

SCHOOL BONDS GO AT 1.75 PERCENT INTEREST RATE

Fidelity Union Buys Issue Of $300,000 With Premium Of $208.21 Plus Low Rate

The issue of $300,000 worth of school improvement bonds, offered for sale by the Board of Education on Monday evening brought forth spirited bidding and a very low interest rate for the successful bidder, the Fidelity Union Trust Company of Belleville and Newark. Fidelity in offering to take an interest rate of one and three-quarters per cent and to pay a premium of $208.21 offered $1,400 more for the bonds than the next nearest of the five other bidders. The interest rate compares very well with the three and three-quarters per cent rate paid on the last school issue, made in 1936.

Tax Free Interest
The fact that income from school improvement bonds is not subject to federal income taxes plus the sound financial condition of the town attracted the six favorable bids. Besides the Fidelity as the low bidder the People's National Bank and Trust Company of Belleville also bid, but its bid was least attractive because of a 2.05 per cent interest rate asked. Four New York City and Newark firms put in bids which differed only in the amount of the premiums offered. All offered to take the bonds at an 1.85 per cent interest rate. J. B. Hanauer & Co. of Newark offered only $10.25 premium; B. J. Van Ingen & Co. offered $180.90; Boland, Saffin & Co. offered $257.97, and Ira Haupt & Co. offered $327.30 in premium. The Peoples National Bank & Trust Company offered a $264 premium.

Sought for Robbery, Admits Forging Company Checks

Police Arrest Theodore Belfi for Robbery of Jack Frost Dairy Plant on June 27; Ran Stolen Checks Through Checkwriter

Theodore Belfi, 24, of 248 North Belmont Avenue was held without bail for grand jury action by Acting Magistrate Charles Tedesco, yesterday, on charges of breaking and entry, robbery and forgery. Belfi was arrested late Monday night by Deputy Chief Charles McGuinnis and Detective Edwin Fletcher, on a tip supplied by one of his friends. Police have been looking for Belfi since June 27th, when the Jack Frost Dairy in Frederick Street was entered and $174 in cash taken. Also taken at that time were eight of the company's checks, which Belfi admits running through the company's check writing machine. Four of the checks totaling about $280 were forged and cashed according to Belfi's statement to the police. All were cashed in supermarkets, one at the Food Fair in Belleville, one in Newark, one in Lyndhurst and another in Nut-

DRIVER MAKES ALL LIGHTS AT 70 MPH

Loses License For 6 Months; Tossing Firecracker From Car Costs $103

One motorist had his driver's license suspended for six months and a passenger in another car paid a fine of $100 and $3 costs in Magistrate Everett B. Smith's traffic court last week. Salvatore DiNello of Haledon had his license lifted on a charge of doing 70 miles per hour on Washington Avenue on July 5 at 1:30 o'clock at night. Patrolman Irving Holly Jr. said the motorist managed to make every light at that speed and that he had to do 85 miles per hour to overtake the speeder.

Angelo R. Salerno of 220 Garfield Street, Newark, paid $103. He was arrested by Sergeant Donald Smith on July 3 for throwing a lighted firecracker from a car in the direction of several girls standing on the sidewalk. He was assessed the minimum fine as prescribed in the state law covering the use and misuse of fireworks. Harold J. Parks of Atlantic City had a tough day Wednesday. He came to the Belleville court to answer a complaint made by Patrolman Joseph Smith that on June 25 he drove on a learner's permit without having a licensed driver accompanying him. Parks was involved in a fender scratching accident and his predicament was noted as the officer checked the credentials of both drivers. Since that date Parks received his driver's license, but on the morning of his appearance here, he was before a magistrate in Atlantic City and had his new license suspended for six months. So he still had no license when he appeared here. He was fined $18.

Board Ups Seven On Salary Guide; Mrs. Halloway Is Recommended For Audit

The Board of Education on Monday night by resolution granted retirement to Wayne R. Parmer at the rate of $5,000 per year under the terms of the New Jersey Veterans Pension Act. Mr. Parmer, who was also a member of the school pension fund, chose to have his pension paid out of town funds as is provided for in the veterans pension act. The meeting was the last regular meeting of the board until September 17. A resolution calling off the August 20 meeting provided that the district clerk be authorized to pay all bills, after the list is signed by a majority of the board members.

Recommended for Audit
Mrs. Hermine Halloway, bookkeeper in the district clerk's office, was granted a $300 per annum raise for the next school year. It was also announced that Mrs. Halloway has been recommended by the State Board of Education to serve on a state auditing committee of school funds. The law provides that one of the three members of the auditing committee be a bookkeeper, and it is quite an honor for Belleville's school bookkeeper to be chosen. The appointment is official as yet, but is expected in the very near future.

Six teachers and principals were recommended for increments as a result of advancing in the salary guide. They are Miss Eleanor Walsh, Miss Lena A. Falco, Miss Kathryn Conklin, Miss Mary A. Murray, Mrs. Ann P. Burns, Sheldon E. Hein and Hugh D. Kittle. Mr. Kittle, principal of the high school, for completing the educational requirements for a doctor's degree is increased from $7,500 to $7,900 per year as of July 1 since he takes his salary in 12 installments.

The resignation of Miss Gloria Rosamilia of School No. 7 was accepted as of August 30. The resignation of Joseph Beha, who has been on leave of absence for six months, was accepted as of June 30.

Miss Sherman Appointed
Miss Dorothy Sherman of 114 Overlook Avenue was appointed secretary to Superintendent Evan Thomas as of July 23 at a salary of $2,650 per annum.

On recommendation of Wayne R. Parmer, high school diplomas were granted to Manual Feruchio and Edward Daniels, members of the class of June, 1951, who made up the credits necessary to earn their diplomas, by going to accredited summer and night schools.

The board authorized District Clerk Ruel Daniels to buy two new Ford sedans and to trade in two old cars owned by the board. The price quoted by George H. Mead was $3,335, less the trade-ins of the old cars.

Says Europe Would Side With Russia in U.S. War

Belleville Banker Finds Both France and Italy Unworried, But Practical; Food Plentiful on Six-Week Tour of Principal Cities

B. Thomas Aiken, president of the People's National Bank and Trust Company was the speaker at the luncheon of the Belleville Rotary Club on Wednesday and gave a report on part of his six-week trip to France, Italy and Scotland. Mr. Aiken told his listeners that the purpose of his visit was to find out first hand, instead of through propaganda channels, about the current economic, social and political situations in those countries.

Mr. Aiken was a typical American tourist, according to his recital of his visits in Paris, Rome, Capri, Venice and other points of interest. He said there was no shortage of food, in fact the meals were so sumptuous that he refrained from taking more than one day after his first few days in Paris.

Prospering with Our Aid
Economically, France and Italy seem to be prospering with the help of American funds, but he reported that around the principal transportation centers of Italy there was evidence that there was still considerable unemployment.

On the political front, Mr. Aiken said he talked with a manufacturer who summed up the attitude of most people. War with Russia is not feared at this time because Russia had its opportunity last year and failed to accept it. But if faced with choosing between Russia and the United States in the event of a war, France, Germany and Italy would not hesitate to side with Russia despite American dollars and American aid.

Want to Be on Winning Side
The manufacturer summed it up this way: If they sided with America and America lost, they fear what might happen to them at the hands of the Russians. On the other hand if Russia lost, they know that America would be ready to lend a helping hand and would not retaliate. Europeans want to make sure that in event of a war they are on the winning side.

Board Votes $500 Toward Belleville Varsity Shell

Efforts of the Belleville Varsity Club to raise funds for the purchase of a new eight-oared shell for the Belleville High School crew was recognized by the Board of Education on Monday night, when it voted to transfer $500 to the Athletic Council with instructions that it be used to help buy the shell. The boat which must be ordered by September 1, for delivery next spring will cost $2,200. As a result of the board's action, which means that the Shell Fund must raise $1,700 instead of $2,200, the Varsity Club now has only $804.88 to go to reach its goal. The other $895.12 has been raised or promised by various groups and individuals, including $400 raised in the high school and $300 pledged by the Varsity Club. Contributions will be accepted by Mac Lamb, chairman, by the Peoples National Bank and Trust Company and the Belleville Times-News.

Check of Vacant House Reveals Two Robberies

Theft of about $125 worth of jewelry from the home of Samuel L. Shaw of 22 Van Reyper Place, was reported to police on Tuesday when the Shaw family returned home from a vacation. The entry, one of two in Van Reyper Place, Sunday night, was discovered by police in a routine check of homes listed at police headquarters as vacant during the vacations of families. A third suspected break in the same street, turned out to be a false alarm.

Mrs. Shaw said stolen articles included two watches and a jeweled pin. She said the burglars missed another watch and a diamond ring. The family was notified of the burglary by police at their summer home in Paulinsk Lake, N. Y.

Patrolman Juliano, Sullivan and deHagana discovered the breaks early Monday morning while making their daily check on vacant houses. Besides the Shaw home, the home of Herbert V. Ryan of 30 Van Reyper Place, was entered. The extent of the loot there will not be known until the family gets back from its vacation.

In both places the policemen found a rear screen out, the window jimmied and the bedrooms sacked, with things from all drawers dumped into the middle of the floor.

The officers thought they had evidence of another attempt at the home of Dr. Barney Schaffer at 10 Van Reyper Place. There they found the moulding torn off the screen and a rip in the wire. Dr. Schaffer looked the situation over and informed the police that the screen had been damaged by his dog.

Nurse Thwarts Accoster When She Sees House Light
Mrs. Margaret Kirk, 26, of 33 Chestnut Street, showed rare presence of mind late Tuesday night to escape from a man who grabbed her arm while she was walking along Passaic Avenue, after getting off a No. 28 bus. Mrs. Kirk, a nurse, was on her way home from work. After getting off the bus she noticed a man following her, but paid no attention until he grabbed her arm and asked her if she was married. She replied that she was. "That makes no difference," the man said, still holding her arm.

Mrs. Kirk walked along until she saw a light in the house at 65 Passaic Avenue, and when in front, she broke away and screamed. When W. T. Pudney, of that address, came to the door, the man ran away. Mrs. Kirk was taken into the Pudney home while Mr. Pudney called police. Patrolman Irving Holly, Sr., in a radio car, responded to the call and with Mrs. Kirk toured the neighborhood in an attempt to find the man. He then drove Mrs. Kirk to her home.

Sea Scout Ship Pounded By L.I. Sound's Waves

Five Belleville boys, members of the crew of Sea Scout Ship 303, the SSS Walter Kidde, returned last week from a cruise which took them to New London, Conn., and gave them a taste of how Long Island sound can be in a storm. During the trip, the SSS Walter Kidde, a former Coast Guard picket boat 36 feet in length which has a steel prow and double planking for ice breaking service, hit rollers in the sound which were from eight to 18 feet.

In the storm it took 10 hours for the ship to return to West Haven, Conn., after a three-hour journey out of that port earlier in the day. Three rows of the ship's double planking was torn loose and the starboard number plate was torn loose and lost. The ship left its dock at Ruthersford on Saturday afternoon and tied up at the Robin's Reef Yacht Club in Bayonne that night. On Sunday the boys went on to Eton's Neck Coast Guard Station on Long Island, where they went swimming and a party went into Northport, L. I., for supplies. Monday night they had a beach party at Eton's Neck. Tuesday they visited Mystic, Conn., where they visited the Marine Historical Museum and the Charles W. Morgan, the last of the old wooden whale boats, anchored there. Some of the Sea Scouts also visited the Joseph Conrad, used as a camp for Sea Scouts and Girl Mariners.

From there they went to New London, where they docked at the Marsters Yacht Club. That afternoon they cruised around among the aircraft carriers anchored near New London. The next day the Sea Scouts visited the Coast Guard Academy and the Submarine base. Because the storm warning flag was flying, the Sea Scouts stayed over an extra day at New London, but on Friday morning they started back to Eton's Neck. It was then that they ran into the rough water and had to turn back. It wasn't until Saturday that they reached the Long Island Coast Guard station. There they met some Sea Scouts from Pearl River, N. Y. Sunday they started back to Ruthersford.

Thomas Giangerelli was yeoman, Mario Graffeo and Albert Johnson crew leaders and Francis Close and Joseph Womelsdorf crew members. All are from Belleville. Others on the trip were Mr. Dukro of Newark, skipper; Mr. McKenna from Bloomfield, mate; and Melvin Goldstein of Bloomfield, a member of the crew.

Find Root Beer, Truck, No Cash
Harold Chapin, of 28 Tremont Avenue, president of Dad's Root Beer Bottling Company of Newark, reported to the Newark police on Monday that his place of business at 207 South Orange Avenue had been looted over the weekend and cash, equipment and merchandise worth $5,000 stolen. The loot included $2,000 in cash, a 500-pound safe in which the cash was locked and a 2 1/2 ton truck worth $2,800, plus 200 cases of root beer valued at $400. The theft occurred sometime between Saturday's 3 p.m. closing time and Monday morning when the employees reported for work.

Police at Watchung recovered all but the cash, on Monday evening, when Robert Oliver of Plainfield, told the police that there was a large root beer truck parked on the bridge path in the Watchung Reservation. In company with State Trooper Wyatt, Captain Barrett of the Watchung police discovered that the truck was the one stolen from Dad's Root Beer.

Its contents of 200 cases of root beer were intact, except for a few bottles which were probably broken by fast driving around curves. The safe was discovered on the ground next to the truck. Barrett said it appeared to have been opened with a crowbar. Two small cloth moneybags which were unopened, were found at the scene.

Herbert Ochse, 17, of 20 Smith street, Belleville, while driving a motorcycle, owned by Igone Motors, Monday, lost control of the machine in Cleveland Street, and after crashing into two parked cars, fell into the street. He was taken to the American Legion Hospital in North Newark by Anthony Gerard of Lyndhurst. Belleville police were called and they took him to the office of Dr. John Rocco of the hospital staff who treated him for contusions of the right hip and leg. He was taken back to the hospital to be held for observation and X-ray.

Wayne R. Parmer, retiring superintendent of schools, in his annual report submitted to the Board of Education on Monday night, reviewed not only the statistical facts of the 1950-1951 school year, but made a comprehensive report on his 20 years as head of the Belleville school system, plus his personal recommendations to the board for future action.

Because of space limitations in this week's paper, we are publishing only Mr. Parmer's recommendations. The review of his 20 years of service will be contained in another article in next week's paper.

Under the heading of "Recommendations" Mr. Parmer said: "It may seem strange that I should make any recommendations at the time of concluding my work as the head of our schools. My one big disappointment as I conclude my work here is that I was unable, because of unavoidable circumstances, to succeed in reorganizing our school system so as to change it from an 8-4 to a 6-3-3 organization or an organization including a junior high school setup.

"The depression in the thirties set in with real violence just about the time I came to Belleville and while I recommended the junior high school type of organization at least twice during the depression period, thinking that we could utilize federal subsidies, I could easily understand why such recommendations were not accepted. Our school room capacity was fairly ample and at the same time the pupil population was continuing to grow slowly smaller. The economic conditions in our community were not better than many communities. Baby bonds were issued to pay town obligations due to the difficulty in collecting taxes promptly. Stores, business places and residences were being vacated increasingly for some years. Things were not 'looking up.' This period extended into the war period with its priorities and total lack of available building materials.

"In spite of the fact that we organized our seventh and eighth grades for departmental work, and in spite of the fact that we have tried to enrich their program as much as possible, this sector of our school work is, in my judgment, far from what it should be for schools of this day and age—far from what I would want it to be.

Impossible Task
"It has been impossible through these twenty years, and is now impossible to provide the early adolescent boys and girls of our community with school facilities and opportunities which are in this day regarded to be absolutely essential. It is not only impossible, but also would be prohibitive, economically, to set up shop facilities and other manual arts facilities for our seventh and eighth grade boys in the present school buildings. The same can be said concerning cooking and sewing and related subjects for the girls in these grades. It would also be economically prohibitive to institute the type of science laboratories that could be enjoyed by these grades were they collected in one central large building.

"The same could be said in respect to the fine arts—music and art—and related subjects. The whole problem of guidance is another phase of our school work so very important in early adolescence. A guidance director's effectiveness, efficiency and his time would be torn to pieces finding himself needed in eight different schools in the performance of his duties. That to set up facilities for equivalent service in all of the grade schools would be prohibitive, I am sure every member of the board and every intelligent citizen can recognize.

Junior High First
"I am without prolonging this subject, again recommending with all the emphasis I am capable of exerting that the reorganization to include the junior high school setup, be determined upon and carried out as speedily as it is possible. In my judgment it should stand first in respect to improvements. The grade school buildings can be better adjusted and more properly adjusted when and if the seventh and eighth grades are removed.

"More to be considered is the fact that beginning September 1952, you may expect such increases in kindergarten and first grade as to require the additional space (classrooms) to accommodate these children properly. It will not be a pleasant experience to operate on a two sessions day, which will absolutely become necessary within the next few years.

"I am recommending in the second place that our kindergarten rooms be made in the most cases, where it can be done, twice the size they now are, or extended to at least half again as large as they are now. This, too, you see supports my recommendation that the first move be to provide the junior high school and the removal of seventh and eighth grade pupils before renovation of grade school buildings completely so that such work need not be torn up again in adjusting these buildings to accommodate the first six grades and kindergarten.

Disagrees With Survey
"My third recommendation is in contradiction to the Columbia Survey in one respect. I am so absolutely certain of the reasonableness of my position in this matter that I am emphatically stating my position to this board, who will be responsible for whatever is done in the matter.

"I am recommending that the board build a new junior high school building on the site near the Municipal Stadium rather than a senior high school building, as recommended in the Columbia survey report. My reasons are as follows: A junior high school is organized to provide exploratory opportunities for the early adolescent children, the object being to discover the aptitudes and abilities of these young people. It is necessary, therefore, for all the boys to take shop in order to discover what mechanical ability or aptitude, if any, they have. This is as true for the girls as it is for boys and in all subjects of a special nature.

"Our present high school building is set up, from the standpoint of room and equipment facilities, to accommodate a program in which the pupils have the privilege of election in subjects. The comparative small rooms in cooking, sewing, printing, art, music, mechanical drawing, etc., will accommodate, in fact do accommodate in a limited way the senior high school pupils even now, with four years in the high school. When the ninth grade is removed to a junior high school building it will more completely provide excellent facilities for the upper three grades where elections in subjects are allowed. They cannot possibly accommodate a junior high school program.

"The survey suggested a saving in present costs of building by erecting a senior high school building rather than a junior high school building, and that the present high school building be used for the junior high school.

Reconditioning Prohibitive
"May I caution the board to consider the tremendous cost it will require to rebuild and recondition almost the entire structure of the interior of the present senior high school building to give it modern facilities and enough facilities to accommodate the number of junior high school pupils it will need to house and the services it will need to provide. Even the height of the blackboards will need to be changed throughout the building. This is but one example of changes needed. These changes will require tearing out and rebuilding and includes all the reconditioning that such changes bring on.

"I feel strongly that such a remodeling of the present high school building will cost more, considering the tearing out and building up, than the added costs of building the new junior high school building so that it will accommodate our seventh, eighth and ninth grade boys and girls. I wish emphatically to be on record in respect to this matter, even though I shall no longer have any responsibility professionally. There must be kept in mind, I warn, that the size of the building, as to the number of pupils it can contain, is not the only important factor. It is extremely important as to what kind of school program is to be carried out and what particular room and laboratory facilities will be needed and how extensive must they be to accommodate such a program. I shall be glad to confer with the board or any interested responsible group, including the survey group, to more definitely and intimately point out my reasons for making this recommendation. I hope it will not be overlooked.

CHET SANOK REPLACES EMERY THOMAS

While friend Emery Thomas of Forest Hill split up $117 with four other pros in fourth place in the New Jersey open, Chet Sanok, former Belleville High athlete, representing Upper Montclair Country Club became the second amateur in history to walk off with the Open Championship, Friday at the Essex County Country Club. Sanok put together some beautiful golf to best not only the pros but another amateur, Bill Dear of Montclair, in the grueling test. Sanok, earlier this year, lost his state amateur crown to the same Dear.

Des Sullivan, a fine golfer in his own right, who took down third amateur prize in the tourney, credits Chet with two of the most miraculous shots anybody has ever seen.

At the par four 12th, after he let a drive slip off to the right down a gully, Chet, with his tremendous reserve of power, banged a three iron onto the green to get his par. Then at the 445-yard 16th, Chet let another tee shot slip off into a few trees about 260 yards out. The ball lay in quiet heavy rough, but Chet simply powered it out with a four iron, which hit two feet from the flag and sat down fast. He made the putt for a birdie.

LOOK FORWARD TO GYPSY TOUR

Members of the Rutgers Valley Motorcycle Club of Belleville, all 12 of them, are looking forward to the annual Gypsy Tour of the fourth and fifth districts of the American Motorcycle Association, to be held at Indian Point, near Peekskill, N. Y., the first weekend in August. Last year's event at Indian Point attracted some 10,000 to 12,000 cyclists. Field events and the presentation of awards to AMA members take place at the Gypsy Tour, a sort of convention of cyclists.

The Rutgers Valley Motorcycle Club has its headquarters at 70 Rutgers Street, the location of the Rutgers Valley Indian Motorcycle Sales Agency for Essex County. The club, like the sales agency, is dominated by the four Woytowich brothers, Nick, John, Mickey and Bill. Mickey is president of the club, Nick is treasurer and Bill is road captain. Other officers are Angelo Manfredi, vice-president, and Ed Nielpinski, sergeant-at-arms. John is the racing member of the family, but he's not riding now, having suffered a broken toe when a piece of steel fell on him at work.

The club is represented on the dirt tracks hereabouts by Dick Bettencourt, who rides a blue Indian, with the association assigned 17B designation. Sunday he rode at West Portal Mountain, near Phillipsburg, in a tourist trophy race. This week he will take part in the tryouts for the proposed reinstatement of motorcycle racing in these parts at Roosevelt Stadium, Union City. There has been no motorbike racing in this vicinity since the Tri-City Stadium at Union, Hillside and Irvington was torn down to make way for a huge garden-apartment development.

MR. B. AND MR. D. FIGURE BIG YEAR

We would pick the hottest day in the year to start thinking about football, but we collared both Mr. B. and Mr. D., Eddie Berlinski and Harold Dufford, on Monday and started talking grid. Mr. B. has hopes of ranking better than fourth in North Jersey Section II this fall, and Mr. D. says Belleville finally has the schedule it wants, five games at home every year and four away. It has taken three years to get such a schedule in operation and necessitated swapping home games one year with Irvington and another with Nutley. Now with Nutley moved up to early October the Bellboys can approach the Orange encounter on Thanksgiving Day with an almost two-week rest.

As far as we know the schedule has not been released, so here it is:

Sept. 22	East Orange	away
Sept. 29	Bloomfield	home
Oct. 6	Nutley	away
Oct. 13	West Side	home
Oct. 20	Irvington	home
Oct. 27	Hillside	away
Nov. 3	Kearny	away
Nov. 10	Passaic	home
Nov. 22	Orange	home

All September and the first three October games will start at 2:30. The October 27 and November games will start at 2:00. Thanksgiving Day the game starts at 11 a. m.

Eddie Berlinski has done some other booking, but it is all unofficial. So far he has scrimmages arranged with Emerson of Jersey City, Montclair, East Rutherford and East Side of Newark.

The big man hunt at the Stadium, following the opening day of practice on September 1 will be for ends, although one of his eight lettermen is Ronald Thompson, a wingman. Other lettermen reporting this fall are Charley Antrim, a guard; Bob Haight and Alan Riggins, tackles; Pete Spera, quarterback; Carmen Earl and Roland Worthington, fullbacks, and Tom Galante, halfback. Worthington may get into the center slot and one of the other veteran backs into the line either at end or guard.

A large group of sophomores and juniors on last year's squad, plus the changes of picking up a few good players from last year's unbeaten freshman team, makes the picture quite bright in Belleville.

Most coaches like to moan at this stage of the game, but without going out on the limb and shouting "champs" Mr. B. is well pleased with this fall's prospects.

SHELL FUND GROWS

There is no trip around the world at the end of the rainbow for those who contribute to the Belleville Varsity Club's efforts to raise $2,200 to buy a new eight-oared shell for Belleville High School's crew, but there are many trips up and down the Passaic River in store for some healthy boys. Even Mac Lamb, chairman of the fund raising drive, is unable to keep up with the pace of things, but we can report that as of Tuesday noon there was only $803.88 still to be raised by September 1 if the order can be placed in time for delivery next spring.

The principal boost came from members of the Board of Education, who on Monday night voted to transfer $500 to the Athletic Council with instructions that it be earmarked to be used for the purchase of the shell. While not exactly the same kind of donation that Mac Lamb has been soliciting, it means that his group needs to raise $1,700 instead of $2,200.

This week the fund gained to the extent of $82.12. Of this, $57.12 was collected at the PAL-Old Timers baseball game at the Stadium Sunday. Another $25 was donated by the Younginger-Alden Jr. Ladies' Auxiliary.

Dispute Ends PAL Irvington Game With 4 to 4 Tie

Belleville to Have Two Teams In Junior Loop; Seek Players

Irvington PAL and Belleville PAL played a tie game at the Stadium Wednesday afternoon, breaking the win streaks of both nines. Irvington is one of the strongest teams in the PAL league. The final score was 4 to 4. Tomorrow the Belleville team will meet Kearny at the Stadium in a game beginning at 6:15 o'clock.

On Saturday at 2:30 Belleville will play host at the Stadium to the Rahway PAL, which is made up of the Linden High School boys who won the Greater Newark Tournament. Belleville will use Buckleby or McConell on Friday with Mallick or McConnell slated against Rahway.

Irvington went ahead with three runs in the third inning. Belleville got one back in the third when Palumbo walked the first three men, Hansen, Petti and Graziano. Westlake hit a long fly to score Hansen. The local boys tied it up in the fourth when Weinstein singled to left. Moreno ran for him. Wilkerson and McConnell were easy outs. Hansen hit a long home run to right center to bring Moreno in ahead of him and to tie the count at 3 to 3.

The Campdowners made it four in the sixth on two errors and a wild throw, and so it became necessary for Belleville to tie it up again. Graziano walked, Westlake singled to center and both moved up on two infield outs. Moreno's single to center scored Graziano.

Irvington scored again in the seventh after two were out, when Wilkerson threw to second to get Masterson on a double steal and Halperin came home with a tally. In Belleville's seventh Ted Del Tufo and Gashlin walked and Moreno had three balls and no strikes, when Irvington set up a squawk about the umpire's call. After some delay the umpires decided that it was too dark to continue and the score had to revert back to the sixth inning. It will be played off at a later date.

After a shaky start McConnell settled down and gave up only one hit in the last four innings.

The Belleville Junior team defeated Newark 2 to 1 Friday morning when Jack McCabe scored Brady with a perfect squeeze bunt in the last inning. Belleville will have two teams in a new 13-14-15 year old league which will start in operation on July 31. All games will be played on Tuesday and Thursday mornings. Any boy wishing to try out for these teams should report to the Stadium.

Bibber McCoy To Wrestle Torres, The Sly Spaniard

Bibber McCoy, one of wrestling's great performers, returns to the Newark wrestling scene for the first time since he battled to a 90-minute draw with Gene Stanlee two years ago to top the weekly wrestling card at Meadowbrook Bowl Friday night. He will face Miguel Torres, the sly Spaniard. The match is listed for one fall, limited to one hour.

A versatile athlete who has played football, baseball and a good competitor in track and field, while attending Holy Cross College, Bibber spurned all professional offers from above owners to earn his fame and fortune in the grappling ring. He caught the slants of Owne Carroll while both were in college and did have a try when both moved up with the Detroit Tigers. Bibber didn't last long, didn't like the game as much as the burping business. Surely it is something to be able to prefer a different career than baseball.

Aces Climb Into Second Place, By Beating Rivals

If the Aces could have played only the Clippers in the Little League, the league standing would have been much different. As things stand the Aces played the league leading Clippers four times and handed those Clippers three defeats. In doing so they allowed the leaders just four runs. The Aces opened the season with a 5 to 2 victory over the Clippers. The Clippers took the next one by 2 to 1. Then last week the Aces won 1 to 0 and came through in the final game with a 3 to 0 victory. After the Aces jumped on Landon for two runs in the first on three hits and an error, they bunched two hits and another error for another run in the third. Meanwhile Brady kept the Clippers hitless until the last of the sixth. Then with one out Bojczak singled and so did Latore and when Landon hit a fly ball to left, Bojczak had taken too long a lead and was doubled off base to end the game.

The Aces also beat the Demons 4 to 1 and thereby moved into second place. Grausum pitched a nice game, retiring the first nine Demons in order, but in the fourth the Demons loaded the sacks and Grausum struck out Valente to end the threat. The only run came on interference by McCabe. McCabe continued his long ball hitting with a triple.

The Clippers defeated the Demons 5 to 1 and thereby clinched first place. It looked like a tight game until the fifth when Lupinacci's triple scored three runs. Tortorella for the winners walked six, but struck out 12.

In the other game the Demons beat the Bombers 9 to 0, by scoring five runs in the third and adding two more in the fourth and the rest in the fifth. J. Cullen handoffed the Bombers with Remes the only batter to solve his delivery. Cullen fanned seven and walked five.

Saturday the Clippers met the Rahway PAL in their first outside competition. Rahway won 9 to 2. However the Clippers looked very good even in defeat. They had one bad inning, the third when Bojczak went wild and Rayway piled up six runs. Landon and Tortorella finished up and each allowed one hit to the visitors during the rest of the game.

Now in the Flat Country
Flowers will be blooming now in early summer,
Now in the flat country, where few trees grow—
Larkspur will form bright patches, purest blue;
Yucca will send up new
Stalks for green-white bells to hang upon;
Pink mallow, sweet clover, yellow as the sun
Will border some straight road.
Birds will be singing now in the flat country,
But not on a high green bough;
Sage thrust and song sparrow
Will perch on a strand of wire or on some narrow
Post or on top of a bush
And shred the morning hush
With music while the black lark sings,
Dropping from the sky on set wings.

There are bright blooms, there is sweet sound
Now in the flat country;
There is gray of the sage and gray of the ground;
There is the deep quiet of remembered things.

Who's Running Our State Department?
Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, U. S. Chief of Naval Operations, met General Franco in Madrid this week and discussed with him the possibility of Spain joining the western bloc of anti-Communist nations by lending us Spanish naval bases for the use of our fleet in the event of war with Red Russia.

Immediately the pinkos all over Europe screamed bloody murder. The loudest protest came from London, the seat of the British Labour Government which a year ago, without even consulting Washington, recognized with shameful haste the Chinese Communist regime as the government of China in place of the Nationalist Government which we recognize.

Who is running American foreign policy, anyhow?

If the Labour Government saw fit to break with our traditional policy in the Far East and tried to admit Red China to the UN, there was nothing we could or did try to do about it. The same must apply to Spain. The Labour Government wants to see a Spanish Labour, or Socialist, government in Madrid where Franco sits now. They imagine that he can bring that about by disrupting Spain's domestic economy to the point where a hungry mass of Spaniards will depose Franco.

What guarantee does London have that if Franco falls a democratic regime will follow him?

It is tradition in Spain, where Latin blood runs hot in political turmoil, that when the pendulum of political thought swings, it swings wildly to the extremes. If Franco falls, Communism would have as good a chance of grabbing Spain as would Socialism. We, in America, cannot run that risk. It is our State Department's policy to bolster Franco, for the time being, and to win his co-operation in western defense.

Spain in Communist hands, with its convenient naval bases on both the Atlantic and the Mediterranean, as well as Spain's colonial bastions in North Africa and the Canaries, would be a terrible menace to our security. It is to avoid any such possible contingency that Admiral Sherman began his talks with Franco to obtain bases for the American fleet in return for aid to Spain.

I reported the Spanish Civil War from both sides in Spain in 1936-1938. I went into Spain with the military junta that sought to unseat the Socialist-Communist-Anarchist coalition that held power in Madrid and in Catalonia. I covered the fighting in the Asturias, in the siege of Madrid at the University City, around Granada and in Barcelona and the rest of Catalonia.

Republican Spain has never known a longer period of political calm than in these 13 years since the Civil War ended. Spain was neutral during the war when Franco was under severe pressure by Mussolini and Hitler to come into the war on their side with the promise of big gains at the expense of France in Morocco. Spain has never waged any wars of aggression, nor did she ever take any advantage of her prostrate neighbors during World War II to enlarge her territories. Spain is Catholic and has been a strong supporter of Vatican policy in fighting Communism politically as well as through the church. Franco was the first ruler in Europe to be attacked by the Kremlin and fought and whipped International Communism on the battlefields of Madrid and Catalonia long before our own cold war with Moscow began.

Our own State Department must have weighed all those matters before sending Admiral Sherman to Madrid. The only and the obvious answer to the cabled objections of the British Labour Government must be the answer which General MacAuliff gave to the Geramns at Bastogne: Nuts! R. E. H.

Diplomacy at Its Best

We have had, in recent days, two excellent examples of American diplomacy at its best—John Foster Dulles' magnificent progress single-handedly in writing a peace treaty for Japan and General Matthew B. Ridgway's compulsion of respect by the Communists in Kaesong.

Ridgway's "recess" until the Communists evacuated their troops from Kaesong taught the Red Chinese a lesson that they and the world needed: that the United States is still the most powerful nation in the world and while Uncle Sam does not throw his weight around he will not tolerate any neglect of the niceties and decencies of international relations by any other.

The Kaesong negotiations may not lead to any true peace. If they lead merely to a suspension of hostilities, they will serve a purpose. Peace is not in the province of Red China to bestow. Peace is precarious so long as power politics prevails, and there is no sign that even if the Korean affair is terminated on or about the 38th Parallel, Russia or China would be willing to accept the code of international decency that the United Nations engenders.

The Dulles negotiations, on the other hand, may balance power in the Pacific and the Far East in such a way that peace becomes possible despite the proximity of Red Russia and Red China.

If the Japanese peace treaty is signed in San Francisco in September, it will be a monument to a new type of diplomacy, single-handed worldwide negotiation. Dulles was the "travelling salesman of peace" when he first explored the basis of a treaty with MacArthur while the latter was still Supreme Commander in Tokyo.

When he returned to Washington and "sold the treaty" in a conference with his fellow Republicans—Taft, Millikin and Alexander Smith of New Jersey—he was still a "travelling salesman".

When he went to London and to Paris and when he wiped away the fears and the opposition of the Filipinos, the Australians and the New Zealanders, to permit the treaty to proceed, he accomplished single-handedly what all the five-power conferences have failed to do in five years for Germany, Austria and Hungary.

His masterpiece of excellent diplomacy was to eliminate the Russian veto and remove the possibility of Communist obstruction. To turn the Kremlin's strategy, he invented the device of not calling a peace conference but of going out to negotiate the treaty directly with each of the 52 individual nations concerned. That deprived Russia of all chances to use the veto.

Only once did Dulles come near to defeat, and that was when he ran into the opposition of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff who had other ideas of what to do with Japan. By that time, they had ganged up on MacArthur and forced him out. They tried the same tactics on Dulles, but he merely went over their heads to their Commander in Chief and Harry Truman, this time, threw his weight the right way and Dulles is, today, within sight of the end of his travels and his troubles.

It used to be said that we could win a war on the battlefields but would lose it around the green table. Those days are gone. Ours now is diplomacy at its best.

First Things, First
Twenty years of administration of Belleville's public schools are crammed into about 20 paragraphs in the final report of Wayne R. Parmer, retiring superintendent of schools. The accomplishments of this period are bound to leave their mark on the community.

More important is Mr. Parmer's recommendation to the board that in any construction plans contemplated a junior high school should receive first priority over alteration of existing building; that any new building be a junior rather than a senior high school as recommended by the Columbia University survey group.

Mr. Parmer is sound in his arguments on both points. If Belleville had large sums of money readily available, the Columbia recommendations might be feasible. A school building is needed, and it is sound to do first things, first.

ONE MAN'S OPINION . . .
Japan Gets a Bargain in Her Peace Treaty
Because the Rest of the World Is Involved
In a Cold War of Ideologies
By RALPH E. HEINZEN

There is a chance that for the first time in 20 years, the Pacific will be pacific in more than name only.

The peace treaty for Japan which John Foster Dulles has shaped in a one-man operation which had the advantages of escaping months of wrangling by diplomats around a green table is, definitely, a peace of reconciliation. It is not the kind of peace that Japan would have imposed on us if, after Pearl Harbor, she had succeeded in winning the war. You may remember the idle boasts of the Japanese militarists that they were going to dictate peace in the White House.

Of prime importance in the Dulles masterpiece are the clauses which break up the Japanese empire. The de facto disruption of the empire was accomplished by force of American arms. Now that disruption is to be established by diplomatic document. Particularly important is the clause that limits Japan to its four home islands. It renounces all claim to Formosa, Korea, Manchukuo, South Sakhalin, the Kuriles and the old League of Nations mandated islands. Except for the transfer of the League mandates to the UN, with the United States already established as the mandatory power, the Dulles text wisely does not try to dispose of Formosa, nor does it mention the Kuriles and South Sakhalin which were the "price of participation" which Roosevelt and Churchill paid to Stalin at Yalta to bring Russia into the war in the East—easily the greatest diplomatic and military blunder of the century.

Of prime importance, too, is the fact that we and our friends are proceeding with the Japanese peace treaty without either Red Russia or Red China taking part. Such diplomatic temerity must be based upon a calm knowledge that we now are strong enough to impose such a peace on Japan and to defend it against the Communist axis.

Everywhere on the Defense
If Russia ever had any doubt, she must know now that our defenses of the Pacific is just as important to us as are our Atlantic defenses on the continent of Europe. Any more Communist moves, anywhere on either defense front, will be countered just as they were countered in Greece and in Korea. If Russia does not believe that the era of easy gains and profitable grabs is over, she will find us with arms in hands wherever she foment trouble.

That is why peace with Japan is so important now.

Under the Dulles peace plan, the United States and its allies "recognize that as a sovereign nation Japan possesses the inherent right of individual and collective self defense and that Japan may voluntarily enter into collective security arrangements."

Rearming Japan
The plan provides that 90 days after the treaty takes effect, oc-

is one reason why the Kremlin will have no part of the Dulles plan. Our own State Department, however, has been working so smoothly and swiftly that the Kremlin has been left far behind and long before Moscow can come forward with some Japanese peace proposals of her own, it is likely that the Dulles treaty will be signed.

Our plans are to leave the treaty with Japan open for the signature of any of the 50 nations that declared war, with us, against the Japanese Empire. From the very beginning we made it clear, however, that having borne the brunt of the war with Japan we would write the peace treaty. Dulles made many trips to London, Paris and other capitals and finally won their consent to his plan.

How to Win Friends
Australia and New Zealand, being more directly concerned than the rest of the British Empire, will sign our text, but will also work out a tripartite mutual defense agreement with Japan. Both documents have but one intent: to bring the strength of Japan into our camp in defending the strategic, territorial and political status quo of the Pacific and the Far East. That goes for Indochina, Indonesia, Malaya as well as for the Philippines, Australia and New Zealand.

For Japan, it is an unhelped bargain. By attacking us, by sneaking in early one Sunday morning to destroy our fleet at Pearl Harbor, by fooling around through her diplomats in Washington to pretend to insure peace when her Imperial fleet had already left port to attack us—Japan has become our friend!

There is a possibility that on

Japan's part, her friendship for us may be sincere; note that I said "may" because in international politics my quarter-century of reporting wars and peace conferences has made of me a doubting Thomas.

General MacArthur won the confidence of the Japanese people, but it was a personal relationship, in my opinion. It remains to be seen whether the Japanese people can transfer to the United States government the same respect, confidence and veneration that it felt towards the deposed general. I have heard from correspondents now in Japan that there is no such feeling towards General Ridgway whom the Japanese regard not as their administrator but as commander of the UN forces in Korea.

Has Japan Reformed?

Japan yearns for her sovereignty; she also wants her foreign markets back and she wants her freedom of movement back to allow her to revive her merchant fleet and again roam the seven seas under her own flag. Whether she also yearns for her old "grandeur", whether she has given up all her hopes for her "Greater Asian Sphere of Prosperity" which camouflaged her aggressive, imperialistic, expansionist wars of the past 20 years remains to be seen.

In turning down heavy Philippine claims for war damages against Japan, Dulles ruled that a punitive peace might throw Japan into the arms of Stalin. A non-punitive peace could give America a permanent role in Japan's defense—and it goes without saying, too, a Japanese role in our Pacific defenses.

If there is no hostile action by Moscow or Peiping between now and September 4, the Japanese Peace Treaty will be signed, ceremoniously, at San Francisco. Red Russia and Red China will not be there, nor will Nationalist China. The treaty leaves Japan the right to pick and choose which Chinese regime it desires to negotiate a separate peace with. Since Japan will need her former markets on the Chinese mainland, there is a strong possibility that she may choose to negotiate with Peiping.

That could well mean that Tokyo might drive a wedge between Peiping and Moscow—a detectable by-product of the Japanese treaty which would prove the wisdom of Mr. Dulles' silk gloves.

The Public Service electric system is connected through high voltage tower lines with other electric companies in New Jersey and in the neighboring states of Pennsylvania and New York.
Electric utility companies, unlike other industries, cannot store their product against a "rainy day"—you can't store away kilowatt-hours for use next week!
Through such ties additional capacity is made available to meet unforeseen demands or severe operating emergencies.
This interconnected system has a total installed generating capacity of six million kilowatts—and more generating capacity is being added.
The cost of such interconnections runs into millions of dollars—another example of this company's determination to furnish you with the best electric service possible.

... 50-million-mile, on-the-job Economy Run

5,000 Ford Truck operators took part, representing every truck-using vocation. During the 6-month Run they kept daily records of gas, oil, maintenance and repair costs. Result: overwhelming evidence that Ford Trucks cost little to run!

"2 1/4¢ a mile!" C. W. Miller, contractor, says: "My Ford Pickup went 8,189 miles during the Economy Run with a running cost of only $182.16. Average load was 1,200 lbs."

"1 1/2¢ a mile!" J. Staf-ford, poultryman, drove his Pickup 8,195 miles in the Economy Run. "I spent a total of $115.94 for gas, oil and maintenance—only 1.4¢ a mile!" he reports.

... 2 out of 3 run their FORD Pickups for less than 2 1/2¢ a mile!

Only the FORD 1/2-ton Pickup has the FACTS of its low running costs backed by nationwide, on-the-job owner expense records!

Ford Pickups, like all Ford Trucks, save you money because they're engineered to last longer, to absorb punishment... and because Ford Trucks have built-in economy features like the POWER PILOT!

The POWER PILOT carburetion-ignition system gives you the most power from the least gas. Only FORD in the low-price field has it. The Economy Run results show the kind of savings you can expect with a Ford Pickup and the gas-saving POWER PILOT!

F.D.A.F.

Only FORD gives you a choice of V-8 or Six!
And you get a choice of two new Ford CABS—5-STAR and, at slight added cost, 5-STAR EXTRA (shown). F-1 Pickup shown has new fingertip shift, new wider rear window, BIG grain-trit body. Low 2-ft. loading height!

Availability of equipment, accessories and trim as illustrated is dependent on material supply conditions.

FORD TRUCKING COSTS LESS
because FORD TRUCKS LAST LONGER

Using latest registration data on 7,318,000 trucks, life insurance experts prove Ford Trucks last longer!
