

Bellboys Open Saturday
Against East Orange
For Season's Kick-Off

Coach Eddie Berlinski Pinning Hopes For A Successful Season On Strong Veteran Line; Only One Returning Letterman In Backfield

This Saturday Belleville will attempt to prove that they have broken the hex that East Orange has held over them. The Panthers have suffered but one defeat at the hands of the Bellboys since the series was inaugurated. That defeat came last year, and another one, Saturday, would prove that the Blue and Gold has broken the spell.

The Bellboys will no longer have to contend with the single wing offense. Don Fous, the most successful collegiate coach of 1955, has taken over for the reins of the team.

Fous has installed the split T offense. For years the Blue and Gold was baffled by the single wing—even a poor team that employed it was coached on to give Belleville a rough time. Now it is doubted that they will have to play the same type of offense this year, as Kearney, the only other team that used it, has abandoned it.

Ineligible Players
East Orange has experienced a great deal of difficulty with ineligible players.

1956 Football Schedule
Sept. 22 B'ville vs. East Orange
Sept. 29 B'ville vs. Bloomfield
Oct. 6 B'ville vs. Nutley
Oct. 13 B'ville vs. West Side
Oct. 20 B'ville vs. Irvington
Oct. 27 B'ville vs. Hillside
Nov. 3 B'ville vs. West Side
Nov. 10 B'ville vs. Kearny
Nov. 22 B'ville vs. Orange

Ineligible players. No less than six potential starters have been kept out of the team because of scholastic difficulty. Of the remaining two, one joined the Marines, and the other had played football with a prep school. Dodson, who joined the Marines, was considered an all-state possibility.

Belleville's final advantage is the fact that they are facing the Panthers at their home field. There's nothing like opening the season at home.

The Bellboys do not know what to expect from Bous. They have never faced any of his teams, and don't know his "pet" plays. The moves of previous Bellboys' teams are useless, as the style of play has been revamped. The only thing that the Blue and Gold does know is that they're going to have a rough game.

LOCAL AAA UNIT
SEEKS MORE MEN TO FILL RANKS

Battery Commander Is Disappointed Over Small Number Of Local Enlistees

Recruiting is top priority at Belleville Park where Battery B 109th Anti-Aircraft Battalion, New Jersey National Guard, makes its headquarters. Training, noon and night recruiting is the by-word. However the youth of Belleville and surrounding towns are not responding as well as expected by First Sgt. Angelo J. Biviano, Battery Commander.

When the battery was first activated on May 15, 1956 it was the opinion that the Battery's authorized strength of 105 enlisted men would be filled in very little time. But such is not the case and no one can come up with a good reason why the young men of Belleville are not visiting the site to at least find out what makes Battery B has to offer.

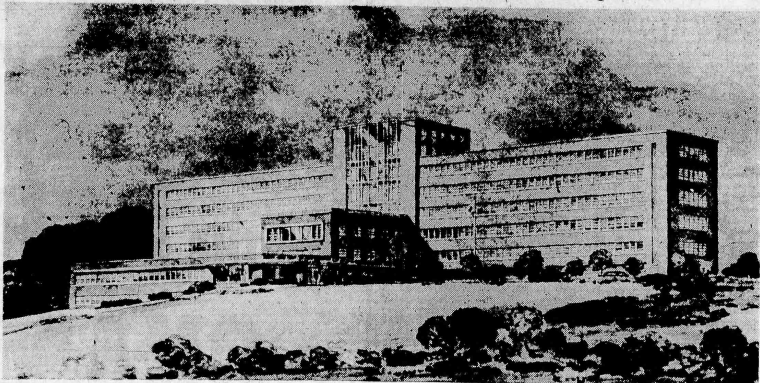

Many opportunities await former service men and the opportunity for advancement for new men are excellent. For instance, a young man age 17 to 18 and a half enlistment as a private E-1 is automatically promoted to a private E-2 four months later with an increase of pay from $75 per month to $75 per month. Incidentally, a national guardman receives a full army day's pay for two hours each week for 15 days field training each summer he receives full army pay and allowances.

After automatic promotion to a private E-2, it is then up to the individual, for future promotions are unlimited.

Battery B has a varied field for young men interested in any of the following: radar, 90mm guns, radio, administration, cooking and mess management, auto mechanics and heavy and light truck driving.

Weekend Weather
It will be a cool weekend, according to the weatherman, with possible showers falling by Sunday. Temperatures are expected to be in the low 70's.

Cornerstone Laying For Clara Maass Hospital

The cornerstone will be inserted, ceremoniously, in the walls of the new $5,000,000 Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, in Franklin Avenue, on Saturday, September 29. The actual construction has proceeded so far that June has been set for the hospital's opening. Destined to provide service chiefly for Nutley, Belleville, Bloomfield and Newark, it will add 324 beds to the limited capacity now available. Governor Robert Meyner will speak at the ceremony.

Thirty Additional Students To Be Accepted; Openings Exist In Other Courses

Because of the large demand for driver education, the Belleville Adult School Advisory Group has made arrangements to take 30 additional applications for the course. The board has just experienced a summer during which a large amount of damage had been caused by juvenile vandals. Damage ranged from signs of broken windows to a torn down chimney and other acts of vandalism.

A boy stated that the payment received has covered the rest of damage in these two cases, and that all future acts would be dealt with in a similar manner.

In other business, Board members tentatively approved the continuation of Saturday morning music classes for interested students. The classes have been running for the past several years and are paid for by participating students, so are in effect private classes. This year classes will start October 6.

Although voicing disapproval with certain administrative phases of the course, the Board did not object to the present system until November 19. During the interim, the board will study the program and make needed revisions in the setup.

The Board felt that responsibility for the administration of the program should be vested with itself, and not be delegated to the instructors who teach the program, as has been the custom previously. Although wishing to assume responsibility for the administration of the program, the Board did not consider taking over the financial responsibility for the instruction.

The entire investigation is closed as far as I'm concerned," Webb said.

The entire investigation by local and county authorities was the result of charges made by James Golden at a Town Commission meeting. At the time Golden started everybody by pulling out a cap pistol at the August 14 meeting to show how juveniles had rigged it up to fire blank cartridges. Golden also said he had a bag of blanks he claimed were purchased at a local sport shop.

On August 16, Public Safety Director Harry J. Sullivan stated that his department had investigated the incident and that he was satisfied the alleged sale had not been made in the shop. He also stated that the local police investigation of his charge was a whitewash. Golden accompanied his charge with the announcement that he asked New prosecutor's office to take over the probe.

After repeated questioning at Commission meetings, Golden was informed by Municipal Court Clerk Charles Tedesco that the local police findings had been turned over to the prosecutor.

Saturday Morning Instrumental Program Temporarily Approved By Board Until Study Can Be Completed To Transfer Administration

Stressing their new "get tough policy" toward juvenile offenders, Belleville's Board of Education Monday night stated that all future acts of school vandalism would be treated with the utmost severity.

A. Boyd emphasized that fact after Board attorney Max N. Schwartz reported payment had been received from the parents of two juveniles apprehended in acts of vandalism this spring and summer.

Simultaneously, a drive to equip the hospital will be inaugurated. The dinner, proceeds from which will go to the hospital, will be attended by civic and community leaders and prominent members of the medical profession.

The cornerstone dedication ceremony will take place the following day, Sunday, September 30, on the Franklin Avenue site, opposite Branch Brook Park, where the building is now rapidly nearing completion.

Speakers will include Governor Robert Meyner; H. Bruce Palmer, President of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company and of the Greater Newark Medical Center; Harry A. Trotter, President, Board of Trustees, Clara Maass Hospital; John F. Kilde, Chairman of the Fund Raising Committee; and William D. Keck, President of the hospital's Medical Staff.

Equipment Drive
Beginning Monday, October 1, and continuing throughout the month, a drive will be conducted to equip the hospital under the general chairmanship of Raymond S. Perry, President of Federal Telephone and Radio Company, a division of International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation.

The area to be served by the new hospital includes Belleville, Bloomfield, Nutley, North Newark and Clifton. Appeals to industry, as well as to friends and neighbors of the new hospital, will emphasize the fact that any contribution for equipment, large or small, will be welcomed. The list of equipment to be purchased ranges from an annual subscription to a public health nurse. She attended Belleville schools and is a graduate of Belleville High School. She later graduated from St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing in Paterson, and received her public health training at both Seton Hall University and New Jersey State Teachers' College.

At present, the state agency controls the price of milk being supplied to schools, so that all five bids received Monday night were the same. The Board was given reason to believe that the price stabilization would be lifted shortly, thus making a saving possible in later contracts.

stored in the department library — a large wooden closet in the Chief's office. "The men just don't have time to get bored," Chief White told us, "and I haven't seen a card game in here in years," he continued.

When the Chief isn't busy with duties at Fire Headquarters, he spends time with many social and church organizations. The macons and the Shriners take up much of his time, as does the Pewsouth church. On some occasions, the Chief is a guest speaker when he will be at the October 9 meeting of the local chapter of Kiwanis. The occasion will be the opening of Fire Prevention Week, at which time the town will again see the well-known chains outside the three fire houses. The Chief told us that since the custom was started, some four years ago, there hasn't yet been a year when they have remained unbroken. "But of course, we're hoping again this year," he said.

Superstitions

"You know, it's funny," White said, "but in this business, things seem to happen in threes, we often have cycles of three of the same kind of fires within a short period of time. Many firemen are superstitious," he admitted, "and I'm one of them." When asked what his pet superstition is, White replied, "Never brag, because the minute you do, something comes along to upset the apicard."

When thinking over his years with the fire department, White recalls one of the highlights of his career, when he and another fireman rescued a man from a burning building. The man, Paul Hollberg, of 141 Floyd Street, was rescued in it. Otherwise, it's best to hanging out of the second story

LANDSCAPE WORK AT SCHOOL NO. 8

A program of landscaping the grounds of School No. 8 has begun with the planting of evergreens around the base of the building according to Thomas C. Gryzka, newly appointed principal at the grade school. The front of the building, facing Cheesman Field will be redone in its entirety, he added. The entire program is a children's project paid for by school funds, he said.

Gryzka said that planting would be done in stages. There is $240 left in the School No. 8 account and Gryzka stated that as new money is obtained, further work will be undertaken.

He said that all the school children would be photographed this week, and that the profit from this plan would also be turned over to the landscaping project.

Gryzka also revealed that he has a girls garden club of 10 girls which meets every Friday afternoon. This week the club will plant hyacinths which should be ready by Easter. The club has been doing some of the planting work around the school, he said.

Big One Coming Up Tomorrow

The 1956 scholastic season will get underway tomorrow with Belleville High School playing host to East Orange at Municipal Stadium in the traditional opening fray of the campaign. This will be a big game for Coach Ed Berlinski and his charges and ranks as one of the top attractions in the area behind the Montclair-Orange tussle.

According to the schedule, the season is just beginning for the fans but if you speak to any of the coaches they will tell you it is half over. Starting tomorrow the teams will show just what they've learned since the start of practice beginning September 1.

The month of September is the tell-tale period. A coach can tell from pre-season practice just what he can expect when the game official blows the first whistle. If the team hasn't jelled in September it is rough once the opposition gets the upper hand.

As for veteran Coach Berlinski, he is never one for putting himself on a spot by coming out with predictions. He admits that he has a veteran line returning but is quick to point out that his backfield was almost stripped by the graduation of quarterback Frank Puleo, halfback Jim Apple and fullback Bob Paganelli.

Saturday promises to be a big day with powerful East Orange being faced. Most teams like to open up with a "brother" but that isn't the case with Berlinski. The Bellboys jump right in against the cream of the crop, foot first. The game promises to be a thriller with each of the squads being highly rated.

If Belleville can get by East Orange, usually a jinx team, it will be a major victory and put the Blue and Gold on the right track. The following week Belleville will play its first away game and will travel to Foley Field for a fray against highly regarded Bloomfield High.

Support Varsity Club, Buy Football Programs!!!

The 1956 scholastic football season is here and will officially get started tomorrow afternoon when Belleville High inaugurates the season with popular Ed Berlinski again at the helm. Starting tomorrow it will mark the start of the second year that the Belleville Varsity Club is putting out the football program, and from what I understand it will be a beauty. Headed by president Fred McQuilkin, the Varsity Club has put together a neat looking 20-page booklet.

The program committee has been hard at work for the last two months drawing up plans for the booklet and the going out and getting ads to pay the freight. Highlight of the program will be individual photographs of different players which will appear every week along with the team rosters. Eight pictures will appear in each issue.

Also included in the 20-page booklet are pictures of the Blue and Gold varsity squad, a photo of the Bellboy coaching staff which includes Ed Berlinski, Ray Smith and Herman "Jitty" Wische, and shots of the band, twirlers and cheerleaders. Appearing in the center-fold along with pictures of the players will be a pre-game write-up telling about the different rivalries and how the teams have been doing to date.

By supporting the Varsity Club project you are helping the sports minded organization to honor the football team and also senior athletes in all other major sports. Remember, when you enter Municipal Stadium tomorrow, don't forget to purchase a Varsity Club football program.

Crystal Gazing

Believe it or not it seems like only a couple of months ago that I was looking at my crystal ball trying to call the shots of the weekly scholastic football games, but it has been ten months since the Turkey Day classics were played. During the 1955 football season I came out with a respectable .822 percentage. The pigskin season is just about here and will be ushered in, in full force, come Saturday.

For the next nine weeks this "armchair expert" will try and predict the winning teams in games played in and around Essex County.

Belleville to edge East Orange. That's right, The Bellboys to come out on top. I'm defying the jinx that has been sticking to the Blue and Gold. Last year Belleville battered the hex and won its first game since the two teams have been meeting on the gridiron. Until this time Coach Ed Berlinski's boys had only two ties to their credit. Berlinski is fairly well set on the line but is working almost from scratch in the backfield. If his veteran linemen can open those holes I look for the Blue and Gold to make it two in succession over the Panthers.

Plainfield to defeat Barringer. The Big Blue will hold their own against City League competition but when they get out of their own backyard it's a different story. Plainfield is being touted as one of the best teams in Union County.

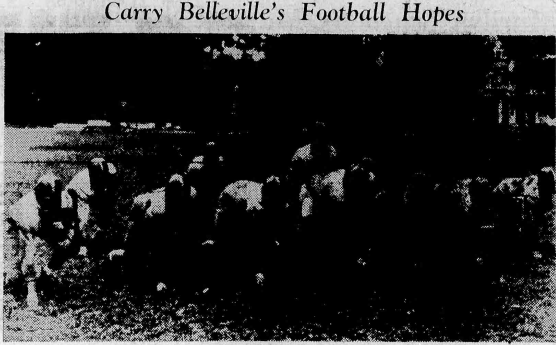

Perth Amby to turn back East Side. Like Barringer, East Side will also find out-of-county competition a little too rough. Perth Amby will make this effort a winning one.

Clifford Scott to halt Glen Ridge. The East Orange gridsters will move to victory as the two smaller Essex County teams meet in a free-scoring fray.

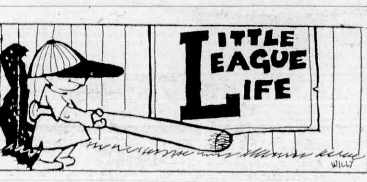

Montclair to down Orange. This easily shapes up as the outstanding game of the day and should be one of the better attractions of the season. With Nutley enjoying an off-day there will be many Manon supporters in the stands at Woodman Field since Nutley will play Orange next week. Orange is set for a good year but unfortunately they always have to face powerful Montclair in the first game of the season. The Mounties are once again ready for all comers.

Seton Hall to squeeze by Bloomfield. The Pony Pirates managed to eke out a tight 6-0 opening game victory a year ago. I predict another close decision with the Bengals coming out second best.

West Orange to roll over Irvington. The Cowboys are expected to be one of the powers in the county this season. Irvington has little to rejoice about.

Belleville is hoping that its veteran line can carry a backfield containing only one veteran when they meet East Orange at Belleville, tomorrow. The line, from left to right, is Ray Kimble, end, co-captain Wayne Worley, tackle; Bill Kintzing, guard; Bill Bartell, center; Pat Mc Cabe, guard; Larry Corbo, tackle; and Gene Pisandella, end. The backfield is Frank Malfatta, co-captain and only vet in the backfield, at right half, Pete Duca, at left half; Bruce Mc Cumber, the quarterback; and Gene Barra, fullback.

Another Little League season has come to an end. In our opinion this has been the most successful year that Belleville Little League has ever experienced. We have watched hotly contested games between both National and American Leagues. The spirit of fair play in a true Little League sense existed in every contest. We have had differences of opinion concerning unresolvable decisions but after all is said and done the best that any umpire can ever hope for is to be right 50 per cent of the time. Our league has progressed to the point where it is financially solvent and well on its way to be able to construct a first class Little League field.

With the cooperation of our Recreation Department, a field will be ready for opening day next year. Next year's field may not be the permanent one but it will be the field which will be acceptable for tournament play. The present plans call for the location of the field, either at Mill Street or at the stadium. This will be a temporary site for Little League use as it is planned, the permanent Little League field will be located between the skating rink on Division Avenue and the Stadium. The temporary field being made available to the Little League will be turned over to the farm league when a permanent field is ready.

Last week saw the completion of four local world series. On Wednesday night the Giants, led by their pitching ace, George Sheridan, faced the Bombers and their ace Allan Belus. It was a higher, better for five and one half innings. In the last half of the sixth inning a single, a walk, and a double steal put a man on second and third for the Bombers, with nobody out. With Belus at bat, and a double steal put a man on second and third for the Bombers, with nobody out. With Belus at bat, and a double steal put a man on second and third for the Bombers, with nobody out. The year end party for Belleville Little Leaguers will be held some time in October. Trophies for the winners of each league, and the All-Stars will be awarded at this time. The party is being delayed until October so that major league baseball celebrities can be in attendance.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Carrey, for without his help this article would not have been possible.

their hands, and that the Panthers will line up in a split "T" formation.

Belleville is pinning its hope on its line. Line Coach "Jitty" Wische believes that it is superior to last year's line at this stage of the game. It is a very fast charging line and it is believed there are veterans from tackle to tackle and it is on these veterans that Wische and can depend when they will carry the backfield until it jells.

The backfield is the big problem. With only one veteran, co-captain Malfatta, no one knows what to expect. The sooner they click, though, the better off Belleville will be.

Belleville's problems, however, appear to be less numerous than East Orange's. They have looked good in scrimmage, particularly on defense. If they get downfield blocking and can defend against the pass as well as they have done in the past, they will provide a battle for any team.

Saturday's game will have to see Belleville as a slight favorite, but the Bellboys are on familiar ground. After the Panthers are met, Belleville will prepare to do battle against coach Berlinski's alma mater, Bloomfield. Berlinski always likes to beat his former team, and if he succeeds, following a triumph Saturday, Belleville will be in a most advantageous spot.

Kiwanis Are Hosts To Group District Governor

Belleville Kiwanis will be hosts to the New Jersey district governor, Otto Riemenschneider, at a luncheon meeting on Tuesday at Bethany Lutheran Church.

He has participated in many local musical affairs and has been heard on the radio and appeared in television productions.

Michael Gallo To Join

If you're saving for peace of mind...

...where you save does make a difference

It's a good feeling to have savings for any emergency. And where you save does make a difference - as over 16 million Americans know. They're enjoying important advantages by putting their money into insured Savings and Loan Associations. Excellent returns from your money is one advantage. Another is efficient service from men who know how to make your dollars work harder for you. And, of course, your money is safe. Your savings are protected by sound management and substantial reserves. They are insured up to $10,000 by the FSLIC - an agency of the U. S. Government. These are the reasons why Americans are putting more of their savings account dollars into insured Savings and Loan Associations than anywhere else! Start enjoying these worthwhile advantages at your nearby insured Association. Drop in tomorrow.

ARCHERY PROGRAM OFFERS NEW SPORT TO YOUNGSTERS

The Recreation Department Archery Program will move into its fall season starting this Tuesday afternoon, at the Municipal Stadium. The fall program is designed for boys and girls of high school age. It is not necessary that they already know how to shoot.

Those who wish instruction will receive it under the skilled leadership of Miss Virginia Harrison. Miss Harrison says that anyone can learn the art of the bow and arrow in a surprisingly short time.

The fall Archery Program will terminate in a tournament with trophies for the champions, but everyone will find that the flying arrows will offer a lot of fun and excitement.

And, who knows, maybe Belleville can produce a state or national champion, Miss Harrison said.

KEITH LENNOX SPEAKS AT SUNDAY BIBLE STUDY CLASS

"What shall we believe?" "What principles should govern our relations with others?" "What does the future hold?" These are some of the questions people ask about life which in our day certainly raise many questions. But where can anyone find the answers? In man's books of knowledge? Or perhaps in the "book of nature"? Hardly, as they have already been perused and have proved inadequate.

Does this mean then that life's questions must go on unanswered because accurate information is lacking? No, not at all. Trustworthy answers are available and to obtain them men are invited to turn to a source higher than themselves or this world, namely, to God and his written Word, the Holy Bible. Have you done this? In considering life's questions have you consulted the book with the answer?

Jehovah's witnesses wish to aid you in doing this very thing. That is why this Sunday at 3 p.m. the local congregation is holding a public talk on the topic, "The Book with Life's Answers" at the Kingston Hall, 64 Franklin Avenue, Nutley. It is hoped that in this discussion your particular question will be considered and scripturally answered.

To Claim The Hillside

Now is the time of year when flames burn through the day and fade at night, Startle the wood with colored themes And prove that summer's out of date.

The asters dusting by the road Have left their bluish mists go by, And constellations are pursued By wedges winging in the sky. The gray fox searches out his moon And aims a sharp staccato bark To claim the hillside as his own Within the autumn's brittle dark.

Republicans Sleep On

As of today, there are less than seven weeks until the national elections. National polls, subsequent to the defeat of the Republicans in Maine, show that whereas President Eisenhower had been a 5-to-1 favorite to win re-election a month ago he is but a 4-to-1 favorite today. By comparison, the Republican campaign technique is negative; the Democrats' is more forceful, more productive.

There is no comparison between Stevenson the campaigner of 1956 and Adlai Stevenson of 1952. Senator Estes Kefauver has brought a tremendous strength to the Democratic campaign. Together they are very effective and if Harry Truman were to keep his mouth shut, they could be much more effective. In fact, Harry Truman, either by malice or by stupidity, has been the best campaigner for Eisenhower thus far. He convinced nobody with his recent senseless defense of Alger Hiss and his renewal of the "red herring" charge.

But the Republicans need more than Harry Truman's "faux pas" to win. They stand to lose support in the Senate in Ohio, in Kentucky and out in the Pacific Northwest. They already have lost one Congressional seat in Maine. If the Republican purpose is to re-elect Eisenhower, only then there is a chance for victory, even though that chance is dimmer today than it was a month ago. If the purpose is to gain control of both the Senate and Congress, then the Republicans are fighting a losing battle.

On a State level, Governor Meyner, this week, began a barnstorming campaign, which will involve 36 public appearances in eleven counties between now and November 4. The purpose is to reduce or to wipe out the record plurality of 359,000 votes by which President Eisenhower carried New Jersey in 1952.

On the Republican side, what gives? At a rally in Newark last night, Senators H. Alexander Smith and Clifford P. Case spoke. No other speeches by them are definitely scheduled from here on. Vice President Nixon is booked to come into New Jersey for a quick visit. On the books, that's all.

It is evident, therefore, that if New Jersey is to be held in the Eisenhower column and if any seats are to be gained in Congress, it will be up to the local Republican organizations, right down into the wards and precincts.

Low Flying Pilots Are Criminals

Low flying planes are a danger in any congested area but, particularly, in this strip of the Passaic River valley between the busy Newark and Teterboro Airports of the New York Port Authority where one town runs into another and where the traffic from one airport blends with the other and both cross the traffic into and out of LaGuardia Airport.

The time to act is now before there is a major catastrophe here such as that which occurred, a few years back, in Elizabeth and which led to a shutdown for many months of the Newark Airport.

Belleville lies on the direct route of planes to and from La Guardia Airport, headed for points West and South. Those planes, chiefly four-motored jets, fly high. They pass over us at well over 6,000 feet, hence are not involved in the violations which deserve an urgent protest.

The principal violations are by planes in or out of Teterboro, with infrequent violations by planes in or out of Newark Airport which fly over Belleville when fog or a complete shift of prevailing winds forces that Airport to use an emergency pattern.

The Teterboro planes are, for the most part, freight and mail planes or heavily overloaded "crates" ferrying immigrants from Puerto Rico or Cuba. Those passengers enter this country chiefly through the commercial airport along Route 46. Those are the planes which, probably because of their heavy loads, fail to gain height after their takeoff and cross over Belleville only a few hundred feet above our rooftops or come down to a dangerously low level before they straighten out for their long glide into Teterboro.

Belleville has already filed its complaint with both the Port Authority and the National Air Transport Coordinating Committee. The latter has promised to make a survey of the situation and its observers will be stationed in Belleville over a period of weeks to check on low-flying planes. Citizens who are annoyed by the noise of the violating planes can cooperate by reporting to police the direction of the offending planes, their height, the exact time of passage and, if possible, whether it is a two or a four-engine plane. This intelligence will be checked against the logs in the control towers of Newark and Teterboro and, in that manner, the pilots guilty of violating the national air code can be identified—and punished.

One Man's Opinion

Suez Canal Crisis Was Made To Order For Russia To Stir Up Trouble For The West While Rallying Arabs To Her Cause

By Ralph Eric Heinzen

Once gold was the root of all evil; now it is oil.

Behind the Suez Canal crisis which threatens to bring war to the Arab lands along the eastern and southern rim of the Mediterranean, is oil and the utter dependence of the West on Middle East oil. Without any oil of their own, both France and Britain are wholly dependent upon the oil which flows Westward through the Suez Canal and through the desert pipelines. Deprived of Middle Eastern oil, neither could survive more than a few weeks.

That explains why the red hand of Moscow is to be seen stirring up more trouble in the Suez Canal dispute. The canal's new pilots, replacing the 200 who quit their jobs, are Russian or from Russia's satellites. If Russian pilots steer the oil tankers through the canal, then Moscow can hope to control the flow of oil, both through Egypt's friendship and through Russia's ability to choke traffic by manipulating her pilots. Egypt's friendship with the other Arab states should take care of the pipelines, too, because they lay exposed to sabotage on the surface of the stony, sandy desert.

Obscured by the headlines emanating from Cairo and London over the canal crisis is the fact that tensions run high in every Arab land on the Levantine coast and in Jordan, Iraq, Iran and Saudi Arabia to the East. An undeclared shooting war has been in progress for weeks between Israel and Jordan, despite the efforts of the United Nations to prevent any incursion of the other's territory by either.

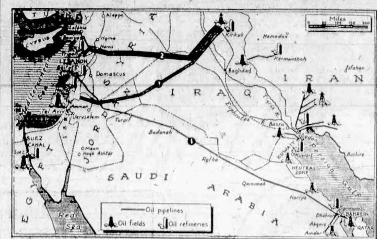

That undeclared war could become a decided war overnight and such are the commitments of Britain and France to the Arab states, even while Cyprus seethes with revolt against British rule, British and French troops continue to pour into the island for possible Suez duty.

France also has troubles of its own. In his sabre-rattling speech last Saturday, threatening war all through the Arab lands if the West tried to impose the Dulles "canal users' control" on the canal, Nasser boasted that only 10,000 Algerian "patriots" are holding the French army of 300,000 at bay.

He boasted, too, that Egypt now has the arms it needs to put many thousands more Algerians into the field against the French if war comes over the canal.

Difficulties also are brewing for the rulers of oil-rich Arab lands lying to the east of Egypt. These rulers, principally of Saudi

Pipelines On Sandy Desert Vs. Canal

This map shows the main centers of oil extraction in the Arab lands of the Middle East, all of which have concessions held by Western capitalist nations, including the United States. The oil can be moved either through the Red Sea and the Suez Canal or it can be moved by pipelines to Levantine ports on the Mediterranean. Once the main pipeline, the pipe numbered 3 on this map, formerly had its terminus at Haifa, on the coast of Palestine. Since the creation of Israel, the Arabs have cut that pipeline at the origin of Jordan. That example worries the West because all of the pipelines are laid on the surface of the stony desert, at the mercy of saboteurs.

however, Algeria is considered by Frenchmen to be a part of metropolitan France.

Algeria, therefore, has not been granted independence. In consequence Algerian nationalists are waging a full-scale revolt against French rule which has caused the stationing of more than 300,000 French combat troops in Algeria. France charges the Egyptian regime of President Nasser with fomenting and aiding the Algerian revolt through inflammatory Cairo broadcasts and through the supply of arms to Algerian insurgents.

Nasser Gets Tough In his sabre-rattling speech last Saturday, threatening war all through the Arab lands if the West tried to impose the Dulles "canal users' control" on the canal, Nasser boasted that only 10,000 Algerian "patriots" are holding the French army of 300,000 at bay.

He boasted, too, that Egypt now has the arms it needs to put many thousands more Algerians into the field against the French if war comes over the canal.

Difficulties also are brewing for the rulers of oil-rich Arab lands lying to the east of Egypt. These rulers, principally of Saudi

On the one hand, these leaders risk the wrath of their own excited people if they cast doubts on the wisdom of Egypt's current policies. On the other hand, some Arab leaders see disaster shadowing their own regimes should Egypt's policies lead to war with the West.

Saudi Arabia is a case in point. Closely allied with Colonel Nasser, King Saud bin Abdul Aziz has faithfully seconded Egypt's nationalization of the Suez Canal Company.

Risk Of Sabotage

At home, however, King Saud is deeply dependent upon his enormous income from oil royalties to placate internal opposition to his regime. Should Colonel Nasser's Suez policies lead to sabotage of Arabian American Oil Company installations in Saudi Arabia, King Saud might find himself in difficult straits.

King Saud's situation is reflected in different ways in Kuwait, Iraq, Jordan, Syria, and Lebanon. Through pipelines and refineries, the network of Western oil investment entices all these countries. In varying degree the leaders of these countries are dependent upon the income from oil whose flow they have pledged themselves to disrupt in the event of war between Egypt and the West.

LETTERS To The Editor

Editor, Belleville Times-News:

Why don't you report the news objectively and let the chips fall where they may?

Mr. Golden's remarks are made in the open. He gives his opponents a fair chance to defend themselves.

He merely attends Commission meetings and pin points loose business methods, or small extravagances, that mount so at the end of a year and bring on confiscatory tax rates.

What is irrational about the above activities?

Is it only your idea to suppress Mr. Golden's letters or has the policy and ownership of the paper changed? It is fatal for any newspaper to suppress criticism of any public servant?

Yours truly,

Julia M. Hernier
