

ELMER S. HYDE WILL HEAD CANCER DRIVE

County Seeks $186,500 In Campaign Starting April 1; Two Fold Purpose Is Told

Commissioner Elmer S. Hyde of 43 Rossmore Place, has accepted the chairmanship of the Belleville 1953 fund raising appeal of the Essex County Chapter of the American Cancer Society, it was announced yesterday by Reinhardt V. Metzger of North Caldwell, county chairman. The Cancer Crusade will be launched after the nation on April 1, with a goal of $186,500. A goal of $186,500 has been set in Essex County as its share to carry on the research, education and service that is needed.

In announcing the appointment, Chairman Metzger stated that "the long and extensive experience of our new chairman assures capable and energetic leadership in this important phase of the campaign. The campaign committee is fortunate in obtaining the services of Mr. Hyde and a vigorous and effective program of activity is certain to be developed."

In accepting this chairmanship, Mr. Hyde has taken on a great deal of responsibility for it means that he has committed his interests, talents and a large amount of his time from now until the end of the drive to a job that is nothing less than the saving of many lives. A two fold task is involved. One is the soliciting of funds to carry on the fight against cancer, the other is the furtherance of an education program which has for its objective the cutting down of the cancer death rate.

LETTERS To The Editor

A Word Of Appreciation

To The Editor, Times-News: In the name of Congregation A.A.A. of Belleville, the Building Committee extends thanks to all those who have responded to their call and mailed in contributions to that worthy project, the erection of a new Synagogue and Center in Belleville.

The Building Committee appreciates your cooperation and support. It is through your understanding interest and encouragement with the dream of a new and modern edifice - a lighthouse of hope - for us and generations to come - will soon be a reality.

Has Income Tax Suggestion

To The Editor, Times-News: For many years I have been studying the income tax laws, and I find that they are way out of line. Uncle Sam is taking too big a bite out of the small man's salary. Travel to and from work is not allowed. If you have money to pay taxes, Uncle Sam takes the first 5% of your salary. If you go to work by car, all you are allowed is the gasoline tax taken by the states. If you support a relative 65 or over, you get one dependent, but if that same relative is employed, you get two dependents.

If you purchase a home, the down payment should be allowed. If you purchase a car, the depreciation should be allowed. Salaries and business men are allowed a depreciation, why not the working man?

I have given this unfair situation some deep consideration, and I believe I have a solution, that is fair to all people. First of all, 10% of a salary should be allowed to all charities. Secondly, 15% of the salary should be allowed for all dependents.

thirdly - a flat 10% be allowed for all other expenses.

It would work like this: On a $20,000 salary of a single person, with one dependent, after those three deductions were made, the taxable balance would be $1,950. The same salary of a married couple with two dependents would have a balance of $600. The balance would then be taxed at a flat 20%.

A married couple, both working, with a combined salary of $5,000, and five dependents, would get a real break. In other words, the bigger the salary, the larger the break.

This system is so simple a 14-year-old can understand it, and anyone could write his own income tax return.

Vice President of State Elks Association is Guest At Testimonial Dinner at Elks Club; 14 of 17 Lodges In District Send Delegations; State Officers Speak

Members of the Belleville Lodge of Elks tendered a testimonial dinner to Paul A. Brennan, vice president of the New Jersey State Elks Association. A number of state and Grand Lodge dignitaries as well as delegations from 14 of the 17 lodges in the district. The lodge presented Mr. Brennan with an Elgin wristwatch and the District ritualistic committee gave him a fishing rod and reel. Mrs. Brennan received a bouquet from Mr. and Mrs. Al Gaeta, Clearman place neighbors of the Brennans.

Mayor James J. Tully praised Mr. Brennan for the fine work he has done in Elksdom and for his 20 years as high school teacher and principal of School No. 1. William J. Jernick, former mayor of Nutley, was a member of the board of Grand Trustees, spoke highly of Mr. Brennan's efforts on both a local and state level. He pointed out that there are higher jobs in the Order of Elks awaiting Paul Brennan in the future.

State President Joseph Bader of Lyndhurst spoke about the charitable work of the Elks throughout the state and District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler Theodore Grimm of Bloomfield told of the value of Brennan's work in the order.

Among the guests were Paul's two brothers, James Brennan of Trenton and Harold Brennan of Sayre, Pa.; Nick Chirona of Sayre; Paul's sisters, Mrs. Patricia Shaffer and Mrs. Florence Shaffer, also of Sayre; Superintendent of Schools and Mr. Evan H. Thomas, General Supervisor, and Mrs. Frank Durkee, Eugene J. Kelly, president of the Board of Education and Mrs. Kelly; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lesser and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rochau, representing the Board of Education.

Fred Taylor, chairman of the Committee, describes the dinner as the outstanding social event in the recent history of the lodge.

NEED A NEW ROOF?

The roof should be weathertight. Small leaks or curling shingles are danger signals. Little leaks become larger, and they let damaging water down into the superstructure of the house itself. It begins rotting at the top like a tree.
If you need a new roof or any repairs or improvements, you can finance the job at the Peoples National Bank at a cost reasonable to you and repayable in convenient monthly installments.
Get an estimate of the cost from your contractor and then see us about its financing. Bank borrowing is cheaper.

Warren Knight, President of Little League Writes About Plans for 1953 Campaign

"Little League baseball, the greatest stimulant to the national pastime since Babe Ruth's era, is quietly slipping into gear for its third year on the Belleville sport horizon," says Warren Knight, president of the Little League. "Within a month, give or take a week depending upon the conduct of frivolous Spring-the-small fry in the 8 to 12 year old bracket will be swinging into action at Clearman Field. The opening game in the program's third season here is now being fixed, through the medium of the official Little League film that is being beamed to every grade school in town, through the cooperation of the office of Superintendent of Schools Ryan Thomas.

"Applications will be available at the schools and after being completely filled out, should be returned to the schools for channeling to the Recreation Department, co-sponsor of the Belleville edition of Little League. Local industry and organizations have joined with Commissioner Elmer Hyde's Recreation Department to make the project possible.

"Only one thorn has appeared in what otherwise would be the proverbial bed of roses. Adult assistance and supervision has been on the weak side, numerically speaking. Only the bare minimum support has appeared to keep the program going. With more than 200 boys actually concerned with the program once it gets under way, it seems ridiculous that only eight or ten men have come forward to keep Little League going. The enthusiasm engendered among the boys themselves has been tremendous. More than 600 youngsters have turned out each of the two years. That means a heavy load upon the shoulders of the few men who contribute their time and efforts toward eliminating juvenile delinquency, teaching boys to play good baseball and playing the game in a sportsmanlike manner.

"A meeting of all men interested in taking part in Little League baseball has been called for March 11, at 8 o'clock, in the Recreation House on Jerusalem Street. Some knowledge of baseball would be helpful but it isn't essential, for an addition to managers and coaches, umpires and other posts must be filled.

"Under Little League rules, Belleville has two fully-uniformed leagues of four teams each. The uniforms are furnished from sponsors' fees and the operating expenses of the two leagues is underwritten by the Recreation Department. Last year, two All-Star teams representing Belleville's leagues entered the National Tournament and played in a 16-team bracket. Both local aggregations fought their way to the semi-finals. Luck of the draw pitted them against each in the penultimate round and only one of the two reached the finals, there being knocked out of the playoffs by a one-run margin.

"Some excellent diamond material has been uncovered and developed, thus assuring a steady supply of candidates for the high school team. Some day, one of these more promising youngsters might go on to professional fame for it's almost a certainty Little League baseball will make more than its share of contributions to the major leagues.

"Last year, the sponsors of teams were Scott Ship Post, VFW, the team which won the local World Series title; Walter Kiddle Company, Viking Tug Company, Belleville Lions Club, Craftsman's Club, Wallace and Tiernan, Belleville Lodge of Elks and Belleville Rotary Club. From all indications, the same sponsors recognizing the value of this fine program will back the boys who cavort around the miniature diamond at Clearman Field, looking like pocket-size editions of Mickey Mantle, Phil Rizzuto, Stan Musial, Sam Maglie, Jackie Robinson or other great names in the game."

New Recreation Activity
A new adult activity will be inaugurated by the Recreation Department, Monday night, when the Adult Ping-Pong Club swings into action at the Recreation House at 8 o'clock. The group will begin its activities with brand new equipment and an invigorating activity is anticipated by Recreation Supervisor Robert Cook.

Different Thinking Required
Judging from the results in the Essex County Basketball Tournament, Coach Titty Wische says new thinking must be developed by the coaches of the county in the future. In seven years of tournament play the team seeded No. 1 has yet to win the tournament, while teams of lower seeding and even in the unseeded bracket have redeemed themselves in tournament play. Coach Wische points out that while Montclair won all its games during the season, its inherent weakness became the target of the opposition in the tournament and led to its downfall. For them the season was not quite as successful as it might have been. On the other hand, Nutley which did poorly in the regular campaign, covered itself with glory by reaching the semi-finals before bowing to the tournament champion.

Montclair with Lewis, Fulcomer and Zingg returning, should be the powerhouse to fear next year. Coach Wische sees Bloomfield as this season's representative in the semi-finals of the State Tournament, rather than Orange. But their chances of reaching the finals are limited by the Association's ruling that the two North Jersey teams must meet each other in the semi-finals, rather than chance such a meeting in the final game. "This ruling which applies to all divisions is one of the reasons why the state tournament is not enjoying the same success that it once did, when the semi-finalists were determined by the luck of the draw.

Will Face Dartmouth Frosh

One of the features of the 1953 crop schedule for Belleville High's oarsmen will be a race on April 25 against the Dartmouth College Freshmen. In the Dartmouth boat will be Charlie Crane, who was a member of the Belleville National Championship eight, and at stroke will be the lad who skirted Kent School to the only victory claimed by a Belleville rival last spring. Coach Bill Bennett is looking forward to a great season this year. His Varsity 8 will include five members of last year's championship boat, and the replacements will be bigger, stronger and heavier than those who have gone from the local scene.

Bloomfield Does It Again

Belleville High's bowling team, twice champions of the North Jersey School Bowling League, came near repeating this year, but found the school's ancient rival Bloomfield 10 pins too strong in the deciding tie-out for the championship on Friday. On Wednesday Belleville defeated Bloomfield 2 to 1 to deadlock the league at nine and one each but Belleville could not repeat in the roll-off. Paul Durkin of Belleville led the league in individual average and for his efforts will receive a trophy.

Belleville Jayvees Bow To West Side Height In Tourney

West Side's Two Centers Tally 42 Points in 75 to 60 Game; Veith and Leyble Show Promise

Playing against the superior height of West Side, which paid off under the boards, the Belleville High Jayvees lost out in the finals of the Essex County Jayvee Tournament, Saturday night, 75 to 60. Except for the advanced billing as a Jayvee game, both teams played ball like experienced performers, and didn't let the size of the gym or the number of people present bother them in the least.

Percy Oliver, lanky West Side center was the big difference. He controlled both backboards and finished the night with 10 baskets and nine fouls for a 29 point total. Dave Klumman, who under-studied Oliver at center, also chucked in 13 points, Bill Collier with another 13 and Bob Jenkins with 12 also did well for the winners. Dick Veith hit for 24 and Andy Leyble tallied 17 for Belleville and both show great promise of forming the backbone of next year's varsity team.

Coach Ray Smith, who had been liberal with his substitutions all season, used 11 against West Side. In addition to Veith and Leyble, Roland Bergamini, Tom Dolan, John Bartel, Joe Prieto, The Kampers, played a half, Joe Long, Frank Puleo and Frank Casazza saw action. Of these, Bartel, Prieto and Long are freshmen.

In other games on the same program Bloomfield trounced Nutley by three hours in the Varsity tournament and Orange upset first-seeded Montclair 41 to 34 in the Junior League. West Side's Hall gym was fairly well filled, but not packed as it has been in the four finals in which Belleville has taken part in the last seven years.

PISTOL TEAM BEATS DEPUTIES, GUARDS

O'Toole High Against Sheriff's Men; Pinder Has 293, Singer 292 Against Penitentiary Four

Belleville's police pistol team must be making good use of its fine range, for in its latest two matches recorded victories over the Sheriff's Office 167 to 113 and over the Essex County Penitentiary team 1167 to 1067. The team has lost only one match so far this season in the Essex County Police Revolver League. Both victories were scored on Saturday.

Against the Sheriff's office Hugh O'Toole was high with 291, while in the match with the Penitentiary Jim Pinder had a 293 and Fred Singer a 292.

Westinghouse Employees Give Blood

Fourteen employees of the Westinghouse Lamp Parts plant in Belleville volunteered to donate their blood to the Essex Blood Bank here to make up a shortage in the town's collection. The workers answered the call overnight when the Blood Bank announced that it needed additional blood to meet its monthly quota. Among the 14 employees were the following from Belleville: Shirley Schlatter of 703 Belleville Avenue, and Rose Manno of 64 Greylock Street. Shown above is Helen Templeton (left) receiving a cup of lemon juice from Mrs. Herbert Tucker of 39 Schuyler Street, after giving blood.

Eagles Win P.A.I. Soccer Crown in Overtime Game

Blackhawks Conquer Rangers; Juveniles and Old Times In Tie; Wins Boxing Championship

The P.A.I. Minor soccer league closed its season play Sunday afternoon at Belleville Park before a large crowd. In the first game the Blackhawks won the right to meet the Eagles by defeating the Rangers 3 to 1. Scoring for the Hawks were Tom Mooney with two goals and Ed Bergson. The Rangers lost 1 to 0. In the league championship game, the Eagles won over the Hawks in a 10 minute overtime game 1 to 0. Dick Steinbreich scored the goal to give the Eagles the league title.

The highlight of the day was the game between the P.A.I. Juveniles and the Belleville Oldtimers in which the youth 2 goals to 2. The P.A.I. opened the scoring in the first half when William Jervia scored on a pass from Joe Hughes. At the start of the second half the Oldtimers knotted the score on a breakaway by Herb Goebe.

The P.A.I. again moved out in front when Robert Bergamini scored from a scrimmage. Five minutes from the end of the game the Oldtimers again tied the score when Joe Stevenson passed to Ed Lawlor who scored from 12 yards out. Both teams scored a good passing attack with the Oldtimers having a slight edge.

Council of Churches Plans Palm Sunday Musical Program
The Belleville Council of Churches is sponsoring a musical program for Palm Sunday, March 29th at Fessymith Memorial Presbyterian Church, corner of Little and Union Avenue. Donald Gage, organist and director of the Oratorio group of forty voices will sing "Duke's Cantata," "The Seven Last Words of Christ," "Spells" soloists for the program will be Edith Jurew, soprano; Steve Johnson, tenor; and Martin Baldwin, baritone. The service will begin at eight o'clock and open to the public. A free-will offering will be taken to defray expenses.

Court Play
In the P.A.I. Junior basketball league Tuesday night the standings remained the same with the Reds, Black and the Golds winning in league play. The Reds defeated the Blues, Greens and Maroons. With only three more weeks remaining in league play the Reds maintain their hold on first place by the margin of one game over the Blacks. In the last game of the evening the P.A.I. Seniors were decidedly trounced by a score of 72 to 46.

The Senior team has been entered in the Newark Evening News tournament held at the Boys Club in Newark. Coach June Carragher will attend a meeting of the coaches at Boys Club where drawings will be held to decide which opponents the P.A.I. will meet next week.

Boxing Champs
One of the former stars of the P.A.I. boxing team, Irv Hansen, who now attends Brigham Young University in Utah, won the welterweight crown in a boxing tournament held at that school. Brigham Young has always had one of the foremost boxing collegiate teams in the country, and this is the first time in the history of the school that a freshman has won a school title.

Arrowhead Pontiac Honored By General Motors in Better Dealer Program

The plant and showroom of Arrowhead Pontiac, Inc., at 645-Washington Avenue, Belleville, cited by General Motors executives as one of the finest in the state, during presentation of "Better Dealer" honors to firm. The building opened last year, contains 15,000 square feet, with 15,000 square feet of used car lot and 20,000 square feet of customer parking.

Receives Portrait Of Chief Pontiac At G-M Award Dinner At Boyle's

A reproduction of the painting of Chief Pontiac, chief of the Ottawas and Indian Confederacy, was presented to Richard M. Burke, president and founder of the Arrowhead Pontiac, Inc. of Washington Avenue, Belleville, at a dinner at Gene Boyle's in Clifton Friday night by C. G. Miller, manager of the Pontiac New York Zone, along with a citation to the effect that the local dealer had been named to the "Better Dealer" hall of fame. Arrowhead Pontiac, Inc., distributor of the Pontiac cars for the Nutley-Belle-North-Norfolk area, was cited for improvements, community service and individual accomplishments of Mr. Burke.

Mr. Burke was thanked by Mr. Miller for his expansion to meet the needs of the community. Mayor James J. Tully and a group of General Motors executives attended the dinner.

Explains Program

"Pontiac's Better Dealer program," Mr. Miller explained, "has been in effect for two years, with an aim to make Pontiac dealers pre-eminent in the automotive field. It is not enough that those admitted to the select group be as good as the competition, they must be better. They must be better than they were a year ago, a month ago, or last week. They must be capable of continuing healthy growth in order to learn and then keep the symbolic portrait given for as long as the high standards are met."

"Under the Better Dealer program, each Pontiac Dealer is graded on improvement of his physical property; number of qualified, trained workmen; service facilities and equipment; parts and accessories; inventory; car operations and advertising; and public relations. Service to the community is highly important."

"Our dealers and their employees are the Pontiac Division's only contact with the general public. The goodwill enjoyed by us today, and that which we will have tomorrow, depends on these contacts of Better Dealers," Mr. Miller declared.

Fine Facilities

Arrowhead Pontiac's facilities are considered among the finest and most modern in the state. The building measures 15,000 square feet, with 15,000 square feet of used car lot at the same location. The showroom has three-sided plate glass "jewel box" construction and measures 1,800 square feet. The service department is completely equipped with latest mechanical aids and measures 10,000 square feet. There are 20,000 square feet of customer parking area. The Parts department occupies 2,140 square feet and maintains an inventory considered to be adequate to serve the community's needs. The entire operation is well signed and lighted in an attractive manner.

Life at BHS As We See It

Peggy Kelly and Evelyn Hannon

Things are buzzing round BHS. The Bee-Live has started again! Since Friday nights are free once more, the Bee-Live is back in full swing, and we do mean swing. Our first one for 1953 turned out to be the usual success. Everyone had an enjoyable time dancing to the strains of music sent forth by Tommy Dorsey, Ralph Flanagan, Leo Brown, and numerous others. But don't get excited, kids, it wasn't a personal appearance tour—just the usual platters!

Loyal BHS fans had to leave Seton Hall's auditorium twice this year with signs of tears in their eyes. The faithful students who had backed our swell Varsity Team previously this season, at the South-Orange gymnasium, once more put their efforts behind a spirited J. V. Team. Well, we all know that this just won't do our year, for the boys fell to defeat at the hands of West Side High School's Junior Varsity Team. Never mind, fellows, it was a good game and we still love you anyway!

Once the Konomes—now the Champs. Those smiling girls who walked into the second assembly last Friday looking so jubilant were members of the championship team of the Junior-Senior League. The "Gents" took their places on the court at about 8:30 that morning to defend the title, which they had won last year from the Hot Shots, champions of the Freshman-Sophomore League last year.

A series of foul shots gave the Champs an early lead which they strengthened by half time to a 8-0 advantage. However, a spirited Hot Shot team had almost put themselves back in the ball game in the second half with their "never say die" attitude when some "louse" who plays for the Konomes jank up two cows to put the clinchers on the tussle.

Co-captain Evelyn Hannon and Arlene Whitchell, Peggy Kelly, Rose Schreiner, Lil Guttler, Evelyn Niederer, Neate Garland, Joan Cavanaugh, Maria Santiago, and Barbara Ochse made up the Champs, while co-captains Elaine Hannon and Camille Perrelli, and Elaine Wische, Pat Bollman, Dol Bihon, Lois Blomcke, Jackie Naurale, Grace Canale, Ellen Ryan, and Margaret Ruiz filled the roster for a swell Hot Shot team.

"I'm sorry, Pat," Dejection and jubilation left the floor of the girls gym Friday morning after finding it out for the championship of the Freshman-Sophomore League. Of course, the defeat of which we speak is the team more commonly known as the Cascades and jubilation, without further adieu, we introduce as that well-known ball club, the Alberts. Both teams put their all into the match but when the final gun had sounded the Alberts, a more powerful defensive club, had won out with a 12-6 score. Once again foul shots made up most of the scoring and a big difference in the outcome of the game.

Each of these aspiring title holders brought along a mascot. The Cascades carried a lion in a little green and white sweater and skirt; on the sweater was a large "C" standing for the name of their team. The "airy" Alberts carried a large red balloon inflated to capacity with their name and predictions of the final outcome of the game printed all over it.

The doll was dragged away by Lois Zadicoff and Gloria Barnett, co-captains of the team, and Tanya Greulich, Peggy Burke, Kay Carrol, Barbara Russ, Jane Schwartz, Joan Pastelthwaite, Dolores Pomeroy, Angie Santoro, and Paula M. Avanzo, members of the club. Judy Abramson, Angie Pastoro, Maureen Savre, Dot Zborovsk, Carol Travers, Pat Scott, Jane Encke, Bev Campbell, and co-captains Leona Salandra and Grace Abbott skipped with their balloons and a new title.

Thanks go out from the girls of Belleville High to the gym teachers, Miss Thomson and Miss Pettilo, whose work and assistance makes this fine girls' program possible and encourages an excellent participation in the after school sports programs.

A treat was in store for us Friday as we walked into assembly. On hand was the Montclair State Teachers' College Band with some really tremendous hand music. This band concert offered the students some slightly different and they seemed to enjoy it. The trombone section was the outstanding part of the band. Even with Mr. Matlack filling in, the section still seemed a little unbalanced.

Among the various selections which the group played for us were a "Band Symphony" and "Collection of Irish Songs." The student participation on the latter song was great—sounds like you fellows have been practicing! — "The Loo!" as it is commonly known, was a song which you fellows' grid stars. Certificates were given to J. V. and Varsity football players while several received their letters and sweaters and the seniors were awarded their gold awards, "silver belt buckles". Next came a few words from Coach Ed Berlinski and the co-captains of this year's squad. Then "popular-demand-Apicelli" and our future "ship-mate-Dunleavy" imparted to the students their words of wisdom. Finally to round things up, Mr. "B" introduced the co-captains for next year's squad, Eddie Gray and Rocco Cafone. We never knew Belleville High had such "silver-tongued orators!"

ANDRE CLAVIER BECOMES FELLOW OF INSTITUTE

Rewarded By American Group For Experiments In Microwave Communication In France

André G. Clavier, technical director of the Commercial Research and Development Division of Federal Telecommunication Laboratories has become a Fellow of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers "for pioneer work in research, development and engineering in communication in the microwave field."

Mr. Clavier was in charge of the experiments in Europe which, in 1950, demonstrated the possibilities of microwave communication between Calais, France, and Dover, England, and of the design of the first microwave link ever opened to traffic between the coastal airfields of Lympre, England, and Saint Angilevert, France, in 1954.

He recently received the grade of "Membre Laureat de la Société Française des Electriciens," a higher grade of membership instituted by the French Society of Electrical Engineers. He is also a member of the Institution of

Paul J. Brienza

Harry A. Trotter, president of the Clara Mass Memorial Hospital, announced yesterday the appointment of Paul J. Brienza, as director of public relations for the hospital.

Brienza will assume the job on Monday, at which time he will officially resign his present position as personal secretary to Mayor Ralph A. Villani, of Newark. The Mayor announced he would accept Brienza's resignation with regret.

Brienza is secretary of the board of trustees of Columbus Hospital, a member of the board of trustees of the Newark Junior Chamber of Commerce, a director of the Boys Club of Newark. He is married to the former Jeanne Stuart Geddes. They have two children, James eight, and Paul, seven.

— 247th Consecutive Dividend —
ANOTHER MILLION DOLLAR DIVIDEND
JUST PAID TO HOWARD DEPOSITORS
... are you sharing in these dividends?

On March 1, Howard depositors profited by another quarterly dividend of over $1,000,000. This 247th consecutive dividend was the largest quarterly dividend in the 50 year history of the Howard, and was larger than that paid by any other bank in New Jersey on savings accounts.

Today more than a quarter of a million people save at the Howard. Thousands of others live in homes purchased with the help of Howard mortgage loans. An increasing number of people, too, are finding that the Trust Department of New Jersey's largest savings bank can provide them with the answers to many of their personal financial problems.

Share in the regular dividends paid by The Howard Savings Institution by opening a Howard savings account at the office near you. Share in helpful Howard services, services designed with your convenience in mind.

Country Stars

There is a country kind of stars
Found only where the night is still,
Where darkness walks in old soft shoes
Through farmyards, over creek and hill.

There are the friendly stars that ride
In lanterns swung from hands of men,
That silently keep company
From house to barn and back again.

They are the special elfin stars
Which have been cut to meet the size
Of children's rapture, and are set
Within the tails of fireflies.

They are the shy wild stars that catch
In a deer's gaze, when curious
He pauses at the pasture edge
To look across the fence at us.

Making A Case For Case

The testimony of Attorney General Parsons, before a joint legislative investigating committee in Trenton, relating the claims of slain racketeer Willie Moretti that $10,000 a month of his payoff money went to Governor Driscoll's office, is late, it is timed for vicious political purposes and it probably is as dishonest as was Moretti's profession.

The timing is doubly bad because within less than a week, the lines should be drawn for the April 21 Primary election. The Republican party, if it hopes to hold on to the Governorship, should be agreed by next Thursday on its preferred candidate. That there is no such agreement is largely Governor Driscoll's fault. In the first place he could make up his mind whether he wanted to run again or not. Then he could not make up his mind whether he wanted one man or another as his successor.

This is no time for the whirling blades of a windmill. There are three men who have any chance at all for nomination — Case, Troast and Forbes. Troast is known for the Turnpike. Case has been an able legislator in Trenton and in Washington. He has proven himself a vote-getter. In a brief intimate visit to Town Tuesday night, Congressman Case, in an interview with The Times-News, took a clear position on issues which we consider real. He stands opposed to both a state sales tax and a state income tax. He is convinced, like Eisenhower, that there is enough dead and rotten wood that can be cut away in our state administration that we can run a better government on less money.

Congressman Case agrees with our position; we agree with his. The Times-News which was first favorable to Rev. Lester Cleve, who decided not to run, now considers Congressman Case a very excellent candidate.

Death, The Common Leveller

Like it must, to all men, Death beckons to Yoel Visserionovich. What does it matter that Visserionovich hides himself behind the forged name of Stalin, "Steel." Death is the common leveller. Even the most powerful tyrant of all time is powerless at that hour when Death strikes at his door. Stalin, like the millions he has sent to their deaths before his squads of gunmen or to their slower, more punishing demises in the snows of Siberia, like Trotsky whose skull was crushed by the long arm of Stalin in Trotsky's Mexican hideaway, like the thousands of Americans who shed their last blood among the hills of Korea, can only die as men have died forever.

Ours is more an interest in Stalin's succession than in the morbid details of his passing. To us, Stalin is no hero. To his own people, the Kremlin pictures him as a Soviet Dictator. To the world, Stalin is the tyrant from whose hands drip the blood of more humans murdered, enslaved, than any other tyrant in the long history of cruelties to mankind.

As befits a tyrant, Stalin will attempt to rule and to ruin the world from his grave. His ambitions carry him beyond the endurance of the human heart. In his "political testament," he can be expected to appoint his successor and such is the power, now, of the Kremlin that Russia meekly will accept his dictates.

And what of his successor? Be he Malenkov, as now appears most likely, or Beria or Molotov, the hand of Stalin will grip, for a long time to come, the levers of command of world revolution. The succession may be easy, or it may be dripping in blood; it will be long. When Lenin died, the struggle between Trotsky, Lenin's designated heir, and Stalin was brutal, years-long and bloody. In the end, Stalin conquered only when Trotsky died murdered.

Malenkov, the likely heir apparent, is in the best position of the three to take over. Like Stalin, he is the titular head of the Communist party machine which has its tentacles buried deep in the grass roots. He has his own men in every village, in every farm collective and, as political commissars, with every platoon in the army. From our standpoint, Malenkov is the least prepared to step upon the world scene. He has travelled outside of Russia only once, to Warsaw on a state occasion. He never has been west of Warsaw very far to the East of the Urals. He knows nothing of the outside world except what Stalin has told him, in his coaching. He is a blind product of a blind political system. We can expect him to look upon America and Americans as Vishinsky so often portrays us in his most stupid vilifications at the UN.

Molotov, whose name of "Hammer" is also a forgery, is, like Beria, an "old Communist," a holdover from the days when Communists were Mensheviks (Russian for "minority") and when Communism was Bolshevism. Molotov is the best prepared for leadership, but Molotov fell out of Stalin's graces three years ago and never wormed his way back in. He has no power at all. He holds no lever of command over the party machine, the army, the police. He has no one behind him except a few old Bolshevik friends.

Beria is the butcher. He is Red Russia's chief of police and, as you can imagine, he is to Moscow what Himmler was to Hitler — the head of the secret police, the master of the slave labor camps, the deacon of deportation. He is the commander whose men call, before dawn, and carry off the millions who work the uranium and the salt mines of Siberia. His name is anathema; he is universally hated. But he is powerful.

The Kremlin propaganda bureau would have us believe that the Politburo is a monolithic bloc of granite, a coalition of men without envy, without personal ambitions, without rivalry. To me, the Politburo is a gang of rivals. The three potential little Stalins are all members of the Politburo. It is my belief that Beria would slit the throats of Malenkov or Molotov for a dime.

And I hope he does! R.E.H.

One Man's Opinion

French Communists Cry "Wolf" at Same Time That Stalin Seeks to Destroy NATO by Winning Over France

BY RALPH E. HEINZEN

Last weekend the French Communist party held its national congress in Paris and the cabled dispatches wrote it off with a few sentences. One of those sentences, however, was prophetic to me: Jacques Duclos, the ex-pastor cook who has risen to the top rank among French "reds" admitted in the closing session of the party congress that the Communists are losing their grip over the French working classes. He complained that in national and local elections during the past year, the rank and file of the workers did not follow the party dictates and sought refuge in abstentionism.

If Duclos is right, if the French working class is cutting the Communist candidates, the news must be startling to Stalin. Long ago the Master of the Kremlin made up his mind that he could not break up NATO by using French workers to destroy it. He took that decision after he tried to win Italy and failed — largely because of a letter-writing campaign from Italians in this country to friends and relatives at home, a campaign organized by our Congressman, Rep. Peter W. Rodino.

It is a matter of record which those in this country who hate General Franco are too prone to ignore or to forget, that Stalin tried first of all to capture Spain through the Spanish working masses. Franco beat Stalin with his arms in his hands, giving the Communist International Brigades the beating of Stalin's life, first on the battlefields of the university city outside of Madrid and then on the long retreat through Catalonia to the French frontier at Figueras and Intermont.

The French had an interest in the Black Sea oil resources of Baku and Batumi, as well as in Russian money. The Black Sea, however, was ordered the French fleet to defend the Black Sea to defend the Black Sea. The Bolsheviks grabbed Odessa, Clemenceau ordered the French fleet to shell the Russian port and drive them back — away from the oil.

Makings of Red Hero
Marty was a chief petty officer in the French navy. When the order came down to turn the French guns on Odessa, he refused. He led the revolt on his own ship, refusing to fire "on our Russian brother."

Then he turned once again to France and Stalin's master plan is to purge the Communist party of its older leaders and by injecting new blood, waving the tricolor and making a pretense at French unity to create enough anti-American sentiment among the French to wreck NATO.

In the French Communist purge Duclos rose to undisputed leadership. The leader in name is Maurice Thorez, a one-time coal miner, but Thorez is the only leader who years ago he was removed to Moscow "for medical treatment" and he has never returned.

Duclos had only one real rival for French leadership, Andre Marty and Stalin purged Marty although the latter was, at one time, a greater figure in world revolution than was Stalin. That was his in the early days of the Russian revolution. In 1917, when Lenin and Trotsky were the heroes and Stalin was merely a Georgian bank-rover who had ambitions.

In my years in France, I knew Marty and talked with him often. I always came away with the sad impression that the man was far too small for his shoes. He never was a great leader; nor for that tional Brigade. It was Marty that France whipped in battle and routed in a wild retreat.

Some of those Communist leaders played much of a role in the Communists share of the French underground during the German occupation. There was in Moscow, having desert from the French army, by walking across the lines at night to surrender to the Germans, who were then good friends of the Communists, and who delivered him safely to the Soviet frontier. Marty was in hiding; Marty never left Paris where he was held up.

The top Communist in the "Resistance," commander of "Les Francs-Tireurs et Partisans" was Charles Tillon, a companion of Marty's in the Black Sea revolt, a cross-eyed trade-unionist who turned out to be a real tough militant in the underground. He openly criticized the Russo-German pact which Ribbentrop and Molotov signed in Moscow, August 29, 1939, in behalf of Hitler and Stalin. He did not hesitate to call Marty a deserter after he snuck across the lines into the German camp. Tillon was Number 2 on Stalin's purge list.

Barely ten days before I was arrested in Vienna by Pierre Laval, in November, 1942, and handed over to Hitler as a hostage to spend a year and a half in a Gestapo "diplomatic" internment camp in the Black Forest. I was long before the Second Front was more than a gleam in Churchill's eye. I had spent some days with the budding French underground.

Everything But Communists
I was taken secretly to a resistance camp near Lyons and watched the arrival, by parachute from British planes at dark of night, of the first arms and explosives which the French underground received. That was in the early months of the resistance movement. I saw priests, army officers, boys from the compulsory youth camps, girls whose pure patriotism gave courage to the men and deserters from the French militia — but in that phase of the underground, I saw no Communists.

Too often, since, have I heard stories of French Communist courage in the underground. The French Communists were "Johnnie-come-lately," they were not the early heroes. Tillon was one of the exceptions. His men were dynamiters, saboteurs, snipers and raiders. They were real fighters.

Behind Stalin's Strategy
It is interesting, therefore, to read in the Paris "Humanite," the Communist daily, that Marty and Tillon were "Trotskyists, Trotskyists, Trotskyists," and for what it may mean, "leftists gesticulators." And all the time I thought they were Communists!

The reason why Stalin has picked on France to destroy the keystone of NATO is clear. France is down on paper as furnishing the most divisions to the European anti-Communist defense army at NATO's command. France has freely consented to the construction of American army depots, air bases and ports on French soil. France is to be our springboard if and when we ever have to fight the Russians in Europe.

As is traditional with the French Parliament, there is a wide division of opinion in the Chamber over the merits and demerits of NATO. General Charles DeGaulle, who is far enough to the right with dictatorial ideas to have earned the frequent Communist accusation of "Fascist," is opposed to NATO.

Two Friends Desert Us

So are those two great old Socialist-Socialists, Edouard — Herriot and Edouard Daladier, both former Premiers and former Foreign Ministers. They were both among my closest friends in my 25 years as a foreign correspondent in Paris. In fact, Herriot was on my payroll as a political columnist for United Press which sold his articles to La Presse, the great daily in Buenos Aires which Herriot forced to shut down.

I cannot conceive of either Herriot or Daladier being anti-American for I traveled to this country with Herriot, when he called on FDR shortly after his first inauguration, and I know him to be an honest admirer of everything American. I traveled with Daladier all over French North Africa, just before the war, when he was inspecting the Mareth Line in Tunisia and other French fortifications.

Stalin's Two Sticks

Yet both Daladier and Herriot are opposed to NATO, or rather they oppose France making the major military contribution to the defense of Europe while Germany is allowed to rise again as an armed producer, provided by us with an arsenal. They fear NATO more than they trust NATO.

It is strange, therefore, to read in Humanite that DeGaulle is not such a bad old fellow as he stands up to America and refuses to cooperate. For their opposition to the European army and the re-arming of Germany, Daladier and Herriot are given Stalin's accolade by Humanite.

But of such is Stalin's strategy in France today. A licorice stick for everyone and everything that is anti-NATO and anti-American, but a big stick for everyone within the Communist party who is not a Stalinist before he is a Communist. As for Stalin — I am convinced — France is no longer influenced by sticks, licorice or big. France has grown up, hardened to the realities of life in the crucible of two big world wars.

HEAR TALK ON SALESMANSHIP

Hahne Representative Visits High School; Describes The Sales Training Program There

On Thursday, January 29, the students in the salesmanship classes were fortunate to hear an informative discussion by Miss Joan Schiller, assistant to the director of Hahne & Company's training department.

Miss Schiller described the way in which her store trains its sales staff. Among the qualifications that are instilled in the prospective salespeople are a genuine interest in the customer enthusiasm and courtesy. She also outlined the steps in the actual selling process, such as the approach, determining the customer's need, meeting objections, companion selling, and an effective closing.

It was evident to the classes that information studied by them was actually being put to use by the better stores.

2ND- TALENT SHOW AT HIGH SCHOOL

Vocal Renditions, Dances, Accordion Solos, And The Valente Combo Are Featured

Another outstanding production of student talent was displayed on the Belleville High School stage twice last week for the students and faculty.

Robert Doyle was master of ceremonies; Rosalind Rappaport opened the show by singing, "Why Don't You Believe Me," followed by Connie Manno and Marilyn Teuscher doing a dance number to the tune, "Tea For Two."

Beverly Spotts sang, "With A Song in My Heart" and Nick Terrell thrilled the audience with two numbers on the accordion: "El Carlo" and "Lady of Spain."

Toni Colon did a shumba dance, "Oye Negra," and then the Valente Combotook over the controls, starring Frank Petruci. They played: "Memories of You," "Lady Be Good," "Blue Moon" and "September in the Rain."

CANCER CRUSADE SETS $7,500 GOAL FOR DRIVE HERE

Metzger Says Fund Has Spent $24,000,000 on Research Alone; Many Lives Being Saved

The 1953 Cancer Crusade in April will have as its objective the raising of $7,500 in Belleville to finance expanded programs of local service and education, and research on a nation-wide level. In announcing the goal, Reinhardt V. Metzger, county campaign chairman, said that the state is $186,500, and the national goal is $18,000,000.

"If we are able to carry on the service and research programs it is necessary that Nutley's total be raised," he said. "More than $24,000,000 in contributed funds have been spent on research alone since the American Cancer Society started its program eight years ago."

Discussing the work of the scientists, Stoddard said that thousands of lives are being saved through recent discoveries which allow new types of surgery and new ways of delivering heavy doses of x-rays and radium.

"Down through the centuries we have learned that if a disease is to be controlled, the cause must be found," the Nutley chairman continued. "Scientists, working under grants of the American Cancer Society, are finding new ways every day, and there is little doubt in my mind but that eventually these men and women will be able to bring Cancer to a status where the cure will be a medical problem."

UP GOES THE POWER OF EVERY BUICK.

World's newest V8

Telephoning Buick—The Buick Circus House—every fourth Thursday

Special Super and Roadmaster!

It's more than pride that makes a man want a lot of horsepower beneath the hood of the car he owns.

For the real point in reaching record horsepowers and compression ratios goes beyond miles per hour. It steps up performance and economy in normal driving.

That's what Buick engineers did when they upped the power and compression of each 1953 Buick—SPECIAL, SUPER and ROADMASTER—to the highest figures in Buick's fifty-year history.

In the SUPER and ROADMASTER, they put a new kind of V8 Engine—first passenger-car V8 with 8.5 to 1 compression, and a long list of other major engineering advances.

For the SPECIAL, they redesigned the famed R-263 Fireball 8 Engine—gave it shorter flame travel, faster firing, higher horsepower and compression.

And to these spirited engines they coupled the new Twin-Turbine Dynaflo Drive* that adds flash-fast, quiet getaway to utter smoothness.

Just to give you an example of what all this means: The 1953 Buick SPECIAL with Dynaflo can beat the mighty 1952 ROADMASTER on getaway—can reach 30 mph (when the law allows)—with a combined speed and jerk-free smoothness no other car can equal.

Of course, there's far more to these new Buicks for 1953—some seven dozen new features alone.

But why not come in and see for yourself that these are the greatest Buicks—and the greatest values—in fifty great years.

Students Present Weekend Recreation Plan To P.T.A.

Would Open Greylock School to Youth For Weekend Recreational Programs Designed to Eliminate Threat of Juvenile Delinquency

A proposal to establish week-end recreational facilities for 7th and 8th grade pupils was advanced before Greylock P.T.A. by the student recreation commission at a Founders Day celebration last week. The proposal, while warmly received, will be presented to the executive committee for further discussion. William Chapman, School Principal and P.T.A. vice president, pointed out the idea originated with the commission and "merits thought" by P.T.A.

In addressing the P.T.A., the student spokesman said the idea was being advanced to eliminate any threat of juvenile delinquency. Citing more liberal "stay-out-hours" for pupils, specifically on Fridays, the student council said residents of the school area are aware of complaints stemming from home owners because of noise from boys and girls gathering in front of drug stores and ice cream soda stores.

The student commission said the pupils "don't really get chased by police officers" acting on these complaints. And the police officers don't enjoy their jobs in this respect, either, the commission contended.

Under the plan outlined by Michael Burke, chairman of the student commission, the school would be opened on Fridays to house a Youth Council where dancing and other recreational programs

Once underway, according to the student commission, the youth council would take over instruction and supervision of lower grade students outside the school. The student commission said the week-end recreational problem was not confined to Greylock. The problem is one for the town, the commission said, and a successful program at Greylock could be developed in other areas.

When you're giving a Party...

YOU REACH FOR YOUR PHONE!

From childhood on, when there's anything important, you reach for your phone. And your telephone is always ready—on the job 24 hours a day. Even when you're not using it, isn't it worth a lot just having it there ready for emergencies? Or for folks to call you? You'll agree we think, that its value can't be measured in just dollars and cents.

Starting Them Young...

Special practice telephones loaned to schools by the Telephone Company are used in teaching youngsters how to use the telephone and, along with this, they learn how to look up a number and the importance of telephone courtesy.

So valuable... in so many ways...
yet costs so little
