

LIFE at BHS As Our Teen-Agers See It

by Rita Carlismo-Audrey Maize

If you happened to see Judy Gandy, Mary Lou Sain, or one of the other selected ones to lead a cheering squad next year, you would see a very attractive group of girls. They are the members of the BHS cheer squad, and they are very popular. They are the members of the BHS cheer squad, and they are very popular. They are the members of the BHS cheer squad, and they are very popular.

The crew went and did it again. They won over Arlington High School in the basketball game. Two senior students from each home room have joined to form a committee to carry on a poll again this year, in which they will choose a student for some specific thing for which he is outstanding. For instance—courage, best personality, best dressed and many others. When the results are published you will be informed of them.

Well, Audrey Maize, this is certainly no time to get sick. How do you expect to enjoy this fine weather and how do you expect to help keep everyone well informed of BHS activities? We all hope you lead that "A" team and come back to school soon.

There are hundreds of thousands of Italian-origin families with relatives back in Italy. A letter from each American family to those might remind them that failure to go to the polls or failure to elect non-Communists to Parliament might upset the very delicate balance of power in Rome which has kept Italy aligned with us.

Appeals to G's
There are thousands of ex-G's, too, who fought in Italy and who made friends there with Italian families. Many of them, not necessarily Italians by blood, have kept contact with those Italian families. Let those Americans write to their friends. Every letter that wins a vote away from Communism is well worth the effort.

Rep. Rodino pointed out that it is advisable to send letters by air mail, because steamship mail might be delayed too long in transit to be effective.

It makes each drop of gas say uncle

According to combustion experts, there's as much energy locked in a drop of gasoline as there is in a drop of nitroglycerine.

But the problem is to put that energy to work.

So Buick engineers aren't content just to mix that drop with air and touch it off. They've designed an engine that brings it catapulting into a cylinder head where it strikes a turbo-top piston—gets whipped into a churning, swirling ball of tight-packed energy.

Then it's fired. And when that happens, a drop of gasoline certainly lets loose power.

This isn't something that happens in a "car of the future."

It happens in a Buick Fireball 8 Engine today. It's a high-compression engine. It's a valve-in-head engine. But it's also a Fireball in performance as well as name.

And it puts extra power under the hood—and extra miles in the fuel tank in the gas tank.

Now, power is great, but what goes with it?

Mister, that's something you ought to find out—and soon.

What goes with it is an automobile as sweet-handling, eager and willing as anything that ever made your pulse leap to a faster beat.

It's a car that seems to know what you want it to do—true and sure in its course on a straightaway—beautifully balanced on curves.

It's a car with Dynaflo Drive* to feed power with infinite smoothness—and a road-hugging levelness of ride that took a million in cold cash to perfect.

And it is, with all this, a very tidy bargain. Why not price it; drive it, know it for yourself? We'll be glad to arrange a demonstration.

Bellboy Crews Beat Arlington On High By Two Boat Lengths

Oarsmen Will Travel More than 1390 Over Road Before Returning to Race On Passaic River Again on June 7

By Charlie Maguire

The changing tides of rivers and their glories have brought about a shift in the Memorial Day Regatta by the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen for the second time in 50 years. Previous to 1902 this great event for club oarsmen was held on the Passaic river at Newark under the auspices of the now defunct Passaic River Amateur Rowing Association. Just 50 years ago it was transferred to the Harlem River, under the auspices of the New York Rowing Association, because of the pollution of the Passaic. Now after a lapse of a half century, it is being returned to the Passaic, in Belleville, because of the heavy traffic and floating debris on the Harlem River.

The big event will be held on Sunday, June 1, instead of Memorial Day but still will be called the Memorial Day Regatta. The New York Rowing Association will be in charge and the Nereid Boat Club will be host. Al Walker, vice president of the NYRA, is chairman of the committee. He is a former national champion. Bill Bennett, president of Nereid and coach of the Belleville and Nutley High School crews; Dick Krenzert, of Levitt and a former stroke of the Yale University crew, and Ned Brett, N.A.A.O. public relations director, will assist.

A large number of entries are expected. The New York A.C. will send a full contingent. New Rochelle Rowing Club and other Harlem clubs will enter. Philadelphia clubs will participate as will Old Dominion of Alexandria, Va., Potomac of Washington and several colleges. Bill Bennett will bring his schoolboy crews back from the National Championships in Washington in time to enter them as representatives of Nereid.

The regatta may well be a preview of the Olympic try-out. The N.Y.A.C. will send scullers and sweepmen of national prominence like Joe Angyal, Homer Zink of Nereid, now in the Air Force, will compete as will John Kieffer and Charlie Kain, National Champions in pairs.

The races will be at a mile on the upper course, the finish line just above the Rutgers Street bridge. Spectators can see the races from the Essex County Riverbank Park. Officials will include such famous rowing men as Alan Walk, former Yale coach, and Joe Burke, former world's champion sculler and current coach of the University of Pennsylvania crews.

Once this famous regatta attracted to the Passaic the greats of the sport such as Courtney of Cornell, Ten Eyck of Syracuse, Vesper Paris, Fred Blaizot, Jim Juvenal, and George Lee. Other famous scullers both pro and amateur at National Championships on the Passaic, back in the horse-and-buggy days. Of the more than a dozen famous rowing clubs which lined the course in those days, now only Nereid of Belleville remains, but Nereid does more rowing than ever before. Nereid had a crew in the last Memorial Day Regatta on the Passaic in 1901 and all the members of that crew are today well and hearty. Undoubtedly they will be glad to cheer for the youngsters so ably coached by Bill Bennett.

Dad Vail Regatta

A big event on the college rowing front will be the Dad Vail Rowing Association Regatta which will be held on the Charles River at Boston on Saturday. Belleville has an interest in the race since three Belleville oarsmen are in the Rollins College crew, favored to cop the Dad Vail trophy. Don Weber, Norman Gross and Frank Thompson. LaSalle of Philadelphia is defending champion. Dartmouth is junior champ and the American International College of Springfield is defending the Brett Bowl for freshmen. The Varsity trophy for this event was presented by Lev Brett, a member of the Nereid club.

Girls' Softballers Need Gloves

The Belleville PAL has a need for any baseball gloves which may be kicking around unused in closets or attics of Belleville. Efforts are being made to form a Girl's Softball League and to enter a team in the State PAL League, but white boys at this season of the year the girls do not show up with a baseball glove tucked into the back pocket of their jeans. If such baseball equipment is available, call Patrolman Jack McNish at Belleville 2-4600, and he will see that it is picked up. Tryouts for the girls teams are being held at Belleville Park on Thursday evenings and Saturday afternoons. So far enough girls to form at least a four-team league have tried out and every effort will be made to give all an opportunity to play.

Bellboy Baseball Team Loses To Bears, Gems and Indians

Poor Fielding and Hitting Spells Defeat At Hands Of Lynchburg; Columbia is Too Powerful; But Of Lynchburg; Columbia is oo Powerful

By Charlie Maguire

If the Bellboys continue to play the brand of ball that they played this week for the rest of the season, they will have to pay admission if they expect to see the Greater Newark Tournament in June. In the Lynchburg game they lost because of poor hitting and fielding. Jack McKenna pitched good ball and gave up only four hits, but he lost because his team mates got him only two runs. Lynchburg scored three unearned runs in the first inning and one in the sixth to score a 4-2 victory.

The Columbia squad completely outplayed the Belleville nine in a one-sided game played in South Jersey. The Bellboys' John Challenger gave up only three hits and issued one walk in the nine inning contest. The Cougars picked up one run in the third, three in the fourth, two in the fifth, and three in the sixth to give them a 9-0 win.

But worst of all was the Passaic game. The Bellboys outlasted the Indians 13 to 11 but lost. The loss was attributed to bad base running and could have been won if the boys had omitted the Dodger style antics on the bases. The pitching was also below par as Charlie Terrell for eight hits in the Passaic aggregation clubbed two batters. Terry Gahr finished the game striking out four and walking one in the two innings which he pitched.

The Belleville Varsity Eight, Varsity Four, and Jayvee Four rowed to easy victories over crews of Arlington High School of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., in races on the Passaic River Saturday. The Belleville oarsmen now have a 3-1 record for the season. In the varsity eight race, the Bellboys pulled ahead at the start and were never behind at any time. The Arlington crew made a bid for victory just after the half way point but started their drive too soon and faded at the finish. The Bellboys held the stroke down to 26 but when the New Yorkers threatened they raised it to 32 and crossed the finish line by 2 1/2 lengths.

To Washington, D. C. for the Schoolboy Nationals.

Two Belleville Teams In CYO Grammar School League

Two Catholic grammar schools in Belleville have entered teams in the baseball league sponsored by the Essex County CYO. They are St. Peter's and St. Anthony's. A total of 33 clubs are represented in the five divisions of the league. The CYO league, over 600 youngsters have already begun play on 14 diamonds throughout this area. Most teams will average six or eight games during the season, with divisional winners to be decided on June 23. The Essex County champion, to be determined in a series of play-offs, will enter the race for the Ardieson banner on June 29. Major league regulations govern the teams, except for the length of games, which are seven innings. The five divisions are: Iron-bound, Branch Brook, Oranges, Suburban, and West Hudson.

St. Peter's is entered in the Branch Brook division, while St. Anthony's is competing in the Suburban circuit. St. Peter's Essex County champion, will play six games during the season, as will St. Anthony's.

Tennis Team Bows To Kards And Bengals, E.O. Is Next

Both the Kards and the Bengals proved too powerful for the Bellboys in tennis matches played last week. Karmy won all three single sets and one of the doubles to win 4 to 1. Frank Carzar, Peter Sacerdoti, and Steve Cole played well but were no match against the more experienced Karmians. The matches were held at the Arlington Players Club in Kearny. The Bloomfield Squad was not as good as the Kearny team but nevertheless also won by a four to one score. The matches were played at Belleville's home court, the Nutley Tennis Club. Coach Ray Smith was pleased with the progress of the club's two freshmen, Steve Cole and Frank Carzar. He says that if he can find two or three more freshmen who play tennis, Belleville could see some action in a few years. The Bellboys play East Orange at home on Friday.

Belleville's Police shooters won another match from the Essex County Penn markers in an Essex County Revolver League match at the Belleville range, Saturday. The local cops had a total of 1114 to 1083 for the Penn guards. Sergeant Singer was top man for Belleville with a 292 total, followed by Officer Hugh O'Toole with 285. In these matches, ten men fire for each team, but only the top four scores count in the result.

STUDEBAKER DOES BEST IN ROAD TEST

Champion And Commander Have Best Miles Per Gallon Record In Mobligras Run

Studebaker's outstanding performance in the 1952 Mobligras Economy Run has again provided important national recognition to a motoring feature long associated with the passenger cars built by the company which this year is celebrating its 100th anniversary. The performance of the 1952 Champion and Commander in actual miles per gallon of gasoline was the best among the 23 automobiles entered in standard classifications of the Economy Run.

"The Champion," according to F. A. Port of the Studebaker dealership in Belleville averaged 27.82 miles per gallon, the best among all six and eight-cylinder cars entered in the event. The V-8 Commander topped all other eight-cylinder cars with an average of 25.59 actual miles per gallon. The Studebaker Land Cruiser followed closely with a 25.38 mpg average.

The buying public would not be deeply interested in thrifty motoring, Studebaker's economy story might be getting old," Mr. Port declared, "because this is the third straight year in which Studebaker cars have scored victories in the Economy Run. Economy has been almost synonymous with Studebaker for many years."

This year's contest covered 1,415 miles from Los Angeles to Sun Valley, Idaho and required three days to complete. It was conducted under the supervision of the American Automobile Association. Like most of the company cars, the Studebaker entries were equipped with over-drive transmissions and used regular gasoline.

Just prior to the Mobligras Economy Run, an additional honor came to Studebaker when a V-8 Commander was officially selected as the pace car for this year's 500 mile race at the Indianapolis Speedway on Memorial Day.

Halted By Police Pistol Shots After Disturbance

Eugene Anderson, 19, of 605 North Sixth Street, Newark, is free on $50 bail for appearance before Magistrate Edward J. Abramson, this morning on a disorderly persons charge, as a result of a ruckus outside the Riviera Park Roller Rink, Thursday of last week.

William Miskind, rink owner, called police to report that there was a fight going on outside his place. Patrolman Gilling and Donnelly arrived and when Anderson saw them he ran across Washington Avenue and through the property of the Liquid Carbonic Corporation toward the Erie Railroad tracks. The police fired two warning shots over Anderson's head and he halted at the railroad tracks.

Anderson told police he had been punched in the rink by two unidentified youths at about 10:30 o'clock and that we went outside and waited for his assistants to come out. He was waiting when the police arrived.

46 DEATHS HERE IN 1951 CAUSED BY TYPES OF CANCER

Belleville Has Goal Of $7,500 In Current Cancer Crusade; County Quota Is $186,500

The number of deaths attributable to cancer in Belleville last year totaled 46, according to figures compiled from mortality records of the New Jersey State Health Department.

In announcing the figures, F. Douglas Wadsworth, chairman of the 1952 Cancer Crusade in Belleville, declared that it is more essential than ever before that the American Cancer Society obtain funds needed to carry on its intensive program of education, patient service and research. "Not only are more people dying of cancer, but many more appear to be suffering from the disease," Mr. Wadsworth said. "The increase is due to the growing number of older people in our population, the fact that the cancer death rate rises rapidly with age, and improved diagnosis and better reporting of deaths," the chairman added.

Mr. Wadsworth said that the state health department's report for 1951 shows the continued need of education and research

Familiar Season

My neighbor's burning grass; great rooms of air
Fill with sweet wild odor of spring care.
My neighbor's boy lights kerosene-dipped cloth
To freckle nests of brown-tail moth.
They zigzag humming down out of their bars;
At rest, send up an afterthought of stars,
Apple blossom buds among the leaves
Smell as if open—all the branches' eaves
Basketed with the sweet grass of their fragrance;
Dandelions trespass lawns—spring's vagrants—
And on the sunny kitchen windowpane
Flies twang the familiar season in again.

Eisenhower's Religious Background.

There is a fringe of society which dwells in the swamps of iniquity.

Every so often someone slinks out of those swamps to sow libel, to slander with malicious intent or to spread confusion by that most dastardly of weapons, the anonymous letter. The slanderers are abroad again, as hundreds of families here know from mail, postmarked New York, which they received this week. A great and good man, General Dwight D. Eisenhower, is their victim.

The anonymous letters announce without qualification that the General has received Roman Catholic instruction and is planning to embrace the Roman Catholic faith. Not that there would be any wrong in that. There have been many converts to Catholicism whose fame was as great as his. But there is another lunatic fringe which pretends that no Roman Catholic should run for the Presidency of the United States.

For that reason, it is advisable to bring clarity to defeat slander. In this specific case, the facts, obtained from those who have been intimately familiar with the whole Eisenhower family, are as follows:

General Eisenhower is a devout Protestant. He is not formally affiliated with any particular Protestant denomination because he has spent most of his life on Army posts, where he always accepted the interdenominational service of the chaplain on duty.

The same situation prevailed during his period of service as president of Columbia University. While he lived in New York he regarded the nondenominational Columbia Chapel as his church home.

As a youth Dwight Eisenhower was raised in the strict religious environment of what was known in Kansas as the "River Brethren," a Mennonite sect akin to the Quakers. His parents were active members of this group and his grandfather, Jacob Eisenhower, was a minister of the "Brethren in Christ."

When General Eisenhower was married to Mamie Geneva Doud, the service was performed by a Presbyterian minister. The Doud family was Presbyterian and Mrs. Eisenhower today adheres to that faith.

The general's brother, Milton Eisenhower, now president of Pennsylvania State College, is a Episcopalian, his wife's church.

Originally the family name was spelled "Eisenhufer" which, translated, means "iron heaver." Racially the family is German and Swiss. It acquired the Swiss strain when in the 16th century the general's ancestors fled Germany because of religious persecution. They settled in Switzerland and were among the early reformations.

In the 17th century the Swiss Eisenhowers took off for America, first settled in Pennsylvania and later migrated to Texas with a colony of Swiss "Brethren in Christ," the denomination to which the family is joined. It is recalled that quite a number of the general's ancestors were preachers in the Mennonite sect and in Abilene, Kan., where the family moved soon after Dwight was born, his father worked in the Bell Springs Creamery, a cooperative run by the Mennonites.

When General Eisenhower was inaugurated as president of Columbia University in June, 1943, he was asked at a press conference whether Columbia did not expect its presidents to be religious leaders? His reply was:

"I am one of the most deeply religious men I know. That doesn't mean that I necessarily adhere to any particular sect or organization. I do not believe democracy can exist without religion, and I do believe in democracy. Most men who have gone through six years of war cannot help having a religious faith."

As to the circulated report that General Eisenhower is preparing to become a Roman Catholic, that rumor very likely stems from an author's error because in the letters received here there has been an enclosure with photostatic copies of references on pages 94 and 95 of a book "San Antonio, City in the Sun," by Grey Peyton, published by White-Helley House in 1946.

This paragraph from these photostatic pages refers to General Eisenhower in these terms:

"A lieutenant in 1915, he came to San Antonio as an inspector of a national guard regiment. A few months later he was promoted to captain and joined the 67th Infantry as its regimental supply officer. Captain Eisenhower was a Catholic in a Catholic city and he had played football at West Point. It didn't take much urging by Brother John Ryan, athletic director at St. Louis College in San Antonio, to persuade young Eisenhower to coach the football team for a season."

Peter Edson, my old friend and one of the most careful and persevering of Washington columnists, has tracked down this misinformation and makes the following report:

"Author Peyton, now living in San Antonio, admits today that this statement was an error, the result of careless reporting. He has checked further with Brother Laurence Duffy at San Antonio College, now known as St. Mary's. Brother Laurence says he knows Eisenhower, personally and well, and knows that he is not and never was a Catholic. Author Peyton has authorized publication of this statement in the hope that it will overtake and correct his error and stop distribution of the scurrilous and anonymous mail from New York."

Rule By Law Or By Man?

A judicial finding of the utmost gravity should be coming Monday when the Supreme Court hears arguments in the steel seizure case. Rule by law is at stake. America stands at a crossroads; one way is that of Constitutional Law, the other is the way of a self-granted Presidential power bordering dangerously on full dictatorial rights.

The Supreme Court undoubtedly will set Harry Truman right on a lot of false ideas he holds about executive powers. We say false ideas, because it suffices to look up it, history books a few of the "historical precedents" which Truman cited in defense of his seizure of the steel mills. In none of the cases does Truman's "precedent" stand up. They show only the detours of his thinking.

As examples of the use of presidential power, independent of the power of Congress, Truman, at a press conference this week, cited President Jefferson's buying of the Louisiana Territory from France, the annexation of Texas by Presidents Tyler and Polk, and President Johnson's purchase of Alaska from Russia.

In not a single one of these actions does history support the theory of "inherent executive power." Harry Truman cited only half the facts. The facts which Mr. Truman omitted are to be found in any school history book and they are these:

On buying Louisiana Territory—Jefferson asked Congress to act with him. Congress then made a secret appropriation of $2,000,000. The Senate confirmed Jefferson's envoy. After the treaty with France was signed, the Senate ratified it, and later Congress appropriated the balance of the purchase price.

On annexing Texas—The United States had at first joined with Britain, France, and Belgium in recognizing Texas as an independent nation. In 1845 Congress by joint resolution of both houses, signed by the President, invited Texas to come into the Union. Texas accepted and Congress conferred statehood.

On purchasing Alaska—After President Johnson had negotiated—since treaty negotiation is vested in the President by the Constitution—a treaty of cession with Russia, this treaty was submitted to the Senate and ratified before it became binding. Congress made the necessary appropriation.

Nothing which Mr. Truman said at his press conference about these "historical precedents" was inaccurate. But he cited them as instances of "inherent executive power," when a fuller look at history shows that they are examples of presidential initiative undertaken in cooperation with Congress and ratified by the Senate. They do not demonstrate that the President has unlimited reserve powers and they have absolutely no parallel with Truman's seizure of the steel industry, without the approbation of Congress and on the grounds, as argued by the Government's attorneys, that the President has such "inherent executive power."

ONE MAN'S OPINION . . .

Anti-American Riots in Tokyo, Socialist Victory In West Germany Prove Soviet Russia Is Not Giving Up Easily.

By RALPH E. HEINZEN

Nothing, apparently, is quite so deceptive as a military victory by knockout.

The Germans of the Western zone, with Communist Russia grandly planted in the eastern half of their country, only waiting a chance to spread her red tentacles over the whole of the land, rolled up an impressive Socialist victory in last Sunday's elections in the State of Hesse, knowing full well that the Social Democrats are opposed to Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's rearmament policies in the Federal Government at Bonn.

Half way around the world in Tokyo, May Day riots were marked by Communist-inspired anti-Americanism; "Americans go home," the signs read in Tokyo just as they read in Berlin, Japan is the prize of the Far East and is as much the objective of Soviet foreign policy as is all Germany in the West.

Interpret the Tokyo May Day riots as the first overt signs of a coming struggle for Japan.

As shocking as these two happenings in Germany and in Japan may be, they may jolt us out of our aura of wishful thinking back into the world of hard realities. Since too many months, the Achse in Washington have been going along on the theory that West Germany wants integration with the Atlantic Powers in an anti-Communist bloc. The Hesse vote should shake us out of that belief; the Hesse vote shows that had enough of wars and it is their ostrich-like belief that they can stay out of war by refusing to re-arm and leaving a vacuum in which Russia and her satellites will fight the Western powers. It will take a great deal of effort to make the Germans see the folly of their ways.

Contrasts in Zones

As a matter of fact, as things stand now, we have lost the first round in Germany to the Communists. The Hesse vote shows that despite our effort at Bonn, the West German people do not believe in the case of the Democratic Zone. We know, however, that in East Germany, the direct action methods of the Communists have made converts out of the East Germans. In the West, Germany is unarmored. There is no "People's Police Force" which, surprising for police is equipped with tanks. In the West, German youth is uncooperative; in the East, the Communists have organized boys and girls into shock troops.

I always have been an advocate of building our support among the German youth. That is how I watched them all during the years of the Hitler regime, and especially because I saw them function with impressive efficiency when I was a political prisoner of Hitler, interned in the heart of Germany for 18 months in mid-war.

Hitler Used Youth

Hitler took a page out of Mussolini's book and as soon as his hordes, the German veterans of World War I, had lifted him to power, he started building the future strength by enlisting the German boys and girls in his Hitler-Jugend. Before he got through he had 11 millions streets. Schools shut down at noon and the older boys and girls spent eight hours until bedtime working in war factories or on nearby farms. When our air raids grew heavier and we were on the receiving end of 127 American air raids in that Baden camp, destruction was terrific. It became the duty of the Hitler-Jugend to fight the fires, clear away the debris and care for the dead and wounded after every raid. Sometimes there were three and four raids in the same night.

In their Blood

There is something in the chapter of German boys and girls which makes them good soldiers. They like the uniforms, as they like the drums and the massed marches. They crave leadership and their sense of patriotism is as high as ours, if not higher. As Hitler expected them to do, they loved the Hitler-Jugend and the sense of power it gave them.

The Russians were smarter than we were. They enrolled these same East German boys and girls in a Communist organization, put them in uniforms, gave them a red flag and we have seen them go into action in Berlin many times in demonstration raids.

We, alas, did nothing of the kind. We broke up the Hitler-Jugend as all Nazi groups were broken up, but we provided nothing for idle German youths to do. There are nearly 6,000,000 of these youngsters in the Western zone. They are 7 years older now and instead of being 6 to 16, they are 13 to 28. Some of them are already voters.

Without sacrificing our principles, as far as the Nazis are concerned, we could make use of those young Germans. Yet we have ignored the millions and we have concentrated on selling a bill of goods to Adenauer. Now that it appears likely that the venerable leader will lose control of his position, the question arises: What will we do? If the Social Democrats, heartened by their victory in the Hesse state elections, rebel against the coalition, then Dr. Adenauer may not be able to find the support he needs to enact the agreement which he wants badly enough to sign, binding West Germany to the North Atlantic powers and West European community.

If he cannot get the support of the coalition parties, his signature on the European defense treaty will be remote. And all the while, the Kremlin makes its play for all Germany—a play which runs the gamut from blandishments and enticements to warnings and threats. That brings us to the major question: Will we sit and wait, or will we get tough with Germany? Will we postpone European defense, or will we force West Germany to take a decision? The only alternative to action would be to buy "German unity" at Moscow's terms, and a basic term is to scrap our European defense plan by forbidding Germany to take part.

2 BELLEVILLE CYO GROUPS GOT $586 FOR DIMES FUND

County Organization Raised $16,799.95, Highest Total; St. Peter's in Fifth Place

CYO members and grammar school students from two Belleville churches contributed a total of $586.07 in the Essex County CYO's campaign for the March of Dimes, it was announced this week by James J. McMahon, St. Peter's raised $481.50 while St. Anthony's gave $104.57, according to the official figures. The amount collected at St. Peter's was the fifth largest contribution from an individual unit in Essex County.

The two groups' contributions helped the county organization raise $16,799.95, the highest total ever. During the eight years in which the CYO has aided the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, a grand total of $92,397.49 has been contributed. This year's drive, which was highlighted on January 20 — declared CYO March of Dimes Sunday by Rev. John J. Kiley, Essex County CYO director — was an increase of $826.22 over the amount given last year. In accepting the contribution, McMahon said, "Once again I would like to express the appreciation of the Essex County Committee, as well as the many, many boys and girls who will benefit from the wonderful efforts of your CYO children.

During the eight year's drive, which put the CYO's donation over the $50,000 mark, Belleville CYO members and grammar school students raised a total of $2,286.26.

WESTINGHOUSE CO. OFFERS PAY BOOST

'Non-Union Workers Granted Raises, Four Unions Get Offer For 75,000 Members

Wage increases to compensate for the rise in the cost of living since September 15 were granted May 1, to approximately 15,000 employees of the Westinghouse Electric Corporation who are not represented by unions, and were offered simultaneously to four unions representing more than 75,000 employees.

The increase will cost the company approximately $4,500,000 annually if accepted by the unions. The offer was made today to representatives of the International Union of Electric, Radio and Machine Workers (CIO); United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America (Independent); Federation of Westinghouse Independent Salaried Employees, and International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (AFL).

Robert D. Blasler, vice president in charge of industrial relations, said the higher pay would keep Westinghouse wages current with the inflation in living costs.
