

Rent Control May Be Put To People In Special Vote

Town Commission Bides Time Waiting On State Move—Mayor Poses Referendum After Hearing

Whether or not rent control should be abolished in Belleville may be left up to voters here to decide for themselves.

This was the suggestion of Mayor Isadore Padula this week, capping a special Commission hearing in Town Hall on rent control.

The Commission voted formally to postpone a decision until the state legislature convenes.

If the State Legislature does not vote on the subject of rent control by December 31, all rent control in New Jersey will be abolished.

But indications are that the legislature again will adopt the average change measure, which in turn, permits municipalities to set their own rates.

And the Commission, then, will be forced to make a decision.

The Commission unanimously agreed to postpone a decision after hearing arguments from tenants and landlords, the crowd overflowing the hearing room.

This is not a personal problem, argued Max Schwartz, attorney for a group of tenants at 136 Belleville Avenue, and charged generally the tenant's position. "Rent control is law... that means the majority of people want it that way."

Morris Frieder, attorney and spokesman for the landlords last week, summed up that rent control was legally and morally wrong. He said there were more than 724 new rental units within a mile radius from the Town Hall with more than 500 more here by January and he said there were 246 vacancies in Belleville.

At the hearing, held on Tuesday night and again throughout the morning, heard comments from Commissioners after Frieder and Schwartz had their final say.

King suggests analysis. Commissioner Joseph King suggested that the town should make an analysis of the situation, employing one or two men to make an analysis of the situation, and to look at landlord-tenant complaints.

Commissioner Harry Sullivan suggested post-mortem action until the legislature acted and Commissioner Elmer S. Hyde and Kenneth Smith agreed.

Mayor Padula said: "For me to take a few more days for the state's decision will hardly infringe upon the rights and privileges of either the landlords or the tenants."

There are three plausible arguments on both sides: the landlords feel that they have been paying rent ceilings from below current levels, with only a small increase in rent on the premises since the war.

"Tenants feel because of the general high cost of living their present rent takes home may not stretch to meet rent ceilings, if there is no law to control the heights to which the landlords may raise them."

"In view of these facts, I raise the question of whether or not, with this issue, and in good faith, await the outcome of the vote in the legislature and thereafter follow such course as necessary as have outlined by way of petition and referendum."

At least 20 people, other than Schwartz and Frieder, spoke on the subject. Mayor Padula, in presenting case histories to back their stand.

DETECTIVES SCAN LEADS IN WATERS HOUSE ROBBERY

Detectives pressed a search today for clues they hope will lead to the men who gained entrance to the home of Patrick A. Waters, 78, former Commissioner here, and roughed up the occupants in one of the most recent robberies.

The Waters told police the men got away with $450 at 10:30 p.m. after gaining entrance by a ruse and starting to talk before one pulled a revolver.

Acting Deputy Chief Charles H. McGinnis, directing the investigation, learned the men apparently called at the wrong home, first the home of Edward W. Dorch, who lives next door to the Waters at 28 Bayard Street, Detective Harry Winfield said it was the first time that thugs robbed a home here by holding up and tying the occupants. He said he could not see any political taint in the robbery, in reply to a twosome's question.

Waters, dean of the Town Commission until his retirement after 28 years last Spring had held the post of public works director for 12 years.

Call Shawger School Plaint 'Untrue,' On Investigation

Representatives of three Parent-Teacher Associations urged the Board of Education this week to effect repairs on school buildings. The board referred their pleas to the building and grounds committee, under Walter Loesner, chairman.

Ruel E. Daniels, secretary-business manager, said that a complaint by Mrs. Sarah Haines of Shawger School PTA had been investigated and that some of the complaints did not hold water.

"I shall be pleased to continue the investigation of statements made by Mrs. Haines," Daniels said in a letter to the editor, "but I cannot quite understand why the Board of Education should be confronted by public statements which upon my investigation this morning, (November 30) are not true."

"Our maintenance staff," he continued, "is doing everything that is possible to meet the various requirements but we should also understand that there are times when the requirements are greater than our ability to handle immediately and at that time the question of priority must prevail."

The letter, sent to all members of the board, upon the authorization of Loesner is printed in full in the Letters to the Editor Column.

SECOND BAPTIST TO STAGE DRIVE FOR INTERIOR

A fund drive to assist the completion of the interior of the Second Baptist Church on Stephens Street will get underway this month, the Rev. Henderson Goldston, pastor, said yesterday.

A committee to head the drive already has been named, including Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. Helen Stout, William Baker, Thomas Edwards, Benjamin Grant and Mrs. Mary Williams.

Hyde Will Assist Commissioner Elmer S. Hyde, director of parks and public property, will assist in the drive.

"Parishioners have been holding services in a bare church," he said, pointing out that they were using chairs, benches and other make-shift equipment.

The church exterior was constructed several years ago but lack of money prevented parishioners from completing the interior.

Hyde said vainscooting, furnishing, miscellaneous wood and boards, and a rear door is needed.

Contributions to the church should be forwarded to the campaign treasurer, Howard MacMaster, assistant cashier, Belleville Branch of Fidelity Union Trust Co., the committee said.

SWIMMING POOL COMMITTEE BEING ORGANIZED HERE

The recreation department today said it is forming a committee of a cross-section of town representation to study its announced public swimming pool.

Recreation Superintendent Bob Cook said he is asking leaders of town organizations to delegate representatives to the committee.

Cook said the committee would make decisions regarding the type, location of the pool, the method of financing and building procedure.

Cook said the committee would be organized by the Recreation Department and would include representatives of the town, the school, the church, the business community, and the labor union.

Citizens Group Will Hold Conference To Nominate Education Board Candidate

Board Permits Voters Decide Size, By 3-1

The Board of Education this week adopted a resolution "in the best interests of the public" to permit a special election on a proposal to increase its membership from seven to nine.

Its action means that voters can go to the polls February 1 to vote yes or no to increase the membership.

It was the second major board change here this year. In May voters in a special election decided to take the appointive power of members from mayor and to permit residents to elect members to the board.

A resolution to increase the board was moved by Dr. Palmer D. Burke, its sponsor. It was seconded by Mrs. Edward A. Rochau, Walter Loesner cast one dissenting vote but did not elaborate.

Voting for the resolution were Dr. Burke, Mrs. Rochau and vice president Eugene J. Kelly did not attend the meeting.

WELSH, VARA MUST STAND TRIAL, SAYS PROSECUTOR WEBB

Indicted Belleville officials including Hugo Welsh, deputy public works director, and Ralph Varas, superintendent, must stand trial on conspiracy to violate the public bidding law, and misfeasance, after the new year Prosecutor Charles V. Webb Jr. said yesterday.

Also to stand trial on the charges are former Commissioner of Public Works Patrick A. Waters and James L. Waters, brother of Patrick and former superintendent of public works.

Webb's announcement yesterday followed the decision of the Appellate Division of Superior Court to grant a writ of habeas corpus to the indicted officials.

Webb said the indictment was returned by the grand jury on the basis of an investigation by the prosecutor's office.

Association Says Town Hall Plans To Run Own Man

The Belleville Citizens Association, Inc., announced today it is arranging for a conference of a cross-section of town organizations to nominate and endorse a candidate for the Board of Education.

The Association also said it has learned that a political faction in Town Hall is planning to run a candidate of its own choosing.

"Any candidate who chooses to run for the board with political backing in opposition to the town-wide choice of the conference," advised the Association's spokesman, "whoever he or she may be, will not be a bona fide candidate of the Association."

"Free of Politics" The people of Belleville have demonstrated that they want the town to be free of politics and they stand solidly behind the Association in this matter.

The Association plan followed the action of the Board of Education to increase its membership from five to seven. The Association had previously endorsed a candidate approved in May giving residents the privilege of electing members to the board.

In a prepared statement the Association said:

"The Association is taking the initiative in arranging for the preparation of the machinery for the town-wide election of a candidate, since it believes that having sponsored the elective board, it is the obligation to make the plan for nomination of candidates."

"Once the nominating conference has been established by delegates from the participating organizations, the Association will endorse a candidate of its own choosing."

To Invite Groups The statement said the group is arranging to meet on Tuesday, December 7, at 8 p.m. in the Belleville Elks Club.

The Belleville Chapter, American Red Cross, will hold its annual Recognition Night, Thursday, December 9, at 8 p.m. in the Belleville Elks Club.

The meeting will be held to honor the volunteers and women who have served five or more consecutive years in the Red Cross.

Mrs. Frank M. Durkes, chapter president, will welcome the guests. A variety show, directed by Mrs. Helen McGowan and Mrs. John Walsh, will be presented, followed by refreshments prepared by the Red Cross.

Those receiving pins are: J. C. Ayers, Jr., Mrs. Linnea Anderson, Mrs. Margaret E. Grechen, Mrs. Arthur Carlson, Mrs. Elsie Combs, Mrs. Mabel Cook, Mrs. Edith Denike, Mrs. Mary Denizer, Falls family, Mrs. Louise Hanger, Mrs. E. Richard, Mrs. J. K. Hefferman, Mr. Earl Hourigan, Mrs. Julia Huebner, Mrs. George Karrar, Mrs. E. Kane.

Mrs. J. F. Kieseling, Miss Patricia Jay, Mrs. J. M. Jaise, Mrs. George J. Johnson, Mrs. Jack M. Nair, Mrs. Lillian Metcalf, Mrs. Louise Mingle.

Mrs. Clementine, Nucci, Mr. Herbert Orth, Mrs. Nancy Patterson, Mrs. Ethel Price, Mrs. Elsie Price, Mrs. Virginia Schumacher.

The School 7. UFA sent out a call this week for volunteers to participate in a variety show on the town hall floor, 11 and 12 in the Recreation Center at Joralemon Street.

Mrs. Mel Maffettone of the public works department will direct the show. The first rehearsal for the show will be held December 14.

Lawrence M. Varella will direct the show. Mrs. Harriet M. Schmidt will produce it.

New Industry Here Palma Realty here has completed negotiations for three new industries coming here as of December 1. The Insulated Circuits, Inc., manufacturing of electronic equipment, and the Metal Oxy-Fuel, manufacturing of welding and manufacturing Development Corp., machine and parts designers.

MacArthur Coach The Board of Education this week accepted the recommendation of the Athletic Council and approved Alvin MacArthur as coach of the boys' basketball team. MacArthur is a former coach of the team and is being coached by H. Knapp, who resigned. The post pays $250.

Fewsmith Church Will Hold Birthday Service on Sunday

Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church will celebrate its 30th anniversary Sunday with special services beginning at 11 a. m. when Dr. James K. Morse will deliver a historical sermon.

A birthday program will begin at 8 p. m. and will include a play, "The Story of the Church," written by the pastor, Fewsmith Family Portrait.

Ground was broken for the present church in 1925 and in 1926 the building was dedicated. Rev. O. Belcher, pastor at the time, was 23 years old when Rev. Morse succeeded him in 1946.

The church began its existence with a program of service to the community. The free use of the building was extended to community groups which were not connected with the church.

On the 25th anniversary, Rev. Morse, in the presence of many guests, dedicated the building to the community. The church is now a part of the community and is a source of pride to all who live in the neighborhood.

Postmaster Says 3-Cent Stamp Best Yule Insurance

Postmaster John Kant said today that a three-cent stamp with Christmas cards, "will win more friends and influence people than if mailed with a heavy one-cent stamp."

"First class postage," he explained, "is the best Yuletide insurance you can get. With it your greeting will be commissioned and delivered quickly."

And they'll be forwarded or returned. Kant said that salutes worry about whether or not your season's greetings were received.

Return Address "Your own return address on the envelope helps others keep track of address book up to date. Then, too, Christmas cards with three-cent stamps may carry more messages, a custom every one enjoys."

None of these postal privileges are authorized at the third-class rate. Moreover, Christmas cards envelopes smaller than 2 1/2" x 4" and larger than 9" by 12" require cancellation by hand and must carry first-class postage.

"Because of all these reasons, Kant added, it's important not to be penny wise but pound foolish when Christmas cards are concerned."

Mail Early Equally important is the necessity of mailing Christmas cards early.

College Man Named Head Of Youth Enterprise

John Stoddard of 324 Union Street has been chosen as production adviser to a new youth enterprise known as Glittertown, a company formed by youngsters to manufacture and sell plastic table and wall lamps.

Stoddard is a senior at Newark College of Engineering. The company is an activity of Junior Achievement, an organization purporting to help youth learn the practical road to business.

A NCE spokesman said the college was the first in Junior Achievement history to take part in the program.

Detectives

He and his brother James, 65, who also lives at the address, are under indictment on charges of misconduct and violation of the public bidding laws in connection with purchase of town equipment. The trial is expected after the first of the year.

Piece This Story
Detectives joined together this story from the Waters and Dorch. The three men went to Dorch's home at 9:45 p.m., Wednesday, pushed their way in, and asked where "Pat and Jimmy" lived. They then went next door, one man carrying a brief case, and telling James Waters, who answered the bell, that "Ralph sent me." James admitted him, thinking he was referring to Ralph Varn, superintendent of public works. The other men pushed in behind the first.

An awkward pause followed, the men not making clear the purpose for the call, and James starting to introduce them to Patrick. Then one pulled a revolver, and announced, "This is a stick-up." They tied James' hands with a necktie, Patrick's with a belt, and took $270 from Patrick's wallet and $85 from his brother's. Mrs. James Waters, 53, who came downstairs at the activity, was seized and told to remain quiet. Two men began to manacle the house while the other stood guard.

Mrs. Waters, not realizing the man was armed with a gun, began to struggle. The thug then shoved her to the floor and taped her mouth, scratching her in the process.

"Soapbox Stage"
"What you might call an auditorium," she said, "has only a soapbox for a stage," and adding that the two recreation rooms were only eight feet high and improperly heated.

The board referred her complaints on structure to the committee of buildings and grounds. Acting board president Charles H. Yudin, answered her protest that the school playground was not equipped with recreational facilities. "The problem in all the schools is a makeshift proposition that will take a little more time," he said.

No Suggestion
Michael V. Albertine School No. 7 PTA president questioned the board on expansion plans. He was told by Mrs. Edward A. Rochman, member, that the expansion of School 7 probably would be submitted for approval in a referendum in January.

The board referred a proposal by Albertine for the development of a parking area for teachers, to the building and ground committee.

No. 9 Complaint
It referred to that committee a request by Mrs. Philip De Angelis of School No. 9 PTA that a divider driveway be paved and an unimproved section of the playground be corrected.

Mrs. De Angelis also told the board that there was only one

Mal' Condon of 120 Rutgers Street said he felt rent control should be continued.

Barton said that rent control was wrong in itself because the warrent identical ceilings on identical apartment. Barton said the burden also was on the landlord, in any difficulty. It was up to the landlord to hire a lawyer, waste his resident under his roof, he said.

Gerard Casuso of 107 Linden Avenue objected to Schwartz statement that Belleville was composed largely of residents of "moderate means."

"I can't tell my repairman to give me a moderate price" he said.

Mrs. Roy McGrath of 5 Carpenter Terrace said, "We landlords are working people too. We feel that we should at least have some say with the party who's going to rent our place."

Applauds greeted her statement that "There's not a housing shortage. There's a shortage of cheap rental housing."

A Mr. Boland of 119 Cleveland Street pointed out that inflation hit the landlord. "There was a 4.48 tax when rent control was enforced compared to the 6.00 tax rate today," he said.

Charles Curtis of Bloomfield requested to speak by Frieder, said that in his experience, Bloomfield had little trouble, when it dropped rent control.

Hopkins Disgraced
R. F. Hopkins of 120 Rutgers Street, a former Bloomfield resident, pointed instances of rent gouging on Orchard Street, Bloomfield, now.

Richard O'Toole of 539 Jorale

mon Street said his rent had been increased but that his landlord did nothing to merit the increase.

Stanley Muslich of 41 Harrison Street warned that "the moment you remove ceilings, there are unscrupulous individuals who will abuse it." He said many of the landlords in Belleville didn't live here.

William Cassidy of 282 Cortland Street proposed to the Commission a plan to remove ceilings for three months, with the alternative to clamp them on again if the situation were abused.

Dodge flashes ahead in style!

New '55 Dodge Custom Royal V-8 4-door Sedan . . . flair-fashione!

Presenting the dazzling new '55 DODGE
Flair-Fashioned for the Future

These last few days, crowds of people have come in to get their first look at the flair-fashione new Dodge for 1955. They examined it and gave their verdict:

Dodge has done it!

Dodge flashes ahead with a car that is taut and eager in every line—lower, wider and far, far longer.

Dodge flashes ahead with the new outlook in car design—a swept-back New Horizon windshield that encircles you in a glass cockpit.

Dodge flashes ahead with clean, flowing lines that capture the flair of the future—from the low and racy hood to the flaring rear deck and twin-jet taillights.

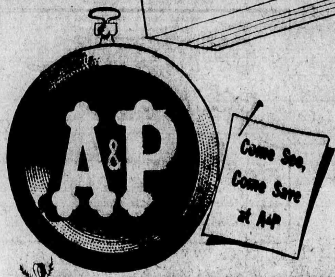

If you have not yet seen what Dodge has done, you are missing the thrill of the year. It is a car of a hundred surprises, inside and out. Come see for yourself.

SPOTLIGHT on SPORTS

By Bob Gofin

Basketball Outlook Is Gloomy

Less than a week remains before the Belleville basketball team inaugurates its 1965 season. Once again coached by Herman "Jitty" Wische, the Belbells will play a 16-game schedule. Like football, the Blue and Gold team has little to cheer about and will go through a rebuilding period with not too much expected this season.

Wische, this year, faces a big job that was made all the tougher by the loss of Andy Leyble, who is ineligible because of scholastic difficulties. Most rival coaches who saw Leyble in action last year figured him to be one of the best around this year. Usually with some sought of nucleus to work with in early practice drills, Wische this time, has had to start completely from scratch. The veteran pilot only turned his thoughts to basketball this week after working all Fall with Ed Berlinki and the Blue and Gold football team. Wische now has to make his own cuts.

"We're far behind the rest of the schools at this stage," he said. Passaic and Nutley have already played a handful of practice games. We had our first and last against Weequahic on Tuesday. The first team played Weequahic about even but once I looked to the bench the Newark quint pulled away.

"If they don't look good at this stage of the game, but I hope the boys will come around. They did last year. We're terrifically short in the all-important height department and the reserves are very 'green'. To show you how short a team we will field, Richie Veith, who is only five-feet, 11-inches tall, will be at center. The only veteran on the team, he is also the tallest player around."

One change appears on the new schedule. East Orange was added and a second game against Hillside was dropped to make room for the Panthers. Getting East Orange on the slate was the final step in scheduling every member school in the Big Ten Conference, but the way things shape up there won't be any basketball game.

The regular season for Belleville will begin on Wednesday with a home game against Passaic. Originally scheduled for Tuesday, the game was pushed back a night because of the holding of the annual Varsity Club football banquet. The season will end on February 8 at home with South Side providing the opposition. Of the 15 games, seven will be played at the home court in Belleville High School with eight to be conducted on "foreign" courts. The only team to be faced on a home-and-home basis is Bloomfield. All games are evening affairs except tilts against Clifton, Montclair and East Orange.

The 1954-55 Belleville varsity basketball schedule follows:

Dec. 8	Passaic	Home	Jan. 18	Bloomfield	Home
Dec. 14	Garfield	Home	Jan. 21	Nutley	Away
Dec. 17	Orange	Away	Jan. 25	Kearny	Away
Dec. 21	Clifton	Away	Jan. 28	E. Orange	Home
Dec. 28	W. Orange	Away	Feb. 1	Irvington	Away
Jan. 4	Bloomfield	Away	Feb. 4	Columbia	Home
Jan. 7	Hillside	Away	Feb. 8	So. Side	Home
Jan. 14	Montclair	Home

MacArthur To Handle Freshmen Dribblers

Succeeding Herman Knuppel as freshman basketball coach this year is Austin MacArthur. Knuppel stepped down voluntarily. MacArthur has been handling the varsity candidates for the last several weeks single handed since both "Jitty" Wische and Ray Smith were active in football. MacArthur has served as an assistant to Ed Berlinki in baseball for the last three years.

Back The Team, Be At The Banquet

Belleville's football supporters will have an opportunity to prove they are solidly behind the Belbells at Tuesday night. At that time the Varsity Club will hold its Annual Football Banquet at the Robin Hood Inn, Upper Montclair. This will be the tenth affair honoring the grid players, win, lose or draw.

At the dinner, ten seniors will receive individual trophies. Guest speakers for the evening will be Augie Lio, former All-America at Georgetown and Belleville's own Tony Steffanelli, who played at Yale.

Let's show the boys who have been playing gamely we're behind them 100 per cent.

11th In Essex County

The Blue and Gold football team finished in a three-way tie for 11th place in Essex County in the annual football ratings made available by Roger B. Saylor, professor of economics and statistics at Penn State. Gaining the top spot once again was Montclair with 547 points, while two Belbells opponents, East Orange and Nutley were ranked second and fourth in the entire state.

Belleville, with a record of three victories, five defeats and one tie, had 406 points and was deadlocked with Millburn and Central. Last year the Blue and Gold were the 23rd best team in all Jersey.

The Saylor System is recognized as the official yardstick of comparison for the Western Pennsylvania Football Conference, a 54-school division and is also used in the Harrisburg area.

Wische Heads Panel

Basketball Coach "Jitty" Wische will serve as panel chairman of the High School Division for Boys today at the all-day conference of the New Jersey State Physical Education Association in Asbury Park. This is the 25th annual convocation to be conducted at the shore resort.

Wische will act as moderator and also speak on "The Athletes Place in the Physical Education Program During the Sports Season."

Crystal Gazing

That crystal ball of mine worked wonders on Thanksgiving Day which is usually the day that old man upset sets up and sends the favorites back to a cold, tough turkey dinner. Of the ten games selected, nine were called correctly with only Clifton's, 33-7, victory over Garfield falling an otherwise perfect day. Escaping with the scare of their lives were the Maroon Raiders, as Nutley eked out a 7-6 victory over Kearny in the closing minutes of the game. For the 1954 football season I finished the campaign with 60 being called right against 17 bad decisions for a 77.9 average. Now it's time to pack the crystal ball carefully until next September.

Football Team Expected To Be Powerful Next Year

Rebuilding Job Over-Squat Showed Late Season Strength

By Mal Condon

The Belleville High School Varsity Football team ended its schedule Thursday with a record of three wins, five losses and one tie for the '54 campaign. The Belbells went through a rebuilding job this year and under the circumstances made a good team record for the season.

Next year's squad should be very strong. Only seven seniors are graduating. However, these seven—Ron Benvenuti and Ron Benediti, halfback; Jerry Lillor, end; Jack McCabe and Richie, tackle and Mike Dalbino and Tom Dolan, guards—will certainly be missed.

The 1955 backfield will be much the same. Puleo and Harry Glas will be switching around at signal calling, and Jim Apple and Chick Maffatto, and possibly the freshman sensation, Frank D'Angelo at the halves. Bob Paganelli will be returning to fill the full-back spot and give Coach Ed Berlinki a promising and already partly proven offensive.

The line will be a scramble, except for the ends and center, Bob Costelli, Richie Hangee and Joe Brown are expected to be back at the center and give Coach Ed Berlinki will have three centers to choose from: Wayne Worley, Joe Ragusa and Tom Dolan.

The other boys who will be battling for berths at tackle and guard are: Anny Martinez, Pat McCabe, Billy Bantell, Bob Lane and Larry Corbo. The two boys not working at center may also be converted to guard or tackle.

This year's scoring was accumulated by seven members with Paganelli leading the fold with four touchdowns. Puleo scored twice and also was the team's top passer.

Jim Apple called two six-pointers and five extra points, second high on the squad. Lillor, Benediti and Maffatto each accounted for a touchdown apiece.

Statistics show the team scored a total of 77 or 8.5 points per game while their opponents tallied 112 points or 12.4 per contest. The Blue and Gold in its final five games scored all its points and held the opposition to a total of 50 points.

During that time the Belbells averaged 15.4 to their opponents 10.0 per contest. This indicates that after a poor first three games, the Belleville eleven out-played their opposition.

Richie Maharian, the varsity manager, deserves a good deal of credit for the outstanding job he has done as varsity manager. Dick has been a manager for Belleville teams for the past four years. The team will be minus Dick next season, since he will be graduated in June.

Tom Candura, Billy Ellis and Bob Fredericks also were able assistant managers and one of them will be taking over as varsity manager next year.

The season won't record went like this:

Occupational Center

The Occupational Center of Essex County, a non-profit organization set up to train persons with cerebral palsy or who are mentally retarded will hold its formal opening on Wednesday from 2 to 4:30 p.m. and again from 7 to 9:30 p.m. at 491 Valley Street, Maplewood.

Varsity Club Will Give Oscars

More than 250 Belleville supporters are expected to turn out for the Tenth Annual Football Banquet, sponsored by the Varsity Club, on Tuesday night at 7 p.m. at the Robin Hood Inn, Upper Montclair. Highlight of the affair will be the presentation of individual trophies to ten senior football players who played their final game for the Blue and Gold on Thanksgiving Day against Orange. Sharing the speaking honors will be Coach Ed Berlinki and the college-bound players.

The final choice of the most improved player is made by a group of Varsity Club members who attend every Belleville football game. During the program the captain for the 1955 football team will be announced for the first time.

Belleville senior letter winners who will receive individual statuettes are: Joe Mignon, Dave Ophlin, Ron Bergamini, Jerry Lillor, Richie MacLusko, Tom Dolan, Ron Benediti, Jack McCabe, Mike Dalbino and manager Richie Maharian.

I have explained the situation of the cash to your committee by letter. I received no bids even though I publicly advertised for them. From the recent State Department report you will note that it is a violation on my part to purchase these cash if the amount is greater than $1,000.

I intend to re-advertise and see whether I can get a bid. I realize that all of these cash must be especially built and that a great many such companies do not care for this type of work. The cash that are particularly needed are located in the teachers' room. There are only a few in the classrooms.

"Statements Not True" I shall be pleased to continue the investigation of the statements made by Mrs. Haines but I cannot quite understand why either the Board of the Business Office should be confronted by public statements which upon my investigation this morning, are not true.

My maintenance staff is doing everything that is possible to meet the various requirements but we should also understand that there are times when the requirements are greater than our ability to handle immediately and at that time the question of priority must prevail.

washed their paint brushes in the drinking fountains.

This practice should be discontinued. Mr. Bennett also made an inspection of the girls' room and found that the two sinks in that room were working properly. There has never been a complaint to my office that the number of sinks was insufficient. In fact, I might state that it is almost the same number of sinks that we have in the girls' room in the other schools.

On Look Mrs. Haines made a statement that there was a leak in the stairwell and that six inches of water had collected, necessitating the stairwell to be roped off. The only leak that we have had over that stairwell was caused by the hurricane and it was immediately repaired.

There have been no further leaks during the last two heavy rainstorms. The janitors of this school have no knowledge of the stairwell being roped off at any time, or the fact that there was six inches of water. In fact, I might say that we had very little damage to the school property, whereas I understand that in other school districts there was considerable damage.

Cerebral Palsey Rises Here Eighteen Cases Recorded

The number of known cases of cerebral palsey among Essex and West Hudson residents under 21 years of age now totals 580, eighteen of them in Nutley, Charles E. Garra-brant, president of the United Cerebral Palsey of Essex and West-Hudson, announced yesterday. This total, latest official figure of the New Jersey State Department of Health, reflects an increase of 52 over the last report of 528.

"While some of these 52 newly-reported cases of cerebral palsey are actually new cases many are undoubtedly previous-ly-existing cases which have just been reported to the State Health Department," Mr. Garra-brant stated.

This is encouraging, he said, because in the past cerebral palsey has been such a frightening and little-known ailment that parents with cerebral pained children often confined the children to their homes instead of taking them to the proper medical authorities.

"This has been one of the real tragedies of cerebral palsey," Mr. Garra-brant said. "Many children have been deprived of the care and treatment they need so desperately. The fact that the number of reported cases in Essex and West Hudson is increasing is an indication that more and more parents are realizing the wisdom of securing help from the many fine facilities for the cerebral pained in our area."

The Essex-West Hudson United Cerebral Palsey maintains a treatment center in the basement of Summer Avenue School, Newark, and is planning to start a new center soon. The new center, which will be a specially-designed building with all modern facilities, will be located near Branch Brook Park, in Belleville, on the property of the Clara Mace Memorial Hospital.

Total number of reported CP cases among children in the various Essex and West Hudson communities are: Nutley, 18; Belleville, 16; Bloomfield, 28; Caldwell, 4; Cedar Grove, 4; East Orange, 38; Glen Ridge, 4; Irvington, 28; Livingston, 5; Maplewood, 7; Millburn and Short Hills, 7; Montclair, 18; Newark, 314.

VIVIAN FIKUS TO DISPLAY ART AT BUICK SHOWING

The Belleville-Nutley Buick Company, of Washington Avenue, will coordinate the showing of the new 1955 Buicks with a solo show of paintings by Vivian Fikus. Many of these paintings will be portraits and one, of particular interest, is a portrait of Miss Ann A. Torg, on loan from Washington School.

Mrs. Fikus went through Nutley schools and at graduation she received an Art scholarship to Art training at the Newark Arts High School. After her schooling she became commercial artist for George La Monte & Son and worked for them for seven years. She still does freelance work for the Nutley firm.

Although married, with two children, a boy and seven, and a girl, two, Mrs. Fikus has found time to continue her painting and in 1939, with the moral support of her friend, Mrs. John Troutman, a former Nutley resident, organized the Nutley Art Group, a non-profit organization which meets every Monday evening for workshop and program sessions in the Nutley Historical Museum on Church Street.

The group was created to revive the interest and activity in Art which flourished so vigorously years ago in Nutley and to provide a place where the amateur and novice could sketch and paint. The professionals in the group assist those who request help. The group has forty members at present and became incorporated under state law in 1952. Instruction classes are in the plans for the group's expansion program.

Mrs. Fikus received honorable mention for a portrait of "Donald Park" in this year's Associated Belleville Artists Exhibition. She also received an honorable mention for a portrait, "Babe Burke," in the group's recent open competitive exhibit and the "most popular" vote on her painting, "Springtime in the Park," owned by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trignano, of Nutley.

YOUTH REFERRED TO GRAND JURY

Frank J. Orlando, 22, of 161 Franklin Street, was referred to the Grand Jury Tuesday by Magistrate Edwin J. C. Joerg, in Municipal Court, Nutley, after he was arrested by police at 4:15 a.m. Sunday morning hiding under a counter at the Parkway Diner, at 87 River Road, Nutley.

He was arrested on charges of breaking and entering and having burglar tools in his possession. Police reported that a neighbor called them after seeing a man enter the diner by a rear window. They said the window had been forced with a screwdriver.

The Adult Choir will have its rehearsal at 8 on Thursday evening.

SHORT CUTS MAKE SHOPPING SIMPLE

You can whirl through your Christmas shopping and feel as fresh as a sprig of holly if you heed these shortcuts suggested by Mrs. Doris Anderson, Rutgers Home Management expert.

"Watch Christmas advertisements in local papers and use some pencil planning before you really forth.

"Remember that order blankets save time and shoe leather and the stores will mail gifts to friends out of town, doing away with long waits at the Post Office.

"Split your list into two parts: 'things to buy' and 'things to do.' This will give you a record of what's done and what's still on the agenda.

"The sooner you accomplish your shopping, the better the selection and the more time you have for sprucing up the house for Christmas parties.

"A roomy shopping bag is a must, and remember to get downtown early and leave early. This insures you of a seat on the bus, and a seat for the nine-to-fivers on their way home."

Women's GOP Sponsors Gay Holiday Luncheon

The annual Christmas luncheon of the Belleville Women's Republican Club will be held Thursday at 12:30 in the Women's Club, 51 Rosemore Place.

Members and friends are urged to make their reservations not later than Monday by calling Plymouth 9-1601 or Plymouth 9-1588.

Albert F. Babin

Albert F. Babin, of 174 Malone Avenue, died Sunday in Essex County Hospital, Cedar Grove, after an illness of five weeks. He was 73.

Born in New York, Mr. Babin had lived many years in Newark before moving to Belleville to live with his daughter, Mrs. Peter Wendel, at the Malone Avenue address 29 years ago. He was a silversmith for Tiffany & Co. in Newark 50 years, before his retirement 10 years ago.

He was a member of the Col. S. L. Buck Council, Jr. O.U.A.M., Newark for more than 50 years.

Besides his daughter, he leaves his wife, Mrs. Josephine Chandler Babin, another daughter, Mrs. Howard Crier of Caldwell Township; a son, Eugene Babin of Belleville; a sister, Mrs. Jane Babin of Orange; and four grandchildren.

Services were conducted Wednesday at the Wadsworth Funeral Home, 524 Union Avenue, by Rev. Dr. James K. Morse of the Newburgh Presbyterian Memorial Church. Burial was in East Ridgeway Cemetery, Delawanna.

Marie Perrone

Marie Perrone, of 25 Cedar Hill Avenue, died November 24. She was the wife of the late Angelo Perrone, and mother of Joseph Perrone and Anna Tomadelli. She also leaves a sister, Dora Trotta and a brother, Joseph Del Rossi.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Zarro Funeral Home, 148 Harrison Street, Bloomfield. On Monday a Solemn High Mass of Requiem was offered at St. Peter's Church and burial was in Holy Sepulcher Cemetery, East Orange.

Mary E. Droogan, of 155 De Witt Avenue, died Saturday at her home. She leaves her sister, Mrs. Anna D. Thornton, of Belleville.

Funeral services were held at the "Murphy Funeral Home," 301 Roosevelt Avenue, Newark, and a Solemn High Requiem Mass was offered on Tuesday in St. Peter's Church. Interment was in St. Agnes Cemetery, Albany, N. Y.

"Stranger At Our Gate" Film At Davis Circle

A film entitled, "Stranger At Our Gate," will be presented by Mrs. Flora Erickson, program chairman of the Helen V. Davis Circle of Grace Baptist Church at the Monday meeting at 8 p.m.

Hostesses for the evening include Mrs. Mabel Russell and Mrs. Anna Allen.

The Circle will conduct a food sale and gift shop to be held at the church on December 11 from 10 to 4 p.m. A variety of home-baked goods will be on sale, and gifts for the Christmas shopper.

SOCIAL: SANTA MARIA'S Annual Communion Breakfast

Rev. Owen Hudson, O.S.B. and John Lawrence Kelly, Past Grand Knight of the Newark Council, will be the guest speakers at the annual Communion Breakfast of the Catholic Daughters of America, Court Santa Maria No. 61 to be held Sunday at St. Peter's.

The breakfast will be served in the school cafeteria following the 8 o'clock Mass and Mrs. Margaret Connelly and Mrs. Agnes Leonard, co-chairmen, will be assisted by the Misses Margaret and Helen Sheehan and Mrs. Dolly Dowd.

LETTERS To The Editor

Silver Lake Protection

Editor, Belleville Times-News:

In the October 22 issue of the Belleville Times-News, Commissioner Sullivan stated that he was now in the process of organizing a "Citizens Advisory Committee" on traffic, representing every section of Belleville, including the Silver Lake and Soho sections.

I had stated to Commissioner Sullivan that in the event this committee materializes, I would be most happy to serve.

As yet, Commissioner Sullivan has not communicated to me his desire for my service.

As yet, shrille etoin vbeqbxz it is my opinion that the Commission had never intended to form this committee and that he only wanted something to say for the reason of putting the minds of the people of Silver Lake and Soho at ease in knowing that the "Director of Public Safety" is interested in protecting us from the tyrant who drives his auto-life in open and malicious disregard of law and welfare of the individual.

During the election, Commissioner Sullivan made various speeches to the people of Silver Lake and Soho, one part of which went something like this, "Silver Lake, in my opinion, is an integral part of our town affairs."

Has Commissioner Sullivan forgotten what he had said in his speeches which he undoubtedly did not mean?

We are not at all interested in what you say, Mr. Commissioner, we are primarily interested in what you do.

I am very interested in knowing exactly what you have done for the people of Silver Lake and Soho which you feel was constructive.

I had informed you of:

- a) the very grave necessity of a police precinct in Silver Lake;
- b) the necessity of a police car to patrol Silver Lake and Soho on a 24-hour basis;
- c) the necessity of policemen "to patrol the area on foot to protect our citizens while they are asleep."

You in turn, Commissioner Sullivan, gave an answer which implies that this is a very complex situation and cannot be done. This is only your point of view. It is not as complex as you try to make it.

Commissioner Sullivan, you have not been successful in proving to me that the creation of this precinct cannot be possible.

The police are patrolling the business section of Washington Avenue and immediate surrounding areas. Why then, can they not do the same in Silver Lake and Soho?

Your silence concerning the welfare of the people of Silver Lake and Soho can only be interpreted by the inescapable conclusion that Commissioner Sullivan does not take any interest in us at any other time than at election time.

If Commissioner Sullivan denies this, as I would assume he will, then do what I have asked for, which is necessary for our protection.

Unaddressed Mail

Editor, Belleville Times-News:

A rash of wastepaper has broken out in the neighborhood, chiefly in our mailboxes. I have ordered my letter carrier to cease and desist from putting trashy circulars in my mailbox. Any such mail which he might presume to be directed to this address is to be marked refused and returned to sender. I will not do business with any firm, local or otherwise, which cannot learn my name and address.

STRING ENSEMBLE

Frank Seelba and Joseph Sellitto have organized a string program at School Five. This program primarily takes in 11 students from the fifth grades. The men hoped that these children will prove to be the nucleus of a lasting string program in Belleville's public schools.

The children are already scheduled to play at a school assembly and the Christmas PTA program on the eve of December 20. Their portion of the program will consist of these numbers: "Little Star," "Morning Prayer," and "Silent Night". The students who will participate with the string group are: Oneill, Hanning, Joyce, Deitz, Mary Jane Richter, Carol Richter, Jo Ann Chusnes, James Elmendorf, James Keagney, Thomas Star, "Morning Prayer," and "Silent Night".

sk, Judy Taylor, Paul Bilk, Ronald Jaffe, Vylan Trindola, Ronald Lewis and David Kellett. The students participating in the school orchestra are: Carol Lee, Catharine, Edith Haged, Diane Hansen, Deane Owen, Michael Smith, William Van Ness, Russell Valente, Thomas Hart, William Richwine, Michael Ross, John Kelly, Ronald Sanfilippo, Arthur Jenkins, Marilyn Stosik, John Morris.

Winifred Crowell, Leonard Farisian, Janet Rose, Rose Marie Schatz, Robert Gabrielson, Howard Shay, Diane Vanderhill, Eileen Scully, Peter Wolk.

THANKSGIVING PROGRAM

The Thanksgiving program in School Eight directed by Mrs. Edith Hirdes and Miss Geraldine

Ward, under the principalship of Mrs. Viola S. Broudenick, was presented by the sixth grades. It included a playlet in three scenes, entitled, "Who's Thankful?" Beverly Otto, Carol Becker and Diane Reilly are three little girls who think they have nothing to be thankful for. Nancy Kohler, Marie Suppa, Charlotte Frable, Nancy Walsh and Judy Trindola are the "Whimsies" who show them, via television, that they have a great deal to be thankful about.

A sixth grade chorus under the direction of Miss Margaret Buncie sang, "Faith of Our Fathers" and "Evening Prayer". Members of the chorus were: Rosanne Cletti, Jacqueline Travers, Louis Rapp, Gilbert Sherman, Marie Suppa, Beverly Otto, Judy Trindola.

Norman Rose, Carmine Esposito, Daley Patetta, Marilyn Condit, Shirley Ross, Pat Pernicola, Carol Becker, Theresa Torsello, Joseph Barlotta, Michael Slusca, Lee, Craig Anderson, and Dominick Giovachino. Carmine Esposito was the announcer for the program.

SHOP TALK

The November issue of the "Shop Talk" periodical issued by the workshop council of the Belleville Public Schools, under the direction of Dr. Frank M. Durkee, has been distributed to all teachers. The periodical is composed of material for faculty members and is published four times a year.

This issue contains articles about "Weakspots in Teaching and What to Do About It," "American Education: Work," "Using Science in the Elementary School Program," "High School Citizenship Education Project," "Interesting Teaching Units," "Experience in a Family Financial Security Workshop," and others.

The teacher members of the "Shop Talk" staff are: Miss Eleanor Walsh, Editor; Miss Frances M. Williamson, Mrs. Helen Stary, Mrs. Margaret Snyder, Mrs. Dorothy R. Watter, Mrs. Mary Murray, Miss Ethel Williamson, Miss Columbia Nicastro, Miss Kathryn Conklin, Mrs. Gloria Rucoli, Mrs. Leona Reed, Mrs. Anne Snodaker.

TWO NEW FILMS

Through the efforts of Thomas Gyszska, Principal of School Nine and director of the film center, two new films have been made available to all seventh and eighth grades in the Belleville Public Schools.

One entitled, "Lowering America's Progress," is a modern story of bituminous coal, in color. It runs for 25 minutes. This film shows the modern methods of mining bituminous coal, preparing it for market, and the multitude of uses for the mineral fuel.

The second is entitled, "Black Diamonds" and is a 27-minute sound color film wherein coal mining is visually described with the miners operating in seams at different levels; blasting, coal being carried by cars out of the shafts, along with strip mining and other methods of producing coal.

COMMUNITY SPIRIT

A spirit of generosity was recently displayed by the seventh grade pupils of School One.

In order to do their share and contribute to the Community Chest Drive, they organized a talent show and presented it in the assembly.

Voluntary contributions were accepted from the school children, and the proceeds were turned over to Kenneth Smith, Chairman of the drive. Smith commended the children.

KINDERGARTEN TRIP
On Tuesday and Wednesday the kindergarten classes of Passaic Avenue School visited the Newark Junior Museum. The classes were accompanied by their teachers, Mrs. Bertha Stargen and Mrs. Geraldine Krumholz. The museum's nature corner was visited. A museum staff member showed the children land turtles, water turtles, snakes, and a baby alligator, pointing out their habits and characteristics. The children had an opportunity to handle the animals and a lively discussion followed. They next visited a corner of the museum in which small animals were mounted in showcases. The staff members explained a showcase exhibiting the ship-munk uses to protect itself from its enemies. The children were greatly interested in the ship-munk's method of storing its food. They were also shown full size models of an American Plains Indian, a South American Indian, and an Eskimo. The guide pointed out the differences in their food, clothing and shelter. The children asked many questions in the general discussion that followed. The entire tour of the museum lasted an hour.

PRESENTS PROGRAM
The 6A class of Passaic Avenue School presented an assembly program on Thursday under the direction of its teacher Miss M. Sabel Abbott. It was a musical play called "We Loved That Flag." Speaking parts were taken by Janice Barn, Elaine Grippo, Susan Kikert, Gail Doran, Wendy Flaherty, Charlene Foster, Angela Ferraro, Arline Strom, Robert Monahan, Harry Long, James Nisi-vocia, Robert Smith and Kenneth Vitty. Musical selections were played by Stephen Vogel, Salvatore La Mura and James Nisi-vocia. Vocal selections were sung by Dino Mendicino and Victor Lombardo. Joseph Dattoli was in charge of lighting effects.

PTA #3 Meeting
The executive board of PTA No. Three will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Martin, of 237 New Street, on Tuesday at 8 p.m.

High School Notes

The Twirl Dance was a tremendous success and a good time was had by all, even though it rained cats and dogs. The corsages the boys wore wearing were the "craziest." You could tell the girls went to a great deal of trouble in making them. One girl made a wrist-corsage of cauliflower. Since there were made of vegetables, some of the girls had a tough time stopping their dates from eating half of it. The judges chose Richie Mar-mann's corsage as the best one, and he and Bobbie Eubank were crowned King and Queen Twirl. Rita Cipriano and Carmine Sib-vetti, two recent graduates of Belleville High, also attended the Twirl Dance. They both were wearing black corduroy jackets. What is so unusual about that? Rita is written on Carmine's jacket and Carmine is written on Rita's jacket. Confusing? Not when you are going steady!

Eugene Barja's house was the place where a football party was given for the freshman football team. The party was strictly for the freshman boys. Among the boys present were Lou Long, Carl Co-lumbino, George Goldberg, John Ryan, Frank D'Angelo, Eugene Pinadella, Danny Riordan, Richie

Abbott, Jerry Ippolito, and Don Kline. What gives with the "No girls allowed" notice? Freshman and he and Bobbie Eubank were crowned King and Queen Twirl. Rita Cipriano and Carmine Sib-vetti, two recent graduates of Belleville High, also attended the Twirl Dance. They both were wearing black corduroy jackets. What is so unusual about that? Rita is written on Carmine's jacket and Carmine is written on Rita's jacket. Confusing? Not when you are going steady!

The big scare came when Richie Hargis started to climb aboard the wagon and the driver pulled away. Richie landed on the ground and Sisie just stood there looking worried. We are glad to see that you are all right, Rich, but on future hayrides, kids, do not forget to call roll before you start. Grace Abbott attended another affair at Lafayette College. She was the guest of her steady, Bob Catenacci. Friday night there was a formal dance and Sisie there was a masquerade party. We know you had a nice time, Grace. "We Are Sitting on Top of the World" seems to be the theme song of Tony Calenda and Ann-belle Valone. Whenever we see her two we think of how nice it would be if all of us could always for that way.

Girls, do not be too surprised, you go to a beauty parlor and find that the fellow doing your hair is either Basil Bata or Eddie Bata. These two ex-Bellevilles are studying at the Park Road School and the rumor around the school is that the boys have originated a new style hair do. Your hair not supposed to be cut even or look combed. Boys, we wonder if you originated this style on purpose or if it just came naturally. (Please, girls, do not think we are serious and ask for the new style hair do at the beauty parlor.)

Fined 300 For Driving Unlicensed Automobile
Gene Myers, 21, of 143 Linden Avenue, was fined $300 when he pleaded guilty last week before Magistrate Edwin J. Jourg to a charge of driving after having his sister October 30 by Patrolman James Gierity for driving carelessly in Center Street. Police said Myers' driving license was revoked in February for careless driving and leaving the scene of an accident in Belleville.
