

Golden Refutes Mayor's Urge of Charter Study

Feels Tully Desires Retention Of Amended Walsh Act; Claims It No Cure For Ineffectual Government

In direct response to the publication of Mayor Tully's statement advocating a change in commission form of government by a revision of the Walsh Act or a charter study under the provisions of the Faulkner Act, James R. Golden, town citizenry spokesman, has declared in a rebuttal statement that the Mayor's "true sentiments lean toward retention of an amended Walsh Act and are not in sympathy with Charter study as recent news captions misleadingly implied."

Golden, in the town meeting of November 24th, had recommended that the Mayor submit at the next public meeting of the Commission an "ordinance paving the way for formal consideration and approval of a Charter study." He feels that Tully's response "to the effect that he would not accede to my recommendations" tended to "completely belie the news captions displayed in the public press to the effect that 'Mayor Tully urged a Charter study.'"

During the Commission meeting Golden employed the term "amphibology (denoting an ambiguity of speech from uncertainty of grammar rather than meaning) to describe the position implied by the Mayor's statement."

The fact that Governor Driscoll has twice vetoed measures submitted by the State League of Municipalities to amend the Walsh Act shows that he has not been "deluded," Golden explains. He feels that the League's continued efforts to create a series

MAYOR TULLY IS LOCAL MARCH OF DIMES CHAIRMAN

Appointed By Essex County Drive Chairman; Campaign Will Be Held Thru Jan.

Mayor James J. Tully this week was appointed 1954 March of Dimes chairman for Belleville by Essex County drive chairman James J. McMahon of Montclair. The campaign for funds to fight infantile paralysis will be held throughout the month of January.

"I am glad to be able to report that Mayor Tully will accept leadership again in this critical year," McMahon declared. "I wish to point out that previous records, with their contributions in 1953, The amount was $3,633. I believe the 1954 campaign will set a new record because parents are alert to the fact that a preventive for polio is in sight and that they wish to hasten the researchers toward their goal."

Tully said, "I have confidence that residents of Belleville will contribute at least as much as last year. They have been generous in years when hope of defeating infantile paralysis was dim. Now that polio fighters have gone over to the defensive to the offensive I feel every parent will outdo all previous efforts to combat the dread disease."

ELMER HYDE SEEKS RESUMPTION OF BUS SERVICE

Successor Needed For Line From Belleville To Jersey City; Work With Nutley

Commissioner Elmer Hyde has been making efforts to interest other bus companies in resuming the service discontinued by the Garden State Bus Line for the past month or so. Commuters from Belleville and other towns had used the line formerly offered between here and Jersey City.

At the present time there are pending proceedings against the former bus line before the Public Utility Commission of New Jersey to revoke the franchise. These proceedings are based on insufficient service rendered before the line was discontinued.

Hyde said his department has joined Nutley in a move to revoke the franchise of the Garden State Line and obtain a successor.

Mayor Chenoweth of Nutley has requested Public Service Corporation to take over the route and Hyde said Belleville was supporting the request. The League of Municipalities is studying the matter with the hope that speedy steps can be taken and the service will be resumed either by the successor of the former operator or by a new applicant.

Hyde stated that the towns will cooperate in connection with any applicants for municipal consent of the franchise. He is choosing a dependable bus line, Hyde said. In explaining the main problem to date is that nobody has exhibited a definite desire to take over the abandoned line, Hyde stated that he would be interested in providing the discontinued service and will do everything within his power to grant Belleville's municipal consent and to aid proper applicants before the Public Utility Commission.

LIONS CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL LUNCHEON

Rev. Clifford Hewitt Is Guest Of Lions At Their Thanksgiving Luncheon

The Belleville Lions Club held their annual Thanksgiving luncheon at the For-Hills Restaurant last Thursday. The Rev. Clifford A. Hewitt of Westley Methodist Church.

Reverend Hewitt spoke about the real meaning of Thanksgiving. He pointed out the spirit of Thanksgiving is the quality of wonder, the ability to look out from the world with a sense of awe and wonder. He said we should be imbued with the impulse of exultation. In this way we will be able to see the greatness of the world around us. Then our minds should make a positive response to the greatness of the world around us.

The Lions are to visit the Newark Airport on January 16th for a conducted tour sponsored by the Port of New York Authority.

The Citizen Of The Month program is being activated by the Board of Directors. They are considering candidates who have done good work for the people of Belleville but who have not been taken as a matter of granted.

The Bowling Committee submitted its mid-year report showing that the Belleville Lions League is producing outstanding record both for teams and individuals.

Hearing On Correctional Home Sought By Mayor

Declares Fire House More Necessary To Area Mushrooming In Growth Than Building Proposed By Essex County Freeholders

The plan of the County Board of Freeholders to build a new $1,235,000 parental home on county-owned land in Franklin Avenue, adjacent to the Isolation Hospital, ran into opposition Wednesday, when Mayor Tully said he would seek a public hearing on the problem. Tully also questioned whether a fire house isn't more urgently needed on the proposed site, rather than the housing of juvenile delinquents.

The Mayor said building plans for the parental home have been filed with Town Building Inspector Thomas P. Greco, and that Greco is of the opinion that the proposed site is an "A" residential zone.

At the present time the town zoning ordinance prohibits the erection of a correctional institution in such a zone. Greco is seeking confirmation of this opinion from Town Attorney Lawrence Keenan.

Whether or not the matter is sent to the Board of Freeholders, believe the residents of Belleville are entitled to a full hearing on the county's proposal before any action is taken on the application for approval of building plans, Mayor Tully said.

In reply, Mortimer Elmer of Newark, president of the Youth House board of trustees, said he was agreeable to public hearing on the plan. He expressed the hope that once an explanation of the type of building to be constructed and its use was given, there would be no objections. Mr. William Orchard, also a trustee, is agreeable to the advisability of a public hearing.

Aside from spacing the residential area any potential hazard or disturbance, Tully said that Belleville residents had become alarmed about the county's plans for fear that the new building would eliminate the last remaining site for a new fire house in the area.

"This has been discussed in the past and it has been hoped that the county would make the site available to the town for this purpose," he declared. "The nearest fire house is now more than a mile away, and the area in question has been growing rapidly in the last few years."

New construction has included more than 250 new homes and a 147 family apartment house. A new Belleville shopping area is now being planned there, and in addition the new $4,500,000 Clara Maass Hospital is to be built in the vicinity.

As a result of the growth of the area, Fire Chief Dunlevy has urged the construction of a fire house, and though there are feasible sites, any building not be as well located or would be too costly to acquire, the Mayor explained.

ARTISTS CREATING NATIVITY SCENE FOR STADIUM

Professional Artists Are Giving Of Their Time To Create Beautiful Display

It is remarkable that a town the size of Belleville has the amount of artistic talent that it has. This fact has become apparent as work progresses on the beautiful Christmas display which will be erected at the Municipal Stadium this year. A group of artists, many of whom are professionals of giving of their time and talents in creating this rich, meaningful display.

The group led by Mr. P. Webster Diel, Art Director of the Belleville Schools and Mr. Robert Valentino, professional artist, includes Jack Gibbs, Mrs. Carol Yudin, Mrs. Helen DeGrosso, Marlene Seeger, Walter Carvey, Dawson Bloom and Rhoda Loyola.

The residents of Belleville will be the joy, very much, driving by the Stadium during the Christmas season and viewing this fine art work. The citizens will also feel a deep pride in knowing that this whole beautiful array was created by Belleville talent.

Work on the Christmas display project is being carried on in the "Garret" of the Belleville Recreation House. The "Garret" is a beehive of activity as the artists sketch and paint the seven and eight foot figures, Mr. Diel and Bob Valentino busily coordinate the various aspects of the display. A typical evening at the Recreation House found Helen DeGrosso sketching an eight by twelve foot Nativity scene, Rhoda Loyola busy with enlarging a group of figures drawn by Madeline Seabauer, Dawson Bloom and Walter Carvey making the first copy of the eight foot high angels which had been laid out by Bob Valentino, and Mr. Diel and Mr. Valentino mixing colors, etc. A general air of vigor and enthusiasm pervaded the group of artists.

Really on the work on a production scale.

Form Committee of Young Men In Government Here

Group Organized By The New Jersey Committee Is Second Charter In Essex County; Non-Partisan Work

Formation of the Belleville Committee for Young Men in Government has been announced following an initial organization meeting held this week. This group is the second chapter in Essex County to be organized by the New Jersey Committee for Young Men in Government.

The first Committee formed on a local level was the Irvington chapter which successfully backed the Charter Study Movement in that town.

This Committee's primary purpose is the encouragement on a non-partisan basis of young men to share actively in political affairs on the local level. Although it is not connected with or serving any political party, their aim is to provide an "organized reserve" of young men in business and industry who may be called upon to assume positions of leadership adhering to the principles of good sound government.

In announcing the formation of the Belleville Committee, Mr. Arthur Lautz, Mayor of Newark, Public Relations Chairman, stated that "greater citizen interest in government is the foundation of our democratic process. What is needed is strengthening of that foundation. The Committee for Young Men in Government has been formed to increase citizen interest in local government. History has justified our project. In every case where citizen participation and interest in government has been permitted to grow, government, and therefore, the general public has benefited."

The Belleville Committee has named Arthur Lautz Temporary Chairman. Other members who are participating are: Edgar Kelleit, Bob Valentino, Jack West, George Ferra, Bill Murphy, Ed Gregg, Tom Murray, Rod Rose, and Charlie Malachuk.

The New Jersey Committee for Young Men in Government Advisory Committee is composed of such well-known New Jersey men as John J. Harbo, Mayor of Bayard H. Faulkner, who have recommended as one of the Committee projects the enthusiastic support and adoption of the Faulkner Bill on municipal government.

Mr. Paul N. Belmont, Chairman of the Committee.

Theft Of 200 Christmas Trees From Freight Car

Theft of 200 Christmas trees from a freight car at the Erie Railroad Terminal in Essex Street was reported to police Wednesday by John O'Boyle, of 651 Jerome Street, found the trees missing when he went to city his shipment of 2,000 trees from Canada, Wednesday afternoon.

O'Boyle told police the seal on the freight car door had been broken and the trees removed sometime between 3 p.m. Wednesday and 5 a.m.

Police were able to trace the route of the thieves by a trail of broken branches and pine needles which led down the railroad tracks, across a lot and on to Terry Street. Police believe the trees were loaded on a truck parked there because the trail stopped.

Parent - Teacher Conference

Members of the Young Men in Government emphasized their interest in the project. Lautz termed the committee "a bunch of political amateurs," and said his only previous "political" position was as a member of the Essex County Committee for Young Men in Government.

The investigation have created a greater interest in the local government," he said. "More and more people have been thinking about a charter study for Belleville."

Early Mailing Urged To Avoid Christmas Rush

Only 21 Days 'Til Christmas, Packages, Cards By The Thousands Will Soon Be In The Mail; Mail Yours Before Your Neighbor

It isn't that Postmaster L. A. Reilly can't wait like the rest of us for jolly old Santa. But he'd be the happiest man in town if tomorrow were December 25.

Instead, there's still 21 days before Christmas, and nobody knows how many tons of Christmas cards and gift packages are yet to come.

"Our main problem right now," the Postmaster noted today, "is that too many people are waiting to mail everything at once. We know what's coming. But we don't know when."

Put yourself in the Postmaster's place. You've just hired a group of temporary postal workers. You're expecting packages. Big packages, little packages. Neatly wrapped, and poorly-wrapped packages. Some insured, some not.

There will be Christmas cards by the thousands. Yes, and the final count may total millions. From past experience, you know that the job gets bigger and bigger every year. What would you do?

Postmaster L. A. Reilly has worked out his own answer. He asks the public to cooperate, by following a few time-saving suggestions:

"Wrap and mail your gifts two or three at a time. Don't let them pile up on you now, or later. Put the Post Office later. Begin with those to be addressed to distant places."

This year all parcel post going out-of-state should be mailed by December 5, for local delivery by December 10. Size and weight limitations now in effect vary according to destination. Ask about them when you visit the Post Office to buy stamps.

In some zones, for example, parcel post may not exceed 72 inches in length and weight combined and 40 pounds in weight. While in others the combined length and weight may be 100 inches and the weight up to 70 pounds.

"The important thing to remember about Christmas cards," says Postmaster L. A. Reilly, "is to send them by first-class mail, and place your return address on the envelope."

With a three-cent stamp, your Christmas cards will be forwarded if the addressee has moved, and a new address is on file, or returned if the addressee cannot be located. Christmas cards mailed first-class also carry written messages, a popular Yuletide custom.

Today's more Christmas cards envelopes smaller than 2 3/4 by 4" or larger than 9" by 12" must carry three-cent stamps. For they require special treatment. Christmas cards addressed to other states should be posted by December 15. Those addressed for delivery within the state by at least a week before Christmas.

"Delivery of Christmas cards can be simplified for us and speeded up for you," the Postmaster said. "Then attach the label that indicates 'all for local delivery' and 'all for out-of-town delivery.' These helpful tags can be picked up at the Post Office merely by asking, and will be available throughout the holiday season."

matter of our loss of ratables to the county ... and this has a direct bearing on our tax rate," he said.

Preliminary negotiations to obtain the county-owned site were undertaken several years ago by the town. Fully said. No final agreement was reached, however, and county freholders announced last May their plan to move the present county "parental school" from Newark and build a new juvenile home to be known as Essex County Youth House.

Residents near the proposed site voiced their opposition to the plan at a June meeting of the Belleville Town Commission, and were assured by Acting Mayor Waters that a public hearing would be called when the county submitted its plans to the town building department. The plans were submitted last week.

Dr. Raab Explains Chanukah The Feast of Dedication

"Chanukah, the Feast of Dedication, is one of the two festivals in the Jewish calendar, observance of which is not enjoined in the Bible," Dr. Raab explained. "It is also called the Festival of Lights and the Festival of the Maccabees."

"The celebration of Chanukah begins on the 25th day of the Jewish month of Kislev, the day on which the Temple in Jerusalem was dedicated anew to the service of God, following its desecration by the Syrians in 167 B.C. The Festival lasts for eight days because of a miracle which is said to have occurred during the re-dedication."

"When the Eternal Light was about to be lit, there was found only one cruse of undefiled oil for the needs of a single day; but through a miracle of God it lasted for eight days. During that time fresh oil could be prepared."

"When Antiochus Epiphanes, nicknamed Epimanes (madman), nicknamed the throne of Syria (175 B.C.), of which Palestine was a tributary, Rex persecuted the Jews - not physically, but culturally and spiritually, he tried to force the Greek culture upon them and forced them to assimilate and abandon their sacred religious practices and initiate the Hellenists among them. The worship of idols, in particular, was forced upon them."

"Some Jews yielded to the pagan Greek practices through fear or conviction. Others, however, and suffered death rather than to identify publicly the Jewish religious laws."

"The flag of rebellion was raised by Mattathias, the High Priest and his five sons, in Modin, in the year 167 B.C. 'Whoever is on the side of God, follow me.' After Mattathias' death his sons continued the struggle under the leadership of Judah, called the Maccabee. With a limited army, they triumphed over might and glory was taken. The re-dedication of the Temple followed."

"In commemoration of the Eternal Light which burned night after night for eight days, every year at Chanukah, Jews light a Menorah in their homes."

Chanukah gifts and Dedecies will be presented to all the children by the Sisterhood, of which Mrs. Morris Glassman, is president.

EXTENSION OF VET HOUSING WILL BE ASKED BY HYDE

Feels Housing Shortage Still Exists Here; Will Urge Necessary Legislation

Perks and Public Property Director Elmer Hyde announced Tuesday, he would seek a two-year extension of the Veterans' state emergency housing benefits here. Contracts for 56 units expire in June, 1954, and 18 others expire in April, 1955, he said.

Hyde declared he would seek the extension because he feels housing shortage still exists in town. If enabling legislation is necessary for the state, he will urge its passage by the state legislature. In contacting State Assemblyman, William Barnes, it was suggested that the town council draw up a bill to be introduced in the first session of the Legislature in January, 1954.

The emergency units were erected by the town at state expense in 1947 and 1948. The 56 units are located in Brighton Avenue and 18 others are in Cortlandt Street, Brighton Avenue residents recently petitioned for continuance of their development.

Hyde feels an expulsion of the dwellers, some with large families, would not be merited in so far as the family has supported the country's efforts during World War II.

The barracks originally were erected for five years and their life was extended an additional two years by the Town Commission.

Travers Figures In Honey Russell's Plans

One of the main reasons for Seton Hall basketball Coach Honey Russell's belief that his reserve strength this season will be the best he has ever had is because of former Belleville High star, Charley Travers. Although Travers is not expected to gain a starting berth this season, he looms very important in the plans for the coming campaign that opens tonight against Scranton. Travers showed last year enough promise to make him an important cog in the current Pirate team.

"We'll miss Walter Dukies and Richie Regan. No doubt about that," Russell commented. "However, we have some compensating factors with speed and good reserves to give us a winning year if we get off on the right foot. Travers figures very heavily in these plans. He was a good ball player last year, but with so much at stake last year I didn't have the opportunity to use him as much as I would liked to have. He looks even better this season, and he and Mickey Hannan give us two excellent playmakers. Travers has good basketball sense, can run with anybody on the team, and he has plenty of backbone."

Charley Travers

In scrimmages against St. John's, Fort Monmouth and Montclair Teachers, Travers has been one of the standouts. He has played more than half of the time and the coaches can easily see that Russell is not only grooming him for this year but for next season when a galaxy of freshmen will come up. The highly touted yearlings do not have a player, and that's where Travers is expected to fit in.

Last season he was in 18 games and had 50 points. In his 41 shots, 17 went through for a 41.5 mark from the floor. He also had 16 free throws out of 23 tries. In fact, he was in 13 out of the first 14 games, a minor injury sidelining him in the first. He did not see much duty after the game at Scranton University for Honey stayed with his upperclassmen when the string went over 15. In the final game of the regular schedule, Charley hit from the floor for a perfect night, three for three, against John Carroll at the Cleveland Arena.

Travers, of course, was one of the stars of Jitty Wische's 1950 Essex County champions. Three others on Travers' squad, Jim McConnell at Niagara, Bob Dilworth at Maryland, and Dean Hatcher at Virginia Tech, have also made their mark in college circles.

Hansen To Speak At Varsity Club Banquet

Roger Hansen, Belleville's own contribution to the Yale University football eleven, will be a guest speaker at the Varsity Club's ninth annual football banquet honoring the Varsity Club's ninth annual football banquet. The banquet will be held at the Hotel Hamilton, December 17, at the Robin Hood Inn, Clifton. Hansen will join on the podium one of his coaches, Angelo Bertelli, of Notre Dame fame, who will serve as principal speaker. Bertelli, a resident of Clifton, was an assistant coach at New Haven. Hansen was a top end candidate on the Eli squad until a leg injury sidelined him.

In completing plans for the biggest and best banquet yet, the Varsity Club through chairman Fred McQuiklin, announced that its first president and well-known former Belleville High School athlete and civic leader, Tony Pascal, has accepted the post of toastmaster. In honor of the late Nelson J. Landon, former Belleville High athlete and Varsity Club member, who died while in service with the Navy, the sports-minded club has renamed its most improved football player award, the Nelson J. Landon Memorial Award. Nelson's father, James Landon, a Varsity Club member, will make the presentation.

With the new policy of limiting ticket sales to 150, there are only a few tickets for the banquet left. They may be obtained through Varsity Club members or at The Belleville Rosery or the Anderton-Fobert Texaco Gas Station. Don't put off buying your tickets. Remember the Varsity Club will give every graduating letterman an individual trophy. The money is raised by putting out a large banquet program with every cent being used to fete the Bellboys.

Crystal Gazing

The ballgames suddenly dropped up on Thanksgiving Day as I took my final fling at star gazing. Of the 10 games selected, three finished in a stalemate. Locking horns were Nutley-Kearny, Irvington-West Side and Columbia-West Orange. Five of the remaining seven outings were tabbed correctly with Weequahic upset over Hillsdale and Caldwell's victory over Verona by unexpected. For the 1953 football season I finished the campaign with 59 being called right against 22 bad decisions for a 72.8 average.

Rios, J. Rios, Sweetell and Torsello with one each. The lone tally for the Eagles was scored by E. Newcome. Martin McNish held on to the leading goal scoring race as he tallied the only goal of the game in the Cardinals' victory over the Rangers. Next Sunday at Belleville Park the Cardinals will meet the Blackhaws and the Eagles will play the Rangers, first game to begin at 1:00 p.m.

CYCLE CLUB'S INDOOR RACING

Winter Indoor Racing Each Saturday Afternoon At Municipal Stadium

The Belleville Bicycle Club is presently launching into its winter indoor racing season. As most people know, the indoor cycling activity is carried on at the Municipal Stadium each Saturday afternoon. Indoor cycling is accomplished by the use of the famous Little Rollers which are made available to the Belleville Bicycle Club out of the generosity of Edward J. Littig, who owns and operates a woodworking shop at 38 Schuyler Street. On the Little Rollers the cyclists can ride their bikes just as though they were out on the road. These rollers actually function as a bicycle treadmill. Races are made possible indoors by a large dial which is connected to the rollers and which indicate the progress of each of two bikes by means of two arrows. As a rider makes one complete turn on the dial it indicates that the bicyclist has covered one tenth of a mile.

The Bike Club, last year, had a big time every Saturday afternoon at the Stadium. This year the activity also provides for races for the Girls Bicycle Club. On November 28th, there was a training session held at the Stadium, open to all boys and girls in Belleville. This gave the girls their first opportunity to ride the rollers. Newcomers will be taught the technique of roller riding. On Saturday, December 5th, the Club will have its first series of races. There will be races for boys, ages 10 and under, and 11-13. Also there will be girls' races divided into appropriate groups. The winners in the races will receive trophies and a handsome trophy which the Bike Club will present at the end of the season.

In addition to the Saturday afternoon affairs, the Bicycle Training Room at the Stadium is open to riders on Tuesday from 3:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. The Club should produce several champions this year in the State Roller Championships. Last season local boys placed high in the Championships so this should be Belleville's year.

Tom Grasso	Center	Orange
Carmen Pizzano	Guard	Montclair

Don Munford	Back	East Orange
Joe Gomes	Back	East Side

Eight Schools Represented On All-Essex "1"

Quarterback Rocco Cafone Selected For Berth On The 1953 Edition Of Times-News' Annual "Dream Team"

The 1953 Belleville Times All-Essex football team is a well represented "dream team" as eight schools contributed to the outstanding aggregation.

Once-beaten Orange, Montclair and East Orange each landed two players on the Times mythical all-star array while Central, Weequahic, Bloomfield, Belleville and East Side are each represented with one player.

Making the grade from Orange are Stan Slater and Tom Grasso, two members of the Tornado's gigantic forward wall. From Montclair come halfback Aubrey Lewis and guard Carmen Pizzano. Don Munford and Bob Wims are the selections from East Orange. Representing Central is Tony Muccia, while Arnie Taub hails from Weequahic. Herb Miller from Bloomfield, Rocco Cafone, of Belleville and Joe Gomes, a standout from East Side.

The only holdover on the 1953 Times All-Star team is Aubrey Lewis. An All-State halfback, Lewis last year was a member of the Mountie squad which dominated the season with five players being selected.

BACKS — The 1953 backfield would by any coach's dream. It combines speed, passing and scoring punch. What more could a coach want? Selecting this year's backfield posed more of a problem than the selection of the outstanding backs flashed their wares all Fall.

As quarterback Belleville's Rocco Cafone was selected over Nick Spagnoli. Both are hard handling magicians working out of the backfield. However, for overall ability Cafone marks at the top of the list. Cafone handled the ball on all plays and was deadly in his passing department. His chief receiver was Bellboy and Larry D'Onofrio.

Ed Berlink's eleven to five victories in eight starts. Heading the "dream" backfield Aubrey Lewis is the threat backfield is probably the most sought after football player in Jersey. He will either lead a Big Ten or an Ivy League college next Fall, according to reports heard around the Essex County sports circles.

A six-foot, 200-pounder, Lewis is the answer to a coach's dream. He went on to lead Essex County to a record of 14-10. He defended his individual title as all-around athlete, Lewis set a 9.8 record for the 100-yard dash in the State Championships in Springfield. He also did the kicking and most of the passing for the team.

Joe Gomes, of East Side, is the finest back to come out of Newark in the last several years. He was the season's top scorer, second highest scorer, and was hard to stop as coach Mike Windus' team went on to take the City League title. Gomes is a triple-threat, a terrific runner, passer and kicker. Actually he's even more since his all-around rates as one of the finest defensive backs in the area. He scored 91 points on 14 touchdowns and several extra points.

Don Munford, a quarterback, is the Times' choice for an all-star berth. Although he was selected for quarterback, Munford, playing under single wing coach Bob Redmond couldn't be overlooked when the final choices were made.

Munford seldom made the mistake of passing the ball. Walker did. However, it was Munford who was mostly responsible for the outstanding blocking that paved Walker's way.

Panther coach Redmond credits Munford with much of the success the team attained this year. A five-foot, 11-inch 185-pounder, Munford ran the team for a terrific blocker, and a stand-out line backer.

ENDS — Tony Muccia, of Central and Herb Miller, of Bloomfield, are the flankers. Muccia, a top nose receiver, also played halfback on defense, picked off and booted the extra points. Miller, a rangy receiver, was one of the bright spots on the Bengal eleven that came out of the State Championships.

TACKLES — Stan Slater of Orange and Bob Wims of East Orange, are two tackles who are easily the outstanding lineups of the entire all-star array. Slater is one of the best linemen to ever come out of Orange. Just over 200 pounds, Slater is a crushing blocker on offense and ends defensive signals when the opponents have possession of the pigskin. He, along with Wims were in foul backfields on every play, bringing down opposing ball carriers.

GUARDS — Arnie Taub, of Weequahic and Carmen Pizzano, of Montclair, are the guard choices at the all-important middle of the line position. Both are highly regarded by opposing coaches. In most games Taub had to be double-teamed. He always kept every line alive, almost always got his man, and passed on attempted aerials. Pizzano, only a junior, was Montclair's top lineman. He also played the center and tackle positions. Pizzano is considered one of the best line backs in Essex County.

Bellboys Bow To Tornadoes 25-7 Thanksgiving Day

Grid Finale Ends In Romp By State Crown Contenders; Belleville Cops 4th Place In Colliton Standings

In a game featured by long runs, Orange's Tornadoes romped to their eighth straight victory, beating Belleville by a score of 25 to 7 before 8,000 people at Belleville's Municipal Stadium, Thanksgiving Day.

Throughout the game, the Bellboys used a shift which Kearny used so effectively against them two weeks ago. The shift worked, except for the times when Belleville shifted into almost an eight man line. When this happened all the Orange runners had to do was to get past the line and they would be off on a long run or even a touchdown.

The Bellboys got a break early in the game when Don Pomponio recovered a fumble on the Orange 35. A short pass and a series of rushes brought the ball to the 1 yard line but the Orange line, strengthened and stopped Belleville cold.

Early in the second period, Orange got its first touchdown as Cromwell burst through the Belleville line for a 50 yard run to pay dirt. A few minutes later, using the same play, Cromwell sprinted 79 yards for his second touchdown. Nick Spagnoli passed to Peters for the extra point and at halftime Orange led 14 to 0.

Midway through the third quarter, Orange got its third touchdown as halfback Tony Belardo romped 54 yards for the score. Spagnoli's pass for the extra point fell incomplete.

The Bellboys got their only touchdown with about three minutes left in the game. Little Joe McGon, making the Orange score, was tackled by Nick Spagnoli and a wonderful speed, and Rocco Cafone throwing the passes combined with their efforts on the 20 yard pass play for the touchdown. The extra point was added by Al Zaleski. Orange scored their touchdown as they pushed 96 yards for the score with Spagnoli sneaking over from the 1 yard line. Tony Belardo stopped short on his run for the extra point and the final score was 25 to 7.

This win enabled Orange to finish the season with an eight and one record which should be enough to give them at least a share of the State Championship. Belleville finished with a five and three record, achieving fourth place in the Essex County Colliton Standings.

We would like to congratulate the Orange players and coaches for their last game of football or Belleville. To Rocco Cafone, the best quarterback Belleville has seen in years, to Aubrey Lewis, not only a leader in school but also on the football field and to Bellboy, a guy who always did his job right but never received enough praise for it, we say thanks for providing the offensive punch.

In the line, congratulations to guys like Eddie Gray, Frank P. E. C. Barrelli, Richie Zipp, Bill Chapman and Kenny Jacobson, all fellows who made it easy for our backfield to function properly and made it hard for their opponents' offense to function properly. We say thank you to Larry D'Onofrio and Carl Carlucci at the line, and anyone else we missed, we say thanks for working so hard.

Bellboys Basketball Squad Lacks Veteran Experience

By Eugene Serpentelli

An unknown future will confront this season's Belleville High basketball team as they take the floor against Passaic, Tuesday night at Belleville High.

The Bellboys have neither a letterman nor a veteran back from last year. As of yet, the squad has not been cut down to its normal size so it is hard to list names of squad members. From last year's J. V. and sub varsity squad, the following are trying for berths on the team: Bob Taylor and Gary Burman, two of the tallest men trying out, Joe Orlando, a junior who played neither freshman nor J. V. ball, Pat Grams, Dhebie Veld, Andy Lyable, Bill Glone, Joe Prieto, and Ronald Kabet. Also, coach, Al Wische is getting his first look at the boys who played on the football team, such as Rocco Catone, Larry D'Onofrio and Al Zaveloff.

Besides a new team, the Bellboys will notice new uniforms. Blue and white will be the color of the home uniforms, a switch from the traditional blue and gold. The traveling uniform will be new but will be the same blue and gold.

The Bellboys have a very tough schedule. A game with Montclair, and have dropped one of their two games with Nutley so as to play Bellville twice. Montclair, with six foot, six inches, Dave Tulomer, should give Belleville the most trouble. Also Orange, minus Dorsey Wilkins, but still very powerful, Bloomfield with a veteran club and a very strong youth side, will provide plenty of competition for Belleville.

It is this writers' opinion that as green as the Belleville team, they will have a good season. I base my opinion on the merits of coach, Al Wische. Belleville mentor, a very strong supporter of the zone defense, has not had a losing season, as far as a prediction goes, I'll pick the Blue and Gold over Passaic.

LETTERS To The Editor

Judaism As A Religion

To The Editor, The Times-News: A member of the American Council for Judaism, a former resident of Belleville, has sent us clippings from The Times-News of November 6 and November 18 in which you answer a Mr. Louis Sussman in a manner which we feel reflects an unusually perceptive understanding of the situation in the Middle East.

This organization has constantly affirmed its inception, maintained that Judaism is a religion, not a nationality and that the only obligation of American Jews is loyalty to the United States of America. We are virtually the only organization of American Jews to have supported the position of the United States and the United Nations in connection with the recent Israeli defiance of the United Nations order to cease work on its hydro-electric project and in connection with the centenary of Israel for its brutal and murderous raid on the Jordan town of Kibya.

I note that you referred to "Arab and Jew" a few times in a context in which what obviously was meant was "Arab and Israeli." This is, however, a confusion which is understandable in view of the amount of Zionist propaganda with which you like many other newspaper publishers must be inundated.

Gerald Blank, The American Council for Judaism.

My brother did not reach home in time to see his father alive, but he was here for the funeral, and his presence was a big factor in my mother's subsequent recovery. Christmas Scenes Being Created By Professional Artists; Erected In Stadium

It is remarkable that a town the size of Belleville has the amount of artistic talent that it has. This fact has become apparent as work progresses on the beautiful Christmas display which will be erected at the Municipal Stadium this year. A group of artists, many of whom are professionals are giving of their time and talents in creating this rich, meaningful display. This group led by Mr. P. Webster Diehl, Art Director of the Belleville Schools and Mr. Robert Valentino, professional artist includes Jack Gibbs, Mrs. Carol Yadin, Mrs. Helen DelGrosso, Madeline Seebauer, Walter Garvey, Dawson Bloom and Rhoda Lyova.

The residents of Belleville will enjoy, very much, driving by the Stadium during the Christmas season and viewing this fine art work. The community will also

HEARING SET ON MERGER OF FIRMS

Wallace & Tiernan And Novadel-Agenc Joining Has Temporary Injunction

A hearing on the proposed merger of Wallace & Tiernan Co. and Novadel-Agenc Corp., both of Belleville, has been set for December 15 in Wilmington, Del., as the result of a temporary injunction obtained there Wednesday by a minority group of Novadel stockholders. Wallace & Tiernan presently owns 42 percent of Novadel-Agenc stock.

The minority group is seeking to block the merger, contending that the exchange of stock is not a fair one. The injunction was issued by Delaware Vice Chancellor Howard W. Bramhall, who will hear arguments December 15th, on the continuance of the restraining order.

Terms of the merger were approved by a majority of Novadel stockholders at a meeting here, November 25th, according to a company spokesman with a vote of 386,142 for the merger and 20,743 against.

Stock Switch Arranged

Novadel stockholders would retain the same number of shares in the new company as they now hold, while Wallace and Tiernan stockholders would receive 1.1 shares of new stock for each share of their present stock. The company would retain the Wallace & Tiernan name.

Martin P. Tiernan of Essex Falls, who presently is chairman of the board of directors and president of both companies, would be chairman of the board of the new company. F. G. Merckel of Montclair would become president. R. M. Jackson of Belleville would be executive vice president and treasurer;

Gerald D. Peet of Montclair would be vice president, and Joseph Cornwall of Short Hills, secretary.

Novadel-Agenc, with plants in Belleville, Buffalo, N. Y., and Dover, O., supplies and services flour-milling machinery. Wallace & Tiernan manufactures equipment for water purification and the baking industry.

PAL Boxes

PAL members from the ages of 10 to 18, who are interested in boxing, will meet at Police Headquarters on Monday at 6:30 p.m. to go to the Friendly House in the Silver Lake section of town. Two ambassadors, two punching bags and a ring have been installed to accommodate a class of 15 to 30 boys.

Streets After Rain

Cutters running deep with driven rain
Are each a rushing sea in miniature;
Silver-fingered rain has changed the town,
Has blurred each building's tone, each brick contour

Till every street becomes a misty place—
Of strange enchantment never seen before.
Now, viewed through veils of pearl and amethyst,

It almost seems a learned and well-loved door,

If opened, would reveal a fabled land
And not the long-familiar room or hall!
The city, rain-drenched, is an alien town
And not the heart-remembered place at all!

Bonnie Elizabeth Parker

A Prisoner Of War Speaks.

The accusation, voiced in the United Nations by the chief American delegate, Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., that 35,000 UN soldiers and Korean civilians died as victims of a conscious policy of wholesale brutality laid down by world Communism, is shocking in its gravity and its context.

I was a prisoner of Hitler in a Gestapo internment camp for 18 months, in mid-war. My imprisonment was a violation of the Geneva Convention which had been drawn up in an attempt to establish a code of decency in war. I feel, therefore, qualified to express a personal and qualified opinion on the inhumanities of war.

During my interment in Germany, the disclosure of the Katyn Forest massacre of 19,000 Polish army officers and patriots took place. The Nazis blamed the Communists; the Communists blamed the Nazis. No one ever definitely established whether that battalion of Polish dead had been massacred by the Kremlin or by Hitler's orders.

At its best, life behind barbed wire is terrible. The hunger and the filth are bearable; the strain on the nerves can be borne. But there is no excuse for adding to the tragedy of confinement the practice of inhuman brutalities. At Nuremberg, at Russia's insistence, captured Nazi officials were tried and condemned to death for what happened at Dachau and Buchenwald.

Let the United Nations serve a real purpose, in this instance, and establish the truth or falsity of the American charges. Let an investigation by neutrals confirm or deny our accusations. If they are confirmed then fix the responsibilities and in a second Nuremberg trial let the world render judgment on the Communists—Russian as well as Chinese and North Korean—who laid down that policy of brutality.

R. E. H.

Our Constitution Is Above Politics

The Harry Dexter White case undoubtedly began as an administration effort to take the play on Communist ferreting away from Senator McCarthy but burgeoned into proportions far beyond the expectations of the GOP planners who are looking ahead to the 1954 Congressional elections.

Attorney General Brownell proposed making wire-tap evidence admissible in espionage cases and urged that the Fifth amendment be watered down to provide less of an escape route for spies and informers and witnesses who do not want to testify. Congress is willing to support any reasonable effort to make sure that our national government shall, never again, be honey-combed with spies and informers, but Congress can be stubborn when it comes to the Constitution. President Franklin Roosevelt found that out when he set out to pack the Supreme Court with his hirelings.

Wire-tap methods are not American; they are the tactics of the Russian OGPU, of the defunct Nazis and the Fascists. Yet espionage in behalf of a foreign power committed to the overthrow of American democracy and the suppression of our liberties is not American either. For our failure to correct the inefficiencies of our Constitution, we may well risk to lose it all.

One Man's Opinion

At Bermuda, Churchill To Stress Need Of Talk With Malenkov But Eisenhower's Role Will Be To Seek A Strengthening Of West's Purposes

BY RALPH E. HEINZEN

On the eve of the Bermuda conference of the Big Three and their foreign ministers, it becomes apparent that the purpose of the meeting is not to attempt the near-impossible and make peace with Soviet Russia; it is to accomplish the equally difficult task of re-establishing harmony among the free nations of the West. In that field there is plenty of room for accomplishment because there are at least four major issues which chafe the world upon which the Big Three do not see eye to eye: the Saar, Trieste, the EDC treaty and West Germany's admission to NATO.

Moscow's note of last weekend, "consenting" to a meeting with Americans, British and French, at an undisclosed level, was clearly timed to make as much trouble as possible at Bermuda. It should prove annoying to President Eisenhower, giving, as it does, leverage to the continuous demand of Sir Winston Churchill that the Western leaders talk things over directly with Malenkov.

It is the current opinion in top-level State Department offices in Washington that before Eisenhower, Churchill and the then French Premier ever do meet up with Malenkov, they must have put their own house in order. Those in position to state Washington policy say that that is all that President Eisenhower expects to see come out of the Bermuda talks. If they lead to a strengthening of the purposes of the West and a new spirit of resolve inside the structure of the North Atlantic alliance, then Washington will be satisfied.

Scope Of Talks

To discuss "various matters of common concern" is the way the official communication describes the purpose of the Bermuda conference which begins tomorrow. This is broad enough to reach, if necessary, from Panmunjom to Trieste, from the Saar to the Middle East, and to include NATO and EDC as well as common defense and atomic strategy.

It is important to remember that the last time Churchill and Eisenhower talked seriously of "sabotage and kings and other things" it was a British Prime Minister talking to a soldier who was Generalissimo of the Allies. The West gave up every major element of its defense policy, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, the European Defense Pact, and the American bases in England, Norway, France, Italy, Greece, Turkey, and Spain; then the Kremlin would consider not a four-hour meeting to end the association of Germany, but a five-power conference including Red China to lessen general tensions.

Behind Kremlin Strategy

This has convinced a considerable number of Americans that the rulers of the Soviet Union do not want to negotiate and that it is useless to try to get them to make a settlement at this time. It is quite credible that they do not wish to negotiate from weakness in East Germany and in Russia itself or to freeze a situation adverse to them. Their chief concern is to hold areas where they seized power while the West was weak. China is the best example but Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria and Albania are others.

But the prime concern of the free world is to consolidate its unity and improve its economic and military strength to a point at which the Communist mentors may wish to negotiate, lest things go worse for them, and may come to value the non-aggression assurances which have been suggested by Sir Winston and others.

The great question in this strengthening process is whether the French Parliament, in the end, will ratify the pending EDC treaty within which the rearmament of West Germany might be carried out.

Pressing For European Army

Washington feels that it is very much to be hoped for its political and military effect, that the joint European army plan will succeed. But neither German rearmament nor defense of Western Europe will be impossible even if EDC should fail of French support. The effect of rejection would be to call for proposals to authorize a West German army, with possibly full membership for the Bonn government in NATO. This would be a second best, but the British Prime Minister has said that "in prudence" it must be considered. As matters stand today, France is the greatest obstacle to the success of the European defense front into which we Americans have sunk so many billions of dollars. Russia has cleverly chosen to fight us in Paris. The French Communist party is powerful, and in some recent elections the Communists have polled one vote in every three in France. If the Kremlin can convince the French Parliament not to approve the EDC treaty, rearming Germany and building the international army, then Russia will have stymied us.

France Is Weak Link

We cannot count too much on convincing France, at Bermuda, to go along with us. Laniel, although still Premier, holds office only until the new President of France is chosen by the National Assembly at Versailles on December 17. That same evening he will be compelled to carry the collective resignation of his cabinet to the Elysee palace and quit. It may take many weeks before France is ready to debate again the treaty ratification. The new President must hold political consultations with party leaders and only after he finds the trend of Parliamentary thought can he pick a new Premier. His choice might fall again on Laniel, but the chances are that it will not. The new Premier will then have to find the exact political dosage to form a new cabinet.

Beck's Television Column

You wouldn't believe it, but it is true that there are people who still buy service contracts for their TV sets at a price from about $30, for limited service to $75, for complete coverage for one year.

Last week we had a customer who traded in his year-old small screen set for a large one. He has paid $300, during these 5 years for service contracts, and he wanted us to arrange for a new contract with a factory service organization for $65 per year. Of course we refused. We showed him a number of service records of identical sets, bought from us within 2 months of his purchase 5 years ago. The lowest was $36, and the highest $92. He could not believe it, we had to show him 11 cases until he was convinced.

If you are a reader of this column since it's beginning, you may remember that we advised against service contracts, even at a time when it was like heresy to do so. One factory threatened to revoke the franchise unless we stopped talking and writing against service contracts. But we did not relent and everyone of our customers who bought their sets from us and followed our advice not to buy service contracts saved hundreds of dollars on service over the years. It should be mentioned that our service department charges only the cost of operation or less to those customers who bought the sets from us. In addition we have given our customers far better and faster service than any factory service organization could possibly provide, since we do business only with about 5 minutes' drive from the store.

BICYCLE CLUB HAS TRI-STATE ROLLER CHAMP

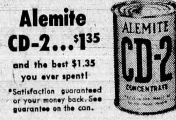

Richard Eyre is Tri-State Bicycle Roller Champ. Last Saturday a group from the Belleville Bicycle Club entered the Tri-State Bicycle Roller Championship. The Belleville contingent, under the leadership of the club's Road Captain, Ed Little, did well for themselves in this first contest of the season. Richard Eyre placed first in the Juvenile division giving the club its first roller championship. The Tri-State meet was open to riders from New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania. Bob Woodman showed some of his old form in placing third in the Senior Division. The boys all got nice prizes and returned happier and wiser for their experience.

The Bicycle Club will hold its first Club Race at the Municipal Stadium tomorrow, at 1:30 p.m. There will be roller races for all age groups and points will be earned toward the beautiful club trophies. All boys and girls in Belleville are encouraged to come out to this first event.
