

So What?

There is one thing about school, the children are safer than when on their own over the week end. Sunday two youngsters were cut up in falls, one off a fence and one either on or off the Frederic Scott Ship.

Ronald Krasma, 8, of 8 May Street fell off the fence at the dead-end of that street and received lacerations of the right wrist. He was taken to the office of Dr. Strassinger for treatment by Joseph McHugh, a neighbor.

Thomas Cramer, 12, of 85 Jorammon Street, was more seriously injured in a fall on or off the LSM parked just off Main Street, north of the New York Color and Chemical Company.

Police went to the ship after being told that a youngster was hurt there, but Thomas had run home. He was taken from his home to Columbus Hospital where he was treated for lacerations of the left wrist, a cut on the left eye, a cut in the back of the head and abrasions of the left leg. The eye cut required three stitches and the head cut, five.

Thomas told police that he was playing on the ship, when some boys began throwing stones at him. In trying to avoid being hit he fell. That is the last thing he remembered.

Robert Allen of 131 Branch Brook drive called the police Sunday afternoon to report that his 1951 Lincoln Cosmopolitan Sedan had been stolen from in front of his home. A short time later he called back and had the report cancelled. His wife had taken the car for a ride. Apparently he didn't miss his wife as much as he did the car.

Fred William, 29, of 791 Hunterdon Street, Newark must have made an unusual sight when he appeared at police headquarters at 3:40 o'clock Monday morning with a parking meter and post slung over his shoulder like a gun. William, a driver of an A&P Truck, backed into the parking meter in front of Sears Roebuck, while preparing to make a delivery.

Just so some youngster doesn't get a bawling out, that pair of size 13 1/2 B patent leather shoes, recently heeled, are at Belleville Police Headquarters. They were found on Washington Avenue between Belleville Avenue and Rogers Street. The young lady will not even have to show her P.A.I. card to get the shoes. All she will have to do is ask at the desk.

ELDERLY COUPLE SAVED FROM FIRE

Police and Firemen Team Up In Rescue Of 78-Year-Old Man From 2nd Floor Room

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller of 73 Belleville Avenue are still confined to St. Mary's Hospital, Passaic, as an aftermath of a fire which damaged their home, opposite police headquarters to the extent of $10,000, Thursday morning of last week. Mrs. Miller's presence of mind in shutting second floor doors is credited by Fire Chief William Dunleavy with saving the life of Mr. Miller, 78, and with confining the fire to the first floor. The fire started in the kitchen or dining room and burned both rooms badly. The rest of the house was damaged by smoke.

Mr. Miller, who retired from the firm of Miller & Son, electroplaters at the corner of Belleville Avenue and Stephen Street, and Mrs. Miller had lived in the house since 1912.

Awakened by Smoke
Mrs. Miller was awakened at 2:30 a. m. by the odor of smoke. She went downstairs to investigate, but closed the bedroom door before descending the stairs. When she opened the dining room door a sheet of flame leaped at her. She went to the front door and shouted for help. Just about that time Lieut. Frank Christiano was reporting for duty and a police patrol car was proceeding slowly down Belleville Avenue.

Soon Patrolmen Julian, Vreeland, Tepe and Dean were on the scene and they prevented Mrs. Miller from re-entering the burning building to get her husband out.

Taken From Window
Police Under Deputy Chief Kenneth Smith attempted to enter in her stead, but were blocked by the fire which had spread to the stairs. By that time firemen arrived and placed a short ladder against the roof of the kitchen extension. Firemen Edward Haloweg and Robert Willie and probationary fireman Joe Santiglia broke in the bedroom window and passed Mr. Miller down the ladder to the policemen who administered first aid and then rushed both Millers to the hospital.

The firemen had the flames well under control in a short time and Fire Chief Dunleavy personally searched the building to see if anyone had been overlooked. He found all the second floor doors tightly closed. He cites this as a fire prevention lesson for others to follow.

LIGHT VOTE IS EXPECTED HERE ELECTION DAY

If Voting Exceeds 30 Percent, Referendum On $390 Raise For Cops Will Do It

Tuesday's election here threatens to be one of those things with only about 30 per cent of the 14,835 registered voters bothering to cast their preference on the three public questions and for the slates of the Republican and Democratic state and county officers.

Edward T. Berlinski, football coach at Belleville High School, comes nearest to being a Belleville candidate on the Democratic ticket of the General Assembly. Berlinski lives in Bloomfield, but makes his livelihood here.

Party Workers at Rallies

Both sides in the state and county fight have sidestepped real issues to concentrate on charging each other with hand-picked slates. Each staged a rally at Veterans Hall, here, this week, with the party faithful in attendance.

Recreation Hallow'een Parade-Parties Success

The Hallow'een parties and parade for the children of Belleville yesterday afternoon and evening were huge successes, according to all reports. The Recreation Department, under the direction of Commissioner Elmer S. Hyde, furnished refreshments for 2,500 children at the parties staged at the Elks Club. About 1,000 children were in the parade and were led by the High School Band and Tex White and his Night Riders. A more complete report, including the names of the winners of the costume contests will be included in next week's paper.

Mayor Waters Cites Costs If Police Win Tuesday's Contest

If Police Win and Other Employees Gain Same Benefits, Tax Payers Face 22 Point Raise in Rate for '52; Cites Other Hikes Facing Home Owners

Mayor Patrick A. Waters in an advertisement in this paper cites facts and figures of the cost to the Town and the possible affect on individual real estate taxes should the police salary referendum be successful at the polls on Tuesday. Mayor Waters has expressed himself as being personally opposed to the increase, but feels that the referendum is one that should be decided upon by the individual voter after he has all the facts.

In his summation of the tax picture Mayor Waters points out that to give a raise of $390 to the police only would be unfair. To give the same raise to every permanent employee of the town, including police and firemen will require an increase in the 1952 budget of $78,780, or approximately 19 points in the tax rate. And inasmuch as the firemen are now receiving $300 less than the policemen, a raise of $690 to members of this department to put them on the same basis as the police would be another $14,400 or 3 1/2 more points, a total increase of 22 1/2 points.

These figures are for salaries only and do not include the increases which will be required as contributions to the various pension and retirement systems.

Mayor Waters in his statement points out that over a five year period the town's surplus revenue account has dwindled by $63,681.41. A record school budget last year, a decrease of $28,073.75 in state aid to schools, the payment of interest and principal on the $700,000 bond issue voted last year, amounts to another $27,530.

In conclusion Mayor Waters points out that until such time as new sources of revenue are explored or the state increases its aid to schools, each additional appropriation will increase all real estate taxes.

Scott Ship Paper Drive Will Be Held On Sunday

The regular monthly collection of scrap paper conducted by the Fredericks-Scott Ship No. 5653, VFW, will be held on Sunday, beginning at 9 o'clock. Trucks manned by post members will canvass the town and residents are asked to place newspapers and rags on curbs in front of their homes as early as possible to expedite the pickup.

Belleville Foundation To Hold Annual Meeting

The Belleville Foundation will hold its annual meeting Monday at the For-Hills Restaurant, Newark, at 6:30 p.m. At that time officers will be elected and chairmen of various projects sponsored by the Belleville Foundation will make reports.

Other winners in the grammar school division were Elaine Plosa, Joan Posta, Sandra Shaw and Maureen Gorbey of School No. 3 on Simon's Liquor Store window, and Norman Jacobsen, Adrian Burlazzi, Barbara Wische and Anthony Brindisi, whose painting on Sorrentino's window won third prize.

27 PERCENT OF CHEST GOAL IS NOW SUBSCRIBED

Churches At 73 Percent Of Quota; No Reports In From Three Divisions

The Belleville Community Chest has received $9,146, it was announced by William H. Glover, Jr., campaign chairman. This represents 27% of the goal of $33,108.

The various divisions have reported the following percentages of goal achieved: Churches, $220 or 73%; Industry-Labor, $7,340 or 46%; Civic Organizations, $230 or 52%; Special Gifts, $595 or 28%; Professional $325 or 36%; Purveyors, $365 or 24%; Residential, $156 or 2%. Schools, Government and Commercial have not reported as yet. Many returns, especially in Industry and Residential, show substantial increases over last year's gifts. The campaign is scheduled to end on November 14.

"Everything points to a successful campaign," Glover said, "and we are hoping to maintain our increases over last year's contributions. Belleville citizens recognize the need for these vital community services and the need for increased giving. To fail to do so is to suffer the loss of happier children, brighter homes and a stronger community, in addition to the defense services so vital to our fighting men in Korea and elsewhere."

While many people give at work, there are almost no firms outside of Belleville which forward these gifts to this community. Since Belleville does not benefit from these contributions, the Chest urges all those who contribute out of town to contribute here also for the support of our local agencies.

Schools Will Close For Education Convention

Public schools, here, will be closed Thursday and Friday of next week. It was announced yesterday by Supervising Principal Evan Thomas, to allow all teachers who desire to do so to attend the annual convention of the New Jersey Education Association at Atlantic City, these two days and Saturday. Among the 500 young musicians and singers from New Jersey high schools taking part in the concert of the All-State Symphony Orchestra and Chorus in the Convention Hall Ballroom on Saturday afternoon will be Robert Freitag and Gail Howe of Belleville High School.

Makes Delivery, Picks Up Liquor On Way Out

Frank F. Biello of 169 Fairmount Avenue, Newark, has been released in $200 bail for appearance before Magistrate Everett B. Smith in court this morning, to answer a charge of robbery. Biello, a driver for the Motor Haulage Company of Newark, made a delivery to the liquor store of Cyrus Aquino, 2 Bloomfield Avenue, Monday morning and on his way out of the store picked up a case of pint bottles of whiskey, valued at $24 wholesale, which had just been delivered by another truckman. He was picked up by Newark police on a teletype complaint and turned over to Belleville police.

He has been awarded the Bronze Star and the Purple Heart.

PERMIT ISSUED FOR WALTER KIDDE CO. GUN TEST BUILDING

Underground Structure Will Duplicate $15,000 Range Now In Use; 5 New Houses

A second gun test building for the testing of a compressed air shell ejector made by the Walter Kidde Company, Inc., of 675 Main Street, is under construction this week after a building permit was issued this week by Building Inspector Thomas Greco. The building which will cost $15,000 will be built entirely underground. There 50 calibre machine guns are fired into a sand pile, while engineers test the mechanism. One of these buildings is now being used by the Kidde firm.

New Dwellings
Jefferson Village, Inc., was granted permits for four $10,000 one family dwellings to be built at 70, 76, 80 and 84 Chestnut Street. They are the first of a proposed 10 dwelling development. Another dwelling permit was issued to the North Essex Co., Inc. for a house at 198-A Bell Street to cost $9,000.

Alfred Allen Watts Co., Inc., of 740 Washington Avenue, was granted a permit to erect a load-bearing platform to cost $4,000. Joseph Thalheimer of 416 DeWitt Avenue and Domenick Palamara of 34 Ligham Street each were granted permits to erect one car garages to cost $600. Smith Heads Police Appeal For Tuesday's Referendum

Seek Across-the-Board Raise of $390 or 10 Cents Per Hour; Bloomfield Chamber of Commerce Poll Shows Police Are Third Lowest Paid in County

Belleville's 54 man Police Department—third lowest paid in Essex County—appealed to voters this week to support their referendum for a 10 per cent "across the board" salary increase.

At a meeting Monday night, Deputy Chief Kenneth Smith was unanimously elected chairman of the police referendum committee. Smith said he is naming a citizens' committee to endorse the public question.

Placed before the voters in Tuesday's general election, the proposal would increase maximum pay for patrolmen from $3,600 to $3,990, and for new men from $2,700 to $3,090. Equivalent increases would be passed out in higher grades.

Deputy Chief Smith said the increase amounts to about 10 cents an hour for the men who work a 48-hour week. He declared that the cost of living index has risen 186 per cent since 1939 while police salaries have gone up only 20 per cent. A patrolman earning $52 weekly in 1939 now takes home $54, he pointed out, and he added that uniforms have doubled in cost.

Cost to Home Owner $2.50
Cost to the taxpayers for this increase, Smith revealed, would be $21,060, or about 6 1/2 points in the tax rate. For each home owner the cost is estimated at about $2.50 per year, Smith said.

Key figures on the police committee include Deputy Chief Emerson Bush, chairman of assignments; Patrolmen John Dean and Harry Winfield, publicity, and Sgt. Fred Singer and Patrolmen Tony Gross, Thomas Dunn, Michael Hanley and Edward Mead, motor pool.

Smith said prominent citizens and civic organizations have expressed their endorsement of the referendum to bring police pay to a level comparable with other towns. The department is solidly behind the referendum move, he declared.

At 8:15 the firemen were called to Main and Academy Street where a car owned by Arthur William Dey Jr. of 281 Main Street was blazing from flames started at a ruptured gas tank. A second car owned by George Francis Tompkins of 290 Main Street, Beacon, N. Y., was scorched by the flames. Dey's car was badly damaged.

Statements by Dey and Tompkins conflict on important points, but from all accounts Tompkins car, which was traveling in Main Street, struck Dey's car. Tompkins in his statement says the Dey car pulled away from the curb as he was about to pass. Dey said that couldn't be so because he was visiting with Edward Murphy of 205 Main Street and looking at television when he heard the crash. Tompkins was taken to the office of Dr. Underwood where he was treated for contusions of the nose, left hand and abrasions of both knees.

Corporal William Barnett Wounded In Korean Action

Corporal William Barnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barnett of 99 Ralph Street, was wounded in the thigh on October 5 in Korean action, and is now in an Army hospital in Japan. He wrote to his parents saying his wound is a minor one. He attended Belleville public schools and the Essex County Vocational High School at Bloomfield before enlisting in July 1950. He reached the Korean front in March.

LEGION WILL SELL BLOCKS FOR HOME

Have Plans, Hole and $15,000 But Need $10,000 More To Build, Furnish Structure

Belleville Post 105, American Legion, this week began selling "Blocks" in its proposed new building to be erected in Washington Avenue opposite the Liquid Carbonic Corporation. The post has a building plan, a hole in the ground and $15,000 cash in the bank. It is estimated that the building will cost between $20,000 and $25,000 and on that basis up to $10,000 will be required before the "block" sale is completed and the contracts let.

It is the Legion's plan to have citizens and businessmen buy cement blocks at $1 each. A complete list of the contributors to the new home will be compiled in a journal and be kept on public record when the building is ready for occupancy.

Float in Parade
The Legion is designing its float for the Armistice Day Parade to publicize the building campaign. Members dressed in white overalls will give the illusion of mixing cement and setting up a cement block wall. The sale of "blocks" will be carried out by posters and appropriate signs.

Several years ago the Legion set out to raise money for its home, but held off in deference to the Community Chest. Then just as that drive got underway the "March of Dimes" committee sought the Legion's co-operation, followed by the Heart Fund. By that time the enthusiasm of the members had diminished.

Arrangements have been made for each of the local financial institutions, the Fidelity Union Trust Company, branch of the People's National Bank and Trust Company and the DeWitt Savings & Loan to accept donations and give official receipts.

LOCAL TEACHERS ATTEND COLUMBIA CURRICULUM CLASS

Better Ways To Teach Four R's Subject Of Five Institutes At University

The first of five institutes on better ways to teach the four R's—reading, writing, arithmetic and relationships—was held Monday at Teachers College, Columbia University, and was attended by teachers, principals and department heads from elementary and high schools in Hastings-on-Hudson, Dobbs Ferry, New Rochelle, Ossining and Chappaqua, N. Y., Weston, Conn., and Belleville. Thirteen teachers made up the local delegation.

Sponsored by the new curriculum service center at the college, the institutes are designed to help teachers and administrators develop further understanding and skills in teaching the three basic subjects of learning. The fourth R is concerned with social relations between teachers, pupils and parents.

Teams of teachers and their administrators will bring to the institutes local problems encountered in teaching these subjects. In work groups on each subject they will consult with the following specialists: Prof. Howard Fehr, Jane D. Zimmerman, Roma Gans, Anne S. McKillop and Jean Betzner of Teachers College; Prof. Edward S. Fulcomer, head of the English department at Montclair State Teachers College, and Elio S. Cason, director of child guidance at Bloomfield.

At an institute dinner meeting at the college tonight, Dr. Margaret Lindsey, associate professor of education at Teachers College, will speak on the topic, "Teaching the Skills in a Developmental Program." She will also discuss the general problems of teaching the three R's.

The institute is sponsored by the Curriculum Service Center of the Teachers College department of curriculum and teaching. The center provides specialist service to help educational institutions solve curriculum problems through individual consultation, workshops and conferences. Prof. Marcella R. Lawler is executive officer of the center.

Belleville Teachers
Teachers from Belleville attending the course are William Chapman and Mrs. Helen Sherman of No. 5, Charles Schultz and Carl Hensinger of the high school, Miss Carolyn Pohl of No. 3, Mrs. Bernadette Colaneri and Miss Catherine Cowlin of No. 8, Miss Frances Williamson of No. 1, Mrs. Mayme Martinelli of No. 4, Miss Adeline Bennett of No. 7, Miss Maude Miller of No. 2, Mrs. Louise Franklin of No. 9 and Miss Jean Dailey of No. 10.

the extra voters. Both sides of the matter are discussed in articles and advertisements in today's Times-News.

No Apparent Opposition
On the question of the $15,000,000 bond issue for state teachers' colleges, the state's most powerful lobby and most prolific publicity organization, the school people have put on such a campaign that the opposition has not shown itself.

As for the referendum which would permit the Essex County Park Commission to increase the percentage of the county's assessed valuation, for maintenance purposes, no opposition has come forth. Belleville, with the incomplete Passaic River Park in its boundaries might see some results if the question gets favorable county-wide approval.

The nineteen polling places in town open at 8 a.m. and close at 9 a.m.

was called to the scene a few minutes after the fire engines arrived. Deputy Police Chief Smith. He sent a box of cigars and a personal note to the members of each department, in which he congratulated them on their efficiency.

Mr. Miller told the Belleville Times-News that the firemen were careful in their fire-fighting so as not to do any unnecessary damage by water, and that although many valuable articles were in the house, the honesty of members of both departments was proven.

Mr. Miller said, "One has to be in a similar predicament to realize how deserving are our public safety forces of the raise they are seeking next week. I was convinced."

listed the following patrolman pay levels for towns of Belleville's approximate size:

	Max.	Min.
Caldwell	$3,700	$3,300
Millburn	4,000	3,000
Orange	3,852	2,782
Verona	3,900	3,100
West Orange	3,630	2,805
Belleville	3,600	2,700

Many of the above towns have uniform allowances and cost of living bonus adjustments in addition to their base pay, Smith pointed out.

Want Fair Pay
"We ask nothing more than a fair rate of pay," Smith said. "We want no more than conditions indicate we should get. It is good to remember that satisfied employees have high morale and they can do their best for the public."

"Taxpayers should remember that there is no better insurance than an efficient police department. When lives and property are to be protected, a fair living wage for policemen seems just at this time," Smith concluded.

Turned over to Belleville police they were given a preliminary hearing by Acting Magistrate Charles Tedesco and held in $1,000 bail for Grand Jury action.

Thirteen year old Robert Foley, former Belleville resident, will be guest artist when the Bloomfield Civic Chorus presents its concert Sunday afternoon, November 11 in the Bloomfield High School auditorium at 3:30 p.m.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Foley of Nutley, the young pianist began his musical studies at the age of three and has many radio appearances and concerts to his credit. When he was seven years old his musical ability was brought to the attention of the celebrated pianist Artur Schnabel, who sent a representative to hear him play. Robert was an honor award winner in the Griffith Music Foundation auditions held last spring. At present he is studying in New York with Frank Glazer, concert pianist and teacher.

When the Foleys lived in Belleville, Robert attended No. 7 School, where he was heard in many programs. He also presented programs for the Lions and Rotary Clubs.

LETTERS To The Editor

Community Chest Appreciates To The Editor, The Times-News:
On behalf of the board of trustees, I should like to thank you personally for the excellent cooperation which the Belleville Times-News has given us in our efforts to publicize our campaign.

The October 18 spread, in particular, was of outstanding calibre. To my knowledge, and that of the trustees with whom I have spoken, there has been nothing to equal it in the history of Community Chest Campaigns here in Belleville.

The value of the assistance you have given us will be felt not only in a successful campaign, but will be even more evident in the long-range effects which any successful educational endeavor produces.

Again, Mr. Heinzen, our sincere thanks.
John Dorothy, Director, Belleville Community Chest Campaign.

Teachers Andorse "Yes" Vote To The Editor:

On Tuesday, November 6, you will be going to your polling place to cast a vote for the candidates of your choice. In addition, you will be asked to vote "Yes" on a public question of great importance to the children of New Jersey — the question of a State Bond Issue of $15,000,000 which would be used for the improvement and renovation of the Teachers Colleges of New Jersey.

The six New Jersey State Teachers Colleges are in dire need of repair, renovation, and improvement. At this time conditions in several of these colleges would not be tolerated in any of our poorest high schools. Yet the future teachers of New Jersey must be trained in antiquated, overcrowded buildings with definitely inadequate facilities.

More than 95 percent of the teachers of New Jersey are graduates of the teachers colleges, therefore it is of vital importance to you as a parent to support this bill. Your child will suffer the results of a serious teacher shortage if nothing is done to improve and provide additional facilities for the training of greater numbers of teachers in the coming decade.

The cost of the bond issue will be defrayed by the revenue from the present state inheritance tax. No new taxes will be necessary. In other words, it will cost you absolutely NOTHING as a taxpayer.

The bond issue has the strong support of the State PTA, League of Women Voters, New Jersey Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, State Chamber of Commerce, New Jersey Nurses' Association, New Jersey Federation of Boards of Education, New Jersey Federation of Teachers, New Jersey Education Association, and by the Belleville superintendent, principals and teachers.

We urge you to consider the needs of your child. In order to insure his or her a good education by competent, completely trained teachers vote "Yes" on the $15,000,000 Bond Issue.

Ask Necessary Facilities
To The Editor, Belleville Times:

a bond referendum on November 6, 1951.
If the teachers' colleges are deprived of this $15,000,000 bond issue, the general public will actually be depriving their own children of better trained teachers—those who play an important part in the development of their children.

These colleges are not asking for luxuries but just the necessary facilities of any good college—a sufficiently large library, science laboratories, an auditorium, a gymnasium, and space for art and music departments. These items at present are either very poor or lacking entirely. For how long is it good business to do with the least? These colleges are now caring for twice as many students as they were built to handle and for twice as long a time. Yes, our equipment and facilities date back to the time of "normal schools."

With conditions as they are, the increasing need of more teachers can never be met. How can enrollment be increased in these colleges if there are not the facilities to train the number of students enrolled now?
For a better tomorrow, I urge everyone to vote "Yes" for the bond issue. Teachers are the backbone of our society. Put them in a position so that they may do their best.

CANTEEN SUPPER IS PREPARED BY RED CROSS CANTEENERS

Meal Planned For 65 Could Be Prepared For Several Hundred In Emergency

Belleville Chapter, American Red Cross, held a Canteen supper Friday night, for the purpose of demonstrating mass feeding procedures. The supper, held at Christ Church, was prepared and served by members of the new Canteen Class. B. Thomas Aitken, Chapter Chairman, presided, and explained the procedure to those present, pointing out that while the meal for this occasion had been planned for 65 people, the menu was one that could readily be used for several hundred people.

He explained that in order to have a true demonstration of how feeding would be carried out under real emergency conditions, the supper would be served cafeteria style, and asked the co-operation of those present. The chairman gave a brief outline of the Red Cross disaster preparedness program, saying that Red Cross is ready to assist and co-operate with Civil Defense in event of an emergency.

After the supper, Mr. Aitken congratulated the members of the class on their work, and presented them with canteen service pins. Members of the class were: Mrs. Ida Flannery, Mrs. Maurice McEligot, Mrs. Alma Pesa, Mrs. Helen Richmond, Mrs. Mary Schauer, Mrs. Elsie Simpson, Mrs. Murray Steinhauer, Mrs. Willard Y. Strange, Mrs. Herbert Tucker, Mrs. Alfred Van Dusen and Mrs. Catherine White. Miss Emily Seitz was the volunteer instructor for the class. ST. PETER' CYO ON WAAT SUNDAY

Program At Six Based On Life Of Pope Pious X Will Be In Archbishop's Competition

CYO members from St. Peter's parish, will take to the air this Sunday when they enter competition for the Archbishop Thomas J. Walsh radio award with a program based on the life of Pope Pius X. The local group, being directed by Mary Passiella, a graduate of St. Elizabeth's College and a former winner of the CYO's oratorical contest, will be heard over WAAT from 6:05 to 6:30 p. m.

Pope Pius, who is looked upon as the patron of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine and other forms of Christian education, will be portrayed by James Leonard and James Parkinson. Leonard has the lead role, but in the section on the boyhood of the Pope, who was beatified on June 3 of this year, Parkinson will be heard.

Pope Pius X died in August, 1914, right after the outbreak of World War I. He is most famous for his decision allowing children of seven to make their first Holy Communion. The program, which will be knitted together by the narration of Marlene Jock, will take the listener through the Pope's boyhood, his early high school days, his days as a priest, then as a cardinal and finally as the spiritual ruler of the world's Catholics.

Included in the cast are Joan Ryan, who will portray the Pope's mother; Thomas Moore, who will be heard as his father; Charles Costenbader as Count Benedetti; Bernard Burns as Father Constantini; John Ruiz as the Pope's secretary, and Frank Verian as a citizen of Bompolo.

The series, entitled "Catholic Youth Presents," is now in its 11th year. Each year three winners, one in each of three classifications based on parish population, are chosen. Victors are picked through listener reaction with the votes being tabulated by the chancery office. This year's series was inaugurated on October 7 and programs are heard at the same time every Sunday. Competition will continue through June.

St. Peter's last was heard on the series in October of 1948. The local parish won the Archbishop's award that year.

Members of the Belleville Police are compelled to request a fair adjustment in their salary schedules due to the increased cost of living.

The members of the Belleville Police Department respectfully urge that you support them by voting YES on the referendum at the General Election November 6, 1951.

HERE ARE THE FACTS

Question: How much will the police pay raise cost the Town of Belleville?

ANSWER: $21,060.

Question: How many points would the tax rate be increased by the police pay raise?

ANSWER: 6½ points.

Question: How much will this cost the average home owner?

ANSWER: 80% of the one family homes in Belleville are assessed below $5,000. At 50 cents per $1,000 assessed value it will cost the average home owner about $2.50 per year.

While the skyrocketing cost of living has increased to the present 186.2% the police have only been increased 20% during the same period.

The proposed salary adjustment will represent only a fraction over 10%.

In 1943 a winter uniform cost $55.00, but today the same uniform costs at least $105.00. During the past year, cost of uniforms has been raised over 25%.

Two Steps in One

More than a child's feet leap two steps in one step. Brisk October races over the picket fence. Wind-blown, walkers increase their joyous paces.

Words that the windsays and the leaves lead lepers onward. More is treasured than what eyes see and what feet touch; the growing rhythm is not measured.

Deep, in the hollow; high, on the hill, each bright gold thought, like leaves blown out there, blend with the color and the leap: All join October's rising shout there. Joseph Joel Keith.

The Story Behind a Referendum

In their wisdom, earlier Boards of Freeholders reserved vast open and wooded spaces for parks, to aerate and to decorate the suburban space which Essex County was destined to become in the metropolitan area. The present tempo of construction leaves little doubt that within a decade or two there will be no vacant land anywhere within the county. At that time, our 8,833 acres of parks and reservations will be our only play space for a population which, almost certainly, will exceed three millions.

It is a tremendous task to maintain and to police these parks and reservations. Last November's storm, for example, felled 10,000 mature trees in South Mountain and Eagle Rock reservations as well as 936 more in 18 formally planted parks. That requires cutting out the fallen wood and planting more. Even the normal wear and tear on trees and grass is costly.

Since 1902, state law has limited the amount of money that the Freeholders can divert to the parks and reservations to three-quarters of a mill on every dollar of the assessed valuation of ratables. The 1951 State Legislature, realizing that operating costs have risen far faster than ratables have, passed an act increasing the maximum from three-quarters to one mill, provided the voters of a county approve by ballot.

It is that question which will be submitted to you in the second of two plebiscites on the voting machine next Tuesday. If you vote "yes," you vote to approve the increase in appropriations for our parks which the State Legislature already has consented. The full increase is not automatic. The Freeholders always will have the final say on how much the parks will have to spend, but if you vote "yes" you vote to increase the maximum one-quarter of a mill. In dollars and cents, it means $1 more for the county parks for every $4,000 of your tax assessments.

We Pay the Piper and the Piano Player

Starting this pay day, all of us, wage earners, must pay the piper some more. Our withholding tax is withheld under a new scale which does not reflect any increased government function but does reflect increased government expenditures. It is debatable whether or not there is need for the tax increase which will hit all of our pay envelopes. It is the contention of The Times-News that before imposing this new tax retainer on all of us, the Government should have attempted to enact the Hoover Commission's reforms which, if enforced, might have made this tax increase unnecessary.

The Hoover reforms would have lopped thousands off the Federal payroll, but, instead, the administration merely reached into all our pockets for another 15 per cent. In return for our money, we have the satisfaction of possessing an all-time record-size army of retainers on the Federal payroll. They are spending more than any government ever spent in history. There has not been a single economy enacted of all those that the Hoover Commission recommended.

Starting this pay day, the tax collectors are going to take $84,000,000,000 a year out of the people's pockets, yours and mine, and out of the income of corporations. The Federal government will take nearly $1 out of every $3 of the nation's income. This is a record, but it is not the end. The Truman gang, alas, intends to force another such tax bill through a reluctant Congress next year.

It is no secret that government planners are already looking forward to next year's tax bill and it is to income levels below $25,000 that tax planners are looking for any new revenues. Individuals who earn $10,000 to $25,000 a year have now a total of $16,000,000,000 left after Federal taxes. People with incomes of $5,000 to $10,000 have an aggregate of nearly $32,000,000,000 left. And individuals with incomes of less than $5,000 have a total of more than $90,000,000,000 left over. Read that statement once more. About two-thirds of all the money left after taxes is in the under-$5,000 income bracket. And it's that money which new tax boosts must bite into deeply.

Now answer these questions: Under these circumstances, have you a personal interest in government economy? Have you had enough? R.E.H.

ONE MAN'S OPINION...

As on the Darkest Day, May 10, 1940, Churchill Can Offer Only "Blood, Toil, Tears and Sweat" in Britain's New Crisis

By RALPH E. HEINZEN

If ever anyone has had handed to him a gold brick on a silver platter, that one was Winston Churchill.

Knowing Churchill, as I do, and having seen him in action in some of the many crises of his long public career, I have no fear but that before he is through he will have passed along the gold brick and keep only the silver platter. We will, indeed, be fortunate if we do not wind up holding the gold brick in Washington!

Whether, at 77, he can succeed in what would seem to be an almost impossible task of saving the British Empire from bankruptcy, I can only remember the Churchill who came to power as Prime Minister on that blackest of all days, May 10, 1940, the day that Hitler invaded Holland and Belgium and threw Von Reichenau's massed Panzer divisions against the French hinge at Sedan. No one but a Churchill could have rallied the flagging forces of the West that day and there ever shall remain seared in my memory the words I heard him speak that day as he went on the air to talk to the British people in perhaps the darkest hour of the war: "I have nothing to offer but blood, toil, tears and sweat."

I was in a corridor deep underground in a Maginot Line fortress that May 10, 1940, when I heard those words piped into our radio from an antenna in the air above. I saw the courage of Frenchmen galvanized as I knew that all of the British must be. Any man who would accept that day to become His Majesty's Prime Minister for the first time in 40 years of his political life is not too weak to tackle the tremendous job which must be accomplished in London today.

A War Correspondent
There have been many facets to Churchill's public life, starting with his career as a war correspondent for the "Morning Post," covering the Boer War, a half century ago. It is not surprising that as a correspondent, Churchill was taken prisoner by the Boers, and even less surprising that he escaped from his prison camp.

His political career dated to his return from South Africa and it is fitting that he should have made his first bid for Parliament as a Conservative. It was as a Tory that he was first elected from Oldham in 1900. A vehement "free trader," he broke with Conservatism and Joseph Chamberlain in 1906 and became a Liberal. It is as a Conservative that he returned to power last week—ever a Tory.

Brilliant Strategy
The first time I ever watched Churchill in action was during World War I, when he was Lord of the Admiralty and dared to oppose the war strategy of the British General Staff. I remember siding vigorously with Churchill, in his reports as a war correspondent, when he dared to condemn the murderous trench warfare in France in favor of hitting the German Kaiser in his "soft under-belly."

Churchill argued that millions of lives would be sacrificed in a long war of trench fighting, while a swift expedition from the Mediterranean up through the Balkans would pierce the Kaiser's "soft under-belly."

Alas for him, Churchill was too impatient. His first attempt to enact that strategy ended in disaster when the Turkish forts along the Dardanelles threading my way through Von Reichenau's columns, across the Somme, to Paris.

Within a few days, Paris had to be evacuated and I went with the French government in flight to Tours. There occurred another episode in the gallant story of Churchill the Soldier. France was badly beaten, her armies cut up, her government in flight, her people morally defeated. Paul Reynaud was the French Premier at the time, and from Tours he sent out dramatic "S. O. S." to Churchill and to President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Would they help France? How much and how soon would help come?

Crisis in France
I remember well that dramatic day in Tours when the German Army drew up on the opposite bank of the Loire River. The gallant teen-agers of the French Army cavalry school at Saumur donned their brightest uniforms, their dress caps with red and white feathers and their white gloves, took up their rifles and formed a line across the bridge. The Germans mowed them down with machine-gun fire, a futile but a magnificent demonstration of courage which, alas, the French government did not share.

Within Tours, there was confusion and defeatism. Half of the Ministers in the cabinet wanted to call it quits and surrender. Half, led by Mandel, wanted to flee to North Africa, hold the government intact and continue the war from there. Reynaud had a hard time holding his government together.

Churchill's Courage
About noon, a plane arrived on the Tours airport, already within range of the German artillery. As shells burst on the field, a portly gentleman smoking a cigar sat out and walked calmly across the field to a waiting automobile. From behind handbags I watched his progress. It was Churchill, the magnificent Winston at his best trying by an act of brutal courage to shame the French Ministers into staying at their post.

Churchill would not drive into Tours to meet with the French Cabinet. Instead, he sat in the car and talked with Reynaud. The French Premier put this question: What could the British do to save France within the next few days?

The Prime Minister made an offer which I did then and do now consider a stroke of genius. He turned to Reynaud and said: "Let us pool our two empires for the duration of this war. France can fall but the war can go on to victory, and when victory comes France will be set up whole again."

A Lost Opportunity
What Churchill meant was that France's vast overseas empire—including Morocco, Algeria and Tunisia, in North Africa; Senegal, Indo-China, Madagascar—should be taken within the protective fold of the British Empire and held against the Germans.

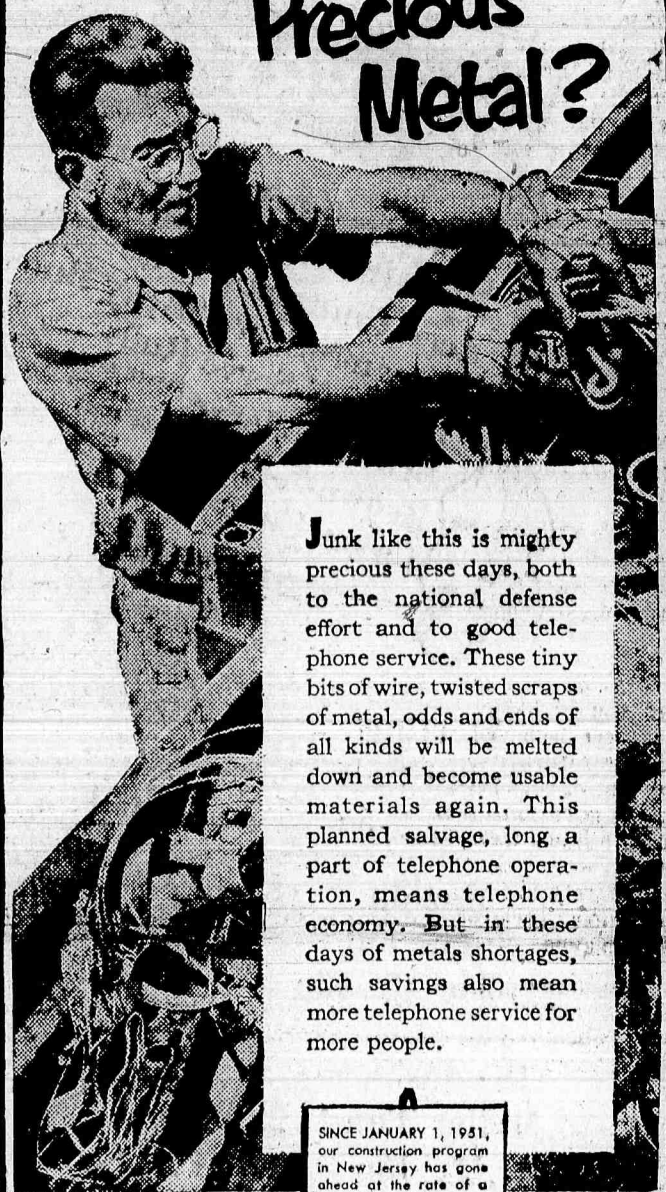

Obviously, not one Frenchman understood that generous gesture. I recall how the French Cabinet met an hour later, at the Hotel Univers, and heard Reynaud's recital of the Churchill offer with indignation. Most of the Ministers thought the British Prime Minister was merely trying to gobble up a colonial empire for peanuts.

As things worked out, the Allies, Britain and the United States, without France, landed in North Africa and from bases in Morocco and Algeria shipped Rommel in Tunisia, then from there invaded Italy and the south of France. The Americans used Senegal as a corridor across Africa to the Middle East. Japan grabbed Indo-China and planted the Viet Nam secessionists. Had Reynaud and the French understood Churchill's magnificent offer and had the Cabinet flown off to North Africa, the war might well have been shortened by several years. That is the Churchill I remember from watching him in action with my own eyes over half of his career. That is the man to whom the British have turned in today's darkest hour. That is the one man who can win from the British the "toil, tears and sweat" which alone can save England. Facing a billion dollar deficit in their dollar trade, the British can survive as a nation only by further austerity, by buying nothing for dollars except raw materials, by producing and exporting more and more and by sacrificing the "playthings" of Socialism, the nationalization scheme, particularly in the steel industry. If the British will "toil and sweat" for anyone, they will do it for Churchill and unless they do it, Britain is bankrupt.

Junk or Precious Metal?

Junk like this is mighty precious these days, both to the national defense effort and to good telephone service. These tiny bits of wire, twisted scraps of metal, odds and ends of all kinds will be melted down and become usable materials again. This planned salvage, long a part of telephone operation, means telephone economy. But in these days of metals shortages, such savings also mean more telephone service for more people.

Rough Road Taken By Our Bellboys As Hillside Wins 20-6

Team Must Be Better Saturday or Kearny Will Add to Its Woes; End Sweeps Disastrous to Local Eleven

By GEORGE PLOSA

The Bellboys took to the road on Saturday and by four o'clock that afternoon they were asking themselves, "was it necessary." For their journey to Woodfield Stadium, Hillside ended in a 20 to 6 defeat. The Comets moped the field with the Bellboys before a gathering of 1,500 fans. The unsuspecting Bellboys, who had been riding high on the crest of two impressive victories had a rough afternoon. If they don't pull themselves together by Saturday things can go from bad to worse, for next on the list is Kearny, and the Cardinals beat Bloomfield, who in turn had beaten Belleville.

Approximately one half of the Comets' sixty plays from scrimmage went off or around Belleville's ends. Two-thirds of the Hillside yardage was accumulated on these sweeps. This was the deciding factor of the game, despite fumbles and intercepted passes, which seemed to occur at the most inopportune moments.

Thompson's Absence Hurt Had Dick Kelly and Ray Jazicki been forced to plunge through the line the Hillside offense would have been throttled. As it was they ran wild and piled up yardage. The absence of Ronnie Thompson, Belleville's most underrated player, who was forced to the sidelines as a result of a concussion, was sorely felt.

In beating the Bellboys, the Comets accomplished that which only Bloomfield was able to do this season, and that was to better the Bellboys in the statistics columns. Hillside had the complete mastery of Belleville in everything but kicking.

Early Hillside Score Hillside drew blood early when Dick Kelly plunged over from the one-yard line and kicked the extra point. The score climaxed a 59-yard drive, which started with an exchange of punts. Hillside took the Bellboy kick on its own 41-yard line and rolled up four first downs in its drive to pay dirt.

The Bellboys took the ensuing kick-off and moved into Hillside territory, when Rocky Cafone threw a pass to Fred Westpy to tapped it over to Bill Rock, who in turn moved it down to the Hillside 47. The play carried for 22 yards. Bill Madara picked up seven more on an end around play but Terry Gahr's pass was intercepted by Ray Jazicki to halt the drive.

The Comets took full advantage of this break and four first downs later Kelly again smashed over from the one. The drive was highlighted by a 27-yard pass play which carried from the Hillside 41 to the 14. Kelly kicked the extra point to make it 14 to 0.

Fumble Costly Belleville received the kickoff to open the second half and after an exchange of punts it looked as if they had finally gotten going, when that old trouble—a fumble occurred. Rocky Cafone on an attempted bootleg play around right end, failed to hang on to the ball. An alert Hillside lineman, Jack Irwin, gobbled up the miscue and recovered 40 yards to a touchdown. This time Kelly failed in his extra point try.

Belleville's touchdown in the final period came after a recovered fumble and a poor kick. Jim Kelly broke through and recovered a Hillside fumble on the 44-yard line. Hillside held and Belleville kicked. Worthington's punt went out of bounds over the 13. The Comets were detected clipping on their first play and the penalty put the ball on the one.

Worthington Scores After Ralph Chimento almost forced a safety the Comets decided to kick out of danger. The kick was poor, going out over the 27. The Bellboys took over and in three plays "Worky" Worthington went over for his sixth touchdown of the season. Bill Rock carried for four. Doyle went for nine and Worthington took it from there. Allen Riggins' try for the point was blocked.

Juveniles Lose To Harrison; Juniors Bow To Harkeys; Two Tilts Sunday

The Belleville PAL Juvenile and Junior soccer teams traveled to Harrison Sunday where they lost their games to more experienced foes. The juveniles played Our Lady of Chenoweth Holy Name and lost by a score of 5 to 0. The first half was well played with the Harrisonites scoring midway through the half and the Harrison goal making several good saves in Belleville's attempt to even the score. Belleville did score three minutes before the half ended, but the referee disallowed the score because he thought the ball had gone outside in the play before the score. The Harrison boys scored again two minutes after the second half started. The Belleville defense line crumbled after the score and the Harrison boys scored at will.

The Belleville PAL Junior team lost their game to the Harkey Boys by a score of 3 to 1. Belleville took the lead when Carpenter scored midway through the first half on a pass from Caszar 10 feet out. The Harkey Boys scored the count on a shot into the corner of the net by Doyle with only two minutes to play in the first half. The boys from Harrison dominated play in the second half, scoring twice in the first 15 minutes sewing up the game.

Through the joint efforts of the North Jersey Revolver League and the Essex County Police Revolver League, a two-day pistol match will be held at the Verona Police Range, on Fairview Avenue, Verona, Saturday and Sunday.

The 20-target range just recently completed will be dedicated and known as the "Arpad Kozma Memorial Pistol Range" by the unanimous action of the Verona town officials in honor of Arpad Kozma who passed away suddenly this month.

Kozma was an ardent supporter of organized pistol shooting and was considered one of the top shooters in both civilian and police competition. His many friends are taking this means of raising funds for his family of wife and four small children. He had just been raised to the rank of full sergeant on the Verona police force the day of his death.

The two-day match will be open to civilians and police and will consist of: 22-calibre pistol match, 22-calibre Camp Perry match, 38-calibre pistol match, 38-calibre Camp Perry match. Grand aggregate of all scores fired.

For convenience of the shooters that cannot stay for the full two days of the match, it has been arranged so that any one can compete their full course of fire in any a. m. or p. m. provided advance entries are made.

The Verona police will serve refreshments and light lunch at the range and are donating all proceeds to the fund. All the expenses of the match are being paid for by the two sponsoring leagues so that every dollar taken in will be free and clear. Merchants of Verona and surrounding towns have been generous in supplying merchandise prizes while the matches will have as awards a certificate in class A, B, C.

Team matches in police and civilian leagues are cancelled for these two days. All inquiries can be made to Dr. J. D. Maurer of 524 Main Street, East Orange, or to Russell F. Hopkins of 120 Rutgers Street, Belleville, or at any police department.

Little Leaguers Feted at Banquet

Gold Baseballs Presented To Members Of Championship Clipper Team; Other Gifts

Belleville Little Leaguers were feted by the Town Recreation Department Thursday at Veterans Hall. About 150 youthful ball players, their parents and friends were present at the first annual banquet. Gold baseballs were presented the Clippers, who won the championship over the course of the regular season, with Parks and Property Director Elmer S. Hyde making the presentation.

Honored guests included Deputy Commissioner James Lampman, Board of Education member Walter Loesner, scorer Dick Dolan, umpire Alex "Bun" Derbyshire and the eight managers of the Little League nines.

Warren Knight, the league's organizer, acted as toastmaster.

gun in the northern half. But that's too logical for the Fish and Game Division.

Then there's the season on pheasant, rabbit and jackrabbits which runs from November 10 to December 8; a total of 25 hunting days. Again, since the average man has only Saturday to hunt, he is limited to five hunting days during the season. If two or three of those days are rainy, foggy or stormy, he has very few left to enjoy his favorite sport. Most hunters in New Jersey never approach the season bag limit of 10 pheasant and few get half that number.

Ruffed grouse, quail and squirrel are open from November 10 to December 8 and again from December 17 to December 29, making a total of 37 hunting days but actually only adding two more Saturdays for the working hunter.

Woodcock season extends from October 20 to November 18 while ducks are legal targets from November 9 through December 23. At least they are safe for Christmas, if they last that long.

The hunting dates and regulations show a clear need for a little analysis by the Fish and Game Division. What is needed is some what more of a realistic outlook of the hunter's problems and a few changes in the laws. A little consideration will find fewer sportsmen going out of the state for their hunting.

Actually there is a reason for hunting with a shotgun in New Jersey. The southern part of the state is so flat that hunting with a rifle is extremely dangerous. The range of a bullet is so long that it wouldn't be worth your life to venture out in your back yard during the deer season.

However, in northern New Jersey the hills and valleys provide excellent cover for hunting with a rifle — in fact if you step across either the Pennsylvania or New York boundaries, hunting with a rifle is legal. So the logical conclusion would be to divide the state in half, require hunters to use a shotgun in the lower half and allow either a rifle or a shotgun in the northern half.

Take the deer season, for instance. Hunting is legal with bow and arrow from November 26 to December 8 and with firearms from December 10 to December 15. For 12 days out of 365 a sportsman may hunt deer with bow and arrow, and he is allowed 6 days to bag a buck with his shotgun. And since the average hunter is also an upright citizen with a five-days-a-week job, he has only Saturday and Sunday free. And since it is illegal to hunt on the day of worship, that means the average sportsman is permitted to hunt deer ONE DAY OUT OF THE YEAR.

A mathematician could probably tell you a man's chances of getting a deer on one day of the year, taking into account the approximate number of deer running around and the number of hunters also in the field for that one

DON'T MENTION KEARNY TO OUR SOCCER PLAYERS

Kardinals Administer a Second Beating and St. Cecilia's Adds To Woes

"Kearny" is a bad word among Belleville High's soccer players. The soccer team in its first year of competition now sports a 4 and 1 record. Two of those defeats were administered by Kearny High 7 to 0 and 4 to 0, and the other came Tuesday at the hands of St. Cecilia's High of Kearny 2 to 0.

The Bellboys started the weekend in good shape winning their fourth match of the season by beating Cranford 3 to 0 at Cranford. Frank Caszar scored two of the goals and Jack Carpenter the other.

Monday things were different. Then Kearny came to Clearman Field and the perennial state champions played rings around the local boys. Only the work of Robert Curvin, Belleville goalie, saved the team from a worse beating.

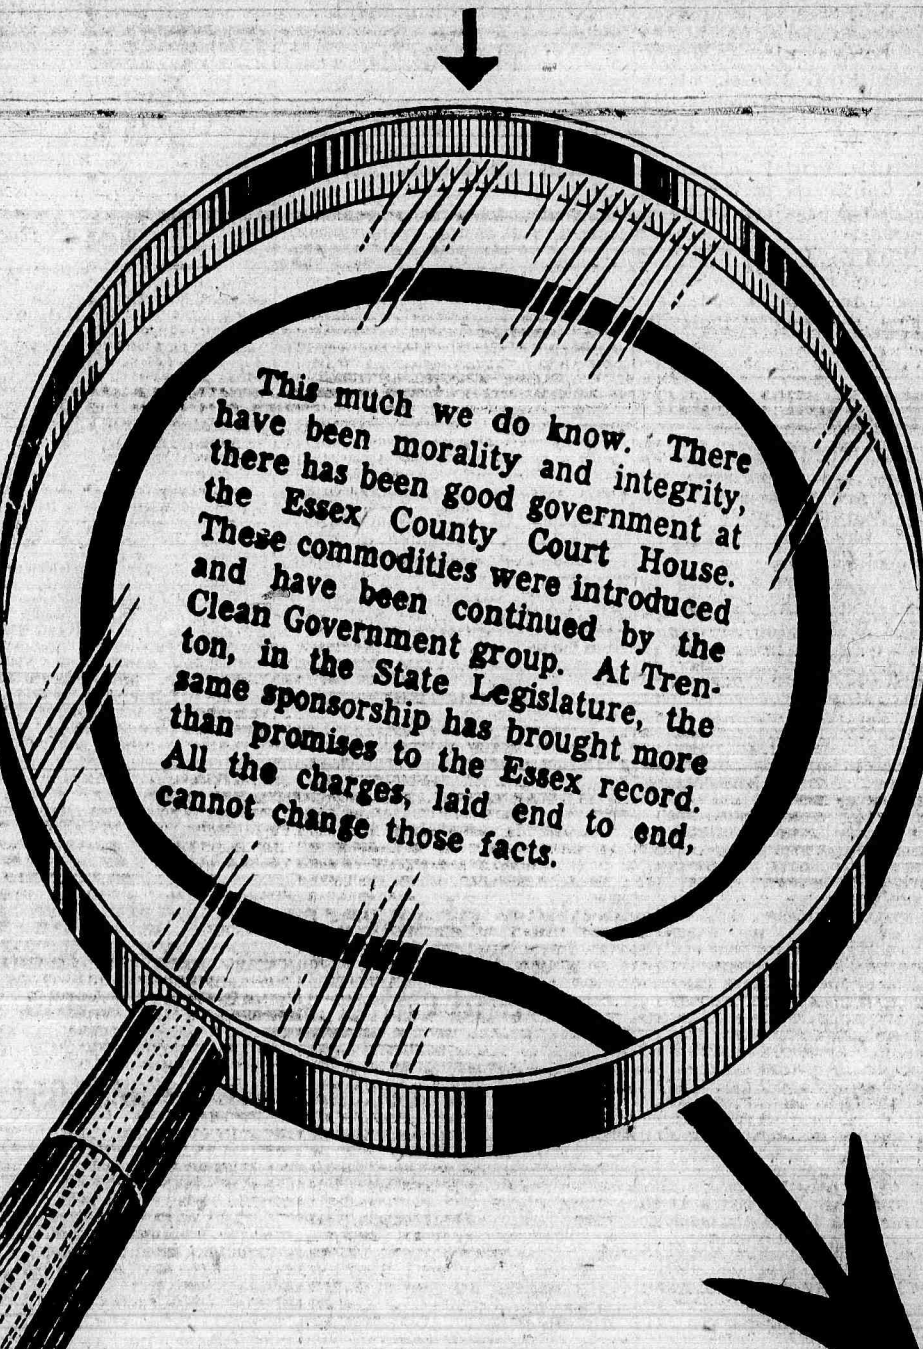

Curvin was a busy boy again on Tuesday when Belleville went to Harvey Field, Kearny, to engage the St. Cecilia's hosters. A kick by Jack Ronan on a pass from Jack Donahue got by him in the first quarter and a 20-yard boot by Joe McIlerny in the second period was good for the other point.

Jayvees Turn Tables On Hillside Comets

Belleville High's Jayvee football team defeated Hillside 14 to 6 on Monday at the Municipal Stadium on two touchdown runs by Joe Sorrentino. The Bellboy back raced half the length of the field with a pass interception and then went off tackle for 10 yards

The Stake on November 6

WE'RE told again that in spite of sound and fury there's little popular interest in the election coming up two weeks from today. No state-wide office is to be filled. "Only" 60 members of the Assembly, 11 state senators and other county officers are to be elected. Hence, it is explained, the apathy of the electorate.

If public indifference is as depicted, it's unfortunate for the state generally, for Essex County specifically. For this election will determine the character of government people will get right around home, day in and day out, for quite a spell. Who will sit in the Court House, in the Legislature at Trenton—these are the issues.

In Essex County, the new Democratic leadership has been having a field day over what happened; what happened, that is, in Bergen and Atlantic. True, state investigations swirl about the Court Houses in Hackensack and Mays Landing. But not in Essex County, for none is needed, unless it be in Newark itself as distinguished from the Court House.

Certainly it is the right of the Democratic leaders and candidates to view with alarm the mess in those two counties. It is equally within the province of the Clean Government leadership and candidates in Essex to point out that the 1932-1933 scandal, involving theft of impounded ballot boxes from City Hall basement, did not erupt during a Clean Government administration. Republican leaders have every legitimate right to point out that the man who presided over Newark's Department of Public Safety at the time and whose police were guarding the ballots was Mr. Egan. Also that Mr. Egan, who is now the vociferous leader of the Democratic party in Essex, was retired from office by the voters of Newark the following May.

No doubt Mr. Egan would resent any attempt to portray him as responsible for what happened in that far-off night in City Hall. Yet the Democratic party, in this campaign, has not hesitated to assess the blame for Atlantic and Bergen counties where the Essex Clean Government organization has no more authority than, say, Mr. Egan has over the influence peddlers, mink coats and political mbrals of Washington.

This much we do know. There have been morality and integrity, there has been good government at the Essex County Court House. These commodities were introduced and have been continued by the Clean Government group. At Trenton, in the State Legislature, the same sponsorship has brought more than promises to the Essex record. All the charges, laid end to end, cannot change those facts.

A Message to the Voters and Taxpayers of Belleville

On November 6th, 1951 at the General Election the question of granting an increase of $390. to each member of the Police Department will be presented to the voters. If this referendum is carried it will be mandatory for the Board of Commissioners to provide the necessary amount in the 1952 Tax Budget.

I have always taken the attitude, that if employees of one branch of the municipal government are granted an increase, all employees should be treated likewise.

So that the people of Belleville can be better informed as to the financial condition of the Town and the cost of these various increases, I submit herewith for their consideration the following facts and figures.

After appropriation to the 1946 Tax Budget, the Town of Belleville had surplus cash of $318,034.95. After passage of the 1951 Tax Budget, we had surplus cash of $254,353.54 a decrease of $63,681.41 in five years.

The people of Belleville last year voted a record school budget with an increase of $195,514.64 over the previous year.

The state aid appropriation to your schools has been rapidly declining. In the school year 1946-1947, $153,638.76 was received. In 1951-1952, $125,565.01 is anticipated to be received. This represents a decrease in our assistance through the Pascoe and Armstrong bills of $28,073.75.

This year we are also confronted with bond payment and interest on the $300,000 bonds recently voted for a school reconstruction and alteration program. Amortization will amount to $25,000 with $2,530 interest making a total increase to be placed in the 1952 budget of $27,530.

The people of Belleville last year voted salary increases for your Police Department and shorter hours for the Fire Department which necessitated an additional appropriation of $52,000 in year 1951 Tax Budget.

The following represents the various amounts necessary and the approximate tax points represented if increases are granted in 1952. All of these figures are based on 1951 ratables.

1. Cost of increase as per referendum if granted to members of Police Department and approximate tax points it will represent.
The estimated cost would be $21,060, or approximately 5 points.

2. Cost of increase to members of Fire Department to bring them into the present salary scale of the Police Department and the tax points it will represent.

The cost would be $14,400, or approximately 3½ points.

3. Cost of increase if $390. additional is granted to each member of the Fire Department and the tax points it will represent.
Cost of $20,280. or approximately 4.8 points.

4. Cost of an increase of $390. to each permanent Town employee and the tax points it will represent.

Cost would be $78,780. or approximately a fraction under 19 points.

The above costs do not include any increase in the Town contribution to the various pension and retirement systems, which of necessity will cost the Town of Belleville more if these raises are granted.

Your tax budget in 1951 amounted to $2,978,131.91 to be raised as follows:

Surplus Cash Appropriated . . .	$ 169,000.00
Miscellaneous Revenues . . .	221,825.00
Collection From Delinquent Taxes	78,975.00
Collection From Current Taxes .	2,508,331.91
	$2,978,131.91

From these figures you will well realize that 5/6 of the amount appropriated is raised from taxation on real estate.

Until such time as new sources of revenue are explored or the state increases aid to schools each additional appropriation will require an increase in your real estate tax.

Respectfully submitted,

Patrick A. Waters

Acting Mayor,
Acting Director Revenue & Finance.
