

School Board Approves
Bangert's Retirement

Board Of Education Also Adopts Proposed New Teachers Salary Guide Granting Pay Boosts Of $400 To $600 To System's 231 Teachers

The Belleville Board of Education Monday night approved the retirement of Frank Bangert, Jr., school electrician since 1938. Bangert has been on a leave of absence since November when he started work for the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission on a temporary basis.

According to Dr. Frank M. Durkee, acting superintendent, Bangert requested permission to retire from Board employment because of a vertigo condition which causes dizziness to him when he climbs ladders in the course of his school work. That is the reason Bangert took his leave of absence until April 1. His retirement will become effective then.

Bangert, who submitted a doctor's report confirming his illness, was first given a three-month leave in November, and since that time has been working as an assistant superintendent of lines with the Sewerage Commission. The school Board last month extended his leave of absence until April 1. His retirement will become effective then.

Commissioner Takes Post Fourth Consecutive Year; Fund Drive Starts Monday

Elmer S. Hyde, Commissioner of Parks and Public Property, has been appointed chairman of the 1956 Cancer Crusade in Belleville. It was announced by Oren G. Hunt, of Glen Ridge, campaign chairman for the Essex County Chapter of the American Cancer Committee, Inc., at a meeting of the previous year. Hyde, serving his fourth consecutive year as chairman of the cancer committee, expects to exceed the town's goal for the fourth time. As chairman in 1953, he more than doubled the contributions of the previous year and in 1954 he established an all time high for the community. Last year, Belleville again went over the top, raising $9,706.

SEEKS SCHOOL FOR POLICE RECRUITS

Eight New Policemen Needed Must Have Proper Training

Public Safety Director Harry J. Sullivan has revealed that Belleville's four police squads will be increased by two men apiece as soon as the eight new men can be taught the rudiments of police work in school.

Sullivan added that he was anxious to hire the much needed additional manpower, but was reluctant to do so until the new recruits would have the opportunity to be trained in a school for rookie policemen.

He said the eight new men have already been tentatively selected from the Civil Service lists. However, he said, none of the police schools currently in operation seems to have room for the new candidates now. "Either the newly established county school, the state police school, or the academy in Newark would do," he said, "however they all seem to have their quota for the moment."

Sullivan said the schools offer two or three week training courses in the theory of law enforcement in which candidates are taught all phases of police work including law of arrests, methods of patrol, firearms training, and the like. Together with this experience, Sullivan said, the new men will get practical experience by accompanying a regular patrolman on his tour of duty for several weeks.

Easter Church Services
Planned Here For Sunday

Catholic Churches This Year To Have Midnight Mass, Other Liturgical Changes; Hymns, Sermons Will Recall Resurrection Of Christ

Easter, which marks the end of the 40-day penitential season of Lent, will be observed with traditional rites including sunrise services in Belleville houses of worship. Good Friday services are also planned today and tonight. A list of church ceremonies follows.

The Holy Father, Pope Pius XII issued new legislation this year making it possible for a greater number of Catholics throughout the world to participate in the ceremonies of Holy Week. The decree from the Holy See goes back to the early days of the church when solemn ceremonies in observance of the Holy Week were held late in the evening.

Change Of Dogma It provides for Catholics receiving the sacrament of Holy Eucharist on Good Friday at the mass of the pre-sanctified in the evening. Previously there was no distribution of Holy Communion to the faithful on that day. The fast required for receiving Holy Communion in the evening or afternoon is three hours from solid foods and one hour from liquids. Water may be taken at any time.

Lent ends officially this year, according to the new liturgy, at midnight on Holy Saturday. Instead of at noon. There will be great rejoicing with the singing of hymns, ringing of bells and the blessing of sacraments used during the year. Easter marks the start of the Liturgical year.

There will be two low masses tonight, at 5 and 6 o'clock, at St. Mary's Church. At 7 o'clock there will be a solemn mass followed by a procession. Holy Communion will be given at the three masses. The usual watch before the Blessed Sacrament by the men of the parish will begin at 8 p. m. Tomorrow the liturgical service, with Holy Communion, will be held at 3 p. m. Veneration of the cross will follow. Stations of the cross and veneration of the cross will be at 8 p. m. Confessions will be heard at 3:30 to 4:00 and 7:30 to 9:00 o'clock. Easter vigil services will begin at 10:30 p. m. and will be followed by midnight mass. Holy Communion will be given only at midnight mass. On Sunday the masses will be at several weeks.

Upsala College Chapter Of National Service Fraternity Makes Gift To New Hospital

Fifty members of the Alpha Phi Omega National Service Fraternity from Upsala College in Orange toured the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital in Newark this past Sunday in conjunction with the pledge project the chapter has undertaken.

Instead of the usual tradition or usual initiation customs, the chapter turned its efforts to accomplishing a worthwhile project of community service, this year. They selected the new Clara Maass Hospital in Belleville as their project, although none of the members of the fraternity are from Belleville or have any direct relation with the town.

Sunday, club members presented a check for $500 to the hospital fund to be used for furnishing and equipping a children's play solarium. Fraternity members toured the present hospital site, bringing presents for the hospitalized children along with cake and ice cream for a real party.

This is the first time the fraternity has undertaken a project such as this for their initiation program, but from opinions expressed so far, the project may become an annual event.

John R. Kiddie, chairman of the fund raising committee, accepted the check for $500 to the hospital fund to be used for furnishing and equipping a children's play solarium. Fraternity members toured the present hospital site, bringing presents for the hospitalized children along with cake and ice cream for a real party.

The Face Is Familiar:
Mrs. Reock Leads Active
Life With Women's Club

The high spot in Mrs. Ernest Reock's long association with the State Federation of Women's Clubs came in 1954, when she was presented with a general scholarship in her name for Douglass College for Women, in New Brunswick. The honor was accorded her upon her retirement after three years as vice president of the N. J. State Federation Eighth District.

Active almost all her life in club work, Mrs. Reock was recently named a trustee of the Belleville Women's Club. She is past president of the Contemporary in Newark; 1st vice president of the Past President's Club and a member of the Ex-Officers Club of the Eighth District.

"Too many people think of Women's Club members as spending all their time gossiping and playing cards," she said this week. "But most of their activities are spent on worthwhile, community and charity projects."

Mrs. Reock's busy schedule includes at least four meetings a week. Besides her club work, she is a member of the Eighth Avenue Day Nursing School and the Newark Visiting Nurse Association.

She served for many years as secretary of the Family Service here. And she is for already imposing list of titles program assistance chairman for the State Federation and member of the State Ex-Officers Club.

Commission OK's Carousels
In Business Zones; Refuses
Tavern's "Fascination Pool"

Public Works Dept. Criticized For Snow Clearing; Golden Tells Of Violence Campaign

Belleville Town Commission Tuesday night took definite action on two zoning matters that had been pending before the Board for the past several meetings. In the first case, Commissioners passed an ordinance on Friday readings that would permit miniature carousels or merry-go-rounds to be put up indoors, provided there was no accompanying music. A size limit of 20-foot diameter or less was also proposed in the ordinance.

The rides would only be permitted in business zones of town. Before becoming law, the ordinance must be passed at a second and third reading, at the next two meetings of Commission.

The measure incorporates a zoning request of William Mishkin, of Hillside, N.J. Enterprises, which wants the amusement youngsters at a proposed restaurant at 701 Washington Avenue.

The Belleville firm, which now operates a roller skating rink at the site, wants to have a modern type restaurant erected at the location, according to Mishkin. The kiddie rides are desired, he said, in order to attract patrons when the family patronizes the establishment.

In the other decision handed over from last meeting, Commissioners refused to permit the opening of "fascination pool" in any local taverns, despite its use in other communities. Commissioners turned down the application of 16 tavern owners and a juke box firm.

Commissioner of Public Safety Harry J. Sullivan led opposition to the pool devices because he said they were in violation of a long established town policy of prohibiting coin-operated machines. Commissioner Kenneth D. Smith said the applications should be approved because of the increased revenue they would bring into town.

Commission refused the request on the grounds that an old down narrow room to be converted to close from midnight to 7 a. m., which they felt would be overly restrictive to the taverns. Leonard D. Ronco, local attorney representing C. L. Harvey Co., one of the taverns, said the town did not apply to taverns. However, Town Attorney Lawrence Keenan said with him.

In other matters, Public Works Department received criticism from a local family for plowing a driveway property during last week's snow storm. N. G. Gallis

SMITH ATTACKS
PARK COMMISSION
ON ROUTE 21 PLAN

Public Works Director Kenneth D. Smith today charged the Essex County Park Commission with callous disregard for the welfare of the citizens of this community in the commission's attitude toward the proposed Route 21 link from Newark to Route 3, Clifton.

The Commissioner said that a recent statement on the State Highway Department's plan for the link by Ronald Crater, park commissioner, expressed an attitude of indifference to the commission's approach to Belleville's problem "what do we care, the park commission will get paid for any land the highway department takes."

Commissioner Smith referred Crater referring to land along the Passaic River which Belleville decided to park commission several years ago.

Meanwhile, Mayor Isadore J. Pudlin revealed last night that

GARDEN AVE. MAN
GUILTY OF ARSON
Admits Setting Two Fires
In Home While Wife Gone

Belleville firemen were called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brozka, 136 Garden Avenue, twice this Sunday afternoon to put out several fires inside the house.

Firemen answered the first alarm at 4:30 p. m. and put out a small fire in the bedroom. At the time, Brozka, an 11-year-old son, Edward, were at home alone. Mrs. Brozka was visiting her mother in Bloomfield.

Within an hour, at 5:50 p. m., a fire call was received at police headquarters from a police call box. Captain Donald Smith and Officer Francis Gilroy were sent to the scene immediately along with the fire engine.

This time they found a larger fire that had been started in the bedroom, which completely destroyed the bedroom furniture and the clothes in Mrs. Brozka's closet. Two more fires in the living room and the stuffed furniture in the living room, and several smaller fires in the basement.

Brozka was charged with arson and arrested. In a hearing before Judge Edward A. Abrahamson Tuesday, he was held over to the grand jury without bail, although he pleaded innocent.

Brooks has previously been a patient at Brookgrove Hospital in Cedar Grove.

Know Your Water System:
Town Purchases Water From Newark;
Comes From Pequannock Watershed

(Ed. Note: The following is the first story in a series intended to better acquaint residents of Belleville with the town's water supply, how the water is treated before being used, and means of distribution. The series will follow in successive weeks.)

Water furnished to residents of the town of Belleville is purchased from the City of Newark, as is the case with many suburban towns in northern New Jersey. Because of the vast supply of water in the area, it is outlay for each of the smaller towns to operate its own water system. Although Belleville buys its water from Newark, the remainder of the local system is entirely operated by the Town of Belleville.

Last year, residents of Belleville used 1,287,021 gallons of water which was a normal year. This breaks down to 3,890,000 gallons per day for every day of the year. The town buys its water from Newark at a cost of $85 per million gallons. It is sold to consumers at an average rate of $265 per million gallons. The cost is not so great as that larger industrial users pay. The town of Belleville is the smallest individual home-owner. The profits derived from the system are used to operate the water department and to defray the costs of municipal government.

Through Master Meters Water used in town is delivered through master meters at Hilton Street, two at the Belleville Reservoir, one connection at Belleville Avenue and Garden Avenue, and a standby connection at Salisbury Place.

Emergency transmission main connections also exist with the town of Newark at Prospect Street and Ralph Street, with Nutley at Hancox Avenue, and a second proposed emergency connection with Nutley at Menchaca Street.

Belleville's supply from Newark is mostly water from Pequannock watershed and is delivered through transmission mains from Macopin Intake where it is piped to Cedar Grove Reservoir and from there to Belleville.

Water is delivered through mains in the streets of Belleville and in services into consumer's homes from a point 23 miles north at the Pequannock Watershed, located off Route 23 above Charlton.

The Pequannock Watershed of the Newark Supply System embraces 63.7 square miles, from which it is estimated that at least 87 million gallons of water daily can be obtained during the driest of years. The City of Newark controls 86 per cent of this area, or about 45,000 acres, leaving 14 per cent, or about 5,800 acres privately owned.

Four Storage Reservoirs Upon this watershed have been constructed the following four storage reservoirs and one intake reservoir: Oak Ridge Reservoir with an area of 482 acres and a capacity of 5,800 million gallons;

Three Minors, One Adult
Steal Copper For Scrap

Three Belleville juveniles and one 18-year-old adult were arrested by local police Monday night and charged with stealing copper leaders and gutters from houses and factories in Belleville, Lyndhurst, and Kearny. The gang would take the material right from the structure, crumple it up, and then sell it for scrap. The adult has been identified as William Nichols, 18, of 430 Washington Avenue. Police are withholding the identity of the three juveniles one 14 and the other two 17. The gang was arrested by Officer Joseph Marston on Essex Street near the Erie Railroad station for suspicious behavior. When Marston questioned them about a load of copper in their car, the gang admitted taking the copper from several houses in the area. The gang admitted taking some of the copper leaders and gutters from School No. 9 in town, and also from Mattia Press Company, 31 Terry Street. Police reported that the stolen material has been worthless since it has been crumpled up for scrap.

It took a 13-year-old Belleville youngster to disprove the theory that the only way a teenager can make the headlines is by doing something wrong. Robert Bogle, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Bogle, of 140 Overlook Avenue, found a set of car keys on the street near his home last Saturday afternoon. Robert tried to fit the keys in all the cars parked in the area until he found the car to which they belonged. He then opened the car, looked through the compartment until he found the name and address of the owner. The youngster then looked up the car and took the keys to the police station. Police returned the keys to the proper owner, who expressed a grateful thanks.

BOY SCOUTS PLAN
SCOUT CAVALCADE

Belleville Scouts and Scouters are at work making plans for their annual Cavalcade of Scouting to be held in the Belleville High School auditorium on the evening of April 21. In past years, the Cavalcade has been an exhibition type of show with booths set up in the gymnasium. This year the show will take place on the stage of the auditorium in the form of a pageant and demonstration especially written for the occasion. Parents and friends of Scouts will be invited to attend and a prize will be given to the Troop or Post with the largest adult attendance per registered Scout. Special background music will be played on the organ by Town Treasurer, Arthur Ackerman. Campore. The Camping and Activities Committee has announced that the Annual Council Campore will be held at Mayapple Hill in the South Mountain Reservation, May 4-6-7. Since the last Campore was held there five years ago, the Essex County Park Commission has made extensive improvements to the site including the building of a new parking lot.

Federal Workers Will Have

This shaggy dog story
has a moral for you-

One day the U.S. Treasury received a letter enclosing fragments (only) of a $50 Savings Bond. The letter came from a distressed dog owner who confessed that his shaggy canine companion had given the Bond a thorough chewing, and plaintively asked what could be done about it. The Treasury wrote right back assuring the unhappy man that his Bond would be replaced upon presentation of satisfactory evidence — and enclosed the proper form to be filled out. Several days passed. A second letter arrived — enclosing fragments of the Treasury's letter and bits of the enclosed form. You guessed it. The shaggy dog had done it again. Could the Treasury please send along another application form? The Treasury could — and did — and eventually the chewed up Bond was replaced. The U. S. Government does not pay for this advertising. KIWANIS ADOPT
DRUG RESOLUTION

The Belleville Kiwanis Club has adopted a resolution to be carried out by all members of the local organization, dealing with narcotics and petitioning the Board of Freeholders of Essex County to provide medical care and supervision for narcotics users. Chairman of the public affairs committee of the local Kiwanis group, Raymond Williamson, is in charge of procuring the resolution for presentation to the Board of Freeholders. The resolution reads as follows: "WHEREAS, it is a matter of common knowledge and understanding that the use and sale of narcotics is an evil which must be dealt with severely; and WHEREAS, further, the narcotic user in many instances can be helped by proper medical supervision and care; and WHEREAS, the County of Essex has little, if any, facilities whereby law enforcement officials and judges may send narcotic users to receive proper medical care and supervision; BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED by the Kiwanis club of the town of Belleville, that the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Essex County, and other governmental authorities of the County of Essex, be requested to take proper steps to establish and maintain suitable institutions for use as aforesaid."

Belleville Firemen Receive Diplomas

Five Belleville firemen were among the graduating class last week at the Newark Fire College. The five, all new additions to the local fire fighting force, are the Belleville firemen to receive diplomas from the concentrated course in fire fighting techniques. Fire Chief Harry White said the men were sent to the Newark school to receive training they could not possibly receive here. Local men in the graduating picture are: Gerald Jewell, back row extreme left; Thomas Niswocna, third from left back row; Fredrick Tripp, extreme right back row; and Gaetano Siciliano and Nicholas Berrigan, second and third from the right back row. Senator Fox
Has Bills Too
So Fights Bill

Like all the rest of us, Senator Donald Fox has budget worries when he pays his bills every month. So, he said, he is not in favor of legislation calling for placing a few pennies tax on our coal or oil, gas or water, electricity or other utility bills to raise funds to increase the state's aid to public schools. When the Meyner compromise bill, adding two cents a pack to the cigarette tax, was adopted by the legislature Monday night, the entire Essex Assembly delegation refused to support it but Fox voted "aye" as the "lesser of two evils." Answering a protest against any new taxes, however attractive the disguise, voiced by the Nutley Chamber of Commerce, in a letter from its president, Frank A. Orscho, asking for Senator Fox's help in defeating the proposed legislation, the Essex Democrat wrote to Orscho: "This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of March 7, relative to the proposed tax on bills for gas, electric, phone, water, coal and oil. I agree with you that legislation of this type is ill-advised and ineffectual: for it will not receive my support and I will do everything within my power to see that it is not enacted. "Believe me I don't need to ask my next-door neighbor as I am having a tough enough time meeting my own monthly bills for gas and electricity. "I trust that the statements made by me herein convey to the Nutley Chamber of Commerce quite clearly that I have every intention of living up to the pledge that I made during the course of the campaign that I would oppose legislation of the type which is, inherently, a sales tax."

SPOTLIGHT on SPORTS

By Bob Gorlin

Good Coaching Pays Off

So many kids take part in baseball and football that nearly every youngster of high school age has had some kind of experience with one of these games, if not both. As a result, most boys think they have grasped quite a bit beyond the fundamentals of the game.

Youngsters playing baseball believe that if they can take a bat and hit the ball "out of the lot" they have mastered batting. If they can throw a ball very hard they are sure they're potential great pitchers. And if they can stop a batted ball they're all set to become major league players.

It's the same with football. If a boy can boot the ball high and far, he imagines he is a great kicker. If he can throw a football a good distance, he believes himself to be a passer. And if he can catch a football while on the run he thinks he's pretty great as a receiver.

Well, sir, that's where the coaching starts. And it might have been much better if the coaching started a lot earlier, before the kid learned so many things the wrong way. Of course, the youngsters themselves would just not believe anyone who told them flatly that such fundamentals were not the measure of ultimate ability. Every kid is certain that slugging a baseball, pitching hard, and stopping a batted ball on the fly or on the ground is just about all there is to the game. He is just as sure that a long, hard toss or kick, and spearing a long, hard toss or kick is the essence of football, along with running into an opposing player with all the gusto and strength he can muster.

How many of the kids realize that much of a baseball or football game actually is played from the bench? That they have not been taught. And it is where coaching begins. A good coach or manager tells a batter what kind of a ball is being pitched—whether curve, fast ball, slider, high or low, inside or outside. The coach does it by eternally watching the opposition until he has learned to know their "tip-off" signs.

Every baseball pitcher has little mannerisms by which the alert opposition can spot the coming pitch. Sometimes it takes a long time to spot the mannerism, sometimes it stands out like a sore thumb.

In football the direction in which the left foot is pointed tells where the right foot will kick the ball. Passers have small giveaway acts of which they are unaware.

Searching for and finding these things, then putting them to use by tipping his own squad is the job of the really good coach. Such things make the difference between championship teams and contenders.

Wisniewski Elected Upsala Court Captain

Al Wisniewski, a junior at Upsala College, in East Orange, was chosen co-captain of the 1956-57 basketball team. The Belleville resident was selected for the post along with Fred Hill, former Clifford Scott court star. Taking part in electing the two co-captains were all basketball lettermen.

Wisniewski, although living in Belleville, didn't have the opportunity of paying for the Bellboys and Coach "Jitty" Wische. The college star got his training while playing under Wilbur Rucke over at little North Arlington High, just across the river.

The newly-elected Viking co-captain was the offensive scoring leader. Wisniewski, a lanky six-foot four-inch center, tallied 42 points during the recently completed basketball campaign.

Romano May Be In Line For Head Grid Job

Joe Romano, of Belleville, former coach in the Nutley school system and one-time manager of the Post 70, Junior American Legion baseball team, may be in line for the head football coaching job at Hasbrouck Heights. The former All-State infielder and pro baseball player has been teaching and coaching at Hasbrouck for the last two years. Last week, however, Andy Kmetz, coach of the Aviators resigned after serving 17 years at the helm. The dean of Bergen County coaches enjoyed fabulous success. Kmetz' teams won 100 games and lost only 46. During that span the Aviators captured six Group I state championships and three Bergen County Scholastic League titles.

The door is wide open for Romano to take over the top position. He has been serving as an assistant coach under Kmetz and is head basketball coach at Fairleigh Dickinson College, in Rutherford.

LITTLE LEAGUE PLANS FUND DRIVE

"Say At Home Sunday" For New Ballpark On April 15

Officials of the Belleville Little League are presently completing necessary arrangements for the Little League "Say At Home Sunday" which will be April 15. Present plans call for the entire town to be canvassed by the players themselves in the form of section officials contributions to enable Belleville to erect their own Little League field.

In a statement to the public League officials stated, "It is the responsibility of everyone in Belleville to contribute to this campaign. We all contribute to many campaigns during the year to assist the less fortunate, this is a campaign where the goal is not to assist the less fortunate, but to assist those who are capable and desirous of athletic competition and in securing the best possible facilities so that they can continue to run and play."

They added that the pleasure which can be obtained by all in the realization of this proposed ballpark, will far exceed any money contributed.

Plans for "Say At Home Sunday" call for all Little Leaguers to canvass the town in their playing uniforms.

St. Mary's Girls Win CYO Bowling Title

The St. Mary's Junior CYO girls' team accepts victory with a smile after finishing first in the Essex County CYO Girls Bowling League. St. Mary's won the title in a play-off with Blessed Sacrament, of Newark, after the two teams had won first and second-round titles. Checking the scores are, seated from the left, Anne Solberg, Margaret Walsh, who won the individual average championship; and Irene Hackett. Making sure of the addition are Bettyann Kingston, Judy LaDuca and Anne Fisher.

Distaff Keglers Debeat Blessed Sacrament in Playoff Series To Take Championship

St. Mary's Junior girls' bowling team, last week, won the Essex County CYO Championship with a straight two-game victory in a special playoff match with Blessed Sacrament, of Newark.

St. Mary's won the first round of play with a sparkling 12-0 record but the handiaps caught up with the local girls in the second round. Two weeks ago, in the last match of the season, they were beaten twice by Blessed Sacrament, which benefited from a 73-pin handicap, to lose the second-half title to the Newark keggers by a game.

But St. Mary's left no doubt of its superiority in the roll-off match, although giving away 60 pins. They did it, too, although they top bowler, Margaret Walsh, who won the individual average championship with a 117 mark, was way off form and failed to break 100. But with the pressure on, St. Mary's won the first two, 524-503 and 544-416, to make a third game unnecessary. Irene Hackett made the first game win possible with a 138 effort as Ann Fisher and Betty Kingston each chipped in with 109.

Miss Fisher came back with the 138 and Judy LaDuca added 122 and Ann Solberg 109 to sink the Newark quietest in the second set. St. Mary's intermediate boys team lost two games to league winner St. Casimir's, of Newark, as play in that circuit also ended. St. Mary's finished in sixth place with 14 wins and 13 losses. St. Casimir's had a 25-5 record.

Only game won by St. Mary's in the windup was the finale, which the locals took, 678-577. St. Casimir's won the first two, 753-638 and 695-611. Joe Bittel had 186 for St. Mary's in the last game.
