New Treatment For Aged Started in Soho Hospital

"Many Will Earn Living Instead Of Being Public Charges For Years," — Rehabilitation Aim

Treatment and rehabilitation of the aged and chronically ill is being carried out in Soho Hospital here in the first experiment of its kind on a public basis in New Jersey.

The experiment, started here this week, offers new hope of rehabilitation under a new concept in geriatrics, the field of caring for the aged.

"Aged patients brought into the hospital know that they are not coming there to die but to be rehabilitated and return to their homes and families," said Dr. Michael M. Dase, referring to his Goldwater Memorial Hospital in New York.

Dr. Dase is director of physical medicine and rehabilitation at the New York Hospital. He spoke to 80 people who attended the inaugural ceremonies here.

Dr. Dase said that there are enough physicians and therapists skilled in the science of geriatrics but that they will increase. There always will be work for those who enter the field, he said.

Dr. Daniel Bergamasco, state health commissioner said: "If it works — and there is every reason to believe it will, we will have taken a seven-

Tenants to Ask Rent Lids Stay

Group Will Speak Tuesday Night; Request Appeals Board Set Up

Tenants protesting the Town Commission decision to lift rent control here June 30, will appear before the Commission in the public meeting Tuesday night.

The tenants will present a petition with 500 names asking that the controls be left on.

The petition will also request the governing body to set up some kind of appeals board in an effort to prevent skyrocketing boosts. Mrs. Theodore Witek of Joramelon Street will address the board in behalf of the group.

Mrs. Virginia A. James of 1 Essex Court, who has attempted to unite the tenants and concentrate their arguments, said in behalf of the group that "quite a few people will come down to voice opinions."

She said the group wanted first an extension of the controls; and secondly, a board to prevent boosts which would result in hardship cases.

The tenant group said there were instances where landlords were raising the rents 30 to 50 per cent and notifying tenants that the changes would be effective for July.

The rent control question came to a boil here late last year when both landlords and tenants appeared in public meetings of the Commission.

After hearing from both sides, the Commission decided to drop rent control here June 30 whether the state legislature acted or not. About a month later, the state lawmakers adopted a measure permitting municipalities to lift rent control if they found their own solution to the problem.

The Commission, under James Lee, chairman, urged a large turnout for the exercises, to be held at the War Memorial on Union Avenue at 10:45 A.M. that day.

In recent years, the committee said, crowds have been getting smaller, and it stressed that the observance was for all in Belleville, not just the veterans.

James Lee, chairman, is a member of the 275th Central Postal Directory, and George Mitchell, secretary, are members of American Legion Post 105.

The committee said all Belleville churches will be decorated with flowers in memory of the war dead.

The committee met for the second time Wednesday night to discuss its plans further.

A Youth Rally will be held tonight at Fawcett Memorial Presbyterian Church, from 7:30 to 9:45, sponsored by the Belleville Youth Council.

Entertainment, games and refreshments are planned.

The board last week agreed to set a meeting with commissioner, after Mayor Pauline Pataki particularly of all the commissioners, who voiced their dissatisfaction with the proposed new school in recent months—stated he was against the project because of the site the board had picked.

Pupil Activity Program

Participation Outstanding But Many Pupils Convinced Cliques Dictate Policies; Urge Fewer Clubs

(Right in a column of articles by Earl Master, Reading, Pa. high school principal and head of an evaluation committee which studied the high school recently.)

The committee commends the staff for its enthusiastic recognition of this program as an essential part of the total. The help and guidance of staff members appear to be voluntary and generous. The provision of an activities co-ordinator is a commendable feature of the program.

The extensive participation of the pupils is really outstanding. The variety of activities available, usually on school time, should provide opportunity for nearly all to participate. Assembly and music activities seem especially strong.

Plans for improving and developing the home-room program are forward-looking. The varied nature of the physical activities program for boys is noteworthy. Student-Committee exhibited basic understanding and utilization of democratic procedures.

Pupil participation in planning, preparing and presenting programs in assembly and other areas is very commendable.

School preparation and caring for injury cases in physical activities appear desirable though the committee is not certain that this program is applied in all areas. (Continued On Page Two)

"Right now I'm on a scheduled flight from Newark to Atlanta, Ga.," she said.

"The job really came about as a result of a dare. Just before Christmas, I was down in Miami Beach. One day on the beach, with some friends, we spotted an ad for air line hostesses. On a dare, I applied for the job, never dreaming I would make it."

Residents were asked to take note that this work is undertaken from 8 p. m. to 5 a. m. in the morning in order that people may be inconvenienced as little as possible. Industries and large users of water are being notified in advance of any shutdowns.

From knowledge gained during the survey last year, many deficiencies in the system were found and corrected, Commissioner Smith said.

Blue And Gold Crew Knocks Off College Freshman Team

SPOTLIGHT on SPORTS

By Bob Gortin

Rollins Doing Well With Local Talent

The Rollins College varsity crew, of Winter Park, Fla., is enjoying tremendous success with the aid of five former pupils of crew coach Bill Bennett. No less than five members of the varsity eight are former rowers for Nutley and Belleville High Schools. So far the Florida institution has been doing very well against all comers with only Wisconsin defeating Rollins in seven races. The defeat at the hands of the Big Ten college came in the opening race of the season. Since then Rollins has compiled a winning streak of six in succession.

Striking the Rollins varsity is Frank Thompson, a 170-pound senior who rowed for Belleville. Joe Dallanegra, a product of Nutley High, is the coxswain. He tips the scales at only 135 pounds soaking wet. Thompson and Dallanegra have plenty of Jersey country in the shell with Bud Belinsky, Norm Gross and Ed Gray giving Belleville and Nutley a majority.

After losing to Wisconsin, Rollins came back and defeated Florida Southern and Tampa in a three-boat race. Then the New England schools made the southern trip to Winter Park and found the competition too rough with Boston University Amherst and Brown falling by the wayside. Boston University gave the Bennetts the toughest test with Rollins crossing the finish line with only a six foot lead. The other races were won by two lengths.

The highlights of the season for the Belleville and Nutley quintet is still ahead with Rollins favored to win the Florida State crew championship on Saturday. Then comes the stiffest competition of the campaign when Rollins races in the well known Daid Vail Regatta on May 14.

Dufford Elected Big Ten Secretary

Hal Dufford, Belleville High School faculty member of athletics, was elected to serve as secretary of the Big Ten Conference at the annual election of officers held last Monday at Kearny High School. A teacher in the business department of the High School, Dufford has been in the Belleville public school system for 18 years.

While Dufford was named secretary of the young athletic organization for the coming year, Bob Rogers, principal of Orange High School, was elected president. He succeeds Edward Assmus, Nutley High principal. Other officers elected were Tom Highe, of Columbia, vice president; and Len Loughridge, of Kearny, treasurer. Robert Amisen, Columbia principal, was chairman of the nominating committee.

Big news coming out of the Big Ten meeting was the announcement that golf and cross country would be included in the expanding conference. Started three years ago, the Big Ten originally took in only baseball. Two months ago basketball was added. Now the Big Ten takes in four more sports with track likely to be the next activity to be brought into the fold.

A golf tournament will be held at the end of this current season with the date still to be announced. Norm Mansfield, athletic director at Montclair High School, was named chairman of the golf committee. As for cross country a championship meet will be conducted among member schools next Fall with Warren Fogarty, Kearny athletic director, being in charge of the running program.

The members present at the Monday meeting agreed to go a step further and will discuss the possibility of organizing a football league in the future. That, however, appears to be a herculean task with scheduling difficulties and play of each rivals every year expected to be the major hurdles. Football will be discussed at the first meeting of the new school year in September. Besides football and track, the only sport not under the wing of the Big Ten is tennis and it is felt that the net activity will follow the under sport in the not to distant future.

During the meeting Belleville basketball coach "Fitty" Wische, chairman of the rules and ethics committee, presented his committee's recommendations to the entire membership. Working with Wische on the committee were Rubik Milstead, of Irvington; George Celie, of Bloomfield; Frank Finner, of East Orange; and Lou Spinel, of Orange.

Wische's committee made several recommendations which deserve mention. The most important innovation is the suggestion that a faculty member be in charge of the official clock at all Big Ten games. The group suggested that all junior varsity games, played at night, be started no later than 7 p. m. If a team encounters a member school twice during the regular season it will be up to the two schools which game will count in the Big Ten standings.

Softball Leagues To Start Action
Harold "Bud" Brand, of the Belleville Recreation Department, announces that both the Industrial and Senior Town-Wide Softball Leagues are set to open Monday night May 16.

The seven-team Town-Wide League this year has several new teams. Last year's West Ends will represent Rocky's Riverside Garage under the reins of Mike Moratti. Freddie Farmers combine will be sponsored by the Mano Dining Car Co. with Joe Grande managing. Lou Luzzio's Tyrol Service will be known as the Ramblers. Bob Mooney's Lucky Nine remains intact. Stan Donarski will handle the Red Circles, who are back in this year after taking a crack at the tough Newark League last year. Charles "Pugy" Ross has a fast young team in the Tri-City Motors and his club should bear watching. Johnny DiStasio is again in command of DeKoras' Wildcats, last year champions.

Very stringent rules were made by the Recreation Department this year and the result has been the recruiting of the best softball talent in town. At this writing it appears any club in the league can come up with the championship trophy. Twilight games will be played at Memorial Field on Monday and Tuesday nights and at Passaic River Bank Park on Wednesday. The opener has the Red Circles against the Ramblers at Memorial on the 16th.

The Industrial League will play at Passaic River Bank Park on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings under a new league rule. Only full time employees of their respective plants are permitted to play this year.

Bill Cullen's strong Federal Leather outfits, last year champions, leads the pack this year. Last year's third place Pittsburgh Plate will again be handled by Walt Kordzek. Fourth place Wilbur Drives will be out of first place by three games will be trying for the Trophy for manager Al Lehoukey. Second place Bart-Messing and fifth place Squire, Schilling and Skiff could not field a team this year under the new rule. The remainder of this year's clubs are: American Tag, Maas & Waldstein, Walter Kidde, Wallace & Tiernan, Manion & Goodman and Eastwood-Neally.

Pull Away From Rutgers In Three-Team Race Here: La Salle Last

Putting on a final drive near the finish mark, the high school Varsity Eight defeated Rutgers University Heavy-weight Fresh and La Salle Catholic High School of Philadelphia, Saturday in a one mile race on the Passaic River course.

The Blue and Gold swept the mile mark on the river here Saturday at five minutes, 25 seconds, with Rutgers three quarters of a length behind Rutgers at 6 minutes, 39 seconds. Belleville, in the east lane had about one boat length lead over Rutgers, Fresh, in the west lane, in the first 20 strokes of the race. The team held this lead until about the five-eighths mark when Rutgers closed the gap to within 15 feet. The Bulldogs put on a final drive for victory.

The varsity line-up was as follows: Coxswain, Bill Ellis; stroke, Bob Greene; seven, Howard Tait; six, Tom Dolan; five, Bob Harris; four, Harry Reynolds; three, Jack Connolly; two, Harry Glass, and bow, Howard Irving. The Helms and Bell Hall were the starters.

Bellboys Rained Out; Play Lyndhurst High Here Today

Showers Damp Nutley Field Yesterday; Prieto's Two Doubles Spark Victory Over Kearny, 3-1

Belleville High takes on Lyndhurst here today after its game against Nutley, there, was called off because of wet grounds.

This week the team will play Columbia Tuesday and goes up against a tough Montclair team Thursday.

In games last week, the Blue and Gold again broke into the win column by beating Kearny, 3-1. Coach Eddie Berlinski's players won their first game, beating Columbia, dropped their second, to Bloomfield.

G. Anderson, J. Goglia, J. Ciesla, H. Tucker, A. Moore, E. Korn, S. Salmon, A. Coppola, J. Smith, V. Nicastro, F. Long and D. Southwell.

The third basemen socked two doubles, the second driving in Long in the sixth inning.

Kearny threatened in the fifth inning but John Bartoli stopped the Cardinals cold, after moving to the mound from first base.

The bellboys still show power at the plate, though being shut out by Bloomfield's Tony Ruvo. Ruvo pitched his second no-game of the season this week, against Irvington.

The game against Nutley at Lyndhurst yesterday was called off after a strong shower dampened the field.

Another date had not yet been decided last night.

New Dodge Custom Royal Lancer... glamorous "hardtop."

What's all this talk about "Price Class!"

It gets to be a little confusing—this talk about what "price class" a car is in. This new Dodge is making a clean sweep in every price field!

Owners who are used to paying a thousand dollars more for a car find that money can't buy more luxury, more exciting features and beauty than in the dashing Custom Royal Lancer shown above. It's up to 9 inches longer than competitive models costing more!

And owners of so-called "low-priced cars" are finding that a new Dodge, with all its dashing length and flashing style, can be theirs for only a few dollars a month more than any of the small cars—up to 19 inches shorter and far less exciting!

Check Your Car—Check Accidents!

In fact, the Dodge Coronet 4-door shown below actually costs less than some models in the lowest price class. So let yourself go. Travel first class in the car that's knocking "price class" into a cocked hat.

Spring Stars

Now down the west the mighty Bull goes plunging.
Aldebaran the great jewel of the eye.
The Hunter clammers over the wall of mountains searching the westward pastures of the sky.
Up the east the springtime stars come climbing.

Arcturus who will watch our summer night,
and trembling Spica, and as midnight passes,
once again the glittering Swan in flight.

In snow-damp woods, on rocky thawing hillsides, arbutus opens delicate pink stars.

Hepatica lifts small pale-purple planets in upland meadows by fallen pasture bars.
And which is lovelier I cannot tell:
the low sweet stars of earth or the high of heaven.

When I see Altair or a sudden wind-flower blowing,

I am seized by spring, by those two white stars risen.

Mother's Day

Sunday is Mother's Day.

Every day, to all of us, should be Mother's Day but since too many of us take too much for granted in this busy world, we are reminded by a red date on the calendar that we owe everything, including life itself, to our mothers.

Demonstrate in every possible way, Sunday, by every possible expression of your love, your appreciation of the love she gave to you so lavishly. And for those mothers who have passed on, a prayer to Mary, the Blessed Mother, for the peaceful rest of the souls of all mothers is in keeping.

Check-Rein Needed

It appears that the Town Commission will have more to hear about a matter it decided on in December, the end of rent control in Belleville.

Under a resolution adopted, the Commission set June 30 as the date signaling the end of control. The town body acted after hearing from both tenants and landlords, and before the state congress adopted a measure permitting rent control to continue until June, 1956 if municipalities wanted controls in their own bailiwick.

Now however, the tenants, fearful that the extension of controls will mean wholesale rent boosts on the part of landlords, are preparing a petition, to be presented to the Commission possibly next Tuesday, seeking protection against rent gouging and asking an extension of controls.

There is no indication that commissioners have changed their mind on their stand to do away with the controls here at the end of June. They heard both sides of the argument, felt the controls were a temporary wartime measure, and decided, while the state houses dilly-dallied, that the controls should be lifted.

However, with the spectre of sky-rocketing boosts now facing tenants, it seems unavoidable that some type of action be taken to prevent same. Most landlords want a fair rate of income from their income property and are entitled to it. During rent control some tenants got off extremely cheap. In most instances a fair rental will be arrived at.

In a few cases, however, the landlord will be out to jack up the rent as high as he thinks the traffic can bear. Naturally the traffic can bear a lot, what with people sorely pressed for a place to live.

The need, then, for some kind of a committee or board, some kind of a board to review on their cases in which out and rent gouging has or threatens to take place. Such a board could well be made up of a landlord, a tenant, and a member of the town commission, for example.

First Day Of High School

An interesting item of news this week is the orientation program in which eighth graders visit the high school for a day in a sort of preview of what to expect after they are graduated from elementary school.

The word such an orientation is a wise move, educationally sound . . . but students who get the jump on the high school will miss an experience possibly remembered by all.

Who can forget that wonderful first day in the high school . . . a day of confusion, harassment, small desperation when you were in the school for the first time, muddling through, trying to find different classrooms, barging in late and being the butt of a thousand and one freshman anecdotes?

After all, you were with the "big kids" now, far from the confines of old No. 3 or No. 7 or whatever the elementary school was. You had said you were glad you were freed with the school . . . but now, in your first day in the high school, you missed good old No. 3 sorely. Even the high school teachers were more menacing with their easy, take-it-for-granted attitudes.

Time marches. Under the new program the youngsters will slip more easily into the high school life. In some ways it's a pity.

Bike Race This Sunday

"Tour of Belleville" the town's annual bike race coming up Sunday promises to be a good show.

There are races in every age group from the stock bike race, open to all youngsters who are residents, and in which they ride anything on wheels that can be peddled, to the 25-lap, 25-mile open contest and special Old-Timers' race.

There is talk that the bicycle event may be dropped from official town sanction after this year. If so, it's a pity. The race is one of the highlights in bicycle circles in Jersey, and will bring back memories to many here when Belleville and the entire North Jersey area was a hot-bed of the sport.

Making Smutty "Comics" Illegal

In New York State, Governor Averell Harriman has taken a drastic step to clear the bookshelves of news-dealers of vicious smut. He has approved a bill to sweep offensive comic books from the newsstands. The measure signed by the Governor makes it a misdemeanor to publish or to distribute comic books devoted to sex or brutality or to sell literature featuring sex or crime to persons under 18.

The ban on publishing smut books in New York will help us here by eliminating one source of the New York State smut. Of the bookshelves, New Jersey can do the same. Let Governor Meyner follow the lead of Governor Harriman.

Little Tax Hitters Are A-Bornin'

Belleville, very rightly, is going to be present and will protest the passage of a sequence of ten Assembly Bills, numbered A-479 to A-488, when a public hearing is held in Trenton, next Wednesday. The bills, drafted by the Meyner administration and introduced by Assemblyman Beadleston, chairman of the Committee on State, County and Municipal Government, all concern the reassessment of property on a statewide basis to provide for equalization on a full-value basis.

The bills, as introduced in the Assembly, would make a little Hitler of the director of the Division of Taxation in the State Department of the Treasury. One of the bills, number 480, for example, authorizes the director to order property re-evaluation in any town, upon petition of any taxpayer, whenever he wants. Yet there is no limitation on his powers, and he could order such a reassessment of taxable properties every year, if he chooses. Such an operation in the state's 587 taxing districts could cost multiple millions.

There is, without any doubt, an inequitable distribution of the local property tax burden among individual taxpayers on a state level. There has been no single standard of assessment universally used throughout the state. Instead, the state assessment structure just grew like Topsy, without rules and without too much honesty. As a consequence, assessments may be at 40 per cent of true value in some towns, as they are at 41 per cent here, or they may be at 10 or 20 per cent of true value as they are in many places in South Jersey.

The ratios used in assessing property at true value must be the same in each of New Jersey's 587 taxing districts. They are the basis of the distribution of approximately $60,000,000 of State School Aid every year, as they should be the basis of apportioning among taxing districts the $90,000,000 annual cost of county government.

It would suffice to define the rules and regulations for assessing property at its true value. The various tax assessors must have a scale and they must have a common set of rules. That is all that the Assembly needs to provide. There is no need to set up any little Hitlers; they are too hard to knock down when the folly of their creation has become apparent.

One Man's Opinion

Italy Faces Towards Left In Electing Giovanni Gronchi As Third President Of Its Young Republic

By Ralph Eric Heinzen

Italy took an unhappy step to the left, this past week, when 67-year-old Giovanni Gronchi was elected as the third president of the Italian Republic, with the votes of the Communists and the left wing of the Socialist party, in succession to the scholarly, 81-year-old President Luigi Einaudi. The three center parties and the entire right wing refused him his suffrage, casting blank ballots as a manifestation of distrust.

President Gronchi, who already has the stain on his record of having helped Mussolini seize power in 1922 and having served as Under Secretary of Industry and Commerce in the first Fascist government, is now stamped as a man of "the opening to the left." In other words, he would like the Italian government widened by reaching into the left and offering portfolios to the Socialists, allies of the Communists, and, perhaps, to the Communists as well.

The Communists and the whole of the extreme left in the Italian Parliament were exultant in his victory and it was a surprising sight to see the Italian Communists lead the cheering for the new President in the joint session of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies which elected him.

A definite indication of the new President's intentions may come next Thursday, May 12, when, a day after Signor Gronchi takes office, Premier Mario Scelba presents the resignation of the Italian government, in keeping with political tradition.

Timing Of Showdown
If Signor Gronchi adheres to Italian political tradition, he will ask Signor Scelba to continue as Premier. If he chooses he can accept the resignation as final. That will provide the showdown, for there is no doubt that Scelba and his Foreign Minister Gaetano Martino are definitely pledged to policy of political collaboration with the West, including the ratification of the Paris Pact and the re-arming of West Germany.

It was noticeable during the balloting for President that Scelba and Martino stood in silence when the name of Signor Gronchi's name for the 422nd time assured him the election. They took no part in the subsequent cheering.

Helped Found Party
Scelba and Gronchi, however, are both members of the Christian Democratic party, which Gronchi helped the late Benito Mussolini found after the fall of the Fascist regime. President, however, the Christian Democrats were split and the party cast about 30 blank ballots, refusing to endorse or to vote against a fellow-member Premier Scelba was outspoken before the election, in his opposition to Signor Gronchi.

In offering the Premiership again to Scelba, President Gronchi may instruct to reject the cabinet towards the left. If he does, it is almost certain that Scelba will refuse and that should provoke a governmental crisis which may ruin the Christian Democratic party as it did a year ago.

Dangerous Precedent
Prior to the June, 1953, national elections, which wiped out the Christian Democrats as a party majority and reduced the combined center-coalition majority to the slenderest margin, Alcide De Gasperi governed and President Einaudi seldom intervened.

Signor Gronchi, who during his long tenure as President of the Chamber of Deputies has often been accused of displaying a rather benevolent impartiality toward the occupants of the left rows of benches, has long been looked like a dark cloud on the Italian horizon, has been carried into practice.

As far as Italy's relations with the West are concerned, the election of President Gronchi is definitely a setback. According to some observers his election will mean that "opening leftward," the possibility which has long loomed like a dark cloud on the Italian horizon, has been carried into practice.

On several occasions he has aspired for the premiership on such platform, but his efforts in the past have invariably been thwarted, in part by the opposition of his own party leadership and in part by the firm stand against such maneuvers taken by outgoing President Einaudi, who refused even seriously to consider Signor Gronchi's designation.

As President, Signor Gronchi

will be in a strategic position to name someone else to achieve his objective with his backing.

Hated By Moscow

The immediate consequence is likely to be the dismissal of Premier Scelba, whom Moscow and the Italian Communists and their supporters have in recent months come to regard as their No. 1 opponent and for whom Signor Gronchi has no affection.

In all probability when Signor Scelba presents his own and his resignation to the new chief of state next Thursday, the Constitution requires, it will be accepted and someone more to the left will be designated.

Foras as to the most likely successor vary, but many close observers believe Signor Gronchi's choice may fall on his close friend and associate, Treasury Minister Elio Vannoni.

Like Signor Gronchi, Signor Vannoni has numerous personal and business ties with the Left. Both men are personal friends of Elio Reali, who once served as Italy's first postwar Ambassador to the United States.

Letters To The Editor

Reader Asks Why Sudden Concern By Commissioners; — Other Letters On Leadership, Lauterette

Editor, Belleville Times-News:

When Commissioner Smith starts worrying about the educational facilities of Belleville after working so hard to get a new high school, those of us interested in better education should pay heed to the purpose behind his sudden concern, or that of any other commissioner.

Maybe Commissioner Smith is thinking of the next commission election and the 1952 voters that went for a new high school. Perhaps he is trying to convince these voters that in spite of the inconsistencies, misrepresentations and personal attacks that helped to defeat the new high school, he is really for education.

Commissioner Smith wants the town commission to give constructive ideas to the board of education on location, capacity and costs of a needed school. As far as costs are concerned we know what the commission thinks, and as for location and capacity, we have had the opinions of other experts.

Padula's Quote
Mayor Padula also had an intention to quote in last week's paper:

"It is my sincere desire to hold a joint meeting as soon as possible for the purpose of making an unbiased and factual analysis of our schools and town projects, in relation to their necessity and the funds available."

Let us not question Mayor Padula's sincerity as to the ratio of necessity between town and school projects. We know that is just a fancy way of saying he doesn't want to spend much money on the schools. As for a factual analysis of our schools, I repeat, other experts have made it.

Therefore the question remains, does Mayor Padula want the commissioners to tell the board of education what to do about the governor than Signor Gronchi. It was thought he and Christian Democratic Party Secretary Amintore Fanfani had reached an agreement on Signor Merzagora's candidacy for Italy's presidency.

Quite recently, it is believed

Signor Mattel fell out with Signor Fanfani when the latter refused him carte blanche to dictate the party's oil policy.

He is turning his support to Signor Gronchi and helped elect him president.
