Board In 5-2 Vote Dismisses Calabro's Formal Charges Against Principal Minasian

The Belleville Board of Education last week dismissed charges filed by Salvatore Calabro of 78 Fairway Avenue regarding the alleged improper conduct of Henry Minasian as principal of Schools 2 and 10.

After the meeting, Calabro stated that he would take the case to state authorities.

The Board took action through a resolution which stated that "the Board had examined and reviewed the charges finding them lacking 'a basis for conducting a hearing.'"

Reads Long Statement
Prior to discussion on this resolution, Calabro spoke to the members from a prepared statement which reiterated his charges which originated last February.

In April of this year the controversy split the board into a deadlock.

Listening to Calabro were a large number of spectators who jammed the Board Room to capacity.

Calabro stated he originally intended to attend the meeting "merely as an observer." However, he said an article in the September 25th issue of the Times-News caused him to change his mind.

He referred to a letter sent to the Times-News by Mr. Minasian, which stated that Calabro's charges were "deficient in any facts" and were "merely vicious unsupported opinions."

Calabro asserted that he wanted to present the Board with the facts "to substantiate his position." He indicated that political motives might warrant the board's dropping of the charges.

Suggests Subpoenaing
He pointed out that if the Board wished to conduct a hearing for the purpose of "getting the facts," it might do so by subpoenaing witnesses. Calabro backed this up with a quote from the New Jersey Law (Title 18, Chapter 13, Section 18).

He maintained that details were omitted from his charges because he felt the Board was aware of the facts. Calabro said he was not interested in harming Minasian personally but was pursuing the case as a "matter of principle."

Reading from his statement, Calabro declared that earlier this year, Dominick Lally, a member of the Board, had stated he could not take action on the Minasian-Calabro controversy because Minasian had been one "of his (Lally's) chief supporters in his campaign for election to the Board."

Three members of the Board were complimented by Calabro for their "courage" and for "not bearing any allegiance to the politicians." They were Mrs. Violet Rochau, Michael Rubino and Richard Drake. He called them the "independent element of the Board."

Criticizes Albertine
Michael Albertine, vice-president of the Board, was sharply criticized by Calabro for abstaining his vote on the issue

CAPTAIN SHANNON

Named To AF Post

Captain Ruth E. Shannon of 28 Bremond Street, was recently appointed Air Force Nurse Procurement Officer for the New York - New Jersey area, with headquarters in Room B-49, U. S. Post Office Building, Newark.

She graduated from Belleville High School in 1942, St. Barnabas School of Nursing, St. Barnabas Hospital, Newark in 1946. Following her graduation she was employed at the Newark Hospital for a year and a half and by a prominent Belleville physician for two years.

In 1948 she went to work as a nurse for the American Export Company. She visited ports in Azores, Italy, Greece, Israel, Egypt and Lebanon.

In 1949 she went back to work in Belleville and July 1951 entered the U. S. Air Force as a First Lieutenant in the Nurse Corps. Captain Shannon's first assignment was at Langley Field, Va., for three months. Following that time she joined the 406th Fighter-Bomber Wing at Manston RAF station in England. While in England she visited 26 countries in Europe and the Middle East.

While in England, Captain Shannon worked as a volunteer on a disaster relief program serving flood victims on the east coast of England in the big

United Fund Campaign Rolls Off To Good Start With Pledges of $19,685

The United Fund of Belleville Campaign for 1960 is off to a good start this year, according to figures just released by Harry T. French, general chairman.

He reports that as of October 1st, which is the historic opening date for United Fund drives, a total of $19,685 has been pledged. This is 22.4% of the $88,000 goal set for Belleville.

The above total is made up of $18,670 from the industrial group under the leadership of Harry F. Fox of Westinghouse - $10,150 from the corporations and $8,520 from employees - and $1015 reported by the special gift group under the leadership of B. Thomas Aitken of the People's National Bank.

All divisions of the United Fund are now "off and running" following the meeting of the Residential Division last Tuesday evening in School No. 3. Although disappointed in the number of residents who have thus far volunteered for service, Chairman F. Douglas Wadsworth expressed confidence that his leaders and team workers would make a good showing.

"What we lack in numbers, we will make up in quality," he stated, "and we can be counted on to pull our share of the load." The residential solicitation will officially get underway October 12th; and is hoped that it can be wound up on October 27th.

In his talks with the various chairmen, French has stressed that all of the 13 health and welfare agencies included in the United Fund this year are deserving of Belleville support. It would be normal to expect that the residents of this community would contribute to each of these agencies if they were conducting their own individual campaign.

Under the United Fund plan, therefore, when there is only one campaign and one contributor for the entire group, contributors should make their contributions large enough to take care of the needs of the entire group. The usual contribution where only one agency is involved will not be enough to enable all of these 13 worthy agencies to survive and to do the job for Belleville that is required.

In previous issues of this paper, a brief review was made of the services provided by: American Red Cross, Arthritis & Rheumatism Foundation, Boy Scouts, Family Counseling Service of Belleville, Girl Scouts, N. J. Association for Retarded Children, Sister Elizabeth Kennedy Foundation, Visiting Nurse Association. A sketch of the activities of the remaining five follows:

General Palsy Center Of Essex And West Hudson.

The Cerebral Palsy Center for this entire area is located in Belleville on the Clara Mass Memorial Hospital grounds. Two hundred children suffering from this disease are being taught to become useful citizens at this treatment center partly as a result of funds obtained through the United Fund.

Calabro Writes Gov. And Com. Raubinger

Salvatore R. Calabro of 78 Fairway Avenue, whose formal charges against Schools 2 and 10 Principal Henry Minasian were dismissed last week by the Belleville Board of Education, has written both Governor Meyner and State Commissioner of Education Dr. Frederick Raubinger in an attempt, according to his letter to the Governor, "to induce legislation to correct deficiencies in the law" regarding "certain deficiencies as they apply to education."

Mr. Calabro attached to the Governor's letter the correspondence he had sent to the State Commissioner of Education, which he described as "self explanatory."

He also notified the Governor that he had sent copies of the letter to Dr. Raubinger to "approximately thirty of the major newspapers throughout the state."

The letter to Dr. Raubinger stated that the elected school board was dominated by "a political faction" which "has seen fit to protect 'this official'."

Calabro, stating that he was enclosing copies of his original charges (the ones dismissed by the Board) went deeper into the matter in his letter to Dr. Raubinger and then declared he was calling on every legislator in the State of New Jersey, regardless of political party, to join with him, an independent voter, in formulating a bill to be presented to the State Legislature to correct these deficiencies. The basic elements of such a bill should encompass the following areas:

"1. Code of ethics for school those practices which are considered 'conduct unbecoming a teacher' and calling it 'conduct unbecoming official school'."

High School Students Rate Near The Top

The results for the 68 Belleville High School students who took the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, last Spring revealed that the "top" Belleville students compare favorably with "top" students applying for scholarships in the United States. This was revealed in a report submitted by Samuel Sifkin, guidance director of the high school.

The scholarship test included a battery of five tests to measure the broad aspects of the students' educational development. Students participated with hope of qualifying for one of the Merit Scholarships and to learn more about their educational strengths and weaknesses. Approximately 525,000 high school juniors took the tests.

The total composite median score on a percentile basis is always 50th percentile. Sixty-five Belleville High School Students, or 95 per cent finished above the 50th percentile nationally.

The English usage median score on a percentile basis was the 76th percentile. Fifty-eight Belleville High Students, or 82 per cent finished above the 50th percentile nationally.

The Math Usage median score on a percentile basis was the 88th percentile. Sixty-two or 90 percent of the Belleville High School students finished above the 50th percentile.

The other sub-tests in Social Studies Reading, Natural Science Reading and Word Usage showed results similar to the ones above. The English and Math Usage Tests are good predictors according to Sifkin, of academic success on the college level.

County Gov't Week Is Set For Oct. 13 Court Reverses Town On Zoning Variance

County Government Week will be observed in Essex County October 13, at the Court House and Hall of Records, when the Board of Freeholders will hold open house. This was announced this week by Director Jeanne Moss.

The board has extended an invitation to citizens, civic groups and school children to attend.

Plans have been made to have groups visit various county departments including County Courts, Prosecutor's Office, Election Department, Treasurer's Office, Home Economic Workshops, Freeholders' meeting room and other administrative agencies of the county.

Members of the Board will be present to greet the citizens and inform groups on the program each group will accompany.

Essex County Court Judge Alexander P. Waugh has reversed the Town of Belleville on a zoning variance granted the Bell-Court Apartments for construction of a 24-unit, two-story apartment house on a 1.5-acre parking area at the corner of Belleville Avenue and Lincoln Terrace.

Hearing on the variance was September 10th in Newark, and the decision then reserved. Judge Waugh sent down his decision dated September 25th. Judges have gone to Town Attorney Lawrence Keenan and to Raymond F. Brady of 744 Broad Street, Newark.

Mr. Brady was counsel for 59 petitioners who had objected to the granting of the variance.

The opinion, three pages long, reviewed the factual aspects of the case and found the reasons given for granting the variance to be "insufficient and without merit."

The action of the Board of Commissioners, in approving the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment, was set aside as violative enactment and contrary to the decision of the courts.

The application for a variance was handled by the zoning board in November of last year. It was approved by the board and then approved by the Commissioners over the objections of the 59 neighboring residents.

Owner of the property involved was Mrs. Kathryn Monahan. The property was 100 by 150 feet, zoned partly in business and partly in residential.

Reported president of Belleville is Peter Coccia of 23 Harrison Street, a baker. Vincent Pipitone a builder and business associate of Coccia, was listed given for granting the variance as vice-president.

Women Of Tax Council Hold "Very Successful" Meeting; Hear Speakers

The Women's Division of the Citizens Tax Council held what has been called a very successful meeting at Council Headquarters on Wednesday evening, Sept. 23rd.

Mrs. Thomas McGill, president pro-tem, made the welcoming address to a standing room only audience and then introduced the invited speakers for the evening.

Chris Albanese discussed what he termed the futility of citizens groups in their endeavors to reduce taxes by direct meetings with the commissioners before adoption of past budgets. He showed newspaper clippings from the local press to show that efforts by non-political civic groups under commission form of government were ineffective and only a change in government could produce the desired results of better government with lower taxes.

Resnick Speaks
Martin Resnick, who was active in the first movement to change to council manager form of government in Belleville, spoke on the history of the movement for a change, from the time of the chapter study up to the present. He highlighted the report of the charter study group that proposed a change to the Council-Manager form of government and the defeat of the movement by, he said, the use of free beer and political ward-healers.

"Although the first election was lost," Resnick said, "an enlightened citizenry will soon have another chance to adopt the plan proposed by the former charter group, Council-Manager form of government for Belleville."

Sal Calabro spoke on the merits of Council-Manager form of civic government and explained what he deemed to be the inherent inefficiencies of the commission form and the Mayor-Council form of governments. The savings in the tax dollars that could be realized by the efficient control of all departments would make it possible to reduce taxes by eliminating unnecessary help, and still raise the salaries of all hard working employees, Calabro declared.

Mr. Gray spoke on town planning and the protection of assessment values. He derided a system that had no plan and was too lax in the granting of variances.

Zone Plan Necessary
A new zoning plan was necessary to protect tax rates, he said.

A long period of question and answers was followed by the serving of refreshments.

The next meeting of the Women's Division will be October 18th at the Council Headquarters on Washington Ave.

An election for permanent officers will be held at this meeting. All interested women are invited.

H.S. Youngsters Excel In Art

P. Webster Diehl, art director in the Belleville Public Schools, was notified this week by a national educational magazine, "The Grade Teacher," that they are planning to reproduce two paintings by Belleville students in their December, 1959, issue.

The students, sophomores in high school, painted the pictures while in grade school. They are presently attending art classes in the high school. The students are Wayne Current, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Current of 329 Setphens Street and Carole Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Lane of 37 Crescent Terrace.

The art editor of the magazine, in another letter to Diehl, said "Belleville must have a very outstanding corps of teachers and an exceptionally fine art course to produce such technically fine 'outstanding work.'"

Wayne painted his picture from a slide that his father took of a gristmill in Massachusetts.

Carole won "best in the show" honor at Mrs. Lorena Clark's exhibit held earlier this year at the Woman's Club. The painting was entered in the adult-section and the honor is higher than first prize. Carole plans to take art lessons this fall at Montclair Museum and hopes to major in art upon graduation.

The basic art training given to students has enabled Belleville graduates to gain success in more than 20 art fields at salaries ranging from seventy-five dollars per week to thirty thousand per year.

The registration for art in the high school is constantly increasing, almost to the limit of facilities, although art is an elective and carries only half a point credit.

WORKING Behind YOUR SWITCH

As part of its program to produce and deliver electricity to your home as efficiently and economically as possible, Public Service maintains its own laboratory for testing the millions of dollars worth of materials and equipment it buys each year.

The laboratory technician shown here is operating a calorimeter to measure the heat in a sample of the coal which will be used to generate electric power. Each shipment of coal and fuel oil is tested for its quality from which station efficiencies are calculated.

Here is just one more example of what is going on behind your electric switch . . . work which results in keeping your electric service economical.

Delicates Renew
Their Contracts

The Delicates, Belleville singing sopranos, have spent a successful run and busy summer with their hit recording, "Black and White Thunderbird" and "Ronnie Is My Love."

The girls are Denise Ferri of 161 Union Avenue, Arlene Lantotti of 10 Leslie Terrace and Peggy Santiglia of 42 Parkview Avenue. Their contract has just been renewed with United Artists Recording Company and they have recently cut a new record under the direction of Don Consta.

The record, which has been released, is entitled "Meusuray" and "Ring-a-Ding." Meusuray is a tongue-twister which the girls think has promise of catching on quickly. The girls think the reverse side also will help sell the record.

The girls write their own songs and have written 24 so far. They wrote the theme song for Murray Kaufmans "Swingers Anonymous," a radio program heard on Radio Station WINS at 11:00 P.M.

Comments Made At School Board On Ins., Milk

At the last Board of Education meeting, James J. Golden sharply questioned the Board regarding school insurance and the contracting of one company over another for school milk.

Golden asked the Board why its committee's suggestions concerning school insurance had been overlooked. Serving on the committee were Max Schwartz, Board attorney; Evan H. Thomas, school superintendent and Michael V. Albertine, vice president of the board.

The insurance company that the Board has contracted is the Indemnity Insurance Company of North America.

Regarding the committee's reversal in their suggestions, and the discrepancies in price that Golden pointed out, Schwartz stated that "the insurance company is the finest company in America. The security of the company is so great that the price difference is comparatively small."

Golden then questioned the Board regarding the milk contracts that had been changed since last year. Schwartz pointed out that the last company, whose name he did not mention, provided the school with milk which was not up to the State Board of Health's standards.

Golden asked if this company was in town and Schwartz replied "yes." Then Chris Albanese declared "you mean my child gets good milk in school and comes home and drinks bad milk?" No comment was made.

Lee Garson spoke on behalf of the Citizens Tax Council and lauded the teachers who had "unselfishly" given up their summer to attend institutes at the various universities in the United States.

He criticized the Board for having too many secret meetings.

PRESENTING FOR 1960... BUICK'S ALL-TIME BEST

THE TURBINE DRIVE BUICK '60

A car with major advances in transmission, suspension, brakes, and engines which are Buick's alone today
A solid, substantial car • A car of superb comfort, quiet, reliability • A car you should drive soon

New comfort, quietness, and quality

Doors that open wider—easier to get in and out. Family-size interior. Seats that are higher, more deeply cushioned, and repositioned to provide more room for feet and legs. Perhaps the quietest running car in America due to Buick's high use of insulation and torque-tube drive. Buick's quality control program comes to a peak in the Turbine Drive Buick '60.

New interior decor and convenience

An entirely new "Mirromagic" instrument panel. It lets the driver see speed, gas gauge, and other necessary readings at a glance in a mirror he tilts to suit his own eye level. And a new exclusive safety option—the "Twilight Sentinel"—that turns headlights on automatically at sunset... off automatically at sunrise. All-new colors and fabrics. Richer appointments.

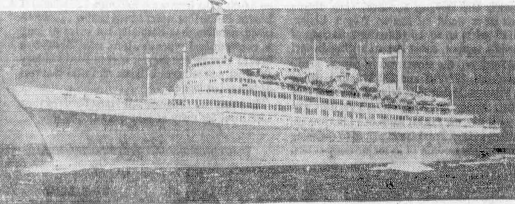

Outstanding performance with economy

1. Buick's Exclusive Turbine Drive Transmission is jet-smooth, responds faster, more economically than ever. No gears ever shift while the car is in motion.
2. Buick's Exclusive Air-Flow Aluminum Drum Brakes—found on no other American car. Fin-cooled drums front and rear for faster cooling. Fast cooling means faster stopping, longer brake life.

Slotted wheels pass a current of air from under the car constantly over the brakes for added cooling efficiency. (Wheels are 15" size which gives you up to 1/3 more tire life.)
3. Buick's exclusive Wildcat Engines give high efficiency with high economy. (An optional new LeSabre Engine is designed to give Buick performance on regular grade fuel.)
(Optional extra cost on LeSabre, standard on Invicta and Electra.)

Because the handicaps of these children include varying degrees of muscular involvement the curriculum must be adapted to individual needs and abilities. Also required are special therapists and teachers trained to perform this work. It takes many months and years of patient work to teach cerebral palsied children sufficient muscular control to enable them to walk, talk and care for themselves - the simple things that a normal child does without conscious effort.

Parent counseling is also an important phase of the work. Since there is no known cure for this disease, there exists a great need for understanding among all members of families confronted with the problem of providing life-time care for the afflicted child.

Your money, when given to the United Fund of Belleville, will help materially to enable these handicapped children to receive the daily therapy and education they need.

Char-III Service Inc.
The service provided by this organization includes information referral and counseling to all segments of the public on problems involving chronic illness.

One of the important services is a homemaker service to help families help themselves when prolonged illness or disability in the home upsets the household routine. It permits the wage earner to remain on the job, meanwhile enabling the children to stay at home and continue to attend school.

In addition to this visiting homemaker program, Char-III provides an alcoholism information and education center wherein both the family and the alcoholic may receive help. This voluntary, non-profit agency is under the auspices of the Essex County Medical Society and much of the funds that enable them to carry on this work comes from such organizations as the United Fund, Muscular Dystrophy Association of America.

This association provides various services for sufferers of Muscular Dystrophy that are often referred to as "doorways to hope." Its activities include community participation, professional education and research.

One of its valuable contributions has been the establishment of clinics. The main function of the clinic in addition to diagnosis is to assist the patient in retaining whatever ability he still possesses for as long a time as possible. Startling results are sometimes achieved through the restoration of abilities which have been lost not as a result of the disease but through premature disuse.

Where clinics are not feasible, the Chapters find other ways in which to help patients with their problems. Each year, as funds become available, the Chapters expand the scope of their activities to enrich the lives of the patients by arranging to include dystrophics in programs sponsored by other community agencies thus shifting the emphasis from what they cannot do to what they can do.

N. J. Mental Health Association
Mental patients occupy more hospital beds than all other sick persons combined. Included in the group of victims of mental illness are tens of thousands of children. The Mental Health Association of Essex County is concerned not only with the preventive aspects of this problem but as a service organization is assisting various allied groups to meet the needs of all those who are mentally ill adults as well as children.

Included in its efforts to promote mental health and to permit these afflicted individuals to lead normal healthy lives is the operation of the Garden School, a day-care treatment center for severely disturbed children. Another service is that of contributing funds and promoting the establishment and expansion of Child Guidance Clinics.

One such clinic is located right here in Belleville in quarters provided by the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. The association also supports research, rehabilitation and educational services and assists patients in mental hospitals through volunteer organizations.

United Service Organization Fund, Inc.

This voluntary agency, well-known for its wonderful activities during the war, continues to carry on many of those activities because the men and women in the Armed Services are still scattered throughout the world. About 1/3 of them are under 21 years of age and away from home for the first time.

The USO assists these people in serving their spiritual, social, welfare, recreational and educational needs wherever they may be.

Calabro Writes

"2. A rider in the conflict of interest legislation to assure that politics are divorced from the school system. This should be strongly worded to make it clear that political participation on the part of school personnel will constitute grounds for dismissal.

"3. A restatement of the duties of Boards of Education which places all policy matters within the jurisdiction of the board and all administrative matters in the hands of the Superintendents of Schools.

"4. Support of the present bill which requires that all disputes involving charges be heard at county or state level in order that the disputants be given a fair hearing without undue influence exercised by

Board Dismisses

last April. Albertine's abstention deadlocked the Board. Calabro queried: "What happens, Mr. Albertine?"

Albertine declared that "I don't have anything to do with politics. I was inexperienced. I was in doubt."

He faced Calabro and asserted that "You are looking for trouble. If we really get into this, I can speak louder than anyone."

Calabro denied that he was looking for trouble. At this point, Dr. DeRuggiero said that Calabro had spoken for 15 minutes. He asked him how much longer he intended to speak. Calabro estimated "about 10 minutes" more.

Continuing, Calabro stated he thought the matter had been "closed last April." However, he said that Mr. Minasian chose to punish his son, over whom the controversy originally arose, for a minor incident.

Calabro complained to Evan Thomas, Superintendent of Schools, who wrote him suggesting he might send his children to either School 7 or 8 to avoid teacher or principal prejudice. Calabro then filed formal charges.

Climaxing his formal statement, Calabro made four recommendations to the board. They were as follows:

A. A code of ethics for schools which will clearly define those practices which are considered conduct unbecoming school personnel.

B. A rider in the conflict of interest legislation to assure that politics are divorced from the school system.

C. A restatement of the duties of boards of education which places all policy matters within the jurisdiction of the board and all administrative matters in the hands of the superintendent of schools. This could well follow a similar pattern that exists in the council manager form of government which is working so well in communities throughout the nation.

D. Support of the present bill which requires that all disputes involving charges be heard at county or state level in order that the disputants be given a fair hearing without undue influence exercised by pressure groups. The board took a vote on whether or not to drop charges and polled members.

The first to cast a vote was Mrs. Rochau, who stated she felt that "the matter was not and could not be settled by the Board."

"It is an administrative duty and this is a policy-making Board. I am very sorry that this came up. My first duty is to the schools of Belleville. I have gone over the charges and would prefer it if Mr. Thomas would make a recommendation."

"I resent having this dumped into the lap of the Board which is asked to administrate where they have no right to."

Mrs. Rochau stated that if Mr. Thomas had a recommendation to make, she would abide by it. Thomas asserted he had no recommendation to make "at this time."

"I made one last spring which the Board is completely aware of. Because of the formal charges, I decline to make one now."

Mrs. Rochau then cast her vote as yes, preferring to drop the charges. Michael Rubino was next. Rubino quoted a speech made by Dr. Frederick Raubinger, State Education Commissioner, who described the responsibilities and obligations of board members to superintendents of schools. Raubinger also stated that "a superintendent would hope that a board of education, regardless of how its members were elected or appointed, would rise above partisan political considerations or partisan factionalism in arriving at educational policy or in making educational decisions of any kind."

Rubino voted against dropping the charges. Richard Drake also voted to drop charges in "consideration of our legal position."

Lally said he preferred to drop charges and made a statement "because the others have made one and I will conform." He told Calabro he could take the matter to the state officials.

Mrs. Coronato and Albertine voted to drop charges. Albertine, speaking to Mrs. Rochau, Drake and Rubino, declared they had a "grudge against Minasian." Mrs. Rochau asked him "How could you make such a statement without investigating?"

Meet the New-size Ford—the Falcon! Here's a car with plenty of room for six big adults and all their luggage. It's sized to handle and park like a "small" car... powered to pass and climb like a "big" car... and built like no other car for savings!

It gives you up to 30 miles per gallon on regular gas. Aluminized mufflers normally last twice as long as ordinary kinds. A Full-Flow oil filter lets you go 4,000 miles between oil changes. Even insurance can cost you less! And this Falcon is the world's most experienced new car. It was driven over every mile of numbered Federal Highway in EXPERIENCE RUN, U.S.A.—a grueling demonstration climaxing Ford's 3 years of development and testing.

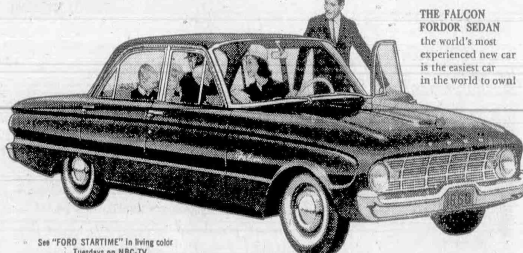

The Falcon has the features that American car buyers expect. Its gearshift is on the steering column—not on the floor. Its engine is located up front for greater stability and safety. Best news of all is the Falcon's low, low price. See it at your Ford Dealer's... and see the difference!

Now you can see them—the Finest Fords of a Lifetime! Economy-minded Fairlans. Big-value Fairlane 500's. Elegant Galaxies. A breath-taking new Sunliner convertible and a brand-new hard-top model, the Flashing Starliner. Then there's a whole new world of Station Wagon Living, too. It all adds up to 15 glittering variations of the world's newest, most elegant styling theme! And Ford sets the new trend in power. Ford's Thunderbird 292 V-8 and 352 V-8, like the famous Mileage Maker Six, bring a new world of smoother, hotter performance—on regular gas. To top it all, the Finest Fords of a Lifetime are priced for savings. Ford is still priced to outvalue all comparable models of its major competitors.

Ford savings, however, only begin with a low price. You save still more with engines that thrive on regular gas and save up to a dollar on every tankful... a Full-Flow oil filter that lets you go 4,000 miles between oil changes... Diamond Lustre Finish that never needs waxing... aluminized mufflers that normally last twice as long as conventional types... new, safer, Truck-Size brakes that are the biggest ever in Ford's history... and new soft-tread, T-jex cord tires that run quieter, last longer.

In every way these are the Finest Fords of your Lifetime! See them at your Ford Dealer's!

CYO DANCE

Holy Family CYO held their Registration Dance October 5th. Music was supplied by The Luna Tones.

Fred spends about 1,000 hours each year in school. When he graduates from high school he will have sat in classrooms for 12,000 hours.

Plus homework Miss Harkins assigned nine pages of science today. Mr. Brent expects a book report tomorrow. And so it goes every school day—every year.

Don't let Fred's crowded school roster worry you. He is getting an education—the fine education every American child is entitled to. Let Fred's empty spiritual roster worry you. He is spending ZERO hours in Church School. He is getting NO religious education. And his tragedy is shared by MILLIONS OF AMERICAN YOUTH.

A new kind of homework is needed. By friendly encouragement, by sincere interest, by the example of our own families in faithful church life—we must inspire the Freds and their parents to take advantage of the spiritual opportunities that America's churches offer.

CELEBRATION IS PLANNED BY HADASSAH

In celebration of Hadassah Month, as proclaimed during October by Mayor Isadore J. Padula in Belleville and Mayor Harry W. Chenoweth in Nutley, the Belleville-Nutley Chapter of Hadassah will be Sabbath host at Friday evening and Saturday morning services, October 16 and 17, at Congregation Ahavath Achim, Belleville Jewish Center, 121-139 Academy Street.

Membership Vice President Mrs. Irving Ontell has invited all interested persons to attend the special program that has been arranged. Rabbi Victor Cohen of Ahavath Achim will review Dr. Mordecai Kaplan's book, "New Zionism," and a cantata, "Israel Reborn," under the direction of Cantor Morris Aviram, will be sung by the members of the Belleville-Nutley Chapter of Hadassah.

On Saturday morning, Mrs. Louis Sussman will address the congregation. At the conclusion of the morning services, lunch will be served and a program of discussion under the leadership of Mrs. Sussman, and song participation by Young Judeans and the congregation, will follow. Hadassah members are invited to bring prospective members as personal guests to this Hadassah Month celebration.

Reservations for lunch may be made by calling Mrs. Henry Creditor, PL 9-4394 or Mrs. Sol Nanes, NO 7-1098.

MOWEN HEARS TALK

Thomas M. Mowen of 259 Hornblower Avenue was among members of the National Association of Accountants, Newark chapter, to hear Roy C. Taylor speak on the prevention and detection of embezzlements.

Assembly of God Conducting Campaign

The Belleville Assembly of God, 174-178 Holmes Street, is conducting an "Enlargement Campaign" during October in connection with the national program of the denomination.

"Enlist Now," the campaign theme, is emphasized by the weekly emphasis: "Enlistment Sunday," which was October 4th; "Extension Sunday" (October 11th), "Enrollment Sunday" (October 18th) and "Rally Sunday" (October 25th).

The Rev. Anthony DiQuattro, pastor, states that the purpose of the campaign is to build Church School attendance and to reach the unchurched. Belleville Assembly of God Sunday School has set a 10 per cent increase in enrollment as its attendance goal for October.

"If every Assembly of God Sunday School in the nation were to have a 10 per cent increase in enrollment," Mr. DiQuattro said, "We would easily go over the million mark which is the 1960 goal set by the National Sunday School Department."

"You will find a warm and hearty welcome at Belleville Assembly of God. Visit us this Sunday at 9:45 a.m." he went on, concluding, "Be One in a Million!"

Institute Program At A. A. Hebrew School

Religious School sessions of Congregation Ahavath Achim began recently at the Washington Avenue building.

This year a five department program has been developed for the school. The departments are: pro-school, Primary, elementary, Junior high and high school.

Rabbi Victor Cohen states that "we are establishing a curriculum based on a naturalistic pragmatism point of view. The attempt is to give the child an understanding of his total development which includes a positive religious attitude."

CYO Contest

A journalism contest with separate divisions for magazines and newspapers will be sponsored among Catholic grammar school publications in the Essex-West Hudson area, announces the CYO. The competition will be held as a follow-up to the CYO-sponsored journalism course for grade school editors.

The course will be given every Monday afternoon during October at St. Michael's Hospital auditorium, Newark. The instructor will be Chris Hentchel cultural director for the archdiocese CYO.

In announcing the journalism contest, however, the CYO noted that participation in the annual course is not a condition of entry. The only limitations on entries are that newspapers must be published at least six times and magazines at least four times a year.

The course will take students through relations between editor and staff, assignments, reporting, proof-reading, format, makeup, art work and technical aspects of good mimeographing.

Winning entry in the journalism contest will represent Essex County in archdiocesan judging following conclusion of Journalism courses in Hudson, Bergen and Union Counties.

The school has received accreditation for the past two years from the Jewish Education Association of Essex County on the basis of curriculum, time and status of teachers.

Dr. Seymour Fischer, chairman of the school's Board of Education urged parents to register their children for the primary department at the age of six.

Further information may be obtained by calling PL 9-4858 between 4 p.m. and 6 p.m. every afternoon and 9 a.m. to 12 noon Sundays.

Town Dem Chairman Vara Raps Golden's Reference To 'Deal'; Asks Retraction

Democratic Town Chairman Ralph Vara this week publicly rapped as "the usual Golden-style attempt at character assassination" charges made by James E. Golden of 62 Tappan Avenue last week to the effect that the recent withdrawal of G. George Addonizio as Republican Fusion candidate for State Senator had been "engineered" as part of a "deal" which, Golden indicated, might have been "cooked up" between Commissioner George Kiernan and Vara.

"Challenged Before"

"Golden's attempts to assassinate the character of his opponents have been challenged before," Vara's statement said.

"It is about time that this self-styled defender of public virtue learns that even the insertion of such meaty-mouthed and qualifying phrases as 'if such deal were' cannot protect him from being charged with libel."

"If he is not very careful, he will find himself in court one of these days for his scurrilous attacks on people who happen to disagree with his stentorian oratory and not too large Good tone essential. Telephone North 1-1178. 10-22

Chairman Vara told the Belleville Times-News that if Golden of fumbles took place near the goal line with Roger Plosa making the recovery for Belleville. The only Bengal threat in the second half came when Valerian Golden to "redress the wrong" done to the names of Commissioner Kiernan, himself and Mr. Addonizio.

Hey Sport

Orange game when Belleville scored first they again gave the TD back. On the first play from scrimmage, after the kickoff, John Alves, Bengal fullback, went through guard, cut left and raced 67 yards for a score. John Alves was a thorn in the Bellboys' side during the first half but they kept him in check after Eddie Berlinski pointed out the first half mistakes during the intermission. Bob Guglielmino did Nutley has lost two in a row but will still be tough for the Bellies. If the loss of Nick Del Guercio is not too great a handicap and the Bellboys play as they did in the first half of the Bloomfield game it will be a Belleville victory—however the game should be a close one with Belleville winning.

OUT ON A LIMB Last week we picked four correct and three incorrect. Two of The Cowboys will not be able to miss were by one point contain Cliff Baskerville and East Orange will win. WEST SIDE vs. EAST SIDE: East Side was downed by Seton Hall by one point in a free scoring game. East Side can score and will do it too often to lose to West Side.

MONTCLAIR AT KEARNY: The Mounties were upset by Irvington and all their opponents will be out to try to make up for past beatings but this will not be Kearny's turn. Montclair will win. ORANGE AT IRVINGTON: Irvington fresh from their victory over Montclair may suffer a let down but will still be strong enough to beat the Tornados. W. ORANGE AT E. ORANGE: West Orange has lost two while the Panthers have won two.

"WHAT'S THIS PRESCRIPTION FOR?"

It is common for a customer to ask us to tell him the disease that a prescription is for. Here is the only answer we can give such a request: "Many drugs are used for several ailments and for that reason we have made it a policy never to guess the disease or the physical condition a prescription is for."

"Certain Drugs will help give relief from a number of symptoms and these symptoms are observed in several ailments. The physician you consulted examined you with skill & care before he wrote the prescription you inquire about. It is for him to answer the question, he alone has the necessary information. Cheaper Than They Seem

Some things may be said to be "cheaper than they seem." That is, despite higher price tags, they actually take a smaller part of our incomes than they used to.

For instance, the Department of Agriculture reports that in the past 10 years spending for food has declined from 30.5 per cent of total consumer expenditures to 26.7 per cent. And spending for clothing and shoes has declined from 10.2 per cent to 8.6 per cent. A comparable situation exists in other universally used commodities sold at retail.

Various factors have made this possible in an age of inflation. And one of the more important of them has been the steady development of efficient, economical mass distribution. Retailers, faced with the toughest kind of competition, and with a demanding public which searches for the best buys, have pared costs in every possible direction.

The savings, for the most part, have been passed on to the customer in the form of lower price or better quality. And retail profits remain very low — a cent or a cent and a fraction on each dollar in the case of food chains, for example, and but a few cents in the case of other goods.

The result is that most of us eat better, dress better, and live better than we ever did before.

Good Driving Habits

"Changes in the weather call for changes in driving or walking, David Green, president of the Motor Club of America, declares.

"Last year," Mr. Green said, "there were 3,560 fatal accidents which occurred while it was raining. Another 970 occurred while it was raining. Another 790 occurred under fog conditions, and 650 on snow-slicked highways. These statistics are cited merely to emphasize the need for preparations to meet the conditions of bad weather in traffic."

Mr. Green stresses that no traffic accident is solely the fault of bad weather. It is up to the driver to prepare for adverse weather conditions by improving his traffic habits and attitudes as well as polishing his driving skill and tending to the mechanical needs of his vehicle.

"As a safety check list for bad weather driving, Mr. Green suggests:

1. Get the feel of the road; drive slowly when the highway is traffic free and brake occasionally to determine how slick the road might be. Remember, your stopping distance increases considerably under adverse weather conditions.
2. Keep the windshield clear of snow or rain; snow, ice, frost and moisture dangerously reduces your visibility.
3. Use tire chains on snow and ice. They shorten stopping distances and furnish four to seven times more traction.
4. Pump your brakes when you are going to stop. Jamming on your brakes may cause the wheels to lock and throw the car into a skid.
5. Follow at a safe distance. Always give yourself plenty of room to stop."

LIGHT: Light bulb bases made in the Belleville plant of Westinghouse are used in production of lamps at the Bloomfield plant. Above photo, made at Bloomfield, shows what is believed to be the largest and fastest lamp making equipment in the world. This giant machine produces 32 million light bulbs a year. Nearly 100 feet in length, it represents complete automation in the manufacture of incandescent bulbs. F. M. Slone, Westinghouse vice-president and manager of the company's lamp division, points to retired employee William Arvine how raw materials such as the bases made in Belleville; glass bulbs, filament mounts, solder, lead wires and silica coating material enter the machine on one end and emerge as complete light bulbs on the other without ever being handled.

Belleville, France Singers To Visit St. Peter's College

Belleville, France is the home of many of the Little Singers of Paris who will appear at St. Peter's College October 9. The singers are a combination of sacred and secular choral music.

Currently touring the United States for the eighth time, the 30 voice boy choir is famous the world over for its performances of great music, Gregorian chants, 15th century French church music, Palestrinian masterpieces and contemporary religious works. They also sing Christmas carols of many nations.

For the religious portion of their program, the boys appear in white vestments known as albs and wear wooden crosses around their necks.

Each song is rendered in its original language. Thus, these youngsters, who range in age from 10 to 16, sing in twenty different languages besides their native French. Among them are Latin, English, German, Spanish, Italian, Portuguese, Russian, Polish, Greek and Japanese.

The musicianship of the young singers is no outstanding secret. It has inspired such famous French composers as Darius Milhaud, Francis Poulenc and Georges Auric to create works especially for them.

Milhaud once said of them: "The Choir School of the Little Singers is a miracle of faith, tenacity, enthusiasm and talent. Their repertory is boundless. Boundless, too, is its fame, since Father Maillet has shepherded his little group to the four corners of the earth, greatly contributing to the artistic and moral prestige of France."

Mrs. Maillet, their conductor, has directed the choir since 1924. For a tour, he selects about 30 of the 50 boys who attend the Little Singers' school in Paris, picking from the children's sections (soprano, alto, tenor and bass parts), in addition to the older boys who sing the tenor, baritone and bass parts. The boys consider it the highest privilege to be chosen for an American tour, and only the best voices make the grade.

In Belleville, "rince, "Nono", and the first soloist of the school, travel almost all around the world with the choir before becoming a sedentary citizen. Everywhere he sang, he won tremendous applause and was even named an honorary citizen of an Iroquois tribe. Now back in Belleville, he is known as Monsieur Zenri Noel.

Another successful business is Rene Traversac who heads a large electronics apparatus factory in Belleville and employs a dozen former Little Singers.

PS Rebuilding Overhead System Against Storms

Work on the rebuilding of its overhead electric distribution system as a safeguard against future storm damage has been started by Public Service Electric and Gas Company in sections of certain municipalities in its territory.

This is part of a long-range state-wide plan instituted by the company which, when completed, will greatly reduce the number of electric outages caused by snow, sleet and windstorms and also will accelerate restoration work should storm damage occur.

These, and other sections of the state where overhead distribution rebuilding will be carried out, have been selected because of the density of trees and severity of storm damage both experienced in the past and expected as a future possibility.

The major steps in the rebuilding program are:

1. All new main primary distribution feeders will be in insulated cable, supported by high-strength wire. Former standard for most locations had been open wire with weather-proof covering. All new primary branch circuits will be insulated, aluminum-alloy conductors, instead of the lower strength, copper conductors which had weather-proof covering.

2. All new street lights will be supplied directly from the same street mains that serve the houses and light poles turned off and on by an individual photo-cell. It is this possible to eliminate the need for separate street lighting circuit wires. The separate wires formerly used were small in size and low in strength, and thereby, were the initiating cause of many other service interruptions during storms.

3. New transformer installations will be made with completely self-protected type transformers which will eliminate separate cut-outs and lightning arrester installations. This will permit installing transformers directly on poles without the large box frames, cross arms and separate accessories formerly employed.

4. Secondary lines along the street supplying residences will also be in insulated cable. The service wires to the homes will be attached directly to the high-strength wire which also supports these secondary lines along the streets.

As an integral part of making overhead plant stronger and more storm proof, span lengths will be shortened on new work and added strength will be built into wood pole installations by designing for lower loadings on guys and anchors. One of the major by-products which also results from this program is the tremendous improvement in appearance of the overhead plant by the virtual elimination of cross arms carrying distribution and street lighting circuits in open wire.

The Essex County Mosquito Commission, which loans the machine to Belleville, makes use of this equipment in the daytime, spraying the County Parks in the vicinity and returning it for the towns use in the evening.
