Westinghouse Salaries Jump for 320 Workers

More than 320 employees of the Westinghouse lamp plant in Belleville will receive a pay increase of either one cent an hour or a half per cent of 1955 base rates as a result of the rise in the living cost index announced August 25 by the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Harry F. Fox, Belleville works supervisor, reports that the pay raise will boost employment costs of the Westinghouse Electric Corporation at a rate of nearly $3,000,000 a year. For employees paid on a weekly schedule, the increase becomes effective with the next pay period. For monthly paid employees, the effective date is today.

The lamp base division of Westinghouse is located at 720 Washington Avenue, Belleville.

The cost-of-living provision in the company's five-year wage and benefits program calls for quarterly adjustments of one cent an hour or one-half per cent of October 1955 base rates for each half point change in the cost of living index.

The wage and salary increases resulting from today's index, plus previous upward cost of living adjustments add either 23 cents an hour or 11 and a half per cent to base pay rates since October 1955.

R. D. Blasier, vice-president in charge of industrial relations, told The Belleville Times that increases in the living cost index have boosted the company's employment costs 14 times in the past four years. He added that these increases "have pushed Westinghouse payroll costs more and more out of line with other companies in our industry, many of which give no cost of living raises at all."

Blasier said that more than 107,000 employees of the Westinghouse firm will receive raises.

Needless to say, Fiduccia's rink, although very successful, was torn down.

The Cedar Grove resident, however, has done a lot of building up lately, probably enough to make up for the tearing down. The premises at 701 Washington Avenue have been completely renovated. Mr. Fiduccia's wife, Marilouise, did the decorating which creates a colorful carnival atmosphere throughout the rink.

Mrs. Fiduccia is a professional decorator specializing in homes, industrial sites and ball rooms - and now roller skating rinks.

Korn also has a talented wife. Mr. and Mrs. Korn are well known throughout this area as the dance team "The Arnolds."

Mr. Korn and his wife, Rhoda, have appeared, for example, at the Preakness Country Club, the Cedar Hills Country Club, Shackamaxon in Short Hills, the Mount Crest Cabana Club in West Orange and the Hickory Hill Cabana Club in Totowa.

The gaily decorated rink now includes all new lighting, again of many colors, and a new screened booth housing the organ.

Transportation Director Lauds C of C Initiative

Belleville's transportation director, Rocco L. Constantino, today welcomed the chamber of commerce suggestion for a joint transit authority with Nutley.

In a short statement to The Belleville Times, Constantino congratulates the chamber "on their initiative" and adds "I will cooperate to the fullest with them in seeking ways to improve transportation."

Constantino called the transportation problem in Belleville "one of the most urgent... facing our town today."

The text of the release from Constantino reads as follows:

"Our office has received a letter from Mr. Harry T. French, Executive Director of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce, concerning the transportation problem in the Town of Belleville.

"In my opinion this is one of the most urgent problems facing our town today. Improving existing bus service and adding new service where it is needed is a must for the improvement of Belleville. Potential new homeowners, industry and storekeepers can best be attracted by an adequate transportation system.

"We must not forget our present citizens and must seek ways to improve the facilities so that they may go to work, church and shop as conveniently as possible

Go Back To School: E. Thomas

Superintendent of Schools Evan H. Thomas announces the opening of Belleville schools is next Thursday, September 8. A list of names of high school pupils together with assigned homerooms appears on page 12 of today's Belleville Times.

Other information pertinent to the opening of school appears on page 12.

Thomas urgently requests the cooperation of parents, parent-teacher associations and employers to encourage teenagers to return to school. In urging young people to stay in school, he states "education is something that has to be attained by personal effort and sacrifice. Completion of high school gives a young man or woman a definite advantage over the person who has failed to complete a high school program.

"Parents can help in giving wise guidance in this respect. To all young people I would urge most emphatically completing high school. All fields of endeavor demand at least a high school diploma of those who would advance themselves. Every year into my office come many many young married men and women inquiring how they might finish out their high school program to qualify for better jobs, regretting that they left school before getting their diploma.

"Young people, don't let this happen to you. Stay in school, make every day count, you'll never regret it."

Kiernan to Introduce Proposal to Change Form of Government

Tax Council Supporting Change to 'Manager' Government for Town

Citizens' tax council president Salvatore Calabro today reports that trustees of the group are releasing the following statement regarding a change in Belleville's form of government:

"The (Belleville) Citizens' Tax Council is completely behind a referendum to change the form of municipal government from the present Commission form to Council-Manager Plan D form of municipal government as stated clearly in our circulated petitions.

"We also will not countenance any change in our plan due to political pressure. We are also pleased to find that other organizations are unhappy with our present form of government and hope they will join us in our fight for a change."

Holiday Haircuts A Belleville Bargain Because on Tuesday...

Bellevillites who have their hair clipped for the Labor Day weekend will save 25 cents. The price of haircuts isn't going down, however; it's just that after Labor Day it's going to cost another 25 cents to get a trim.

Price of haircuts will rise Tuesday in eight Essex County communities and Belleville, unfortunately, is one of them. The new prices: $1.75 for men and $1.50 for children, $2.25 more in both cases than today's prices.

Other towns where the price is going up are Nutley, Bloomfield, Cedar Grove, Caldwell, Verona, Montclair and Roseland.

The decision to hike prices was made Monday night by the county master barbers' association. Salvatore Vecere of Belleville is president of the group.

The increase is the first in six years. A similar hike in haircut prices for Newark was announced last week. Newark's higher prices also go into effect next Tuesday.

He Will Offer Resolution Authorizing Referendum For Mayor-Council Type

Commissioner George F. Kiernan today announced he intends to introduce a resolution calling for a change of government in Belleville at the next meeting September 13. Kiernan said the resolution requesting a November 8 referendum which will propose a change from the commission to the mayor - council form of local government.

Kiernan, in a statement released today, calls the commission form of government "archaic" adding that "government reform represents a critical need for Belleville."

Referring to the present men on the Belleville Board of Commissioners, Kiernan comments "they are all good men and my desire to see a change (in government) is no reflection upon their personal abilities or dedication."

Kiernan said he is confident that the motion to adopt the resolution "will not only receive a

Say State Will Help Committee In Health Study

Nicholas Brescia, the local attorney who has organized a citizens' committee to survey the Belleville Health Department, reports that consultants from the District State Health Office are available to work with the committee in making the local study.

Brescia also reports that New Jersey has an April 1961 deadline by which municipal health departments must meet raised minimum standards. The attorney said the citizen's committee's survey and evaluation is designed to appraise the state board of any "shortcomings."

Officials from the town of Belleville will also cooperate with the survey, Brescia comments. "The survey will cover all phases of health services from vegetation to factories," the chairman stated.

A press release issued by Brescia notes that "pursuant to a recent New Jersey State Statute, the New Jersey Department of Health has set up a code of recognized public health activities and minimum standards of per-second, but at least the three votes required to place this very important question on the November ballot."

STATEMENT

The text of Kiernan's statement released today reads as follows:

Commissioner George F. Kiernan today announced his plan to introduce a resolution at the next board of commission meeting to be held Tuesday, September 13th requesting a November 8th referendum on the choice of a mayor - council form of government to replace the present commission form of government in Belleville.

"In my two years of experience as a member of the town commission, I have learned at firsthand of the inadequacies and the shortcomings of the form of government which governs Belleville today. It lends itself to buck-passing and failure to pinpoint responsibility. The very nature of our commission form of government makes necessary inter-departmental responsibility without accompanying authority.

"Government reform represents a critical need for Belleville. Our community's citizens, merchants and industries are entitled to the finest government available to serve their mutual interests. With climbing tax rate at every level, it becomes incumbent upon public officials to pursue bold measures to give our Belleville taxpayers the best government.

"Civic progress and intelligent community planning are impossible where a form of government prevails that is as archaic as the commission form."

Concerning the current campaign of the Belleville Tax Council calling for a change from commission to council - mayor form of government, Commissioner Kiernan said, "The Tax Council's activity and its ability to obtain an estimated 1500 signatures to a change in government petition is sufficient proof to me that a great body of our citizens is in agreement with my views that a change in government is desired at most any price - even if that price is a second - best form of government such as the council-manager form.

"The weaknesses of the commission form of government are

Professional Fotogs Meet in Town

The course was held at the Kondreck Studio in Belleville and was attended by a select group of professional photographers from New Jersey and Connecticut. The instruction was under the direct supervision of A.D. Wichers, master of photography (right) of Topeka, Kansas.

Wichers was awarded the degree of Master of Photography by the Professional Photographers Association of America. He also holds more awards for photographic excellence than any other photographer in the United States.

Among topics covered in the course were lighting, posing, laboratory techniques, sales promotion, business ethics and so forth. The Professional Photographers Association of New Jersey sponsors many such educational programs for its members since it feels that such activities will be of mutual benefit to both the profession as well as to their clients.

Senator Case Meets Nixon, Lodge At Reception For The President

Senator Clifford P. Case (N.J.) found an unexpected opportunity to discuss New Jersey politics with top Republicans last weekend at a Washington reception for President and Mrs. Eisenhower given by Senate Minority Leader and Mrs. Everett M. Dirksen. He lost no time in getting in a word about state campaign strategy.

Senator Case said it would have been "the wrong place and the wrong time to talk too much shop," but he did have a brief chance to discuss the Vice-President's kick-off campaign appearance in Atlantic City on Sept. 15, as well as the half-dozen other tours in New Jersey planned by Mr. Nixon and Ambassador Lodge. State Republicans are anxious, too, to have President Eisenhower swing through New Jersey during the campaign.

Senator Case said he believes "the people of New Jersey will have a great many opportunities to see and judge for themselves the calibre and experience of our national ticket during the weeks ahead."

Rate Increase Is Granted P.S. Co.

The New Jersey State Board of Public Utility Commissioners, recognizing the fact that present electric and gas rates were not providing the company with an opportunity to earn a fair return, granted Public Service a $10,163,000 increase in revenues on an annual basis.

The decision was handed down Aug. 12 and followed the conclusion of a rate case that began in April, 1958. New rate schedules will be submitted to the Utility Commission on Sept. 2, and a public hearing will be held Sept. 19, before the new rates can be made effective.

Although the increase was determined on the operating results and plant investment of 1959, it will not be reflected in the earnings of the company until late in 1960.

Heavy demands for increased service continue as New Jersey's economy grows. In order to meet the requirements of present and future customers, Public Service has an unprecedented expansion program under way.

This year the company anticipates construction expenditures of $140,000,000 to $150,000,000, and over the next three years, nearly a half-billion dollars will be spent for new and improved facilities.

In the past decade, Public Service has expended more than a billion dollars for additions and improvements in plant and equipment.

"The company still faces the prospect of raising large sums of new money, and it remains to be seen whether the increase in revenues will provide earnings adequate enough to meet the requirements of financing our construction program. We will continue to use all of the engineering ingenuity in our command to offset ever-rising costs and, at the same time, maintain our high standards of service for nearly 80 per cent of the population of New Jersey served by Public Service," said Donald C. Luce, president of the company.

The petitions for the rate increases were filed in 1958, the gas rate increase being the first general increase sought by the company in 37 years, while the electric rate increase was the first general rate increase sought in the history of the company.

Rising expenses, taxes and fixed charges made it necessary for the company to seek relief, to attain a fair rate of return on the property devoted to the service of the public. It was also essential that the company increase its earnings to protect its credit standing and enable it to raise large amounts of additional capital in the most economical manner.

The $10,163,000 includes the $3,

SEAMLESS STOCKINGS

A survey by one hosiery maker showed that 31 per cent of women under age 21 wear seamless stockings exclusively; age 21 to 25, 25 per cent wear seamless all the time; 26-35, nine per cent wear seamless and 53 per cent wear full-fashioned exclusively. The typical hosiery customer, said the survey, usually has five pair of stockings, buys new ones about three or four times a year, uses about one pair a month. Fifty per cent own stockings of more than one color category.

Entertainment Tax Explained

Kenneth O. Hook, Acting District Director of Internal Revenue, today reaffirmed the position of the Service with respect to the imposition of the cabaret tax.

This tax was imposed under certain provisions of the 1939 and 1954 Internal Revenue Codes, Mr. Hook observed. While the rates have varied, both codes imposed a tax on all amounts paid for admission, refreshment, service or merchandise at any roof garden, cabaret or other similar place furnishing a public performance for profit, if any payment or part thereof entitled the patron to be present during any portion of the performance. Prior to May 1, 1960, the rate was 20 per cent. Effective May 1, 1960, the rate has been reduced to ten per cent.

To the Editor:

In a recent article in The Newark News, Mr. Thomas stated that Belleville is a town decaying fast and that the only cure is a new high school which will create a boom. On that point, I disagree.

He has also stated that property valuation will rocket sky high; so will our tax rate which is taking the life blood out of the people that must pay it. That is not a boom but a serious blunder, a catastrophe, the only way to create a boom is to bring in new industry that will benefit the town and the people, provide jobs and security and protect its future, not saddle them with a heavier load which they cannot afford.

We haven't had new industry locate here since the Andrew Jergens Co. which turned out to be a good neighbor 20 years ago. People in town are not stupid, they will not jump out of the fire into the frying pan.

Today, husband and wife must work together to make both ends meet. A look about the town will show you that Belleville is in a serious condition. Many stores have closed their doors and several hundred homes are up for sale.

There must be a reason. A new high school which the town does not need is the last straw. Everybody pays higher taxes and higher rents. If the board of education cannot operate the school system on a sound basis and provide itself with a sinking fund to take care of the unexpected instead of operating in the red every year, they should resign.

They have a chance to buy the Elks building on Washington Avenue with public approval for $80,000, but would rather spend $150,000, money which they don't have for a piece of land rejected by the people and several million dollars for a new school also rejected by the people. Does that make sense in a town that is falling apart at the seams. Think before you leap.

To the Editor:

May I express to you my appreciative thanks on behalf of the Post Office Department and all the employees of the Newark Postal District for the cooperation extended during 1959 and 1960, in publicizing our mailing campaigns to the general public. We are most grateful for your assistance in bringing to the attention of Postal patrons the importance of the separation of Local and Out-of-Town mails throughout the year, and the Christmas gifts and greetings which materially helped both the patron and the Post Office Department.

This cooperative effort is another demonstration of the effective service which you continuously render to the public.

The employees of the Newark Postal District's Cooperative Mailing Department join with me in awarding this citation to The Belleville Times for outstanding services rendered.

Swimming For Girls At YWCA

Miss Carol Ann Lee, girls' program director of the Montclair Y.M.C.A. has announced that the Women's and Girls' Division of the Park Street Branch will offer five series of swimming instruction classes for second grade girls during the 1960-1961 school year.

As membership in the "Y" is limited to third through 12th grade girls, many parents of second graders have requested that some type of swimming instruction be made available for their daughters on a short term basis.

The second grade instruction classes will consist of four eight-week series and one six-week series beginning on September 22 and continuing as follows: September 22 to November 8; November 17 to January 19; January 26 to March 2; March 9 to April 27, and May 4 to June 15. They Fool No One

Commissioner Robert Gruhin last week introduced at the Commission meeting a new dimension to the old "numbers game" so often practiced by politicians trying to explain the unexplainable. In supporting his opposition to Commissioner George Kiernan's motion to place on the November ballot the question of a site for the proposed new high school, Gruhin had his desk covered with a sheaf of maps and frequently referred to them as he explained that the school board, as he understood it, was considering the acquisition of only a few feet of town-owned land adjacent to the city stadium.

Maps and Gruhin's figures notwithstanding, we have in the record, reports submitted by Columbia University and Rutgers University, paid for by Belleville taxpayers, referring to the Stadium area as the only logical site for a new high school, and the sole reason given for this site recommendation is the availability of vast areas of presently town-owned land, enabling the town to keep at a minimum the land acquisition cost for a new school. If site cost was a factor which produced the stadium site recommendation by both Rutgers and Columbia University study groups, to the non-lawyer at least it is obvious more than a few feet of ground is involved.

Gruhin can use all the figures and maps he chooses but we don't think the use of these gimmicks fools anyone. He opposed a November vote on the question of a school site for the proposed new school, and in so doing, he voted against the best interests of Belleville taxpayers and school children. Mayor Isadore Padula, failed again to seize the opportunity for leadership which his title bestows upon him, and followed Gruhin's lead by voting "no" on the Kiernan-Pico supported resolution. Commissioner Harry Sullivan was absent from the meeting. Perhaps at the next meeting he may supply the required third vote to place the resolution on the November ballot.

Deserves A Helping Pocketbook

In commenting on the editorial of The Times last week on the 3rd anniversary of Clara Mass Hospital in Belleville, Stanley Freck, the hospital's public relations man, called attention to a situation confronting the institution which we feel will interest our readers — and will excite a desire to help.

Mr. Freck told us that a shortage of graduate nurses and unfavorable transportation conditions had combined to force the institution to undertake a building program much earlier than desired.

The shortage of nurses has made it necessary to proceed with the erection of a school of nursing earlier than originally planned. The difficulty of reaching the hospital from desirable home areas has made it necessary to construct living quarters for graduate nurses.

The latter is unusual. All of us are familiar with the provision of rooms by hospitals for young folks attending their schools of nursing. Making housing available on hospital grounds for full-fledged nurses is unprecedented. However, Mr. Freck points out it is essential if Clara Maass is to attract trained nurses. And he adds that the need for such nurses is critical.

All of this adds up to the unexpected need by the hospital of financial assistance in a building program which the hospital board had thought was a matter of the future. Circumstances have telescoped the "future" into "now." With the high regard felt for Clara Maass, it is our feeling that all that need be done is make the emergency clear to the people, and the money will be forthcoming.

We hope we have made clear how great the need is. How about sitting down this very minute and sending a check to the hospital in Belleville, with a note to the effect that you want Clara Maass to get its School of Nursing and Nurses apartments as rapidly as possible?

A New Season Of Activity

Summer-long activity at the several playgrounds in Belleville is reaching its climax this week.

Not only are there improvements to the school plant to observe this year. There also will be 25 new teachers in the high, junior and grade schools.

A new school year is about to commence. What will be its history in academic achievements, in sports, in social affairs, in growth, in improvements — in the other fields of effort which occupy the time of our young people during this span of 12 vital years in their lives?

We know of no reason why it should not be as successful and as full of accomplishment as have been school years in the past.

Small Businesses Can Borrow For Shopping Centers

Arthur E. Long, Regional Director of the Small Business Administration for this area, announced today that his agency has inaugurated a program of loans to local development companies for construction of shopping centers to be occupied exclusively by small businesses.

He said the loans would be construction conversion or expansion — including acquisition of land for shopping centers. Mr. Long said he had received the following message from Mr. McCullum in Washington:

"We are pleased to announce a plan within our existing authority under which the Small Business Administration may be of assistance to small firms so that they can participate in shopping centers, which have been developing significantly across the country.

"The problem has been under study for many months and there have been conferences with bankers, small business owners and civic leaders. The Small Business Administration will welcome the participation of banks and other lending institutions in the financing. However, where private lenders are not in a position to participate, the Small Business Administration will make direct loans.

"A major deterrent to small business tenancy in shopping centers has been a requirement by financing organizations of a top financial rating for the tenants or a guaranteed lease by the small business firm seeking tenancy in the shopping center."

Mr. Long explained that under the program of his agency, loans up to $250,000 for each small business to be assisted may be made to local development companies for shopping centers. The number of loans to a local development company would be limited only by the number of small businesses to be assisted, and by the amount of its own funds which the local development company can inject into the project. These companies must have a financial interest in the project, he said.

The SBA regional director said there are about 3,200 local development companies across the country and that many of them are now in a position to participate in the SBA program to assist small firms and provide jobs.

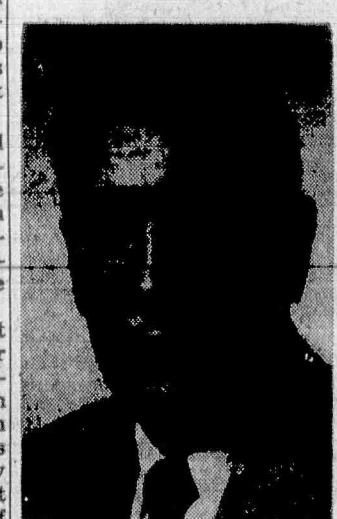

Loans to local development companies for shopping center projects may be made for a period not to exceed ten years with an allowance for construction conversion or expansion times and will be amortized generally on an equal monthly installment repayment basis. All or part of the loan may be prepaid at the borrowers discretion without penalty.

Interest charges on loans to local development companies under this program will be 5 1/2 per cent per annum for direct loans by the SBA. Where bank participation is involved, the rate of interest may be fixed by the bank. However, the interest on the Small Business Administration's share of the loan in such cases will not exceed 5 1/2 per cent, nor be less than 5 per cent per annum, "should the participating bank elect to charge a lower rate of interest."

Interest on these loans will be on a per annum basis on only the outstanding indebtedness payable at the time each installment repayment is due.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory peau de soie, featuring a bodice of alencon lace and seed pearls, scooped neckline and chapel train. Her elbow-length veil of ivory illusion was caught by a matching seed pearl crown. She carried a cascade of ivory gardenias.

Miss Angela Rose Cairoli was her sister's honor attendant. Bridesmaids were the Misses Jeannette Casadonte of Harrison, Carole Distasio and Ann Muller of Belleville and Carole Sisbarro of Nutley.

The maid of honor wore a street-length dress of violet peau de soie with a scooped neckline and bell-shaped skirt. Her hat was a bow of matching peau de soie and she carried a cascade of white carnations with a violet center. Bridesmaids were similarly attired. Their bouquets were all-white cascades of carnations.

R. James DePiro served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Ronald DePiro, another brother, Joseph Tartaglia of Newark, cousin of the bride, Ronald Bartoli of Maryland, and Gordon Galtere, Charles Reyoile and Roland Worthing, all of Belleville.

For the wedding, the mother of the bride chose a dress of beige lace over gold with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of green and gold cymbidium orchids. Barber Shop
Singers Slate
Annual Show

At a "show kick-off rehearsal" Tuesday evening, August 16, Thomas B. Maier, president of the Nutley Chapter, Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc., announced that the organization's third annual "Night of Harmony" show will be presented this year on Saturday, October 22, in Nutley High School.

Highlight of the rehearsal was the guest appearance of the "Antics," from Plainfield, one of three out-of-town barbershop quartets to be featured in the October show. The other featured quartets will be the "Oracles," from Baltimore, international semi-finalists, and the "O-Notes," from Livingston, Mid-Atlantic District semi-finalists.

Also appearing on the show will be Nutley's 35-man chorus, under the direction of Chuck Anthony, and the chapter's two registered quartets, the "Jersey Gents," 1960 Orange Mountain rules will be announced at the assembly. Congregation A A recently received accreditation for the third consecutive year from the Jewish Educational Association for its outstanding curriculum in Hebrew learning and high educational standards.

Plans are now ready for the construction of a new religious school building which will be completed early in the school year. Additional information pertaining to the Religious School of Congregation A A can be obtained from Rabbi Victor Cohen or Dr. S. Fischer, chairman of the board of education.

Area Champions, and the "Sunnysiders," third place winners in the area contest.

Mr. Maier also issued an invitation for prospective members to visit the chapter's regular meeting any Tuesday night at the Elks' Hall.

"We're always looking for new members," he said. "Barbershop harmony is natural music, much like folk music, which means that those who sing it don't have to be accomplished musicians. If a man can carry a tune without needing a bucket, he can learn to sing barbershop. And he'll have a barrel of fun in the bargain."

What Every Teacher Knows About Your Child

(In releases to The Times this week, Superintendent Eyan Thomas included the following message to parents concerned about their children's behavior and what the school can do to help.)

The average elementary teacher, during a 30-year career, will live with, work with, and love more than 1,000 children. How many parents can claim that amount of experience? Even before they start their teaching careers, teachers receive extensive training in child psychology. They learn to recognize the danger signals of potential delinquency. They learn that a reading difficulty may be the result of an emotional problem. . . and how to recognize a gifted child hiding behind a smoke screen of apathy. They learn what characteristics a child reveals at different age levels.

From their extensive knowledge of children — a combination of their practical experience and broad training — our teachers can offer the following practical pointers to parents:

IF YOU HAVE A 2 TO 5 YEAR OLD

Teachers can usually spot those youngsters who have had few opportunities to play with children their own age. Preschoolers who play with other children before school starts adjust more quickly to school life. If your child has had few chances to play with others, invite children to your home. . . or take him to parks and play grounds.

If your child is accustomed to being away from home and mother, he will find it much easier to adjust to school. Kindergarten and first-grade teachers suggest that you leave him with friends or relatives occasionally, before school starts — for several hours, a whole day, or overnight. Leaving home to go to school will come as a pleasant experience rather than a psychological shock.

IF YOU HAVE A 6 TO 10 YEAR OLD

Teachers know that parents can increase their child's mental alertness, during the early elementary school years. You can do this by exposing your child to a rich variety of family activities. Take him on trips, to children's plays and concerts. Expose him to good art, surround him with many books and magazines.

Do not compare his behavior or school work with that of his classmates or his brothers and sisters. Children develop at different rates of speed. Each has his own rate of growth and maturity. Your child may be a slow developer. Look for ways to help and encourage him.

IF YOU HAVE AN 11 TO 17 YEAR OLD

Students in junior high school want to know the "why" of what they are learning. Teachers advise parents to encourage family discussions on a variety of topics and to make a point of tracking down the facts behind general statements. Your youngster will enjoy airing his opinions, and he will be learning to think critically, and to check facts.

Teen-agers often discuss their life plans with teachers and friends, rather than with parents.

General Information About Grade Schools

Grade school pupils in Belleville public schools, including kindergarten through the eighth grade, are to report to school between 8:40 and 8:55 a.m. next Thursday. The 8:55 a.m. time is the latest pupils are to be in the rooms to which they are assigned.

The grade school will be dismissed for lunch hour at 11:30 and the afternoon session begins at 12:40 and ends at 3:15.

Don't feel left out and resentful if this happens to you. Visit your youngster's teachers and counselors, and find out how you can help him make these important decisions. Turning to outsiders for advice is normal at these ages.

CEREBRAL PALSY

Sessions for classes at the Cerebral Palsy Center at 7 Sanford Avenue begin at 9 o'clock. The board of education will provide transportation to Belleville children enrolled in all special classes.

KINDERGARTEN

For the first two days of school, kindergarten children will attend for only a one-hour session. This is a continuation of a practice begun in 1953 of short sessions so kindergarten children might make the transition from home to school with the least amount of emotional disturbance.

Similar kindergarten orientation programs are to be found in most of the schools in this area. The cooperation of parents of kindergarten children is requested. Mothers are urged to call for their children who are attending the morning session at 10 a.m., and for those who are attending the afternoon session at 1:45 p.m. Any details regarding this plan will be cleared up by contacting the respective principals.

The school session for special classes, slow learning children, will again be continuous one from 9 o'clock; the board of education has approved an early closing of the school day for these pupils. Special class children will be dismissed from the James G. Shaw School at 2:30 p.m. daily. According to previous practice the board of education provides bus transportation to children enrolled in these classes.

A state-approved school psychologist, employed by our board, has as one of his important duties the conferring with teachers and supervisors in screening special class children and overseeing necessary testing services.

MINIMUM AGE

Children who are five years old, or will be five years old on or before December 31, 1960, may be admitted to kindergarten in September 1960. Children who are six years old, or will be six years old on or before December 31, 1960, may be admitted to the first grade in September 1960.

The board of education wishes to state that there will be no deviation from this policy which has been in force 20 years.

Principals, Teachers To Meet Wednesday

A conference of principals and a general teachers' meeting will be held Wednesday, September 7 in preparation of the opening day of school a week from today.

Wednesday's conference will be held in the superintendent's office and the session will be followed by the general teachers' meeting in the school eight auditorium.

The conference for principals will begin at 10 o'clock. The general teachers' meeting will start at 11 o'clock and will be attended by principals and supervisors in addition to all teachers. Frank Orechio, publisher of The Belleville Times, will talk on "Public Relations and the Schools" at the 11 o'clock session.

Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock faculty meetings will be conducted by school principals in their respective school buildings.

supervisors, Tuesday's program is being sponsored by the board of education and is designed to "acquaint new teachers with Belleville's community life, schools, teaching methods, instructional services and administrative, supervisory and teacher personnel.

Evan Thomas, superintendent, notes that Belleville is employing 25 new teachers this year out of a total faculty staff of 252 members. "We are fortunate that we have been able to fill each of our vacancies this year with personnel whose professional training fully meets the standard requirements of the state board of education," Thomas told this newspaper.

Tuesday's program will get underway at 9:45 a.m. in the school seven multipurpose room with a welcome, introductions and statement of purposes by Thomas.

Next will follow a panel presentation on the subjects, "Teacher and Principal," "Teacher and Supervisor," "Teacher and Special Instruction," "Teacher and Resources," "Teacher and the Business Of

Parents: Don't Overlook Value of Kindergarten

Evan Thomas, superintendent of Schools, cautions parents against overlooking the importance of kindergarten for their children. Each new year a few children who have not had the advantage of kindergarten are registered in first grade and make the adjustment to the full-day program only with the greatest difficulty.

He says that "to deny a child kindergarten advantages is not only unfair to one so unfortunate but it is also unfair to the rest of the children who attend kindergarten, since it requires of the teacher time to care for such an individual which normally could be spent on the whole group.

"To deny a child the advantage of kindergarten training places him at a distinct disadvantage. That it is unfair to a child is putting it mildly, for after all, parents will likely need to share, eventually, in the misfortune imposed on children by such negligence. It is enough to say here that it has been universally established by extensive educational experimentation and research that kindergarten training is fundamental to a child's progress in school and through life."

Most children were registered for kindergarten in the closing

Automation Not Cutting Hospital Fees to Patients

If machines alone could save a human life, if equipment could practice medicine, the cost of hospital care would be reduced an estimated 60 per cent.

But hospitals, administrators point out, are not susceptible to automation.

"Hospitals are personal service institutions," said J. Harold Johnston, executive director of the New Jersey Hospital Association.

"Machines have their place, of course, in certain hospital departments. But the fact remains that patients are cared for by people," he said, "and people mean payroll."

Throughout the United States, salaries and wages have accounted for the lion's share of the increase in hospital costs during the past decade. In many hospitals, payroll expense represents 70 per cent of the annual budget.

There are about 7,000 hospitals in the United States. Together, they spend about $6 billion a year. Why? One of the principal reasons is that they are required to pay an estimated 1,300,000 employees.

And even at that, the hourly wage for some of these employees is still barely over a dollar an hour.

This is a critical situation, and hospital officials know it. To meet the competition of industry and to maintain for their employees the moral standard of a decent living wage, hospitals must raise their salary scales. To recover that expenditure, they must also raise hospital rates.

This is the principal reasoning behind predictions that hospital care will become even more expensive in the years to come.

The threat which their low wage scales present to hospitals in their competition with industry is illustrated by the experience of a young hospital employee on the west coast.

In the summer of 1957, he was completing his third year at the hospital as a psychiatric and central supply attendant, a job requiring a certain amount of skill and training—like the large majority of hospital jobs. He was paid $245 a month.

Because, in his own words, "I simply couldn't make a go of it," he left the hospital for a job on an assembly line in an aircraft manufacturing plant. The job, he said, was totally unskilled but he drew $500 a month, with his overtime.

The problem which hospitals face in attempting to raise their salary levels is further complicated by the large number of employees which a hospital must hire.

At least two employees are required for each patient, principally because a hospital must maintain three full shifts to carry it through every 24-hour period.

Theoretically, even an empty hospital must be completely staffed. Emergency, delivery and operating rooms must be ready at a moment's notice. So must the X-ray and laboratory departments. Because hospitals work on a seven-day and not a five-day week, relief employees must be hired to fill the gaps left by days off, vacations, holidays and sick-leave.

Someone once said that a hospital, to the patient in it, is like an iceberg. About two-thirds of it is "under-water."

"Whereas, Their performance placed them in the top teams of National League Teams across the country, and

"Whereas, in winning these championships they have brought honor to Belleville and are a credit to their leaders, coaches and parents, Therefore

Scots Clans Set For Labor Day 'Annual Games'

The Scottish Games of New Jersey Association will hold its Annual Games at the Danish Homes, Amboy Avenue, Metuchen, on Labor Day, September 5.

Game start at 10 a.m. and feature Highland Dancing, Bagpipe events. The best pipers and dancers in the United States and Canada are expected to compete. The bands will compete for the William Nimmo and Malcolm Forbes trophies. The Massed Bands will parade on the sports field at 4 p.m. and is a sight worth going miles to see.

Sports events will be open to anyone wishing to compete and include 100-yard dash, high jump, broad jump, shot put, Tossing the Caber and Six-a-Side soccer. Also events for the ladies and children.

Danish Homes is well shaded, with plenty of seats and tables for picnic parties.

What he meant was that the patient never sees a major portion of the hospital, or the people who work there. That's why he doesn't realize that, like all other hospital departments, the pharmacy, the laboratories, the kitchen, the supply room, the maintenance department, the laundry, the sterilizing room and the housekeeping department, to mention just a few, must operate continuously.

Hospital officials point to these other considerations. The development of nearly every new piece of medical or scientific equipment has meant the hiring of trained personnel to operate it.

Inflation, the continuing rise in the cost of living and World War II, which created the well-paid female employee, has affected the hospital's concept of the dollar as well as that of industry.

In 1900, the average hospital stay was 40 days. Today, it is 7.8 days. This is fine for the patient but expensive for the hospital. Most of the intensive and relatively costly tests and procedures required for diagnosis of new patients are carried out within the first few days of admittance. The rapid turnover of patients has demanded of hospitals a bold intensification of their services, and more employees is a natural consequence.

Said Mr. Johnston: "It seems to us that hospital care today, at current costs, is one of the greatest bargains available anywhere. The cost of hospital care is indeed higher than ever before. But we believe that the cost of 'living' is worth it."

Dwarfed Dukes Down Alviks 13-6 Before 7,000 in Belleville Stadium

BY JOHN BASILE

Belleville - Nutley Iron Dukes whipped the Jersey Alviks 13-6 Saturday night at Belleville Municipal Stadium before an enthusiastic crowd of over 7,000 rabid fans on the hot, humid summer evening.

The win concluded the Dukes' exhibition slate with three consecutive triumphs in as many starts. The outright fray was the first "pro" night game played in Essex County in 21 years and the surprising attendance might indicate that local fans would pack the stadium if the Belleville High football team would play a couple of contests a year under the stars.

The game itself, despite the apparent closeness of the score, was another exercise for the Dukes' powerful ground game as taught by coach Peter Spera and paced by his chief aide Q. B. Frank Puleo, master of the adroit "fake." The Belleville-Nutley entry rolled up 19 first downs (17 in rushing) to the opponents' 10. The Dukes won by controlling two departments of play, i.e., ball - control (a 57-37 edge in plays) and their tempers, in a bitterly fought embroglio.

MUNFORD TALLIES

Chuck Munford, who scored both touchdowns, and Dick Bartolozzi, Iron Duke fullbacks, led the assault on the much heavier Alvik defenses by rolling up 117 and 55 yards, respectively. As a team, the Dukes moved 293 yards, and all but 26 came on the ground as compared to the Alviks 136, all but 19 in the first half.

Although outweighed on defense by 50 pounds per man and on offense by 10 pounds, the Dukes, all heart, were never out-gamed, as exemplified by line-backers, Carol Borino, Tom Appicella, and Baby Owens, all of whom were temporarily rendered non-combatant. All three will start against the Franklin Miners, however, and appear to be none the worse for wear.

The Dukes returned the second-half kickoff to their own 34. Babe Conforti juggled the ball to a first down before Borino punted short to the Duke 48. Three plays later Bob Shotwell recovered an Alvik bobble at midfield and the Dukes were off to the clincher. Chuck bucked for three and after Puleo gained nothing on the keep, Conforti swept end for a first down on the Jersey 38.

Following an offside call against the Dukes Frank Barnes reversed for 6 and C. Munford drove for three more to the 34 and then came the key play of the game.

HOTTEST PLAY

A ponderous Alvik lineman was detected committing a personal foul against Conforti. This so enraged the hot tempered Alviks that personal vindictives and abusive language were directed TOUCHDOWN DRIVE, Chuck Munford (arrow) carries ball for Iron Dukes Saturday as the Belleville-Nutley team begins a 50-yard-drive for a touchdown.

Here Chuck is on his way to a 14-yard game midway through the third period when he was brought down on the Alvik's 34-yard-marker. The two huge

Alvik players in white uniforms (left-center) were in Chuck's way -- so he jumped over them! They are 250-pound Charles Santaramita (70) and 290-pound against the officials to the extent that an unsportsmanlike call was tagged onto the previous penalty. This gave the Dukes a golden opportunity with a first down on the nine. Chuck Munford drove to six; and his brother Don carried to the three, before Chuck roared over standing up into the end zone for the clincher. Bob Marcy then cleanly converted to make the final count, 13-6.

There still remained a lot of rough, tough football for the fans to savor before the final whistle sounded. Barnes kicked off to the Alviks and a few plays later they punted out on the Dukes' six. Tony Addeo then picked up eight yards as the third quarter ended.

Staying exclusively on the ground, the Dukes drove 63 yards in 16 plays eating up the clock to a first down on the Alvik 28-yard-stripe. Constantly alternating his backs to keep them fresh, Pete Spera piled on the pressure, as Addeo, Bartolozzi, the Munfords, and Ron Gaspirinette, all carried for short yardage.

PENALTIES

After Don Munford carried to the 23; the Duke drive fizzled, as they were penalized five yards for an offside, and two Puleo passes were incomplete, before 290-pound Zella George tossed to Frank for a four-yard loss on the 32.

Three plays later the Dukes appeared to have stymied their foe as Judge was driven back to the 18. But an Iron Duke was found guilty of a personal foul and gave the Alviks new life and a first down on their own 45 marker.

Two plays later Judge passed to Bill Malachi for a first down on the Duke 33. Scrappy Judge dropped back to pass, was trapped, but eluded his pursuers and appeared to have an opening on the right sideline, before Owens came from nowhere minus his helmet and met him headon at the 29 to save the game.

Two incomplete passes followed before Bob Castelli dropped Judge for a four-yard loss and the ball went over on downs. The Dukes were moving under a full head of steam as the final whistle sounded just as the safety man stopped Bartolozzi on the Alvik 43 with a desperation tackle.

FIRST TOUCHDOWN

The Dukes drew first blood in the first period when a fourth down bad pass from center was recovered by the center of the Duke line on the Iron Duke 40. Two plays brought the score. Puleo passed to Marcy for five, before Chuck Munford took Frank's pitchout and sped around right end to the Alvik 25, where Brother Don threw the key block on the Jersey safety man to spring Chuck loose for the score. The romp measured 55 yards, Marcy's placement was low for a 6-0 lead.

The Alviks took the kickoff on their own 30 and drove 75 yards to tie the score in 10 plays with Ernie Barrett cross-bucking over from two yards out. The key gainer was a 20-yard pass from Such to Cutro from punt formation on the fourth down.

The Dukes threatened in the second period before Jim Thompson intercepted Puleo's pass on the Alvik five as the first half ended.

Franklin Miners Will Play Here Sunday, Sept. 11

The Belleville - Nutley Iron Dukes will launch the 1960 Eastern Football Conference Season with a bang as they meet the fabulous Franklin Miners Sunday afternoon, September 11 at Belleville Municipal Stadium. The kickoff is set for 2 p.m.

This game could well settle the conference race before it even starts; the Miners are loaded as usual with exceptional talent. This is the 27th consecutive season for the Sussex County eleven and their winning percentage is an impressive .750.

Over the last seven seasons, the Miners have lost only 11 times and they feature a devastating T-quarterback. The Miners have strong passers including Neak Buckman, ex-University of Alabama star and Philadelphia Eagle chattel who threw five TD passes in the Miners' 49-0 rout of the previously unbeaten Union County All Stars Saturday night.

Buckman's favorite target is six-foot, 175-pound halfback Rufas Chatman, ex-Westwood High speedster, who runs the 100 in under 10 seconds. They are anchored by big tough offensive and defensive lines. Steve Van Buren, all NFL fullback with the Philadelphia Eagles and All-American for Louisiana State is their successful head coach.

DUKES UNDERDOGS

Both squads sport unbeaten (3-0) exhibition records but the Dukes are the underdogs in this fray as they will again be outweighed and have less game experience than the Miners.

Fans can look for Pete Spera to pull something out of the hat surprising the Miners. A victory for the Iron Dukes is not impossible, however, and would start off the 1960 season in fine style extending the stadium winning string to 12 without a defeat.

Spera has also added a fine "broth of a boy" in "Irish Doug" McCarthy, six-foot, three inches, 270-pound guard and ex-Immaculate Conception griddler from Verona, should add more beef to the defensive platoon to help 250-pound Dom Pomponio.

"In fact," she added, "a home purchased in the Summer allows the purchaser to fully see every bit of foliage that might be invisible in Winter."

The board, composed of more than 50 realtors, agrees that this season is excellent for viewing properties. However, Howell S. Cogan, board president, offered

Air Force Awards Research Contract to Kidde

A contract to cover study and feasibility testing of an integrated, cryogenic fueled power system incorporating secondary power, reaction control, and environmental control systems has been awarded the Kidde Aero-Space Division of Walter Kidde & Company, Inc. of Belleville by Wright Air Development Division, U.S.A.F.

This eighteen month Kidde program will consist of two phases covering generalized study, design and development of a breadboard model cryogenic power system to supply secondary power, equipment environmental cooling, crew compartment environmental cooling and reaction control for use on orbiting re-entry type manned vehicles of the Air Force.

Phase one, the parametric study, will begin by defining, with WADD, representative vehicle and environmental requirements in order to establish the boundaries of this study. Requirements will be established for all subsystems to be considered for integration, including secondary power, environmental control, and reaction control. A detailed analysis will be made to establish the optimum integrated system. Study and feasibility testing by Kidde will be conducted in the following areas: secondary power, tankage, equipment and crew environmental control, reaction control, and integrated overall system control.

Following the study and feasibility testing of the sub-systems
