

Postponed Rites At Memorial Will Be Held Today

Military Funeral for Rene Flory Jr.
Yesterday: No Changes in Program
For Dedication of Bench at 1 P. M.

The dedication of the granite bench and plaque in memory of Corporal Rene Flory Jr., scheduled for Friday afternoon was postponed until today at 1 p. m. The ceremony planned for Friday will be put on without change at today's exercises.

In the meantime Rene's body arrived from Korea on Saturday, and he was given a military funeral yesterday from the Samuel Brown funeral home at 268 Center Street, Nutley. A requiem mass at 10 o'clock at Holy Family Church, was followed by interment in the Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Hanover. His flag draped casket was given a military escort from the Dover Marine Barracks.

Died on June 9
Corporal Flory died in action on June 9, a few days after he had written to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Flory of 49 Centre Street, that he was in a rest camp and that the worst is over. Besides his parents he is survived by a sister, Theresa.

The memorial is the inspiration of M. A. Weinstein, a pharmacist at 531 Joramaleon Street, who started the fund with a coin box in his store. One box led to another there and at other locations. Eventually $127 in coins were taken from the boxes. Another $40 was donated by children of Holy Family Church.

Many Donors
Mr. Weinstein was joined on the committee by Deputy Police Chief Kenneth Smith and Eugene Kelly and Raymond McCann of the Board of Education. Additional contributions were received from National Yeast, Jervens, Federal Leather, Walter Kidd, Wallace & Tiernan and from the Evergreen Automobile Service of East Orange.

Nicholas Palascio of 446 Belleville Avenue, who operates a monument works at 1401, was commissioned to erect the bench and the United States Bronze Sign Company of New York to make the plaque. A boulder from Garrett Mountain Park was donated.

So What?

A potentially dangerous section of sidewalk alongside of the new telephone dial exchange was torn up by workmen last week to make way for a new and less dangerous grade. The sidewalk which was laid soon after the scaffolding came off the front of the building, sloped from the building to Washington Avenue, and then at the corner of Holmes Street took a steep drop. If ice had formed on sidewalks there was danger that someone might fall. It is impossible to lay a sidewalk there without a grade, but it can be less severe and probably will be.

The front cover of Holiday magazine is a reproduction of the Christmas window which will face the stores of Lord and Taylor in New York and also in Milburn. Once in a while the national magazines get around to North Jersey.

Building Inspector Thomas P. Greco was confined to his home with illness last week. We hope he gets the bug out of his system.

He followed Record Clerk Harry Winfield and Detective Fletcher on the sick list. Winfield missed all the fun when the police were after their pay raise.

Police fished a 1951 "Henry J." out of the Passaic River Thursday morning, an hour before its owner knew that it had been stolen from in front of his house. Patrolmen Bernard Tinsdale and Thomas Dunn were cruising along Main Street before 7 o'clock when they saw car lights where they shouldn't be. They investigated and found the blue sedan over its wheels in mud and water. Fortunately the Passaic River was at low tide at the time. Anderson's Garage was called to tow it out of the water. There was no one in the car. It was too early in the morning to get the license checked in Trenton, but the number was put on the teletype. About 8 o'clock word came from Newark that Eugene Butler of 243 Mt. Pleasant Avenue, that city, had just reported the car as having been stolen. Mr. Butler got his car back in time to drive to work at the Federal Telephone & Telegraph plant in Clifton, just a little later than his usual starting time.

Hyde presented the watch to Mr. Sargeant; Commissioner Joseph King did the honors for Mr. Sheehan and Commissioner Harry J. Sullivan did likewise for Mr. E. E. King. LIEUTENANT AIDS KOREAN CHILDREN

Home Of Shinto Priests In Seoul Converted Into Christian Orphanage

The Gods of War must laugh maliciously as they gaze on a battered building in the battle-torn city of Seoul, Korea. This building, once the home of Shinto priests during the Japanese occupation of Korea, is now a Christian orphanage sheltering more than 300 war orphans whose parents have been killed during the see-saw battles up and down the Korean peninsula.

The orphanage, in the very threshold of organization, is the newest in Seoul. There are others in the city, but they have been established for some time and are comparatively well provided for.

Airmen to Children's Aid

Hearing of the plight of the children, airmen of an advanced detachment of FEAF Combat Cargo's 6127th Air Terminal Group, who work daily to unload the thousands of tons of war supplies down into Korea by cargo planes of the 315th Air Division (Combat Cargo), visited the orphanage during their off-duty hours to see what was needed to make the children comfortable. They found the needs great and cannot meet the demand alone. Almost every item required to run an institution is on the needed list. Among these was 1st Lieutenant Jensen.

Operation "Turkey Dinner" Suggested By Nurse With Bomber Squadron

Lieutenant Shannon Suggests Northern Hospitality For Southern Bomber Group

Would you like guests for Thanksgiving? Have you a son far away from home, for whom you wish there would be someone to take him in for a home cooked Thanksgiving meal? Then you might want to extend a little Northern hospitality to some Southern boys, who will be at Camp Kilmer in preparation for shipping out of the country for two or three years.

Lieut. Ruth E. Shannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Shannon of 28 Bremont Street, in the Army Nurses Corps, arrived at Kilmer late last week with a Bomber Wing of the Air Force, from Godman Field, Kentucky. Each bomber group has two nurses.

The boys in the group all come

Lieut. Ruth E. Shannon from North Carolina, West Virginia and Kentucky, and they have had to pull up roots at the wrong time as far as the holidays are concerned. Many of them had hopes for leaves to be home with their parents. But now that they are at Kilmer it is impossible for them to get off for more than a day or two.

Transportation is no difficulty. The boys promise to get to Belleville and back to Kilmer on their own. If enough are invited to dinner, they may be able to find a way to get the Army to transport them.

Lieutenant Shannon says the boys are the kind of people who are glad to welcome into their homes. Furthermore, she will personally designate the boys as the invitations are extended.

Mrs. Shannon has agreed to accept invitations and to relay them to her daughter in time. The Shannon telephone number is Belleville 2-6390.

RED CROSS NEEDS FURNITURE, PROPS FOR ARMY LOUNGE

Tent on A-A Battery Camp
Site Will Be Started Toward
Entertaining the Soldiers

Belleville Chapter American Red Cross in addition to its usual chores and the pending visit of the Korean Blood Bank has not neglected the boys of Battery B 869th Anti-Aircraft Battery, encamped here. Representatives of the chapter have consulted with Captain Potter and have arranged for the setting up of a lounge and the camp site in a tent which will be erected by the soldiers. The Red Cross hopes that through donations they will be able to install some comfortable chairs, tables and writing materials, books, magazines, a record player, a radio and other facilities for the entertainment of the boys.

For Free Time

Members of the battery have some time off their regular duties, but not enough to get into New York City where they live, so the Belleville chapter is going all out to see that they are entertained.

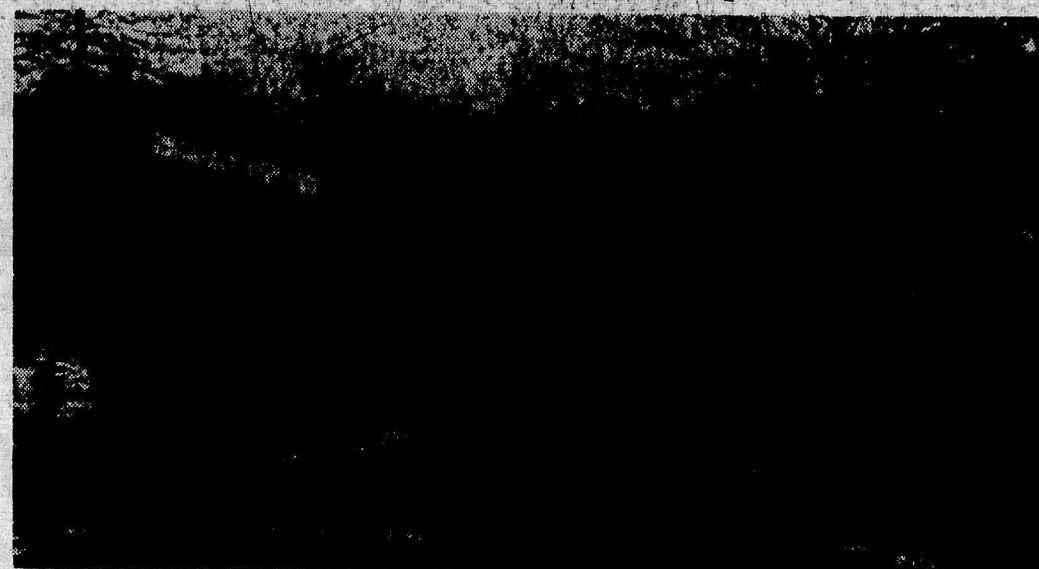

Mrs. Earl Jensen, chairman of procurement and supplies, of 92 Continental Avenue, Belleville 2-6423, is trying to round up the furnishings for the recreation lounge. Anyone who can contribute a single item, or several, is requested to contact Mrs. Jensen and she in turn will make arrangements for picking up the articles and delivering them to the camp site.

Seek Free Tickets

Other Red Cross volunteers are now canvassing amusement places in Newark and nearby communities for free tickets for shows and sporting events for distribution among the men.

The chapter is also endeavoring to open a recreation center in town. Rev. Henderson E. Goldston, pastor of the Second Baptist Church has offered the recreation room in his church at 82 Academy Street for the recreation center. The center will be staffed by Red Cross volunteers, including hostesses. Plans for the center are developing and will be announced in the near future.

Gun Crew of Anti-Aircraft Unit Camped Here

One of the four gun crews which make up B Battery of the 869th Anti-Aircraft Battalion stationed at Belleville Park. The outfit, a former National Guard unit from New York, was Federalized 14 months ago and prior to arriving here was stationed at Fort Hancock. Apparently the unit is here for an extended visit, since their tents are up in their present position on a temporary basis. Winterized camping facilities are scheduled to be installed adjacent to the present camp site.

McLaughlin of Hammond, La., at right. The orphanage, just being started, is in need of food, clothing, soap, towels, money and blankets in order to care for the little war-orphans.

Pete Spera Will Play Against foe Thanksgiving Day

Belleville's Chances to Take Lead in Homecoming Day Game Improves
With Return of Star Quarterback

Belleville High's grid gladiators come up to the big one with a little cheering news. Pete Spera, triple threat star who has been out of the game since the first game of the season has the permission of his parents and his family doctor to play against Orange at Municipal Stadium, Thursday morning. Pete has been working out with the team for a week and although he will not be able to go the whole 48 minutes, Coach Eddie Berlinski promises to use him in spots. The presence of Spera in the lineup may be just what was needed to make this year's club click.

If this is so then the Belleville boys have an excellent chance of completing their season with a 50-50 mark.

The Orange-Belleville series has been a short one, with only two previous games, the first won by an Orange team which was an overwhelming favorite by an 18 to 13 count and last year's game won by the Bellboys, 13 to 7. It's anybody's guess as to the winner and the score this year.

Homecoming Game

The game is billed as Homecoming Day, when the alumni of the school can come home from college and meet their friends. The 1949 game, the first of the series and the game which was played here, attracted 7,000 people, the largest football crowd to attend a game at the Municipal Stadium.

The school is offering reserved seats in the grand stand at $1.50, general admission tickets at $1 and student tickets at 50 cents.

Belleville Started Well

Belleville, loaded with veterans, looked good in early season drills and still looked good in their first game against East Orange, which resulted in a 20 to 20 tie. But it was a disastrous game for the team when Spera was hurt on the last play of the game.

As a result, the Bellboys were out of the game to the benefit of a 21 to 7 count. Nutley, who was considered the weakest team on the schedule (this year) was not that weak when Belleville played. Belleville fumbled away at least five touchdowns in bowling 7 to 2.

Belleville was still stumbling against West Side, but got a few back and won, 13 to 0. Irvington with a big and tricky team was fabled 12 to 6. Hillside, rated "easy" in their record, were like Nutley, too tough for the Bellboys and the final count was 7 to 20. Kearny got off to an early lead and although Belleville pushed the Kards around the rest of the game the Argauer forces won 7 to 2.

Although they did not score at least one touchdown that should have been theirs, the Bellboys beat Passaic 9 to 7, with the winning margin coming on the team's third safety of the campaign.

Orange Surprised

Orange on the other hand looked as if it was in for a poor year. Coach Johnny Moorhead had a few vets and when they slacked up against Montclair and lost 48 to 0 they were counted out as a poor team. But they weren't poor against Nutley, winning 27 to 0. They tied Thomas Jefferson of Elizabeth, at that time unbeaten, and still sporting a record of only one loss.

Columbia, favored to wind up state champions, pinned a 27 to 0 defeat on the Tornadoes, but considering the fact that a week or two later Columbia did the same thing to Montclair, that's not too bad.

Orange bounced back with a 26 to 0 victory over West Orange and a 25 to 6 win over EastSide. East Orange bowed 7 to 0 and Morristown, which usually turns out a pretty fair club lost 20 to 13 to the Tornadoes.

Orange Has Best Record

On the record Orange looks better than Belleville in several ways. Their five victories, two defeats and one tie, with 11 points for Orange and 98 for the opposition is a little better than Belleville's 25 to 6 win over East Side, 26 to 0 over West Orange, 27 to 0 over Thomas Jefferson and 27 to 0 over Columbia. If the Bellboys finally catch fire, and Pete Spera can be the one to apply the torch, they can win the Turkey Day game and go one up on their rivals.

We are of the opinion that Belleville has yet to play its best game. A number of the cripples are expected to be able to perform, if only briefly, and the record of the season should mean nothing. Belleville is and has been stronger than its record indicates. If the Bellboys finally catch fire, and Pete Spera can be the one to apply the torch, they can win the Turkey Day game and go one up on their rivals.

Children a Problem

He further cautions parents of children to keep them away from the camp after dark, especially the parents of pre-teen and teen age girls. He knows that the soldiers under his command are gentlemen, but they are also men. It is impossible for him to keep children out of the camp area on a guard basis, for it would take every man in his unit just to pace post.

Since most of the men are from New York City, a limited number are given overnight and weekend passes so that they can get home. Efforts of the Belleville Chapter Red Cross to set up a lounge and eventually a canteen should help the men in the social life, but the problem of the camp being overrun by children is one that can be solved only by the parents of the children.

OVERSUBSCRIBE QUOTA FOR BLOOD BANK FOR KOREA

Red Cross Signing Up Extra
For Return Visit Of Mobile
Unit on February 1

Unit on February 1

Belleville citizens and employees of local industry volunteered wholeheartedly for the Blood for Korea, blood donor assembly at the Elks Club today from noon to 5-30. Belleville's quota was 165 pints of blood and the volunteers far exceeded that amount. The Belleville Chapter American Red Cross has arranged for another blood donor assembly on February 1 and all those over and above today's requirement are being asked to sign up as a start for that occasion.

The Blood Bank mobile unit

here today under the Red Cross auspices is from Plainfield and is their second visit in Essex County. The "Blood for Korea" effort is not to be confused with the regular blood bank assemblies sponsored by Belleville Chapter American Red Cross for the Essex County Blood Bank which is for civilian use.

Children and Cameras Are Headache To Army Captain

Photographers Face Confiscation of Equipment
For Unauthorized Pictures; Parents Are Asked To Keep Young Girls Away From Camp After Dark

While Captain Vernon N. Potter in charge of Battery B of the 869th Anti-Aircraft Battalion, encamped at Belleville Park appreciates the welcome given to his boys by the crowds which gathered at the camp over the week end, he has asked the Belleville Times-News to help him ask for cooperation on the part of townspeople.

First of all taking pictures of government equipment, without permission, is forbidden and Captain Potter says that it is within the province of his guards to confiscate the camera of any person caught taking unauthorized photographs. Confiscation is a tough thing for visitors to impose on citizens of a host community, but rules are rules. Captain Potter hopes that the word will be passed along. If he is not busy he may permit guided and supervised groups to take some pictures, but

CHIEF SPATZ URGES PREPARATION FOR THANKSGIVING TRIP

Sudden Snowfall Can Lead To Tragedy; Make Sure Chains Fit Present Tires

Going home or visiting for Thanksgiving? Lots of people are, and most of them are planning to drive, because they'll be taking the whole family. "And the best way for motorists to insure a happy Thanksgiving," Chief of Police George R. Spatz warned yesterday, "is to make adequate preparations before starting and to drive carefully on the way."

"A sudden snowfall, or a sudden freeze, which may make rainy streets slippery," he pointed out, "can easily lead to tragedy which will take all the joy out of Thanksgiving."

"Records show that sometime this winter the millionth person will die as a result of a traffic accident," Chief Spatz said. "It may be hastened during the Thanksgiving weekend. To make sure you won't be one in a million, don't start on a trip until you know your car is safe for possible winter weather driving. Hospitals and doctors have more than they can do already. Don't add to their burden."

The best things you can do before you start out, Chief Spatz suggested, is to be sure that your brakes are equalized, that your windshield wiper and defroster are in good condition, and that your tire chains fit your present tires and are ready for use in the event of an early blizzard or freezing rain.

With severe winter conditions approaching Chief Spatz took the opportunity to discuss new findings by the National Safety Council. "Even brand new tires aren't much help on ice or snow," he said, "compared with the 'frog' and-go traction of tire chains of those treacherous, trouble-making surfaces."

"Tests conducted by the National Safety Council last winter also proved that many of those special winter tires are simply not dependable for safe stopping on packed snow or ice, and their traction or hill-climbing ability is often even more inadequate. The very best special tread tires tested still skidded eight times as far on ice as the normal dry concrete stopping distance."

"In getting away from a standing start or climbing a hill on snow or ice, chains improve the performance of natural rubber tires by about 400 per cent. Synthetic rubber tires, now again in general use, have about 32 per cent less tractive ability than natural rubber tires on snow. Therefore, safety authorities point out, a good set of chains will be needed even more, if skids and traffic delays are to be avoided on snowy or icy grades."

Honors Other Heroes

The plaque dedicates the bench to Corporal Rene Flory Jr. and other Belleville boys who have made the supreme sacrifice in Korea. Although Corporal Flory is the only one listed as killed in action, Private First Class J. F. Gorman had been listed as missing in action.

A delegation of Marines from Dover will come to town for the second straight day to take part in the dedication ceremony. The Dover Marines are all veterans of the Korean conflict and were originally a National Guard unit which was Federalized and sent to the front lines of the "police action."

Dedication Ceremony
At today's ceremony, Rev. Francis J. Blake of Holy Family Church will ask the invocation. Saint Joseph is a member of the seventh grade at No. 7 school and a radio, stage and TV performer, will sing "My Buddy." Rabbi Leo Schwartz of Congregation A.A.A. will offer a prayer. Commissioner Harry J. Sullivan will introduce Acting Mayor Patrick A. Waters who will make the dedication address. A talk will be made by George Plosa, president of the Belleville High School Student Council, a position which Rene Flory held when he was in high school.

The presentation of the memorial to the Board of Education will be made by M. A. Weinstein, whose efforts brought about the memorial fund. Eugene J. Kelly, president of the Board of Education, will make the formal acceptance. Benediction will be pronounced by Rev. O. W. Chapin of the Montgomery Presbyterian Church. A volley will be fired by the visiting Marines and one of their number will sound taps with his bugle.

TELLS TAX RELIEF IN CAPITAL GAIN FROM HOME SALES

Local Realtors Board Alerts Owners To New Tax Law Provisions

How the new tax law signed last week by President Truman gives relief in taxes on capital gains in the sale of residences was explained this week in a statement issued by the Board of Realtors of Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley and Belleville.

Provisions of Law
The new law, the statement says, provides that when the sale of the taxpayer's principal residence is followed within a year by the purchase of a substitute, or when the substitute is bought within a year prior to the sale, gain is to be recognized only to the extent that the selling price of the old home exceeds the cost of the new.

Thus, if a dwelling purchased in 1940 for $10,000 was sold or traded in 1951 for $15,000, there would have been a taxable gain of $5,000 under the old law. Under the new law, however, no portion of the gain is taxable provided a substitute "principal residence" is bought within the time limit for $15,000 or more. If the replacement cost is less than $15,000, say $14,000, the amount taxable as gain is $1,000.

Exchange of Residence
The provision, the statement continues, applies where one residence is exchanged for another, where a replacement residence is constructed by the taxpayer rather than purchased and where the replacement is a residence which must be reconstructed in order to permit occupancy. In the case of construction of a new home, it must be used as the taxpayer's principal residence within 18 months after the sale of the former home, and this 18-months is allowed for reinvesting proceeds of the sale. In other cases, the new house must be used as the principal residence within a year after the sale.

The taxpayers is not required to have actually been occupying his old residence on the date of its sale. Relief is available even though he moved into his new home and rented the old one temporarily before its sale. Similarly, he may obtain relief even though he rents out his new residence temporarily before occupying it. If he moves in within a year or 18 months, as the case may be, after the sale of his old house. The special treatment is available only with respect to one sale or exchange per year, except when a new residence is involuntarily converted.

If the residence is part of a business property, as in the case of an apartment over a store building, or a home on a farm, the provision applies only to that part used as a residence, including the environs and outbuildings relating to the dwelling but not those relating to the business operations.

The Rochester's crew visited Kilauea Crater in Hawaii National Park located on the slopes of Mauna Loa about 30 miles from Hilo. They stood at the foot of the 7,000-foot deep fire pit and took pictures of steam vapors rising from gaping holes in the hardened lava.

The cruiser spent 193 days in continuous operation against Communist forces in Korean waters last year.

Pfc. Fred J. Walsifer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Walsifer of 132 Leamon Street, was among two hundred and five paratroopers from the 503d Airborne Infantry Regiment, who made military aviation history when they were flown fully equipped for combat, from Wright-Patterson Field in Dayton, Ohio, to Fort Campbell Airbase, Kentucky, in a C-124 cargo plane.

This was the first time that combat load troops have been transported from one point to another in this type of aircraft. The C-124 is a three-decker plane with doors in the nose that open automatically to permit loading and unloading via a ramp. The lower deck is designed to carry equipment; the other two are devoted to personnel. Two doors for jumping are located in the rear of each of the two upper decks.

Highway Department Plans Renumbering of State Routes

Chargeover Jan. 1, 1953 Will Eliminate State and Federal Markings on Same Roads

State Highway Commissioner Ransford J. Abbott today revealed plans for renumbering New Jersey State highways in accordance with modern motor needs.

The date for the scheduled changeover has been set for January 1, 1953, to allow map-makers, roadside business establishments, and others time in which to adjust to the proposed change.

Under the new plan the greatest flow of traffic will follow a minimum number of different routes between destinations. With the exception of Route 5W, a U. S. designation, no letters will be used in state route markers. This will eliminate such designations as S-4B and S-1A.

No Double Markings

In the future the 11 New Jersey state highways designated as U. S. routes will be posted only with national markers. No separate state designations will be used on these roads. This feature will be a great aid to motorists, particularly drivers from other states, Abbott said, since New Jersey is one of the few states using different state and U. S. numbers on the same route. He cited the confusion now resulting on U. S. No. 1 from Trenton to Jersey City. As marked today, this highway carries state markers, 25, 26, and S-26, as well as the U. S. designation.

Another example of this duplication of numbers is U. S. 9 between the George Washington Bridge and Cape May. At present this route is also known in various locations as State Route 1, 25, 26 and 4.

The use of the identical numbers on totally different highways also will be eliminated, Abbott said. He cited as an example U. S. 30 from Camden to Atlantic City, and State Route 30 extending north from Trenton. Under the new plan the state number will be changed.

Savings on Signs

In addition to greatly simplifying

the highway department will effect a savings by reducing the total number of signs by approximately 4,000.

The Garden State Parkway, New Jersey Turnpike, and the Palisades Interstate Parkway will not be given numerical identification, according to Abbott.

Not all state routes are slated for new numbers under the plan. Where consistent with other considerations, existing route numbers are being retained in order to cause as little inconvenience as possible to the public. In all, 30 highways will keep their present designations.

Abbott indicated that a common number will be used in marking existing and proposed routes between New Jersey and neighboring states.

Result of Long Study

The proposed renumbering of our highway system is long overdue," Abbott said. "We are at present saddled with an outmoded and confusing system of designations as the result of many additions to the 1927 legislative plan. Today's traffic requires modern route designation. Our engineers have devoted a great deal of study to the problem and I believe they have come forth with a route numbering plan designed to meet these needs. This belief is supported by the opinions of many private organizations and experts with whom we held conferences prior to finally accepting the plan. It is their feeling that a good job has been done. It should be understood, however, that this change will not take place until January 1, 1953."

New Markers Larger

According to the commissioner, new route markers will be 24 inches in diameter with an added aid to easy visibility. The present markers are 14 inches in size.

Final details of the proposed renumbering plan will be sent to 100 organizations. Among them are state and federal agencies, automobile associations, map and oil companies, trucking and bus associations, and others, Abbott said. "These groups all have had the opportunity of reviewing our plan, and have endorsed it wholeheartedly."

completed to date, in American Tag Company, Walter Kidde & Co., Inc., and Beiser Weidmann Company, show increases of from 50 per cent to 600 per cent above the amount contributed to the Chest last year, and it is expected that these increases will be maintained in other firms in the community.

"If everyone gets out and makes a last strong effort, we'll put the campaign well over the top," Glover asserted.

Business Administration

Both were graduated from Belleville High School in 1951.

Alphonse A. Porcello, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Porcello of 96 Belmont Street, has been named to the Dean's List of the College of Agriculture at the State University. It was announced today by Dean William H. Martin.

Porcello is among 30 students honored for scholastic achievement. A junior, he is majoring in plant science.

Will Talk at Lions Meeting

Rev. John Hourihan of St. Peter's R. C. Church will talk at the meeting of the Belleville Lions Club, Wednesday at the For-Hills Restaurant, with a Thanksgiving message. He will talk about his work among the deaf and dumb. His efforts along this line are on an archdiocesan basis.

Completing Football Career

One of the best guards to wear the blue and white of the Coast Guard Academy in recent years is Belleville's own George E. Stickle. Lettering since a freshman, George has just culminated his last year of football at the nation's smallest but toughest military academy. Well known to New England college football fans as an extremely aggressive player, he this year was the nucleus of coach Nitchman's defensive line. His rough brand of ball is evident from the records which have him recovering five enemy fumbles this year.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. George Stickle of Belleville, Cadet Stickle was a former gridiron performer and crewman for Belleville High School.

With a six win and one tie record, the Coast Guard Academy Bears have completed their first undefeated season in the 29 year history of Academy football. The Cadets took the opener against a strong Norwich University squad by a decisive 20-6 victory. Next a powerful Trinity eleven with only one defeat in the two seasons fell to a 27-19 score. Wesleyan by 28-14 and Amherst by 28-20 were also crushed before the advancing blue and white steamroller. Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder was handed another win as the Cadets romped over a previously unbeaten Worcester Tech by 27-6. The only mare on a perfect record came when an unbeaten

Northeastern team came down from Boston and held the Bears to a 13-13 tie on a muddy field. To round out the season, the Cadets hung up a final victory over Rensselaer Polytechnic in Troy, N. Y. on November 10.

Coach Nelson W. Nitchman's Academy team, operating from the "T" formation is small, the backfield averages 165 pounds and the line only 180 pounds, is fast and shifty with an excellent running game as its opponents can testify. With quarterback Bill Rielly opening up the defenses with his pin-point passing to ends Murray Boggs and Dave Stryflier, and then sending scatback Nat Spadafora or Rip Cuerni around the outside and off tackle, then fullback Captain Bill Black blasting through center, the Bears have piled up decisive yardage against the best defenses they have met. With the ball in the enemies' camp, the defensive platoon comes on the field forming a human wall which defies penetration as well as grounding the opponents passes.

Their record is good in any league but with the difficulties which this team operates under, it is nothing short of remarkable. The pre-season practice is limited to three weeks because of the cadet summer cruise; only four practice sessions are allowed each week; the players must maintain a rigorous academic average with no special considerations, the Academy has the smallest male enrollment of any school played; and there are no special inducements to bring outstanding high school players to the Academy. These men deserve a lot of praise because only through the packing the corps, their fine physical condition and playing the game because they love it are they able to meet and beat the best their league has to offer.

By AL OUTCAIT

Belleville's chances of trimming Orange High School in the annual Thanksgiving Day game at Municipal Stadium Thursday received a moral boost when it was announced that Co-Captain Pete Spera of the Bellboys will be suited up and ready for action.

Spera, whose broken ankle on the final play of Belleville's opening encounter with East Orange supposedly put him out for the season, has obtained permission to play from his doctor, the school doctor, Spera's parents and Hugh Kittle, principal of the high school.

Coach Eddie Berlinski of the Bellboys did not even have to be asked for his consent since Spera was considered one of the top T-formation quarterbacks in the county until his early-season injury. Spera has worked out with the team for about 10 days now and although Berlinski does not expect to start the Blue and Gold star, he does intend to send him in for limited duty against the Tornadoes.

Bellboys Off Top Form

Belleville's gridgers will not be at top form for the final contest of the year due to injuries. Besides Spera, seven of the Bellboys have been hurt enough to bench them from time to time over the last few games.

Carmin Earl, starting left halfback for the Bellboys, has been out of action due to a concussion. The same injury has forced starting right end Ronaie Thompson to warm the bench. Tommy Galente's bad knee has prevented him from filling the right half slot at which he showed so much promise.

Bob Haight, the co-captain and extra point booter, has a blood clot in his arm to limit his service. Fred Westby, the first-string left end, suffered an injured hip in the Passaic encounter and will be severely hampered against Orange if he plays at all. Ralph Chimento, right guard and one of the team's outstanding linemen, has a sprained leg. And Terry Gahr, the freshman quarterback and passing wizard, came out of the Passaic JV game last Tuesday with a hurt ankle.

No Crying Towel

Against these odds, Berlinski is still not giving his crying towel a workout over the Turkey Tilt which starts at 11 a. m. Thursday, Orange, who succumbed to the Bellboys by a 13-6 count last Thanksgiving Day, has had a better year than the Blue and Gold. After losing to Montclair by a 46-0 score in their opening game, the Tornadoes bounced back to smash Nutley by 27-0. A 6-6 tie with Thomas Jefferson and a 27-0 loss to Columbia made it a slow start for the Orange eleven, but four straight victories followed.

West Orange toppled by 26-0, East Side went down to a 25-6 defeat, East Orange lost by 7-0 and the Tornadoes toppled Morris-Town by 20-13 in their last game a week ago Saturday. With a record of 5 wins, 2 losses and a tie, they will undoubtedly rule as favorites Thursday.

Strong Ground Attack

Coached by Johnny Moorehead, Orange has shown a substantial ground attack in their eight games thus far. Running from the winged T, the Tornadoes have been able to spring their backs loose all year, as their total of 111 points indicate. They've held the opposition to 98, but 73 of those points were scored by

Alpine Wheelmen's Junior Champs Collared

Winners of the Alpine Wheelmen's junior titles in races at Branch Brook Park this summer, were awarded their prizes at the club's dinner at Parrillo's last week. Pictured above is Joe Ganteaume, all-around and sprint title holder; John Riordan, second; Herbert Hoffman, Jr., third and James Hoffman, fourth. Ray Frate, secretary of the club, was the senior all-around champ. Speakers were Herbert Hoffman, Sr. and Alf Goulett.

Montclair and Columbia, two of the biggest football powerhouses in New Jersey. Their other six opponents have managed to tally only 25 points.

The biggest threat to Belleville will probably be a huge fullback by the name of Henderson who is fast and powerful. Although the Orange line is no seven blocks of granite, they have been able to open up holes for Henderson all year. The Bellboy offense is capable to scoring so it appears that this battle, like any other game, will be decided in the line.

Bellboy Record

Belleville's record stands at 3 victories, 4 losses and a tie. The tie came in the opener against East Orange, a 20-20 clash that the Bellboys should have won but didn't. Bloomfield and Nutley followed by topping the Blue and Gold for their first two defeats, 21-7 and 7-2.

The first two victories for Berlinski's Battlers were over West Side by 18-0 and Irvington by 12-6. The West Side contest was Belleville's only whitewash victory of the year and in the Irvington game the Bellboys played closer to their potential than at any other time with the possible exception of the Passaic game.

Two more losses followed when Hillside downed Belleville by 20-6 and Kearny took them 7-2 in a game that is still contested. On the final whistle, the Bellboys had the ball on the Cardinals' two-inch line after an official insisted the ball had not been put over. Spectators close to the action insist the ball was over the final stripe, but the official's ruling was final.

Passaic was the big upset for Belleville. Listed as the underdog by all the authorities, the Bellboys came through by 9-7 to show their spunk. The total points for the season now stand at 76 for Belleville and 88 for the opposition.

Senior Line-up

Berlinski plans to start almost an entire senior line-up in this final game of the year. "It'll be a good game," the Belleville mentor said, "and a close one. The kids played well in their last three games. They fumbled only once in the last two games after 11 fumbles in the Nutley game alone. They've come a long way since then."

"Determination will be the deciding factor," Berlinski added. "The team that wants to win most will win it."

FROSH GRID TEAM WON THREE, LOST THREE, TIED ONE

Joe Mignon Ran 90 Yards For Touchdowns In Each Of Last Two Engagements

The Belleville freshmen football team concluded its season with a 12 to 6 win over a very tough Passaic eleven last week. The other victories were over formidable Irvington, 13 to 0, and Garfield, 12 to 0, while Kearny was tied, 6-6. The freshmen lost to Nutley, 6 to 0, Lyndhurst, 13 to 7, and Clifton, 13 to 7.

The close losses were chiefly due to costly fumbles when the team was in position to score. The season was featured by the long runs of Gahr, Benedetto and Mignon. The latter ran 90 yards for touchdowns in each of the last two games. The high scorer was Ronald Benedetto with 35 points. Robert Higgins and Basil Palma were outstanding in the line at tackle and guard respectively. Perry Mayers at center and Charles Cerami at fullback were outstanding in backing up the line.

Considering that two star players were graduated to the varsity early in the season the team regrettably showed constant improvement. The starting line-up was as follows: Ronald Benedetto, Joseph Mignon, Jack McCabe, Ralph Conte, Robert Higgins, Frank Cook, Basil Palma, Richard Macaluso, Perry Mayers, Charles Cerami, Tom Dolan and Michael DalBon. The following boys also did an excellent job: Edward Kosinski, Ray Amato, Teddy Nagy, Joe Buncuel, Pat Intindola, Larry Reynolds, Frank Vara, Ronald Bergamini, Joe Orlando, Larry Duclaux.

The Players Speak
Now that "Twirp Week" is history and things around school again have assumed their usual appearance—except for the girls' wallets, which are considerably thinner—the big question is "What will happen when Belleville plays host to Orange on Thursday morning?" Obviously, the people who can best answer that question are the members of our football team, so here are some of their reactions.

Halfback Bill Dunleavy says, "It's going to be tough, but we'll come through." Allen Riggin contends that, "Orange will know B. H. S. is on the field." Ralph Chimento says that even though "We're crippled, they're worse." Senior sentiment is expressed by Carmine Earl—who hopes to win for the seniors' sake as it's their last game—and John Carpel, who says, "This is the last game, we'll make it good."

Ronnie Thompson has an eye on the future as well and says, "I want to play a good game for the kids and also for a scholarship." Richie Rae believes that "The team's out to win and we will," while Jerry Skidmore agrees and adds, "We'll try to make it 500." "Monk" seems to sum it up when he says, "I think Mr. Berlinski and Mr. Wische will enjoy their turkey dinner."

As for us, after seeing so much confidence among the members of the team, we guess that the question should have been, "How much will Belleville win by?" Anyway, we wish the team a lot of luck (if they need it) and hope we'll see you on the 50-yard line Thursday morning.

Seasonal Slump In Building Permits

Building activity in recent weeks has shown the usual early winter slump and the effect of government regulations on the use of certain building materials. Only six permits were issued, one for a sign, one for a demolition and four for alterations.

Stephen Gardner, owner of the building at 163 Washington Avenue, who is preparing part of the premises for the new National Shoe Store, took out a permit for a $1,200 sign for the new firm. The Peoples National Bank and Trust Company received a permit to demolish the three story apartment house in the rear of the bank at 11 Van Houten Place.

Elbert Ellsworth of 275 Little Street, was given a permit to alter his garage to convert it into a music room. Howard Rayer of 42 Tappan Avenue was issued a permit to add a bedroom and bath to his home. L. D. London of 40 Rossmore Place, was given a permit to replace a large window with a mullion frame and to eliminate a pantry.

The only new building represented among the permits was for a new two car garage to be built by Andrew F. Colamino of 295 Division Avenue, at a cost of $850.

Pays Tribute
Belleville High will be represented by Student Council President George Plosa when the late Rene Flory's many friends help dedicate a memorial to him this afternoon.

Out of This World
At last Friday's assembly, Belleville High was conducted on a tour of the universe and learned a bit about the problems of living on some of our neighboring planets and stars. It seems that because of a lack of gravity on the moon, special techniques must be applied if one wants a drink of water or one is likely to find his drink floating off into space in the form of a ball!

Beds are easily acquired though—just hook yourself onto the end of a rope and float. Mr. Elgar called this an "air conditioned mattress."

Well, we doubt that you'll find your Thanksgiving turkey spiked to the table and we doubt, too, that you'll have to drink your gravy, but we do hope you enjoy the holiday and that Mr. Berlinski and Mr. Wische do, too.

A Showdown on the Charge of Massacre of Prisoners of War

The armistice negotiations that are dragging along at Panmunjom have but one excuse—to save Communism's face and China's skin.
It is obvious, now, that Moscow and her satellites cannot win the war in Korea. Since Moscow started this war, let her pay for her folly. But, independently of the armistice negotiations, we must force a showdown on the accusation that the Chinese and North Korean Communists have executed 5,700 United Nations prisoners of war, of whom more than 5,500 were Americans. The soldiers we send into battle, whether under our own flag or under the blue banner of the UN, have the right to our protection to insure that the enemy will respect the humanities of the Geneva Convention.
There can be no doubt that Colonel James M. Hanley, who made public the horror story of Communist barbarism, knows what he is talking about. He is in charge of the war crimes section of the judge advocate's office of the Eighth Army at Pusan, Korea. He has talked to North Koreans who crossed the parallel and told what they had seen. He has talked to dozens of our prisoners who escaped across the lines. He has talked to hundreds of Chinese Communists safe within the barbed wire of our prisoner-of-war pens. Sifting all these reports, he was able to compile the terrible accusation of murder against the Communist enemy.
There was a little confusion regarding the publication of the Hanley report, typical army snafu, which deprived it of the full impact of its terrible message. The report should have been laid on the table of the UN General Assembly now in session in Paris. There can be but two ways of dealing with such a dastardly charge. One is a moral condemnation which the 54 nations of the UN should vote immediately, to be spread upon the record. The other is military. It is our contention that our negotiators should be ordered to quit Panmunjom immediately and our Air Force ordered to make a shambles of Red China's vital centers unless the Communists conform immediately to the conditions of the Geneva Convention and furnish to the International Red Cross a fully detailed report naming every prisoner-of-war and giving his whereabouts and grant to the Red Cross the right to visit the prison camps to ascertain the veracity of the report and to insure that our men in the hands of the Communists have every protection to which they are entitled under international law, exactly as the UN does in following the Geneva Convention implicitly.
If we proceed to negotiate an armistice while the Hanley murder charge is unanswered, we will have failed in our duty to the hundreds of thousands of our sons whom we have armed and trained and sent to Korea to do battle under the UN flag. When the United States government drafts or mobilizes any citizen for military duty in Korea, that soldier has the right to expect that the United States government will give him absolutely full protection under international law. Anything else would be deception and an intolerable laxity.

Catharine Cates.

PROCLAMATION
By the President of the United States

More than three centuries ago the Pilgrim Fathers deemed it fitting to pause in their arduous labors and to give thanks to Almighty God for the abundant yield of the soil of their new homeland. In keeping with that custom, hallowed by generations of observance, our hearts impel us, once again in this autumnal season, to turn in humble gratitude to the giver of our bounties.
We are profoundly grateful for the blessings bestowed upon us: the preservation of our freedom, so dearly bought and so highly prized; our opportunities for human welfare and happiness, so limitless in their scope; our material prosperity, so far surpassing that of earlier years; and our private spiritual blessings, so deeply cherished by all. For these we offer fervent thanks to God.
With the cooperation of our Allies we are striving to attain a permanent peace, and to assure success in achieving that coveted goal we reverently place our faith in the Almighty.
Now, therefore, I, Harry S. Truman, President of the United States of America, according to our treasured tradition, and in conformity with the joint resolution of Congress approved on December 26, 1941, designating the fourth Thursday of November in each year as Thanksgiving Day, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 22, 1951, as a day of national thanksgiving. Let us all on that day, in our homes and in our places of worship, individually and in groups, render homage to Almighty God. Let us recall the words of the Psalmist, "O give thanks unto the Lord; for He is good: His mercy endureth forever." Let us also, on the appointed day, seek divine aid in the quest for peace.
In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

ONE MAN'S OPINION . . .
Churchill Offers the Panacea of European Union As Only Alternative to National Bankruptcy in Extremely Costly Capacity Arming of Nations in Stalin's Path
By RALPH E. HEINZEN

The budgetary and economic difficulties in France and England which have brought a sharp crisis in dollar imports in both countries, blamed by both on the heavy burden of their shares in the common defense of the West against Communism, point up the warning that our own commitments to help Europe remain will total about $25,000,000 before our military aid will taper off three years from now.
The crisis faced by the new governments in Paris and London point up, too, the Russian contention that if by "cold wars" and hot strategy in the UN, keeping the world upset, worried and willing to spend far over its possibilities, it can bring about national bankruptcy, Communism can win this gigantic world struggle without firing a shot.
Kremlin strategy appears based on keeping the world worried, or keeping alive the menace of Russian military expansion if a weakness occurs on the democratic front. Stalin has been convinced for many years that America cannot survive another economic depression like the last one. He has been convinced, too, that another depression is inevitable if he can force us to spend over our heads for defense, our own and that of our allies.
Winston Churchill, whose political wisdom is acute, has once again advanced his panacea: European union—common citizenship, removal of trade barriers, a common currency backed by the American dollar, pooling of natural resources, a common army, navy and air force to which each contributes his manpower and weapons under a common plan and integrated production, both war and civil production. He would set up as a supreme parliament an elected Assembly of Europe with power to legislate for the whole of the free continent. Churchill has been given to offering such panacea. He flew to Tours in the darkest days of the French defeat and offered union to the French republic. This time he has found a backer and supporter: General Dwight D. Eisenhower.
Inflationary Spiral
It would be foolish to deny that the world inflationary spiral is winding up again.
We saw it at home last week when the CIO United Steelworkers with a million members served notice that it is about to press a demand for higher pay and a minimum guaranteed annual wage. Since the government is now the principal consumer of steel, in our national defense program, the federal budget will be the first affected.
We saw it in France where the government was forced to beg for immediate aid from this country, with the alternative a severe reduction of the French armament effort to a level commensurate with the national income.
We saw it in England where Churchill assembles his staff and his documents for an early trip to Washington which can have only one purpose—to seek new dollar aid. Britain is in a bad way; her food piles, particularly her stocks of wheat, flour, fats, sugar and butter are lower than in 1941 and Churchill's government has just announced that it is not sure of a sufficient Argentine meat supply to maintain the present British ration of 17 pence—about 20 cents at current exchange rates—worth of meat, per capita, per week.
Obviously, we have only indirect statistical reports of the situation behind the Red Curtain, but every report indicates a food and material crisis of equally great proportions. Russia and her satellites are no better off than are most of our allies. We still stand head and shoulders above the rest of the world in our war-making potential.

That is why there is growing pressure in Washington for all-out mobilization in place of our present mixed policy. There are many in Washington who argue that Soviet Russia has neither the will nor the ability to attack. They want a curb on our military production. But there is a growing number who want to take advantage of our admitted material superiority to order all-out mobilization and settle things once and forever. That, of course, carries a strong risk of war.
Dispersal of Industry
The Director of Mobilization, Charles W. Wilson, is with the faction which is opposed to total mobilization. He contends that it would smash civilian production and would play right into Russia's hands. It is his conviction that we cannot boost this country's defense production up to $150,000,000,000 a year and still have a sound economy.
Add to that factor the present dispersal program which affects 30 of the 53 major industrial centers of the nation and it is readily understood that the nation cannot, right now and perhaps for a few years to come, embark on an all-out total mobilization. There is no longer any question of hiding our key industries in the mountains or deserts of the Far West, as had been proposed for the dispersal plan. At most, plants are being staggered at 10-mile minimum intervals so that a single bomb drop cannot damage more than one.
Guns or Butter
All that was one of the major topics which General Dwight Eisenhower discussed on his recent trip. He and the diplomats and economists of France, Britain and the United States are seeking the formula to establish the proper proportion between guns and butter in the power struggle with Communism.
To plan for too much butter might give Moscow its chance to

PROCLAMATION
We have again come to that time of the year when in our normal activities we pause to give thanks to our Creator for his manifold blessings. This custom, originated by a devout people who had bestowed on them much less of the world's goods that we today enjoy and at a time of much greater peril, should have more meaning for us today than at its inception.
Although there is an ever present danger to the institutions of our free democracy, when we think of the faith of the founders of this country, that devout band who at their first harvest gave thanks to Almighty God for the bare sustenance which they derived, we then realize how much we have to be thankful for, and how much more willingly we should observe this holiday.
Therefore, I call upon all my friends and fellow citizens of Belleville, to celebrate this Thanksgiving Day not only with joy and gladness but also with due realization of the fact that today we all have much more to be grateful for than any other people at any time in history.

New Jersey is Foremost in Major Markets
Did you know that many varied industries prefer to operate in New Jersey because manufacturers succeed in our great state?
Did you know that one of the reasons for this success is the proximity of major markets to New Jersey? The first and third largest markets in the world are New York and Philadelphia. By overnight trucking, products manufactured in New Jersey can be delivered to states which have 32 per cent of the nation's inhabitants.
The purchasing power of the $4,000,000 people who live in the area covered by a 250-mile circle, centering on Trenton, assures the markets needed by New Jersey industry. It is the highest income market in the nation with an estimated annual income average of $5,154 per family.
Public Service is proud to serve New Jersey with dependable gas and electric service and to aid in the State's continuing development.
