Breathing Spell For Bellboy Team In '38 Point Romp

Hillside Comets Out Of Running Early In Game After Many Fumbles; Play Kearny Tomorrow

By Eugene Serpente

Proving little competition for the surging Bellboys, Hillside's Comets took it on the chin Saturday by a score of 26 to 0 at Woodfield Stadium, Hillside.

Through most of the first quarter, Belleville threatened many times but was continually set back by fumbles. But early in the second quarter, Belleville recovered a fumble on its own 40. A pass from Rocco Cafone to Larry D'Onofrio brought the ball to the 25 and after two more first downs Cafone ran around end for the touchdown. A few minutes later Belleville gained possession of the ball on the Hillside 15. After Joe Vigor ran around end for 15 yards, Bob Pagnelli plunged over for the touchdown to make the score 12 to 0 at halftime.

Midway in the third quarter, Belleville had the ball on the Hillside 45. After a series of rushes, Cafone, from his own 15, threw a short pass to Auten on the 8 and he ran it over for the score. Zalewski's placement for the extra point was good.

Late in the third quarter the Comets, with the ball on their own 25, moved over runs by "Doc" Martucci and Roger Keen down to the Belleville 20, only to be stopped when Don DeB's fumble was recovered by Bob Pagnelli on the 23.

In the final stanza, with the Belleville second and third teams operating, Harry has intercepted a Martucci lateral on his own 35 and raced 65 yards down the sideline to yardline. The extra point was made by Zalewski and the final score was 26 to 0.

Hillside's record now stands at one win and five defeats. Belleville shows an opposite record of five wins and one defeat.

It is hard to pick out a few words of praise for Bob Auten. Most fans like to watch a runner who breaks out for 50 or 60 yard runs. Very few pay close attention to the fullback who has to crash into the line for the first down. Anyone who knows anything about offensive football will tell you that first down attempts on late downs are primary in the strategy. Bob Auten, who has picked up these first downs for Belleville. The first touchdown last Saturday was set up only after Auten had plunged for two consecutive first downs. So the next time you see Belleville play, go ahead and watch your sensational long runs, but also watch number 18 crashing for the first downs.

Next week's game at Kearny seems to be the big stumbling block between a good season and the best season Belleville has ever had. The Cardinals have already given Belleville plenty of trouble and from all indications they will continue to do so Saturday. But if the Bellboys could win tomorrow it is this writer's opinion that they will beat Orange. If it's a prediction you're looking for, I'll string along with Belleville to take their sixth straight.

Commissioners To Hold Early Meeting, Tuesday

The Board of Commissioners will hold their first November meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock instead of the usual 8 o'clock, but it is unlikely that anything except routine business will be handled and the session will be brief. The time was advanced to convenience Commissioner Elmer S. Hyde, but the chances of any but routine matters being considered is remote, because Commissioner Patrick A. Waters will be unable to be present because of illness.

ARMISTICE DAY SERVICE TONIGHT

"The Sword Or The Book" To Be Topic Of Sermon At The Synagogue

"The Sword Or The Book" will be the topic of the sermon to be delivered by Dr. Albert L. Raab, rabbi of Congregation Ahavas Achim, at special Armistice Day Service at the Synagogue tonight. Services will begin at 8:30.

Ever since 1918, November 11th, has been a national holiday in American life. Unfortunately, it brought only an intermission in world hostilities and not a cessation of them; perhaps the vision of Israel will yet come true: "They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning-hooks."

Rabbi Raab will base his sermon on the conditions of the world and the ideals of our Bible. Dr. S. P. Fischer will chant the liturgical chants. The Synagogue choir, under the direction of Miss Doris Cohen, will participate in the service.

An "Oneg Shabbat" will follow the service in the vestry room of the Synagogue.

Community Chest Now At One-third Campaign Goal

Campaign Chairman Knuppel Asks Those Who Work Out Of Town To Contribute Here

Herman D. Knuppel, chairman of the 1954 Belleville community chest drive, announced today that 32% of the goal had been reached with approximately one-half of all chairmen not reported. Mr. Knuppel stated that it was important for all residents of Belleville to realize their contributions at work in other towns does not aid the agencies supported by the Belleville Community Chest. In other words, if you have not given a donation in Belleville, you, as a citizen, should realize that you are not contributing toward the local drive or helping to support the agencies. Further, if ever, citizens of Belleville need assistance from the agencies supported by the Belleville Community Chest, it is a nice feeling to know that you have given your money in your own town and are deserving of your local agencies help.

An exception to the rule of applying employee contribution to the town where employed, is practiced by the Western Electric, Westborough and the Elliott Company, who do send contributions to the town where the employee lives.

Mr. Knuppel asked that anyone wishing to contribute, had not been solicited, may send their contribution direct to headquarters, 338 Washington Avenue, Belleville. Mrs. Violet Reagen, chairman of the Residential Division, asked that all captains try to complete their drive and make returns as soon as possible so that the residential drive can be closed.

Two Boys, Bring In Dogs After Town's Fulle Quest

The dogs were abandoned by their owners, Rocco Sloan, of 49 Valley Street, when he departed for California. One of the animals, a white Spitz, inflicted a bite on a 15 year old boy, Kenneth Nakashima, 6, of 115 Washington Avenue, and since the incident the dog has been staying out of the City Pound's paws. The two owners came up with the hounded and were outed their $1.50 apiece by Berry who was glad to close the search. Both dogs will be observed for 15 days by the Pound.

Hodge, instructor, went by chartered bus to the Passaic Valley Water Commission at Little Falls, October 26, to take a tour of the water filter, purification plant in the entire world. Towns from all over the world have patterned their plants after it. One in Tokyo, Japan, is an exact duplicate.

Democrats Carry Town On Way To Statewide Victory

Gets Plurality In All Columns Excepting One Freeholder; 60% of Registered Voters Turn Out

Essex county, usually Republican with a comfortable majority, entered the Democratic column in Tuesday's election which brought a sweeping victory to Robert B. Meyner and unseated a 10 year Republican state ruler.

Belleville, normally Republican inclined, turned away from the GOP and joined Meyner's tally sheet, giving him a total of 50 votes to his opponent's, Paul Troast, 4339 votes. Along with Belleville went Irvington and West Orange, heretofore counted on also, for a solid Republican plurality.

Anton Goes To Trenton

In Essex, however, the Clean Government Republican forces brought in a State Senator, Mark S. Platts, and Fred H. Taylor, Charles A. Sandell, Anton's opponent, won with 4,748 tallies, receiving a plurality of 318.

Republicans re-elected to the Board of Freeholders were Director Jacob S. Glickenhauz, Frank S. Platts, and Fred H. Taylor. Again, in Belleville, two of their three opponents on the Democratic ticket, Sidney Stumand and Joseph V. Byrne, Jr., had the larger vote. The Democratic candidate for Sheriff, Francis A. Troy, took a plurality of 175 in Belleville but lost the county-wide vote to Neil G. Duffy.

SCOUTS TO TAKE PART IN PARADE ARMISTICE DAY

Two Color Guards And Two Color Bearers Per Troop Will March In The Parade

In response to an invitation from the Belleville Memorial and Armistice Day Committee, F. Douglas MacVicar, Scoutmaster, has notified all Scout Troops and Explorers units in Belleville that the Scouts will, as they have in the past, have two color guards and two color bearers per troop in the parade.

This token representation is in keeping with Boy Scout policy in that the Scouts is not a marching organization, but it is surely patriotic honoring our war dead by selected Scouts carrying unit and United States flags.

The Scouts in the parade will be representing Belleville's 872 Cubs, Scouts and Explorers and over 247 men and women who serve as volunteers.

The Cub Scouts will not be in the parade.

TRADITIONAL PATH WILL BE REOPENED

Strip Has Been Purchased By Town Commission; Center Of Neighborhood Dispute

The Belleville neighborhood dispute over closing of a traditional footpath which has been used by residents of Carner Avenue for years as a shortcut, appeared this week to be moving to a decision. The path will be reopened, it appeared, by the town commission, whose aid was denied by the Carner Avenue residents.

The shortcut path leads from Carner Avenue, across a Public Service right-of-way and through a 150-foot pass, 10 feet wide, which lies between houses at 229 Beech Street and 207 Broad Street. Residents at those addresses have been using the path for several months ago by placing a fence between their properties across the 10-foot strip, which was owned by a defunct housing corporation. The residents said pedestrians had become a nuisance.

But now, town commission has purchased the 150-foot strip for $180 from Witton Housing Corp. and gained title to the strip by agreement with Joseph Tumilieri, owner of the 50 x 100 lot at 61 Carner Avenue to purchase it for $1,800.

This would give the town title to all the path except where it crosses Public Service property and town officials are confident they will be able to obtain a lease for that portion, despite the fact that residents of Linden and Broad Streets currently hold leases on it.

Once title to all the land is obtained, the town plans to lay a hard surface path between the two neighborhoods. The path would be fenced where it runs between the homes in Broad and Linden Street to prevent any disturbances.

Makings Of Big Season

If all goes well over the week end, Belleville's game with Orange on Thanksgiving Day may be the biggest attraction of the holiday, promising to jam the Municipal stadium beyond its natural capacity. For Belleville with a five and one record goes to Kearny tomorrow with a better chance of coming out the victor, while it would not be too great an upset if Orange toppled the high riding East Orange panthers. If such is the case, the two Turkey Day rivals will enter the contest with almost even schedules, and a fair to middling chance of being among the contenders for the county as well as the state crown.

And this comes about the year when the Belleville coaching staff had little hope of coming any where near matching last year's great campaign. With only a handful of veterans on hand and very few who even saw game action last year, it was in the cards for the team to have a rough time. The early scrimmages bore out this prediction, and East Orange's first game victory gave further evidence.

But from the second game on Belleville has shown improvement each week, until now it definitely is among the four best teams in the section. If not the state.

There are many factors which have contributed to this success. One is that the players have responded to coaching. A second is that the squad thrives on hard work and takes daily scrimmages with relish, with each player begging for work. And then there is the matter of leadership and morale. Co-captains Rocky Cafone and Eddie Grey have proven themselves as great leaders, boys who can perform on a steady pace and who have consideration for every boy on the team. The morale is supplied by Larry D'Onofrio, who enlivens things on the field and in the locker room with his chatter and comic actions. Even if he didn't contribute greatly to the team's success as offensive and defensive halfback, his presence on the squad relieves tensions which are bound to mount when the jayvees who scrimmage does get tough every day, because the jayvees who scrimmage against the varsity, do as well defensively and offensively as any team the Bellboys meet from week to week. These same jayvees have also won five and lost one this season, their only loss a 20 to 0 one suffered at the hands of Nutley.

Besides the fine ball handling of Rocky Cafone, who for our money is one of the better quarterbacks in the state, Joe Mignone has come along handsomely and bids fair to become a grid-great. Bob Auten has developed well as fullback with some valuable help in the line backing department from Scarpelli, one of the holdover linemen who has shown tremendous improvement this season.

Belleville will go to Kearny tomorrow with a knowledge that the Cardinals are a 1 and 2 well coached club which can strike fast and hard in an effort to get the initial jump. But Belleville's record against mutual rivals gives the Bellboys a decided edge. Those mutual rivals so far have been Bloomfield and Hillside. Bloomfield beat Kearny and Hillside flouted Bloomfield but coach have named its score against Hillside on Saturday. Belleville was so far ahead in the third period against the Comets, that Coach Eddie Berlinski used second and third stringers most of the final two periods and gave his regulars a rest.

Crystal Gazing

It was a long time coming, but I finally did it! The crystal ball worked like a charm and with the aid of a new good luck penny, a perfect "battering average" was recorded.

The perfect afternoon of gazing 'em skyrocketed my season's grid average to a much more respectable .745, a jump of 49 points in one week. Excluding four ties, 41 out of 55 have been nailed correctly.

Now for the customary rundown of the top 10 schoolboy tussles in and around the Essex County area as I attempt to make another clean sweep . . .

Belleville to roll over Kearny. The Bellboys are riding high with a five-game winning string in tact. Kearny still hasn't shown the brand of ball it is capable of playing.

Clifton to turn back Nutley. Clifton, with only three games left is unbeaten, but once tied. The Mustangs had a close call just edging Passaic, 21-20 earlier in the season. Nutley playing against the same Indians won, 20-0. A look at those comparative scores makes one wonder about the outcome of Saturday's game. Reports heard by this writer are that Passaic Valley Conference football is way below par and that the unbeaten Mustangs are supposedly in a rebuilding stage. For fans present at Park Oval, just how well Nutley players will perform will depend on how much mileage Jack Lewis will get from his battered squad as the casualty list mounted in the 39-6 lacing handed down by East Orange. Coach Joe Grecco would like to keep his stars under wraps for most of the game as he looks forward to a tussle with Montclair next week. He may be able to get away with it.

Barfing to defeat East Side. East Side is the last remaining obstacle in Barringer's path as they nail down the City League crown. The Big Blue all the way.

Bloomfield to trim Irvington. I look for Bloomfield to right itself after being defeated by West Orange. The Camp-towners are still winless, but are capable of giving the Bengals a good run for their money.

Orange to upset East Orange. This is the one where most of the "experts" will disagree with me. I'm sticking my neck out and taking a flyer and climbing aboard the Tornado bandwagon as the two rivals meet in the game of the day. East Orange is undefeated and Orange has lost only one opening game decision to Montclair. The Panthers are a well knit group, sparked by Junie Walker and Don Munford. It is a squad that knows how to capitalize on breaks provided by the opposition's misuses. However, I don't look for Orange to make many mistakes. With Stan Slater and Mike Paschelli, two of the top tacklers in the county, the Panthers will come up against the best forward wall they've seen all season. It will be a real old-fashioned, knock-down, drag-out brawl with East Orange losing out in the race for Group 4 honors.

Verona to edge Clifford Scott. These two teams, usually the best in small school circles, can usually be counted on to put on a good show. Verona has an 11-game winning streak going. The Scotties are tough, but I give the nod to Verona by a nose.

West Side to lace Weequahic. The Indians haven't been able to get moving. West Side to win its second City League fray.

Montclair to rout West Orange. The Mounties served notice that another skin is in the making when Columbia was trounced, 40-0.

The Bellboys' Signal Caller Rips Off A Gain

Rocky Cafone eludes two would be tacklers in the second quarter as he skirts his end for a 10 yard gain. Rocky was instrumental in Belleville's first scores before the secondary squads were rocked.

BASKETBALL WILL OPEN FOR GIRLS

Woman From Panzer College Will Give Instruction With Organized Team Play

The Recreation Department Girl's Basketball will commence at the Belleville High School on Thursday, November 12th at 7:30 p.m. Any girl in Belleville from 12 to 17 years of age is invited to attend. Bob Cook, Supt. of Recreation has acquired the services of Miss Lillian Benmore of Panzer College, who will be in charge of this program. Spectators will not be permitted and the games will be played by girl's rules. Teams will be organized from those who come out.

Christmas Lighting Will Be Judged By Rec. Dept.

Each time at Christmas time, many of the residents of Belleville have been in the habit of decorating their porches and yards with beautiful lights and Christmas displays. Because this adds so much to the Christmas spirit, the Recreation Department, this year, is going to run a contest among those who so decorate their homes. All one needs to do to enter the contest is to notify the Recreation Department by mail or phone of his intentions to compete. As the entries come in their names and address will be published so that other townfolk may know where the decorations are and that they may drive around to see them.

Andy Lugano Rolls 240 For Church League High

Andy Lugano featured this week's bowling in the Fawcett Men's Club Bowling League as the Farmers swept their series with the Aces aided by Andy's season high and League high of 240. This eclipsed the old mark of 237.

The hottest team in the league at the moment is the Spoilers who swept their series with the Cubs and have now won 9 in a row to climb within 3 games of the leaders.

In other games the Busters took 2 of 3 from the Hilltoppers and the Muffies took the odd game from the Old Timers.

FORD IS AMERICA'S LOWEST-PRICED V-8. In fact, it's priced hundreds of dollars under most sixes, too. Yet it's the same type of engine America's costliest cars offer.

FORD'S BUILT OVER 13 MILLION V-8'S. Four out of every five V-8's are Ford V-8's. No other maker has had so much experience building so many V-8's.

ONLY FORD'S V-8 HAS THE GAS SAVINGS OF THE AUTOMATIC POWER PILOT. In fact, both Ford's V-8 and Six have the Automatic

Postmortem On A Poll

The election of Robert Meyner to the seat of Governor was a true expression of the thought of the people of New Jersey.

A tormented electorate, torn between normal party loyalty and a sense of decency rendered highly indignant by the disclosures of Bergen County gambling, graft and corruption, too long unpunished by the Republican administration in authority, chose to clean house in the Governor's office.

The defeat of Paul Troast was only in part a personal defeat. His letter to Governor Dewey, in behalf of extortionist Joey Fay, hurt. But the swing of many thousands of Republicans to Meyner, and the silent absence from the polls of many thousands of others was a slap, not at Troast, but at Governor Driscoll and at those nearest to him who tolerated conditions in Bergen County after their existence was pointed out in the Kefauver investigation.

With a Republican-dominated Senate and Assembly in Trenton, Meyner will have to walk on eggs. His chances of enacting his campaign promises are slim, unless he can find a working agreement with the Republicans. He will have the power, however, to appoint the defenders of the law in the offices, on a county level, of the prosecutors.

If Meyner wants us to believe in his integrity, he will turn immediately to the messes in Bergen County and in Mayor John Kenny's waterfront fief in Hudson County. Regardless of party obligations, the Kenny affair stinks as high as does the unfinished business in Bergen. An honest governor will act with equal promptitude in the two centers of political pestilence.

On a county level, Clean Government holds every office in Essex County. Rather than see Bill Egan distribute patronage, we consider the GOP victory in the county to be a very healthy alternative.

If a lesson can be drawn from this election, it is, in The Times-News's opinion, the conclusion that the GOP needs a shot of new blood and a super-dose of liberalism. It is our belief that Congressman Clifford Case could have beaten Meyner in a landslide. He could, too, and undoubtedly would have, campaigned to keep the 6th District seat in Congress in Republican hands.

Case wanted to run for Governor. He came to Belleville and consented to a frank discussion of policy with The Times-News. We gave him our full Primary endorsement. Alas, before the voters could go to the polls in the Primary election, the state machine let Case know in no uncertain terms that it would not underwrite his campaign. Being a man of too few means to pay his own way, Case withdrew, resigned from Congress and accepted an excellent and more remunerative job as head of the Ford Foundation.

The Times-News would like to see Case run against Meyner three years from now. As of this moment, Case is our choice. Alas, the people's choice must also be the bosses' choice and there are too many bosses in Atlantic County and South Jersey whose ignorance of affairs political is colossal. They threw out Case; they lost the Governor's chair.

Bingo In Its True Perspective

The voters of New Jersey, as did Belleville voters, gave a substantial majority to the Raffles Amendment which will restore "bingo" to the churches, schools, service clubs and volunteer public safety groups who make use of that pleasant and painless process to help balance their budget of good works.

The return of "bingo" here will depend upon another vote in a referendum sometime next year. Tuesday's plebiscite, however, left no doubt that the issue was brought into its true perspective. How could a state which receives, and gladly accepts, annually about $21,000,000 in its "take" from the pari-mutuel as horse tracks object to any game of chance in which the players know that their losses go to charity or schools? One Man's Opinion

The General Whom Hitler Promoted To Field Marshal On The Day Of The Nazis' Greatest Defeat Of War Is Home As 'Red' Puppet

BY RALPH E. HEINZEN

There was a name to reckon with in the news despatches out of Berlin this week — that of German Field Marshal General Friedrich von Paulus, the remnants of whose 365,000-man Sixth Army surrendered at Stalingrad ten years ago.

The Berlin despatches reported only that Von Paulus had "decided to live in East Germany." Since Von Paulus is a prisoner of the Russians, along with 24 of his staff of generals, it is obvious that he had little to say about where he will live. His whereabouts always have been shrouded with a red fog mystery. If, as the East German radio reported, he actually has come home from ten years of captivity in Russia, then there must be a reason for his return. Only the Russians would decide where Von Paulus will live. The chances are that the Kremlin figures it can use Von Paulus in its East German "People's Republic" regime as an antidote to the successful government of Chancellor Adenauer in the west.

As United Press war correspondent accredited to the French Armies in 1939 and 1940, I knew Von Paulus as the very able tank strategist and chief of staff of Marshal Von Rundstedt in the break through which he tipped France in 21 days of fighting. I considered Patton superior, however, to Von Paulus as a master of armor.

As a prisoner of Hitler in a Gestapo-controlled detention camp in the Black Forest, in 1942-44, I watched the collapse of Germany which came swiftly after the brutal execution of the Sixth Army at Stalingrad when Von Paulus sought to enact Hitler's master plan. Stalingrad was the first German defeat. German never won another battle after Stalingrad. It was my happy privilege to be in Germany deep behind the German lines, during the tragic months of the winter of 1943-44 when Von Paulus lost the war for Hitler.

When Hitler Lost War

At the time, the importance of the battle of Stalingrad escaped world attention, but we know now that it was the real decisive turning point of World War II.

The German army had smashed through the Ukraine and continued eastward, stretching dangerously thin its lines of communication across Bessarabia and the Crimea, beyond the Dnieper and the Dnepr rivers to Rostov. Here Hitler's strategy bogged down. He could not make up his mind whether to continue the pursuit of the retreating Russian armies and destroy them or to turn southeast, cross the Caucasus and seize the oil fields of Russia's Baku and Bataum oil fields at the eastern end of the Black Sea.

Chance To Seize Oil

Hitler, who already held the oil fields of Ploesti in Rumania, and the Galician oil fields in Poland, could have cornered the oil in Europe if he had seized the Baku and Bataum oil fields. Russia was wholly dependent upon those wells, except for the oil which the Communists received from us, hauled by water to the Red Sea and then by rail across Iran. The whole of Russia's motor transport tanks as well as trucks, would come to a grinding halt within six weeks if the German seizure of the Russian oilfields.

Until Stalingrad, Hitler's military genius never deserted him. He took chances which no other strategist would take and, until then, he had won every time. At was on February 2, 1943, and that very same day, Von Paulus surrendered—disobeying Hitler's final message to "destroy the Russian army." There were but 46,000 Germans left alive, out of 330,000, and they surrendered. The Russians took Moscow, 24 German generals, 2,500 other tanks and thousands of tanks and armored vehicles, artillery, machineguns — some of which have shown up in Korea.

Generals Turn Traitors

Von Paulus and the 24 German generals were taken to Moscow and shown off as prizes of war. A typical of that school of soldier-haughty, elegant and a model of mobbed rectitude, a human ramrod. His ability as a tactical commander was not in doubt. At his best in the Russian front, he was not. He, like Rommel, was not.

After the bomb plot against Hitler, on July 20, 1944, Von Paulus emerged as anti-Nazi, anti-Hitler. His name appeared as the top name on a manifesto published by the German High Command Committee for a Free Germany which was set up in Moscow by the Russians among the 24 German generals who had been captured with Von Paulus.

In their manifesto, they called upon the German people to assassinate Hitler and to surrender to the Russians. All the generals, ostensibly, converted to Communism. Hitler retaliated by arresting the wife and daughter of Von Paulus. A son, Ernst Alexander, was taken to the West German zone and is ardently anti-Communist.

Witness At Nuremberg

During the Nuremberg war crimes trials, the Russians produced Von Paulus as a witness for the prosecution against his former Nazi bosses. Hitler, too, was principally concerned with the preparations for his attack on the Soviet Union during the time that the two countries were, supposedly, guided by the treaty of friendship which Molotov and Ribbentrop signed in Stalin's presence, in the Kremlin, on August 29, 1939.

Under cross-examination by the defense, Von Paulus denied that he had betrayed Germany by surrendering to the Communists. He denied a charge of treason by having given counsel to the Russian general staff in the rest of the war against Germany.

In recent months, however, I heard many times that returning German prisoners of war had reported that Von Paulus had been a military instructor and lecturer at the Pruzne Military Academy, near Moscow, which is the Russian "West Point." He was even said to have been seen in the uniform of a Russian general.

When, several times, I checked in Washington, I was told that Von Paulus lived in a log cabin in Tomlinson, a suburb of Moscow, about 10 miles away from the Kremlin.

Used As Threat

There is, of course, only speculation as to what the Russians intend to do with him and with any of the other German generals who may have survived these ten years. It is not impossible, of course, that the Russians may be bluffing and may have tried to make the Germans believe that Von Paulus will be put in charge of an East German army if we proceed with our plan to mobilize an army in West Germany to form part of the "NATO" anti-Communist front.

There is another report, which comes to us from Berlin, that Von Paulus may succeed another German general, Vinzenz Mueller, as commander of the "people's police forces" in East Germany. Mueller, formerly a commandant of Hitler's 8th Army, was captured by the Russians even before Stalingrad fell and rallied to Communism. He has been playing a political role in Germany since 1943 but is reported to be seriously ill.

We learned about that when he failed to show up at a recent National Democratic party convention in East Germany. The German Communist press attributed his absence from the convention to poor health and announced that he had been named, at the same time, as deputy chairman of the party. It sounds suspiciously like Mueller was purged.

Dark Days In Germany Having been inside of Germany when Stalingrad fell, I recall perfectly the terrible shock to the German people. They had been led to believe that the German people were winning the battle of Stalingrad. In fact Joe Goebbels, in the Nazi-controlled press twice announced complete victory. When the collapse came, the German people were stunned. They had believed what they had read. Hitler had never lost a battle so they never expected defeat.

When Stalingrad opened the way for a new Russian advance westward from the Volga, with Germany as the target, the German people grew extremely fearful and bitterly angry. There were two names cursed under the breaths of the German people. One was Goebbels, the other was Von Paulus.

The Russians may not know that, but it would appear to this American observer that the last man to be given command of the German army was Von Paulus. The masses of German people hate his memory. None would rise and follow him. In ten years, war has changed so much that he is no longer a great soldier. In his first act after returning to East Germany, Von Paulus dropped the "von" from his name, thus proving that he is a man of the people by abandoning the prefix which signifies aristocracy in Germany. His second act was to publish an appeal for German friendship with Red Russia.

In his statement he said that, from his experiences in two world

In Keeping A Calm Neutrality?

To The Editor, The Times-News:

Your account of the Israeli situation, appearing in "One Man's Opinion" last week, needs clarification in several respects, in order to correct certain errors which it contains. There were:

Your title suggesting that there is a "new Eisenhower policy" toward Israel, is in my opinion, inaccurate. There is no Eisenhower policy as there was no Truman policy toward Israel, but only an American policy. That policy, which is after all a partisan, is that a strong Israel is for the good of America, being a foothold for Democracy in the middle East, a beacon of light for the downtrodden Arab serfs of their voracious landlords, and a bulwark of civilization in that area. All these things are of vital interest to our American welfare.

Yift mentioned a border raid by Israeli "troops." Prime Minister Ben Gurion has given the lie to this assertion, and I am surprised that you repeat it. When I visited Israel a few months ago, I heard daily reports of savage raids by Arab guerrillas, in hit-and-run fashion. My wandering about that land was interrupted many times by reports of raids, and the night before, a man was shot in the dark, a woman wiped out by marauders, automobiles shot, and a woman cries for revenge, which the government had difficulty in controlling. It was a senseless guerrilla warfare, carried on for no purpose but provocation. Every healthy Israeli man and woman has been trained in preparation for a threatened "second round," and for protection of her home and family, especially near border areas.

It is understandable that after four years of provocation they should retaliate. If someone came to you or me to butcher our families, we would do the same thing.

It is curious that most of the trouble in the Middle East is caused by the Jewish people, and yet the Jewish people are the only ones in the world who have not been persecuted. The Holy Land is holy to all Christians and happens there comes a day.

Obviously, border incidents do display a state of tension between Arab and Jew which has both ered both the Eisenhower administration in Washington and the United Nations. Since at Washington the UN Security Council has decided to inquire into the Kibya massacres, and attending circumstances and causes, it is the contention of The Times-News that the truth can best be served by awaiting the report of that impartial investigation.

In the meantime, even Israel's friends should not deny the fact that Israel, this year, is receiving the first installment of German reparations. That is a fact which is too easily controllable to be denied. The Eisenhower policy toward Israel is the restoration of American money in Israel is fully justified, and the purchase of Israeli bonds is an investment not only in Israel but in the good of America.

I should like to read in your article, an account of the war against Israel that is still being waged on the economic front. These are the things which should be known by the American people, which a provoked group of villagers take against their tormentors—the United Nations and direct its energies against the illegal blockade which Egypt has been imposing against Israel.

The Arab propaganda should be recognized for what it is—a barrel of empty threats—us, the Department of State should realize, as I am confident it does realize, that appeasement of Arab landowners will not help the great mass of small Arab workers and farmers—but a strong, vital Israel will.

All that American appeasement of the Arab rulers can gain, is security for the Jewish people, that own the land and hold the masses downtrodden. They speak before the United Nations in loud voices as though they represented the people, which they do not.

Passaic Avenue School Has First Meeting Of The Year

The Parent-Teacher Association of Passaic Avenue School held its first meeting of the school year in the school auditorium a short while ago. President Pico welcomed the large group and announced the enrollment of 379 members.

The eighth grade pupils under the direction of their teacher, Miss Marie Frost, presented a talent program consisting of seven lively acts, the last of which was a hilarious skit put on by Richard Shaw, Eugene Pinadella, Carl Colombo, and Stephen Bojczak pantomiming an old barber shop quartet singing "Sweet Adeline." Marie Frost served as mistress of ceremonies.

Miss Carolyn Pohl, special instructor in elementary education, spoke on the Need for State Aid and urged parents to support the men in public office who were working for it.

Refreshments were served. There will be a two-part program at Belleville High School for the parents and teachers of high school students November 10. The first part will consist of a meeting of the Parent-Teacher's Association from 7:45 p.m. to 8:15 p.m. The second part will be devoted to classroom visitation by the parents affording them an opportunity to meet their child's teachers and to discuss any matters of concern.
