

Work Started On New Home For Dr. and Mrs. Close

Million and Half in 4 Months Construction Permits Exceed

Recent Activity Includes 8 Dwellings, 15 Alterations Represent Over $100,000

Building construction in Belleville is well on its way to breaking a record according to Building Inspector Thomas J. Puccio, who reports that 170 permits issued in January, February and March represented a value of $1,409,760, just about a half million less than the value for the entire year of 1951. Contemplated building in the next two months should push the figure beyond last year's total.

Recently permits were issued for new one-family dwellings, business buildings, alterations, five alterations, one garage and seven signs, representing a total of more than $100,000.

Eight New Dwellings

The dwellings will be erected by Louis Lalama at 163 Belmont Street, $11,000; Arthur Conklin at 111 Crescent Terrace, $8,000; Mary J. Crockett at 124 Brighton Avenue, $10,000; James Morone at 87 Charles Street, $10,000; James J. Morone at 138 Parkway Avenue, $11,000; William Triguano at 35 Passaic Avenue, $10,000; Manuel Nova at 28 Tiona Avenue, $11,000 and Joseph Albano at 90 Sanford Avenue, $10,000.

Sarnard Wasserman received a permit to put up a $10,000 addition to his warehouse at 308 Court House Street. The Knickerbocker Company received a permit to show an $8,000 addition to its new showroom at 642 Washington Avenue and the Federal Leather Company received a permit for a $5,000 addition to its industrial buildings.

Fifteen Alterations

The additions and alterations included a permit to Grace Piper to alter and make general repairs to her house at 123 Chestnut Street recently purchased by the town, and the installation of a new porch on the new Knickerbocker Club. Others included a new porch being erected by Lawrence J. Puccio at 72 Forest Street; the replacement of a window by Joseph Santantue at 72 Forest Street; a new porch addition by Robert M. Cohen at 37 Charles Street; the installation of new windows by Frank Gaudin at 491 Union Avenue; a conversion from one to two families by Maria Puccio at 111 Crescent Terrace; a conversion from one to two families by Nicholas Santantue at 67 Magnolia Street; the addition of two bedrooms to the home of Anthony Gaffney of 151

To Speak At Rally

Frederic Street, the addition of three bedrooms by Edward Schwalz at 23 Princeton Terrace; a conversion to two families by Peter Jacubik at 124 Brighton Avenue; the erection of rear stairs by Benjamin Coppola at 299 Stephen Street; and the addition of a bathroom and a bathroom to the home of Santo Potuchino at 59 Tiona Street.

Other Permits

Sign permits were issued to August Plenge at 651 Joralemon Street, the Newark Light Company at 642 Washington Avenue, the Estate of Katherine Stolz at 330 Washington Avenue, Charles Munch at 477 Washington Avenue, the Estate of Katherine Stolz at 330 Washington Avenue and two to the Arrowhead Pontiac at 645 Washington Avenue.

Hare and Hound Race

The Alpine Wheelmen of Belleville and the Bayview Wheelmen of Newark have invited bike riders from all over New Jersey to join them in the first event of the season, here in Belleville on Sunday. It will be a Hare and Hound race, which is more of a stunt than an actual race, but it is expected to attract fifty or more riders.

At six o'clock Sunday morning two "Hares" on bikes will leave from in front of DeBacco Brothers' bike store at 226 Washington Avenue, and by means of chalk marks, confetti and paper messages, will leave a trail through Belleville and surrounding towns. Just how much ground will be covered, depends upon the "Hares" who are not bound by any rules. They can set up false trails, double back over original trails and even hang their messengers in trees.

About 7 o'clock the "Hounds" will start to gather at the bike shop and at 8 o'clock the signal will be given for them to start the chase. Undoubtedly it will lead up hill and down hill, across fields, through woods and in a twisting point. Riders who find three consecutively numbered slips of leads, will then sprint for the finish line. Prizes are offered to the first and second riders arriving back at the starting point.

This is but a preliminary to the opening of the season with a big weekend starting May 30. On that date the famous tour of Somerville will be held, and at least six Alpine members will be among the hundred competing. The next day the Alpine Wheelmen will stage a 25-mile championship race at Johnson Park, New Brunswick. And on June 1, the Century Road Club will hold its annual 25-mile championship race at Brookdale Park, Bloomfield.

Many Belleville people know Bloomfield High's Ralph Kunkle, who has a good reason to recall another of the Century Club's races at Brookdale. Mr. Kunkle was a Sunday driver as a bicyclist, about four years ago, and was riding in Brookdale Park unaware that a rope had been stretched across the road, marking the starting point of the race. The next thing he knew his riding days were over. The rope caught him under the chin and he landed on his shoulder. He broke his collar bone and spent the next six weeks or so encased in a cast.

An interesting evening of sports and entertainment is promised at the third annual Smoker of the St. Peter's Holy Name Society, Wednesday at the St. Peter's old school hall. Besides a boxing program being staged by representatives of the Police Athletic Leagues of Belleville, East Orange and Secaucus, Gus Lesnevich, Charley Fussi and Vic Marsilio, famous fighters will be on hand for introductions and to referee the bouts. There also will be a comedy bout. Added to the sports attractions there will be sandwiches, beer, snakes and a door prize.

A Watch For Hatcher

Thomas Gilmore and Mrs. Maude Phinckett head the committee which is putting on a social evening in honor of Dean Hatcher, star of Belleville High's basketball team, at the Second Baptist Church tomorrow night. There will be a musical program and refreshments. The evening will be climaxed by the presentation of a watch to Dean. The watch was purchased with funds contributed by Hatcher's friends from the Valley.

WEAK HITTING MARKS BASEBALL PRACTICE GAMES

Three Pitchers Do Well In Losing Contests With Glen Ridge, Barringer And Hall

By Charlie Maguire

Belleville High's baseball team did not work off its hitting slumps in three practice games. In Essex County the year, in that hitting has not as yet caught up with the pitching. Belleville played three practice games last week and lost them all, principally because of light slugging. Glen Ridge nipped this Bell 9-2. 1. Barringer won 9-2 to 1 count and Seton Hall won 9-2 to 6, despite a patchy hit allowed by the Hill batters.

Several members of the Belleville team declared that they had not come out as well as they had in the past. They were unable to hit anyway. The exception was Pete Sveda who made good showing at the plate in each of the games. If a few others can catch up to him, Belleville might surprise folks with a bid for a Greater Newark Tournament berth.

On the other hand the pitching has been surprisingly good. Howard Barnes, Terry Gahr and Charlie Terenzi putting on good performances and each showing improvement. With three hurlers ahead of him, Paul Weinstein is now concentrating on an outfield berth.

Couch Eddie Berinski is putting his efforts on underhandism and has the makings of the best infield in his career here. Sam Graziano, at short; Nick Petti, at third; Fred Kraft, at second and Vin Nanto at the initial sack have been performing well. One exception to the senior rule is Pete Paley, out for the team for the first time as a senior, is seeking the apple and if he does it, he will be a good pitcher.

Jerry Skidmore and Richie Raymond are still fighting it out for the catchers job, but it looks like Skidmore will do the starting in tomorrow's opening fracas with West Side at the Stadium. This tilt is scheduled to start at 2:30. On Tuesday when Belleville enters the Passaic the starting time will be back to 3:30.

Belleville High Students Compete For Scholarships

Alice Edwards, Bert Rosenbergh, Fred Kraft, and Barbara Van Houten will represent Belleville High School at the second annual State Science Day, to be held at Rutgers University in New Brunswick on May 17. It was announced today by Samuel Shifren, Guidance Director.

The official representatives, chosen from the outstanding students in their school, will compete for four-year scholarships in the fields of biology, chemistry, physics and engineering at the State University.

Columbia Lions Win Two of Three From Local Crews

Lightweight Varsity Halts Bell Boys; Fresh Outmanned by Nutley Varsity-8 Columbia Eight Wins Jayvee Contest

By George Piosa

The Columbia University's lightweight crews furnished ample opposition for the opener of the Belleville and Nutley High School rowing seasons, Saturday afternoon on the Passaic River, by taking two of three races. In the first race the Belleville Varsity eight was nosed out by the Columbia's Varsity Lightweight shell. Nutley's Varsity eight, in the second event, evened things up by trimming the Lion freshmen oarsmen by two lengths. In the third race, the three jayvee crews were pitted against each other. Columbia came out on top and Belleville and Nutley followed in close order.

Prior to the first race, the new Belleville shell was presented to Superintendent of Schools Evan H. Thomas by Art Blomeke, president of the Belleville Varsity Club, which ran the campaign for funds. Mr. Thomas christened the boat "Bell Boy" and introduced Walter Rainey, coach of Columbia's crews and Ivor Watts, a member of the Nutley Board of Education. Mr. Watts commented on the fine work that has been and is being done for the high school crew.

Columbia's varsity lightweight had a time of it, but had just enough left to stage off a last quarter drive by Belleville's Varsity Eight. Both crews got off a fast start on the mile course with the school boys leading a quarter length edge. Belleville maintained this edge over the Lions throughout the first quarter and up to the halfway mark. Midway, Columbia took it away and forged into a length lead. They increased this margin to one quarter length of open water at the third quarter. At this point the Bellboys really poured it on, but they had started too late and the drive fell short.

Nutley's Varsity Eight had a comparatively easier time of it. They jumped into the lead at the start, increased it at each quarter.

RICHARD DERR TO PLAY OPPOSITE JUDY HOLIDAY

Couple Have Leads In "Dream Girl" At Maplewood Theatre For Two Week Engagement

Richard Derr, well-known star of stage and screen successes, will be the leading man with Judy Holiday, Hollywood's Academy Award winner, in Elmer Rice's latest stage hit, "Dream Girl" at the Maplewood Theatre, Maplewood, for a limited engagement of two weeks beginning Saturday evening, May 17, and matinees Thursday and Saturday.

Derr, who played the part of the sports writer with Miss Holiday in "Dream Girl" last season with tremendous success, has been requested to rejoin the star for this Maplewood engagement.

Last seen on Broadway in Elmer Rice's comedy, "The Grand Tour," Derr has an enviable record in the triple world of stage, screen and television. New York saw him in "The Tires," "The Closing Door" and the provocative "A Phoenix Too Frequent" by Christopher Fry. Maplewood theatregoers will remember him in "Elmer the Great" with Joe E. Brown. On the screen he starred in "Rochester" with Walter Hampden, "The Commandos Strike at Dawn" with Paul Muni, "The Bride Goes Wild" and "The Secret Heart" with "Luxury Liner" and "Invited" by Bernard Shaw.

He returned to the stage in "John Loves Mary" with Jan Sterling, and his latest screen efforts are "When Worlds Collide" and "Something to Live For" with Joan Fontaine and Ray Milland, both waiting to be released.

With Miss Holiday of "Born Again" fame and Derr are Joan Woodcock, Patrick McCormack, Amy Douglas, Walter Klayman and others. Billy Matthews is directing. Mail orders are now received at Maplewood Box Office.

Jersey Turnpike Too Small, Speeds Up Improvements

Enlarged Facilities Will Be Ready For Anticipated Rush On Memorial Day

Although only a half year old, the 118-mile New Jersey Turnpike is so crowded today, so small to handle the demands on it.

New and expanded facilities to adequately serve holiday and vacation traffic on the Turnpike, and the completion of permanent service are a facilities for its users, will be placed in operation for the Memorial Day holiday when the heavy vacation travel normally gets underway, the New Jersey Turnpike Authority announced this week.

Permanent Service

"We have stepped up the construction of permanent facilities, including rest rooms and restaurants, by the end of May there will be an increase in the number of permanent facilities," the Authority said.

"These permanent facilities will accommodate 500 patrons compared to the present capacity of 175 with the existing temporary facilities. The Authority is considering two additional permanent lunch rooms and is seeking bids on their construction."

"During peak travel days on the Turnpike recently, it was found that the toll collection facilities were inadequate at certain interchanges to handle the traffic which flowed through them, in spite of the fact that these facilities were designed to handle the traffic which the engineers predicted for 1950."

An expansion of toll facilities, authorized earlier this month, involves nine new toll lanes complete with toll booths. These additional lanes and booths will be installed at the following interchanges: Delaware Memorial Bridge; Philadelphia - Camden; Bordentown-Trenton; Woodbridge-The Ambrosy; Elizabeth; Newark-Jersey City and George Washington Bridge. Their completion for operation also is scheduled for the Memorial Day holiday."

Overall Program

In the overall program of improvement, are corrections of deficiencies in pavement, final work on shoulders, slopes and drainage, and smoothing of bridge decks.

In some areas, such as between Bordentown and Hightstown, and short spotty sections elsewhere, pavement and shoulder work was undertaken late in 1951 when weather conditions were not satisfactory for these operations and do not conform to the right specifications laid down by the Authority.

Steps are now being taken to correct these deficiencies and, weather and soil conditions permitting, work will get under way within the next few days so that the Turnpike will be the safe, modern highway planned by the Authority. This work will be done during the week rather than on week ends when traffic movements are unusually heavy to assure a minimum of interference with motorists.

At the same time lanes and ramps are being increased at interchanges to provide easier access to and from the Turnpike, the Authority is making studies of peak hourly traffic with a view to ascertaining if more travel lanes are necessary on the Turnpike.

The right-of-way ranges from 250 feet generally in the northern end to the Raritan River, and to 300 feet south of the river so there

St. Anthony's Five Wins CYO Sportsmanship Award

A cage team from St. Anthony's, Belleville, was among 18 named to receive the CYO Sportsmanship award. It was announced this week by Rev. John J. Kiley, Essex County director of the organization. Honoring the teams which have shown the greatest sportsmanship, the award consists of a plaque, to be given at the annual June Assembly of the CYO. Certificates will be awarded to the members of the teams. St. Anthony's crew was in the Junior Boys class.

Father Kiley called the winners of the award, the CYO's "blue ribbon" teams, and said: "They are the teams which best exemplified by their conduct, both on and off the court, the ideal that the CYO is trying to promote through athletics."

The winning of this award, which we consider more important than the first place trophies, is a tribute to the work of the CYO moderator and to the laymen who assisted him. It is a compliment paid to your boys by their opponents."

PAL WILL ATTEND STOCK CAR RACES

Plan Softball Teams For Girls; Soccer Teams Entered In Tourney; Boxers At Smoker

Belleville's Police Athletic League is busy with many plans for Spring and the first of the events is the trip to the Stock Car races at Roosevelt Stadium, Sunday. Buses will leave Clearman Field at 12:45 o'clock and all taking the trip must have membership cards.

The PAL is also planning two girls softball teams, one for the 12 and 14 year age group and another from 15 to 16, to play in a league similar to the boys league. Coaches will be Miss Mary Malcolm, Miss Rita Blitz, Miss Helen Kuhn, Miss Ceil McCabe and Miss Marge O'Neil. Practices will start the first week in May. The Senior boys' baseball team is again entered in the New Jersey League, which has a few changes in the towns represented and will be faster than ever. Belleville won the league playoffs last year.

Seven-a-side soccer begins Sunday at the Carham Field, Harrison. Three Belleville PAL teams are entered, junior, juvenile and infants. The juveniles are expected to do the best of the local combinations in the tournament.

Wednesday night the PAL boxing team will engage in a series of exhibition bouts with representatives of East Orange and Secaucus at the smoker of the St. Peter's Holy Name Society, at the old school hall.

LIFE at BHS As Our Teen-Agers See It

by Rita Carisimo-Audrey Maize

We had a real treat recently when the Belleville High School band, twirlers, and dance band entertained us. The dance band played its own original theme song and some popular songs. Mr. Mattick surprised us with a song about "Friday Night B-Hive" which he composed. It was a hit with everyone.

No extra stage-hands were needed when a few twirlers, led by very capable leaders Marie Minceo, Gail Campbell, and Terry Taungrato, marched off with the chairs used by members of the band. This, of course, was to make room for the main attraction - all the twirlers. Bob Quinn almost stole the show when he supplied the "pop" in "Pop Goes the Weasle" by pinching a balloon. Ray Kowalski played a very difficult solo, "Autumn Nocturne," the claret.

Dozen News

The Bakers' Dozen has been practicing every morning to get in trim for when they go to Trenton on April 26. All the choral groups from the state will assemble here to be judged.

Home, Sweet Home

Mr. W. R. Correll, the member of Belleville High's faculty who teaches chemistry (along with the expressive descriptions of moons and comets) was appointed as a member of the Middle States Commission of Secondary Education. Mr. Correll was at William L. Dickinson High School in Jersey City to evaluate it. He included in this interview that the school was built in 1906. It is a very large five story building, rich in tradition, with corridors 1/2 mile around. It is very interesting to note that the student enrollment in 1935 was 7,800. The students and the school operated in 3 sessions. Today, however, there are 2,200 students.

An Easter show in which the choir sang and the orchestra played, was put on for the committee. Mr. Correll thinks most of the members have gained some pounds from the delicious meals

Future Preparation

Lucky Girls

After strenuous practicing and lots of nail biting throughout the tryouts, next year's cheerleaders have finally been decided upon. Those from last year are Marilyn Teuscher, Vera Miller, Julia Bianchi and Jean Dufford. The new additions include Joan Brady, Judy Adams, Tanya Greulich and Sarah Daniels. With this peppy group leading the cheering section, our boys are sure to win next year.

If you're an adult American you do. They are pictures of Pearl Harbor ten years ago.

On December 7, 1941, we were caught weak and unprepared in the Pacific, unable to defend our harbors, our ships and sailors, our airfields and airmen, our soldiers and marines.

This must not happen again.

And we cannot ask the men and women of our armed services to do the defense job alone. We must make defense our job, too. It is our job to build up and maintain America's economic strength as it is theirs to take care of her military power.

Only our job is easier. For we can do it by buying United States Defense Bonds regularly. With bonds and other forms of saving we build up our own personal financial security. And it is the financial stability of every one of us that determines the strength of our economy. Remember that strength is doubly important now. Because today peace is for the strong.

So buy bonds and buy them regularly ... through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. Start now!

The U. S. Defense Bonds you buy give you personal financial independence

Remember that when you're buying Defense Bonds you're building a personal reserve of cash savings. Money that will some day buy you house or educate your children, or support you when you retire. Remember, too, that if you don't save regularly, you generally don't save at all. So go to your company's pay office - now - and sign up to buy United States Defense Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan. Bankers recommend them as one of the safest forms of investment.

Don't forget that bonds are now a better buy than ever. Because now every Series E Bond you own can automatically go on earning interest every year for 20 years from date of purchase instead of 10 as before! This means that the bond you bought for $18.75 can return you not just $25 - but as much as $33.33! A $37.50 bond pays $56.56. And so on. For your security, and your country's, too, buy U. S. Defense Bonds now!

Peace is for the strong ... Buy U. S. Defense Bonds regularly!

$40,000 HOME WILL BE GIFT TO LUCKY PERSON

Veterans Of Foreign Wars Will Give Away 7-Room Home At Essex County Home Show

Hundreds of visitors daily are deeply impressed with the unique interior decor of the Veterans of Foreign Wars' $40,000 gift home to be given away at the Essex County Home Show at the 113th Infantry Armory, Newark, June 10-15.

Furnishings in the seven-room house at 15-19 Chancellor Avenue, Newark, present a harmony of combinations of the old and new in decorating themes. More than 10,000 persons have visited the gift home, which is open for free public inspection daily from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. and few if any failed to be moved to excited expression of admiration and wonder at the remarkable interiors.

A versatile modern maple in lacquer finish is used in the wall panels in the living room, dining room and master bedroom, combined with a variety of color and design in prints, papers and accessories. Cotton carpeting in various weaves is used throughout the house.

Highlighting the wedge-shaped dining room is an adjustable chandelier which throws starlight on the room's walls at night. The master bedroom is decorated with a soft green background, the girl's room in petal pink with seafaring oak furniture, and the boys' room in terra cotta with knotty pine furniture.

The breakfast room off the kitchen gives the visitor the most startling surprise. A unique slatted-effect paper in Indian red is used on the walls and the dinette set follows a predicted spring trend in furnishings - wrought iron - a motif also carried out in lamps throughout the home.

Park Soldiers Now Take Showers At Town Stadium

Soldiers at the Anti-Aircraft Artillery installation in Belleville Park have been using the shower facilities in the Park Fieldhouse with permission of the Essex County Park Commission, but the action of the organization provided that the permission was withdrawn as of April 1st. As a result, Commissioner Elmer S. Hyde, has made arrangements for the shower facilities at the Municipal Stadium to be put at their disposal. The facilities will be open to the soldiers from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. each day. The commanding officer at the camp will provide the transportation facilities.

Give Pint Of Blood Tomorrow To Save Lives Of Casualties In Korea; Aim Is 150 Donors

The next Defense Blood Bank in Belleville is being held at the Walter Kidde Plant tomorrow, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. The first such Defense Blood Bank to be held in an industrial plant in Belleville, representatives of labor and management at the Kidde plant are making every effort to enroll at least 150 donors. The plant has 108 registered employee donors, the local Red Cross Recruitment Committee, under the direction of Mrs. John Walsh, are recruiting town donors to supplement this number in an effort to meet the quota of 150. The Red Cross Motor Service will endeavor to provide transportation to and from the Kidde Plant for Belleville townpeople. If you wish to participate in this Defense Blood Bank, give a pint of blood to save the life of one of our casualties in Korea—call Red Cross headquarters now and register.

It seems strange that so many people can shrug aside their responsibilities for these Americans who are risking their lives in our Armed Forces. These Red Cross headquarters now and register. ## TIPSY DRIVER HAS TWO ACCIDENTS

Bloomfield Man Charged With Leaving Scene; Involved Again Six Hours Later

Lightning may not strike twice in the same place but George Pelham, 37 of 46 Race Street, Bloomfield, did last week end and he is in plenty of trouble, as a result. On Friday at about 8:30 he was arrested by Patrolman Joseph Sullivan for leaving the scene of an accident after he had been involved in a small scrape with another car in Mill Street. He admitted to having a drink or two but it was decided that he was not intoxicated. Two friends came from Bloomfield to claim his car and take him home. Later he came back to Belleville to see his girl friend. Apparently they spent some time drinking, for on the way back to Bloomfield at 2:56 o'clock Saturday morning, he was again involved in a minor accident in Mill Street.

This time he was arrested by Patrolman Irving Holly, Jr. and was taken to police headquarters where he was examined by two physicians and declared unfit to drive a car. At 1:15 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Pelham was released in $250 cash bail for arraignment before Magistrate Edward J. Abramson in traffic court last night.

RALPH E. HEINZEN, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER

The entire episode portrays better than words the inherent weakness of our primary system. Eventually nominees of each party for national office will be chosen by direct vote. In the meantime we must, alas, put up with the shenanigans of mean and petty, ambitious politicians, but the Republican party's no better for Driscoll's "victory".

ONE MAN'S OPINION ...

In Changing South Where Tom Connally's Quitting Is Symptomatic There Is A Chance to Crack The Democratic Control.

By RALPH E. HEINZEN

The wholly unexpected decision of Senator Tom Connally, of Texas, not to run for reelection and to give up a seat he has held since 1917 points up a lesson which I learned in my recent swing through the states below the Mason-Dixon Line and which I tried to define last week. There is a new trend in Dixie politics and it definitely is away from Jeffersonian Democracy, away from the New Deal and the Fair Deal and away too from the Ku Klux Klan and conditions which brought the hooded organization into being.

Connally's decision was prompted by fear and by a keen political sense of smell. The able Texan knew that he faced an almost certain defeat in the Texas Primary by young Price Daniel, present Attorney General of Texas, a critic of Connally's Rooseveltian internationalism and of his opposition to the Taft-Hartley bill and other non-Democratic legislation.

In itself, the Connally withdrawal is of minor importance, but with growing enthusiasm below the Mason-Dixon Line for Eisenhower there is a chance of cracking wide open the "Solid South". It was my impression, from my trip, that there is the same emotional Eisenhower sentiment in the South that one found here in New Jersey this week where his supporters gave him their votes even though they did not know his stand on any issue other than European defense.

Connally's decision was prompted by fear and by a keen political sense of smell. The able Texan knew that he faced an almost certain defeat in the Texas Primary by young Price Daniel, present Attorney General of Texas, a critic of Connally's Rooseveltian internationalism and of his opposition to the Taft-Hartley bill and other non-Democratic legislation.

In the meantime, if he persists in paying the wages demanded by the union out of the private earnings of the companies because, as he said in his absurd announcement on television, the steelmakers are making a profit of $19 a ton, there can be but one alternative—impeachment.

Under the Constitution, the President, the Vice President and all the civil officers of the United States are liable to impeachment for "treason, bribery and other high crimes and misdemeanors" and, on conviction, shall be removed from office. The House of Representatives has the sole power of impeachment; the Senate has the sole power to try all impeachments. A two-thirds majority vote is needed.

In our long history, there have been thirteen impeachment cases. One was Senator William Blount, accused of treason and sedition; thirteen were U. S. Judges; one was a Secretary of War, William W. Belknap, acquitted of a charge of accepting bribes.

Johnson was the only president ever to face the Senate, impeached for usurpation of the law, corrupt use of the veto power, interference at elections and high crimes and misdemeanors. The vote was guilty, 35; not guilty, 19. Lacking the required two-thirds he was acquitted, but for the remainder of his term he was a beaten and embittered man. Once out the White House, he was elected to the Senate by his native Tennessee but even there he was friendless and within a few weeks after taking his seat, he died.

R. E. H.

Impeachment Is In Order.

President Harry Truman, in ordering the seizure of the steel industry without even trying, as "Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces" as he calls himself, to bring capital and labor together for a last try, is guilty of impetuous and irresponsible action. It is our contention, also, that he laid himself open to impeachment on exactly the same grounds used against President Andrew Johnson, in 1868.—"usurpation of the law".

Congress gave Harry Truman legislation to meet the present situation in the steel industry in the Taft-Hartley Act, specifically designed for dealing with such a deadlock. Harry Truman chose to ignore that law and cited as his authority his wartime powers as Commander-in-Chief. It is a matter of record that by Congressional action, the nation is not at war. Our highest courts, will, in the end, have to decide the constitutionality of the President's argument.

In the meantime, if he persists in paying the wages demanded by the union out of the private earnings of the companies because, as he said in his absurd announcement on television, the steelmakers are making a profit of $19 a ton, there can be but one alternative—impeachment.

Green Hangings

This is the season when the sun travels more slowly to the west. Let's his smile show, coquettes with mist, Announces spring is nearly won, Now in the windows chintzes blush, In a green garden chintzes grow, While the mauve plum trees gently blow Arbutus and first dogwood flush. And we are glad—know not wherefore, Rejoice nor tell the reason why. The heart lifts at a spot of sky Or when clear light shifts under a door. Be not ashamed then, blundering one, Of your bright dreams. The year's alive! With mind above the scrambling hive, Sit and make verses in the sun.

Laura Benet

Eisenhower Has Been Chosen.

The full strength of the New Jersey Republican machine, from Governor Alfred E. Driscoll down to the lowliest ward leader, went into action in the Preferential Primaries, and General Dwight D. Eisenhower emerged as the state's preferred candidate to whom all but one or two of New Jersey's 38 delegates gladly promised, if not pledged, Senator Robert A. Taft, with no machine behind him and refusing to campaign while charging that Driscoll had unfairly taken sides against him, polled, nevertheless, seven votes to every ten that the machine garnered for the five-star General.

Psychologically the Preferential Primary was a draw. Politically it was a victory for the GOP machine. By wise foresight in pulling out of the campaign, Senator Taft escaped the stigma of a rejection. He can go to the national convention without too serious loss of prestige, although the results whittled still more from the high total of his predicted first ballot strength.

General Eisenhower's victory in the popularity contest leaves many sores that will need healing between now and November. There is but one man to blame for this unhealthy condition—Governor Driscoll, whose heavy-handed strategy made a farce of a free election. The voters were not duped and when they pulled the levers to elect delegates to the national convention they rightly cast a vote of scorn for the Trenton politician who ran last among the ten delegates-at-large, "cut" by half of the voters who expressed a preference for "Ike" but not for his "strategist".

Whether significant or not, Price Daniel, who has been lambasting Senator Connally all over Texas in a fight for his Senate seat, has attacked with emphasis Connally's internationalism. The Texas primary comes July 26. Daniel may well be the Connally successor although Gov. Alan Shivers, who previously had not intended to fight for the Connally seat, now may change his mind.

In any case Daniel takes a position close to the isolationism of "nationalism"—of some of the Midwest Republicans. Some Texas observers think Texas is actually to the right of the Midwest Republican states on foreign affairs. Seeing the trend, Senator Connally himself has begun attacking Truman foreign policy. The senator seemed to decide that internationalism was not pay in Texas. Apparently the swift shift came too late. Other southern Democratic senators like Senators Walter F. George of Georgia and Harry F. Byrd of Virginia have shown some tendency away from anti-unfettered internationalism. Senator Connally's retirement may make internationalists think twice.

Negro Migration

There are other massive social and economic changes in the South.

Growing industrialization has brought the South's per capita income from 50 per cent of the national average in 1928 to about 70 per cent. It has not been accompanied by any relative increase in trade unionism, which has been hampered by the Taft-Hartley Act.

The conservative middle class has gained strength, while the Negro farm worker remains largely disenfranchised and the so-called "proletariat" of the big Southern cities is discriminated against in state legislatures by allocation of seats favoring agriculture.

Break Cotton's Hold

The Negro problem is taking a new twist in the South, too. It will be years before its results are defined. Introduction of mechanical cotton pickers and tractors is changing cotton growing, and agriculture simultaneously is breaking away from dependence on cotton.

Many Negroes are heading north. Negroes now living outside the South jumped 60 per cent in the last census decade. Mechanization of agriculture in 10 years in the South displaced more than 500,000 Negroes. Though this ultimately may reduce racial tension in the South, the very strain of making adjustments today is creating uncertainty.

The Truman drive for civil rights, the recent Supreme Court decisions, and the success of the drive to give more southern Negroes the vote have brought strains that are politically explosive. President Truman has been increasingly the scapegoat for many southern emotions, on racial, international, and economic issues. His decision not to run has lessened somewhat the explosive danger but the South is almost wholly opposed to the FEPC, a basic plank in the Democratic party's platform.

ROTARY SPEAKER URGES BROADER TAXATION BASE

Roland Delfaune Of Tax Study Foundation Declares N. J. System Antiquated

"Local property taxes will continue to increase unless there is statewide tax revision, members of the Belleville Rotary Club were warned yesterday noon. Speaking at the regular meeting of St. Paul's Methodist Church, Newark, Roland Delfaune of the N. J. Citizens Tax Study Foundation said that, under the present chaotic tax system, real property would have to bear the major share of the increasing costs of local government."

Delfaune said that New Jersey has a tax system "which is a mass of inequities, exemptions, and archaic administration, utterly unfit for the needs of a modern industrial state." He said that the Foundation was attempting to arouse citizens to the importance of immediate constructive action at both a state and local level.

Delfaune, who is also a staff member of the Newark Bureau of Municipal Research, called for a review of the present policy of State Aid. He pointed out that costs of local government have risen over $150,000,000 in the past six years, but State Aid has failed to keep pace with the changing conditions. "In Belleville," he said, "district school taxes have risen $103,300 from $954,350 in 1948 to $1,057,650. In the same period, State Aid for Education has decreased $27,512 from $103,982 to $136,470."

"In the same way," Delfaune continued, "the property owner is being forced to bear the full burden of the higher costs of local streets and roads. Expenditures for Sequoia streets rose from $65,932 in 1940 to $139,441 in 1950. State Aid, started in 1948, reduced the local cost to $20,389. 'These figures,' Delfaune said, 'point up why so many people are calling for a review of the present policy of State Aid. Since the program was initiated in 1947, there have been new and unexpected problems: the tremendous influx of younger children, the thousands of new homes and apartments, the vast traffic, and the drain on the limited resources of our communities.'"

"An important first step in tax revision," Delfaune said, "was taken by this year's legislature: the bureau of tax equalization." This board, he said, will provide the first step toward bringing about a fair distribution of tax costs among property owners by providing methods to equalize assessments and standardize administrative procedures."

In concluding, Delfaune outlined the other major suggestions for state tax revision as outlined by the Commission on State Tax Policy: (1) a retail sales tax; (2) a personal income tax; (3) a revision of business taxes, extending on a corporate income tax; (4) a mileage tax on heavy trucks; and (5) broader taxing power for local governments. He explained that, as a fact-finding group, the Tax Study Foundation could not sponsor any legislation but would continue to provide information on all phases of the state tax problem.

The Meeting Place

Edgar Jean Bracco

Debut of Greatness

Perhaps over the past couple of years you may have noticed certain sporadic telecasts on Saturday evenings. If so, you may have been amazed at the quality of the program. I thought you might be interested in knowing something about the way he started.

Even if you aren't interested in the music he plays with such grandeur, you might care to know a bit about the man himself. After all, behind every achievement there is a human being, and he, not the achievement itself, is in the last analysis, the important thing.

It began in Rio de Janeiro, long ago. The opera house on this particular evening was full of music lovers waiting for the curtain to rise on "Aida." But backstage a certain uneasiness tensed the performers as they feared that the curtain would not go up at all that night. The conductor, whose character and manner had not made it easy for the company to love him, announced his intention of leaving after the better quarrel with the musicians.

The entire company was ready for a disaster, when someone remembered that the young cellist in the orchestra had sometimes conducted at rehearsals.

There was a laugh. He's only nineteen. Are you crazy?

But something had to be done. It was a moment when the stars survive in place of the log to save the swimmer. The cellist came forward, a thin, short youth with dark hair and narrow shoulders.

PANEL TALK HELD AT HIGH SCHOOL

College Is Topic Of Panel Discussion Of Students; Aided By Guidance Director

Members of Carl Hensinger's English classes at Belleville High School participated in a panel discussion last week on the topic "College." Each panel member reported on some phase of college education. Among the subjects discussed were the value of a college education, the costs, scholarship opportunities, admissions procedures, sizes of colleges, problems involved in commuting, sports, military training opportunities, and extra-curricular activities.

With the aid of Samuel Sifkin, Guidance Director, the panel members read numerous books, catalogs, and pamphlets, thereby gathering very interesting material and ideas on these subjects. After each gave his views, the audience participated in a question and answer session.

Students composing the panel were: Marie Carucci, Olga Martorelli, Evelyn Hannon, Harold Stephen, Rene Lempert, Ship Luckerman, Jay Levine, Nick Christos, Peggy Kelly, Estelle Demmer, Jeanne Lewis, Jo Ann Mohler, Bob Kittle, Bill Lane, Joe Monahan and Fred Krafft. Moderators were Paula Thaler and Suzanne Sifkin. The panel present were Miss Georgia Condon, Samuel Sifkin, and Principal Hugh D. Kittle.

Live recording was made of the proceedings and played back the following day to give participants an opportunity to hear their voices.

On Chamber Music Committee

Russell Lanning and Mrs. Eleanor Bacon-Peck, both of Belleville, are members of the Chamber Music Committee of the Chamber Music Foundation which will sponsor a sonata recital to be given by Maurice Eisenberg, cellist, and Mieczyslaw Horowitz, pianist, in Griffith Auditorium, Newark, next Thursday evening.

never played before, the singers reached their high notes and held them with confidence. A new meaning came into the opera that, in no at least, had not been there before.

That night, as they made their slow way home through the lighted streets, the opera-goers talked only of the performance given by that nineteen year old boy.

"He will go far, that one," they said that night in Rio.

And they weren't wrong. He has. He has been going ever since. Today he is eighty-five years old. And as he leads the NBC Symphony there is no score before him. The music, as he draws it from his musicians, is still stored in that fabulous memory.

His name? I doubt whether it's necessary to tell you the name of the man who is probably the most celebrated conductor of our time, but here it is just the same—Arturo Toscanini.
