Slight Increase Shown In Voter Registration For General Election

Belleville Voting Lists Are Up By 285 Over
The 1952 Presidential Figures; Essex County
Voter Registrations Show Small Decreases

Although final figures reveal that voter registration in Essex County has taken a drop since the 1952 presidential election, Belleville is one of several Essex communities which shows a slight increase.

County Commissioner of Registration John B. Keenan reported this week that Belleville's list of eligible voters in the November 6 election totals 17,260. This figure is an increase of 285 over four years ago. At that time, 16,975 voters were registered in town.

These figures may still be increased by a small number of additional applications for absentee ballots are received. These will be accepted by the county office until eight days before the election.

Percentage-wise, Belleville's voter list this year is only about two per cent higher than it was for the 1952 presidential election.

That year, 85 per cent of the registered voters turned out to give President Eisenhower a majority in excess of 2,000.

Primary Figures
However, when compared to the registration lists for the last general election, the primary lists of Belleville show a slight increase, which is to be expected.

This spring, only 349 voters were registered. By comparison, the present lists have been increased by more than 16 per cent over these primary figures.

Taking Essex County as a whole, registration for the November 6 election is up by 285 over four years ago.

Knuppel Director Of Adult School, Teaches At No. 8

By Rita Knoll

The director of Belleville's Adult School is generally known to be head and shoulders above most men. This can be proved when you take a look at all 6-8" of Herman D. Knuppel. Also a history and English teacher at School No. 8 and a former teacher at the high school, Mr. Knuppel found that the biggest difference between teaching in grade and high schools is the size of the average student.

"In grade schools they seemed so very small in comparison with the high school students who are usually a little closer to my own height," he said.

A native of Weehawken, Mr. Knuppel has been teaching in the local school system for eight years. After graduation from Yonkers College, with a degree in physical education, he found that he was too tall to be accepted by the Yonkers Athletic Club.

After playing professional basketball in Washington, New York and Philadelphia, he settled down to teaching physical education. He came to Belleville when he heard of an opening for a gym teacher at the high school. Soon after this, he took a course in driver education and was appointed a driver education instructor.

When he started the Adult School, he was one of the first teachers to take students out in the newly acquired dual-control car.

BETTER SCHOOLS COMMITTEE HOLDS MEETING TUESDAY

Session, Open To Public,
Devoted To Discussion
Of School Construction

In an effort to approach Belleville's school problem from an informed and unbiased viewpoint the Better Schools Committee has invited all citizens and civic leaders to participate in a series of meetings. Ernest Arvidson, president of the group, said, "Some of the facets of education to be studied will be the school plant and its effect on curriculum how to take advantage of state and national aid to education, the system which includes a junior high school and the 8-4 system now used in Belleville, and other topics pertinent to a thorough study of the entire school program."

Members of the Board of Commissioners, Lay Advisory Committee, and the Board of Education are especially invited to attend, or to send a personal representative, Arvidson said. The special program on school construction will be held on Tuesday, at 8 p. m. in the auditorium of School No. 8 on Union Avenue.

A representative of Kelly and Grozen, Newark, prominent architect who has won awards for school design in New York and New Jersey, will present a description of economical schools which have been built under conditions that paralleled those found in Belleville. State building requirements and new methods of construction will also be discussed, Arvidson said.

Yesterday And Will Continue Through Saturday

More than $8,000 has already been collected in Belleville's 1957 Community Chest campaign. The exact figure was set at $8,818 by Chest secretary Miss. John Keller and campaign chairman Raymond Williamson. This total takes into account all money turned into Chest headquarters through Wednesday.

Mr. Rochau said that the entire town has been divided into eight areas with zone leaders appointed in each. These zone leaders, in turn, have appointed captains who are responsible for smaller blocks of territory. "In this way," Mrs. Rochau said, "we hope to cover the entire town as thoroughly as possible."

Zone Leaders
The eight zone leaders are Mrs. Viola Sperry, Mrs. E. Knapp, Mrs. Walter Loomer, Mrs. Rochau, Mrs. C. E. Ashe, Mrs. Margaret Oschwald, Mrs. Henry Lewis, and Mrs. Victor Hart. Mrs. Rochau has asked all local residents to help in the drive.

LOCAL INDUSTRY TO EXPAND OPERATION

De Rosa & Sons Enter
Air Suspension Field

De Rosa & Sons, Inc., of Belleville, one of New Jersey's leading vehicle body manufacturers, announce their entry into the air suspension field to complete their fast growing body building business.

Under an agreement recently entered into with Air-Springs Inc., a national company which manufactures the radically different design of Air-Springs Inc. suspension which is characterized by its simplicity of construction and low air pressure features.

Air-Springs Inc. has been testing its units for the past six years and it is now felt they are ready for commercial production.

Belleville Driver Fined,
Has License Suspended

Jack Vorrillo, 19, of 27 Prospect Street, was fined $100 and his driver's license was suspended for three months Monday when he was found guilty of reckless driving by Nutley Magistrate Edwin J. C. Joerg.

Vorrillo was charged by patrolmen George Garrity and Thomas Booth with speeding 65 miles an hour on River Road on October 4.

Off Street Parking Survey Apparently To Get Underway

Resolution Adopted Last March
Authorizing Study; Two Named
To Committee, Others Follow

Action appears imminent by Belleville Town Commissioners on a long standing resolution which would set up a committee to study the parking situation in downtown Belleville.

A resolution recommending the establishment of an off street parking commission was unanimously adopted by Town Commissioners at their March 27 meeting. The resolution, introduced by Commissioner Kenneth D. Smith, stipulated that each one of the five commissioners would appoint one representative person to the committee.

By terms of the resolution, the new committee would be empowered to study the off street parking situation in Belleville's business district. They would determine where there was need for changes in the present parking system, and if so they could make recommendations to the Board of Commissioners.

Although the resolution was unanimously adopted more than six months ago, up to the present only two Commissioners have actually made appointments. They are William L. Rummelle, of 93 Beech Street, and Sol Smoller, of 143 Washington Avenue. Rummelle was appointed by Smith and Smoller by Commissioner Elmer S. Hyde.

Encouraging
However, indications this week that the committee will be named shortly. When contacted this week, Mayor Isadore J. Padova said he realizes a parking problem exists which is not beneficial to the best interests of the town. Subsequently he said he intends to make an appointment within the next week.

Commissioner Joseph King was also contacted and he said he intended to make his appointment within the week. Although Commissioner Harry J. Sullivan was not able to be reached, it would appear that since he originally asked for the measure, he too will make an appointment within a short time.

Passage of the resolution authorizing the committee last March was prompted by requests from merchants and private citizens alike. Smith said. He added that businesses are continually leaving town, and that if some action isn't taken shortly to remedy the situation it will be too late. Belleville is just about the only place in the county that doesn't have some form of off street parking facilities, he said.

And it would certainly appear that there is sufficient business in town to justify their installation, he added.

Police Officer
Dismissed On Driving Charge

A charge of careless and negligent driving, of the local police department, was dismissed by Magistrate Edward J. Abramson this week. It was a counter charge made by Mrs. Adkins, of Nutley, whom the officer charged with careless driving when her car collided with his at the intersection of Tona Avenue and Delaware Street, on September 15.

Having heard the testimony of both defendants last week, the Judge reserved decision, until Wednesday's Municipal Court meeting, at which time he will decide the case against the officer, based his decision on confused testimony by Mrs. Adkins.

The case will be heard in Municipal Court on Thursday.

Route Man Is Charged
With Embezzlement

Emmanuel Marcus, 60, of Colonia was arrested last week in a $500 bail this week, on a charge he embezzled $94 from a local business. He was charged by the police and was held in the Belleville Jail.

Police said Marcus was arrested on the charge of embezzlement of the NuLife Cleaners & Dyers, Inc., 142 Ralph Street, who charged that he had embezzled $94 from the firm's Belleville customers. The case will be heard in Municipal Court on Thursday.

Thomas "Babe" Culnan Is Recognized
As One Of Top Promoters In Country

Boxing First Interest,
But Has Now Shifted To Professional Wrestling

One of the best known boxing and wrestling promoters in the state of New Jersey, and in the whole country, is a Belleville resident.

Thomas J. "Babe" Culnan, of 38 Overlook Avenue, has been promoting both boxing and wrestling in Newark for the past 34 years and has built up a fairly well known reputation on a national basis. Culnan, 59, has been a resident of Belleville for the past 12 years. He is married to the former Alice Morley, a well known actress who played in "Hit The Deck" in the 1940s.

Culnan was born in Albany, New York, and came to Newark before World War I. He has a claim this part of the country as his home ever since.

Used To Box
Culnan said that he used to be a boxer himself in his younger days. From that, he gained a life long interest in boxing and started managing fighters. A natural step from that point was to become interested in promoting. And promote he did, as Culnan is perhaps the one man most responsible for putting Newark on the boxing and wrestling map of the country.

For the past 26 years, Culnan has been in partnership with Willie Gilzenberg, a New York City resident. Together the two of them are among the best known promoters in this country, and have also established reputations abroad.

Culnan has been interested in boxing for about 25 years. He said. During that time he has been influential in bringing some of the greatest figures of the era to Newark. Freddie Holt, Fred Goetz, a well known welterweight, and many English boxers including Tony Faur, Johnny Williams, and Don McKinnon.

Ten Troads
Culnan and Gilzenberg, to conditions in the boxing world today, are still in the business. (Continued On Page Two)

Six Public Health Nurses Perform Vital Tasks

Check On Health Of Mothers, Infants, And School Age Children

In Belleville's Town Hall there is an inconspicuous department, which seldom gets the newspaper headlines and the spotlight's glare. Nevertheless, this group renders the citizens of town perhaps a greater service than many of the more widely publicized groups.

Six women working together under the Public Affairs Department constitute this little heard of group of willing workers. Officially they are known as the Public Health Nurses of the town. Unfortunately, there are many local residents who are unfamiliar with the services available from this group.

There are six nurses, one of them, Miss Helen Gilsenan, acting as supervisor. The other five nurses are: Angela Chapman, Dorothy Sholly, Anna Gozone, Lenore Rovell, and Ethel Akerston.

Objectives
Miss Gilsenan outlined the objectives of the Public Health Nurse in a maternal and child program. She said they were to provide the best possible nursing service to individuals and families as directed by policies of the State Department of Health. They cooperate with physicians and other health personnel in attaining health examinations and health habits and a healthful regimen of living.

DANISH BALLET TO BE AT MOSQUE

The Griffith Music Foundation will open its 1956-57 season of musical offerings at the Mosque of Islam, on Monday evening, with a performance of "The Mikado" by the Fujiwara Opera Company of Japan. This unusual performance which brings East and West together in the universal bond of music will be the one of three musical offerings of international tinge which the foundation has planned for United Nations Week. On Tuesday evening, the Robert Masters Piano Quartet will open the foundation's series of chamber music concerts in Griffith auditorium, and on Saturday evening October 27, the Royal Danish Ballet from the Theatre Royal, Copenhagen, will come to the Mosque for one performance. Knuappel

School we decided to incorporate the driver education program in the curriculum," he said, "and last year we had a total of 120 students taking the course. Of those, only three were men. Mr. Knuappel accounted for this unusual ratio by the fact that most men learn to drive almost by instinct, while women usually find it harder. "That's because they are not interested in the mechanics of cars and what goes on under the hood. We try to stress safety rather than merely equipping a person to pass the driving test," he said. "So many people are only interested in getting a license, and that's where most of our accidents happen. In all the time that I taught driving, we never had an accident," he added.

His job as director of Belleville's Adult School involves all hiring and payment of instructors, deciding on a suitable list of courses which will appeal to local students and finally, making the people of Belleville aware of the fact that there is an adult school in Belleville. This job is accomplished by the help of the advisory group to the school, "without whose help all this would not have been impossible," Mr. Knuappel said.

For information, "We are trying to have the Adult School operate mostly from the high school," he stressed, "people have been trying to reach out at School No. 8 for information on the Adult School, but if they ask at the high school, they will receive all the information they need."

Mr. and Mrs. Knuappel are currently living in Weehawken, all their house which is now being built at Smoke Rise is completed. Mr. Knuappel is a foreign-born English teacher in Smoke Rise. They have two children, Robert Alan, 8, and Barbara Ann, 6. During the summer, Mr. Knuappel is a cabana superintendent at the Atlantic Beach Club, in Long Beach, a vacation of 100 days of work, he held down a job of social director at the Culvermore Hotel in Culvers Lake, Branchville, for ten years. A sports enthusiast, he served for two years as assistant recreation superintendent, and still manages to fit some tennis into his busy schedule. Whenever possible, he is in the ballroom, dancing into this recreation program, "when I can find a partner who's tall enough for me," he said.

CAROL LAMBIASE IS CHURCH BRIDE

Weds Francis Kuehner At Ceremony Performed By Bridegroom's Brother

The Belleville Recreation Department Pre-School Play Program has now completed its second week with full attendance, according to Robert E. Cook, department supervisor. The children have been progressing very nicely in the scheduled activities consisting of flag raising and learning the Pledge of Allegiance, exercises, free play which is climbing, swinging, sliding, jumping, running and games.

The indoor activities program is made up of a short rest time when the children listen to recorded stories and songs, participate in hand arts such as coloring, cutting, pasting and various other activities to help them with hand and eye coordination. The children then participate in a music time which is either marionette singing or playing simple finger games. The program terminates with the father reading a story to the children.

The mothers also have a very important part in the program as they must serve a duty day each week as an assistant to the teacher, Cook explained. Their prime purpose is to help the schedule run smoothly by assisting the children in learning how to play on large outside equipment, to aid the leader in maintaining order and the distribution of material, by cleaning up the play room so it is ready for afternoon sessions.

The Pre-School Mother's Club is organized and the first meeting was held on Monday evening, October 16. Mrs. Marie Sorrentino, vice president, Mrs. Norma Cook, corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. P. Phil, treasurer, Mrs. Janette Carlin. All of the mothers participating in the program were given one of the various committees.

The program is now full. However, anyone wishing to register their child in the program may do so, although there is no guarantee there will be space for them this year, Cook said.

Nurses

The local nursing staff in Belleville is broken down into four different phases, Miss Glencan said. They are: general nursing, school, and school age care.

The prenatal care is offered in cooperation with the private physician and is intended to help the mother carry out his instructions in order to assure her of a healthy normal delivery.

The infant care program is designed to show the mother proper care of her infant, such as bathing, care of the skin, clothing, sleeping arrangements, feeding, and so on.

Conducting in conjunction with this program, the nurses keep well informed of the infant's health. This is conducted for the mother who does not make regular visits to a physician. At the station, the doctor watches the growth and development of the child, and the nurse gives the mother the care, management and feeding of the child. Immunization against diphtheria and small pox is also administered. Miss Glencan stressed that sick children are not treated here and mothers are instructed not to bring any infants or children with slight disturbances to the station.

The third phase of the program enters around the pre-school children, from three to five years of age. It is very important to think of a child as an integrated individual and to recognize that we cannot separate the physical, mental, or emotional aspects of the child.

The physical and emotional aspects of the child are recognized and correction of defects will frequently be a factor in avoiding difficulties in adjusting to school life.

The School Program for the school age program, she pointed out, the past year the kindergarten, first, fourth, and seventh grade children, and the eighth grade were given a physical examination by the school physician. The testing of these children for vision and hearing defects is done by the nurse prior to the physician's examination.

By carrying on a continuous child health program in the community, the Public Health Nurses do not only help one who has the opportunity to help children better school health. It is only by protecting the health of the mothers, infants, and pre-school children that the health of the school child can be protected. Preventive health work must start at the beginning.

Culnan

It is almost impossible for a man to operate a weekly boxing club as he had done previously. Due to a growing lack of talent and the deep inroads made by television, the weekly man can't operate successfully anymore.

That's one of the main reasons Culnan switched his interest to boxing. He has been boxing since 1948 and has been sponsoring both matches now.

Culnan must be given credit for promoting just about the first major television wrestling bout in New Jersey in 1948 when he brought Gene Stanley and Antonio Rocca together in Newark Armory. That match elicited with the TV screen, Culnan said, and can probably be called the start of big time wrestling in Madison Square Garden.

Match Next Week On October 27, just a little more than a month ago, Culnan is bringing Rocca back to Newark for what he calls the "million dollar" match. The opponent will be Carl Von Hess, and it should prove to be one of the hottest matches in wrestling today.

Culnan's Friday night matches have been a feature at Laurel and 14th Streets in New Jersey. For the past month they have been switched to Saturday night, but Culnan feels that the boxing match next week, the bouts will return to Friday night.

It is interesting to note that just about every great fighter in the last 30 years, who has fought in New Jersey, has been brought into the state by Culnan and Gilzenberg.

Culnan has seen many of the young fighters since 1948 and their start and work up. However, he said that fighters today aren't so much interested in the great demand made by television for a new crop. They do not learn the fundamentals and thus get hurt and worn out much faster, Culnan said. He added, "There are no hungry fighters around today."

"Music To Enjoy" Starts Fifth Season Next Saturday

Opening the season for "Music To Enjoy", Hazel Ellsworth and William Akers, directors of the series, will appear on the first of five programs to be presented this year in their dual role as a two piano team. The concert will be presented on Saturday October 27 at 8:15 p.m. in the auditorium of School No. 10, Belleville, at Franklin Avenues. A non-profit, non-sectarian organization, they collect old eyeglasses and use the frames and lenses for making new ones for needy people. Endorsed by the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness and the Essex County Medical Society, the group operates from Short Hills. Locally, members of the Evening Division of the Woman's Club under public affairs chairman, Mrs. Dorothy Dunn, have been collecting glasses for the past year.

Starting on Monday, there will be boxes placed in the office of the Times-News where local citizens may deposit their discarded eyeglasses.

PLANS ALTERED
FOR NEW SCHOOL
AT HOLY FAMILY

Alternate Proposal To Add Rooms
To Existing Parochial School
Gets Diocesan Approval

Mrs. Anthony DiLuca informed the Town Commission, this week, that plans of Holy Family Roman Catholic Church to build a new two-story, 8-room parochial school on recently acquired land in Memphis Avenue, have been changed. The Commission authorized the refund of a deposit of $600 for water connections.

The Archdiocese in Newark has approved the construction of a new wing or annex to the existing eight-room school.

Plans call for work to start during the winter so that additional classrooms will be ready for the September reopening.

It had been announced, more than a month ago, that bids for the proposed structure were $30 in excess of the anticipated cost and much greater than the sums pledged in a recent school building fund campaign.

The need for additional classrooms remains, however, and the parish is now discussing with architects an alternative plan to add rooms to the existing one-story school in Brookline Avenue.

Since its walls were built for a single story school and will not permit the construction of second-story classrooms, a plan is under examination to extend the structure on its south side.

Either a four or an eight room addition is under study. If eight rooms are added, a two-story wing may be erected in the rear of the school, necessitating the close of a roadway.

Blake, who headed the school building fund campaign, announced yesterday that the parish has $72,000 cash in hand from the pledges of $200,000, to be paid during two years.

"Heaven knows what we will do if we do not have at least four more classrooms available in September for we have already turned many away," Father Blake said.

One 5th grade class is now housed in a semi-basement room under the convent, the nuns' residence.

As we have previously written, the teams in the 100-year-old Little League are very well balanced in regard to weight and age. Proof of this came last Friday as the Elks and Kiwanis played to a 0-0 tie. Some fine work on both sides prevented either team from scoring. In the other lightweight game the Varsity Club, which has shown a great deal of power this year, downed the Lions 18-0.

In the heavyweight division the Bears followed the example of the professional Bears and won their opening game 6-0. This game was a real thriller as both teams fought hard for every inch. Once again, as the score shows, the teams were very carefully picked to insure the safety of the boys.

The other heavyweight game found the Tigers go down fighting to Pedro's Infantry. Score of that game was 12-16-0. In that game Harold Brandt, took over for Coach Walt Smith who could not attend.

As usual the twirlers in their bright new uniforms stole the show. These girls are putting on great shows, so why not come to the games. We're sure you won't regret it.

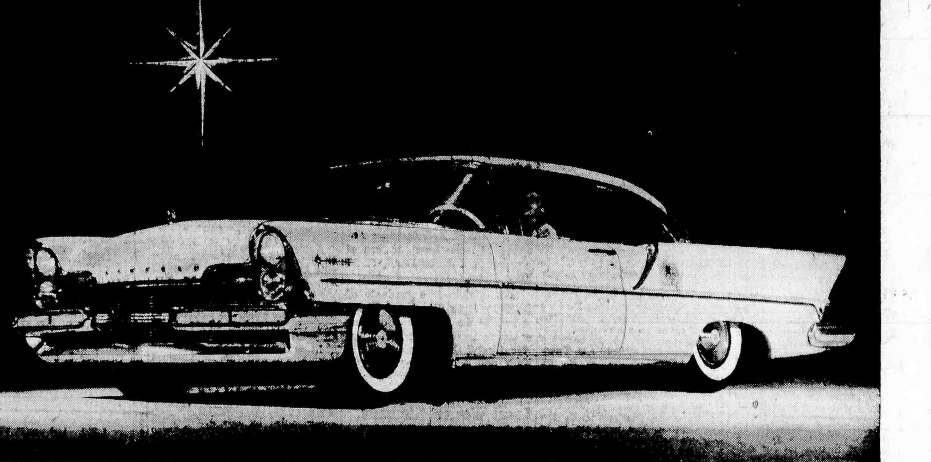

At the Belleville Varsity game on October 27 against Hallsdale, The Football Little League teams will be presented and their twirlers will put on a show at half-time.

Newsdealers' Statement
Clarifies Delivery Cost

Belleville's three local news dealers issued a statement this week intended to clarify any misunderstanding concerning the price of newspapers delivered through them. The three are Ed Van De mark, James Salmon, and Louis Chalken.

The three dealers declared they are not seeking any increase in the price of papers as the result of the strike settlement reached this summer between the dealers and the Newark News. They stated their price as the same as before the strike, 42 cents for the weekly paper, and 15 cents for the Sunday issue.

Cafone Out For Season

Former Belleville All-County quarterback, now a sophomore at Upsala College, was going great guns for the Vikings until he broke his hand last Saturday against Franklin and Marshall College. Cafone, a slick ball handler when it comes to operating out of the "T" formation, will be lost to Coach John Hooper for the remainder of the grid campaign.

Saturday was a blue day for Coach Hooper. He not only lost Cafone but the Vikings also lost the game, 28-6. For Upsala it was their first loss after winning three games in succession.

Quarterback Rocco Cafone

Until Cafone was sidelined he was doing well and started at quarterback in the last three games. He was effective as a signal-caller and ball handler. In rushing yardage Cafone totaled 12 yards, however, he has shown greater skill as a passer. Rocco completed three out of six throws for a total of 71 yards. He also scored one touchdown for the Norse eleven against St. Lawrence University.

Last fall he has a member of the freshman squad at Upsala which compiled a record of 2-0-1. Although out for the rest of this season Coach Hooper will be counting heavily on Cafone as in the nucleus of his squad for the next two years.

At Upsala Cafone is working toward the degree of bachelor of business administration with a major in accounting and a minor in insurance. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Cafone, of 9 King Street.

Crystal Gazing

At long last, things finally started picking up in the crystal gazing department. For three weeks it seemed like I was bating my head against a brick wall or else trying to see how many wrong selections I could make. A week ago my average stood at a dismal 507. This past Saturday I called off six of eight games correctly and had one tie. That jumped my record 32 points to 493 but it is still a long way to the 700 mark. Proving me wrong last Saturday were Belleville and Kearny. I picked both teams to win but West Side and West Orange had different ideas. The Belboys dropped a tough 7-6 game and the Kards lost out, 18-13. Well, it's time to get down to business:

Belleville to edge Irvington. The Belboys have been experiencing a very tough season. Coach Ed Berlinski's boys again took it on the chin last Saturday, and for the second time dropped a one-point decision. This time it was West Side which administered the 7-6 defeat. Irvington has won only one game during the last three years. If the Blue and Gold are going to stop their four-game losing streak they had better take Irvington.

Nutley to lace Passaic. The Maroon Raiders will have fire in their eyes when they encounter the Indians at Park Oval on Saturday. Nutley will be going all out to make up for the 33-0 loss handed them by the Haines twins of Montclair. Passaic has been playing an in-and-out brand of ball this season. The Indians were blanked by Lyndhurst, 14-0, last week. I look for the Maroon Raiders to win by at least two touchdowns.

Montclair to roll over East Orange. Nobody will stop the high flying Mounties this year. The Haines twins will be on the move again as they play havoc with the opposition.

West Orange to take Orange. The Cowboys are coming in their own. West Orange turned in a very promising performance when the Cowboys took the measure of Kearny, 18-13.

Central to trim Weequahic. Neither team is doing much in the City League. It will be a battle to see which team escapes the cellar. Central has a little better ground attack than the rival Indians.

Columbia to overtake Westfield. The Cougars are developing into one of the better teams in the county. They have a fine quarterback in Bob Schu.

Bloomfield to defeat Kearny. The Bengals are riding high as the result of last Saturday's 51-0 lacing of Paterson Eastside. Tony Pascal will lead the way for Bloomfield.

Clifton to trounce Paterson Eastside. This will be an easy one for Clifton as they point ahead for the long awaited battle against undefeated Montclair.

1956 Version Of Blue And Gold Gridders

West Side Downs Blue And Gold For Fourth Defeat, 7-6

Fumbles Mar Play In Otherwise Tight Defensive Game; Meet Weak Irvington Team Tomorrow

by Dave Thaler

The inability to hang on to the football once again cost Belleville their chance for victory last Saturday when they dropped their fourth consecutive game, 7-6, to West Side. It was a fumble by Frank D'Angelo, who later scored the Belboys' touchdown, that set up the visitor's first score.

D'Angelo had broken loose for a gain in excess of ten yards, when he fumbled. He was trying to shake off another would-be tackler when he was hit hard-high and low. The ball fell into Charlie Meadows' waiting grasp. Meadows is West Side's second string fullback.

From there the Raiders scored with little trouble. Don Sciano, the left halfback, hit Bob Bruno on the Blue and Gold 33 yard line, and a first down was theirs. Two plays took it to the Belleville 10 for another first down. Four plays later Breshier, the quarterback scored. Bruno kicked the vital extra-point. This was mid-way in the third period and it didn't look as though Belleville was going to catch the West Siders.

Good Defense

Both teams had put up a tremendous defensive game. The ball had been rarely carried further than the thirty-yard lines when it did manage to get deeper into enemy territory, the defense usually pushed it back. Genaro Lepore was the big man in West Side's line. He refused a yard back. He would be taken out of a play, and then make the tackle while on the ground.

At Belleville Pat McCabe was breaking through for the Belboys. They made several key plays, throwing the quarterback for a loss after their part of the field had been invaded.

D'Angelo's fumble had looked like the turning point in the game but Belleville came back.

Lou Long, Belboy punter, led go with his weekly gem, a 50 yard punt. Ray Kimble saved the ball from going into the end zone by diving on it on the one yard line. Then it happened. Sciano fumbled. There was a pile up and Kimble came up with the ball. The visitor was placed on the West Side five. Three times it was handed to Barra, and he took it to the two. With fourth down coming it didn't look as though the Blue and Gold was going to do it. The 1,500 fans were thinking about the Nutley game when Belleville couldn't score in four downs from the one. But D'Angelo took it around the right side and scored. The conversion was not made when Tony Passarelli failed to split the uprights.

Run Out Clock

As for Belleville getting the ball again, that was impossible. The Raiders were intent on killing the remaining four minutes, and they did. They started from their forty and marched to the Belboy ten when the game ended. The clock probably saved the Blue and Gold from another touchdown being scored against them. So, West Side, who has scored just three touchdowns in three games, made Belleville their third victim of the year.

Belleville's chances for the first victory of the year are better tomorrow than any time in the past. They take on the weakest team they have faced, Irvington. Barra and Malfatto are back, and D'Angelo has improved immensely. He's undoubtedly the fastest and most elusive runner the Blue and Gold has.

ST. MARY'S DOES WELL IN BOWLING

No. 1 Team From Parish Moves Into First Place In CYO Mixed League

The second week of play in the Essex County Senior CYO Mixed League was a good one for St. Mary's as both teams from the parish recorded clean sweeps.

St. Mary's 1, 13, 11, 8, 5 swept into first place with a 6-0 record while St. Mary's 2, evened its log at 3-3.

St. Mary's 1, 13, 11, 8, 5, 7 and 6-5-3-6. Three members of the club took turns showing the way, Jim Coffey leading 6-9 in the first contest, Hank Russell 184 in the second and Des Torley 161 in the finale.

St. Mary's 2 had an easy time subduing St. Joseph's 2, of Maplewood, one of the cellar dwellers last season, although top players for the locals was the 561 posted in the middle fray. June Phillips with 145 was the top knigger for St. Mary's in that game.

Through the Oven Door

Heckers' REPORTER

Here's a new twist: Nutmeg—long familiar as a topping for whipped cream, eggnog, and custards—can add a refreshing twist to spinach and cauliflower. It's a lot of fun, too, to use a colorful, inexpensive nutmeg grater in either the kitchen or the dining room.

Dad talks a lot about his workshop these days—but Mom's been mistress of her kitchen "do-it-yourself" art for generations. And she knows that home baking tastes ever so much better when she starts with the basic ingredients.

And there's nothing more basic than Heckers' flour. It's very smartly named. Craftswomen recognize the "extra" in Heckers' that comes from natural processing until the flour turns its own SNOWY WHITE—WITHOUT BLEACHING. Heckers' is prepared the old-fashioned, natural way and that means fuller flavor, better texture and finer appearance in your cakes and baked goods every time.

Muffins are always a favorite—and here's a recipe that will really thrill the kids, the young and old. These "Red Jelly Delights" will make your muffins the pride of the neighborhood.

Red Jelly Delights

Makes 24

Ingredients:

- 2 tablespoons shortening
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 small yeast cake (or one package dry active yeast)
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 egg-beaten
- 1 cup all Heckers' unbleached flour
- Red jelly or preserves

Directions: Scald milk, add shortening, sugar, and salt, cool to lukewarm. Add yeast and dissolve. Blend in egg and milk and mix until smooth. Fill small greased muffin tins half full. Cover and let rise in warm place about 1 hour or until light. Bake 4 or 5 minutes in each muffin and fill with a teaspoon of red jelly. Bake at 350° for 25 minutes.

One Man's Opinion

Dispute Over Suez Is But One Small Phase Of Trouble That Seethes In Arab Middle East
Where Moscow Sows Tension

By Ralph Eric Heinzen

While world attention is concentrated, right now, on Egypt's seizure of the Suez Canal, new thunderbolts form over the Holy Land and the Arab lands which surround it. Seldom has the Middle East been nearer to war and to collapse from within, with revolution the inevitable consequence behind it all it is too easy to see the red hand of Moscow, maneuvering as its tool the grossly ambitious Lieut. Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser.

Pan-Arab nationalism is seething in that land of hot sands under which lies the wealth of hidden oil and across which stretches the blue-water cut of the Suez Canal. It is obvious that Soviet Russia is the spoiler, stirring up sparks in quest of this control of the vast oil reserves that stretch from the Mediterranean and the Red Sea to the Persian Gulf and Arabian Sea.

Seldom has the Middle East trembled more uncertainly on the brink of war or chaos than this week. In an undeclared war, the armies of Israel and Jordan have fought every day this week.

Yet within the Arab lands, themselves, there is a tragic tension, Jordan having cast off her British controls, now swiftly finds herself a victim of Russian Communist infiltration and intrigue. Violently anti-Communist Iraq stands ready to step across the borders of Jordan if need be to prevent that land from falling into the clutches of the Kremlin.

But jealousies among the Arab nations being what they are and the nefarious ambitions of Nasser to grab control over all the Arab lands being what they are, any move of Iraqi forces across the frontiers of Jordan would bring a retaliatory move of the armies of Syria and Egypt across Jordan's borders.

The clash between the Jews and Arabs in Palestine; the election of British citizens from Iraq; the ouster of Maj. Gen. John Bagot Glubb, the creator of the Arab Legion; from Jordan; the Egyptian nationalization of the Suez Canal, the bloody efforts of Cyprus underground fighters to force British withdrawal from Cyprus—these are some of the events which since World War II, have moved the Middle East steadily toward the forefront of the diplomatic stage.

Only Russia Could Gain

World attention is centered on the Middle East as the West challenges, almost unsuccessfully, Egypt's seizure of the Suez Canal. In the background the Palestine problem smolders as menacingly as ever. And over all loom the efforts of Soviet Communists to insinuate themselves into the richest oil producing region in the world.

Until World War I the Middle East slumbered as part of the Ottoman Turkish Empire. Between the two world wars the Middle East was ruled by the mandate powers of Britain and France, who took over from the Turks. Only after World War II did the Middle East shake off its foreign masters and emerge an independent.

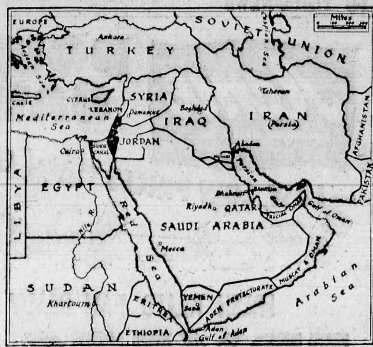

The nations which gained this independence, however, found themselves inexperienced, economically weak, and beset by internal rivalries and bickering with each other.

Geographically and economically the Middle East which they occupied was a homogeneous whole; politically it had been truncated into a number of faltering kingdoms.

Arab League Formed

Partly to mask their own disunity and partly to forge a vehicle for cooperation, these nations, on March 22, 1945, formed a compact called the Arab League, designed to foster Arab unity militarily, economically, and politically.

Founding members of the League were Lebanon, Syria, Jo-

The Arab world, from Libya to the Arabian Sea, is in ferment with Iran and Iraq the only stabilizing influences to counteract the aggressiveness of Egypt which is feeling its 'growing pains'. Like a finger pointed at the Red Sea, the new State of Israel is the focal point of Moslem agitation and hatred, a hatred as old as Christianity itself.

dan, Iraq, Egypt, Saudi Arabia, and Yemen. Libya became the eighth member on March 28, 1953, and on Jan. 19, 1956, the Sudan, granted its independence by Britain and Egypt, joined the Arab League although its population is, fundamentally, not Arab but negroid.

These are the nations which, together with Israel, are the fount of that Middle Eastern nationalism which causes the West so much concern today. Beneath the desert sands of these countries lies at least two-thirds of the world's known petroleum.

These facts, coupled with the determination of the Soviet Union to control the area for itself, will keep the Middle East near the center of the news for a long time to come.

JOHN DIRIENZO PROMOTED AT PS

John B. Dirienzo has been promoted from chief plant chemist to plant operating engineer, Harrison Gas Plant of Public Service Electric and Gas Company. Dirienzo lives at 161 Birchwood Drive. Dirienzo started with Public Service in 1924, being assigned to the laboratory at Harrison Gas Works. In 1946, he was promoted to assistant chief chemist and, five years later, was promoted to chief plant chemist at the Harrison Plant.

Israel, today supports 1,800,000 persons in an area about the size of Massachusetts. Major aims of the Israeli government of Premier David Ben-Gurion include the irrigation of the barren Negev in Israel's south through diversion of Jordan River water. A fertile Negev, Israelis believe, will allow them to accommodate a total population of 3,000,000. Also the Negev borders on Egypt.

No Arab state yet has made peace with Israel. Only armistices govern the relations between the two sides. Neither Israelis nor Arabs are willing to concede sufficiently to bring them together over the bargaining table. Thus peace hangs fire, and, in the meantime, border tension increases along Israel's frontiers with its Arab neighbors.
