

RESIDENTS RAISE OBJECTION TO VETS HOUSING

Will Retain Attorney and Fight
Any Proposed Zoning
Change

Unexpected opposition to the proposed garden apartments for housing of veterans and their families arose last week, when a group of residents from the vicinity of Celia terrace and Continental avenue indicated they would oppose any zoning change necessary to permit the construction of the apartments.

A letter under the signature of "the committee" was sent to all the residents in that vicinity under the date of December 16. The letter proposed that each resident agree to the hiring of a lawyer to represent them at all future meetings of the town officials and the housing committee. Stating that a number of low-cost dwellings were to be erected, and that the development is to be made under an agreement between the town and a privately owned corporation, the letter further went on to say that a zoning change would be necessary for the entire vicinity and such a change would have a bearing upon property in the entire district.

Original opposition to the construction came at a meeting between 25 residents from Continental and Fairway avenues and a group of the veterans last Thursday. The project was explained to the citizens by Paul West, architect, and members of the Architects and Engineers Association, who were the idea originated. The meeting was arranged at the suggestion of Commissioner Louis A. Noll.

Principal objectors to the plan were Isadore Padula, an attorney living at 193 Fairway avenue; Joseph Zipt of 20 Fairway avenue and Charles Plenge of 46 Continental avenue. Spokesman for the group was A. M. Sage of 179 Fairway avenue, a World War I vet, who at first indicated there would be no opposition to the project. But after the meeting, the residents discussed the matter further, and came to a different decision.

A verbal agreement was reached among them to have each individual retain an attorney, and try to stop any proposed change in the present zoning ordinance. This change, according to a town official, would mean that the apartment would have to be in a C residence zone, while the zone in that vicinity is now A residence.

The chief objection from the residents was the fear that their present property values would depreciate after an indeterminate length of time with an apartment complex in their midst. They suggested one-family homes be erected, with a cost in the neighborhood of $8,000 to $10,000. The veterans guidance director, Joseph McGreevy, said that the veterans could not afford to pay for a house in that category, and furthermore, the F.H.A. would not grant a mortgage to an ex-serviceman for a house of that class because of the large mortgage necessary.

In the course of the discussion, several of the residents stated that the veterans deserved the best, but that the proposed project was not good enough for them.

LIQUOR REQUESTS HALTED BY BOARD

Reverse Previous Policy and Refuse To Consider Further Applications

Reversing their position taken in September, when the ceiling was lifted on liquor license applications, the Board of Commissioners, sitting as an Excise Board last Friday, stated no further applications would be considered. The policy set in September was arrived at in order to enable all veterans applications to be considered. Since that time, a flood of applicants, principally ex-servicemen, forced the Board to reconsider and adopt a new policy.

Eight applications were given consideration last week, and two licenses were granted. Frederick P. De Furia, a wounded veteran who had been a prisoner-of-war in Germany and lost a leg, was granted a license for a package store at 527 Joralemon street. A club license was granted on the other application to the Trippi Park club at 45 Naples avenue.

Consideration of a license application made by a restaurant that will be located at 372-374 Franklin avenue was held in abeyance. A new building is being constructed at that site, and Mayor Williams suggested the Board wait and see the type of restaurant opened in the building, which is reported to be costing $35,000. The Mayor remarked that the town could see a first-class restaurant.

RESISTOFLEX GAINS INJUNCTION OVER STRIKING UNION

Picketing Must Be Quiet and Orderly Without Any Intimidation

A temporary injunction was granted the Resistoflex corporation yesterday, according to Edgar S. Peierls, company president, which stated that the union was to have no more than five pickets in any one line, and they must be at least 10 feet apart. Peierls said that the union, according to the injunction, must refrain from any intimidation or uncouth language and must not interfere with any person or persons connected with the strike situation.

Further details are to be worked out between the attorneys of the company and the union at the headquarters of Vice Chancellor Stein, who granted the temporary injunction, Peierls stated.

Violence broke out between the striking and non-striking workers of the company last week. Five of the strikers who allegedly stoned a car and beat up several of the non-striking workers are scheduled to appear for a hearing tomorrow morning in police court before Judge Everett B. Smith. On Monday, they were released in the custody of their attorney, M. Margolis, for the following: Italo Beatrice, 20 Stone street, Newark, $1,500 bail, for atrocious assault and battery; a disorderly person charge; Bartholomeo Mongiello, 149 Shuman avenue, atrocious assault and battery, $1,000 bail; Angelo Longo, 29 Carmer avenue, atrocious assault and battery, $1,000 bail; Larry Varone, 3 Gonnelli street, Nutley, atrocious assault and battery, $1,000 bail; and Jerry Minichino, 195 Garfield street, atrocious assault and battery, $1,000.

The complaints were made by Glen Cole of 86 Malone avenue and Richard Van Der Clock of 204 Greylock parkway, who stated that they were attacked by five men when their car stopped for a traffic light at Washington and

NO. 13 BUS WILL RUN EXPRESS

Morning and Afternoon Rush
Hours Covered; No. 17
To Resume

An announcement made this week by Commissioner Louis Noll stated that the Public Service Coordinated Transport has filed with the Public Utilities Commission schedules providing for express service on the No. 13 bus route commencing January 7. The schedules cover morning and afternoon rush hours.

The schedule, which will be printed in full in next week's issue, printed in full in next week's issue, provides for express service on the No. 13 bus route commencing January 7. The schedules cover morning and afternoon rush hours.

Inbound buses will make no stops after leaving the Newark-Belleville line except to discharge passengers. Buses leaving Lincoln Park for Belleville and Nutley will pick up passengers only in Newark and will not discharge passengers until after passing the Belleville-Newark line.

The town transportation service, which comes under Noll's department, further announced that the Public Service has agreed to return to service the three buses operating on Public Service Bus Route No. 17 operating between Paterson and Newark. The exact schedule of these buses will also be announced in next week's issue. This line was completely curtailed during the war as an emergency measure.

Editorial On Pie Baking Brings Special Offer

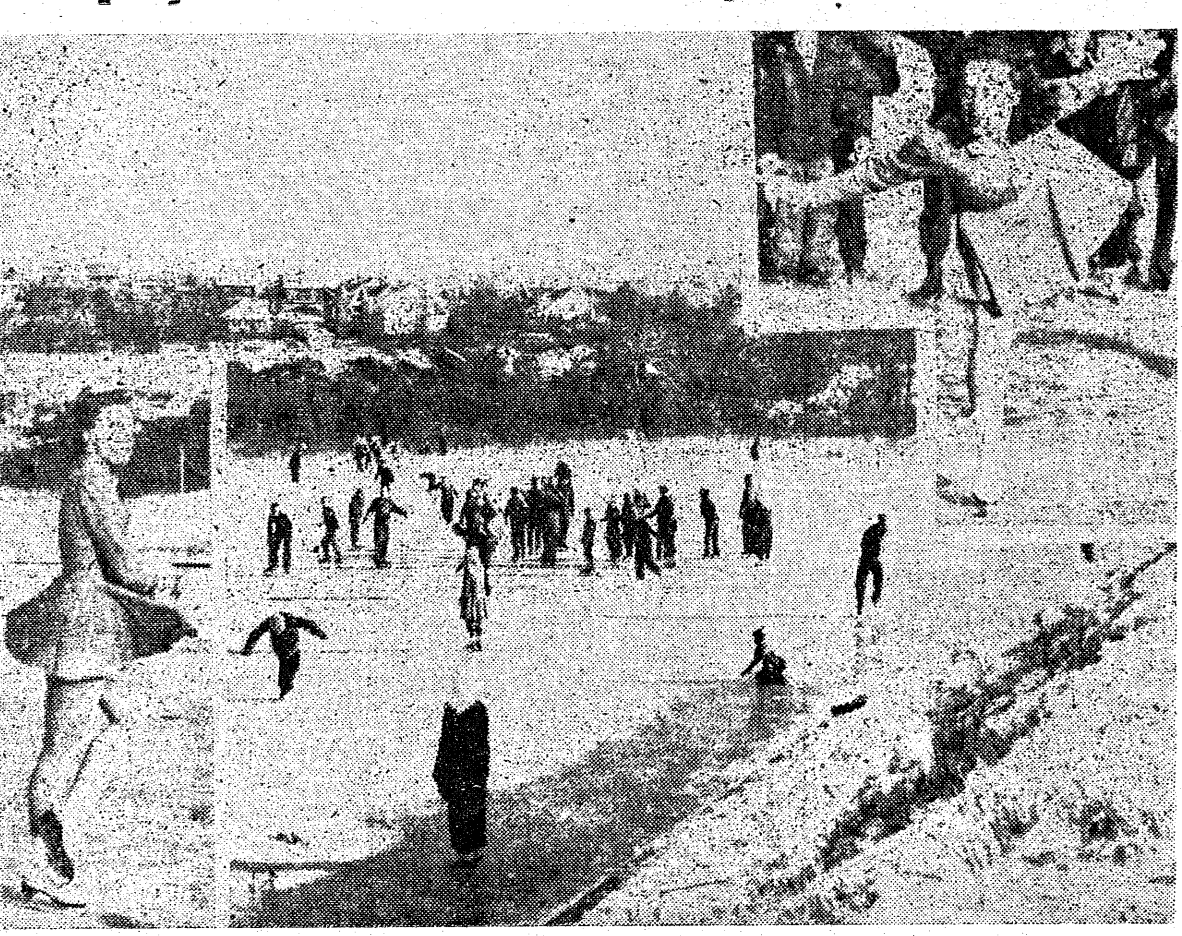

Martin F. Tiernan Would Bake A
Pie To Prove All Are Not Dyspepsia Producing

The "American Sense of Humor" is one of the factors that makes America the great place it is. A specific instance took place in Belleville recently, and we are passing it along for what it is worth.

The Times-News ran an editorial a while back, commenting on the rather indigestible quality of many of the bakers' pies that are eaten nowadays. Several days after the appearance of the editorial, an official of a large pie-baking concern in a neighboring town called this paper, and revealed he was quite distressed over the editorial. He requested an opportunity to change our minds over the fitness of pies made on a mass-production basis, and volunteered to send us several of the delicate babies turned out by his company.

Reluctant to refuse his request, (besides, it was free) we indicated our willingness to sample his wares. In due time, the pies arrived. (We pause here to send out for some more bicarbonate for more thought.) Without going into the gruesome details, one week after re-

Trying Out The New Skating Rink

Close Banks, Monday Nights December 24 and 31

The People's National Bank and Trust company and the First National Bank have announced that they will not transact business on Christmas and New Year's Eves, Mondays, December 24 and 31, in order that their employees may enjoy these holidays with their families.

Monday evening openings for business will be resumed January 7 when the banks will be open from 6:30 to 8 p.m. The banks will be open as usual from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on December 24 and 31.

E BOND PURCHASES STILL LAGGING

Unless Sales Increase Town
Will Fail To Go Over -
For First Time

Unless there is a concerted drive in sales in the last week coming up, Belleville will fall down for the first time since the inception of the Victory Loan drives in the purchase of E bonds.

With a quota of $600,000 for the town in E bonds, the latest figures released by Ronald Brunner, assistant drive chairman, show a total of $428,922.25 purchased to date.

Every drive in the past has been oversubscribed by the patriotic citizens of Belleville, stated Brunner, and the committee does not relish falling down in what may be the final Victory Loan drive. It was emphasized by the committee that War bonds should be purchased and given as Christmas presents, and they suggested that by doing this, there is still a good opportunity to go over the top before December 31, when the drive ends.

Another possibility was brought to light last week, when the drive authorities suggested that homes and personal effects be thoroughly canvassed for any incomplete stamp books that are lying around. Government officials estimate there is $16,000,000 in unfilled stamp books that could be used to purchase another bond if completed.

SKATING BEGINS AT NEW RINK

Another Step Under Way In Town Program For Planned
Recreation

The ice skating program under the sponsorship of the Recreation department is now in full swing at the newly erected skating rink located next to the Municipal Stadium.

Put in its present condition after a lapse of a year without skating, the rink will afford great recreational opportunities for the citizens of the town. Completed plans for lighting the entire area will be in effect within the next few weeks.

During the recent snowfall, the town engineer has endeavored to keep the rink free of snow. Several times, it has been necessary to re-flood the rink, and when this is necessary, citizens are requested to refrain from using the skating facilities in order that the ice might attain the best possible condition, which in turn will assure excellent skating.

The rink is approximately 85 feet wide, 250 feet long and is of clay foundation with 6 inches of asphalt and the same amount of concrete. The Recreation department, which is under the direction of Parks and Property Commissioner Louis A. Noll, plans to make use of the rink throughout the year. Roller skating, basketball, volleyball and outdoor dancing are among the many activities scheduled to be held on the new addition to the town's recreational facilities.

Lions Christmas Party At Luncheon Today

The Lions club will have their annual Christmas party for the members today at St. Paul's Methodist church in Newark. Gifts, and not always of a complimentary nature, will be exchanged among the members, and the feature of the day will be the reading of poetry by President Fred Handlon. The members have been warned to leave their feelings at home.

Last week, the Lions were addressed by William Rice, vice-president and credit manager of the National State bank in Newark. Mr. Rice gave an interesting talk on business trends.

Musical Program Given At Rotary Club

The customary Christmas musical program for Belleville Rotary club was given yesterday noon by Belleville High school units at the luncheon meeting held in St. Paul's Methodist church, Newark.

The girls' Glee club was heard in two groups of songs. A trio, consisting of Sam Amosato, accordionist, Paul Mische, saxophonist and Donald Havas, bass violinist, played "Twilight Time". Mr. Amosato was also heard in a solo, "Tea For Two."

Samuel W. Peck, school music director, conducted the Glee club in a Christmas selection entitled "No Candle Was There and No Fire." Two soloists were Miss Joan Riley who sang, "Jesus Bambino" and Miss Joan McFadden who rendered, "O, Holy Night."

Rotarians joined the musicians in familiar carols and Christmas songs. Wayne R. Parmer expressed the club's thanks to the young people who were transported in Rotary cars and lunched with the Rotarians.

In Christmas tribute, the club presented the St. Paul's Woman's guild with a purse for the purchase of a loud speaker system for the church. Also, Rev. Peter R. Deckerbach received the Rotary donation of $60 for the Episcopal Children's fund which is used to benefit any needy Belleville children at Christmas time.

SCHOOL EMPLOYEES BONUS CONTINUED FOR 1945 - 46

Board Of Education Votes For Renewal; Extra Pay For Extra Teaching

By a unanimous vote, the Board of Education voted to continue the cost-of-living bonus for all full-time school employees. Herbert C. Schmutz, chairman of the finance committee, made the recommendation that the 5% bonus be renewed.

A minimum of $150 will be paid to all employees, which is a slight increase over the $125 minimum agreed upon last year. All employees earning not more than $5,000 a year will receive the payment for the 1945-46 term.

Payments are scheduled to commence in January, and will be prorated on a monthly basis. If the employee did not work an entire school year, the board stated that he should be paid on the basis of the time worked.

In a communication from High School Principal Hugh Kittle, Supervising Principal of Schools Wayne Parmer asked that Kittle's request for extra pay in the amount of $1 be granted to teachers for each extra class session they teach. Kittle stated that due to the teacher shortage, he had found it necessary to use teachers during their spare periods to fill in on some classes without an instructor.

The board adopted the request, but only as an emergency measure, and went on record to the effect that the plan would continue only as long as the present teacher shortage exists.

PLEA FOR PROMPT SEAL RETURNS

Joint Meeting Tonight Of Belleville-Nutley
TB Group

The regular meeting of the board of directors of the Belleville-Nutley Tuberculosis association will be held in the Town hall here next Thursday evening at 8.

Returns for Christmas seals are reported lagging by Health Officer Eugene Berry and Richard Fellers of the two towns. They have appealed for prompt returns so that preparations may be made to schedule forthcoming activities of the association at the January meeting.

Although many personal concerns claim everyone's attention at this season, the association has pointed out that purchase of seals is a Christmas gift to one of the nation's most urgent causes and can be most effective when taken care of at this season. The fight against tuberculosis is never keener than during the winter and early spring when lowered resistance and bad weather increase the possibility of contracting the disease.

Post Office Hours

Local Post office hours for the last week of the Christmas season were announced as follows: Monday the 17 through Saturday the 22 open until 8 p.m., stamp and parcel post windows. Sunday, the 18th, stamp and parcel post windows will be open from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Churches Will Welcome Peacetime Christmas

Girl And Brownie Scouts Tour
Town Singing Carols; Special Programs Arranged

Christmas carols will ring out in Belleville Sunday and Monday evenings as the town welcomes a peacetime Christmas free from blackouts and other restrictions. Outdoor carolling will be provided Sunday by fourteen Girl Scout and four Brownie troops who have arranged to cover the town in geographical units. Christmas Eve will find the combined choruses of several churches leading public carols at the North Belleville honor roll pavilion on Union avenue between Little street and Overlook avenue.

Residents are urged to participate in both ceremonies by placing a lighted candle in homes where shut-ins may especially desire to hear Girl Scout carolling, or by telephoning scout headquarters tomorrow to make advance arrangements, and by attending the Christmas Eve songfest at the veterans' pavilion.

Fitting Tribute
Robert N. Hayes, program chairman of the latter event, has pointed out that such a religious expression of tolerance and good will will be a fitting tribute to the men enrolled in the town's largest honor roll, and especially to those who have died in service. He particularly urged parents of youngsters and returned servicemen themselves to be present and to join in the carols.

Girl scout troops have prepared individual programs which will consist in many cases of traditional carols in English; some troops have availed themselves, however, of new carols from other lands which will be sung in English but were originally composed in French, Russian, Polish and Scandinavian languages. These foster the theme of international

Camp Director

Charles E. Genne

Appointment of Charles E. Genne of East Orange as director of Camp Re-1 was announced this week by the joint committee composed of members of the Belleville Foundation, the Lions Club and the Rotary.

With a wealth of camping experience as background, Genne comes well recommended for the director's job of the new camp that will be functioning under its new name for the first season in 1946. A graduate of East Orange High school, the Teachers College at Columbia University, and holding degrees as bachelor of science and master of arts, Genne has been engaged in town work since 1928.

At the present time, he is a teacher of science and industrial arts in the Roosevelt Junior High school in West Orange, associate director of the William Thayer Brown Boys Club in Orange, part-time boys secretary of the Orange YMCA, a church school teacher and a member of the board of directors of the Hubert street branch of the YMCA.

Genne has been associated with YMCA camps, including Minisink, Kittatinny and Arrowhead in New Jersey, and other camps in New York, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts. He is an American Red Cross volunteer, a swimmer and a life saving examiner.

Married and the father of two children, Genne is 34 years of age. Formerly Camp Demarest, the camp site was acquired by the Foundation, and is now sponsored by the Lions and Rotary clubs, with the Foundation underwriting the expense of operating the camp for the first two years.

Employees Get Christmas Bonus At First National

Good news came to the employees of the First National bank this week; when the Board of Directors announced that a 5% bonus in the form of a Christmas gift would be paid to all employees.

The bonus will be equivalent to 5% of the annual salary of the employees. In addition, all have been invited to attend a dinner and theatre party on January 5 as guests of the bank.

CATHOLIC VETS ORGANIZE POST

Meeting Held At St. Peter's;
Temporary Officers
Elected

Another veterans organization came into existence last week when a group of Catholic war vets met at St. Peter's school and formed a local Post of the Catholic War Veterans of America.

The new Post has applied for charter papers, and appointed temporary officers until an election under the new charter could be held.

Holding temporary officers: William J. Friel, post commander; Daniel J. Keating, adjutant; William H. Kennedy, treasurer; Father Joseph M. Kelly was pointed Post chaplain.

Father Kelly outlined the activities of the new organization. Assistance to veterans and in service was stressed, with cooperation with other groups.

The next meeting will be in January at a date to be announced in the near future.

New Cub Pack Organized At Wesley Methodist

Scout Acres Proving Popular Spot For Scout Campers; Troop 313 Installed
In Ceremony

The Wesley Methodist church, Washington avenue and Academy street, has filed an application with the Robert Treat council, Boy Scouts of America, for a Cub pack, to be known as Cub Pack 301, Rev. Edgar M. Compton, pastor of the church, announced today.

R. W. Schneegas of 34 Lincoln terrace, is cubmaster. The pack committee is composed of William P. Rame, chairman, 112 Morris blower avenue, John Hughes, 14 Bridge street, Julius Kwik, 130 Academy street, Rev. Edgar M. Compton, 134 Academy street. Den mothers are Mrs. Dorothy Nicholls, 430 Washington avenue and Mrs. Frieda Kwik, 130 Academy street.

At Scout Acres

Robert Meyer, scoutmaster of Troop 306, Montgomery Presbyterian church, spent last weekend at Scout Acres, the short-term camp of the Robert Treat council at Boonton. More and more are the troops of the Belleville district using the facilities at Boonton for short-term camping. Parents can rest assured that the buildings are built and equipped for year round camping, and provided the scout has warm clothing and sufficient blankets, he should be comfortable even in the severest weather.

Troop 313 Installed

In a very well conducted investiture ceremony, conducted by Troop 388 of Christ Episcopal church—Troop 313 jointly sponsored by the Little Zion A. M. E. and the Second Baptist churches on Stephens street, was installed last week. The new troop registered some time ago, but the official installation was conducted at this time.

Senior Scout Group To Organize

Father Francis Ignacinas, director of the CYO at St. Peter's Roman Catholic church, announced this week the organization of a senior scout program for the young men of the parish. Senior scouting is for young men 15 years or older. One does not have to have been a scout to join senior scouting, although of course the bulk of the young men in senior scouting came up through the ranks from scouting.

Training Course Completed

The Scoutmasters' Training course, which has met for several weeks at School 8, will complete its work at the session to be held tonight. Henry Minasian, a member of the Leadership-Training committee, directed the course.

who was to have had the leading role, his part will be taken by Mr. Whitehead. Feminine lead will be played by Ruth Topping. The remainder of the cast includes Lois Alpaugh, Ruth Hogan, Lillian Warke, Joan Bakalian, Helen Rath, Harry Bauman, George Warke, John De Mark and Gray Ryer. Harry Tice is stage manager.

Will Serenade

The senior young people of the church have formed a choir for Christmas carolling which will also have part in the production. The following evening these singers will appear at the North Belleville honor roll and will then serenade invalids and shut-ins.

In Bethany Lutheran church Sunday at 8:15 Mrs. Guy Brown will direct the junior choir in a cantata, "Child Jesus."

A children's manger service and Christmas program in Christ Episcopal church Sunday afternoon at 4, will replace Sunday school sessions usually held in the morning. Italian Baptist church members in Silver Lake will view slides on the Birth of Christ Sunday evening with commentary by the pastor, Rev. Benedetto Pasquale. Redeemer Lutheran church Sunday school Christmas program will also be held that evening at 7:30 when Cathedral slides will be shown.

Will Replace

Sunday morning sermons and musical programs will replace services on Christmas Day in some churches as in Grace Baptist church where Mr. Whitehead will preach on "Seeing the Star," and the choir will sing a Flemish carol, "A Babe So Tender" and Wilson's "Holy Night." Organ solos will include "A Shepherd's Prayer" by Nevin. Mrs. Ruth Chesley is organist and director.

Pastor Guy Brown of Bethany church will speak to the Sunday school on "The Message of Christmas To the World" at 9:30. Rev. Oliver W. Chapin of Montgomery church will also deliver his Christmas sermon on Sunday while the Fewsmith church Sunday service will have the chorale, "Jesu, Joy Of Man's Desiring" by Bach as prelude; Adam's "O Holy Night" and Pietro Yon's "Jesu Bambino," solos by Miss Frey as anthems and an organ postlude, "Noel in G" by Daquin, by Mr. Ackerman. Dr. O. Bell Close will return to talk on "The Christmas Story."

Welcome Guests

Everyman's Bible class at 9:30 Sunday in Masonic Temple will welcome guests when the leader, George Tranter, speaks on the meaning of Christmas.

Christmas Eve ceremonies will be held at 11 Monday evening in Christ Episcopal church when Rev. Peter R. Deekenbach will deliver an address entitled "The Angel's Song." Also at 11 a service of carols and candlelight will be held in Bethany Lutheran church.

High mass will be sung at midnight in St. Peter's church when the choir will be directed by Thomas Haney.

Christmas Day masses will be on the hour. The nine o'clock Mass will be the Children's Mass when the children's choir will sing. Miss Joan McFadden, soprano soloist, will sing "A Holy Night" at the 11 o'clock Mass.

Early services on Christmas Day will be at 6:30 in Redeemer Lutheran church and at 7 in Wesley Methodist church.

At 10 on that day Holy Communion service and a program by the junior choir will be held in Christ Episcopal church and a Christmas morning service will take place in Belleville Reformed church when Rev. John A. Struyk will preach on "Bethlehem, Our Hope."

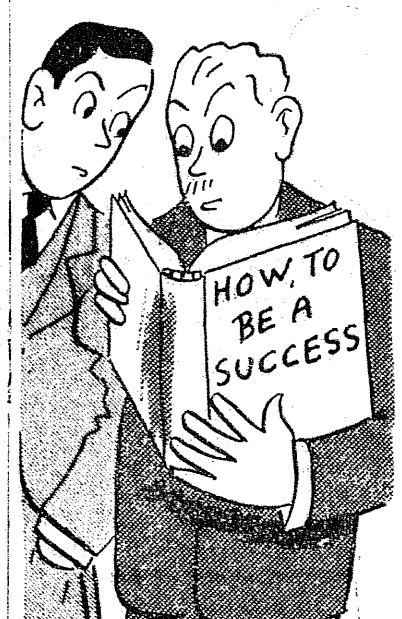

At 10:45 the combined choirs of Italian Baptist church will sing Handel's Messiah under the direction of Miss Alba Pasquale. The public has been invited to avail itself of the opportunity to attend all published services.

of the concern have long been active in the electronic heating field. The president, V. W. Sherman, was formerly manager of the industrial electronics division of the Federal Telephone and Telegraph Corp. in Newark. According to the company officials, he set up and directed the F.T.T. electronics division, and is well known in the field, having written a number of technical articles and owning many patents.

The company is prepared to manufacture and sell induction and dielectric heating units and their production accessories. The principal fields of activity are the plastics, food and metal industries.

Two former associates of Sherman at Federal Telephone and Telegraph are now officers in the company. A. Noar, secretary, was in charge of production there and N. Carver, chief engineer, was senior engineer at the Newark concern.

Special electronic ovens of a new conveyor type have been developed by Sherman Industrial for the food and the book-binding industries. By means of high frequency dielectric heating bakery products may be uniformly heated and baked in as little time as 75 seconds on a continuous production type band or conveyor oven. The oven is 4 feet wide and 20 feet long, equipped with three electronic heaters and has full automatic controls. This new design, according to Mr. Carver, is based on experiments conducted over a period of several years.

Overlook avenues. The attackers are alleged to have broken the car windows with stones, dragged the men from the car and beat them with a baseball bat.

An additional complaint was made yesterday against Italo Benetice, president of Local 333, Playthings, Novelty, Jewelry Workers union, CIO, by Fred W. Thiemann, for atrocious assault.

The strike of the 160 workers has been going on since November 6, and according to Edgar S. Peierls, president of the company, the union has violated the contract, which is supposed to run until January 21, 1946.

A business official of the union was injured last week when Curt E. Stretton, company official of 146 Rhoda avenue, ran over Louis Sunshine while he was standing in the picket line. Stretton is scheduled to appear for a hearing tomorrow on a reckless driving charge made by the police. Sunshine suffered a foot injury.

The company windows were stoned, according to the Resistoflex officials, with many being broken. Cars attempting to cross the picket line were stoned and rocked, but the company employees involved refused to make any complaints.

Six employees of the concern are reported to be on the job at the plant, and have refused to leave, according to Peierls, as any further violence was being avoided as much as possible.

Town Commissioners at a public bidding for a nominal price. The veterans plan calls for the organization of corporations for each unit built, said corporations to be composed of the veterans residing there. More than 100 vets and their wives have already signed up for places in the project.

The veterans are quite incensed over the unlooked for opposition, and one was heard to remark, "If they had been looking at those German guns, they might not be so worried about their property values depreciating."

Three Teachers Resign; Name School Doctor

Three resignations of teachers in the school system were accepted by the board Monday night. Mrs.

Mildred Clark resigned to enter business in Louisville, Ky. and the board waived the right to a 60-day notice, accepting Mrs. Clark's 30-day notice. Mrs. Irene Lynch Corcoran, who had been on leave, was granted her resignation effective immediately, while Mrs. Clark's will be effective January 1, 1946. The other resignation came from Edward J. Coughlin. A six months extension until September 1, 1946 of a present leave-of-absence was granted to Mrs. Vera M. Dorsey.

The board announced the appointment for an indefinite period of Dr. Donald Brown as medical doctor for the school system.

Supervising Principal Farmer disclosed in his monthly report that the school children had sold more than $6,000 in war stamps and $31,000 in War Bonds.

Military Wedding

Mrs. Walter Balabanow

The wedding of Seaman 1/c Elenore M. Schantz of the Waves, daughter of Mrs. Otto Schantz of 91 Rossmore place and the late Mr. Schantz, to Walter Balabanow, son of Mrs. Catherine Balabanow of Lyndhurst, took place Saturday in St. Mary's church, Nutley. Rev. James Glotzbach performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception for the couple's immediate families at the bride's home.

Lieut. Cecelia C. Begley, ANC, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Storekeeper 2/c Vail Balabanow, USN, was his brother's best man. The wedding party was in uniform.

The bride is stationed at the Office of Port Director, New York. Prior to military service she was with the Prudential Insurance company. Mr. Balabanow was discharged from the 15th Air Forces where he held the grade of sergeant, a month ago. He served overseas three years.

The couple will live at 91 Rossmore place after a short wedding trip.

Recent Bride

Mrs. Domenic Fratella

Miss Eleanor Rita Galleri, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Sacco of 324 Stephens street, and Domenic Raymond Fratella, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patsy Fratella of 137 Beech street, were married in St. Peter's church November 17 when Rev. Francis A. Ignacinos performed the ceremony. A reception was held at Parrillo's.

Mrs. Galleri was attended by Mrs. Irma Baenzinger of Newark as matron of honor and the Misses Anna Malizia and Ena Fratella of this town and Constance and Dolores Briante of Newark, bridesmaids.

Daniel Dunn of Belleville was bestman and Peter Sacco and Nicholas Briante of Newark ushered.

The matron of honor's bouquet of American beauty roses and bridesmaids' old fashioned rose bouquets were the only note of color against the all white costumes of the bride and her attendants. The bride's gown of satin was embroidered at the neckline with seed pearls as was the coronet which held her three-quarter length veil of French illusion. She carried a prayerbook covered with white pom-pom chrysanthemums centered by an orchid.

Mrs. Baenzinger's gown was made with bodice of white damask and skirt of tulle and she wore a Dutch cap of white damask. The bridesmaid's gowns were all damask.

Mrs. Galleri's fuchsia costume and headdress were complemented by an orchid as was the pale blue gown and accessories of the bridegroom's mother.

After a New York honeymoon the couple are at home at 324 Stephens street. Young Mrs. Fratella is with the Belleville office of the Telephone company; her husband, after three and a half years in the European theater of war, has been discharged from the Army and is employed by Albert's delicatessen.

The couple were graduated from Belleville High school; Mrs. Fratella in 1941, Mr. Fratella in 1935.

Christmas Party Held By Craftsman's Club

The Belleville Craftsman's club held a combined Christmas celebration and past presidents' night at the Masonic Temple last night.

A Broadway show was presented by Howard Oliver, and Santa Claus was present to pass out gifts. The gifts will in turn be given to needy children. James R. Lampman, club proxy, was in charge of arrangements for the affair.

The club visited Fort Monmouth Tuesday and gave out 350 gifts to wounded servicemen, besides serving sandwiches and ice cream.

STRESS TOLERANCE ON NO. 5 PROGRAM

Christmas Observed With Two Assemblies For School Children

The annual Christmas programs of Greylock School No. 5 were held yesterday in both assemblies. Robert N. Hayes is principal. The keynote of both programs was understanding, brotherhood and tolerance of other races and creeds. The Christmas story brought out the basic principles of religions are similar in concept and that one must believe implicitly in one's own religion, yet appreciate and have respect for the beliefs of others.

In the departmental group the combined mixed choruses of sixty voices rendered carols of many lands, ending up with celebrated American carols. They carried out the concept of good will by the incorporation of a program of Hanukkah, the Feast of Lights. The upper grade music teachers, Mrs. Aline J. Hall and Miss Helen L. McNair, assisted by Miss Indra M. Bryant, supervisor of music, directed the program.

Two Act Play

The primary grade offering was a play, "Christmas Gold" in two acts, including a comprehensive cast of characters which embraced the entire Grade 3B class. Miss Frieda Vidaver is the teacher. The relationship of all children to the spirit of Christmas was realistically shown with the termination of the Victory Loan drive at Christmas time. The pupils voted to purchase hospital equipment for wounded veterans at England General Hospital, Atlantic City with the $34,000 realized from the sale of Victory bonds during the campaign.

PLAY FEATURES NO. 8 PROGRAM

Over 100 Pupils Join In Christmas Celebration Today

The annual Christmas program at School No. 8, with over 100 pupils participating, will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. It will open with a procession led by the Boys' choir and Girls' choir. This will be followed by a three-act play, "The Awakening of Ebenezer Scrooge," given by the sixth grades under the direction of Miss Geraldine Ward and Mrs. Edith Hirdes.

Sea Food Restaurant Opens Tomorrow

A new sea food restaurant will open tomorrow at 76 Washington avenue under the nom-de-plume of "Captain Finn's." Specializing in a service that is new to Belleville, the restaurant will feature cooked fish orders and clam chowder to take home, packed in convenient containers. A full line of fish and shellfish in season and charcoal broiled steaks and chops will be carried.

According to the manager, George Gleason, by taking advantage of the carry home orders, housewives will eliminate the fish odor in their home and have properly cooked fish, deep-fried in peanut oil.

HOLIDAY PROGRAM AT HIGH SCHOOL

Santa Claus Will Visit Assembly; Students Will Sing Christmas Carols

The High school will celebrate the coming holiday season with a short session Friday morning in the regularly scheduled classes, followed by two general assembly periods, with appropriate Christmas entertainment. There will be group singing, and several of the students will render solos in the Christmas vein.

Santa Claus will also pay a visit to the assembly periods, and will give out several gifts. A group of students will tour the school halls singing carols after the assembly.

According to Hugh Kittle, principal of the school, there is considerable competition among the various home rooms for the honor of having the best decorated room. Christmas trees, wreaths and other forms of decoration are very much in evidence.

NO. 8 PUPILS HAVE YULE PROGRAM

Christmas Music, Play and Group Singing Tomorrow Morning

A pre-view of Christmas will be given to pupils of Passaic avenue School No. 7 tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock when a Yule program will be given in assembly. Mrs. Catherine Hardwick is principal.

Richard Osterhuber will announce the program which will begin with a march played by the school orchestra. The pupils of Grades 6B and 4B will present a playlet, "Tillie's Christmas" and the kindergarten will give a skit, "A Visit from Santa Claus."

The Carol service sung by the Girls' Glee club will be under the direction of Miss Ruth Robertson and will be followed by two selections by the school orchestra with Miss Doris Mauer at the piano.

Songs and recitations will be given by the pupils of Grade 2B and the eighth grade swing band with Miss Marion Butler at the piano will play two selections. The groups of Christmas songs will be sung by the assembly, the upper and lower grades. The program will conclude with a flag salute and march by the school orchestra.

SLIPPERY STREETS, CARS CRASH

Two Accidents Reported By Police As Aftermath Of Snowstorm

Bad weather with slippery streets accounted for two accidents Friday. In a two-car crash at Washington avenue and Rutgers street, the vehicles were damaged and the occupants of one of the autos received medical attention.

Driving west on Rutgers street, Walter Hayne, 50, of 20 Wayland drive, Verona, collided with a car driven by Norvin Clover, 19, also of Verona, going south on Washington avenue. There were five passengers in Hayne's car and Patrick Huel, 20, were treated in St. Mary's hospital in Passaic for cuts and abrasions, and then released.

The other smash-up took place on Main street, at the Walter Kidde plant. Two trucks were involved in the crash, one owned by the Bennett Steel Treating company of Newark and operated by Charles Dorrer of 47 Murray street, Newark and the other owned by Dave Stern, Inc. of Hackensack and driven by Michael De Lorenzo, of Hackensack.

De Lorenzo was uninjured, while Dorrer complained of a back injury, but refused medical attention, saying he would see his own doctor. Both cars suffered considerable damage.

Christmas Tea At Upsala

CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES at Upsala College began last week with the all-campus Yule social sponsored by the Student Council for the benefit of the Upsala College Chapel Fund.

The students are seeking to raise $5,000 for this cause. Married men enrolled at Upsala were assigned the task of preparing and serving the refreshments. The husband-students who gave evidence of their culinary skills are members of the recently organized "Brotherhood of Benedict." James Ferguson, of Verona, president of the group, was chairman of the event. He was assisted by Harry Whitford, of Belleville; Gene Childers and Walter Pettow, both of East Orange; Arthur Flore, Arnold Williamson, and Kenneth Moreland, all of Newark; Charles Hausmann, Irvington; Dayton Moles, Bloomfield; James More, South Orange; Willard Osterheldt, Plainfield; and Robert Snyder, Montclair. As a safety precaution the men, most of whom are veterans, enlisted the aid of a number of married women on campus, among them Mrs. Bruce French, Maplewood; Mrs. Robert Gray, East Orange; Mrs. Willard Osterheldt, Plainfield; and Mrs. Charles Robbins, Llewellyn Park. Mrs. Robbins and Mrs. Gray are shown pouring at the Social. Those attending contributed nearly $1,000 to the Chapel Fund. A Christmas Matins service will be held tomorrow at the First Lutheran Church, East Orange. The students will conduct the entire service.

MUSICAL PROGRAM FEATURES NO. 4

Portrayal Of Christmas In Allied Countries Given By Students

Yesterday afternoon the sixth, seventh and eighth grade students of School No. 4 presented a Christmas pageant entitled "Christmas In Our Allied Countries." Narrator for the program was Constance Valesse, and the appropriate atmosphere was established in a reading "I Dreamed Of Music" by Jean Le Pond.

Illustrating English customs, sixth grade boy choristers, emulating English waifs, sang "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen" and "Good King Wenceslas." In a Yule Log procession, a mixed chorus of seventh graders sang "Deck the Halls With Boughs of Holly."

An eighth grade girls' chorus portrayed the Russian theme, which was enacted by a "Going to Church" and the "Lighting of a Christmas Tree." They rendered the Russian carol "Lo Jesus Lies Cradled."

The "First Noel" and the French carol "Sleep of the Infant Jesus" was sung by a chorus of sixth grade girls. Marie Porcella of the eighth grade sang the "Cantique de Noel."

The program was closed with a mixed chorus of students and the audience, combining on the singing of "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and "Silent Night." In the last-named song, Margaret McGregor appeared as the Angel of Mercy.

The pageant was arranged and directed by Miss Margaret Bunce, music teacher and assisted by Mrs. Ethel Schwartz, Miss Evelyn Pozzo and Mrs. Mayme Martinelli lined with the stage effects and the decorations.

During the last several days of school, Mrs. Schwartz will conduct the traditional caroling through the school corridors.

CARUSO BROTHERS TOGETHER AGAIN

Joyous Christmas Due With Boys Home After Five Years Apart

It will be a happy Christmas for the Caruso family this year. For the first time in almost five years, the five sons of Mr. Pasquale Caruso of 672 Belleville avenue will be together, after having served in the armed forces for various periods.

In point of service and experience, Pfc. Ernest, now home on furlough, goes to the fore. Entering service in 1941, he went overseas after his basic training and participated in the initial landings in France on D-Day. Wounded on July 15, 1944, Pfc. Ernest received the Purple Heart, and is presently undergoing treatment at O'Reilly General Hospital in Missouri. He wears the Combat Infantryman's Badge and a Unit Citation, and his ribbons include the ETO and ATO, the Good Conduct Medal, a battle star and a bronze arrowhead.

Cpl. Henry Caruso was inducted in 1942, and went overseas with the Air Force in December, 1943. He returned to the States last month and received an honorable discharge.

Another brother, Louis, entered the Army Air Corps in 1943, and received an honorable discharge in October of this year. There had to be at least one Navy man, and brother, Adolph, went in with the sea-going lads in March, 1945. He recently was given an honorable discharge.

STUDENTS ELIGIBLE FOR SCHOLARSHIPS

Local High School Seniors Can Compete For Awards At N. J. C.

Belleville high school students as well as girls from other parts of New Jersey are eligible to compete for large scholarships open exclusively to girls in this state, which will be awarded by New Jersey College for Women to students who enter N. J. C. next September. In announcing the scholarships, Dean Margaret T. Corwin said, "We must be sure that girls who have within them the qualities of intellectual courage and spiritual integrity needed to shape a better world of the future do not fail to receive the training which our American colleges and universities are equipped to give."

High school seniors whose financial need might prevent them from gaining a college education may learn details of the scholarships from their school principals. As March 1, 1946 is the final date when applications will be accepted, girls who want to enter college next fall are urged to investigate scholarship opportunities now.

Scholarships which are open exclusively to New Jersey girls include the Elizabeth Rooman Voorhees Scholarship of $700 and the LeClear Scholarship of $250. Awards are made for one year on the basis of financial need, scholarship ability, general character and promise of future achievement, and may be renewed annually if a satisfactory record is maintained. In addition to scholarships limited to New Jersey girls, many grants are open alike to students from New Jersey and other states. Among them are the Herbert Memorial Fund Scholarship of $500 and the McClymonds Scholarship of $250. In all, about 100 scholarships are available for freshmen who will enter N. J. C. next fall.

Complete information on all scholarships for freshmen may be obtained from the secretary of the Scholarship Committee, New Jersey College for Women, New Brunswick, N. J. Established in 1918 as a part of Rutgers University, the college now enrolls over a thousand students. It is a liberal arts college which also offers professional courses in physical education, home economics, library service, journalism, premedicine and pre-nursing training, and agriculture.

TRAINING COURSE AT STEVENS TECH

Pre-Engineering Classes For Veterans Will Begin January 14

The second pre-engineering training course for returning servicemen given by the Industries Training School of Stevens Institute of Technology will begin January 14, Robert H. Baker, Director of the Training School announced yesterday. "These courses are planned for veterans who wish to review high school mathematics and sciences or re-establish study habits before entering engineering training," Mr. Baker said.

Stevens started these refresher classes as part of its program of helping veterans in their professional training. Mr. Baker said that the first course, which ran from September 24 through October 31, was the first refresher training of its kind offered to veterans by a New Jersey college. Of the 48 ex-servicemen who were enrolled in these classes, 41 were qualified for entrance into engineering colleges at the completion of their studies. Thirty-eight of these are now attending Stevens.

"Essentials of mathematics, physics, chemistry and English are coordinated in a full-time program," Mr. Baker said. "In each subject, only material useful in engineering college work is taught. Mathematics and physics are handled as a single subject with physics used to illustrate mathematical concepts."

Classes are conducted under the supervision of, and in most cases by, members of the Stevens faculty. The complete refresher course including all topics, consists of 32 hours of classes per week, with nine additional hours for home study.

Admission to these classes will be handled in conjunction with the College Admissions Office so that those who satisfactorily complete the work will be eligible for admission to Stevens. Mr. Baker pointed out that although a high school diploma is not necessarily a requirement for admission, candidates are advised that various state boards controlling the registration of professional engineers frequently demand high school diploma for professional standing. He suggested that applicants consult their high school principal or state board of education on this subject.

Testimonial Dinner For Esther Adams

B. Thomas Aitken, chairman of the Belleville Chapter, American Red Cross, yesterday made known that a testimonial dinner for Miss Esther Adams will be held on Tuesday evening, January 29, at the Forest Hills Field club.

COMMUNITY HOUSE OBSERVES HOLIDAY

Christmas Under Way This Week With Many Parties Scheduled

In the holiday bedecked community room near a large Christmas tree Silver Lake Community house members and their friends have ushered in the Christmas season this week.

The Community Pleasure club, a mothers' group, exchanged gifts at a party Monday evening; Girl scout troops sponsored by the house celebrated Tuesday evening and the community Christmas dance was held Wednesday evening. A weekly affair, the dance is open to girls over 14, boys over 16 and adults. An orchestra, made up of boys who are members of the house, provides music.

This evening Les Seize Amies, young colored women who meet regularly on Thursday evening, held a dance in the community room. Admission consisted of a toy. The girls, who provide Thanksgiving baskets for needy families through club efforts, will use the toys in a similar Christmas activity.

Tomorrow afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Olian, directors of the house, will be hosts to all children of twelve years and under in the community room after school hours. Games, entertainment, refreshments and a gift of candy have been planned.

RATIONING BOARD HAS NEW TITLE

Will Be Known As Price Control Board; O. P. A. Reports For 1945

In a year-end report released today by District OPA Director Richard J. Tarrant, official notice was given that words "war" and "rationing" will be dropped from the "War Price and Rationing Board" designation after the first of the year. The boards will be known as Price Control Boards, and they will concentrate exclusively on price control.

Tarrant's report for the past year shows rapid conversion of the OPA establishment to a post-war footing during the months following V-J Day.

Highlights from his report indicate that the agency completed a full circle of history by dropping rationing controls on all items except tires and sugar—the first two commodities rationed following Pearl Harbor four years ago. Another reversion to its youth consists of plans now well toward completion for consolidating the three OPA districts of the state into one state office to be located at the present Newark district office.

In the first months of the program in 1942, Newark was the state office following transfer of rationing functions from states to the Federal government. Prior to that rationing was handled by the State Rationing administration in Trenton under the direction of State Administrator Robert Wood Johnson.

The past year, according to Tarrant's report, has also seen a repetition of a program first initiated in 1941—consolidation of the local OPA boards. In 1942 the consolidation reduced the number of boards from 560 to 155, and this year's consolidation further reduced the number to 41—23 in North Jersey, and 9 each in the Trenton and Camden areas.

Beginning January 1 the local boards, to be known as Price Control Boards, will concentrate on holding inflation in check by means of intensified programs of guidance and information among retailers and consumers, and by vigorous exercise of compulsion remedies, such as the triple damage action against violators. Remaining rationing functions will be carried on by the State OPA office in Newark.

The Price Control boards, reduced to two chief functions, and to two panels to carry out these functions—price control and information—will aim to make the boards centers of price and rent information for the community, and local strong points in OPA's continuing war against profiteers, hoarders, and inflationers generally.

As a consumer information center, tenants will get not only full information on rent and eviction "problems from the rent clerk, but will also get help in filling out forms necessary in filing complaints. Shoppers will be able to find out the ceiling price of a used car, a pair of nylons, and a new refrigerator, as well as to report overcharges. Retailers can find out the latest OPA regulations and requirements affecting their businesses, and as a regular service will receive the latest price ceiling lists and other information material.

The information panel and information clerk of the board will see that consumers are kept informed of price ceiling developments by means of speakers, meetings, movies, leaflets, price ceiling lists, and newspaper stories, and that a complete information service is available at the board offices. Organized community groups will be urged to appoint a member to maintain liaison with the board and to see that appropriate information reaches its members.

This kind of community support and cooperation, according to Director Tarrant, is the only way in which this country can hold all it gained in its anti-inflation fight during four years of war, and defeat post-war inflation.

"We are fighting the final battle now," Tarrant declared. "Our efforts to control post-war inflation must be far greater and far more effective than before, because post-war inflationary pressures are greater than those during the war. If we lose now, our wartime successes will be of no more consequence than the early military successes of Germany and Japan."

"We cannot afford to chance this eventuality by relaxing our vigilance now. In a few months more, supply of many scarce commodities will catch up with demand, and the pressure will be eased. OPA's policy is to remove controls commodity by commodity as this balance of supply and demand occurs. We must be patient, we must remain strong, for the next few months are critical."

At Meadowbrook

Tony Pastor

The popular Tony Pastor and his top-notch band commence a three-week engagement at Frank Dailey's Meadowbrook on Christmas Day. Pastor's vocal interpretations are nationally famous, and his recordings have been breaking records all over the country.

A feature at the Meadowbrook before the war will be resumed during the holidays. The College Nights, when various schools are honored, will begin on December 21 and continue on through to January 2.

22nd to Tilton Hospital and December 23rd to the Weequahic Army Air Base Hospital.

Mrs. Eleanor Dwyer and Mrs. Irene Haid, of Newark Unit, will distribute gift packages to hospitalized veterans in private and other hospitals throughout the county. Every sick or disabled veteran in hospitals will be remembered with a gift from the members of the Essex County American Legion Auxiliary and this is made possible by voluntary contributions from each and every one of the 24 units.

Mrs. Louise Card, of Montclair Unit 34 and Mrs. Minetta Engels of Public Service Unit 160, Newark, will bring cheer and gifts from the auxiliary to 27 children at the Protestant Foster home, on Broadway, Newark and to the Orphan's home on High street, Newark.

Mrs. Louise Steward of the "Magazine of the Air" Radio Station WAAT has invited Mrs. Bonnema to be the guest speaker on December 27th at 10:30 a.m. when she will give thanks over the air to the many friendly and public spirited people who gave cheerfully to the "Christmas Gift Boxes to the Yanks Who Gave."

PARTIES ARRANGED FOR GIRL SCOUTS

Informal Gatherings To Follow Carol Singing Sunday Night

Girl Scouts will conclude caroling Sunday evening with informal get-togethers when Troop 3 will entertain Troops 1, 4, 6, 9 and 19 at Wesley church; Troop 11 will entertain the Silver Lake troop at Montgomery Presbyterian church and the Recreation House troops 2, 20 and 22 will be hostesses to Troop 14. Other intermediate troops and four Brownie troops will be served warm beverages and refreshments by troop committee members in their homes.

The girls will carol in neighborhoods near their troop headquarters from 7 to 8:30. Mrs. Arthur Bloemke, assistant leader of Troop 27 has been in charge of the Christmas program.

Scouts have also donated scrapbooks and toys to the hospitals and orphanages and will continue their local public service of providing Christmas favors for use in Essex County isolation hospital.

All scouts are invited by the executive director, Miss Elizabeth Bardagly, to inspect headquarters' windows at 400 Washington avenue during the school holiday.

Personals

Miss Elizabeth Moore of 29 Williams street is recuperating from a recent operation at St. Barnabas hospital in Newark. She is expected to return to her home soon.

A daughter, Carol Anne, was born on November 30 to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Mallack of 128 Mt. Prospect avenue at St. Michaels hospital in Newark. Mrs. Mallack is the former Anna Conroy of Nutley. Mr. Mallack was discharged from the Army after serving in the South Pacific.

After a twenty months stay in Richfield Springs, New York, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kroeger of Linden avenue returned to Belleville recently. Mr. Kroeger was the general manager of the Shurkatch Fishing Tackle company, who were engaged in making fishing tackle for the Kits attached to the life-saving rafts. According to the Kroegers' the winters up there were really something to write about.

Mrs. Everett B. Smith of 15 Van Ruyper place is expected to return home from St. Barnabas hospital before Christmas after a serious illness.

Mrs. Smith is the wife of Police Judge Everett B. Smith.

MANUFACTURERS ADD MEMBERS

Group Marks Fourteenth Year With Dinner and Report From M. F. Tiernan

Martin F. Tiernan, president of the Belleville Manufacturers' association, reported a membership of 43 industries at the association's annual dinner meeting held last week at the plant of the Federal Telephone and Radio corporation in Nutley.

Mr. Tiernan, who is president of Wallace and Tiernan company stated that three new members acquired during the year are Hoffman's Motor Transportation, McGlynn, Hays and company and Miller and Son.

The association which is completing its fourteenth year, was in close touch with the town commission and particularly with Mayor and Finance Director Williams during the preparation of the town budget. Mr. Tiernan reported, "We found the town officials most cooperative and responsive," he said. "We feel that we were helpful in preparing a sound budget for the town. We will offer our service again this coming year for the same purpose."

A representative of the association also kept a close check on ordinances and resolutions introduced and passed by the town commissioners and pertinent information was distributed to members of the association through the service bulletins, the president stated.

The association after much effort, has received assurance that

BELLBOYS DROP HEARTBREAKER

Opening Loss To Bloomfield Tech Veteran Team No Disgrace; Score 35-33

A rookie Belleville cage team dropped a tight decision to a veteran Bloomfield Tech aggregation Tuesday night, a basket and a foul in the last thirty seconds of the game giving the Tech team a 35-33 victory. It marked the opening game for the Bellboys, and they suffered no disgrace in the loss. The Tech five is reputed to be one of the powerhouses in scholastic circles this year, and

ST. PETER'S CAGE TEAMS SPLIT

Six Teams See Action With Intermediates Copping Two Wins

Six teams from St. Peter's CYO saw action on the basketball court this past week. The team representing St. Peter's in the town Church league continued its winning streak by defeating Fewsmith. In CYO competition in Newark two of St. Peter's teams saw victory while three went on to defeat.

In a game played at Weequahic High school gym the senior CYO team lost a close one to St. Cecilia's of Kearney. The final score was 27 to 26. The game was decided in the last minute of play when the lead was taken away from St. Peter's. Jimmy Byrnes led the scoring with 11 points. Last week, the junior team from St. Peter's defeated St. Michael's of Newark in an overtime contest. The fourth quarter ended with the score at 14 all. In the overtime period the local five held St. Michael's scoreless and went on to score four points to take the ball game, 18 to 14. Sutton and John Orsault each had 6 points giving them scoring honors for the game. The intermediate team won their game against St. Francis Xavier of Newark, 33-29 in a game played at West Side High the win gave them two in a row without a loss.

With two minutes to play in the contest, Mike Tortorella laid one in the nets for the Bellboys to give them a 33-30 lead. But two baskets by Vic Spatz and a foul by Nick Cancelliere gave the Bloomfield their margin of victory, after the Belleville crew led for the greater part of the game.

Neither team had much of an offense in the early stages of the game, but Belleville rolled up a 16-10 halftime lead, as Frank Takash, Al Smith and Steve Smallidge began to find the range. The Bellboys held on to their lead grimly, and entering the final period, still were out in front by a margin of 4 points, the count being 24-20. But the Bloomfielders experience stood them in good stead in the last quarter and they outscored the fighting Belleville five by a 15-9 count.

Pacing the attack for the local five was Captain Frank Takash, who tallied ten credits on four field goals and two fouls. Vic Spatz, flashy forward and Herb Scherer, elongated pivot man, shared honors for the winners with 14 and 12 points, respectively.

Elected To National Honor Society In Nutley

Charles Granville Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brewster H. Jones and grandson of the late Charles Granville Jones, well-known local architect who drew up the plans for the Belleville Town Hall, has been inducted into the Nutley Chapter of the National Honor Society.

A senior in the class of June 1946 at Nutley High school, Charles resides with his parents at 134 Union avenue, Nutley.

gym last Thursday. Led by the scoring of McConnell and Godfrey, the St. Peter's team held the lead all the way. A return game played at St. Peter's hall on Sunday, saw the local five win again by a score of 30 to 25. Ferrara was high scorer in the contest. The Intermediates play tonight at West Side, lining up against St. Leo's of Irvington.

The girls' team played their first game in CYO competition on Friday against Sacred Heart of Newark and were defeated by the score of 30 to 18. The locals were unable to overcome the advantage the opponents had in height even though they were leading in the first half of the game. Joan Dacey, playing forward, led the local girls in scoring by accounting for 8 points. Pettilo, center, followed with 6. The team will play tomorrow against St. Joseph's of Maplewood. The games are played according to girls rules with six players on the team.

Sunday afternoon the grammar school five met another defeat, losing to St. Antoninus of Newark by the score of 14 to 8. Seven of St. Peter's points were scored by Frank Malina. The team is scheduled to play St. Columba's on Sunday.

The C O Two team came up from Newark last Sunday and trimmed the senior team on the local court. In a thrilling and hard played contest the C O Two aggregation won by a final score of 28 to 26. The score was tied at the end of the half and at the end of the third quarter St. Peter's led by a score of 20 to 14. When the final whistle blew it was C O Two that copped the verdict by a 2-point margin. Hanley and Byrnes led the scoring for St. Peter's with 8 points apiece, while Dray, Salese and Zuk of C O Two each had 7 points to their credit.

FAMILY SERVICE ANNUAL MEETING

Renamed Community Service Bureau Will Hear Well-Known Psychologist

The annual meeting of the Family Service of Belleville, newly approved name of the Community Service Bureau, will be held at the Woman's club on January 15.

Guest speaker will be Dr. Sophie Robison of New York City, nationally known psychologist who will speak on "The Children's World in Belleville." Dr. Robison is associated with the New York and Smith Schools of Social Work. Dr. Robison is chairman of the nominating committee, assisted by Wayne R. Farmer and Mrs. William P. Adams, will submit a slate of eight names for three year trustees to be elected at the meeting. There are 24 trustees on the board all serving for three year terms with eight being elected each year. Annual reports will also be submitted by the treasurer, Harry Macaulay and Mrs. Julia O. Reiner, executive secretary. The Rev. Marshall Whitehead is president.

The change of name to Family Service was approved on second reading at the monthly meeting of the board on Monday night. The move is in accordance with the nation-wide alteration of titles of the 225 member agencies of the Family Welfare Association of America. Trustees of the local organization feel in concurrence with nation-wide opinion, that a uniform title will make the work of the bureau better understood. At its Monday night meeting the board also approved plans for distribution of a new leaflet early in January, interpreting the services of the organization. Nicholas Colaninno, chairman of publicity, is in charge of the preparation of the leaflet.

Food Fair Stores Present Prize Beef To Wounded

The Grand Champion steer of the Tri-State 4-H Club Baby Beef auction, represented by Berks, Lehigh and Montgomery counties, and purchased by Food Fair Stores, incorporated, will provide hundreds of steak dinners during the holiday season for wounded veterans at the Valley Forge General hospital.

The grand champion, originally owned by J. C. Yerges, Doylestown, weighed 1060 pounds and brought a price of $2,120. After slaughtering and dressing at the Food Fair meat plant, Elizabeth, the beef will be formally presented to the hospital by Major General James A. Ulio, Adjutant General of the Army, now on terminal leave, and recently elected vice president of Food Fair stores. Colonel William V. Vaughan will accept for the hospital.

COMMEND LOCAL CHEMICAL FIRM

Wallace and Tiernan Named By Chemical Warfare Service

Among the New Jersey industries commended for their contributions to chemical warfare research and the successful prosecution of the war was the Wallace and Tiernan company. The commendation came from Maj. Gen. Alden H. Waitt, Chief of the Chemical Warfare Service, and stated as follows: "The Army recognizes the contributions by the chemical industry toward the offensive and hastened the victory. Without the ingenuity of chemical research and development, our incendiary bombs, flame throwers, chemical shells and smoke-generating appliances would not have been so decisively effective, nor would our high degree of preparedness for gas have dissuaded the enemy from introducing that weapon." "I can't pay too high a tribute," General Waitt continued, "to the many firms, institutions, groups and individuals responsible for the unprecedented success of chemical weapons and munitions, both active and passive. "Though war is not the most economic method of developing new ideas and material for the benefit of mankind, the stress of it does sharpen inventive genius, prods initiative, and spurs application. Consequently, it is vital that the chemical industry and the Chemical Warfare Service continue to play ball!"

Raymond A. Schultz, aviation electrician's mate, second class, 80 Beech street, served with Air Transport Squadron 12 of the Naval Air Transport Service before being detached recently to await transfer to the States and discharge.

The squadron is responsible for administration and aircraft maintenance of the far-flung NATS Pacific operation, which daily sends planes over 20,000 miles of air routes from Oakland to Tokyo, and Guadalcanal and the Philippines.

The fleet of huge 4 engine planes travels nearly half a million miles a month carrying more than 20,000 passengers, 125,000,000 pieces of mail and hundreds of tons of high priority cargo.

Sixteen daily trips are maintained between Oakland and Honolulu and six between Honolulu and Guam.

Domenic A. Nardi, WT 3/c, is home on a furlough for 30 days. He just arrived home from Japan, and has seen 22 months service in that theater.

He has lived in Belleville for 23 years, attended Belleville High school for two years, and Vocational School, three years. He was employed by Bloomfield Tool Co. as a machinist before entering service.

McMM 1/c Christian Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Hansen of 38 Garden avenue, received his honorable discharge from the U. S. Navy on December 17 at the Naval Separation Center in Boston.

A veteran of three and one half years service, Hansen wears the American and Southwest Pacific ribbons, three battle stars and the Good Conduct Medal. He is a graduate of the Machinist Mates' school and the PT schools.

His last station of duty was at Quonset Point, R. I. Prior to entering service, Hansen was employed as a machinist.

T/Sgt. James J. McNally of 11 Howard place was honorably discharged from the Army Air Forces on December 18. He was most recently at the AAF Convalescent hospital, Flattsburg Barracks, N. Y.

Pfc. Robert Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Henderson of 186 Rutgers street, received an honorable discharge from the Army after four years in service. He was engaged with the Army Intelligence Division.

His brother, ST 2/c William Henderson, stationed in Hawaii, called Mrs. Henderson on the telephone last week-end to wish the family a Merry Christmas.

Red Cross Graduates At Dinner

TEN GRADUATES of Red Cross Home Service instruction are shown with their director, Mrs. Muriel J. Taggart, standing third from the left, as they received certificates and pins at a dinner in Wesley Methodist church dining rooms last Thursday evening. Standing: Mrs. John Zeiterstrom, Mrs. Harold Fobert, Mrs. Taggart, Mrs. Sidney Browne, Mrs. Bernard Kelly, Mrs. Mary Kaye; seated: Mrs. Thomas Beers, Mrs. James Castner, Mrs. Anita Busch, Miss Clara Lewis, all of Belleville, and Mrs. Eolla Morroni of Newark.

FOOTBALL DINNER
HUGE SUCCESS

Varsity Club Sponsors First Annual Banquet For Gridiron Squad

The first annual dinner of the Varsity club in honor of the High School football team turned out to be an outstanding success. A capacity crowd of more than 240 attended the affair at the high school cafeteria.

Guests of honor included the 1945 football team, the members of the Board of Education, State Treasurer Homer Zink and Mrs. Zink, Town Commissioners Raymond Mertz and Mrs. Mertz, Louis A. Noll and Mrs. Noll and Joseph F. King. Coaches Bill Chapman, Frank Spotts, Jitty Wische and Nova Babb and members of the Athletic Council were also among the guests.

Tony Paschal, president of the Varsity club, acted as toastmaster in the absence of Police Judge Everett Smith. Speakers introduced by Paschal were Judd Timm, backfield and head track coach at Princeton university and Joseph Kasberger, baseball and football coach at St. Benedict's Prep.

Providing the entertainment for the evening was Town Attorney Larry Keenan, who was billed as the "World's Worst Magician." The committee in charge of the dinner was composed of Lloyd Kintzing, chairman, Harold Fobert, Jack Hicks and Bill Bennett.

Navy Vet Suffers Attack
Of Malaria At Home

Patrick Torchia, 23, of 136 Haeckel street, suffered an attack of malaria at his home last week. Unable to contact their family physician, Torchia's wife called police, who removed him to the Columbus hospital in the town ambulance. The hospital referred Torchia to Dr. Julian of Newark, who treated him and sent him to the City Hospital in Newark as Columbus hospital was full. Torchia was recently discharged from the Navy.

Thieves Break Into Office
Of American Tag

William H. Miller of the American Tag company on Cortlandt street reported to police last week that two pen desk sets, a fountain pen and a portable electric adding machine had been stolen from the office. The thefts are reported to have been committed during the night.

DIVORCED FROM
THRICE-WED GIRL

Former Soldier Was One Of Three GI's Mulcted Of Allotment Checks

A local ex-serviceman, Anthony P. Corbone of 13 Hilton street, was granted a divorce on the grounds of desertion from Mrs. Helen Nix on Trimble last week before Advisory Master Matthews. Corbone was one of three men married by Mrs. Trimble, and whom she collected allotment checks from while in service.

Married to Mrs. Trimble in Allentown, February 1934, Corbone asserted that she had left him in August 1941.

Mrs. Trimble, who was sentenced to a year in the Federal Penitentiary last March by Federal Judge Meany for defrauding the U.S. Government out of $2,000 in allotment checks, was not in court during the hearing.

Certificates were produced by Corbone showing Mrs. Trimble was married to Frederick J. Chard Jr. of Irvington in March 1940, at Warrenton, Va.; one showing she was married to William E. Cole, February 1942 at South Mills, N.C.; She is also supposed to have been married to J. Frank Trimble the same year, according to federal records.

Eight Have Old Jobs Back At Local Plant With 38 Still In Service

Approximately one-fourth of the Westinghouse Lamp division men and women who entered World War II have rejoined the company at its plants in Belleville, Bloomfield, Trenton and Fairmount, W. Va., a survey showed today.

"Of the 1,200 who left their manufacturing and office jobs to serve in the armed forces, 288 are back at work," reported William E. Short, staff assistant in the industrial relations department. He added: "In interviewing the returned men and women, we have found that because of their military training some of them qualify for better positions than before they went off to war. Where possible, the reassignments to these new positions are made."

Mr. Short is coordinator for the war veteran reemployment program underway at Lamp division headquarters in Bloomfield. The program is joined in by the employment, training and medical departments and shop and office supervisors.

The survey showed that at Bloomfield 236 veterans have returned and 679 men and women are still in military service; at Trenton 12 have returned and 32 are still in the service; at Belleville eight veterans have returned and 38 remain in the service; at Fairmount 32 veterans have returned and 133 others are still in service.

Twenty-seven men from the plants died in military service.

Famous Spanish Dancer
Appears In Newark

Carmelita Maracei and her company of dancers will be presented at the Mosque Theatre, Newark, on Tuesday evening, January 8th under auspices of the Griffith Music Foundation. Miss Maracei was born in Montevideo, Uruguay, daughter of a Spanish mother and an Italian father, and came to San Francisco as a child. In coming under the banner of S. Hurok, Miss Maracei and her company join such other notable dance groups as the Ballet Theatre, Alicia Markova and Anton Dolin, and their ballet ensemble, and the outstanding American dancer, on the roster of the dance impresario who managed Pavlova, Escudero, Shan-Kar, Trudi Schoop and brought Russian Ballet back to the United States twelve years ago.

Christmas, 1945

Christmas comes again; but, with the world in ruins and humanity tortured by its self-created starvation and despair, one wonders how many Christmases must pass before the miracle of Bethlehem will at last soften the hearts of men.

"For this Your mother sweated in the cold,
For this You bled upon the bitter tree."
Well might America's great poet scorn man's mockery of the day. In all the two thousand years since the first Christmas night among the hills of Bethlehem, the Christian peoples have proclaimed their acceptance of Jesus' message of love; and for two thousand years they have secretly rejected it. Today the evidence of their hypocrisy lies all about us. Broken nations, shattered cities, the cries of the starving and the maimed, the mute, unanswerable logic of the dead—all give testimony to the emptiness of man's welcome to the ancient of "Peace on earth, good will to men."

Maybe this Christmas will be different. Maybe the rulers of the world will at last turn from their folly to the good will the world needs. Knit together by suffering, bewildered by the fate that has overtaken them, men may in their anguish now open their hearts to an enduring acceptance of the great message of Christmas. Let us hope so. Let us pray that out of this holocaust has come a new spirit of humility—a spirit of tolerance and charity and love that will ease the path which all of must tread toward a future dark and uncertain.

A Little Christmas Spirit

With many out-of-towners visiting our one and enlarged shopping center, it might be wise to give the Town Hall a touch of the festive spirit. A few Christmas lights and perhaps a lighted Christmas tree on each side of the entrance to the building would bring the Municipal structure on a par with the shopping district.

The merchants are trying to sell their products and decorate their stores, so let's brighten up the old homestead, and try to sell the Town of Belleville.

One-Legged Progress

Not the least of the fears arising from the atom bomb is that man is still so primitive in his social culture that he will be powerless to cope with the tremendous forces his scientific progress has loosed. That there is ample ground for this fear is revealed in the swiftness of man's conquest of nature as contrasted with the lag in the development of his social concepts.

An old device of historians can be used as illustration. This device asks us to imagine that the whole history of mankind has been crowded into twelve hours and that we are now living at noon of the long human day. Thus each hour of our clock will represent 20,000 years, each minute 333 1/3 years. Assuming that man has been walking upright and seeking inventions for 240,000 years, probably less than one quarter of the actual time he has been on this planet, nothing of his progress, nothing even of his existence, is recorded on our clock for eleven and one-half hours; our only evidence of man's previous life is in the stone tools, bits of pottery, crude drawings of mammoths that have been discovered.

At 11:40 o'clock—twenty minutes ago—the first vestiges of Egyptian and Babylonian civilization appeared. Greek civilization, which we are accustomed to look upon as "ancient," is seven minutes old. One minute ago, Francis Bacon, the father of modern science, wrote his "Advancement of Learning," and the first steam engine was put to work thirty seconds ago.

Thus, in the long climb of man from the mud, the mechanical civilization which we have about us today has come on man like a thunderclap. And now comes the atom, opening a new age of material development.

The possible transformation of the earth which is possible in this new atomic age is pictured by Julian Huxley. The polar ice packs, blasted by atomic "dynamite," could be reduced, says Huxley, thus giving foggy Britain, for instance, the climate of Spain. A pile of uranium the size of a double bed might generate for centuries as much power as we get from the Grand Coulee Dam, and this power could be transmitted by high tension wires to regions that have no coal, oil or waterpower. By atomic distillation of sea water, the Sahara could be made to bloom again. Thus vast tracts now uninhabitable could be made the abode of man.

It is inevitable that this growing mastery of nature should be contrasted with man's lack of social progress. Taboos and superstitions that were part of the savage's nature still have their hold on us. Our churches, schools, even our universities, continue to inculcate beliefs and ideals that have come down to us for centuries without examination. We have just fought a war of mechanical marvels amid human degradation that is appalling.

Men acclaim the mastery of nature. Ancient fears, however, make them fight all attempts to master themselves.

The snowstorm last week brought good sleigh-riding to the youngsters in town. But the only protected spot they have to do their coasting is Belleville Park.

Before we have a tragedy, a broken sled and a maimed or dead child, why not earmark several streets in different sections of the town, detour traffic around these streets and provide protected recreation for the youngsters?

This is not a new innovation by any means, as it is quite common in other towns. Police protection is not necessary, just rope off a couple of streets. Motorists would rather be inconvenienced a trifle, than perhaps be held on a manslaughter charge.

Reminder

The cost of war is revealed in figures compiled by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. In World War II this country lost more men in battle than in all other wars in our history combined, including the losses on both sides of the Civil War. With 325,000 killed in action, missing or subsequently dead from wounds, our losses in the war were more than six times our losses in World War I.

The insurance company pointed out that we suffered fewer deaths than either of our two major European allies or our two major enemies. Moreover, "our country was the only major belligerent to escape severe destruction of life or property in its territory. But the very size of our losses should spur our leaders in the endeavor to develop in concert with other nations a permanent world organization for peace."

If another war comes, of course, there will be the atom bomb, to make these losses look infinitesimal.

Justice Triumphs

The ever-boiling Corbin Gardens finally caught up with the owner, Louis Kaye this week, as Police Judge Everett B. Smith meted out a $300 fine for 12 heating violations.

After playing "Waltz Me Around Again" with the Town Commission for the past two years and consistently in difficulty with the tenants over the heating and garbage services rendered, the Board of Health became sick and tired of the continual complaints of the tenants and hailed Kaye into court.

This paper has maintained all along that Kaye was not rendering the proper services that the tenants were paying for, and Judge Smith substantiated this by accusing Kaye of "poor management" and stating this was the most flagrant case of heating violations ever to come before him.

During the course of the hearing, Mr. Kaye's attorney revealed that his client was dickering to sell the property, preferably to a local interest. We think this would be a splendid idea, for we do not think Kaye has given the residents of this town living in his apartments a "fair shake."

We wish to congratulate Judge Smith and the Board of Health, under Eugene Berry, for doling out the penalty. Perhaps Mr. Kaye will wake up and find there are means, as he has discovered, to force him to render the services he has contracted for, and provide ample labor under adequate supervision to give his customers their money's worth.

The Winter's Tale Again

All the age-old propaganda to the contrary notwithstanding, snow is not one of our enthusiasms. Whittier told of its beauties in rural New England; Dickens glowed in spurious good cheer over Tiny Tim's Christmas amid the snowflakes, and Kate Smith bellows to her untold millions the longing of Irving Berlin for a white Christmas. We are not impressed. Snow may be an asset for the farmers, and out in the country there is no denying that it makes charming vistas. But in town it remains a nuisance. If our scientists would spend less time cracking the atom, and devote some attention to discovering means of diverting snow from the suburbs, they'd be really helping suffering humanity.

"God Bless Us, Every One!"

Remember When —

Five Years Ago
Arthur Mayer, local realtor, was elected treasurer of the Board of Realtors of Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Belleville and Nutley at the annual meeting of the group.

The Petrean club announced plans for two coming social events. Thomas Mullen was appointed chairman of a committee for a barn dance and Agnes Lally was named to head a committee for a formal supper-dance. The Christmas party was held by the club in the St. Peter's hall, at which gifts were exchanged.

Miss Connie Hamilton of Holmes street entertained for the Scandalettes at a Christmas party and in honor of the birthday of Miss Francis Gorrin of Cedar Hill avenue. Those present were the Misses Tina Berliss, Frances Haworth, Lucy Alden and Claire Drexler of this town.

The W.P.A. Nursery school held a Christmas party at V.F.W. headquarters, and toys donated by the Junior Women's club were presented to the children by a Santa Claus. Mrs. Charles Smith was chairman of the arrangements.

The Junior Red Cross organization in town was commended by the Board of Education for its excellent work in Belleville. A total of $437 was collected in the various schools in town by the group.

The Belleville High school basketball team copped its first win of the season when they trimmed a weak Harrison five by a 29-19 count. Jim Shanahan paced the winners with eight points.

Two seniors at Belleville High school, the Misses Ellen Conroy and Muriel Ochser, were awarded first and third prizes, respectively, in an essay contest sponsored by the Board of Street Improvement Association of Newark. The awards were won by the two local girls against more than 380 contestants from Northern New Jersey.

The Junior Women's club held its annual Christmas party at their club-house. Miss Estelle Powers, president, greeted the members, who brought Christmas baskets to be distributed to the needy.

Mrs. Florence Estelle of Tappan avenue was hostess to her card club at her home. Guests included Mrs. Harold Cory, Mrs. Earl Briggs, Mrs. Edgar L. Tallman, Mrs. J. R. MacArthur, Mrs. Henry Squire, Mrs. George Cox and Mrs. William Wilson.

Members and friends of the Xeroid Boat club attended the annual Christmas dinner-dance at the Log Cabin Room of the Hotel Douglas in Newark. Mr. and Mrs. T. Russell Sargeant headed the committee that was in charge of the arrangements.

Miss Jane Harvey was chairman of the semi-annual supper-dance given by the Beta Chapter of Belleville, Sigma Nu Beta sorsority that was held at the Hotel McAlpin in New York.

Fifteen Years Ago
The Belleville Women's Democratic club held a card party at the Knights of Columbus Home. The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. May Kaiser, chairman; Mrs. Emma Stickney, Mrs. May Mann, Mrs. Catherine Ward, Mrs. Mary Whalen, Mrs. Mary Walsh and Mrs. Jewell Donnelly.

The Lions club began the distribution of toys they had collected among the needy families in town. The toys had been repaired and put in order by the town Fire department. Dr. Daniel E. Kavanaugh was the general chairman in charge of the work.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stanfield of Lincoln terrace had as holiday guests Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Zoeller, Mr. and Mrs. George Magill and daughter, Ann, John Boehmer, all of town, and Mr. and Mrs. John Boehmer of Newark.

The Belleville Craftsmen's club announced plans for a musical comedy to be given in February. Al Schuman of Newark was obtained to act as coach.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Ness of Bremond street will entertain Christmas for Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Ebel, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Breunich and daughter, Virginia, and Mr. and Mrs. William Walker of town, and Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Waite of Red bank.

Plans were discussed at the Recreation House for the annual banquet of the American Legion. Richard Dolan, Lawrence E. Keenan, Albert Blank, Richard Flanagan and Otto Breunich comprised the committee on arrangements.

The Belleville Rod and Gun club was formed with a charter membership of thirteen. Officers elect were William D. Clark, president; John DeGraw, vice-president; A. A. Buckley, secretary; William Stewart, treasurer. The Board of Directors were composed of the above-named officials and James Davidson, J. Kristen and Dr. D. S. Tillou.

The film attraction at the Capitol Theatre was Ben Lyon and Blanche Sweet in "The New Commandant." The next attraction was Ricardo Cortez and Greta Nissen playing in "In the Name of Love." The co-feature was Edward Everett in "A Beggar on Horseback."

Lefty Kintzing and Dewey Schwankert paced the Belleville Collegiates to a 29-23 victory over the strong St. Joseph's five.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Siebold of 194 Little street motored to Nazareth, Pa. to visit friends for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clause of Tappan avenue entertained the A.C.P.W. 500 club at their home. High scores were made by Mrs. J. K. Alexander and Mr. Clause.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cyphers of 58 Lightham avenue and guests, Clement Carr of Rutherford and Miss Helea Brooks of Montclair spent Sunday at Lake Musconetcong.

Christian Science

276 Main Avenue, Passaic.

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday. Golden text: "Singing unto the Lord, all the earth; shew forth from day to day his salvation. Declare his glory among the heathen; his marvellous works among all nations."

Sermon: Passages from the King James version of the Bible include: "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: . . . Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "God creates and governs the universe, including man. The universe is filled with spiritual ideas, which He evolves, and they are obedient to the Mind that makes them."

Funeral For Father Of

Mrs. Joseph Duval

Henry Miller Brown, father of Mrs. Joseph Duval, office manager of the Belleville Times-News, died last Tuesday and was buried in Parsippany cemetery.

An employee of the Nutley Sun for the past thirty years, Mr. Brown was very active and worked up to several days preceding his death. He was ill for only a short time.

Born in township of Parsippany-Troy Hills in January, 1860, Mr. Brown was one of the oldest residents in the township. He owned his own wheelright business prior to joining the Nutley Sun.

The funerals services were conducted by the Rev. Ralph Johnson of Parsippany Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Brown was a life-long member.

Survivors are Mrs. Julie LeFavre Brown, and Mrs. Duval, the former Margaret Brown.

Belleville ReformedRev. Dr. John A. Struyk, pastor.
171 Main Street.

Thursday, 1:30—Women's Missionary society Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Albert Dehler of 55 Division avenue; exchange of gifts.

Friday, 7:30—Choir rehearsal; Christmas music will be chosen; a larger choir is in practice for Christmas services.

Sunday, 9:45—Children's sermon, "God's Christmas Present," songs and recitations by Beginners and Primary Sunday school classes; 11—Pre-Christmas sermon, "Christmas Predictions," baptism of Children.

Christmas Day, 10—D. Struyk will speak on "Bethlehem, Our Hope," carols by choir and congregation.

Sunday, December 30, 11—Holy Communion; members received.

St. Peter's CatholicRev. Joseph M. Kelly, pastor.
155 William Street.

Sunday masses at 6, 7, 8, 9, Childrens, 10, 11 a.m. and 12 noon. Confessions Saturday from 4 to 6 p.m. and from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Masses are held at 5:30, 7 and 8 a.m. On Holy days of obligations there are masses at 5:30, 7 and 9 a.m.

Everyman's Bible Class
126 Jerusalem Street;
George W. Tranter, leader.

Sunday morning Everyman's Bible class will hold its Christmas service in Masonic temple on Jerusalem street at 9:30. Seasonal musical selections and an address on "The Meaning of Christmas" by George Tranter, leader of the class, have been prepared.

Members have issued an invitation to all Belleville men to open the Christmas season by attend-

Dies Suddenly

Mrs. Edith Colburn Hilton, 33, died suddenly at Lincoln hospital in Newark last Friday. Wife of John J. Hilton of 140 Carpenter terrace, Mrs. Hilton had resided in town four years.

Born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Mrs. Hilton moved to West Orange 20 years ago. She was a graduate of West Orange High school and became a nurse, graduating from the East Orange General hospital.

Survivors in addition to her husband are a daughter, Edith, at home, her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Colburn Edwards of the same address, and a brother, Harold C. Colburn of East Orange.

Funeral was conducted from the Joseph A. Chickene Funeral home in Kearny, with the burial in East Ridgewood Cemetery in Delawanna.

CHRISTMAS NIGHTAT SCHOOL NO. 9Children Will Present Program
Tonight With Many Taking Part

"A Christmas Festival" presented annually by School No. 9 will be held in the auditorium tonight at 8:15 p.m. Thomas C. Gryczka, principal, is in charge of all arrangements.

Children from all grades will participate in the play "Christmas Eve in Fairyland," under the direction of Miss Violet McGlathery and Mrs. Doris Kirsner.

Among the members of the cast of twenty-nine are: Phyllis Frisicia as Titania, the queen; Joseph Gilchrist as the Brownie; Katherine Fusaro, as the Herald; Gerald Bissell as Santa Claus; Robert Freitag as the Spirit; Joan McMurray as Mother Goose; Irene Gilchrist as Queen of Hearts; Mary Lou Carlson as Basket Woman, and Irene Miller as Shoe Woman.

The planning and painting of scenery was done by William Gerard, Raymond Kowalski, William Tetro and helpers, and carpentry work by Nelson Morrell and Jerome Boardingham.

The school has been decorated throughout with spruce boughs and wreaths.

A mixed choir of seventh and eighth grade students will present Christmas carols, under the direction of Miss Indra Bryant.

Solo parts will be sung by following: "O Holy Night," J. Gilchrist; "Away in the Manger," Virginia Russ, Lorraine O'Neil, Betty Lennox, Ann L. Tazzi, Helen Mello, Dorothy Nicola; "What Child Is This," Frank, D'Antonio; Joseph, "We Three Kings of Orient Are," Charles Gordon, D. McCloskey, Joseph Gilchrist.

NEWARK REALTORS ANNUAL MEETING

Dinner In Newark Tonight
Will Be Followed By Holiday Party

The Annual Meeting of the Real Estate Board of Newark will be held tonight at the Hotel Sheraton in the form of a dinner, starting at 6:30 o'clock. Albert V. Neuscheler, President of the Board will submit his report of steward-ship through distribution of REBON, a mimeographed booklet enumerating the highlights of the 1945 administration.

John A. Linnett, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, will submit his committee's report with recommendations of nominees for the offices of President, First, Sec-ond and Third Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer for 1946 and five Governors to serve for a term of three years.

Guest speaker at this meeting will be Judge John J. Rafferty, of the Court of Errors and Appeals of New Jersey. Subject of his ad-dress will be: "Business — Private Property or Trusteeship."

A special feature of the meeting will be the entertainment of mem-bers of the Board who are or have been serving in the armed forces of the Country. All service mem-bers have been invited to attend this meeting as guests of the Board. In most instances, this will be the first meeting the service members have attended since 1941.

The business meeting will be fol-lowed by the Board's Annual holi-day party with a variety of special entertainment features.

Westinghouse Reunion For "Old Timers"

Samuel G. Hibben, the Westing-house Lamp division's director of applied lighting, spoke last week at a reunion of the Veteran Em-ployees' association, an organiza-tion made up of lamp division em-ployees who have at least 20 years of service.

The group convened at 8:15 p.m. in East Orange High school. It lists 500 members on its ro-s-ter, 16 of whom are employees of the base plant in Belleville and 50 of whom are retired.

What's the Dif?

DIF
Washes it Double Quick

Get household cleaning done, double quick. DIF in cleaning water washes painted walls, floors, glass in a jiffy... takes "cling" out of grease and grime. A little goes far—fast. Don't forget, DIF is double quick for clothes and dishes, too.
