The company has been closely allied with the brush industry since its founding, and today close to 90 per cent of the products turned out at the Hardman Company are used by brush manufacturers. The organization has been an integral part of the parade of brush making progress since the beginning of the twentieth century.

COMMUNITY CHEST DRIVE RECEIVING COIN FOLDERS

Campaign Chairman Raymond Williamson Announces That $364 Has Been Collected

Raymond Williamson, campaign chairman for the 1957 Belleville Community Chest Drive, announced this week that $364 has already been received at campaign headquarters through the coin folders recently mailed to all local residents. More than 10,000 folders were distributed last month. A total of 298 of the folders have been returned so far, Williamson said, with 171 of them containing money.

Many of the folders containing money have been received at headquarters with no identification. These contributions cannot be credited to anyone, and Chest officials strongly urged residents to be sure and mark the envelopes with their names before mailing.

Although the actual chest drive does not begin until Fall drive leaders feel the coin folders will give them a head start on their way to topping this year's quota.

This year marks the third that the coin folder idea has been used in the local drive. The idea really took hold last year, according to Williamson. He is hopeful that a large portion of the work load from the volunteer canvassers.

They are located at Beth Israel Hospital, Presbyterian Hospital, St. Barnabas Hospital, and St. Michael's Hospital, all in Newark; and East Orange General Hospital, Irvington General Hospital, Mount Sinai Hospital and Orange Memorial Hospital.

There is no Society-sponsored clinic in the Belleville-Nutley area since there are no hospitals located there. However, upon completion of the Clara Maass Hospital, the Chapter's Clinics Committee, composed solely of physicians, will study the need for a clinic in the area.

Fire Chief White Warns Against Burning Trash

Fire Chief Harry White today issued a warning to local residents that it was against a town ordinance to burn rubbish and other trash within the town limits. Chief White said that the past several weeks he has received numerous complaints from residents against the smoke and odors being created by people burning trash in the street or in their yards.

He stated that according to the ordinance, a permit from the fire department is necessary before fires could be started, and that he didn't intend to issue any permits. There is no need for creating an additional safety hazard, he said, since the collection trucks regularly pick up any trash. If any further complaints are received, he said, strict enforcement measures will be taken.

TWO FIRES CAUSE $3,000 DAMAGE

Two garage fires in Belleville last Thursday morning destroyed more than $3,000 worth of property in slightly more than an hour. Both blazes are believed by fire department officials to have started in automobiles.

The second and worst fire broke out about 3:20 a.m. in the garage of Charles Mullins, a plumber, at 37 Berkeley Avenue. Several small tanks of propane gas, which Mullins uses in his business, exploded during the fire. Firemen from headquarters and the William Street firehouse responded and the blaze was controlled in about 15 minutes. The garage, a parking truck, a car, and plumber's tools were all destroyed, officials reported.

About a half-hour earlier, firemen battled another fire in the garage of Frank Puleo, at 30 Fairview Avenue. There, the left side of the building, some personal property, and an automobile were heavily damaged, officials said.

REC DEPARTMENT HOLDS DIRECTOR'S SUMMER WORKSHOP

Town Playgrounds Will Open On Monday For Varied Summer Activities

The Recreation Department held its second session of the Playground Directors Workshop at the Recreation House last Saturday. All who will serve as playground directors are required to attend the Workshop - where they receive training in First Aid, running games, handicraft, playground organization, procedure, running leagues and conduct of the program, director Robert E. Cook explained.

All directors were taught and tested in First Aid. Miss Virginia Harrison who directed the First Aid instruction reports that all of the directors showed good knowledge of the subject. While few accidents happen on the playgrounds it is imperative that proper steps are taken when they do occur, Cook said.

Harold Brand, Director of Men's Activities, discussed the formation of leagues and running of tournaments. There will be inter-playground competition this year in football, dodgeball and volleyball.

Miss Harrison, who also is Handicraft Director, gave instruction in several more phases of handicraft. Instruction was also given in the previous Workshop session. The directors, in addition to instruction, actually made many of the articles that will be available for the children to make on the playgrounds.

NATIONAL GUARD AAA BATTERY GETS NEW EQUIPMENT

Four Heavy Anti-Aircraft Guns And Modern Radar Equipment To Be Installed

The New Jersey National Guard's anti-aircraft defense post in Belleville made ready this week for installation of the first of four heavy anti-aircraft artillery guns and the modern radar equipment which detects enemy aircraft and directs anti-aircraft fire.

Lt. A. J. Biviano, commander of the unit—Battery "B" of the 109th Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion—announced that the first equipment would probably be in position by the end of this week.

Radar equipment will be the first to be installed operationally, thereby joining the vast radar defense network which rings the New Jersey coastline. The Branch Brook Park site already has a nucleus of veteran, school-trained radarsmen, who will man the equipment and be in charge of training recently enlisted National Guard trainees from Belleville and surrounding localities.

Developed By Bell
The radar system to be used by Battery "B," technically called the Anti-Aircraft Artillery Fire Control System M35, was developed at the close of World War II by Bell Laboratories and is among the most advanced radar systems now in use. By means of radar beams it searches for and locates aircraft and, through a complex system of electro-mechanical computations, provides firing information for gun crews.

Four millimeter anti-aircraft guns will join the radar to make up the battery's defense. (Continued On Page Two)

MUNICIPAL BAND CONCERT SUCCESS

Director Mattick's Program Audience Enthusiastic Of

Belleville's Municipal Band last week presented its second concert of light classical and semi-popular music. Under the baton of dynamic Herbert Mattick, Belleville's band poured forth an hour of music so delightful that all who attended were left longing for more. This organized band will afford the community many rich and inspiring moments as future concerts are presented.

As before, Director Mattick's program was a skilful balance of musical selections. During the playing of "Pop Goes the Weasel" the percussion section tickled the crowd by accomplishing the "pop" with bagging balloons. Finally upon exhausting the supply of balloons, the last "pop" turned out to be a large sign produced from beneath the drums, tympani, and bells reading "POP!"

Belleville's sensational young bass, Michael Gallo, who's deep resonant voice was the highlight during the concert. In addition to a classical selection he offered "Ivory Tower."

Education Board Transfers Gryczka To School No. 8

Opening At School No. 9 To Be Filled With Full Time Teacher-Principal In System

Belleville Board of Education Monday night solved the problem of how many elementary school principals to have in the system, heard a sub-committee report on proposed uses for the vacant lot adjacent to the high school on Washington Avenue, and listened to a citizen's request that a code of conduct be drawn up and approved for high school students.

In setting the number of elementary school principals, the Board voted to fill the vacancy at School No. 8 by moving Thomas Gryczka to that post. Gryczka, who is presently serving as principal at School No. 3, will fill the vacancy created by the retirement of Miss Viola Broadhead, who has been principal at School No. 8 for the past 30 years.

Instead of appointing a full time principal, the Board voted to fill the vacancy at School No. 9. The Board then declared a vacancy at that school for teaching principal. Action of the Board was unanimous in both measures.

The Board, in effect, accomplished their original purpose of reducing the number of principals in the system for reasons of economy. However, by the appointment of a teacher-principal they have circumvented opposition that had been expressed for a previous plan of doubling up principals in the two Valley schools.

Several of the streets to receive needed repairs are over from the 1955 schedule of street repairs, while the majority of the streets have been newly designated for work under the 1956 program.

Smith said that work will start as soon as approval is received from the state. Under the present road repair program, the state contributes 80 per cent of the funds and the town pays the remaining 10 per cent. The public works department intends to start on William Street as soon as bids are advertised and awarded. Town Commission is expected to give their final approval to the project at next week's Commission meeting.

Other streets to receive repairs this summer follow in the various categories. Twelve streets will be repaved, or receive a coating of oil and sealant, or have the maintenance and repair program. These are Arthur Place, from Shurey Avenue to the end of Brook Street, from Heckel to the Newark line; Church Terrace; Eugene Place, from Route 1 to the Newark line; Jerome Avenue, from Cottage to Delavan; Laurel Court, from Meacham Street from Court.

She considers her greatest accomplishment in the teaching field "getting adolescent boys on the stage and making them sing" something not very easily done, as most people who have dealt with boys can affirm.

Miss Galley lives with her sister, also a teacher in the town's school system, at 221 Greylock Parkway. A native of Pennsylvania, she is a graduate of Long Haven, Pa., Normal School. She also attended the New England Conservatory and New York University. Future plans include taking in many opera and concert. Immediate plans for Miss Galley are a week's visit to Bermuda and at East Marion, Long Island. Then she plans to do volunteer work, catch up on playing the piano and much of the reading which she never had the time for before.

The Belleville battery is still seeking men from Belleville and neighboring towns to enlist in the National Guard and assist with its peacetime defense assignment. Battery officers and top enlisted men have spoken to numerous high school and civic groups in recent weeks in an effort to spur enlistment.

Young men between the ages of 17 and 18½ may enlist in the National Guard and assist in their military obligations at the Branch Brook Park installation rather than be drafted for duty in the regular Army. National Guardsmen drill one night weekly and attend a two-weeks summer camp yearly. In addition to the valuable military experience and training in radar, guns and vehicles, they receive one day's pay for each weekly drill and full pay for the summer camp.

It is also possible for men with prior military service to join the National Guard at the highest rank before their release from active duty. Battery "B" is open daily from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. and on Wednesday and Thursday nights for anyone interested in joining the unit.

School Board

The Subcommittee reports on possible uses for the vacant lot next to the high school was presented by Dr. Palmer Burde, Eugene Kelly, and William King. The report concluded that existing facilities in the high school were inadequate, and suggested several possible uses for the now vacant land. The report specifically mentioned mechanical drawing, general shop, physics and chemistry, print shop, and home economics as fields that needed attention.

The committee recommended that the lower portion of the one-acre tract of land could be used as a construction site to accommodate necessary building in the previously mentioned fields. The upper, and larger portion of the land which fronts on High Street, could be used for parking area, the report continued. They added that present conditions were detrimental to the safety and welfare of the students.

The report summarized that the vacant land could not be used for recreational purposes because of the size of the land and the high cost of retaining walls.

Board president Boyd said the Board would take the recommendations under consideration and propose some course of action.

Dr. Durkee

In other matters, Boyd paid special thanks to Dr. Frank M.

Durkee who filled in as acting superintendent of schools during the illness of Evan H. Thomas.

Boyd commented Dr. Durkee for the fine job he did stepping into the sudden vacancy. Dr. Frank DiIuggerio moved that the commendation be made a part of the record.

Under citizen's comments, James R. Golden suggested that a code of conduct for high school students be urged by the Board. Golden said the code would be based on the same principle as the recent code of dress adopted by high school students and approved by the Board.

Golden pointed out that such a code exists in Nutley, and while it is entirely enforced by the school, results there have been excellent. He wanted the Board to suggest to the student council and PTA that work be started on the code for the fall term.

According to Society procedure, the number of medically-needy persons utilizing the clinic will be considered, as well as other factors necessary in determining the need for such a clinic.

The eight clinic already established are diagnostic and therapeutic in nature, and are for use by medically-needy persons.

From time to time, the Clinics Committee evaluates the need for equipment in the clinics, and the Society can furnish it.

The $9,000 deep therapy machine at Orange Memorial Hospital was cited as an example.

With the Society's grant, the new hospital will be helped considerably in setting up its physical facilities for a cancer treatment center in Belleville and Nutley.

In accepting the new grant, hospital authorities were appreciative and stated that the facilities would aid in giving complete medical service to residents of the area. They also reported that construction was progressing according to plan and that the new hospital would be in use by next year.

Golden pointed out that such a code exists in Nutley, and while it is entirely enforced by the school, results there have been excellent. He wanted the Board to suggest to the student council and PTA that work be started on the code for the fall term.

Grammar School Graduates Hold Party To Celebrate

The problems of how to celebrate graduation were solved for sixty-three youngsters who graduated from School No. Seven on Wednesday. The entire graduating class together with members of the faculty, parents, board of education and supervisors turned out to a giant graduation party held at the school in its "multi-purpose" room. Under the supervision of Principal Seymour Grossman and Miss Elizabeth Forgiome, eight grade advisor, the students made all the arrangements.

The result was a turnout of one hundred per cent of the graduating class with some fifty parents dropping in during the evening. The dance began at 7:30 p.m. and lasted for three hours. Refreshments were provided by parents of the students and a cake was donated by the school. Students sat at tables of four and danced to records. Games were presented to all the girls graduates and carnations to the boys. Orchids were presented to members of the boards of education and teachers.

The party was "the end of a perfect day" which had begun with graduation exercises in the afternoon. Seymour Grossman presented the class to William A. Boyd, president of the board of education.

Certainly an unusual class, it also was responsible for the first yearbook ever published by and for a grammar school class in town. Under the editorship of Helen Castelli, the 24-page book entitled "Reminiscence", included pictures of every member of the class, the board of education, faculty and many of the school's activities. Faculty advisors were Mr. Grossman and Miss Forgiome. The school's newspaper, "Vista" received first place honors in the Columbia Press Association ratings. The paper is published monthly.

SPOTLIGHT on SPORTS

By Bob Gordin
Jim Apple Makes All-State
Jim Apple, Belleville High's versatile baseball and football athlete, clinaxed his scholastic career when he was selected for All-State honors in both the Newark News and Newark Star-Ledger last Sunday. For Apple it was a great honor to be named to the first team in all the groups division on both polls since there is usually a very wide difference of opinion when it comes to picking the outstanding players from all parts of the state.

But when it came to the final selections Apple's name was near the top as most of the rival coaches and officials who saw the Bellboy performer all agreed that he was one of the best around.

All Apple did to bang the ball at a sensational .400 clip as he led Coach Ed Berlinski's charges to a good season. He was equally at home either in the outfield or behind the plate and could always be relied upon to turn in a top notch performance. Power and speed were Apple's main assets. He could really power a ball as Berlinski will tell you.

During the recently completed season Apple collected 20 hits in 50 times at bat but of those 20 safeties nine went for extra bases. He walloped three home runs, four doubles and two triples which is a good sign for college scouts who have been eyeing the "Pride of Belleville" for the last couple of months.

The best day that Apple had this year was in a Big Ten Conference game against East Orange. All the six foot, 195-pounder did was to hit for the cycle. He murdered the East Orange pitchers as they treated him like a cousin. Apple enjoyed a field day at the expense of the Panthers, knocking out a single, double, triple and homer.

Baseball isn't Apple's only sport as followers of Belleville High readily know. During the football season Jim has been seen carrying the pigskin through the opposing line as he goes for touchdown after touchdown. Again it was Berlinski who was guiding the stocky athlete. Running out of a half back slot, Apple tallied seven TD's good for 42 points.

Apple told me this week that he has made up his mind and plans to attend college but that he hasn't decided on what school he will enroll in the Fall, but wherever he does go he will be an asset in athletics.

Joe Long, 2nd Team All Essex

While Jim Apple gained most of the post season baseball honors for Belleville High School, another veteran Joe Long also did well. The scrappy shortstop was selected for second team honors on the All-Essex squad. Long completed his senior year on the Blue and Gold baseball team with a .320 batting average.

Cardinals To Conduct Tryouts

A baseball tryout camp will be held by the St. Louis Cardinals organization at Veterans Field in Ridgewood, next Wednesday and Thursday with local ball players being invited to try out. Making the announcement was Chief Scout Joe Mathias.

"This is a big opportunity for the talented players in the Nutley - Belleville area to show their stuff," commented Mathias, a veteran of 45 years in professional baseball. "Certainly, we don't expect them to be polished players but they must display definite promise. If they've got the tools we'll find a spot for them, develop their potential, and move them up to the big time as fast as their ability warrants."

Well - known Cardinal scouts will be on the field, starting each morning at 10 a.m. to eye all young hopefuls and select those who have the tools to become the stars of the future. The workouts are open to all players between 17 and 23.

Each player who reports for the sessions need bring only a glove, baseball shoes, and a uniform if he has one. All other equipment will be furnished by the Cardinals.

"We've found some great stars through our tryout camp program," Mathias pointed out, "and, who knows, maybe another Vinegar Bend Mizell will walk into the Ridgewood camp."

Expenses incidental to attending the camp will be refunded to each boy signed to a contract with one of the Cardinal-owned clubs. To participate in tryouts an American Legion player must have the written approval from either his Legion coach or Post commander.

BRUNO RETURNS FROM CONFERENCE

Anthony F. Bruno, 10 Delia Terrace, was selected in Belleville as a representative of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, has returned from New York City where he participated in a two week training course on advanced life underwriting techniques and practices.

Among the topics under discussion during the sessions were the newest developments in the field of life insurance, the conservation of both business and personal assets, included was a detailed course in the insurance for sole proprietorships, partnerships, and corporations, and for the indemnification of loss resulting from the death of key men in the organization.

MAGLIONE REMINDS DRIVERS OF NEW CAR INSPECTION

"Don't forget to have your car inspected when due," advises Thomas Maglione, local insurance agent and spokesman for the Essex County Insurance Agents Association. Motorists are reminded that they will not receive notices this year advising when their car is due for inspection.

Under the new system of licensing motor vehicles, the division of Motor Vehicles will not send out individual postcard notices to each motorist as in the past, so it is the responsibility of each individual car or commercial vehicle owner to be sure he has his vehicle inspected during the months assigned to him, or face possible arrest and fine.

ST. ANTHONY'S COPS SECOND SHUTOUT IN CYO BASEBALL

St. Anthony's, Belleville, justified its selection as a strong pre-season contender for the Essex County CYO Intermediate Baseball League championship. The Anthony's scored their second successive shut out victory over Mt. Carmel, Montclair, at 11:00 a.m. in setting Mt. Carmel down, Sunday.

Where Ralph Conte had wielded the whitewash week ago, it was Pete Kramarsky who turned in the victory this time. He gave up three hits and struck out 11 in setting Mt. Carmel down, 3-0.

Losing pitcher Larry Coughlin deserved a better fate, however. He pitched a creditable one-hitter, but two of his mates three errors came in the fifth frame and allowed St. Anthony's to push two unearned runs across the plate. Actually, though, Anthony's didn't need the gifts, having scored a single tally in the third frame. The way Kramarsky was going, that was enough to win.

St. Anthony's draws a bye this week but on July 1 faces the toughest test of the season. Playing the first half of a twin bill at the Newark Civic Center, Anthony's will tangle with Sacred Heart, Vailsburg. Sacred Heart was over-ruled in the pre-season game but in last week's opener beat St. Casimir's, Newark, 3-1. St. Casimir's is the defending champion and is loaded with former Newark East Side players.

The game is scheduled for a 1 p.m. start.

Through the Oven Door

by your Heckers REPORTER

Have trouble washing your floor sifter?

Don't place a sifter under hot water while floor is still on it. This results in doughy coating that is hard to get off. Flush away floor with cold water first. Then wash with hot soap suds, rinse and wipe dry. Easy to do and minutes faster.

Did you know that it takes longer to reach an unbleached flour for making bread than it does to mill and bleach a flour?

It is significant, you think that unbleached flour bleached from the first, is still the same fine natural unbleached flour in these days with costs and high production goals.

Heckers is naturally white and the only unbleached flour you can buy in the local market. Heckers' remains unbleached because its makers, at its tens of thousands of mills, use the natural white of the wheat.

Heckers' means fuller flavor, better texture, and finer appearance in all home baking.

Making good bread is too much for the amount of gravity you want to make. Don't throw the excess away. Just add Heckers' flour to all of it and place over burner under mixture in hot water. excess in refrigerator for more gravity later. Keep perfectly.

Want to try your hand at some new recipes? Here are two that Heckers' users praise to the skies:

JIMMY CAKE

Ingredients
2 cups butter
2 cups confectioner's sugar
6 eggs yolks

2 1/4 tsp. baking powder
1 cup cold cream
1/2 cup chocolate shot

1 egg whites

LETTERS To The Editor

Editor, Belleville Times-News:

Last night, (June 13) in Belleville High School the Belleville Municipal Band played a concert to a very small but enthusiastic audience.

The reason I wanted to write this letter was because the band certainly deserves the support of all music-lovers of Belleville and surrounding territory. This was a very superior performance and one which did great credit to the sponsor, the Belleville Recreation Department, to the members of the band and to their director.

I sincerely hope that the next time the band gives a concert more of our citizenry will be there to encourage this worthwhile endeavor with their presence and their applause.

Sincerely Yours,
Miss L. E. Goettert

William H. Griffing

William H. Griffing Sr., of 27 Jefferson Street, died at his home June 5th after an illness of three months. He was 72.

Mr. Griffing is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Hickey Griffing; two sons, William Henry Jr., of Newark and John O. of Merrick, L.I.; a daughter, Mrs. George Baradel of Lindenhurst, L.I.; a brother, Warren of Milford, Conn.; two sisters, Mrs. Mae Griffing Smith of Westville, N. H., and Mrs. Elizabeth Grinstead of Pensacola, Fla., and four grandchildren.
