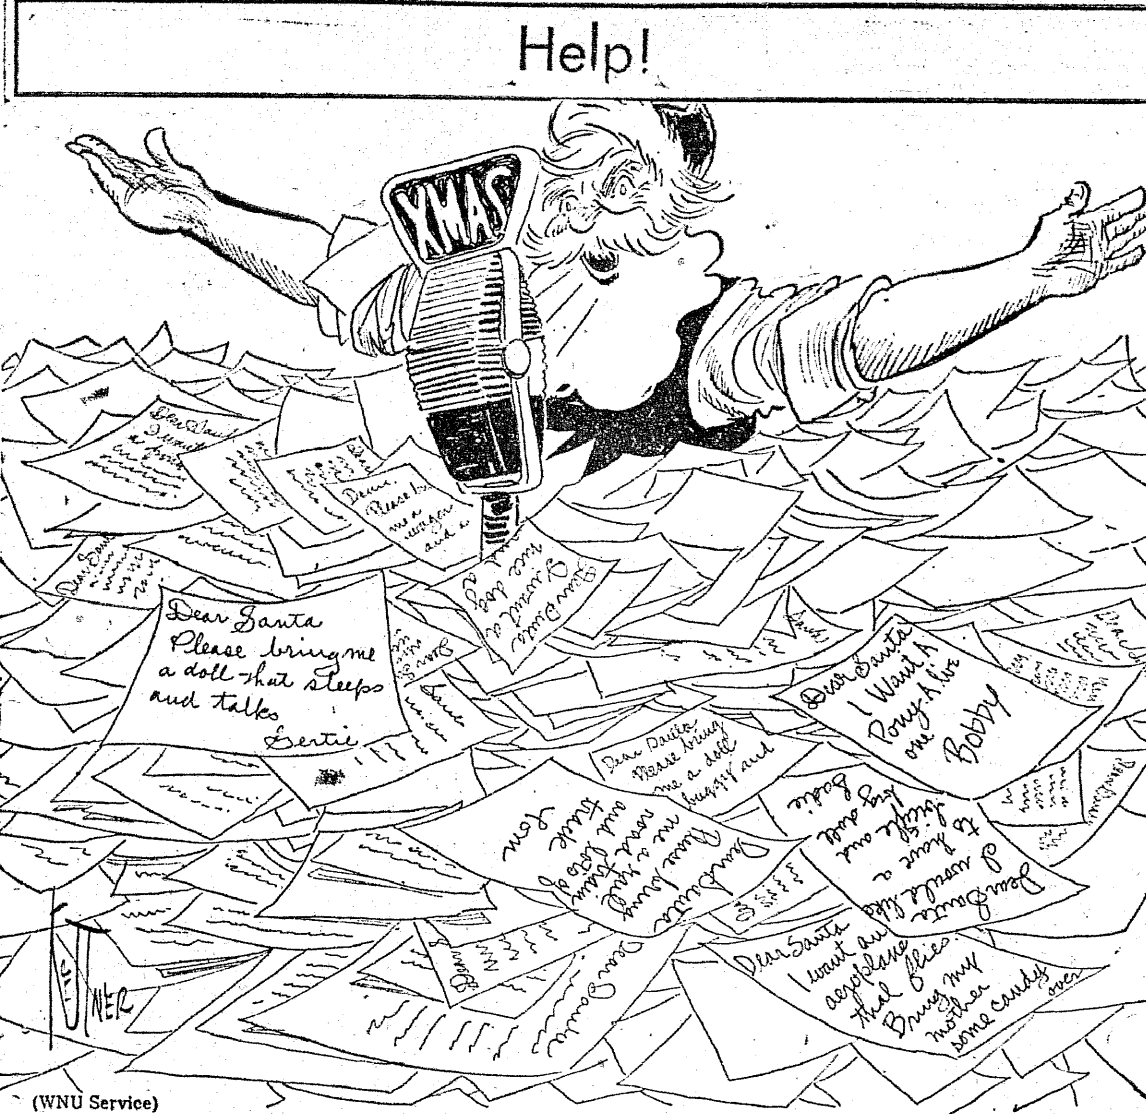

The Varsity Club will honor the team and Coaches Chapman, Frank Spotts and "Jitty" Wische at a banquet to be held in the high school cafeteria Saturday night. The affair has been dubbed the "Win, Lose Or Draw" dinner, but with a record of five victories, two losses and one tie, we suggest they drop the last two terms for this year, because they are feting a winner.

More On Pie

A few weeks ago this space recorded a lack of enthusiasm for modern pies. Hurt by this aspersion on their culinary skill, several bakers immediately sent us samples of their work, to prove no doubt that they, at least, had not betrayed America's taste. We are properly grateful, but, in the interests of historical truth, we cannot admit that we were mistaken. In fact, our original skepticism has now been aggravated by acute dyspepsia.

It Pays To Be Funny

A young man who compiled an anthology of funny stories will have an income this year of $200,000, most of it from royalties on his book. Since Milton is said to have received only $25 for writing "Paradise Lost," such a reward for a joke-book doubtless will cause much head-shaking among those who always see significance in such things. For us, the only significance it has is that Americans still like a good story. Which reminds us—have you heard the one about the chorus girl and the Wall street banker?

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS MONDAY

Mrs. Raymond Luster, Vice President Eighth District, Will Speak

Mrs. Raymond Luster, vice president of the Eighth District of New Jersey Woman's Club, will address the Belleville Woman's club Monday afternoon at the monthly business meeting.

Board of trustees and board of directors meetings will be held in the morning.

Mrs. J. Claude Powers, president, will receive gifts for servicemen at her home, 78 Division avenue, until Monday. The club's gifts for hospitalized and evacuated soldiers, sailors and marines will be delivered through the cooperation of the camp and hospital committee.

Mrs. Powers reports a good response to the club's appeal for gifts but said that the addition of some shaving bowls and other toilet articles would enable the club to complete a larger quantity of Christmas packages.

The literature department will hold a Christmas party next Thursday at the home of Mrs. Allan Crisp, 238 New street. Half a dozen past members are invited guests. The group numbers over thirty.

The women will exchange gifts and Mrs. Dwight Streeter will review Louis Bromfield's "Pleasant Valley."

Gas Station Changes Hands First Time Since 1922

Louis Anderson, formerly of Jersey City, this week assumed proprietorship of the gasoline station and auto repair business at 320 Stephens street owned since 1922 by Walter W. Gresham. Mr. and Mrs. Gresham will leave for Florida shortly after Christmas and Mr. Anderson will move his family to living quarters at the address.

Mr. Gresham, a native of Alabama, came to this area 25 years ago and married the former Miss Johanna Kruse of 326 Stephens street. The couple have a son, Cadet Midshipman Raymond W. Gresham of the Merchant Marine, and a daughter, ten year old Ruth, an honor student in Cortlandt street school.

Mr. Gresham's health has necessitated giving up his business. Raymond, who trained at Kings Point Merchant Marine academy, completed his first voyage in six months of sea duty when he returned last week from Marseille, France. He will report to his ship this week for a voyage to India. At the conclusion of sea duty he will return to Kings Point where he will study to be commissioned in the Merchant Marine.

The annual Christmas party of the Belleville Junior Woman's club will be held in the clubhouse, 51 Rossmore place Tuesday evening when each member has been requested to bring a grab bag gift and a gift for a hospitalized serviceman.

Senior Woman's club members who will be guests are Mrs. Charles S. Smith of Nutley, Mrs. Walter Mack, Mrs. Willard Strange, Mrs. Laury Stem and Mrs. Frank McFadden of this town.

LETTERS

The opinions expressed in this column are those of the authors of the individual letters and do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the publishers or editors of The Times-News.

From Mrs. E. A. Shattuck, Librarian

Belleville Public Library

To the Editor of The Times-News: Why is it that the librarian's work is so badly misunderstood by the general public? People always are asking her, "How do you manage to keep busy all day?"

Perhaps one reason why people in general hold this idea about librarians is because the results of their work are so intangible.

The library, like the public schools, is an educational institution and education takes place gradually and the results are extended over many years. It is tangible evidence that the school system has a valuable place in a community. But Mr. and Mrs. Public do not realize that during the same period he went to school Tommy was going to the public library and that he had taken home books, not just any book that may have been published, but books which have been added to the library's collection only after some librarian has checked and rechecked before ordering them in order to make sure that they would be "good" books for the library.

The librarian has supervision over a building where, if signs are not in evidence reading "Silence" or "Quiet Please," at least quiet predominates. Librarians are forced to perform their tasks as quietly as possible and often under difficulties arising from numerous interruptions. Of course librarians do not complain of these so-called interruptions because they are not really interruptions at all, but part of their daily work. They just try and explain this to Mr. and Mrs. Public.

Librarians are public servants, but theirs is a misunderstood profession. Many hard-working and conscientious librarians have given their best and have been an influence for good in the communities in which they have lived yet the public has not realized their worth and they are still "Misunderstood Librarians."

FOX-HOLE PRAYER COMES TRUE

Sgt. William C. Naylor Returns From Germany In January

By the light of a make-shift candle of grease and an old shoe lace, which also supplied some heat, First Sergeant William H. Naylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Naylor of 231 Joralemon street, wrote a letter to his parents from his "palace" in Belgium on New Year's Eve 1944.

His "palace" was four feet wide, three feet deep and six feet long. The roof was of logs covered with evergreen branches and dirt. The floor was of hay and blankets — "excellent protection from the enemy but a bit drafty."

Bill did not know the time of night, because, though snuggled in his sleeping bag, his watch would not run because of the low temperature. He said the boys had their turkey dinner served on cardboard plates the day after Christmas which did miracles for their morale — to know they had not been forgotten.

Though he wanted to tell some of the interesting sidelights of actual battle, restrictions dictated that such information better be left to the tongue rather than the pen. "The battle-worn veterans and the newer men as well, all had one common prayer—that the new year—1945, would see them marching home to those they loved—to a world where peace would reign—a world where they could laugh and love—where they could begin making memories instead of living them."

That prayer will be answered on December 30 when Sgt. Naylor's All American 82nd Airborne Division is scheduled to arrive in New York harbor and parade on Fifth avenue on New Year's Day, in the same uniforms they wore in Berlin, which they occupied after V-E Day until relieved by another division.

Soon after Pearl Harbor, while a student at Washington and Lee university, Naylor enlisted in the Army Enlisted Reserve Corps and was later called to active service. He received his training at Fort Knox, Ky., Ohio State university, University of Kentucky, Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and Camp Reynolds, Pa. While overseas he volunteered as a paratrooper, was assigned to the 307th Airborne Engineers Battalion of the 82nd Airborne Division and received his paratrooper's wings. He was in combat in Holland, the Ardennes, Belgium Bulge and the Rhine-land and wears the American Theater ribbon, ETO ribbon, Good Conduct Medal, three combat stars, Victory Medal, Belgium Fourragere, Holland Lanyard representing the Holland Unit Citation of the Military Order of William and the Presidential Unit Citation.

The 82nd Airborne Division is the second unit, in Dutch history and the first foreign unit to be awarded the Military Order of William.

CAGE PROSPECTS DIM THIS YEAR

Coach Wische Must Build Entire New Team; Face 18-Game Schedule

First official call for basketball practice was issued Monday at the High school and over 100 embryological cage stars reported to Coach "Jitty" Wische and his assistants, Bill Chapman and Herman Knuippe, the latter handling the freshman aspirants.

With the entire team from last year lost by graduation, Coach Wische will have to start from scratch. Only returning letterman is Frank Takish, reserve forward last season, who has been elected captain of the team. Wische stated that he plans to carry 12 men on his varsity squad, and a red-hot battle should be staged for those positions.

A tough 18-game schedule has been drawn up, and features home-and-home series with Nutley, Kearny, and Central of Newark. The last-named five eliminated Belleville's fine team from the state tournament last year by a 35-32 score. Belleville trimmed Nutley on both occasions in their series last season, but reports from Nutley indicate a good team in the making, and revenge will be the primary objective of the Maroon five, not only for those cage defeats but to avenge the great 7-6 football triumph the Bellboys gleaned this year.

Last year, the Bellboys, led by Vic Pasquariello and Bob Kennedy, revealed off 12 wins against 7 defeats, one of the losses being their state tourney affair. This year's team will have to do some tall stepping to match that record, for many of the schools on the schedule are well heeled with veterans, and a win over the perennially strong Bellboy five brings added prestige to the victor.

It is difficult to name a squad at this early stage of the game, Wische stated, but the team will probably be big and fast. The fast break will be used again this year, with the defense shifting from a zone to man-for-man, according to the opposition's form of attack.

A tentative varsity squad is working out under the watchful eye of Wische, and candidates for forward positions included Mike Tortorella, Jimmy DiRuggiero, Steve Smallie and Capt. Frank Takish.

At the center post, a stiff fight has developed for the job. Don Smith, football star, at 6'2½", tall is battling it out with Al Smith, another tall boy, who stands 6'3". Both are fast for big men, and will see plenty of action. Eight youngsters are trying for the guard posts. They are Gene Glancy, who looks promising, Al Lombard, George Mapes, Ken Snook, Curtis Gilmore, Bob Miller, Walter Godfrey and Robert Cassin.

The opening game is scheduled for December 18, the Bellboys

FETED BY PARENTS AFTER DISCHARGE

Sgt. Byron J. and Pfc. Vincent Abbott Home After Four Years Service

Feted by their parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Byron Abbott, at 210 Stephens street Saturday evening were newly discharged Byron J. Abbott and Pfc. Vincent Abbott. Both had been in the Army four years.

Pfc. Abbott, in a tank destroyer division, spent 18 months in Germany where he received the Bronze Star for gallantry in action while aiding in the capture of the enemy, was burned in a tank explosion, was a prisoner of the Germans for 21 days and topped his experiences by swimming the Rhine to make his escape.

He worked for the Pettit Paint company and Isolantite in civilian life.

Sgt. Abbott made four trips to Europe on a hospital ship before he was assigned to medical corps duty in Germany where he spent eleven months. His unit received the Presidential citation.

traveling to Bloomfield to meet the Bloomfield Tech cage aggregation. The complete schedule follows:

Dec. 18, Bloomfield Tech, night, away; Jan. 2, Irvington, night, away; 4, Kearny, night, away; 8, West Orange, night, home; 11, East Side, afternoon, away; 15, Bloomfield, night, home; 18, Hillside, night, home; 22, Nutley, night, home; 25, Kearny, night, home; 29, West Orange, afternoon, away; Feb. 1, Nutley, night, away; 5, Irvington, night, home; 8, Hillside, night, away; 12, Alumni, night, home; 15, Bloomfield Tech, night, home; 19, East Side, night, home; 22, Central, night, home.

The brothers met for the first time in 18 months when Sgt. Abbott was at a port of embarkation to return from Germany. This Christmas the family will be reunited for the first time in four years.

Sgt. Abbott, who was with the Post Office department in Flushing, L. I. before entering service, has gone to Raleigh, N. C. with his wife, the former Miss Charlotte Mitchell of that city. The couple were married two years ago.

Belleville guests at the welcome party included the soldiers' sisters, Miss Elizabeth Abbott and Mrs. Frank Barbieri, Mr. Barbieri, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cosgrove, uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Loreto, Walter Drake, the Misses Edna Vendland and Esther Mairano. Others were present from Newark, Long Island and Norristown and Freeport, Pa.

BELLBOYS GAIN IN STATE RANKING

Triumph Over Nutley Ranks Locals In 39th Position In State

By virtue of their 7-6 upset win over Nutley, Belleville jumped from 56th place in the Dunkel high school football ratings all the way to 39th. The ratings are compiled by the Scholastic Sports Institute under the supervision of Dick Dunkel, whose ratings cover more than 4,500 football teams in 13 states.

Nutley, considered one of the stronger teams, was favored to win over the Bellboys. The well earned triumph placing the Bell-boys in the 39th spot of more than 240 football elevens in the state is not bad at all.

Roselle Park's undefeated football eleven topped all other Jersey high school teams during the 1945 season. Roselle Park's top rating of 69.0 means that it is 69 potential points stronger than the weakest team in New Jersey, and ratings of all teams can be compared on this basis.

Undefeated but thrice tied Thomas Jefferson of Elizabeth finished in the runner-up post with a rating of 67.8, closely followed by East Side Newark with 66.9, Phillipsburg with 66.8 and East Rutherford with 65.2, in that order, to round out the top five teams in the state. Westfield, Garfield, Barringer, Bloomfield and Washington follow to complete the leading ten.

"Our only purpose in presenting these figures is to give coaches, players and fans an interesting state-wide picture week to week," said Dunkel. "We have no interest in trying to decide championships."

"Everybody knows that many strong teams lose a lot of games because they schedule too opposition, while others go through undefeated by playing weak opposition. Therefore, the only possible measurement of true relative strength must be based on the quality of opposition."

"Our job is one of pure research in many thousands of games. The New Jersey ratings have been continuous since the 1940 season. In order to eliminate basis and guesswork, all teams started in the beginning with the same median rating. Since then, they have found their own level through the give and take of what statisticians call differential correlation."

"We realize that ours is not a perfect method, but we believe it comes pretty close. In processing over 100,000 college and high school games since 1929, our method has been over 82% accurate in forecasting. We believe that a system, to be accurate, must stand up under the stringent test of forecasting and adjustment from week to week throughout the season."

"Another thing we have found is that there is no correlation between the size of a school's enrollment and the strength of its football team."

Under the Dunkel system, teams set their own ratings by the average scoring margin they set above or below the average rating of opposition.

Top team in Pennsylvania for 1945 was Donora High with a rating of 84.8, while Johnson City was first in New York with 69.0. Here are the final ratings of the top 50 teams in New Jersey for 1945:

He's Still a Long Way from Home!

...Yes, the war was no pink tea. With V-J Day many a fighting man was too tired to think. For a long time we're going to have to do a lot of thinking and "doing" for the men who have done their part in winning the complete victory.

...That will cost money. There were well over a million casualties during this most destructive of wars. Many of these men will have to have medical care and treatment for a long time to come. Others need guidance before they can return to normal life. Millions of dollars will be needed for this and other rehabilitation work.

...That's why this Victory Loan is so important. It's your chance to prove to your fighting men that they are not forgotten... that we can never repay them for what they have done.

...Gaze deep into your heart—and remember and act. Victory has brought us tremendous obligations. Every American must do his part in this great task. Right now, our job is to buy more bonds than ever before during the Victory Loan. Buy them in humble gratitude—buy them now.
