

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL WILL HAVE TWO CHURCH HOMES

Grace Baptist Becomes Second Location, School Success At Montgomery

The Belleville Council of Churches has made plans for a Community Daily Vacation Bible School to be held from June 23 through July 3 from 9:30 a.m. until noon. The Vacation Bible School was conducted at the Montgomery Presbyterian Church with great success last year, and this year in addition to Montgomery, classes will be held at the Grace Baptist Church at Broadwood Street and Overlook Avenue.

A Workshop Meeting will be held Wednesday at the Peddie Memorial Church, Newark, for the purpose of instructing the bible school workers in handicraft and other activities which will be a part of the program.

Rev. James K. Moore, chairman of the planning committee, and Rev. E. J. Hansen, co-chairman representing the Ministers have been meeting from time to time with Miss Edna Diering, general chairman of the Community Daily Vacation Bible School; Mrs. H. W. Gerber, superintendent at Montgomery Presbyterian; Mrs. E. A. Roehner, who will be superintendent at Grace Baptist and Mrs. Helen Ryer, secretary and treasurer.

In addition to the meeting on Wednesday two dates have been set for training instruction for the co-workers, May 21 at Montgomery and June 17 at Grace Baptist Church. The co-workers are urged by the committee to make note of the dates and to make every effort to attend.

The Community Daily Vacation Bible School is open to all children from 4 to 12 years of age of all faiths, and color.

Acme Markets Sponsor 7th Annual Baby Derby

In conjunction with "National Baby Week", Acme is holding its seventh Annual Baby Derby. All babies born May 1, 1952 between 12:01 a.m. and 12:00 p.m., will be given a valuable gift package containing many different nationally famous baby products and jars of baby foods. No purchases of any kind will be required in order to be eligible to secure a gift package. The only requirement is that a coupon as printed in the Acme Advertiser must be mailed before May 17th to American Stores Company, South Kearny, N. J., relating to the parent's name, baby's name, the doctors' name, address, time of birth, the date and name of the hospital. After the coupons are received and checked by the Company, the gift packages are forwarded directly to the parent's home. American Stores Company asks the kind cooperation of fathers, mothers, relatives, and friends in helping them by mailing coupons promptly.

He also submitted a list of tenants who had no objection. Mr. Gruhn who lives at 3523 Washington Avenue and Thomas Motta of 329 Valley Street were the original objectors. Mr. Gruhn described himself and Mr. Motta as the bread and Mr. Padula as the ham of a sandwich. Mr. Gruhn's property extends through to Valley Street alongside the property in question from 7:50 to 9:30 o'clock to 232 on the other side. Mr. Gruhn argued that Mr. Padula's application was faulty in that what he was applying for was a filling station, and such a station is barred at the location and its proximity to the theatre. He also argued that the narrow one-way street and the big trailer trucks which would have to back up the street to make delivery, make the location so poor that he couldn't see the way the Migane firm is trying so hard to locate there.

Among the other objectors were Dominie Noto of 257 Valley Street and Daniel Hammer of 338 Washington Avenue.

Acting Mayor Patrick A. Waters declared that he came from the Valley and that at one time it was one of the finest residential areas in the town, but gradually his neighbors were driven away from the houses and into the tenements there. He declared that he favored the people in Valley Street and said he would vote against the application.

Commissioner King moved that the permit be granted since if denied the Commission action would not be upheld in court. Commissioner Sullivan in seconding the motion, declared that he was convinced that under the zoning ordinance Mr. Padula's client would be upheld in an appeal. Commissioner Hyde declared that he felt the same as Mayor Waters and felt that it was his duty to vote against the granting of the permit.

LETTERS To The Editor

Thanks Eisenhower Worries
To the Editor Times-News:

Dear Sir:

I would like to express my appreciation to the Editors of the Times-News, Tully, and Mrs. Ryan B. Thomas, co-chairmen of Belleville Citizens for Eisenhower, for the wonderful job they did for us during the primary.

I would also like to thank Bill Tully for all the assistance he rendered to me in addition to his work as chairman; and to thank the Citizens Committee for Eisenhower.

Mrs. Stanley E. Little, North Jersey Vice Chairman, N. J. Republicans for Eisenhower.

Says Speech was Abrogated
To the Editor Times-News:

Acting Mayor Waters' culpable and unparliamentary denial of the right of free speech is exemplified by his refusing me the opportunity to participate in the discussion of the Mayor's speech matter, Friday night, manifestly in my opinion, a most flagrant and contemptuous disregard of the inalienable rights of citizens to avail themselves of their constitutional privileges as free men.

I believe Mr. Waters' action in this incident must be considered as a most outrageous and unbecoming abrogation of civil rights, which should not go unnoticed, lest qualification tactics be permitted to creep into our governmental processes and destroy our free system of democratic government.

Thanks Groups for Help

The members of the family of the late Bertha Miller wish to express their gratitude to Firemen Charles Natale and Joseph Threiner, the Belleville Fire Department and the Members of the Police Department. The gentlemen concerned performed notably in their efforts to save my mother's life and are to be greatly commended for their efforts.

We also desire to extend our personal tribute to the local chapter of the American Red Cross for their untiring efforts in our behalf during our recent emergency.

Bellelle can well be proud of these organizations and we wish to let all persons concerned to know that we are most grateful for their assistance.

Very truly yours,

COMMISSION VOTES NINE ORDINANCES

Three New Ordinances Include Improvements Along Franklin Avenue

Nine ordinances were passed on second and third readings by the Board of Commissioners on Friday night, and three additional ordinances introduced to first reading, despite the objections raised by a citizen to one of the old ordinances. The objection came from James R. Golden who opposed the inclusion of the purchase of a new ambulance under the heading of capital improvement. Mr. Golden suggested that it be financed through a budget appropriation.

Passed on final reading were ordinances to install a traffic signal at the Walter Kiddle plant, to make improvements to public buildings, including a new heating plant at the town hall; one for the resurfacing of a number of streets; one for the improving of the William Street playground; one for the purchase of a new accounting machine, appear for the purchase of land from the Erie Railroad for a town storage yard; and a traffic department truck and an ordinance amending the building code.

New Ordinance

New ordinances include another amendment to the building code providing for the erection of duplex houses; another for the construction of water laterals in Franklin Avenue in preparation for the repaving of the roadway by the county and a third for the laying of sidewalks along Franklin Avenue from Continental Avenue to Jaramon Street, from Franklin Avenue to the end of existing sidewalks leading to Celia Terrace.

The Sylvester Construction Company of Newark was awarded a contract in the amount of $1,400 for the installing of a number of water mains in new streets.

Will Pick Little League Teams

Managers of the Belleville Little League will meet with the surviving candidates for Little League competition on Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock at Clearman Field, to select the membership of the eight teams. Each of the teams will have 15 uniformed players and three non-uniformed players. At the present time all but one of the eight teams have sponsors.

On Sunday the managers will again meet at Clearman Field to erect the fence around the field and to set up the steel flag-pole in centerfield. The fence is the work of Eddie O'Neil, one of the managers, who is employed by the Hawaiian-American Steamship Lines, and who carried home the lumber piece by piece from the "damaged" or discarded packing cases. Ed planned the fence at home and cut all the pieces in his basement workshop. Several of the other managers helped him assemble it.

Rain Doesn't Halt Boatmen

While most schoolboys sports took a kicking around during the week of rain Bill Bennett's boatmen took to the water as scheduled on Saturday and his combined crews won two out of three races from representative boats from Rutgers and Cornell. For the coxswain of the winning shell at least a little rain doesn't mean a thing, for he gets completely dunked in the river at the boathouse anyway. Belleville's varsity eight, in its new boat on its race from the Rutgers Fresh Heavyweights by an impressive margin of two lengths. Saturday in the last home race of the season Belleville entertains Arlington High School of Poughkeepsie and Nutley engages St. Andrews of Delaware. There will be five races on the card with Belleville pitting two fours and an eight against similar shells from Arlington High, while Nutley will put two fours in the water against St. Andrews.

Couldn't Happen To Nicer Guys

After nine years as head of the Suburban Baseball League, we read with interest the announcement that the Orange-Triangles have been granted a charter in the Essex County League. In our years of association with the Triangles we found almost every member of the club a real gentleman and to top them all Jesse Miles a great leader and a true sport. The Essex County League has gained a team which will work for the betterment of the league and not in a selfish manner so characteristic of semi-pro baseball teams in these parts. In their heyday the Triangles included in their lineup both Bob and Cal Irvin, brothers of the Giant's Monty, and for our money Bob always could hit just as good and just as far as Monty.

Get Well Quick, Roy!

We learned this week that Roy Gerard, former coach at Nutley High is hospitalized, and we must step over boundless lines a little bit to express our regret. Of all the coaches we know Roy Gerard and Bill Cartmill of Glen Ridge were in a class by themselves as soft-spoken gentlemen who got as much out of their boys with words of praise than most other accomplishments. By the way, the attitude of the coach, so it was that Gerard and Cartmill coached teams might get some bad breaks but never complained. Nutley will find it harder to replace Gerard as a coach than it is finding a real successor to the late George Stanford.

Belleville Oarsmen Overpower Rutgers Freshman Boatmen

Last Two Strokes Give Nutley J-V Eight A Threee Foot Victory Over Cornell Frosh; Lightweight Win Easily

By George Piosa

The crew teams of Rutgers and Cornell Universities, journeyed to Belleville on Saturday to engage the charges of Bill Bennett's two high school crews on the rain-swept Passaic, Saturday. Rutgers Heavyweight Frosh must have been glad to return to the New Brunswick campus, and probably asked themselves, "Was the trip necessary?", after being soundly trounced by the Belloy's scullers by two and one half lengths.

Cornell's lightweights and their freshmen didn't have too much to brag about in their split with the Nutley Varsity Eight. The Lightweights did manage to beat the Nutley Varsity, but the Freshmen bowed in a stirring race by .5 of a second and three feet.

In the first race, Belleville had no trouble in disposing of the Rutgers Heavyweight Frosh. The Belloy's jumped into the lead at the start and increased it at each quarter post to gain its win with wide open water. Rutgers made a bid once during the race, at the halfway mark, but the Belloy's overpowered the Scarlet. The winning time was 4:18.7.

In the Bell Boy were: bow, Bill Dunleavy; 2, Al Riggin; 3, Ed Gray; 4, Charlie Connor; 5, Harold Sutphen; 6, Roland Woodard; 7, Nick Christos; stroke, George Piosa and Coxswain James Kant.

The second race was the best of the day, Nutley's J.V.-8 and Cornell's Frosh, provided the several hundred spectators with a thrilling, foot-finish. It was as evenly matched as an egg and a spoon race. Both crews got off to good starts. At the first quarter they were even, the second quarter and third quarter, they changed and when they came down to the finish line it looked like a dead heat. But Nutley won the race on the last two strokes, pulling out in front by three feet and a half second by Nutley's Coxswain was Bill Eise and its stroke Charlie Culari. The time was 4:12.

The final race pitted Nutley's Varsity against Cornell's varsity 150's. Nutley took the lead at the start and enjoyed a three quarter point lead at the quarter mark. At this point someone in the Nutley 8 pulled a crab and Cornell shot into a half-length lead. Things stayed this way until the last quarter when the machine-like collegians left the schoolboys in their wake and came home a shell and a half length ahead to win in 4:48.3. In Nutley's 8 were: Ross Johnson; 2, Bob Watt; 3, Walt Miesleski; 4, Ed Malanowski; 5, Bob Dawson; 6, Walt Krzywicki; 7, Al Kammerer; stroke, Carl Adlon and coxswain, Ken Moore.

Saturday, in the last home race of the season for the Belleville and Nutley crews, Arlington High School of New York and St. Andrews of Delaware will provide the competition. There will be five races, four quads and an eight. Belleville will race two fours and an eight against Arlington and Nutley will pit two fours against St. Andrews.

Police Shooters Score On Penitentiary Guards

The Belleville Police Revolver Team scored an 1123 to 1110 victory over the guards of the Essex County Penitentiary of Caldwell, Saturday at the local range. The police didn't let a little thing like a little rain bother them and the scores were good. Patrolman Hugh P. Toole was most consistent for Belleville with a 288 total, but high honors went to Guard Adams of the Penn who had a perfect 100 in the rapid rifle and a final 280 score.

Track Team Bowsto Panthers In First Meet in Ten Years

Golf Team Without Home Course; One Baseball Game Cancelled, Another Postponed

By Charlie Maguire

Last week's midget monsoon caused the cancellation and postponement of a number of Belleville High School sports events during the past week, but the Track Squad under the direction of Coach Wilho Wilho, managed to make its debut after ten years of absence from the sport scene at East Orange. The East Orange aggregation spoiled the Belloy's debut by winning 62 to 19.

Coach Wilho said the boys tried their best and will show marked improvement as the season progresses and he can spend his time with the more prominent members of the team instead of some of the "dead wood." In the opening meet Big Jim Morse scored Belleville's first place with a victory in the half mile. He won easily in the 200 yard dash, third place in the 100 yard dash and jumped far enough to win the broad jump, but fouled out. Joe Munson took second in the 220 yard dash, losing the event by a stride. Nick Vaccaro led the mile run in the mile run for two quarters of the way, but two more experienced East Orange runners, had let him set the pace, passed him in the final lap.

Not only did the rain cause the cancellation of the Belleville-Milburn golf match, but the team is now without a home course on which to play. In previous years it used the Forest Hill Field Club layout, for home

RAIN SPOILS REC BASEBALL OPENER

Miss Shooters Must Register By Wednesday In Order To Compete in Championship

Although the weatherman spoiled the plans of the Recreation Department to inaugurate its baseball schedule on Saturday for the youngsters of town, it by no means washed out the plans for further activity along that and other lines. Right now the most urgent for youngsters up to 14-years of age is plans for a town-wide marbles championship which will be held at Clearman Field on May 13, 14 and 15 at 5 o'clock each evening. The town's champion and the runner-up will go to Willwood on May 31 to compete for the New Jersey Championship. The town champs will receive trophies at Willwood practice Saturday afternoon and receive a bicycle and the runner-up a wrist watch.

Boys and girls must register at the Recreation House, 407 Joralemon Street or at Commissioner Hyde's office in the Town Hall before 6 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon of next week.

Baseball Notes
The four games scheduled for the opening day of the Elementary School Baseball League were caught in the wash of the week of rain. Another attempt to get the league underway will be made Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. There will be two games at that time and two more at 11 o'clock, weather permitting.

The Farm League will hold practice Saturday afternoon at the Municipal Stadium, beginning at 2 o'clock.

Boys between the ages of 13 and 17 are urged to sign up now for the new baseball league being formed by the Recreation Department. This league will play twilight games at Municipal Stadium. The purpose of the league is to provide an opportunity for all boys to play the game. It is for boys who like the game and not necessarily to play on a championship team of one kind or another. Teams will be formed after registration is complete. Club teams of youngsters in the age group may enter as a team provided each player is properly registered with the Recreation Department. The Recreation House phone number is Belleville 2-3142 if you desire further information.

Equipment and House Available
REC stamped on such equipment as card tables, chairs, pool tables, ping pong tables, and athletic equipment, means that it is property of the Belleville Recreation Department. It means that the Recreation Department in addition to its planned programs for youth and grown ups stands ready to loan equipment or even a pool or two to local people for outings, card parties, and social events. The rooms are in the Recreation House and are available free on a reservation basis. Such things as card tables and chairs and even hospital beds will be loaned for use in your own home. Athletic equipment will be furnished upon request for organized clubs on the occasion of outings and special programs.

Passaic Ave. School Pupils Visit Radio City, TV Show Museum And Planetarium

The Passaic Avenue School Teachers Association regarded the eighth graders who served as baby-sitters to that parents might attend PTA meetings by deferring the cost of a trip to New York last week.

Under the guidance of their teachers, Mrs. Ruth Bruce and Miss Marie Frost, the group visited Radio City, its plaza filled with Easter lilies and fountains, its famous skating rink, and its unique stores, and viewed New York City from the 70th floor observation roof. The Central Park Zoo was another stop on the agenda.

Of special interest was the time spent at the Grandfield Theatre, where the children witnessed the Gary Moore Television Show in the C.B.S. studio. Another stop was the Museum of Natural History where they were particularly impressed by the modern exhibit in the Carl Akeley African Hall with its receding glass windows and beautifully mounted animals in realistic background settings.

The final stop was the Hayden Planetarium for the April show entitled "Planets Along the Zodiac".

Lilacs Again
There are lilacs here again in the land of the sun
Where the earth wakes early and her sleep is light.
Farther north across the frozen mountains
The sun has found the snow and 'tis a miracle
Will soon begin again as the lilacs in our doorway
Woke with the sudden sureness of a dream
When the northland blossomed and the earth rejoiced.

The Lessons Of A Test.
The nation's first state-wide unannounced air raid alarm, this week, was a pronounced success. Except for Trenton, under the very eyes of Governor Alfred E. Driscoll and Leonard Dreyfuss, State Civil Defense Director, local volunteer CD precautions functioned perfectly. In Trenton, the sirens were inaudible; motorists and pedestrians refused to get off the streets until compelled by the police.

Here in Belleville, the results of the first test were a very pleasant surprise. Many citizens seemed to expect disorder and frustration. Instead, they found that without publicity, through the months, a small group of civic minded persons had worked patiently and with eminent success to organize the town's defense.

The lesson of the test is that here, at least, we are prepared for an attack. We hope such an attack never may materialize, but if it does, we know that by careful preparations we can hope to increase the factor of safety. We know, too, that we never can be caught wholly by surprise. Our town Civil Defense volunteers have planned well.

Government By Law.
No man, in this America of ours, is bigger than the law. That was the gist of the opinion of United States District Judge David A. Pine in ruling that Harry Truman's seizure of the steel industry was an illegal act.

The government's argument that the President is endowed with an unwritten power to act in an emergency without regard to law or without consultation of Congress has been, happily, scotched. We saw how the same theory bred a generation of Hitlers, Mussolinis and Stalins.

The ruling is not final. It must now go to the Supreme Court, but unless there is to be a deviation from the strict regard that court of highest appeal always has had for the Constitution, it is to be expected that the Missouriian will be set down in defeat.

It is our contention that the major issue at stake is not whether 600,000 steelworkers will get a pay raise which they demand. Philip Murray's reckless calling of a strike the moment Judge Pine published his ruling indicates that the pay issue still must be debated from its very beginning and cannot be imposed, illegally, by Harry Truman.

The major issue, in our opinion, is how far the powers of the President go. Judge Pine has ruled that "the President can exercise no power which cannot be fairly and reasonably traced to some specific grant of power or justly implied and included within such express grant as proper and necessary to its exercise". That is a clear definition.

The President is assigned certain powers under the Constitution. He may be granted others by act of Congress. But nowhere in our code of laws is there any provision for him acquiring power by self-grant which would put the man above the law. Harry Truman was wrong from the very beginning of this crisis, from that night when he went on the air and, by television and radio, pleaded the cause of the C. I. O. He was wrong in his refusal to make use of the Taft-Hartley law. He was wrong in his presuming that he had the privilege of telling any private industry whether its profits were too large or too small, or whether its profits should be distributed further to its workers.

Harry Truman's fundamental failure is partisan, just Pendergast partisan politics. The Taft-Hartley law is a Republican accomplishment, and for that reason, he, a Democrat, would have nothing to do with its passage nor has he once made use of it since it became the law of the land. Had Harry Truman made use of the Taft-Hartley law, he would not have been so misguided as to put himself above the law, above the Constitution, above the courts and above Congress. Unfortunately, by his presumption, he has delayed a settlement of the steel dispute as he has delayed the start of functioning of machinery provided by the Taft-Hartley law which would have made Philip Murray's strike illegal for an 80-day cooling off period. He is to blame if we have no steel for our defense industries.

Harry Truman took an oath to enforce the laws of the land when he was inaugurated. Let him now enforce the Taft-Hartley law and get the steel production lines moving again. If he still refuses, for purely partisan political reasons, to use the Taft-Hartley law, impeach him.

Study-Not Force-Recommended
With good intentions a group of Silver Lake citizens through numbers and oratory are trying to force the Board of Commissioners to purchase Memorial Field in Franklin Street to guarantee that there will be a playground there forever. The town uses the 4 1/2 acre plot under a lease with the Edison Industries. But Edison is now selling the property, plus another 6 1/2 acres to the General Motors Company.

Looking at the entire proposition from an impartial point of view, we think it would be unwise for the Board of Commissioners to be steam rolled into buying the property now, for several reasons. First of all we are not convinced that the playground and recreation needs of Silver Lake could not be more efficiently served by other means, and for a great deal less cost than the $70,000 or $75,000 required to buy this highly desirable industrial site.

We think an impartial survey of not only the Silver Lake section but the Soho Section as well would show that several small but well equipped neighborhood playgrounds for the young children and a combination park and playground in the vicinity would serve the interest of both sections and the town much better.

Unfortunately something more definite than a lease should have been provided for the people of Silver Lake years ago. But the lost opportunities of the past does not mean that a town owned field cannot be provided other than on a main thoroughfare and in property so valuable for industrial purposes.

The very fact that the leaders of the Silver Lake delegation are attempting to use force to get a decision favorable to their desires indicates that hasty action now might be repeated later, both by the members of the commission and those who are applying for the lease.

Edison Patent Made Modern
Telephone, Radio, Possible
Seventy-five years ago, Thomas A. Edison applied for a patent on his carbon telephone transmitter without which modern telephony could not have attained its rapid development. The work of Alexander Graham Bell, preceding Edison's by a matter of months, introduced the art of telephony as we now know it. The Bell receiver and the Edison transmitter are the basic inventions which made the telephonic instruments of today possible. The Edison carbon telephone transmitter is also the basic carbon microphone which has been a vital contribution to radio broadcasting.

ONE MAN'S OPINION . . .
Our Only Excuse For Freedom To Hear The "Tunisians" Cry For Freedom Is "Expediency", To Avoid Angering France.
By RALPH E. HEINZEN

A strong and free Japan and a united and reformed Germany are obviously, anathema to Soviet Russia. Communism has spread and rooted where there is freedom and strength, but only where there has been turmoil and momentary weakness. Such have been the Kremlin's victories in China, as in Hungary, Bulgaria, Rumania, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

Developments on the world scene, this week, therefore have been of vital importance. A free Japan, backed by American arms from bases to which the Japanese have freely consented, will be a deterrent to any other Communist adventures in the Far East. Even though Korea may yet emerge as a stalemate, an armistice which sets the line near the 38th Parallel can only be interpreted as a check of the Kremlin's expansion. With Japan once again a free nation, turning to us for her protection through the reconstruction years, it is safe to presume that Red China and Red Russia will make no more moves in that part of Asia.

Within the next few days, a note will be delivered at the Kremlin in the names of the Western Big Three asking the Soviet Government to clarify its proposals for the free election of an all-German government, which, obviously, involves the removal of the zone line and the restoration of a whole Germany. A strong, unified Germany, with controlled armament, will be the same kind of a "pacifier" in Europe that Japan will be in the East. Communism can be contained between friendly walls.

By its basic thesis of government by and for the proletariat, Communism is due for defeat in any country where free elections can be held. Despite the clamor of such groups as the Committee for Peaceful Alternatives for the recognition of Red China and its seating in the United Nations, there has been no free election in China. Nor have there been free elections in Poland or Czechoslovakia. In Italy and France where there have been free ballots, Communists have been defeated. It is vital, therefore, that any solution we reach in Germany must bear a guarantee of controlled free elections. As I know Germany from a quarter of a century of news covering there, including 1 1/2 years as a prisoner of Hitler there in mid-war, I can predict a crushing defeat for Communism in a truly free election.

Japan's immediate conclusion of a bilateral treaty with Nationalist China, waiving all claims to Formosa and the Pescadore Islands, ties Tokyo up definitely with our cause. Now there remains the difficult negotiations of a separate treaty between Japan and Soviet Russia, rendered difficult because of Stalin's grab of the Kurile Islands and Sakhalin which Moscow has no intentions of giving back. If I was inclined, like Drew Pearson, to make predictions of things to come, I might predict, with great confidence, that the next major war in the Far East will be fought over the Kuriles and Sakhalin. The blast which Alexander Pushkin, the Russian Ambassador, directed at the Japanese treaty this week proves how difficult it would be for Tokyo and Moscow to reach any understanding. It makes it almost certain, too, that Russia will oppose the admission of Japan into the United Nations when that problem reaches the Security Council shortly.

Future of Japan
It would be fair to bind myself to the fact that Japan will, in time, work out her affairs to her own greatest advantage. It would be folly, also, to believe that just because Japan lost this war, the Japanese have changed to any great extent. It would be folly to believe that if Japan was left alone, it would not, in time, try again to establish itself as the major military power in the Far East and, once again, seek to establish that sphere of "Greater East Asia Prosperity" which was her pronounced motive in declaring war on us.

For the present, we do not agree with the MacArthur doctrine that Japan has reformed. I have watched the Japanese at major world conferences for a quarter of a century, and until they lost this war I never saw them lose a conference. I recall, particularly, the two Naval Conferences, one in Washington and one in London. Under the terms of both, we escaped, vacillated, and under construction, and Japan gained the right to expand her fleet by building larger and better warships.

Contrast in Styles
The tactics of the Russians and the Japanese are diametrically contrary. The Russian advances and snail, walk and snail, in a half, never and snail and veto, whenever they cannot win their point. The Japanese, heaving audibly through their teeth, scrape and scurry, and always get their way.

That is why I cannot agree that just because the Japanese, and the people alike, snail at us, they like us and will stand beside us in every emergency. The Japanese have been alone in this world for centuries, and in six years of military conquest, could have made no conquests out of nature warriors.

Japan Needs Us
The only thing which inspires me to believe that this treaty will help us impose peace in the Far East is that for the time being, and perhaps for many years to come, Japan will be economically, Japan is shaky, dependent upon American support and aid. The Korean war has brought Japan many hundreds of millions of dollars in aid. Once that war ends, Japan must find world markets open for her manufactures. One of those world markets to absorb her surplus must be our own.

Politically, the government of Premier Shigena Yoshida has been having a most unfavorable reaction of the Japanese people toward the administrative agreement, which was enacted as part of the joint security pact with the United States. The agreement calls for foreign troops, and the only alternative the government offers to the people in rearmament, which costs more than Japan can afford and involves endless dangers.

For the first time in 20 years, Japan will be operating with civil rather than military control at the top. Solving the final achievement of freedom are many dire problems. Few Japanese comprehend them all; few fail to worry about some. For although militarism brought war, defeat, and occupation, rearmament again is the foremost point of conversation. In 1945, the Allies told Japan to disarm and Japan did constitutionally. "Forever." Now the United States says rearm, and the Japanese are confused and reluctant. They are uncertain that it is a good idea or that they want to be told by the United States.

The United States will have to defend Japan temporarily. This the Japanese reason, in despair and confusion. But it means that American troops must remain in their technically independent country. That they do not like.

Does this mean Japan still is not to American apron strings? The Japanese are hypersensitive on this point. There are other questions, too. The Japanese wonder if United States protection will continue in the event of a general East-West war. They wonder if the United States will make a mistake in aligning itself with the West when the rest of the world is turning to open communism or nationalism.

They wonder if the overpopulation of poor Japan can survive without colonies without trading with Communist China, without the good will of Asian neighbors.

Recent public-opinion polls in Japan indicate that the Yoshida regime, which is synonymous with pro-American policy, has plummeted in popularity from 58 per cent last September, when the peace treaty was signed, to 33 per cent in March, when the administrative agreement was completed.

The voice-calling ability of Mr. Yoshida's Liberal Party likewise has declined in recent elections. The swing seems to be toward the Socialists, who oppose rearmament and advocate Japan's return to an independent foreign policy unpolluted to anyone.

Unpopular though it is, Japan actually is rearming now at a steady pace, but the real test is bound to come when today's second shift on a war in Korea must, on that inevitable day when peace does come to Korea, be prepared to stand on a civil and commercial economy restricted by the shrinkage of Japanese markets under the defeat.

MARCH OF DIMES TELLS PROGRESS IN RESEARCH EFFORTS
Three Virus Types Have Been Isolated; Seek Practical Immunization Process Now
"Your National Foundation For Infantile Paralysis" fifteen million dollar investment in polio research is beginning to pay dividends. Dr. McMillan, March of Dimes Director for Essex County, "We now have knowledge and methods which make a polio preventive seem likely in the future. But there is much testing to be done before a practical process is found."
Mr. McMillan listed three significant discoveries as typical results of the long tussling period: (1) an understanding of how immunity to polio is developed; (2) identification of three distinct types of polio virus; and (3) successful growth of all three polio virus types in cultures of non-nervous tissue.
The test-tube technique of polio virus, Dr. McMillan asserted, "not only points the way to a means of applying large quantities of virus for poskettle with tight-fitting lid. Add water. Wipe tenderloin, sauce and chili sauce. Wipe simmer gently until meat is tender, about 3 1/2 hrs. Turn meat occasionally. Add more water, if necessary, a little at a time. Make gravy by thickening liquid with flour smoothed in water

(1 tbs. flour to each 1 cup of liquid). Serves
4, with leftovers.
