President of Zoning Board Suffers Fatal Heart Attack During Meeting Tuesday

Mr. DelGuercio Devoted Career To Community

Vincent R. DelGuercio, president of the Belleville Zoning Board of Adjustment, died suddenly Tuesday evening during a recess he called while conducting a heavily-attended meeting in the town hall. His death came enroute to Columbus Hospital, Newark, where he was pronounced dead upon arrival of a heart attack. He was 67.

Funeral arrangements are being completed by the Zarra Funeral Home at 145 Harrison Street, Bloomfield. The service will be held Saturday at 12 noon from the funeral home. Cremation will follow at the Rosedale Crematory, Orange.

Doctors gave him a cardiograph only three months ago and found his heart in excellent condition.

A native of Italy, he came to this country as an infant. He had been a resident of Belleville approximately 37 years.

He later returned to Italy for formal education at the University of Naples.

CONTRACTOR - DEVELOPER

Mr. DelGuercio was in the contracting and developing business several years after he first came to Belleville. He developed large sections of the town, especially in the Lincoln and Mount Prospect Avenues area.

He resided at 14 Hewitt Avenue.

HE RECESSED MEETING

During Tuesday night's zoning board meeting, during which Mr. DelGuercio presided, he asked suddenly for a recess.

As the second case brought before the zoning board Tuesday approached a conclusion, Mr. DelGuercio said, "I declare a recess for fifteen minutes."

The meeting never was recalled to order.

While most of the more than 70 citizens at the meeting appeared to believe nothing unusual about the recess, colleagues on the board assisted Mr. DelGuercio to an adjacent room.

A police patrolman brought oxygen tanks from another town hall office and Dr. Martin Meenan arrived a few minutes later.

Then the Belleville ambulance arrived. Mr. DelGuercio never lost consciousness until he was in the ambulance and on the way to Columbus Hospital. His wife rode with him.

The boisterous crowd during the meeting now waited quietly in the town hall lobby before the ambulance left.

The town hall was solemn as church.

Mr. DelGuercio was serving his third term on the zoning board. He was very well known in Belleville, not only through his civic contributions to the community, but as a member of several fraternal and professional activities.

PTA Forum To Address Candidates

A "Candidates' Night" for candidates in the Belleville Board of Education election is scheduled for next Thursday, January 21, at school three starting at 8 p.m. Ralph Roselle, chairman of the sponsoring organization, The Consolidated PTA's of Belleville, told The Belleville Times yesterday that "all candidates have been notified and invited to attend next Thursday's program."

According to Roselle, each candidate will be given four minutes to present views and platforms. Each four-minute period will be climaxed by a question and answer session. Mrs. Milton Margolis of Cedar Grove will act as moderator.

The Consolidated PTA's of Belleville has already been commended for its sponsorship of the candidates' night activity. The Belleville Board of Education Friday night indicated its approval.

A local group called "Aroused Belleville Citizens Committee of One Hundred" in a political release appearing in today's Belleville Times urged voters to attend the session next Thursday.

The committee is supporting candidates Ernest Arvidson and Nicholas Juliano for the two vacancies.

As of press time, none of the candidates had expressed any dissatisfaction with attending the candidates' night affair.

The six candidates in the race are, in addition to Arvidson and Juliano, Mrs. Mary R. Coronato, Nuncio Caracciola, Joseph Granese and John A. Walker.

Mrs. Coronato is the only incumbent among the six.

The election is scheduled for Tuesday, February 9.

For Goodness Sake — Watch Those Deadlines, Contributions Are Heavy

The volume of material submitted for publication in today's Belleville Times has increased greatly. Regrettably The Times finds it necessary to announce that many of the items submitted can not be published. We will do our best to include these items in subsequent issues. There has been a considerable increase of copy for the obituary and sports pages which could not be included in today's issue.

Please observe deadlines. Because of the heavy volume of material, The Times finds it necessary to consider only items submitted before deadline hours for publication in the newspaper.

PLANNERS IN SECRET

The Belleville Planning Board met privately with the Washington Avenue Merchants Association in Mayor Isadore Padula's office Tuesday night.

Representatives of the press were not permitted to attend.

Public Hearing Wednesday On Belleville School Budget

Board Of Education Tells Reasons For Cost Figures

The following press release, covering various aspects of the school budget, was given to The Belleville Times for publication today by board President Dr. Frank DiRuggiero.

The release explains several items included in the budget with depth. Dr. DiRuggiero's statement, published below, was received as an interpretation of the budget by the Belleville Board of Education.

The statement follows:

"By spending many meetings in studying and trimming budget requests, the board is able to limit the tax rise, on the basis of present valuations to eleven points. This will mean an increase of only $67,000 in the total budget, a small increase compared to similar towns in Essex. Last year the voters approved a school budget containing an increase of almost a quarter of a million dollars. This also enabled the board to slash budget requests in the 1960-61 budget.

"Salary requests by teachers and other employees originally amounted to $234,688. Although the board slashed these requests, it provided funds for teachers, for budget purposes, to try to keep pace with other Essex Communities. Salary minimums are changed as follows: Bachelor's degree from $4,200 to $4,400, master's degree $4,400 to $4,600, and for a year of preparation beyond the master's $4,600 to $4,800.

Salary maximums for the three classifications are $7,400 in 16 years, $7,800 in 17 years, and $8,200 in 18 years. Average increases to custodial and clerical employees are $200.

The board also reduced the amount for repairs and replacements to $94,000 under the amount budgeted last year. This has been possible because of the good progress that is being made on the backlog in this department.

"The board has worked hard to prepare this economical and conservative budget, said Dr. Frank DiRuggiero, president, in this very difficult time of rising prices and increasing costs of living. The small increase in the total budget will just enable Belleville to hold its own in the County. The per pupil cost of education is now $425 compared to an average cost for the county of $442.80.

Israeli Speaker Tells of Events At Rotary Club

Belleville Rotarians heard guest speaker Herbert Goldstein of Haifa, Israel, discuss the country at a recent meeting. Goldstein is a member of a Rotary chapter in Israel.

The guest speaker is a former resident; he served as plant engineer of L. Sonenborn Sons of Belleville 21 years. Several years ago he went to Israel for a Someborn Associate to direct petroleum marketing there.

A member of the Belleville club submitted the following description of Goldstein's talk:

"Speaking from a background as a Haifa Rotarian with close club acquaintances, in his talk Herb developed the picture of an unusually forward-looking people making significant economic progress with the most modern tools in the midst of evidences of a way of life hundreds and hundreds of years old. Progressing from a small city population in the neighborhood of 30,000 ten years ago, Haifa today with a population of around 140,000 in capsule depicts what has happened throughout Israel.

DOORS WIDE OPEN

"The young country's doors have been thrown wide open to receive masses of displaced persons, particularly of Jewish descent, regardless of their state of health, economic or moral status. Thus, as Herb said, Israel is today a conglomerate of the richest and the poorest, the most highly cultured and the most illiterate, and the highly religious and the irreligious.

"Very interesting were Herb's comments on Haifa's Rotary, sponsored by the Cairo Club in 1932 and distinguished by an unbroken history of meetings regularly held even during very hot war periods. (The sponsor club, Cairo, interestingly enough is now defunct under the Nasser regime.) In the Haifa club, English is the basic language spoken, though every member is bilingual and the vast majority has command of three, four, or even five languages.

M. Albertine Will Oppose $2,658,588 Appropriation

(Text of Budget on Page 7)

Public hearing on a tentative budget introduced Friday by the Belleville Board of Education will be held this Wednesday at 8 p.m. in school eight, 183 Union Avenue.

The proposed budget totals $2,658,588, an increase of $66,542 over last year. The figure proposed would reflect an estimated hike of eleven points in the town tax rate.

Board member Michael Albertine cast the only negative vote at Friday's special meeting called to introduce the tentative schedule. Albertine told The Belleville Times he believes the total figure is too high.

"There are some items in the budget which could and should be cut," Albertine told this newspaper. "We are paying enormous taxes now without an exorbitant school budget."

Member Dominic Lally arrived late Friday, after the meeting had adjourned. But during a semi-informal discussion at the board table minutes after the budget was approved, five to one, Lally declared "I am in favor of the budget."

Casting affirmative votes were President Dr. Frank DiRuggiero, Michael Rubino, Violet Rochau, Richard Drake and Mary Coronato.

NO REGULAR MEETING

Because of the public hearing next Wednesday, the board decided the special session would preempt its regularly scheduled session this Monday night.

Dr. DiRuggiero noted that "any citizen may come in to the office (at school eight) and go over the budget from now until Wednesday." The school office is open daily between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Included in the added figure over last year's budget is a $3,000 appropriation for a summer program this season in Belleville.

More Issues Popping Into Election Race

As the February 9 school election date comes closer, aspirants for two vacancies on the board of education intensified their personal campaigns this past week.

One surprising factor was Nuncio Caracciola's neglect to release any press notices during the week. The remaining five candidates readily volunteered detailed explanations of campaign platforms for publication in today's Belleville Times.

Several candidates attended teas held in their honor. Others made an unusually high number of personal appearances at public gatherings throughout town.

Ernest Arvidson today comments on the problem of the gifted child saying that "we must present a challenge to the gifted student." Arvidson goes on to say it's his opinion that a separate school is not needed "to give a talented child a chance to achieve his best." He concludes by promising to work with education.

A limited number of free radio-grams will also be accepted for civilians, friends or relatives of Belleville townspeople—but these will be limited to destinations in the United States only.

This limitation is due to international radio treaties concerning third party messages other than to an APO number.

Bible Study Class Starts Next Week

A five-week course in Bible study is being offered by the Belleville Council of Churches for all interested adults and high school young people. The course, which will be held weekly on Tuesday evenings at 7:45, begins next week and concludes on February 23.

The Rev. Dr. Lawrence Toombs

Meetings will be in Wesley Methodist Church basement hall located at Washington Avenue and Academy Street.

Dr. Toombs, who was born in Canada, received most of his education in that country, although he did his graduate work in the United States. He was for three years professor of Old Testament at St. Stephen's College in Canada. Since 1953 he has continued his teaching work at Drew.

DID ARCHEOLOGICAL WORK In 1955 under the auspices of the American Schools of Oriental Research, Dr. Toombs did archeological work in the Holy Land. In 1957 he returned to participate in the excavations then being carried out around the site of ancient Shechem.

The public is cordially invited to attend the meetings. Registration may be accomplished through any local pastor or at the door next Tuesday night.

Citizens Favor Holiday Parties

By The Inquiring Reporter

Belleville taxpayers polled in calling . . . indicated an overwhelming approval of holiday parties, not only for private businesses, but for town employees as well.

James Golden of 62 Tappan Avenue, complained at the last town commission meeting that holiday parties, such as the one held December 31 for workers at the town garage, "are an unjust imposition upon the taxpayers."

But, Belleville taxpayers disagree, this week's poll found. Only six per cent of residents whose names were selected at random agreed with Golden.

Typical answers follow:

MRS. CONRAD W. JAKOB, 144 Hornblower Avenue, Belleville: Of course not. I don't object to town employees having a New Year's or a Christmas party and I don't consider such affairs an injustice to me as a taxpayer. My husband has had office parties in the past and I don't object to these. Why shouldn't the town employees have a party at the town garage. I do not care.

STANLEY MILLER, 48 Cleveland Street, Belleville: No. I do not object to town employees having an office party. It isn't an imposition on the taxpayers in my opinion.

ANONYMOUS: I believe the office parties should be stopped. They go overboard. Sometimes they can't control themselves. I certainly do object to them.

MRS. CHARLES F. NYE, 9 Catherine Street: My husband works for Public Service and he has office parties. I don't see why town employees can't have an office party at the town garage. I do not object to such get-togethers during the holiday season.

MRS. CHESTER J. DOMERO-SKI, 187 Branch Brook Drive, Belleville: I do not object to town employees having a party at the town garage. However, I do object to certain office parties which get out of hand. I believe an office party should be maintained under supervisory hand.

ANONYMOUS, Belleville: I do not approve of a lot of things in town. I am not running the town. I do not care.

Annual Earnings, Fidelity Union At Record High

(Special to The Belleville Times)

NEWARK—Roy F. Duke, president of the Fidelity Union Trust Company of Newark has announced that operating earnings after taxes in 1959 reached a new high of $3,730,000 and compared with $3,584,000 in 1958. Earnings were equal to $6.78 a share in 1959 compared with $6.53 in the prior year, both based on the 550,000 shares outstanding.

Cash dividends paid in 1959 totaled $1,650,000 or $3 a share, the same annual rate as in 1958.

Capital funds were at a record high of $43,375,000 at the 1959 year end and increased $1,862,000 above 1958. This made 1959 the sixteenth consecutive year in which more than $1,000,000 was added to capital funds out of profits after dividends.

U. S. Government bonds held by the bank were $143,494,000 at the close of 1959, representing a reduction of $5,961,000 from the prior year end. To take advantage of the condition of the bond market a considerable amount of U. S. Government bonds were sold and replaced with others during 1959 to improve the bank's overall investment position and build a base for future profits. A net loss, after tax adjustment, of $1,074,000 resulted from these sales. It was absorbed by charges to accumulated reserves established for this purpose in previous years and the undivided profits of the bank were not affected. In 1958 Fidelity's net profit on such sales was $1,000,000.

Loans on December 31, 1959 were at a record year end level of $197,509,000 and were $16,837,000 higher than at the close of 1958.

Deposits of $469,305,000 on December 31 were at an all-time year end high and were again the largest in any New Jersey commercial bank. They compared with $451,895,000 at the prior year end.

Assets of $518,207,000 compared with $499,771,000 at the close of 1958 and were also at a record year end level. Fidelity Union is the first New Jersey commercial bank to build its resources above the half billion dollar mark.

Two Million in March

An estimated two million women will join the nationwide mothers' appeal for facts and funds. In most communities the mothers will march Thursday evening, Jan. 28, bringing to a climax the New March of Dimes January campaign.

The mothers will present each household with a copy of "Door Count," a concise fact-finding folder in which a family may indicate if any of its members has a birth defect, arthritis or polio and how many have had three or more Salk vaccine shots. Each family record will be confidential.

Salk Shot Reminder

The Mothers' March door count will focus family and community attention on the majority of Americans still without Salk shot protection against paralytic polio. It will remind the unvaccinated to start shots in time for summer polio protection and it will help communities plan local programs to further encourage to the men in New Jersey. I sincerely hope our Essex County men take serious note of this. We are all in this club, working Republican women, personally, I have no patience with voters who call themselves independents. Independent of what?

Mrs. King went on to say, "If we women are a challenge to the men, let us see to it that they get more recognition. Remember, you can't be a spark plug in your club with a dead battery. Many old batteries re-charged run longer and better than the new."

Belleville's Mothers March Ready For Next Thursday

Marching Mothers to Collect Facts, Funds

"If you can answer no to the questions inside, be thankful! If you must answer yes, take hope!"

American mothers will carry this message to over 30 million homes this month. The mothers, volunteers in the annual Mothers' March for the New March of Dimes, will be seeking information and support for The National Foundation's fight against birth defects, arthritis and polio. These crippling, initial targets in The National Foundation's campaign to prevent crippling disease, affect the lives of one of every four American families.

Two Million Mothers Like This One

Although the house-to-house poll is in no way planned as a statistically valid survey, the sum of information taken in the door-count will provide a working estimate of the number of persons suffering from arthritis; the number born with birth defects and the number who have been victims of paralytic polio. This tabulation will help guide National Foundation county chapters in formulating local programs to aid the disabled.

Mothers making the house-to-house door count will also seek contributions to the New March of Dimes for its attack on birth defects, arthritis and polio. The New March of Dimes is combating these disabling disorders with the same effective weapons used to conquer paralytic polio: medical scientific research, to find causes, cures, preventives; patient aid for medical care; and training for medical workers needed to treat the sick and disabled.

Revenue Dept. Requests Early Report Returns

Don't delay filing that Federal income tax return you just got in the mail—especially if you are one of the many millions who may have a tax refund coming. For the sooner you file, the sooner Internal Revenue Service can process your return and get your check to you. That is the advice of Joseph F. J. Mayer, district director for the Newark district.

He added, "If we have to give your return a pre-refund audit and thus delay your refund check, we will inform you of that fact by letter. But even in such cases, the earlier you file, the earlier we can get at your pre-refund audit."

Mayer also has a couple of tips for early filers who want to receive their refunds as quickly as possible.

One is to make sure you don't omit any essential information in making out your return, such as your signature (and that of your spouse if it is a joint return), your Form W-2 reporting your tax withholding, and your address as legible as you can print it.

The other tip, Mayer said, is not to write for a few weeks asking where your refund is.

"If we have to stop to answer such letters," Mayer said, "it will slow down the refunding process and delay your check that much longer."

Heart Association Warns Cold Can Be Dangerous

"Don't sell winter or your heart short," the New Jersey Heart Association warned today. Its president, Dr. Henry L. Drezner, of Trenton, advising New Jersey citizens to have a care for their hearts in the cold months ahead, cautions:

If you are not used to strenuous work, let someone younger shovel the snow. As far as possible do not walk against a strong wind because this puts an added strain on your heart. If you have any asexual disorder, by all means dress warmly and protect the extremities. Should your car get stuck, don't push it; get help.

"Thus far," Dr. Drezner said, "the winter has been mild. However we may expect severe days in the very near future. New Jersey's climate could well tax our hearts when a cold wave sets in and we should take sensible precautions to avoid a strain on this engine of life."

The Grand Jury Presentment Against The 1954 Board of Education Listed Today As "Confidential"

Recently in this space we explained to our readers that we attempted to obtain a copy of the April 6th, 1954 Grand Jury Presentment against the Board of Education then in power. Mrs. Mary Shader, Secretary of the Board, informed us that upon the advice of Counsel the present Board of Education instructed her to inform us that the 1954 Grand Jury Presentment was a "confidential document" and therefore unavailable to us.

Immediately after the public read of the official reaction to our request several taxpayers phoned to volunteer their assistance in procuring a copy of the Grand Jury Presentment. Thanks to interested taxpayers we have several copies now in our possession.

Our purpose in attempting to obtain a copy of the Presentment was to give the voters an opportunity to determine whether or not the Grand Jury recommendations of 1954 are in effect today.

Here is what the Grand Jury said on that fateful April 6, 1954:

"The Grand Jury finds from the evidence submitted sufficient cause to submit to the Court a presentment against the Belleville Board of Education with respect to the following practices." Several of the practices complained of were:

1. Loose and careless business practices in the general operation of the Maintenance Department of the Board of Education.
2. Loose and careless business practices in the purchase of supplies.
3. Lack of inventory control so that no accurate record of supplies stored at the school plant was regularly available.
4. Loose and careless procedures in the handling of time cards resulting in inaccurate payroll procedure and irregularities in overtime payments."

We believe the voters and taxpayers of Belleville have a right to know whether or not the abuses cited by the 1954 Essex County Grand Jury have been eliminated. And there is no more appropriate time to examine into this situation than at Election time when the candidates can very properly discuss this area of concern.

The Grand Jury found that one of the basic causes contributing to factionalism within the Board of Education was a dual system of control then in effect. The Grand Jury made this observation concerning dual control, "Another feature detrimental to good and harmonious relations between the Board of Education members and those in charge of the school administration in Belleville is what is commonly known as the 'dual system' of control. Under this system the Superintendent and the Business Manager operate independently and each is responsible directly to the Board, as contrasted with the single system of control where the Superintendent is the chief administrative officer.

"Testimony before the Grand Jury indicated that the 'dual system' as it operates in Belleville has resulted in the division of the Board of Education into two factions, those who favored the Superintendent's recommendations and those who sided with the Business Manager. This split is reflected by the fact that in the new school project, now under way in Belleville, the Business Manager has not even been invited to attend discussions at which his presence would normally be considered essential."

We believe recent attempts to limit the authority of the Superintendent to make purchases of supplies and services to $100 interferes with the responsibility conferred on him under a single control system. We consider this limitation as stripping an appointive school official of authority and responsibility which should be an integral and important part of his job and at some future time, placing in the hands of potentially ambitious politicians patronage power stemming from control of public funds which could be used to build a personal political organization. The risk is too great for us to chance. As the Grand Jury noted in 1954 we must have only one Administrative Officer for our school system and he must be the Superintendent. Within the limits of his authority Mr. Evan Thomas must be permitted to function without interference from school board members whose sights might be fixed on the next election.

In our search for a copy of the April 6, 1954 Essex County Grand Jury Presentment we were shocked to learn that six of the seven members of the present school board do not have a copy of the Presentment. Because of the sordid story revealed by the Grand Jury probe of 1954 we believe school board members are under compelling obligation to become acquainted with the Grand Jury findings in order to determine if the Grand Jury recommendations are in effect today.

We would like to have some responsible board member step forward and answer the question for us.

C. Walter Joralemon, a member of one of Belleville's first families, passed away at the age of forty.

FORTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Appointment of Frank A. Nearley, political dark horse, as tax assessor, precipitated agitated dissension in the new town Commission, only six weeks old. The former assessor, Eugene M. Gavvey, and incumbent Richard P. Scaine, were passed over.

Other appointments in 1915 included George W. Stanier, tax collector; Robert G. Minion, town clerk; John J. McCarthy, street superintendent; William H. Jacobson, construction superintendent; Hugh D. Welsh, town hall custodian, and Gustavus S. Wines, police recorder.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Pierre Black opposed action of his fellow freeholders in voting to establish a tuberculosis hospital in the Soho section of Belleville. Black, a resident of Belleville, was publicly thanked by the local township committee which also opposed erection of the hospital.

ITT Promotions Made

Further moves to strengthen its world-wide management organization were announced by International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation in the advancement and appointment of several key executives.

In announcing the personnel changes, H. S. Geneen, president, explained "This is another step towards our objective of drawing together the entire ITT system into a truly integrated communications and electronics enterprise."

Henri Busignies, former president of ITT Laboratories, has been named vice president and general technical director of the paint company for closer coordination of ITT's global research and development activities. A 30-year veteran with ITT, he holds over 100 patents in aerial navigation, radar and communications.

Replacing Busignies and also taking over as president of ITT Federal division, a manufacturer, formerly senior vice president of Temco Aircraft Corporation, is J. Nevin Palley, who is only 44, has had extensive technical and managerial experience in the aircraft industry and, at Temco, reorganized that corporation's engineering and electronics departments into a single "weapon systems concept" organization.

A. G. Kandoian, vice president-communication systems at ITT Labs, has been made vice president and general manager of the Laboratories.

Two former members of Busignies staff at the Laboratories, Robert S. Caruthers and Paul Adams, have been made assistant technical directors and will move to ITT headquarters in New York.

P. C. Sandretto, formerly vice president and technical director of the Laboratories, has been moved to the position of deputy group executive—U. S. defense group. Also named to the defense group is E. J. Whalen as director of contract administration.

C. M. Mooney will continue as head of the government relations department, with offices in Washington, but will enlarge his staff to handle additional responsibilities, Geneen said.

Since 1941, when he participated in the founding of the Nutley Laboratories, Busignies has played a major role in the expansion of ITT Labs research and development activities.

He became technical director in 1949, a vice-president and member of the management advisory board in 1959, executive vice president in December 1954, and president in 1956.

Kandoian, who is 48, joined ITT in 1935, has been vice-president - communication systems since 1953. Holder of over 66 patents, he played a major role in the development of the revolutionary over-the-horizon radio systems now in operation in the Caribbean area.

He has also taken part in the research and development that resulted in ITT's world famous Instrument Landing System as well as other radar and navigation systems projects.

NEXT TO GODLINESS

Soap became a part of his daily life long before he understood its use. He's still more concerned with its bubbles than its cleansing properties—but he knows soap is mighty important.

And no one ever thought of postponing his bath until he was old enough to make decisions for himself!

Wise parents never postpone a child's religious training. Long before he is able to reason, he needs the character-building and guidance of the Church. Christianity should become important to him in his daily experience before its truths can be fully grasped by his mind.

We are fortunate that our churches are equipped to instill a vital Christian faith in the youngest child. Fortunate is the boy or girl whose parents begin his religious training in their church's Nursery or Beginners' Department.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

ators in studying such a program for Belleville students. Mrs. Mary Coronato, sole incumbent among the six candidates, discusses school discipline in a release published in today's newspaper. Mrs. Coronato explains the role of the board members in the disciplinary area. Noting that the responsibility of providing discipline is charged to principals and teachers, Mrs. Coronato adds that "it is the duty of the board of education to discipline any employee un-mindful of the performance of his duty." She pledges herself to uphold this principle.

Joseph Granese today urges a re-evaluation of curricula offered in Belleville. "I feel that our entire curriculum, elementary and high school, should be studied and revised where needed," he says. Granese comments that "special attention should be given in the areas of English, science, foreign languages and mathematics." He offers taxpayers the promise that "in these perilous times" he will uphold the standards of curricula offerings in local schools.

Nicholas Juliano released the strongest statement of the five candidates today; his release charged that the principle of checks and balances are not in effect on the board.

Juliano says that the fundamental issue of the current campaign is the question of "dual and divided control" which he says would be evident "if those who seek to become 'self-appointed administrators' are elected."

John Walker discusses the importance of quality teachers in the local school system. "Even one poor teacher can ruin the future education of a child,"

Walker continues to say that Belleville is fortunate in having "many high quality teachers" but asks all instructors be fully certified. "He mentions that the board 'has a policy' calling for hiring only fully certified teachers" and then notes that "there are now in Belleville schools a number of not fully certified teachers."

"Full certification is the minimum for any teacher," Walker concludes.

All six candidates have been invited to a "Candidates' Night" program sponsored by The Consolidated PTA's of Belleville. The session will provide an opportunity for the public to question each candidate on his platform and other issues in the campaign.

Granese Aims Improvement Of Curricula

Joseph Granese of 48 Naples Avenue, released the following to The Belleville Times:

"I firmly believe that those who accept a mandate to operate the schools in the name of the people are thereby answerable for the educational goals, curricula and standards. Only such civic representatives have the right—and the duty—to determine whether public schools are, for example, to serve as social service stations or to provide the essential skills of language, numbers, or critical thinking.

"On January 14, the various phases of my program for better education in Belleville were published. Today, I shall review two areas of my program that deal with the curriculum and standards. In these perilous times, it is of the utmost importance that these vital areas be given our immediate and close attention.

"If elected to the board of education, I would strive for a re-evaluation of the curriculum with the administrators and the teachers. I feel that our entire curriculum, elementary and high school, should be studied and revised where needed. In the elementary schools, the areas of reading and writing should be studied and revisions made on the basis of the results of this study. It is now evident to many that some aspects of our high school program do not meet the needs of the students in this demanding atomic age. I feel that special attention should be given to our high school offerings in the areas of English, science, foreign languages, and mathematics. Also, I am convinced that we could provide better for our gifted children by offering them a program that is more challenging.

"In our schools, high academic standards must be insured so that our college-bound students would be readily accepted by the colleges and our non-college students would be assured of a preparation that would allow them to make a living in the business and industrial worlds. It is evident to me and others that our academic standards must be raised in the individual classrooms and the system in general."

Mrs. Coronato's Release About School Discipline

The statement of Mrs. Mary Reilly Coronato follows:

"As a candidate for re-election to the board of education, February 9, I believe that good discipline must be constantly upheld in our schools. In every classroom, on every playground, and in every school sponsored activity there should be at all times the very best discipline. Schools cannot operate in an orderly and safe manner, and children cannot learn to the fullest extent except in a climate of good discipline.

"Now just where does a member of the board of education fit into the maintenance of school discipline. Actual establishment of school discipline depends first on the principal and second on each teacher. These employees cannot uphold good discipline, though, unless the members of the board of education individually and collectively support principals and teachers in proper efforts for good discipline.

"In the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Education, Article X, section 3, page 23, is given this rule: 'Each principal shall be responsible for the general management and discipline of the entire school and see that good order is maintained within the building and on the school grounds before, after and during school hours.' This rule places the responsibility for discipline in a school upon the school principal. This requires a board of education to uphold its school principals. By the same token, its principals should support each teacher in all necessary and proper actions to discipline children.

"During my term on the board of education I have upheld the cause of good discipline, and I am proud to have done so. No parent, regardless of his position in the community, should be allowed to achieve any special privilege for his children. Every child who disobeys a rule or regulation set down by the school system, should be disciplined, both for his own good and the welfare of the town. When the superintendent of schools refers the complaint of a parent about the disciplining of his child to the board of education, it is the duty of board members and the superintendent to stick to the incident before them. Personal feelings should always be kept out of these difficult cases.

"On the other hand, principals and teachers, in all their conduct should show respect for the personality of every child. They should be completely fair at all times. They should not use sarcasm, ridicule, and other negative forces and attitudes in dealing with children.

"Just as it is the duty of principals and teachers to maintain discipline in the schools, it is the duty of the board of education to discipline any employee un-mindful of the performance of his duty. Good discipline throughout a school system helps to make good schools."

J. Walker Says Quality Teachers Very Important

John Walker, 143 Bell Street, issued this statement:

"Nothing is so important as the quality of the teaching in our schools. Even one poor teacher can ruin the future education of a child. Fortunately, Belleville has many high quality teachers. "But while the board of education has a policy calling for hiring only fully certified teachers, there are now in Belleville schools a number of not fully certified teachers. When the superintendent of schools recommends hiring sub-standard teachers, the board is faced with taking his recommendation or hiring nobody. The recruitment of fully certified teachers is the job of the superintendent.

"I believe Belleville pays good enough salaries, compared with many places, to be able to recruit fully certified teachers. I believe it is the duty of the board of education to direct the superintendent to carry on a year-around recruitment program and not wait for fully certified teachers to come to him.

"Full certification is the minimum for any teacher. Beyond this, I should like to see high quality teachers hired. A high quality teacher has the capacity of becoming better each year. "I believe Belleville has a good workshop program for helping teachers improve after entering the system. The parent-teacher conference program promotes improvement in teaching. This program has been valuable to my family. But none of this can take the place of hiring fully certified, high quality teachers."

Local Tea Fetes Nicholas Juliano, Ernest Arvidson

School board candidates Ernest S. Arvidson and Nicholas Juliano were the guests of honor at a tea Wednesday held in the home of Mrs. Richard A. Shafter of 131 Bremond Street, Belleville.

Approximately thirty neighbors attended the event. Both Arvidson and Juliano addressed the gathering.

Arvidson, who has long been active in PTA work and the better school movement, stressed that "in recent years the line of demarcation between the purely policy-making functions of the citizens on the board of education and the administrative duties of the superintendent of schools have come to be disregarded."

Arvidson advocated a stricter adherence to this "division of labor, that is comparable to the system of checks and balances by which our national government is distinguished."

Juliano spoke on the constant broadening of educational needs. "Only imaginative foresight can cope with the challenge of these constantly changing needs," he said. "There is no room for personal politicking on the board of education."

Sponsors of the tea Wednesday were, in addition to Mrs. Shafter, Mrs. Joseph Drexler and Mrs. George Gabriel. Others attending included Mr. and Mrs. A. Marone of 88 Linden Avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Uno Anderson of 33 Berkeley Avenue, Mrs. Hillard Mann of 35 Reservoir Place and Mrs. S. J. Skinner of 34 Reservoir Place.

N. Juliano Raps Divided Control On Town Board

Nicholas Juliano's statement to voters follows:

"It comes as no surprise that the fundamental issue of the current school board election, 'dual and divided control,' has erupted into the open. The many resolutions introduced by some members of the board to harass the administrators and to hamper the orderly, competent supervision of our school system, were designed to divert attention from the main objective: dual and divided control.

"The fine sentiment of anxiety expressed in past release of the incumbent candidate 'to be sure that the taxpayers get their money's worth for every dollar spent' cannot be reconciled with the bold assertion, 'This is a responsibility which can only be assigned to the board of education and not its administrators.' This is the type of 'checks and balance' that invited the attention and reprimand of the Grand Jury in 1954.

"During the past year similar attempts were made to re-establish the 'standing committee' procedure about which the Grand Jury stated, 'It would appear from testimony given before the Grand Jury that the Belleville Board of Education is a group of individuals rather than a responsible official body. The various board members disclaimed knowledge of and interest in activities of the board not under their own individual committee authority.'

"The time has come when school board members and those who seek membership must recognize that the most important functions of the school board are the formulation of policies and the judgement of results. Further, they should recognize that their responsibility is not to run the schools, but to see that the schools are well run.

This issue is of vital concern to every voting citizen. You can and must prevent a return to dual and divided control if we are to protect the integrity of our school system. You must reject at the polls those who seek to become 'self-appointed administrators.' Our school system would be exposed again to public censure and stigma as it was in 1954 if you allow the personal status seekers to go unchecked.

"You have a duty and responsibility to support the sincere and dedicated citizen whose primary and only motive is the progress and improvement of our school system."

Ernest Arvidson Explains Points In His Platform

Ernest S. Arvidson commented on various points in his platform already published in The Belleville Times. His statement follows:

"Education is continuing process, we must fill the child with a thirst for knowledge, and not limit ourselves to filling the brain with facts, figures, and formulas. We must present a challenge to the gifted student, who can absorb more learning, if we are to prevent that student from becoming bored and instead of inspiring the student, we may curb his desire to learn.

"This learning must be coupled with proper guidance if the student is to be directed in the course he wishes to pursue and for which he is most fitted. Our rapidly changing world today makes it imperative that we teach a basic knowledge in many subjects. In order that the young man or woman may be in a position to adapt to these changes as they occur.

"No simple solution to the complex problem is available, there is no pat, cheap, way to do a difficult intricate task. Most of us have been guilty again and again of oversimplifying a complex situation.

"We must instruct our children in every field of human competence and not merely in the world of science. We do not need to have a separate school for the elite in order to give a talented child a chance to achieve his best. Public education is not a contest to select a winner, its purpose is to help every child the backward one, the average one, and the superior one, to achieve his best.

"Were I elected to the board I shall work with our educators to continue and further such a program in Belleville to the fullest extent our facilities permit."

All's Quiet—No News From N. Caracciola

Nuncio Caracciola of 58 Roosevelt Avenue, who has stated his intentions of running for the Belleville Board of Education, was the only candidate not releasing any statement for publication in today's Belleville Times.

Statements of the five candidates, Ernest S. Arvidson, Nicholas Juliano, Mary R. Coronato, Joseph Granese and John A. Walker appear on this page.

'Aroused Citizens' Urge Turnout Next Thursday

William A. Boyd, Allan H. Crisp and Edward J. Ackerman, co-chairmen of the Aroused Belleville Citizens Committee of One Hundred released the following statement:

"Let's talk 'horse sense,' for a change. "Don't let the chatter of campaign statements confuse you. Actions - past and future - speak louder than words.

"We, the voters, have it within our power to elect men of decision, men of action, men who will not be political stooges, men who will not be fence straddlers or vote abstainers when important issues are decided.

"As civic, professional and business leaders, we are working together to rally support for those candidates whom we believe will strengthen the Board; namely—Ernest Arvidson and Nicholas Juliano. Our appeal must reach those taxpayers and parents to whom candidates are mostly unknown names read in the newspapers. We urge everyone to come to School three, Thursday, January 21, at 8 y.m. when all six candidates will be seen and heard from the same platform.

"Your enthusiastic response is most encouraging. By election day the voice of the people must become a mighty roar for action. We cannot afford to settle for less. It is common knowledge that some political machines are already busy. They thrive on indifference, 'stay at home' or 'fair weather' voters. "Remember, to be 'aroused'

High School Set For Board Tests In March, May

Belleville High School students planning to attend college are now preparing for the college board examinations which will be given in March and May.

Application blanks for the imminent tests may be obtained through the high school guidance department. Mr. Slikin, head of the department, says that applications are also available for students planning to attend private and parochial schools.

Results of the PSAT tests administered in October were returned to students. The examination is designed to determine how well a student will do on the college board test.

The results were carefully evaluated by Mr. Slikin and Mr. Miller of the guidance department during a meeting held in the school auditorium. Following explanatory statements, students participated in a question and answer period.

National Guard Invites Grads To Enlist Now

Male high school and college seniors—graduating this month—are also approaching a time of possible military service under the selective service law. These men are being invited to look into the New Jersey Army National Guard as a possible way of satisfying their military obligation, under the law, without being required to serve two years on active duty.

Major General James F. Cantwell, The Chief of Staff of New Jersey, announced that the National Guard will conduct an intensive recruiting drive among high school and college students during the next eight weeks. The high point of the effort will be the annual "Muster Day" observance on Washington's Birthday.

SIX MONTHS ACTIVE DUTY

After enlistment, the men without previous military service will be required to take six months of active duty training at an Army training center, rather than the two years required under selective service. High school students may delay their active duty up to one year or graduation. College students will be given up to 120 days to complete their school year before reporting for training duty.

The men will return to their own Guard units after completing the six months training. This will allow them to continue their education or take jobs since under the law they cannot be drafted.

There are unlimited openings in the National Guard in all arms and services. Guardsmen may attend the Army's service schools and, if qualified, may enter the New Jersey Military Academy at Sea Girt to become commissioned officers. Further information may be obtained at any National Guard Armory.

Local Air Force Recruiter Cites Demand For Pilots

"Qualified young men, with an eye on the future, can now take advantage of immediate entry into the Air Force's Navigator flying training program," M-Sgt. Joseph Krupski, local Air Force recruiter, 1006 Broad Street, Newark, said today. "To meet this new demand," continued M-Sgt. Krupski, "young men of the Belleville area who qualify for flying training can immediately enter the next Aviation Cadet class."

Through its Aviation Cadet Program, the U.S. Air Force trains qualified young men to become pilots and navigators. The Aviation Cadet Program has become the Air Force's traditional source of leadership by providing commissioned flying officers.

The pilots and navigators are the pace-setters in today's United States Air Force. It is their flying skill; it is their ability to master fighter tactics, bombardment, and gunnery; it is their knowledge of the aircraft and weapons systems, which transforms 150 tons of giant aircraft into an efficient and deadly weapon of defense and retaliation. It is the skills of these highly trained men which combine into an unbeatable airpower team.

16 MONTHS TRAINING

The young men of the Belleville area who qualify for Air Force pilot training will enter an intensified program which does not overlook the smallest detail. In sixteen months this program will take an individual and develop in him the qualities of leadership and self control, and the ability to master the skills of flying, whether it be in a supersonic B-58 "Hustler" or the record breaking F-104 fighter.

Another key officer flying the skies is the navigator—the man who provides direction to the movement and potency of the aircraft. After completing ten months of intensified training, the navigator becomes a part of the highly regarded airpower team. He may be a part of our fighter interceptor team in the Air Force's fastest and most maneuverable aircraft. The navigator possesses the ability to navigate aircraft, jam enemy radar, drop atomic bombs, operate radar equipment, steer the aircraft into attack position, offensively defend the aircraft, or direct the plane during a bomb run.

Who may qualify for the Aviation Cadet Program? Young men who are single, and between 19 and 26½ years of age and possess at least a high school diploma meet the basic qualifications. Upon passing medical and written entrance examinations, the potential flying officer will be considered for training as a pilot or navigator.

When a cadet successfully completes the prescribed course of flying training he will be required to serve in the United States Air Force for four years. The aviation cadet graduate will receive a commission as a second lieutenant with an aeronautical rating as a pilot or navigator, a uniform allowance, and a 30-day annual vacation with pay. A second lieutenant on flying status receives $438.58 a month if single, if married $455.68.

ENLIST IN NEWARK

Young men who are interested in becoming an integral part of the Air Force's flying team should contact M-Sgt. Joseph Krupski, local Air Force recruiter, who will have all information particular to the Aviation Cadet Program. You may reach M-Sgt. Krupski, by phoning Mitchell 2-2020 extension 270, 271 or 272 or stop by the Air Force Recruiting Office at 1006 Broad Street, Newark.

There are few satisfactions that can equal winning the silver wings of a flying officer in the United States Air Force. They stand not only for personal mastery of the world's finest flying training, but for membership in one of the greatest pace-setting organizations of the modern age. New jet planes, vastly improved equipment, far-reaching experiments and research lie ahead for the men who have demonstrated capacity for learning and the capabilities for flying.

What's New At BHS?

By Joan Fellman

Hi again! Now that vacation is over we're getting back to the old grind. We've heard that you all had a great time and need another three weeks to recuperate.

One of the first things that hit you in the face at your return was the prospect of midterm exams. They're all through now, but what torture they were! Some of the students were unfortunate enough to get three midterms on one day.

The talk around school is to change our exam schedule to resemble that of many schools in this area. The students would only come to school the day and hour of a certain exam. The rest of the time would be free to study, and this would eliminate homework in classes not having exams on those days. The only disadvantage would be that underclassmen, as well as upperclassmen, would have exams. Someone suggested a poll of the students. What's your opinion on the subject?

Have you had your picture taken yet? If not, and you participate in some extra activity, you probably will soon. Mr. Kondreck has been photographing those active students for pictures in the "Monad," our school yearbook. Under the capable direction of Miss T. Weidman, this year's staff, headed by editor Grace Lombardo, and associate editors Angela Mello and Donna Jones, will produce the largest edition in the history of Belleville High School, due to a very large graduating class. We hope everyone has been prompt in making his payments (total is $4.50), for we're sure this is going to be the biggest and the best "Monad" ever published.

We want to see a huge turnout at the basketball game this Friday. It's a 3:30 p.m. away game at East Orange. Let's all get out there and support our team!

Nutty Squirrels Dash To Win Over Beatniks In Girls' Basketball

The hardest fought game of the evening was the Nutty Squirrels vs. the Beatniks, with the Nutty Squirrels emerging the winners 14-12.

CYO To Make Award, Editors, Coaches Select

In its continuing effort to promote good sportsmanship on high school basketball courts, the Essex County CYO has announced that it will again honor the outstanding high school cager in Essex County by presenting him with the CYO Outstanding Player Award.

Rev. Vincent F. Affanoso of Montclair, county CYO director, said "We like to think the award has had something to do with the development of sportsmanship on the high school level in recent years. The reason for our interest is the fact that the youngsters in our CYO leagues emulate the high school players and thus anything that helps the high school program also helps us."

Coaches of all high school teams have been asked to alert their players regarding the award. The coaches, along with the sportswriters from daily and weekly newspapers in the county, will determine the award winner through balloting conducted by the CYO at the close of the season.

Bare Knuckle Fight
