Padula Says Plan Board Valuable; Slaps Critics

Mayor Isadore J. Padula of Belleville this week expressed the opinion that the newly organized town planning board is doing an exceptionally good job.

"Belleville surprised the planning experts with the speed in which it received confirmation of its request for aid from the state and federal governments for the development of a master plan," Padula said.

The mayor's complete statement follows:

"It is not my usual practice as mayor of Belleville to take notice of every malicious rumor that may be circulated, or to challenge ill-advised individuals who might choose to criticize the board of commissioners or their aides. No public official or employee is above being criticized. His or her main concern is to make certain the criticism is not justified.

"However, since I consider government a business and not a hobby, with town hall the central office, I cannot remain silent when facts are so distorted as to give the public in general the impression that my colleagues and I are indifferent to the needs of the citizens of Belleville and of the business and professional people who choose to locate in the town. I realize that at times confusion is created in order that some restive people may gain the attention of the public. Attention which could not otherwise be had in a calm, thoughtful atmosphere. The criticism of our newly created planning board is a case in point.

"For as many years as I have lived in Belleville the preferred theme of the critics of town management was that Belleville

Belleville Iron Dukes To Open Grid Season With Franklin Sunday

The opening Eastern Football Conference battle between the fabulous Franklin Miners and the Belleville-Nutley Iron Dukes will take place Sunday afternoon at the Belleville Municipal Stadium. Kickoff is set for 2 o'clock.

Both grid titans are unbeaten in exhibition play and their clash looms as a "natural" with the winner emerging as the favorite to win the Eastern Football Conference Crown.

The Miners (4-0) defeated Lodi 13-6, Paterson 19-0, Union County 49-0 and Mt. Vernon 21-14. The Iron Dukes (3-0) stopped Mt. Vernon 14-0, Stratford 34-0 and the Jersey Alviks 13-6.

The Franklin entry is a rough, tough, veteran outfit starting its 27th consecutive season. They have compiled an amazing won and lost percentage of over .750.

The Iron Dukes unlike the Miners are a neophyte in pro ranks but have compiled an even more impressive record over a much shorter period. They are on the crest of a nine-game win streak (the last six in '59) and the overall record is 14-1. The Dukes have won all 11 previous contests at municipal stadium.

Against the only mutual opponent, the Mount Vernon Eagles, the Dukes won 14-0 while Franklin was only able to eke out a 21-14 victory. However on the basis of the Miners' greater experience, they must rate a solid seven point choice to beat the Iron Dukes.

Franklin features a "pro" type offense with "rabbit-like" Rufus Chatman in the slot-back spot. Neal Buckman, ex-Alabama star, is the T-quarterback and is a deadly passer as well as a superb ball-handler. His play calling leaves nothing to be desired. Willie Bethea at left half and Bob Walsh (Lyndhurst, at right half are both hard runner and are exceptionally fast.

The ends Walt DuVall (6'3") and Warren Allen (6'2") are fast and have great hands. Tackles Lew Schultz (245) and Joe Jackson (240) are extremely mobile for big men. Jan Caprino (225) and Bob Edwards (200), the starting guards are terrific blockers. At center John Zitter (200) has proved to be so fierce and rugged that he has pushed big Richie Walsh (6'5", 225 lbs.) ex-Notre Damer to the bench.

Gruhin Wants Washington Ave. Paved this Year

Public Works Commissioner Robert Gruhin this week reported he's going to meet with New Jersey State Road Department representatives about a promise to pave Washington Avenue through town.

If the state goes through with its pledge made earlier in the year to pave the artery, it will be the first time in 20 years that Washington Avenue will have undergone a major resurfacing.

Gruhin is hoping the state will complete the job before the end of 1960. The state has indicated it will pave a two-mile stretch from Newark to Nutley.

Meanwhile, Gruhin is rushing through a local project which will require some tearing up of the road to install 12-inch water mains along the westerly side of Washington Avenue.

The new mains will be constructed between Rossmore Place to the Nutley line.

Gruhin says he wants to "get

Advisory Group Will Meet Sept. 21

The citizens committee working with the Belleville Board of Education in developing a long-range school program met Tuesday night, elected temporary chairmen and heard Dr. Felix McCormick of Columbia University talk on educational planning. Dr. McCormick is being hired as the educational consultant to the local school board.

Members of the overall committee Tuesday broke down into one of six committees: school site, selection of architect, public relations, curriculum planning, financing the program and community use.

Evan Thomas, superintendent of Belleville schools, explained the functions of each subcommittee, all of which conducted brief meetings in separate rooms Tuesday to elect temporary chairmen.

The group's next meeting is set for September 21 at 7:30 p.m. in school eight and thereafter the citizens committee will meet on the first and third Wednesdays of the month.

LISTS STEPS

Dr. McCormick, who participated in the survey made of Belleville schools by Columbia University 10 years ago, outlined the necessary steps before a new senior high school can be constructed.

Thomas introduced Dr. McCormick to the group with the comment that the Columbia scholar "is coming here to work objectively on the program. He has no axe to grind in Belleville."

But in opening his remarks, Dr. McCormick said, "I'm sorry to contradict Mr. Thomas but I do have an axe to grind and my axe is that I believe in good education."

WHAT'S EDUCATION?

Dr. McCormick defined good education as one permitting "the discovery of the talents of individuals and then to develop the talents of these individuals to the maximum."

He listed a dozen steps associated with planning and completing a school program as follows: (1) study the long range needs of the town as far as education is concerned; (2) plan the

Red Cross Volunteers Drove 266 Free Hours

The summer's over—and while most folks were away swimming, fishing or merely loafing in the back yard, a total of 266 hours of service was contributed by volunteers of the Red Cross Motor Service in Belleville.

The group of 12 including both men and women made trips to eight hospital clinics, the Kessler Institute in West Orange, doctors' offices, the East Orange Veterans Hospital and carried precious blood to out-of-county institutions.

Motor service drivers include housewives, businessmen, retired adults, vacationing college students and many others. All are serving for the single reason of providing transportation to those in need of it.

"We are not a taxi service," one driver told The Times, "but we make every effort to transport patients who cannot otherwise get to the hospitals, doctors' offices and health centers for needed treatments."

Effective next week, something new will be introduced to the map page contest conducted weekly in The Belleville Times.

Instead of choosing the weekly winner "out of a hat," an element of skill is being added with form of a game.

The new method will work this way: each week a photographer will photograph a group of two or more people somewhere in Belleville. One of the faces in the photograph will be circled—as was done in the picture to the right.

The one who first sends in the correct name of the person circled and correctly identifies where the picture was taken will receive $5.

Entries in the contest must be made by mail or in person at the office of The Times, 246 Washington Avenue. Telephone notice is unacceptable. In all cases, decisions by The Times shall be final.

The person whose resemblance is circled also will be awarded $5.

As a starter, the person singled out in the photo above is asked to come to the office of this newspaper and receive a free one year subscription to The Times. Identities of the person and place are not wanted this week. The new game starts with the picture to be printed on the map page next week.

Rockefeller To Campaign In Essex County Tomorrow For Nixon-Lodge Ticket

TRENTON—New York Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller will arrive in downtown Newark at noon tomorrow to launch a North Jersey campaign tour which will include two major appearances in Essex County.

The Essex visits will be part of an all-day swing by the popular New York governor opening the state Republican campaign and also starting his nation-wide series of tours on behalf of the Nixon-Lodge ticket.

Rockefeller will arrive in downtown Newark in a motorcade along Broad Street from Newark Airport.

The Governor will formally open the "Nixon-Lodge Volunteers of New Jersey" state headquarters at 728 Broad Street at 12:20 p.m. He and Newark Mayor Leo P. Carlin will cut a ribbon and then greet headquarters staff members.

The volunteers movement is patterned after the "Citizens for Eisenhower" groups in 1952 and 1956 and is designed to attract the independent voter.

If the weather permits, Rockefeller will make a brief address from a sidewalk platform in front of the headquarters.

Following the dedication ceremony, the governor will take a sidewalk tour to greet passersby on his way to the Robert Treat Hotel.

PRESS CONFERENCE

In the hotel ballroom, he and U.S. Sen. Clifford P. Case, seeking re-election, will hold a press conference at 1 p.m.

Rockefeller's second appearance of the day in Essex will be at an evening rally in Irvington, where he is scheduled to make the major address of his tour.

Essex GOP Chairman Robert Winthrop Keen announced that Rockefeller will arrive in Irvington via the Garden State Parkway from an earlier appearance at the Bergen Mall shopping center in Paramus. He will be met by a brass band and delegation of dignitaries headed by Irvington Mayor William Lovell.

MOTORCADE

The motorcade then will proceed to the Irvington House on Springfield Avenue, where the open rally will begin at 8 p.m. Also, scheduled to make brief talks are: Rep. George M. Wallhauser (12th Dist.), Congressional candidates Alphonse A. Miele (10th Dist.), and Frank A. Palmieri (11th Dist.); Freeholder candidates Mrs. Peg Reitan, Rev. J. Vance McIver and Dominic Cundari; Supervisor aspirant Bayard Faulkner; Registrar candidate Anthony Guiliano and Mrs. Abbie Magee, candidate for County Clerk.

Rockefeller will be introduced by Senator Case, who will accompany him throughout the tour.

The other Rockefeller appearances during his New Jersey tour will include a motorcade through Passaic and Clifton to the Alexander Hamilton Hotel in Paterson where he and Case will attend a meeting for Walter P. Kennedy, Congressional candidate from the Eighth District.

N. J. Governor Inspects Troops At Camp Drum

CAMP DRUM, N. Y.—Following an inspection tour of training activities by Governor and Mrs. Robert B. Meyner, the New Jersey Army National Guard's 50th Armored Division began to displace from field positions to locations nearer the cantonment area to prepare for the long road march to home stations.

The actual move to "close in" locations commenced on Wednesday morning.

The movement out of Camp Drum got underway at 8 a.m. Thursday with departure of the Support Detachment Convoy. This convoy consists of elements to be dropped off along the way at Utica, Amsterdam and Kingston, N. Y., and at Mahwah, N. J., to furnish rest, meals, refueling and maintenance facilities to the main body convoys en route to the Garden State.

The main body movement begins at 6 p.m. Thursday night when the 50th Armored Division Trains, commanded by Colonel Edward B. Thorpe, of Trenton, hits the road. At 8 p.m., 50th Armored Division Artillery, commanded by Brigadier General Walter D. Lamon, Jr., of Riverton, heads south. Both Trains and Division Artillery travel all night and reach home stations Friday.

Friday morning departures include Combat Command "A," commanded by Colonel William C. Doyle, of Burlington, at 6:15 a.m., Combat Command "B," commanded by Colonel William C. McCall, of West Allentown, at 6:30 a.m., and Combat Command "C," commanded by Lieutenant Colonel George H. Davis, of East Orange, at 9 a.m. With the departure of the rear detachment at 4 p.m., the Division's 13th consecutive annual tour of duty at Camp Drum will be concluded.

Aircraft from the Division's 150th Aviation Company, commanded by Captain James B. Kelly, of Staten Island, N. Y., will assist Major General Edward O. Wolf, the Division Commander, in the control of the homebound convoys involving more than 2,000 vehicles moving along the two major routes.

The West Route leads from Camp Drum via N. Y. Route 11 and Syracuse to Cortland, N. Y., and then to the Pennsylvania Turnpike and into the Camden area.

The East Route, which is used by four of the five major commands, takes the "Jersey Blues" down the Military Highway to Louisville, south on N. Y. Route 12 to the New York Thruway entrance at Utica via the Arterial Road which bypasses the heavy-traffic intersections of that city.

The units will use the Garden State Parkway, New Jersey Turnpike and New Jersey Routes 1, 9, 4, 27, 46 and 202 after leaving the New York Thruway.

The South Jersey units will have a trip of approximately 420 miles to home stations.

defense which yielded only six points in their first three exhibitions, may be hard pressed to stop the Miners. The Dukes are anchored at the flanks by Bob Castelli and Sam Dougan. Bob Shottwell and the tremendous 250-pound Dom Pomponio are at tackle.

Doug Augenbaugh at middle-guard is a particularly mean and vicious tackler. The linebackers are second to none in this league and include Carl Borino, Tom Appicella and Babe Owens. Don Munford and John Pucciarelli are the halfbacks, while John Panico gets the nod at safety. Irish Doug McCarthy (270) should also see plenty of action.

The Franklin defensive platoon is no less impressive. The ends, Stan Derry and Don Wernes (North Arlington) are both solid 200-pounders.

Tackles Bob Klang (240) and Stan Stoltz (280) are virtually immovable. Vic Schwartz (200) from the University of Maryland is the middle guard and a crushing tackler. The linebackers Drew Darrah, Dave DeLea and 235-lb. Tom Gunderman are very agile. The halfbacks Pat DeLuria and Frank Bell are both very fast.

Safetyman Gene Conquy was a track star for Newton High School. Al Tatka (280) who plays both offensive and defensive tackle is sure to make an impression on the fans.

The Iron Dukes feature an amazing, old-fashioned, grind-em-out, running game led by All-Stater and High School All-American, Chuck Munford from East Orange, at fullback. Despite the great running of Babe Conforti in the past three games, he'll not start against the Miners.

Last year's scoring leader and State Nittany Lion, Dick Bartolazzi will be at left half, with the team's fastest man Tony Addeo at right half. Frank Puleo, a great ball-handler, will start once again at QB.

The offensive line of Mayers, Spertuto, Pat McCabe, Easterday, Bothyl and Marcy has been complemented by the addition of LeRoy Revis at right tackle.

Padala's Statement

needed a planning board. Nothing could be right until a planning board was put into operation. Each time such a board was considered some alert person would scuttle the effort. Finally, by dint of hard work, I managed, with the aid of my fellow commissioners to establish a planning board according to the specifications set forth in the state law governing municipal planning boards.

"Since its first meeting on December 4, 1959, the Belleville Planning Board has met regularly twice a month, and during the time it was negotiating for aid in connection with a master plan the meetings were held every week. The members of the board visited other communities and consulted with officials from the State Department of Conservation and Economic Development. At present an expert in the field of municipal planning is advisor to the board. Belleville surprised the experts with the speed in which it received confirmation of its request for aid from the state and federal government for the development of a master plan.

"Those who are familiar with the organization and functions of a municipal planning board know that there must be a master plan drawn before any major projects are undertaken. They also know that a master plan is not something that can be hashed out overnight by amateurs, however, well intended. A master plan takes time, patience and expert guidance if it is to be of any service in the development or redevelopment of a municipality.

"The idea that Belleville cannot wait until its master plan is properly drawn like all other communities have waited is foolish, and those who propose such an idea know it to be foolish.

"Belleville is not the only community in Essex County undergoing redevelopment. Newark is deep in the process, the architectural advisory group to the East Orange Planning Board is hard at work trying to coordinate types of design for the city's redeveloped commercial center. Orange's planning board is working on plans to correct business deterioration in the valley section of that city.

"Other communities that have had master plans for years are moving slowly in order to make the kind of changes in their municipal set up that will last. Belleville must also move with care. It's governing body must not be pressured into doing quick jobs which will only become new sources of criticism in a few years and used by the same critics who urge haste now.

"The planning board and the board of commissioners are aware of the needs of Belleville. Even more so than any outsider.

These needs will be met as they should be for the best interest of every one involved," the mayor's statement concluded.

New York National Guard in 1930. He entered active duty in May, 1942, and was commissioned a second lieutenant on completion of Officer Candidate School at Fort Benning eight months later.

He served as an Infantry company officer in the 22nd Infantry, Fourth Infantry Division in England, France, Luxembourg and Germany from May, 1944, to June, 1945. Following assignments in Rheims, France and Bad Nauheim, Germany, he was named executive officer to the chief of the Army Exchange Service, Bad Nauheim, in March, 1946.

Col. Schneider transferred to the Adjutant General Corps in November, 1947.

In January, 1948, he began an 18-month tour at Headquarters, Fourth U.S. Army, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, serving in the G-1 (Personnel) and Adjutant General Sections. After graduating from the officers advanced class at the Adjutant General School, Fort Lee, Va., Col. Schneider remained at the school as an instructor and moved with the institution to Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., in 1951 as director of the Stenography Department.

He was adjutant general of Headquarters, Allied Forces Southeastern Europe, Izmir, Turkey, from September, 1952, to September, 1954, when he went to Headquarters, Sixth U.S. Army at the Presidio of San Francisco, Calif., to serve successively as senior to then Lt. Gen. W. G. Wyman, commanding general of Sixth Army; chief of the Plans and Services Division, G-1 Section, and secretary of the General Staff.

From May, 1957, until going to Korea, Col. Schneider was at Fort Riley, Kan., as adjutant general of the First Infantry Division and Fort Riley.

type of curriculum which will best serve the needs of today's students; (3) select an architect; (4) determine the cost of the project based on preliminary sketches provided by the architect, then decide how the project will be financed; (5) next the people must vote the project approval on a referendum. "This thing gets to be quite complicated," Dr. McCormick commented.

The sixth step concerns the approving of preliminary plans of the new building then (7) the assembling of an equipment list telling the needed furnishings for the new building; (8) approval of the final drawings and specifications as drawn up by the architect;

(9) the advertising and awarding of bids to contractors; (10) the awarding of contracts; (11) inspecting the work as it progresses on the new school, changing your mind about minor points and (12) the final inspection of the new school plant.

Summarizing the role of an educational consultant, Dr. McCormick said it is, in short, to translate the educational specifications as decided by the school board into terms which can be understood by the architect.

Thomas again noted that "not since 1927 when school 10 was completed has Belleville undertaken a major school improvement program." The superintendent said "it is a tribute to our teaching staff that we've been able to have the kind of education we had the past 30 years in Belleville."

"Thirty years ago people thought that if you had eight classrooms and an auditorium that you were in the elementary school business. . . . Thanks to Sputnik a few years back, we've made tremendous progress in education," Thomas told the citizens committee.

He noted that both the Rutgers and Columbia surveys of the local school system "agree on the basic recommendation that Belleville's educational plant is obsolescent and has to be improved."

LIST CHAIRMEN
Permanent chairmen of the citizens committee and the various sub-committees will probably be selected at the September 21 session. Tuesday night the sub-committees elected temporary officers.

John DiRienzo and Calvin Peck are the temporary chairman and vice-chairman of the site committee. School board member Richard Drake and assistant superintendent of schools Harold A. Dufford will also serve on this committee.

James LaMotta is temporary head of the committee assisting with the selection of an architect. Secretary is Mrs. Milton Edwards and Dominick Lally, board of education member, and Mr. Thomas will serve on the group.

Allan Crisp and Jean Verbank are the chairman and vice-chairman, respectively, of the public relations sub-committee. Beverly Apper is secretary of this section which will be represented by board of education member Ernest Arvidson. Seymour Grossman, school seven principal, will also serve on the public relations committee.

The curriculum planning committee named Ralph Rosele as the temporary chairman while Manuel Hernandez is vice-chairman and Dorothy Axtell, secretary. Nicholas Juliano of the school board and Dr. Frank M. Durkee, assistant superintendent for instruction and curriculum, will serve on the group.

Albert L. Beers is the temporary chairman of the committee studying methods of financing the school program. Mrs. Christopher O'Halloran is the secretary. Others on this sub-committee include Michael Albertine of the school board, Mrs. Mary Shadler, school board secretary, and Francis McCoy, town treasurer.

Finally, the sub-committee which will make suggestions to the planners toward compatibility of the school with community activities has not yet elected any officers. Catherine Haley is one member. Board of education representative to this sub-committee is Dr. Frank DiRugiero. Also serving on the group will be Herman B. Wische, director of physical education and athletics.

NO CONTRACT

The contract hiring Dr. McCormick as the school board's educational consultant for the project has not yet been signed, it was noted Tuesday.

A Challenge To Our Business Industrial, And Public Officials

A militant group of local businessmen recently removed from the "dead file" the incorporation papers of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce which bear the incorporation date of September 21, 1939, reorganized, and as a result next Wednesday night, September 14th, the Chamber will celebrate its 21st birthday at a Program Launching Dinner, to be held at the For-Hills Restaurant.

It is with much gratitude we salute the indefatigable efforts of these determined and enlightened businessmen. The fruits of their labors will benefit all of our citizens with resultant benefit to our business community. The current leadership of the Chamber of Commerce has earned the respect and support of our industrial and business leaders. Fighting the lethargy which grips our business community — battling the oft-heard negative cry of "what-again! they won't last a month." — this aggressive crowd which refuses to sell Belleville short has been meeting every week throughout the summer effectively putting together a Works Program which defies the imagination and challenges the community pride of every merchant, industrialist, and public official.

Occasionally one hears the comment, "Oh, there is no civic pride in Belleville. People just use the town as a bedroom but they go out of town to work and spend their money." This observation may apply to a few of our citizens — but regardless of the number of people guilty of this accusation — your Belleville Chamber of Commerce plans to do something about it.

At next Wednesday night's dinner the Chamber is presenting speaking talent rarely heard on one program. Fifteen minute speeches will be delivered by H. Bruce Palmer, President of one of America's leading insurance companies, The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company; William J. Orchard, (Mr. Belleville), President of the Belleville Foundation and current Chairman of our United Fund Drive, and Senator Charles W. Sandman Jr., Chairman of the New Jersey Senate Labor and Industry Committee who will report to the assembly the status of labor bills pending before the New Jersey Legislature.

Belleville's own destiny as a first class community is directly linked to the success of a prosperous, progressive Chamber of Commerce. As a businessman and industrial leader you can contribute your share as a partner in the common cause by attending the dinner, thereby manifesting your support of the tireless efforts of your fellow merchant who is determined to "Make A Good Town Better."

If previous commitments prevent you from attending why not assign the pleasure to one of your associates? The nominal dinner cost of four dollars per person is certainly within the reach of every Belleville merchant, industrialist, and public official. And lest you be worried because "I don't know anyone in the Chamber," Harry French, capable Executive Director of the Chamber, dedicated citizen, enjoys the rare faculty of making one feel at home among strangers. Reservations can be made by phoning Mr. French at the Chamber office, PLymouth 9-4848. The Chamber extends a special invitation to the ladies of the house.

Rocco L. Constantino

Rocco L. Constantino is chairman and Director of Belleville's Transportation Committee, an unsalaried official appointed to the position by Commissioner Nunzio Pico.

Constantino last week issued a public statement with the full knowledge, consent, and endorsement of Commissioner Pico, applauding the Belleville Chamber of Commerce for its initiative in seeking a solution to the critical problem of round-town, in-town bus transportation so badly needed by our women shoppers.

What sets Constantino apart from some of our other public officials — elected and appointed? Let us compare public statements recently made by public officials. Of our transportation problem Constantino last week said, "the transportation problems in Belleville is one of the most urgent facing our town today. A quick solution to these problems is a must and I am sure that it will mean a better Belleville for all the citizens." Thus spoke Belleville's Transportation Chief.

One week earlier, Ralph Visco, chairman of the Belleville Planning Board, issued a public statement indicating it will take at least two years for the planners to complete their studies from which recommendations can be made to the Board of Commissioners, after which it is estimated another two years will be required to gain final approval of the Town Commission as required by law. Obviously there is no urgency indicated in Mr. Visco's statement. The entire Planning Board was appointed by Mayor Isadore Padula and Visco is considered a Padula spokesman.

Two weeks ago the Belleville Chamber of Commerce proposed consideration of an Inter-Town Transit Authority as a possible means of solving our transportation dilemma. How was this proposal received by various public officials? Well, let's look at the record. Transportation Director Constantino, upon learning of the Chamber's proposal said, "I congratulate the Belleville Chamber of Commerce on its initiative and I will cooperate to the fullest with the group in seeking ways to improve our transportation."

The only other public comment anent the Chamber's proposal for the creation of an Inter-Town Transit Authority came from one of Mayor Padula's more frequent spokesmen. This source took the Chamber of Commerce to task for its ambitious program, chastising the group for allegedly interfering with the orderly planning of our community by the Planning Board.

We compliment Mr. Constantino for his grasp of the problems which daily press upon our community and commend him for his sincere desire to cooperate with any Belleville group working for a better Belleville. Wish we had more of the Constantinos in Belleville's official family.

College Days Ahead

This is the time of year when millions of college students all over the country prepare to leave home and enter college for the first time, or return.

If we could offer any single piece of advice to youngsters entering college, or returning to college, it would be for them to develop a Christian philosophy and attempt to live by it. We are too rapidly becoming a "standardized" people in the United States.

Each young boy and girl should develop his own Christian philosophy, according to his religion and conscience, attempting to do good for others, as well as himself, and he should resist the temptation to follow the crowd, or conform socially, if it does not blend in with his or her own personal philosophy. In the long run, the world will reward independent thinking — although the cost may seem to be high.

Life will, even yet, reward the individual who thinks for himself and develops his own philosophy and character, and this is a major undertaking for every student going to school this Fall.

Baby's Life Saved

To the Editor:

We find it impossible to truly express our thanks and admiration of the Belleville policemen and the ambulance crew which so speedily came to our assistance on 25 August 1960.

Our five day old son just two hours out of the hospital turned blue and could not breathe. It was miraculous how fast both the police and ambulance responded after we called. They had the situation well in hand.

Realizing immediately that the baby was not responding to the emergency treatment they rushed him to the Clara Maass Hospital. Their judgment to speedy action saved our baby's life in all probability. All possible treatment was given the baby enroute to the hospital. Subsequent treatment at the hospital eventually induced normal breathing. We feel the care and attention given to our son is well worthy of praise and commendation.

Thank you gentlemen from the bottom of our hearts and God bless you always.

P.S. Baptism was administered by Father Affanosa from St. Anthony's R.C. Church immediately after the arrival of the baby at the hospital.

Week's Thought

BY HARRY H. DOUMA

Bible's Last Message

Throughout the Bible we have many subjects, but the theme of the whole is to explain how men may be brought back to God through His Son Jesus Christ.
And this is the message in its conclusion. Read this and take heed to its importance.

"I Jesus have sent mine Angel
To testify unto you these Things in the churches. I am
The root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star.

And the Spirit and the Bride say,
Come. And let Him that heareth say, come. And let Him that is thirsty come. And whosoever will.

Let Him take the water of life Freely.

Temple Menorah To Hold Services In New Temple

Temple Menorah will hold their first religious services in their new Sanctuary, 936 Broad Street, Bloomfield, tomorrow, September 9. Rabbi Nathan H. Fish, new spiritual leader at the Temple, will conduct the services.

Organized in June 1955 by a group of 54 member families,
Temple Menorah held their first Sabbath services in their present building on Friday, September 9, 1955. The first Religious School session, held on Sunday, September 11, 1955, showed an enrollment of 40 children.

With the growth of the congregation, which now numbers over 150 member families, the present facilities were found to be too small and inadequate. A successful building fund program, under the leadership of Albert Malick, then president of the Congregation, was inaugurated on March 17, 1959. Actual construction of the new Sanctuary, now ready to be occupied, was started during January, 1960.
Samuel Miller, now president of the Temple, was named chairman of the architect and building committee.

Affiliated activities with the Temple, are a Men's Club, Wom-

James C. Ellis Now in Training

James C. Ellis of 33 N. E. Street, is among a group of approximately 500 members of the Army Reserve who reported for 15 days of summer field training with the 50th Armored Division, New Jersey Army National Guard, at Camp Drum, in upstate New York.

Ellis has been assigned by the Division to "brush up" on his military skills as a member of Battery C Second Howitzer Battalion, 112th Artillery. This unit, like the rest of the 10,000-man 50th Armored Division, is spending the two-week period in the field under simulated combat conditions.

Major General Edward O. Wolf division commander, points out the importance of this refresher training. "This training," he explains, "is most essential, because it gives men who have been away from military service for some time, such as James Ellis, an opportunity to remain abreast of developments in their specialties. This program is of value to the men themselves, to the division with which they train, and it adds to the overall effectiveness of the Army's training objectives."

Leftover picnic frankfurters or sausages make an ideal topping for cups of hot green pea soup. Slice thin and float on top of soup.

New Jersey's Guardsmen On Way Home Following Field Training Period

CAMP DRUM, N. Y.—How big is an armored division's payroll and how much does it cost to feed nearly 9,000 hungry troops in a 15-day period?

This is what the adding machine tapes show with respect to New Jersey's 50th Armored Division now en route to home stations after a two-week field training period at this upstate New York military reservation.

The New Jersey Army National Guardsmen were paid Wednesday. Their payroll, according to Lieutenant Colonel Edwin Wooley of Trenton, amounts to $681,813.18 after taxes and deductions. The gross amount involved is over $850,000.

During the 15-day period, all of it spent in tactical field training areas this year, the "Jersey Blues" expended 8,590 rounds of 90mm tank ammunition, and 2,255 howitzer shells. It used 314,133 gallons of fuel and a total of 2,683 vehicles on this 107,000-acre reservation.

To feed the "Jersey Blues" three square meals a day cost $117,119.95.

Three Complete Summer Program at Academy

Three Belleville students were among the 65 others who recently completed an intensive six week program of summer study at Newark Academy. They are Linda and Alan Gaeta, children of Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Gaeta, 36 Clearman Place, and Gordon R. Schwerzmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schwerzmann of 76 Smallwood Avenue.

Miss Gaeta is a student at LaCordaire, her brother attends Newark Academy, and Schwerzmann attended school ten.

Special courses for advanced credit, as well as for review work, were offered in English, French, German, Spanish, Latin, physics, chemistry and biology, as well as elementary and intermediate algebra and plane geometry.

Eleven teachers, working with a maximum of five students in a class, and sometimes tutoring only one or two, reported the best academic success in the history of the eight-year-old summer session at Newark Academy.

YMCA Tells Its Fall Programs for Young Women

Mrs. Fritz von Bergen, chairman of the girls' program committee of the Montclair YMCA, has announced the fall series of activities for girls in grades 5-12 will begin during the week of September 19.

Present yearly members of the girls' division of the YMCA registered for swimming and gym classes until yesterday and now new members and summer members who wish to convert to a yearly membership may register up to September 16.

All fifth through eighth graders who attended Camp Sheree this summer may apply camp registration fee to a yearly membership and should register for classes by next Monday.

The YMCA will offer three 12-week and one eight-week series of swimming instruction classes for fifth-twelfth grade girls based on the National YMCA Aquatic Program during the coming school year and summer. Registration for swimming classes will be accepted on the basis of individual swimming skill.

All beginning swimmers in grades five-eight should register for the minnow class. Girls in grades nine-twelve who are non-swimmers may register for the new high school beginner's class which will be held on Thursday evenings from 7:15-8. Girls in grades five-twelve who are beyond the beginners stage and are uncertain as to their classification should call the "Y" now for an appointment to be classified either September 13 or 14 at 4 p.m.

In addition to swimming instruction classes, membership in the "Y" entitles girls to participate in a varied program of activities which include gymnastics, plunges, water ballet, swimming team, life saving, diving and social activities.

Girls who are interested in joining the "Y" may receive additional information by contacting the Women's and Girl's Division of the Montclair YMCA at 25 Park Street or by calling PL-grim 4-3400.

Visit Washington

Three Belleville Democrats, Miss Adela Madis and Mrs. Edward L. Wallock, were recent guests in Washington, D. C., of Congressman Peter W. Rodino Jr. Above left to right are Congressman Daniels of Jersey City, Mrs. Albertine, Miss Madis, Mrs. Wallock and Congressman Rodino. The visit was highlighted by a visit to the House of Representatives during which the Resolution, introduced by Congressman Rodino, providing for the establishment of the New Jersey Tercentenary Celebration Committee to formulate and implement plans to commemorate the 300th anniversary of the State of New Jersey, was passed. The Democratic nominee for president, Senator John F.

Kennedy, was introduced to them by the Congressman. A candid camera picture was taken by Senator Harrison A. Williams, of New Jersey, of Senator Kennedy and the visiting group. The final proofs of the picture proves that Senator Williams is a better Senator than a photographer. In the course of their visit they were honored to meet the following: Congressman Daniels of Jersey City, Congressman Friedel, of Baltimore, Congresswoman Gracie Plost, of Idaho, Congressman Rains, of Alabama, Congressman Daddario, of Connecticut and Senator Muskie, of Maine. "The visit was most enjoyable and highly informative," the group reports.

Small Businesses Can Borrow For Shopping Centers

Arthur E. Long, Regional Director of the Small Business Administration for this area, announced today that his agency has inaugurated a program of loans to local development companies for construction of shopping centers to be occupied exclusively by small businesses.

He said the loans would be construction conversion or expansion — including acquisition of land — for shopping centers. Mr. Long said he had received the following message from Mr. McCallum in Washington:

"We are pleased to announce a plan within our existing authority under which the Small Business Administration may be of assistance to small firms so that they can participate in shopping centers, which have been developing significantly across the country.

"The problem has been under study for many months and there have been conferences with bankers, small business owners and civic leaders. The Small Business Administration will welcome the participation of banks and other lending institutions in the financing. However, where private lenders are not in a position to participate, the Small Business Administration will make direct loans.

"A major deterrent to small business tenancy in shopping centers has been a requirement by financing organizations of a top financial rating for the tenants or a guaranteed lease by the small business firm seeking tenancy in the shopping center."

Mr. Long explained that under the program of his agency, loans up to $250,000 for each small business to be assisted may be made to local development companies for shopping centers. The number of loans to a local development company would be limited only by the number of small businesses to be assisted, and by the amount of its own funds which the local development company can inject into the project. These companies must have a financial interest in the project, he said.

The SBA regional director said there are about 3,200 local development companies across the country and that many of them are now in a position to participate in the SBA program to assist small firms and provide jobs.

Loans to local development companies for shopping center projects may be made for a period not to exceed ten years with an allowance for construction conversion or expansion times and will be amortized generally on an equal monthly installment repayment basis. All or part of the loan may be prepaid at the borrowers discretion without penalty.

Interest charges on loans to local development companies under this program will be 5 1/2 per cent per annum for direct loans by the SBA. Where bank participation is involved, the rate of interest may be fixed by the bank. However, the interest on the Small Business Administration's share of the loan in such cases will not exceed 5 1/2 per cent, nor be less than 5 per cent per annum, should the participating bank elect to charge a lower rate of interest.

Interest on these loans will be on a per annum basis on only the outstanding indebtedness payable at the time each installment repayment is due.

Wallace-Tiernan Wins Industrial Ball League Title

Industrial Softball League champion is the Wallace and Tiernan squad, which completed the schedule without a loss. Second place in the loop went to Federal Industries and Wilber Driver third.

Other league teams finished in this order: Pittsburgh Plate Glass, Walter Kidde, Local 301 and AWWPA.

Commissioner George F. Kiernan, director of parks and public property department which sponsored the league, today expressed his gratitude to the Essex County Park Commission for permitting the Belleville-Recreation Department to use the park softball diamonds.

PLAYOFF

The second place spot went to Federal Industries, but only after a playoff with Wilber Driver. The two squads were tied for second place after the second round of play. The one-game playoff match went to Federal.

Kiernan called attention to William Shirliff "for special credit." Shirliff has served as league treasurer many years and has been associated with the Belleville Industrial League since 1925.

"In addition to performing his duties as treasurer with excellence," Kiernan notes, "Bill is a frequent and enthusiastic spectator at the games."

Talignani Wins Sixth Ball Game

Larry Talignani won his sixth game of the season against two losses in the Essex County CYO Intermediate Baseball League when he beat Our Lady of Lourdes, West Orange, 5-0, for St. Peter's, Belleville.

The victory enabled St. Peter's to remain tied for second with two other clubs.

St. Peter's scored three runs in the second and two in the fourth to give Talignani the cushion he needed. The Petreans unleashed a nine-hit attack while Talignani was holding Our Lady of Lourdes to three safeties.

"Can-Can" Premiere At Bellevue Set For Sept. 20

The exclusive Northern New Jersey engagement of the 20th Century-Fox film production of Cole Porter's "Can-Can" will begin at the Bellevue Theatre in Upper Montclair Tuesday evening, Sept. 20, with a gala premiere that will benefit the children's Christmas train project of the Business Association of Upper Montclair.

Selection of the Bellevue by 20th-Fox as the showcase for "Can-Can" was based upon the theatre's successful engagements of "South Pacific" and its current Cinamiracle attraction, "Windjammer," now in its record - breaking 34th consecutive week.

Reserved seats for the premiere engagement may be obtained at any Upper Montclair business establishment. Reservations may also be made by phone by calling Pilgrim 4-1455 or via mail orders addressed to the Bellevue Theatre.

Following the benefit premiere, "Can-Can" will be shown ten times a week, with nightly performances commencing on weekdays at 8:30 p.m. and at 7 p.m. on Sundays. Wednesday and Saturday matinees will begin at 2 p.m. and the Sunday matinee will start at 2:30 p.m. All seats will be reserved.

The World in a Cinerama Theatre

They turned thumbs down on Cinerama when it was conceived a few years ago. It was too revolutionary. It threatened the conventional sort of motion picture producers and showmen when they first saw Cinerama in an indoor tennis court laboratory at Oyster Bay, L. I. They were right on one count. It did change the face of the movies, forever.

Lowell Thomas, the famous news-commentator and world traveler, just back from Tibet at the time, saw a test of Cinerama and became excited about it as a means of bringing the wonders of the world to a theatre for everyone to experience.

He approached producer Michael Todd and his son, whose first stop was Edinburgh Castle for the Gathering of the Clans. Here the three-eyed camera captured the kilts and tartans in full color. At the same time, the seven-eyed Cinerama - Sound recorded the bagpipes with full fidelity.

Then they went on to Vienna to capture the world famous Boys Choir as their lilting lullaby echoed in the formal gardens of Schonbrunn Palace.

Next stop - Venice, where the camera took a gondola ride through the ancient canals and witnessed the annual regatta. To Spain, with the clicking castanets and bull rings, journeyed Cinerama.

Then, as a tribute to Cinerama, Signor Luigi Oldani of La Scala Opera House in Milan, gave permission for the three-eyed camera to photograph the performance for the very first time. The temple dance and the triumphal March from Verdi's "Aida" were recorded by Cinerama for all the world to see and hear.

Back in the United States, Merian C. Cooper and Robert Bendick took charge of completing "This Is Cinerama". In Florida's Cypress Gardens, one of the nation's great aquatic play-grounds, Cinerama went water-skiing. In a speed boat, it went through flames, the boat flying more than riding the waves.

For a grand finale, the 200-pound camera was strapped into the nose of stunt pilot Paul Mantz plane. Across "America, the Beautiful" it zoomed, from Manhattan Island to the Golden Gate Bridge from the steel mills of Pittsburgh to the glorious natural monuments of the West.

Down into the Grand Canyon it plunged, low over the Grand Tetons it went, to end with an incredible flight through craggy Zion National Park.

So daring was it, Cameraman Harry Squire, the only man aboard aside from the pilot, nearly collapsed the first time he saw the film. He had been too busy with the camera to notice where he had been taken.

At last, when the first Cinerama feature was presented to the public, Lowell Thomas said the fateful words "...and now, ladies and gentlemen, 'This is Cinerama'." The curtain slowly opened to its fullest, six times that of an ordinary picture screen, and the audience was engulfed in the action.

Entertainment Tax Explained

Kenneth O. Hook, Acting District Director of Internal Revenue, today reaffirmed the position of the Service with respect to the imposition of the cabaret tax.

This tax was imposed under certain provisions of the 1939 and 1954 Internal Revenue Codes, Mr. Hook observed. While the rates have varied, both codes imposed a tax on all amounts paid for admission, refreshment, service or merchandise at any roof garden, cabaret or other similar place furnishing a public performance for profit, if any payment or part thereof entitled the patron to be present during any portion of the performance. Prior to May 1, 1960, the rate was 20 per cent. Effective May 1, 1960, the rate has been reduced to ten per cent.

Liability for the tax is imposed upon the person receiving payment of the charges, regardless of whether it is collected from the patron as a separate charge.

Mr. Hook illustrated with the following example:

"Party arrived at 7 P.M. for dinner and refreshments. At 9 P.M., the bill was presented and paid. Floor show and/or dancing commenced at 9:15 P.M., and the party remained for the entertainment."

In the above instance, the proprietor is liable for the tax on the full amount of the check, regardless of whether he collected the tax from the patron.

Charges collected prior to commencement of the entertainment are not taxable only if the patron does not remain for any part of the performance.

Free Demonstration To Be Held In Nutley

A free demonstration session of the world-famous Dale Carnegie Course is scheduled to be held in Nutley, at the Amvet Civic Center, 184 Park Avenue, Monday, Sept. 12, at 8:15 P.M.
