Mrs. Cavalla, 55, Dies After Wreck On Penn. Tpk.

Mrs. Margaret Caputo Cavalla, 55, of 76 Bell Street, died of injuries received in an automobile accident Thursday, September 17th on the Pennsylvania Turnpike near New Stanton, Pa.

Her husband, Joseph, 55, was driving the car when it rammed into a trailer truck, which, according to police reports, was parked awaiting repairs.

Mr. Cavalla did not remember how the accident occurred. He stated that the last thing he remembered was that he had asked his wife if she wanted him to pull over so they could have something to drink.

Earlier that day, the couple had started out on a trip to visit Mr. and Mrs. Lou Hays of Canonsburg, Pennsylvania. According to the Pennsylvania State Police, they were traveling west at about 1:45 p.m. when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Cavalla died five hours later in the Frick Memorial Hospital, Mount Pleasant, Pennsylvania after suffering a fractured skull.

Cavalla is in "fair" condition at the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. He was admitted Tuesday after refusing hospital care in Pennsylvania because he wanted to return with his wife's body.

A friend of the family, Charles Asch of Garden Avenue, flew to Pittsburgh to accompany Mr. Cavalla back to Belleville.

No Data Now On Civil Serv. Finance Jobs

The Trenton office of the State Department of Civil Service told The Times-News this week that information on the number of applicants who had applied for the ten town hall jobs in the Department of Revenue and Finance was not available.

Specific information as to the number who had applied could not be released before the eligible lists were promulgated, the office declared.

The tests probably would be held in November, the office said. However, an indication of whether the applications were few, moderate or many might be obtained in October.

The ten jobs which are open pending open competitive civil service examination are: addressograph machine operator, $3,063-$3,981; assistant municipal treasurer, $2,666-$3,274; book-keeping machine operator, $3,063-$3,981; principal stenographer, $3,981-$5,079; receptionist, $3,516-$4,608; telephone operator, $3,063-$3,981 and a water meter reader, $3,902-$5,079.

Those persons who wish to take the examination must have resided in Belleville for at least one year.

Those who hold the positions at town hall now are addressograph machine operator, Sal Lamorte, $3,981; assistant municipal treasurer, Isadore G. Fiala, Jr., $3,386; bookkeeping machine operators, Mary I. Kostek, Anna M. Veneziano and Grace McGuire, all at $3,640.

Also, principal clerk stenographer, Lucille Ball, $4,299; receptionist, Gertrude K. Raymond, $3,546; telephone operator, Mary T. Fisher, $3,386; water meter readers, Emil Senatore and Alex Cokkalis at $4,299 for both.

Application blanks and bulletins may be obtained at the Department of Civil Service, 110 Raymond Boulevard, Newark, Room 107, or by writing to the same address. Deadline for applying for the tests is September 30th. These civil service appointments will be permanent.

Firemen, Police In Part-Time Jobs

A considerable number of firemen and police in Belleville have part-time jobs other than their town employment, The Times-News has learned.

However, the matter does not appear to concern Commissioner Harry J. Sullivan, Director of Public Safety, who says he is aware that a regulation exists on the books, against the men working, but that the regulation is generally ignored.

Could Use Regulation Sullivan points out that the regulation could be brought into use in the event a member of the police or fire departments did allow any outside work to interfere with his regular duties.

"Sullivan did not venture to predict a number or a percentage of policemen who were employed outside of their regular duties, but suggested that the number was not great in the Police Department. He indicated the number, whatever it was, was no cause of great worry."

Commissioner Sullivan said that "some time ago" the matter had been looked into, and indicated it was found the conditions were of no great moment at this writing. Police Chief George Spatz was not able to be reached at headquarters to comment on the number of men employed.

Chief Carl Hundertfand declared that to his knowledge more than 90 percent of the firemen work at one job or another. These jobs, Chief Hundertfand said, may be only one day a week.

The Fire Chief defended the men's right to work and said that the Department had a good record of which it was proud, and that all the men are available 24 hours a day and on call when they are working at some outside activity.

Thalheimer "65%" Fire Captain Joseph Thalheimer was somewhat more conservative in his estimate on the number.

Representing the town were Commissioners Nuncio Pico, George P. Kiernan and Harry J. Sullivan. Also present for the town was John Hewitt, welfare director.

More representatives of the hospital were present at the session. Commissioner Pico told the Times-News that no basic formulas were arrived at, and that both sides stated their positions. The meeting was called some time back and has been delayed. It was called in an attempt to settle differences concerning the back water bills owed the town by Clara Maass. The hospital bills are not paid by its water bills since it opened some two years ago. It owes more than $5,000.

Another factor in the problem is an ordinance raising the rate of hospital pay for water from 69 cents to 90 cents per 1,000 cubic feet. Maass had been billed at 69 cents, the same rate as paid by the Essex County Hospital.

The newer rate is that deemed to be the cost per unit of water under a new five-year contract.

The ordinance passed first reading and is being held up pending the outcome of the talks between the hospital and the town.

ASS'N. OPENS SEASON The Riviera Park Civic Association will meet at 8:30 p.m. Friday at 569 Washington Avenue, in the headquarters of the Citizens' Tax Council. It will be the first fall meeting for the group.

Dr. Kim states he would like to send Albert back home in six to eight weeks. Rehabilitation with Albert is continuing, and at Kessler, rehabilitation is a main factor in getting disabled patients on the road to recovery.

The check to the Institute was presented while Exalted Ruler Strat and Esteemed Knight Zimmer were visiting Galvin this week.

TAX COUNCIL WORKING QUIETLY BUILDING GROUP

The Citizens' Tax Council, which hasn't been raising too much of a public fuss in recent weeks, is working quietly toward building up a strong body of supporters, the Times-News was informed this week.

In discussing the relative quiet of the organization, the Times-News talked to Martin Resnick, who is publicity chairman of the organization. Resnick declared the Tax Council was slowly building up an organization, waiting for the Commissioners to "bury themselves with higher taxes."

The Tax Council, which favors a change to Council-Manager form of government, is seeking enough petitions to call a special referendum on a change in government.

According to Resnick, 3,200 signatures are necessary. This figure is 20 per cent of the registered voters. The fact that 20 per cent of the registered voters are required, rather than 20 per cent of the voters who actually voted at the last election places the group at a disadvantage, Resnick feels, but adds that with enough workers and time, the allotted amount could be obtained. "Give me 100 workers working 10 days a piece and we'll get 3,600 signatures," he asserted.

BHS Cross Country Squad Meets E. Orange Tuesday

By DOM GIOVACHINO

The Belleville High School cross country team, which is coached by Mario Di Maggio, began practice this week for the 1959 season, which will begin Tuesday, September 22nd here with a meet against East Orange.

Altogether, 22 boys turned out for cross country this year. "We lost most of the team," the coach said, but he expects his returnees to "carry the team along."

Among those coming back this season are: Bob Daddis,

Bob Cornish, Ernest Steffanelli, Richard Giamerelli, Fred Marinaccio, Frank De Meo, and Jack Schudeboom.

Last year's record was six wins and four defeats. Coach Di Maggio expects an average season this year.

Since the first meet is almost upon them, the coach and the boys are going to have to work hard to be ready in time.

All home meets will be run at Belleville Park.

Following is the 1959 cross country schedule:

Sept. 22, East Orange, home; 24, Passaic, away; 29, Clifton, away.

Oct. 2, Montclair, away; 5, Passaic Valley, home; 9, Kearney, home; 13, West Orange, home; 18, Irvington, home; 20, Bloomfield, home; 22, South Side, away; 30, Big Ten, West Side Park.

Nov. 3, Essex County, West Side Park; 10, N.J.S.L.A., Elizabeth.

The motto of the drive is: "It costs nothing to help."

partments placed the Health Officer in the Public Affairs Department, while the Plumbing Inspector was sent to the Public Works Department.

"Thus," said Golden, "we are offered that strange and odd situation whereby a 'boss' as established by transcending law of town ordinance is in one department while his subordinate is under jurisdiction of another director in a different department."

"The stultifying confusion resulting from this sad mixup produces a mess in Belleville's local government which demands immediate eradication. A town with two attorneys on its government body and with two well paid counsels at its disposal, under no circumstances should be confronted with such an absurd medley of slipshod conduct in official office," he declared.

Golden said it was especially important that the legal question of jurisdiction over control of the Plumbing Inspector's position be summarily decided, since the prospect of the retirement of the present incumbent, Mr. O'Connor, loomed imminent with all the attendant patronage advantages inherent in filling the vacancy. This, Golden contended, added more coal to the heated fires burning between Comm. Grunlin and Comm. Pico, who would both lay claim to the appointment.

In conclusion, Golden hit the establishment of the office of Assistant Town Council, which he called a "sinecure." He said there had been a codification of town ordinances, as was promised by Mayor Padula at the time this office was created, but there would have been no possibility of such a muddled quagmire of legal confusion which is little short of chaos.

pupils learn the basic subjects, but please remember that even more important is the impact you are each making on turning boys and girls into law-abiding citizens. Teachers should imbue children with a love for their school, their home, their town, their state, their nation, and each other. It will do no good for the schools to blame the homes for the behavior of their children. It is the job of the teacher to work with the parents wherever possible, but if parents will not respond, it is still the job of the teacher to work with children to help them to become the very best citizens.

"Let's stop talking about juvenile delinquency. Let's call it juvenile crime. Let's put a sharp focus on what is right and what is wrong behavior and why? There is a place for advice and help in working with boys and girls, but there is also a place for punishment. When a child does damage to desk, a window, a tree, a book, his parents should be required to pay. "He should also be punished personally. Punishments should be reasonable. If they are reasonable, children will not hate you for your actions, and they may learn the kind of world in which they live before they go down the path to teenage crime and prison.

"Teachers, while you are teaching your subjects, remember to teach your boys and girls how to live. When you see something wrong, don't turn your head the other way; do your duty in helping to make good citizens."

"I want to wish each of you a most successful year in working with our boys and girls."

advised the board there was a sewer line running between the breezeway and garage, "and we have had to move the sewer line as not to go over the sewer and we need five and a half feet for the breezeway."

Mr. Coronato motioned that the variance be granted due to undue hardship and that the building inspector be instructed to issue the necessary permit to overcome the discrepancy of 5 1/2 feet.

John Domiter of 58 Malone Avenue applied for a permit to convert a two-family house into a three-family house. Mr. Domiter stated that when he bought the house in 1954, he assumed it was a three-family house.

"I fixed up the property and the taxes went up. I live on the first floor, my daughter on the second and we rent the third. It has always been rented as a three-family. In the spring an inspector from the Tenement House came and said I had to get a variance. If I knew this at the time I bought the house, I never would have bought it. I have a very heavy mortgage, and I can't afford to keep the house without renting the third floor."

Mr. Coronato motioned that the variances be recommended favorably to the Board of Commissioners for final determination due to undue hardship.

Frank Chieffo of 546 Jerusalem Street sought a permit to erect a frame two-story dwelling for two families. The area is in a residence "B" zone, but the lot space is insufficient for two families.

Mr. Chieffo stated that he had the land 12 years and had been paying taxes on it. "I can't find myself doing anything with it but selling it," he declared.

Commissioner Gannon motioned that the variance be granted due to undue hardship.

Because both corporate and employee contributions will be essential, it was pointed out that the key to the success of the 1960 United Fund Drive will be the adoption of the payroll contribution program by the majority of Belleville industries.

Reading Clinic

Miss Olive I. Carter, director of the Westinghouse Educational Foundation, a fellowship of $3,000 covering the two years of study leading to the Master in Business Administration degree at Harvard is offered annually. The recipient must be a graduate with an engineering degree and an outstanding overall record. This year's recipient was Richard L. Sampson of Illinois.

All of the testing is being done by appointment. Classes will be held on both the Rutherford and the Teaneck campuses.

The diagnostic tests, given individually, determine the cause of the difficulty for the student, and indicate what work should be given him.

These tests include an intelligence test, a screening test for vision, silent and oral reading tests, and a spelling test. A full written report is given to the parent, and if desired, to the school.

Since reading is basic to all other subjects, an increasing group who do not need any "remedial" work come to the Clinic for improvement and for appreciation of comprehension and speed, Miss Carter states.

Further information may be secured, and appointments made, by calling the Reading Clinic at Webster 3-5000.

AREA CYO UNITS ASKED TO APPLY FOR CHARTERS

CYO units throughout the Essex - West Hudson area were reminded this week that they must apply for charters to the county CYO office by October 1 in order to be eligible to take part in activities sponsored on an inter-parish level.

Filing of charters will also serve to affiliate the parish unit with the national organization in Washington.

This year, in addition, parishes will have to affiliate with the junior and young adult divisions of the Essex County Council of Catholic Youth in order to take part in activities run on those levels. Affiliation is gained through representation at council meetings.

In issuing the reminder about charters, the Rev. Vincent F. Affano, county CYO director, noted that parish groups must also register all youngsters who will be participating in programs above the county level.

"This is to make certain" he said, "that those competing in athletic and cultural competitions are bona-fide CYO members in the sense that they participate also on the parish level."

Safe Driving

We think it underscores the rightness of our nation's policy, which is to encourage other countries to work out their problems in accordance with their own character and traditions. A veiled Arab woman, unschooled and content with her lot, isn't likely to vote for the same reasons as an American housewife or businesswoman.

This month our children are returning to school and for the thousands who have just reached six years of age, September is a month to be remembered. But — did you ever stop to realize that approximately 5,000 of these happy elementary school kiddies between the ages of 5 and 14 will remember, but not for long. They won't be around to see another September.

Why? Simply because the automobile, just like the one which you and I drive is the greatest single enemy to children of the age group mentioned. Actually, the death rate by automobile for children 5 to 14 years of age runs about 8.4 per 100,000 population.

What can we do to improve this situation? For one thing we might evaluate our driving habits in school areas, such as:

- approach school areas as we did when we were kids — SLOWLY!
- in school zones drive as though their little lives depended on it. And after all — they do.
- never take anything for granted in school zones.
- the law says — slow down in school zones — but can you? — Will you?
- don't let our school zones be the areas of the quick and the dead.

Herbert Hoover once said — "A boy has two jobs: one is just being a boy; the other, growing up to be a man". Don't let it ever be said of you or me that we "prevented that evolution".

Most Essential "Factory" On Earth

We are constantly amazed and thrilled by the wonderful balances we find in Nature. Trees, shrubs and plant life in general do for man what he cannot do for himself in maintaining his own life on earth.

Man breathes out carbon dioxide, plants take this gas in and convert it to oxygen which man requires in order to breathe. Plants have ability to absorb vast quantities of carbon dioxide, one authority figuring that a single acre of a particular species of plant depletes 18,600 tons of air of its carbon dioxide in a single growing season.

The plant takes this gas and releases one molecule of oxygen for every molecule of the carbon dioxide. For each ton of the dry weight of plants approximately 21,500 cubic feet of pure oxygen has been released into the air.

Multiply this by the countless tons of the dry matter of plants of all kinds and we begin to see where all the oxygen we need to breathe and to carry on industry of all kinds comes from. Without plants, we couldn't heat a house, run a car, clothe ourselves, eat or even breathe.

Is it any wonder then that we often look at a beautiful tree in our back yard, or on a mountainside with awe? Every tree and shrub, every leaf, even the blade of grass in its own way is working for the preservation of mankind. Trees and shrubs are the most essential "factories" on earth.

When the hot sun beats down, most animals take cover, from man on down to many of the smallest insects. We can take cover under a hot roof or umbrella, or on the shady side of a wall, but for real comfort we all prefer to relax beneath a tree, which transfers the excessive heat from ground level way up into the leafy tree tops, thus making the ground areas below cooler and more comfortable.

Where there is too little plant life fine dusts are blown into the air to seep into our homes, as people in the plains areas and in our cities are well aware. According to the American Association of Nurserymen, trees not only anchor soils but filter out dusts to considerable extent. Dust counts in the air are always lower on the lee side of a sizeable park, making this a more desirable place to live.

One of the more sordid aspects of life in the United States, is that cities do not sufficiently recognize the desirability of green, planted strips of trees, shrubs and grass. That is not the case of Nutley.

Man cannot be comfortable in cities or elsewhere without plant life and all the benefits that emerge from it. Industrialization and housing expansion without making provision for green areas has been one of the primary causes of many residential and industrial slums found not only in cities and towns but along our highways.

Trees and plants are not merely sentimental objects of beauty. Some day perhaps people generally will truly recognize this and, by widespread plantings, begin to make our existence as comfortable and healthful as it can and should be within our cities, in our housing developments, along our highways, as well as elsewhere.

Medicine Can Cure

Hippocrates, the father of medicine, said it two thousand years ago: "Medicine can often comfort, can sometimes alleviate, and can rarely cure."

Were Hippocrates writing today, he would certainly revise his final phrase. Medicine today does cure, the Health News Institute reminds us, thanks to new drugs which are becoming available at the rate of 400 a year.

As a result, such ancient killers of children as diphtheria are textbook rarities, and polio can be prevented by a vaccine.

"It's The Law"

Contract Dangers

Everyone makes mistakes; even though we don't always realize it. The courts, recognizing that no man is perfect, may take mistakes into consideration in certain contract matters.

Generally speaking, there is no prescribed form for a contract. In fact, a contract need not necessarily be written. Very often they are oral.

When making oral contracts or agreements, you should be careful to avoid mistakes. They may be costly. For example, take the case of a homeowner and a painter who orally agreed on a painting job. When asked for the price, the painter replied "two-fifty". The painter meant $250; the homeowner understood it to mean $2.50 an hour. Thus you see where the parties thought that they had reached an agreement; they had not done so. They were mutually mistaken, and the contract could be nullified.

The law is that where there is mutual mistake as to the subject matter of a contract, there is cause for rescission, which means that both parties must return the benefits received. Of course, if the painter has already painted all or part of the house at the time the mistake is discovered, the court will permit him to be paid for the recoverable value of the work done.

So be careful. When you make an agreement or contract, whether it be verbal or written, be sure you each understand the terms. You'll save yourself trouble and possibly a law suit if you do.

The following is a copy of a letter sent to Commissioner Harry J. Sullivan, Director of Public Safety:

Dear Mr. Sullivan:

Yesterday, I had the occasion to call the Police at a very early hour in the morning (due to a prowler) and was gratified to find that they responded in a very few minutes and put us at ease.

This is not the first time I have had to call on our police department for help. My calls have always received prompt attention and sincere consideration from our police officers who have answered these calls.

Belleville Red Cross Chapter
Makes A Plea For Volunteers

The Belleville Chapter of the American Red Cross is appealing to the people of Belleville for volunteers for various phases of Red Cross work. The greatest need is for Motor Service Drivers.

Have you ever had to get to a hospital and had no means of getting there? That problem exists for many Belleville residents, who because of age, financial inability, or other circumstances, look to the Red Cross Motor Service for their transportation.

Experienced drivers, male or female, who have any available time, regardless of how little, are being sought by the Belleville Red Cross Chapter to drive the cars operated by the Red Cross for transportation of the elderly; crippled children and the ailing to hospitals and clinics.

Any responsible person with a driver's license and a desire to help is urgently needed for any morning or afternoon.

Monday through Friday.

A recruiting booth at Sears and Roebuck will be open September 21 through September 25 from 12 noon until 4 p.m., or call Mrs. Tucker at PL 9-7413.

In addition to Motor Service, volunteers are needed for Gray Ladies to provide service in hospitals, clinics and other institutions.

Three Belleville High School girls took the Gray Lady training in May. One worked at the East Orange Veterans Hospital two days a week in July. The other two worked at Clara Mass Hospital in July and August. Gray Ladies are invaluable to overworked hospital staffs, helping to keep records on incoming and outgoing patients, as well as many other duties.

Also, Belleville needs volunteers for blood donors, arts and skills workers to teach crafts in the hospitals; Canteen workers to serve in disasters and in the blood program; nurse's aides to assist registered nurses in the blood program and to serve in hospitals; production and supply workers to make disaster garments, hospital dressings and layettes; social welfare aides to help servicemen and their families with personal problems and registered nurses to teach Red Cross courses and fill assignments in the blood program.

If you are free as much as a half day a week, or as little as four hours a month, contact

"WHAT'S THIS

PRESCRIPTION FOR?"

It is common for a customer to ask us to tell him the disease that a prescription is for. Here is the only answer we can give such a request: "Many Drugs are used for several ailments and for that reason we have made it a policy never to guess the disease or the physical condition a prescription is for."

"Certain Drugs will help give relief from a number of symptoms and these symptoms are observed in several ailments. The physician who thoughtfully examined you with skill & care before he wrote the prescription you inquire about, it is for him to answer the question, it alone has the necessary information. We must refuse to guess. You will agree that it is the right policy for us to follow in regard to this question."

"Iron Dukes," Well Oiled, Open Season This Sunday Vs. Newark Rough Riders

The newly-formed Belleville "Iron Dukes" will open its season at 2 p.m. this Sunday, September 20th, at Belleville Municipal Stadium against the Newark Rough Riders.

As they have been practicing five nights a week the "Iron Dukes" are said to be a well-oiled team (the Iron Dukes trust) with the precision of a machine.

Reports have the team in fine physical and mental condition for the opening game.

In Rec League

Federal Industries Nabs 1959 Championship Title For Industrial Softball

The 1959 champ of the Recreation Industrial Softball League is Federal Industries. Federal had won the regular League play by a comfortable margin and went into the playoffs with a 12-2 standing.

Three other strong teams were also in the playoffs. They were Wallace & Tiernan, Walter Kiddie and A.W.W.P.A.

In the semi-finals, Federal Industries disposed of A.W.W.P.A. with two straight wins, while Kiddie had to fight through three games to take two-out-of-three from a very strong Wallace & Tiernan team.

Then, after a week's inactivity because of rain, the two big powers finally drew up their forces for the final test last week. In the first of the final games Federal was held to a 1-1 tie until the final inning when they really broke loose with the heavy artillery to win, 5-1.

In the second game of the final series, Kiddie came fighting back. With steady pitching, brilliant fielding and hitting where it counted, Walter Kiddie piled up a 4-1 victory to even the series.

Then, to finish with a story-book climax, these two titans played the final game of the series to a 6-5 score with Federal Industries picking up all the marbles.

While the victory and the trophies go to Federal Industries, they most certainly must share their glory with this hard-fighting, never-say-die Walter Kiddie team.

Commissioner George F. Kiernan will present Federal Industries with the championship and the play-off trophies in the very near future.

He Knew That He Would Never See To Develop Service For Mentally Ill

... A Thing as Lovely as a Tree

Miroslaw Czapowskyj is a man who doesn't give up easily. In fact, that could mean extra money in the pockets of growers of Christmas trees and other forest products.

Mr. Czapowskyj comes from the Ukraine, where forests and lots of other things aren't what they used to be. His doubts about his future in Europe convinced him to come to America eight years ago and eventually led to the special forestry and soils research which now claims his attention at Rutgers University's Agricultural Experiment Station.

His background in European style forestry, which traditionally places a high value on every tree if not every stick of wood, and training in soil science, arm Czapowskyj with a double-barreled approach to his research problem. He's a rare find, according to Prof. Richard F. West, chairman of the Forestry Department at the State University.

Czapowskyj, 36 years old and a candidate for the Doctor of Philosophy degree, is looking into possibilities of working out fertilizer recommendations to guide the growers of Norway Spruce. This adaptable and useful tree is used for Christmas trees and other purposes in this country.

He has another project also with yellow poplar, needed for veneers and for making crates, boxes and baskets to hold the Garden State's multi-million dollar fruit crops.

Curiously enough, little or no exact research has been done on the effects of applying to forest trees these familiar garden and farm fertilizer elements, nitrogen, phosphorus and potash. Czapowskyj is making a beginning with a couple of acres of Norway spruce seedlings to see if fertilizer will influence the growth, form, vigor, color and needle-holding ability of these trees.

Why should he pick a state like New Jersey for forestry research? The answer is that 42 per cent of the Garden State is still forested, in spite of land carved out for farms, highways, industries, homes and golf courses.

Czapowskyj's university education in Europe came in several installments and under many degrees of hardship. He finished two semesters at the University of Lwow before he was forced in 1944 to go to Germany to work as a laborer until the end of the war.

He resumed his education at UNRRA University in Munich and was graduated from Ludwig Maximilian University, also in Munich, in 1945.

After graduation he became forest manager on the private estate of Duke von Wuerttemberg.

But vibrations from the fast-paced events in Europe were felt even in the Duke's forest, and the young forester asked and received permission to enter the United States.

He arrived in New York in 1951, didn't speak English, although he could speak not only Ukrainian, but also Russian,

German and Polish.

By the Relief Service of the National Catholic Welfare Conference was expecting him, and he soon had a place to live and a factory job in Passaic. He lives now with his wife and son in Trenton. (207 Elizabeth Ave.)

After five years he made a connection that enabled him to return to the academic life and he began studying for his master's degree at the University of Maine.

Czapowskyj chose Maine because the country and climate seemed most like his native Ukraine, and, of course, the country bristles with trees. His research in Maine deals with Norway spruce growth as related to soil characteristics and environment.

A tersely-worded government order for Ukrainian agriculture, issued several years ago, explains why forestry in the United States offers more of a future than a similar career in the Ukraine — and why Czapowskyj chose to emigrate to America.

The edict declared that the land and all above it and all below it belong to the government. That includes trees, and since Ukrainian trees are much closer than Siberian trees have been used to feed the insatiable appetite of Soviet industry.

As a result, once-forested Ukrainian soil is now wind-blown and water-washed, almost as if a Maine forest fire had passed that way.

Two direct services to help the mentally ill get adequate treatment and return to a productive life will be developed in the year ahead as the major objectives of the New Jersey Association for Mental Health.

Mr. Bernard G. Goldstein of Pompton Lakes, president, said that the State Association will strengthen and extend the information and Referral Service throughout the state, and establish a rehabilitation service on a demonstration basis in one or two selected counties.

These recommendations are part of a report on short-range and long-range objectives of the Association, recently completed by the planning committee headed by Mrs. Joy Roth of Westfield, a founder of the Association who served as president the first five years (1956-58).

The report lists four long-range general goals:

1. "Extend the citizens' mental health movement to include the six counties without an affiliated Mental Health Association."
2. "Promote increased programs of adequate care and facilities for New Jersey's 21,000 mental hospital patients."
3. "Establishment of increased services for the mentally ill and emotionally disturbed and their families in the community."
4. "Promotion of mental health and full participation with other groups in this objective."

Mr. Goldstein said that the Association hopes to expand its current programs in research, counseling, public education, training of special groups, establishment of clinics, improved hospital care, volunteer services, legislation, and rehabilitation.

He explained that the Association is the only statewide citizens movement dedicated to fighting the total problem of mental illness. Financial support comes mainly from the annual Mental Health Fund Drive but with some allocations from United Fund.

Need To Reappraise License Laws

"The steady increase in traffic deaths from accident involving single motor vehicles seems to indicate a need to reappraise licensing laws," David Green, president of the Motor Club of America, said this week.

Focusing attention on this element in the traffic toll, Mr. Green pointed out that in New Jersey for the first six months this year, there were 107 traffic deaths in which only one vehicle was involved. A total of 99 of these motor vehicle fatalities involved vehicles that either ran off the road, struck fixed objects or overturned in the road.

In the nation last year, Mr. Green added, the so-called run-off-the-roadway accidents totaled more than 3,200, the third highest group classification of fatal traffic accidents. Nearly 150,000 other persons were injured in similar accidents.

There is no doubt that speed and fatigue play the prominent roles in the single car accidents," Mr. Green said, "but it is amazing how the same old accidents just keep right on happening despite the pleas of traffic officials. What mostly puzzles traffic safety officials is the driver's utter indifference to the speed and fatigue factors as they affect safety."

Mr. Green proposed a review of traffic laws to determine their weaknesses, particularly in the pre-licensing and licensing examinations of driver applicants.

Youngsters who know and follow these rules will be able to enjoy their bikes without risking death or injury, or adding gray hairs to the man in the driver's seat. When they grow up and begin to drive a car, their bicycle training will make them safer and more courteous motorists, safety experts believe.

HOME GARDENING

By Lawrence D. Little, Jr.
County Agricultural Agent

Planting Evergreens

Many beginning gardeners waste the money they spend for evergreens by planting too deep or throwing too much fertilizer into the hole. Planting in a wet spot is also about the same as tossing your dollars into the air during a windstorm.

Getting evergreens off to a satisfactory start is a cinch, but it may pay to review the few simple rules at the evergreen planting season, which extends through September.

When you take your new little tree or shrub home in its ball of burlap be careful to plant it no deeper than it stood in the nursery or you'll risk smothering it. You don't even have to take the burlap wrapping off, but you can untie the top and loosen it at the soil level. Roots will grow right through the burlap.

But be sure that your new plant doesn't send its tender roots into a handful of chemical fertilizer that you may be tempted to toss around the bundle of roots. Roots of newly planted trees are almost certain to be harmed in contact with chemical fertilizer. Your new tree really needs no fertilizer at all, as it's best not to push it into making new leaves just before cold weather. Wait until next May to fertilize, and then use fertilizer sparingly.

You've often heard that such-and-such a plant can't stand wet feet. This is certainly true of taxus and hemlocks. Just allow either of these to stand as long as 48 hours in too wet soil and roots begin to rot. You're likely to have this trouble in heavy soil with a base of shale — perhaps around the foundation where the soil too often consists of backfill and bits of trash from building construction.

The earlier you get your evergreen planted in the better chance they will have to become established and escape winter winds.

Try Lilies For Summer Color In Your Garden

If your perennial garden needs a boost of color in mid-summer, try some of the lilies. By selecting several types, you can have lilies in bloom for several months.

For June and July, there are the Regal lily and Hanson's lily. The Regal lily is white with pink streaks, is very easily grown in full sun, and is practically disease-free. Hanson's lily has orange-yellow flowers, is not bothered by mice or disease, and will grow in shade.

During July and August, Henry's lily provides golden orange blooms, and in August and September the Pink Speciosum lily is best grown in full sun.

For late summer, the tall white Philippine lily makes a good background plant for the perennial garden.

Lilies should be planted as early in the fall as possible for bloom next summer. Choose a location where water will not stand around the bulbs and where the soil is slightly acid. All of the lilies mentioned should be planted about 8 inches deep. A few lilies, such as Madonna and Turkecap, are planted only 2 to 3 inches deep because they root only from the base of the bulb.

Pre-Season Camps

The sending of high school football squads out of town camps for pre-season drills is now in vogue. This new trend seems to be growing stronger with each passing year.

We feel that enough emphasis is placed on the sport without including this new wrinkle. The fad seemed to have birth in Passaic County where some of the schools have been doing this for several years.

One Passaic county football power went so far as to keep the squad away from school for several days last autumn so they could enjoy pre-season practice out of town.

This action brought about a small storm of protest from both other students and parents. We know of at least three Essex County schools which exercised this out-of-town pre-season privilege for several days this year — Bloomfield, East Side Newark and Immaculate Conception of Montclair. The New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association may have to rule on this as they did "early practice sessions" in 1954.

In the thirties, Bloomfield ruled the scholastic football picture much the same as Montclair has in more recent years and so anxious was Garfield High to beat Bloomfield they started practice about the first of August.

When the two teams met — which was the season opener for Bloomfield although it was the second on the schedule for Garfield — the Boilermakers were in mid-season form and upset the Bengals, 6-0.

They reached their peak in this early season struggle and did not do too well for the remainder of the football season, while Bloomfield went on to win the State Championship by downing Collingswood in a post-season game.

This defeat by Garfield was the only one suffered by the Bengals that Fall. That same year, Bill Foley, Bengal coach at the time, appeared before the state body and persuaded them to pass a ruling which would allow no official practice before September 1st.

In most cases, the boys must pay their own expenses at pre-season camps. This is most likely done to keep the taxpayers from making a protest. But is it fair to ask a boy to pay to participate in sports, especially in the public schools? Boys who cannot attend are left behind and possibly lose a chance to make the varsity. The athletic facilities in the suburban schools are good and we see little need for these camps.

Ice Skating

It was not too many years ago that one had to wait for the whims of the weatherman before getting out the ice skates. However, it is now possible to skate from mid-September right through until Spring.

The South Mountain Arena was opened to skaters September 11th. This is an indoor rink and offers all skating needs including classes of instruction.

Before long the outdoor rinks will be opened in Branch Brook Park, Newark as well as the Willow Brook in Wayne. Of course, these outdoor arenas depend on the weather to a certain extent, but will be open from the middle of October until Spring, except when the weather is unseasonably warm. These artificial rinks offer much pleasure to old and young alike, so get out the old skates early this year and join the fun.

The Name's The Same

The team may be new but the name is the same. The football season will open for the Belleville-Nutley Iron Dukes on Sunday when the Dukes meet the Newark Rough Riders. A team of this same name played locally in former years but has been inoperative in recent years. The Iron Dukes will play in the Garden State Semi-Pro League. The foundation of this team affords local fans a chance to see former area high school players in action. Sunday's game will be played at Belleville Municipal Stadium. Admission is free with kick-off slated for 2:00 P.M.

Young Hunters Must Pass Course

All young hunters between 14 and 21 years of age who have never had a New Jersey hunting license before, must take a four-hour course and pass an examination before any permit will be issued for the coming season which opens in early November. The youths will have to take the "Hunters' Safety Course", sponsored by the National Rifle Association and in conjunction with the State Division of Fish and Game.

There will be two courses this year, one for hunters who use a rifle and one for outdoorsmen who hunt with bow and arrow.

A four-hour course, divided into two, two-hour sessions, will be administered by the Juvenile Aid Bureau of the Essex County Sheriff's Department. The course will be held at the Essex County Court House starting on September 23 at 7 o'clock. In charge of the program is Detective Jack Bennett, of Park Avenue. He said that if any Nutley or Belleville youngsters are thinking about getting a license they should appear in person any Wednesday night. No advance registration is required.

Part of the time will be devoted to the showing of films. The idea of the state law is to properly prepare the youth on the handling of firearms. "If we can save one life by giving this program, the project will be a tremendous success," said Bennett.

Bennett pointed out that Nutley and Belleville youngsters who have a hunting license from last year are excluded from taking the test.

The hunting course has been offered for the last four years. Last Fall 194 boys passed the test given in Newark. Of that total 40 were from Nutley and Belleville. Each of the boys upon completion of a passing grade is given a certified hunting card.

Bennett predicts that even more boys will take the course this year. He said that the classes will be held weekly starting in late September and continuing right up to the start of the hunting season.

Carmen Lemma Pitches Nutley To 6-4 "Sudden Death" Win Over E. O. Soverels

The Nutley Colonels are the 1959 champions of the Essex County League.

Manager Ernie Lantz' semi-pro aggregation was not to be denied as the Colonels played for all the marbles in a special "sudden death" playoff game against the East Orange Soverels on Saturday afternoon at neutral Grove Street Oval, East Orange, with Nutley winning the big one behind the slants of Carmen Lemma, 6-4.

With Lemma on the mound Nutley performed like a championship club and was the county's representative in the New Jersey State Tournament of Champions.

But without Lemma on the mound the Colonels performed like just another team and were abruptly eliminated from the tournament on Sunday as the Essex Cardinals routed Nutley, 17-10. Lantz used five pitchers to try to stop the champions of the New Jersey League but he found out that Lemma is his one and only "meal ticket".

With Lemma on the mound against the Soverels the Colonels took the role of the favorite. For Lemma it was his 15th victory as against only four defeats. No. 11, 2,000 Attend

The game was played under ideal baseball conditions with sunny skies prevailing and about 2,000 fans present for the "sudden death" contest. The turnout was the largest in many years.

Pete Codella's bases-loaded double broke up a 2-2 tie in the fifth inning and provided Nutley with the needed difference.

The victory was the fifth in a row for the Colonels, who trailed the Soverels by 1½ games going into the Labor Day week-end. Nutley, winning the pennant for the third time in seven years, under Lantz, finished the ECL campaign with a mark of 92-16.

Jim Fieldhouse sent the Colonels off to a fast start with a second inning homer. In the Nutley third, Jackie Pollitt doubled and scored on John Hosenlopp's single to right.

The Soverels tied the issue in the fourth on hits by Willie Holt, Mike Mitchell, a walk to Bob Wolfharth and a Nutley miscue.

Nutley won the pennant with a four-run uprising in the fifth. Junnie San Giacomo got on, Lemma singled and Fieldhouse walked to fill the bases. Codella then rapped his key two-base blow. Cliff Cluen replaced Billy Pollak on the mound and Jake Edelstein belted a two-run single to right for a 6-2 Nutley spread. A one-on homer in the sixth by East Orange's Mitchell closed the scoring.

In Sunday's Tournament of Champions game against Sussex, Nutley came from behind, 6-0, and took a 10-9 lead by the time the fifth inning rolled around but poor pitching in the last three frames doomed the Colonels. Nutley played like a different team in the anti-climatic contest. Poor fielding also hampered the Colonels defense.

Jim Washington started on the mound for Nutley but didn't last out the first inning as Sussex came up with six runs. Jack Pollitt was the eventual losing pitcher as Lantz sent five hurriers to the mound in an effort to stop the attack. Sussex collected no less than 17 safeties.

TWIRLERS TO VIE FOR STATE TITLES AT OVAL

400 To Compete At Baton Event On Sunday

Word received this week from Major John T. Totilas, of Stamford, Conn., director of the state championship baton twirling tourney to be held at Park Oval, Sunday, indicated that there would be more than 400 competitors in the annual event.

The batons will be flying from noon to 6 o'clock, with seven performers showing their skills simultaneously.

The entire program will be moved to the Nutley High School gymnasium in the event of rain. Mayor Harry W. Chenoweth will make the presentations of trophies and medals to the winners. The top senior and junior girls twirlers will represent the state in national tourney at St. Paul, Minn., in January, the expenses to be underwritten by the sponsoring Nutley Post 35, Amvets.

There are special awards for the winners of the interstate events and there will also be contests between 300 teams ranging in numbers from 6 to 38, with the Manumassin squads, of Millville, favored to repeat last year's victory.

Committee chairman A. J. Capriccione announced that additional trophies have been donated by the Four Corners and McCrory Delicatessens, Frazier's Food Shop and the Brookdale Beverage Co.

Bellboy Gridders Are Impressive In Practice

For the second time within a week Belleville's gridiron gladiators showed up well in a practice scrimmage. Eddie Berlinski put his boys through a three hour session with Demarest High of Hoboken on Saturday and the Bellboys had the upper hand all the way.

In a scrimmage of this sort, no actual score is kept, but Belleville backs and ends were off for long gains which surely would have resulted in scores in a regular game.

The opposition was not near what the Bellboys know they will be up against when they meet East Orange one week hence. However, it was encouraging.

Nick Del Guercio, who has taken over the quarter-backing duties since the graduation of Mike Morano, seems to be developing nicely. His passing was accurate and he had two good targets in co-captain Tom Worley and Ron San Filippo.

The other co-captain, Doug Bartell, showed up very well at fullback. He ran well and made several good kicks, as well as backing up the line in fine style. Doug had his hand stepped on during the drill but it did not seem to bother his ball handling.

The line, headed by Mike Smith, handled the Demarest attack satisfactorily. Mike also booted several long punts with his left footed boots. The main weakness in the Bellboy armor seemed to be pass defense.

The first third of the Bellboy schedule is a rugged one. They open against defending state champion East Orange and the Panthers are reputed to be rough once more. The second game pits Belleville against Bloomfield and the Bengals are almost sure to bounce back from a poor 1958 season.

The third encounter is with Nutley, which after losing their 1958 season opener to East Orange, went on a seven-game winning streak.

If Eddie and his crew can win two of these games it will be a job very well done and should be the introduction to a fine Bellboy season.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses

Monday	John	14	1-4
Tuesday	Isaiah	3	16-19
Wednesday	Leviticus	10	25-27
Thursday	Matthew	13	18-23
Friday	11 Thessalonians	1	2
Saturday	Isaiah	66	1-2

Through All Of Life...

Perhaps you see no significance to the hourglass superimposed on the Bible. But to the believer, it means that all of life is sustained by God's promises. Every day, every hour, He gives strength and help to His followers. The light of His Word shines steadily through the passing of time. The more you read, the deeper will be your understanding, the greater will be your joy. By entering wholeheartedly into the work of the Church, by giving it your support, you increase the value of your own life, and help others to see the light shining through each day's experience.

Throughout life's entire span, the Church will help us, the Bible will speak to us of God. Does the picture mean that to you? It will, if you look at it through believing eyes.
