United Fund Seeks Community Chest Aid

Several United Fund Agencies Will Find Financial Difficulties In Getting By With Much Less Than Requested During Campaign

The Community Chest of Belleville has deferred action on a request by Max Schwartz, president of the Board of Trustees of United Fund, that the Community Chest give financial assistance to the Fund, which is badly in need of the United Fund. It was reported that about $42,000 to distribute among its 21 agencies. The original requests of these agencies amounted to $80,730.

As a result the Family Counseling Service is on the brink of extinction, since they will probably receive $7,000 after requesting $10,000. The Red Cross chapter in Belleville has also indicated that must receive an additional $3,000 if it is to continue in United Fund.

The Red Cross requested a total of $25,751. Some of the trustees of United Fund estimated that a total of 60 to 65 thousands dollars would permit the Fund to just get by in its first year and make possible a better campaign in 1959.

The Community Chest has about $10,200 in reserve. Mrs. Edward Roehman, president of the Board of Trustees of Community Chest told the Belleville Times-News that it might be able to give the United Fund about $7,000 of this money, keeping $3,000 in reserve. However, Mrs. Roehman said that her group would first wait to see if the Fund was successful in obtaining help from other sources, without which she said the Community Chest funds would be of little value.

Among the other alternatives left to United Fund would be getting additional donations to institute payroll deductions. It was noted that only Walter Kilde Company, Wallace and Terman and Westinghouse have employee deduction plans.

Resnick Vs. Arvidson

Resnick Cites Past Performances Of Riviera Park Group

Martin Resnick, president of the Riviera Park Civic Association, defended his qualification, challenged last week by Ernest Arvidson, to act as spokesman for the group which, he claimed, represents a "good percentage" of the families in the area.

He continued "Any statements that I have made in the press have been the sentiments of the group I represent, the Riviera Park Civic Association."

"This incorporated civic group, composed of a good percentage of the families in this area, has not only been concerned with neighborhood problems but also problems affecting the entire town, for over eight years."

"The R.P.G.A. was instrumental in keeping the paternal home rule at Town Hall; helped in its reinstatement of Thomas Greco to town building inspector; campaigned for an elected board of education; worked with the Belleville Education to help select candidates for the board."

Richard Drake, running for the three-year term on the Board of Education, today pointed out that "forward-looking" education in Belleville can be brought about only by active participation on the part of the voters.

The text of his statement follows: "Four days from now the voters of Belleville will elect five new members of the Board of Education. Not all of the voters, however, to some, this is just another election. To others, this isn't even a very important election. And so they will sit home. Or they will pass by the school on the way home from work and tell themselves the dinner's getting cold and promise themselves that they'll come back and vote later. And there are even some who, I'm afraid, who do not read the Times-News and they will pass the school and wonder, perhaps, what the meeting in the school is for. Maybe someone should tell them so that they could at least join the 'dinner-dinner' group. Of course, it's getting rather late for our schools, too."

Arvidson Says Resnick Does Not Present Conclusive Answers

Riviera Park resident Ernest Arvidson replied today to Martin Resnick's statement criticizing him for his remarks last week doubting the claim that the Riviera Park Civic Association adequately represented the people in the area.

The text of his statement follows: "Mr. Resnick recognizes that his arguments against the school budget are weak and without basis on facts, and for this reason must resort to derogatory discussions about personalities who happen to disagree with him. It is not a new trick to call someone who does not think as you do, a 'bigot'."

In a discussion of the Riviera Park school budget, I fail to see the significance of a comparison of the size of the plant owned by me and the size of the plant owned by the corporation as playing Mr. Resnick."

"A frank and truthful statement as to whether or not a meeting devoted to a discussion of the school budget, was held by his organization, in the Riviera Park section, would have gone much further to dispel any doubts as to Mr. Resnick's authority to speak for the residents in this section, than a claim to a long list of past accomplishments."

A simple statement as to the number of residents in this section, who are members of his association would have done much to clarify any doubts about who he is speaking for. Instead he states, that because Mr. Arvidson might have the intestinal fortitude to disagree with Mr. Resnick, Mr. Arvidson would not be invited to join his association. I thought that a civic association was supposed to represent the thinking of a cross section of the people in the area."

Sullivan Lauds Local Women For Efforts

Commissioner Harry J. Sullivan, chairman of Belleville's March of Dimes drive, in a statement issued last week praised the women of the Mothers' March who, in one hour last Wednesday evening, collected $8,500, topping last year's amount.

Commissioner Sullivan stated: "The women of Belleville are certainly doing a magnificent job on behalf of the local March of Dimes drive. Daily one has found women, volunteers in our local banks and other places of business, remaining at their stations for hours so that Belleville will continue in the forefront in helping science progress in halting the various diseases for which the drive this year is being conducted. Through donations and the work of volunteers, such as our volunteers"

M. V. ALBERTINE ADVOCATES STEADY COURSE BY BOARD

Three-Year Candidate Promises Objective Administration On Board Of Education

Michael V. Albertine, candidate for a three-year term on the Board of Education, said that great strides will be made in the next few years as a result of the impact of Russia's spunkiness and the "cold war."

The opportunity for good is obvious, he said. It is important that the responsible people at the local level avoid the extreme in education advocated by some; it is important to maintain a steady course, taking advantage of the increased interest in education

Board Of Education President Points Out Programs He Begun During Three-Year Term

Dr. Frank DiRuggiero, president of the Board of Education and candidate for reelection to the three-year term, listed the programs which he has supported during tenure in office at a tea given in his honor Wednesday at Parillo's.

DiRuggiero said, "I'm glad to have been your representative to the Board of Education these last three years, and this past year as President. From these three years of public service, I have gained much experience that can be of value to the parents and taxpayers of Belleville. I know the time that must be given to bring a good board member. I know many of the school problems that need solution. I have learned the need of the various schools by visitation of the schools. On limited budgets I have led a program for improving each school."

MRS. ROELOFFS IS CRITICAL OF OPPONENT

Claims Mrs. Coronato 'Inherits' Voters Intelligence In Not Debating Issues

Mrs. Ethel Roeloffs, candidate for the one-year term on the Board of Education, today criticized her opponent Mrs. Mary Reilly Coronato, for not debating the issues in the campaign.

Mrs. Roeloffs had reference to Mrs. Coronato's absence at the candidates' night held last Wednesday at School Three. Mrs. Coronato stated she was unable to attend because her work as chairman of the Women's Division of the Parent and Teacher Association candidates' night at School Three on January 28.

"This deliberate distortion of the facts are typical of the type of campaign that my opponent has been carrying on. The truth is that this meeting fell on the same night that the Mother's March of Times was being held and as chairman of the Women's Division it was incumbent upon me to lend my efforts to making this worthy cause a success. The date was not set by me but is held the same night in every city and town throughout the country. Further, everyone attending candidates' night was apprised of this fact."

MRS. CORONATO GIVES REPLY TO OPPONENT

Says March Of Dimes Prevented Her Appearance At Open House For Board Candidates

Mrs. Mary Reilly Coronato, candidate for the one-year term on the Board of Education, expressed astonishment at the statement by Mrs. Ethel Roeloffs criticizing her for not appearing in public to debate issues at hand.

Mrs. Coronato said, "I am astounded to learn of my opponent's charge that I have insulted the intelligence of the voters by my failure to appear at the Parent and Teacher Association candidates' night at School Three on January 28."

"This deliberate distortion of the facts are typical of the type of campaign that my opponent has been carrying on. JULIANO CALLS FOR RESIDENTS TO VOTE TUESDAY

Candidate For Three-Year Term Warns Against Disinterest By Citizens

Board of Education candidate Nicholas Juliano today appealed to Belleville voters to take part in the School Election Tuesday.

"As a candidate for a three year term," he said, "I have enjoyed playing my part for many of you. I have been privileged to meet personally, and for many of you that is because I have tried to keep the community informed through the PTA bulletins, and through mutual friends. It has been a wonderful, heart-warming experience for me to perform for such an interested and receptive audience. Your evaluations of my qualifications and potential contributions on the school Board are all that matter now!"

You have the leading role in the final act on Tuesday. Its success or failure will depend entirely on how well you play your part. As potential voters you will have little hope for a happy ending. However, I am convinced that as interested parents you care enough to want the best for our children in the way of a good, basic, democratic and through public education. The performance of each of the candidates you select to guide the policy of the Board of the Board of Education towards our mutual goals."

"The 'Life Curtain' is the greatest single deterrent to American progress and social progress. It is your responsibility to keep the curtain as active as possible. . . . In fact, you owe this to your children and the communities' children. Today, their destiny is in your hands. . . . the very hands that will vote in the school election. . . . Include your family, friends and neighbors to vote. When you do, I shall be honored and privileged to be of service to you if you consider me among your selection of qualified candidates."

Running for re-election to the three-year term is School Board President Frank N. DiRuggiero. Three other members of the Board whose terms expire this year, William Kinkade, George H. Brown and Dr. Palmer Burde, declined not to seek reelection.

Also campaigning for election, full term posts will be Michael V. Albertine, Nicholas Juliano and Dominic A. Lally.

The reelection of Jesse H. Starkman from the Board left open an unexpected term of two years. Running for this post will be Richard Drake and Mrs. Geraldine Macaluso.

Finally, Mrs. Mary Reilly Coronato and Mrs. Ethel Roeloffs will run for a term of one year.

The voters will also approve or reject the school budget. The total, $2,592,046, an increase over this year's budget of $270,332.50 or 44.44 points. It was pointed out that this increase would mean about $25 a year more in taxes, for the average homeowner whose assessed valuation is in the $5,000 to $6,000 class.

The highest increases are scheduled for repairs and replacement, and teacher salaries.

Union Urges Lally Election To Board

Joseph McGuire, secretary of the Belleville Masons and Plasterers Union No. 11, and a Belleville resident today urged the election of Dominic A. Lally to the Board of Education.

Lally has been a member of the Belleville Masons and Plasterers Union, A.F.L.-C.I.O., for the past 20 years. McGuire cited the candidate's rise from the rank and file. He pointed out that Lally's background is that of a construction worker and his educational background would prove valuable to the Board of Education.

He also stated that Lally is dedicated to education and is one of the few who understand the construction, maintenance and repair of the school buildings. Lally is a teacher in the Middlesex County Vocational and Technical High School, New Brunswick and has been teaching for the past 15 years.

On The Abuse Of A Freedom

One of the inherent functions of any newspaper is to uphold and defend the right of freedom of speech, the right of a taxpayer citizen to get up and address the governing body of his community, make known his needs and offer criticism of that body when such is necessary. However, along with freedom of speech goes a certain responsibility on the part of the citizens to see that this freedom is not abused and turned into a license for malicious demagoguery which makes a farce out of the purpose of freedom of speech by turning it into an instrument for advancing selfish political ambitions.

For entirely too long a period of time, this freedom has been abused in Belleville. A certain element in Town has been using Commission meetings as a sounding board, not for constructive criticism, but for the wanton maligning of public officials for purely selfish motives. Even this would not be completely repugnant were it not for the fact that this element has been taking up anywhere from three quarters of an hour to an hour and a half in pouring out useless words which have little meaning and less words.

There is on the books a resolution specifically limiting a citizen to ten minutes in addressing the Board, although attorneys-at-law, who may find it necessary to argue a particular case in excess of the time limit are generally excepted. The obvious purpose of this resolution is to prevent any individual from monopolizing the time allotted to citizens at such a public meeting. However, the commissioners, in attempting to be fair to all citizens and to give everyone a chance to fully develop his remarks, have not invoked this resolution in the above mentioned cases. It is our view that, in bending over backwards to be fair to all concerned, the commissioners have, ironically, been unwittingly unfair to the citizens in general. Too many times have we seen Belleville residents come to a commission meeting prepared to bring before the body a legitimate grievance or desire only to be discouraged and, moreover, disgusted at the display of unwarranted malicious rabble-rousing on the part of these individuals.

In other words, the courtesy that has been extended by the Commission in not invoking the time limit has been grossly abused. Therefore we, as a spokesman for the people of Belleville, demand that the Board of Commissioners invoke the resolution in the name of justice and fair play toward its constituents. We demand that no single individual be permitted to completely monopolize time that many other Belleville residents could, and have every right to, employ in voicing opinions which, up to now, have been, to a large measure, unnecessarily stifled.

Education And Politics

A few years ago, one of the hottest debates in town was whether or not the Board of Education should be elected or appointed.

At that time sentiment was strongly in favor of electing the Board from an appointed to an elected body, and the chief argument in favor of the move was that this would prevent the presence of political appointees and, thus, remove the Board from the murky atmosphere of politics.

It seems to us that, at the close of the current campaign for Board of Education seats, Belleville residents have good reason to reflect and seriously weigh the consequences of the previous decision to transform the Board into an elected one. Obviously, the Board has, by no means, been taken out of politics. The display of behind-the-scenes political skulduggery which took place in this year's campaign and which involved a majority of the candidates was deeply disturbing, especially when one considers what is at stake in such an election.

We are not condemning anyone for engaging in activity of this type; politics is politics and no one can be shocked at a candidate's taking every possible avenue to victory. We are neither advocating a return to an appointed board since this would again bring up the old bugaboo of political appointees.

We are, however, pointing out that people must be prepared to accept the disadvantages as well as the benefits that go along with any particular form of administration. Is there a foolproof system? If there was, we would certainly pass it along to you. But we don't know of any, so we can't, can we?

The Heart Fund

It was revealed last week that, of the 247 deaths in Belleville last year, 103 were caused by diseases of the heart and blood vessels, a figure that must have shocked many of the people who read the statistics. The fact that almost half of all local casualties were due to a single cause puts the Heart Fund at the top of the list among worthwhile causes.

In the recent past, notable advances have been brought about in the fight against heart diseases through research backed by funds raised in the Heart Fund drive. However, additional research is urgently needed and can be continued only with your help.

A house-to-house canvass has begun in Belleville with a goal of $3,500. We would urge local residents to remember the disturbing statistics on heart disease victims, and to help insure a more secure life for thousands of their friends, neighbors and relatives by giving generously to the Heart Fund of Belleville.

F.J.J.

The School Budget

Of comparable importance with the election of members to the Board of Education is the decision on the school budget. In examining the budget, one must keep in mind that, as always, there is no perfect solution to the problems that beset education in Belleville. No budget that could possibly be drawn up would satisfy all parties. Thus, on examining the proposed budget for the school year 1959-60, we found evident weak spots, but, nothing that would make the rejection of it worthwhile. It is a fundamentally sound budget, and we strongly urge its approval by the voters of Belleville.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor, The Times-News: To stir on the Board of Education is a noble duty of every member and they try and do the best they can with the budget to keep our ten schools in repair and maintain a high class teaching staff. You must remember all our schools are old and the longer you let the repairs on these schools go, the more it is going to cost, plus the fact that major repairs when it will be very difficult to do. To repeat the defeat of the budget year after year, the public cooperates we are going to drop down in this rating.

The families who have children in school should realize to give their children the best education possible the Board needs money to do it. There is a time when it will be very difficult to get proper people to run for election to the Board for the simple reason they can't get carry on the administration of the co-operation of the public to Board to do this thing that is necessary to maintain a good school. Belleville has always had a very high rating but unless the public cooperates we are going to drop down in this rating.

The very fact that you only have eight candidates for first positions on the Board this year should be a warning as to what is to come. So take heed on the 10th of February, next, and go out from 7:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. and vote for the Budget so we may have a school system in Belleville that we all can be proud of.

George Rawcliffe

To the Editor, The Times-News: Your editorial "The P. T. A. Affair" has won for you the support of untold numbers of friends. It summed up briefly and fairly an unfortunate incident. Unfortunately for whom? Certainly not the P. T. A. supporters.

This entire matter was satisfactorily disposed of at the last Board of Education meeting, and all interested P. T. A. people were willing to consider it a closed issue. However, the President of the Board of Education chose to continue it on Open Candidate Night. This was completely out of place and heaped the dignity and decorum one would expect of any Board of Education member. To make matters worse, it was a "hit-and-run" attack. No questions could be asked - no debate could take place. The President of the Board of Education made his attack and left the meeting. Many of those present last Wednesday evening feel that he failed to score any point at all. This is true. However, there was some mention of "taxpayers' money". Let me state, finally, all monies for the piece of literature prepared by P. T. A. came from individual P. T. A. treasurers. We purchased the stamps, envelopes, paper and provided our own mimeograph equipment and manpower.

Once more, "cheers" for the Belleville Times-News for fair coverage, an excellent editorial and the understanding of a simple problem which could become complex.

Elaine Skinner
34 Reservoir Place

To the Editor of the Times-News: I don't local taxpayers were very much impressed or amused with the little short-lived political comedy, staged by Mr. Kiernan. As a new elected commissioner, I assume he did not like the reception very much that he received in the commission.

accorded him, nor the assignment he received in the commission orchestra. Well anyway he sponsored that big white elephant, brought out of the town-hall, and named it with big fanfare "powerful Mayor Council Government" which was to take care and be a panacea for all the ailments of the poor taxpayers. It was by a strange metamorphosis it turned overnight into a little mouse, which ran back in a very little hole-off familiar surrounding unceremonious manner into that cage.

There are already rumors of a new high school project (it was thrown out of the front door, and later also the back door by the voters) and now the Elks home must be bought, and all this in the present times of unemployment and other hardships the voters are confronted with. I say Belleville needs those two projects, as much as the voters need a hole in their head. But coming back to Mr. Kiernan, it is not for this gentleman to say whether Belleville can or should have a change of government, and besides any man that changes his convictions like a coat of many colors to day he hardly qualified in my book to set himself up as a leader for anything. When the gentleman says Belleville is a dying town, I would say, even granting he is a very able mortician, that it is a gross over-statement, and most likely induced by a hole in the wrong direction. There is indeed something in Belleville not dying, but dead for a long time, the outdated ridiculous commission form of government, that smothered to high heaven. It is my hope, that the complacent non-voting taxpayer will finally wake up, and do something for his own good, and show enough interest to bring a change of government in Belleville to the Council-Manager form that will put him, and keep him in the drivers seat, and throw the minority parasite groups out, a government which will and can demand good leadership, and enforce the things that will bring a sensible taxrate and a budget in harmony with the ability of Belleville taxpayers to pay. Talking about leadership, or the lack of it, I will say a few words concerning the present mayor of Belleville, there is one outstanding thing he could say to the home-owners "I all my five years in office, I have never failed once to provide the taxpayers with a very substantial taxrate" quite true Mr. Mayor, but it's all dead.

For years now there is a movement under way in our town, and a lot of sensible citizens have banded together under the name "Tax Council of Belleville," it is the name to my way of thinking is not well chosen, because the boys in the town hall do not, and hardly dare have to listen to any council.

Even the leadership of this Tax-Council due to honest mistakes perfect persons not qualify for a prize in a contest. But the Tax-Council has tried hard and sincerely under most unfavorable conditions to bring relief for the hardpressed taxpayers in Belleville. It has tried hard to recruit the 3,000 or so non-voters and make them pocket book conscious. While it is true, the arrogance and irresponsible lactics of the town-hall, clique has in the past been maligned by the complacency and indifference of the non-voters, it must however also be considered that in the past years the Tax-Council has not been able to offer these voters a radical change in things, because such a change was not possible by law in the last commission election. After all it makes no sense to spend your time to vote a bad thing in, but now it makes sense to vote a BAD thing out.

The majority sincere voters in Belleville must be willing to cooperate and furnish the 4000 or so signatures to bring by petition to a vote whether Belleville shall become a modern, well governed by the people, or remain in the old rut to be smashed around by a minority group of spendthrifts with selfish interests only. The taxpayers must make a sincere effort to spend a little time to promote their own good, and attend meetings or at least be willing to spend the little time to furnish their signatures at designated places and at wait for a canvasser at their door to plead for it.

When the new budget will be presented, it should be a real stimulus, and I hope the taxpayers get twice as fast your there will be only standing room at a high school protest meeting, that's the only language commission government understands. The School Board, the most arrogant dictator of them all has already asked for a 46-point raise in taxes. The Board has been last year put twice in its place, but this year the members seem to think the taxpayers are very tired, so right, they are tired

SPOTLIGHT ON SPORTS

By FRANK JONES

Belleville High's basketball team ended one its poorest seasons ever this week, finishing up with a record of three wins and 12 defeats. However, in looking back over the situation, a good deal of credit must be given to Coach John Westlake's boys for the spirit and fight which they displayed against teams which generally had significant advantages in height, speed and experience. This aggressiveness against overwhelming odds succeeded in gaining for the team a couple of surprise victories, however, such as the opening game against Garfield and the startling upset of Seton Hall.

When a young team like this year's Bellboys can put up a stiff fight against teams like that and against odds of the calibre of Bloomfield, Montclair, Nutley and Passaic, Belleville fans can look forward to much better things in seasons to come. One of the really bright spots in the Bellboy crystal ball, as was pointed out in recent articles, has been the play of the freshman squad. A young man named Red Higgins has been netting points for the Fresh with astonishing regularity, as a result of which the yearlings compiled an enviable record dropping just one game all season.

The Essex County Tournament, which looked like a perfect setup for a Bloomfield runaway earlier in the season, may yet shape up to a real doneybrook. The stellar play of Nutley, the resurgence of Seton Hall and dark horse possibilities from teams like Westchester spell trouble for the mighty Bengals unless they can put on a sustained effort. Top seeding in the ECT has jinxed more than a few outstanding teams in previous years.

Baseball fans south South Jersey way have been sitting on pins and needles for the past few weeks as what started out as a fairly tale about the Philadelphia Phillies moving across the Delaware has snowballed into a full-blown, concrete, honest-to-goodness rumor. This of course puts it a step above a fairy tale, hence, the excitement.

Belleville Loses Eighth Straight To Finish Season

Coach John Westlake's Team Experiences Usual
Trouble Against Columbia and South Side As Big Men And Speed Hurt In Each Contest

Belleville High's basketball five closed out its season with its seventh and eighth straight losses losing to Columbia 62-58 and South Side 53-47.

The team lost again as height and hustle were the culprits. Belleville's season record stands at 3-12, and for the first time in many years it looks as if the Belleville school will not play in the Essex County Tournament.

Columbia dealt Belleville its seventh straight loss when Dick Katcher dropped in 25 points to lead his team. Columbia took a 14-7 lead late in the first quarter on the strength of a three minute period in which they outscored the Bellboys 9-2. Then Jim Hunt put in two foul tosses to make it 14-9. The margin remained the same at the end of the quarter as Ken Lawler and Raul Rodriguez exchanged baskets before the buzzer.

Early in the second session, the Bellboys took a 19-18 lead when Richie Boyce, who had 12 points for the night, and Mike Pizuto scored six straight markers. However, seconds later Columbia grabbed a 24-21 lead that it never gave up. The Columbia five increased their lead to six points at halftime with the score at 34-28. The Cougars ripped off five straight to open the third quarter with a 39-28 lead, but then the Bellboys, led by Hunt, Riccio, and John Boicote, scored six straight to make it 39-34. However, in the remaining time in the period Columbia outscored the Bellboys 9-4 to take a 48-38 third quarter lead.

Dave Dornbush started the final quarter with a duce to make it 50-38. Then Riccio scored six tallies while Bucky Fader scored two Columbia markers to make the score 52-44. Pizuto tallied two more to make it 52-46, but then Katcher and Lawler made it 55-46. Rodriguez and Riccio cut this disadvantage to five points only to have Dornbush and Fader increase it to eight points. Hunt then scored four points while Columbia scored four tallies to make it 62-54 with seconds remaining. Pizuto and Riccio finished the scoring with two apiece in these waning seconds to make the final score 62-58.

South Side made its eighth straight loss for the Bellboys as Willie Blount and Louis Carter collaborated for 41 markers. Belleville took a 12-10 first quarter lead but early in the second session South Side tied it up 13-13 on a basket by Carter. Then Richie Boyce, who led the Bellboys with 18 points, put in a duce to give Belleville a 15-13 advantage. Blount, Charley Gales, and Bob Whittoria combined for six straight tallies to give South Side a lead it never relinquished.

Jim Hunt, who had 16 points for the night, Boyce and Fred Riccio tried hard to keep the Bellboys in the game, but still the one of the substitutes, came through with eight markers in this last quarter to help the Bellboys start a rally that fell six points short.

The Belleville Jayvees, coached by Romeo Testa, made their record 7-8 when they split two games this week. Columbia dumped the Bellboys 51-48 when a late rally by the Belleville team that cut Columbia's advantage to one point petered out. Red Higgins was the top scorer for the Bellboys with 18 markers. George Sheridan and Frank Annichiarico also hit double figures with 11 and 10 points in a losing cause.

In the South Side game the Jayvees again staged a late rally, but this one did not stop as they dumped South Side 40-34. Higgins, Sheridan, and Annichiarico continue their fine scoring. The Bellboys may surprise many.

To the Editor, The Times-News:

When a person speaks of civic-mindedness it means "civic-mindedness" to the mind of the majority group, with which he is connected. That is the only interpretation that can be put on his statement at the last Board of Education meeting—that the E. T. A. was the only really civic-mindedness means work among all citizens, not just a minority group. I for one, who belongs to the Citizens Tax Council and the Riviera Park Civic Association, These groups fight for the betterment of every citizen of Belleville, including the E. T. A. members, they see fit to help in their fight or not.

We must elect members to our Board of Education who will fight for not only the children and P. T. A. members, but for the children first and then all citizens of Belleville. We need members who will fight the padding of the budget, who will reduce the large salary increases every year, and who will protect the taxpayers' pocketbook. We need people on that Board who will fight such things as cushioned front rubber seats to be used during study periods. Of such things as this the Federal Board of Education says, "extravagant, unnecessary and a deterrent to education," who will stop the spending of money.

All five Busters scored over 500 in the 220 series and 929 high game.

TWO LOCAL TEAMS WIN IN SR. CYO BOWLING LEAGUE

St. Anthony's 1 Beats
St. John's Of Orange; St.
Anthony's Two Wins Pair

Both St. Anthony's 1 and St. Anthony's 2 were double winners in the Essex County Senior CYO Mixed Bowling League on Sunday. St. Anthony's 1 moving within two games of the lead on the strength of its victory over St. John's 2, Orange.

St. Anthony's won the opener and finale in that set, taking the first by six pins, 650-644, and the win by 95, 697-602. St. John's salvaged the middle game, 617-595. Nick Getulio led St. Anthony's with a closing 108, as the team ran its record to 21 wins, 16 losses.

St. Anthony's 2 used Sacred Heart 2, Bloomfield, as a stepping stone, beating that club 574-565 after dropping the opener, 644-598. St. Anthony's 2 now shows a 23-20 record.

Bellboys Win, Tie For 1st

Belleville High's bowling team made it two in a row when they beat North Arlington 2-0 last week at the Towers in Cedar Grove.

Belleville dumped Arlington in the first game despite a 670 series when the North Arlington team rolled a very poor 631 total for the game. Lou "Skip" Crudele's 148 game was high for both squads as the allies seemed to have all the boys baffled.

In the second game the Bellboys' total improved, but North Arlington continued its poor scoring and lost 747-640. Richie Lowack and Bob Alessi, with 179 and 167, respectively, led the Belleville team to its second game win.

In the other action in the New Jersey Interscholastic Bowling League Bloomfield, who is knotted with Belleville for first place, handed Caldwell its second loss, 837-681, and 811-778. Seton Hall and Nutley both opened their season in good form as the Pony Pirates knocked off Wayne 792-785, and 868-775, and Nutley trounced St. Benedict's 719-660, and 770-754. Ronnie Savare paced the Seton Hall team with a 209 in the second game. Verona dealt Montclair its second loss, 668-720, and 742-712. In the 868 series the Seton Cavaliers rolled the high game of 225.

This week the Bellboys are scheduled to roll against Nutley, and it is needless to say that they will have to bowl much better if they want to remain atop the league.

Honors At Hobby Show Won By Belleville Girl

Annette Juliano, of Belleville, a CYO member at St. Lucy's, Newark, won top prize in the CYO Hobby Show held in Jersey City on January 27. Her entry was judged best among the more than 100 submitted by CYO members in Essex, Hudson, Bergen and Union Counties.

It was the second year in a row that a Belleville resident had earned top honors. Last year Justin Maguire, of St. Peter's, took top prize. Miss Juliano was given a plaque by Chris Hentschel, archdiocesan CYO cultural activities director. Her entry was a six-foot stage prop of a stained glass window, made of heavy cardboard and cellophane of various colors.
